Leathers Begins Intramurals For Second Season

Lakeland College Expands Program To Include 17 Sports

LAKELAND, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Lakeland Southern College begins its second year of intramural athletics this week with an expanded program of 17 sports which include 10 per cent of the student body.

Adopted last year as a substitute for intercollegiate football, intramurals apparently became prominent at Lakeland when 72 per cent of the students took part.

Swimming, wrestling, track, bowling and basketball are among the sports added for this year. Additional facilities have been provided during the summer and the new field has been ground recently.

Miss Estelle Ginn of Lakeland has been named Coach Batt's assistant. Besides supervising women's recreational activities, she will have charge of programs for the entire student body.

The students are beginning the season with touch football, and the sports are beginning with volleyball.

Prizes and sororities will provide the group competition this year and 62 group and individual trophies will be awarded.

A staff of student managers will attend to details of the extensive program, working under Coach Batt from the field office. Managers are required to take for their positions and are awarded sweaters at the end of the year.

The frame gymnasium erected several years ago was razed this summer because it was too close to the $150,000 dormitory and dining room building just completed. Plans for a new gymnasium are under consideration.

Lined on the expanded program are wrestling, boxing, track, handball, touch ball, horseback, basketball, football, table tennis, shuffleboard, volleyball, tennis, softball, bowling, canoeing, speedball and archery.

Adopted when intercollegiate football became too much of a financial burden, intramurals caught on immediately at Lakeland. Soon after the experimental stage, they won campus approval and led to plans for present expansion.

Granville wilt, disease that attacks the tobacco plant, costs North Carolina growers $1,000,000 a year, according to state agriculture authorities.

SPORT CHATS

By JIMMY CHAPMAN

Old Man—Big Stuff!
Back in 1927, when the New York Yankees won the American League pennant, it was said that a single factor aside from their stellar batting attack that was responsible for their success in the amazing relief work done by Wilky Moore.

Old Wilky practically lived in the bullpen. When one of the Yankee starters weakened Wilky was called in to stem the tide. He appeared in 50 games that year—almost one-third of the total played by the Yankees. He was credited with 19 victories. All in all, he worked something like 213 innings.

As the Yankees head toward another pennant this season it is their relief hurling that has kept them in the fight when stars like Gomez and Ruffing have faltered. This season the credit must go to a couple of old-timers who have been kicked about by the baseball gods—Bump Hadley and Pat Malone.

This pair has accounted for 18 of the Yankees' victories, while being charged with only four defeats. What's more they top the list of American League pitchers in the win and lost averages.

Bill or Louie?
Manager Bill Terry of the New York Giants returned to the firing line in the recent series with the Chicago Cubs because "some of the Giant players preferred it that way," and intends to remain in the lineup as long as his knee stands up or at least as long as the fellows feel better about having him in there. It proved a masterful move on the part of Terry. Not only did his potent bat help out materially in taking three out of four games from the Cubs, but his presence on the field bolstered the team's spirit.

Most of the Giants realize that their manager's knee is in no condition to stand the strain of hard-fought games at this stage of the race, but at the same time felt their chances of scoring over Chicago in the crucial series would be greatly enhanced as long as Bill was in there swinging with them.

They appreciate the risk of permanent injury Terry is inviting and are playing their heads off for him in return. Terry will get a lot more out of the Giants for the move.

Terry is undecided as to playing in the World Series, should the Giants head the National League parade, it all depends on how rapidly Sam Leslie recovers from the abdominal injury which has hampered his play around first base in recent games. Terry feels that Leslie has earned the right to take part in the World Series, and wants him to have the chance but once again he will let the members of the team decide and act accordingly.

Little but Loud!
Minnesota, producer of giant line crushers, may go in for a "rocket follow-up" this season as Bernie Bierman's gridgers seek to extend their record of three years of undefeated play.

The variation will not be a voluntary move on Bierman's part, but as the season approaches the stubby figure of Little's Rudy Gmitro looms large as fullbacks are discussed.

Big fellows are abundant but apparently not of the class required by the quick-hitting Bierman system. Two sophomores, Marty Christensen and Phil Bellori, are being mentioned and Vic Spandacini, a smashing junior, will be on hand.

Any of these athletes has 25 pounds on Gmitro and almost six inches in height. But Gmitro, tow-headed and unorthodox, pays no attention to the handicappers.

"Too small for Minnesota football"—that was the hasty judgment of Gopher coaches when they first saw the little former Minneapolis high school star. They learned that Gmitro respects no opinions, however.

He cut loose against Michigan for long touchdown runs last year. He throws his 160 pounds with knockout force in off-tackle plays and holds his feet.

Like Vernal (Babe) LaVoi, Bierman's "handy man" of 1935, Gmitro plays any backfield post with an ease that bespeaks natural ability.

Gators Pulled Through Light Drills By Cody

Florida Mentors To Hold 1st Scrimmage Soonest This Week

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 15.—Head Coach Jack Cody stressed practice and team building as he led the University of Florida football squad through its only drill of the day here yesterday afternoon.

Gators passed up their regular morning session as Cody and the rest of Florida's grid coaches took them out to go to Jacksonville. Captain Julius Lane and Alternate Captain Eddie Maynard went with them. Returning here this afternoon, the Florida coaches sent the squad through the same type of half scrimmage they have been seeing lately. Four backfields alternated at kicking to each other, with the defensive side trying to run the ball back up the field.

Still working on the Gator passing attack, the squad split up into groups again with endlinemen and backs catching the pignin with one hand. These serial tactics which looked good during the first week of practice, have been slipping lately as the backs learned more about the art of breaking up passes. Cody now has returned to the fundamentals of ball tossing to polish up his ends again.

There is not a chance that Florida fans will see the squad scrimmage today or tomorrow. Coach Cody said yesterday, however, that he will call his first scrimmage sometime this week, and will devote most of next week to scrimmages in preparation for Florida's first game with The Citadel on Oct. 2.

Freshmen will report to practice with the veterans when they register today. The squad will not change the regular routine to accommodate Florida's frosh, but all of the gridgers are to report together, and will work in one group under the direction of the entire coaching staff.

Bob Ivey, booting consistently well, Roy Green, Walter Mayberry and Paul Brock, were the Gator punters all through yesterday's drill. None of these players has been getting off many long distance kicks, but unusually good block in the line has kept the backs from having any trouble in getting punts away with plenty of time to spare.

George Owens, tackle who has been out of daily practice sessions on account of illness, returned yesterday afternoon donning a uniform but staying out of the heavy work.

Floyd Christian, veteran end, is still pretty much out of things with a sprained shoulder. Christian may not take part in the first scrimmage, but his injury is not considered serious. John Westburg, end, donned shoulder pads and headgear yesterday after a short absence due to a sprained wrist. Tom Walker, another wingman, did not dress for practice because he is nursing an injured knee, which has gradually become worse since the middle of last week.

Gothamites Take 7 To 5 Victory From Frischmen

Dixie Dean Pitches For Fourth Straight Day And Fails To Yield A Hit While Hubbell Gains Win

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The Giants and Cardinals ended their warfare for 1936 yesterday when the pace setting New Yorkers turned back the Gal House Gang, 7 to 5, to take the most important series of the year for both teams.

As a result the Cardinals left town last night four and a half games behind the league leaders. Staggering under the strain of three consecutive double-headers and with their pitching staff near collapse, the Red Birds have little chance of taking up much of the slack in their remaining down games.

A banner Monday crowd of 34,702 turned out to see the finale between the arch rivals and to cheer Carl Hubbell, the (Giants) lean southpaw, as he registered his twenty-fourth triumph of the season and his fourteenth in a row.

Called in from the "bull pen" to protect a two-run lead, Hubbell twirled the last five innings and received credit for the victory. Except for Pitcher Ed Heusser's first major league homer, who went down in the sixth, the Giants ace kept the Cardinals away from the plate. Jackfield bays by Art Garibaldi and Joe Medwick threatened damage in the ninth, but the best hit Johnny Mize could do was lift a high foul to Mel Ott in right field to close up shop for the Cardinals.

The proceedings were enlivened by a flat fight on the Cardinals bench in the seventh inning. Heusser and Medwick exchanged a blow of two each before teammates could drag them apart. Heusser chided Medwick for a poor throw to the plate after Bartell had singled in the sixth, permitting Bingie Whitehead to tally with the seventh Giant run.

Manager Frank Frisch called on five pitchers, including his No. 1 twirler, Dixie Dean, in a back to the wall stand against the Giants.

The first four were wild and ineffective, but Dean, despite the fact that it was the fourth time he has been called to the hill, the two and one-third innings he pitched, overcame a two-run lead to score six times, in the third on two walks, singles by Joe Moore and Bartell and a double by Ripple. A scratch by Whitehead, followed by a sacrifice and Bartell's single gave them their final run in the third.

Meanwhile, the Cards bunched three hits and a pair of walks for two more runs in the fourth to put them back in the ball game. At this juncture, Hubbell took charge. Heusser's homer in the sixth was the sixth off Hubbell this season.

Daytona Fisherman Lands Large Bass

DAYTONA BEACH, Sept. 15.—George Holland, well-known Daytona Beach fisherman, took his best local angling honors here last week by landing a 21-pound sea bass from the Ocean Pier.

The largest fish landed during the week was a 7-foot shark which was hauled upon the pier by Bob Bogart after an hour's battle.

Other fish running at the Pier are drum, whiting, sheepshead and bluefish.

Dr. Jackson B. Hester, North Carolina soil technologist, recommends a lime application for controlling seab organism on potato plants.

Political Statisticians Work Toward Future Forecast

(By The Associated Press) Nations know the nation over figured in triumph and defeat today as returns rolled in from primaries held yesterday in five states.

Senator James Couzens, one-time motor car magnate, who turned to a political career and has served 14 years in the Senate, apparently lost to former Governor Wilbur M. Bracker in the Michigan Republican senatorial contest.

Former Senator George H. Moses, long a power in conservative Republican councils, failed in a comeback attempt in New Hampshire. Thirty-nine-year-old Governor H. Styles Bridges beat him for the Republican senatorial nomination.

Governor James M. Curley won the Democratic senatorial nomination in Massachusetts by a large margin over his nearest foe, Mayor Robert R. Greenwood of Fitchburg, son-in-law of Democratic Senator Marcus C. Coakley. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., captured the Republican nomination.

Political statisticians went to work on vote totals from five states, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, and New York, in efforts to figure out what, if anything, they signify for the November general election.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Bermuda, the British resort island 500 miles east of the North Carolina coast, today began feeling the effects of a severe tropical storm moving northward through the Atlantic.

The Weather Bureau here said Bermuda probably would not be in the direct path of the storm but would experience bad weather as a disturbance of great extent and hurricane intensity passed at sea.

All ships in the ocean for miles around were warned to use greatest caution. One vessel, the Norwegian steamer Torvanger, was severely damaged by the hurricane about 500 miles northeast of Puerto Rico early yesterday. It made temporary repairs and, accompanied by another Norwegian ship, the steamer Norvind, was proceeding slowly toward Bermuda several hundred miles behind the advancing storm.

Forecasters said the storm continued on page three

Important Farm Meet Is Slated Thursday Night

Agriculture Club To Discuss Problems In School Building

Gus Schmah, a member of the board of directors of the Seminole County Agriculture Club, today issued an urgent request to the farmers of this county to be present at the annual meeting of that organization which will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Seminole High School auditorium.

Since this organization normally presents 200 persons of the vegetable farmers in the county, and since their activities are of vital interest to every farmer in this county, as well as in other truck sections of the state, Mr. Schmah pointed out that it will be to every grower's interest that they present their views on various projects pertaining to agriculture before the body goes on record as fostering or endorsing any movement.

The Seminole farmer further stated that the club in the past has been of assistance to growers of this county in obtaining scientific data on insect and fungi control and aided materially with the construction of the first State Farmers' Wholesale Market here.

Other outstanding accomplishments of the agricultural club are listed by Mr. Schmah as being: their success in securing the experiment station here; their part in the fight for lower freight rates; and their position and help in the fight for the construction of the cross-state canal, when leading geologists of the nation, employed by neutral interests, warned the local people of the danger of its construction. Mr. Schmah pointed out.

Projects which will take the attention of the club for the next year, were said by Mr. Schmah to include the club's stand on the St. Johns-Indian River Canal, marketing problems, plant disease and insect control.

Griffeld was the only American gardener who also was a preacher.

The local agent announced that 15 new buses of revolutionary design will be employed to serve Sanford beginning sometime in December.

Basque Nationalists Set Up Autonomous Government, Oust All Anarchists

(By The Associated Press) A new and apparently serious split in the Government defense of Northern Spain opened up today while militiamen of Madrid, on a central battle ground, announced they placed a mile deep hole in the Fascist front.

Basque nationalists in the north, who previously had broken with anarchists because the latter fired first, now are taken by Fascists, set up virtually an autonomous government and ousted anarchists from all Government posts in the territory still dominated by friends of the Madrid regime.

In the northeast, said dispatches from the Republic of Aragon, an actual military uprising began in an attempt to purge the Seatedurged District of Catalonia of all anarchists.

A swift fleet of Fascist speedboats, armed with machine guns, cut the last means of communication with the outside world from the Northern Spanish Coast.

The harbor of Balboa was closed by mines which, Fascists laid to prevent Government ships from landing. Speedboat patrols yesterday waters inside the mine limit.

Fire Record Rolled Up By Firemen For Period In Summer

The Sanford Fire Department has rolled up an official record in performance for the past three months, according to a report issued today by Mack Cleveland, fire chief.

Twenty-six alarms have been answered, the report showed. Total loss in all fires over the period was $91,538, of which about $70 was made good by insurance.

Chief Cleveland said $29,800 worth of property was involved in the 26 calls.

Average loss per fire was $358, the report concluded.

The fire chief pointed out that the summer's average of fires this year was far below those of former years when the department generally answered 20 to 25 alarms every 30-day period.

Homestead exemptions and the loss of the Florida East Coast railroad extension, which was abandoned following storm damage, caused the decrease, he said.

TAX ROLL DROPS

KEY WEST, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Tax Assessor J. Otto Kirch-Heimer yesterday reported Monroe county's tax roll, which was $1,100,000 in 1934, was less than $1,000,000 this year.

Homestead exemptions and the loss of the Florida East Coast railroad extension, which was abandoned following storm damage, caused the decrease, he said.

Speaker At Kiwanis Club Says State Fights To Overcome Obstacles

SENATOR SEES INDUSTRIAL MOVE

Extensive Advertising Campaign Is Strongly Favored

Declaring that Americans in general do not appreciate "the liberties and privileges we enjoy under our present form of government," Scott M. Loftin, U. S. Senator, today, as guest of honor at a regular Kiwanis luncheon, urged Floridians to do all within their power to hinder those who criticize "our Constitution" and say that the dictatorships of Europe are best.

The Senator from Jacksonville came to Sanford at the request of Walter Coleman, president of the Kiwanis Club. In turn the Kiwanians invited members of all other local civic clubs, the Seminole County Bar Association, city and county officials and others to attend the luncheon meeting. Approximately 100 were at the Mayfair Hotel to hear Senator Loftin.

Robert L. Glenn who was in charge of the program for the day invited George A. DeCotton to introduce the principal speaker. Mr. DeCotton referred to Senator Loftin as "a man of nationwide reputation" and spoke highly of his services rendered while president of the American Bar Association, as governor for the Kiwanis of Florida and other groups.

The speaker began by telling of Florida's opportunities for the future and said "our state is very much in the nation's eye" at present. Clubs in Washington I found that numbers of senators, themselves, had property interests in Florida. Others either maintained winter homes here or visited the state every year.

Continuing his talk on Florida Senator Loftin said that a true way to test a man's character is by "his ability to overcome obstacles." In this way he compared Florida's success over tropical hurricanes, the depression and other obstacles. "The people are looking up," he said. "They are not discouraged as they were when President Roosevelt" (Continued on page two)

One of the liveliest romances of the year will be shown at the Ritz Theater tonight and Thursday for the first time locally. It is entitled "Love Begins at Twenty."

The ridiculous antics of Hugh Herbert, Hobart Cavanaugh and other comedians in the cast are extremely funny, while Warren Hull and Patricia Ellis furnished the romantic episodes that kept the younger element of the audience away with interest.

Not that it is all romance and comedy, however, for there are plenty of thrills in the picture when a band of bank bandits go on a rampage and attempt to shoot up the town. It remains for the lovers to capture the desperadoes in one of the most unique situations imaginable.

Hull is a young grocery clerk, who is persona non grata with his fiancée's mother, a rampant and sentimental old busy-body who thinks nobody is good enough for herself—she does not include her family in her calculations—except a somewhat mythical

Harold McCauley she has known in her youth and whom she personifies as the ideal of all many virtues, though she has not seen him in more than twenty years.

Worms have been known to turn, and Hugh Herbert, the henpecked husband and Hobart Cavanaugh, his friend, each take one drink too much, and things begin to happen.

Herbert pulls his boss's beard and lands in the hoosegow with the desperadoes. But the youthful lover engineered his own wedding and got his father-in-law out of jail. He also instilled the man with enough backbone to walk right into the front parlor and blow smoke into his wife's curtains.

Hull does a fine piece of acting, although the radio singer never resorts to song. Miss E. Ellis also is excellent as the spunky bride. Herbert and Cavanaugh as the henpecked husband and his money friend are screams in themselves, neither ever having done better comedy work.

Dorothy Vaughan is excellent as the virulent housewife who has a yen for the long lost Robert Gleckler, who proves to be Mugsy O'Banion, leader of the desperadoes.

Frank McDonald has done a fine piece of direction, bringing out all the humor of the original play by Martin Flavin.

Bob Cornell has gone to Atlanta to enter his Sophomore year at the Georgia School of Technology.

Mrs. A. L. Betts and Mrs. Ernest Betts motored to Orlando yesterday for the afternoon.

ter was about 300 miles southwest of Bermuda this morning and moving slowly northwestward attended by gales and squalls, over a wide area and by winds of full hurricane force of more than 75 miles an hour near the center.

Reports from Hamilton, capital of Bermuda, told of gusty winds and heavy rains but forecasters there said they did not expect the weather to grow worse for at least eight hours.

The liner, Monarch of Bermuda, planned to sail this afternoon for New York but apparently had plenty of time to cross ahead of the storm.

The first New York subway was built and operated in 1904.

The light that was good enough to see by last year may not fit your needs this year—any more than an old suit of clothes will fit your waistline after you have gained twenty pounds.

Lighting research laboratories have proved that 20 out of every 100 school children, 40 out of every 100 students of college age and 60 out of every 100 adults suffer from defective vision. The human eye needs enough light to do its work properly—and the older you get, the more light you need.

Eyes can become dulled by use and abuse—they can be worn out by poor light. Seeing tasks are constantly changing and various lighting intensities are needed for the different "jobs" your eyes must perform. Improper lighting causes headaches and illness; correct light means better health.

Emerson Hurls Saints To Victory Over Capitals

Win Gives St. Augustine 2 To 1 Edge In Series

Lochus And Owens Drive In Deciding Tallies As Flery Jeff Silences Capital Bats To Five Hits

ST. AUGUSTINE, Sept. 16.—Flery Jeff Emerson hurled St. Augustine to a 2 to 1 win over the Capitals here yesterday to give the Florida State League a 2 to 1 edge over the Georgia-Florida League in the Cracker world series between the rival class D clubs.

A good Tuesday crowd saw the former Palatka catcher dazzle the Capitals with a five hit exhibition and it was not until the eighth inning before the champions from Tallahassee could push a runner past first.

The Saints made good use of seven errors off Southpaw Robinson with the bats of Charlie Lochus and Jack Owens driving home the St. Augustine runs.

Waltie to Espanic and Swindell and Lochus' timely single to right gave the Saints a 1 to 0 lead in the second frame. Although the Saints gathered single hits in the next two frames it was not until the fifth that Owens smashed over two runs with a double. Emerson was safe on Shortstop Ross' high throw to first and Sidney McGowan followed with a single to left. Owens then lined a double over Amador in center, saving both Emerson and McGowan.

On the wrong side of a 3 to 0 score the Capitals opened with a 3-hit bombardment in the eighth to barely miss tying the score. Ross' single to left and advanced to third on Waltie's double to right center Ross' tallied on Amador's infield out and Murray shot a double over Fitzgerald's head to center to knock over the second Capital run.

Outside of that flurry of base hits the Tallahassee battering squad was helpless as Emerson mixed a slow curve with his speed ball. The Saint moundsman had near perfect control, walking only one man.

The game was marked by sensational fielding. On three occasions Dave Swindell made great running stabs to rob the visitors of apparent hits. Fritz Fitzgerald also committed highway robbery on Murray's drive in the fourth while the infield combination of Ross and Ebel to Dottieck pulled a sensational double play.

You Tell 'Em!
What, to our way of thinking, is one of the finest sports magazines on the market, came to us this morning in the form of a sample copy with the following bit of verbiage:
"Here's a new venture, it rather explains itself. Hope you like it. Intend to step out with it monthly if it clicks on the news-stands. Otherwise please pass the aspirin. If it seems worth a mention, I'd be grateful. It's yours to have and use."

The magazine in question is Frank G. Menke's All-Sports Magazine which includes some of the best sports reading that can be had, so we heartily recommend it to sportsmen and sportswomen as a fine sports publication, one which should go places.

New Avery!
The welfare of amateur athletics in the United States might be advanced considerably if Avery Brundage head of the Olympic committee, and the most elegant peacock of the group, took a running high jump into the most desolate wastes of Tibet without a return ticket.

If Brundage has lost his prowess as an aerialist, he could, as a fitting substitute gesture, turn in his resignation.

So far as can be established at the moment Avery Brundage has used his high office mainly to bang the cymbals, which the drums and foot the bugles, of his own making, in salute to Avery Brundage.

There is nowhere any record that he has accomplished anything which can be construed as a terrific uplift of the ideals of sportsmanship in America.

In short, Avery Brundage, for much too long a time, has been running amuck along the amateur athletic terrain, without demonstrating the fine and tolerant spirit of democratic America.

A review of his actions while the Olympics were in progress need not be re-printed, for all of it is too fresh in the minds of all of us.

Upsets Mark Second Round Of Play As Yates Goes Down

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(AP)—A tidal wave of upsets, brought on by the watery weather and the tendency of all comers to claim the freedom of this historic golfing port, swept over the U. S. amateur championship yesterday leaving in its wake the wreckage of a flock of title hopes.

In the drizzling rain that dampened the process of reducing the field to 64 contestants for the third round, British Canadian and American favorites were washed right out of the picture with startling rapidity.

The accession of form reversals began with the elimination of Hector Thomson, Scotland's holder of the British amateur crown, by Hank Kowal, former Colgate University golf captain, by the decisive margin of 4 and 2. It reached dramatic heights with the downfall of the Texas Star, Reynolds Smith, before the sharp-shooting comeback of Bill Holt, Jr., 24-year-old Syracuse, N. Y., automobile salesman.

Holt dealt the crusher to the diminutive Smith with a great single four on the seventeenth hole, only a niblick shot from the particular space where the Syracuse youth's specially built trailer furnished the tournament home for himself and his pal, Joe Thompson of Burlington, Canada.

1,500 Rebels Live Over TNT Charges In Ancient Fortress

Order For Explosion Postponed; Final Chance To Surrender Is Preferred

Violent Death Faces Inmates

Toledo Mayor Says Alcazar Will Be Target Of Blast

TOLEDO, Spain, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Execution by explosion of 1700 men, women and children in Toledo's Alcazar was postponed today at the last minute, and the mayor of the city told the Associated Press the besieged fascists would have one more chance to surrender.

Postponement also was ordered to put finishing touches to the mining of the shell-belt effect, the mayor asserted. However, he said, Alcazar likely will be blown up soon.

Government forces warned 1700 defiant insurgents and non-combatants last night that refusal to surrender would mean destruction of the historic fortress with probable death to all inside.

Socialist-laborer soldiers working in cramped quarters in tunnels under the Alcazar completed laying charges of TNT yesterday. Each charge consisted of more than a ton of high explosive.

An electric cable connected the charges along 100 yards of underground wires to two switches in the office of Mayor Paros in the City Hall.
