BROOKHART TO TELL JURY OF 'WET DINNER'

Senator Will Be Given Opportunity To Reiterate Details Of Party For U. S. Solons

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—(INS)—Senator Smith W. Brookhart, the Iowa dry, is going to have an opportunity to tell a district grand jury all about that "wet dinner" which he says he attended here several years ago where the bottles were placed on the floor under the table within easy reach of senatorial hands.

Goaded to action by criticism of the conduct of his office, District Attorney Leo Howe has suggested the Iowan to appear before the grand jury next Wednesday and repeat under oath the story he told the Senate of how Walter Faby, a New York broker, gave a dinner party to "get acquainted with new senators" and how all a guest had to do when he wanted a drink was to reach under the table for a convenient flask.

When Brookhart told the story on the Senate floor, in the course of general debate, he said Senator Smoot (R) of Utah, was among those present.

Some what discomfited, Smoot said he had "no recollection of being present or of seeing any liquor."

"Oh, yes, the Senator from Utah was there," replied Brookhart.

"I have no recollection of it," reiterated Smoot.

The dry dipper was attended by a number of senators, according to Brookhart.

"Presumably he will give the grand jury the names of others present, with the prospect that they will be summoned to testify," Brookhart said today. "Certainly I will testify, and tell all I know."

The district attorney's somewhat belated action followed the capture by a local police of a bootlegger known as "the man in the green hat" on the steps of the Senate Office Building late Thursday, while in the act of delivering some rye whiskey to some occupant of the building.

Hoovers To Spend One Last Visit At Their Fishing Camp

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—(INS)—A reunion of "that old neighborhood gang" is going to be held over this weekend at President Hoover's mountain camp at the headwaters of the Rapidan River in Virginia.

The lure of wonderful Indian summer weather and the prospect of a mountain side in flame with autumn colors prompted Mr. and Mrs. Hoover today to decide on one final visit to their Blue Ridge retreat. With them as weekend guests will go 10 of their friends, for the most part recruited from the little colony that lies on 8 Street in the immediate vicinity of the house the Hoovers occupied before election.

As usual, the party will motor down this afternoon, and it was expected they would not return before Monday afternoon.

Those who will accompany the President and Mrs. Hoover include Secretary of the Navy Adams, Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Davis, Senator Valence (R) of Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kellogg, Countess DeBuyer, Miss Alida Henriquez, Mrs. Gertrude L. Bowman, of New York, Miss Jane Large, Mrs. Arthur Bullard, Mrs. Charles D. Walcott, secretary to the President, Lawrence Richey and Commander Joel T. Boone, White House physician.

LEGION MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Campbell-Lassing Post of the American Legion on Monday night at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the American Legion, but is of the utmost importance to every member, according to Hodges Bell, post commander, who issued the announcement and urged that every Legionnaire attend.

Chicago Fire Does Damage Of $250,000

CHICAGO, Nov. 2—(INS)—An unidentified foreman was reported missing, 300 employees were routed by flames and smoke, and $250,000 damage was caused today when a studio fire gutted a big story building in the stockyards district. All of the employees were believed to have escaped the fire safely until two hours after the blaze was extinguished, a check up failed to locate the foreman of the plant. He was believed to have been trapped by the dense clouds of suffocating smoke from burning cork. The fire broke out in a cork-filled store room on the fifth floor and spread through the roof and downward to the basement.

MEANS SOUGHT TO STEM TIDE OF STOCK SALE

Industrial Heads Reveal Financial Conditions In Effort To Curb Selling Frenzy

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—An im-posing exhibit of constructive forces in the nation's industrial and financial structure was placed before the eyes of terrified spectators this week in a successful effort to stem the tide of frenzied selling of stocks in the exchange in the important financial centers.

It was a gigantic task. The big banking group stepped into the breach here in New York, but business and industrial heads all over the country went to the greatest lengths in 20 years to assure the holders of stocks that all was well, as far as their enterprises were concerned.

Giant industrial corporations pushed aside the dates of declaring their regular dividends; others authorized special dividend payments to their stockholders in move to "shape with them" the fruits of excellent business and cash earnings in 1929. Manufacturing concerns, railroads, utilities and distributors of goods everywhere hastened to assure investors of their thriving condition, looking up their statements by official earnings reports making the most favorable comparisons with previous years.

All this followed in the wake of the greatest debacle in the stock market ever witnessed by the present generation of traders and brokers alike. An avalanche of selling orders rammed down on the stock market with the first tap of the opening gong on Monday, continuing without a sign of a letup that day and far into the next day.

Demoralization threatened the world's largest security market as stocks poured in without sufficient bid to save them from declining to rumous price levels.

Swan claims a company was formed to acquire his father's interests. There were threats of litigation between that company and Edison's. He said:

"Instead of fighting," said Swan, "they amalgamated. My father's invention was adopted and Edison's dropped. It was also adopted in America."

"Ten years later my father invented what was called the 'quarried' filament, which superseded the former type both in England and America. Yet in America Edison is credited with having invented the 'quarried' filament."

It was considerably more than that. The riot of buying which swept into the market on Wednesday and continued through Thursday's close turned the tide of security values upward, at such a rate that approximately 60 per cent, and in some cases 100 per cent, of the losses were recovered.

The best evidence of the thoroughness of public liquidation of stocks this week is furnished by the reserve board's weekly report on bankers' loans, which reveals a shrinkage of $1,000,000,000 in the total of "loans against securities."

There were few in the financial district who would have predicted such an enormous decrease. In the girls had seen several other losses of the skeleton wrapped in a sheet and Camden newspapers of June 9 last. They were covered with the title "Rehearsal advanced—the theory the girl had met death at some other spot and the body had been thrown into the bushes to hide the crime."

Skeleton Of Girl Is Found In Lonely Spot

WOODBURY, N. J., Nov. 2.—(INS)—The skeleton of a girl about 8 years of age was found today in a clump of bushes at the intersection of Grove and Jersey Avenues in a little traveled section of National Park, by two 11-year-old girls. The terror-stricken girls, Margaret Rink and Genieve McGuire, reported the discovery to a passerby who told the police.

Chief of Police Joseph Schaffer of National Park investigated and discovered besides the skull which the girls had seen several other bones of the skeleton wrapped in a sheet and Camden newspapers of June 9 last. They were covered with the title "Rehearsal advanced—the theory the girl had met death at some other spot and the body had been thrown into the bushes to hide the crime."

20 Radio Stations Go Off Air In U.S. Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—(INS)—Twenty radio stations in various sections of the country automatically went off the air Saturday when they failed to file applications for renewal of licenses with the federal radio commission.

The commission also announced changes in assignment to clear up interference in the Midwest. Among the stations dropped from the air were the following: BBY, of Charleston, S. C.; WRAE, of Tampa, Fla.; MBL, of Lakeland, Fla.; WTNT, of Nashville, Tenn., and KTBS, Shreveport, La.

A stout diamond back rattlesnake was killed this morning near the Horseshoe Filling Station on the Lake Mary Road by Jeff Yates, employee of the American Bakers Company located in Orlando.

Mr. Yates stated that the snake, which had 8 rattles and a button, was lying across the road when he sighted it. He stopped his car and succeeded in killing the reptile with the aid of a hoe. Administering the rattler's bite, Mr. Yates said that he carried it back to Orlando, where he is keeping it cured.

It is thought that the present high water of surrounding lakes and streams is the cause of snakes seeking high lands, as several large rattlers have been seen within the city limits during the past several days.

Fall Exonerated Of Charge He "Pulled Bed Clothes Off Late President Wilson"

FALL ISSUES HIS 1ST STATEMENT ABOUT HIS CASE

States He Blundered But That He Didn't Commit Any Crime

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—(INS)

A blunder that deserves condemnation, not a crime that merits rebuke, is the verdict of Albert B. Fall, ex-miner yesterday for bribery in the oil scandal, was exonerated of the charge that he "pulled bed clothes off President Wilson" to see if he were to be president.

Albert B. Fall's own verdict upon himself, set forth to-day in the first public statement which the ex-secretary of the Interior has made since the long record of the oil scandal began unfolding in the criminal courts.

The former cabinet officer, now aged and broken in health, issued his statement after hearing Justice Hale in district supreme court sentence him to 10 years in prison and a fine of $100,000 upon conviction of accepting $100,000 from E. L. Doheny after the sale of the Elk Hills naval reserve. The trial was pronounced a dead heat.

It so moved Fall that he determined to brief his long silence and issue a statement to the Senate committee to which he obtained the loan of $100,000, but explained on the ground that he was moved to this step in order to protect the Harding administration that had honored him.

"My borrowing the money may have been unethical," he said, "but I certainly did not realize it at the time, and my employing it to help to prevent a violation of public trust is a blunder that I am sorry for."

He admitted telling a school to the Senate committee as to where he obtained the loan of $100,000, but explained on the ground that he was moved to this step in order to protect the Harding administration that had honored him.

He asserted he was not moved by a sense of filial duty but by the desire to see an Englishman acknowledged by his own people, Swan, designed. "My father first exhibited a successful carbon filament lamp in Newcastle-On-Tyne on Dec. 18, 1878." The date claimed for Edison's invention is Oct. 21, 1879.

"The initiation of Electrical Engineers was invited to share in the jubilee celebrations in America, but they declined as a result of the interior and as a result of President Harding's valence."

It was all followed in the wake of the greatest debacle in the stock market ever witnessed by the present generation of traders and brokers alike. An avalanche of selling orders rammed down on the stock market with the first tap of the opening gong on Monday, continuing without a sign of a letup that day and far into the next day.

But neither can the claim justify the charge that I was dishonest or dishonest as a result of the interior and as a result of President Harding's valence.

In this emergency the banks hurriedly summoned their forces not to rally the market, but to provide a basis on which some semblance of orderly trading could be carried on. Where methods were ready for sellers of stocks, the bankers' pool endeavored to provide them with millions of dollars at their command. It was believed that, when once the tide had turned, and investors realized the attractive basis upon which the highest grade of dividend-paying shares were offered, the recovery in stocks would be as pronounced as the decline.

It was considerably more than that. The riot of buying which swept into the market on Wednesday and continued through Thursday's close turned the tide of security values upward, at such a rate that approximately 60 per cent, and in some cases 100 per cent, of the losses were recovered.

The best evidence of the thoroughness of public liquidation of stocks this week is furnished by the reserve board's weekly report on bankers' loans, which reveals a shrinkage of $1,000,000,000 in the total of "loans against securities."

Big Intersectional Grid Clashes Mark Contests Tomorrow

Florida's Game With Harvard And Irish-Tech Go Stand Out

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—Intercollegiate football will have its flag flying tomorrow in perhaps the greatest and most significant program of geographic play in the sport of intercollegiate football ever has known. For instance, the nation's adopted team, Notre Dame, will go to Atlanta to play one of the southern belles, Georgia Tech. Another of the latter, Florida, will come north to meet Harvard, one of the best up this way. Pittsburgh, highly touted for the national title, will receive a Big Ten guest, Ohio State, undefeated to date. Another Big Ten invader, Chicago, will daily with an ex-member of the Big Three, Princeton, while Villanova is coupled with Olethorpe, the Army 11th South Dakotas, Boston College with Duke, to go with Hampton-Sidney and Washington with Carnegie-Penn in St. Louis.

It may be difficult to pick the losers in a program like that. In fact, the railroads may turn out to be the only winners when it is all over.

This see America tendency is one of two major features of the afternoon. The other is the fact that it will be "if" day to a lot of championship pretenders like Dartmouth, Minnesota, Purdue, Tennessee and Tulane. If, for example, Dartmouth gets by Yale tomorrow in the bowl, it still will face three tough ones in Brown, Cornell and the Navy.

But should it emerge triumphant, as they say at the delicatessen, Dartmouth will be in there claiming the national championship with the best of them. If Tennessee beats Alabama Poly, as it should, it will have off Vanderbilt between itself and the southern title. If Tulane beats Georgia, only Louisiana State will remain to say it now.

As far as Minnesota and Purdue are to play conference rivals in Indiana and Wisconsin respectively and, while neither has any actual pushovers the rest of the way, a victory tomorrow will mean that both are on the verge of top ranking, sectionally and nationally.

Opp couldn't call an "if" day for Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Southern California, Utah, Texas and Illinois. In fact, every day is an "if" day with most of them and, unfortunately, they have a lot of their big moments still coming up.

However, there will be much decided before tomorrow afternoon becomes an evening. Notre Dame must prove that it can play them all, here and there, and live to rejoice in the fact. The Irish took a licking from Tech the last time

COAST LINE WINS FROM EAST SIDE OUTFIT, 26 TO 19

Stages Big Comeback To Defeat Sod Busters Upon Diamond

J. M. Stinecipher
DIAMOND BALL NEWS
After losing three straight games, the Atlantic Coast Line players came back last night with blood in their eyes and dynamite in their bats and outfit, outwitted and outplayed the Sod Busters from the East Side, sending them back to their farms with a wallop of 26 to 19.

In the first inning, the East Side Farmers scored four runs, but when the Coast Line came to bat, they could not be put out until 13 markers had been scored, which evidently was their lucky number last night as they stayed far in the lead the rest of the way. After the first inning, however, Dennis of the East Side settled down and kept the Coast Line hits fairly well scattered, letting in only 10 more runs in the next four innings. Ammon replaced Dennis in the box in the sixth inning, but the Coast Liners were determined to get three more runs and make 23 to add to their previous 13 tallied in the first inning, so they touched Ammon for two doubles, and a single for these, proving that two lucky threes won a ball game from the East Side.

Pardon led the attack for the winners, hitting five times and getting three singles, a double and a triple, while Piercy, a very consistent hitter, collected a single, a double, a triple and a homer out of five attempts at bat. McLellan was the other Coast Liner to hit a circuit smash, and C. Tillis had a perfect night with the stick getting three "safeties out" of three times at bat.

Stimler did a fine job of hitting for the winner and was going strong when the last farmer was out.

Stigle hit for the circuit for the East Side and also got a three-bagger in his two official times at bat. Ammon got three safe blows but this is a different year and so are the East Side teams. The Southwest might decide its championship on the result of the Southern Methodist-Texas game and out on the coast, California and Southern California will name the new conference champion between them, with the Trojans naturally favored.

INJURIES FORCE CANCELLATION OF ROLLINS CONTEST

Chattanooga Will Be Forfeited Game Set For Next Saturday

WINTER PARK, Fla., Nov. 1—Rollins College and the University of Chattanooga have agreed to call off their scheduled game at Chattanooga for next Saturday at the request of Rollins College and with the understanding that the game will be officially forfeited to Chattanooga.

Dean Winslow S. Anderson, chairman of the Faculty Athletics Committee, announced today that the reason for the request to call off the game was due solely to the poor physical condition of the varsity squad. Injuries have raised havoc all season with the team and as a result of the game against the University of Miami last Saturday nearly every member of the team is unfit to take part in competition for at least two weeks. The squad has been struggling along all season with the handicap of having only four or five reserve players available at any time.

Coach Jack McDowell and Dean Anderson are agreed that to send the Rollins team into competition next Saturday would have been a grave risk to all of the players on account of their present condition.

Don McKersher and Rusty Moody, regulars in the line, were severely injured in the second game of the season and have been listed as disabled since. Chet Lewis took a chance on his trick knee in the Miami game with the result that he also is out for the season. Bill Reid was badly hurt in Miami and Al Rashid, who has been trying gamely all season to play with a painful shoulder injury, is unfit for hard scrummage. Bob Boney is another goner who has been doing his bit in spite of attacks of ulcers in the stomach. Arnold had to be carried off the field at Miami and several others who were badly bruised would have been replaced if there had been any reserves on hand.

In whose honor we're invited here Not only to greet them, and wish them cheer,

But the fun and frolic and mirth to share,

For why be staid and solemn and sad?

When there is so much to make us glad?

It is so strange what names we get!

Out of the letters of the alphabet There's Woodburn, and Thompson, and Field, and Shaw.

McGinn, Marshall, Peleton, Long.

There's Chittenden, and Camp, and Caldwell too.

And Easterby, Schroder and Highleyman.

There's Gilson, and Nelson, and Whittier you know,

And McDonald, Hunter, Powell and Snow.

And Rosister and Bullock you know full well.

Of all their good deeds we could not tell,

Azarian Class Given Hallowe'en Party

The Stamp Mart

* By C. R. Mason

Witches, ghosts, black cats and other Hallowe'en spirits, represented by various members of the Azarian Class of the First Baptist Church, were present at the Hallowe'en party given Thursday evening by Mrs. Ralph Warren, 609 East Second Street, for the members of the Azarian Class of the First Baptist Church.

As the guests arrived they were ushered into a dark room where a "spook" effect was achieved by figures of skeletons and ghosts. Here various games were enjoyed and little Dick Warren dressed to represent a witch on a broom, presented the guests with their fortunes which were read aloud.

Late in the evening the hostess, dressed as a skeleton, led the class members into the garden which was decorated like a graveyard. Here a large box was then opened, bon fire lighted, and a weiner roast and marshmallow roast enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in entertaining her sister, Mrs. E. N. Scott.

Recently the President of the local stamp club sent to King George of England copies of recent United States commemorative stamps for the King's collection. The stamps were returned with a note of thanks from King George collects on stamps of Great Britain and her colonies. The envelope in which the note was sent is much prated however since it has on the reverse side the Royal Crest, and postage was paid with the recent exhibition stamps.

King Faust of Egypt and Queen Marie of Romania are also listed among the philatelists of royalty. Some of the native princes of India are also known as avid stamp collectors.

Royalty On Stamps

Since there are many members of Royal families who are interested in stamp collecting it's interesting to note that it has long been the custom among European countries to picture the ruler on postage stamps. Great Britain started the custom in 1840 with its first issue. On the stamps of Spain and Spanish colonies we see King Alfonso at different ages. When he first became king he was only three years old, and is thus pictured at that age on the Spanish and Spanish colony stamps in 1899-1900. We see him again, a different portrait, on the stamp of 1898. Then Spain lost her colonies as Cuba, and the Philippines, in the Spanish-American War, but the King's portrait, another and later one, appears on the more recent issues.

Another odd portrait on stamps is that of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland in 1890. Holland's queen appears in later years on the well known stamps of this country. The latest example of child portraits, and a most attractive set, comes from Rumania with its boy King Michael.

LIGHT COMPANY IS DEFEATED BY PROFESSIONAL MEN

Rucker Settles Down After Poor Start To Turn In Victory

By J. M. Stinecipher
Professional Men 34, Florida Light & Power Co. 18. This was the result of the game between these two teams last night. The Professional Men got off to a good start, securing 6 runs in the first two innings to three for the Light Boys. In their half of the third inning the Professional men added three more to make it nine to three.

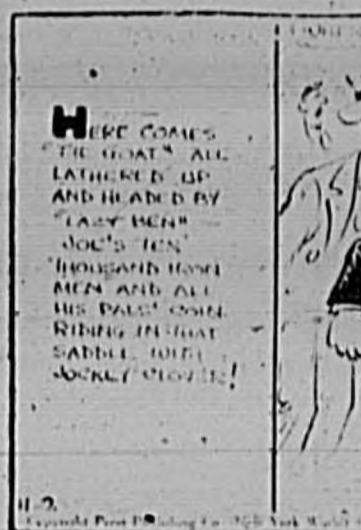

However, at the end of the third inning the score was far different. In this inning Rucker, pitching for the Professional Men did not seem to be able to locate the plate, and gave no less than seven free passes. This coupled with three hits, two of them being two batters, enabled the Light Company team to put across 11 runs in this inning, making the score stand at 14 to 9 in favor of the Florida Light & Power Company. After this Rucker settled down, and couched with good support, allowed the opposing team only six hits for the four innings, netting four additional counters for the Florida Light & Power Company, making a total of 18 runs for that team.

The Professional Men added two more to their total in the fifth inning. Then in the sixth inning the Professional team got next to Hedges, securing three singles, one double and two three baggers. This spurt on the part of the Professional Men seemed to take the heart out of the Florida Light Boys and they added to the pitcher's trouble a bunch of errors, with the result 11 runs came over. Not being satisfied with this "Athletic" stand, they added eight more runs in their half of the seventh, making the score, as shown above, 31 to 18 in favor of the Professional Men. Gardiner, Epps and Herndon were the heavy hitters for the Professional Men, while Moss, Lane and Bourgh secured the majority of the hits for the Florida Light & Power Company.

Freak Football Plays

By Will B. Johnstone

The dramatic finish of the Princeton-Navy game was made possible by a frenzied freak that was hard to the indicated by the final score 13-13, the double Jonah number.

The unlucky part was on the side of the Navy, a notably unlucky contestant, the luck with Princeton a notably lucky contestants. A freak fumble by Kohlhas of Navy, when going over for a touchdown, kept Navy from leading 20 to 0. When the Tigers were making their dying gasp in the last quarter, Spring, the Middle star, muffed an intercepted pass which gave the Orange and Black another breath of life. Then came the frenzied freak that topped the day's oddities.

MORE CELERY THIS YEAR

Looking ahead to Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, it is noteworthy that production of celery in seven late states is forecast at 3,654,000 crates compared with 3,498,000 last season. Average is greater but average yield per acre is somewhat less than in 1928. The New York crop is larger than last year and is expected to be 1,520,000 crates. Spring acreage in California is increased about 50 per cent to a total of 900 acres but the Florida plantations are expected to be decreased slightly to 6,200 acres, making the total for the two states the same as last season.

BEST TO LET HENS MOKE NATURALLY

It is natural for hens to molt and the best thing to do about it is to let the process take its natural course. N. R. Mohrholz, poultryman, Florida Agriculture Extension Division, states in answer to a number of letters from poultrymen about hatching moltaround the official and started on a stern chase, albeit he made a futile dive at Bennett and forced him out of bounds on the 2-yard line where a score followed.

"Strangely, the officials made more or less of a travesty of this game. There may have been contests where more penalties have been inflicted, but the records fail to show them. In this game 185 yards were snacked on the two teams. Navy, suffering from the unhand of distance of 140 yards, seventy of which came in the third quarter. At that Navy would have won on the very last play of the game had not the rule makers not set the goal posts back ten yards. A beautiful drop kick from Princeton's 30-yard line failed by inches.

Late blooming birds are usually the most profitable ones. They last longer and take less time to molt, he said.

Keep your lawn open for the best effect. Flower beds set in the lawn make the grounds seem smaller.

PLANTING AUSTRALIAN WINTER PEAS AND Hairy Vetch

Planting Australian winter peas and hairy vetch is giving excellent results in West Florida in increased corn yields. If you have a few acres of corn land it will, according to records of West Florida farmers, increase your yield next year to plant these winter growing leguminous soil improvement crops.

Don't forget to come to the meeting of the Seminole Poultry Club next Friday, Nov. 8, eight o'clock, Seminole High School building.

CAT NURSES WOLVES

MILLER, S. D., Six baby wolves were found by a farmer who dug out a den on his place. Remembering that the kittens of his house cat had been killed, he took the cubs to the mother cat, who adopted them on the spot and seems just as fond of them as she would be of her own offspring.

DELAND.—Barnett Bank is open for business now.

ST. PETERSBURG.—Citizen approved granting franchise to Layne-Southeastern Company for piping soft water from Coosawattee area to this city, to cost about $3,000.
