State's Members Of Congress Clash Over Proposed Ship Canal

Peterson, Cannon Oppose $200,000 Project Against Hendrick's Approval

Senators Begin Tour Of Route

Fenner Accompanies 14 Senators On Inspection Trip

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10. (AP) — The Administration's effort to revive the $200,000,000 Florida ship canal provoked a new clash among the state's members of Congress today.

Rep. Peterson (D-Ia.) led the opposition move in the House Rivers and Harbors Committee, which deferred conclusion of the canal hearing until next week.

Peterson notified the committee again that he opposed the canal, but postponed his own statement. Rep. Cannon (D-Fla.) also declared his opposition.

Rep. Hendricks (D-Fla.) told the committee his district would be the first to suffer if there were any ecological danger in the proposed waterway.

"I am leaving my political future on this canal," said the youthful congressman. "But I want the committee to understand that I'm for it."

Hendricks said the War Department and geologists employed by it made the only complete study of the effects the canal would have on the peninsula's underground streams. These geologists reported there would be no appreciable damage.

Hendricks charged the water question first arose in a meeting which railroads called to develop options on the canal.

A heated exchange developed with John T. Corbett, representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, protest against the subdivision of what he termed competitive transportation.

It was the construction of the canal would be unfair to railroads and their employees.

Questioned closely by Chairman Mansfield (D-Calif.), the visitors saw any traffic the canal got from inland points would be taken away from railroads.

The Texas said that cotton could be moved from Texas by steamship under existing conditions for about one-fourth of the rate charged by railroads. Corbett declared this condition was due partly to the government's subdivision of other

Report Requested On Gambling In Broward County

State Attorney Asked Whether He Intends To Follow Orders

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 10. (AP) — Attorney General George Couper Gibbs asked for a telegraphed report today on whether gambling operations are being carried on in Broward county despite the orders from Governor Cone "to close up and keep closed" such places.

The Attorney General's office sent the telegram to State Attorney Louis F. Malve at Fort Lauderdale saying that press reports told of a "gambling establishment in Broward county known as the Plantation" operating as usual and asked if he intended to close the place.

Gibbs is in Ocala but his assistants talked with him by telephone and he gave them instructions to send the telegram.

Meanwhile other state attorneys, sheriffs and county solicitors began making reports to the Governor and attorney general.

Indemnity hung over Miami's gambling front for a time last night but at the hour when early players began trooping into halls of chance word was passed that "bars won't be any play tonight."

The few persons who had gathered at one spot departed. Another large casino was dark, and the wing of a night club where lady luck is given play remained closed.

Greedy shooters traced the "holes" in the Police radio in the drivers to a loose connection "somewhere in the antenna" and the only way to fix this loose connection was for someone to climb up and find out about it. Climbing the climber was the problem. The Chief of Police Ray G. Williams and Peter getting many volunteers. Mr. Hardy agreed to do the job.

Although installing water meters for the City Water Department is more in his line than climbing, James Hardy proved his ability in the latter, reluctantly agreeing when he went to the top of the 120 feet mast on which stands the antenna for the Police radio transmitter.

Silver Tea Is Held For Girl Scouts

One of the most attractive and successful events of the winter season in Lake Mary was the Sixth Annual Silver Tea given for the benefit of the Lake Mary Girl Scout Troop held at the Chamber of Commerce Building Tuesday afternoon. About 75 guests enjoyed the program and tea which followed.

Upon arriving the guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Matthee H. Cole and Mrs. Frank Evans, members of the troop committee; Mrs. H. M. Cochrane, Mrs. R. M. Ball and Mrs. H. E. True, leaders of the Scout Troop; and Brownie Pack.

The program included violin selections by Doris Jackson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. T. Jackson; a reading, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine" by Mrs. George A. Mallett; and a story from "Ezekiel Travels" by Mrs. Elvira Garner.

Mrs. G. D. Christ of Orlando, member of the National Board of Girl Scouts, was present and extended an invitation to the leaders to attend training classes at Southern College in June.

Mrs. J. M. Thompson of St. Cloud, formerly chairman of the local troop committee, spoke informally on the value of a scout troop in a community.

Refreshments were served from the tea table with Mrs. J. M. Thompson and Mrs. Frank Evans presiding. The tea table was overlaid with a lace cloth and had as a centerpiece a large silver vase of pink roses. The hall was attractively decorated with quantities of star jessamine with vases of pink snapdragons and carnations.

Out of town guests included

Mrs. C. D. Christ, Mrs. F. Englehardt, Mrs. R. J. Spencer and Miss Opal Thomas from Orlando, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Miss Mildred Banks, Mrs. M. W. Roberts, Mrs. B. V. Carver, Mrs. E. E. Loyd, Mrs. W. L. Stoumenire, Mrs. W. I. Hughes, Mrs. Heyward Walker, Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Doris Jackson, Mrs. H. E. Morris, Mrs. S. F. Doudney and Mrs. Elvira Garner of Sanford, who mysteriously disappeared.

Plenty Of Eggs

Eggs are richer than most foods in some of the minerals and vitamins the body needs. Since much of the mineral and vitamin content is concentrated in the yolk, this part is especially valuable. That is why it is one of the first foods added to the baby's milk diet.

Eggs are particularly needed for their iron, vitamins A and D, and their "efficiency" protein. They are also rich in phosphorus and are a good source of calcium.

Besides vitamin A, eggs are an excellent source of vitamins D and E, and the yolks are good sources of vitamin D.

Nutrition workers consider eggs one of the best foods to promote growth in children. They recommend that every child have 1 or 2 eggs every week, or better still, one every day. Adults also need to eat at least one egg every week.

Slow cooking at a low even heat is the secret of most egg dishes. When you cook an omelet, use a thick pan over a low flame. If the dish is to be a soft custard, use simmering rather than boiling water in the lower part of the double boiler. Soft custards for baking in a pan of hot water and do not allow the oven temperature to go above moderate (350 degrees F.).

Fruit whips and meringues made with egg whites only are quite an even lower, more steady heat than the whole-egg mixture. Poach eggs in plenty of water below the boiling point; fry them in fat that is not too hot. When you cook eggs in the shell, start the cooking in cold water and then bring it to a simmering temperature (185 degrees F.).

The resignations of Miss Edna Chittenden and Miss Catherine Takahashi, as active sponsors, were accepted.

Bottlers Nose Out Eckerson Ten By Narrow 8-7 Score

Coca Cola's Sixth Inning Scoring Spree Gives Them Slight Advantage In Tilt

The Coca-Cola Bottlers last night put on a sixth inning scoring spree to shave five runs across the plate giving them an 8-7 win over their canning plant rivals, Eckersons at the Diamond Park here.

Things got under way in the first of the third when Swafford, Canner hurler, dishes out passes to Evans, speedy little third sacker. Three consecutive singles banded out by Stempel, Tillis and Lake, scoring Evans, Stempel and Tillis to put the Bottlers out in front 3-0.

The Canners hopped back into the fray when Kinlaw issued two passes to Knight and Swafford, and then Mansfield, next man up, singed scoring both men.

Canners again went into action in the last of the fifth when Swafford was safe on an error, advanced to second on a wild pitch, and then scored on another single contributed by other single. Whiddon was safe on an error before Skewes doubled. Whiddon scored on a wild pitch. Kinlaw gave two bases on balls to Williams and Touchton, they advanced when Eckerson had down a dribbler and beating out the throw to Bill the bases. Harder drove out a long single scoring Williams and Touchton before the Bottlers could again take control and retire the side.

The Bottlers came back in the first of the sixth when Stempel singled, Tillis was safe on a fielder's choice and Lake banded out another single, loading the bags. Tilles hit a long high triple scoring three runs to put the retirement vendors back at seven runs apiece. Williams was safe on a fielder's choice, advancing to second on a wild pitch and oh down to third when Whiddon made a play for Oduham at first, moving him to the base. Williams was safe on second.

In the first of the seventh Skewes, first canner up, lured a long fly to Wilkins in centerfield. Williams popped up to short. Kinlaw gave Touchton a pass and then Eckerson parked one over second but into Smith's hands for the final out on the game.

Individual performance rating would have to include Porter, Canner left gardener, with a fine alert job of patrolling his sandy heat although he struck out on his three trips to the plate. Also noted would have to be Skewes meat-hook, circus catch of Evans fly to center in the first of the fifth.

Both pitchers stayed the full route. Kinlaw on the mound for the winners, while Swafford went into the book as the loser.

In the first game of the evening the N.Y.A. squaws unnumbered their war clubs to belabor the aggression from the McMurtry tees 6-2 in five innings.

Big Ick Equals Track Mark In Longwood Feature Race

Big Ick, Dr. C. M. Dunn's star pitcher, equaled the track record in the featured feature event at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club last night when he beat the Valentine's Heart and Donny 3-1 combine. The greyhounds were Billy Bob and Bod Venflat. They paid $137.20.

The track was lightning fast and Silver Hero won the sixth race in 29.4 terrific time for a sixth race greyhound.

The heavy rain of the afternoon had hardened the surface, particularly in the middle and on the outside of the track so that wide runners had the advantage. It was the first time in War Leader's record had been equalled this season. The famous Mason star set it the second year. English was open under the present management. In much his time on a dry track while Ick had been the adventurist of a fast surface.

In the final race Billie Bob and Bod Venflat were the best when Ick went around the bottom half of the course in 32.26 seconds. The record is held by Fawn Ick, another brush speedster, registered at the track this year.

The 144 combine—Tom Caen and Tap Boots, took the daily double and paid $88.80.

Chase Says Attempts

Dandridge Insists On Extending Hearing
Mansfield Refuses

The House Rivers and Harbors Committee is determined to adjourn its hearing on the controversial cross-state canal thereby excluding the testimony of the opposition. Randall Chase, delegate to the hearing of the Seminole County Agricultural Association, charged in a telegram last night to Tim Schmid, president of the growers' organization.

"The house Committee again failed to hear opponents from Florida on the snap canal," Mr. Chase said in the telegram from Washington. A determined effort was made to adjourn the hearing thereby excluding Florida opposition. Some committee members insisted that we go ahead but we have no assurance that proponents will not again try to force a complete shutdown," the telegram said.

Chase was delegated by the growers' organization to present the findings of a geological survey by them to make a study of the underground water supply. They feeds more than 2,000 artesian wells in this county and to report on the possible effects on the irrigation system. The findings of the geologists will be more than a year of study, opposite to those of Major Paige sent to Florida by the War Department. A report to the farmers said that there is already a shortage of water in the underground strata and that the canal would have disastrous effects on the existing supply.

"It is apparent, sir," Schmid said, "that canal proponents intend to override any objections we might make for the protection of our interest."

"It has not been definitely established that the water supply would not be affected by the canal and all we are asking is that an unbiased survey be made by the Geological Survey to determine the extent the canal would affect the supply on which we depend solely for the production of our vegetable crops during the dry winter season," Mr. Schmid said.

From Washington also came the announcement today that Mr. Chase might not be able to stay over until the continuation of group on Monday. He said the hearing before the house, however, that he would return to the capital to testify at the hearing before the Senate Commerce when it begins its study of the project next Wednesday.

Other Florida opponents also charged that their appearance before the House Rivers and Harbors Committee has been purposefully delayed to handicap them. The committee's procedure will make it impossible for some Florida people to testify against the canal. E. R. McDonald, of Henderson told the committee yesterday it again postponed opening testimony until Monday, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

Some of these people have been here two weeks and they are remain away from their homes any longer, he said.

Marvin H. Walker of Lake Wales, manager of the Florida Producers Trade Association, said that after having seven days for preparation, the committee yesterday gives all of us testimony hour or two and therefore being a great deal shorter than a day, he said.

Order To Prevent Use Of Disputed Contract Is Declined

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Mar. 11.—(AP)—

A belated cold wave enveloped New York State and New England, and sent the mercury tumbling to 21

and to 10 below at Albany, N. Y., the coldest ever recorded this late in the season, at Albany.

Northfield, Vt., had a low of

New York City's minimum was 15 above.

Heavy rains doused much of the Middle West, the Ohio, lower Missouri and middle Mississippi valleys, the southern Appalachian mountains, Carolina and Virginia.

There was moderate rain in the north Pacific states and some snow in Colorado and Southern Wyoming.

It was dry and moderately warm in California, Texas, Florida and the Gulf states.

Springfield, Ill., reported rainfall totaling 1.84 inches.

Terre Haute, Ind., had 1.02 inches; St. Louis, 1.30; and St. Joseph, Mo., 1.63 inches. Forecaster J. H. Lloyd predicted rain, some snow and not much change in temperature tonight and tomorrow in the north central states.

"A certain well-known newspaper recently carried the following statement," Capt. Rose said.

"Statisticians will try to compute almost anything once, but we never heard of one who tried to total up what the Salvation Army has been worth even in dollars and cents, let alone what it has been worth to mankind physically and spiritually. You can't reckon such sums, for half the figures are intangibles."

"The Salvation Army members

County Reaches 100 Percent In Refund Program

16 Old Bonds Canceled By Board To Complete Exchange
Of $2,238,000 Debt

Housholder Cites
Features Of Plan

Lower Debt Service
Levies Results From Exchange Of Bonds

By Associated Press

The refunding of Seminole County's $2,238,000 outstanding road and bridge bonds was completed to the last bond with the location and exchange this week of the $16,000 worth of bonds which for several months prevented the refunding program from reaching 100 percent approval of the bond holders.

COUNTY ATTORNEY E. F. Housholder, who directed the legal end of the program, declared today that the 100 percent approval by the bondholders exceeded the fondest hopes of the County Commissioners who instituted the program back in 1936.

One of the principal features of the plan, as outlined by the county attorney is that the maturity date of the bonds have been advanced by 20 years. The old issues reached maturity in such great amounts that the County would have been forced to default, which has affected adversely its present credit rating, but through the rearrangement, management of the County is preserved.

The second feature of the refunding plan according to Mr. Housholder, is the "callable" clause which makes it possible for the County Commissioners to call in their bonds at any time after July 1, 1940. This feature also tends to stabilize the bond values since the County can require the bonds for more than Pointing out that the interest rate on the refunding bonds is the same as for the old issues, 5 1/2 to 6 percent per annum, Mr. Housholder also further stated that the "callable" clause made it possible to recall all of the refunding series at some future date and issue a new series with a definite maturity date at a lower interest rate if such a program is acceptable to the bondholders.

Since the refunding program was inaugurated, Mr. Housholder reported that the financial situation of the County has been ex-ecuted with good quotations in money markets above par.

According to reports in the office of County Clerk O. P. Herndon, the refunding has also re-duced the cost of new issues.

PWA Hospital Project May Be Approved

Letter From Regional Director Indicates
Project Is Again
Being Considered

The possible approval of the $127,000 Seminole County hospital project was indicated yesterday optimistically by County officials today following the receipt of a letter from the regional office of the Public Works Administration in Atlanta by County Attorney E. F. Housholder.

The letter from Cole requesting the additional information on the project gave every indication that the project will be considered for approval and an allocation in the event a new appropriation is made to continue these public works projects during this session of congress.

One big question since the Czechoslovak government yesterday dismissed three Slovak ministers and clamped down martial law in the autonomous region to crush secessionist agitation was what Germany's attitude?

The answer still was unknown.

The impression existed in Berlin, however, that Germany might support the Slovak demands for independence.

Some quarters regarded the demands of Slovak Premier Joseph Tiso as illegal and saw a parallel between the present situation and the German Sudeten issue which led to the Munich dismemberment of Czechoslovakia last September.

They accused the Czechoslovak President Emil Hácha of strong-arm methods.

In Bratislava, the Slovakian parliament recommended that Dr. Tiso be re-appointed premier.

The new capital was quiet and there was no serious talk of compounding over the socialist demands for socialism.

The Slovak party, meanwhile, was enroute to Prague, seat of the parent government of the Czechoslovak federation.

In Bratislava, the Slovakian parliament recommended that Dr. Tiso be re-appointed premier.

The new capital was quiet and there was no serious talk of compounding over the socialist demands for socialism.

Reports from Spain said National Generalissimo Francisco Franco had resumed an attack on besieged Madrid.

The assault on the republican capital apparently began just before the Madrid radio announced that bitter-end communists, fighting a war within a war,

The remainder of the Lookouts' squad will arrive today and tomorrow with the first work out of the season scheduled to get underway Monday morning.

Gambling Must Go'
Gibbs Tells Clerks

OCALA, Mar. 11.—(AP)—Attorney General Gibbs denounced gambling in Florida as a "noxious weed" and an "octopus" in an address before the Florida Court Clerks association here yesterday. He also called it an evil striking at the very vital of the state.

"The governor has ordered the sheriff to close the gambling places," he said. "I intend not only to see that these places shall be closed temporarily, but that they shall stay closed."

He added that this could be accomplished only if the men and women of Florida gave their support to the closing.

"I will do my best to carry out the governor's orders," he said.

In discussing the subject of taxation in his talk to the county clerks, Gibbs said that states are based on vice, we have started not forward, but backward.

"(4) Detailed breakdown of all tax collections, no matter from what source derived, for the years ended September 30, 1937 and September 30, 1938. The annual tax levy in each instance should reconcile with the assessed valuation and the annual tax rate.

"(5) Correct assessed valuation for each of the fiscal years ended September 30, 1937 and September 30, 1938, presenting to the court the appeal did not raise the question of whether the law itself is constitutional.

The disputed contract makes the Eckerson Company agent for growers in coming their fruit. The grower has 90 days to pay off the finished product and pay the company for processing. If the product remained uncollected, the company then would sell the canned fruit and give the grower what was left after costs were deducted.

"(6) What portion of the gross and net assessed valuation is located within the City of Sanford?

"(7) Are delinquencies of county taxes in the City of Sanford greater or less than delinquencies outside of the City?

"Please return your replies to each of the above requests, making same as complete as possible. If there are other facts and figures which would assist
