Woman Shot Dead At Work; Husband Held

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

The husband of a Sanford woman fatally shot as she worked at a Sanford manufacturing plant was being held today on a charge of first degree murder.

Basil Fredrick Greene, 28, of 301 E. 5th St., Sanford, was also charged with use of a firearm during the commission of a felony. He was being held at the Seminole County Jail.

Ruby Beverly Greene, 28, of 1200 W. 8th St., was pronounced dead in the emergency room of Central Florida Regional Hospital, Sanford, at 5:25 p.m. Monday, according to Keith Wright, spokesman for the Sanford Police Department.

Mrs. Greene was shot three times in the upper torso at about 4:34 p.m. while she was working at SAH Fabricating and Engineering, 2660 Jewett Lane, Wright said. An autopsy was scheduled for today, according to the county medical examiner's office.

Before his arrest, Greene was facing a charge of spouse abuse stemming from a Jan. 5 arrest by Sanford police.

Witnesses said a man entered the company building and shot Mrs. Greene three times with a .25 caliber semi-automatic handgun, according to Wright. She reportedly worked in an assembly area at the plant. An official of the company said today "there is no appropriate comment to make" regarding the incident.

According to the arrest report, a man approached Mrs. Green from behind and shot her once in the back. She turned and fell to the floor whereupon the man cocked the weapon and shot her in the upper chest. The man turned and carrying the pistol, walked out of the building, the report shows.

Greene, a laborer for the company, was arrested by Officer D. Semones at the northwest corner of the plant, according to the arrest report. Greene was holding a gun in his hand when he was located.

According to police reports, Greene was arrested in the January incident after his wife said he cut her on the face.

Greene was arrested and charged in that case with spouse abuse and possession of marijuana, records show.

The marijuana charge is pending in misdemeanor court. Depositions have not been taken in the spouse abuse case, police said.

Monday's shooting may have occurred because the couple had been arguing, Wright said.

They had a history of quarrelling, he said. SAH Fabricating and Engineering makes parts for passenger car air conditioners.

1 Held, 1 Sought In Bank Heist

The robbery of a Deltona Bank and downing of a sheriff's helicopter Monday ended with one man in custody today and lawmen combing western Volusia County for another suspect.

FBI investigators are aiding in the search.

According to sheriff's dispatcher Gia Jenkins, two men wielding handguns, a rifle and what they claimed was a bomb, took an undisclosed amount of cash from the Empire of America Bank, 940 Deltona Blvd., Deltona, at about 3:40 p.m.

An alert witness, who Ms. Jenkins would not identify, saw the robbery in progress from his car outside the bank. He tailed the bandits as they fled in a stolen beige van to where they ditched

Call Her Mayor

You can call her Mrs. Smith, or you can call her Mayor ... but you'd better not call her "Honey."

That's what a spectator at a meeting of the Sanford City Commission discovered Monday night when he asked to address the commission during a discussion on whether the city should support Amtrak in asking the Reagan administration not to cut the railroad's federal subsidy.

Rick Fordham, who said he is a railroad employe and union member, warned the commission the loss of the subsidy would bring about the demise of Auto Train and the loss of several jobs. In the process, he directed his comments to Sanford Mayor Bettye Smith, only he addressed her as "Honey."

Said Fordham, "I've worked for the railroad for 14 years now ... I'm a union man, and proud of it, Honey ..."

Mayor Smith interrupts, "I beg your pardon ..."

Fordham, apparently not hearing the interruption, continued to warn commissioners that if Amtrak goes out of business, it would take Auto Train with it, and that would impact Sanford's economy. "If they cut Amtrak, Honey, they damn sure ..."

Mayor Smith interrupted again, sternly, "Excuse me ... but I'm not Honey, I'm the mayor."

Fordham heard her that time and apologized.

City Supports Auto Train, Subsidies Cut

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

The Sanford City Commission Monday night voted to support Auto Train and President Reagan's attempts to balance the budget and reduce federal subsidies.

The commission decided Auto Train should get its support as long as it is financially successful — and it is. The problem is its parent company, Amtrak, is not. Amtrak needs a federal subsidy to operate its regular passenger service. And Amtrak officials have said its entire operation will fold if the subsidies are halted.

Last week Mrs. Smith had said she would encourage the city commission to oppose Reagan's proposal to end Amtrak subsidies. She said Monday night her major concern is the loss of jobs that would result in Sanford. She also noted the economic benefits to the city from both Amtrak and its Auto Train.

But little support was found for Mrs. Smith's proposal on the city commission after a Sanford attorney, Edwin Shinholser, expressed his disbelief that Sanford officials might support continued subsidies.

"How can we expect responsible government in Washington if we don't have it in Sanford?" he asked.

He lectured on the free enterprise system, saying people under a capitalist form of government have the absolute right to go into business, using all the initiative they have to be successful, but they do not have the right to go to government and ask that people be taxed to stay in business.

"That is rewarding failure and penalizing success," he said.

A motion instructing City Attorney Bill Colbert to prepare a resolution favoring support of Auto Train as long as it is a successful financial venture was amended to include support of Reagan's attempt to balance the budget and reduce subsidies. The amendment passed on a 3-2 vote with Commissioners Robert Thomas and Milton Smith voting no and Mayor Smith and Commissioners David Farr and John Mercer in favor. The amended motion passed 4-1 with only Commissioner Milton Smith voting against.

However, during discussion Thomas said 300 persons might lose their jobs in Sanford and thousands nationally if the subsidies to Amtrak were stopped.

He said he had listened to Shinholser's remarks, but he urged his colleagues to be compassionate. "Don't you people care about these folks (who will lose their jobs)," he asked.

Commissioner Milton Smith, a retired railroad man, said Auto Train will continue to make money. He added, though, that if Amtrak doesn't get the $700 million in loans from the federal government, Auto Train will go too.

In Academy Manor Area

Police To Increase Patrols

The Sanford Police Department is increasing its patrols of the Academy Manor area as a deterrent to crime, including littering, Keith Wright, the department's new public relations officer, said today.

That was exactly what City Commissioner Robert Thomas was seeking when he delivered to Police Chief Ben Butler Monday a bag of garbage and trash which, Thomas said, had been tossed over the weekend into the yard of one of his constituents in Academy Manor, off Airport Boulevard.

"All we were asking for is a normal police patrol," Thomas said today. "Just like those in other areas of the city. We don't expect the patrols to watch just for litterers. We want them to be a deterrent to crime."

Thomas reported to the city commission Monday night that he picked up the bag of garbage from his constituent, Elmer Brooken, of 100 Academy Ave. He said Brooken told him the bag of garbage and trash was thrown into his yard.

And the commission also received a copy of a sworn statement from Patrolman Willie Harden, saying he had responded to a call Sunday from an Academy Manor resident complaining about a brown plastic bag containing beer cans and bottles left in front of a house there.

Thomas said if the subdivision were receiving proper police patrol, incidents

Disgruntled Ex-Employee Held In Fatal Arson

ORLANDO (UPI) — A disgruntled former employe of a topless bar was held without bail on murder and arson charges today in the deaths of the bar's owner and a dancer.

Police said Sam Ve, 28, was charged with two counts of first-degree murder and one count of arson in the deaths of Linda Codispoti, 40, owner of the China

Doll Lounge, and topless dancer Nguyen Mitchell, 33.

Police said Ve walked into the lounge shortly after 1 a.m. Monday and poured gasoline behind the bar, set a match to it and fled.

Two customers and two other employes escaped the flames, but Codispoti and Mitchell were trapped in an office in the rear of the one-story wood frame building, police said.

They said Ve walked to a service station two blocks away from the lounge and called police to tell them he set the blaze.

Police said Ve had worked at the China Doll Lounge, but either recently quit or was fired.

Grand Prize Was Trip To Jail

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UPI) — It was advertised as a chance to win lavish prizes such as a luxury car, but the door prize turned out to be a trip to jail.

To clear up a stack of outstanding arrest warrants, Grand Rapids police duped suspects wanted on outstanding warrants into thinking they had won prizes just for agreeing to attend the Saturday night debut of a "new and exciting product."

Police cleared up 47 outstanding warrants, ranging from traffic citations to felony offenses, authorities said.

Inflation Up Moderate .2 Percent In January

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Inflation began the year in a moderate fashion, with the consumer price index rising 0.2 percent in January, the Labor Department reported today.

That amounted to a 2.3 percent inflation rate on a compound annual basis, and roughly matched the inflation rate during the final months of 1984. The rate for all of last year was 4 percent.

One part of the report that consumers will particularly notice was a rise in fresh fruit and vegetable prices, due to the severe winter freeze in Florida and other parts of the country.

Fresh vegetable prices, which had declined 5.2 percent in December, rose 1.1 percent in January. Fresh fruit prices were up more steeply — 3.2 percent in January. Those prices may rise further in February as the freeze effects continue to be felt.

The Consumer Price Index stood at 316.1 in January, meaning that goods which cost $100 in 1967 now cost $316.10.

The January rise of 0.2 percent compared to a revised 0.3 percent increase in December. The department had initially reported the December figure at 0.2 percent, but revised it up one point in an annual change of seasonal adjustments.

Overall housing costs rose 0.1 percent in January. Fuel oil prices dropped 2.9 percent and are now 15.4 percent below their peak in April 1981. But prices of electricity rose 0.5 percent in January and natural gas rose 0.2 percent.

and are now 15.2 percent below their peak level of March 1981. New car prices rose 0.3 percent and used car prices rose 1.8 percent.

Medical care rose 0.3 percent in January. Apparel and its upkeep were unchanged. Entertainment rose 0.3 percent.

The nation's 1984 inflation rate of 4 percent was up slightly from 3.9 percent in 1983.

While that is a lot better than double digit rates a few years ago, it was still higher than the 1.5 percent average annual inflation between the Korean and Vietnam War periods.

NATION IN BRIEF

Nation's Farm Crisis 'Like A Prairie Fire'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Farm Belt governors and legislators turned back pages of history to the American Revolution and century-old agrarian protests in their growing demands for more federal help to debt-strapped farmers.

The Senate began to debate aid more generous than President Reagan's farm debt restructuring program Monday, but Republican leader Robert Dole of Kansas called extra debt aid a "bank bail-out."

Senate votes on more farm aid were expected later today. House votes were scheduled Wednesday and Thursday.

"I'm here to suggest to you that this crisis is like a prairie fire, a disaster that affects everyone in its path," said Nebraska State Sen. Tom Vickers, a rancher who first conceived of the Midwest legislative lobbying effort.

Legislation before the House and Senate includes stronger federal guarantees of farm debt than contained in the Reagan program announced during the campaign in September and modified twice under pressure this month.

Experts said Reagan's effort would help no more than one-third of 240,000 farmers in financial trouble.

Pending legislation also would provide a quick infusion of cash with advance partial payment of price support loans usually made in the fall.

Mob Leaders Rounded Up

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police and FBI agents, starting a roundup in their organized crime crackdown, today arrested reputed leaders of the city's five Mafia families, including the bosses of the Luchese, Genovese and Gambino families.

Deputy State Attorney General Ronald Goldstock has said those named in the indictments will be charged with racketeering. He said the indictments are based on more than 1,000 wiretapped conversations documenting mob involvement in murder, loan sharking, mail fraud and labor racketeering.

The indictments reportedly were aimed at breaking up the Mafia "commission," a secret national group that acted as a board of directors of organized crime.

Those arrested in the Monday night sweep, which the New York Post called the "Monday Night Massacre," included Paul Castellano, allegedly the head of the Gambino crime family, the largest and most feared mob organization in the nation.

The crackdown in New York — where the mob has penetrated deep into the city's economy — is part of a national effort against organized crime ordered by President Reagan in October 1982.

A Dynasty Comes To An End

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One of America's most colorful political dynasties — the legendary Longs of Louisiana — has lost its leader with the retirement of Sen. Russell Long, bringing to an end the reign of Kingfish and Uncle Earl.

Long brought the dynasty to a close Monday, announcing that he would not run for re-election in 1986 and retire after seven Senate terms.

There are still Longs in Louisiana politics — maybe there always will be. But they have yet to make their mark in the tradition of Huey (Kingfish) Long, the assassinated patriarch, governor and senator; Earl Long, the carousing governor, or Russell Long, Huey's son and Earl's nephew, known in his younger days as "Princefish."

Feds Won't Prosecute Goetz

NEW YORK (UPI)—Federal officials have ruled out prosecuting subway gunman Bernhard Goetz on charges of violating the civil rights of four black teenagers he shot after they asked him for $5.

U.S. Attorney Rudolph Giuliani said Monday his office's investigation of the shooting concluded there was no violation of civil rights and therefore no basis for federal action.

A Manhattan grand jury earlier charged Goetz with three gun violations but refused to indict him for attempted murder.

Several black leaders asked Giuliani to look into the possibility of prosecuting Goetz under federal civil rights laws. Goetz is white. His victims are black.

"We have come to the conclusion that his motive was self-defense — not necessarily justifiable," Giuliani said, adding the issue could be decided only under state law. Giuliani also said investigators found no racial motivation for the attack.

Goetz, 37, shot the four youths on a subway train Dec. 22 after one of the teenagers asked him for $5.

The announcement came as Goetz broke several months of silence. In a flurry of interviews with several New York newspapers and television stations, Goetz urged more New Yorkers to carry guns.

"Do you protect yourself and break the law? Or do you do nothing and put yourself in jeopardy? The situation in New York is unbearable," Goetz said. "You're damned if you do, you're damned if you don't."

"The city is sick from one end to another," he said, adding that more New Yorkers should be allowed to carry guns.

Goetz' attorney, Joseph Kerner, said his client "suddenly" decided to give out interviews, then just as quickly refused to talk anymore.

"He's been sort of pent up, bottled up for a while," Kerner said. "And he decided to speak out."

Goetz also showed up Sunday at the arraignment of Andy Fredericks, a man the city's tabloids have dubbed the "subway stabber." Fredericks is charged with the stabbing death of a man who hit him with a bottle as Fredericks tried to stop him from stealing candy from a subway vendor.

Darrell Cabey, partially paralyzed and brain-damaged from being shot in the back by Goetz, has shown "slight improvement," St. Vincent's Hospital spokeswoman Laurie Mahler said Monday.

Mahler said doctors believe Cabey still suffers from "significant brain damage" and was unable to talk.

Court Split On Issue Of Homosexuality

WASHINGTON (UPI)—At least two members of the Supreme Court say it's time for the high court to decide if discrimination against homosexuals and bisexuals is unconstitutional.

The justices Monday rejected the appeal of a public school teacher fired because she revealed to fellow employees that she was bisexual.

In a sharply-worded dissent, justices William Brennan and Thurgood Marshall said the court should give guidance to lower courts on "the important constitutional questions regarding the rights of public employees to maintain and express their private sexual preferences."

Brennan and Marshall typically voice the court's most liberal viewpoints on civil liberties issues.

"Homosexuals constitute a significant and insular minority of this country's population," Brennan wrote. "Moreover, homosexuals have historically been the object of pernicious and sustained hostility, and it is fair to say that discrimination against homosexuals" reflects deep-seated prejudice rather than rational thought.

The unsuccessful appeal was brought by Marjorie Rowland, a vocational guidance counselor at Stebbins High School in Yellow Springs, Ohio, who was dismissed after she said she was bisexual.

Rowland argued that her right to free speech included the right to discuss her sexual orientation with colleagues.

A jury agreed with her, deciding the school's actions were done "in violation of her rights to equal protection of the law and free speech." She was awarded $13,500 to make up for "personal humiliation, mental anguish and suffering" and $26,047 for lost wages.

The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the award on the grounds Rowland's speech was not the type of communication protected by the Constitution.

Government Gives In, Cancels Food Price Hikes

WARSAW, Poland (UPI) — The government of Prime Minister Wojciech Jaruzelski, responding to pressure from the banned Solidarity union and Communist Party-controlled unions, postponed plans to raise food and energy prices.

Solidarity founder Lech Walesa praised the government decision Monday to reschedule the 12-13 percent food price increases originally scheduled to take effect next month.

Leaders of the underground Solidarity movement as well as Walesa had called on Poles to stage a 15-minute strike Thursday to protest the increases. It was not known if the strike would be called off.

Pressure on the government was stepped up when the Communist Party-controlled unions — created to fill the void left by Solidarity when it was banned after the 1961 imposition of martial law — also protested the pricing policy.

In a communique Monday, the government recommended its ministers "work out a schedule on spreading over a longer period of time the proposed hikes and reduce the planned price hikes of gas, central heating and hot water."

The statement released by the official news agency PAP did not specify when the new schedule of higher food prices will go into effect or by how much the power increases would be reduced.

Orgy Photos Key In Spy Trial

OSLO, Norway (UPI) — Pictures of a former deputy minister in an orgy were used to blackmail him into passing secrets to the Soviet Union, prosecutors said at the opening of Norway's gravest spy trial.

Arne Treholt, 42, emerged from 13 months of isolation following his arrest last month to plead innocent Monday to charges he had turned over top secret material to the Soviet Union since 1974 and to Iraq since 1980.

If found guilty in what has been described as Norway's most serious breach of security, Treholt faces a maximum 20 years in prison. Some 90 witnesses will be heard during the five-week trial.

Treholt is charged with giving Moscow top-secret Western plans for the defense of Norway — NATO's northern flank facing the Soviet military complex on the nearby Kola Peninsula.

In letters smuggled from jail, Treholt admitted contacts with the KGB but described his activities as "unorthodox diplomacy" in which he sought to improve Oslo's negotiating position with the Kremlin.

4 Nabbed In Agent's Kidnapping

TJUANA, Mexico (UPI) — Four suspects have been arrested in the kidnaping of a U.S. drug agent, including the purported mastermind and the pilot who allegedly helped another prime suspect escape.

Three of those arrested in the Feb. 7 kidnaping in Guadalajara, Mexico, of U.S. Drug Enforcement Agent Enrique Camarena are former Mexican federal agents.

There was still no word on the whereabouts of Camarena, abducted by four armed men believed involved in drug trafficking.

The arrests came one day after DEA chief Francis M. Mullen Jr. charged that Mexican Department of Federal Security agents had foiled an attempt by the Federal Judicial Police to arrest drug trafficker Rafael Caro-Quintero, who Mullen called a prime suspect in the kidnaping.

U.S. Boots Out Polish Diplomat

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Polish diplomat and his wife have until Wednesday to get out of the United States, the American response to the treatment of a U.S. diplomat and his wife who were kicked out of Poland as spies.

The administration Monday ordered Col. Zygmunt Szymanski, the Polish military attache, and his wife to leave in retaliation against the Polish government for the arrest and expulsion of Col. Frederick Myer, the U.S. military attache in Warsaw, and his wife, Barbara.

The incident put a damper on a slight warming up of relations between Washington and Warsaw.

Poland said Monday the Myers were spies, an allegation denied by Washington as "utterly groundless."

U.S. officials said the Myers were arrested Thursday in northeastern Poland. During their detention, Mrs. Myer was forced to disrobe and perform exercises before Polish security officers.

"Colonel and Mrs. Myer were forcibly taken from a U.S. government automobile after which they were separated and held incommunicado for nearly six hours," a Pentagon statement said.

"The manner in which Mrs. Myer was treated was particularly outrageous. Mrs. Myer's clothing was taken from her and only upon Mrs. Myer's protestation did males leave the room where she was detained. She was then forced to perform exercises before Polish security personnel."

The Pentagon said the Polish government Friday was given three days to provide a response to the incident or have their military attache's accreditation yanked. The response was to expel the Myers.

In Warsaw, Polish government spokesman Jerzy Urban said the American couple was caught photographing military objects near the city of Przasnysz. He denied any mistreatment of Mrs. Myer.

State Department spokesman Bernard Kalb said formal protests over the Myers' treatment were lodged in Warsaw and Washington following the arrests.

The State Department said that in addition to the expulsions, the administration will postpone talks on a science and technology agreement to begin this week and delay the return to Warsaw of U.S. charge d'affaires John Davis, who is in Washington for routine consultations.

Human Bones To Be Examined For Clues

Seminole County sheriff's Lt. George Hagood today said he hopes a Gainesville anthropologist who is scheduled to arrive in Sanford Wednesday will be able to give lawmen leads to the identity of human bones found near Winter Springs.

At this point, Hagood said, he is stalled in his investigation because "We don't know what we're looking at. We don't know if it's black, white, male or female. We have a pretty good idea it's male, but we're hoping Dr. Maples will be able to tell us for sure."

Dr. William Maples, curator of physical anthropology at the Florida State Museum, will examine the bones which are in the custody of Seminole County Medical Examiner Dr. G.V. Garay, Hagood said.

The partial skeleton, including a skull with a hole that might have been made by a bullet, was found Feb. 21 by two boys playing at the site of a brush fire behind 380 Ringwood Circle, Winter Springs. A handgun was found beside the remains, deputies reported.

Hagood said because of a lack of clues in the case a description of the remains has not been forwarded to other law enforcement agencies to possibly be matched up with missing persons. A cause of death has not been determined, he said.

turbance calls at 801 Temple Terrace between 9 and 10 p.m. Friday. They met with the suspect and she reportedly told them her husband was inside that house and she wanted him out, a police report said.

The officers told the woman it was apparently a civil case and out of their hands. She asked if she could stay in her car on the roadside in front of the house and the officer said yes, but advised her not to cause trouble, the report said.

On their return trip, police reported Charles Alan Martinez, 36, of Orlando, and Cheryl Osteen, 34, of 801 Temple Terrace, Oviedo, complained the woman had broken a glass door with a mug and had entered the home and ripped a phone from a wall.

Janice Diane Martinez was arrested at the scene at 9:52 p.m. She was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

BEAT HEAD ON WALL

A 21-year-old Sanford man who reportedly banged the head of a Sanford woman against a wall as a Sanford police officer watched has been charged with battery and disorderly intoxication.

The officer reported responding to a call at Uncle Nick's bar, 2605 Park Drive, Sanford, at 12:30 a.m. Thursday and seeing the man reportedly battering Andiea G. Shilling. The pair had been arguing, a police report said.

Richard Wayne Smith of 2304 S. Park Ave., was charged and freed on $500 bond.

BOATS COLLIDE

A Maitland man was charged with reckless operation of a vehicle following a collision with a boat piloted by a Casselberry man.

Cited was John F. Kueller, 20, of 2555 Tuscaloosa Trail.

Eric Marshall, 20, of 2110 Cochise Trail, Casselberry, and his passengers, Kenneth Barna, 51, and Jill Barna, 23, both of North Lakemont Ave., Winter Park, were uninjured. Winter Park police said.

According to a report, Kuehler was towing a skier and looking backward when his boat rammed Marshall's boat. The accident occurred at 1:06 p.m. Saturday.

Kuehler's boat, a 18-foot Bayliner, was travelling 30 to 35 mph when it headed towards Marshall's boat. A passenger in Kuehler's boat grabbed the steering wheel at the last second and avoided a more serious accident, police said.

No one in Kuehler's boat was injured.

PRINTS FOUND IN SCHOOL

Sanford police reported arresting a man for holding an open container of beer and went on to charge him with burglary after an investigation turned up his fingerprint in a Sanford school.

The man was nabbed around 10 p.m. Saturday by a Sanford policeman who spotted him with the beer on 15th Street at Palmetto Avenue. The policeman was investigating a burglary at South Side Elementary on Magnolia Avenue when he picked up the suspect, a police report said.

Fingerprints found inside the school reportedly linked the man to the break-in and the suspect was charged with criminal mischief, burglary and grand theft.

Richard Wesley Gilbert, 24, of 407 W. 25th St., Sanford, has been charged in the case. He was released on $1,000 bond and is scheduled to appear in court March 11.

CRUTCH ATTACK

Oviedo police reported charging a 66-year-old Oviedo woman with battery after she allegedly hit a man in the groin with her crutch.

The woman had reportedly been locked out her house during an argument with the man. Police arrived and when 51-year-old John Byrd of P.O. Box 1203, Oviedo, opened the door and was talking with them the woman hit him, a police report said.

Luella Green of 854 Tyson St., and Byrd were arrested at her home at about 9 p.m. Friday. She was released on $500 bond.

She reportedly told police the man had forced his way into her home. Byrd was charged with burglary and trespassing, the report said. He was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

It behind the Deltona Plaza. Ms. Jenkins said the witness said the men hopped into a green jeep and drove off.

The jeep was spotted traveling north on U.S. Highway 17-92 by off-duty sheriff's deputy Robert Matusack. He chased the jeep and radioed for help from the sheriff's department helicopter.

Matusack and the helicopter chased the jeep east on Orange Camp Road then north on Blue Lake Road to Hill Street. Just north of Beresford Avenue one of the men opened fire on the helicopter with a high-powered rifle, hitting it twice and forcing it to land at the Southridge Golf Course. The pilot, Lt. Mike Mellon, and the co-pilot, Cpl. Mark Patterson, were uninjured.

They made emergency repairs and flew the helicopter back to

Daytona Airport.

Matusack lost contact with the suspects at that point. Ms. Jenkins said.

At 4:10 p.m. DeLand police officer J.D. Brown found the jeep with its engine afire at Grove Road and Georgia Street in west DeLand, Ms. Jenkins said.

After checking the surrounding area, Brown found a man hiding under a boat in the front yard of a house on East Rich Avenue. The man matched the description of one of the bandits and was arrested at the scene without incident.

Just before the man was arrested, Jenkins said two men assaulted another man on Church Street in DeLand, clubbing him in the face with a rifle and stealing his yellow pickup truck. The man had a broken nose.

The truck was found abandoned at about 8:30 p.m. in the Brandywine subdivision in north DeLand. A search of the area failed to turn up any suspects.

What the men claimed to be a bomb was later determined fake. Ms. Jenkins said officers found an undisclosed amount of money in a bag at 10:30 p.m.

The bag of money was found hidden in a canoe by a homeowner on East Rich Avenue, near where the first suspect was arrested.

Being held in the DeLand jail without bond was Mark E. Jones, 29, of Titusville. He is charged with armed robbery and attempted murder. Ms. Jenkins said.

Mercer said the concern in Sanford is not with Amtrak, but rather with Auto Train which is a profit-making organization. A banker, Mercer said, he is an also an amateur economist and agrees with Shinholer's views on the free enterprise system.

Mercer said federal subsidies should be stopped not only to Amtrak, but also to agriculture, to cities and to counties. "We have had all the benefits of money from the federal government, but we (the people) have not gotten back all the money we paid in (to the federal government)."

Farr said there is no reason the city commission should think of doing anything but supporting the principals of free enterprise Shinholer outlined.

such as these wouldn't happen. "We don't see a police car unless we call one," he said.

To Commissioner John Mercer's statement that the city perhaps ought to strengthen its law on littering, City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles said a litterer cannot be prosecuted unless there is a witness who can identify him. "The police cannot arrest someone for littering unless someone sees the litterer," Knowles said.

Wright said today a Neighborhood Watch program was organized in the Academy Manor area sometime ago and he will be talking to the residents there to be sure it is active. Sanford police have organized watch groups to assist the police by observing unusual happenings within the neighborhoods.

Mayor Bettye Smith said she understands Thomas' chagrin at the littering, but "we can't have the police watching for littering, they would get nothing else done."

While Thomas, who said envelopes and other written material bearing names and addresses from the Lake Monroe area were found among the trash, City Attorney Bill Colbert said those items could be picked up and put in a trash bag by anyone and doesn't prove anything.

"If someone found one of my business cards and put it in trash they dumped, that wouldn't mean I am guilty of anything," he said.

Colbert said the city could not pass a law making it a crime for someone's business card or envelope being in someone's trash.

"I don't think we can pass an ordinance making something a crime in Sanford that is not a crime anywhere else," he added.

NATIONAL REPORT:

High schools shut down in Fort Wayne, Ind., today, giving students a holiday from classes to help sandbag a rampaging river. Floods drove hundreds of people from their homes from Oklahoma to western New York, where surging water transformed streets into muddy canals. "We look like the Venice of North America," said Amherst, N.Y., Supervisor John Sharpe, who declared a state of emergency Monday because of floods that sent 500 people to shelters. Flooding caused by heavy rain, rapidly melting snow and ice jams has been blamed for three deaths since the weekend, two in Missouri and one in Illinois. One person was reported missing in Oklahoma. More traditional winter weather struck the northern Plains and Rockies, where 6 inches of snow was expected in the Colorado mountains.

Polish Justice And Illusion

Americans should be cautious in assuming that Poland is evolving into a just society solely on the basis that it prosecuted and convicted four secret police officers involved in the murder of a pro-Solidarity Catholic priest.

Poland's public trial did break precedent on a couple of grounds. First of all, it resulted in stiff sentences for those responsible for the murder of the Rev. Jerzy Popeluszko. Just as shockingly, Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski's regime permitted the trial proceedings to lay bare the brutality and paranoia that largely motivates Poland's security forces.

Least we be too shocked by Gen. Jaruzelski's sudden belief in justice, we should bear in mind that a public trial was a political necessity to assuage the Polish people's outrage over Father Popeluszko's murder.

With the politically expedient Popeluszko trial behind him, Gen. Jaruzelski is further patching up his image by blaming the United States for unrest in his country.

Jaruzelski accused the Reagan administration of supporting extremists trying to overthrow his Marxist government.

The Times of India quoted Gen. Jaruzelski as saying that Washington "actively supported and continues to support the extremist groups that strive to weaken and to overthrow the state structure." The general apparently was in a magnanimous mood, however, for he added that he is willing to rebuild relationships with the United States and other countries if they respect Polish sovereignty.

All President Reagan must do to get along with Jaruzelski, we assume, is to ignore the fact he is a puppet of the Kremlin and parrot his contention that it never would occur to Poland's enlaved people to demand freedom if they weren't incited to do so by Washington.

Jaruzelski's regime has stepped up its propaganda assault on the Catholic Church — which it accuses of engaging in illegal activities — as well as against Mr. Reagan since the Popeluszko trial.

We don't think many in the West will accept the lie that Mr. Reagan and the church are responsible for anything more than protesting the abuses of Jaruzelski's government. We know for sure that Poland's oppressed citizens see clearly through the general's attempt to pass the buck.

Rich Get Bigger

Have you noticed how tall the younger generation is? They are taller than their parents, who are taller than their parents.

In the industrialized nations during the last hundred years, each generation has averaged about one-half inch more in height than the previous generation.

Scientists say that this probably is due primarily to improvements in diet. Better prenatal care and more exercise also are probably contributors to the increased height.

Human beings in the poorer nations, however, have been losing as much as an inch in height each generation.

One might say that the gap between rich and poor nations is growing in more ways than one. But it is not a humorous matter.

These trends are evidence that the diets of industrial nations are getting better and that those for underdeveloped countries are growing poorer. The implications for world health are frightening when one considers the starvation in Africa today.

While Americans have responded generously to the current starvation in Africa, little concern has been shown for solving the long-range problem of food supply. But if we accept the concept of one world with interrelated peoples, we must look to the future for our own good as well as that of the poorer peoples.

Nader, Reagan Blast Corporate Welfare

WASHINGTON — Ralph Nader and President Reagan agree on at least one thing: Congress can sharply reduce the deficit by cutting back on the billions of dollars Uncle Sam spends on "corporate welfare."

No, AFDC isn't Aid for Dependent Children. It's "Aid for Dependent Corporations" — a growing but little-noticed gold in the federal spending machine that is enriching America's wealthiest business interests with billions in loans, subsidies, credits and other assistance.

There is nothing especially new on Nader's AFDC hit list. The consumer crusader has long pushed for cuts in corporate assistance and tax subsidies. What is new is that Reagan's latest budget aggressively attacks many of these same corporate goodies, challenging Congress this year to cut deeply into boardroom welfare, not social welfare.

Such an unholy alliance offers new budget-cutting opportunities on which congressional liberals and conservatives surely can agree. Consider a few of the most outrageous examples from Washington's corporate gravy train:

— EXPORT-IMPORT BANK: Almost half of Ex-Im's $3.1 billion in cut-rate loans in 1982 benefited just 10 big corporations, seven of which were on the Fortune 500 list, including Boeing, McDonnell Douglas and Westinghouse. Ending direct subsidized loans would save $400 million in 1986 and $13 billion over the next four years.

— URBAN DEVELOPMENT ACTION GRANTS: This heavily politicized, $544 million slush fund gives money to a handful of cities — 20 received 44 percent of all UDAG dollars — which, in turn, use it to assist corporate development. UDAGs have built 262 hotels and have subsidized big companies like Hyatt Corporation, Sherwin-Williams and General Motors.

— AIRLINE SUBSIDIES: Since 1978, taxpayers have shelled out nearly a half-billion dollars in subsidies to regional airlines to preserve so-called "essential service" to smaller communities. However, such subsidies are no longer needed.

Nearly half of the markets getting these subsidies are within 100 miles of a major airport, and thus are unfairly competing with cheaper transportation alternatives. The Office of Management and Budget found the per person roundtrip subsidy to fly from Los Angeles to Blythe, Calif., was $1,096. "At 80 cents per mile, the same passenger could have used the subsidy to take a taxi to Las Vegas, lose $500 at blackjack, and take a taxi home, with cash to spare," says OMB.

— AGRICULTURAL SUBSIDIES: Contrary to the poor, family-farmer image given to the recipients of the Commodity Credit Corporation's multibillion-dollar payments, the truth is that big agribusinesses take the lion's share of the subsidies.

Curbing payments to the big farm corporations would save a huge chunk of next year's estimated $12.5 billion in CCC subsidies.

— RURAL ELECTRIFICATION ADMINISTRATION: How would you like to borrow money at 5 percent, with 35 years to pay? These are REA's heavily subsidized terms for direct loans to electric and telephone utilities, which are owned by big, tax-exempt cooperatives or independent corporations.

Federal REA subsidies will total $2.6 billion next year. Who benefits from them? Big business and middle-class residential users who receive substantially reduced electric rates. Savings from an REA phase-out: $5.1 billion over the next five years.

Doctor-Patient Talk

By Lidia Wasowicz
UPI Science Writer

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (UPI) — A sociologist who conducted a five-year study of how doctors and patients relate to each other says she found a "communications chasm" that may hinder the healing process.

"In sociable chitchat, the consequences of not being heard or understood can be serious enough," said Dr. Candace West, professor of sociology at the University of California, Santa Cruz. "In medical encounters, lives may be lost in the wake of misunderstandings between physicians and patients."

West studied videotapes of 21 office visits at a family practice center affiliated with a major medical university in the South. She found male physicians tended to interrupt patients, doctors asked most of the questions and in such a fashion as to limit patients' answers and doctor-patient encounters lacked any "social cement" that could facilitate open communication.

"There exists a continuing communications chasm between doctors and patients," West writes in a 532-page book based on her study, conducted between 1979 and 1984. The book, Routine Complications: Troubles with Talk Between Doctors and Patients, was recently published by Indiana University Press.

"The encounters I've seen suggest a kind of power differential is created through talk that is destructive of what you're trying to do medically and is destructive of human relationships," she said in an interview.

West cautions her study involved only one medical specialty, family practice. The doctors were residents in a three-year training program, which included — with patients' consent — videotaping of office visits.

West analyzed the recordings, keeping track of laughter, audible exhalations, pitch, amplitude, simultaneous speech.

"A first principle of such analysis is that the details of how something is said — in a whisper, in a shout, with a stutter, with a drawl — can be as important as the content of talk itself," West said.

She found that "male doctors interrupt their patients far more often than the reverse, and they appear to use interruptions as devices for exercising control in their interactions with patients."

"There is no evidence to suggest that this pattern of physician-initiated interruption is conducive to patients' good health."

Readers Help Ethiopian Relief Effort

WASHINGTON — Americans are probably the most generous people in the world, especially where children are concerned.

The same spirit of good will that made our soldiers heroes to war-ravaged kids in foreign conflicts has been activated again by the plight of children stricken by another disaster: the famine in Ethiopia.

Any cynic who thinks Americans today are motivated only by selfish interests — the "me" generation — will be astonished by the response to a column of mine on a little-known but respected relief organization, the International Rescue Committee.

My associate Dale Van Atta checked into the IRC's operations and found that it spent only 5 cents of every dollar in contributions for administrative expenses — a remarkably low figure for any charity.

I reported the IRC's heroic efforts to make a dent in the human tragedy that is engulfing hundreds of thousands of Ethiopians fleeing their drought-stricken homeland for food and medical care in neighboring Sudan. I suggested that contributions to the IRC would be an effective way for individuals to help the helpless and feed the starving.

The outpouring from readers was overwhelming: Over $150,000 was donated in a matter of days. The checks, many of them clipped to copies of the column, ranged from $1 to $10,000.

"In the days immediately following the publication of the column," wrote Al Kastner, an official of the relief group, "IRC was flooded with calls from people all over the country asking how they might help — businessmen, workers, professionals, students, homemakers, doctors, nurses, schools, church and community groups. Thousands of letters carried the same messages of caring and compassion — most of them with contributions."

Kastner, who has been with IRC for 18 years, added, "We've never received this kind of dollar response before from an article." Take a bow, readers.

The most gratifying response came from youngsters across the country who thought of ways to raise money for the starving Ethiopians.

Chemical Assault Protested

HONOLULU (NEA) — It's never been done before and it probably won't work — but the U.S. Department of Agriculture nevertheless is considering fumigating an entire state with chemical pesticides potentially harmful to human health.

The state is Hawaii and the populace here is seething with indignation over the plan to use almost 3 million pounds of insecticides to eradicate Mediterranean fruit flies, Oriental fruit flies and melon flies throughout the islands.

"I object to having our water... poisoned for the profit of some agribiz speculator in California or some petrochemical company in Texas," says William S. Merwin, one of hundreds of Hawaii residents who testified in protest during public hearings held here late last year.

"I object to having every living thing around me dosed for six years with poison for the sake of the income of citrus producers somewhere else or for chemical manufacturers," adds Merwin, who won the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in 1971.

USDA officials and fruit growers in California, Texas and other states suspect that Hawaii is a leading source of mainland fruit fly infestations. In 1980-82, California spent more than $100 million to combat one such invasion.

But Hawaiians suggest that the mainland insects, which attack and destroy citrus and other fruit, are far more likely to originate in Mexico. Hawaiians acknowledge that fruit flies abound here, but insist that they (like other animal species) are naturally controlled by predators and other biological balancing mechanisms.

Even with massive applications of pesticides, eradication here would be virtually impossible because many fruit flies live and breed in wild mango and guava groves deep inside dense tropical jungles and forests.

Heavy aerial and land spraying, however, poses a serious threat to the state's fragile ecology.

One compound to be used, methyl eugenol, is a known carcinogen. If the six-year-long eradication program costing almost $100 million is initiated, malathion, naled, coucure and tridemilure will also be used.

USDA officials say those operating the eradication program will be responsible for safety and health monitoring, but one critic, Dr. Janette D. Sherman, says that is "akin to having Dracula guard the blood bank."

WILLIAM RUSHER

Detente II?

NEW YORK (NEA) — The prospect of renewed arms negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union has encouraged some former architects of U.S. foreign policy to start suggesting, cautiously, that this proves "detente" wasn't such a bad idea after all.

The argument runs as follows: The original policy known as detente (or "Detente I," as Business Week recently called it) was devised by Richard Nixon and Henry Kissinger in the early 1970s as a means of lifting U.S.-Soviet relations out of the deep freeze of the Cold War by reaching mutually acceptable agreements on arms limitation and rewarding good Soviet behavior with economic benefits ("linkage"). Whatever the merits of Detente I, the policy admittedly came to grief in the Carter administration with the Senate's refusal to ratify SALT II, the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan and the communist takeover of Nicaragua. The Reagan administration at first reverted to a pure Cold War psychology; but now at least it sees the error of its ways and is moving toward negotiating with the Kremlin again. Detente, therefore, is back ("Detente II"), and the authors and supporters of Detente I are now seen to have been wise men all along.

This was the implication of Kissinger's celebrated article in The Washington Post in December last year. Taking a stage bow for his own preternatural foresight, Kissinger declared that:

"The beginning of wisdom is to admit — however painful this may be in the light of previous pronouncements — that the administration is now involved in an essentially irrevocable process indistinguishable in substance from what used to be called detente."

Time editor Henry A. Grunwald, writing in the winter issue of Foreign Affairs, went even further, describing detente as not only desirable but inevitable: "Defined as no more or less than controlled conflict, it remains the inescapable intellectual framework of American policy." One might protest that, defined as no more or less than controlled conflict, the concept scarcely needs an ambiguous French word to characterize it or an entire artin Foreign Affairs to defend it; but Grunwald's true purpose, like Kissinger's, is to rehabilitate the specific policy of the early 1970s called detente, and its supporters.

The underlying technique is the old one sometimes called "innocence association": Since President Reagan has been driven, however reluctantly, back to the negotiating table, those who sat there (or, like Time, applauded those who did) back in the early 1970s must have been right all along.

But even to the argument thus baldly reveals its essential hollow-ness. It leaves out of the account almost every factor that can influence a negotiating process. It disregards the fundamental assumptions and intentions of the negotiators and the relative and projected future strengths of the negotiating parties — all of which are sharply different today than they were 15, or even five, years ago.

In returning to the bargaining table with the Russians, after rearming and reuniting the West, Ronald Reagan is hardly signaling his admiration for that performance, let alone his intention to duplicate it, if the Russians think otherwise. They are in for a rude surprise.

Not A Dynasty But 'Moore' Than Enough

Evans Attempts To Curtail Lake Mary's Playoff Success

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

One definition for the word dynasty is a family or group that maintains power for several generations. The Lake Mary High girls basketball program has not been around long enough to be classified a dynasty but the Lady Rams have been a power in their four years of existence.

Among the accomplishments coach Bill Moore's teams have won are 2A, 3A and 4A district titles and a 2A region title. In four years, Lake Mary's overall record is 85-28 and it has won 20 or more games every year. Its record in post season play is 11-3. This year the Lady Rams have compiled a 23-7 record and won the 4A-9 District Championship this past weekend.

Lake Mary, which has won 17 of its last 18 games, will go for the 4A-5 Region crown tonight at 8 when it hosts Orlando Evans' Lady Trojans.

When the program first started, in the 1981-82 school year, a championship season was not the first thing on Moore's mind.

"It was my first year coaching girls and we had all freshmen and sophomores," Moore said. "That year we played a half junior varsity, half varsity schedule. And I really didn't know what to expect."

"I knew I had Lisa Gregory and that she had started some games as a freshman at Lake Brantley," added Moore. "But Laura and Peggy (the 6-2 Glass twins) didn't come out until after Christmas. And it wasn't until the end of the season that they really came around."

When Moore first got to the school, the girls schedule had already been set up for that season with mostly 1A and 2A competition. But Moore said there were some open dates on the schedule and, on the advice of Mike Averill, father of Lake Mary guard Kim Averill, he added some 3A and 4A teams.

Lake Mary was 17-5 during the regular season and, because of its record against bigger schools, it was the top seed in the district tournament. The Lady Rams advanced to the finals against Umatilla by beating Mount Dora. Lake Mary had lost to Umatilla during the regular season but came back to beat them by two in the district final.

Lake Mary then went on to win the regional over Clermont as Peggy Glass hit a jumper from the free throw line at the buzzer in overtime to provide the victory. Lake Mary then bowed out of the playoffs in the sectional when powerful Clearwater Central Catholic claimed a 66-45 victory. CCC went on to win the state tournament that year.

Lake Mary stepped up to 3A competition for the 1982-83 season and the Rams scheduled mostly 4A opponents. "It was a funny year," Moore said. "We beat everybody we played except Lake Howell and Apopka. Apopka only won 5 or 6 games the entire year and beat us twice."

"The big challenge that year, though, was to win district," added Moore. "Jones had a super club, they tore everybody in the Metro Conference up and were already making their reservations for the state tournament."

Lyman Zaps Seabreeze For 8th Win

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

LONGWOOD — Check Seabreeze out and check Lyman in of the Five Star Conference baseball race. The Greyhounds raced to an 11-0 victory over Seabreeze at Lyman High School Monday night for their eighth straight win against no defeats.

Coach Bob McCullough's club did it the easy way, too, relying on right-hander Derek Livernois' two-hit shutout and a pair of hits each from Paul Alegre, Mike Henley and Livernois to win by the slaughter rule in the conference opener for both teams.

Livernois struck out eight and walked two. He allowed a bounding single in the second and a sharp base hit by Ron Connell in the fourth. Livernois struck out four of the last six hitters in a warmup for Friday's big one with Lake Mary at Lyman. Byron Overstreet will pitch against Spruce Creek Wednesday.

A six-run first inning put the game away early against the 0-4 Sand Crabs. With one out, John Bane dropped a perfect bunt single and stole second. Livernois then rocked a "generous" triple to center on which the outfielder twisted up on as the ball went over his shoulder. A wild throw on the relay allowed Livernois to score.

Alegre followed with a single before stealing second and third. He scored on a wild pitch as Jimmy Odom walked. Odom stole second and scored on Henley's RBI single. Clint Baker reached on an error, putting runners at the second and third for Chris Brock. The freshman DH promptly lined a single up the middle to chase home both runs for a 6-0 lead.

In the second, Alegre reached on an error, stole second and scored on Henley's base hit to left center. In the third, Brock reached on an error, stole second, went to third on the overthrow and scored on Kyle Brubaker's sacrifice fly.

In the fourth, Livernois doubled, Alegre tripled him home and eventually scored on a passed ball. Odom walked, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Baker's fly ball.

Lake Brantley 8, DeLand 6
DELAND — Tim Smith struck out seven as the Lake Brantley Patriots opened the Five Star Conference season with an 8-6 victory over DeLand at Conrad Park Monday night.

Dan Beatty, Mike Davis and Brad Dunn swung the big bats for the Pats. Beatty doubled in two runs in the first inning after Brad Dunn's triple, a walk to Mike Beams and Davis' double.

In the third, Andy Dunn singled, stole second and scored on a Beams' single. A Davis walk and a balk produced another run before Beatty singled home Davis.

The Pats picked up the deciding runs in the fifth on a Davis single and a sacrifice fly ball by Kevin Bass.

Beatty's real swinging the bat," said Lake Brantley coach Gary Smith. "Smith pitched an excellent game. He has three times. His ought to be 3-0 instead of 1-2."

Lake Brantley, 6-3 and 1-0, hosts Lake Howell at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Laszaic Survives Hersey's Jolt To Shut Down Seminoles, 10-4

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

James Hersey hit a first-inning fastball that Anthony Laszaic won't soon forget Monday afternoon as the Five Star Conference baseball season opened. But Laszaic would just as soon remember the final six innings.

After surrendering Hersey's three-run homer and another run on an opposite-field double by Tony Cox, Laszaic, a sophomore right-hander, shut down the Seminoles on four hits the rest of the way as Lake Mary posted a 10-4 victory at Lake Mary High School.

"Give their pitcher (Laszaic) credit," said Seminole coach Mike Ferrell. "He's only a sophomore and to hang in there after that rocky start was a good job on his part."

Rocky, indeed. Alonzo Gainey ran his hitting streak to seven games with a single to lead off the first. After Roy Jensen popped out, Brian Sheffield bounced into a fielder's choice, forcing Gainey at second. Tom Wilks followed with a walk to bring up Hersey.

Laszaic jumped ahead on the count with two strikes but then tried to throw a fastball past the

Baseball

Seminole center fielder, Hersey socked a wicked liner no more than 20 feet off the ground which sailed over the left center field barrier for a three-run homer.

"I got him with two strikes on curveballs, but I got the fastball up in his range," said Laszaic. "He knocked the hell out of it."

Somewhat rattled, Laszaic walked Larry Thomas who stole second. Cox, who had three hits for the day, stroked a double to right field to chase home Thomas for a 4-0 lead.

Lake Mary coach Allen Tuttle said his confidence in Laszaic didn't waver. "When he got through the first inning, I thought he'd be okay," said Tuttle. "Anthony just has to learn to pitch a little smarter with two strikes."

Armed with the 4-0 lead, Ferrell said he thought Seminole, 4-3, was in good shape with his ace Sheffield on the mound. "You couldn't ask for a better start," said the first-year skipper. "But Brian couldn't throw strikes today. It's the first bad outing he's had (after two wins).

"And when he couldn't throw strikes, he had to come right in there with his fastball. They're a fastball hitting team and they're going to knock the crud out of it."

Which they proceeded to do for 13 hits over the next six innings. Laszaic, Shane Letterio and Ryan Lisle all had three hits apiece while third sacker Kevin Hill had two and a pair of RBIs. Mike Schmit crushed a long two-run homer halfway up the tree in left center.

Lake Mary, 4-1, picked one run in the first on Laszaic's double and consecutive walks to Scott Underwood, Schmit and catcher Rod "C.J." Metz. Metz picked up the RBI.

"The Rams inched closer in the third with a two-out run. Lisle singled and stole second before Hill drilled a single to left field to plate Lisle.

"We swung at a lot better pitches today," said Tuttle. The cruncher for Seminole came in the fourth when Lake Mary took a 7-4 lead by knock-

Merthie, Mona, Patterson Make 5-Star 1st Team

Seminole's Mona Benton and Lake Mary's Aileen Patterson and Darryl Merthie were named to the Five Star's All-Conference basketball team selected by the coaches Monday night.

For the girls, Benton, a 20-points-per-game scorer and Patterson, a ferocious rebounder and stellar defender, joined Lake Brantley's Michelle Brown and Kiraten Dellinger along with Seabreeze's Michele Efferson as the first-team choices. All five are seniors.

On the second team were Seminole's Cathy "Kitty" Anderson, Lake Mary's Kim Averill, Lyman's Kim Forsyth, Apopka's Jackie Parramore and DeLand's Robyn Swartz. All are seniors except juniors Forsyth and Parramore.

Honorable mentions choices were Lake Mary senior Courtney Hill, Lake Brantley junior Sherry "Ice" Asplen, Apopka's Michelle McKinney, Seabreeze's Donella Wealey and Mainland's Brenda Robertson.

Seminole's Ron Merthie was automatic coach of the year for winning the conference.

For the boys, Merthie, a 6-1 swingman who averages 19.9 points, joined a blockbuster starting five of Seabreeze's Terry Johnson, DeLand's Randy Anderson, Spruce Creek's Jon Fedor and Mainland's George McCloud. All are seniors except junior Fedor.

The second team was comprised of DeLand's Kevin Weickel, Lake Howell's Efram Brooks, Seabreeze's John Parks and Terry White and Apopka's Mike Lowman. All are seniors except junior Lowman.

Honorable mention choices included Seminoles Kenny Gordon, James Rouse and Rod Henderson along with Lake Mary's Donald Grayson. Also, Lake Brantley's Wade Wittig and Greg Courtney along with Lyman's T.J. Scaletta, Spruce Creek's Levon Darthard and Mark Nichols, DeLand's Terry Williams, Seabreeze's Pat Johnson, Apopka's Kent Elmore and Mainland's Mike Polite were also honorable mention.

Brantley Hosts Lyman

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Lake Brantley will host Lyman tonight at 8 as the District 4A-9 Basketball Tournament opens when the No. 6 and No. 9 seeds decide who meets No. 1 seed DeLand.

The Patriots drilled Lyman by 30 points Feb. 18 but Greyhound coach Tom Lawrence said he doesn't expect that to happen again.

The winner of tonight's game will play DeLand Wednesday at 7 p.m. as the tournament opens its first round at Spruce Creek High School. Seminoles, seeded No. 5, and Spruce Creek, seeded No. 4, play at 8:30 p.m.

On Thursday, Lake Mary, seeded No. 6, plays No. 3 Apopka at 8:30 p.m. Mainland, seeded No. 2, meets No. 7 Lake Howell in the 7 p.m. game. The semifinals are Friday and the finals Saturday.

ing out Sheffield with a five-run inning. Letterio singled, moved to second on a wild pitch and scored on Lazaic's base hit. Sanford's Dwayne Mitchell pinch ran for Lazaic and took off with the pitch and Underwood creamed a double to left center, scoring Mitchell. Schmit went down swinging but Lisle followed with a base hit for another run.

Ferrell then summoned Hersey to pitch. With Hill at the plate, catcher Wilks tried to pick Metz off third but threw it away, allowing Metz to score and Lisle to race to third. Hill then blooped a single into short right field to push the lead to 7-4.

In the fifth, Letterio and Lazaic each rapped their third hit and Schmit delivered his second homer of the year to deep left center.

Lazaic picked up the win to run his record to 2-0. Sheffield suffered his first loss to fall to 2-1. Eric "The Whip" Hagen will be on the mound for the Rams Wednesday when they host Mainland. Hersey will be on the hill for Seminole Wednesday at DeLand.

Apopka 3, Lake Howell 0

In another Five Star Conference opener Monday, Apopka used a two-hitter by lefty Keith Usery to handcuff Lake Howell, 3-0, at Apopka High School. The setback was the fourth against four losses for the Hawks. Apopka improved to 5-1-1.

The Blue Darters, defending district champions, bunched only four hits off hard-luck loser Damon Marlette, who struck out two and walked five. Both of Lake Howell's hits were by Vic Roberts. Usery didn't allow a runner past second base and struck out seven.

Apopka picked up a run in the third inning when John Jackson's fielder's choice loaded the bases and Tim Oxley plated the run with another fielder's choice.

In the fifth inning, Sid Lowman reached on an error on the first baseman and stole second. He scored on Oxley's RBI single. Oxley then stole second, moved to third on a fielder's choice by Cecil Millikan and when Mike Brown reached on an error on third baseman, Lake Howell committed five errors while the Darters had just one.

Lake Howell first conference game 0-1, overall 4-4.

Apopka coach Sonny Wise was thrown out of game in third inning for arguing with umpire over an interference call. Apopka was at bat when the umpire ruled that the runner going to second interfered with shortstop John Canfield's throw after he tagged second. He ruled both runners out which set off Wise.

Lake Howell returns to action Wednesday at Lake Brantley at 7 p.m. Coach Birto Benjamin will probably go with either Jimmy Daniel or Jorge DelMonte. Lake Brantley coach Gary Smith said he was leaning toward Pat Lusk or Brad Dunn.

"I'd like to throw a lefty against Apopka Saturday," said Smitty. "But I don't know yet what I'm going to do against Lake Howell."

Lewis Hurls 3 TDs For Memphis; Injures Take Big Toll In USFL

United Press International

The nearby Alamo provided an appropriate commentary for the final game of the U.S. Football League's opening weekend.

With only 10,983 fans watching, the Memphis Showboats posted a 23-0 victory over the San Antonio Gunslingers Monday night, capping an undistinguished lidlifter for the league.

Walter Lewis tossed three touchdown passes and Leonard Williams picked up 136 yards on 19 carries to lead the Showboats. Nevertheless, the distinct lack of fan interest should concern officials. Entering its final spring season and hoping to establish itself as a fall attraction, the league looked more like it is making its last stand.

Brian Sipe, traded from the Generals to Jacksonville to make room for Plutie, suffered a shoulder separation in the first quarter against Baltimore; Chuck Fusina, who quarterbacked the Stars to the USFL Championship last year, went down with a thumb injury in the same game; and running back Marcus DuPree of Portland damaged ligaments in his left knee against Arizona and was to undergo exploratory surgery this morning.

Sipe will be lost six to 14 weeks. Fusina's playing status will be determined next week.

Minnesota Tops Penguins, 5-4

United Press International

Often this season, Pittsburgh Penguin coach Bob Berry has excused poor performances by his team due to its youth. In Monday night's 5-4 loss to Minnesota, when ragged play had little to do with inexperience, the excuses stopped.

"We gave them goals by not advancing the puck," said Berry. "We gave them goals with our defense carrying the puck either in the neutral zone or five feet inside the blue line.

"If we can't benefit from experience — and a lack of it has been costing us all year — then what's the conclusion? Can you guess? Stupidity!"

In other games, the Chicago Black Hawks tripped the Toronto Maple Leafs, 4-3, and the Winnipeg Jets blunted the New York Rangers, 12-5.

Pan American Whips Stetson

DELAND (UPI) — Tom Fiepeke scored a season-high 22 points Monday night to lead Pan American to a 74-64 triumph over Stetson.

The Broncos, 12-13, avenged an earlier loss to the Hatters. Gary Coachman led the Hatters, 12-14, with 15 points.

Pan American rallied to a 33-30 halftime lead. Stetson went up 48-47 midway through the second half before the Broncos took control.

Sanford Baseball Sets Tryouts

Sanford Recreation Little Major League tryouts for 10, 11 and 12 year olds will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at Fort Mellon Park. Superintendent of Recreation Jeff Monson said Friday.

New players should be a birth certificate and a 85 registration fee. Players should also bring gloves. Monson also said Junior League tryouts will be held March 12-13 at Chase Park.

Spring Takes Trinity Cage Job

Gerry Spring has been appointed head basketball coach at Trinity Preparatory School, athletic director Mike Spatola said Tuesday. Spring will replace Spatola, who will concentrate more on developing the football program, he said.

Spring has been the assistant basketball coach for the past two years, and will continue to be assistant football coach next year. He teaches history at Trinity Prep.

After struggling to defeat Euatis in the semifinals of the 3A-8 District tourney, Lake Mary found itself down by 10 at halftime against the powerful Lady Tigers of Orlando Jones.

"That was the first time I really got on the Glass girls," Moore said about his halftime talk. "And Laura came out the second half and played the best half of basketball I've ever seen in a girls' game."

The Lady Rams rallied behind the inside play of the Glass Towers and the outside shooting of Averill, who was then a sophomore. Gregory's ballhandling kept Jones' speedy guards off balance all game long. Lake Mary eventually wore down the Tigers and came away with a 56-45 victory.

"That game against Jones was one of our greatest games," Moore said.

Lake Mary then advanced to the regional against Brooksville and the Rams were playing the role of favorites this time. But the Lady Rams were upended by the Lady Leopards, 48-45 as a Brooksville player made a three-point play with five seconds left.

"That was the most disappointing loss I've had," said Moore. "We were a much better ballclub than Brooksville. But we had one of those night's where we couldn't do anything right."

"We went up by two with 15 seconds left," added Moore.

"Then I said, just don't foul. But with four seconds left they got ball inside, we fouled the girl and she made the free throw. We turned the ball over but Gregory then stole the out of bounds pass and she just got clobbered by two players. But they called traveling instead and the officials then ran out the back door when it was over. That was the only year where a team that beat us didn't win the state tournament."

In the 1983-84 season, Lake Mary stepped up to 4A ball and into the Five Star Conference which, at the time, was one of the strongest conferences in the state for basketball. Lake Mary wound up finishing fourth in the Five Star behind Seminole, Lake Howell and DeLand.

"The quality of basketball in Florida was very good last year," said Moore. "The Five Star had to be by far the best conference. We had a great team and came in fourth in the conference. DeLand won state and came in third in the conference."

Another of Lake Mary's biggest victories came in the semifinals of the district tournament when the Lady Rams upset top-seeded and tournament favorite Seminole.

"We got blown out of the gym in our opening game by Seminole by over 30 points," said Moore. "The second time, they beat us by 20. By the tournament the girls were determined they were not going to lose to Seminole."

Lake Mary then ran into DeLand and All America center Bridgette Gordon in the finals. Gordon pumped in 32 points including two free throws in the waning seconds that gave DeLand a 49-46 victory.

The Lady Rams were all but left out of the picture when the 1984-85 season began. The Glass Towers, Gregory and Michelle Swartz were graduated and Lake Mary got off to a slow start at 6-6.

But, after being blown out by Seabreeze, Lake Mary got its act together and went on to win 17 of its last 18 leading into tonight's contest.

"The greatness about it is, after Peggy and Laura and Lisa and Michelle left, everyone was saying that Lake Mary will get theirs now," Moore said. "But the kids this year are the best pressure players I've ever had. The real turning point was when we beat Lake Brantley then came right back and beat DeLand the same week after being down 15 at halftime."

Lake Mary doesn't have the size of a year ago, or the great quickness of Seminole, but the Lady Rams are an experienced ballclub. Most of its players have competed in AAU and Sunshine State Games tournaments.

"We've had tremendous success when you consider the fact that we don't have size and speed," said Moore. "The players have been underrated to some degree. I have a lot of good ballplayers out there who have sacrificed the time that has made them good players (AAU, Sunshine State Games)."

"The emergence of Aileen (Patterson) as one of the most improved players if not in state then in Central Florida was instrumental," added Moore.

"And Averill has been a great clutch player. She hit the free throws that beat Brantley and the shot at the buzzer that beat DeLand."

For Lake Mary to continue its winning ways in tournament play tonight, the Lady Rams must try to cut down on the scoring of Evans' 5-10 senior Cynthia Williams.

"Cynthia Williams is the closest thing there is to Bridgette Gordon," Moore said. "And, in her own way, is just about as good. Evans has more help for Williams though than DeLand had with Bridgette and that makes them very dangerous."

"I don't think you can count us out, though," added Moore. "My kids just seem to perform when they have to."

Rogers Holds Off Rogers For Late Model Win

NEW SMYRNA BEACH — David Rogers held off former Florida late model king Dick Anderson to win the 50-lap End of the Month late model championship on Saturday night at New Smyrna Speedway.

Rogers, driving the Wayne Denach Budweiser Firebird, went by pole sitter/Fastest qualifier Anderson, who led the early laps, and moved up on the point by lap four.

"I finished second on old tires from last year, and got $200 less than the winner," Anderson said. "A new set of tires would have cost me $400, so I'm still ahead."

Anderson was testing his car getting ready for the $30,000 Spring Opener at San Antonio (Texas) Raceway on March 29-30. Rounding out the top five were Frank Wood, Joe Middleton and Bruce Lawrence.

After surviving the World Series, while finishing third in points in the nine nights continuity, Richard Proulx, driving the brand-new MOTO CARE car, bested a full field to win the extra cash/extra distance event for the thunder car division. Second to fifth were Ted Richard, Mark Silla, Mike Fitch and Jeff Biehr. Heat winners were Silla and Granny Talros.

Joey Warmack, who took the Good Sportsmanship Award at the annual Speedway Banquet, scored a popular win in the street stock division, besting hard-

Form Thank-You Note Gets Responses Both Pro And Con

DEAR ABBY: A reader signed "Appalled" sent you the form thank you note, and you ran it, saying that you, too, were appalled.

Abby, have you lost your sense of humor? That photocopied thank you letter had me in stitches. And in case you didn't realize it, it was supposed to be a gag!

Why should anybody be offended? The givers received a "thank you" for their wedding gift, although it was not in the traditional stuffy style to which they were accustomed.

You will probably find this letter equally appalling and toss it in the trash, but at least I've read my say.

DEAR IN: If you were "in stitches" over that form thank you, you will split your seams over this one:

DEAR ABBY: That message

Dear Abby

produced thank you note for a wedding gift was one of the most deliciously funny things I've ever read. What a wonderful takeoff on tackiness. I'm still laughing as I write this! If I had received such a hilarious note, I would cherish it forever.

The next time I have occasion to write thank you notes, I am going to use that delightful idea. It's fast, unusual and lets people know their gift was received. But best of all, it spreads the wondrous gift of laughter among all who have the good sense not to be appalled.

Knowing how important laughter is for us, you did a great public service by printing it. Thanks.

PAULETTE IN EUONE, ORE.
DEAR PAULETTE: You're welcome. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: You should have told the reader who received a photocopied thank you note for her wedding gift that when the bride has her first baby, she should photocopy a $10 bill and send her a note (also photocopied) that reads:

So happy that you and () have just had a little (). I was thinking only the other day how nice it would be if you and () had a ().

Since I don't know what you need for (), please use the enclosed to buy something for ().

ALSO APPALLED
(Do you hate to write letters because you don't know what to say? Thank you notes, sympathy letters, congratulations, how to decline and accept invitations and how to write an interesting letter are included in Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Send your name and address clearly printed with a check or money order for $2.50 (this includes postage) to: Dear Abby, Letter Booklet, P.O. Box 38923, Hollywood, Calif. 90038.)

DEAR ABBY: May I respond to "Seeing Red," whose husband together with his sisters gave their parents a portrait of "just themselves" for Christmas. All were grown and married with children, but no spouses or children were included in this portrait.

"Seeing Red" should see the light. Today, with divorce practically epidemic, married children are wise to give their parents a portrait of "just themselves" — sans spouses.

Divorces occur in the best of families, then subsequent marriages usually take place and stepchildren are added, but the immediate family never changes.

I speak from experience. We have four grown children. They have all been married and divorced. Three have since remarried.

I do not have one recent picture of all four children without their spouses, and I don't care to display pictures with ex-mates who are no longer members of this family. Some divorces are less bitter than others, but none are so painless that I would enjoy looking at their pictures.

I hope "Seeing Red" sees this. SEEING REALITY

DEAR SEEING: I hope so, too.

Serious Decay Reported Among Bachelor's Degrees

By PATRICIA MCCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — Imagine paying $50,000 for something and getting a pig in a poke. No guarantee, no warranty. And no way of knowing you're getting something that's up to date or behind the times.

That's what's happening to lots of unsuspecting consumers of bachelor's degrees, after four years of drinking from the fountains of knowledge on campuses and paying for the most expensive college degrees in the nation's history.

A report making that charge, the latest of three such announcements since October, comes from a committee of the Association of American Colleges. The previous ones also cited serious decay among bachelor's degrees.

Called for are radical curriculum reforms to add starch and relevance to the limp degrees.

The AAC's report, put together by worried college insiders — presidents, deans, professors, charges the bachelor's degree has become an almost meaningless credential because curriculum lacks coherence.

"Central to the troubles and to the solution are the professors," said the report, "Integrity in the College Curriculum: A Report to the Academic Community."

"To restore integrity to the bachelor's degree there must be a renewal of the faculty's corporate responsibility for the curriculum.

"Our report addresses the crisis in American education as it is revealed in the decay of the college course of study and in the role of college faculties in creating and nurturing that decay.

"Our own experience as teachers and as students of American higher education leads to one inescapable conclusion: the college professors of the United States, whether they know it or not, have a job on their hands."

"Adept at looking out for themselves — departmental staffing, student enrollments, courses reflecting narrow scholarly interests, attendance at professional meetings — professors unquestionably offer in their courses exquisite examples of specialized learning."

"But who looks after the shop? Who takes responsibility, not for the needs of the history or English or biology department, but for the curriculum as a whole?"

"Who thinks about the course of study as it is experienced by students?"

The panel described teaching rituals in academia as a system exploiting teaching assistants. These are low-paid graduate students who teach many courses the panel thought would be better taught by the high-paid professors — something that can only be accomplished if the professors come down from their lofty ivory towers and put their noses closer to the blackboards.

But even that wouldn't be the total solution. Many of the professors are dummies at teaching, never having been taught how to teach, the report said. To remedy that, the panel recommended that a demonstration of teaching proficiency be added to requirements for a doctorate degree.

"If the professional preparation of doctors were as minimal as that of college teachers, the United States would have more funeral directors than lawyers," the report said.

Minimum requirements for a meaningful bachelor's degree should include the following, the report suggested:

—Literacy: writing, speaking, reading, listening.

—Understanding numerical data.

—Historical consciousness.

—Understanding of the scientific method, plus the study of the human, social and political implications of scientific research.

—Values. Students must learn to make real choices, assume responsibility for their decisions, be comfortable with their own behavior and know why.

—Art. "Without some experience in the performing arts we are denied the knowledge of disciplined creativity."

—International and multicultural experience. "Colleges must create a curriculum in which the insights and understandings, the lives and aspirations of the distant and foreign, the different and neglected, are more widely comprehended by their graduates."

—Inquiry, abstract logical thinking, critical analysis.

Assurances Given By Hall On Proposed Conrail Takeover

New York (UPI) — has "one of the strongest balance sheets in American industry," Hall said. The Norfolk, Va.-based railroad reported record profits of $482 million last year.
 CSX Corp., a Richmond, Va., rival of Norfolk Southern, has filed objections to the sale as anti-competitive.
 CSX Executive Vice President John Snow told the hearing a Conrail-Norfolk Southern system would control 80 percent of the Michigan rail market; 95 percent of the northeast Indiana rail market; 70 percent of southern Michigan's steel traffic; 85 percent of the Cleveland grain traffic, and 94 percent of the eastbound traffic on the New England-New York-Texas corridor.
 "This merger would have significant anti-competitive effects," said Snow.
 He said the merger could force CSX and other carriers out of numerous markets. That could trigger layoffs, he said.
 "If Norfolk Southern-Conrail is merged, we at CSX will withdraw from more and more markets, as will other carriers," said Snow. "We will abandon thousands of miles of track and employees, as will other carriers. And when all this is finished and counted up, we will have lost the service, competition and jobs of the equivalent of a major Northeastern carrier."
 Hall dismissed CSX's objections as self-serving.

Bill's Landscaping And Nursery Sells Bloomin' Things

If your yard and garden are suffering from post-freeze syndrome and you are looking for a cure, head for Bill's Landscaping and The Nursery, 1418 E. State Road 434 (formerly 419), Winter Springs.
 Bill and Susie are celebrating their 10th anniversary in the landscaping/nursery business and are happy to give you advice based on their experience and love for plants and flowers.
 Formerly operating plant nurseries in Longwood, they moved to the present location (between the Wagner curve and Tusawilla Road) in April, 1984.
 To celebrate the anniversary, they are offering a 10 percent discount if you mention this ad or 15 percent if you bring it in with you.
 Before you start your spring gardening, check out Bill and Susie. They try to sell every "bloomin'" thing you need to make them green and beautiful again. They are expanding their nursery and greenhouse and have stocked up for spring with a new shipment of flowering plants, vegetables and annuals in six-packs, trees and shrubs. They also have hanging baskets and various size pots in clay, plastic, and ceramics. Fertilizer, potting soil, pesticides, sprayers, caladium bulbs, seeds, mulch, garden tools, hose, and Certiplug turf as well.
 Bill specializes in landscape design, does landscaping, and installs indoor and outdoor sprinkler systems. Two of the developments he and his dependable crew have landscaped are Tiffany Woods and Vista Hills.
 Susie also has special room filled with charming country crafts and gifts created by talented local craftsmen for sale.
 If you are looking for a particular size or hard to find variety, they take custom orders and if they don't have it they will try to find it. Susie specializes in unusual indoor plants.
 If the colder winters of late have killed your citrus trees, try these cold hardy trees from Bill's: apple, pear, peach, plum and dogwood.
 Bill's Landscaping and The Nursery are open every day but Sunday. For landscaping service or information call 327-3268.

Cautery Can Remove Ugly Spider Veins

Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB — Is it possible to remove broken blood vessels on the legs or thighs? Since physicians cauterize or seal broken blood vessels on the face and around the nose, can this be done to the leg area?

DEAR READER — I presume you are talking about fine spider veins. Those on the nose are quite small, and electric cautery works just fine, but it is painful. The very small veins in the leg could be treated this way, but most of them are larger than the small veins on the nose and face. For that reason, dermatologists may inject a concentrated salt solution that scars and destroys the small veins. Not all dermatologists do this, but you probably can find one who does.

These spider veins are not really varicose veins. Varicose veins involve the large superficial veins in the legs and appear to be about the size of a pencil. They are dilated, and the valves in the veins that prevent blood from pooling in the leg veins are usually damaged.

It is not absolutely certain that the small spider veins are related to varicose veins. However, anyone who has these should take extra precautions to avoid developing varicose veins of the large veins in the legs. This is why wearing support hose, elevating the legs and avoiding prolonged standing are probably good measures to be taken.

I have discussed treatment of spider veins and varicose veins in the Health Letter, Special Report 21, Varicose Veins and Venous Insufficiency.

In many cases, the large superficial varicose veins can also be treated by sclerosing agents that are somewhat stronger. This procedure is a bit more involved, but is far simpler than having surgery if a patient's case permits the use of injections rather than surgery.

DEAR DR. LAMB — A friend told me that at my age (38), my body will not produce muscle tissue. I was also told that the amino acid L-ornithine would turn body fat into muscle tissue if I exercise. I'm pretty heavy in the stomach area and want to reduce this. Will L-ornithine help me?

DEAR READER — Nonsense. You may not grow new muscle fibers, but you can increase the size of the ones you have if you use a proper strength-training program. Many men a great deal older than you have increased the size of their muscles with strength-training exercises. You may need to approach strength exercises with some caution because of your rheumatoid arthritis. I recommend that you talk to a specialist in physical

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
There are two hazards in opening one no-trump with weak hands of 12-14 high-card points. One is that the opponents will double you and hand you your head on a platter. The other is that they will get to a shaky game contract which will make only because declarer knows the location of all the outstanding high cards.

One advantage to the weak no-trump bid is that opponents might occasionally get to the wrong game contract. In today's deal, three no-trump would have been easy, but North foolishly bid four spades. Declarer brought it home because he knew the location of all the missing high cards.

The defense took the first three tricks: the K-A of diamonds and a diamond ruff. Then came a club return toward dummy's A-Q. Declarer rose with dummy's ace, played two rounds of spades ending in dummy with the jack, and cashed the jack of diamonds, throwing the club jack. Now two more spades were played as dummy shed the small heart.

What four cards would you like East to retain? If he keeps three hearts and the blank king of clubs, declarer leads a heart to the king and trumps a club, and dummy is good. If East comes down to the Q-9 doubleton of hearts, declarer cashes the A-K of hearts, and the jack in the South hand becomes a winner.

Best on this deal is for East to pass originally. Then if South plays in four spades, he will not know where all the honors lie and may go set.

BRIDGE HAND ANALYSIS: NORTH 3-4-4-5, WEST 10-4-3, EAST 8-6, SOUTH AKQ52. Includes vulnerable status and opening lead.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY FEBRUARY 28, 1985

This coming year you'll have opportunities to turn a profit from something you presently consider a hobby or merely a pleasurable interest. Your earnings potential may be surprisingly large.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You'll be more effective in your business dealings today if you play it a bit laid back, rather than coming on like a hotshot.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You'll be imaginative and creative today but those you're involved with might not be. Don't let their lack of talent get in the way of your good ideas.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Allocate the resources you now have at hand in ways that will give you the best returns. Don't indulge in anything risky or foolish.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Be sure to first consult with your mate today before making any social commitments. He might have other plans in the mill.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) What may appear to be logical at first glance might not be your best course of action. Carefully study situations before jumping in with both feet.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Share your business wisdom, experience and advice if a friend seeks your counsel today, but do nothing impulsive that could involve you financially.

VERGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Do not let early negative indicators take the wind out of your sails today. Things will change for the better and you'll do OK.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) An associate may say something derogatory today about a person you know rather well. Judge his character for yourself, not by your associate's remarks.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Profitable developments are likely today in situations you consider labors of love. Work you view indifferently will yield sparse returns.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be considerate and helpful today to those of proven loyalty. Don't cater or be solicitous to someone of rank who might be full of hot air.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Family matters should take precedence over your outside interests today. Make tending to those you love your primary concern.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Members of the opposite sex are apt to find you more appealing than usual today, yet you must be careful not to be used by someone who flatters you.
