Grandmothers' Reception

Unique and original in its conception and delightfully pleasing in its fulfillment was the reception given by Mrs. Henry Wight Saturday afternoon to the grandmothers of her acquaintance, in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Billy Wight. The attractive home was so pretty in its gala decorations, for flowers were everywhere, emphasizing the sweetness and charm of babyhood and the beauty of the gracious motherhood. In the reception hall, where the two grandmothers, Mrs. Wight and Mrs. Gowdy, seated together, the brass jardiniere were filled with gorgeous red dahlias and poinsettias, making an exquisite glow of color against the background of ferns. White and yellow chrysanthemums and potted plants were used effectively in the parlor, while in the library only delicately tinted pink roses were used with charming simplicity. Here Miss Billy Wight, cozily ensconced among the pillows of her dainty blue and white bassetette received with her mother, Mrs. Hal Wight, assisted by Miss Camilla Madge Deas and Miss Mae Kearnes Hurt and their mothers, Mrs. Deas and Mrs. Hurt. The infant honoree knew instinctively that it was a notable event in their lives for they behaved with the grace and dignity of their grandmothers. In the course of the afternoon, a charming group of songs was rendered by Mrs. Lucille Aspinwall, whose beautiful voice was never heard to better advantage. The inspiration of those baby forms, the happiness of the grandmothers and proud delight of the young mothers, added to Miss Aspinwall's singing, depth of sympathy, interest and that was very winning. His "baby" by Carrie Jacob Bond, "Where Did You Come From, Baby," by "Nestlé," M. J. Lake a Rose, Nevada, to the group that delighted all present. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with red and white flowers and ferns.

The baby was introduced with its appointments of admiration and sympathy centered by a tall vase of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Miss Jones presided at the table, and some fine coffee and Mrs. Huggins assisted in serving. Grandmothers present were: Mrs. Alice Robbins, Maria, Ward, A. E. Philips, Archibald, Charlotte Smith, C. E. Walker, J. C. Ensminger, East-erly, Ferguson, Purdon, Theodore Miller, N. H. Garner, Higgins, A. W. Ellis, and to the baby, the guests were: Misses Deas, Hurt, Hal Wight, M. E. Robinson, Steinhilser, Miriam Jones, Misses Lucille Aspinwall and Adelaide Higgins. The reception was greatly enjoyed by all present, the babies admired to the complete satisfaction of the adoring mothers and it was quite evident that Grandmothers Wight and Gowdy are inordinately proud and felt the importance of Miss Billy Wight's first introduction to Sanford society.

Children's Party

William Gillon celebrated his seventh birthday with a lovely party to his young friends Friday afternoon, at the By-lo hotel. Games and romps were enjoyed on the lawn and refreshments served in the big dining room. The table was laden with good things. Pyramids of pretty fruits, dishes of nuts and candies and lots of cake and ice cream. The beautiful white birthday cake with its seven colored candles graced the center of the table. A good time was enjoyed by all present and the happy little host received a great many nice presents. Assisting Mrs. Gillon were Mrs. W. W. Fry and Miss Effie May Howard. William's guests were Olive Newman, Emmie Griffin, Sarah Evelyn Williams, Marion Newton, Jean Maxwell, Elmer Tolar, Clifford Shinholser, May Elizabeth Moyer, Edward Grady, Paul Strong, Thomas Wight, Elverman Speer, Robt. Mason, Robt. Williams, Joe Caldwell, Robt. Jinkins, Sydney Kennedy, Morris Moyer, Thomas Hurley and Steve Shinholser.

Book Lovers' Club

Mrs. Fred Williams delightfully entertained the Book Lovers' Club Thursday afternoon. A flower contest furnished much amusement and pleasure, the prize being won by Mrs. Morton Hopson. It was a very useful and pretty leather book cover. Inscribed in gilt on the cover was "Book Lovers' Club—1914." Refreshments were served in the dining room which was simply and artistically decorated for the occasion. The table was lovely with its handsome cover of drawn work centered by a basket of Love's wreath and fern. The five cards contained book lists. A quantity of fruit consisting of the meeting. Refreshments consisted of sandwiches, chicken salad, wafers, pickles, olives, cake and coffee. Mrs. Williams' guests were: Madames Chas. Dinger, Pope, E. S. Luke, Geo. Fox, J. T. Brady, Henry McLaughlin and R. E. Tolar.

Mrs. Parker Entertains

Mrs. J. D. Parker very delightfully entertained the ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society on Thursday afternoon. After a musical program consisting of two songs, "A Bowl of Roses" and "Sing Me a Song of Ye Olden Time" by Mrs. Mettinger, accompanied by Mrs. Claude Herndon and a piano solo, "Love's Pleadings," by Miss Kathleen Steinmeyer, dainty refreshments were served. It was a joyful occasion, there being about thirty-five present.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for Jacksonville en route to Pensacola, where they will make their future home.

Delightful Missionary Gathering

Monday afternoon, Mrs. W. E. Housholder entertained with a charming missionary party in honor of her mother, Mrs. A. E. Housholder. The members of the missionary society of the Methodist church, thirty in number, were invited to meet Mrs. Housholder, a former member of the society and wife of a former pastor of the church and responded so cordially that the cosy home was filled to its capacity. Pink roses and Love's Wreath featured the decorations, the rooms being attractively pretty with a relieving touch of green in the vines and ferns, among which were quantities of cut flowers.

Mrs. J. W. Barnes delighted those present with several of her best readings, adding fresh laurels to her fame. Mrs. Barnes is one of Sanford's best known interpreters of character readings and is always greeted with hearty applause, her presence invariably adding to the pleasures of the affair that numbers her among its guests.

FLORIDA CROPS IN 1914
 There is a sermon in the United States Department of Agriculture report on crops for 1914, as published in The Florida Metropolis Tuesday, that ought to be noted by every newspaper and every person interested in Florida.

The report shows that the crops of 1914 show 102.3 per cent, or 2.3 per cent above the average. In the Southern States quoted, Florida led all the rest, showing a crop production of 112.0. The next largest percentage shown was that of our next door neighbor, Georgia. The Georgia crop yield was that of our next crop yield was 111.2.

What better argument is there to put up to the home seeker than this crop production this year? What will more quickly appeal to the man who wants to make a home in a new country, where we can produce profitable crops?

The Florida corn crop, for one thing, advanced remarkably this year. The production was high, and the acreage larger and the price as good or better than in former years. The Florida corn crop of 1914 will actually rival the citrus fruit crop in its value in dollars and cents. Then there was an improvement in the hay crop and practically everything else that was grown in Florida. The acreage being larger, and the production better than in former years.

Florida not only has the climate for long growing seasons, the soil for producing the crops, the nearness to the great American markets, good prices and all that, but she has the best irrigation proposition of any state, and the best average rainfall record of any state. In truth everything that Nature can do, in any instance, she has done for Florida, and we who would be most benefited by building up the state are not doing our share of the work.

HOW STRANGE

The wild rumors heard on the streets relative to a county division by different members of the board were openly and freely discussed, and a committee was appointed to visit Sanford and Winter Garden and to confer with county representatives to ascertain the foundation of the statements presumably have originated in Winter Garden. The idea as stated in the meeting Sanford proposed to annex the west end of Orange by legislative action at the next meeting of the state legislature to Seminole county brought forth much speech making and suggestions by the board, and such action as deemed necessary by the committee will be acted upon at the next meeting. Apopka News

The above is from the proceedings of the meeting of the Apopka Board of Trade and bears out the information that there seems to be some dissatisfaction in the west end of Orange county. The Herald knows nothing of any such movement in this county and as we have repeatedly stated Seminole county does not want any more territory. We gained all that we wanted when Seminole county was formed at the last session and have no wish to engage in any more county division squabbles at this time. Our little county is large enough, containing as it does some of the finest orange groves in the state and absolutely the finest vegetable lands in the world. West Orange has the problem all to herself and Seminole is only an onlooker. It is really strange how the prophecy of the editor of The Herald has come true in two years for we stated just that many years ago that west Orange would be talking county division ere the legislature met again.

But let it be understood once and for all that it is strictly an Orange county proposition and not of Seminole. We are perfectly satisfied with the present territory and limits of Seminole, the finest little county in the state and undoubtedly the richest.

REFUGE FOR SCOUNDRELS

The newspapers of Florida have generally joined with those of other states in poking fun at the gentleman from the efete east who dally alights from the train at Reno, Nevada. Reno has long been the haven for those who would go through the formality of disconnecting one wife before annexing another and seemingly more attractive one.

But Reno has little if anything on Palatka or other towns, when it comes to the ease with which the marriage bond can be broken. Here is the formula for Florida: A man from Sagadahoc down in Maine, 'frinstance, has gotten tired of Martha. He has lived with her, say, for thirty years, and the old girl is getting a bit cranky and has that tired look. He comes to Florida and is carried away with the beauty of the location, and the climate, mate, after what he has endured in Maine, looks and tastes good to him. He spends the winter here and by spring decides to call it home. The following winter, having been here the required time for a legal residence, he applies for a divorce.

His attorney files his bill of complaint and advertises the fact in a paper published in the county for five consecutive weeks. It's a legal advertisement in fine type and is chucked off in some corner of a county paper. And if the applicant is smart, he usually selects a paper that circulates least among those who know him. Of course Martha isn't likely to see it, not unless some one not interested happens to send her a copy of the paper.

And if she does happen to see it, what's the poor old girl was back in Maine going to do? Maybe she is short of money; also of legal experience. But the chances are she will never learn, until it is too late, what she has been through in the bill of complaint which this "gentlemanly scoundrel" has filed against her.

There is no answer, no defense, and at the next rule day, Martha having neglected to defend herself against the charges is divorced.

The News has intimated that this divorce seeking husband is a scoundrel. Here is the proof. If he was an honest man, he would not have come 1,500 miles to get it—he would have confronted Martha at Sagadahoc, where the old girl would at least have had an even chance to defend her honor.

Of course it's a poor law that does not work both ways. Martha could have gone through the same formula to get a divorce from Henry, but then Henry wears pants, and he could have stood up under it much more easily.—Palatka News.

"Titusville is way behind many other towns in the way of shade trees on our streets," declares the East Coast Advocate. "Shade trees are not only a great attraction, but are a decided improvement when it comes to walking along the streets in summer time. There is money in it for men who will plant shade trees along in front of homes and guarantee their growth." This likely is the way to get the proper trees planted, as a great many men would not know how to transplant trees and their work would amount to little. If some one making a business of it, and guaranteeing the growth, would make plain his business, he doubt a great number of people would have trees planted in front of the places that the Advocate says are now lacking in a Florida essential, shade.

The esteemed Palatka Item, criticizing a recent discussion in the board of trade, says none but city people unfamiliar with farming would propose to pay the expenses of foreigners ignorant of our language and setting them up on Florida farms. "Is so, what must be thought of those who sell farms in the undrained Everglades of thousands of city people with the story that on their living would be nothing but a long sweet dream? Why not treat a proposition fairly even though it originated with the Times-Union and was considered by the Jacksonville Board of Trade. Times-Union.

"There is now every prospect of the city water being turned on within the next ten days," says the Wauchula Advocate. There have been some delays in the completion of the water works plant, but no serious difficulties presented themselves and the water supply will very soon be available for all purposes. This is highly important and interesting. Wauchula is not a very large place, but it is growing rapidly and substantially. City water will be a great and a very desirable addition to comfort, convenience and safety. The water supply will be available for fire protection as well as for all domestic purposes.

"It is not many years ago when practically all of the hay consumed in Florida was shipped in from other states," says the Dade City Banner. "This year Florida produced 61,000 tons of cultivated hay, at an average price of $18.70 a ton." As the Banner very aptly says, the acreage is increasing each year, as is also the quality of the hay raised, and it would seem that in a short time imported hay would be almost a novelty in the state.

A new broom factory is the latest adjunct to Bartow, according to the Record. The paper tells that L. I. Pike and his son have started a broom factory in that city and will use straw from their place nearby. The Pikes are said to be experienced in broom-making, and as anyone would know the material, if grown in Florida, must be as good as the best anywhere.

BOOM FOR COLONIAL NAVY.

Emden's Destruction Distinct Triumph For Australian Branch
 Credit for the destruction of the Emden, the German terror of the sea, goes to the colonial navy of Great Britain. The Sydney was distinctive by a colonial ship. All her officers were colonial and she was built by colonial money from Australia. In effect, the most decisive naval blow of the war was inflicted on Germany, not by the English navy, but by the hitherto somewhat belittled navy of the colonials.

While there could be no doubt of the outcome of a battle between the Emden and the Sydney, the fact that the Sydney located and destroyed the German boat is a big boost for the colonials.

The Emden had a complement of 301 men. Her armament consisted of ten 4.1 inch guns, eight three-pounders and four machine guns. She also was equipped with two submerged 17.7 inch torpedoes tubes. The cruiser displaced 3,900 tons. She was 287 feet long and had a beam of 43.13 feet. She was laid down at Danzig in 1906 and completed in May, 1908.

The Australian cruiser Sydney carries a main battery of eight six-inch guns, thus giving her a heavy advantage over the German ship. While the speed of the two warships was theoretically equal, that of the Emden being 24.5 knots as against the Sydney's 24.7, the former probably was foul and her engines badly racked from her three months of almost constant cruising in southern waters, chasing and being chased and with no port for refitting or repairs.

He's a Daddy Twenty-fifth Time.
 Following the birth of Frederick Walkenhorst's twenty-fifth child at the family home at Boscobertown, near St. Charles, Mo., citizens of that city have started a movement to present the man with an anti-race suicide medal. Walkenhorst is a dairyman. He has so many children he does not need hired help. Only four of the children are married. Three of the twenty-five committed suicide, and eight others have died. He has been married three times.

The Duke's Question.
 The delicate operation of separating the French Siamese twins, which has just been successfully performed, recalls Lord Houghton's story of a duke of St. Albans who went to inspect the original Siamese twins. The duke looked at the two boys, and then turned to their showman. "Are they brothers?" he asked. The showman's reply has not been preserved.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The fortnightly meeting of the Ladies Aid Department was intensely interesting to all present.

Miss G. M. Davis, who presided, program was opened by reading the following:

Following this paper came that of Mrs. C. E. Walker, portraying the serene life of Elizabeth Stuart Phelps-Ward. The effect upon one reading "Gates Ajar." Mrs. Phelps seems to have held as her life's ideal that of being a comforter to all. Other books were given, or sketches of them, showing the mind and character of the writer. One seemed to have come in contact with this personality when Mrs. Walker gave a few incidences of life at Andover, where she met the author.

Will Open The Inn. Mrs. M. Martin will open the Inn at Enterprise today and her many friends over the state who have been entertained at the Comfort Cottage will be glad to learn that if they cannot stop with her in Sanford they can go across the lake and get accommodations at the Inn.

Mrs. Martin needed a larger house to accommodate her constantly increasing number of winter guests and no house being available in Sanford she managed to secure the old Brook Hotel at Enterprise, which in the early days was one of the famous resorts of Florida and Mrs. Martin will make it famous as the Inn.

Rapid Work on Bulkhead

The rapidity with which the bulk heading is being put in place is a revelation to those who are watching the progress of the work.

The concrete slabs have been placed in position around the Walker property on Park avenue and at the same time the workers are going at the concrete pile, which will be in position in another week.

As soon as this is done and the braces have been placed the work of filling in will start and the machinery and all the supplies for the dredge are now installed and all ready for the pumping.

The bulk head is now one of the show places of the city, not only for the view, but for the home people and every Sunday sees immense crowds of people.

The work of installing the concrete piles is undoubtedly the greatest feat ever started by the board and citizens of Sanford and will surely wonders in future development of the city.

The Clyde line and other property owners will tear down their present locations and erect buildings in keeping with the new lake front and in the next twelve months Sanford's lake front will be a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Methodist Note. Mrs. E. B. Both, Kirkpatrick of Cordele, Ga., who was expected to speak at the Methodist services next Sunday owing to a bad schedule from Oklahoma to Sanford and too close speaking dates will not be present. This is a great disappointment to those having the matter in hand. We hope to have her at some later date.

However, the Sunday school is an inspiration in itself and those who attend its sessions on Sunday mornings are made to feel like coming again. Attend the Methodist Sunday school and preaching services next Sunday. You are welcome.

Matrimonial. An eastern girl, seventeen years of age, is married to a young man who is not a citizen of Massachusetts where the woman so greatly outnumber the men. Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Good Advice, Too. Weedy-looking youth (to well-known pugilist)—"I want to learn the art of self-defense. It's very difficult, isn't it?" Pugilist—"Oh, no; quite easy to a man of your physique. All you have to do is to keep a civil tongue in your head."

Mushroom's Great Force. The extraordinary driving force imprinted in susceptible young mushroom may be gathered from the fact that through a shop floor laid down in Dunedin, New Zealand, several mushrooms, from two to three inches in diameter, have forced themselves up into the light of day. The asphalt looked very much as if a pick had been at work so damaged was it by the mushrooms.

ATLANTIC COAST LINE TRAINS. Northbound, Southbound, Ovidio, Leesburg, Trilby, Clyde Line Boats.

TAMPA-SANFORD SHORT LINE CUT

THE ATLANTIC COAST LINE TAKES OFF ACCOMMODATION TRAIN

The Atlantic Coast Line, following the orders for retrenchment, closing all lines has discontinued the trains 27 and 28, otherwise known as the Tampa-Sanford Short Line. These trains were of great convenience to the local people of South Florida and as the same schedule must still be made from Lakeland to Tampa and as the trains paid well the economy of the change is not noticeable to the general public. Aside from the laying off of the train crews the food will feel the other cities along the line will miss the traffic much worse than Sanford, and just why the trade bodies of Orlando, Kissimmee, Lakeland and Tampa allowed the change without a kick is passing strange. These trains were great conveniences for the shoppers all along the line and as it seems to be the policy of the A. C. L. to cater to the tourist and not the local people the railroad officials probably never considered the fact that Florida people might be benefitted by this accommodation train.

Leaving here at eight in the morning and returning at nine in the evening these trains were most convenient to the people of this section and to discontinue them right at the beginning of the winter season demonstrates that the railway officials higher up do not recognize the rights or wishes of the local patrons.

The A. C. L. will probably hear from the patrons at some future date and they will lose rather than save by this penny wise and pound foolish policy of ignoring the people of Florida.

Brotherhood Entertained
A unique venture in church circles was the entertaining of the Presbyterian Brotherhood of Sanford on Thursday night by the recently organized brotherhood of the church here, a supper being the main feature.

About fifty men motored over and were met near Orange City by a number of autos from DeLand. Prominent among the visitors were Bob Holly of the Sanford Herald, Master Mechanic Stevens of the A. C. L., Mayor Thrasher and others. The ladies of the church had prepared, and served a most appetizing New England supper—baked beans, brown bread, sandwiches, salad, pickles, pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee—in the church parlors, to which 116 men marched to martial music played by Mrs. Munson. After gathering around the festive board the men sang the Doxology and Rev. Mr. Brownlee, pastor at Sanford, asked the blessing.

Gathering in the main auditorium after supper, Mr. Stover, as toastmaster, Mr. Stover, as master of ceremonies, made a pleasing opening address and introduced, Mr. C. D. Landis, who welcomed the visitors in an excellent address. Mr. Fluk gave a reading; Mr. Honeycutt sang, Mr. Short gave a reading, Mr. Reimer sang, responding to encore with another, Mr. Stover gave a reading on Thanksgiving, giving an encore, "She Robbed Me of My Enemy." Mayor Thrasher of Sanford, Mr. Holly and Mr. DuBose, superintendent of the Sanford Sunday school, each gave short addresses, Rev. Mr. Brownlee of Sanford, and Rev. C. H. Ferran of the church here each gave talks, the latter especially thanking the ladies for their assistance, after which all sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," and the benediction was pronounced, closing a most felicitous and profitable evening.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS CONVENE

TAMPA WILL BE GREAT GATHERING PLACE NEXT WEEK

Tampa, Nov. 20. The eyes of all Sunday school workers throughout the states are now turning toward Tampa, where from November 23rd to 26th will be held the great state convention. The gathering promises to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in Florida. The convention will be under the auspices of the Florida Sunday School Association. Every pastor and Sunday school superintendent in the state is a delegate without election, and each school, in addition, is entitled to send two delegates for the first 100 enrollment and one additional delegate for each additional 100 or fraction thereof. These conventions bring the maximum amount of good to the schools of the state, cementing together, as they do, those of all denominations who are engaged in the work of Sunday school instruction. Similar gatherings are held in practically all states in the Union and the provinces of Canada. This state work then becomes part of the international work, and in turn is part of the great world's organization which seeks the unification of all forces in all lands looking toward the evangelization of the world.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of all delegates. Banquets will be held daily in the Y. M. C. A. dining hall where all in attendance will dine together, and where informal speeches will be made. Twenty-five sessions of the convention will be held covering discussions in every phase of Sunday school work from the Cradle Roll to the Home Department. No feature has been omitted.

Among the numerous special features, one which stands out prominently will be the Older Boys' and Older Girls' Conference, conducted as two separate meetings at the same time, Wednesday at 3 p. m. It is expected hundreds of people will take advantage of these gatherings, which will be presided over by men and women who have given their lives to just such work. The meetings will be followed at 6 o'clock by two banquets.

Every superintendent is urged to see that a full quota of delegates are appointed at once.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HAD FINE MEETING

EX-CONGRESSMAN MAKES AN ABLE ADDRESS TO THE MEMBERS

The Commercial Club is coming. At the meeting last night the largest crowd of the season greeted President Lake when he sounded his gavel and called them to order. The minutes of the last meeting being read and the reports of the various committees passed the meeting resolved itself into a general discussion of the Seminole County Fair and kindred subjects.
A. Donner of Celery avenue addressed the club on the subject of fertilizer in its relation to the experimental station which was well received. He carried his audience from the Rhine in Germany to the water wagon in Sanford and he was assured by President Lake that the club would assist the farmers in obtaining an experimental station at Sanford if such a thing is possible.
C. R. Walker made a few remarks about the Seminole Fair and reported progress. E. T. Woodruff, the secretary of the Inland Waterways Committee made one of the most interesting reports that the club has heard in the matter and demonstrated that the government is in favor of the St. Johns river as the best inland water route through Florida, making connections with the Indian river through Salt Creek. At the conclusion of his report the club unanimously elected C. R. Walker a delegate to attend the waterways meeting at Stuart next week. This canal idea is a very important matter and the good work of the Commercial Club is bearing fruit and there is no doubt but what Congress will hesitate in purchasing the East Coast Canal while the St. Johns river offers such a natural waterway.
Ex-Congressman Wallace of Hot Springs, Arkansas, being present as the guest of B. A. Howard, he was called upon for a few remarks and for thirty minutes held the members of the club hanging upon his every word in one of the ablest addresses that has ever been delivered before the club. Mr. Wallace is a clear and forceful speaker and his tribute to President Wilson was a gem of thought and rhetoric. Mr. Wallace gave his impressions of Florida and Sanford, paying a great compliment to the city and the county and laying special stress upon our brick roads and vegetable fields. At the conclusion of his remarks he was applauded to the echo and was warmly thanked by President Lake.

Others were called upon for an expression upon various topics for the good of Sanford and the meeting adjourned to meet again in two weeks. Meantime the committee on the banquet and smoker will make arrangements for the smoker especially and in a few weeks the club will give a general get together meeting that will bring all the men of this section into the club.

The progress being made by the Commercial Club is manifest and is a source of gratification to those faithful few who have labored long and earnestly for the growth of this spirit in Sanford. The club is back of every movement and aiding and assisting Sanford in the onward march toward better things.
Let every man be there next meeting night.

No Fire
The city was called out this morning by the fire alarm and the smoke was finally located in the roof of the Sanford House, but being a fireproof building it was easily extinguished and once again our hotel is saved to us and will continue to serve the guests for many years.

Xmas Presents
The ladies of the Guild of the Episcopal church are making your Xmas presents for you. Come and make your selection at their annual Xmas bazaar Saturday, Dec. 12th. Also a delicious supper will be served.

Notice
On account of the Episcopal Bazaar on the same date the Methodist ice cream social announced for Dec. 12th will be postponed to a date to be announced later.

SANFORD BONDS STILL ABOVE PAR

SALE IS A MATTER OF SINCERE CONGRATULATIONS TO THE PEOPLE

Sanford city bonds sold above par yesterday, which means that this city is one of the solid cities of the south.
When bonds sell as high as this in the face of strenuous times in financial circles in the north and the European war it is time for congratulations among our citizens who should be happy that they are residents of such a good town.

The bonds were advertised for sale yesterday and brought a large number of buyers here as the bond houses are always anxious to take stock in a city with such a bright future as this one. The Seminole Bank of this city was anxious to buy $5,000 worth of the bonds at 6 1/2 but would not stand in the way of the purchasers who expected to buy the entire issue. The highest and best bid was from Harris Forbes & Co., of New York, who already have investments in city bonds of Sanford and naturally wanted more of them. The following bids were received:

Harris Forbes & Co., New York, $50,295, A. J. Head & Co., Detroit, $49,007, Jno. Nuyven & Co., Chicago, $50,000, Stacy & Brown, Toledo, $50,285, C. H. Coffin, Chicago, $50,051, Seminole Co. Bank, $5,000, for 5 bonds at 5 1/2.

Government Ownership

Washington, Nov. 20. Suggestions that government ownership of railroads might offer the most practicable solution of problems confronting the transportation industry in this country, were made here by Lawrence B. Egan of Kentucky, president of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, in his annual address opening the association's 26th convention.

"Economy demands elimination of competition between public service enterprises, and by force of this economic condition a monopoly in transportation is necessary," said President Egan. "If a private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable should not a necessary monopoly be publicly owned?"

"The surest way to destroy communism is to guarantee private property security from aggression. The surest way to make effective this guarantee is to prevent private ownership or control of necessary monopolies. If the protecting hand of this nation is necessary to husband the prodigious resources of nature's bounteous gifts to man in the icy lands of Alaska to prevent despoliation at the hands of privately owned transportation companies, why, is it not necessary to protect the meager product of man's labor from the same fate in other parts of our own fair land?"

COLD WAVE COMING

A cold wave is predicted for the northwest portion of Florida for tonight with much colder in the north portion. Colder is the warning for this section for Saturday and it may mean frost. The local Weather Bureau officials are watching every move of the tremendous high pressure area which is sweeping the country and advise all growers to keep in touch with the Bureau during today.

The high, with two distinct centers, covers the country between the Appalachian Mountains and the Pacific Coast. It is by far the most extensive movement that has swept the country this winter. Before it sweep the chill blasts which threaten any vegetation that is left exposed.

City Council Meets

The city council met in regular session Nov. 16, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. Present, B. W. Herndon, president; J. D. Davison, W. W. Abernathy, J. Adams, C. H. Dungee and R. C. Maxwell. Absent, H. E. Tolar. Minutes of the last meeting read and adopted.

The matter of additional fire protection was discussed. The fire committee was instructed to correspond with the various makers of fire equipment and report at next meeting.

Moved and seconded that the street committee be instructed to move the fountain at the intersection of Palmetto avenue and second street. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the clerk be instructed to issue vouchers in favor of the Seminole Dredging Co. for $3,402.00. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that the clerk be instructed to furnish a certified copy of the unpaid delinquent tax as shown by his books, from 1902 to 1912 inclusive, to Hon. G. A. DeCottes, City Attorney, and to J. J. Dickinson, Asst. City Atty., after which council adjourned.

WINTER WINDS SWEEP THE STATES

FLORIDA GETS PART OF THE NOR'WESTER LAST NIGHT

The cold snap that we have been praying for is here, but it came too rapidly and not only froze up the growing stuff north of us but actually stopped over in Florida and nipped some of our tender stuff. Samples of lettuce from the fields around here show that some of the headed stuff is slightly damaged and it will stop shipments for a few days until the later stuff heads up. But we have the grain of comfort in the thought that our growers can recover quickly while those farther north will be through with their lettuce crop until next season. This is the advantage of living in the Sanford celery delta where the grower may have some bad luck occasionally but is never put down and out. It may be that the damage will be found to be very slight after a few days and that the lettuce will be able to move again before Thanksgiving. The shipments that went forward yesterday should bring a good price, for it will be in a class by itself.

Some of the fields in this section are reported safe and the majority of the damage was from the wind, much of the real damage being from this source. The thermometer did not go below 38 degrees in the coldest places, the biting wind from the northwest making the uncomfortable feeling that winter was on the way.

Congregational Church

Don't forget the recital tonight, which was postponed from last Friday. A rare treat is in store for all who come.

The scroll sawing boys are getting along nicely, and becoming more and more interested in their work. Some of the boys are at work on some very pretty designs.

The ladies can supply some nice Christmas things at their bazaar to be held Dec. 5th, Saturday afternoon and night.

The missionary society meets next Monday afternoon, 3 o'clock, with Mrs. C. R. Walker. It will be a thank offering meeting, to which the ladies are asked to bring their offerings.

Next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service will be the first of the services of Home Mission week. It will be a Home Mission exercise, entitled "America's Welcome," given by a number of the Sunday school boys and girls. Everybody is cordially invited to come and see the Americans welcome the Immigrants.

In the evening service at 7 o'clock the special theme will be "The Woman who was in Great Demand." Special music is prepared, and all are cordially welcomed.

The Baraca Class of our Sunday school will give a hearty greeting to any strangers in our city, or to any residents who have not yet enrolled themselves in some men's Bible class. Begin next Sunday and get the Sunday school going habit.

NAVAL STORES OPERATORS MEET

CENTRAL AND SOUTH FLORIDA REPRESENTED AT THE GATHERING

The naval store men realize the virtues of cooperation is apparent by their meeting in this city last Tuesday, in which about thirty of the prominent operators of the central and south Florida turpentine men took part and from which greater results will accrue. Although the southern pines are becoming scarcer each year and turps seem to be scant the prices have been manipulated by the men higher up until the operators have been at their wits' end to keep up with the business. At the beginning of the present war in Europe the prices fell off and none of the spirits or the resin could be shipped which caused the very thing to happen that will eventually help the operators, viz. they realized that they should come together and curtail the output in some manner. This called for the meeting here Tuesday and now that they thoroughly understand the situation and will act accordingly the supply will be limited unless the present efforts to ship to neutral ports in Europe prove successful and open up the foreign markets. Should the operators be forced to depend on the local markets for their output they will suspend operations until the clouds on the European horizon clear away sufficiently to insure a market for the output.

The meeting here was a most representative one and was attended by the leading men of this section. The plans favor a better selling organization and strict cooperation in producing and all those who attended the meeting left with the firm conviction that the future of the business was assured if their plans can be carried out.

Among those who attended the meeting were M. O. Overstreet, the dean of the business in this section, W. B. Barber of Mascotte, E. E. Edge of Groveland, E. H. McNeill of Orlando, D. R. McNeill of Jacksonville representing the Consolidated Naval Stores Co., John Powell representing the Flynn Harris Bullard Co. of Jacksonville, J. G. Boyd representing the Herty Turp. Cup Co., of Jacksonville, W. D. Smith of Sorrento, C. W. Entzinger of Longwood, L. P. Hagan of this city, J. W. Jackson of Orlando, J. W. Dutton, J. H. Tatum, D. A. Jackson and Col. Paxton of DeLand, J. E. Parker of Umatilla, J. S. McKenzie of Oviedo and several others whose names were not obtained.

Another meeting will be called at a later date when the plans will be matured and a permanent organization perfected.

The Arrival of Kitty

On account of a conflicting social event the Arrival of Kitty will be presented in the Imperial Theater on the night of Friday, Dec. 4, instead of the 27th, as first announced. The play, a jolly three act farce comedy will please you and the Station organization have gone to a great deal of trouble and expense to insure an attraction that is well worthy of patronage. The play will be presented in fourteen towns in all. The boys cordially invite you to be present on the night of the 4th and witness the Arrival of Kitty.
