Diplomats Talk Meeting Policy

NEW YORK (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home were meeting today to discuss diplomatic strategy for their Saturday conference with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.
 Home reached New York Wednesday following London reports that Britain now wants to participate in detailed discussions being held by the United States, West Germany, Italy and others if she can do so without formally committing herself to join the multi-nation force at this point.

Some Tips On Wise Shopping

It takes wise buying these days to stay within a budget. This is particularly true of food, since there are some 8,000 items to choose from in the average supermarket.
 Here are some tips on how to save and how to get more for your money every time you shop for food.
 Check supplies on hand and prepare a list of things you actually need. A list does a lot to help you keep spending at a minimum and you arrive home with what you need. With a list you are partially fortified against impulse buying.
 It is extremely important to read labels, whether on packages, over meat displays or elsewhere. Be sure to note the net weight and liquid volume printed there. Make price comparisons as to size, grade. Know terminology used so that you know what you are buying.
 Be sure to read the list of ingredients on labels. Less expensive grades may serve your purpose as well as higher priced fancy grades. Compare prices of fruits and vegetables in the various forms — fresh, canned or frozen.

Coeds Have New Sportive Look For Fall On A Budget

The sportive look — wrap around skirts, vests, bulky mohair sweaters — will be "the look" this autumn on high school and college paths. And every woman student can have the "look" within a price range that appeals to the budget-minded.
 Not too many people think of variety stores as a source of apparel — skirts, jackets and dresses, but the truth is that not only does the store fulfill clothing needs but also it has a wide range of accessories at appealing prices for the student with the small purse.
 Right now, culottes and wrap-around skirts are heralding the back-to-school clothes season. In plaids, flannel, wide-wale corduroy, they are vying with vests for top fashion position. The vest craze will go on because American designers have done so much to bring it to the front and keep it there. At a fraction of the cost that a student might spend at a specialty shop or department store, she can assemble in a variety store a complete outfit with "the layered look" — skirt, blouse, vest, jacket right down to knee socks. Sweaters, which are basic, sound security for students, are attracting attention at the $1, $3 and $6 level. There's a great variety of styles. Cardigans and turtle, boat and V-necks are neck and neck in the back-to-school race.

 In patterned sweaters there are paisleys, floral, geometric and Norwegian-inspired designs. And, of course, there's the cable-knit sweater, always a campus hit, available in a wide range of colors at a price much less than would be expected.
 As to dresses, the "long, skinny, stretched-out, easy, soft-draping dress is in," according to fashion experts. Variety stores support that trend with a large group of chemise dresses, requiring no belts, at modest prices of $3 and $4. Several have border prints around the hems; others are medallion-patterned. A surprising number of greens — bright olive, bottle green, emerald, kelly and jade — as well as wine tones run through many of the patterns.
 At home, slack sets in knit-ter cotton are offered, and Oxford cloth Bermudas and Capri pants. A series of provincial print blouses at $2 can coordinate with the pants.

Baby 'Cocktail' Soon On Market

LONDON (UPI) — Prof. George Dick, writing in the British Medical Association's magazine Family Doctor, said today a "cocktail" vaccine to protect babies against five diseases should be available soon.
 He said the "cocktail" would include vaccines for measles, tetanus, diphtheria, polio and whooping cough.

The "Clock" felt a bit happy this noon in viewing this front page picture of the mothers' school patrol. Not too many weeks ago one of the mothers stopped by, asking what could be done for the pupils' safety in crossing French Avenue. Bill McLaughlin followed with advice the PTO would furnish crossing "guards" with police sanction. Chief Roy Williams said this morning "the ball started rolling with those mentions in the "Clock." Happy to be of service to the school children.

City police had a telephone request from a Tallahassee man to pick up his runaway nephew off a Sanford-bound bus. Police picked up the boy alright here in Sanford . . . but he was driving a stolen car.

Camie Bruce and Ray Milwee reminded today that this is the final week for voter registration . . . Camie's office open 9:30 daily through Saturday, final day. Ray also said to correct some thoughts, the proposed $75 million higher education bond issue will be financed with a 1.5 percent tax on gross receipts of utilities companies and not against real estate.

Following from the Duluth Herald of Sept. 23: The only personal audience granted by President Kennedy during his Duluth visit was given this morning to Jeno F. Paulucci, president of Duluth's Chun King Corporation (and one of Sanford's better known winter residents).

Jayeens report their rabies clinic a "big success" Saturday; more than 200 dogs vaccinated.

A 10-hour American Red Cross first aid course is slated at Oviedo City Hall, with the first session at 7 p. m. Thursday. Jay Saucer will conduct two-hour classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Seminole grid team members are saying the NICEST things — and can't seem to find enough of them — about the cheerleaders. It's all because the girls really "knocked themselves out" mentally and physically in thinking up ideas and putting them into action to whip up the pep to a frenzy for the Colonial game. The whole squad is praising their cheerleaders to the sky and saying a hearty "Thank you, gals!"

The financial wire tells us that Jeno Paulucci's Chun King Corporation has taken over the Chun Wong firm which has been putting up frozen foods in Compton, Calif. It's nice to see our Washington Avenue neighbor prospering, but we hope this deal will not take time from his stay in Sanford to check into his new holdings in the outskirts of Los Angeles.

Out of Miami Beach comes word that Oviedo's John Evans is the new president elect of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association. The Nelson and Company and Wheeler executive has been a strong force in the produce group. You may be sure he deserves the honor or he wouldn't be moving into the driver's seat.

This meeting at the High School last Friday hosted by School Board Chairman Dan Wright that brought together delegates from the Seminole Athletic Association, City Commission, Boosters Club, in addition to those of the School Board is a splendid example of what can be done when each group's problems are understood by the others and a fine cooperative spirit sets out to solve them. Congratulations to all the participants, but especially to Dan Wright for calling the session.

Boosters Club members meet with the Seminole coaching staff, players, et al at a meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the high school auditorium. A real turnout is expected by President O. B. Barks.

THE 'SOD SITUATION' at Municipal Stadium is being rectified for future home football games. The School Board has taken over the stadium from the City for the season. (Story on page 7.) School work crews were on hand Saturday afternoon to commence laying sod on the baseball diamond. Leading off the work were (left to right) Dr. O. L. Barks, president of the Seminole Boosters; Fred Ganus, Seminole High athletic director, and Andy Bracken, Seminole High principal. (Herald Photo)

Castro Blasts New Dominican Regime

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro has served notice that he is even more opposed to the provisional government in the Dominican Republic than to the constitutional regime which it replaced.

Castro also called on Cubans for a "maximum effort" to wipe out Cuba's adverse trade balance with the Soviet Union. He said Cuban trade with Russia was $109-million in the red, and urged that "this imbalance cease to exist in the shortest possible time."

Castro urged in a 45-minute speech Saturday night to check a report from two youths who said they saw a "big snake" on a city street. They found an 11 and one-half foot boa constrictor, measuring about 10 inches in circumference and weighing 122 pounds.

Africa's Vital Role Stressed

LISBON (UPI) — The United States should realize that the security of free Europe depends on the security of the continent of Africa where Communist infiltration is far deeper than many people seem to believe, according to Portuguese Foreign Minister Dr. Fialberto Franco Nogueira.

In an exclusive interview with Ralph Nicholson, publisher of newspapers in the United States, the foreign minister complained that the Western world is neglecting the global attack of communism with "limited and restricted solidarity."

The minister told Nicholson: "Communist infiltration and penetration in Africa is far deeper than many people seem to believe. This raises very serious problems to the security of Western Europe."

"It is said in the United States that the security of Latin America is essential to the security of North America. I entirely agree with that view, but I hope that people in the United States also realize that Western Europe is presently in the same situation, and that the security of free Europe depends on the security of the continent of Africa."

4 Shots In Head Don't Stop Boa

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "I'd rather fight six men than tangle with one of those again."

Board Begins FEC Strike Impact Probe

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A three-man Federal Board of Inquiry looking into a labor dispute involving the Florida East Coast Railway Co. arrived today to look at the strike-affected launching site for America's man-to-the-moon program.

The board, headed by Asst. Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds, immediately took a one-hour helicopter swing over the Merritt Island Launch Area (Mila), which the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is clearing for the manned lunar landing project.

Tuesday the board planned to hold hearings in an auditorium at a motel (The Cape Colony Inn) on nearby Cocoa Beach.

The board was established by President John F. Kennedy, who said "the prolonged labor dispute between the Florida East Coast Railway Co. and its non-operating employees . . . has been a matter of increasing concern to us because of its current and potential impact upon vital defense and space programs."

The dispute, which began Jan. 23, has affected the shipment of material to the Mila area. Officials have indicated that, in the long run, it could affect the schedule for the lunar landing Apollo program, which President Kennedy established as a national goal.

Algerian Army Leader Defies Ben Bella Order

ALGIERS (UPI) — The dissident commander of the Algerian 7th Military District in the opposition stronghold of Tiz Ouzou today rejected a government edict dismissing him and ordered his battle hardened troops to general alert.

Col. Mohamed Ou El Harj, known as "the old man" to the men he led in Algeria's 7 1/2 year war of independence from France, announced through a spokesman he will not bow to the order issued by President Ben Bella's government.

He vowed to continue his command in the rugged Grand Kabylia region east of Algiers where opposition leaders, backed by regional civilian and military authorities, launched a movement against the "illegal" government of Ben Bella in a mass rally Sunday.

Armored cars and field gendarmerie units in battle dress sealed off Tiz Ouzou, the capital of the troubled region and headquarters of the 7th Military District, for the second straight day. The troops to say on whose side they stood and turned back all road traffic and newsmen.

Dissident Berber leader Hocine Ait Ahmed led the demonstration of some 3,500 adherents in Tiz Ouzou, 60 miles east of Algiers, and exhorted "all militants to begin a decisive fight" against the one-party Ben Bella regime.

Associated Industries wants to help overcome this problem, he said.

"Businessmen need to express themselves more effectively."

He said businessmen can be helped by hearing men knowledgeable in the legislative process cope with the problem of improving their legislative liaison.

Turncoat Tells Solons To Jail Crime Bosses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Underworld turncoat Joseph Valachi was reported today to have told Senate investigators that the way to break up the "Cosa Nostra" crime syndicate is to jail its bosses.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S. D.) quoted Valachi as saying that respected bosses in the "Cosa Nostra" hierarchy commanded a loyalty from the rank and file "soldiers" of crime which was not paid to lower echelon lieutenants.

Mundt said in an interview that Valachi told the Senate investigations subcommittee at a closed session that "locking up the bosses" would destroy the crime organization.

Valachi, the vengeful — beat "Cosa Nostra" alumnus, is expected to expand on the point when he resumes his testimony at a public hearing Tuesday. He testified Friday that the "Cosa Nostra" bosses had been "very bad to the soldiers," and that this was one reason he was determined to tell his story to authorities.

In his public testimony Valachi also said he hoped Congress would pass a law making it a crime to belong to an organization such as "Cosa Nostra." Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), who has made a similar proposal, stressed that the suggestions were made independently.

Lt. Dale G. Purdy of VAH-11, won "Bombardier of the Month" laurels for the second consecutive month. He was followed by Detachment 9's Clark D. Arrington, a first class aviation jet mechanic and the Fiscal 1968 "Bombardier of the Year."

Building At Longwood Damaged $600

By Emma Estes

Longwood Police Chief Claude Lays reported over the weekend an estimated $600 damage was done to the former Jaycee Building on Grant Street recently by vandals believed to be 10 and 11 years old.

Windows were broken, bathroom fixtures smashed and the ceiling had large holes where the youngsters apparently jumped through it.

Owner of the building is J. R. Grant, Longwood businessman, who donated its use for some years to the Jaycees for holding teenage dances.

Wing Welcomes New Officers

Nearly 40 Heavy Attack Wing One staff officers, their ladies and guest Friday bid "Farewell to Summer" with an outdoor barbeque party at the Sanford Naval Air Station's Lake Golden.

With the weatherman cooperating almost perfectly, the group enjoyed an Indian summer evening repast with tropical punch, a steak fry and dancing.

The occasion also served as an official welcome for Cdr. and Mrs. Edward A. Decker, Commander Decker will join the staff from Heavy Attack Squadron Seven in October.

Attending a Wing party for the first time were Lt. Cdr. and Mrs. David E. Darrophi; Lt. Cdr. and Mrs. Darrell F. Kirkpatrick and Lt. and Mrs. Raymond F. Milburn. The three officers recently joined the Wing staff from various other commands.

Bishops Study Path To Christian Unity

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — The bishops of the Roman Catholic Church, assembled in Ecumenical Council, today took up an historic document which could smooth the path toward Christian unity.

As their first order of business in the new council session which Pope Paul VI convened Sunday, the bishops scheduled debate on a "schema" or draft declaration defining their own role in the government of the church.

The Pope in his opening address invited them to make that role larger and more important than it has been in the past. He said he would welcome "more help and support, a more effective and responsible collaboration" from his "brother bishops."

The Pope made clear there is no question of repealing the dogma of papal infallibility formulated by the last Ecumenical Council in 1870. But he said the "time has now come" to spell out the relationship of the bishops to the Pope, and the way in which they share his authority as successors to the apostles.

The 1870 council was supposed to do this, but its work was interrupted by the arrival of Italian troops in Rome. Thus for more than 80 years, Catholic doctrine about the church and the powers of the Pope has stood in what many theologians regard as a one-sided or unfinished condition.

In an oblique reference to the fact that papal supremacy is a major bone of contention between Catholics and non-Catholics, Pope Paul voiced hope that a redefinition of the Catholic position by the council "may make the path towards common agreement easier." He said this task will be "the principal concern of this session of the council," which is scheduled to continue through Dec. 4.

Berbers Protest Algerian Regime As 'Illegal'

ALGIERS (UPI) — Dissident Berber leader Hocine ait Ahmed said today the movement launched against the "illegal" government of President Ahmed Ben Bella in the Kabylia Mountain district will spread to other parts of Algeria.

Ait Ahmed told newsmen that compromise with Ben Bella now would be "very difficult." He demanded formation of a new government.

The Berber leader, one of Ben Bella's former lieutenants, took part in demonstrations against the president Sunday in the Kabylia city of Tizi-Ouzou, a center of opposition. But he stressed that the Berbers who live in Kabylia's mountains do not seek to establish a breakaway or rebel government.

"It is not a question of succeeding," he said "it is not a territory that is rebelling. It is a part of the Algerian population that is resuming the revolutionary movement that was broken by last summer's crisis."

He referred to the brief civil war a year ago in which Ben Bella grabbed power.

He said that other regions of Algeria now would "take up a stand" against the president.

A. Fiori Heads County Group

ALBERT FIORI was elected president of the Seminole County Society for Crippled Children and Adults in a recent meeting. Other new officers are Mrs. Laymon Goodman, vice president, and Kenneth McIntosh, secretary-treasurer.

In addition to contributing to Forest Park School and Camp Challenge for handicapped boys and girls, the society aids many children and older people with surgery and therapy during the year. The society is sponsored by the Pilot Club, which helps in sending out Easter Seals.

The society will again sponsor the Easter Lily Ball this year. This has proven a popular fund raising event in the past.

The group hopes to enlist new members, with a representative from each locality in the county. There are no dues and meetings are held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the County Public Health Center at 8 p. m.

Two Men Jailed In Fatal Bombing

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — State police today jailed two white men in connection with the bombing of a Negro church that killed four girls two weeks ago.

The suspects were not identified and covered their faces when driven past newsmen into the city jail.

One man was a blonde in his 30s and the other was middle-aged with short cropped gray hair.

Mme. Nhu Under Guard In Paris

PARIS (UPI) — Police guarded South Viet Nam's Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu today against possible violent demonstrations by hundreds of South Vietnamese students living in Paris.

Mme. Nhu, sister-in-law of President Ngo Dinh Diem, arrived in Paris from Rome Sunday night amid security precautions surpassed only by those decreed for President Charles de Gaulle at the height of terrorist attacks in 1961 and 1962, according to police.

Police held back about 100 American and Vietnamese students waiting at Orly Airport to cheer Mme. Nhu. Some of them carried eggs they said they had planned to throw at her.

Spokesmen for the anti-Nhu group said they included both Roman Catholic and Buddhist Vietnamese, angered by government policies including alleged persecution of Buddhists. They said the American students were aroused by Mme. Nhu's recent criticisms of Americans in Viet Nam.

One Vietnamese student said several demonstrations have been planned during Mme. Nhu's stay in Paris.

The first lady of South Viet Nam was expected to stay at the Vietnamese embassy until she leaves Friday for New York to attend the United Nations General Assembly session.

Lives Of Usefulness

Department of Agriculture has come up with some longevity figures for household appliances which will interest many people — and probably make some of them mad and others feel superior.

With normal use, washing machines should last 11 years; electric sewing machines, 24 years; vacuum cleaners, 15 to 18 years; toasters, 15 years; refrigerators, 16 years; and television sets, 11 years.

By that time, most of them should be paid for.

Finding Responsibility

The nation shares Birmingham's own shock at the death of six young Negroes in a tragic church bombing and later street shootings.

Only a few days earlier, Maryland Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama had asserted with curious pride that not one of the previous 47 bombings in Birmingham and the rest of Alabama had resulted in even a scratch to any person.

The good citizens of Alabama neither need nor want lectures from elsewhere on the fruits of violence. In recent weeks they have been strongly vocal on this subject. And they are viewing with discernment the hard facts of life.

Little more than a year ago standard comment in and outside the South had it that South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi comprised the bastions of stoutest resistance to desegregation of schools and other public facilities.

Since that time, all three states have been compelled by court directives to undertake varying degrees of desegregation.

In South Carolina this change has come to Clemson College, the University of South Carolina and public schools in Charleston.

Though it is abundantly clear the citizens of South Carolina generally oppose desegregation as staunchly as do people in Alabama and Mississippi, the transition in South Carolina has been managed without even a shadow of violence or disruption.

South Carolina's Gov. Donald Russell made plain from the outset that no disturbance of any sort would be tolerated. He and the co-operating local officials and school authorities took iron-clad precautions against trouble. They were eminently successful.

The citizens of Birmingham, looking at the way segregationist South Carolina handled its problems may not have too much trouble in placing responsibility for the tragedy of violence that has beset them in the difficult months of 1963.

Marlene Ageless Marvel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It is widely agreed that Marlene Dietrich is one of the natural wonders of this continent.

Some regard her as even more fascinating than the orange pipe cactus of Arizona.

In fact, a pretty good case could be made for the proposition that Miss Dietrich should be placed under the jurisdiction of the National Parks Service.

I don't mean, of course, that she should be designated as a national monument merely on the basis of beauty. There are many entertainers who are equally as beautiful, if not more so.

There's a long, long trail winding when your car runs out of gas between gas stations.

It's okay to make your point, but don't stick anybody doing it.

Nor are her celebrated legs sufficient to qualify her for the same status accorded to the natural bridges of Utah.

What makes Miss Dietrich, who has four grandchildren, one of nature's phenomena is her resistance to the aging process. She appears to age at about the same rate as a California redwood.

Unless you had access to her birth certificate, the only way to tell how old she is would be to saw her in half and count the rings.

The other evening I attended a reception for Miss Dietrich at the Shoreham Hotel where she is currently doing her night club act. And there I discovered the secret of how she stays so youthful-looking.

She does it with cocktails. Not the ones she drinks. The ones other people drink.

When I arrived at the party, I saw a group of women giving Miss Dietrich the once-over, as did all the other women in the room. So I moved up to eavesdrop.

Worry Clinic

CASE Q-41: Jimmy D., aged 8, was recently adopted by a lovely couple in a suburb of St. Louis.

His new daddy and mother were delighted to have him so they took him for a long auto drive, plus a picnic supper.

Then they returned home and gave him a pair of new pajamas, plus a new toothbrush.

The also showed him his bedroom.

But about 11 p. m. when his new parents were ready for bed, his mother looked in upon Jimmy to be sure he was sleeping soundly.

Alas, Jimmy was not in his bed.

So she hurried to the bathroom to look for him. But Jimmie wasn't there.

So she called his new daddy, for she was growing panicky.

"Maybe he was unhappy and ran away," she exclaimed to her husband, but he suggested that Jimmy might have been hungry.

"Let's look in the kitchen before we call the police," he suggested.

But the kitchen was dark. However, they pushed the light button, and then they saw Jimmy.

He was curled up and fast asleep in a corner of the room, lying on the linoleum floor.

As his daddy picked him up to carry him back to his bed, Jimmy sleepily opened his eyes.

"Why did you come out to sleep on the kitchen floor?" his new mother anxiously inquired.

"Well, before I went to the orphanage," Jimmy replied, "there were so many of us kids at home that we didn't have beds."

"But my mother would let us kids go to sleep on her bed. Then my father would carry us to the kitchen, after we were sound asleep, and put us on the floor."

"So I thought I'd just save you the trouble, for you have been so nice to me."

Well, his new mother felt tears come to her eyes at Jimmy's evidence of thoughtfulness.

But she reassured him that he had his own bed so he wouldn't need to sleep on the floor.

And Jimmy was so gleeful at this unique privilege that he reached up and kissed her to show his gratitude.

Somebody really is fond of them. They often go to extreme lengths to show their thanks.

That is especially true of youngsters who have been deprived of the advantages that now are taken for granted by so many overly coddled children in luxurious America.

So you parents should be sure to show your love by tangible words of praise, plus affectionate pats on the back and a goodnight kiss.

But don't become maudlin in your sentimentality. For example, never put your child on an "allowance."

Instead, use the pay-for-work plan based on a piece-work policy.

For, unless a child learns that money stands for sweat and toil and even blisters on his hands, he will likely become a Prodigal Son.

The reason I mention this case is to show how eagerly children hunger for affection and tangible evidences of love.

When they realize that

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The great American proclivity to seek somebody in the jaw when things don't go right is so strongly developed that it is recognized worldwide as a national characteristic.

It is particularly pronounced when the fellow who ought to get slapped is smaller than the one who wants to throw the punches.

This explains why some members of Congress want to cut off all aid to little South Vietnam until President Ngo Dinh Diem kicks his brother Ngo Dinh Nhu out of office and makes him stop harassing the Buddhists.

It also may explain why Sen. Barry Goldwater wanted to tie a delayed ratification amendment onto the test ban treaty until the Russians get clean out of Cuba.

This proposal not only was intended to get even with Premier Fidel Castro, but also with Russia's Nikita Khrushchev.

It explains the barrage of verbal brickbats being tossed in the path of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito, to welcome him on his visit to America in October.

Other international characters Americans have from time to time wanted to see socked are President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, Prime Minister Nehru and his retired friend, H. V. Krishna Menon, of India, President Sukarno of Indonesia, Mao Tse-tung and the whole hierarchy of Red China, of course.

There are times, even, when President Charles de Gaulle of America's oldest ally—France—has seemed to warrant on his forthcoming U. S. visit a welcoming kick on the shin.

The powerful United States, of course, could lick any or all of these individuals and their countries.

Give once for many THE UNITED WAY

THE UNITED WAY

Yet the U. S. makes no move to overthrow any of these national leaders, either by force or by shutting off its aid. Because that doesn't work.

One of the arguments frequently cited by hot-headed Americans is that this country ought to follow the example of the Russians in forcing weaker nations to toe a given line.

The Russians did use force to suppress the rebellious workers of East Germany in 1953 and the revolutionary movement in Hungary, 1956.

But in both these instances the Russians had divisions within easy marching distance to suppress the rioters and keep them under control.

In the areas more remote from Russian tanks, the Soviet had no better luck than the United States in making upstarts say "Uncle."

The first to break with Russia was Tito, when he pulled out of the Cominform in 1948. Russia retaliated by boycotting Yugoslavia. When the West stepped into the gap and Yugoslavia showed signs of progress without Russian assistance, it was Khrushchev himself who went to Tito and arranged a reconciliation by diplomacy, not force.

Though Russia had a submarine base in little Albania, her Communist First Secretary General Enver Hoxha did not hesitate to tell Khrushchev that he was a traitor to Marxism and Stalinism. Though the Russians have ranted at Hoxha, he continues to thumb his nose at them and gets away with it.

Similarly, little Cuba, 8,000 miles from Moscow, has been

Ben Bella A Chameleon?

In the little more than a year that Algerian strongman Ahmed Ben Bella has been in power, he has given the world ample and frequent reason to wonder just what manner of man he is.

He denies ambitions toward either a dictatorship or a personality cult.

Yet since the summer of 1962 he has eliminated all of the "historic leaders" who along with him on the night of Oct. 31-Nov. 1, 1956, launched the Algerian revolt against France.

Ben Youssef Ben Khedda, who headed the former Algerian exile government and waged a short power struggle with Ben Bella, now runs a drug store.

Yet Ben Bella honestly can point out that no bloodbath has accompanied his rise to power and that the regime's few political prisoners have been treated comparatively mildly.

He denies being a Marxist, yet one of his idols is Fidel Castro.

And, while Ben Bella visits the United Nations in New York and seeks a meeting with President Kennedy to enlist more U.S. aid for Algeria, his No. 2 man, Col. Houari Boumediene, will be in Moscow working out details of a $100 million credit offered by the Soviet Union.

When Ben Bella took over president of Algeria, he announced new plans to step up the pace of Socialism.

He said his regime would nationalize "all the lands of the (French) settlers and the traitors as well."

Affected would be some 2 million acres still under French ownership.

A day later came an edict seizing three French-owned newspapers.

Involved were clear violations of the accords by which France granted Algerian independence. Then Ben Bella went a step further.

The most important single French investment remaining in Algeria is approximately $1.5 billion in the Saharan oil fields.

France buys most of the oil and from it Ben Bella derives an income. In the event of nationalization, Russia, with an oil surplus of its own, could not provide a substitute market.

Nor would Russia be likely to match French financial aid now running at around $350 million annually which is all that saves Algeria from bankruptcy. Continued hunger and unemployment in Algeria could threaten Ben Bella's leadership.

Ben Bella is an avowed neutral but in his dealings and dealings among Moscow, Paris and Washington it is apparent he hopes to live off the best of two worlds.

UF Optimistic In Attaining $48,425 Goal

By Jane Casselberry
The United Fund Campaign committee is optimistic about reaching the goal of $48,425, the largest goal in the history of the United Fund in Seminole County, as pledges and donations have already begun to come in.

Heretofore, the largest amount raised has been in the neighborhood of $32,500 but the committee believes that the tremendous growth in industry and population should make the new goal easily attainable.

There will be no door-to-door solicitations for funds in Sanford, as it is the general feeling of the organization that most subscribers make their contributions and pledges at their places of work and do not wish to be contacted again during their leisure hours.

Housewives have responded generously in the past both with volunteer work and donations, but the fact remains that increased living costs make it difficult for the individual to make a double donation to charity even though the contribution is a legitimate tax deduction.

Payroll deduction, which is available for United Fund in most Seminole County firms, makes it somewhat easier for people to make their contribution and it has been suggested that "one hour's pay per month, be used as a fair share guide.

Excellent progress has been made in signing up volunteers for the important positions on the campaign committee.

Those chairmen who have been enlisted to date are: Capt. James Mayo and Cdr. G. W. Kimmons, Sanford Naval Air Station; Capt. R. Ware and Chaplain R. Deal, county committee chairman; E. D. Kirchhoff, south county committee chairman; Howard H. Hodges, north county committee chairman; John O. Border Jr., special and professional gifts; Everett A. Harper, wage withholding; Byron Leach, neighborhood; Mrs. W. E. MacLaughlin, Al Fiori and Tom Albert, county towns; Richard Keogh, Lake Mary; S. Helmy, North Orlando; Mrs. O. Shumate, Longwood; Mrs. M. Hittell, Lake Monroe; Mrs. D. M. Ladd, Geneva; Maj. J. Laird, Casselberry; Mrs. W. R. Seeburger, Fern Park; Ronald Masten, Altamonte Springs.

Randall Chase, advance gifts; Dr. Charles Hardwick, physicians; Dr. Eli White, dentists; George A. Speer, attorneys; Rev. Paul Bikes, clergy; Harold Kastner, special gifts; Robert Besserer, hospital; Miss Cecile Heard, federal employees; James Lec, state employees; Arthur Beckwith Jr., county employees; W. E. Knowles, city employees; Stewart Gatchell, schools; John Daniels, colored county; Mrs. Ruby Lee Wilson, north colored county; Mrs. James Foster, south colored county; D. C. McCoy, colored community groups; Rev. Jesse Brown, colored religious groups; Mrs. Dorothy Ringling, colored neighborhood, and Oscar Merthie, colored civic organizations.

Mrs. B. F. Ganas and Mrs. B. H. Griffin are on the staff at United Fund headquarters in Room 505, Sanford Atlantic National Bank Building, and are ready to assist workers in any way possible.

U.S. Ambassador To Give Views
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Bartlow Martin, U. S. Ambassador to the Dominican Republic, today was expected to begin giving his views to government officials on the military coup which ousted Dominican President Juan Bosch.

Martin returned to Washington Sunday accompanied by the heads of the U. S. military and aid missions in Santo Domingo. The United States severed diplomatic relations with the new junta and suspended aid when military leaders seized power last week.

FFA Local Vies For Firm Prize
Donald Farrans, director of the Sanford Junior High chapter, Future Farmers of America (FFA), today appealed to residents of Sanford and Seminole County concerning a project of the local chapter.

The makers of A-con rat and mice killer are offering prizes to FFA chapters only for box tops of this product. Persons using this product are requested to send the box tops to the chapter's Save-a-Top drive by mailing to Farrans in care of Sanford Junior High School.

Chapter members are available at any time to pick up the contributions by calling the school at 322-3063 or the FFA chapter office at 322-4136.

Fight On Hunger Gains Despite Population Rise

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Whatever other problems the population explosion may cause mankind, it shouldn't be the cause of hunger — at least not for a while.

In fact, man probably will gain some ground in his battle against hunger around the world between now and 1984, according to Emeritus Director Merrill K. Bennett of the Stanford University Food Research Institute.

"(Continued) shrinkage rather than expansion of hunger situations in the world seems to me in reasonable prospect," he writes in the current issue of Food Research Institute Studies.

"A billion mouths are accompanied by a billion pairs of hands and a billion brains." Haring widespread warfare, there should be a continuance of the trends toward increased urbanization, better transportation and communication networks and more widespread land cultivation, Bennett said.

Vast amounts of well-watered land are still unsettled in the tropics, he said, and much more existing acreage can be irrigated, even without desalted sea water. More swamps can be drained, and existing farmlands can be made to yield two crops.

And crops should get bigger with greater use of fertilizers, better pest control, improved soil management and better seeds.

But, looking a few hundred years ahead, Bennett conceded the population growth rate has got to slow down sometime.

If the 1.6 per cent growth rate of the 1950's continues indefinitely, the population density of the entire planet will reach 15,000 per square mile by 2317 — leaving each individual a strip of land 27 by 70 feet.

This, said Bennett, is "rather small — even allowing for forthcoming miracles of science."

Seminoles Come Through

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Editor

Twice in as many ball games Seminole High's gridgers have been forced to rise to the occasion and twice they made it successfully.

They came from behind in the last minute to nip the Titusville Terriers 14 to 13 a week ago last Friday night. At Orlando Friday night, again down 13 to 7 in the final period, Coach Jim Pigott's Seminoles posted not one but a pair of touchdowns to paddle the pesky Grenadiers of Colonial, 20 to 13.

Although the contest opened with the Warriors kicking off to the Minutemen, Seminole needed only three minutes and 46 seconds to light up the scoreboard.

On the game's initial play, Danny Tillis pounced on a Colonial miscue at the Orlando 47. Lawson went right to work for Seminole by measuring off 23 yards but a clipping penalty brought it back to the Tribe's 46.

Earl Black plowed over right tackle for three before Ronnie Hinson flipped an aerial to Billy Higgins who went down on the M. Lee Sparkman, Lawson and Hinson alternated the ball to the Colonial 20 where Neell climbed into the air to snag a Hinson toss on the nine.

Higgins grabbed another shot from Hinson on the two from where Hinson scored two plays later. Lloyd Freeman's boot for the added point was good.

The situation remained that way until shortly after the third stanza got underway.

Colonial kicked off to the Seminoles and a holding penalty put the Tribe on its own 13. A Hinson pass was deflected three plays later and Colonial's Jerry Gilliano grabbed it in mid air and sped 13 yards to put the Grenadiers on the board. The PAT attempt failed.

And almost as rapidly Orlando posted its second tally. Freeman, back to punt couldn't get off this kick and the Grenadiers took control on Seminole's 29. Colonial engineered the ball to the 12 where Frank Neell fell on a Grenadier fumble.

Unable to move the picture, Sanford punted and Bill Lockaby returned to Semi-

Lyman Power Too Much For Ocoee Birds

By Richard Grant

The Lyman Greyhounds rolled over the Ocoee Cardinals Friday night to the tune of 34-0.

Sophomore Les Lyle proved again to be Lyman's big back when he racked up 100 yards rushing and two touchdowns. On defense he sparkled again by intercepting two Cardinal passes. His other feat was a 40-yard quick kick.

The other big back of the evening was Pete Carlson who covered 113 yards and posted two touchdown runs. One was a 65-yard dash.

Second string fullback Al Cantrell and halfback Phil Perrault did the driving for the Greyhounds, Cantrell with a TD and 28 yards rushing while Perrault came up with 40 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Gene Griffin kicked all the extra points except one. That was blocked by Ocoee's big defensive man Ronnie Konetz. Griffin completed four out of five PATs.

The outstanding gridgers for Ocoee were quarterback Davis Grant and fullback Johnny Stiles. Stiles led in yardage for the Cards with 28.

Ocoee came up with a long drive into Lyman territory which stalled at the 21 yard line when Frank Hundley, playing defensive safety, showed his ability on pass defense by knocking down a sure touchdown from Grant intended for Ed Murray.

The Greyhounds took the ball on downs and drove to the Ocoee seven yard line. Lyle when Frank Hundley, playing defensive safety, showed his ability on pass defense by knocking down a sure touchdown from Grant intended for Ed Murray.

Oviedo Loses Tough One In Fourth Period

By Joe Warden
Herald Sports Writer

The top rated Duneson Tigers bounced from behind in the fourth period to score two touchdowns and claw the valiant Oviedo High School Lions, 19-13.

A capacity crowd nearly witnessed an upset. Oviedo led the Tigers by six points at the end of the third quarter, only to have that lead smashed by the fourth period scoring of Duneson back Wayne Dixon.

The first marker came on a phenomenal 80-yard kickoff return by Duneson's feet Larry Jirright. Oviedo quickly countered with the Lions' first score, a 12-yard pass from Johnny Courier to Gouge, which was set up by a crucial interception of a Duneson pass by Oviedo fullback Rex Brooks.

A well fought defensive battle was waged in the second quarter with neither eleven managing to post any spectacular gains. Although the Tigers' defensive line limited Oviedo's offense on the ground and in the air, the Lions managed to outgain the Tigers who were severely handicapped by Oviedo's stalwart forward line.

Early in the third period Courier led the Lions in a sustained drive down field, utilizing well thrown passes and the quick sprinting of sophomore Billy Mickler, that was culminated by a seven-yard T.D. pass to Mickler.

Ogden, Pigott, Webber and Dudley accounted for the Brave touchdowns. Dudley and Webber ran for their TD's while Ogden and Pigott scored on passes from Whigham. Stumph and Ogden added the extra markers by running the ball after touchdown.

The Sanford defensive was sparked by hard hitting Webber and Whigham. Whigham came up with a defensive gem in making a fine interception of an Oviedo aerial.

A good crew attended the opener at Oviedo's Courrier Field. The game was originally slated for Sanford's Memorial Stadium last Thursday evening but inclement weather forced postponement and change of site.

Sanford Junior High Defeats Oviedo 25-0
By Richard Grant
Herald Sports Writer

The Sanford Junior High Braves flew past the Oviedo Lions Saturday night with 140 yards in the air.

Fred Weber led the Braves in their attack with 67 yards in performance were also turned in by Kelly Ogden, Ronnie Dudley, and Ralph Stumph. The trio racked up 61 yards among them.

The first quarter of play saw little action from either team. The half ended after a long drive from the Sanford team leaving it at 6-0.

The second half broke into bedlam after the kickoff as an Oviedo lineman fumbled. It was Braves then on, scoring 19 points.

Ogden, Pigott, Webber and Dudley accounted for the Brave touchdowns. Dudley and Webber ran for their TD's while Ogden and Pigott scored on passes from Whigham. Stumph and Ogden added the extra markers by running the ball after touchdown.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Stenstrom

Seminole High's marching band is due a flip of the fedora for their spectacular halftime performance Friday night at Grenadier Stadium in Orlando.

Lyman High's Les Lyle proved his five touchdowns against Oviedo were no flukes. The sensational sophomore halfback packed another pair across the twin stripes during the Greyhounds' 34 to 0 whitewash job over Ocoee's Cardinals.

Herald sports writer Bob Thomas who covers Crooms' Panthers said that the Skinned infield at Sanford's Memorial Stadium was another quagmire Friday night. Now that the school board has sealed the facility let's hope it isn't too late to get the gridiron in shape for the many other games to be played there this season. Seminole, Crooms and Sanford Junior High Braves call their park "home."

From what we've seen so far this season coupled with what we've read and heard about other schools in the Metro Conference, we have a pretty good idea that even though Seminole next year will be "The little fish in a big pond" — as Jim Pigott puts it — the Tribe will be able to "swim" as well as the rest of them.

Meets Tuesday

Members of the Seminole Boosters Club are to hold a meeting at the auditorium of the high school Tuesday at 8 p.m. so that they may meet the coaches and the members of the Warrior tribe. Dr. O. L. Barks, president, has announced.

Most of the parents of the students at Seminole have not had a chance, heretofore, to get acquainted with the coaching staff. They can more quickly identify the boys on the gridiron in their football uniforms than they can in their street garb, the president said. He added that the session will afford the Boosters a chance to give the students an idea of what may be expected this year in sports.

The Varsity and Jayvee players will be on hand to be introduced.

Ford, Koufax Due To Pitch Series Opener

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ralph Houk will confirm a long foregone conclusion today with an official announcement that Whitey Ford will open the World Series for the New York Yankees Wednesday against the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium.

Ford will oppose Dodger ace Sandy Koufax in a duel that not only matches two of the finest left-handed pitchers in baseball but also could serve as a pivotal test around which the whole World Series may revolve.

The Yankees, 7-3 favorites to win their 21st world championship, are all "in good physical shape," according to Houk, "and that includes Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris."

Third baseman Ken McMullen is the Dodgers' only question mark. He's suffering from a pulled hamstring muscle in his left leg and may not be ready by Wednesday.

Houk hinted that he may even announce his starting pitchers for the first two games at Yankee Stadium today and if he does, his second game choice undoubtedly will be 22-year-old southpaw Al Downing.

Downing, who won 13 games for the Yankees since they brought him up from Richmond of the International League in June, didn't look too good last Saturday when the Minnesota Twins tagged him with his fifth defeat by rapping him for five runs on six hits and five walks in five innings.

By coincidence, southpaw Johnny Podres, who figures to be the Dodgers' second game starter against Downing, also was cuffed around in his last start on Saturday night.

Bears Look Like Old 'Mobsters'

By Norman Miller
UPI Sports Writer

The ghosts of George Halas' old "Monsters of the Midway" hover over the National Football League.

And the real, live modern-day Chicago Bears are brightening the daylight out of a lot of people around to NFL, too.

The Bears, rated only far-out chance of winning this year's Western Division championship, clobbered the Detroit Lions, 37-21, Sunday for their third consecutive victory.

They now have beaten their two toughest rivals, Green Bay and Detroit, as well as Minnesota — all on the road. Not since 1948 had the Bears won their first three games.

And their devastating striking power and rugged defense has begun to revive memories of the famed "Monsters" who won NFL playoff championships for "Papa Bear" Halas in 1940, '41 and '43.

Schools Get Stadium For Football Games

Sports spectators, the home football teams and visiting teams are assured of a proper gridiron at Municipal Stadium in the future through action taken Friday at a meeting of city commissioners, Seminole High School officers, Seminole High School officers, and school board members.

Under the plan proposed by the city, the schools will lease the stadium from the city for $1 a year and take over the maintenance of the field until next summer when baseball takes over again. The school officials promised to put the baseball diamond back in before they turn it over for summer recreation use.

The lease will probably be on continuing contract for succeeding years, with negotiations later to include the use of the field by the Sanford Naval Academy when it is ready to field a football team, a prospect which is still several years away.

Both the city and the school board protested that they were not responsible for putting the field in shape for football, and the denial caused the neglected condition which found Seminole High and Titusville teams sloshing out the first game of the year in the mud of a baseball diamond's sticky clay.

School and Booster Club officials agreed that they would order turf at once and get it in place over the weekend in preparation for the next home game. Agreements between Seminole High, Sanford Junior High and Crooms Academy will be worked out between the schools, with each contributing part of their gate receipts for the upkeep and maintenance of the stadium, including the electric bill.

City officials agreed Monday in a meeting of commissioners that they would still take care of capital improvements and outlays for the stadium.

Don Wright, chairman of the school board emphasized, "The school board has been wrongly and unjustly criticized for the first game fiasco. We have no jurisdiction over athletic activities of the schools. Our job is reading, writing and 'titmating'. School activities are the responsibility of the school and the athletic boosters, parents and students."

Present at the luncheon meeting sponsored by Wright at the Seminole High School cafeteria were Mayor Tom McDonald, Joe Baker and M. L. Raborn Jr., representing the city; Wright, Mason Wharton and R. T. Milwee representing the school board; Dr. Orville Barks, George Touhy and Emmett McCall representing the Boosters and Principal A. J. Bracken and Fred Ganas representing the school.

EAGLE PALMS were presented to two Boy Scouts at a recent court of honor for Troop 34 of First Methodist Church. Hubert Tilson (left), assistant Scoutmaster, presents an Eagle palm to his son, Earl, and Floyd Richards (right), committee member, presents the Eagle palm to Otto Garrett.

LONGWOOD COUNCILMAN Carl Lommler, third from left, signs voter registration books for Clerk Mrs. Onnie Shomate as "Slick" Helms, left, and Chairman R. C. Carlson, right, look on. Books will be open until Nov. 23 and everyone in town must re-register by this time if they are to vote in the December municipal elections.

U. S. To Protect Dollar

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today informed the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund that the United States was determined to protect the dollar as convertible currency at its present rate fixed to gold at $35 an ounce.

The Chief Executive said U. S. efforts to protect stability of its own currency, plus a series of steps to correct the imbalance of international payments, were aimed not only at strengthening the American economic position, but as a benefit to all nations using the dollar as their standard.

The President spoke to the annual meeting of the fund and the International Bank shortly after returning to the nation's capital from a 10,000-mile swing to the Far West.

Though his audience was largely international, Kennedy's speech was two-fold in purpose: To explain U. S. steps to correct its balance of payments problem, and to plug for the administration tax bill pending in the Senate.

He said tax reduction would help improve the long-run position of the United States in world business and monetary affairs.

Speaking of the bill, he said: "It should help attract capital investment, improve our ability to sell goods and services in world markets, stimulate the growth of our economy and the employment of our people, give greater freedom to monetary policy and play a vital supporting role in our determination to achieve equal rights and opportunities for all of our citizens."

The President's return to Washington today ended a week-long tour, billed as "non-political" by White House staffers, in which the Chief Executive covered 10,000 miles and spoke 14 times in 11 states, on conservation and development of natural resources.

But increasingly the Chief Executive devoted time at his public appearances to plugging leading local Democrats and to reminding his audiences of the benefits they had received under his and previous Democratic administrations.

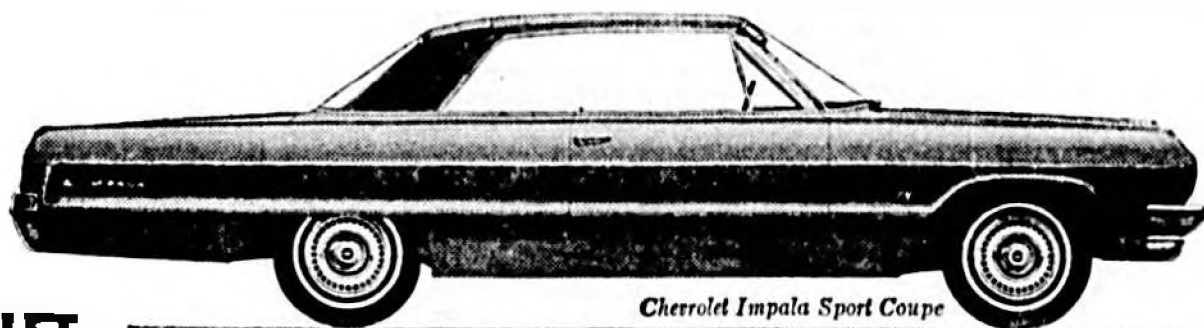

By the end of the long, fast journey leading Republicans were openly scornful of the "non-political" label.

According to Kennedy intimates, the President was well pleased with the 11-state trip. He carried only three western states in 1960 and one obvious purpose of the jaunt was to generate an atmosphere which would enhance his second term campaign next year.

Countys Football Teams Fare Well On Grid

By Norman Miller
UPI Sports Writer

Bears Look Like Old 'Mobsters'

The ghosts of George Halas' old "Monsters of the Midway" hover over the National Football League.

And the real, live modern-day Chicago Bears are frightening the daylight out of a lot of people around the NFL, too.

The Bears, rated only far-out chance of winning this year's Western Division championship, clobbered the Detroit Lions, 37-21, Sunday for their third consecutive victory.

They now have beaten their two toughest rivals, Green Bay and Detroit, as well as Minnesota — all on the road. Not since 1940 had the Bears won their first three games.

And their devastating striking power and rugged defense has begun to revive memories of the famed "Monsters" who won NFL playoff championships for "Papa Bear" Halas in 1940, '41 and '43.

Seminoles Come Through

By Julian Stenstrom
Herald Sports Editor

Twice in as many ball games Seminole High's grid-ers have been forced to rise to the occasion and twice they made it successfully.

They came from behind in the last minute to nip the Titusville Terriers 14 to 13 a week ago last Friday night. At Orlando Friday night, again down 12 to 7 in the final period, Coach Jim Pigott's Seminoles posted not one but a pair of touchdowns to paddle the pesky Grenadiers of Colonial, 20 to 12.

Although the contest opened with the Warriors kicking off to the Minutemen, Seminole needed only three minutes and 46 seconds to light up the scoreboard.

On the game's initial play, Danny Tillis pounced on a Colonial miscue at the Orlando 47. Lawson went right to work for Seminole by measuring off 23 yards but a clipping penalty brought it back to the Tribe's 48.

Earl Black plowed over right tackle for three before Ronnie Hinson flipped an aerial to Billy Higgins who went down on the 30. Lee Sparkman, Lawson and Hinson alternated the ball to the Colonial 20 where Noell climbed into the air to snag a Hinson toss on the nine.

Higgins grabbed another shot from Hinson on the two from where Hinson scored two plays later. Lloyd Freeman's boot for the added point was good.

The situation remained that way until shortly after the third stanza got underway.

Colonial kicked off to the Seminoles and a holding penalty put the Tribe on its own 12. A Hinson pass was deflected three plays later and Colonial's Jerry Gilliano grabbed it in mid air and sped 15 yards to put the Grenadiers on the board. The PAT attempt failed.

And almost as rapidly Orlando posted its second tally. Freeman, back to punt couldn't get off this kick and the Grenadiers took control on Seminole's 29. Colonial engineered the ball to the 12 where Frank Noell fell on a Grenadier fumble.

Unable to move the pigskin, Sanford punted and Bill Lockaby returned to Sem-

Lyman Power Too Much For Ocoee Birds

By Richard Grant

The Lyman Greyhounds rolled over the Ocoee Cardinals Friday night to the tune of 34-0.

Sophomore Les Lyle proved again to be Lyman's big back when he racked up 196 yards rushing and two touchdowns. On defense he sparkled again by intercepting two Cardinal passes. His other feat was a 40-yard kick kick.

The other big back of the evening was Pete Carlson who covered 113 yards and posted two touchdown runs. One was a 65-yard dash.

Second string fullback Al Cantrell and halfback Phil Perrault did the driving for the Greyhounds, Cantrell with a TD and 26 yards rushing while Perrault came up with 40 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Gene Griffin kicked all the extra points except one. That was blocked by Ocoee's big defensive man Ronnie Konertz. Griffin completed four out of five PATs.

The outstanding grid-ers for Ocoee were quarterback Davis Grant and fullback Johnny Siles. Siles led in yardage for the Cards with 28.

Ocoee came up with a long drive into Lyman territory which stalled at the 21 yard line when Frank Hundley, playing defensive safety, showed his ability on pass defense by knocking down a sure touchdown from Grant intended for Ed Murry.

The Greyhounds took the ball on downs and drove to the Ocoee seven yard line. Lyle plowed up the middle for the touchdown. Griffin booted the extra point.

The defense held again for Lyman, as the Greyhounds took the ball on the Lyman 35 yard line after punt. Carlson carried the ball around the end, broke into the open and dashed the distance for the 65-yard touchdown. Griffin kicked the extra point.

Thus ending the first half. The Greyhounds received the second-half kickoff and were forced to punt. The 'Hounds' defense held once more and forced Ocoee to punt. Lyman took the ball on their own 14 yard line. Hundley picked up a quick five yards for the 'Hounds. Then on a short trap play Lyle broke loose and toted the pigskin for 81 yards and a touchdown. Griffin successfully kicked again.

The next score came from Carlson on a 14 yard trot off tackle. Griffin attempted to kick the extra point but it was blocked by Ronnie Konertz.

The final touchdown was tallied by Cantrell on a 20 yard drive in the final period. The point after touchdown was good.

The offense was led by Lyle, Carlson and Perrault, with excellent assistance by Cantrell, Hundley and Griffin. The defense was sparked on the line by Jack Balmer and Fietter. In the back field it was Lyle, Hundley and Perrault.

Sanford Junior High Defeats Ovidio 25-0

By Richard Grant

The Sanford Junior High Braves flew past the Ovidio Lions Saturday night with 140 yards in the air.

Fred Weber led the Braves in their attack with 67 yards. The performances were also turned in by Kelly Ogden, Ronnie Dudy, and Ralph Stumph. The trio racked up 61 yards among them.

The first quarter of play saw little action from either team. The half ended after a long drive from the Sanford team leaving it at 6-0.

The second half broke into bedlam after the kickoff as an Ovidio lineman fumbled. It was Braves from then on, scoring 19 points.

Ogden, Pigott, Webber and Dudy accounted for the Brave touchdowns. Dudy and Webber ran for their TD's while Ogden and Pigott scored on passes from Whigam. Stumph and Ogden added the extra markers by running the point after touchdown.

The Sanford defense was sparked by hard hitting Webber and Whigam. Whigam came up with a defensive gem in making a fine interception of an Ovidio aerial.

A good crew attended the opener at Ovidio's Courrier Field. The game was originally slated for Sanford's Memorial Stadium last Thursday evening but inclement weather forced postponement and change of site.

Crooms Panthers Win Over Lincoln 16-6

Bob Thomas
Herald Sports Writer

The Crooms High Panthers defeated the Lincoln High Terriers of Gainesville by a score of 16-6 Friday night. A crowd of approximately 800 saw the Panthers make Gainesville their first victim of the season.

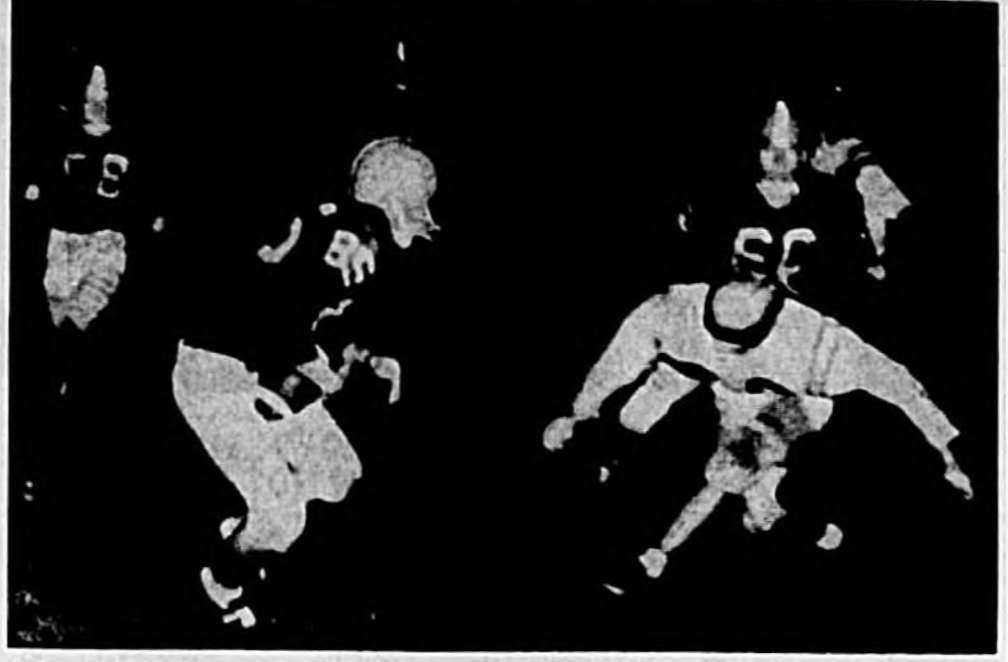

It was the Panthers first home game and a sweet victory it was. In the first quarter Samuel Alloway passed to William Hartfield for a sizeable gain. Mildred Green, the Panthers hard running fullback, bulled his way for a first down and the Terriers were penalized 15 yards. Perry Gaines churned for three yards to the 10, but Crooms was penalized five yards for off-sides. Gainesville held the Panthers to a fourth and seven, but Errol Cherry made a fine catch of James' pass for the point after touchdown.

Late in the first quarter the Terriers of Gainesville mounted an attack, led by their bull-dozing fullback, but couldn't hang up a score. At the end of the first quarter Crooms led 7-0.

Early in the second period, Eddie Brown of Crooms recovered a Lincoln fumble. Green boomed for five and Peterson drilled for three, but Alloway's pass was intercepted.

As the fourth quarter got underway Nathaniel White recovered a Lincoln fumble. Green exploded off tackle for a first down. He carried again for two, four, and four yards consecutively. Crooms then lost the ball on a fumble. After a see-saw battle of fumbles, Crooms tackled a Terrier in the end-zone for a safety. Billy Bush, Eddie Brown, White and George Bush shared the defensive honors.

The Scoreboard:
Gainesville 6 0 0 - 6
Crooms 7 0 7 - 16

Ocoee's RONNIE Konertz (85) gets hit by Lyman's Dennis Fletter (62) after catching pass from quarterback David Grant.

CROOMS DAVID PETERSON snags a pass and is on his way in the Panthers' game against Gainesville's Lincoln High School.

Ovidio Loses Tough One In Fourth Period

By Joe Warden
Herald Sports Writer

The top rated Dannelton Tigers bounced from behind in the fourth period to score two touchdowns and claw the valiant Ovidio High School Lions, 19-13.

A capacity crowd nearly witnessed an upset. Ovidio led the Tigers by six points at the end of the third quarter, only to have that lead smashed by the fourth period scoring of Dannelton back Wayne Dixon.

The first marker came on a phenomenal 80-yard kickoff return by Dannelton's fleet Larry Jirngit. Ovidio quickly countered with the Lions' first score, a 12-yard pass from Johnny Courier to Gouge, which was set up by a crucial interception of a Dannelton pass by Ovidio fullback Rex Brooks.

A well fought defensive battle was waged in the second quarter with neither eleven managing to post any spectacular gains. Although the Tigers' defensive line limited Ovidio's offense on the ground and in the air, the Lions managed to outgain the Tigers, who were severely handicapped by Ovidio's stalwart forward line.

Early in the third period Courier led the Lions in a sustained drive down field, utilizing well thrown passes and the quick sprinting of sophomore Ily Mickler, that was culminated by a seven-yard T.D. pass to Mickler.

Track, Swim Support Urged

Parents of Seminole High School track and swim team athletes are being urged by the new sports chairman for those activities to "get on the track" and "get in the swim".

According to Pres. O. L. Barks and the membership chairman, Mrs. Charles Slinks and Mrs. Richard Elam.

Barks appointed Al Lyons to head the swim team parents and Dean Taylor to take over the "race, heave and jump" class Mom's and Pop's. In accepting the chairmanships, the two staunch sports supporters said that they felt that the club could expect 100 percent membership from these activities. Last year almost $3000 in booster club funds were spent to help these two Spring competitions, and enthusiastic participation in the fund-raising during the football season will help again in the Spring, Barks said.

Mrs. Elam said that the one dollar subscriptions were reaching the 200 figure and she was confident that membership would go well above this estimate.

There is some fine intra-club rivalry between the parents of the various sports participants as to who will give the greatest support to the teams. "There is no doubt that the motorcycle going to the Colonial High school game Friday night will have many a track and swim team parent in the line," Al Lyons said.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Seminole High's marching band is due a flip of the fedora for their spectacular halftime performance Friday night at Grenadier Stadium in Orlando.

Lyman High's Les Lyle proved his five touchdowns against Ovidio were no flukes. The sensational sophomore halfback packed another pair across the twin stripes during the Greyhound's 34 to 0 whitewash job over Ocoee's Cardinals.

Herald sports writer Bob Thomas who covers Crooms' Panthers said that the Skinned infield at Sanford's Memorial Stadium was another quagmire Friday night. Now that the school board has leased the facility let's hope it isn't too late to get the gridiron in shape for the many other games to be played there this season. Seminole, Crooms and Sanford Junior High Braves call their park "home."

From what we've seen so far this season coupled with what we've read and heard about other schools in the Metro Conference, we have a pretty good idea that even though Seminole next year will be "The little fish in a big pond" — as Jim Pigott puts it—the Tribe will be able to "swim" as well as the rest of them.

Members of the Seminole Boosters Club are to hold a meeting at the auditorium of the high school Tuesday at 8 p.m. so that they may meet the coaches and the members of the Warrior tribe, Dr. O. L. Barks, president, has announced.

Most of the parents of the students at Seminole have not had a chance, heretofore, to get acquainted with the coaching staff. They can more quickly identify the boys on the gridiron in their football uniforms than they can in their street garb, the president said. He added that the session will afford the mentors a chance to give the Boosters an idea of what may be expected this year in sports.

The Varsity and Jayvee players will be on hand to be introduced.

Ford, Koufax Due To Pitch Series Opener

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ralph Houk will confirm a long foregone conclusion today with an official announcement that Whitey Ford will open the World Series for the New York Yankees Wednesday against the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium.

Ford will oppose Dodger ace Sandy Koufax in a duel that not only matches two of the finest left-handed pitchers in baseball but also could serve as a pivotal test around which the whole World Series may revolve.

The Yankees, 7-5 favorites to win their 21st world championship, are all "in good physical shape," according to Houk, "and that includes Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris."

Third baseman Ken McMullen is the Dodgers' only question mark. He's suffering from a pulled hamstring muscle in his left leg and may not be ready by Wednesday.

Houk hinted that he may even announce his starting pitchers for the first two games at Yankee Stadium today and if he does, his second game choice undoubtedly will be 23-year-old southpaw Al Downing.

Downing, who won 13 games for the Yankees since they brought him up from Richmond of the International League in June, didn't look too good last Saturday when the Minnesota Twins tagged him with his fifth defeat by rapping him for five runs on six hits and five walks in five innings.

By coincidence, southpaw Johnny Podres, who figures to be the Dodgers' second game starter against Downing, also was called around in his last start on Saturday night.

Schools Get Stadium For Football Games

Sports spectators, the home football teams and visiting teams are assured of a proper gridiron at Municipal Stadium in the future through action taken Friday at a meeting of city commissioners, Seminole High School officers, school board members.

Under the plan proposed by the city, the schools will lease the stadium from the city for $1 a year and take over the maintenance of the field until next summer when baseball takes over again. The school officials promised to put the baseball diamond back in before they turn it over for summer recreation use.

The lease will probably be on continuing contract for succeeding years, with negotiations later to include the use of the field by the Sanford Naval Academy when it is ready to field a football team, a prospect which is still several years away.

Both the city and the school board protested that they were not responsible for putting the field in shape for football, and the denials caused the neglected condition which found Seminole High and Titusville teams sloshing out the first game of the year in the mud of a baseball diamond's sticky clay.

School and Booster Club officials agreed that they would order turf at once and get it in place over the weekend in preparation for the next home game. Agreements between Seminole High, Sanford Junior High and Crooms Academy will be worked out between the schools, with each contributing part of their gate receipts for the upkeep and maintenance of the stadium, including the electric bill.

City officials agreed (pending a meeting of commissioners) that they would still take care of capital improvements and outlays for the stadium.

Don Wright, chairman of the school board emphasized, "The school board has been wrongly and unjustly criticized for the first game fiasco. We have no jurisdiction over athletic activities of the schools. Our job is reading, writing and arithmetic. School activities are the responsibility of the school and the athletic boosters, parents and students."

Present at the luncheon meeting sponsored by Wright at the Seminole High School cafeteria were Mayor Tom McDonald, Joe Baker and M. L. Raborn Jr., representing the city; Wright, Mason Wharton and R. T. Milwee representing the school board; Dr. Orville Harkis, George Touhy and Emmett McCall representing the Boosters and Principal A. J. Bracken and Fred Ganas representing the school.

EAGLE PALMS were presented to two Boy Scouts at a recent court of honor for Troop 34 of First Methodist Church. Hubert Tilson (left), assistant Scoutmaster, presents an Eagle palm to his son, Earl, and Floyd Richards (right), committee member, presents the Eagle palm to Otto Garrett.

LONGWOOD COUNCILMAN Carl Lommler, third from left, signs voter registration books for Clerk Mrs. Omie Shomato as "Slick" Helms, left, and Chairman R. C. Carlson, right, look on. Books will be open until Nov. 23 and everyone in town must re-register by this time if they are to vote in the December municipal elections.

U. S. To Protect Dollar

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today informed the annual meeting of the International Monetary Fund that the United States was determined to protect the dollar as convertible currency at its present rate fixed to gold at $35 an ounce.

The Chief Executive said U. S. efforts to protect stability of its own currency, plus a series of steps to correct the imbalance of international payments, were aimed not only at strengthening the American economic position, but as a benefit to all nations using the dollar as their standard.

The President spoke to the annual meeting of the fund and the International Bank shortly after returning to the nation's capital from a 10,000-mile swing to the Far West.

Though his audience was largely international, Kennedy's speech was two-fold in purpose: To explain U. S. steps to correct its balance of payments problem, and to plug for the administration tax bill pending in the Senate. He said tax reduction would help improve the long-run position of the United States in world business and monetary affairs.

Speaking of the bill, he said: "It should help attract capital investment, improve our ability to sell goods and services in world markets, stimulate the growth of our economy and the employment of our people, give greater freedom to monetary policy and play a vital supporting role in our determination to achieve equal rights and opportunities for all of our citizens."

The President's return to Washington today ended a week-long tour, billed as "non-political" by White House staffers, in which the Chief Executive covered 10,000 miles and spoke 14 times in 11 states, on conservation and development of natural resources.

But increasingly the Chief Executive devoted time at his public appearances to plugging leading local Democrats and to reminding his audiences of the benefits they had received under his and previous Democratic administrations.

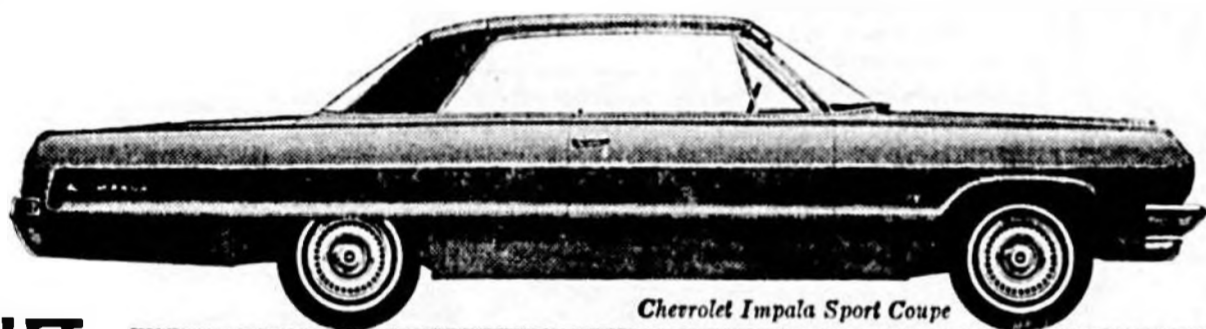

By the end of the long, fast journey leading Republicans

were openly scornful of the "non-political" label.

According to Kennedy intimates, the President was well pleased with the 11-state trip. He carried only three western states in 1960 and one obvious purpose of the jaunt was to generate an atmosphere which would enhance his second term campaign next year.

Miss Prevatt, Neal Viden Married At Geneva First Baptist Church

Miss Nancy Valleen Prevatt, daughter of Mrs. T. W. Prevatt and the late Mr. Prevatt, of Geneva, and Neal Enoch Viden, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Viden, of Orlando, were married Sept. 21 at 4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Geneva.

Rev. Bennie Baker officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A green and white color scheme was carried out in church decorations. A white arch covered with white blossoms and green ferns was used at the altar and in the background were three baskets of gladioli, with pom poms and greenery on either side.

Pianist, Mrs. J. W. Byrnes, presented a program of wedding music and accompanied soloist, Mrs. J. E. Matheson, who sang "Because," "Ich Liebe Dich" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Charles F. Prevatt, wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over bridal satin, featuring a fitted bodice with sabrina neckline outlined with pearls and sequins and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The floor-length skirt ended in a cascade of ruffles in the back.

Her finger-tip veil of imported bridal illusion was attached to a pearl tiara. She carried a white prayer book, a special gift from her mother, topped with a white orchid and a cascade of white carnations and streamers. Her only jewelry was a diamond lavalier which was a gift from her father to her mother.

Mrs. W. F. Forsythe Jr., of Tampa, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length gown of gold toned silk taffeta with matching accessories and carried a crescent shaped bouquet of gold Fuji mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles F. Prevatt, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. M. H. Sadler, of Orlando. They wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor, in tones of mocha and carried crescent bouquets of bronze mums.

Ushers were Thomas D. Prevatt and Carlton E. Prevatt, brothers of the bride. W. F. Forsythe, of Tampa, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a street length gown of coffee colored lace over taffeta, with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore a street length gown of opalescent blue-green brocade with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Geneva Community Hall. A garden theme was carried out in decorations, using patio furniture and a green and white color scheme was used throughout the hall. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a four tiered wedding cake and held an arrangement of white daisies in a white cupid epergne.

Mrs. Tom Kinnard kept the bride's book. Mrs. Windal Braddy cut the cake and presiding at the punch bowls were Miss Bonnie Meyer and Mrs. Barbara Grimes of Orlando.

For traveling Mrs. Viden chose a cranberry knit suit with black accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple left for a wedding trip to the West Coast and when they return, will be at home at 837 Oak Drive, in Orlando.

W. A. Thomas, president of the mental health association and Mrs. Troy Ray, of the welfare department, were guest speakers at the Pilot Club's dinner meeting, at the Civic Center.

Themes of the program was "Community Service." Mr. Thomas spoke about the lack of facilities, personnel, professional help and general attitude toward the mentally ill.

Mrs. Ray stated that the foster home program does not come under the united fund but is a tax supported program. Its object is to provide adequate care and supervision for a few days, weeks or longer if necessary.

They work with state, county and state organizations. At present there are four white and two colored foster homes in Sanford and an emergency white home for short term care is desperately needed. Children's clothing is also needed at the welfare clothing bank.

Mrs. Sidney Ives was ill and unable to attend but sent a two page letter on the family counseling service, which was read to the group.

During a short business session, the pilots voted to sponsor an anchor regional meeting in Sanford, on Dec. 14 at the High School.

Mrs. Paul Chesterton was welcomed as a new member and guests were Mary Lou Wooten and Ann Whitman, of Orlando and Linda Green, Maureen Firestone and Susie Hallack, from the Anchor Club.

Hostesses for the evening were Miss Elsie Farley and Mrs. Jerry Jernigan.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When I married "M" nine years ago, his mother stood right there at the wedding and cried as though a judge had just sentenced her son to hang. I should have known then that she would never "love me like a daughter," although she used that phrase often enough. Fortunately my husband's boss transferred us out of town soon after we were married. His mother came to visit us, but up until this year we never went to visit her. When we did, she put our two young sons in a large double bed, while my husband and I were given two Army cots placed at a 90-degree angle in a room with no door! Any advice?

"LIKE A DAUGHTER"
DEAR LIKE: Yes, don't go mountain-climbing with her.

DEAR ABBY: When a man offers a lady a cigarette, what is the proper procedure for lighting it? Does the man light his cigarette first and then offer the lady a light? Or does he light hers first? I have seen so many men light their own cigarettes first and have wondered why "Ladies First" does not apply here. Someone said a man should light his own cigarette first so that the lady doesn't get the first fumes of the match. Is that so?

CURIOS:
DEAR CURIOS: "Ladies First" applies here as it does in other instances. I would let the match burn off the "first fumes," then light the lady's cigarette first! Besides, if it's cancer she wants, what's the hurry?

DEAR ABBY: Please print this and make a lot of guys happy:
 "Dear Lost Some Blood: I wish you ex-Marines would quit trying to collect glory for doing what a lot of men in the other branches of the service did and took in their stride. Come on, now, the war has been over for 18 years. We all had a rough time. Forget it. The rest of us did."

"PACIFIC VETERAN"
DEAR ABBY: I want to let you know that I don't think you are an old fogey for not approving of affection-showing in public. I am 15 and am going to have a baby in March. I wish my mother had been more strict with me in public and maybe I wouldn't have done so much in private.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

It is always bad luck when you lose a game or slam because of a bad break in trumps, but it is bad play against the bad break.

South's six-spade contract was reasonable indeed. He only needed a 3-2 break in trumps and a 3-1 break in clubs to make all 13 tricks. South won the opening heart lead with dummy's ace. He led a trump to his king and a second trump to dummy's queen. East showed out and the fat was in the fire. South could not make his slam any more, in fact he could not even make five odd. He played two more rounds of trumps in the vain hope that West did not hold a second heart to lead to his partner, but West had that second heart.

South commented that he had guarded against finding four trumps in the East hand. He had done that all right. If East held four trumps he would have been able to finesse against the jack and make all the tricks, but South could have guarded against any 4-1 break.

All he had to do was play his ace and king of trumps. East would have shown out, but South would be in no trouble at all. He would simply have started on the club suit and discarded his two hearts on the second and third club leads. West could have trumped in then or waited while more clubs were played, but the result would have been the same. When ever West trumped he would have had to let declarer in and the queen of trumps would be an entry for the rest of dummy's clubs.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Now and then I get an SOS from a woman's page editor asking me to discuss a particular problem. Today, the request is:

"Won't you please tell women that until a widow remarries she continues to use her husband's name?"

"We have a number of widows in our town who insist they should be called 'Mrs. Mary Smith' or 'Mrs. Elizabeth Brown,' instead of 'Mrs. John Smith' or 'Mrs. Thomas Brown.'"

"On our society pages we try to follow the rules of etiquette in such matters, but these widows protest. 'Some of them seem to think a widow has no right to continue using her husband's name. Others argue; 'But my husband has been dead for years,' as though that made a difference."

"I can't seem to make much headway in this matter, though I have been working on it for several years. Perhaps if you would write something about it, the widows in our town would heed what you have to say."

All I can do is to say that the editor is right—and that Mrs. John Smith doesn't become Mrs. Mary Smith when her husband dies. She remains Mrs. John Smith the rest of her life, unless she remarries again and takes another man's name.

There's another side to this story, however. I receive letters frequently from widows complaining that though they have continued to use their husband's name, others don't; that most of their mail, even from friends and relatives, is addressed "Mrs. Mary Smith."

These widows feel they are having something taken from them when others assume they have no right to the name conferred on them by marriage.

They're right about that, too.

So perhaps this discussion is needed; for the widows who don't know they should use their husband's name, AND for those who don't know they shouldn't deprive a widow of her rightful name. Let's hope this clears up the matter for a lot of people.

Being buddy-buddy with employees often clouds an executive's objectivity. Cordiality and courtesy keep things on a good working keel.

Congress Faces Year-Long Meel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress wound up the first nine months of 1963 today with many of President Kennedy's top legislative proposals far from enactment.

Faced with prospects of their first year-round session since World War II, members of both Senate and House prepared for a burst of activity in the final quarter of the year.

The President's two priority requests—civil rights and a tax cut—still have not been enacted and some lawmakers predict that one or the other may not get through this year.

Despite its record of little activity on these and other Kennedy proposals, Congress has written into law a number of measures during the first three-quarters of 1963. Among these are extension of the draft law, feed grains legislation, extension of corporate and excise tax rates, and increase in the national debt limit, emergency legislation to avert a railroad strike and aid to medical schools.

The Senate also gave the President a major victory of ratifying the nuclear test ban treaty and the House is expected to complete action this week on a military pay raise bill.

Rhine River, Once Blue, Is Polluted By Progress

BONN (UPI) — Once it was blue, and between the white-caps it reflected the proud castle towers and steep vineyards on its banks.

Whitecaps it still has, but beneath them the Rhine is a brown, soupy flood.

It has lost most of its reflecting quality.

The famous Rhine inns still serve their salmon specialties, but the salmon now is brought down from Scandinavia.

The eel served in the inns is still taken from the Rhine. But before they reach the table, they have to spend four weeks swimming in a tank of well water to wash out the smell of phenol.

That's one of the prices of progress. The Rhine is the world's busiest river, with more than 7 million tons of shipping working its surface. The much larger Mississippi is undeveloped by comparison.

Railways and highways run along its banks, linking the great industrial concentrations that interrupt the forests or vineyards every 20 or 30 miles.

All these products of modern civilization and a higher standard of living eliminate wastes, and they wind up polluting the river with phosphates and salt. The river moves along at a steady five miles per hour, carrying all that salt with it. Low man on the totem pole is Holland, where the salt is finally dumped.

The United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (ECE) last year looked over the situation. It decided among other things, that 65% of the waste going into the Rhine is from industry, 30% is from neighboring residential communities and only 5% from the ships plying the river.

The sum of this report and those by other researchers is that pollution of the river increases despite all efforts to restrict it, although the West German Ministry of Health claims the rate of pollution has been stabilized in this country.

The riparian states of Germany, Switzerland, France, Luxembourg and Holland have formed the International Commission for the Protection of the Rhine Against Pollution to coordinate their efforts.

In Germany, six of the 11

federal states are organized in a similar commission.

The Allies insisted, after the war, that the new Germany have a weak central government, and strong state or provincial governments. The idea was to prevent another Hitler seizing power in the national capital and thus at one stroke in the nation. But it has some interesting side effects. One is the problem of dealing with public health, including river pollution.

The Constitutional Court a year ago declared unconstitutional a law giving the federal government certain executive powers in the field of river control. Dealing with river pollution, said the court, is strictly a matter for the states. So when several members of parliament asked the Federal Minister of Health for information on the fight against Rhine pollution this summer, it took six weeks to prepare the answer because the Minister had to ask the six state governments concerned.

A committee representing the six states replied they are following a plan calling for $625 million during the next five years in filter and purification plants.

Home Is A Miniature Community

A home is a miniature community. Contained within the walls of a modern home, which houses an average, modern family is a nursery, restaurant, shop, laundry, office, recreation center, snack bar, hospital, answering service, theater, and entertainment area, all in miniature.

Within the confines of the home there is a clothing store, grocery store, bank, school, garden and taxi service.

Many of these facilities and services overlap and encroach on one another, with the result being—confusion.

Well-planned homes, such as are available from local builders can eliminate much of this confusion by careful consideration of the needs of the family that takes advantage of space to make preparation for such needs.

Clothing areas need to be convenient, spacious and well-located. The nursery-hospital-sleeping area should be quiet and out of the "traffic pattern."

The laundry, shop and taxi areas can be combined and centered in another area and the restaurant-grocery store-snack bar area can be carefully planned to make the most profitable use of space and storage.

Room for entertainment, recreation, office and theater should all be given their due consideration in order to make it as efficient as possible for the person who must be in charge of all these activities.

City To Discuss Years-Old Loan

City Commission will air tonight a demand by the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency for repayment of a $7,500,000 loan made to the City in the 1940's.

The advance was made to finance a feasibility study for a sewage treatment plant. The City contends it is not required to repay the loan since the plans were junked.

The agency contends construction of the present plant follows the early plans and, therefore, is demanding repayment.

The agency has given the nonpayment of the old loan as the reason for refusing to grant a new $10,000,000 loan for a feasibility study of a proposed port terminal.

Other routine business will be taken up by the Commission in regular business session, after which it will continue public hearings of the proposed budget.

Bond Program Launched; Davis High In Praise

"The College Building amendment was, in my opinion, the most significant legislation passed by the 1963 Legislature," it was stated today by State Rep. S. J. Davis, Jr., on his return from Tampa where he attended the kickoff luncheon for the bond program.

The luncheon was sponsored by the "Citizens for Florida's Future" and was attended by leaders from all areas of the state in business, industry, government and education.

"It is my firm belief," Davis said, "that the progress of Florida in this scientific and technological age will be geared to the educational opportunities offered to its people."

"I worked and voted for the passage of the amendment in the last Legislature as I felt it was the only reasonable means of meeting the needs of higher education."

The bond program is fiscally sound and provides a planned and controlled method of financing, with safeguards to prevent abuse and extravagance.

Ultimate decision for financing higher education through the bond program will be determined by the people at a special election Nov. 5.

"This is essential and proper," continued Davis, "as the people should determine the question of financing higher education. Financing school construction through bonds has been done before. In 1952 the people of this State approved a constitution of amendment earmarking a portion of the automobile tax receipts as a basis for issuing bonds to construct public school buildings."

"When the people of this state recognize a problem and are given the facts, they respond remarkably."

"I am wholeheartedly in favor of the amendment and will work for its passage on Nov. 5."

The getaway car and the 22 revolver used in the hold-up, along with a note given to Oldham, some clothing and the cash were recovered at various public parking lots.

BROOKFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — It was a great day for the kids at the Brookfield Zoo Saturday.

U. S. Maps Strategy In Alabama Defiance

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — Federal District Judge Daniel T. Thomas today took under advisement a request from Negroes that Gov. George C. Wallace be restrained from interfering with court-ordered desegregation of Murphy High School here.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Gov. George C. Wallace defied the federal government in three cities today by ringing white schools with armed state troopers who turned away Negroes who tried to enter.

Wallace's action thus set the stage for another showdown between the fiery segregationist governor and the federal government which had said troops would be used if necessary to force the integration.

In Washington, Ally. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy was closeted with his assistants planning the next step.

Wallace sent nearly 400 troopers into Birmingham, Tuskegee and Mobile to turn away the Negroes who had been ordered admitted by the federal courts.

Systematically, the troopers barred the way for 13 Negroes at Tuskegee's only white school; turned back two teenagers at Murphy High in Mobile; two girls at West End High in Birmingham and a Negro boy at Ramsay High in Birmingham.

Even as the troopers accomplished their mission — apparently Wallace's first step to force the government's hand — the color barrier fell for the first time at an Alabama public school below the college level.

In a hearing Saturday, Commissioner Byrd remanded Smith to the custody of the U. S. marshal and ordered him placed in Orange County jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Smith was arrested Friday afternoon while walking in Winter Park by FBI agents who noticed the similarity in his attire with the description of the holdup man given by Teller Doyle Oldham.

FBI Agents, Seminole County sheriff's department, Orlando police and Orange County sheriff's department, who investigated, reported that $708 of the stolen $828 was recovered.

The getaway car and the 22 revolver used in the hold-up, along with a note given to Oldham, some clothing and the cash were recovered at various public parking lots.

State Senate Goes Into Closed Session

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate, which convened today to try impeached Pasco Circuit Judge Richard Kelly on charges of judicial tyranny, went into closed session after electing a new Senate secretary.

Sen. Edwin G. Frasier of MacClenny, who resigned his seat to be forfeited Senate seat, was unanimously named to succeed the late Robert W. Davis. Davis died shortly after the close of the legislative session.

Frasier's appointment was the first order of business for the Senate, which started the impeachment session five minutes late. Frasier was nominated by Sen. Verle Pope of St. Augustine and seconded by Sen. Charley Johns of Starke.

Impeachment of a state official is one of the rarest of American judicial processes.

Supreme Court Justice E. Harris Drew is presiding.

Kelly is the fifth Florida public official to be impeached.

Only one of the other four was tried and he was cleared by the Senate. He was Dade County Circuit Judge George Holt and his 1957 trial lasted six weeks.

Prosecuting Kelly were the managers of the House of Representatives, Reps. William O'Neil of Marion, Welborn Daniel of Lake and Leo Jones of Bay.

Assisting Perry Nichols, Kelly's attorney, in the defense were St. Petersburg attorneys J. A. Lloyd and B. J. Masters.

The House of Representatives impeached Kelly June 5, reversing an earlier vote that same day, and voting eight articles of impeachment against him. They jelled down to the central accusation that Kelly practiced tyrannical and dictatorial methods in his courtroom.

Kelly was accused of threatening and harassing public officials in partisan political speeches, interfering with his own personality into court trials and mismanaging his office.

Budget Hearing
Public hearing on the proposed county budget will highlight the regular business session of the County Commission Tuesday morning, according to Chairman J. C. Hutchison.

Mutual said trees generally are showing improvement, but will bear little fruit in this first comeback year.

But he said what fruit it produced promises to be high quality.

Proclamation
Proclamation fixing Sept. 17-21 as "Constitution Week" in celebration of the 167th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution by the United States, was signed today by Mayor Tom McDonald.

Robert T. Besserer, Seminole Memorial Hospital administrator and a trustee of the Florida Hospital Council, has been elected president of the newly formed East Central Florida Hospital Council.

Fall meetings of Seminole County Unit 30, Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary, will resume at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday at the chapter home on Orlando Drive. Mrs. Harriett Johnson, newly elected commander, said final arrangements will be made for the Sixth District meeting at the local chapter Sunday, open with a chicken dinner at noon.

Signs fixing a 45-mph speed limit on SR 434 (Longwood-Oviedo Road) through the city limits of North Orlando have been installed by the State Road Department.

Russ Pearson, sophomore at the University of Florida, will spend the fall trimester with NASA at Houston, Texas. He is the son of Col. and Mrs. G. Russell Pearson, of Summerlin Avenue.

Work started last Thursday by Reiter Brothers, of Longwood, on clearing the land for Girls' Town at North Orlando, is expected to be completed within 10 days, according to Frank Fasula, North Orlando Company manager.

Mrs. Sara Stouendire, of Sanford, is one of the key members of the steering committee planning the district annual meeting of St. Johns River District, Boy Scouts of America, Central of Florida Council, Oct. 26 opening with a potluck supper at 6:30 p. m. at DeLand High School.

Seminole County high school seniors are reminded that the deadline for applications for the college entrance examination board tests, basic for selection of cadets at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, is Nov. 8.

Just a reminder: Sanford Male Chorus will open rehearsals at 7:45 tonight at the Sanford Woman's Club.

Some members of the Seminole football team and one or two of the coaches went to Orlando Friday night to see the Colonial High School Inter-squad game — just to size up the team that the Indians will play on the Greater field on Sept. 27. "A few mountains of meat" on the team didn't seem to impress the Warriors, who proudly and confidently say that "we have some pretty good sized men, too. And we'll soon cut down these Colonials to our size on the 27th."

While Coaches Higott, McCoy and Williams are "purring on the coal" so far as football savvy and practice are concerned, this confidence that the Seminole will have a good season is something that is developing within the players themselves. Just a REAL GOOD TEAM SPIRIT. It should pay off in a lot of games going into the Win column.

You should have seen "the loot" that was toted away from the Kiwanis fish fry Saturday night. . . . Some big bargains for the buyers. . . . And some U. S. money for the K boys to use in their welfare work. . . . Nice combination!

Have you taken a long look, —well yes call it a "longing look," if you feel that way — at the progress on Interstate 4 as it goes through Seminole County? 'Twant be many months until it will be ready for use. Of course, the two sections that pass through Orlando and Winter Park that are just coming into the contract letting stage are still a year and a half away. But it won't be too long before the folks to the south of us can be using that divided highway to come to Sanford to take advantage of the bargains our Downtown Shopping Center speakeas offer.

Editorial Comment:

Success Story !!

The Sanford Herald endorses without reservation statements made throughout Florida that the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is the outstanding organization of its size in the entire state.

Our reason? Where can you find this kind of talent for free? To quote one member, "It would take a million dollars a year to duplicate this dedicated group who work . . . year after year . . . for the betterment of the community."

Every committee of the Chamber is staffed by businessmen who devote endless hours to the Chamber's program . . . hours taken away from the pursuit of their own livelihood that certainly could be used to their own financial advantage.

The Chamber's five-year program of success looks like the New York Yankees' standing in the American League.

For example, in 1957 there was this newspaper headline . . . "Sanford Naval Air Station To Be Phased Out."

When this news was released, the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce was called upon to save the air station.

Everyone knows the outstanding job that was done but it might be well for you to reread last Friday's headline in The Sanford Herald: "Navy To Spend $15.5 Million To Enlarge SNAS."

With the strategy for this project well on the way to accomplishment, the Chamber flexed its muscles to tackle the county's industrial economy.

In 1958, despite the county's unprecedented population growth, not one new industrial building had been constructed in 35 years. The next five-year record of achievement on this program of economic development is fantastic . . . 14 new industrial buildings in the Sanford area totaling 412,000 square feet, employing 1,061 persons, with an approximate payroll of $4 million per year. Projecting the 1,061 employees into the national formula of the effect of 100 new jobs in the community, we arrive at the following interesting results:

3,108 more people,
1,827 more workers,
1,176 more households,
1,124 more passenger vehicles registered,
$6,195,000 more personal income,
$2,835,000 more bank deposits,
$3,780,000 more retail sales,
Industrial progress, county-wide, is equally impressive with a total of 2,300 new industrial jobs and an estimated $9 million yearly payroll.

Space will not permit us to dwell on the hundreds of Chamber projects, large and small, which have been a part of this organization's program. It is sufficient to say that the leaders have had the fortitude to take on any project that affects the citizens of Seminole County in the fields of education, transportation, health and welfare . . . to name a few specifically: the State University, Sanford Naval Academy, St. Johns-Indian River Canal, metropolitan telephone system and county airport. We hasten to point out also the less spectacular routine operation of answering endless inquiries from prospective investors and future citizens.

This is our Chamber of Commerce and The Sanford Herald commends the Board of Seminole County Commissioners and the Sanford City Commissioners for their recognition of this dedicated group — a work force of 156 members with an additional task force of 300-plus who are available to work on special projects — who devote their time, their efforts and their money to make Sanford and Seminole County a good place to live and a good place to work and a good place to play.

Miss America Takes On Big City Conquest

NEW YORK (UPI) — Donna Axum, Miss America of 1964, today was expected to add the big city to her list of conquests.

The willowy brunette from Arkansas arrived Sunday from Atlantic City, N. J., and established headquarters at the Park Lane Hotel.

The brown-eyed, 5-foot-6½ University of Arkansas senior, who defeated 51 other beauties to win the title, showed her ability to cope with public appearances following her coronation before a nationwide television audience.

She met newsmen backstage and faced a battery of questions cool and poised, and said that now that the ordeal of the contest was over she was "very relaxed."

When the master of ceremonies earlier named her as the choice of the judges for the title of Miss America, Donna, whose measurements are 35-23-35, walked smilingly along the runway of Convention Hall clad in white ermine and red velvet cape and bearing a bouquet of long-stemmed American Beauty roses.

"It was really walking on air just like the song says," she said later. She was referring to the pagan theme song, "There She Is, Miss America," the next to last line of which is, "There she is, walking on air."

Equally on air were her parents who had traveled from their home town of El Dorado, Ark., to witness their daughter's triumph.

Her mother, Mrs. Hurley B. Axum said wistfully, "There goes my baby." Her father said, "We'll miss her, but we're willing to share her with America. It leaves us alone, right back where we started."
