Longwood police patience extinguishes hostile event

A stand off situation between Longwood police and an Orlando man lasted for about 11 hours Saturday and peacefully ended just after midnight without injury.

Larsen Dennis Erickson, 27, was currently out on a $100,000 bond from Broward County for a charge of trafficking methamphetamine. According to Longwood police spokesperson Herb Stewartson, the case in South Florida didn't go as Erickson had planned and he was facing possibly seven years in prison.

He reportedly missed his Oct. 17 sentencing date in Broward County because he was upset and a warrant was issued for his arrest. A friend in Longwood, who had loaned Erickson bond money, reportedly urged Erickson to turn himself in when a dispute broke out.

As Longwood police were in route to the friend's house, Erickson left and police made contact with him at the west entrance of the city police department at 235 W. Church St. When police approached Erickson, he pulled a handgun and made mention he may take his own life, Stewartson said.

"That's when the officers took a step back and tried to negotiate with him," he said. "From that point, we set up a perimeter and tried to quarantine him in an area and made contact with the public in the immediate area and did some evacuations."

Longwood police called the Seminole County Sheriff's Office S.W.A.T. team for its hostage negotiation team. The sheriff's office S.W.A.T. team eventually fired a less lethal "bean bag" round to incapacitate Erickson.

Attorney endures second ouster attempt

By Christopher Patton

LONGWOOD — For the second straight meeting in October, a Longwood commissioner tried to persuade his colleagues to fire the city attorney.

Among Commissioner Steve Miller's charges against City Attorney Richard Taylor, was that Taylor has given the city inaccurate

Commissioners Miller and Lovstrand may not be around long enough to start a third effort legal advice, including his recent opinion on campaign signs.

For almost an hour, city commissioners debated the process of how they should proceed to dismiss the attorney despite that less than a majority favored his ouster. Mayor Dan Anderson and commissioners

Butch Bundy and John Masingot all voted against the measure at the previous meeting.

"I think there are people up here that don't want to see the city attorney go, including the city administrator, that's fine, but that doesn't trump anything," Miller said, insisting the city follow its charter's procedures the way he interpreted them to read — repeating a section from charter more than three times during the hearing.

Anderson had a different interpretation of the city charter and opined that the city seek outside counsel to determine the difference.

SANFORD — Hold on to your hats Seminole County because this Saturday at 2 p.m. will be the debut of Skye-Gabrielle Kinlaw at the Helen Stairs Theatre.

Skye is not your everyday performer. Not only is she a violinist, pianist and ballet dancer, but she is also only 8 years old.

The Leesburg kid attends Lake Mary Preparatory School and has been playing since she was 3 years old.

Her only other solo performance was two years ago at the Woman's Club of Sanford, however, Skye is sure she is ready for the big stage.

"No, I'm not really nervous. I'm only this little nervous for a big show," she said, squinching her fingers together. "I guess I like to perform in front of a lot of people."

County eyes tax break for 'granny flats'

By Christopher Patton
Managing Editor

Having grandma or grandpa coming to live with the family may prove to be a cost-cutting measure for Seminole County residents.

County commissioners requested last week that Seminole County Property Appraiser Bill Suber move forward in providing the board with more information to draft an ordinance, which would reduce the assessed value of homestead property meeting certain criteria.

The "Granny Flats Bill" was approved by 65 percent of voters in Seminole County, and the state, in November of 2002. The state constitutional amendment provided a county the option of giving a tax break of up to 20 percent for homeowners who remodel or make additions to their homes to care for a parent or grandparent who is 62 years old, or older.

According to Suber, only a hand full of counties have adopted such an ordinance, including Duval and Leon counties, but Seminole County could be the next.

Commissioners unanimously jumped at the idea of the "granny flats" ordinance when presented by Suber, and wanted to get the measure passed before the end of the year.

"When I first looked at this I thought it would be a larger impact," said Commissioner Dick Van Der Weide, noting that a "granny flats" ordinance would not effect the current tax base but potential taxes.

To move the "granny flats" tax exemption forward the county manager's office will be contacting the school board, municipalities and St. Johns Water Management District as the new ordinance would be binding upon all taxing authorities that levy taxes in the county.

Farmers' Market opening 2 weeks away

From Staff Reports

SANFORD — The official grand opening of Sanford's new open-air State Farmers' Market has been set for Friday, Nov. 7, with ceremonies to be held beginning at 8 a.m. and lasting for most of the day.

The market will be open to the public each Friday with the exception of holidays. It is expected 25 to 30 vendors will be on hand weekly, with others who may wish to participate still being accepted. Featured will be fresh fruits and vegetables, flowers, plants, seafood, baked goods, and much more, including live entertainment.

"We're really excited about the opening of this beautiful facility at this historic location in Sanford and providing new market opportunities for local growers," said Zack Henderson, market manager. "We plan on the open-air farmers' market being operational on Fridays from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. initially, and possibly increasing the number of days the facility is open as demand increases."

Opening day ceremonies include strolling musicians from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m., refreshments, and hourly raffle drawings. Local elementary schools have been invited to attend educational programs.

The Sanford Public Farmers' Market is a community redevelopment project with participation from the U.S. 17-92 Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA), the city of Sanford and the Florida Department of Agriculture and

Iraqi Diary: Learning the culture

Editor's note: Staff Sgt. Charlie C. Carlson III, son of Sanford historian Charlie C. Carlson II, is deployed in Baghdad as part of the 549th Military Police Company. He is providing the Herald with a journal of his experiences.

Carlson

Every night I have my interpreter get all detainees listed and a list of those who have been released and reason for release. I have created a database on my laptop which I save to flashdisk, a portable media which plugs in the USB port and can hold 256mb of data. I then take that info and give it to Enforcer Base. It has really streamlined the way we manage police data. I also have been getting coalition detainees' paperwork and statements ready for them so we can transport them to BIAP [Baghdad Airport] where they will remain until a judge hears their cases.

The problem is that each

Iraqi police officer handles his own case file, and if he isn't working, then I have to wait until he comes to work to get a copy of his statement. One of my main jobs here is keeping an eye on the Iraqi police to make sure they are doing their jobs and following proper procedures. I also make sure that prisoner needs are met and that they are being treated fairly.

The rest of my crew pull security on top of the building or in the humvee out at the front. The humvee soldiers at the gate monitor our radio transmissions with Enforcer Base. It is connected to the OE254 antenna on the roof of the building. All total I have six personnel at the station.

The other night the power went out at the station and the generator battery was dead, so

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

IN BRIEF

Sheriff's office investigates near child drowning

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office is investigating the near drowning of a child Monday night. The incident happened just before 9 p.m. at 2670 Jennifer Hope Boulevard, near Longwood.

The 3-year-old child and his father were visiting. The child's father was helping his host with a home repair project — fixing the kitchen sink. The child apparently wandered out to the pool and fell in. The child may have been trying to recover a glow stick that had fallen into the water.

The child was taken to Florida Hospital in Altamonte Springs and then transferred to Halifax Medical Center in Daytona Beach. According to an investigator assigned to the case, his condition is listed as guarded. Because child neglect has not been totally ruled out, the name of the child and the father are not being released.

This incident marks the second case, in less than a week, where children have fallen into a pool. Last week, in the city of Winter Springs, twin children fell into a pool at their home. One of them died. The other was injured.

As a result, the Seminole County Sheriff's Office Child Protective Services team is urging parents, guardians, and those supervising children, to keep close tabs on young children around pools. The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission offers valuable tips on its Web site at www.cpsc.gov/cpsc/pub/pubs/chdro wn.html.

Got trash, Goldsboro?

Residents of Goldsboro who have trash they want to dispose of should get it to the curb (or alley as the case may be) on Saturday, Oct. 25 by 7 a.m.

Local volunteers will pick up used tires, old furniture, nonworking appliances, tree branches under 6 feet long, and similar items throughout the morning in an effort to help residents keep the community litter free.

Those wishing to volunteer should meet at the Goldsboro Front Porch Office at 1305 13th Street at 8 a.m. There will be a picnic for all volunteers at noon.

If you have questions about volunteering or what types of items can be picked up, call 407-302-1377.

The clean-up is sponsored by the city of Sanford, the Sanford Police Department, Florida Recycling Services Inc., Brothers' Keepers, the Goldsboro Front Porch program and the Seminole County Sheriff's Office SWEAT Program.

SBA announces major changes for delivery of commercial loans

Florida small business owners will have improved access to U.S. Small Business Administration commercial loans due to a change in SBA rules announced this week.

According to Florida First Capital, a statewide economic development and financing company, the rule change will eliminate territorial monopolies in the SBA's largest program for commercial real estate and equipment loans.

SBA's 504 loan program offers below-market, fixed rate financing for the acquisition of commercial real estate and equipment. Currently, 504 program loans are offered by Certified Development Companies (CDCs), like Florida First Capital, which can only operate in a local area - typically several counties. In some instances, CDCs have monopolized certain counties and restricted competition for commercial loans. When the rule change takes effect in 30 days, the restrictions will end, as each CDC will be able to work with small businesses anywhere in Florida.

"We have been waiting for this change for many years," said Todd Kocourek, FFC president and CEO. "We have consistently supported competition in the 504 program, both by expanding our market territory and supporting expansion of other CDCs into our own. The new rules will let the marketplace decide if there's enough need for several CDCs in any given county."

Florida First Capital promotes job creation throughout Florida by working with the SBA and private-sector lenders to provide financing for small businesses. It lends to all businesses under the SBA 504 loan program and the State of Florida Recycling Loan Program as well as other small business assistance programs. Two new government facilities will start construction soon at Orlando Sanford International Airport in Sanford. Diane Crews, vice president of administration at the airport, said construction will include a new juvenile facility and a new logistical support building for the Seminole County Sheriff's Office.

Crews said construction contracts will be awarded this fall and construction will start before the end of the year.

The 22,680-square-foot juvenile center will be built on the southeast corner of Melanville Avenue and 28th Street. The 10,000-square-foot logistical support building will be located on Don Knight Lane, across from the sheriff's office hangar.

Food labeling law: Change or repeal it?

From staff reports

The Florida Retail Federation has suggested Congress should change or repeal a 2002 law that requires many agricultural products to bear country-of-origin labeling (COOL) saying the cost of implementing it far outweighs any perceived benefits to producers.

A survey undertaken by Wilson Research Strategies for the Food Marketing Institute (FMI), indicates nearly two out of three (62 percent) of the nation's meat, vegetable and fruit producers also oppose the COOL law in its current form, and want Congress to change or repeal the law before it goes into effect in September of 2004.

The law includes labeling on beef, pork, lamb, fish, shellfish, fruits, vegetables and peanuts.

The average food retail produce market now carries between 500 and 1,500 items year round, and the law would impose a host of new restrictions requiring domestic and imported produce to be segregated and labeled. Food retailers and wholesalers have long supported voluntary labeling foods - for example, "Made in the USA"

The FMI has proposed that extensive record keeping required by COOL unless the law is changed, could cost the food industry $2 billion the first year, and $1.5 billion every year thereafter.

The survey said that 38 percent of the producers believe they will be faced with the full cost of the implementation, and nearly half expect the increase will be passed on to the consumers.

Diary

I had one of the kids go out to the neighborhood and get some jumper cables. I pulled the humvee over by the generator and jumped-started the battery.

While I was waiting for the kids to come back with the cables, I was walking by the jail cells and I swallowed a wad of air and let out a really loud burp. It echoed through the whole jail. I heard the prisoners mumble something in Arabic and they all started giggling. So I gave them a bit of amusement.

30 Sept. 2003 When I come on shift at the station, I sit down at my desk and the kids come in and I put my order in for some chicken. We get to eat good here. They go get it for me, and then when I'm finished, they bring in tea and a bowl of ice cream. Then there is tea throughout the night until the kids go home a little after midnight.

Tea is served the same in households all over Iraq. There is a platter on which is a small teapot with several little cups with saucers and spoons. Either the cups will have sugar in them or there will be a sugar bowl on the platter.

I enjoy learning about the customs of this culture. The men, usually the older ones, will wear a long, white or grey robe which has a single pocket on the left breast and two lower pockets, one in which is kept prayer beads. The women generally wear black burkas, sometimes with a see-through shawl, but rarely cover their faces. However many of the younger generation wear regular style clothing.

The men often wear big mustaches. Some feel the bigger the mustache, the more macho they are. My interpreter says that the ones with the big mustaches are womenizers or pimps. However, unlike the states, sex outside of marriage is really frowned on here, and there is no living together unless a couple is married. Iraqi women have a lot of self-respect and are very modest when it comes to sexuality. A woman who does otherwise would be shunned by her family and the community.

One thing that I have noticed in East Baghdad are the sheep herders. You will find sheep on street corners. You can pay a herder for a sheep, and he will pull out a big knife from his belt and slaughter and skin it right there for you. It's like one-stop shopping for both your sheep meat and skin, but not a pretty sight to witness.

The prayer beads vary in size and color depending on the user's preference. You can see men with prayer beads in their hands as they casually go about their daily lives. I have never seen women with prayer beads and mentioned this to my interpreter, but he said he had not noticed that before and did not know why.

The way the beads work, is that you thumb through the string, chanting and listening each bead until you get to the fist one, then at that point you change your chant. Usually it goes like this "My God Allah" and changes to "Allah My God."

It is an interesting religion. During prayer, one must keep himself clean. I noticed that just before prayer time, about 1500 hours, one of the Iraqi policemen did not want to get near the dog at the station because he had just washed his hands for prayer. They take their shoes off, and kneel on a prayer rug facing Mecca.

I have found that everything in the Koran is extremely similar to the Bible. It starts off with stories like Adam and Eve, Noah and the flood, and even mentions Jesus. Muslims know about Mary and Joseph and their religion does not condone violence anymore than the Christian belief.

I have been in a Catholic church here and talked with the priest through my interpreter, as the priest spoke only Arabic. Somehow, we Americans have been led to believe that the only religion in Iraq is Islamic. That is not true. While it may be the main one, there are several different faiths practiced here, and the best I can tell, it has always been that way.

Early in the morning, it is common to see carts and trucks carrying empty propane tanks, or women and children kicking along an empty propane tank to the refill place. I suppose they cook with propane here. They sure use a lot of it. I must tell you about the taxis, they are strangely colored with white and orange trim, or with orange paneling on the front and rear.

3 Oct. 2003 The dayshift at the station was pulled out to do a mission, so my crew showed up and had the interpreter, who was holding the keys, to open the door for us. I started off doing a prisoner accountability, checking on the Iraqi police who are on duty, and checking to see who had been released from jail. Then I updated the log book and dealt with any other issues that needed attention. We got a murder suspect in which I added to my data base.

One of the prisoners came down with food poisoning and was throwing up and had severe stomach pains. The food is provided by one of the U.S. contractors who brings it to the station. The U.S. contractor subcontracts to a local business who prepares food for the prisoners. So I had to deal with this contractor who was sending garbage to the detainees instead of decent food.

I'm also getting with the Iraqi colonel of this station to recommend that he develop a safer area for the local citizens by having his IPF do a walking patrol through the neighborhood. I'm telling him that if all the stations had a walking presence on the street, the people would get to know their cops, and the end result should be a decrease in crime and better relations with the police. It amazes me that I, as a 33-year-old with only 13 years police experience, have to suggest such programs to a 50-year-old police colonel.

The big problem is there seems to be a total lack of initiative on the part of the Iraqi police. They would rather sit around while some bully in the neighborhood fires a weapon all over the place. They react sometimes, but are seldom, if ever, proactive at stopping crime. I have tried to explain, through my interpreter, that the more proactive you are as a cop, the less reactive you have to be. They just don't seem to be able to grasp the basics of police operations. Heck, it was even better than this when I was down in Panama working with the PDF (Panama Defense Force). I really believe that if you can train Iraqis to be policemen, you can train any nationality.

As long as the U.S. military police are present to handle things, they are not going to have an incentive to get up and do the job like cops. The news can boast about how many police we are putting on the streets of Iraq, but it is not the numbers that count, it is the quality and initiative that will bring law and order to this place. I know people don't want to hear that and would rather hear how progress is being made, but believe me, I work with these guys. What I see are just numbers of cops with new uniforms, not real working law enforcement. In my professional opinion, we have a long way to go before we can feel confident about the police force here.

unhappy with this procedure then we're in an impasse that cannot be resolved so we should go for outside counsel," he said.

Maingot offered to table the issue until the Nov. 17 meeting of the city commission, however, his motion died for a lack of second as two of the present commissioners may not be around for that meeting. Commissioner Paul Lovestrand has opted not to run in the upcoming city election Nov. 4 (Brian Seckett is considered the commissioner-elect as no other candidates qualified for the District 5 seat), and incumbent Miller is pitted against two candidates — Mike Holt and George McKenzie — for the District 3 seat.

"It could be construed that you were trying to drag this out beyond the election," Anderson said.

The commission voted 4-1 to seek outside counsel on the matter, but tempers still raged as Miller tried to submit a deposition from an Orange County civil suit involving an outside business dealing of Taylor's.

"He's way out of line," Taylor said, speaking for the first time during the hearing.

"I've done a damn good job for this city."

"You better be careful what you say Miller, you're going to get yourself in a lawsuit," Taylor added as the commission adjourned.

Anderson said after the meeting that he was frustrated with the proceeding because the two commissioners who moved Monday to remove the attorney "didn't object to the procedure last week."

He added that the commission has been "called cavalier" in the past with how it's followed the city charter. When Miller and Lovestrand alleged the commission had not followed rules and procedures "I take it personally," he said.

Taylor said after the meeting that he too was beginning to take the consecutive hearings to dismiss him as city attorney personally.

"I haven't done anything wrong. I've done a damn good job for this city," he said, adding that he saved Longwood tens of thousands of dollars in attorney fees last year when he negotiated a franchise settlement with Florida Power.

Taylor added that he even thought of resigning as city attorney to spare his professional reputation as his work with the city only constitutes about one-third of his income, but wouldn't want to give "them the pleasure."

is how will the county property appraiser's office be able to police those who are credited with a "granny flats" reduction.

"I think there are going to be so few of these we will be able to handle these by mail or we can handle it by visits to these properties," Suber said. "I just don't see it as a big to-do."

"I just believe it would be a good thing for taxpayers even though it may defer some value off of the tax roll for awhile," he added. "I think those folks that have parents or grandparents would have an opportunity to have them live in a home where they're comfortable rather than putting them in a nursing home. I think it would go along way with at least giving them some comfort in their later years."

The county commission is expected to discuss the ordinance at either its next meeting, Oct. 29, or its first meeting in November. Only construction or reconstruction that has been substantially completed after Jan. 7, 2003 can be considered for the exemption, and if the grandparent or parent discontinues living at the household, the homestead exemption would be no longer valid.

"Clearly this is something that goes toward the social good," Commissioner Randy Morris said.

According to Morris, with rising assisted living care facility costs and the increased longevity of parents and grandparents the "baby boomer" generation is quickly turning into the "sandwich generation." This trend is forcing families into becoming more like a traditional family with its extended members all living under one roof.

"I think it saves everybody money — the citizens and county — when grandparents can stay with their families," added Commission Chairman Daryl McLain.

Skye

Federation of Music Clubs, Skye's parents, Al and Monnie, have kept their only child from wasting her talent by starting her out in music at an early age and forbidding distractions, such as television.

She says she hasn't decided what she wants to be in life, not that any 8 year old would, but her ambitions are as varied as her extra curricular activities.

Al Kinlaw, Skye's father, even purchased a hybrid electric car last month to keep up with his daughter. In the first month, he's traveled a mere 6,000 miles in the vehicle.

From Leesburg to Lake Mary each morning for school is a routine trip, but then there are the trips to the ballet instructor in Maitland, the violin instructor in Apopka and the piano instructor in Oviedo.

"She won't stop anything," Al Kinlaw said. "But, she holds up through it well."

Despite the constant driving, it's all for a good cause, Al said as he looks at Skye.

"I tried to tell her the violin will take her around the world," he added.

Sure enough, last Thanksgiving break Skye was invited to London, England, for violin lessons for two weeks. Other tours include a violin performance at a church in Panama City, a piano recital at Stetson University and ballet recital at the Bob Carr Auditorium in Orlando.

Despite Skye's early success, Al suggests she wouldn't be where she is today without the guidance of her teachers.

"We've had some pretty good teachers, and that has been the difference," he said, mentioning violinist Joni Roos, pianist Marian Chen and ballerina Gina Lang.

At the performance Saturday, Skye will have a duet each with Roos and Chen.

The majority of her debut performance will be classical selections. Skye says her favorite selections to play are classical Baroque. A few of her tunes will be rock and roll piano playing and a little fiddling.

The fiddling she learned from Mark O'Connor at his "Fiddle Camp" in San Diego this past summer.

"It's not just simple music anymore," Al Kinlaw said.

Consumer Services. The US 17-92 CRA, a group comprised of representatives of the cities along the corridor, is tasked with the redevelopment of the blighted US 17-92 commercial corridor.

The open-air market is located at the Sanford State Farmers' Market on a former tractor trailer parking lot directly in front of the State Farmers' Market Warehouse. The area was a sea of asphalt frequently used as impromptu overnight parking for over the road truckers. On any given night 5-10 tractor trailers would park there. Today the asphalt has been replaced with the southern-style, open sided pole barn that is surrounded by bricked pathways, oak trees, grass and a gazebo.

The visual change is remarkable," said Don Coker, bureau chief at the Department of Agriculture. "The new market and landscaping transform what was previously a very stark, and unappealing space into a green space where the community can meet, relax and enjoy the pleasures of the farmers' market and purchase fresh Florida produce."

Several communities throughout central Florida enjoy farmers' markets weekly. College Park, Winter Park and the city of Orlando all have weekly farmers' markets.

"The local farmers' market is a great community amenity and quality of life feature," said John Jones, Economic Development Manager for the City of Sanford. "The Sanford Farmers' Market is another indicator of the City's continuing redevelopment efforts and re-investing in its community assets."

The concept of the State Farmers' Market in Sanford, of course, is nothing new. The original facility was built in 1934 and was ranked as the oldest state-owned farmers' market in the entire United States. It burned in 1957, but was rebuilt soon after.

Major tenants include Sanwa Growers (International Food Concepts, Inc.), and T&R Produce.

Akron downs UCF

Special to the Herald

Akron junior quarterback Charlie Frye totaled 384 yards of total offense including 307 through the air as the Zips downed UCF 38-24 Saturday evening at the Rubber Bowl in Akron, Ohio.

The loss was UCF's fourth in five weeks, dropping the Golden Knights to 2-5 overall and 1-3 in conference play while Akron improved to 5-3 and 3-2 in the MAC.

For the first time this season, UCF scored first after the Golden Knights gained a 3-0 lead on a 19-yard Matt Prater field goal. The field goal also marked the first time in 2003 that UCF scored on its opening possession. The field goal was set up by a 62-yard kickoff return by Luther Huggins.

Akron responded with 21 straight points to take a 21-3 lead at half-time. Frye finished the first half 15-of-17 passing for 185 yards and a touchdown. The Zips twice drove 80 yards for touchdowns, including after a Ryan Schneider interception in the Akron end zone.

Frye made the play of the half with under a minute remaining in the half when he found Mike Brake on a 16-yard screen pass. Frye looked to be sacked on the play by Josh Stephens, but found a way to get out of the UCF defender's grasp for the big play. Bobby Hendry scored on the following play from one-yard out to give the Zips a 21-3 lead with 37 seconds left in the half.

UCF opened the third quarter with a defensive stand and a snap over Akron punter Billy Sullivan's head, which gave UCF the ball at the Akron four. From there, Schneider found Tavaris Capers on a three-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 21-10. The touchdown pass extended Schneider's school record of 26 straight games with a touchdown pass.

UCF looked to get the ball back again on Akron's next possession, but Frye ripped off a 25-yard run on a 3rd down and seven play at the Akron 37-yard line. At the end of the 25-yard run, UCF committed a late-hit personal foul, giving the Zips a first down at the UCF 23 yard line. Frye scored just four plays later on a four-yard touchdown run to give Akron a 28-10 advantage.

The Golden Knights came back with their second touchdown of the third quarter on a quick four-play, 56-yard scoring drive that took just 34 seconds. Dontavius Wilcox scored his second career touchdown with a six-yard run up the middle to slice the Akron lead to 28-17. Schneider had two big pass plays on the drive, including a 24-yard pass to Mike Walker and a 26-yard screen to Capers.

Liberty Patriots pound Bethel

By Shelle Knowles
Special to the Herald

COCOA — Two-time defending Florida Christian Athletic League state football champion Liberty Christian School of Sanford took its show on the road Friday and came away with its 25th consecutive win, a 70-6 rout of Bethel Christian Academy.

The Patriots had first possession and they wasted no time getting on the scoreboard. Wide receiver Jason Jenkins was the first to score as he caught a pass from quarterback Jason Williams deep in the corner of the end zone. Liberty was up 20-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Two-time FCAL champs win 25th straight, 70-6

The only touchdown Bethel scored was midway through the second quarter on a 50-yard pass.

At the half, Liberty led 42-6.

Leading the offense was wide receiver Mark Tavanyar with three touchdowns and a two-point conversion. He had five receptions. Williams had two touchdowns, while tight end Joseph Stephen scored a pair of touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

Seventh-grader Mark Slate ran in for his first touchdown of the season near the end of the fourth quarter, scoring the last touchdown of the game for Liberty.

The Patriots were as impressive on defense as they were on offense. Liberty had nine interceptions in the game, with Williams and Tavanyar each running an interception back for a touchdown in the second half.

Tavanyar finished the game with four interceptions and one tackle, while Jenkins had two tackles and a pair of sacks. Senior cornerback Ryan LaRose and sophomore cornerback Austin Gager both had four tackles and junior free safety Dave Barnes came away with three interceptions and three tackles.

Liberty will host North Kissimmee Christian School at 2 p.m. Friday, they play at a field off Mellenville Avenue at the Orlando Sanford International Airport.

Old fashioned win

Rams use running game, 'D' to blank Osceola

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

The Lake Mary High School football team went to a tried and true method to winning in football Friday night.

Running and defense.

Led by the running of sophomore Kashif Vallot and senior Cameron Bateman and the second straight shutout by the Rams' vaunted defense, the hosts completely dominated a strong Osceola squad, 34-0, at Don T. Reynolds Stadium.

Lake Mary (4-3) has now won three games in a row and is over .500 for the first time this season. But of equal importance is that the Rams appear to be playing the way most people expected them to play this season and it could not have come at a better time with two huge district games coming up.

Lake Mary, which has outscored its opponents 104-3 during the win streak, is 1-1 in Class 6A-District 2, but with victories over Seminole (0-2) this Friday and Lake Brantley (2-1) next week (Oct. 31) the Rams will finish second and make a return to the playoffs.

Lake Mary's defense (top) became a wall in the second half, holding Osceola to 43 total yards, as the Rams posted their second straight shutout, 34-0. Lake Mary has not allowed a touchdown in winning three games in a row, outscoring its foes 104-3 to get over .500, 4-3, for the first time this season. Lake Brantley kept pace as quarterback Brett Smith (carrying the ball, bottom) ran for 148 yards and the game's only touchdown in a 13-9 victory over DeLand.

Winter Springs girls win SAC golf

By Dean Smith
Sports Editor

Winter Springs claimed its second Seminole Athletic Conference title of the Fall Monday as the girls' golf team won the SAC Tournament by eight strokes at the Winter Springs Country Club.

Led by senior Ashley Trezn's 7-over 78, the Bears defeated Lake Howell, 337-to-345, despite the Silver Hawks' Jessica Yadloczky earning medalist honors with a 1-over 72.

Also scoring for Winter Springs were sophomore Kaitlyn Edwards (79), senior Ashleigh Anderson (88) and sophomore Brittney Blount (92).

Other members of coach Erin McCue's squad are senior Maria Dietrick, junior Brittany Bennie, and sophomores Courtney Anderson, Kaitlin Griffiths and Amanda Jastrebski.

Oviedo (393, led by a 78 from Thomas and a 102 from King), Lake Mary (399 led by a 93 from Marissa Fiorucci and a 96 from Brittney Darbonnier), Lake Brantley (491, led by a 105 from Arianna Durkin and a 120 from Boyle), Seminole (515, led by a 105 from Samantha Delgado and a 132 from Burleson) and Lyman (no team score, led by an 83 from Elizabeth Barnes and an 87 from Vigilante) completed the scoring.

The tournament also served as a sub-district tournament as the teams from Winter Springs, Lake Howell, Oviedo and Lake Mary (Allie Coriti, Brittney Darbonnier, Andrea See Golf, Page 10

Oviedo senior Will Harrison scored four touchdowns, including the game winner with less than two minutes to play as the Lions clinched a home playoff game, 45-38, over Seminole.

Oviedo wraps up titles

From Staff Reports

Friday night turned out to be a big night for the Oviedo football team.

The Lions claimed a pair of championships and also secured a playoff berth in the heart-stopping 45-38 come-from-behind win over the visiting Seminole Fighting Seminoles at John Couter Field.

Oviedo's victory, combined with Lake Brantley's 13-9 win over DeLand, clinched the Class 6A-District 2 crown and also earned the Lions a home game in the first round of the state playoffs. Oviedo will host the runner-up from District 1, either Mandarin or Sandalwood, two Jacksonville schools who were in the Lions' district the past two years.

Friday night's victory also secured the Seminole Athletic Conference title for Oviedo, which completed its sweep of the county with the win over Seminole.

Will Harrison ran for four touchdowns and 214 yards rushing as Oviedo (6-0 overall) improved to 3-0 in the district heading into Friday's game at DeLand (3-4, 0-2).

Harrison, who scored a touchdown on a 3-yard run in the first quarter, added three touchdowns on runs of 5, 2, and 7 yards in the fourth quarter to help the Lions rally from a 31-24 deficit.

"Harrison is a tough player with a tough mentality," Oviedo Coach Greg Register said. "He is a physical player who gets the difficult yards between the tackles."

The game was tied at 38-38 late in the game when Harrison capped an 83-yard drive with his 7-yard touchdown run in the final two minutes of the game. Harrison carried the ball six times during the drive.

Jason Raulerson caught passes of 32 and 25 yards from Lee Sloan, who threw for 183 yards, for Oviedo's other touchdowns.

Placekicker Reed Bowman added a 39-yard field goal to complete the Lions' scoring.

Seminole, which trailed 14-3 late in the first quarter before rallying to tie the game at 24-24 at halftime, got its scoring from Danny Johnson (on an 82-yard kickoff return and a 71-yard pass reception), Jamal Tennon (on catches of 48 and 68 yards), Stevie Warren (4-yard run), and Jason Fowler (31-yard field goal).

Seminole quarterback Mike McKinzie completed 16 of 28 passes for 322 yards and the three touchdowns.

"Seminole is much improved," Register said. "They did a great job of throwing the ball against us, and they came up with some big plays when they needed to."

start, actually made a game of it in the first half with the Rams only leading 7-0 on a 15-yard Bateman run and Chris Haines extra point kick in the second period.

But head coach Greg Stanton and his assistants made the right adjustments in the second half and mashed any hopes the visiting squad from Klamath had.

Vallot, who did not carry the ball in the first half, took the second half opening kickoff back 72 yards and when a face-mask penalty was tacked on, Lake Mary had the ball at the four.

Two plays later, quarterback Robert Kass dove into the end zone from the one and the rout was on.

Osceola, which had only 43 yards of total offense in the second half against the Keith Rivers led Rams defense, went nowhere after the ensuing kickoff and two plays after a punt, Vallot broke through for a 60-yard scoring run, making the score 21-0.

Moments later, Bateman scored his second touchdown on a 7-yard run and the hosts were up 28-0 after three periods.

Vallot, who finished with 104 yards on 12 carries, closed the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown plunge in the fourth quarter. Bateman chipped in with 77 yards on 12 attempts.

Lake Brantley, meanwhile, had a much tougher time in moving into second place in the district standings with a 13-9 victory over DeLand before 4,000 Homecoming fans at Spec Martin Stadium.

Trailing 9-3 after three quarters, Patriots quarterback Brett Smith ran the option to perfection, making a fake and rolling 72 yards to set up his own 11-yard touchdown run four plays later to put the visitors ahead for good.

Miguel Santos, who hit a county-best 52-yard field goal in the second period, put the game away with a 40-yarder in the final two minutes.

The game was a kicker's duel for three quarters with Santos' bomb being countered by Halley Ferrell field goals from 30, 35 and 42 yards. Luckily for Lake Brantley, the junior also missed attempts from 48, 42 and 39 yards before Smith (149 rushing yards on 10 carries) became the hero.

The Patriots are now 5-2 overall and will head to Miami to take on a good Monsignor Pace squad before returning home to host Lake Mary in what could be a winner-take-all game to get into the playoffs.

Lake Howell saw its playoff chances ended in a 21-9 defeat at the hands of Oak Ridge.

Sophomore Kahlil Vallot ran for 104 yards on 12 carries, all in the second half, scoring on runs of 60 and 1-yard and also set up another touchdown with a 72-yard kickoff return as Lake Mary blanked Osceola, 34-0, to win its third straight game and get over .500 for the first time this season.

The Silver Hawks (1-6 overall, 1-2 in Class 5A-District 5) got a 41-yard field goal from Chris Boetto in the second period and cut the deficit to 14-9 on a Greg Lewin 11-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

An ensuing onside kick failed, but David Watson recovered a fumble on the Patriots' second play, giving Lake Howell hope. The drive went nowhere, however, and Antoine Battle, who totaled 184 yards, carried the ball on 10 of 11 plays, culminating in a 1-yard game-clinching touchdown, his second of the game.

In other games, Zack Zimmer ran for 148 yards, scoring on runs of 37 and 35 yards, as Trinity Prep (1-6, 1-2) broke a six-game losing streak, winning for the first time this season on their homecoming night as the Saints defeated Pierson Taylor 31-14 in a Class 2B-District 4 game.

Quarterback Kyle Chance also had a big game, throwing touchdown passes of three and 24 yards to Ryan Wenaas. Rob Waked completed the scoring with four extra points and a 40-yard field goal.

The Master's Academy dropped a 28-13 decision to 4-1 Eagle's View Academy of Jacksonville.

This Friday will see another night of district action.

In 6A-2, Oviedo will be at DeLand and Seminole will be at Lake Mary.

In 5A-5, Lake Howell will host Winter Springs and Lyman hosts Freedom.

In 2B-4, Trinity Prep will be at Crescent City.

In non-district contests, Lake Brantley heads to Miami to take on Pace and The Master's Academy will be at Ocala Christian.

Akron scored on another long drive, this time covering 68 yards in eight plays to extend the lead to 35-17. Bobby Hendry capped off the scoring drive with a two-yard touchdown run - his second of the game - to put the Zips up 18 with just over seven minutes remaining in the game.

On UCF's following possession, Schneider fumbled after getting hit from behind, which Akron's Marques Hayes recovered at the UCF 22.

The turnover was UCF's third of the game. UCF entered the game last in the nation in turnover differential per game (-2.67). Jason Swiger drilled a 39-yard field goal following the fumble.

The Golden Knights added their final touchdown of the game when Schneider hit Capers on a 20-yard touchdown pass to complete a six-play, 70-yard scoring drive.

UCF returns home to the friendly confines of the Florida Citrus Bowl for Homecoming against Central Michigan (2-5, 0-4 MAC) Saturday at 4 p.m. The Golden Knights look to snap a two-game losing streak while the Chippewas are in the midst of a four-game losing streak.

Last week, Central Michigan was on the short end of a 31-13 decision at home to Toledo.

Central Michigan is one of two MAC West Division opponents on the 2003 schedule for UCF. The Golden Knights will also travel to Eastern Michigan to face the Eagles Nov. 8 to round out play vs. the MAC West Division.

Kickoff is set for 4 p.m. with live coverage on the UCF ISP Sports Network beginning at 2 p.m. with the pregame show. Locally, the game can be heard on 740 - The Team (WQTM) with Marc Daniels and Gary Parris calling the action and sideline reporter Jerry O'Neill keeping fans up-to-date with the latest information.

Central Michigan is one of three opponents UCF faces in 2003 for the first time. Earlier in the year, UCF topped Florida Atlantic 33-29 in the first meeting between the two schools while the Nov. 1 game at West Virginia will mark the first game ever between the Golden Knights and Mountaineers.

UCF is a perfect 4-0 all-time versus schools from the state of Michigan. The last time UCF played a school from Michigan, the Golden Knights topped Western Michigan 31-27 in Kalamazoo for its first MAC victory in 2002.

Nine Chippewas return to their home state of Florida this weekend including former Colonial High School standout and Orlando native Kalani Muragin.

The two-time letterwinner and defensive tackle for Central Michigan has 13 tackles and a fumble recovery in 2003.

BASEBALL OPENS FALL PRACTICE
With the World Series continuing this week in Miami, the UCF baseball team officially began preparations for the 2004 season with fall practice Monday.

"Fall practice begins this week and we have three weeks of fall practice," stated UCF head coach Jay Bergman. "It's not really enough time, particularly with this team and all of the newcomers we have. Still, it is the time we have allotted and that is what we will have to do."

Bergman, who began the program at then Seminole Junior College and has also coached at the University of Florida, is set to embark on his 22nd season as head coach of the UCF baseball program. In the off-season, Bergman signed a five-year contract to remain as head coach.

The Golden Knights are coming off a disappointing 2003 campaign in which they finished 31-25 and failed to reach the Atlantic Sun Championships. With last season behind them, the 2004 club has plenty of potential with 11 position players and eight pitchers returning. In addition, 18 newcomers have been added to the roster.

"It will be an interesting fall," added Bergman. "Probably in the last 10 years, this will be the most competitive fall we will have for positions. I told the players probably the only thing I know is that Coach Cozart will call the pitches from the dugout and Coach Wolfe will coach third base."

"Besides that, I think we are going to have plenty of new faces out there with a tremendous accent on speed. If everything works out like we hope it will player wise, we will be a really exciting team with a chance to steal plenty of bases and move runners around."

With the theme on speed, UCF returns two speedy players in senior David Mann and junior Clay Timpner. Mann, the Knights' leadoff hitter in each of the last two seasons, hit .321 and was 17-for-19 in stolen base attempts a year ago. Timpner, one of the elite defensive outfielders in the nation, returns as the team's leading hitter after batting .347 in 2003. Timpner also led the Golden Knights with 22 stolen bases in 24 attempts last season.

Florida State transfer Kevin Richmond brings plenty of speed to the lineup and will be one of the newcomers to keep an eye on in 2004. Richmond can play in the infield and might also get a chance in the outfield.

On the mound, Bergman can rely on three juniors who have the stuff to be dominant on the hill. Matt Fox, Jaime Douglas and Taylor Cobb have all shown flashes of brilliance during their careers and will be a cornerstone of this season's pitching staff.

At closer, sophomore Kyle Bono returns after one of the finest rookie seasons in school history. Bono was 4-2 with a 0.83 ERA in 2003. The Lake Mary native saved two games and totaled 43 strikeouts in 32.2 innings of work.

UCF also returns one of the nation's top 1-2 catching tandems in sophomores Drew Butera and Ryan Bono. Butera, named one of the Great Lakes Summer League's top 10 prospects according to Baseball America, has one of the best arms behind the dish in the nation. Butera threw out 20-of-39 would-be base stealers a year ago while also hitting .305.

Bono, Kyle's twin brother and Lake Mary grad, had a strong off-season and worked hard on improving his skills defensively and with the bat. As a freshman, Bono batted .265.

UCF opens the 2004 season Feb. 6 at Florida International. The Golden Knights open their 2004 home schedule Feb. 13-15 with a three-game series against LSU.

MONTGOMERY RECOGNIZED AS A-SUN PLAYER OF THE WEEK

UCF forward Jennifer Montgomery was named the Atlantic Sun Women's Soccer Player-of-the-Week as announced by the league office Monday afternoon. Montgomery, who now leads the team with six goals, played an instrumental role in the Golden Knights posting a perfect week in A-Sun play.

Montgomery, a native of Colton, Calif., garnered the award after scoring three goals in two matches to lead the Knights (13-4, 8-1) to a pair of A-Sun victories. The reigning A-Sun Freshman-of-the-Year scored her first goal of the week in a 2-0 win at Jacksonville. She also added a pair of goals in a 3-0 win over Stetson. She has tallied five goals in her last three matches and now ranks third on the team with 13 points. It is the second time in her career that she has received player-of-the-week honors (10/28/02).

UCF will be in search of its ninth consecutive conference win on Friday when they hit the road to take on Troy State. The Knights are also looking to close out their A-Sun schedule by posting their sixth straight shutout in conference play. Game time is set for 4 p.m.

"The kids never quit," said Seminole coach Jim Bernhardt.

"Then again, neither did Oviedo. You have to give them credit.

"This was a fun game to coach. Both teams played hard and clean. Yes, we lost tonight, but there was something of substance there tonight, something that we can and will build on so that the next time we're in a situation like this, the result will be different."

Seminole lost on the road for the first time this season and fell to 3-4 overall and 0-2 in the district. But the Fighting Seminoles are not out of the playoff picture just yet as they can still get in with a pair of wins and a little help.

The Tribe will be at Don T. Reynolds Stadium this Friday to take on red-hot Lake Mary, which has now won three games in a row, outscoring DeLand, Lake Howell and Osceola 104-3.

But if Seminole can pull off the upset and then defeat DeLand at home next week, coupled with a Rams victory over Lake Brantley, which is 2-1 in district play, then those three teams would meet in a three-way Kansas tie-breaker for the runner-up spot in the district behind Oviedo.
