

HEALTH OFFICER URGES CANCER CONTROL PLAN

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Mar. 14.—The fact that 25 lives were lost in Florida during 1946, last year because of cancer, twice as many as in 1945, was revealed this week by Dr. Frank L. Quillman, State Health Commissioner. He pointed out that those deaths represented 23 per cent of the deaths from leading causes in the country, percentage entirely too high for a preventable disease.

During the same period there was a total of 2,500 deaths from cancer in the entire state, representing a terrific toll of lives from a disease that can be controlled when found in time.

The tremendous number of lives being taken each year has prompted every State in the nation to organize cancer case finding control programs to substantially reduce deaths from this disease. Florida has taken this progressive program step and has received a small appropriation of Federal funds this year to organize a cancer control program.

To place the program on a broad or basic the State Board of Health in cooperation with the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society and the Board of Governors of the Florida Medical Association has formulated a cancer control law which shall be presented to the Legislature in April for Action. This law if it passes will appropriate $200,000 annually for the various activities necessary to curb the huge number of deaths because of cancer.

The State Board of Health has already begun the organization of a cancer control program. The State law and the $200,000 appropriation will implement the plan and will

Questions On Greece

(Continued from Page One) speech. He said that the Chief Executive left it up to Congress to "put up or shut up." Smathers added that we have tried appeasement and isolationism, now we have got to take a forthright stand.

Peterson and Rogers of Florida agreed with Smathers. They both said that we have to travel along the road pointed out by the President to lose our world leadership.

Meanwhile, a move developed to combine Senate and House committee hearings on President Truman's program.

The idea was suggested by Rep. John Lodge of Connecticut today as the House Foreign Affairs Committee met to hear a discussion of the program by Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson, Secretary of War Patterson, and Secretary of the Navy Forrestal.

In Moscow, the first Russian reaction to President Truman's foreign policy address came today in the form of a front-page editorial in the Russian government newspaper Izvestia. The editorial attacked Mr. Truman's plan for aiding Greece and Turkey as what it termed "interference" in the affairs of other nations. Izvestia went on to declare that the United States was behaving in a manner that should not have been expected of a member of the United Nations.

In London, Winston Churchill endorsed President Truman's foreign policy statement. The wartime prime minister told a Conservative Party meeting that no step that he had seen taken lately had done more to increase the chances for the maintenance of world peace.

But in Athens shops will close today for two hours in appreciation of the Truman message. Trade union and guild groups will decorate an American monument in Athens and adopt a resolution of gratitude.

Helps Kidneys

Remove Normal Impurities

A kidney has been described as getting up health and kidneys are often caused by kidney stones in the urine. The kidneys are one of Nature's ways of removing impurities from the blood. And when these impurities build up trouble may start.

If you have these troubles, give your kidneys and bladder a good flushing out by taking Dr. Kline's Kidney and Bladder Tonic. It helps to flush the kidneys, increasing the flow of urine to help relieve that kidney acidity and ease that burning sensation when you pass water. It also helps to relieve irritation that may start.

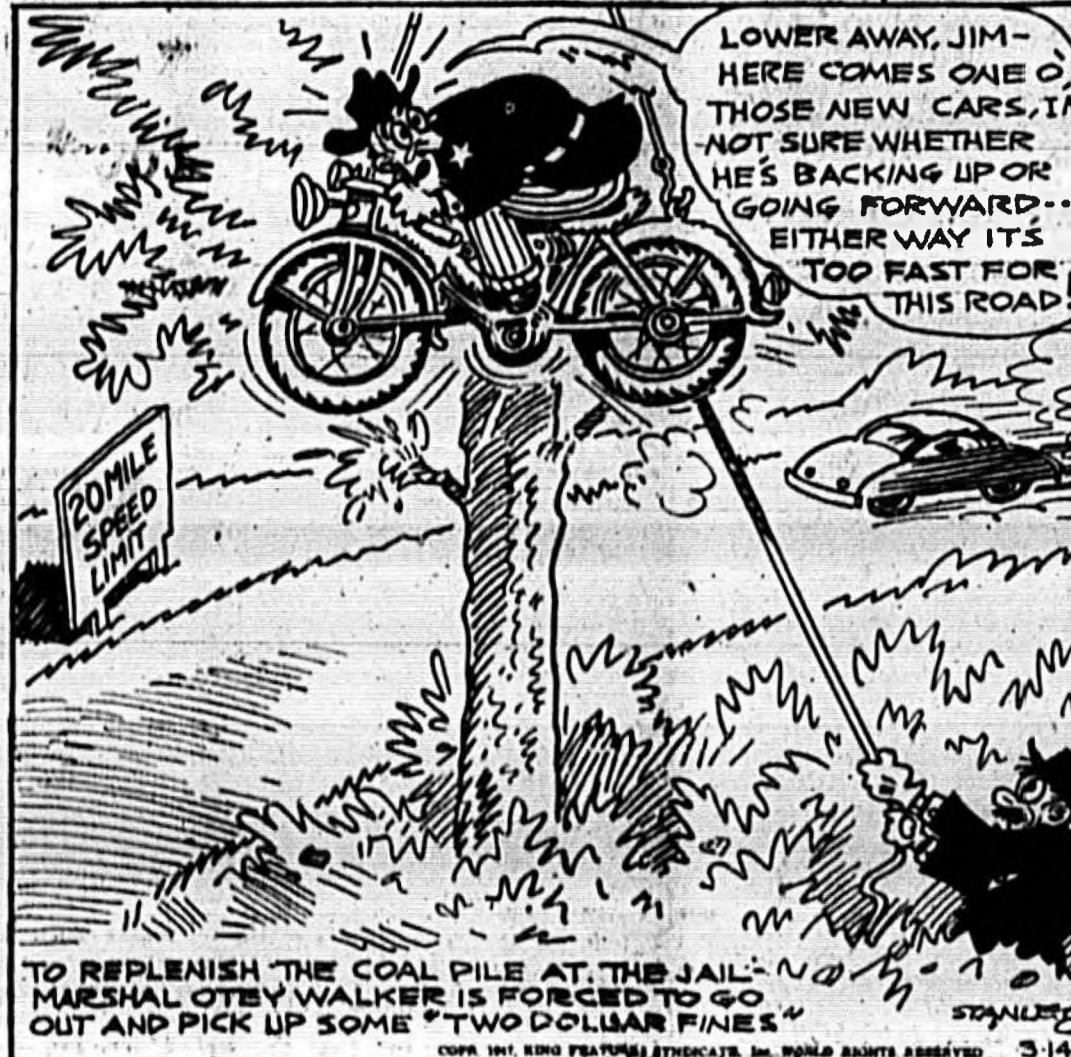

Made of 18 herbs, roots, vegetables, and fruits, Rosemary Root is absolutely non-habit forming. Millions have taken it for the general well-being of their kidneys. Continue take as directed.

As the ministers met, the impression was growing that United States and Russian competition for world leadership was boiling down to power diplomacy in which China, Turkey, or Greece might become the points of conflict. Authoritative sources said that prospects were growing dim for Big Three talks on China, despite Russian insistence.

This belief was bolstered by a development in Nanking, where the Chinese Foreign Office said that the Chinese government had refused to accept the proposal for such a discussion of China's affairs.

The President did not agree with you on that danger because he would have recommended a continuance of Selective Service.

Hensley replied: "I think that is obvious."

On further questioning, the Selective Service Chief stated that "two or three times" he had recommended to President Truman that Selective Service be continued.

It is noted, however, that the Mediterranean situation had not built up to the crisis stage when Mr. Truman recommended that there be no extension of the draft "at this time." The President explained in his message to Congress that he wanted it understood that the Army and Navy would ask for new legislation if voluntary enlistments did not keep 1,600,000 men under arms.

Because of the current world situation, the armed services committee now has urged a delay of at least three months in the transfer of draft records from local boards to state capitals.

Kennedy asked the committee to seek prejury indictments against President Robert Buse and Honorary President Harold Christoffel of UAW Local 240. The Auto Workers local engaged in a long strike against Allis-Chalmers.

Budenz told the committee that Buse and Christoffel were Communists. Previously both union officials had testified that they never had been members of the party.

The committee has not made its decision on the demand for prejury action against the two labor leaders.

As he slept and sweated he had opportunity to think. Certain kinds of work he liked, but not this. It seemed such a useless form of drudgery. Some of the dust he raked settled on the furniture, on the draperies, pictures and other decorations. A good part of it sank back into the carpet.

He reflected on all the modern improvements such as sewing, churning and labor saving devices.

"Laid the broom aside and said to his mother, 'What would you give for a machine that could do your sweeping for you by throwing a switch?'

"Son," replied the lady, "I don't know what I wouldn't give. The man who did that would have the gratitude of all women, to say nothing of their money."

"So much fashion took the idea of a great idea. But many years were to elapse before that personal dream could be realized."

Court Acts To Avoid New Coal Walkout

Mandate Will Be Issued Eleven Days Prior To Deadline Set By UMW Chief

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—The Supreme Court today ordered that its mandate in the John L. Lewis soft coal case be issued 11 days ahead of schedule. The Supreme Court order therefore will go into effect on Mar. 20 eleven days ahead of the deadline which John L. Lewis set when he told the soft coal miners to go back to work in December. The government had asked the court to act immediately to enforce its decision against Lewis and the miners.

Lewis must withdraw his notice to the mine workers in which he told them their contract with the government would end on Mar. 31, which would have been tantamount to a miners' always walkout when Lewis tells them their contract has expired.

If normal procedure had been followed, the court's decision would not have gone into effect until after the Mar. 31 deadline set by Lewis. This would have opened the door to another strike. Today's action, however, reduces the likelihood of a Spring walkout.

Also, the Supreme Court in effect upheld the right of the Civil Service Commission to fire a government employee on grounds that he is a Communist sympathizer. The Court refused to review protests by Morton Friedman, who was fired from a job with the War Manpower Commission, by order of the Civil Service Commission.

4-H Club Poultry Contest Won By Florence McGill

Florence McGill of Geneva received the blue ribbon and 100 baby chicks as first prize in the 1946 poultry and egg contest jointly sponsored for 4-H girls by the Sears-Roebuck Company and the Home Demonstration Agency of which Mrs. Ouida Wilson is agent.

The awards for the best eggs produced were made Friday evening at the 4-H Club banquet, with O. P. Herndon, county clerk, announcing the winners. Other winners in the egg contest were Isabelle LaFille and Vallen Prevatt both of Geneva, and one Geneva boy, Aubrey Moran, who was not present.

Mr. Herndon, in announcing the awards, caused a lot of merriment among the youngsters by insisting that the roosters don't get all the praise that they should.

Twelve girls have each received 100 baby chicks, and are entered in the 1947 poultry raising contest, it was announced. These are: Shirley Grant of Longwood, Agnes Bennett and Johnnie Mae Jones of Sanford; Lois Muse and Mianie Metts of Lake Monroe, also the following girls from Geneva: Ann Driggs, June McGill, Helen Bennett, Charles Galvin, Addie Prevatt, Isabelle LaFille and Betty Phillips.

Brief talks on poultry raising were made by W. C. Gregaway, Sears-Roebuck public relations official of Atlanta, Ga.; K. E. Gramling, assistant manager of the Sears Store in Orlando; Mrs. T. A. Butter, manager of local Sears Stores; Mrs. Gladys Kendal, Volusia County Home demonstration agent; Mrs. Ouida Wilson; and Peter Greco, Deland poultryman who provided the chicks. A number of mothers of the contest entrants were introduced.

Funeral Held Today For Former Staff Member Of Herald

Robert Lewis (Skippy) Shipp, 40, former sports editor of The Herald in 1922, 1923 and 1924, and who served as assistant secretary to two Florida governors, died Friday evening in Memorial Hospital, Tallahassee. A kidney ailment caused his death.

Funeral services for Mr. Shipp were conducted this morning at 10:00 o'clock at Blessed Sacrament Church, Tallahassee, by Father Borg. Active pallbearers were Ralph Davis, Carl Hall, Wilbur Marshall, Charles Rosenberg, James Wadsworth and Henry Wrenn.

Mr. Shipp first went to Tallahassee in 1942 as assistant secretary to Governor Spessard L. Holland and occupied the same position with Governor Millard Caldwell, a close friend for many years.

Immediately before going to Tallahassee, Mr. Shipp had engaged in the automobile business at Creativeview. Before that he was on the news staff of the Pensacola Journal and prior to that on The Sanford Herald. He was born in Sanford, attended local schools and graduated from Seminole High School.

Early End To Occupation Of Japan Is Urged

Mild Control Of Japan By United Nations Is Asked, By General MacArthur

TOKYO, Mar. 17.—General MacArthur today recommended an early end to the military occupation of Japan.

He said negotiations for a formal Japanese peace treaty should begin as soon as possible, within a matter of months, at the longest, and asserted that Japan then should be controlled and guided by the United Nations. He said that if the United Nations cannot provide the mild control needed for Japan, the UN cannot meet any challenge.

MacArthur broke the news to correspondents at his first on-the-record news conference since early in the war. The newsmen were surprised that the General would talk for publication. Many had neglected to bring pencil and paper.

MacArthur declared the Japanese would consider United Nations control protective rather than repressive. And in this connection, he said he was against maintaining military formations in Japan, of any sort, after a peace treaty. Bayonet control, he observed, would be a mockery.

In addition to giving the UN a chance, MacArthur favored giving Japan a chance economically that can not be settled by occupation authorities. Trade must be in the hands of private traders.

The allied commanders in Tokyo

observed: Japan today understands as thoroughly as any nation that war does not pay. Her spiritual revolution probably was the greatest the world has ever known.

CLEVELAND, Mar. 17.—President L. S. Buckmaster of the CIO United Rubber Workers said today that about 100,000 union members will strike in plants of the "Big Four" rubber companies next Sunday at midnight unless their demands are granted for a wage increase. The "Big Four" are GoodYear, Goodyear, Firestone, and U. S. Rubber.

Nearly half the employees involved in the wage dispute are employed in Akron, Ohio. The rest work in other parts of the nation. Since last Fall, the union has demanded a 26-cent-an-hour wage boost. The average hourly rate in the Akron area is $1.34.

However, Buckmaster expressed hope that a settlement still could be reached. He asked union members in the "Big Four" plants to wait until Sunday night before leaving their jobs. Buckmaster also asked unionists employed in other companies to stay on the job.

Jew Sentenced To Death In Palestine

JERUSALEM, Mar. 17.—A Jerusalem military court today sentenced a 21-year-old Jew to death for carrying a hand grenade. The convicted man is Moshe Barasini. The court's action followed the lifting of martial law for Jews, kept in their homes for the past two weeks while the British conducted an all-out search for members of the extremist underground.

Approximately 25,000 of Jeru-salem's Jews welcomed the end of martial law in a virtual holiday spirit. Martial law had cut off nearly 250,000 Jews from the rest of Palestine.

In addition of the Mea Shearim

Jewish district in Jerusalem, marital law had been clamped on 40 square miles of the Holy Land's coastal area.

Britain Is Battered By Hurricane Winds

LONDON, Mar. 17.—The strong winds which swept the British Isles during the night left a toll of 18 persons dead and property damage of millions of dollars. The night winds attained a velocity of 80 miles an hour at times, uprooting trees and wrecking houses.

The Air Ministry forecast milder weather today for flooded and snow-bound Britain. But the ministry predicted considerable rains and gales tomorrow or later. Mountainous snow drifts still paralyze transportation in northern England and Scotland.

Livestock Show Spurs Interest In Growing Industry

Report Reveals Exhibit At Quincy Is Outstanding Event

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 17.—(Special) "Quincy's livestock show this week spotlighted the present importance and the steady growth of the industry in that section of the State where staple farming has centered the interest of the agricultural population throughout Florida's history," said William L. Wilson, Director of State Markets.

In addition to giving the UN a chance, MacArthur favored giving Japan a chance economically that can not be settled by occupation authorities. Trade must be in the hands of private traders.

The allied commanders in Tokyo

observed: Japan today understands as thoroughly as any nation that war does not pay. Her spiritual revolution probably was the greatest the world has ever known.

After the two-hour meeting, the conferees issued a brief statement saying they had recessed and expected to hold another meeting in the week.

The Allis-Chalmers strike situation will be one of the subjects discussed at the regular quarterly meeting of the executive board.

Incidentally, disagreement over handling of the Allis-Chalmers strike was one of the causes of friction among union leaders. Union Vice President R. J. Thomas accused President Reuther with meddling when Reuther attempted to settle the walkout.

"We are grateful," he said, "for the way our citizens have received us with open arms. Mr. Armitage is a great man for the job. He greets everyone with a smile, is a diplomat and treats everyone alike. You have a fine little city here. I have been to at least 62 cities of your state and when we're passing through here I say to Mrs. Armitage, 'Here is a town in which I would not mind locating.'"

Mr. Esterly went on to praise

Sanford, the good churches, and the courteous police.

He told of his own observation of a young officer directing a visiting lady motorist how to park within the line and how to operate the parking meter. He praised Sanford schools as excellent, and said he had once served on a board of education.

"You have a few knackers," he asserted, "but every town has them; so don't get discouraged. If you are not satisfied with Sanford, go out into the world—you will be glad to come back."

"He then recommended, among Sanford needs, a downtown rest room, and a swimming pool. Holley President G. A.

Sperre commended Mr. Esterly for his talk and expressed the hope that he would return next year.

Guests were: The Rev. W. R. Houston of the Lake Mary Presbyterian Church; Roy Mayton;

Pete Saywell of Hudson, Ohio; Bob Fugate of Chattanooga, Tenn.; C. Moore of Orlando; Garland Athworth of West Virginia; Clyde C. Maven of Wayne, Mich.

Senator Pepper recalls that France and England induced Russia to come into the first World War on their side, offering her the Dardanelles. However, Senator Pepper has evidently forgotten that Russia really got into that war before France and England did.
In fact, when the Austro-Hungarian-Serbian crisis reached a peak, Russia was the first great power to mobilize. Germany declared war on Russia and moved her forces toward the Franco-Belgian border. France, allied with Russia, declared war on Germany a week or two days later.
England declared war on Germany and then only because Belgian neutrality was violated.

Double Our Rates, Mr. Ickes?

In his address prepared for delivery before the recent Georgia Press Institute, former Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes offered a plan to help newspapers cope with the newsprint shortage.

Double your advertising rates, was Mr. Ickes' advice. Then merchants will be able to purchase only half the amount of space they now get for their advertising dollar, and newspapers will be able to accommodate more advertisers in the space thus saved.

Mr. Ickes knows how to make headlines, and his proposal was sufficiently unique to attract considerable attention. But we can't help feeling the idea makes better reading than it does practice, and we trust there will be very few publishers foolish enough to adopt Ickes' plan. This proposal seems inconsistent coming from a man who served 12 years in an administration which, during the war years and since, has been on record as opposing profiteering and inflationary trade practices. True, Mr. Ickes now speaks for himself, but that does not minimize the inconsistency.

The anti-inflationary record of American newspapers has, on the whole, been extremely commendable thus far in our post-war economic crisis. If anything, the press has been extremely fair and patient about its advertising and subscription rates, holding increases to an absolute minimum and placing them into effect only when essential to solvent operations. Indeed, most papers have still not advanced their rates to a point consistent with fair return on investment.

But they are willing to make sacrifices now because they realize that long-range good will of advertisers and subscribers is far more valuable than immediate profits to be derived from gouging the public. There are other industries which might well emulate the Fourth Estate in this regard. — Publishers' Auxiliary.

It's Easy To Be Liked

"It is very easy to be liked—to be popular—when you have the power of attracting others to you," writes Lester F. Miles in an article in Your Life. "When others want to be your friends the entire problem of how to achieve acceptance with others has been licked."

In trying to arrive at a comprehensive list of behaviors that help to attract people to the individual, Dr. Miles, whose first book, "The Easy Way to Get What You Want," has just been published, presents the following 18 rules as most essential, in his opinion, in making friends:

- (1) Give other people a boost frequently.
- (2) Always thank people promptly.
- (3) Put yourself out for others on occasion.
- (4) Cultivate patience and a good disposition.
- (5) Be a good sport.
- (6) Promptness is a virtue.
- (7) Tidiness is always pleasing.
- (8) Respect the other fellow's right to privacy.
- (9) Be moderate.
- (10) Develop a good listening ear.
- (11) Be diplomatic when you talk.
- (12) Take advice gratefully.
- (13) Try to be reciprocal.
- (14) Be sentimental at times.
- (15) Be surprising on occasion.
- (16) Be independent most of the time.
- (17) Be a participant frequently.
- (18) Always be dependable.

During post Civil War days when North Carolina's fiery Zebulon Vance was a U. S. Senator, a New England Senator had, at Vance's request, re-explained in minute detail the provisions of a proposed bill. "I trust," the New England Senator concluded icily, "that the Senator from North Carolina now understands my bill."

Vance's tongue sharpened to the occasion, "I have heard the explanation," he said, "and it reminds me of an alarm clock I saw the other day for sale in a Connecticut shop. The tag on the clock read: 'When the minute hand on this clock points to nine and the hour hand to eleven, and the alarm rings at seven-thirty, it is two p. m.'" — John Newton Baker in Your Life.

such that high prices may be reasonably expected to continue for some time, and orderly marketing should be most profitable.

"Manager R. E. Johnson of the Plant City State Farmers' Market reported a slight increase in strawberry volume this last week, 103,- 500 pints being handled on daily averages ranging from 31 1/2 cents to 41 1/2 cents per pint. A fair volume is expected around April
1. Manager Johnson reported Plant City strawberry production was badly damaged by the severe cold and rains, some weeks ago.
The Fair Piecer, from the Navy ship
El Dorado, which is escorting the broken tanker, indicated that the section appears to be holding up
under the strain.

"Twenty-two other crewmen of the broken tanker, Fort Dearborn, are still aboard the stern section of the ship. They hope to steam ahead to Hawaii despite a Pagan sea. Reports from the Navy ship El Dorado, which is escorting the broken tanker, indicated that the
section appears to be holding up
under the strain.

"The other crewmen who were taken off the bow section are aboard the liner General W. H.
Gordon, bound for San Francisco.

The ship broke in half during a storm last Wednesday 1,000 miles northwest of Honolulu.

"Manager C. S. Phillips reported tomatoes at auction last week prices ranging from 4 to 6¢, up to a high of 11 1/2¢. The generally excellent price level is indicated by the fact that the week's average was reported as $6.60 per pound. Offerings will be light for several weeks, Market Manager

John C. Brown and Eddie Stucki, who are buyers as well as owners, arrived just in time to keep the Hardee County Cucumber Exposition from opening without cucumbers in the display booths.

A few other cucumbers will be available soon from trough acreage, but heavy volume must await pickings from acreage replanted following damage by cold and heavy rainfall. Tomatoes are making good progress around Waukehatchie and shipments are expected ahead of the main cucumber volume rather than following it, as is normally the case in that section.

"The first cucumbers of the Spring season for the Wauchula area were picked last week. Manager Frank E. Conner of the Wauchula State Farmers' Market reported initial pickings, March 10;

baseball, basketball and football will be played at the new stadium.

"Harvesting of the Spring tomatoe crop in St. Lucie County will get underway around April 10.

Manager M. E. Williams of the Fair Piecer State Farmers' Market said at the weekend. The market manager expressed the belief that

... with warm dry weather, we should have a fair volume of Spring tomatoes.

Choir To Appear In Sanford On Mar. 23

The Milledgeville College Choir, which will appear in Sanford on Mar. 23 at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 P. M., has established a reputation in its 12 years of existence for being unique among the state's choral groups.

The choir is composed of students from the Georgia State College for Women and the Georgia Military College. It is a college extracurricular activity promoted for the purpose of giving opportunity to the students to participate in the musical activity of their choice. It has the distinction of being the only A Cappella Choir in this section of the South. The singing is done entirely without instrumental support and depends for its effect upon the blending of voices in choir.

The program is made up entirely of sacred music.

Foreign Policy Warning Given By Senator

Vandenberg Says Politics Should Not Interfere In Considerations Abroad

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18.—Senator Arthur Vandenberg today warned that America's bi-partisan foreign policy may collapse if political party managers get the upper hand. The GOP Senator declared that if Americans yield to the political dictates of party managers on the proposed aid to Greece and Turkey the bi-partisan approach will die in revolt.

Vandenberg stepped down from his rostrum as the Senate's presiding officer to criticize from the floor a proposal made by Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National Committee to Carroll Reece, GOP national chairman. Sullivan had asked Reece to join in a two party statement endorsing President Truman's stand on help to Greece and Turkey.

The chairman of the House Civil Service Committee, Edward Rees accused the Civil Service Commission of dodging what he called its responsibility to fire Communists and fellow travelers.

He cited yesterday's Supreme Court decision as fortifying the commission's right to discharge Communist Party line followers who are working for the government.

In the course of his lengthy statement to the committee, the Kansas Republican said he hoped a Senate committee will conduct an extensive investigation into the loyalty of federal workers.

Republican Senator Robert Taft urged a bill creating a long-range housing program. Appearing before the Senate Banking Committee, Taft argued for the construction of 15,000,000 new homes by 1958 at what he estimated to be a cost of about $150,000,000 a year.

He also pointed out that there is pending legislation for educational aid and another program

End Of A Long Friendship

FOR MANY MONTHS, rooster "Jeffrey" and "Petunia," the skunk, have been inseparable. Accompanied by a lecture from the Bronx Zoo, New York, they've been gadding about the city in the signs traveling case to visit various schools. The purpose of their calls is to acquaint city children with animal life. The strong bond, however, that held them closer than the yolk and white of an egg, came apart the other day. The incident is pictured above. Following an appearance at Public School 97, "Jeffrey" found "Petunia" eating—all things—an egg for lunch. The moment of horrible realization is shown at top. At bottom, "Jeffrey" indignantly turns his back on "Petunia"—the skunk—and struts off. (International)

Holland Makes Move To Settle Indonesian Revolt

Dutch Representative In Java Ordered To Draft Agreement

BATAVIA, Mar. 18.—The Netherlands government today authorized the Dutch Commission General in Java to draft agreement for the settlement of the Indonesian revolution. Signing of the agreement is expected to end the conflict which began 19 months ago.

The Indonesians previously had announced their willingness to sign the agreement if the Dutch would abandon their insistence that Dutch interpretation be made a binding part of the agreement. The Netherlands communiqué indicates that the government at The Hague now is willing to "comply with the Indonesian condition.

The agreement was negotiated last November. It provides that the Netherlands government shall recognize the sovereignty of the Indonesian republic over Java, Sumatra, and Madura. The Indonesian republic becomes an equal partner with the Netherlands under the Dutch crown.

The announcement said that what it called regrettable incidents like the fighting now going on for the town of Modjokerto will be avoided with the signing of the agreement. Modjokerto is the key to the densely populated Brantas Delta in east Java.

19 Destroyers Join Search For Lifeboat

Negro Murder Trial Postponed By Court

PEARL HARBOR, Mar. 18.—A flotilla of Navy destroyers and a cruiser steamed out of Pearl Harbor at dawn today on one of the greatest sea-rescue attempts in the history of the Pacific.

Nineteen destroyers accompanied by the cruiser Tucson fanned out in a sweep through central Pacific waters, looking for a lifeboat and the last survivors of the broken tanker Fort Dearborn. Overhead, aircraft from Midway will crisscross the skies in long flights searching for the bobbing speck they hope will contain the 12 or 18 survivors of the wrecked tanker.

A daring rescue by a Navy small boat crew yesterday took off 22 other members of the tanker crew yesterday from the still-floating stern section.

Today's far-flung search was discontinued when the Navy decided that the Destriov's lifeboat had drifted beyond the range of search planes. The tanker broke up last Wednesday in a heavy storm 1,100 miles northwest of Honolulu.

Navy Secretary Urges Congress To Unify Forces

Forrestal Declares Plan Would Add To U.S. Punitive Power

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18.—Navy Secretary James Forrestal urged Congress today to unify the nation's armed forces. With the Army and Navy under a single, unified command, he said, the government would have the force it needs to back up its foreign policy.

Forrestal testified before the Senate Armed Forces Committee, which is considering an armed forces merger bill proposed by President Truman.

The measure would bring the Army, the Navy and a separate, independent Air Force under one cabinet officer, Secretary of National Defense.

The Navy Secretary declared that this bill provides an organization which will allow the U. S. to apply full punitive power against any future enemy. Forrestal added, "It provides for the coordination of the

Britain Rushes Help To Victims Of Flood

LONDON, Mar. 18.—Britain today mobilized fresh troops and volunteers to rescue thousands of families marooned in the nation's worst floods in more than half a century.

Flood waters poured over thousands of square miles in southern England, isolating villages, snarling transportation and causing heavy damage to property.

The Air Ministry said, however, that the steady rise of rivers appears to have been checked. The ministry forecast mild weather with scattered showers.

On the Continent, meanwhile, there also are floods in Belgium and Holland. But elsewhere, weather conditions generally are favorable.

Japanese Approve MacArthur's Peace Treaty Statement

TOKYO, Mar. 18.—General MacArthur's statement that a peace treaty should be written soon for Japan and the military occupation ended has met with strong Japanese approval. The Japanese call the supreme commander's declaration the strongest, most detailed expression of Japan's present position the world has heard.

All Japanese newspapers printed MacArthur's remarks in full, without editorial comment. His statement has been the chief topic of conversation since he made it to correspondents at a luncheon news conference yesterday. MacArthur told Japanese correspondents that peace treaty should be made with Japan soon, the occupation terminated and future guidance of the country turned over to the United Nations.

Some young intellectuals expressed concern lest the withdrawal of American occupation forces would encourage stronger political activity by extremists.

These Japanese commented that a civilian administration might not have the same restraining influence on communist elements that General MacArthur and the occupation forces have.

Some Japanese also expressed fear that United Nations control would cut the country off from American financial aid.

The Japanese feel themselves tied to Americans and they feel that the United States is more willing and able to advance tangible financial and physical aid than other countries or the United Nations.

Japanese government officials, although unable to speak in their official capacity, have been urging privately for months that Americans are the sole means of solving Japan's economic problem.

Appeal Over-Ruled By Palestine Court

JERUSALEM, Mar. 18.—The Palestine High Court today rejected a plea to overrule death sentences imposed on three members of underground outfit.

The attorney for the trio, Max Seligman, claimed the trial at which the men were convicted was improperly conducted. Seligman contended the three members of the Jewish underground were tried by a military court without prior referral by a civil magistrate, as provided by law.

The high court, however, ruled the case was under military jurisdiction at all times, and that civil reference, therefore, was not necessary.

The trio was arrested on the night of Dec. 20 when soldiers at a road-block found arms and a whip in their possession.
