Heavy Wheat Exports Stabilizing Business Throughout Country

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Unprecedented exports of wheat during August showed favorably on agricultural and business conditions throughout the country, Secretary of Commerce Hoover declared yesterday. According to his reports, wheat exports during the past month amounted to 33,595,000 bushels or about four times the volume of any pre-war figures for the month of August.

Heavy Wheat Exports Stabilizing Business Throughout Country

Increase in the movement of wheat, Mr. Hoover said, showed particularly ease through a lessened demand upon the War Finance Corporation for any advances. Present advances in the price of cotton were regarded by Mr. Hoover as promising a betterment of conditions in the South, provided the increased levels are maintained. If the price of cotton stays up, he declared, the South will not need the credit relief which has been sought and which the War Finance Corporation is prepared to give.

CORN CROP WILL BE A LARGE ONE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The corn crop, which suffered a loss of about 81,000,000 bushels in prospective production in July, made a gain off 154,000,000 bushels during August over the forecast last month, the indicated production from the Sept. 1, condition of the crop being 3,189,001,000 bushels.

The 1921 corn crop a forecast is only 48,000,000 bushels less than the crop of last year, which broke all records, and is 388,000 bushels above the five-year average. The improvement made during August was ascribed by the department to favorable temperature and to rains, which had been lacking throughout a good portion of the season.

The spring wheat forecast declined 3,000,000 bushels since the August forecast, due largely to heat and drought. The oats crop on the basis of figures announced today, was a short one, 436,000,000 bushels less than last year and 343,000,000 bushels for the five-year average.

Steamship Crew Battles With Agents of the Government

Liquor and Drugs Were on Board in Quantity.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Seven members of the crew of the Greek steamship, King Alexander were shot and slightly wounded by federal prohibition agents in a pistol battle on the vessel at the Brooklyn dock today. Liquor valued at $50,000 and drugs valued at $75,000 were confiscated. More than a score of shots were exchanged by crew and fifteen agents. None of the latter were hurt. To obtain evidence, the agents said, two of them arranged Wednesday with members of the crew to pay $14,000 on the vessel today for liquor and drugs. These two went on the ship alone. Meanwhile members of the crew noticed a launch with other agents approaching. He warned his comrades and battle began.

Shortly after the raid Frank J. Fitzpatrick, chief narcotic officer here, who had taken part in the raid on the ship, committed suicide at a nearby pier, according to police report. Other federal agents were conversing with Fitzpatrick in a room of the ferry house near King Alexander's dock when he shot himself in the heart, the police said.

Motion Pictures Take the Place of Books in Schools of Chicago

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—History and geography became sources of thrills instead of monotonous grinds when Chicago children returned to school today to find that moving pictures had been substituted for books in these studies.

The visual educational system was instituted in most of the public schools, with Dudley Grant Hays as director of the new department.

In additional films the school will use lantern slides and pictorial charts. "We have prepared material for 65,000 lantern slides and films," said Peter A. Mortensen, superintendent of schools, today. "Our visual education will come under three heads, the use of lantern slides, of stereopticon views and moving pictures."

Mr. Mortensen said a new experiment will be made this year in an effort to instill honesty, courage and trustworthiness in children.

"There is a certain age when the various virtues, such as honesty, courage and trustworthiness appeal particularly to children," he said. "We have worked out an outline so that when these traits are particularly appealing they will be stressed in the literature the child is required to study."

NOW POSSIBLE FOR PEACE DOVE TO FLUTTER

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Premier Lloyd George's letter to Eamonn DeValera, the Irish Republican leader, which was forwarded to Dublin after the meeting of the British cabinet at Inverness, seems at last to insure that Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries will meet a special committee of cabinet ministers at Inverness on Sept. 20 for the purpose of clearing up any ambiguity the Sinn Fein leaders may entertain about the British government's offer of reservations of Ireland's dominion status.

The premier's letter, like all his communications since the Irish negotiations began, is characterized by punctilious consideration for the Sinn Fein. While it suggests a date for the proposed conference, it is in no sense an ultimatum, and sets no time limit to the negotiations. In fact, it tends to prove that what has been maintained throughout by those close to the premier, that he earnestly desires a settlement.

"We have invited you to discuss our proposals on their merits," says the premier, and he adds that it will be open to the Irish leaders to raise the subject of guarantees on any particular point.

The belief is almost universal today that Mr. DeValera will accept—that what the premier offers is what Mr. DeValera desires, namely an untrammelled conference, with the condition that Ireland remain in the British empire. The guarantees which Mr. DeValera is supposed to have in mind are memberships in the league of nations and the dominion conference, and there, it is believed, the government would be willing to grant.

Sanford Shows Total Permits of 28 and $49,817 in Value

OTHER CITIES

SHOW REMARKABLE RECORD IN THE BIG BUILDING CAMPAIGN IN STATE.

The entire State of Florida is booming as never before, and the visitors to the State are struck with the signs of prosperity and progress on every hand.

Sanford's record for August, is not as large as usual, although it seems that more buildings are going up than ever before. However, the actual figures, as given in by the city, are not the real values of the property, and the August building program is a very good one. There were 28 building permits issued for buildings within the city limits for August, totalling $49,817.

The figures for other cities in the State as compiled by the news bureau of the Associated Press, is as follows:

Florida's building boom, which took a sudden spurt the first of the year, continues with no indication of a let-up, now construction authorized in the larger cities alone during the month of August aggregating more than $3,250,000, according to a compilation of the value of building permits issued by municipal building inspectors. It is impossible to estimate the total value of new construction authorized in the State as a whole during the month, only a few of the large cities and towns maintaining departments which keep such records.

Jacksonville again led the State in August with permits totalling $510,558. St. Petersburg took second honors with $401,000, while Miami and Tampa occupied third and fourth places with $396,200 and $364,305, respectively. Other cities reporting, were Orlando, $281,305; Palm Beach, and West Palm Beach, $267,175; Clearwater, $65,000; Pensacola, $52,324; Gainesville, $51,560; and Tallahassee, $20,000.

Jacksonville's permits exceeded those of August, 1920, by more than $170,000, and included fifty-eight dwellings and four apartment houses. The largest item was a restaurant building to cost $100,000.

St. Petersburg's permits for the first eight months of the year exceeded the $3,000,000 mark on August 31, the total up to that time being $3,104,120. During the first eight months (Continued on page four)

FLORIDA FACTORY TO PUT NEWSPRINT ON MARKET IN NOVEMBER, SAYS MANAGER

Paper and Pulp Mill at Leesburg is Parent Plant of Million Dollar Corporation to Make Newsprint from Saw Grass

The first Florida grass fiber pulp and paper mill, now under construction at Leesburg, will be producing news print paper from Florida sawgrass for the market early in November, according to statement made to a representative of the Morning Journal, Tuesday, by E. R. Lacy, vice president and general manager of the Grass Fiber Pulp Paper Corporation of Florida. Mr. Lacy, accompanied by his wife, spent Labor Day in the Tripe Cities and departed Tuesday morning, enroute from Leesburg to New York city where he will oversee the shipping of the last consignment of mill machinery to the Leesburg plant.

The Leesburg pulp and paper mill, Mr. Lacy stated, is the parent plant of a $1,000,000 corporation, of which the capital stock is all paid in. This plant, when finished, will have a daily capacity of 40 tons of pulp, and to assure that the mill will be able to run to capacity throughout the year the Grass Fiber Pulp and Paper Corporation has already secured long time leases on 21,000 acres of sawgrass land around Leesburg, and in addition thousands of acres of sawgrass land in other localities of south Florida.

After costs of plant construction at Leesburg, overhead expenses, advances on lease holdings and all other expenses to date are accounted for the corporation will still have $600,000 in the bank; and it is planned that as soon as the mill at Leesburg is in operation another plant will be put under construction at another city in the sawgrass section of Florida, according to the vice-president of the corporation, who stated that he did not care at present to divulge the location of the second pulp mill.

When asked by the representative of the Morning Journal as to the capacity of Florida sawgrass to produce commercial manufacture, Mr. Lacy stated that sawgrass would produce 25.7 percent of its weight in pulp. On a conservative estimate, he stated, one acre of sawgrass land would produce two crops of grass in a year of from 18 to 22 tons per crop. Sawgrass pulp, in his opinion, produces the finest grade of newsprint paper, being tougher and more pliable than the wood pulp product.

Col. W. F. Stovall, founder and president of the Tampa Tribune, is president of the Grass Fiber Pulp and Paper Corporation; E. R. Lacy is vice president and general manager; O. F. Cook, president of the State Bank of Leesburg, is treasurer; Charles E. Daniels is secretary, and Gilbert D. Loach, general manager of the Leesburg Commercial, is assistant treasurer.

The board of directors of the corporation is composed of W. C. McClellen, president of the First National Bank of Eustis, W. H. Walker, brick manufacturer of Leesburg, Samuel H. Waddell of New York city, and Michael Jones, of Cincinnati.—Daytona Journal.

"I wish to take this opportunity to extend my appreciation of the way everyone put their shoulders to the wheel to make this year a big one in baseball."

GOMPERS AND PERSHING HAVE TILT AT DINNER CLOSING CELEBRATION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—General Pershing and Samuel Gompers had a tilt last night at a dinner given at a conclusion of exercises celebrating Lafayette-Marne day. At least official Washington regards it as a clash over the question whether labor won the war.

Mr. Gompers had spoken on the after-dinner program and while he made no claim that labor won the war, he did tell of the record of the American Federation during the war and declared that previous to the entry of the United States, its sympathy was with the cause of the allies.

There was not any verbatim report of the general's remarks, but he was quoted by some of those present as saying substantially:

"The policies of this country are not outlined by labor unions, or by any other organization; but by the consensus of opinion of its patriotic citizens of whatever affiliations.

"I want to say that every American is a patriot whether he belongs to some labor organization or is just an ordinary citizen and that it is not a question of labor unions, it isn't a question of any organization, it is not a question of whether we belong to some association or not.

"It is a question of whether we are loyal citizens of the United States. I am here to say to you that the members of the labor unions weren't the only ones who won the war. It was the citizens who inherited their patriotism from their forefathers, who came across in the Mayflower, and helped determine and decide the independence of America as well as those who have adopted American institutions as their own. It seems to be about time for us to rise up and say that America shall be ruled and governed by American citizens and not by organizations which have their own selfish purposes to serve."

Radio telegraphy is used by a manufacturing corporation to communicate between plants in Ohio and Pennsylvania and the service is to be extended to other plants in New Jersey and Massachusetts.

Some men are born rich; some sweat for their money; and some get jobs on government boards.

PROUD OF RECORD OF LABOR DURING WAR, SAYS GOMPERS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Samuel Gompers issued the following statement last night in connection with what official Washington regards as a tilt between General Pershing and the President of the American Federation of Labor at the conclusion of the exercises here Tuesday celebrating LaFayette-Marne Day:

"General Pershing is quoted in the newspapers today as having said: 'It wasn't labor that won the war. It seems to me it's time for some one to say that it wasn't this association or that which won the war—it was the loyalty of all the straight-forward American citizens which brought success to the allied cause.'

"It is to be presumed that those who read the extract from General Pershing's speech at the LaFayette-Marne Day banquet concluded that in any address which preceded I had made the claim that labor won the war.

"Of course I made no such statement and much as I regret the necessity for saying so, there was no ground for the rather testy remarks of the leader whom we all admire and to whom we all owe a great debt.

"With everything else contained in General Pershing's speech I found myself in full accord. I regret exceedingly that he should have made it necessary for me to make this statement.

"I have been proud of the record of labor during the war. It was a magnificent record, unsurpassed by labor anywhere, unequalled by labor in any other country. I am proud that this record should have been made by American labor, that I repeat and repeat whenever it seems opportune or necessary.

"I did not say that labor won the war. I offered no reason and no excuse in my remarks for what General Pershing had to say, I regret, as perhaps he himself now does, his lack of tact, his impropriety. General Pershing is a brave and splendid soldier and I pay him the tribute of saying that his generalship on the battlefield is much better than his generalship as an after-dinner speaker."

Not only is Sanford losing one of her best loved families but one of the best types of society women. Mrs. Barnes has been since its organization a member of the "Every Week Bridge Club," the oldest and one of the most exclusive clubs in Sanford. Mrs. Barnes' wit and conversational ability has made her presence of double value to her social circle.

Having a most distinguished Virginia ancestry, Mrs. Barnes is an invaluable member of the Sallie Harrison Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution but not only in these circles will she be missed but in all philanthropic work as well. She has been for years a member of the Woman's Guild of the Holy Cross Episcopal church and in all Parish work she has taken an active part and it is possibly in church work that Mrs. Barnes will be missed the most.

There is not a business woman in Sanford that has made the outstanding success that Mrs. Barnes has. She owned and operated a successful dairy and selling that she turned her attention to realty and put through one of the biggest real estate deals in Sanford when she sold her entire farm to the Rose Court Realty Company for a new sub-division. Sanford's Business and Professional Women's Club is glad to claim her as a charter member.

"If one is to judge Mrs. Barnes' charming personality by the expression of her friends, her business ability by the expressions of her competitors; her kindness by the many she has aided; of her gift of true, strong friendship by her life-long friends, it would indeed be a puzzle which of these many qualifications is dominant. In getting Mrs. Barnes, Orlando, you are lucky."

EVERY WEEK BRIDGE CLUB IN HONOR OF MRS. BARNES.

Mrs. A. Vaughn entertained in her usual charming and gracious manner yesterday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. Margaret Barnes, who leaves for Orlando, September 15th, to make her home. Mrs. Vaughn's guests included the members of the Every Week Bridge Club, and a number of the honoree's intimate friends were invited in for refreshments.

The pretty color motif of yellow and green, was artistically carried out with golden rod and alumnanders. On the porch quantities of vari-colored zinnias were effectively used.

The game of bridge played during the afternoon proved most interesting. Mrs. A. P. Connolly made high score

SOFT AND ELABORATE

If the fashion reporter were compelled to point out the outstanding style features in new fall hats she would be apt to say "soft" and "elaborate." Three representative models in the picture include a wide-brimmed hat, with soft crown, of panne velvet, a small hat of duvetyne adorned with hat rosettes of narrow ribbon, and an off-the-face model of duvetyne embroidered with white beads.

C. E. ENTERTAINS BRIDES-ELECT

The Presbyterian C. E. entertained on Thursday evening in honor of four of their members whose marriages are soon to be celebrated, Miss Izetta Stone and Robert Cobb and Miss Helen Peck and Donald Whitcomb.

The church parlors were beautifully decorated in pink vines and bamboo. Punch was served throughout the evening by Misses Mae Holly and Anna DuBose.

Mrs. Brownlee was in charge of the entertainment and carried out in a most delightful manner a series of contests and games most appropriate to the occasion were participated in. After the games were concluded, Miss Hermina Lehman sang two beautiful selections and was most heartily applauded.

The two brides-elect were then each presented with a silver tomato server with "C. E." engraved on the handle.

Refreshments of cherry sherbet and cakes were served by Misses Sara Warren Easterby and Hermina Lehman assisted by Paul Dooley and Herbert Russell.

The party closed with songs and the C. E. benediction.

DOINGS OF CO. D

Are they busy? Yes, I'll say so. They are as busy as a one-eyed dog in a sausage factory.

One of the entertainment committee wrote some mighty cute letters to the winsome creatures as he calls them notifying them that the first rehearsal will be called Thursday night, September 15th, at 7:30. There was quite an argument as to who would be the brute to write these cute little lines and as the chairman seemed to have the best line it was left to him. That old boy sho' do strut his stuff.

There was a young Canadian blew in town this morning. He says this town is right there with this minstrel stuff. He was sent off with a big fuss by one minstrel bunch and now he comes back and is greeted with still a better and larger one.

Mr. Rudisell, one of the directors, writes Mr. Allison that he is bringing some new songs that they will leave to such song birds as Clause, Reve and Helston to garble. Mr. Rudisell is expected to arrive about the 13th or 14th in order to give these winsome creatures the double O.

It might be interesting to know that the theatre will have about a dozen big electric fans for the ladies and whatever comes with them.

COMPETITION is eliminated—for SANFORD has no real competition. We have no Celery or Vegetable Fields that are real competition. There is no natural waterway that is competitive, and for the number of refrigerator cars leaving a certain point there is no competition.

BUT DON'T FORGET that clean competition is the "life of trade." Welcome your competitor whether it be competition in business, or building. He may go you one better for a time but you must build or paint or improve then if you would be competitive. It stimulates.

It was with genuine regret that the many friends of Mrs. Margaret Barnes learned that she had accepted the management of the Jefferson

There were about fifty guests who enjoyed Mrs. Barnes' charming hospitality.

I happened to think of my little bottle of Torment, which I immediately got and began to spray about in the room. Could not hear them any more, so supposed they were gone. ROD AND GUN CLUB HOLD FINE MEET

The Sanford Rod and Gun Club held their second trap shoot yesterday at their field on Union avenue. Thirty-nine men participated in the shooting and for over four hours kept the trap running full speed. L. G. Gibbs and J. H. Cowan tied for high score yesterday, making twenty-one out of a possible twenty-five. G. W. Knight came next with forty-six out of a possible sixty. The weather was more favorable yesterday for this sport than it was on Labor Day, as the wind did not effect the shooting but a short time. Much interest is being manifested in the trap shooting, and a contest will be held each Thursday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock. Below will be found the score for yesterday with their percentage, for yesterday's score only. In the future it is proposed to report the season's percentage for each marksman after each shoot.

HUNTERS MUST REMEMBER THESE SALIENT POINTS

Under the law the open season for all game commences on November 20 and extends to February 15, of the following year, making a period of 88 days. Residents of Florida may procure a hunter's license, good only for the county in which they live, for $1.25, but the fee for each additional county will be $1.50. For all non-residents the cost of the license for each county in which they desire to hunt will be $25.00. The maximum amount of game allowed each gun per day is one deer, two turkeys, twenty quail, and twenty-five birds of other varieties. If there is a party of three or more the limit of game such party may take during the entire trip, aside from quail and other birds, is two deer and five turkeys; and no individual hunter shall kill during any one season more than two deer, five turkeys, and five hundred of any and all sorts of birds.

No individual hunter or party of hunters shall have any game in his or their possession longer than five days after the close of the hunting season. Regarding securing of fur-bearing animals, the law stipulates that no trap shall be set on any land other than the hunter's without first obtaining written permission of each such owner of land; and for this privilege the hunter or trapper shall pay into the office of the county judge where all licenses are payable, the sum of one dollar, if a resident of the state; if a non-resident, then the sum to be paid for such license shall be $25.00. It will be well to file this copy of the Herald for future reference. CLEAN-UP SQUAD IS COMING TO THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

The Clean-Up Campaign is for this purpose: The purpose of the campaign is to fully advise all ex-service persons of their rights under the War Risk Insurance Act and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act; to assist disabled ex-service persons in securing compensation, medical treatment, and hospital care; to inform and assist all claimants regarding procedure necessary in filing a claim for compensation and insurance; to assist those whose claims are pending in securing final action, where additional evidence is necessary to connect disability with service or other data required by the Bureau of War Risk and the Federal Board; and to provide for immediate physical examination where necessary and furnish hospitalization for urgent cases. The Clean-up Squad will make several days stops in various parts of the state. This squad will be in your section at Orlando, Florida, September 15, 16, 17 and 19.

After the ex-service man reaches Squad Headquarters if he is a disabled man, transportation will be furnished him back to his home and meals and lodging while at Squad headquarters. If you think you have a claim against the government, this office would be glad for you to see us personally and talk it over as soon as possible. Bring your discharge papers and any other government papers. This will make it certain that your claim receives due consideration at the time you visit Squad Headquarters.

RESOLUTIONS OF SORROW.

At the monthly conference of the teachers of the Baptist Sunday School, held Friday, September 2nd, 1921, the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty Father, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from this earthly life, Mrs. H. Selleck, a beloved member and teacher in the Sunday School of the First Baptist church, and Whereas, The members of the Sunday School of the First Baptist church are desirous of expressing their sincere sympathy as well as testifying to the high respect in which she was held; therefore, be it Resolved, That while we bow submissively to the will of our Heavenly Father, we deplore the departure and loss of one who was faithful and loyal to the Sunday School and a fine Christian character; be it further Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the bereaved husband and daughter in their hour of trial and affliction, and devoutly commit them to the care of Him who doth not willingly afflict; be it further Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be published in the Sanford Herald and sent to members of the family.

OUR OWN HAY

Florida farmers ought to hang their heads in shame when they read, as is stated in a recent report by the U. S. bureau of markets and crop estimates, that "a considerable part of the hay marketed in Mississippi and Alabama is usually shipped into Georgia and Florida."

Not in this part of Florida. The growers have a fine crop of hay or two of them that come up voluntarily after the celery crop is off and all they need to do is to cut it and they have all the hay they need.

CITIES ARE JUDGED BY THEIR ORGANIZATIONS.

"Introduce me to your Chamber of Commerce and I'll tell you what kind of a city you have, and what its future is."

The above was the rather startling statement made recently by a prominent authority on community life.

In reality it was only a striking way of saying what has come to be recognized by men whose lives are devoted to contrasting community conditions in various towns and cities throughout the United States.

It is recognition of the vital truth contained in that statement, conscious or unconscious, that has led to such marked advance along commercial organization lines throughout the country.

The Chamber of Commerce tells the story of the community spirit in proportion to the interest and support it is receiving from the citizens of the community.

No organization is of value to a community when the organization exists in name only.

Community organization work is business. It is not only his duty but it pays any man to get interested in it.

It is, indeed, pleasing to see the enthusiasm being displayed on every hand in the business methods that are being applied in the reorganization of the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce.

TOURISTS AND AUTO CAMPS

Thus far, in the discussion of auto camps for the winter tourists, we have had it all our own way. The tourists are beginning to talk, and it will be well to give some attention to what they say.

A. M. Willets, of Huntington, N. Y., writes a long and very interesting letter to the Melbourne Times on the subject, from which we make the following extracts:

"Let us give here a little history of the result of one part of four tin can tourists in 1917. I prevailed on two friends and my brother to drop business for a time and make a camping trip through Florida.

"Now, not as a booster of my friends, but to show what the great percentage of tourists are like; one of our party of four was our leading dry goods merchant, owner of a large department store; one was the owner of a chain of grocery stores, another was an electrical contractor of no mean ability.

"The only thing we expected free was water and a piece of un-used land to camp on. We not only received the water and camp ground free, but when leaving we carried away with us some mighty good sincere friendships, and I hope we were able to repay in various way far more than we would have paid in a Paid Auto Camp, and in addition,"

"Of these four tin can tourists, three of them have bought improved and unimproved real estate in Florida, Melbourne, Stuart, Port Sewell, Miami, Tampa, St. Petersburg, and will buy more. These four tin can tourists, due to the treatment they received, came again, and when they came again, they bought; they have been the means of at least forty parties visiting Florida, and have been the means of several families locating there for good, and more to come. It is an endless chain.

"The writer expects to leave this part of the country for good this fall, and Florida will be his future home, and the end is not yet. There are others to follow. All due to the treatment four tin can tourists received on their first trip and the boasting they have done. You do not have to hunt for a few nice things to boost Florida. If you could tell only half the truth, it would be boasting enough—and it looks to me as if the tourists have the best chance to become the best boosters, as they usually have time to stop, look and listen, and as they motor through the country, they not only see the towns, but what is between them, thereby becoming acquainted with desirable locations everywhere.

"I believe one of the best ways of boosting Florida, is to give a good, frank wide open welcome to tourists. "Don't think he is broke if he does not buy. When he gets ready he will take your bait, and don't expect him to bite on a bare hook. Remember they are mostly all successful men and women, and successful men and women from the West and North means they have put up a certain stiff fight to become successful or partly so; then after one or two tin can touring trips, your tin can tourist has bought property.

"Now the hotel man gets his share of the tin can tourists' change; also the several other sources where change usually goes. But if the treatment of the tin can tourist grows cold and caustic, you are going to cut down a tree that has a very good prospect of bearing a good crop of fruit. There is without a doubt some careless tourist who is careless with tin cans, fire and a few other things, but in all my travels, I have found them careful and considerate, and have no use for the few who break the laws of decency."

KEEP IT OUT OF THE PAPER.

The first thing that a fellow thinks of when a newspaper prints something that don't suit him or tells the truth about certain news that happened in the community and when the same newspaper refuses to keep a "shut mouth" attitude, is to stop the paper or quit advertising or refuse giving the paper any job work. A newspaper never existed in any community that told the truth and printed court events that did not sooner or later come face to face with such "short horses" in the game. The Star don't intend to be a party to the covering up of anything in that community that is illegal, regardless of the character or influence of the fellows implicated and a newspaper that is printed for the protection of the public; that exists for the purpose of giving them the news of the community and to keep them posted on events, will laugh at the fellow who thinks that his little old ad, or two bits worth of business is going to break us up. Nine times out of ten, business institutions or individuals who break the law and get into trouble and who order that newspaper to play the shut mouth game for them, usually don't have half the stuff printed on them that really happened, and in the light of the law and of this paper, they are no better than the poorest, down-trodden vagabond who also gets into trouble. The only difference is that one may have money and perhaps some influence in spots, while the other is thrown on the mercy of the court, and we don't intend to make any distinction between them. No newspaper that exists for the benefits of its community and for their protection, will approve of such tactics. The Star met up with that sort of a proposition a long time ago.—Lakeland Star.

WHY CALIFORNIA WILL SHIP BY WATER.

At this moment, when Florida is concerned about its fruit and vegetable crops and the increase in freight rates the railroads have prepared for them, it is interesting to read that California has found a way out of the same dilemma and at the same time freight alone for the shippers and growers which the railroads proposed to take from them.

Capper's Weekly gives the story, showing that shipments are being made satisfactorily to shipper and receiver at just half the cost of shipments via all rail to the eastern market. It says, in part:

"Two thousand boxes of oranges and lemons were recently shipped from Los Angeles by way of the Panama canal to Philadelphia. Some of the fruit was kept under refrigeration. Other boxes were stored under air ventilation without refrigeration. Temperatures of the different boxes were taken once an hour to discover how the oranges and lemons would stand the hot weather of the isthmus regions.

"The test proved that citrus fruit can be shipped by boat through the Panama canal without refrigeration and delivered in excellent merchantable condition in eastern ports. At the end of the eighteen days' cruise most of the lemons and all the oranges in the Los Angeles shipment were found in good condition and were sold immediately after arrival at Philadelphia.

"But here is the big fact: The total transportation charges by water were just 50 per cent less than the average by rail. This ought to make California fruit cheap in Atlantic seaboard cities and increases its market there.

"During 1920, California fruit raisers paid out $25,000,000 in freight and refrigeration charges for moving 49,756 carloads of oranges, lemons and grapefruit to eastern markets.

"The experimental shipment has proved the same fruit can now be shipped by water at a saving of nearly thirteen million dollars in freight charges alone.

"If the railroads are going to handle any more California fruit for eastern consumption they will have to cut their present rates in two to compete with the Panama canal, something a few long-headed railway managers foresaw years ago when they attempted to prevent the construction of the canal."

If California citrus men can ship their fruit six thousand miles by water and land them in good shape and save thirteen million dollars a year in freight charges alone, there is no reason why Florida growers should not ship their fruit a thousand miles or less and put them on the market in prime condition, while saving enough in transportation charges to more than make up for any financial losses forced on them in the past year or two by these robber roads.

The business men of this part of the state, and of all Florida, are prudent men, they are sensible, they know a good proposition when they see it. The yearly will not let the citrus season catch them having to pay the price demanded by the railroads and later on come across with that increase which is slated for this state.

Complete the plans at once, finance the concern that will operate them, and get the necessary ships ready for work by Thanksgiving.—Tampa Tribune.

Practical experiments to ascertain the possibility of harnessing ocean tides for the production of electric power will be conducted by the French government.

FLORIDA'S SUMMER SCHEDULE SHOWS MANY BUILDINGS FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST

Miami, during the first eight months of this year, did more construction than for the first ten months of last year and more than all of 1919. The record for the first eight months during the current year shows that permits issued totalled $3,507,000.

Permits for fifty-one new homes were issued in Tampa during August and the value of new construction authorized exceeded that of any month this year except April, when a permit for the new $300,000 First Baptist church was issued, and June, when the Presbyterian church was issued a permit to erect a $100,000 building.

Construction authorized in Orlando the first eight months of this year totalled $1,304,323 as against $1,244,735 for the same period in 1920 and $633,367 for the entire year of 1919.

Permits issued at Palm Beach and West Palm Beach during the last sixty days aggregated more than $500,000, of which Palm Beach furnished $348,800. The largest item on the list of either city this year was a permit for a $150,000 residence for Charles E. Harding, of Boston, on the ocean front.

Permits in Clearwater in August included seven one story and two two story dwellings and one business structure. Building has been active in the Pinellas county seat all of the year with prospects that the fall and winter will see more construction than any similar periods in the history of the city.

The seventy-nine permits issued at Pensacola provided for eighteen new buildings at a total cost of $38,000 while the others were for private garages, repairs and construction of a minor character.

Gainesville is another Florida city which apparently is devoting its energies to the building of homes with business structures occupying a minor part.

Construction authorized in Tallahassee included a planing mill, dry kiln, and office building, six new residences and minor structures.

The triple cities, Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze, have issued permits for nearly $1,250,000 worth of new construction since the first of the year. Daytona contributing $538,850;

Did You Ever Know A Successful Man Who did not regularly maintain a bank account FIRST NATIONAL BANK F. P. FORSTER, PRES. B. F. WHITNER, CASHIER

Seabreeze, $410,800, and Daytona Beach, $290,900. A feature of the construction program is the Helsen project at Seabreeze, which at present includes plans for seventeen residences, five to cost $6,500 each, five of $7,500, four of $8,200 and three of $10,000 each. Before these seventeen homes are completed work will begin on eleven more, the entire project to involve approximately $200,000. Buildings completed or nearly completed in Ocala during August were valued at approximately $225,000, but this was in excess of the amount of new construction authorized during the month. Ocala does not maintain a building record department and it is impossible to compile an accurate list of new work proposed. The largest of the new projects completed was the new dormitory at the State Industrial Schools for Girls, which cost $25,000. Leesburg reported more than $300,000 worth of new construction in Leesburg and Lake county during the last few months and from all sections come reports of unprecedented activity in building. From Miami to Jacksonville, on the east coast, contractors are lending every effort to finish work now under way in order that they might begin construction of other buildings. Central Florida is a veritable bee hive industry in building and south Florida and the peninsula gulf coast have not to work every man who can wield a hammer and saw. Small towns which for years have been only occasionally the building of a residence, or business structure, an event that was heralded in the week newspaper as a bit of "big" news, are now spreading out over the surrounding territory and forcing the municipal authorities to open new streets in order that access to new homes might be obtained. Bankers and others throughout the State who recognize the effect upon the community of citizens owning their own home are laying great stress upon the fact that the greater part of construction in Florida this year has been devoted to dwelling houses, and regard it as an indication of the population of the State growing by leaps and bounds, literally forcing the building of homes.

Mr. George, E. Hunter, of Lebanon, Ohio, has purchased a lot on the corner of Third and Elm streets from E. F. Lane, "The Real Estate Man," and will start at once to build houses for sale and for rent. Mr. Hunter has spent four years in Florida, and on his way north last winter, in passing through Sanford, became interested, and upon receiving one of Sanford's booklets, decided to come to Sanford and build houses for sale and rent.

B. G. Smith, of Oviedo, and J. T. Clark, of Clark's Lake, are in the city today calling on their many friends and transacting business generally. Mr. Clark says the editor of the Herald is a prevaricator, and that we told him a thousand times we were coming out there to eat chicken and to fish. We are going to make good on that promise as soon as the weather gets cooler. We never could enjoy fishing in the hot weather. As to chicken—well, that's different.

SUMMON JURY FOR RAWLINGS TRIAL AT JAX

HANDLING OF CASE MAKES RECORD FOR DUVAL AND THE STATE

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 9.—Talesmen from whom to pick the jury to try Rawlings for the killing of Hickman Sunday night were being summoned today to appear in criminal court Monday morning. Handling of the case established a record for Duval county if not for the entire state. Hickman was shot and killed at 10 o'clock Sunday night. Five minutes later Rawlings was in jail. The grand jury was called in special session to meet Wednesday morning but the absence of one of the jurors caused the postponement until Thursday. Rawlings indicted for murder in the first degree by the grand jury Thursday morning after eight minutes deliberation. He was taken secretly to court late yesterday, arraigned, pleaded not guilty. Authorities determined a speedy trial as a warning to criminals who come to Florida each winter.

$5,500 Reward Offered for Arrest of Train Wreckers

Strike Leaders Vigorously Disclaim any Knowledge of A. B. Blowup

ATLANTA, Sept. 9.—Rewards totalling $5,500 were offered yesterday for apprehension with proof to convict the persons responsible for dynamiting an Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad freight train near here Wednesday night in which John Morris of Fitzgerald, engineer, lost his life and three other trainmen were injured.

Colonel B. L. Buggs, receiver for the road, in offering $5,000 reward, said several clues were being followed and predicted early arrests. Gov. Hardwick in announcing a $500 reward declared he was "prepared to use the power and authority of the state to its last ounce to prevent outrages of this kind and to punish to the limit of the law the perpetrators of such outrages when apprehended." Colonel Buggs in a conference with the governor presented him with a list of thirty-three such wrecks or attempted wrecks since the beginning of the strike of the A. B. and A last March. Strike leaders were vigorously disclaimed any knowledge of the outrages.

WARRANTS NOT ISSUED FOR LEADERS IN THE WEST VIRGINIA STRIKE

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 9.—Prosecuting Attorney John Chaffin of Logan county, today made the following statement over the long distance telephone when asked concerning reported issuance of a number of warrants in connection with last week's disturbance on the Logan-Boone border:

"It is not true that I have caused any warrants to be issued. If we issued warrants now we would have to hold preliminary hearings and this would merely double our work. We will only hold preliminary hearing in case they are insisted on by people we are now holding."

Mr. Chaffin added that on his recommendation Judge Robert Bland had called a special grand jury for next Wednesday to investigate the disturbances and attempt to fix responsibility.

SHERIFF HAND CAPTURES THE DIAMOND THIEF

Sheriff Hand returned yesterday from Jacksonville, where he went to deliver the negro, Will Foster, wanted by Duval county authorities, on a serious charge. They captured both the ring and the negro, and Mrs. Drummond is being congratulated upon the recovery of the ring as it was her engagement ring and highly prized aside from the fact that it was a valuable stone.
