Demand For HD Extension Services Rising

The people today want to be successful, efficient and capable managers. In general, they want to be well informed. This means that requests for assistance from the County Home Demonstration agents have increased sharply.

The Extension Service helps people in eight Program Areas. They are: 1. Agriculture Production. 2. Marketing. 3. Conservation. 4. Farm and Home Management. 5. Family Living. 6. Youth Development. 7. Leadership Development. 8. Community Development and Public Affairs.

Here are some of the kinds of information most requested. Selecting food, clothing, household equipment and furniture; understanding the role of family members, including all ages; health education and safety; managing time and energy; giving the family well balanced meals and stretching the family dollar which today is very important and making our home comfortable, livable and attractive.

To reach this vast, growing audience which includes men, women and youth, the Agriculture Extension Service is broadening its program.

It is making this information available not only to organized groups, but to everyone through special interest meetings, workshops for family members in food, and nutrition, family life, management and other personal contacts through home visits, telephone, office calls and letters. The Extension Service also has bulletins and leaflets for distribution, educational tours and co-operation with other agencies and groups.

Today's new frontiers in H.D. emphasizes information designed for special audiences such as young homemakers, low income groups, homemakers who work away from home and retired persons.

Home Demonstration information and ways of providing it fill the needs and interests of these groups. These people help decide their own needs. The agents help in developing these programs which cover all aspects of family living. In 1960 H.D. agents emphasized human relations, citizenship, public affairs, conservation and leadership.

Through a new program on Human Relations the families learned more about the growth and development of personalities from childhood through adult life. Families discovered the importance of healthy inter-personal relationships within the home and community.

In the fields of citizenship and public affairs Home Demonstration workers helped Floridians better understand good citizenship and their responsibilities in the affairs of the community, state and nation.

Leaders are very important in

H. D. work. Future leaders had many opportunities for training in 1960. Families learned to make wise decisions in managing their financial resources, this included the use of credit and other business procedures.

Won't Sit 'Supine And Silent,' GOP Chairman Miller Declares

Holmes Alexander has left on a brief European vacation. During his absence a number of prominent and interesting guests will contribute columns.

By Congressman William E. Miller (R., N. Y.) (Republican National Chairman)

As the Kennedy Administration proceeds into the perils at home and abroad, there will come times in both areas of concern when Republicans will rise and say: "No. We disagree with the Administration's course of action. We believe that the national interest requires alternative action." I am grateful to Holmes Alexander for this chance to develop the subject.

When we disagree, of course, proponents of the Administration will seek to brand us as "obstructionists" and as politicians fishing for partisan gain in the sea of national challenges.

I can think of no reaction more irresponsible—no greater neglect of high duty—than for the Republicans, silently and meekly to rubber-stamp the entire Administration program just to create a false facade of national unity.

My viewpoint has been stated in more elegant language by one of the masters — a master of both politics and of language.

In December of 1945, Prime Minister Winston Churchill—the architect of the British war effort—arose in the House of Commons at a tense hour and offered a motion of censure of the Labor Government which ousted him the previous election. Anticipating charges of "obstructionism" and "politics in a critical hour," Churchill explained his duty this way, and I second his views today:

"The Government reproaches us with making their task more difficult, but what do they expect?"

Churchill went on: "Can we with our convictions, as honorable men, as a great party in the State, afford, for the sake of appearances of unity, to acquiesce in a destructive downward trend in our affairs at home and abroad? Are we not bound in honor to give our warnings in good time about the future, and to record our censure on the present?"

"Would we not be blameworthy before history if we sat supine and silent, while one folly and neglect is piled on top of another, and much that we fought for together is lost or frittered away?"

"The only excuse for silence and inaction would be despair, and despair is not to be tolerated among Britons."

Well, despair is not to be tolerated among Americans, especially the 84 million Americans who supported the Republican Party in 1960.

In 1960, we were denied continued executive power by an eyelash while we were increasing our seats in Congress—in state capitals, state legislatures and county courthouses.

But this narrow defeat, to my mind, does not relieve us of national responsibility. I firmly believe that the national security, national defense, foreign policy and domestic matters continue to be as much the responsibility of the Republicans as of the Democrats.

This is what I mean by our role of participation. We intend to make certain that our philosophy and our plans are injected with massive impact into the formulation of national policies.

We intend to continue fighting on all levels for our programs and approaches, when they differ with those offered by the new administration, and we intend to carry on this fight with all the power and voices at our command.

I believe that our nation has grown to be the most powerful on earth because its policies have been forged in the hot clash of competing ideas. Out of this continuing and healthy clash has come a set of steel-hard principles and ideas that perhaps are better and more enduring than the originals from either side. And once a basic American program is forged with the best from either side, it truly represents a consensus of all the people. This is why our government is the most representative on earth.

Single Purpose Bomb Shelters Tax Exempt

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker today said her office would allow exemptions for fallout shelters if it is used for that purpose alone.

Mrs. Walker said that if a shelter is strictly for fallout purposes, a token value would be placed on the tax roll.

"However," she added, "if the shelter is for a dual purpose, such as game rooms and storage facilities, then the valuation would have to be determined and placed on the tax roll.

Sanford already has agreed to give relief for citizens building a shelter.

Meanwhile, hundreds of residents have swamped the Civil Defense office in the past two weeks about building their own family nuclear bomb shelters.

Russia's resumption of nuclear tests put the final spur to a surge of public anxiety that followed President Kennedy's warning last month about protection and the grim developments in Berlin.

In Los Angeles, for example, there are six trunk telephone lines into the CD office. The switchboard has been so overrun that plans are being made to install 20 lines.

No figures are available on the number of shelters actually being started there. But in the city of Chicago, only two building permits have been issued for construction of shelters.

And in the building permit office in New York City—where more than 7 million people—there is not a single application for a permit for shelter construction!

There are indications, however, that people are about to do more than think about protecting their families.

In Philadelphia, a model shelter was built in Fairmount Park with visiting hours 1 to 4 p. m. five days a week. Since the Russian tests started, crowds have become so great the exhibit is open seven days a week.

Defense Coordinator Joseph R. Costa says thousands of inquiries have been coming from radio stations who pass on listener requests.

"We're suffering from prosperity but we love it," he said. "We've been trying for years to get our message across. Looks like Khrushchev did it for us."

The survey could not measure families who have started shelters without asking for permits or housewives who have stocked food and water, transistor radios, candles and other essentials in their basements.

Stop Threatening DeGaulle Says

MARVEJOLS, France (UPI) — President Charles De Gaulle today called on the Russians to stop threatening the West if they really want East-West cold war talks.

He also warned that France will not tolerate the expansion of Soviet domination throughout the free world.

Speaking to a crowd of several hundred in this little provincial town on the second day of his "meet-the-people" tour of southern France, De Gaulle reiterated that France is willing to join in East-West talks on Germany, Berlin, disarmament and other cold war topics—if Russia stops threatening the free world.

Water Pollution Probe Promised

ATLANTA (UPI) — A South Georgia state senator promised Thursday there would be a thorough investigation into Florida complaints that its waters are being polluted by wastes from Georgia streams.

Sen. Dan Hart of Quitman said a Senate subcommittee has been conducting investigations into the pollution problems of Georgia, not only in the areas mentioned by Florida, but state-wide.

St. Johns Put To Use By Sanford Contractor

Proof that the St. Johns River can be used for low cost transportation was provided here this week when the contracting firm of Burnup and Sims shipped 133 tons of building material on a 230 foot cargo vessel to the Virgin Islands for a construction project.

The largest cargo ship ever to visit Sanford is now en route to St. Croix, Virgin Islands, where the Sanford firm has the contract to construct a building.

The company of which Victor Hutchins is the manager, chartered the motorship Curialto to transport everything needed for the building except the concrete. This can be obtained in the Virgin Islands, Hutchins said.

Materials which the ship loaded here included blocks, lumber, steel, roofing and sheet metal. In addition it carried trucks, autos and food, Hutchins said.

The vessel left Sanford Tuesday at 7 a. m. and will arrive at St. Croix on next Wednesday, according to schedule set by its skipper, Capt. Charles Thompson.

Hutchins said that the loading of these supplies here shows that the St. Johns River can be used by Sanford and Central Florida interests for low cost transportation, even before the Sanford-Canaveral Canal is built.

The St. Johns River has a 12 foot channel to Sanford and the Curialto draws 10 feet with 135 tons of cargo, Hutchins pointed out. He believes that there is no reason why the river should not be used more extensively for bulk transportation.

SANFORD MAYOR Joe Baker signs a proclamation designating the week of Oct. 1 to 7 as Hire the Handicapped Week, as Dr. Phil Westgate, Rotary president and chairman of the Hire the Handicapped committee in Sanford, looks on. Ready To Talk Terms On Any Level-Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today that Russia is ready to negotiate with the United States "at any time, at any place and at any level."

The threat of war has perhaps never been as great in the post-war period as it is now, Khrushchev said. Governments of the Western powers are intensifying military preparations in every way, he said.

Khrushchev made the statement in a letter to Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru. It was the Soviet Premier's answer to a message sent him by the non-aligned nations after the recent Belgrade conference. He sent similar letters to other neutralist leaders.

"The Soviet government is ready to participate in talks which are really directed toward the speediest solution of urgent international questions," Khrushchev said, "particularly a peace conference on concluding a German peace treaty and the normalization of the situation in West Berlin."

"The sooner such serious talks, the better."

"The Soviet Premier said the situation in Europe would be better if countries which have not recognized both German states—the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) and the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany)—would recognize them in

Longwood Adopts Budget

Longwood adopted its 1961-1962 budget Thursday night calling for expenditures of $15,700, an increase of $8,117 over last year, without having to raise the 10 mill tax levy.

However, Mayor Al Lormann's hopes for an allocation to begin building a new city hall were shelved for the present to make way for a new fire truck.

Councilman Carl Lummer, making a strong plea for the new truck and $2,500 in repairs on the old one, read the second survey report from authorized dealer inspectors suggesting that this be done.

He won approval for a $500 start out of this year's funds on the repair work and the board agreed to take up the matter of a new piece of equipment in about six months. Estimated costs for a new truck were quoted at $14,500.

fact and establish relations with them.

He also said that both East and West Germany should be admitted to the United Nations.

"The Soviet Union always favors the regulation of controversial problems by negotiations," Khrushchev wrote Nehru.

"We also consider that negotiations between states, and particularly between the USSR and the United States, as the most powerful and influential states, can and should play an important role in improving the international situation.

"We are ready in the name of securing peace to negotiate at any time, at any place and at any level."

Congress Gets Kennedy Assurance

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy assured congressional leaders today he would contact them immediately if there is any serious turn for the worse in the world situation after Congress adjourns.

The chief executive met with Democratic and Republican leaders of the House and Senate shortly before leaving Washington for about 10 days. While he is gone he will address the United Nations General Assembly and take a short holiday at Newport, R. I.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen agreed at the breakfast meeting with Kennedy that adjournment "tomorrow night was quite possible."

Fears Toll Road To Delay Freeway

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Rep. William C. Cramer (R-Fla.) isn't convinced extension of Florida's toll turnpike will not seriously delay construction of an east coast freeway.

Cramer called on Gov. Farris Bryant Thursday to specifically exclude planned Interstate Highway 95 between Daytona Beach and Miami from an agreement with turnpike bondholders against building any freeways which might jeopardize turnpike revenue.

Bliss Calls Road Plan Criticism "Politics"

County Engineer Carlton Bliss today denounced the county's five-year road program and declared criticism to the program was "just a case of politics."

"The program will prove to be in the interests of the entire county and not one municipality is neglected as was charged," Bliss said.

Bliss stated that the record bears out that the cities—were given the lion's share of the secondary road fund program and declared that out of that fund is $147,000 for Altamonte Springs and the $247,000 Molnar Ave. project that will benefit Longwood.

The road program is bound to help cities provide better circulation into the county, Bliss said. At the same time, the mayors of the county have agreed to hold a joint meeting at noon Tuesday at Freddie's Restaurant on Hwy 17-92 to discuss mutual problems.

It is an almost certainty that the road program will be the main topic of business.

Bear Lake Circle Begins Work On Annual Project

By ATLANTA McGINNIS
Members of the Bear Lake Garden Circle began work on their Christmas Tree Lane project at their opening meeting of the season last week at the home of Mrs. Jay W. Malone on Shirley Dr.
At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Dorothy Saunders and Mrs. Lucy Jones, project chairmen, presented an interesting and informative demonstration on the making of wreaths, swags and wall ornaments from dried materials, in preparation of next Wednesday's workshop. The meeting was held at the Orlando Garden Club Building between the hours of 12:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. and each circle member was asked to gather as much dried composition as possible for use at the workshop.
Christmas Tree Lane is an annual event sponsored by the Orlando Garden Club with which the Bear Lake Circle is affiliated.

Congress Sets Its Sights On Saturday Adjournment

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress set its sights firmly today on a Saturday night adjournment for this first session of the Kennedy administration.
Senate leaders removed the main obstacle to a weekend adjournment by agreeing to postpone until next year final action on a bill designed to give tax relief to DuPont stockholders.
The big hurdle left was the foreign aid money bill. House-Senate negotiators, who failed to agree Thursday, were expected to try again today to reach a compromise between the Senate's $4,196,000,000 and the House's $3,657,000,000.
Other major measures remaining were the public works and final supplemental appropriations bills, and legislation creating an arms control agency. These were not expected to cause any delay in adjournment, however.
Final congressional approval was given Thursday to the bill putting Kennedy's Peace Corps on a permanent basis as both houses drifted through a day marked more by speech-making than legislation.

'Berserk' Negro Goes On Shooting Spree; 5 Dead

GREENWOOD, Miss. (UPI)—A "berserk" Negro burned his house Thursday night and then opened fire with a high powered rifle on neighbors coming to his aid. Five persons were killed, another was presumed dead and three were wounded before he was slain by a posse.
More than 250 men, armed with submachine guns, shotguns, rifles and pistols, riddled Wiley Crump,

Negro Church Continues Revival

Revival meetings at the Evening Light Church of God, 1402 W. 16th St., will continue through the Sunday evening service. Rev. Joseph Hall, pastor of the church, said today.
Rev. G. M. Eubanks of St. Augustine is the revival minister for the 7:30 p.m. daily meetings.

Two white men, Jim Bedingsfield, 39, Old City, La., and Milton Severio, 20, Livingston, La., rushed to the aid of Crump's victims and were also shot. They were hospitalized in good condition.
One of the white men, who were armed with shotguns, played dead and shot the Negro with buckshot when he turned. Crump was wounded in the back and disappeared into the darkness.
Officers listed the dead as: Johnny Trotter, Mary Shuttle, Mandy Griffin, Crump's sister; Effie Franklin, and Isaac Truel. Lige McFarland, a Negro, was also wounded.

The posse, deputized on the scene, surrounded the entire area in the small Mississippi Delta community of Phillip and waited for the Negro, described by highway patrolmen as a "good marksman," to make a move.
Officers said Crump, a retired laborer who lived alone, "went berserk" and set fire to his house and a nearby shed.
He then hid in a corn field behind the dwelling and shot his neighbors, including his sister, with a 32-20 caliber rifle as they ran up to the house to offer fire-

"Howdy Visitor"

"Howdy Visitor" reads the yellow tag of the Tallahassee police department. "Welcome to Tallahassee, Florida's capital city. We want to make your visit a pleasant one. The police department respectfully calls your attention to the fact that you are violating the following regulations . . ."

This is a courtesy tag put on all out of county cars who park overtime or improperly in Tallahassee. After a courtesy ticket, the violator gets a regular ticket and must pay.

It makes good sense. Why not for Sanford too?

Heavy Weather

In the new task force report to President Kennedy on United States aviation goals for the 1970s, air experts have a key sentence:

"Clearly, considering the projected growth in air traffic and the increasing number of persons that are carried in a single aircraft, unless there is a substantial lowering of the accident rate, losses by 1970 will be totally unacceptable."

Task force men struck actual loss projections from their report. But they can be grieved at with reasonable soundness.

In 1960, admittedly not a good safety year in the air, U. S. domestic airlines flew more than 30 billion "passenger miles." The 336 passenger deaths amounted to 1.10 fatalities for every 100 million passenger miles flown.

If the same accident rate were to apply to a projected 57 billion passenger miles in 1970, the fatalities would total 637—more than were recorded in 1955, 1956, 1958 and 1959 combined (and these were years with heavy numerical totals.)

As indicated, the trouble today is that one crash can cost upwards of 100 lives. And our 1970 sights are now set on a supersonic plane which might carry as many as 175 passengers.

Obviously, major safety break-throughs are needed if we are to prevent such catastrophic losses. In the task force's view, this means better planes, more and safer airports, vastly improved air traffic control systems with heavy reliance on advanced electronic technology.

The report does not suggest, for all its effort to accent the positive, that U. S. aviation is remarkably well placed to achieve the important break-throughs needed by 1970 in safety and other matters. Strong negative elements run through the study.

Civilian aircraft development is now so expensive that the estimated $500 million to $1 billion cost of the proposed supersonic plane will have to be borne largely by the government.

This 2,000-mile-an-hour craft, with its huge capacity, presumes a greatly expanded market. Yet the task force notes that the airlines in 1961 are having serious trouble finding enough passengers to fill existing subsonic jets.

They have taken most of the railroads' market and need new worlds to conquer. The report flatly chides the lines for not being more enterprising and imaginative.

It also lays blame at the government's door. The CAB is charged with loose route-making, the result being excessive competition for some carriers. Our overseas lines are said to be handicapped by foreign competition assisted by too-generous U. S. government concessions.

So the task force sketches an industry whose foreground presents sleek jets and glass-and-steel airports. Yet behind the facade are shaky economic props, a tangled competitive situation, technical facilities inadequate to future safety requirements.

Aviation's "promising 1970s" seem a long way off.

Reds Explode Nuclear Blast

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia set off a nuclear explosion in the atmosphere equal to about a million tons of TNT Wednesday. It was the 14th fallout-producing blast since the Russians resumed testing Sept. 1.

The Atomic Energy Commission said Russia exploded the device in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlya, in the Arctic. It was one of the larger Russian tests since Sept. 1. Increases in radioactive fallout were reported in several southern and midwestern states.

SOS has been used as a distress signal since 1911. Before that the signal for help was CDQ.

NOBODY LOVES A FAT MAN

Peter Edson's

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In what appears to be a last-ditch effort to stall admission of Red China to the UN for at least one more year, high government officials have revealed that the United States delegation under Ambassador Adlai Stevenson will accept full debate on the question early in the new General Assembly session.

An effort will then be made to combine this question with a proposal for setting up a UN committee to make a year's study of enlarging the security and economic-social councils to give Asia and Africa greater representation.

The idea is to achieve this reform without general UN charter revision.

No recommendations have been made as to how large these agencies should be. But the obvious purpose is to give preference to countries such as India, on the grounds that since mainland China is Asia's only Communist government, it should not be representative of the whole continent.

This is risky strategy with unpredictable outcome.

The third order of business for the assembly — after the formal opening by President Boland, and a minute of prayer or meditation — is presentation of credentials.

The credentials of the Chinese Nationalist government will probably be challenged by the Communists, as they have been in the past. This is a question which is decided by simple majority vote.

For 10 years, majorities have decided to postpone the issue for another year. This time, the majority may go the other way. If it does, the United States will accept full airing of the question in the hopes that, after debate, the vote will be against seating Red China.

UN parliamentarians say there is some misunderstanding of the issue in this proposal. There is no question of admission of China as a new UN member on the General Assembly agenda. China is a charter member of the UN and a permanent member of the Security Council.

The question is, what government represents China — the Nationalist government on Formosa, or the Communist government on the mainland? It is a question of credentials.

The Security Council does not review the credentials of delegates from member nations. Its function is to recommend new members for admission by the General Assembly.

In the early days of the UN, the Russians got away with declaring any issue they were against a substantive measure and vetoing it.

In 1948 they got away with a double veto.

But in 1949, when the Security Council considered an invitation to Communist China to come to New York for debate on the Korean war, Nationalist China opposed it and claimed that this constituted a veto.

The question was put to the council and Nationalist China lost, 10-1. Since that time, procedural questions have required only a majority vote decision. But important, substantive questions — such as admission of new members — can be vetoed.

This year Russia is expected to propose Outer Mongolia for membership. Nationalist China has announced it will veto. The argument against this is that it might cause Russia to veto admission of Mauritania and Sierra Leone, which France and Britain are expected to propose.

This is a kind of Russian blackmail. But the other African nations — some of which recognize Outer Mongolia — hold Nationalist China responsible for the situation.

Under such conditions the vote of the African nations might go against accepting the Nationalist government's credentials and favor accepting the credentials of the Communist mainland government as representatives of China.

 STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (UPI)—Police dispatcher Mrs. Hattie Lookingbill gets good reception occasionally from police calls originating in Ohio, Connecticut and West Virginia, but often has had luck on local calls.

She said weather often plays tricks on the police department's radio reception, making local transmission difficult and bringing in stray calls from far away.

Merrill for bringing the Women's Community Club into the Home. Through the Club we've been wonderfully blessed. We are thankful for the many friends we've gained through the Club.

We've been blessed to meet Rev. James Barnett, chairman of the Ministerial Alliance and he was interesting in the service that is held each Thursday at 11 a.m. And now we are blessed with a minister each Thursday at 1 p.m. from the Ministerial Alliance. We extend sincere thanks to Rev. Barnett and fellow workers. (Mother) Ruby L. Wilson, Super.

From Rome Henry McLemore

The first thing I did after reading that Nikita Khrushchev had taken up golf was to throw away my golf bag and shoes. (I had already thrown away my clubs when I learned that Fidel Castro had started playing the game.)

I do not want to run the risk, slight though it may be, of ever meeting either of these gentlemen in a tournament. Can you imagine how Khrushchev would react if his opponent happened to sink a 20-foot putt on the 18th green to beat him? Or what Castro's revenge would be on the fellow who holed out from a trap?

Sweet as is victory, it is not worth a one-way ticket to the Steppes or a reclining pose against a jailhouse brick wall.

It is understandable, though, why Khrushchev's suggestion should find its appeal of gold irresistible. It is a game that brings the worst out in a man, and never were there two men who enjoyed showing their worse selves more than the Russian and Cuban leaders.

Their tantrums in a sand trap, or when they lost their ball in the rough, would bring them overpowering delight. So would arguing with the chairman of the handicap committee. And being liars and cheaters at heart, what good times they could have lying about their scores, improving their lies, and confiscating the property of others in the locker room when the attendant was away for a moment.

It would be taking one's life in one's hands to play with them, golf's language being what it is. A man would think twice before—three times, perhaps—before saying, "Oh, yes, ahead, Fidel. You now have a remarkable library of taped addresses for use by the Asbury College students."

It is not only a clever idea, but permits the speaker to address classes year after year on the subject in which he is an authority. Just look at some of the leading items on his cultural "menu":

 Dr. Dorothy Arnold (U. of Iowa)—"How the Home Affects Mental Health"—18 Min.
 Major Mayer (U. S. Army)—"Bathwashing"—90 Min.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE K-405: Dr. Paul McNesly is a versatile psychology professor at Asbury College.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I wish you'd come down and lecture to our students on psychosomatic problems."

"We'll also schedule you for a definite date for your arrival."

Well, I had planned to stop off at Asbury College on a lecture itinerary early this year but my schedule was changed.

So I regretfully informed Dr. McNesly, I'd have to take a rain-check on his gracious invitation.

But he is versatile and what the late Dr. Glenn Frank, President of the University of Wisconsin would call a "star salesman" in the classroom.

He countered by saying I could make a 30-minute tape recording for his classes.

And to get me into action, he even mailed me the tape, asking that I discuss our Scientific Marriage Foundation on this first recording, since his classes were vitally interested in this timely topic.

Later I found that Dr. McNesly has been getting taped recordings from various authorities, so he now has a remarkable library of taped addresses for use by the Asbury College students.

It is not only a clever idea, but permits the speaker to address classes year after year on the subject in which he is an authority. Just look at some of the leading items on his cultural "menu":

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale—"Interviewing or Counseling"—30 Min.
 Dr. Dorothy Arnold (U. of Iowa)—"How the Home Affects Mental Health"—18 Min.
 Major Mayer (U. S. Army)—"Bathwashing"—90 Min.

 Dr. Orville Watson—"The Psychologist and Christian Faith"—30 Min.

It is a pleasure to salute such an enterprising professor as Dr. McNesly and his colleagues for their use of streamlined methods. Dr. McNesly reported that my 30-minute recording about the Scientific Marriage Foundation had evoked considerable interest among his own classes, as well as those of his colleagues at Asbury; namely, Professor Leon Fisher and Harry Hiltch.

Although the SMP has thus far not been aimed at college age students, it is interesting that our applicants are increasing from that group.

Our youngest certified applicant at present is 19. We have such a number of doctors, teachers, business and professional men under 35 who are now asking us to introduce them to girls between 20 and 35, that we are actually short of such young women.

Thus, up to age 35, we have more men than women! It levels off by age 40 and after 50, the ratio begins to run so far towards the female sex that they outnumber our male applicants by at least 3 to 1.

A lovely girl, aged 22 (former campus beauty star) was left widow with an 18-month baby girl. She was married two months ago to a splendid young professional man, widower with two youngsters 3 and 5.

"Dr. Crane," she informed us today, "our marriage has been so perfect I just wonder if we are the exception. Is it just a coincidence or are other married folks as congenial and happy as we are?"

Hijack 'Attempt' 'Phony'

NEW YORK (UPI)— A truck driver's tale of hijacking, involving nearly $100,000 in art objects and merchandise, was described as a "phony" Thursday by FBI officials who announced they had arrested four men in the case and recovered the stolen goods.

One of those arrested was Michael Jiminez, 36, the truck driver, who allegedly gave the FBI an account of what authorities later termed a bogus hijacking. He was charged with theft from an interstate shipment, a federal offense.

The others arrested were Vincent Gress, 39; Angelo Governale, 35; and Joseph P. Repetti, 46. The arrests were made after several hours of investigation and questioning.

The FBI said Repetti and Gress, in whose possession the valuable objects assertedly were found, face charges of theft from an interstate shipment. Governale was accused of acting as liaison man between the thieves and the driver.

Swimmer Completes Round-Trip Channel Crossing

DOVER, England (UPI)—Antonio Bertondo, a 42-year-old Argentine, touched England's shores today at the end of the first successful round-trip swim of the English Channel. The South American was in the water 43 hours and 15 minutes.

Minutes after Bertondo waded ashore, Brojan Das, 30, of Pakistan, broke the record for crossing the channel from France to England. He made it in 10 hours and 35 minutes. This was 15 minutes faster than the mark set by Egyptian Hassan Abdel Rehim in 1950.

The record for a channel crossing is held by Helge Jensen of Canada, who swam from England to France in 10 hours and 23 minutes last August.

Crowds of well-wishers who had waited for more than seven hours gathered to meet Bertondo when he finished his marathon swim.

The "Bull of Parana" swam from England to France in 19 hours and 30 minutes. It took him 34 hours and 25 minutes to make the return trip.

Cadillac presents for 1962
the Masterwork of the Motoring Age

You have had your first look at the new "car of cars". Its name is Cadillac—and its destiny is a place among the most renowned automobiles of our time.

Its new styling is remarkably clean and crisp and graceful—with a look of "rightness" in every line and contour and detail.

Cadillac's new Fleetwood interiors beckon with a jewel-like beauty. There are marvelous new fabrics and leathers . . . and new conveniences on every hand.

Engineering triumphs include independent front and rear braking . . . exclusive new cornering lamps that light your way around turns . . . a revolutionary three-phase rear lighting system . . . and many other important advances.

Yet, some of the noblest advances cannot be seen. They must be felt and sensed—performance that is incredibly quiet and smooth and nimble . . . handling ease so great that the mere weight of your hand puts you in command of the road . . . craftsmanship that is so practiced and so precise that the car has become a marvel of construction and a paragon of dependability.

These new Cadillac wonders are evident in each of twelve new body styles—and are available with the widest selection of interiors in Cadillac history.

Even if you have never before considered a Cadillac—you should take a journey in this one.

It's Cadillac for 1962. You'll be hearing a lot about it.

Seminoles Meet Edgewater In Orlando Tonight

Lyman Greyhounds Open Home Grid Season Against Ocoee

3 Key Players Injured

The Seminoles go into their game tonight at the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando against Edgewater with three key players on the injured list.

Two of the three, guard Russ Pearson and back Butch Riser, worked out Wednesday in light gear. The third one, quarterback Tommy Hinson has a shoulder bruise.

The Seminoles tonight face a team which got beat by Melbourne, but Edgewater Coach Bill Spence said this week after the game had been studied that if Edgewater played Melbourne again his team could win.

Coch Proctor has moved one of his line backs up from the B squad after his fine performance Wednesday night. Buddy Lawson who led his team to a victory over Seabreeze, will add strength to the varsity, said Pigott.

A careful check of the latest alignments by the two teams tells a different story from the weight point of view, however.

Cinci Could Gain Flag On Weekend

This could be the weekend that the Cincinnati Reds wrap up the National League pennant — and send the good burghers of the Ohio Rhineland on their first championship bing since 1940.

Now this 1961 edition of the Reds, almost a unanimous choice in the pre-season polls to finish in the second division, stands on the threshold of another World Series meeting with the New York Yankees, who whipped Cincinnati in four straight games in the 1960 classic.

The Reds open a three-game series against the San Francisco Giants tonight at Crosley Field needing any combination of four Cincinnati victories and Los Angeles Dodger losses to walk off with the pennant.

However, the Giants could postpone the clinching if they treat the Reds as roughly as they did last month when they won three out of four games at Crosley Field.

For tonight's game, Cincinnati manager Fred Hutchinson has named Bob Purkey (16-11) to pitch against the Giants' Billy O'Dell (5-5).

The Dodgers open a week end set at St. Louis with Johnny Podres (12-5) going against the Cards' Ray Sadecki (14-9).

The Yankees, with their 26th pennant tucked away, called on their reserves for Thursday night's only game at Baltimore.

Clemson Beef? Gators' Line Can Match It

GAINESVILLE — Much has been said of the ponderous Clemson line that will make it extremely difficult for Florida's Gators to run up the middle in their upcoming contest here Saturday at 2 p. m. on Florida Field.

A careful check of the latest alignments by the two teams tells a different story from the weight point of view, however.

Coch Frank Howard's announced probable starting lineup shows his first team Clemson line averaging 212 pounds. The probable starting line for Florida announced by Coach Ray Graves averages 210 pounds.

A check of the number two lines for both teams finds Clemson averaging 265 from end to end and Florida 267. Lines on the first two teams then together average exactly the same.

More noticeable in difference will be the starting quarterbacks (and this will hold somewhat true when comparisons are made with every Florida opponent).

This game between Clemson and Florida, to open the 1961 season, marks the 13th meeting between the two institutions of higher learning in football.

Some 40,000 fans, including more than 2,000 bandmen from high schools throughout the state, as well as the Gator Band, are expected to come near filling the 44,000 seat stadium.

Clemson likes to move the ball on the ground and the Tigers have the big strong backs to do it.

Three other winners of major bowl games besides Mississippi — Washington, Missouri and Duke — also are in action Saturday.

Stoner, Troy, O., an Air Force Academy transfer adds lustre to the backfield.

Florida has a fine power-runner of its own in fullback Don Goodman of Miami, a 200 pounder who gained 484 yards last season and was one of the SEC's leading ground gainers.

However, the Trojans, who have switched to the T-formation this year, are a one-point underdog for the clash at Pasadena, Calif., in the first of a number of interesting inter-sectional games this weekend.

Tech, with 27 returning lettermen, 15 of whom saw plenty of action a year ago, is not too highly regarded in its own Southeastern Conference, but may have a little too much experience for Southern California this early in the season.

Mississippi, which finished third in last year's final United Press International ratings and went on to beat Rice in the Sugar Bowl, and Arkansas, the 1960 Southwest Conference champion, get a chance to show their wares before a national television audience in Saturday's top game.

Mississippi, three deep in most spots and a bright new hopeful in Doug Elmore to make the local fans forget All-America quarterback Jake Gibbs, is rated a 6-point favorite over the Razorbacks for the game at Jackson, Miss.

But Arkansas, with a light, fast team as in past years, has a budding star of its own in running halfback Lance Alworth, once a Mississippi recruit.

Lake will be at left tackle with Larry Travis of Miami and Wade Entaminger of Tampa opening at guards.

Bruce Culpepper, a standout linebacker last year, starts at center, but the Tallahassee-bred junior has a good replacement in Tom Kelley, a converted end from Birmingham, Ala.

Elsewhere, Navy launches the new season without All-America Joe Bellino at Penn State with the Nitany Lions, tabbed the best in the East, 14-point favorites; Army hosts Richmond; UCLA visits the Air Force; Alabama is at Georgia; Clemson at Florida; Indiana at Kansas State; West Virginia at Vanderbilt; Colorado State U. at Arizona, and Louisiana State at Rice.

Minnesota, the defending national champion, and Ohio State and Iowa, the Gophers' chief rivals this year for both Big Ten and national honors, do not open the 1961 campaign until Sept. 30.

Table Tennis Class Slated

The Sanford Recreation Department wishes to announce something new — a class on table tennis. Classes will begin Oct. 26, at 7 p. m. at the Civic Center.

The Lyman coach hopes for a dry field which will give his running game a chance to develop.

Midgets Sock Crabs, 20-0

The Sanford Midgets had an easy time of it Thursday night as they rolled over Seabreeze 20-0 at Municipal Stadium.

The Midgets rolled to their first touchdown on a run by Church Scott and led at the half, 7-0.

The locals scored two more TD's in the final half with Bernie Barbour and Ricky Walstrom going over for the scores.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is 25. She is not an outstanding beauty, but she is a... attractive and intelligent. She has turned down a few good proposals of marriage.

Is there any way I can speed up marriage for her? I am 48 and would like to see some grandchildren before I die.

WANTS GRANDCHILDREN

DEAR WANTS: Many grandparents, who have pushed their children into marriage, see more of their grandchildren than they bargained for. (They are raising them). If you are impatient to see things hatch, settle down on a chicken farm. But don't pressure your daughter to fly the coop.

DEAR ABBY: I love to eat and I look fit. I guess you could say that I am just plain FAT! Will jumping rope help me to lose weight?

DEAR FAT: Yes, if you SKIP desserts!

DEAR ABBY: I found a "strange" bath towel in my laundry. I do not send my washing out, so I was completely baffled as to how it came to be in my house.

One night last week my husband and I went out, and we left our child with a sitter. The sitter is a rather quiet high school girl who came well recommended. She asked if I objected if she had her boy friend over while she sat. I agreed, as I trusted her.

My husband developed a bad toothache, so we came home earlier than we intended. It seemed her boy friend was just leaving when we came home. When he saw us he turned scarlet, and left hurriedly. When I went into the bathroom it was all steamy, and I found a bath towel just like the one that was left here before. Need I draw any pictures? Please warn other women not to be as stupidly big-hearted as I. If a sitter wants to entertain her boy friend, let her entertain him in her own home. DISGUSTED

BARBARA STEELE and Vincent Price in a scene from "The Pit and the Pendulum" coming to the Ritz Theatre Sunday.

Poe Drama Set For Ritz

Barbara Steel portrays Elizabeth in American International's filmation of Edgar Allan Poe's classic, "The Pit and the Pendulum," another thriller to her gallery of memorable terror roles.

This is the first motion picture Barbara has made in Hollywood and her second for American International. Her unforgettable performance and arresting personality in American International's chilling "Black Sunday" which was made in Rome and recently released in this country won Barbara her equally chilling role in "The Pit and the Pendulum."

Kerr, Luana Anders, Antony Carbone and Patrick Westwood, opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater, in Color and Panavision, it was produced and directed by Roger Corman from a script by Richard Matheson, based on the Edgar Allan Poe tale of love, intrigue and doom.

The tall, slender, green-eyed brunette got off to a dramatic start in life being born aboard a ship half way into port at Liverpool, enroute from Ireland to England. She continued her dramatic living with her first acting chore at the age of seven when, as "Snow White" in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," she ate the company's only available apple in those hungry war years.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

If a woman could just believe all the sweet talk and pretty compliments that come her way via direct mail advertising, there would not be an inferiority complex in the feminine world.

How they woo us with words, these people who have our names on their mailing lists. And of them all, perhaps, none are more flattering than the letters from magazines.

Week in and week out the magazines send out their little love notes telling us in one way or another how wonderful we are. One week they flatter us with such words as "discriminating" and then the whole idea is to make us feel worldly and sophisticated.

The next letter though may have just a wee touch of sympathy packed in with the song of praise.

That week each of us is the busy, busy housewife and nobody, but nobody, understands our problems like the magazine that wants us for a subscriber. That week the note is short-out of regard for the busy lives we lead.

Let's see what we are this week. This week each of us lucky enough to receive a certain letter is "a woman of two worlds." All this admiring magazine wants to do is to help each and every one of us step from the world of our own making, the world of home and family, to the world without—with Confidence.

And so it goes. We never know from week to week—just what we are... overworked homemakers, or pillars of the community, or women of fashion, or women of two worlds.

All we know when we open our direct advertising mail is that we are going to be something wonderful.

If only these beautiful letters didn't always end with some kind of "limited offer" and the plea to fill in the enclosed order blank today — what morale builders they would be.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

The North-South bidding is worthy of study. After North's bid of two clubs and three spades South visualized slam possibilities. He only had 14 points, but he held three aces and three clubs.

The four heart bid was enough for North. He jumped to six diamonds.

South won the opening heart lead and led a diamond to dummy's king. The next play was the ace of clubs and when East's jack dropped South decided to play absolutely safe. He drew trumps, discarded two hearts on the long clubs and eventually made seven by means of the spade finesse.

At the other table the bidding started out in the same manner, but when North bid three spades, South overlooked the tremendous slam possibilities and merely rebid to three no-trump.

After this three no-trump bid North had no means of telling that the two hands meshed perfectly. North passed. South did manage to gather in all 13 tricks but that was small consolation.

The Forest Lake Seventh-day Adventist Church of Forest City, will be host Monday to representatives from 15 neighboring churches for a semi-annual meeting of the Central Florida Dorcas Welfare Federation, Mrs. Clyde Williams, leader of the local church welfare society, said today.

The program, which will deal with the responsibility for the church and the home in Civil Defense and preparedness for disaster, will be under the direction of Mrs. Charles Burnham of Forest City, leader of the Federation.

At least 200 delegates are expected to attend the meeting, coming from Altamonte Springs, Apopka, Clermont, DeLand, Eustis, Kissimmee, Leesburg, Ocala, Orlando, Central, St. Cloud, Sanford, Orlando Sanitarium, Taft, Winter Garden and Winter Park.

Oviedo First Baptist Church Holds Annual Dinner Party

By MARIAN R. JONES
Teachers and officers of the Oviedo First Baptist Church brought a successful year to conclusion with their annual visit to the Driftwood in Orlando for their dinner party.

Meeting at 7 p. m., those attending served plates in cafeteria style after which they retired to a private room for the dinner party.

Baptists To Hold School Of Music

Announcement of a special School of Music at Sanford's First Baptist Church next week from Monday through Friday invites all persons interested in music and all churches of the Seminole Baptist Association to participate.

Books to be covered in the 7:30 p. m. until 9:30 p. m. daily sessions include "The Progressing Vocalist," to be taught by Jack Coldiron, professor of voice at Stetson University; "The Church Pianist," taught by Lou Bass, associate director of instrumental activities and assistant pastor of Pinecrest Baptist Church;

"Song Leading," taught by Mrs. G. Edmundson, associate director of training and "Practical Music Lessons," taught by Rev. F. B. Flaher, pastor of the church.

A School Choir of everyone attending the course will rehearse each evening under the direction of Professor Coldiron and on Friday night, a special program, open to the public, will be presented by this choir.

W. A. Ward Jr., retiring superintendent for the past five years, spoke briefly to the guests. Ben F. Ward Jr., who succeeds his cousin as superintendent, the second Ben Ward to fill this position, then addressed the group, introducing his slate of officers for the ensuing church calendar year.

Rev. Jack T. Bryant, pastor for the past four years, also spoke to the assembled guests.

Individual favors, tiny books entitled "Bible Blessings For Every Day," were placed at each plate.

Rev. Bryant presented gifts to those who had served as teacher or officer for five years or longer. These gifts went to W. H. Martin, Mrs. George Means, Mrs. Mae E. King, Mrs. T. H. Daniel, Mrs. Joe I. Beasley, Mrs. J. G. Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tedford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Harris, Ben Ward Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, A. Riggins, Rev. and Mrs. Jack T. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Aulin Jr., Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. Frank C. Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Weaver.

Oviedo Baptists Honor Teacher

Young Church Men Name Officers

Fifty members of the Junior and senior Young Church Men of Holy Cross Episcopal Church attended a combined meeting from 5 p. m. until 7 p. m. last Sunday.

At the conclusion of group business, junior members adjourned to the Youth Lounge for nomination and election of officers. Named were Josh Chase, president; Mark Raborn, vice president; Dick Stolte, secretary and Dwight Smith Jr., treasurer. Advisors for the juniors are Ledr and Mrs. Richard Stolte.

Longwood Women Plan Church Work

The Church Women of Christ Church Episcopal in Longwood have announced a schedule of planned events made at a special meeting earlier this month.

With Mrs. Charles Pasternack presiding, the group planned to hold a covered dish supper on the second Wednesday of each month and a Card and Game Party on the fourth Wednesday of each month except during Lent.

An All-day rummage sale was set for next Friday and Saturday on the Parish House Grounds on Church St. In conjunction with this event, the women are requesting that all good, excess articles to be contributed for the sale be brought to the Parish House porch anytime before the opening date.

The Economy Corner will continue to be open each Monday from 9 a. m. until 1 p. m. and on Saturdays from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. Mrs. Pasternack advised.

Seniors, meeting at the same time in the Parish House, discussed future events and planned a water skiing party for Sunday afternoon.

Their officers, elected last spring, are Don McMurray, president; Nancy Sikes, vice president; Susan Halback, secretary and Randy Chase, treasurer. Advisors are Lee Swartz and Mrs. Edie Brown and assistant advisors are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allen.

Both groups remind that all young people of the community, regardless of religious affiliation, are invited and welcomed at meetings of the Holy Cross organizations for grades seven through 12.

Promotion Day Set

Sunday School Departments and the Baptist Training Union of the Oviedo First Baptist Church will observe their annual Promotion Day at Sunday services, Rev. Jack T. Brant, pastor of the church, announced today.

Choir Time Changed

The Children's Choir of the First Christian Church will meet Saturday at 2 p. m. instead of at 10 a. m. as is regularly scheduled, Mrs. Barbara Brown, director, announced today.

THE TEMPEST, a family-sized economy car, is displayed by Pontiac-Buick-Rambler dealer, Bill Hemphill at his show room on W. First St. The 1961 Tempest has an entirely new grille and rear end styling, while retaining its widely acclaimed front engine-rear transmission power arrangement and independent four-wheel suspension. Annual Kids Day Set Here Saturday

The thirteenth annual Kid's Day will be celebrated in Sanford on Saturday.

The school age children in Seminole County are invited to be the guests of the Sanford Kiwanis Club and the Ritz Theater on Saturday morning at 9 a. m. to see Bob Hope in "Allas Jesse James."

National Kid's Day is an annual event which the Kiwanis Club and the Ritz Theater have cooperated in sponsoring for Sanford children for the past several years. The program for this year was arranged by William K. Lovelace, manager of the Ritz Theater.

More than 3,000 Kiwanis Clubs over the United States will join with the Sanford Club in sponsoring this Kid's Day program. The program will vary widely in the different communities but all of the Clubs will unite in making this an outstanding event in the minds of the children of the nation.

ARC Disaster Group Needs Volunteers

The Seminole County American Red Cross Disaster Committee needs volunteers to serve in shelters during time of an emergency, either man-made or natural.

Those who volunteer, and whose services are accepted by the Red Cross, will, of necessity, be away from their homes during storms or other disasters which might occur in our community.

The Red Cross feels very strongly about its obligations to alleviate suffering during these periods of disaster, but it is only through the Red Cross and the cooperation of the citizens of the community that assistance can be rendered to those in need.

To avoid confusion during time of disaster, the American Red Cross has established a disaster committee that is prepared to handle the emergency situation and the rehabilitation necessary after an emergency.

There is a need for shelter workers that may be versed in first aid, dieting, and infant care. There is also a need for clerical workers to help during the rehabilitation period following a disaster.

If you feel that you are qualified in these fields, and you have the time, the Red Cross needs you.

Last year during Hurricane Donna, Seminole County Disaster Committee, in cooperation with the Seminole County Civilian Defense, set up complete warning service, shelters, and housed 750 people during the height of the hurricane. Many emergency calls were handled and families were evacuated to shelters.

Following the emergency, The American National Red Cross contributed $13,000.00 in grants to persons in Seminole County to help in the rehabilitation of those people suffering damage from the storm.

County and fulfill a civic duty to your fellow citizens by calling any of the four numbers listed in the telephone directory under American Red Cross or you may come by the Red Cross Office at 122 1/2 Palmetto Ave. and offer your services.

The American Red Cross assists the local community but the workers must come from the local community.

Ex Klan Chief Asks All State Schools Closed

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Former Ku Klux Klan chieftain Bill Hendrix asked the State Supreme Court today to close down Florida's public schools and let the people vote on whether they want to allow race-mixing.

Hendrix, old Oldsmar, filed the writ of mandamus on his own. The court set no immediate hearing.

He brought the suit against the State Cabinet which sits at the Board of Education. He asked for a court order to the board closing down the schools immediately.

Hendrix, of Oldsmar, filed the Constitution does not require any state to furnish a school system, adding "it is more important to follow the due process of law than it is to have schools."

The Florida Supreme Court, in a previous case, has ruled Florida's segregation provision was rendered unconstitutional by the federal decision.

12 Held In 'Plot' To Kill Castro

HAVANA (UPI) — Cuban police seized 12 men who allegedly planned to ambush Premier Fidel Castro and assassinate him with a machinegun, bazooka and hand grenade assault, the government announced Sunday.

A statement by the minister of the interior charged the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) had employed the men, including Segundo Borges, the former governor of Las Villas Province under dictator Fulgencio Batista.

It gave no hint how the alleged plot was uncovered. Raids in three provinces rounded up the men and brought in a haul of radio transmitters, code messages and an arsenal containing bazookas, machineguns and rifles, the government said.

Under operation "Sport City," the government said, the men were to pile with their weapons into cars hidden in a garage near Sporting City and wait for Castro to ride by.

One of the cars would shoot out and block the way and then a jeep carrying tommyguns and bazookas was to come speeding up from behind and open fire.

To finish the job, the government said, the plotters planned to station a conspirator across the road in a station wagon. An expert in hand grenades, he was to blow Castro's car to smithereens.

No details of the other alleged assassination plans were disclosed. Fingers as the matermind and a coordinator of anti-Castro activities in Las Villas Province was Luis Torroella, 30, a Cuban who is married to an American.

Press Accused Of Slanting Facts, Ridiculing Board

County Commission Vice Chairman James P. Avery today charged the press with slanting the facts about the commission and holding it up to ridicule.

"Why hasn't the press stressed the accomplishments of the present board instead of gunning for us," he added.

When questioned by a Herald reporter, Avery said "I think reporting the accomplishments of the commission during this calendar year is 'lacking in stating the facts and an obvious attempt to ridicule the efforts of dedicated individuals.'"

"My concern," Avery said, "is not the lack of constructive criticism as evidenced by the press but the effect it will have on qualified civic minded individuals who may have contemplated seeking public office."

"The biggest complaint seems to come from the amounts of a past political machine. The fact is the county should know by now that political machines in Seminole County are dead.

"The question is how much money the press is going to spend on the funeral."

"Why hasn't the press mentioned the budget being held to six mills while efficiency has increased to the public."

"The head of the Florida State University government department has complimented the commission for its directive system and the reorganization of the road department has increased efficiency over 300 percent," Avery said.

We'll Defend Berlin, Kennedy Tells World

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—President Kennedy called on the United Nations today to conclude "a truce to terror" but warned that if necessary the Western powers are ready to defend Berlin "by whatever means are forced upon them."

Kennedy, making his first appearance before the UN General Assembly, said there was no need for a Berlin crisis, but that the Western powers were calmly resolved to defend their obligations and access to a free West Berlin.

"We believe a peaceful agreement is possible which protects the freedom of West Berlin and Allied presence and access," he said in his prepared address, "while recognizing the historic and legitimate interests of others in assuring European security."

Urging other nations to join this country in "dismantling the national capacity to wage war," the chief executive also offered specific plans for using military power to keep the peace pending a start on genuine disarmament.

Kennedy recommended that all members of the United Nations earmark special "peace-keeping units" of their armed forces for UN use against brushfire wars.

The President made these points: He firmly rejected the Russian "troika" theory of replacing the late UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold with a triumvirate.

He announced that the United States shortly would present to the General Assembly a detailed program for general and complete disarmament.

As a start on disarmament, he called for an immediate nuclear test ban treaty among all nations. Kennedy urged extension of the UN Charter to the rest of the universe, thus reserving outer space for peaceful use and prohibiting weapons of mass destruction in space or on celestial bodies.

He warned of "smouldering coals of war in Southeast Asia," particularly in Laos and South Vietnam. The President rejected the Russian theory that these are "wars of liberation."

He rejected as utterly impossible the idea of current differences flaring into major conflict, saying no matter how intense the current issues, "mankind must put an end to war or war will put an end to mankind."

While it has been accepted in Western councils for some time that a more or less permanent division of the Germanies was inevitable, this was the first time Kennedy had spelled out acceptance of a separate Soviet peace treaty with East Germany.

Small Powers Work For Dag Successor

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Small power diplomats were working today on a plan to appoint an interim administrator of the United Nations to replace the late Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

The assembly would be asked to name an interim administrator with the title of secretary general. A single nominee led diplomats to believe the person named to the interim post would find himself in a long term job.

The plane returned here. FBI agents charged Brooks with violation of the law making it a federal crime to carry a concealed weapon on an airliner. Brooks, who said he had the gun for protection, told agents he was not aware of the law. He was released under a $250 bond.
