Strolling In Sanford

Veterans of this area who need assistance in obtaining benefits provided by law may receive guidance from Tom B. Dean, assistant state service officer, Veterans county service office, 1000 N. Main St., while he is here and may receive assistance in filling applications for hospitalization, compensation, pensions, loan benefits, educational training, burial benefits and miscellaneous subjects, where legal entitlement is involved.

Dean comes to this area as a special consultant to Wesley Housholder, county service officer, 1000 N. Main St., and may be contacted there at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

City water was cut off this morning from 7:00 o'clock from Olive Ave. and 11th St. west to Crook's Academy and south to the City limits to allow contractors to tie in new pipelines.

Another reminder that a base-Jail meeting is to be held at 7:30 p. m. today at the City Hall to discuss a proposal to have a Florida State League team here next year.

Kay Shoemaker of Sanford has recently joined the organization of Lowell Oiler, Sanford home builder, according to an announcement today by Mr. Oiler. Shoemaker is a graduate of the University of Florida, receiving his degree in construction engineering there in 1952. He has had several years' experience in civil and municipal engineering work, and has worked with the Army Engineers in Korea. He received his discharge from the army in May of this year and has been recently employed by Phillips Properties in Orlando. Oiler stated that Shoemaker will be engaged in engineering and design work and will be in charge of the project.

Chief Advises Safety Check

City firemen responded to a house fire call about 8 a. m. today at 508 E. Fifth St., caused by a defective chimney, according to Fire Chief Mack Cleveland.

The building is occupied by Cal. W. Overstreet.

Chief Cleveland did not estimate the damage, but warned all home owners in the city to check all heating units before turning them on.

"With the advent of cold weather," Cleveland warned, "we have a rash of fires break out every year, which could be avoided as long with the resultant danger to life and property, if proper protective measures were taken."

"Many of the calls the department responds to at this time of year directly result from faulty flues and chimneys. Home owners should check their heating units and venting outlets to determine whether any clogged condition or obstruction exists," he added.

Chief Cleveland also recommended that leaves and trash be cleaned from gutters and drains, for sometimes, he explained, sparks from chimneys can ignite them.

"In this way the annual fire loss throughout the city can be materially reduced," he said.

Famous Nurse Left For War Century Ago

LONDON (AP)—One hundred years ago tomorrow a determined and dedicated English nurse set sail for the Crimea where Britain and France were at war with Russia.

Reports of suffering among the sick and wounded soldiers had aroused Britain's secretary of war, Sidney Herbert. He sent the nurse—Florence Nightingale—on a historic mission of mercy.

In the utter confusion of battle field casualty stations, the 34-year-old nurse fought through swarms of military red tape to organize effective care for the sick and maimed. The death rate in her hospitals dropped from 42 per cent to 2 per cent.

Among her staff of nurses were five nuns from Our Lady of Mercy Convent in Bermondsey, the first Roman Catholic convent established in England after the reformation. Bernard Cardinal Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster, Britain's leading Catholic churchman has selected a high mass in their memory.

After the Crimean War, Miss Nightingale returned to England and turned her battle-tested talents to reform of civilian hospital care.

In 1907, when she was 87, she was awarded the Order of Merit—one of Britain's highest honors. Three years later the nurse whose name became a legend in her lifetime died in her London home.

Kiwanians Sell 767 Grid Ducats

Club Sponsoring Tilt Here To Get Funds For Charity

With an advance sale goal of 1,000 set, ticket sales for the Kiwanis Club-sponsored football game today hit the 767 mark with one of 10 teams not yet reporting, according to advance sales chairman David Gatchel.

The game, to be played between the local Seminoles and Ketterling High School of St. Augustine, will take place Friday night in the Memorial Stadium. One football game is sponsored every year by the local Kiwanis Club to obtain money for its underprivileged children's fund.

This year, advance sales have already exceeded by 80 those of last year. The sales are handled by Kiwanian teams captained by Dr. L. T. Doss, Lester Tharp, F. L. Lane, Clifford McKibbin, R. T. Milner, Irving Pryor, James Grant, Joel Field, Floyd Palmer and Robert Brown.

Top sales team at a luncheon meeting of the club today at the Yacht Club was that captained by Tharp. Topping individual sales is Howard Monteth.

Overall boss of the program committee having charge of the event is J. C. Davis. He and Gatchel expect to reach the 1,000 mark by Friday.

After initial expenses, all monies derived will be split evenly between the high school and the Kiwanis club, which will devote all its profits to underprivileged children. Gatchel emphasized that expenses did not come out of the fund, but all profits went into it. Only under very unusual circumstances, Gatchel said, are any of these funds diverted outside Seminole County.

Kiwanians will swarm over the stadium Friday night to handle all functions concerning the game. Davis announced. Among those serving will be ticket sellers Mack Cleveland, Rupert Strickland and Al Wilson; ticket takers David Smith, Pryor, Fred Murray and O. K. Goff, and peanut and soft drink salesmen, H. B. McCall, Grant, Peter Bukur, Woodrow Cass, McKibbin, F. C. Finn and Brown. Signals used by Field and Ted Williams, during the game will be manned by Principal speaker at the inter-club meeting today with the Lake Wier club was Jack Giamber, manager of the Mayfair Inn, who told the assembly how happy he was to be in Sanford and thanked residents for their kindness to him.

Member discussed renovations taking place at the hotel and the Mayfair Inn country club, and then, after saying how amazed he was at the lack of convention in the city, he told the group what could be done to bring more of them here.

Carbon Monoxide Gas Fatal To Eight In Rooming House
DETROIT (AP)—Deadly carbon monoxide gas fumes, seeping from a faulty chimney, last night killed eight occupants of a rooming house for men on the edge of Detroit's downtown district.

Nine other roomers were rushed to downtown Receiving Hospital for emergency treatment. Their condition was said to be "temporarily serious," according to one of the victims who identified as Muroc Emine, 75, of Detroit.

Hospital attendants said most of the victims were clad only in night clothes making positive identification difficult. Most of the victims were between 50 and 70.

Police said 24 persons occupied the three-story rooming house run out of gasoline. A passerby, Norman Kimble, Orinda, had taken Crews into Mims for gasoline, according to the driver, and they had returned before the accident. Crews said that while he was refueling into a tank he saw the car approaching. When he saw it going to hit the truck, he ran past the forward end of the vehicle. Kimble was standing at the rear of the truck and ran past its rear toward safety, according to Crews, and had just cleared the trailer when the car hit.

Crews said the car passed between a flare, located at the center of the road, and the edge of the highway. The automobile rebounded off the left set of dual wheels at the rear of the truck and went down about a 10-foot embankment and stopped in a water-filled ditch. Graham crawled out a window to the top of the car, Crews said, from whence he was rescued by the truck driver and the passerby. He was taken to Cocoon by a Sanford ambulance. The truck was moved approximately 20 feet by the force of the impact, which moved the left duals out at an angle of about 20 degrees. The brakes on the trailer were not locked, according to Crews. Highway Patrol, who investigated the accident, stands at the point of impact. The truck was loaded with 12 tons of meat scraps. Crews estimated the speed of the oncoming car at 70 miles per hour, while Graham, according to the trooper, said he was traveling 50 miles per hour. (Staff Photos)

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—An off-duty police sergeant saved a woman from jumping into the St. Johns River from the Main Street Bridge last night by grabbing her hand.

Passing Of A Boss

For more than 20 years E. H. "Boss" Crump was the political power in Tennessee. His machine was never beaten in Memphis or in Shelby County. Representatives, Senators and Governors were made or broken at the giving or withholding of his support. Now at 80, the last of the big-city bosses of the old school, Boss Crump is dead. His death marks the end of a political era.

In 1918 a new star appeared on the Tennessee horizon. Estes Kefauver, running without Crump's blessing, won easily over a Crump-backed candidate for the Senate. A number of other candidates turned back Crump's candidates. In subsequent elections he recouped some of his losses but never regained entirely his statewide influence.

Political techniques have changed and while there are still powerful big-city machines they are seldom so completely under the domination of one man. The removal of many voters from crowded metropolitan areas to the suburbs, the coming of social legislation which made poor people dependent upon the charity of the political boss, have played a part in this change. Progress in education has made many voters unwilling to surrender their political privileges to a machine.

The worst sin of the political bosses was not the fact that some of them were guilty of aches. Rather it was that they used the ballot box, designed as an instrument of self-government, to build up their personal power.

Diplomacy By Mail

In three years about 7,000 Americans have corresponded with 10,000 people overseas under the auspices of the Cleveland Council on World Affairs through a "Letters Abroad" program. There is still a need for Americans who would like to establish letter-writing relationships with people in other countries. The program has proved so successful that it is now operated on a nationwide scale.

The idea behind the program is simple but effective. Private citizens, corresponding with other private citizens in foreign lands, can establish friendly relationships in a manner that diplomatic channels can never accomplish. A free exchange of ideas is possible so that Americans can understand other peoples and the other peoples get a better idea of what Americans are.

The world grows smaller every day and the well-being of people everywhere is part of one pattern. Friendly correspondence by Americans with foreigners can serve a useful purpose that may pay great future dividends in international understanding.

This is a claim that really makes his eye light up in talk of his future in "Gettysburg."

Others have told this reporter another two years in control of Congress could have a lot to do with making up the President's mind.

It is hard to say the President's impression is that he has a man who is planning a home—his first real home in many a year—retire to a quiet life in the White House.

delegate to maintain liaison with the Communist party in this country. He visited Puerto Rico last spring but returned to New York in May.

The arrests brought to 129 the number of Communist leaders seized since July 1948 on charges of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by violence.

FBI agents filed complaints against the 10 Puerto Ricans. Hoover said they would be taken as soon as possible before the nearest U.S. commissioners.

Among those arrested were Juan Santos — Rivera, described by the FBI as a Moscow-trained Communist, and Juan Emmanuelli, who was named as liaison man between Communist parties of the United States and Puerto Rico. The FBI indicated both men were seized in Puerto Rico.

The specific charge against the Puerto Ricans is violation of the Smith Act which forbids conspiracy to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

The FBI gave the following as the identities of those in custody:

Emmanuelli, 47, Puerto Rico. Associated with the Communist movement in New York City and Puerto Rico since 1939. Ranking party leader in New York City until his return to Puerto Rico in 1950.

Santos-Rivera, 51, no address. A Communist since 1932. President of the party in Puerto Rico in the early 1940s.

Eugenio Cuevas Arbona, 34, New York City. Associated with the party since 1941. In 1953, was sent to New York to maintain liaison with the Communist party.

Jorge M. Maysomet-Iernandez, 40, Puerto Rico. Has served as secretary of labor of the municipal committee of the party in San Juan. A member of the party since 1943.

Jane Speed de Andreu, 44, Puerto Rico. Has served in the party central committees. In 1952, was named as secretary of education of the San Juan municipal committee of the party.

Pork Prices Are Important Issue In Iowa Senate Race Campaigning

(Editor's Note—This is another of several stories by roving Associated Press reporters analyzing the campaign in key states.)

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

DES MONES (AP)—The price of ham and eggs—ham on the hoof, that is—is shaping into an important election day factor in Iowa.

In the nation's greatest hog-producing state, the farmer is getting less for hogs while his costs stay up. His wife frequently can't break even on the eggs she carts to market for pin and household money. Most eggs are bringing 16 to 18 cents a dozen and that's far less than the price of a year ago.

Even though they aren't grumbling loudly or saying much about politics or political reprisals, neither farmers nor farm wives are exactly happy about this.

As a result, the Democrats expect to profit at the polls and GOP brows are plowed with lines of worry.

Besides, there are signs that some sort of a Democratic trend may be under way in this part of the farm belt.

It might do no more than cut down some of the usual Republican margins of victory. A tide of unforeseen volume and some real political upsets would be needed for the Democrats to shake any Republicans out of Iowa's eight House seats—all held by the GOP and the gubernatorial mansion.

Yet some Democrats do profess a glimmering hope for electing a governor for the first time since 1936 and a congressman for the first time since 1940.

Trend or no trend, they expect to keep Democrat Guy M. Gillette in the Senate. Gillette has proved he can win in Iowa when no other Democrat can come close. It takes Republican votes for him to do it, and the senator pulls them in.

The GOP is challenging this formidable opponent with Thomas E. Martin, a House member for 16 years. And it keeps pounding hard on the idea that President Eisenhower needs a Republican congress.

Democrat Clyde E. Herffing is battling it out with Republican Leo A. Hoegh for the job. Republican Gov. William B. Hoesly is vacating after three terms. Herffing is the son of the former governor and U. S. senator; Hoegh is the state's attorney general.

And for the first time in years Democrats are putting up a fight all down the line for state and county offices they used to let go by default. These very offices in the Statehouse and courthouse give the GOP a solid core of support in any election.

Six different polls have attempted to test the Iowa political winds. Gillette is leading in three, Martin in three, while Hoegh is in front in five and Herffing in one.

The broadcast sampling of sentiment is the Iowa poll of the Des Moines Register. The tally on Oct. 3 showed Gillette and Hoegh ahead. It also indicated that:

1. Seven of 10 Iowans still "like Ike."
2. A majority expects to back Republican House candidates.
3. Since 1952 some have turned from the Republican to the Democratic party as better for persons in their line of work this sort of switch is apparent among farmers, and
4. There definitely isn't any burning interest in politics or the election.

Disinterested as the voters may be, candidates on both sides are giving the full oratorical treatment to all the usual issues, centering, of course, around what the Eisenhower administration has or hasn't done. They get around to peace, taxes, budget balancing, foreign policy, communism, prosperity.

Gillette says he expects to win on the general issue that there is a "feeling of instability for the future and of double crosses in the past."

"There is general uncertainty everywhere, on the farms and in the cities," he said in an interview.

Martin claims the one big issue is the need for placing Republicans in Congress to support Eisenhower. Gillette, he says, cancels the value of the other Iowa senator, Republican Rourke B. Hick-enlooper.

Gillette counters that on 14 key issues in the Senate he and Hick-enlooper voted the same way on half and differed on half. And on 12 key issues in the House, he says, Marti and H. R. Cross, another Iowa Republican, voted together on half and split on half. He says he can't recall any Democratic votes saved vital parts of the Eisenhower program from destruction at GOP hands.

Gillette is 75, Martin, 51, and some Republicans are whispering a bit about the senator's age. He "pleads guilty" to being a Democrat and to having been "born without any intervention on my part 75 years ago." But he says he doesn't own a wheel chair and lives little significance in Gillette does not need one.

Actually, issues are of comparative bid for another term. If he wins, it will be largely on the basis of a strong personality and a striking appearance that have made friends in both parties—along with his occasional votes siding with the GOP.

Gavilan, Saxton To Meet Tonight For Title Scrap

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Welter weight champion Kid Gavilan predicts he'll knock out Johnny Saxton tonight "if I hit him solid" and Saxton says, "I'm going to be the new champion."
A crowd of around 11,000 may pay around $30,000 for the latest postponed 15-round title bout in Convention Hall.
It will be telecast coast to coast by CBS. Philadelphia and a 100-mile radius around the city, with the exception of New York, will be blacked out of the TV Local stay-at-homes will get a radio broadcast.
Starting time is 10 p.m. EST.
The 28-year-old Cuban, making his eighth title defense, radiates extreme confidence, as usual, as he moved into town from his Sun Mt., N.J., training camp.

"Saxton is a pretty good fighter," said the kid from Camaguey. "He's strong and likes to crowd. I throw plenty of punches at him and we see what happens. If I hit him solid, he goes."
"Gavilan is a great fighter," said the 24-year-old challenger from New York. "I'm in no underestimating him. But I'm confident I've got the strength and style to beat him."
The odds, however, favor the champion at 10-1.
Gavilan said he wasn't worried over going 15 rounds for the first time.

"I've trained hard and long for this one," the muscular Negro youngster said. "I've always had plenty left after 10 rounds and I'm sure I'll be better over 15."
Johnny has the style which has made Gavilan most in the past. He is pantherish in his movements, punches very fast and presses his opponents persistently.

"Maybe that style doesn't always please the fans," said Saxton. "But that's the way I win. I'm not going to give him any punching room if I can help it."
The crowding, bulling style has enabled Saxton to post a 42-2-2 record. His two defeats were by split decisions to Gil Turner and Del Finagan. He has 10 knockouts to his credit. Gavilan's record is 66-14-4 with 27 knockouts. Neither ever has been stopped.

This is Gavilan's first fight in six months and his title defense since he drubbed Johnny Bratton in Chicago 11 months ago. A half year ago he dropped a 15-round decision to middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson. He claimed he fought one with an injured right hand.
It was that injury which forced the first postponement of his title fight with Saxton. The second time he came down with a virus infection and the bumps the night before the scheduled Sept. 1 contest.

UofF Goes Over Pass Defense; Auburn Drills Long For FSU

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southeastern Conference football teams headed down to rigorous work Tuesday on the pass and passes each hopes will bring victory Saturday.
Unbeaten Mississippi scrimmaged hard for the vital game with Arkansas. Emphasis was placed on passing, with quarterbacks Eddie Day and Houston Patton doing most of the throwing. Halfback Karl Blair, right end Dave Dickerson and right tackle Ed Reed were expected to be in shape to start Saturday.
Alabama's Buster Hill was moved from quarterback to fullback and performed well in a practice drill. Injured tackle Ed Campbell, fullback Jim Ward and Jerry Chiapparelli and quarterback Bert Barr all were in uniform but did not share in the workout for Mississippi State.
Mississippi State in turn mapped strategy to use against the powerful air attack. Coach Darrell Royal promoted Joe Silver, 191-pound junior to the left halfback post because of his performance in the Florida game defense that he given up a touchdown this week. He received another invitation to play even though the Orange and the teams' opponents against the new structure in Louisiana.

Much Will Be At Stake Friday When UofM, Maryland Clash

CORAL GABLES.—There will be plenty at stake for both teams Friday night when the University of Miami Hurricanes battle Maryland in the Orange Bowl.
The University of Miami is undefeated and will be trying not only to gain a fifth straight win, but will be seeking to increase its rating in the national football pole. Miami is now ranked No. 16 in the country and a win for the Hurricanes over Maryland would give the Miami team an even higher ranking.
Maryland on the other hand is in the running for a bid to the coming New Year day Orange Bowl classic. A defeat for Maryland

Texas Christian Scores Most TDs From Away Out

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—When Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, one of the most respected college football teams in the country, score its usual with a flourish, it is usually with a flourish.
And the biggest flourisher is one Jim Swink, a rambling sophomore more noted for his basketball than football in high school at Rust, Tex.

The "home run" goes with the impetuous Horned Frogs. They made 14 touchdowns in 5 games and only 2 of them came from inside their own 10-yard line. Donnie Clinkscale ran four yards for scores against California and Texas A&M.

Otherwise, the Frogs have tallied from away out yonder, something at which the irrepressible Swink is adept. They're already comparing him to Frank Walker, the Southern Methodist immortal of the late forties.
Speed, agility and a sixth sense for "running where they ain't" are the 180-pound Swink's leading assets.
"He just hunts daylight and goes to it," says Dutch Meyer, the TCU athletic director who coached the Frogs for years. "And he paces himself something like Donk Walker used in do until he gets the right block and sees running room."

Coach Says Tampa In 'Horrible' Shape

TAMPA.—University of Tampa football regulars, who have been handled with kid gloves this week so they would be in shape for Troy State Friday night might see a little scrimmage action today.
Coach Marcelino Huerta kept the regulars out of the heavy workout yesterday in a scrimmage against Troy State plays.
Huerta has lost a first string guard for the remainder of the season, reserve guard probably will be out of most of the games and three others are on the ailing list.

"We are in horrible shape for playing this week," Huerta said. His one bright spot is that most of the regulars are in fairly good condition.
Tampa has won three and lost one while Troy State has three wins against two losses.

When Donald Healey, 50-year-old racing driver, recently broke the world's record with his sports car on a flying mile course (192.63 miles per hour is Healey's new record) at Bonneville Flats, Utah, he additionally broke nine other international and American records.

Beating Miami, an undefeated club, would be a big boost in Maryland's bid to regain national prestige. Being national champion one year is no preparation for being far down in the also-rans the next year. Beating Miami is the toughest team remaining on their schedule. If Maryland gets by Miami, the Terps should roll undefeated the rest of the season and beat Duke to become national champion.

The Georgia Bulldogs also scrimmaged at length, with Bobby Garrard at left half in place of fullback. Loss of Jimmy Williams forced us to use Garry at left half," explained Backfield Coach Bill Hartman. Williams twisted a knee in the Vanderbilt game.
Kentucky worked longer than usual on defense, ending the season with a fairly heavy scrimmage under the lights. Coach Blanton Collier said the team still was not up to top strength physically for the contest with Georgia Tech.

The Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets concentrated on passing and pass defense. Statisticians believe right halfback Billy Toss may set a new Tech ground-gaining record in the Kentucky fray.
Auburn had a lengthy workout in preparation for Florida State University. Pat James and Dave Middleton scored long touchdowns.

Pat Olszak was shifted back to his first-string fullback spot at Tennessee. Olszak took Jimmy Wade's place. Wade had been out with a knee injury since the season opener against Mississippi State.

Other hunting articles include "Florida's Hunting Programs," "Dead Aim For Deer," "Big Cypress Grab Bag," and "If You Kill It, Get It."

For the anglers, Florida Wildlife presents "Florida's Water Wolves," "What It Was, Was Warsaw," "The Singing Salt Goshawk," and "The regular fishing department."
To round out this special autumn edition of Florida Wildlife, outdoorsmen won't want to miss "Florida's Field Trials," "The Vanishing Sandhill Crane," "A Black Bear," "Muzzle Flash," "Outdoor Reviewer," "Meat-um Done," and "Wildlife Teads and Tells."

The hunters and fishermen of Florida will find countless messages between the covers of each copy of Florida Wildlife. Besides being of general interest to all sportsmen, it is the only publication dealing with the Sunshine State's outdoor resources which are of such importance to all.

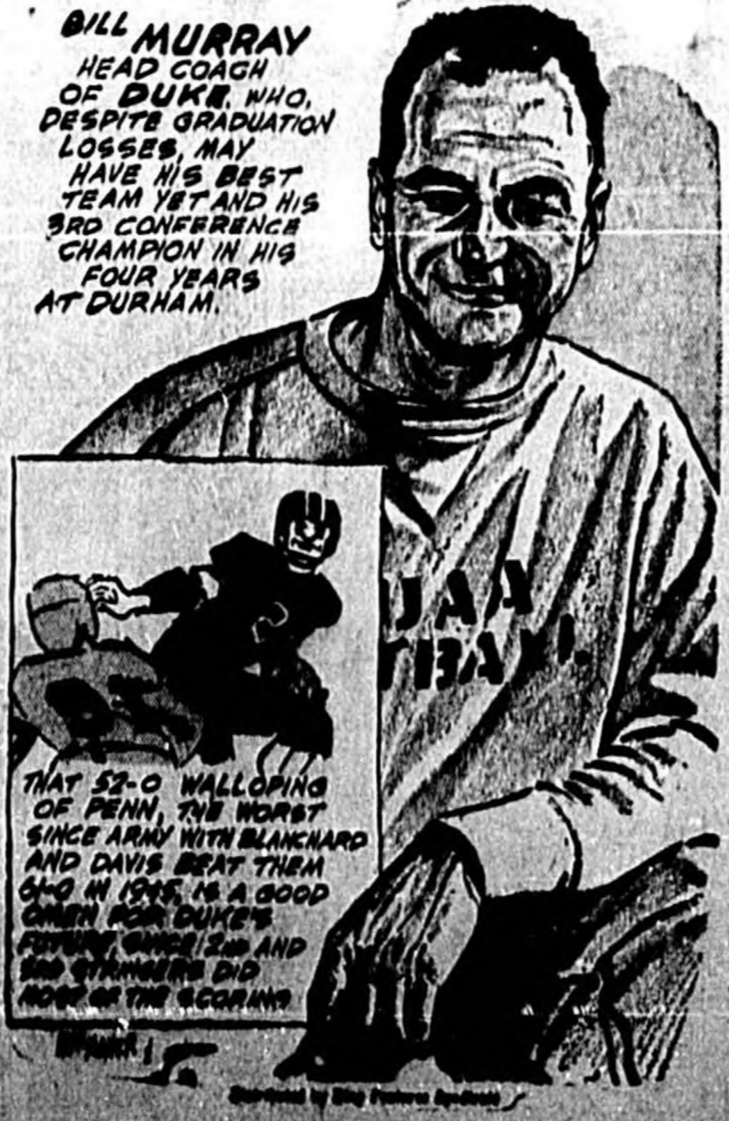

The November issue is an introduction to the 1954-55 Florida hunting season.

Coach Says Tampa In 'Horrible' Shape

TAMPA.—University of Tampa football regulars, who have been handled with kid gloves this week so they would be in shape for Troy State Friday night might see a little scrimmage action today.
Coach Marcelino Huerta kept the regulars out of the heavy workout yesterday in a scrimmage against Troy State plays.
Huerta has lost a first string guard for the remainder of the season, reserve guard probably will be out of most of the games and three others are on the ailing list.

"We are in horrible shape for playing this week," Huerta said. His one bright spot is that most of the regulars are in fairly good condition.
Tampa has won three and lost one while Troy State has three wins against two losses.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK (AP)—If there is one thing a person learns over a long period of close association with the sports scene it is that rich men get tired remarkably quick of throwing their money into a losing athletic venture.
They don't think they will when they go into it. They are overstimulated at the time with the thought of doing something for their home community and, at the same time, being intimately associated with a glamorous new world which they have known all their lives only from a distance.
A few fortunate ones, such as Del Webb and Dan Topping, who bought the rich Yankee empire at a distress sale for perhaps a quarter of its real value, never have cause to regret their action. They only make more money. But they are the rare exception, and the trail is strewn with wealthy en-

Ol' Swami Is Predicting Again After Missing But 1 Last Week

CHICAGO, (AP)—The Ol' Swami, thrown for only one loss last week (by Missouri over Indiana), tries to clear all the fog from his crystal ball this time:
—BROTHER, this is going to be something! . . . Both unbeaten in four starts, Wisconsin retaining its No. 2 national rating and the Buckeyes ranked fourth.
MICHIGAN STATE 14, PURDUE 13—Those nimble Spartan backs will be too hard to catch. . . . And Purdue had better find a good pocket to protect passer Len Dawson from on-charging tacklers.
MINNESOTA 21, MICHIGAN 7—The undefeated Gophers find themselves in a new role for the Little Brown Jug series—favorites in a game that is played at Michigan.
IOWA 20, INDIANA 14—The Hoosiers may have been looking to Iowa when they lost last week to Missouri and could prove to be rough hosts.

Smathers Predicts GOP Will Suffer At Polls Nov. 2

ENSACOLA — Sen. George Smathers, Democrat, recently predicted the nation can look forward to a practical demonstration of the national administration's controversial "massive retaliation" defense policy.

"This will be on Nov. 2," he said. "And happily it will not be in the use of arms, but in the greatest of democracy's weapons—the ballot."

The Florida senator said he was on record with a prediction that the objects of the retaliation will be the Republican Party.

"To spite of everything that has been and will be done to offset the record," he said, "I am convinced that the great majority of the American people have lost faith in the Republican leadership of the legislative branch of the government."

Smathers said claims that a Democratic victory will be catastrophic are proving to be mere blarney.

The Democrats throughout the country resent the insinuations that their leaders will betray the best interests of the nation or are not capable of exercising leadership," he said. "They don't believe even the Republicans themselves believe this vicious campaign propaganda—no matter in what high places they are getting it repeated."

Smathers' political predictions came during his discussion of the administration's defense program. Admiral Arthur Radford, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, recently announced that the "massive retaliation" policy "still stands."

This referred to the statement last January by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles that the American will rely against any Communist attack mainly on "a great capacity to retaliate instantly by means and at places of our own choosing."

The Florida senator charge that the encouraged the Communists to "fringe war aggression and that it certainly is nothing to discourage the Communists from their eventually successful all-out attack on French Indochina."

Smathers said the country already was paying the "expensive bill" for the unwise reductions in Air Force appropriations last year. During the recent Congress, he said, all the Air Force cuts were restored but that nothing could be done to make up for the loss of time in Air strength procurement.

"But the application of hard military rules to the guarding of our nation's security does mean a great deal, and it is something about which many of us are much concerned. Our great hope still is in 'Peace through Strength.'"

Smathers said the "New Look" in the military system was based apparently on what this nation would like to do, rather than upon what any enemy might conceivably do.

He recalled the old Civil War story of the Southerner who went off to war assuring his workfolk

Having a buffet breakfast during the holidays? Here's a menu you can use for at-the-table breakfasting or for a tray meal in front of the Christmas tree, and at many another time throughout the year.

Tomato juice or fruit juice and the Cereal Snack-Mix—a gay medley of crisp ready-to-eat cereals, nuts, pretzel sticks, and intriguing flavors—may be served in the living room. For the main course, have piping hot oatmeal with raisins, milk, coffee cake, butter, with hot chocolate and coffee as beverages.

These nibbles are easy-to-do, economical too, made as they are from ready-to-eat cereals that make breakfast such good eating and easy-getting!

Cereal Snack-Mix

1 1/2 cups ready-to-eat cereal
1 1/2 cups bite-size shredded rice
1 1/2 cups bite-size shredded wheat
2 cups elmer pretzel sticks
1 cup salted peanuts, shelled
Mix the dry cereals (the rice and wheat cereals look like doll size waffles; the oat cereal like baby doughnuts), the pretzel sticks broken in smaller pieces, and the salted peanuts in a large oblong baking pan or a roasting pan.

Heat the butter or margarine until melted; stir in the Worcestershire sauce and seasonings. Pour over the cereal mixture and mix well. Bake in a slow oven (300° F.) stirring every 10 minutes or so, for about a half hour or until lightly browned. One cup of oven-popped rice cereal may be added to the ingredients, if desired. Cool before serving.

Yield: 2 quarts of mighty good nibbling.

Note: If you're in a hurry and want just a bowlful, use half the recipe and put it together in a large heavy skillet. Cook over average heat, turned very low. Stir constantly for 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned.

You'll like to keep on hand plenty of these appetizing little cereal nibbles. Everyone likes them and they fit into so many occasions all the year 'round—before or after dinner, as beverage accompaniment, and for snacks anytime. They also make mighty nice Christmas gifts. Double or triple the recipe and store in containers with tight-fitting covers. They keep well—if hidden!

Thailand's Safety Feared By Paper

BANGKOK — The Bangkok Post, an American edited daily, says a Communist group and an said today that Thailand's internal security is threatened by the presence in Cambodia of a 1,000 member Vietminh group and an uncertain element among 300,000 Chinese there.

The newspaper quoted Brig Gen Chantira, Manthukand, Thai minister to Cambodia, as saying the 1,000 operate as "free Cambodians" from a base south of Battambang province near the Thai border. They reportedly get their orders direct from the Communist Vietnam, who now occupy the northern half of Viet Nam.

CHICAGO — There seems little ground to worry about catching cold from a public or office telephone mouthpiece, says a British study reported in the American Medical Association Journal. It found little difference in bacteria on telephones whether or not they were treated regularly with disinfectants.

Electronic Unit Sparks Ideas On Firefighting

MIAMI — An electronic device with 14 temperature-sensitive "feelers" is helping firemen to "see through the smoke" and know more about conditions inside a burning house.

The device, built into a two-story house erected here on the campus of the Miami Fire College, probes the behavior patterns of fires as part of the college's research effort to develop new firefighting techniques. Developed by Minneapolis-Honeywell, the electronic recording instrument indicates temperatures throughout the burning building and charts the findings. Strategically spotted "feelers" or thermocouples—the temperature sensing elements—are imbedded in the walls, ceiling and floors of the building to feel back temperature readings.

The day has long passed when fire fighters idled away time playing checkers," says Chief Newton E. Wheeler, a 31 year veteran. "Today's fireman is kept busy brushing up on old skills and developing new techniques in the science of fire fighting."

The temperature monitoring system played a large part in helping the college to develop and perfect such new techniques as the use of a "fog nozzle" and the use of "wet water."

The "fog nozzle" directs a cloud of water on the fire, not a heavy stream. Experiments proved that such water could absorb more heat than a heavy stream and more rapidly reduced the temperature of the burning region as well as the temperature at the opposite end of a building.

"Wet water" is produced by adding a wetting agent, similar to a dishwashing detergent, to plain water. The wetting agent breaks down the surface tension of the

Maryland Judge Approves Script

BALTIMORE — Judge James K. Cullen said yesterday the words "Go to hell" in a movie script were objectionable only to a segment of society to which the particular members of the Maryland Board of Motion Picture Censorship do not belong.

The Baltimore City Court judge ruled that the board didn't have the authority to order the phrase deleted from "The White Horse"

THE SANFORD HERALD
Wed. Oct. 29, 1951 Page 7

The word "hell" was not used in a grossly vulgar manner," he said.

The board objected because the words were said to a Catholic priest. The form which produced the picture and a priest who acted as a censor had written that he had no objections to the phrase in its dramatic context.

The board also objected to the use of the word "hell" in the script.

Collins Favors 5 Of 7 Changes Proposed To State Constitution

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Gov. nominee LeRoy Collins favors five of seven constitutional amendment proposals which will be submitted to Florida voters at the general election Nov. 2.

He is enthusiastic in his support of the proposal which would let the Legislature meet 10 times a year for an extra 30 days after completion of its regular 60-day biennial session.

Collins, who was a state senator in the 1953 Legislature and helped steer the measure to legislative passage, said in an interview with the Associated Press the lawmakers need more time to do their work.

He also endorses the section of the amendment which would raise legislators' salaries from the present $10 a day during the sessions to a flat year-round $100 a month. Legislators would continue to draw $7.50 a day expense money and travel allowances during the actual sessions as they do now.

He opposes proposed amendments which would forbid use of state funds for toll roads extending into more than three counties and make it possible for larger counties to have more than one county judge.

He said he is in accord with the purpose of the toll road amendment "to the extent that I don't believe state tax funds should be used to subsidize toll roads which would be operated by private enterprise."

As for the county judges amendment, Collins said he will vote against it because though extra judges may be needed "the judicial council is now making a comprehensive survey of our entire judicial system and will recommend to the next legislature a proposed new judicial article to the constitution."

He favors amendments which would give the governor 20 days instead of the present 10 to act on bills after adjournment of the Legislature and allow the Legislature to authorize assessment and collection of municipal taxes by county tax assessors and collectors.

Two amendments applying only to Monroe and Escambia counties also has his approval. One would let Monroe County tax assessor assess all property for any tax levied in the county. The other would let the Escambia County Court of Record have a second judge.

Commie Nations Beat Boycott Of Red China

Russia, European Satellites Purchase Banned Strategic Goods, Sell To Ally

LONDON (AP)—Russia and her European satellites have opened a big hole in Western barriers against strategic goods to Communist China. They are buying strategic goods from the West and selling them to the Chinese, many of them elsewhere know what is happening but say they can see no way of stopping it.

This is the Western gimmick the Kremlin has turned to Eastern advantage. The United States and her allies forbid the export of certain strategic goods to both Eastern Europe and Red China. But the list of goods embargoed for Red China is far longer than the one for Eastern Europe.

Red Europe thus can buy Western goods that the Chinese cannot—things like generators, machine tools and petroleum equipment. Western officials say European Communist nations are buying these items for transshipment at top prices to the Chinese Reds.

One of the big Communist transshipment points is Gdynia, Poland. From there Western goods go by rail to Tientsin via the Trans-Siberian Railway, or are carried into Chinese ports by Red ships able to evade the Chinese Communist naval blockade.

Several shipments of strategic goods from the West were recently held up at Gdynia by a transport bottleneck, according to information reaching Western diplomats.

The strategic ban on Red China, imposed by the United Nations during the Korean War, has always been tougher than the cold war embargo on Soviet Europe. And with tensions easing in Europe the West relaxed embargoes for the Soviet Union last August, cutting the number of prohibited items from 250 to about 120.

But the far East situation remained potentially explosive and similar action on the Red China lists was deferred. Western European businessmen are urging their governments to let the Chinese Reds buy what European Reds can buy.

The United States opposes any change in the embargo, but has signed the signing of a full Korean peace.

The Interstate Commerce Commission approved a merger plan but the U. S. Supreme Court early this year held it illegal.

A previous decision by Judge Strum blocking a merger was overturned by the Circuit Court before the Supreme Court decision Nov. 1. He named former Florida Gov. John W. Martin an equity receiver in opening the way for a sale of the railroad.

His order is being challenged by the ACL, which wants the merger. A powerful opposing force, the Florida defense interests, is fighting the merger and wants the railroad sold. They own 25 million dollars worth of the road's bonds.

Aid Is Continued In Red Tide Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Federal aid to research will continue until the fish-killing red tide problem is solved, says Thome Lewis, assistant secretary of the interior.

Lewis told a meeting of the Gulf Coast Fishery Management Committee here yesterday that $200,000 in federal funds is available for red tide research in 1954 and if that is not sufficient, there are unappropriated funds which can be tapped.

He said that as soon as control measures are found, the federal government will have the field of actually controlling the red tide to local agencies.

Lewis said the number of U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service men available for research would be increased from 4 to 10.

The committee is a non-partisan voluntary organization representing 24 civic groups on the Lower West Coast of Florida.

After the meeting, Lewis flew over the Gulf of Mexico from St. Petersburg to Venice, but did not see any fish killed by the red tide.

Another cooperative sampling of Gulf waters to help research will be made Nov. 20, and William Brownell Jr., secretary of the committee.

Fifty boats will cover the 100 miles from Clearwater to Naples for 20 miles out in the bay, taking samples water to be tested for salt content, radioactivity and presence of symbionium brevis, the minute marine organism which causes red tide.

Indian's Patience Finally Exhausted

CEDAR CITY, Utah (AP)—An Indian mother can only be so patient. For a month she had been returning weekly to a local hospital to have her baby daughter, born prematurely and kept since in the nursery.

Each time she was told by the attending physician "Wait until next week, when we can test the baby. But before the baby could be picked up, the little girl caught cold. Don't let the baby go or it will likely die."

This was all the patient Pinte mother could take. Hospital officials said.

"I've been doctor for 10 years today," she was quoted as saying. "We moving, won't be back."

Attendants say the baby's doing fine now.

FILIPINO CABINET MEETS OUTDOORS

MANILA (AP)—President Ramon Magsaysay took his Cabinet to a picnic village on Mindoro Island yesterday and held the first outdoor session of its kind before the wide-eyed stares of curious villagers.

Top Filipino leaders met under a palm leaf umbrella shed in San Agustin, about 80 miles south of Manila.

Agreement Reached At Paris On Cessation Of Occupation Of West Germany By Allies

Support Planes Being Equipped With A-Weapons

MIAMI (AP)—Gen. O. P. Weyland, commanding general of the Tenth Air Command, told the National Guard Assn. today that every combat tactical aircraft will be equipped to deliver atomic weapons.

The Tactical Air Command support troops in the field are equipped with fighter, bomber, fighter-bomber and troop carriers.

The total of the widespread adaptability of atomic weapons with respect to "tactics in tactics and equipment" he said there is an urgent requirement for shorter takeoff and landing characteristics of tactical aircraft.

The most desirable characteristic is a vertical takeoff and landing capability," said Gen. Weyland.

The shorter, or vertical, takeoff is in the necessity for tactical aircraft to be able to take off from dispersed or even small units by squadrons or even smaller units, and thus achieve greater security, mobility, and effective use of employment.

The guard association winds up its convention today with election of officers and committee reports.

Postmaster General Hits FHA Scandal

DALLAS, Pa. (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield says the housing situation that developed from excess FHA loans was "the monumental and vicious scandal this country has ever known."

In a speech in this eastern Pennsylvania town yesterday, Summerfield said there were an estimated 25 million families in the administration of former President Truman, "22 of them originating among the 'palace guard'—President Truman's own White House staff."

He asked that the people "stamp out" the scandal with 20 months of clean Republican administration.

Christmas Project For Children Is Underway At Navy Air Station

Photographic Squadron 62, based at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, has fired the opening gun in its campaign, "Toys for Joy," to provide presents for children at the Mt. Dora orphanage at Christmas time.

Mr. L. E. Gunther, NAAS administration officer, helped pull the trigger by contributing the first toys within an hour after VJ-62's Christmas toys committee had placed four larger, appropriately decorated boxes at strategic points about the station.

The station has made plans to give the orphanage and underprivileged children of Seminole County a big Christmas party along the same lines as the one which was held at NAAS last year.

Station personnel have assumed the responsibility of furnishing a typical Christmas dinner, robes on the station fire trucks, Christmas morning pictures and a visit by Santa Claus, Navy style, while fleet units EA-3B, 54 and VC-9 are collecting and making up packages of food for each child. Photograph Squadron 62 volunteered to form teams of more boys for each child.

Members of VJ-62 are collecting and repairing any toys that personnel of the base may contribute and accepting money contributions from VJ-62 personnel only, to buy new toys.

Civilian firemen at the station recently held a shrimp boil at the chiefs' club. Proceeds from the boil and other funds this year will go toward making Christmas packages for the unfortunate children in this area.

Members of the Merchants Association are to meet tomorrow at 1 p. m. at the City Hall to discuss plans for the annual Christmas parade which opens the local Yule shopping season.

Members of the meeting will be W. M. Phillips, president of the organization.

Police Committee Is Given No Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The special committee to police the campaigns for 135 House seats this year made a surprising disclosure today. It has been given nothing to do in advance of the election.

None of the approximately 1,000 candidates has yet huddled with officials, but the congressional group set up for such complaints.

Usually, the committee doesn't have to look for things to keep it busy. Candidates have blown the whistle on opponents with regularity in past years, generally well in advance of election day.

This year, too, critics of "dirty tactics" have been heard among the contestants, but not directed to the House investigators.

S. P. Kimmel, head of the committee's staff, said in an interview he was unable to explain the novel situation. He said he could not recall any past election in which there had been a complaint of dirty work at this stage in the campaign.

He said the "clean campaign" agreement made publicly by the chairman of the two big political parties may be responsible.

Negro Collegians Demonstrate Today

MONTEAGUE, Ala. (AP)—The group of students boycotted classes at Alabama State College for Negroes here today and overhauled furniture in one classroom where students had refused to join the demonstration.

There were no reports of injury, however, and two hours after the boycott started, there had been a call for police protection.

The boycott grew out of a series of demonstrations and meetings over a list of 14 grievances against the school, of the city-supported college, including demands for better meals at the school lunchroom.

Shooting demand for the removal of Jim Crow supervision of the school by the city, and a demand for the removal of the school board, which is reported to be the recent London negotiations, which selected the two trustees, finally as the basis for the boycott.

The group of students included arts and craft class and over 100 students and a visit by Santa Claus, Navy style, while fleet units EA-3B, 54 and VC-9 are collecting and making up packages of food for each child. Photograph Squadron 62 volunteered to form teams of more boys for each child.

Canцерous Compound Found In Cig Paper, Chemist Says

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A compound that causes cancer in mice—benzopyrene—has been found in smoke from cigarette paper, a chemist engaged in cancer research reported today.

D. V. Lafemine, of the Cancer Institute at Miami, Fla., made the report at a regional meeting of the American Chemical Society.

Lafemine said benzopyrene has proved in animal experiments to be one of the most powerful known cancer-producing agents. It also has been identified as a component in some studies on polluted city air.

Girl's Strange Life Ends In Violence

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The strange life of 19-year-old Lucette Spollino ended in violence yesterday when she was found killed by hammer blows on her head in a house where every door was double locked and every window nailed shut.

Police Inspector Frank Ahern said the blows apparently were struck by her mother, Mrs. Verzal Spollino, 49, who is now in a hospital psychiatric ward recovering from an overdose of barbiturates.

The dead girl's father, James V. Spollino, was located at work in Palo Alto. He said he left home a week ago in an attempt to shock his wife out of her strange behavior.

Spollino told Inspector John O'Hara that his wife had allowed their daughter to attend school and taught her at home. He said Mrs. Spollino objected to his joining a union when he worked in San Francisco and wrote her, Mrs. Carly (H-W) that the union was subversive, Spollino said he quit his job as a result.

Police found notes written by Mrs. Spollino but not mailed. They were addressed to the U. S. Supreme Court complaining the FBI was bothering her.

6,000 Flash Bulbs Light Famed Curve

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—The world famed Horseshoe Curve of the Pennsylvania Railroad was lit up last night by 6,000 flash bulb cameras in an experiment of photoflash picture taking.

The light was estimated to be greater than the power of 15 million ordinary household electric lamps.

The experiment highlighted two industry celebrations: the 100th anniversary of the Horseshoe Curve and the 75th anniversary of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The PHB and the Sylvania Electric Products Co. cooperated in the project.

Photographers took pictures from towers set up for the purpose and six cameras, provided South to set off the flash bulbs, mounted on stakes around the curve.

Firm Offers Cash For Rebel Bonds

HOUSTON (AP)—A Houston brokerage firm is offering $10 good hard cash for certain examples of the Confederate treasury's hand-made $1,000 cotton bonds.

The firm's weekly bulletin made the offer for an unnamed Houston man it said seeks to buy up the $100,000 Confederate States of America 7 percent cotton bond issue due in 1863. The bonds were issued for $1,000 each.

The bulletin said the man "chooses this way to reaffirm his faith in those bygone principles and aims, especially the South today needs surely to revive and recapture them."
