Nationalists Capture City Of Changchun

Advance Elements Of Crack New 1st Army Enter Manchurian Capital Early Today

MUKDEN, May 23, (AP)—The Chinese government announced today Nationalist troops formally recaptured the Manchurian capital of Changchun at 11:00 A. M. (local time). The announcement said the recapture of the city followed sporadic fighting with Communist remnants remaining in the city. The Chinese Communists had captured Changchun five weeks ago.

A communique from headquarters of General Tu Li-ming declared that Chinese Communist resistance soon was overcome. The government communique noted that advance elements of the crack new First Chinese Army had entered Changchun at 7:00 A. M.

Earlier government dispatches said the Chinese Communists had been seen withdrawing from Changchun yesterday. Presumably the Communists headed for Yungki, 60 miles east of Changchun.

General Tu had appealed to the Communists on Tuesday to leave Changchun and thus prevent destruction in the city. There was no immediate indication of why the Chinese Reds had left. The Communists had claimed earlier they were prepared to defend the city heavily.

The government communique said that despite the sporadic street fighting, the people of Changchun lined the streets to welcome the Chinese Nationalist forces.

Lawton Commends Woman's Club In Work For Emergency Famine Drive

Campaign Head Says Number Of Farmers Are Contributing Fresh Vegetables For Immediate Canning

The Sanford Woman's Club under the direction of Mrs. H. W. Rucker, president, has been doing an excellent job of soliciting contributions in the form of canned goods and money for the Emergency Famine Food Drive, it was announced this morning by J. W. Lawton, chairman of the drive.

"There is at present a surplus of green vegetables in Seminole County that should be canned immediately before they go to waste," said Mr. Lawton.

The canning facilities of the county are apparently overworked, but appointments may be made up to 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon for any persons who wish to can vegetables, he added. A number of farmers are contributing fresh vegetables and these will be of great value if they can be canned immediately. A number of stores have boxes to receive contributions and boxes one purchasing canned goods may make deposits in boxes.

It was reported that women of the Methodist Church will work at the church on Tuesday and Friday at Ovidio on today and that local women will can at the county canning kitchen on Geneva Avenue on Saturday.

The food relief drive is reported to have 4,400 committees work representing more than 4,500 communities. Citizens and children are urged by the Famine Emergency Committee to eat only one slice of bread a meal; cut down on pies, cakes and doughnuts; eat more potatoes, oatmeal and fresh vegetables; clean up the plate at each meal; save and turn in fat and keep up Victory Garden production.

In Europe, war-devastated countries have suffered the worst crop failures in 75 years. Many are so weak from hunger they are unable to work. They are unable to grow their own food, unable to mine coal to revive their industries, and unable to stand at looms to make cloth, and are swiftly losing all strength to rehabilitate themselves, according to Lee Marshall, executive director of the Emergency Food Collection.

B. S. Thornal Speaks Before Jaycee Group

Calls On Young Men Of Today To Work For Better World

Horton Thornal, treasurer-elect of the Florida Junior Chamber of Commerce, told members of the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce today that if the young men of the world will strive for improvement, the world itself will set along better.

Speaking at the Mayfair Inn before the first Monday luncheon meeting to be held by the county Jaycees, since its reorganization last December, Thornal praised the sacrifice made by the young men of our nation in fighting for the principals of democracy and charged that the young men of today must work to uphold those ideals and make the world a better place for forthcoming generations. "If we work," he said, "the world will be all right."

Thornal expressed regret that Robert H. Bishop, president-elect of the Florida Jaycee organization, could not attend the meeting here today. However, he urged the local club to put forth every effort to support Bishop's administration for betterment of the state organization as a whole. He praised the past work of the state organization by Bishop and described him as one of Florida's most capable Jaycee members.

Thornal briefly outlined the foundation of the National organization, explaining that it was founded in 1920 by a young man named Charles Eisenhower of St. Louis. He asserted that today the organization is represented over the entire United States, part of Canada and also in Hawaii. He also mentioned that at one time the Jaycees of Montreal boasted the largest membership in the world and the organization there remarked that sometime the Orlando club, which claims to have the country's largest membership, may send a delegation to Canada to investigate the figures.

Relative to the candidacy of Selden Waddell for the presidency of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, Thornal praised the ability of the young Gainesville man and urged support of the local organization in support of his election to that office. Thornal pointed out that Florida never had had men in that office nor did the state ever have a candidate for the position.

The newly elected state official also outlined the current extension program of the national organization. He pointed out that 17 new organizations have recently been affiliated in Texas and asserted that similar organizations in Florida have state affiliation which shows an improvement over the approximately 10 organizations that remained affiliated during the recent world conflict.

President Jack Rutledge presided over the meeting and introduced Cliff Cashin, recently elected president of the Orlando Junior Chamber and also Clem Brosier, managing editor of the Orlando Morning Sentinel.

NEW OWNERSHIP

NANKING, May 23, (AP)—China's largest and most powerful news agency soon will be placed entirely under private ownership and control. The information ministry says that the organization — the central news agency — will be owned primarily by Chinese publishers. It will have no connection with either the government or Chiang Kai-Shek's Kuomintang Party.

Former Athlete, Minister, College President, To Run For Governor

AUSTIN, Tex., May 23, (AP)—Dr. Homer Price Rainey of Texas hasn't been exactly all things to all men at all times. But in his time he has been a professional baseball player, a Baptist minister, a college instructor, and the president of the University of Texas. Today he announced his candidacy for the governorship of the Lone Star State.

Dr. Rainey didn't leave the university presidency of his own free will and accord. He was ousted after a bitter fight with university regents. Rainey calls the forces which ousted him "selfish and powerful" and says he had three alternatives. He could knuckle under, give in to those interests, and abandon his own dreams of how the university could help Texas people develop a better state. Or he could stand up and fight for his beliefs. As a third choice — he explains — he could sneak out of his native state like a whipped bull. Rainey chose to stand and fight. He was fired.

The baseball playing preacher says his goals are industrial peace, a better public health program and improved farm conditions.

Before becoming president of the Texas state university, Dr. Rainey had been president of Bucknell University in Pennsylvania, a professor on the staff of Amherst College in Sherman, Tex., the University of Oregon, and Franklin College in Indiana. He also served as director of the American Youth Commission, and played baseball with Houston of the Texas League.

Congressional Investigation Of Pearl Harbor Attack Ends Today

Stimson Asserts President Roosevelt Was Undoubtedly Considering An Attack On Jap Forces Threatening South Asia To Run Mines

WASHINGTON, May 23, (AP)—The congressional investigation of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor ends today.

The joint Senate House investigating committee closed its inquiry today with a statement by former War Secretary Henry Stimson.

The Stimson statement was in response to a series of written questions submitted by Republican Senator Hiram Bingham of Michigan. In his statement, Stimson told the committee that the President had authorized the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Stimson told Ferguson and other committee members, as far as he could recollect, Roosevelt never formally announced any decision of this nature to top American military officials. Stimson added that he could not recall any official announcement that the attack on Pearl Harbor had been authorized.

Also in his statement, Stimson said he had no recollection of any decision of this nature being made by the President or any other official.

Funeral services, not yet announced, will be held in Wadley and burial made there.

Housing Situation Is Improving On Monkey Island

Much improvement in the housing situation on Monkey Island in the Sanford Zoo was yesterday reported by Park Supt. James Eubanks. The fact is noted as "recreation centers" for newcomers, and upon occasion as "unintentional" have been enlarged and strengthened. A new sign has been placed on the monkey island.

New animal sides to cages have been added and sides have been repaired and repainted. The supply of animals for zoos is now very scarce, said Mr. Eubanks, and at that account they are also very expensive.

He pointed out several recent gifts to the zoo, one being a racoon presented by Prof. E. P. Granville of Rollins College, some guinea pigs by Henry F. Siegel of Daytona Beach and several rare type turtles by Mrs. S. Shepler.

"People of many communities in central Florida are much interested in the zoo and visit it often," said Mr. Eubanks.

RAIN INTERRUPT PROGRAM

Recent rains have interfered with the program of the Seminole County Farm Bureau in furnishing muck to growers, according to M. L. Cullum, president, and the farm bureau is considering the purchase of muck land which the county has for tax sale. This property was located by F. T. Meriwether of the Bureau's soil improvement committee.

SOCIALITE DIES

PALM BEACH, May 23, (AP)—A prominent socialite, Mrs. Edw. Townsend Stetson, died today at her Palm Beach home. She was the widow of the financier who died in 1938 and the mother of James Cromwell, former Minister to Canada.

W. C. Hutchison Is Slated To Arrive Here Tomorrow

Major William C. Hutchison, accompanied by Mrs. Hutchison and their two children, Bill, Jr. and Penrose, are expected to return to Sanford tomorrow from Washington, D. C. after an absence of nearly three years.

Major Hutchison, who was employed by the U. S. Army prior to entering the service, accepted a commission in the United States Army as a captain in 1943. He was stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., and Philadelphia before being assigned to staff supervision in Washington with offices in the Pentagon Building.

Major Hutchison went overseas in January of 1945 and performed active duty in New Guinea and the Philippines. He received his promotion to major shortly after his arrival in the Pacific area.

Major Hutchison is a brother of Brigadier General Joseph C. Hutchison, former assistant commanding general of the 31st Infantry (Dixie) Division.

THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1946

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY
GOD SPEAKS TO MEN OF GREAT MANY TIMES, BUT ONLY TO THEM THAT ARE LISTENING.

This may be the age of the common man, as someone has said, but if it is, something had better be done about getting him to the polls next Tuesday morning.

Florida is fortunate in having two such able men as Paul Barnes and Judge Petteway as the only opposing candidates for the Supreme Court.

If it is social security that the average man wants, and we have been told that it is, we don't see how there can be much security for anyone in a nation paralyzed by strikes, and threatened with inflation from under production.

President Truman has seized the coal mines on account of a threat of strikes "endangering the war effort."

In Marianna, a recent poll conducted among the city's youth revealed the following: Basketball was second and football third.

Parents do not need to be alarmed over the current "polio" threat, but they need to be told, and warned to repair defective screening, get rid of flies, roaches, rats, and be careful of polluted water.

Secretary Byrnes, a prominent Democrat, and Senator Vandenberg, an outstanding Republican, both blame Russia for the failure of the recent Paris peace conference.

The United Nations Security Council has a report from the U. S. State Department on Spain to the effect that the Franco government is not prepared to fight a major war and is in no way a threat to world peace.

A rather significant statement, we think, occurred the other day in a speech by Senator Pepper during his filibuster against anti-strike legislation.

There may have been a lot of howl in some of Sanford's stores yesterday, but in the three we visited there wasn't. We wonder if Mr. Henry Wallace, who as secretary of agriculture, taught American wheat farmers how to plow under every third row, is going to produce the more abundant life we would say now.

Bonds For Schools

On Tuesday of this week a school improvement bond election was held in Orlando which carries some significance for the people of Seminole County.

The proposed bond issue was for $800,000 and the results were not counted for the simple reason that 51 percent of the freeholders, as required by law, did not vote.

Under the present laws it is going to be practically impossible to vote a bond issue for anything under the sun.

So, as the need for many civic improvements becomes more and more apparent, the problem of how to finance them becomes more acute.

While this is true of new school buildings, it is equally true of a new hospital building, both of which are vitally needed improvements.

It may be that steps will have to be taken to repeal the law which makes a 51 percent freeholder vote necessary.

Diplomatic Impasse

With Americans concerned in grave domestic crises, a tragic world event goes almost unnoticed.

Some agreements were arrived at, but a deadlock developed between the Soviets on one hand and the English, French and Americans on the other.

Another meeting is set for June 15. It may be that peace treaties with Axis satellites can then be made by western allies, without Russian participation.

Bound Workers

It is well known that "you can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink."

But perhaps "voluntarily" is not the right word. It hardly seems possible that so many American workmen, in a time when their efforts are so greatly needed everywhere in this country to keep moving the machinery of production and trade, would quit work if most of them were not prevented by some strong power.

That power obviously is the big labor unions. It is proper to recognize the fact, and also proper to admit that, so far as the unions themselves are concerned, no stigma need attach to their rank and file because of their affiliation.

Obviously there should be more freedom and democracy in the unions.

THIS IS IT
NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

The specter of a railway strike materialized briefly on Saturday evening and it was a frightening experience for the country at large.

What makes this situation all the more urgent—and all the more depressing—is the character of the unions involved in the legislative framework in which they operate.

Obviously, legislation directly against the Lewis and the Patrick of American labor, however much that legislation may be needed, cannot directly affect the issues involved in the railway dispute.

Legislation has its part in such a change. The railway brotherhoods have had the example before them of unions which operated under none of the restrictions imposed by the railway labor act of unions whose violations of the most elementary principles of justice were condoned by the highest courts.

Feds Blank Orlando 7-0 As Kettles Allows Three Hits

Sanford Explodes Ten Hit Attack To Hand Scott Cary His 1st Loss

Silverman's Single Scores Zaspel In Fifth Before Locals Counter Six In Seventh; Justice Pounds Out Two Triples

TINKER FIELD, ORLANDO, May 23—Goose Kettles tossed his way into the hearts of Sanford baseball fans again last night when the big moundman limited Ted Madjeski's not so amazing Orlando Senators to three hits while his mates collected ten off the previously invincible Scott Cary for a 7 to 0 win over the league leaders.

Approximately 400 Sanford fans were among the 1,038 that crowded into Tinker Field for the contest and saw the Feds shove over one run in the fifth and six more in the seventh frame after two men were out.

Kettles got into hot water in the first frame when he walked Dentino and then hit Cozzi with a pitched ball. However, the big righthander worked carefully and got out without a scratch. Dominguez lined out to Bride in right but Lavelle walked to jam the sacks. Kettles came back to get Madjeski out on a called third strike and Burns grounded out. Tittle to Levy after that inning. Kettles had no more trouble with the Senators. He was their man from then until the last Senator had his wings clipped.

The sparkling in the Fed offensive last night were the swatting of Joe Justice and the timely hitting of Jerry Silverman. Justice pounded out two consecutive triples while Silverman singled to center to score Zaspel in the fifth for the first Fed run and the marker which proved to be the winning margin.

Silverman also started the big Fed drive in the seventh when with two men away he singled to center, again with Tittle on third.

The six Fed runs came when Tittle singled to center and went to third when Madjeski's toss to Burns at first in an effort to nab the runner went to the outfield. Zaspel went down swinging and Cary stopped Kettles' smash to the box and tossed the Sanford hurler out at first. However, Silverman came through with his single to center and the second Fed run came in. Then the Fed attack broke completely loose and every pitch by Cary was a line drive. Bryant followed Silverman with a single to left. Bride blasted a drive into center to score Silverman. Luke singled in center to score Bryant and Bride. Cary walked Levy and the climax of the inning came when Justice exploded his first triple into deep left center. The ball went into the bushes and would have been a home run had it not been for a ground rule.

That ended the scoring hostilities for the contest. However, the locals came near another counter in the ninth when Justice pounded out his second triple.

Howington Gets Hurling Chores In Tilt Tonight

Nearly 1500 Persons Expected To View Tilt At Local Park

Officials of the Sanford Baseball Association this afternoon were making final arrangements to handle an anticipated 1,400 to 1,500 fans tonight at the Municipal Park when the Celery Feds meet the Orlando Senators.

Manager Ed Levy said this morning that southpaw Jode Howington will go on the hill tonight when the locals will attempt to sweep the current Orlando series. Manager Ted Madjeski announced that Freddie Swindells will hurl for the visitors.

The management has urged that all fans make an effort to be on hand a bit earlier tonight to allow park personnel to operate as rapidly as possible and prevent any necessary late comers from getting in the park after the game begins.

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By JULIAN STENSTROM

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Not too many years ago John Krider, general manager of the Feds, was hurling for Scranton in the Eastern League against the Harrisburg club. Krider was pitching top notch ball and with two out in the ninth inning he had not allowed a hit nor had a single Harrisburg runner even as much as reached first base.

The last batter was a pinch hitter. The batter dribbled out in the infield towards the shortstop. It was a hard ball in field. The shortstop grabbed the sphere and tossed to first but the runner was safe and Krider's no-hit game was spoiled.

Today that pinch hitter is employed by none other than John Krider. And the pinch hitter, was none other than Buddy Lake.

IMPIRES AND STRAHS

The other morning Albert Hall, local blacksmith, walked into the office and said that he was sorry that nothing had been done for the umpires. "For Friday's Appreciation Night contest between Sanford and Palatka. Numerous prizes have been offered to players who make particular plays during the tilt. Well, you could have knocked us over with the proverbial feather when the genial Hall plucked a fin from his wallet, handed it over the desk and said "Take this and be on hand a bit earlier tonight to allow park personnel to operate as rapidly as possible and prevent any necessary late comers from getting in the park after the game begins."

Relief Hurling One Reason Why Red Sox In Lead

Rookie Cincinnati Infielder Declares Ex-G.I.'s Give Aid

Members of the Orlando press box association (not incorporated) have a unique way of picking up a few quarters during the Orlando home games. The boys put two bits in a pot and guess the attendance. The closest guess wins the dough. Last night Charlie Wadsworth, Sentinel sports editor, copped the prize with a 1085 guess. The actual attendance was 1038. Among those in the box last night were Windy Hayward, Wadsworth, Tom Sawyer of W.B.H.O. and yours truly.

Scott Cary was a bit dejected after the tilt and we overheard John Gansel giving him the old pep-talk: "You can't win 'em all." Once upon a time a major league shipper told his boys the same thing after losing 25 straight. . . . Another large number of Sanford fans saw the 1000th admission. Orlando has collected from local fans this season in three games at Tinker Field.

Even Orlando scribbles wish that some ruling would be set relative to the white post in left field and the bushes. Four people in the coop last evening gave four different interpretations of the regulation.

has in relief roles on the baseball battlefield.

Johnson won his third successive victory in a relief role Tuesday when he beat the Detroit Tigers after the world champions had jumped away to a 4-0 lead. He has allowed only two hits in his last 12 innings on relief.

The star rookie infielder of the Cincinnati Reds — Grady Hatton — says that other former servicemen are helping him to make good in the majors. Hatton never played organized baseball before this year, but he played quite a bit of ball in the Army.

Hatton's most enthusiastic rooters are fans wearing the ruptured duck emblem in their lapels. As Hatton puts it: "Every park I play in, the fellows come down to say hello and wish me luck. It feels good to know you have a lot of former G.I.s up there pulling for you."

Palmer heavyweight boxing champion Jimmy Braddock picks Billy Conn to beat Joe Louis in their title bout in New York next month. Braddock predicts that Conn will win on a decision.

The former Notre Dame star, Bill Shakespeare, is out of the Army. Discharged as a captain, Shakespeare has no intentions of playing or coaching football. He plans to return to the Westport trail, and will spend most of his time in South America.

Sweden's newest track star, Lennart Strand, has accepted an invitation to compete in the United States this summer. He plans to run in the Compton, Calif. relays June 7; the Pacific A.A.U. championships at San Francisco June 15; the National A.A.U. championships at San Antonio June 28 and 29; and possibly in an Eastern meet later in the season.

Thirty-six colleges will compete in the I.C.A. track and field championships at Annapolis on Saturday. But it looks like the battle for the team trophy will be between Army and Navy.

NO PROGRESS IS MADE IN RAIL STRIKE

Nation Lies Prostrate Under Weight Of Railway Tie-up

Cries For Action Heard In Senate

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The greatest industrial nation of the world lies almost prostrate today. The railroad arteries which pump the life-giving flow of commerce through its mills and factories, stores and farms, are nothing but lifeless bands of steel. For the moment, at least, the tie-up is practically complete. The only major railroad functioning normally is the Illinois Central, and that road was exempted from the strike because it had been taken over by the government before the walk-out was ordered. It remains to be seen whether the efforts of other roads to get some trains into operation with supervisory crews will be successful.

Not since the strike of 1922 has the nation experienced anything like this, and the full impact of the stoppage has not yet been felt. The gravest and most immediate threat, of course, is to the food supplies of the big cities. Trucks and waterways are being mobilized to meet this threat, but the effects will reach into every corner of the land, across the national borders, across the seas, to Europe and Asia, where hungry people are waiting for the grain that now must be moved to tidewater from inland storage points.

Losses that will result from the tie-up, even if it is only of short duration, can scarcely be estimated. Perishable food will rot on farms, business and industry will be forced to halt completely in some cases, or drastically curtailed activity. Capital foresees plenty of trouble for us in the foreign field. The immediate concern, of course, is famine relief. The possibility that lives may be lost because of our failure to meet our promises in grain shipments is not a pretty thought, but the Washington diplomats see another danger. They see American prestige waning at a critical period when democracy and communism are competing for the affections of people in Europe and Asia.

Our domestic troubles, these diplomats point out, play right into the hands of the communists. "You see," says the Communist, "those Americans just can't handle their affairs in their democracy. Just look at them."

Fortunately for us, human beings, under unusual circumstances, prefer freedom to regimentation, and the tradition of liberty has deep roots in Europe. Our military embarrassment will not mean an irrevocable defeat, but there is no blinking the fact that we are drawing heavily on the capital of good will which we have piled up in the past.

Particularly grave fears are felt in connection with the food supply situation. California fruit and vegetable growers, for instance, say losses will run into many millions of dollars in a matter of days if perishables are not moved.

All over the country, express cars loaded with perishables have been sidetracked as a result of the strike which started at 4:00 P. M. Local Standard Time yesterday.

Not a single carload of livestock left Chicago—the nation's livestock center. Meat industry spokesmen say the rail strike will just about paralyze their production.

Millions of commuters in major urban areas either have been stranded in the big cities to which they travel by train to work daily. Other millions who managed to reach home in advance of the strike deadline will be unable to get back to work in most cases. The city of Los Angeles, for instance, is without major transportation as a result of the strike.

75 Percent Of Local Railroad Men Idle Today

In the Sanford area the strike of engineers and trainmen has resulted in a 75 percent reduction in employment among approximately 500 railroad men in this district, it was reported this morning by Charles H. Black, superintendent of the Jacksonville division of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Approximately 100 cars of north bound perishables, including celery, watermelons and local grown vegetables, are tied up at Rand's siding on the West side. "Our information is that cars on hand at Rand's siding that require icing are being satisfactorily taken care of," said Mr. Black.

The total number of cars tied up here as a result of the strike is 407, according to Mr. Black. Of these 232 are northbound and include 161 loaded cars (including the perishables) and 71 empty cars. South bound cars total 185 of which 104 are loaded. Of the latter, there is believed to be but a very small amount of perishable goods. In addition, there are 60 loaded cars for the Leesburg, Trilby and Kissimmee branch lines.

All trains that left terminals yesterday returned, including the Ovidio and Leesburg branch. Today the railroad was silent, and according to Mr. Black, no runs, even for mail, are scheduled.

According to an Associated Press report from St. Petersburg, an Atlantic Coast Line passenger train left there this morning on its way to Jacksonville. An unnamed executive was said to be at the throttle of the locomotive. It operated over the Ocala division.

Mail boxes at the Sanford Post Office were comparatively empty this morning, as the messenger to the depot brought in no incoming mail. In event of continuation of the strike, there is no certainty of incoming mail other than from Daytona Beach, which is carried here on the Star bus route which ends at Orlando.

This mail arrives here at 7:00 A. M. The bus passes through here going back to Daytona in the evening. There is no certainty as to delivery by air mail as no bus service has been authorized to take this mail to Orlando, the air terminal, according to Joel S. Field, postmaster.

Business in downtown groceries appeared to be especially brisk up to noon, and bread supplies dwindled fast.

Churchill Raps Labor Party Plan

LONDON, May 24. (AP)—Winston Churchill renewed his attack today on the British Labor government's decision to withdraw from Egypt. He told Commons that it would run British interests in the Middle East, destroy British communications in the Indian and Pacific Oceans, and cut the lifeline of the British Empire.

Churchill said that it would be impossible to defend the Suez Canal unless British personnel are stationed permanently in the canal zone. Other bases in the Middle East, he said, would be unsatisfactory and when Britain tried to get them she would be accused of imperialism.

Churchill warned that a British withdrawal from Egypt might seriously affect British hopes of getting American aid in the Palestine question. He said that to use Palestine as a jumping off place for occupation of the Suez Canal in an emergency would leave Britain without American help and with the most profitable track that could be imagined.

Churchill recommended leaving the status quo in Egypt for five or six years in hopes that the United Nations will be able to remove the old treaty dangers.

Public Stranded, Perishables Spoil

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24. (AP)—President Truman will lay the whole strike situation before the nation tonight in a radio address scheduled for 11:00 P. M. Eastern Daylight Time. Tomorrow, the President will go before Congress at 5:00 P. M. Eastern Daylight Time. His latest development program, to upgrade that the government is preparing to move with determination against the rail strike and the threatened renewal of a coal strike.
