By the Associated Press
CIO convention delegates who took a tough attitude toward the left wing elements in their group were asked today to use "statesmanship" in helping write a new labor law.

Senator Wayne Morse (R-Ore) told the convention, now in its second day at Portland, Ore., statesmanship is needed for adoption of future labor laws, fair to both unions and industry.

The delegates yesterday swamped a minority effort to head off approval of a report by CIO President Philip Murray which contained praise of the Marshall Plan.

Fred Bender, realtor, told of a plan to develop a colored subdivision near Twentieth Street outside the city limits and asked the opinion of the Commission on the matter. He was requested to make out a tentative plan of the development.

The Florida senator supported Mr. Truman during the campaign. He made numerous speeches in the President's behalf and helped raise campaign funds.

"The people have the right to expect the Democrats to carry out their platform and keep the pledges made to them," he said.

"If we do carry it out, the next Congress will do more for the people than has been done since the early stages of the New Deal, and it will be one of the greatest Congresses in the history of America."

with the Russians our mutual interest in agriculture, it would not be so difficult to discuss our differences in other fields. It is most heartening that several eastern European nations are members of the FAO. I hope this will continue to be true."

He invited both Russia and Argentina to join the FAO. He said: "I hope that every country, old or new, will become a member of the Food and Agriculture Organization. I should like to see that large agricultural country, Argentina, become a member. I wish that the Soviet Union would also join."

Mr. Truman also pledged to the delegates of the UN FAO member nations that he will send to the new U. S. Congress a new international wheat agreement if one can be negotiated.

"Moreover," he said, "I look to the general pattern of the wheat agreement as one which might be followed for other commodities."

He said that "hunger has no nationality. Abundance should have none, either."

"One of the ways to restore stability to the world is to produce plenty of food and see that it is distributed fairly," he added.

Mr. Truman said it is appropriate that the U. S. is host to a United Nations meeting during "our cherished Thanksgiving holiday."

He said the real spirit of this holiday is the sharing of the harvest. This spirit, he said, has brought many nations together in the FAO.

One of the first and most difficult problems is the rebuilding of nations which suffered heavily during the war, Mr. Truman continued adding.

"We are making a great deal of headway through the combined efforts of many nations in the European Recovery Program."

He promised that the U. S. will continue to send its experts in the field of agricultural improvement wherever the FAO believes they are needed.

Cairo visited Count Folke Bernadotte on Rhodes a few days before the late U.N. mediator was assassinated in Jerusalem in September.

Galagan said these accounts told how Bernadotte originally planned to give to Israel that part of the Negev desert in Southern Palestine in which there are Jewish settlements. Then McClintock and Troutbeck wrote into Bernadotte's recommendations the complete exclusion of the Jews from Negev, he said.

Bernadotte's Palestine report recommended that Negev, given to the Jews under the U.N. partition, be turned over to the Arabs instead. He suggested also that the Jews be given western Galilee, originally assigned to the Arabs by the U.N.

A British resolution, now being debated by the committee, calls for putting the Bernadotte plan into effect.

Bernadotte also was under pressure from the United States and Britain to keep open the pipe lines and refinery in Haifa, Galagan said.

Galagan added that "British agents such as Abdullah and Glubb Pasha provoked the invasion of Palestine to prevent partition by force of arms."

Abdullah is king of Trans-Jordan and J. B. Glubb Pasha is chief of the British-subsidized Trans-Jordan Arab legion.

There was no indication, however, of an early settlement in the shipping dispute.

Ship operators issued a statement through their association saying they are "unanimously resolved" not to make any further offers to the 65,000 striking dock hands. The AFL International Longshoremen's association said the union would stand pat on eleven demands, including a wage increase.

On the west coast, employers denied reports that striking CIO longshoremen had begun offered and refused a 15 cent hourly wage increase to end the 83-day-old West Coast shipping tieup.

Other developments in the labor field included:

The American Federation of Labor, in convention in Cincinnati, O., announced it is ready to discuss peace with the International Association of Machinists, the CIO and the United Mine Workers.

President William Green said the peace movement is in accordance with a convention resolution calling for a unified labor movement. The machinists left the AFL in 1946. Unions which created the CIO were suspended in 1938. The miners withdrew last year.

In Portland, Ore., Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas told the CIO convention that labor leaders can do a better job than conventional diplomats in defeating world-wide Communist propaganda and bridging the gap between America and Europe.

Douglas asserted conventional diplomats will "fall miserably" unless they understand the rise of the labor governments of the world and share an understanding of the labor struggle.

Since V-J Day More Than 132,500 New Telephones Added in Florida

$55,000,000 of new facilities have been provided for more and better service

Look at the record of telephone growth in Florida — about two-thirds as many new telephones have been added in the past three years as were in service in Florida in 1945. This phenomenal progress was possible only through the all-out effort of telephone folks to meet the increasing needs of the state.

Yes, Florida's telephone service has really grown — not only in size but in value as well, for you can now call many more people and many more can call you. A total of more than 364,000 Southern Bell telephones are now serving the state. Floridians are making a monthly average of 2,142,000 long distance calls which is 55% greater than in 1945. The daily average of local calls made by our Florida customers is 2,909,000 as compared to 1,458,000 in 1945.

But that's only part of the story. A vast amount of new construction was added in order to install and serve these telephones. Since V-J Day, 15 new buildings have been constructed and 19 buildings substantially altered providing more than 827,785 square feet of additional floor space. And central office equipment has been installed making possible a greater expansion of service facilities throughout the state. Nearly a thousand new long distance circuits have also been added to handle more calls more quickly.

But in spite of the growth in business, telephone earnings continue to be dangerously low. This is because the amount of money paid out to furnish you service has increased at a faster pace than the amount of money taken in.

Southern Bell's greatly increased investment in Florida is evidence of our faith in the state and its people. Future expansion and improvement of the service will require many more millions of dollars of new money. This will have to be financed, as in the past, with money furnished by investors who may be expected to provide the necessary capital, only so long as they receive a fair return on their money. That's why it's so necessary that telephone rates be sufficient to pay today's increased operating costs and provide a reasonable return to those who have invested their savings in the business.

Telephone rates in Florida are not sufficient to meet today's costs and assure the Company's ability to render good service. That is why we are now before the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission seeking rates that will enable us to continue to provide you with good and dependable service.

Thanks to many people for many things

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING . . .
And there is much for which we can all be thankful in this great country of ours.
Certainly we are thankful for a bountiful harvest of grain and corn, for a high level of production and employment, for a standard of living that is the envy of the world.

We feel as a Chevrolet dealer it is an appropriate time to convey our sincere appreciation to the people of this community for their loyalty, patience and understanding.

Chevrolet is doing everything within its power to maintain and increase production. Meantime, we would like to express our thanks . . .

Thanks to Buyers and Prospective Buyers of New Chevrolets for your generous recognition of the honest value built into this first-choice car in the low-priced field. ## Agreement Is Made To End Dock Strike

Longshoremen To Get 13 Cent Wage Hike; Terms To Be Approved By Employers

NEW YORK, Nov. 25. (AP)—Longshoremen agreed today on terms for ending the crippling East Coast dockworkers strike.

The agreement, subject to approval by union members, was announced by Cyrus Ching, head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service at 3:35 A. M.

The announcement came on the 16th day of the strike, which has paralyzed ports from Maine to Virginia and tied up hundreds of vessels on both sides of the Atlantic.

The agreement gives the some 68,000 striking dockworkers a 13-cent hourly increase in pay, retroactive to Aug. 21, when previous contracts expired.

Previously, the AFL International Longshoremen's Association had demanded a 25-cent hourly boost in the straight, daytime pay rate of $1.76 hourly.

The employers' top offer, up to the time of the settlement today, was 10 cents more an hour.

Ching flew here from Washington yesterday to try to end the deadlock.

He had been almost steadily in conference with representatives of the I.L.U. and the New York Shipping Association representing the employers, since his arrival.

The settlement, which came after a long night session, is subject to ratification by the union members. Ching said he was "hopeful" they will approve it.

The agreement also was subject to approval by the individual employers.

Army's Draftees Are Being Picked, Checked Carefully

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. (AP)—The Army apparently is picking and choosing its draftees more carefully than during the war, a Selective Service official said today.

Of 14,000 men examined since early November in 45 states, 92,000 have been rejected according to incomplete figures from local boards.

This 70 per cent rate, roughly double the wartime rejection rate of 35 per cent, may be due to stricter physical standards set by army doctors, the draft official said.

Most of the men being examined are in the 24 and 25-year-old groups, though some boards are down to the 22-year-old and a few to the 23s. So probably most of these men were looked over and turned down for physical reasons during the war, he said.

Draft officials have estimated that only 70,000 men in the 22-year age group would be eligible for compulsory military service because of exemptions for marital status, previous service and other reasons.

The Army plans to induct 15,000 men in December and 20,000 men in January. This month 10,000 men have been called up.

The Army is planning to get most of its draftees from those registrants under 22. Preliminary estimates in the three bottom age groups show more than 200,000 21-year-olds and some 19-year-olds. About 1,000,000 come of draft age each year.

Giants Reach Terms With Johnny Mize

The New York Giants have reached an agreement with first baseman Johnny Mize for the 1949 baseball season.

The announcement was made here last night by President Horace Stoneham of the Giants after a conference with the signing baseman who came to Sanford from his winter home at De Leon Springs. The terms were not disclosed.

Stoneham, Carl Hubbell, director of the Giants farm system and Mel Ott, former manager, and Eddie Brannick, club secretary, were here for the formal opening of the Mayfair Inn, later to be purchased last summer.

Governor-Elect Warren Hails Giants At Opening Of Mayfair

Governor-elect Fuller Warren paid high tribute to Horace Stoneham, Carl Hubbell, the New York Giants, and organized baseball as the living reality of fundamental American liberties in an address before 300 dinner guests at the formal opening last night of the Mayfair Inn under the ownership of the Giants organization.

"Florida has become the winter baseball capital of the United States," he said. "We now have ten major league clubs training in this state, and next year we hope to make it 16. We have a matchless climate in this state for baseball where the weather permits it to be played more days in the year than anywhere else in the country. And I can promise you that during the next four years at least the political climate will be favorable for the development of all kinds of sports and recreation."

He congratulated Sanford on getting the Giants farm training program located here and characterized it as "a unique adventure in higher education" calling attention to the development of all kinds of sports and recreation.

Mr. Stoneham, president of the Giants, expressed his appreciation for the enthusiastic support given the opening of the Mayfair Inn by Governor-elect Warren and others for their visit to the Giants. Eddie Brannick, secretary of the organization, said he hoped the folks here will enjoy the Inn as much as we like you town, Carl Hubbell, who was introduced as "one of the greatest pitchers of our time," said: "We like being in Florida and we will be seeing a lot more of you in the future."

Mr. Ott, former manager and outfielder, said: "We are hoping to find here another great pitcher like Carl Hubbell."

Others introduced included: Art Flynn and Art Rosen, publicity directors; Johnny Mize, Giants' first baseman, who said he had just signed his contract to play first base but that he'd be making public speaking engagements.

Truman To Seek Export Controls For Life Of ERP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. (AP)—Administration sources predicted today President Truman will ask the new Congress to keep export controls in force throughout the prospective four years of the Marshall Plan.

They said the request would fit in with both U.S. foreign policy, particularly that related to the "cold war," and the domestic anti-inflation program.

Their explanation:

1. The controls furnish a means by which scarce industrial goods can be channeled to Western Europe to aid its recovery and simultaneously keep it from reaching the Russian sphere.
2. They also furnished a means of preventing foreign buyers from bidding up the price of American goods.

The controls, wielded by the Commerce Department through licensing requirements on shipments abroad, are scheduled to expire Feb. 28 under a "temporary" extension voted by Congress earlier this year.

The informants, who cannot be named, said Secretary of Commerce Sawyer has suggested to President that the control powers be extended through 1952 so they will cover the planned life of the Marshall Plan.

Oviedo Legion Post Outlines Activities For Past Two Years

The Oviedo Memorial Post No. 243 had its beginning just two years ago (Nov. 15, 1946). A group of World I and II veterans met to discuss the possibility of organizing a Legion Post in Oviedo. Henry Walcott, commander of the Sanford Post, Holmes Milton, Asst. Department Adjutant of the American Legion of Florida, and Joel Fields, former State Commander, were present to discuss the purpose, value, and organization of an American Legion Post. It was decided to organize and 35 members signed a temporary charter which was forwarded to the National American Legion Headquarters for approval. Officers were elected and Commanding Officer, a World War I veteran, was chosen to lead the post for its first year.

During the past two years the Post has grown and has fitted itself securely into the civic life of Oviedo. The Oviedo Memorial Post No. 243 has cooperated with many civic projects and has in many ways contributed to the betterment of the community. To name a few of these, the Post provided the labor for rebuilding the burned Thanksgiving Day, 1946. ### Reds Assert Foreign Military Men Hinder Peace Negotiations In Palestine

By EDWARD CURTIS
PARIS, Nov. 25. (AP)—Russia called on the United Nations today to order all foreign troops and military personnel out of Palestine.

The Soviet Union submitted a formal resolution to the 50-nation U. N. Security Council. It was aimed at the removal of the Holy Land from Jewish control and the removal of all foreign troops and military personnel from the area.

Some observers took the reference to military personnel to mean the inclusion of U. N. truce observers who are members of the American, French and Belgian armed forces.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting U. N. Palestine mediator, said there are more than 500 foreign military observers on U. N. truce teams in Palestine and surrounding Arab states.

Dr. E. T. Gurnea, acting U. N. mediator, said he had spoken before the committee. He said the Soviet Union considered the presence of foreign troops in Palestine one of the principal obstacles to the implementation of the 1947 United Nations partition plan.

The Russian proposal also called for the Security Council to take appropriate action to maintain peace in Palestine.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. (AP)—The State Department today renewed its insistence that the Marshall Plan must be completed to boost production in Europe.

Secretary of State Marshall in effect repeated this point against the move yesterday. He held a news conference the policy must be carried out in order to boost production in Western Europe and all Europe.

A French embassy official here said he feels the American plan is a "leopard" for the possible rebirth of a German war machine.

This is only the first round of the official battle, a reporter privately said. The future of the industrial Ruhr and steel industry will be the main concern to all Frenchmen and we will continue to meet our bigger voice in determining the future.

Florida School Enrollment Hiked 58,000 Students In Past 12 Years

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 25. (Special)—Florida school enrollment has increased almost 58,000 in the last 12 years.

According to a 12-year enrollment study made by the State Department of Education Florida's school enrollment increased from 398,769 in 1936-37, the start of the 12-year period, to a new high of 446,672 in 1947-48.

The increase has been "gradual and steady" according to the state school department, hitting a low point in 1938-39 and then a high of 404,444 in 1940-41. But at the height of the war years total enrollment had dropped again to 398,076. It picked up in 1943-44 with 416,757 students attending state schools and "is still climbing."

And school people estimate an increase of more than 8 per cent for each of the next two years, bringing enrollment to a new high of half-a-million students in 1949-50.

Although higher enrollment is indicated in all grades, the largest increase is in the second grade

Today, instead of merely bringing their corn and beans and new-planted potatoes to a community feast, the people are sharing their bounty internationally through the Marshall Plan.

For the millions of the foodless, the Marshall Plan has become a lifeline. It has brought to the world the bounty of American surplus products, including wheat, corn, and other foodstuffs.

These surplus products, which were once sold at a loss, are now being sold at a profit to the people of the world.

According to a 12-year enrollment study made by the State Department of Education Florida's school enrollment increased from 398,769 in 1936-37, the start of the 12-year period, to a new high of 446,672 in 1947-48.

The increase has been "gradual and steady" according to the state school department, hitting a low point in 1938-39 and then a high of 404,444 in 1940-41. But at the height of the war years total enrollment had dropped again to 398,076. It picked up in 1943-44 with 416,757 students attending state schools and "is still climbing."

And school people estimate an increase of more than 8 per cent for each of the next two years, bringing enrollment to a new high of half-a-million students in 1949-50.

Although higher enrollment is indicated in all grades, the largest increase is in the second grade

Other big increases show in the first and third grades. In the first grade in 1946-47 only 42,119 went to the second grade the following year. That's a loss of over 10,000. But in 1946-47 the 88,076 first graders 49,759 were promoted to the second grade for a loss of only 8,000.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

LIGHT IS A HEALING AGENT, BOTH PHYSICALLY AND SPIRITUALLY. SEEK THE LIGHT, NOT THE DARKNESS.

Happy Thanksgiving Day!

The hunting season got under way yesterday with a big bang!

Bill Morrison has made an active and progressive president of the Merchants Association and in Jack Hall has an able successor.

Food costs are said to be on the decline for the first time in seven months, but it didn't get here soon enough to do any good on Thanksgiving dinner.

Jacksonville is in the midst of a $1,500,000 church building program. Sanford is also having a building boom in churches.

While the United States has spent billions of dollars to keep the Communists out of Western Europe and has listened to millions of angry words over the Berlin blockade, the Reds have just about taken over in China.

The average American family is making more than twice as much as he did in 1940, the National Industrial Conference Board reveals.

The little man in the citrus business is up in arms. A meeting will be held here next Monday night to organize a Citrus Growers Association such as have been organized in several other citrus counties of the state.

Senator Flanders, a Republican by the way, promises an investigation of the reported 20 billion dollar profit which a few monopolistic corporations are said to be making.

You remember the story about the good Samaritan. Well, yesterday we were reading the modern version. Ralph Diaz operated a stationery store in the Bronx.

We hope you fellows who were in the service during the last war are reading General Eisenhower's biography "Crusade in Europe."

While there's life there's hope. A hospital ambulance was summoned to a New York hotel where a young lady guest had taken an overdose of sleeping pills.

Time For Thanksgiving

The world has gone nuts, says R. J. Blakley, editor of the St. Louis Star-Times. The human race is throwing away its last chance to save civilization.

"Clearly we are all insane," he told a recent session of the National Municipal League's Conference on Government. "No sane people would war with atomic weapons; yet all people who can are preparing to do so."

Nuts to you, Mr. Blakley. If we are insane, it is a pleasant insanity. In spite of its troubles, the world is making progress. The United States is prosperous. Not only is national income at record heights, but the material things which people want are produced in the greatest abundance.

We have not found the solution to personal quarrels, nor international hostilities. Neither have previous generations for hundreds of thousands of years.

What can the atomic bomb do that a hundred years of pillaging and plundering or killing and maiming, if only with swords, lances, and bows and arrows, did not do?

Pessimists who read too much into some of our scientific discoveries, who see nothing but disaster in the news from China, who are ready to abandon the United Nations because it does not work at first, who fear atomic warfare infinitely more than their forefathers feared death under the thunderous heads of Hannibal's elephants, should consider their every day blessings in the light of the hazard and hardships endured by their ancestors.

In this Thanksgiving season it might be well for all of us to remember the blessings we have and to give thanks to Him who made these blessings possible.

Ex-American

Americans are accustomed to having natives of every country speak our citizenship. It is somewhat surprising when an eminent American is found who has given up his citizenship to become naturalized abroad.

There have not been many precedents. The only one that occurs to mind at the moment is the case of the late William Waldorf Astor of the well known New York family. He became a British citizen, and his son, Major John Jacob Astor, has penetrated into the innermost sanctum of British society by becoming the owner of that most British of all institutions, The London Times.

Afghanistanism; The Other Side

At the meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington last April, Jenkins Lloyd Jones, the brilliant editor of The Tulsa Tribune, delivered a witty but provocative address entitled "Afghanistanism," in which he chided many of his fellow-editors because of their preoccupation with national and international affairs that were developing around their own doorsteps.

The tragic fact is that many an editorial writer can't hit a short-range target. He's hell on distance. And there's a lot that is comfortable about this distance. It takes guts to dig up dirt on the sheriff, or to expose a utility racket, or to tangle with the Governor. They all bite back, and you had better know your stuff.

But you can pontificate about the situation in Afghanistan with perfect safety. You have no faithful Afghans among your readers. Nobody knows any more about the subject than you do, and nobody gives a damn. He stated that he had examined 1,340 editorials and that only 441 of them were on local or state subjects; and while he considered that a fairly good proportion, "some of the individual newspapers were awful," he said.

Admittedly, there is some justification for this indictment, but in this day of international solidarity, when the world has shrunk from the relative size of a grapefruit to that of an English walnut, many of our editors might be equally indicted because they don't give a damn about Afghanistan. For it is still true as was stated by an old sage many years ago, that "he who will not take heed of things far away will soon find trouble near at hand."

Most of us here in America were little concerned at the time over the assassination of Francis Ferdinand, the Austrian archduke, at Sarajevo some 34 years ago. But today we know that this tragedy was due in part to the intrigues and propaganda of that same Russia with which we are now having so much trouble that it was the curtain raiser to a world war that vitally affected every American family, and because of which many of us still are grieving over the loss of loved ones and are burdened with taxes resulting from the war.

Likewise, Secretary Stimson got little moral support when he protested against the invasion of Manchuria by the Japanese in 1931, and we were only momentarily excited, as it were, when the Japs fired upon the American ship "Panay." Nor did the Sino-Japanese skirmish at the Marco Polo bridge near Peking in 1937 convey much significance to the average citizen of the United States. Yet, those of us who had lived in the Far East, had read "The Tanaka Memorial" and Homer Lea's "The Valor of Ignorance," knew that these incidents, which culminated in the attack on Pearl Harbor, were the prelude to the greatest and most devastating world war in which the United States was ever engaged.

Crippled Children Get Break At Game

ATLANTA, Nov. 25, (AP)—Strong legs of Georgia and Georgia Tech football players will run today in the nation's top freshman game so that weak legs of Scottish rite crippled children someday may walk.

A national attendance record of 39,000 probably will be set in the annual game. All proceeds are given to crippled children.

No one will enter the gates of Tech's Grand Field without a paid admission. Each player has to buy a $1.50 ticket, sportswriters and radio announcers pay to cover the game, officials not only run the game free but buy tickets to enter.

There are many things that we are or should be thankful for at this time. As next Thursday is Thanksgiving, let us consider some of them. First, perhaps, we should think about this year's crops. At a time when we need great quantities of food, our crops are unparalleled in history for quantity and quality.

One of our greatest blessings is peace. True, there is conflict elsewhere and there is a great deal of discussion in which we are involved, but thanks to Providence, we are at peace and we have the blessing of hope that our peace will continue and that other peoples will find peace.

Freedom is a great blessing. We should be more cognizant than ever of the great blessing of freedom in view of the absence of freedom in some lands. Here, a man is free to worship, to write, to talk, and to express himself as his conscience tells him, and he is also free to strive and improve himself—mentally, physically, spiritually, and materially.

Here, a man may go wherever he will, without restraint. There are some places in the world where one must stay, no matter how strong his desire to move.

There are many other blessings for which we are thankful, but there is one which is probably not thought about as much as we should. It's the idea of our Thanksgiving and the purpose for which it stands. Those early Americans who originated Thanksgiving about three centuries ago gathered in that and looked to Him for strength and guidance.

After overcoming great obstacles, the development of this great nation, they were humbly and eloquently thankful to God. They were thankful for His guidance and support. America has become truly great.

Now, when their country has achieved greatness unheard of before, it is well for all Americans, in genuine humility, to express their gratitude. "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."

Sanford Forum

November 23, 1948

Editor, Sanford Herald: Some time ago I asked to have a letter to the Forum run. Perhaps because I made no reference to ball games it was not run.

I have before stated, numbers of people have asked me the question of how to get Salvation and how will one know when they have been saved? Of course it is a bit fashioned in these swift moving times, but still each individual must slow up enough to die, as the Holy Writ states, And after Death, the Judgment, Hebrews 9:27, to be prepared for both, nothing less than the old time mourners bench and the family altar at home. We must have an open heart for the truth, are ourselves as a person facing, not a week of torment, but an eternal punishment for neglect as well as our misdeeds.

No man, however dignified he may be, can reach the heart of God except thru tears of remorse. It is hard to get people to see that they need to repent with bitter tears when all they need to do is sign a card and be a member of a church. And I add, be on their knees old route to hell. And it is an indisputable fact, that when you have forgiveness from God,

He will be more cognizant than ever of the great blessing of freedom in view of the absence of freedom in some lands. Here, a man is free to worship, to write, to talk, and to express himself as his conscience tells him, and he is also free to strive and improve himself—mentally, physically, spiritually, and materially.

What do we have to be thankful for?

Just three short years since V-J Day—and once again the headlines talk of war and the threat of war.

Prices have skyrocketed—and even for the bare necessities of life, a dollar goes hardly half as far as it once did.

Tens of thousands of families are still doubled up—or living in trailers because of the critical housing shortage.

Brother, it may be Thanksgiving—but what do we have to be thankful for?

What do we have? Listen . . .

We have a land where people vote in or vote out the government. We have a land where we can yawp to high heaven about our very troubles—and do something about them.

We have a land where we can leave the shades up at night—and meet in more than two's and three's—and discuss politics, religion, personalities or anything we please.

We have a land where we can go to the church of our choice, send our children to schools where we know they'll be taught the truth, pick and choose the job that we like best—and leave it if it doesn't live up to our expectations.

We have a land where the police tip their hats to us, where we can cross state lines without submitting to inspection by border guards, where what we buy is not determined by whether we belong to the governing political party or not.

We have a land where the Four Freedoms are not a distant hope but a present reality.

What do we have to be thankful for? Brother—our American heritage.

Let's not lose it!

China's Reds Shift Battle Near Yangtze

Dr. Sun Fo Approved As Premier Of Nanking Government; Suchow Fight Rages

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-Shek is planning a visit to the United States, the State Department reported today. Press officer Richard L. Mettiam said the department has been informed of her intention but has no information on how or when she will arrive.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Truman today rejected a suggestion that Chiang Kai-Shek be invited to this country to present the Chinese government's plight in person. This suggestion was advanced by Rep. Carl Albert (D-TX) who is slated to be chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee when the new Congress organizes in January. Bloom told reporters at the White House that Mr. Truman "didn't see how he could leave China at this time."

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Chinese Communists fighting east to Suchow shifted suddenly southward today, closer to the Yangtze river in the crucial battle north of Nanking.

Nationalist troops in the Peiping-Tientsin area of North China prepared for a major action which may break any time. General Fu Tso-yi, supreme Chinese commander in the north, said confidently his troops are ready and willing to fight the Reds "at any time and any place."

Roland Dr. Sun Fo, Legislative Yuan president since 1932 and son of the founder of the Chinese republic, was approved as premier in Nanking by the lawmaking body.

The Legislative Yuan acted under a constitutional requirement that it must uphold the president's nomination. President Chiang Kai-Shek had nominated Sun to replace Wang Wen-hao, who resigned. Sun prepared to select a new cabinet.

The new premier and his cabinet powers largely were inherited from his late father, Dr. Sun Yat-Sen. He is a bitter enemy of Russian and has the close support of rightist members of the Yuan and such Kuomintang leaders as Secretary General Wu Te-Chun and Chen Li-Fu.

A select in case when attention here was on the military problems of China rather than the political.

President Meets Cabinet In Hour-Long Session To Review Foreign Situation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Truman called in Housing Administrator Raymond M. Foley today and talked over the proposed housing legislation. Foley prepared his submission to the president.

Foley told reporters afterward that the discussion had centered on the points which he announced earlier this week after consultation with Mr. Truman.

In a statement Tuesday, Foley defined the No. 1 housing problem as "both production cost and price."

He said the administration will ask for legislation including these points:

• Federal aid to farmers to help build and repair homes.

• Federal assistance of a long-range program of housing research with the help of private industry.

Dewey, writing in the December issue of Atlantic Monthly, extended such a policy could be formulated until the American people and Congress have been properly informed.

He said the necessary information is being withheld.

H. N. Committee Completes Last Of 28 Draft Articles For Assembly Approval

PARIS, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Neutral on the security council committee today announced a compromise formula intended to end the Berlin blockade on a basis of currency agreement. PARIS, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A world bill of rights promising freedom and equality for everyone, approved today by the United Nations.

Delegates of the 28 United Nations completed the last of 28 draft articles of a declaration of human rights.

Only the preamble and a possible new article or two remain to be acted on before the historic document moves from the 58-nation Social Committee to the General Assembly for final approval here this year.

The declaration has been in preparation more than two years. It is estimated 700 hours of debate developed in the drafting stage. Some of the bitterest ideological clashes in UN history accompanied its formulation.

Seaman, Ex-Sailor Accused Of Killing Hudson, N. Y., Man

Hudson, N. Y., Nov. 26.—(AP)—An ex-sailor and apprentice seaman, charged with killing a Hudson County man who was shot through the head early Sunday in a country lane near here.

Richard Howell of Hudson, 18, of Lawrenceville, Ala., 29, of Hudson County, Grand Jurors returned a first-degree murder charge.

District Attorney Thomas Kennedy said the case against them would be presented to the Columbia County Grand Jury which reconvenes Monday.

A spent bullet discovered in a tavern pitfall Wednesday led to their arrest that night. State police found it similar to one taken from the victim's automobile.

Another cousin, Clarence Earl Allgood, 22, also in the county jail, was a material witness held in lieu of $10,000 bail. He reportedly had been visiting at Harwell's home and was with the other two before and after the slaying.

Harwell was home on leave from the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base at Little Creek, Va. Forged checks of $700 were taken from him.

Caldwell Says Again He Will Call No Session

BARTOW, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Governor Caldwell said again here today he would call no special session of the Legislature.

He made the statement in reply to citrus growers during the course of a talk before a joint civic clubs luncheon here.

The governor said it would be utterly foolish of him in the short period of a special session, as a retiring governor and with a retiring legislature, to attempt a session.

Answering the citrus growers' threat to form the "largest motorcycle of all time" to Tallahassee and camp there if the governor did not help them, Caldwell said he was sure that those forming the motorcycle would be made comfortable by Tallahassee hotels, restaurants and service stations, and since "they doubtless will want to go to Tallahassee for the inauguration (of Fuller Warren) anyway, their early arrival should at least insure hotel accommodations."

Meanwhile, Frostproof Speaker-designate Perry E. Murray of the 1946 House today named Rep. William C. Lanfear of Miami as chairman of the House committee on governmental reorganization.

C. Farris Bryant of Ocala was designated vice chairman of the committee.

U. N. Proposal Might Take Negov Desert Area From Israel; Changes Offered

PARIS, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Israel told the United Nations Security Council today she is willing to negotiate an armistice with the Arabs in Palestine. Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok was on a letter to the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, that Israel would prefer to deal directly with the Arabs on an armistice.

By EDWARD CURTIS
PARIS, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The United States opposed in the United Nations today a British proposal that might take Southern Palestine's Negov Desert from Israel.

American Delegate Philip C. Jessup submitted to the Political Committee a number of amendments to Britain's latest proposal for the solution of the Arab-Jewish Palestine dispute.

The amendments would soften Britain's reference to the report of the late Count Folke Bernadotte as a basis for a Palestine settlement and give more weight to the U.N. (Continued on Page Six)

Motion Picture Shown At Meeting Of Lions Club

A motion picture on courtesy in which a business man who had lost his temper and antagonized everyone he had met, was permitted by Jupiter to live the day over again and substitute courtesy and kindness for rudeness, was shown to the Lions at the Tourist Center today by Jack Hartigan and Cliff Allen.

The picture, said Mr. Hartigan, had particularly impressed him while attending a meeting of Plymouth dealers in Tampa. It has been shown here to members of 15 firms, and will be available to other firms until Monday, he said.

Clyde Ramsey gave a report on the Lion zone meeting which he attended recently with Henry White in Daytona Beach. Harry Robinson announced that the football trophy which the Sanford High School football team has won, arrived.

235 Deer Bagged In National Forest

OCALA, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Jack Hunter, Ocala Forest Ranger in charge of the Ocala National Forest, reported this morning that during the first two days of hunting on the Ocala wildlife management area, in which some 200 hunters participated, approximately 235 deer were bagged.

This season, all deer taken to have been in good condition. Hunter said. No hunting accidents have been reported.

Yesterday when it was reported that the 18-year-old son of Dr. Carl Harter of Winter Garden was lost in the forest, a search by wildlife and forest officials was started. Young Harter was found after he had walked out to a road and what was thought would develop into an all night hunt was over.

Mrs. Ted Williams Gets Deer At Wekiva

Mrs. Ted Williams joined the Wekiva Hunting Club, and by so doing, became the first woman of the club to accomplish this feat. Her husband shot an eight point buck yesterday, all of which should result in a fine supply of venison for the Williams home.

Mrs. Williams revealed today that she had used a 12 gauge gun, hitting the deer at about 50 yards away.

Not so fortunate at hunting was Claude Whitton, Jr., city fireman who went turkey hunting yesterday, and after a day and night of it, came back with three squirrels.
