

Joe McCarthy Says Tigers Are Good But His Yankees Are Certain To Nab Pennant

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, summed yesterday, conceding that the Detroit Tigers have demonstrated they possess too much power to be dislodged from their stranglehold on the American League pennant lead.

The New Yorkers, somewhat battered and bruised, are five and a half games down to the pace-setters with about six weeks of campaigning to go but they feel confident they turned the tide in Wednesday's victory over the Bengals and they will pursue their recovery program in the double-header today which winds up the crucial series. Yesterday's rain, washing out the fourth game for the time being, was greeted with loud cheers by the athletes in both camps.

"The Tigers are good," commented Joe McCarthy, the usually silent pilot of the Yankees, "but they haven't clinched the pennant yet. Mickey Cochrane's club got plenty of breaks in running up to 14 straight. It is just beginning a tough trip around the East and may be due for a slump. The Yankees are not out of it, not by a long shot. We have a long home stand that should bring the club back to its best. Johnny Broasca's fine pitching Wednesday was one of the tonics we needed. There's one thing you can depend on—the Yankees will keep fighting."

"We'll keep bearing down," countered Cochrane, "and win every game we can. I'm not claiming the pennant yet myself but I don't see how this ball club of ours is going to be stopped, the way it's hitting." Cochrane said he planned to start Elden Auker, his freshman pitching star, in the first game of today's doubleheader. "He is undecided whether to start Vic Borzell, one of his veterans, or give the sensational Schoolboy Rowe another crack at the Yankees in the second game. Rowe won handily Tuesday, for his 13th consecutive victory, and has appeared to have the "Indian sign" on the New Yorkers.

MICKEY CLAIMS TIGERS A'S BEST TEAM IN COUNTRY

Gomez probably will be McCarthy's pitching choice. Gomez is anxious to gain revenge for the trouncing he took in the opening game of the series when the Tigers knocked him out of the box.

The three games of the series so far have drawn close to 100,000 spectators. If the weather is clear for today's twin bill, the Yankee stadium may be the scene of another capacity or near-capacity gathering. More than 25,000 fans were turned away on the first day.

Bill Dickey's return behind the plate today will help lift some of the strain put upon the Yankee "Junior varsity." The slugging backstop has had two full days' rest.

Legion Trains Will Arrive In Miami In Drove In October

MIAMI, Aug. 17.—American Legion special trains will arrive in Miami at 20-minute intervals during the 36 hours preceding the opening session of the national convention on Oct. 25, plans discussed yesterday at a meeting held in convention headquarters.

The Detroit Tigers are no "team of destiny," Manager Mickey Cochrane insists, but simply the "best team in baseball."

Neither is he to be regarded by any means as a "miracle man," Cochrane adds, merely because in his first year as manager of the Tigers he has steadily driven them to the top and within sight of Detroit's first American league pennant in 25 years.

"There's absolutely no mystery or secret about the fact we have grabbed ourselves a big lead," Cochrane said yesterday, in discussion of the situation, which he amplified later in his radio debut over a national network. "We are out in front because we have the best team in baseball."

"This club is hitting at a .310 clip, which is far beyond the best performance of any other team in either big league. I have not only got the best defensive infield there is but every member of it is hitting .300 or better. We lead the league in stolen bases and our pitchers have done consistently good work. So where does destiny come in?"

Cochrane, who appeared earlier in the season to be feeling the strain of double duty as manager and backstop, has not recovered all his characteristic poise and confidence, together with his batting eye. He feels much better about his job since he has clubbed his way back above the .300 mark.

Yesterday's defeat, after a string of 14 victories, was nothing for the Tigers to worry about, in Cochrane's view. "We can't win 'em all," he commented afterward, "and probably we were overdue to take one on the chin but we will win 'em when we need 'em."

MAKE THIS TEST
...CONVINCE YOURSELF
Here's a test you can make to satisfy yourself that you are getting Genasco Sealbac Shingles, made with Trinidad Lake Asphalt Cement—the Slam-Test coating developed by The Barber Asphalt Company, manufacturers of these shingles.
Take a Genasco (either standard or extra-heavy weight) Shingle! Get a good grip on it with both hands. Try to smash it. Slam it on the floor with all your might—not once but a dozen times—until you get tired.
Then take an ordinary asphalt shingle. Give it the same rough treatment. Note how the coating shatters. Note how the mineral granules fly. That's convincing enough, isn't it? That proves that Trinidad Lake Asphalt Cement will hold the protective armor of mineral granules in place in spite of temperature changes and weather conditions.
Drop in and let us tell you more about Genasco Slam-Test Shingles. If you will write us or call us on the phone, we will be glad to have our representative call and make the "Slam-Test" demonstration and tell you more about these shingles.

UNCLE SAM TO BE LARGEST CATTLE BUYER

Contemplated Plan Of Relief In Arid Sections Will Be Beneficial In End

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. —(AP)—The magnitude of the relief drive in the nation's worst drought catastrophe was underscored today when it became apparent that for months the government will be the country's largest buyer and distributor of meat.

Before the program is finished, conservative estimates said the government will spend 2,000,000,000 pounds of processed beef and 150,000,000 pounds of mutton to hand over to needy families.

Officials said when the program is over and the industry goes back to private hands it will be in better shape, and cattle herds will be vastly improved.

In buying drought-menaced animals which cannot be fed or watered by the owners, the government is cutting out less desirable animals.

This culling, they say, will be worth millions of dollars to the livestock industry of the future and will leave it in the best position of its history.

SkYROCKETING hog prices were halted by livestock raisers yesterday as a harbinger of returning prosperity to millions of Middle-Western farmers.

Top quotations on hogs reached $6.30 per hundred pounds for the first time in more than three years as packers competed in bidding.

After several months of steady rising prices gained a sudden momentum a week ago. Quotations reached 80 percent above a month ago and 75 percent above the law of last year.

Cost of finished products—pork chops, bacon, sausage and ham—has increased 25 percent to consumers in the past two months. Unless there is an unexpected break another 20 percent increase will result soon, packers said.

2 Committees Named For Coast Line Club

Appointment of two new committees which are to bear the brunt of the business and social program to be carried out during the coming winter was a feature of a special business meeting of the Jacksonville District Progressive Club of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, held in the City Hall last night.

The Entertainment Committee which will have the responsibility for arranging meetings in Sanford as well as Palatka and DeLand, is composed of C. E. Adams as chairman, W. A. Leavitt, J. E. Preston, R. A. Cameron Sr., C. L. Harrison, and O. S. Toler.

The Felicitations Committee which will seek new business for the railroad from every available source, is composed of W. A. Leavitt as chairman, R. Z. Johnson, T. F. Cole, C. L. Harrison, J. E. Preston, M. Minkirk, Horace Moore, J. A. Blount, G. H. Cogburn, J. E. Gradick, O. K. Goff, W. B. Zachary, and V. C. Messenger.

The 50 or more men present decided to stage a social meeting at the City Hall on Monday night, Sept. 16, and to hold the next business meeting on Friday night, Sept. 21.

GEORGIAN OPENS ATTACK ON PART OF RECOVERY ACT

NIRA Held Unlawful Delegation of Legislative Authority

ATLANTA, Aug. 18. —(AP)—Constitutionality of sections of the National Industrial Recovery Act, relating to the construction code, was attacked yesterday by attorneys for John E. Whitley, LaGrange, Ga., contractor, whom the government is seeking to enjoin permanently from violating wage and hour provisions of the law.

Whitley's attorneys told Circuit Judge Samuel H. Sibley, presiding in federal court for this particular case, that the act is "an unlawful delegation of legislative authority of the President of the United States without proper and adequate expressed limitations and safeguards thereupon."

Whitley sought dismissal of the civil action against him on the grounds that the act is unconstitutional. He is a personal and political friend of Gov. Eugene Talmadge. The state highway department now is carrying out Whitley's two state aid projects, the board having taken them over after the government temporarily enjoined him.

After attorneys for Whitley made the statement that the highway board "forcibly" had taken over contracts on the two state aid projects, the government immediately challenged the defense to prove it.

The government charges Whitley had been paying his labor on road construction jobs at the rate of 10 to 12 cents an hour and working them as much as 16 hours a day. The code scale is 40 cents an hour for 40 hours per week.

Just before Whitley's lawyers attacked the NIRA's constitutionality, Irwin Geiger, special counsel for the litigation division of NIRA, and Niel Andrews, an assistant district attorney, told the court that the government had sought to subpoena Whitley's records and checks but that Whitley had refused on the grounds that compliance with the order might incriminate him in his later criminal case trial.

The government, in information filed at Macon, charged Whitley had violated the wage and hour provisions of the code in at least 70 instances. This case is scheduled to be heard next month.

Fights, Sluggings Feature Passage Of Long-Keyped Acts

BATON ROUGE, Aug. 18. —(AP)—Amidst a welter of parliamentary confusion marked by the exclusion of newspaper representatives from the house, sluggings in the lobby, fist fights on the floor, and arrests in various parts of the state house, the Louisiana legislature today handed over to the Huey P. Long machine the broadest powers of military and political control ever conferred on a single faction in Louisiana.

Squads of state highway policemen and state bureau of criminal investigation officers in plain clothes swarmed through the state house throughout the night as the house and senate rushed through Long-endorsed measures in an after midnight session.

Woolen Workers Vote To Join Textile Group In General Strike Over Nation

By The Associated Press
Strikes involving 325,000 additional workers were voted last night in the woolen and worsted, silk, rayon and synthetic-rayon knitters industries by the convention of the United Textile Workers of America. The convention yesterday voted a strike in the cotton textile industry, which employs 600,000 workers.

The votes to call our workers in the industries allied with the cotton textile industry were by a large majority.

George A. Sloan, president of the Cotton Textile Institute, Inc., said last night in an address that he could "imagine nothing more fatal to the Recovery program and the NRA than the employment of a strike as a weapon to compel the government to change a code after approved."

He made the assertion in connection with comment on the strike called by cotton textile industry workers meeting in New York. The workers demand a maximum of 30 hours a week, increased wages, representation on the code authority and provisions as to the "stretchout."

"Code amendment by strike is law-making by strike," he said. "A code is the exercise of the sovereign law making power of the nation. If that national power is to be abdicated into a particular act by industrial warfare with all its inevitable disorder and public and private suffering, the NRA can no longer demand the confidence of the public."

"A strike is not an instrument of reason addressed to that national power. It is a weapon of force wielded to a dragon the exercise of that national power. This principle I regard as the vital issue x x x."

Thurston Names 2 Standing Groups For Jaycee Work

George Thurston, acting president of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce until the return on Sept. 15 of President Gordon J. Barnett, today named the personnel of the first several important standing committees.

Faced with the need for an immediate membership drive, Mr. Thurston selected Chandler Shannon as chairman of a Membership Committee which includes V. A. Williams as vice-chairman, S. O. Shubolser, Jr., F. D. Scott, Bill Dullouse, and Irvin Jackson.

This group is expected to conduct a canvass of the city, seeking members, next week.

The Reception Committee will have James A. Wright as chairman, L. P. Hagan, Jr., D. I. Harper, and Wallace Phillips as members.

Mr. Thurston announced that he expects every member of the organization to attend a special business meeting at the Sanford Country Club next Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock.

A feature of that meeting will be a discussion of dates for regular business meetings, tentatively set for the first and third Thursday nights of each month. Selection of a meeting place also will be featured.

The local organization was in receipt today, Mr. Thurston revealed, of a letter from C. A. Tutewiler, president of the Jacksonville Jaycees, congratulating Mr. Barnett upon his election, and adding, "I am sure that your organization will be a large factor in promoting the growth of your community, and I wish at this time to offer the co-operation of the Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce at any time that we can be of service to you."

PEOPLE HAVE NOT BEEN MISLED, IS FARLEY'S CLAIM

Roosevelt Has Gone Directly To Nation In Every Crisis, He Says

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 18. —(AP)—Postmaster General Farley last night said there had been no attempt to hide the inner conditions of the New Deal and that the people have been given a true picture from time to time of its progress.

Farley said President Roosevelt had often gone directly to the people presenting national affairs whether "favorable or temporarily unfavorable. If unfavorable, they have been told the cause and the means taken to remedy the condition. They have not been misled."

A great many of the protesters against the New Deal, Farley said, especially talk of its unconstitutionality. "Smoke screens" thrown out to obscure the antagonism that the enemies of the Roosevelt Administration feel for the very soul and spirit of the New Deal.

"They see control of the government slipping from their grasp; they see the handwriting on the wall; they are counting the days and hours of a fast ebbing career—this selfish old gang of the old guard. They raise these smoke screens because they are against the recognition of the rights of the average man and the average woman, the rights that have been rescued and preserved to the people of the country by the liberal leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Members of the congregation of the First Christian Church which is located on Sanford Avenue at 10th Street today were awaiting with interest the appearance on Sunday morning of their new pastor, Rev. Welcomed to the city by several of the leading members of the congregation, Rev. Forbes lost no time in establishing himself and his family in the church parsonage on Magnolia Avenue between Eighth and Ninth Street.

The new minister was born in North Carolina 32 years ago. After his graduation from Milligan College near Johnson City, Tenn., he came to Florida and Ft. Pierce in 1928.

While at college, Rev. Forbes represented that institution for two consecutive years in inter-collegiate debates. All except one debate went in his favor by the unanimous vote of the judges.

PUBLIC MUST AID IN SLOT MACHINE WAR, SAYS BOYLE

State's Attorney Puts Responsibility Of Operation On People

"Complete and permanent removal of the slot machine menace in this city and state can come only when responsible citizens volunteer their services as witnesses against persons discovered in the act of using a slot or vending machine as a gambling device."

That was the plea made this morning by State's Attorney L. F. Boyle upon receipt of Governor Sholtz's demand that "with ample law existent for the suppression of all slot machines and other devices used for gambling, I must insist that these laws be enforced."

Announcing an intention of joining with Sheriff J. F. McClelland in campaign to enforce the laws referred to by Governor Sholtz, Mr. Boyle added that "Such enforcement on our part cannot be effectively brought about unless we have the assistance of responsible citizens which, I hope they are now ready to give."

Pointing out that neither he nor Sheriff McClelland could enter any building and seize a slot machine just because they had heard rumors that it had been used as a gambling device in violation of state laws, Mr. Boyle reminded the public that definite evidence of illegal operation is necessary if prosecution is to be successful.

"It naturally follows that if we are seen entering a building in which a slot machine is in operation," he said, "the operator as well as the owner of the establishment will immediately cease using it as a gambling device, if that is the use in which the machine had been put before we entered, and our (Continued On Page Two)

3 BILLION PWA GRANT SHRINKS TO 4 MILLIONS

Requests For Cash Are Still Coming In Although Allotments Have Reduced Fund

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. —(AP)—Allotments of $24,540,270 yesterday drained all but $4,581,141 from the Public Works fund which once amounted to $1,700,000,000.

Requests for money running into the billions remain on the waiting list and officials are looking hopefully toward the Reconstruction Corporation and President Roosevelt for more funds.

The new allotments went to 215 non-federal projects, most of them in the drought states, and a majority for schools, water and sewage systems. New York received the largest share for any one city, $4,006,000 for hospitals, piers, water works and a laboratory.

As the PWA money supply dropped to the paltry—comparatively speaking—$4,500,000, it was announced expenditures on projects were bringing direct employment near the anticipated peak of 700,000. Indirect employment is estimated at double that figure in industries furnishing and transportation materials.

The allotments yesterday are expected by PWA to provide $102,400 man-months of direct employment on construction sites. Recipients have promised work could be started within a short time.

At the moment the RPY appears to be the best source for more Public Works funds. Congress authorized it to buy securities held by PWA up to $250,000,000 at any one time. PWA can use the money obtained from this revolving fund only for loans.

James Jones, RFC chairman, has been studying a list of the approximately $157,000,000 in bonds PWA has obtained as security for advances. Already the RFC has placed slightly less than $9,000,000 of such securities on the market as a "seller."

There is some question as to whether public agencies will be overly eager to obtain loans only from PWA. A big majority of allotments to non-federal projects has been on the basis of loans plus outright grants.

Some communities are reported to be finding they can market bonds at a better rate than the four percent interest PWA charges on loans.

German Jews Vote To Support Hitler In Sunday Election

Surprise Statement Reveals Society In Agreement With Hindenburg's Will

BERLIN, Aug. 18. —(A.P.)—Jews came forward today to support Adolf Hitler in tomorrow's plebiscite called to approve his assumption of the office of a President.

A statement of the National German Society of Jews said "We find ourselves in agreement with the political testament of the honored Paul von Hindenburg. To the German Fatherland belong also the life and soul of the German Jews who do not know any other Fatherland."

The surprising and carefully worded statement continued: "In the spirit of the late President's will we also approve the joining of the chancellor and president's offices."

How one section of Berlin's Jewish population feels about the plebiscite, however, was indicated in the statement of several middle class Jews to the Associated Press.

They said they would cast ballots "Because Nazi pressure compels us," but these votes will be blank.

Adolf Hitler pleaded earnestly with all German last night to approve his succession to the powers of Reichs President von Hindenburg, an action he asserted was made necessary by foreign hostility toward Germany and economic distress at home.

He made no effort to cover up the present economic difficulties of the reich, but on the other hand referred to them as conditions calling for a strong central government.

Hitler referred to the possibility that some foreign circles which predicted trouble after the death of von Hindenburg cherished the thought there would be confusion "here and abroad" and the already existing "international uncertainties" would be added to by new intrigues.

His address in this hard-hit seaport was the climax of a whirlwind campaign which will culminate Sunday in the plebiscite on one question—whether the Germans sanction Hitler's assumption of presidential powers.

The vigor of the campaign—its hundreds of speeches by lesser Nazis, testimonials by leaders in every sphere of activity and slogans and appeals to every possible medium—and the seriousness of the foeher last night made it evident that Nazism is fighting firmly for a vote so large and so favorable that the future course of the regime cannot be questioned.

A comparatively small audience applauded his sallies against "international enemies"—"the small clique of international troublemakers who live on stirring up discord in the world."

To some neutral observers the speech marked a big stride forward from July 18 when in the Reichstag he gave his explanation of the killings in connection with his "purge" of June 30. Then he seemed tired and discouraged.

Yesterday he was earnest and forceful.

"To foreign strictures about harsh methods," he said in the course of his address, "I can only reply that our party has lost in its legal fight for power 400 dead and more than 43,000 wounded."

"We do not wish to shed blood; we did not thirst for revenge; we only want to win the people over to a new community system."

Shirley Temple Takes A Bow In New Movie

Shirley Temple's bow is entitled to take a bow for her performance in "Baby, Take A Bow," which opens Sunday at the Millane Theater. The work of this five-year-old girl is really astonishing. She possesses the grace and intelligence of a grown person and a personality that will carry her far.

And giving all this space to little Shirley is not to belittle the performances turned in by the group of actors in the cast. James Dunn and Claire Trevor are excellent as little Shirley's parents. Alan Dinehart has his amusing moments as the blundering detective who is dogging Dunn's heels. The picture is a comedy-drama entering around Shirley Temple and her young parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Barnett of Fern Park left here at noon today for a three week motor tour of the South and Middle-West. They expect to return to this section about Sept. 15.

With the insertion in The Herald of an advertisement for bids for paints and materials, definite assurance was released that the City Hall would be done over from top to bottom starting next week. The city is supplying the materials, including 240 gallons of paint, and every piece of wood in the building will be done over by a crew of FERA workers. Probably the best feature of the entire project is the fact the peeling of the main auditorium will be painted white instead of the dark color which has detracted from the beauty of the interior. Redecoration of this room in cheery colors is being done for the purpose of putting life into the largest municipally owned auditorium in the city.

Schoolboy Rowe Hurls 14th Straight Win, Giving Tigers An Even Break With Yankees

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

YANKEES STADIUM, NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, Detroit's 22-year-old pitching sensation from El Dorado, Ark., tossed the New York Yankees on their collective heads yesterday for the second time in three days and swept to his fourteenth consecutive victory of the American League campaign on the crest of a dazzling shutout performance.

Despite a heavy fall in the second inning, when he tripped over third base and nearly broke his ankle, Rowe recovered from a streak of subsequent wildness to check the Yankees with three solitary singles, strikes out no less than 11 batters and add a 10-0 triumph to his remarkable winning streak.

The "Great One" who has won within two games of equaling the record American League streak of 16 jointly held by Joe Wood, Walter Johnson and Bob Grove, pitched the Tigers to an even break in the concluding double-header of the crucial series and thrilled a crowd of 46,571 spectators.

Vernon (Lefty) Gomez, obtaining revenge for his shelling in the first game of the series, blanked the Yankees by 5 to 0 in yesterday's opener, thanks to a heavy early attack on Vic Sorrell, but the Tigers left three out of five games in their bag and a commanding margin of five and a half games over New York in the pennant race.

Brilliant pitching thus marked both ends of the double bill but Rowe was easily the hero as he handed the Yankees their second coat of whitewash for 1934 and the third they have experienced for two seasons. Bob Grove turned the trick last year, after two years without a shutout, and Earl Whitehill of the Senators blanked them with one hit earlier this season.

The big schoolboy was wilder but also more effective than when he whipped the Yankees in the second game of last Tuesday's doubleheader. He was in serious trouble only once, in the sixth, when the Yankees filled the bases with two out on a pair of passes and a single by Jack Saltgaver. Rowe fanned Bill Dickey to close this critical frame, besides striking out Babe Ruth, pinch hitting in the eighth, for Ben Chapman, and whiffing the mighty Lou Gehrig in the ninth. Rowe struck out everybody who faced him except Saltgaver and George Selkirk, the recruit outfielder.

This was Rowe's fourth victory over the Yankees since he began his winning streak and his eighteenth of the season but he had a narrow escape from serious injury when he caught his foot in the bag while running like a log, twisting his ankle and rolled in apparent agony while the players rushed up to him. It looked as though he was through for the day but after first aid treatment and a rest he hobbled back into action and soon shook off the effects of the mishap.

FILM FLICKERS

By GLADYS WILLIAMS

Shirley Temple certainly is entitled to take a bow for her performance in "Baby, Take a Bow" which opens at the Milane Theatre on Sunday, Aug. 19. This picture is a comedy-drama centering around Shirley Temple and her young parents. Its theme is James Dunn's struggle for happiness in spite of the handicap of a prison record. Claire Trevor is the young wife who believes in him. Little Shirley, their adorable baby daughter, lends merriment to the action and turns a trick in the nick of time that makes her the heroine of the drama. Entertainment for the entire family.

"You Can't Buy Everything," the gripping drama that shows at the Milane on Tuesday, Aug. 21, presents May Robson as a woman who, flitted by a young banker in her youth, has two thoughts—to become the richest woman in the world and to get revenge. She finally has her chance to wreck the lover of her youth, only to find that her son and the daughter of the banker are in love. The cast includes Lewis Stone, William Bakewell, and Jean Parker.

"Coconut Grove Revue" is the stage show for Tuesday that features Paul Cholet, leading comedian and master of ceremonies, with a variety of entertainment from a company of twenty-five artists.

Paul Lucas appears on the screen at the local theatre on Wednesday, Aug. 22, in his latest role "The Affairs of a Gentleman." Universal's sparkling drama, with Lella Hyams, Dorothy Burgess, Lillian Bond and others.

The story concerns a successful author, who, sated with life, is suddenly discovered dead in his apartment. It looks like suicide but murder is suspected. Into the investigation is dragged the man's former flames—and then things happen. This film is for grown-ups. Wednesday is Bank Night, remember.

Thursday and Friday, Aug. 23-24 find Wheeler and Woolsey playing the roles of "Cockeyed Cavaliers" at the Milane. The mad and merry comedies are comic thrills whose vagabonding leads them into complication with barons, and dukes and their ladies. A hilarious comedy that you will enjoy.

Saturday's program includes "We're Rich Again" in which dainty Marion Nixon portrays the poor country girl who is plunged into the mad whirl of society and, of course, walks off with the richest prize.

HENRY RAINEY SUCCUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

Picturesque Speaker Of House Had Been Under Observation In St. Paul Hospital

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—The flag flew at half staff over the Capitol today as Washington sorrowed over Henry T. Rainey and wondered who would fill his powerful post.

The white haired speaker succumbed at St. Louis last night to angina pectoris after he was reported on an attack of bronchial pneumonia.

A kindly man who could become stern in putting the Roosevelt New Deal through the House, his death came as a shock to friend and foe alike.

The successor to the speaker's chair considered by many to be the second most important post in the government, is in doubt.

With Democrats virtually assured of a majority, indications are that the speakership will fall among Representatives Joseph W. Byrnes of Tennessee, leader of the House and chairman of the powerful Democratic Congressional Committee; Sam Rayburn of Texas, William B. Bankhead and John McDuffie of Alabama, Clifford Woodrum of Virginia, Lindsay Warren of North Carolina and John McCormack of Massachusetts.

Rainey ascended to the speaker's chair after serving two years as Democratic leader under John Garner, then speaker.

When he took the speaker's chair at the behest of Garner the Illinois veteran surrendered his post as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee which originates all revenue and tariff bills.

President Roosevelt today planned to attend the funeral if arrangements are such as to permit him to leave Washington.

Definite plans were to be made this afternoon after telephone conferences between Mrs. Rainey and White House officials.

Mr. Rainey died quietly at 7:50 P. M., three hours after Mrs. Rainey, happy over the apparent marked improvement in the condition of her husband, had left the hospital after spending the afternoon with him.

Three physicians, hurriedly summoned, and a hospital supervisor were with the speaker when he died.

Dr. H. W. Soper, in charge of the physicians attending Mr. Rainey, said he developed angina pectoris and died before medical science could aid him.

A native of Carrollton, Ill., his home throughout his life, Mr. Rainey, first was elected to Congress from the 20th Illinois district in 1902. Except for the handling of the 1920 election, when he was defeated although running ahead of the Democratic, Mr. Rainey was returned in each biennial election.

Johnson Will Continue As Director Of Recovery Act; Reaction To News Awaited

POND, SABELLI, OCEAN FLIERS, CRASH ON HILL

Slated Rome-Dublin Hop Ends In Wafes After Rough Flight

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Administration officials last night awaited reaction of the nation's business to the announcement that General Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery administrator, is not going to resign.

Johnson's decision was announced after a White House conference with President Roosevelt. Earlier the administrator had said his job had become "too big for one man" and he proposed creation of a board to replace him.

The President has agreed on the board proposal, with Johnson as chairman. Thus Johnson's title will be altered but he still will be in supreme command of the Recovery forces.

Business is known to be worried over the Recovery Administration's future and Johnson's anxiety to quit was said to be a disquieting factor. He admittedly has kept the vast Recovery unit closely knit. He has gone about the land battling its critics. He has carried the NRA through shell fire of a thousand disputes and emerged without a defeat. The consensus here was that if Johnson quit, his lieutenants who helped chart NRA's turbulent course, would quit also. Also uneasiness was concerned with what would happen if the new board took over without Johnson's guiding hand at the helm.

Many code authorities already have raised informal objections on the ground the group may develop into a brain trust. Others feared a political setup. Still others envisioned abolition of the Blue Eagle, probably the most potent symbol in American business.

These considerations, plus Johnson's own apparent anxiety, were believed to have prompted Mr. Roosevelt's reassurance, pledge of confidence or whatever it was that changed Johnson's mind.

The board set up contemplates no administrative changes. It probably will include about 200 members, each charged with administration of some unit of NRA, but still subordinate to Johnson. The plan is expected to be outlined shortly.

Chicago Child Dies As Bullet Drills His Head While At Play

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Shot in the head as he sat with his baby brother in a little red wagon, two and a half year old Robert Pitts, Jr., died today in a South Chicago hospital.

A bullet had interrupted his happy command of "guiding horse," given to his parents. The shot was fired by one of four men riding in a sedan.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pitts, Sr., were imitating a team of horses for their children. As they drew the wagon down the sidewalk, a shot rang out.

"Then Robert gave a little cry," said Pitts. "We looked around and there he was, toppled out of the wagon, a bullet hole in his head."

Pitts said the sedan then disappeared around the corner. The father, a janitor, asserted he has no enemies, and he did not think the killer was aiming at him.

Hobbs, Employee Of Purcell Co., Is Missing Three Days

Mr. Hobbs failed to put in an appearance at the Purcell Store on Saturday morning, and since then he has not been heard from. It was learned that a portion of his clothing had been removed from his room in the Welka building, and that his automobile also is missing.

Mr. Hobbs is well-known in Sanford. He was formerly employed as a bookkeeper for Riva's Garage and for the Gulf Refining Co. He was originally from Wilmington, N. C., and he became associated with the Purcell firm when it opened a branch here early in May.

BANK DEPOSITS UP 3 BILLIONS IN 12 MONTHS

Re-Opening Of Closed Institutions, Return Of Confidence Held Accounting For Gain

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—A three-billion dollar increase in bank deposits in 12 months was reported yesterday by J. F. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency.

Other sources attributed the rise to two major factors—first, that more than 500 banks re-opened during the year ended June 30, and, second, that the new deposit insurance law had stimulated confidence in persons who felt insecure after the 1933 financial crisis.

O'Connor's review, based on the last National Bank call, showed the deposits had risen $1,142,173,000 since Mar. 5 and $3,158,545,000 in 12 months.

The number of banks licensed on June 30 stood 5422 compared with 4902 a year previous.

These gains, bringing deposits of National Banks up to $19,932,660,000, were accompanied, however, by a contraction of more than $400,000,000 in loans and discounts. The decrease reflected in part a steadily slackening demand by business for credit accommodation. Residues declined from $102,176,000 to $2,007,000.

Loans and discounts, which were $8,116,972,000 June 30, 1933, dropped to $7,899,270,000 on Mar. 5 and to $7,894,740,000 as of the last call.

Of particular interest, because of the increasing federal deficit, was the $1,614,165,000 gain in the National Banks' holdings of federal bonds, in addition to $357,911,000 of government guaranteed obligations of the Reconstruction Finance, Federal Farm Mortgage and Home Owners' Loan Corporations. Direct government loans held aggregated $5,648,741,000.

Long Assumes Role Of Louisiana Dictator

The legislature which concluded a five-day special session Saturday, morning had made him:

1. Commander of an army.
2. Controller of elections.
3. Referee in an investigation of the hostile New Orleans Government.
4. Overlord of taxes.
5. Dispenser of privileges.
6. Suppressor of gambling.
7. Prosecutor of crime.
8. Disposer of enemy policy.

The powers were legally vested in Governor O. K. Allen, but Senator Long need only say "I'm" and the governor "thops."

Sam Insull Denied Separate Trial On Charges Of Fraud

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Samuel Insull, Sr., was refused a separate trial, and ordered to stand trial with his 14 codefendants on Sept. 18 on a charge that they used the mails fraudulently in marketing corporation securities company stock.

Insull had asked to be tried separately, assuming free responsibility for the conduct of the investment house and its calamitous crash, and pleading that a trial lengthened by the multiplicity of the defense might endanger his health.

United States District Judge James H. Wilkerson himself raised the question today of a continuation of the trial if the elderly defendant should be too ill to attend.

It was intimated that the court might seek a precedent or establish one by allowing Insull to absent himself from the trial when his presence was not actually required.

Wallace Favors Dual Control Of NRA, AAA

ROCKFORD, Ill., Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture, yesterday declared himself in favor of a "national economic council" to co-ordinate activities of the NRA and AAA.

Speaking before several thousand Illinois and Wisconsin farmers at Camp Grant, the secretary advocated an "economic democracy" to give agriculture, labor and finance "their rights."

The council he suggested would have representatives of the farmer, laborer, banker and consumer, with the government acting as referee.

FRUIT GROWER SEES NEW PACT AS HARMFUL

Citrus Market Agree- ment Will Assist Western Growers And Hurt Florida

That the proposed citrus marketing agreement will prevent the shipping of at least twenty percent of Florida's citrus crop next winter to the direct advantage of California citrus growers, is the opinion of H. C. Case, manager of the Flowering Groves at Fort Myers, as expressed in a letter received today by The Sanford Herald. Mr. Case further discussed the proposed marketing agreement as follows:

"Editor Sanford Herald: 'Newspaper reports of what happened at the citrus hearing in Orlando the past two days have been so colored from a new angle that it is hard for the grower and others interested to get a coherent picture of what it is all about. Yet because it will vitally affect Florida's industry and either directly or indirectly every Floridian, it is important that the issues be understood.

"The Control Committee, of 13 members, has failed from the first to gain the confidence of the citrus industry. A group of seven of the 13 members formed an iron-clad clique of their own before the formal organization of the committee and ruled its every action with an iron hand from the start. This clique comprised mainly the exchange and auction interests, as opposed to the independent shipper and grower interests. This interests representing about a third of the citrus crop, in tonnage, ruled the Control Committee from the start.

The other six members went through the motions of attending the meetings, but in effect were mere dummies. They were refused any information as to the basis used for the weekly priorities (which it was the duty of the Control Committee to make, under the agreement). The secretary had it all made up when the committee met, the seven approved it, and that was that. Requests for detailed information from any of the other six were turned aside by evasions or ruled out of order by the chairman.

"Naturally rumors of something rotten in Denmark began to get about. Growers and shippers alike, seeking information they felt they were entitled to as members of the industry, sought it in vain.

"All this secrecy and the rule of the committee by minority interests was very galling to the two-thirds of the industry which thus failed of any representation in fact. However, the run-of-the-mine American citizen is law-abiding, and the interests thus shut off from a voice in operation of the

Slot Machines Disappear From Ocala After Sheriff Warns All Operators

OCALA, Aug. 20.—The slot machines that have been operating in many a filling station and soft (and hard) drink stand in Marion county for many years did a vanishing act yesterday, following a warning issued by State's Attorney A. P. Bule and the sheriff's office.

The warning was published in yesterday's Ocala Morning Banner. By afternoon, the sheriff's office had been reliably informed, all, or nearly all, of the slot machines had been removed by the county's Slot Machine King.

"And how long will this purging last?" the Banner reporter inquired. That caused a laugh.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Wakulla county officials made their first "slot machine" arrest Saturday following Governor Sholtz's recent order to stamp out gambling devices in the state. J. R. Patten, of Wakulla, was arrested by County Sheriff E. C. Ferrel and charged with possessing a slot machine. Patten pleaded guilty before County Judge A. L. Porter, and was fined $25 and court costs.

From other quarters came a report that slot machines were still hobbling up niches as late as 10 o'clock last night. An informant

Talmadge Enters Last Stage Of Campaign Predicting An Easy Victory In Every County

ATLANTA, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Charges of nepotism, opposition to the Roosevelt Recovery program, the operation of a pardon racket and political dictatorship ringing in his ears, Governor Eugene Talmadge enters the last month of his campaign for a second term this week with a prophecy, that he would carry all 121 counties in the Sept. 12 Democratic primary.

Judge Claude Pittman, of Cartersville, and Alderman Ed A. Gilliam, of Atlanta, are the two men who seek to turn Talmadge out of the governor's executive chair. If one of them should succeed, it would be the first time a governor of Georgia had been defeated for a second term since Joe Brown beat Governor Hoke Smith in a historical campaign in 1908.

Pittman, a vigorous campaigner from the north Georgia mountains has charged repeatedly that Talmadge and his "henchmen" have indulged in the sale of pardons; that that governor has actively opposed the Roosevelt recovery program, that he has "filled the capitol with his relatives" and that he dictates the policies and employees of all departments of state.

The Cartersville jurist charges also that Talmadge has actively opposed the NRA minimum wage scale of 40 cents an hour and this the governor admits.

"It isn't right, it isn't fair," Talmadge said, "to pay negro highway workers 40 cents an hour for pushing a wheelbarrow or shoveling dirt when white men and women in fields alongside these same roads are making scarcely 40 cents a day."

The governor also voices his opinion that workers paid by state agencies, such as the state highway board, should not be paid higher wages than the farmers and other workers who pay the taxes.

In his campaign, held usually in wooded groves, the governor has been giving the voters of Georgia what he himself calls a "good show."

Hillbilly bands render the ballads of the mountains and two "fiddlers" well known to Georgia audiences are regular attractions. "Professor" John Anderson sings an original ditty about "how the opposition lies" and "Fiddlin' John" Carson plays and sings a song, one verse of which goes like this:

"I've got a Eugene dog,
"I've got a Eugene cat,
"I'm a Talmadge man,
"From my shoes to my hat."

After this introduction, Talmadge steps up to the loud speaker, shucks his coat and waving the red bandana handkerchief and snapping the red suspenders that are as much a part of this campaign as the brown derby was to Al Smith in 1928, launches into a vigorous defense of his record and a denunciation of his two opponents, whom he terms merely as "the opposition." Never once during the campaign has Talmadge mentioned Pittman or Gilliam by name.

The governor points to his executive order cutting the state automobile license tag fee to a flat $3 (Continued From Page Four)

ADOLF HITLER "WINNER" OF BIG "VICTORY"

38,362,000 Vote Him Support On Sunday Some See Him Losing Ground In Germany

BERLIN, Aug. 20.—(A.P.)—Germany has given Adolf Hitler a 38,000,000 vote "Ja."

In Sunday's one-man election, called to let the people say by ballot if they approved Chancellor Hitler's action in naming himself upon the death of President von Hindenburg as President, the vote was:

Yes, 38,362,000.
No, 4,294,000.
Invalid, 872,000.

Some see in these preliminary official figures a waning in enthusiasm, pointing out that yesterday's "No" votes were more than twice the number as were cast in last November's plebiscite.

Attention is also called to the sharp decline in the volume of the Nazi party votes as compared with the November voting when there were more than 43,000,000 "Ja" ballots.

About 43,000,000 German voters opposed Chancellor Hitler's seizure of the Reichs presidency, virtually complete returns in the national plebiscite showed early yesterday.

The preliminary final returns made public at 1 A. M. were: Yes, 38,379,154; no, 4,278,808; invalid, 871,054; total vote cast, 43,528,378.

A rising tide of four to five million Germans turned against Hitler in Sunday's plebiscite, but his Nazi machine delivered an overwhelming "victory" to the Reichschoer in his move to swing the entire nation into line behind him.

The anti-Hitler vote was heaviest in the South and West, Catholic and industrial strongholds. The millions who dared vote "nein" on the resolution (Continued on Page Two).
