

DUTCH WOMAN AGITATES FOR SEX EQUALITY

Dr. Jacobs Is One Most Prominent Leaders in Movement Begun By Modern Holland

Dutch Doctor Is 74 Years Of Age

Pioneer Chief Among Early Suffragettes Seeks Public Office

THE HAGUE, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Equality of the sexes in all social aspects has been the ideal of Aletta H. Jacobs and largely through her influence Dutchwomen have acquired much greater political and economic independence in the last thirty years. Dr. Jacobs' name stands first among the prominent women of present-day Holland. When she was born nearly seventy-two years ago women did not count for much except as the wives of their husbands or the daughters of their fathers. Dutch universities did not dream of admitting women to their medical schools when Aletta made up her mind to become a doctor. At twenty-five, however, she had gained the degree of doctor of medicine from Groningen University and began practice as the first woman physician in The Netherlands.

Since then, few international women's congresses have been held without her conspicuous presence. Collaborating closely with Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, and in personal contact with all the feminist movement leaders in Europe, Dr. Jacobs blazed the trail for women's rights and franchise in the face of a full blast of sex prejudice.

The noted suffrage pleader retains full possession of her old fire and spirit, despite her age. The reactionary spirit which she says came all over the world in the number of women's social position after the war, did not come unexpected to her.

"The men felt themselves heroes and superior beings, compared with women," she told the Associated Press correspondent, "despite the fact that the war was their work and would never have happened had we lived under a world government of men and women for some decades."

The World War came as a tremendous disillusionment to Dr. Jacobs, whose firm conviction it had been that modern society had become too advanced to tolerate such a catastrophe. She threw herself heart and soul into pacifist propaganda.

Following a world tour in 1912 with Mrs. Catt, when they were acclaimed champions of their sex in many world countries, Dr. Jacobs and Jane Addams in 1915 undertook the task to urge the anti-war resolutions of the League International Women's Congress upon the governments of the belligerent states, the Pope and the President of the United States.

Hendry County Men Make Big Profit On Cucumber Planting

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 7.—The postmaster at Felda, Hendry county, reports the first large profit from one acre of vegetables in South Florida this fall, according to the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

On October 9 Gilbert Taylor planted one acre of cucumbers and up to the night of Dec. 24, two months and 15 days after the seed were placed in the ground, he had sold $1,494.66 worth of cukes and had some still on hand.

Marvin and Emory Taylor and Zeke Hall planted three acres in cukes the same day Gilbert Taylor put his seed in the ground. Up to Dec. 24, sales from the three acre plot had totalled $2,961.65 and the Taylor brother and Hall had one Mor two pickings yet to be made.

such a purpose, was fraught with the greatest perils and all manner of difficulties, but Aletta Jacobs never faltered. She was received on September 16, 1915, by President Wilson at the White House. Her visit was a disappointment.

In 1892, Dr. Jacobs married Carl Victor Gerritsen, municipal councillor of Amsterdam, but elected to remain known under her own name.

She still recollects her indignation at being obliged to promise to "obey," in accordance with Dutch law.

"I have never ceased to agitate for the omission of that word," she said, "Everybody knows it is a dead letter, so why lie about it?"

Multiple Listing Discussion Features Weekly Luncheon Of Realty Board

A general discussion of the advisability of establishing a multiple listing bureau within the Realty Board of offices as an integral part of that organization featured the weekly luncheon of the board held today at noon in the Seminole grill.
Those favoring creation of a multiple listing bureau maintained that the establishment of the bureau's office in the offices of the Realty Board would result in no friction between members of the board and members of the board who were not affiliated with the bureau.
Opponents of the proposition contended that such action would cause confusion, and were of the opinion that those desiring to associate in a multiple listing bureau should form a department distinctly separate from the board.
Following a lengthy discussion of the matter, a motion was adopted to suspend definite action until the question could be thoroughly threshed out at the next meeting.

Upon the motion of George W. Knight, a substantial salary increase for Mrs. Marlowe was unanimously decided upon, and D. L. Thrasher was designated as the official delegate of the local board at the convention in New Orleans, Beach.

"APRIL FARMS" PRESIDENT MAY BE PROSECUTED

Charge of Adultery May Be Preferred Against Charles Garland As Result of Investigation By Officials

Illegitimate Child Is Basis Of Charges

Members Of Pennsylvania Organization Refuse To Tell Whether They Are Married

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 11.—(AP)—Charges are impending against Charles Garland, eccentric millionaire, as the result of matters involving his April Farms Association, members of which are living at his new colony in Lower Milford township, Lehigh county.

City solicitor Robert L. Stuart recommended last week that the association's application for a charter be denied on the grounds of "free love."

Search now has been started by the authorities for the burial place of an infant, said to have been born at April Farms last July and to have died in October.

District Attorney Hoyle is planning to prefer a charge of adultery, the basis of which is information contained in a death certificate issued at Cooperburg.

The information, the registrar told the district attorney, was furnished by Garland. Hoyle has been unable to find a record of the child's birth or the place of interment.

The cause of the baby's death was given as suffocation, due to throat trouble and there is no disposition at present, it is declared, to regard it as a case of child abuse. The Hovey woman is said to have joined Garland at the April Farms colony in Carver, Mass., now discontinued. Hoyle is endeavoring to get into communication with Garland's wife, believed to be in Boston.

The six men and six women members of the colony decline to say whether they are married, declaring it is nobody's business. Garland is quoted as saying: "As to unmarried people living together, this is a matter of individual inclination, not understood by the common social fabric. It is entirely a personal matter and part of my experiment in social science."

ALL-STARS LOSE TO 'RED' GRANGE'S ELEVEN, 14 TO 0

"Gallop" Ghost Scores A Touchdown, Returns Punt 51 Yards To Thrill Crowd; E. Vick Scores First Marker

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Harold "Red" Grange and his Chicago Bears exhibited their football skill before a crowd of 6,000 persons by defeating the All-Stars, 14 to 0 here Sunday. The contest, marked by numerous penalties, was played on a muddy field.

Grange supplied the biggest thrill of the game in the last quarter when he side-stepped a half dozen players and returned "Moon" Ducote's punt 51 yards to the seventy-yard line. On that play, Grange carried the ball to the seventy-yard line in three drives through tackle. Knop gained five and Grange plunged over the line for his team's second touchdown.

E. Vick scored the Bears' first touchdown in the second quarter by falling on the ball after he had blocked a punt from behind the goal line. Joe Sternaman dropped kicked the goals for the two points after touchdowns.

Grange's punt almost advanced five yards. A 20-yard gain was the "gallop" play, best from scrimmage and nine yards his next best. He carried the pigskin 16 times from scrimmage for a total gain of 72 yards, an average of four and half yards per punt. He was thrown for loss twice, once for two and again for six yards.

"Brother" Brown, famous Tulane player of other years was the outstanding player of the All-Stars, flipping around the Bears' right end in the first quarter for 34 yards. Lester Lautenschlager ran his team well and returned several punts from 10 to 20 yards. Johnny Wright, another ex-Tulane star, was on the driving end of several passes which advanced the ball more than 15 yards, each. Garvey and McCallan were mainstays for the Bears.

DEMOCRATS ARE FAVORING BIGGER SLASH IN TAXES

Proposal Made During Conference Of Party Heads Sunday And Provides For A 500 Million Dollar Cut

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The House revenue committee today approved a plan to reduce the normal income tax rates and the increased personal exemptions on income taxes provided by the House measure.

Democratic members of the Senate Finance Committee are favoring a $400,000,000 cut in the tax burden but the committee today as it began consideration of the rate schedule in the House bill.

In addition to the rate reducing provisions of the House measure, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking Democrat of the committee, worked on behalf of the minority members, further cuts in the surtax rates on incomes between $22,000 and $100,000 and reduction of the taxes on capital stock, admission and use.

Approval given by the Democrats of the normal income tax rates and the increased personal exemptions on income taxes provided by the House measure, virtually assured adoption of these provisions both in the committee and in the Senate since Republicans have indicated their support.

The minority also endorsed the reduction in the maximum surtax rate from 40 to 20 per cent.

Republicans' Fight Proposal Warned by Secretary Mellon to keep the total reduction within the $200,000,000 limit, provided by the House measure, Republicans, with a majority of 10 to seven in committee, separately were prepared to combat any but minor conditions in the bills.

In announcing the Democratic program, Senator Simmons, declared the $500,000,000 annual reduction could be made without retarding the program for retirement of the public debt within 32 years.

Instead of meeting the cost of the sinking fund for retirement of the debt entirely from taxation, however, he would apply the fund on war debts by foreign nations to this fund. These payments are now applied on retirement of the public debt, Senator Simmons said in addition to the annual sinking fund payments of $254,000,000. He estimated the receipts from foreign debtors this year at $175,000,000.

United on Specific Items. Mr. Simmons said the minority members were united only on the specific items outlined in the program but he indicated that some Democrats would seek changes in "other important provisions" as they are reached.

The Democratic plan did not mention the inheritance tax or publicity of income tax returns, on both of which earlier fights are impending. Chairman Snoot of the committee, has proposed repeal of the inheritance levy while some other members are expected to ask for an increase in the modified rates provided by the house bill.

Woman Bags Deer By Piercing Heart Thrice Within A Three-Inch Circle

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 11.—(AP)—New Orleans sportsman today agreed that a feat accomplished Sunday at Pass Manchak near here, would probably never be duplicated. They continued to marvel over the lodging of three shots, within an imaginary three-inch circle near the heart of a buck deer, of three arrows instead of rifle bullets.

The long bow was not in the hands of a burly yeoman, but was twanged by a 19-year-old girl, Mrs. Elizabeth Rounsaville, of New Orleans. Mrs. Rounsaville and her husband were hunting at the pass. The woman archer was stationed in a boat when her quarry appeared some 20 yards away.

Mrs. Rounsaville raised the weitch longbow to her side and aimed the first arrow. The buck stumbled with a 27-inch arrow in his heart. As the deer struck the ground, the third missile took its place near the first and second.

The bow used by Mrs. Rounsaville is made of wych elm, green heart and fibre and is known as the 45 pound type, a 45 pound pull being required to move the bucking string into position. The arrows are made of hardwood with a steel barbed head.

Mrs. Rounsaville, winner of several New Orleans tournaments, has been chosen to represent the Crescent City at an international tournament to be held soon in Philadelphia.

COAL BELLEGATES REFUSE TO CALL FOR HUGHESFIELD

Predictions Renewed That Negotiations Would End Today; Operators Opposed To Miners' Counter Proposal

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Proposals that the anthracite dispute be referred to Charles E. Hughes have been rejected by the anthracite wage conference.

After traveling to president in London, the miners today found themselves practically where they were when peace negotiations were set for Dec. 29. All plans offered since then have been rejected by one side or the other.

There were renewed predictions today that a final break was imminent. Chairman Myron Blake predicted that his peace plan, that of the one advocated by miners he submitted to Mr. Hughes with the request that he take the last part of each and draft a contract.

Mr. Hughes was formerly chief counsel for the United Mine Workers. The miners rejected the proposition, it was stated, because it contained the principle of arbitration to which they were opposed.

They proposed that a five-year contract be drawn by two operators, two miners, and three outside representatives. The operators disapproved the counter suggestion, regarding it as a revision of Governor Pinckney's plan.

Sanford Youths Are Delivered To Sheriff

Sheriff C. M. Hand returned this morning from a hurried trip to Jacksonville from where he brought three Sanford boys who had been held by the police of Jacksonville on a charge of vagrancy. While the boys' names are unknown, they are believed to be Fred Weaver, a boy named Johnson and one named Cagerton.

It is reported that the three left here some time ago after causing much trouble to county welfare officers. It is said that they could not be made to attend school regularly and had been a source of worry to their parents.

Grand Fire Does Damage Of $100,000

Sanford, Fla., Jan. 11.—(AP)—A grand fire today in the C. W. Co. building, a wholesale coffee and nut establishment, at 1113 1/2 N. Broadway, destroyed a large part of the city's fire equipment.

Two fire alarms and two calls for special apparatus took a large part of the city's fire equipment to the scene before the blaze was brought under control. Fire walls, which are placed, prevented the flames from spreading to the plans of the King and Company, meat market, and the C. H. Herring Company, wholesale food dealers.

The origin of the fire was unknown. All plans offered since then have been rejected by one side or the other.

MARKETS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Stock prices displayed a strong tone at the opening of today's market, with buying stimulated by the unexpected rise in unfilled tonnage of the U. S. steel corporation at the end of the year.

Constructive operations were carried out in various sections of the list, bringing about a steady advance in prices during the early trading. Indications of unusually large 1925 business and renewed talk of a stock split, pushed General Electric rapidly ahead to a peak price of 346.

New high records also were marked up by Consolidated Gas and Associated Oil in the first half hour, with gains of one and two points recorded by Postum, General Sear, Roebuck, Baltimore and Ohio, Canadian Pacific.

Motor shares slowly gathered strength with buying interest centered in Hudson, Packard and Fibre Arrow issues. Uneasiness over the controversy regarding the Mexican Petroleum laws caused a break of 2 1/2 points in Pan American, "P" Foreign exchange, with sterling slightly higher at $1.84 13-16.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Influenced by much larger world shipments and by weakness of Liverpool quotations, the wheat market here averaged lower today in the early dealings.

On the other hand, indications pointed to only six per cent of wheat remaining in rural hands along the northern Pacific and Great Northern Railroads where the usual amount at this time is 20 per cent.

Lower quotations on hogs tended to ease the provision market despite strength in corn values.

This is the Place for Ground Floor Investors

HOSE PEOPLE down here this winter in search of sunshine and health and investment opportunities owe it to themselves to get acquainted with Daytona Beach and its foremost development—Daytona Shores.

Here is the most wonderful beach in the world and a tonic climate that lets folks enjoy outdoor sports and recreation all the year 'round. John D. Rockefeller, who has money enough to go wherever he pleases for the winter, has been coming to Daytona Beach and Ormond for a score of years; and he's there now.

Daytona Beach is far more, however, than a seasonal resort. Developing in all lines at amazing speed, it is the one place in Florida today where shrewd investors can and do make the same ground floor profits that attended the earlier development of Southern Florida.

At Daytona Shores we have the most beautiful high land in all Florida, wooded with stately trees like an English nobleman's park, and with fifteen miles of natural waterfront on the Atlantic Ocean, the Halifax and the Tomoka rivers. We are developing this beauty spot in a manner second to nothing else on earth, and that, together with our Daytona Beach location, means rapid enhancement of profits for ground floor investors.

BENTON REED

RESALES ARE ACTIVE

Resales in the Causeway Section of Daytona Shores started promptly with profits to investors ranging from 100 to 220 percent. Daytona Shores operates its own Resales Department. Farseeing investors who realize how values grow with the construction of an Ocean Causeway are invited to communicate with the Resales Department, Daytona Shores, Daytona Beach, Florida.

Be our guest on our palatial pullman bus making regular trips from this city to Daytona Shores over a scenic route, with a luncheon at Daytona Shores Lodge on the beautiful Tomoka River. Make arrangements—without obligation—through our representative named below.

Make It a Free Bridge

A remark made at Friday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce relative to making the Monroe Bridge a free crossing proved to be one of those little verbal detonating caps that ignite that highly inflammable substance, popular sentiment, and today many who had previously given the matter no thought are exclaiming "why wasn't this bridge freed of toll before?"

Agriculture for Florida

The Herald has long contended that agriculture is a feature of Florida's prosperity which we cannot afford to overlook or neglect. We have often repeated our regret that the inroads of population and the necessary subdividing of property has effected an unfortunate reduction in lands under cultivation.

Professional Golf Tournament

The plan to stage a professional golf tournament on the Sanford Golf Course this winter should meet with the general approval and backing of the people of the city. If a meet of this kind can be staged during the height of the tourist season, the benefits that will be derived by this city can hardly be estimated.

WORK OF NOTED AMERICAN PIANIST IS REVIEWED BY CECILIAN CLUB

A large audience enjoyed the Cecilian club program of last Saturday afternoon.

The meeting opened with a discussion of William Sherwood, (died 1911) America's noted pianist and pedagogue, a pioneer in piano recital at a time when the virtuoso was rare.

Points emphasized were his rare memory, diligence in study, the hours accorded him while studying with Liszt in Europe which surpassed any accorded an American student up to the time.

Sherwood was one of the first to give lecture recitals and also the first to establish summer schools for teachers.

Mr. Sherwood, in his desire to improve music conditions in America, loved to take his art even to out-of-way places. In one western town, the grand piano he always carried with him, excited much wonder and the audience supported the fourth leg was lost in transit.

There has been phenomenal growth of music in America since those days, with so many fine music schools and instructors and endorsed conservatories.

Mrs. Richard Maxwell closed the program with delightful readings from Lowell.

The piano selections were:

Mrs. Stanley Walker Elected President Of The Legion Auxiliary

The first meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary for the new year 1926, was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. P. Chittenden on Evans Street, and proved to be a most enjoyable one, at which time matters of interest were discussed, among them being a report of Mrs. J. C. Benson, delegate to the convention at St. Augustine.

After speaking of the interest and enthusiasm received by attending these gatherings, Mrs. Benson made mention of a conversation she had with Mrs. Young who is connected with the veterans' hospital at Lake City, in which she pointed out that the best things to send to the veterans were: money with which to provide entertainments and some necessities; and magazines, and jellies for the sick.

The report of the Poppy Sale Committee, with Mrs. Benson as chairman, showed a balance of $125.12 in the treasury, after $20 had been spent for fruits and other articles sent to Lake City, and the proportionate amount of $25 which was sent to the state president for relief work.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was held with the following: First Vice President, Mrs. Frank Lossing; Second Vice President, Mrs. C. L. Goodhue; Treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Benson; Secretary, Mrs. Joe Chittenden; Chaplain and Historian, Mrs. C. H. Smith.

There will be a meeting on Jan. 22 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Krupp, for the purpose of installing these officers. Good attendance of members at all meetings is urged by the incoming officers for this year. It was decided to hold meetings for the next six months at the homes of the members instead of the Legion house as heretofore.

MRS. CLEMENTS IS LOVELY HOSTESS AT BRIDGE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

One of the prettiest parties of the season, was that of Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. E. R. Clements was the gracious hostess at bridge at her apartments on Park Avenue. There were five tables of players.

Stately pink gladioluses and asparagus ferns, arranged with pleasing effect in baskets and silver vases, adorned the rooms where the card tables were placed. On the tables were pink and green nut cups, holding salted nuts and mints which were relished during the games.

The color scheme of pink and green was further emphasized in the pencils and score pads. Pretty maidens in spring bonnets marked the tally cards, and after several progressions, scores were collected by Mrs. D. L. Thrasher. The prize for top score, a lovely wicker sandwich tray, was awarded Mrs. Bloomfield Hulick. Mrs. Philip Bach was consoled with a box of dainty handkerchiefs, when her honors and points failed to score. In putting for the consolation prize, a hand painted pitcher, Mrs. William Moore Scott was the fortunate one.

After the card game, the tables were laid with dainty covers, and refreshments consisting of a salad course and ice course were served by the hostess. The players were joined for refreshments by Miss Smith and Mrs. A. W. Harz.

Those playing were Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. Harry B. Lewis, Mrs. F. Roumillat, Mrs. Edward Markell, Mrs. William Moore Scott, Mrs. W. Theodore Langley, Mrs. George A. DeCotter, Mrs. George Rice, Mrs. John Macdonald, Mrs. Charles C. Remington, Mrs. Robert J. Holly, Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr., Mrs. G. Irving Loucks, Mrs. C. Miss Sarah Lou Priest Becomes The Bride Of George R. Sims Friday

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends, was the wedding of Miss Sarah Lou Priest and George R. Sims, which was solemnized Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, with Dr. T. J. Nixon, officiating. The wedding was attended by the members of the immediate families.

During the ceremony, Clarence Priest, brother of the bride, played for the occasion, and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was lovely in a becoming frock of poudre blue crepe de chine, with trimmings of blonde. Her hat and other accessories were also of blonde tones.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding dinner of six courses was served at the home of the bride's parents on Celery Avenue. Covers were laid for the family and a few intimate friends.

Later in the evening the happy young couple left in their car for a short wedding trip to points in the state, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at the Parker Apartments.

The bride is the talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Priest, and is a favorite among a wide circle of friends. She is a graduate of the Sanford High School and is actively interested in church and civic work.

Mr. Sims is a valuable employee of the National Biscuit Company and has a host of friends here that join in wishing him and his bride every future happiness.

Some people are so darn dumb they have got to have a reason for being happy.

The Will to Serve

The best of railroad tracks, equipment and motive power are all but useless unless they are manned by men skilled in railroad operation who realize the importance of the public service they perform.

The Atlantic Coast Line has spent millions of dollars to provide the physical necessities for efficient railroad service in Florida.

Its chief reliance, however, is in the army of faithful employees who are working night and day in a determined effort to restore normal transportation service, and thereby to make possible Florida's further growth and prosperity.

They are working at a great disadvantage and under severe strain.

Wholehearted co-operation by the public will make their efforts most effective, and will help to clear up all traffic congestion.

Compston And Massey Beat Barnes And Farrel One Up On Temple Terrace Course

TAMPA, Jan. 11.—(P)—When Archie Compston, British professional golf champion, sank a 12-foot putt on the fortieth green at Temple Terrace course late Sunday afternoon he brought to a close one of the most sensational golf matches ever played in Florida. On the strength of the wizardry of the towering Briton's putter, Compston and Arnaud Massey, French open champion, defeated Jim Barnes and Johnny Farrell, American professionals, one up.

Inclement weather reduced the gallery to 2,000 persons.

Par for the difficult Temple course, is 72, the best 18 hole card turned in yesterday were Barnes' and Compston's 74s for the afternoon 18 holes.

As the foursome teed off on the 36th hole, Barnes and Farrell were one down. Farrell was on the edge of the green in three and sank a 20-foot putt that sent the match into extra holes.

Two-Sport Ruling Is Major Question Before Conference

ATLANTA Ga., Jan. 11.—(P)—The two-sport rule was the major question before a joint session here today of the executive committees of the Southern Conference and the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The rule adopted by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at its annual meeting in Charleston prevents member institutions allowing athletes to play successive sports during the college year. A majority of the members of the two athletic bodies also are members of the association and the question of adherence to the ruling has provoked a storm of protest from several leading institutions.

SPORT RELATIONS BETWEEN EUROPE AND U. S. CORDIAL

Series Of International Competitions Are Destined To Bring Better Understanding Between Continents

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(P)—Better understanding through close association in sports of the nations of the world today appears to be something tangible. Never in history, except in the years of the Olympic games, has such a series of international competitions been in prospect.

Within the past few days, America sent her greatest woman tennis player to appear on the courts of Europe, perhaps against the remarkable French star, Suzanne Lenglen. Although Miss Willis' visit to Europe is primarily for the study of art, she carried 20 racket with her brushes.

Six tournaments at Cannes, two at Nice and one each at Menton, Boulogne and Monte Carlo are before Miss Willis if she cares to participate. Miss Lenglen's quick recovery from a cold this week indicated that her condition is ready for a crucial test against the American champion. After the French tournaments, Miss Willis intends to compete in the British championships at Wimbledon, England.

Let it be noted that other women players of the United States will join Miss Willis in competition in England for the Wightman trophy. Two leading American players, possibly including the champion, William Tilden, will appear at Wimbledon, and team matches in other countries are in prospect. Borotra and Lacoste of France are expected to appear in the American indoor title play.

Track stars of Europe, Olympic champions all, are arriving to appear in indoor competitions. The latest arrival is the youthful Charles Hoff of Norway, pole vaulter, who is expected to supplant the remarkable Panzo Nurmi as a favorite in this season of track followers. Hubert Houbert, of Germany, conqueror of Paddock and Marathon at Berlin, Holland's great middle distance runner, and Godwin, record breaking walker from England, will be among the celebrities in indoor meets.

At the same time international golf takes on a new luster with the prospect that the American amateur champion, Bobby Jones, will again visit England. On Jones'

Texas Youth Wins $10,000 California Golf Tournament

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—(P)—At the age of 21, Harry Cooper, professional of the Tension Park Golf Club of Dallas, Tex., is winner of America's richest golf stake of $10,000 in open tournament.

He led a field of notable professionals and amateurs from the U. S. and Canada at the end of 72 holes of play over the north and south courses of the Los Angeles Country Club, receiving $3,500 as first prize.

The youthful professional's total of 279 was three better than that of George Von Elm, 25 years old, Los Angeles amateur, who took second place with 282.

Cooper, who took up golf at the age of three and has been chasing balls ever since, according to his father, Sidney J. Cooper, won his first tournament at the age of 14, a local affair at Dallas. He won the Texas state tournament at Galveston, in 1923 and again at San Antonio in 1924 and was runner-up in the Texas tourney last year. He neither drinks nor smokes.

ELLIN HAS WRITTEN PLAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(P)—Ellin MacKay Berlin has written a play. Irene Borboni, wife of Ray Gietz, whose sister was Irving Berlin's first bride, is to star in it and she calls it a romance of romances.

Her latest visit to England, his temperament was commented on by critics for he tossed clubs around once in a while. But this year England will see a new Bobby Jones and from all reports, the British enthusiasts are eager for the opportunity.

Jake Schaefer, described by the former champion, Willie Hoppe, as the greatest of 182 ball line ball players, regained his championship from Edouard Beccanus of Belgium last week in their 1,500 point match. Eric Hancbacher of Germany is Schaefer's next challenger, and the match will be played probably in March.

Another international victory scored by America last week was that of Dave Shade of California over the former middleweight boxing champion of England, Robert Todd. Todd will have another opportunity when he faces the champion, Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, in Toronto.

For a time, Tommy Milligan of Scotland, is denied his chance at Mickey Walker's welterweight title through the New York Boxing Commission's interference. Walker, by his refusal to appear in the Christas Fund matches for a reasonable figure, incurred the commission's displeasure.

CARDINALS MAY BE REAL THREAT UNDER HORNSBY

St. Louis Pilot Gets Wade Killifer To Whip Hurling Staff Into Shape; Infield Prospects Are Very Bright

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—(P)—Under the leadership of Manager Rogers Hornsby, the national league's most valuable player of 1925, the St. Louis Cardinals hope to rank in the first division from the start of the season three months hence.

With the team in the basement, Hornsby took charge and boosted the club into fourth place. With a bolstered pitching staff, the Cardinals may be a real pennant contender in 1926.

President Sam Breadon, desired two right hand pitchers of considerable ability. Instead he acquired a veteran and a promising youngster and he signed Billy Killifer, former manager of the Chicago Cubs, to correct the faults of the Cardinal pitching staff. Shortstop Jimmy Cooney was traded to the Chicago Cubs for Vic Keen and Walter Hunsinger. Killifer is credited with developing some of the greatest pitchers in the game during his many years behind the bat.

The mound collection of Manager Hornsby has always looked as though it should deliver, and if it may lack only the added coaching of Killifer to come through. Dickerman is a pitcher of seemingly great natural ability, who last season lacked the winning habit. Rhem, a leading strike-out pitcher of 1924, won five of his first six starts in 1925, and then went to pieces. Haynes also disappointed and Dundy Mills developed a sore arm. Sotherton, Dyer and Stuart are the rest of the list with which Killifer had to work.

The Cardinals' infield will make its 1925 haul unchanged from last year. Hornsby at second and Bottemo at first are among the best in the major leagues in their positions. They led the league for the last five years at bat. Thewissen at short is a brilliant infielder, but like many shortstops, his batting has been erratic.

The outfielders of 1924, all youngsters handy with the stick will start again this year. The regulars are Hatley, Douthitt and Blades.

This spring the Cardinals will move their training quarters from Stockton, Cal., to San Antonio, Tex., with Manager Hornsby says is an ideal place to condition the club.

St. Petersburg—$400,000 apartment house will be built at Beach Drive and Twelfth Avenue.

Fifty-Nine Shutouts Feature Of Last Season's American League History

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—(P)—There were fifty-nine games in the American League last year in which the losing team was shut out without a score. Three of the season's shutouts went into extra innings and one was a six-inning contest halted because of darkness.

The White Sox pitching staff led in this respect, holding their opponents scoreless twelve times. Eddie Collins' crew was blanked only four times, not counting the game forfeited to Cleveland where the field could not be cleared of the crowd.

New York proved the easiest outfit to shut out. They were blanked an even dozen times. Yet it was a Yankee pitcher—Herb Pennock—who pitched the year's most notable shutout game, a fifteen-inning battle in which he retired to Athletics, 1-0.

The Red Sox failed to score nine times and the champion Senators, the Tigers and the Indians fell victims on six occasions. The Athletics and the Browns kept off the score board in eight games.

The White Sox chalked up the heaviest total against a shutout team. In a game on Sept. 19, the Chicago team scored seventeen times against the scoreless Senators. August was the shutout month. League records reveal. There were nineteen such games. August 7 was the banner day for shutout pitchers, when three games resulted in no scores for the losing teams.

PALATKA, Jan. 11.—(P)—Street paving in progress here when completed will add six and one-third miles to the city's system of paved thoroughfares and give it a total of twenty-four miles, according to municipal officials. Judge Joseph Sabath expressed approval of an amendment which would require the prospective bride and bridegroom to give two weeks' notice before they could obtain a marriage license. This plan has worked out successfully in Europe, he said.

The other judges are John I. Sullivan, Thomas J. Lynch, and John R. Caverly. The latter pre-sided at the Leob-Leopold murder trial.

Illinois, with 15,658 divorces in 1924, according to a compilation by the department of commerce, was exceeded only by Texas, which had a total of 15,375 divorces. Total divorces for the United States for 1924 were 170,867, an increase of 2.5 per cent over 1923.

PARIS LETTER

PARIS, Jan. 11.—(P)—The con-troversy over whether girl stu-dents should smoke, which recently evoked so much discussion in the United States, has reached the Sorbonne, Paris' great center of learning.

Those who oppose smoking for women of the university accuse the smokers of trying to "camouflage their femininity," and the smokers reply with some contempt that the charges are "small town stuff" and those who make the charges, "frow-sy and old-fashioned."

American and Russian girl stu-dents have taken the lead in the smoking campaign and the habit has increased notably during the present term, but the sight of a girl puffing a cigarette is still rare enough to shock some of the Sorbonnites.

Although France claims to lead the world in aviation, in number of records held, number of planes and quantity and quality of other equipment a recent monthly re-cord of air passengers carried from Le Bourget airdrome showed France last among the nationalities who chose this form of travel. Even Lapland, which boasts of a single plane, stood ahead of France in this record. America was first.

During the month in question, of all passengers leaving Le Bourget for London, Prague, Berlin, Vienna and other continental points, 77 percent were Americans, 23 per-cent British, 11 percent Central Europeans, 5 percent Laplanders and 4 percent French.

The explanation of the high per-centage Laplanders is that a dele-gation from that country attended a meeting in Paris and departed for Stockholm by way of Berlin, in three specially chartered aero-planes.

Paris milliners have introduced a new and rakish line for the 1926 modest hat which threatens to render the "cloche" hat which reigned in 1925, obsolete. The new line places the highest point of the hat always aft, and hats that cannot get their backs up are fading from the fashion plates.

The new model seems to be a hybrid between a round sugar-loaf and a square bucket, made of silk.

Town Threatened By Mexican Flood Water

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 11.—(P)—The town of San Blas in the state of Nayarit, is threatened with de-struction from the flood waters of the River Lerma, and the inhab-itants are fleeing into the hills for safety. The damage already done is estimated at 4,000,000 pesos.

None of the newspaper dispatch-es from the flooded area received today specify the number of dead due to floods. Other advices, how-ever, are to the effect that sev-eral towns have been destroyed and that there has been heavy loss of life.

St. Petersburg.—Building permits for first ten days of December, totaled $700,000.

Marte establishment of forgetful-ly leaving their gloves upon the drinking tables and the excessive alertness of the chasseur in run-ning out into the street to restore the gloves to their owners, ap-peared suspicious to detectives of the special drug squadron. Just as the chasseur was handling one of the forgotten gloves to its own-er, a young American, the detec-tives stepped in an confiscated the property. In the index finger was a package containing 10 grams of cocaine.

When arrested, the "chasseur" waxed facetious and told the police he wanted to deliver his mer-chandise into "proper hands" and always worked "with gloves."

Coal Parley Becomes Test Of Endurance

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(P)—Ne-gotiations between anthracite op-erators and miners here appear to become a matter of endurance. Neither side, it is known, will take the initiative to end the deadlock or even ask for a recess at least for the present.

A session may be held tomorrow, it is understood, unless Alvan Marple, chairman of the joint con-ference, takes it upon himself to suggest a recess until Monday.

No specific subject is now be-fore the conference except the general one of trying to draw a contract.

The miners are standing by their declared intention of opposing ar-bitration while the operators are contending for this form of set-tling the strike, now in its fifth month.

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsion of crocodine that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and in-hibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, crocodine is recog-nized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing powers in persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocodine, some healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the crocodine goes on to the stomach, is ab-sorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfac-tory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respira-tory diseases, and is excellent for build-ing up the system after colds or flu. RADIO PLAY IS IN PROCESS OF DEVELOPMENT

West Coast Producer Attempts New Idea in Creating Drama Broadcast Medium

"Scenarios" From Old English Plays

Shakespeare Called Natural Writer For New Program

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11 (AP)—Experiments and study of the technique of the radio drama, conducted systematically over a period of months on the air and in the laboratories of the Pacific Coast, have created a craftsmanship that promises interesting development of this form of theatrical entertainment.

Like the motion picture, the radio play has given birth to a new art as the principles of a successful microphone performance are distinct—unlike those involved in the writing or presentation of a stage or screen production.

Shakespeare was a natural writer of radio "scenarios," Carl W. Rhodehamel, of the staff of the General Electric station, KGO, says western producers have found. But there are so few authors or playwrights whose efforts can be utilized without almost complete reconstruction that attempts to adapt popular or classical plays are diminishing. Instead, western studios are bending their efforts toward the development of the radio playwright, recruiting principally from amateur ranks.

For definition of broadcast drama, Rhodehamel has accepted this: "The radio play is a series of sound pictures printed on a film of time." He conceives the patron of this art as "an eaves-dropper listening in on real life."

The producer's task, Rhodehamel believes, is principally to "synchronize the rhythm of the three kinds of sound which are the ingredients of the radio drama—music, speech and accessory noises." Failure to correlate their rhythm results dimly, sometimes humorously, as in the first experiment of "interlapping," when more than one kind of sound was transmitted at a time. In this early test, music was placed behind accessory noise and speech with the result that scores of "fans" wrote in complaining that a Los Angeles station was constantly "butting in." Trying again, rhythm of music, accessory noises and speech were synchronized. The listener's attention understood that the producers were attempting to tell the same story in more than one way. There were no complaints this time about the southern station.

Beating of horses' hoofs, ringing of a door bell, sounds of a scuffle, revolver shots, heavy breathing, hissing wind, clatter and sputter of a starting locomotive are only some of the innumerable "accessory noises" that go into the broadcast play to give it intense realism. These and music, the most highly organized character of sound, raise it from dialogue

Californians Buy Florida School Bonds

DELAND, Jan. 11.—Everyone in California does not cling to the belief that Florida is a "bubble," according to the experience of the Volusia County School Board in selling $616,000 worth of school bonds. The bonds were sold to R. E. Campbell & Co., of Los Angeles, the highest bidder. The proceeds will be used for expanding facilities in the schools of Daytona Beach.

to a high form of drama with all the thrills and color of a stage success.

Pacific Coast producers have decided that 35 minutes is the maximum time the ear of the radio auditor can be kept. So with only an hour and 45 minutes for presentation of a three act play, a great part of its plot must be unfolded through suggestion.

Florida Establishes New Birth Record

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 11.—Births in Florida during the first 10 months of 1925 established a new record for such a period and exceed those of many states, including Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Virginia or South Carolina, according to the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health. The number was 23,525 as against 22,031 for the same period during 1924.

Highland Park

Sanford's Highest Class and Most Distinctive Realty Development. To be undoubtedly the center of its most discriminating social life.

The Highlands—that has always been a term to conjure with. Mankind, instinctively, has always turned with longing to the hills, away from the damp and chilly air of the lowlands, on which the fogs settle and the surface water pours down from the highland, and sometimes backs up from the choked water ways. There is a sense of freedom on the highland where the air is clearer and the breezes blow without anything to hinder.

In the growth of cities the world over, the better residential development is always toward the high ground. And so it is in Sanford. Highland Park is the cream of Sanford's residential section. With the exception of two little depressions, it is all high ground, the highest in Sanford, and these small low spots work in beautifully with the scheme of development, one for the construction of the concrete swimming pool, which will be one of the outstanding features of this delightful home center, and the other for Rainbow Pool and Garden, where I have almost finished MY part of the work in shaping up the pool and the contour of the surrounding garden, and now must wait for Nature to bring out the color effects which I have planned in the thousands of flowering shrubs and vines and plants that I have planted there and am carefully tending. At great expense a system of sprinklers from underground water pipes has been put in all over the gardens. In the center of the pool is a lilly fountain, and growing there are the choicest and rarest water lilies which when matured will bloom in all the colors of the rainbow, flowers from six to ten inches across in white and red and pink and blue and purple and yellow. Around one side of the garden circle are hollyhocks and sweet peas and nasturtiums, and around the other half circle are hollyhocks and cannas and petunias, and down by the rustic palm thatched summer house are a hundred azaleas. Around the entire circle hibiscus plants are growing. Massed at either side of the entrance from Colonial Way are hibiscus and allamandas and plumbagos. At one clump of trees at the water's edge are planted Thunbergia vines, which will climb into the trees and fill them with a wealth of big blue flowers, and at another group of trees white Jasmine vines are growing, and around the summer house are yellow Jessamines. On the gentle slopes leading down to the pool from the surrounding lots there are many stately pines, with graceful drapery of Spanish moss, and Bay Magnolia trees, always green and covered in the spring with a mass of big white flowers, and many beautiful palmettos, with picturesque shaggy trunks and wide spreading tops, and at all these trees—the pines and bays and palmettos, are flame vines that when fully grown will surround these gardens with a blaze of color, up in the branches and festooned from tree to tree. Watch this garden grow. The natural setting is perfect. Another year or two will make it a dream of beauty that will not be surpassed and perhaps not equaled in all the State of Florida. The rustic pergola, which will mark the entrance from Colonial Way, and the rustic bridge to the little island in the pool are about to be constructed, and some of the flowers are already in bloom. Drive in from French Avenue past this entrance and if you have anything of an artist's vision, you will appreciate what is being done and will realize what is coming when Nature has time to do her work.

The small depressed area, about half an acre, just south of Rainbow Garden, will be filled in shortly and brought up level with French Avenue.

In the subsequent issues of the Herald, I will tell you about my plans for the beautification of some of the other distinctive features of this most distinctive residential center.

An insurance agent personated the ancient fisherman with his red nose, while other parts were taken by a tramway conductor, a shoe-maker, a truck-driver and a girl who operates a sewing machine in a palmetto factory.

"Young" authors often make the mistake of trying to unload cargo all the time without taking any one," was the warning Sir Arthur Conan Doyle gave young writers in an address before the Savage Club.

Writers have to read and study and travel and keep in touch with all that is going on if they want to make their work interesting," the creator of Sherlock Holmes said, "and above all nobody should try to write unless he simply can't help it. Real writers can't prevent themselves from writing."

Flesh-colored shoes have appeared on the fashionable London ballroom floors, being worn with hosiery of the same tint and at a distance creating the impression that the dancers are bare-foot.

This novelty in footwear is attributed to a desire for relief from the black evening frocks to which women were known by the instinct for smartness and economy. The only objection to the bare-foot craze, say the modistes, is that the flesh-colored shoes have a tendency to give the wearer, a "flat footed" appearance.

A bride who carried her pet terrier to the altar on her wedding day attracted much attention here. She was Miss Barbara Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill, of Arlington Lodge, Eastbourne, who became the wife of Lieutenant Alexander Leslie, of the royal navy, in St. James church, Piccadilly.

Just before the ceremony Miss Hill handed the dog to one of her friends to hold during the service. Afterward Mrs. Leslie took the pet in her arms again and carried it down the aisle and out to the Miss Tree thinks women's golf clubs are about as sad as their town clubs and a very good reason that most women have so much to do, looking after their homes and children, and enjoy going about the streets and shops so much that when they have a little leisure they do not want to sit about a fire to listen to other women talk.

To Campaign For

Claims Wealth In

State Will Prosper Al-

Can Be Encouraged

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 11.—The Florida State Chamber of Commerce which for months has been endeavoring to bring to the people of the state the realization that Florida's agricultural development is the one big thing that needs attention has been advised that the Tampa Morning Tribune immediately will inaugurate and maintain a vigorous campaign to this end in its editorial and news columns.

The Tribune in a recent editorial had the following to say on the subject:

"THE REAL WEALTH of Florida lies in its soil, in its agricultural resources and possibilities and the best efforts of wise and far-seeing Floridians and of all those who have interests in Florida should be to develop this particular wealth.

"Florida has a great asset in its climate, another in its location, and accessibility, another in the investment and interest in the state of men of great wealth and influence, another in its conservative laws, and there are others of lesser moment that might be enumerated; but greater than all these assets, because it is the one asset upon which the PERMANENT and ABIDING prosperity and growth of the state MUST BE BUILT, is the productivity of its soil.

The State Chamber has contended that since agriculture is the basis of virtually all human activity, and the basis of all prosperity, development of Florida's agricultural resources will assure permanent prosperity to the state. Officials of the organization have asserted repeatedly that once these resources are developed, industries will be established, contending that efforts to establish industries before developing agriculture is tantamount to placing the cart before the horse.

Herbert A. Dunn, president of the State Chamber, said recently that when the state begins to produce raw materials from its soil in sufficient quantities to assure steadily flowing supplies to industries a line of manufacturing plants along the northern boundary of the state couldn't keep capitalists and manufacturers from coming in to Florida to build and operate plants.

Plans of the Celotex Company, which is spending millions of dollars at Clewiston, might be cited as an example of the situation, says the State Chamber. The Celotex Company manufactures finishing material from bagasse, or sugar cane stalk after the juice has been extracted. Its huge plant at New Orleans, the only one in the world, was established there because of the inexhaustible supplies of bagasse available at the Louisiana cane plantations.

It will build a second huge plant at Clewiston but the supply of raw material in that territory now would not keep the factory running more than a few hours. Raw material must be provided and the concern is busy developing cane lands and at the same time is having machinery for the celotex plant built, but the machinery will be

Choose intelligently by comparison

DESPITE THE ADAGE "comparisons are odious" we are compelled to COMPARE in order to arrive at conclusion when we buy. Women are said to be the most intelligent "shoppers." They COMPARE. They see the merchandise offered in various quarters and they BUY when they have arrived at a mental balance of values.

INVESTORS IN REAL ESTATE who employ that same method, buy intelligently because they have seen the various offerings, know them with an intimate knowledge and buy where most value is offered.

WE ASK YOU TO COMPARE Loch Arbor with any of the developments of the Greater Sanford District then you are sure to see and realize the unusual investment opportunities this property embodies.

with that... still editor of the Berlin...
The state opera at Berlin has become a storm center of musical discussion through its production of the opera "Tosca" by Alberto Sarag, which breaks all records for dissonance and cacophony.
The composer is acclaimed by critics in terms varying from "musical-lunatic" to "musical-genius." Not content with having the orchestra attack the ears with noises so inharmonious that some listeners aver, they suffer physical pain, the composer prescribes that the tin-pan piano used in one of the scenes must be out of tune and that the singers must sing off-key.
An American scotch tree, sent as a gift to King Frederick the First, 226 years ago, is still standing in the grounds of the ancient Hohenzollern castle, Britz, now the property of the city of Berlin.
The tree came as a tiny slip in a flower pot from a German colonist in Pennsylvania. It is said to have been the first acacia in Germany. The King, eager to see what the tree would look like when grown, ordered it planted in a spot where he could watch it from the windows of his study in the castle. Municipal custodians are guarding the tree as jealously as did the first ruler of the house of Hohenzollern and have it surrounded with iron pipes. Castle Britz was built in 1375 by the noble family of Britzke. Frederick bought it in 1699.

Real Estate Values Are Increasing

One hundred years ago, Fifth Avenue New York City was a cow path, today it is the greatest and most valuable street in the world. There is no one telling the average American how real estate values grow. Mothers bringing children into the world, give real estate its value.

Some property in Denver, Col., which is now worth many millions of dollars, was traded with $25.00 in return for a horse, saddle and bridle.

The territory which comprises the State of Pennsylvania was granted to Wm. Penn in payment of a personal debt of $16,000.
