

6th District Legion Speaker Stresses Americanism

American Legion Post 19 of Orlando, was host recently to Legionnaires and Auxiliary members of the Sixth District.

Auxiliary members attending the school of instruction from Sanford Unit 53 were Mrs. Paul Pexold, president; Mrs. Charles Webster, member of the department of Florida board of education and scholarship committee; and Mrs. Theo Stiles, unit and district community chairman. A joint session, at which religious services were held was presided over by Sixth District Commander Carolyn M. Frid.

The guest speaker was Department Commander William Edwards of Daytona Beach. Edwards stressed Americanism and reminded the American Legion was born after World War I to preserve peace and freedom as their goal. He also stated that the American Legion was one of the strongest organizations teaching Americanism in America today. To teach and practice loyalty to our country and Americanism is the only way to defeat communism, he said, adding, "we are a wealthy and intelligent country and we must keep it that way."

The instruction session for Auxiliary members was presided over by Mrs. John I. Brown, Sixth District President. The welcome was given by Mrs. Josephina Marsh, president of Orlando Unit 19.

Mrs. E. A. Roberts, Department of Florida president, was guest speaker and she spoke on different phases of Auxiliary activities.

On Americanism, Mrs. Roberts said that to live and teach children the meaning of loyalty to our country and respect for the flag should be the main objectives.

On national security, Mrs. Roberts stressed use of the many films available and of good speakers at the meetings and that the Auxiliary should invite the public to participate in the programs. She also urged an alert lookout for subversive literature in schools and community.

Speaking of Foreign Relations, she said all was not well south of the border, and urged that each Auxiliary make a study of at least one Pan American country during the coming year.

Members were reminded that Child Welfare is not limited only to the Veterans child, but to all children, and that the material, physical, and spiritual needs of all children should be considered and especially the needs and welfare of the delinquent children in communities.

On Civil Defense, Mrs. Roberts said, "We should try to live prepared always for any disaster. That in times of disaster there are two kinds of people: The ones who need and the ones who can and will give help. She urged members to prepare themselves to be the ones who can and will give help."

The purpose of the past president's parley is "The Care of the Disabled Ex-Service Women." Its members are past unit presidents. The Sixth District past president's parley has adopted a woman veteran in Bay Pines Veterans' Home. She is sent gifts of money and clothing at Christmas and throughout the year.

Once each year we have a Poppy Day. These Poppies are made by disabled veterans. When persons are asked to wear a Poppy the free will offering you give is distributed to the veterans that make them, to the three Crippled Childrens hospitals in Florida and to local Child Welfare. The offerings cannot be used for any other purpose.

The Auxiliary's Rehabilitation program makes comfort articles for veterans in hospitals at Bay Pines, Coral Gables and Lake City. Each member furnishes a gift for the Joy Shop at Christmas for these three hospitals. Workers at these hospitals can choose what he wants to send each member of his family. The workers then wrap the gifts and send them in time for Christmas to families of the veterans.

Dorothy Webster, member of the board of education and scholarship committee, reported this year two scholarship awards had been made by the Department of Florida to Seminole High School graduates in Sanford.

Social Security Facts Vital, Says Patton

"A little knowledge is always a dangerous thing. When it comes to social security, it can also be very costly," said Colonel Byron H. Patton, manager of the Orlando social security office. He explained that many people pick up just enough information to cause trouble. In many cases, it causes them to lose money.

Colonel Patton pointed out that some people think they need birth certificates to draw social security. Others think social security checks are figured on the last five years of work before retiring. Still others say they can't draw social security if they make over $1200.

"There's just enough truth in these things to cause trouble," said Colonel Patton. He explained that a birth certificate is not required to draw social security, but there must be some record of the person's age. The last five years of work under social security are considered in figuring the check, but they may or may not be used.

The monthly payment is based on an average of a number of years, after dropping out five of the lowest years. And, contrary to popular belief, it's possible to make well over $1200 in a year and still get some social security checks.

"These are just a few of the things folks don't understand about social security," said Colonel Patton. He suggested that the way to get the facts is to call or visit the social security office at 2520 North Orange Avenue in Orlando. The telephone number is 425-2581.

Business Brief

Retailers Elect Fields Official

J. Earl Barclay, Florida district manager of J. M. Fields, has been elected to a two-year term as director of the Florida State Retailer's Association at the recently-concluded Miami meeting.

Barclay was also named chairman of the organization's public relations committee by Paul S. Walker of Richard's Department Store, Miami, current president of the association.

In five years under Barclay's supervision, the J. M. Fields Florida Division has grown from three to 15 stores in the state, with three additional units now under construction in Jacksonville, Tampa and North Palm Beach.

Presently located in Clearwater, Barclay will have permanent state offices in Jacksonville starting this week.

Service Tuesday

The Auxiliary to the DeBary Volunteer Fire Department will conduct special services at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the local funeral chapel for Mrs. Ann Freeman of DeBary who died Sunday. All members of the auxiliary are requested to be present.

Waterfront Forum Set

Clyde Long, president of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, announced last week that his club would sponsor a public presentation of the waterfront development plans, at an open meeting at noon at the Civic Center Thursday.

Long said today plans have been made by Radio Station WTRR to broadcast the entire program, beginning at 12:32 p.m. In charge of the live broadcast will be Bill Reck, local radio announcer, and a member of the board of directors of the Jaycees.

"Because of the great interest shown in the proposed waterfront plan and the open invitation that has been extended, we urge that all persons planning to attend the luncheon make reservations before Wednesday noon by calling the Jaycee Information office on French Ave. Our caterer will need to know how much to prepare. Charge for lunch is $1.50," Long said.

The presentation will be made in the form of a panel forum with the proposers of the plans present to answer questions, provide explanations, and enlarge upon details. Moderator will be Jaycee Tommy Speer.

Sitting on the panel will be T. E. Tucker, president of Florida State Bank; Howard Hodges, president of Sanford Atlantic Bank; George Touhy, executive vice president of First Federal Savings and Loan, and John Burton, IV, architect.

"In the public interest we have opened the meeting to all interested persons and have invited members of the City Commission and area news media," Long said.

"We particularly urge members of other civic clubs and organizations to try to attend, for it is apparent that putting these plans, or similar plans into action, will have a great effect on the future of all of us, and it behooves us to learn all that we can about it," Long added.

"We urge that everyone be on time, so that we can finish lunch if possible before the broadcast begins. We will begin serving promptly at noon," Long noted.

In showing the letter to a Clock Watcher, Art footnoted it with: "Mr. Buckman was speaking primarily of Martha (Telford) Vihlen, I, too, am proud of the staff in this office and feel that each is well trained, able and courteous." We agree. We agree.

Julian Stenstrom, associate editor of The Herald and author of the crisp, penetrating editorials on the lakefront marina, is vacationing with his family in Louisiana.

Sanford on a Sunday morning: A parking meter with time still left on it; tourists driving slowly along city streets, hunting for an open restaurant and breakfast before hitting the road again; boatmen pulling their trailers into the municipal parking lot after putting their boat in the water; an American flag still flying, apparently forgotten the night before; sailboat enthusiasts stowing gear and refreshments aboard prior to hoisting sails for a quiet day on Lake Monroe; the little dog and its master standing at the corner of First and Park, a daily happening.

Last week it held at a firm high of 74 degrees; this week it willed somewhat to a high of 72 degrees. We're speaking of the clock at First and Park. But today timepiece technicians performed an operation and the time-temperature apparatus returned to normal. Almost a shame — seemed cooler when it recorded a daily high in the 70's.

A bit of advice: You can learn first hand just what the proposed lakefront marina will involve if you attend the Jaycee luncheon Thursday at the Civic Center.

Let's Get Started, Is Merchant's Plea

B. I. Perkins Jr., proprietor of a men's wear store on East First Street and which bears his name, declared today that Sanford must "get started" in developing a lakefront marina.

Perkins noted that "we have talked about" such a development for "as long as I can remember." He called for prompt action on the proposal as it will "do much to stabilize our downtown area."

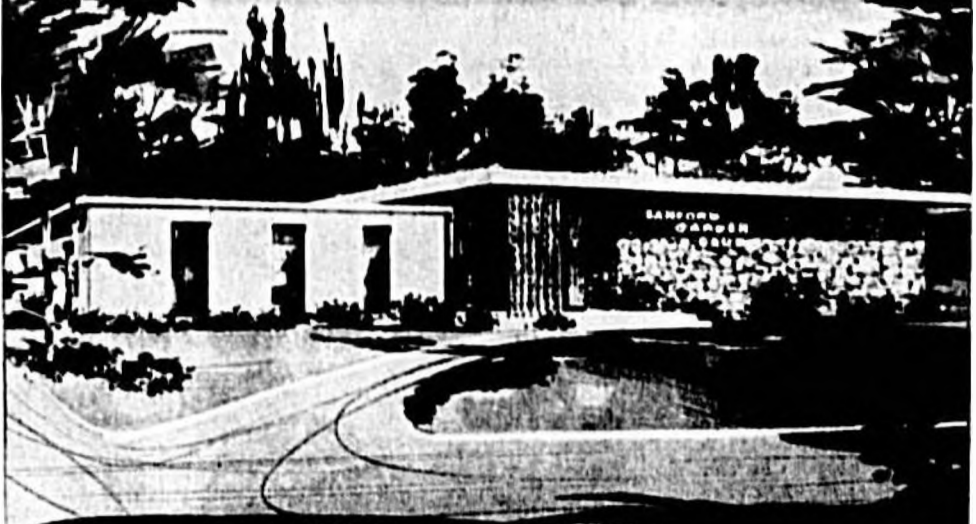

The local merchant's statement follows:

"We have talked about developing our lakefront for as long as I can remember. I feel that it is important that a program should be adopted now so that this great natural asset of ours can be fully utilized.

"It is my thought that a marina and all the activities that go along with it will bring countless people to Sanford and that this will do much to stabilize our downtown area located only two blocks away. This cannot be accomplished in a day, a week or a year — but it must be done. Let's get started."

B. I. PERKINS JR.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING of the proposed Sanford Garden Club building is shown above. Plans call for a $40,000 structure located about two miles south of Sanford on Hwy. 17-92. Meeting rooms, kitchen and rest rooms will be in the left half of the building and a large auditorium on the right. Parking to match the capacity of the auditorium is in the plans but not shown in the drawing.

High Priestess 'Dead Or Alive'

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — Troops scoured the non-infested bush of Northern Rhodesia today under orders to take "high priestesses" Alice Lenshina dead or alive.

Members of Mrs. Lenshina's Lumpa church went on a rampage in the east Monday, burning and ransacking at least 18 villages and killing at least 150 persons. Reports said many victims were burned alive in their blazing huts.

The government said the new massacre raised the official death toll in the Lumpa's two week "holy war" to 221.

Premier Kenneth Kaunda banned the church for 30 days—the legal maximum—and ordered Mrs. Lenshina brought in "dead or alive."

He also warned all tourists out of the area—site of Northern Rhodesia's best game parks — and advised them to travel in convoys.

The attacks, he said, were "obviously the acts of madmen."

Mrs. Lenshina is a plump housewife who claims she died 11 years ago and was reincarnated to serve a "black god." Since then she has signed up an estimated 100,000 followers through a potent mixture of religion, mysticism and pageantry.

Rioters Treated Like Children

HASTINGS, England (UPI) — Policemen who were airlifted to Hastings and helped squelch teen-age rowdies by treating them like children won praise today from fed-up citizens.

Five thousand mop-headed "Mods" and leather-jacketed "Rockers" descended on this English Channel resort Saturday to spend the last three-day weekend of the summer in what has become a ritual of aimless destruction and brawls.

But 150 policemen kept the teenagers from congregating and forced them to keep moving whenever they tried to loiter. They broke up small scuffles and arrested 59 Mods and Rockers.

Club Program Is Canceled

The program on numismatics, which was scheduled for Kiwanis luncheon meeting Wednesday will not be held, Roger Harris, program chairman announced today.

Ira Hughes, North American representative at the Naval Air Station, will show the club interesting color slides on the recent deployment of his group in the Mediterranean area. The slide pictures were taken in Italy and other countries touched during the Navy deployment tour, Harris said.

Man Held For Volusia Police

A man identified as W. W. (Bobby) Johns of Sanford was arrested by county police Monday on a warrant issued in Volusia County and charging assault with a deadly weapon.

Deputies said Johns is alleged to have fired a gun into the ground early Monday morning outside Cloud 9 tavern and pellets from the weapon bounced, hitting some persons standing nearby.

Bryant Offers Holley Help

4 Citrus Men Found Guilty In Tax Fraud

MIAMI (UPI) — Four members of an Orlando citrus family were found guilty of failing to report more than $350,000 in income to the federal government in 1957-58.

The government filed a 14-count information against the men: Herman J. Heidrich, 68, Orlando, his two sons, Francis X. 44, and Paul D. 39, both of Winter Park, and Fred W. Feurbacher, 67, of Orlando, father-in-law of Francis.

They pleaded no contest to some of the counts and were judged guilty by Federal Judge Emmet Choate, who called for an investigation by the U. S. Probation Department and set sentencing for Aug. 28.

Herman, founder of the Herman J. Heidrich and Sons Citrus and Peach Packing Co. of Orlando, was found guilty on two counts of failing to report gross additional income amounting to $102,375.45.

Francis, sales manager of the firm, was judged guilty of one count of failing to report additional gross income of $103,646.49. Paul, production manager of the company, was found guilty of failing to report $119,821.47 in additional gross income.

Feurbacher, former comptroller of the company, was found guilty of two counts of aiding and assisting in the preparation and submission of false and fraudulent income tax statements.

Strengthened Fleet Watches Red Coasts

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — The U. S. Seventh Fleet said it strengthened patrols off Communist North Viet Nam today with orders straight from President Johnson to kill if attacked.

The destroyer USS Maddox, which repelled an "unprovoked attack" Sunday by three Russian-built North Vietnamese PT patrol torpedo boats was joined on patrol station in the Gulf of Tonkin by the destroyer USS C. Turner Joy.

Previously, the job of observing Communist shipping in the Gulf had been handled by one destroyer at a time without continuous air cover.

Today, by command of the President, the two destroyers were screened by a combat air patrol from the carrier USS Ticonderoga, on station 200 miles to the south. This was 100 miles closer than its previous position.

U. S. warships were under new and stronger standing orders. Before Sunday's apparently unprecedented incident, they were expected to repel any attack but not to pursue the attackers.

But Johnson said that from now on they will "attack any force which attacks them in international waters . . . not only with the objective of driving off the force but of destroying it."

Meanwhile, 3 miles north of Saigon, a U. S. Army enlisted man was shot and killed today in a Communist ambush.

He was the 175th American killed in action in Viet Nam.

Four Vietnamese soldiers riding in a jeep with the American Special Forces man also were killed.

The five were killed when Communist Viet Cong guerrillas opened fire with automatic weapons on their jeep as they headed home from a morning of work on a project helping Vietnamese villagers clear land for crops.

Zoning Session Rescheduled

Monday night's public hearing before the Casselberry Zoning Board on a request to rezone the former Gelsler property on Lake Concord from residential to commercial was rescheduled for next Monday night's regular meeting of the Casselberry Board of Aldermen.

Request for the change is being made by George H. Rackensperger of Winter Park, new owner of the property, who proposes to locate an estimated $100,000 Bavarian type restaurant and play house on the site.

Objections to the change in zoning have been registered by Joseph I. Laird and Walter Dittmer, who own property across the lake, although residents living less than 500 feet from the area in question have joined in support of the change.

Auditorium To Seat 350

By Dottie Austin City Editor

Mrs. Auburn Rector, president of the Sanford Garden Club, and Mrs. D. K. Dorman, past president, have announced plans for a $40,000 Garden Center to be built by the organization.

The long-planned center will be constructed on land donated to the club by Brailey Olham, builder, on Highway 17-92 near the north entrance to Sunland Estates, about two miles south of the city limits.

Mrs. Rector and Mrs. Dorman said the building will contain about 6,200 square feet of floor space and will have a seating capacity for from 250 to 400 persons. The plans for the auditorium are complete with a stage and dressing rooms in the wings.

The central lobby which will feature a polished brick floor has been designed so that it can be opened to accommodate extra seating if necessary.

The architectural plans for the building and grounds were drawn and donated to the Garden Club by Joseph Shifalo of Winter Park. They feature concrete block construction with a mica stone decorative front, and terrazzo floors.

Also included in the plan of the modern center are four meeting rooms, a kitchen and restrooms.

Working toward the construction of the building for several years have been the 13 circles of the Sanford Garden Club, which has approximately 277 members.

Purpose of the building is to facilitate the needs of the Club for meetings, luncheons, card parties, flower shows, bazaars, and all functional activities of the garden clubs.

In addition, Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. Rector said the building could be rented to civic groups for various events.

Defining the building as a "horticultural and educational center," the Garden Club officials indicated that it would encompass the work of the junior gardeners, garden therapy classes and work shops.

Bids for the construction of the building have been let, and will be opened Sept. 15.

After a bid is selected, the club will decide whether to begin construction immediately or wait until they have secured all the necessary funds.

At present the group has in its treasury some $31,000 and estimates they need $10,000 more.

They plan to raise the money through various fund raising events such as bazaars, shows, parties.

"We also hope that persons interested in gardening and beautification will want to help build the center by donating money toward the building fund," said Mrs. Dorman.

"We have already had many private donations, and hope that we will get more," said Mrs. Rector.

The officials said that they would release the names of donors for publication, shortly.

Banks Act To Shake Loose Hoarded Coins

The present shortage of coins has reached such proportions in most parts of the country that the American Bankers Association is moving to do something about the situation, it was revealed today.

Letters were received by all banking institutions from William F. Kelly, president of the ABA, informing them of action, to inform the public of the seriousness of the shortage.

The ABA hopes to persuade coin hoarding Americans to put that change back in circulation by exchanging coins for currency.

They also hope to prevail on retail merchants to rely on normal channels of circulation and refrain from hoarding.

Bankers are urged to do all in their power to impress their customers, both individuals and commercial firms, to allow all coins to circulate freely. Coin collectors share the blame, too.

President Howard Hodges of the Sanford Atlantic Bank said today that his bank has been experiencing shortages of pennies, nickels and half dollars. Orders to the Federal Reserve Bank for more coins are only partially filled and in some cases weeks pass before orders are received.

At the Florida State Bank, President T. E. Tucker reports that they have a fair supply of pennies, but nickels and half dollars are running short.

The U. S. Treasury Department has announced an intensified program to double the nation's rate of coin production within a year and raise it by 75 per cent during the next six months.

Steps already taken to expand the current production of coins include the inauguration of a continuous seven day, 24 hour production schedule at the nation's two mints in Denver and Philadelphia. "make it right."

Sanford Put On Pavilion Map

Sanford is now on the map at the Florida Pavilion at the World's Fair!

John Krider, executive director of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, told The Herald just before press time that he received word today from New York that Sanford has been "put on the map."

The map referred to is a large locational, recreational map of the state at the Florida Pavilion. Through Seminole County's Senator Mack Cleveland protests were made to Governor Farris Bryant and Wendell Jarrard, who apologized and promised to "make it right."

Deltona Organizes Fire Association

By Mildred Haney

The Deltona Volunteer Fire Association was organized at a meeting held Monday, July 20, at which time officers were appointed to act until the non-profit charter is received after which elections will be held.

At the present time fire protection for the community is provided by the Florida Forestry Fire Service which has offered to assist in establishing the volunteer group. Other offers of help in organizing a Deltona Department have come from the Volusia County Fire Association in Lake Helen and from fire groups in Daytona Beach, Holly Hill, New Smyrna Beach and DeBary.

Frank Sletta, director of the Volusia County Fire Association and organizer of the Lake Helen Volunteer Fire Association and its president for three years, has been of immeasurable help and Mackie Brothers have assured assistance in obtaining the non-profit charter.

Officers appointed to serve during the formation period are Dean W. Howland, president; Thomas Blanchard, vice president; Stanley Jenkins, secretary; J. Richard Vardell, treasurer; Harold Harris, J. Stanley Gardner and Fred James, directors; Randy Kaufmann, chief; Gus Reindl, assistant chief, and William Ebbitt, financial secretary.

The chief, assistant chief and financial secretary have a combined fire department experience of 78 years.

Muslim Among 9 Held In Rioting

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — Police today held nine men, including one who said he was a member of the Black Muslims, after a riot in which 1,600 jeering Negroes threw rocks and debris and fought with officers for approximately three hours.

Five officers were injured, one seriously, and one of the rioters was shot in the arm. Patrolman Gilbert Durham, 38, was reported in fair condition today. He apparently suffered internal injuries when he was kicked in the stomach, police said.

Leroy Jackson, 23, a Negro, suffered a bullet wound in the left arm. He was reported in good condition today. Officers said the man they believed instigated the riot, which was triggered by an auto accident, escaped after being subdued and placed in a patrol car. He remained at large today. Those held included Joseph Anderson, 28, who told police he was a member of the Black Muslims. Twelve charges were filed against him.

Jayne Does Some Figuring For Soviet Youth

MOSCOW (UPI) — Jayne Mansfield gave some advice to Soviet women Sunday on how to preserve good figures. Regular exercise with bar bells.

The newspaper Moskovsky Komsomolets (Moscow Young Communist League) urged Soviet girls to preserve their figures and good looks through exercise.

Mrs. Mansfield was quoted as saying: "I have preserved my appearance thanks to regular exercise with bar bells which has opened the door to being healthy, young and successful."

House Leaders Work To Get Poverty Votes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House leaders are working feverishly behind the scenes to muster the votes they must have by Thursday or Friday for President Johnson's anti-poverty bill.

The official word from the bill's backers is that the votes have been secured to pass the top-priority measure. But opponents are saying publicly, and some supporters are conceding privately, that a sure majority has not been nailed down. Debate on the bill is scheduled to begin Wednesday.

The key to passage of the bill, which is Johnson's major offering to Congress under his own name, is to get the support of southern Democrats. Assignment of the bill's management to Rep. Phil M. Landrum, D-Ga., was designed to help lure the Dixie members.

But reports of wavering or outright desertion by southerners, thought to be committed to the bill, have been circulating in the House lobbies since last week. Heightening the rumors of weakness in the ranks was the appearance at the Capitol last Friday and Monday of R. Sargent Shriver Jr., Peace Corps director and Johnson's choice to head the new anti-poverty program.

In addition, the President and his White House staff were understood to be contacting members whose votes might be in doubt and making every effort to sign them up.

Cold Fact, But Definitely

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Weather Bureau today offered what it called "an interesting fact" to residents of those areas where temperatures climbed into the 90's and 100's.

The lowest temperature ever recorded on our planet earth occurred during the month of August, the Weather Bureau said. "The temperature fell to a minus 128.0 degrees Fahrenheit at Vostok, Antarctica, on Aug. 24, 1960."

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Despite Senate attempts to yank its political molars, President Johnson's antipoverty bill may still be able to bite off a huge chunk of votes this November.

Some Republicans—Barry Goldwater among them—raise the question, "Does the nation need such a bill or can it be done better at the local level?" However, apprehensions of some Republicans were summed up by one GOP House member:

"It's awfully difficult to vote FOR poverty in an election year."

Whatever the political realities, White House officials make it clear that the President believes that passage of the measure will give the federal government a kit of sharp tools to tackle some plaguing economic and social questions.

The administration holds that the bill will ameliorate racial strife by cutting into the basic causes.

Key Republicans have been outspoken in their opposition to "that bill that has something for everyone," calling it a political gimmick designed to get votes. GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater charges it is "election year demagoguery" and voted against its passage in the Senate.

After much debate, the Senate voted quietly to bar partisan politics from the ceratic convention opens in Atlantic City.

If so, small parts of the antipoverty package could be in operation before the President is nominated. And by Election Day, Nov. 3, the entire program could be in full awing. Basically the bill would: — Set up three programs at a cost of $412.5 million to help youths in "poverty pockets"—a 40,000-member Federal Job Corps, a Work Training Program for 200,000 high school dropouts or potential dropouts and a Work Study Program for 140,000 college students providing part-time work to help them meet tuition costs.

— Provide $340 million in federal grants under the Community Action Program to combat specific poverty problems on the local level, such as illiteracy, lack of job training and poor health conditions.

— Authorize $50 million in grants and loans for low-income farmers. The Senate cut this portion of the bill by $15 million.

— Provide funds for loans under liberal terms for small businesses which cannot get credit elsewhere due to high risk.

Major emphasis in the program is on local community initiative. "We're ready to provide the money and equipment whenever a local area comes up with an acceptable proposal of how to use them," is the way one administration official puts it.

Responsible for the Job Corps and most of the Community Action Program segments would be a newly created Office of Economic Opportunity under Shriver's directorship.

Shriver's deputy, Adam Yarmolinsky — former trouble-shooter for Secretary Robert McNamara in the Defense Department — estimates that up to 20 Job Corps conservation camps could be opened in the first two or three Georgia state democratic Chairman J. B. Purpus said he had no particular favorite, but said he would support whomever receives the nomination.

Georgia Gov. Carl Sanders said he would have to talk personally with some of the prospective candidates to determine if they are acceptable "to the South."

months after the bill is signed into law.

More than 40 cities, most of them large population centers, have already contacted Shriver for fill-ins on how Community Action Programs work. Yarmolinsky believes that a "dozen or so" large grants could be made in this field in the first four months.

Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz — whose department will administer the Work Training Program — plugged the use of federal funds to train dropouts at the recent New York Conference of Mayors. More than 60 mayors showed further interest.

"We can get rolling on this before the next school year begins," predicts one Labor Department aide.

Agriculture Department's Farmers House Administration will operate the machinery which provides loans and grants to marginal farmers.

"We're just waiting for the bill to be signed," an official says. "We can make the first loan a week later."

Officials at the Health, Education and Welfare Department and the Small Business Administration, which will administer the remainder of the antipoverty program, indicate the same degree of preparedness.

Whether fast implementation of the legislation will benefit President Johnson at the polls next November remains to be seen. But key Republicans are worried.

As the man said: How can you be FOR poverty?

Humphrey Strong In West

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic leaders in more than a dozen midwestern and western states today indicated their willingness to support Sen. Hubert Humphrey for vice president, but whomever receives the Minnesota Democrat was not as widespread.

Results of a UPI survey showed that after President Johnson's elimination of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and other cabinet officers, many governors, state chairmen and other party leaders preferred Humphrey over Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., or were willing to support the president's choice for a running mate.

Northern democratic leaders were more pronounced in urging that selection of the vice presidential candidate be

MRS. EILEEN CORNETT was elected new president of the VAH-11—DET. 8 Enlisted Men's Wives Club at the meeting of the group last week.

Named by the club members to serve with Mrs. Cornett were Agnes Buenavista as first vice president; Carolyn Molder as second vice president; Sherrie Grubb, secretary and Sandra McAnally, treasurer.

EILEEN CORNETT

The new officers will be installed at a date to be announced later.

First plans of the new board are for a picnic at the lake on the Orlando Air Force Base, Saturday. Committee members in charge of arrangements are Pat Clemens, Janice Cerici and Agnes Buenavista.

Several new members were welcomed into the club at the last meeting, including Judy Moreau, Glenda Thurman, Dottie Clemmons, Eileen Bibeaux, Fifi Rios, Shirley Lucas, Darlene Hooker, Janet Hill and Charlotte Nees.

In the works, with plans still under wraps, is the fashion show that will be coming up soon, under the direction of Mrs. Buenavista, with assistance from Bonnie Jenkins and Dottie Bergen.

Dottie will still be publicity chairman for the club's general activities.

A COCKTAIL PARTY in honor of RVAH-1 groom, Lt. J.G. Forrest W. Sherrill and his bride, lovely Debbie Trepanier, was held a few days before their wedding (which was Saturday).

Hosting the gala celebration were Lcdr. and Mrs. Tom Conroy and Lcdr. and Mrs. Jim Bell, at the Conroy's charming home in Loch Arbor.

Just about everyone of the squadron's officers and their wives along with numerous guests, were present to enjoy the various gourmet delights concocted by the hosts, which was sparked (or spiked) with a delicious green punch, served from elegant silver punch bowls.

Special guests, besides the honored couple, were Debbie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Bruce of DeBary and her grandmother, Mrs. Helen Bruce.

Highlight of the evening was the opening of the many strange and unusual "gimmick" gifts presented to the bride couple.

ANOTHER POPULAR COUPLE who were feted recently were Cdr. Stanley Stanul and his lovely wife, Gloria.

They were guests of honor at a pool party given by the Station Officers, Saturday night. Lcdr. Jay Miller was in charge of the arrangements, and he made some fine ones.

The pool area was lighted by tiki torches. It was cool and relaxing in the pool and out, and everyone consumed with gusto the delicious steaks, done to order and served with the usual baked potatoes and salad, along with other refreshments.

Cdr. and Mrs. Stanul were presented with an engraved silver tray as a memento of their service here, by Capt. Chandler Swanson.

The pool party also welcomed aboard some newcomers—Lt. and Mrs. Walter Muller; Lt. and Mrs. Salvador J. Baranco and Ena; and Mrs. Timothy J. Holmes.

Other special guests were Dr. and Mrs. John E. Cox and Cdr. and Mrs. J. Russell Wilson, (ret.).

DON'T FORGET the farewell luncheon for Gloria Stanul at the Georgian Manor in Maitland, Thursday at 12:30 p. m.

Station Wives should get their reservations in by Wednesday, along with names of any invited guests. Call Mrs. Vincent Law or Mrs. William Ridell.

MRS. IRA JARRELL, past president of the CPO Wives Club, was re-instated Saturday night at a dinner party and installation service, held at the Chief's Club.

Mrs. Jarrell has been such an efficient and popular president, the club prevailed upon her to serve again this year.

Serving with her will be Mrs. Ralph Morrell as treasurer, Mrs. S. L. Wiggins as vice president and Mrs. Harold Sundvall as secretary.

Husbands and wives present at the hot and cold buffet enjoyed dancing to a live band (whose name we did not get).

There were many comments on the unusual table arrangements of candles, fern and hibiscus, which added so much to the festive atmosphere. Hostesses were Mrs. Paul Weber, Mrs. C. E. Morton and Mrs. Carol Kerr.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Jarrell and the outgoing staff. The president's gift was an engraved silver chip-and-dip tray, and the others members of the board, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Walter Armstrong received silver charms for their bracelets.

A door prize (which we won't mention) was won by Mrs. Pat Bernal. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Glenn, Mr. A. C. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Combs, and Mrs. A. A. Simpson of Akron, Ohio.

CPO WIVES board meeting, with old and new board members is to be held at Gloria Simpson's Pinecrest home at 8 p. m. August 12th.

The Simpson's have as house guests Phil's mother, Mrs. A. A. Simpson, and Miss Donna Werner both from Akron, Ohio. Miss Werner is Becky Simpson's godmother, and the trip to Florida from Ohio is her high school graduation gift.

To expand it a little farther, Gloria is taking Miss Werner and Mrs. Simpson down to Miami for a few days sight-seeing and touring before they return north.

Other personal items from the CPO Wives Club include the fact that Mrs. Paul Weber entered Seminole Memorial Hospital Monday for major surgery.

Also, Mrs. Lewis Driscoll has returned from Lackland AFB where she underwent surgery. She is reported to be "getting along fine."

RVAH-1 OFFICERS' WIVES held their Squadron coffee and business meeting July 20th at the home of Mrs. Richard A. Barnes in Ravenna Park, with Mrs. John Barger as co-hostess.

In the course of the business meeting, several positions changed hands, and three bowling teams were formed (minus one player on Team No. Two).

Changes in jobs find Mrs. Barnes taking over as treasurer; Mrs. Gunnar Wilster assuming the job of publicity chairman; Mrs. Charles McKenna being appointed bridge chairman; Mrs. Robert Recknor taking over the Thrift Shop; and Mrs. James Bell named Squadron representative.

Chairman of the squadron wives, Mrs. Jesse Taft thoughtfully presented the wives with a printed copy of the functions and duties of the group chairmen.

She also appealed for volunteers to man the Thrift Shop and help with Navy Relief.

Next function of the group is a luncheon which is scheduled for August 20th. More about that later.

PERSONAL to Kay Bartholomew.

Kay, if you are reading The Herald these days, there is something we would like to relay to you.

CPO WIVES installed new officers Saturday at a dinner dance at the Chief's Club. From left are Mrs. Ralph Morrell, treasurer; Mrs. Ira Jarrell, president; Mrs. S. L. Wiggins, vice president and Mrs. Harold Sundvall, secretary.

So Kay, for all the messages you have received, there are many more that may never be written, or spoken, because it's hard for folks to say what's in their hearts.

But may the unexpressed out-reaching of their spirits undergird yours.

Retaliation By U. S. Urged

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI)—South Vietnamese Premier Gen. Nguyen Khanh said today the United States should take strong retaliatory measures for the Communist PT-boat attack on the destroyer Maddox, least it be branded as a "paper tiger."

"The Americans should do something about this to save face," Khanh told newsmen at a reception.

Khanh said the "Question now is whether we are going to do something or just let the Communists attack like that."

"My viewpoint is that we should be firmer toward them," he said.

Episcopal Vicar Is On Vacation

Rev. Charles W. Stewart Jr., vicar of Christ Episcopal Church, Longwood, and his family are vacationing during the month of August in the Carolina mountains.

Due to Fr. Stewart's absence, the Episcopal Churchwomen have canceled their August meeting. The next regular meeting of the organization will be Sept. 8.

Scouts On Wekiva Canoe Trip

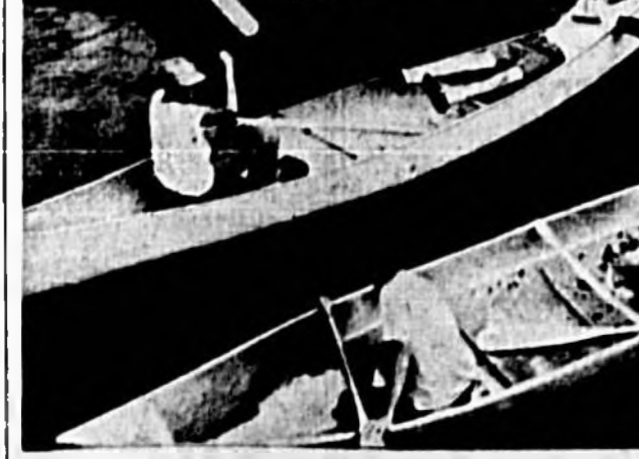

By Jane Casselberry

Eighteen scouts and explorers under the leadership of Scoutmaster Jack Stuart of Troop 38, Altamonte Springs, launched their canoes Sunday at the Little Wekiva River Road Bridge for a trip through the virgin wilderness of Wekiva River and up the St. Johns as far as Crow's Bluff west of DeLand.

The first night's camp was set up at the Sportsman's Association Park at SR 46 bridge. Blue Springs on the St. Johns was scheduled for Monday night's stopover.

Leaving the river at Crow's Bluff on Tuesday, they were transported to Paisley where they will hike to the Stuart's Lost Lake camp to spend the remainder of the week. They will return home Saturday afternoon.

The boys hope to earn the coveted 50-mile award for traveling 50 miles afoot as well as working on the canoeing and rowing merit badges during the trip. As part of the requirements for the 50-mile they will work on a conservation project.

A CANOE TRIP through the wilds of the Wekiva River and up the St. Johns to Grow's Bluff near DeLand was launched Sunday by a group of Altamonte and Casselberry Scouts at the bridge on Little Wekiva River Road. Summer Program Leaves Many Fond Memories For Students

By Donna Estes

The six-weeks of organized activity of the summer recreation program at Longwood Elementary School came to a conclusion Friday to the sorrow of many young people in the area.

X-Ray Unit To Visit DeBary

By Mrs. Frank White

Dr. Luther Tarbell of DeBary announced that the Mobile TB X-Ray Unit will be at DeBary Plaza on Saturday, Aug. 15, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. and from 2 until 5 p.m.

The return visit is being made due to the fact that on the previous trip faulty machines resulted in cloudy x-rays for some of the residents, Dr. Tarbell said.

Those persons who were x-rayed and have not as yet received their return cards from the Volusia County Board of Health are asked to report to the Unit on the 15th. Those who did not get their x-rays upon the last visit also are urged to have them made at this time.

Show Prices Reduced For Recreation

By Mrs. Frank White

Glenn Smith, chairman of the DeBary Summer Youth Program, has announced that Stover Theatre in DeLand, in cooperation with the summer recreation, has set reduced prices for children and adults for Wednesday's 8 p.m. performance of the show, "Of Thee I Sing."

On Wednesday and Friday mornings at the Community Center there is volleyball, table tennis, croquet, shuffleboard and other games for the older boys and girls and handicraft and story book sessions for the younger children.

Auxiliary To Meet

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Longwood Volunteer Fire Department will meet at 8 p.m. today at the Fire Hall on Wilma Street. Mrs. Jean Wilts, president, will conduct the meeting and serving as hostesses will be Mrs. Sue Braxton and Mrs. Mildred Eschavon.

The special events and arts and crafts of the program gave the students many happy memories in what might otherwise have been a very dull summer.

The young people remember all the days of swimming, or of trying to learn to swim at Land O'Lakes Country Club in Casselberry every Thursday; of blistered feet and skinned knees they received while skating on Tuesdays at Skate City; of being able to, for once, to eat all the watermelon they could hold on watermelon day; of blowing fisters and all-over-the-face bubbles on bubble-gum day; of the delicious hot stew (which mothers wouldn't dare to serve at home) on hobo day.

They can bring back to mind all the peanuts they found at the peanut hunt; the pretty dolls and unusual hobbies at the hobby show; the candy treasures they found at the treasure hunt; the sizzling hot dogs and popping marshmallows and their special feline guest at the wienner roast; decorating their bicycles for the bicycle rodeo; twisting and trying to do the limbo in the dance contest; the fish that got away in the fish contest; the unusual acts in the talent show; how differently they looked in their baby pictures at the baby picture contest and, finally, junior olympics day.

Most of all, they remember the fairness and patience of Coaches Walt Durus and Rodney Umberger and of the kindness, patience and good humor of Mrs. Nell Drueding who taught them how to make bookends, covered coat hangers, macaroni necklaces, mosaics of shell, sand, paper and macaroni and many other interesting arts and crafts.

Poverty Is Nonpartisan

Poverty is nonpartisan. Its cure should not be considered a purely Democratic concern though a 2-1 majority of Republicans in the Senate voted against the administration's antipoverty bill. Sensitive Republicans are against poverty as much as anybody else. Their doubts about the efficacy of the present bill cannot be wholly explained as mere election-year obstructionism.

A group of Republicans showed their recognition of the problem with an alternate antipoverty proposal some months ago. One of the Republican tenets remains, especially important. It urged "developing each program, including those concerned with regional development, to ensure that benefits will accrue directly to families and individuals living in poverty."

In other words, passage of a bill to wage war on poverty will mean little unless the forces on the front line are wise and efficient.

Any waste will seem flagrant, because the price tag on the bill, about $950,000,000, is so much smaller than many students of poverty consider necessary. The National Policy Committee on Pockets of Poverty, for example, is reported to suggest an expenditure of $10,000,000,000 a year for five years.

This is not to diminish President Johnson's achievement in getting his bill this far. He realizes that, as he said at the beginning, the program will not eradicate poverty but "show the way." He intended not "a struggle simply to support people, to make them dependent on the generosity of others," but "a struggle to give people a chance."

Poverty today is not simply a matter of too few jobs to go around—if it ever was. Many jobs go begging, and the poor go begging, too, because they do not have even the basic skills to prepare them to be trained for the jobs that exist.

Such poverty needs special approaches such as those fought for by the President. Time will tell whether his program will "show the way" in the right direction. Already Senator Goldwater is said to have called it "a hodgepodge of programs treating only the results, not the causes, of poverty."

Meanwhile, two Republicans who decided to vote for the bill were quoted on reasons emphasizing the nonpartisan importance of the bill's passage. "Sure, it's political," said Senator Aiken, "but it's infinitesimal compared with what's been done for big business." And Senator Javits said the program would "direct national attention on poverty, and that's why I'm for it."

Thought For Today

A wise son makes a glad father, but a foolish son is a sorrow to his mother.—Proverbs 10:1.

By God, I have a son!—

Political Notebook

CHICAGO (NEA)—A fairly strong bond exists in Illinois now between Charles H. Percy, handsome, self-assured GOP nominee for governor, and the powerful forces of Sen. Barry Goldwater. But it isn't perfect.

One top Goldwater source in the state dismisses the imperfections as "technicalities." Percy himself says the difficulties are limited to those Goldwaterites who demand slavish acceptance of every move the senator makes. Others insist the trouble runs deeper.

No matter what his critics contend, Chuck Percy argues that he is going to be his own man. There is evidence to support his claim—and therein lies his problem.

A Percy backer put it this way:

"A lot of people in Illinois admire Goldwater because he is his own man. But let anyone else try it and he is denounced as a traitor to Goldwater."

The matter never quite dies. Three ardent women supporters of Percy emerged from his headquarters the other day after having reported to an aide that "much anti-Percy feeling" was rearing its head among Goldwater folk.

Some in Barry's camp noted suspiciously that in Percy's introduction of Rep. William E. Miller in San Francisco as vice presidential nominee, he never mentioned Goldwater.

Others did not like either Percy's first sharply critical remarks on Goldwater's "extremism" gambit in his acceptance speech, or Percy's later bland interpretation of the senator's words.

Here, a curiosity appears. For Percy says Goldwater aides have told him privately they rate his interpretation as "perfect."

An event that occurred in an Illinois delegation caucus at San Francisco shows how grudging is the attitude of some Goldwater people toward their aggressive young governor nominee.

According to some firm inside accounts, Percy succeeded day-by-day in winning the confidence of more and more delegates of that heavily Goldwater delegation. Yet some viewed his promise to campaign for the senator skeptically.

"Will you put it in writing?" asked one delegate.

As one who refuses to slash his wrists for Barry and who has openly assailed the senator's vote against the 1964 civil rights bill, Percy may be doomed to contend with such suspicions for the rest of the campaign—if not beyond.

Nevertheless, it is a fact that his position today seems secure among the state's responsible Goldwater leaders, including Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Albert Derwinsky.

Some irony attends Percy's troubles with the zealots, since he has been at pains for years to separate himself from the "Eastern Republicans" and is getting gunfire from many moderates who do not like his vote for Goldwater at the San Francisco convention.

His record and his stated positions do indicate he is something of a mixed bag.

He opposes liberal versions of Medicare, federal aid to education and a state income tax, and has sometimes taken a foreign policy stance not markedly unlike Goldwater's.

But he favors the civil rights act, has some reasonable claim to being father of the Fair Employment Practices Commission in Illinois, and supported the anti-extremism platform plank put forward by Michigan's Gov. George Romney.

Says an assistant: "He can be comfortable with the new direction his party is taking."

The time may never come, however, when all the Goldwaterites moving in that direction will be comfortable with Charles Percy.

Cavemen Meet

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The Missouri Cave Association, composed of the "Cave State's" 25 commercial cave owners, holds its meetings in the caves operated by the members.

"It makes us feel more at home," says President Eddie Miller. He estimates that about 3 million persons will visit Missouri caves this year, an increase of 25 per cent over last year.

Letters

To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:
The Supreme Court starting with the 1964 school case, has made more socialist rulings, based on the trend of the times, instead of on the Constitution, than all other justices have since we became a nation.

The latest being the invasion of the states rights to select their representatives and senators, as they see fit. If both houses of the Legislature are to be based on population only, there would be no need for but one body, and we would have no checks and balances, against each other as we now have.

It would also follow that the United States Senate as now constituted is also illegal. There are several ways to stop this unlawful use of power. The Senate could by law change their rulings, or could impeach them for cause, or could have back bone enough to vote against confirming the appointment of unqualified men, such as Chief Justice Warren, who never sat as a judge on lower courts, and had very little experience practicing law before he was appointed to this high office to pay off a political debt.

The only other way is to have a man in the White House, such as Barry Goldwater, who believes in the Constitution of these United States. Who would appoint only qualified, experienced men to this high office, who would not try to also make the laws. After Barry Goldwater takes office next January, we could only hope that those tired old men now on the Court would soon retire, and I for one would shed no tears, if they all retired the same day, because they have done enough harm to this one great Nation of ours.

Editor, The Herald:

I have been reading with great interest an article by Dr. F. C. Brooke Smith. I am in full accord with his thinking. And I do hope we can include an Olympic pool at the new marina site.

We need tourists as well as industry. The city fathers threw cold water on a proposal about a motel. And I would like to mention a nice modern seafood restaurant on our waterfront. I have a menu from an outstanding company on the East Coast, namely New England Oyster House. They have eight locations down South. Maybe they can get them to come to Sanford. We could attract people from all over Central Florida, also our tourists. A seafood restaurant is a must.

Thanks very much.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The compulsion of outdoor advertisers to clutter the landscape with billboards reached a new extreme this week.

One of them is trying to rent space on women in topless bathing suits.

Ladies who appear publicly in these suits can pick up $1 a day by wearing stickers that read: "Visit Miramed Caverns." Provided, of course, the police don't pick them up first.

"I couldn't resist all that space going to waste," said Lester Hill, who operates the caverns.

"Okay, Lester. That does it. I had intended to stay out of the topless swim suit controversy, but you have pushed me too far."

As my contribution to this great issue I have contrived another one of my "Interviews" with William Shakespeare, in which I take the words of the immortal Bard and place them in a contemporary setting.

Q. Mr. Shakespeare, what do you think of the new topless style in bathing suits?
A. "This is very midsummer madness."

Q. I gather you do not approve of women going around without tops?
A. "Such an act that blurs the graceful blush of modesty."

Q. Do you regard the suits as indecent?
A. "They are too thin and bare of hide offences."

Q. In other words, some women do not have the right figure for topless suits. Is that right?
A. "O, that this too too solid flesh would melt."

Q. What about women who are flat - chested?
A. "They fool me to the top of my bent. Lord, lord, how this world is given to lying."

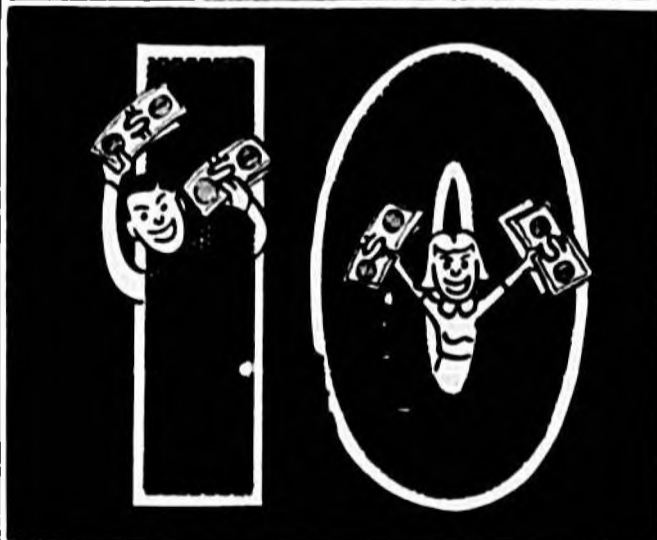

Q. Are you implying that some women are deceitful where their figures are concerned?
A. "False as dice's snaths. Robes and furr'd gowns hide all."

Q. What happens if they put on topless suits?
A. "Truth will come to light. Through tatter'd clothes small vices appear."

Frailty, thy name is woman."
Q. What does a woman need to look good in a topless suit?
A. "Enough, with over-measure."

Safety, like charity, begins at home. It doesn't take too long to check for hazards in the farm home, and the time couldn't be better spent.

Accidents are the nation's fourth greatest killer, says the National Safety Council— but they can be prevented.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Edith was worried about her roommate, for the latter had developed an infatuation for Edith. Among adults, such romancing with one's own sex is called homosexuality. Millions of Americans are homosexuals, yet this is simply a juvenile stage in emotional growth.

CASE T-438: Edith R., aged 19, was one of my psychology students on my downtown campus at Northwestern University.

About the middle of the semester, Edith asked for a personal interview.

During our session she wandered around for half an hour, afraid to mention the thing that really troubled her.

She had informed me that she had a roommate and it was this other girl who had caused Edith to ask for the interview.

Finally, in desperation and embarrassment, Edith blurted out:

"Oh, Dr. Crane, she is one of those THINGS!"

What Edith was trying to say was simply the fact that she thought her roommate was a homosexual.

For the girl had tried to pet and kiss and fondle Edith, much to Edith's shock and horror.

Homosexual Problems Many people, even in this late year of 1964, still look upon a homosexual of either sex as being very abnormal.

The majority shy away from such victims and treat them with almost as much horror as the lepers engendered back in the Biblical times.

"Unclean Unclean!" was the cry that lepers were then forced to make in order to keep normal folks from coming in contact with them.

But modern psychology urges everybody to take a scientific view of human deviations from the normal.

Remember, too, that what 51 per cent of people engage in generally forms the yardstick for "normality."

Being "abnormal" usually means you are statistically in the minority.

Yet many good acts, as measured by this statistical yardstick, are abnormal.

For example, it is thus abnormal for anybody to go to church on Sunday, since far less than 50 per cent are in church each Sabbath.

It is likewise statistically abnormal to go to college, since only a minority ever spend any time on a campus.

It is also abnormal to be unmarried after the age of 30, for the majority marry before that age.

Obviously, I am showing you that there should be no hysteria about such words as "normal" vs. "abnormal."

Homosexuality is just one stage in the usual emotional development from infancy to mature adulthood.

At birth, we enter Stage No. 1, which is the "egocentric," wherein everything revolves around oneself.

That is the time when an infant has no concern for others but is solely interested in being fed, diapered and kept warm.

Stage No. 2 arrives about kindergarten age, wherein the child admits his parents as important planets revolving around himself as the center.

Stage No. 3 is the "gang" or normal homosexual level at which boys prefer their own sex and girls have little use for boys. It runs till the mid teens.

But when we get into senior high school, maybe 85 per cent of us enter Stage No. 4 (heterosexual) in which we look to the OPPOSITE sex for romance.

The other 15 per cent remain at one or another of those lower stages.

Thus, many brilliant adults never leave the selfish egocentric level, so they become psychopathic personalities.

Other confirmed spinsters and bachelors get "fixated" on their parents, while millions of people remain permanently attracted to their own sex.

Pirates Making Pennant Noises

By Fred Down
UPI Sports Writer

That ominous sound heard in the National League today is the "secret contender" coming out into the open.

And, lo and behold, it's those long-forgotten and under-rated Pittsburgh Pirates who a year ago were able to finish ahead of only the Houston Colts and New York Mets in the final NL standings.

The Pirates were 30-1 in the 1964 season started when the 1964 season started but today they've moved into third place only 4 1/2 games from first and since July 19 they've been the hottest team in the circuit. Since that date they've posted a 10-3 record while the Philadelphia Phillies were 8-6, the Milwaukee Braves 7-6, the Cincinnati Reds 8-8 and the San Francisco Giants 6-8.

The Pirates continued their steady drive toward the top Monday night when they rallied in the eighth and ninth innings to score a 3-2 victory over the Giants. It was a typical Pittsburgh win with strong pitching dominating the opposition until the Pirates strung together enough hits to pull out the decision.

Bob Bolin had shut out the Pirates for seven innings but in the eighth they suddenly tied the score on Manny Mota's double, a triple by Bob Bailey and Bill Virdon's single. The Pirates won it in the ninth on singles by Bill Mazeroski, Dick Schofield and Bailey with the winning hit coming off relief pitcher John Pregener, who had beaten the Pirates 24 hours earlier.

At McLean, who pitched a scoreless ninth inning, received credit for his fourth win without a loss this season but more important to the Pirates, pennant chances were the six capable innings turned in by starter Vern Law. Law, who has had a sore arm for the last few years, has now pitched three consecutive good games. He was a 20-game winner when the Pirates won their last pennant in 1960.

The Los Angeles Dodgers went from seventh place in 1958 to a flag in 1959 but no team ever has gone from eighth one year to a pennant the next.

The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Los Angeles Angels 7-0 and the Cleveland Indians downed the Washington Senators 4-2 in the only other major league games of day or night. Los Angeles at Philadelphia was rained out.

Crackers Take Chiefs' Scalp For IL Upset

United Press International

The lowly Atlanta Crackers pulled a David and Goliath act on the mighty Syracuse Chiefs Monday night as they laid the pace-setters low with a 4-3 blow.

The Crackers' Hilario Valdespino tagged a three-run home run in the first inning. It was downhill from then on for the Chiefs as Atlanta added another run in the eighth to clinch the upset.

Jacksonville snapped a five-game losing streak by gaining a 4-3 decision over Rochester. Joe Morgans home run in the sixth turned the trick and gave Paul Hughes his eighth win of the season in 10 decisions.

At Toronto, the Columbus Jets dropped a double bill to the Maple Leafs. In the opener, Jet starter Don Cardwell went the distance and allowed only six Toronto hits, while Columbus got 10 safeties, but the final score still read 4-0 in Toronto's favor.

The Jets' Fred Green was even stung in the nightcap, allowing only four Toronto hits, but they included homers by Maple Leaf hurler Ken Nixon and Bobby Del Greco as Toronto completed the sweep with a 2-1 victory.

All Stars Bow To Oviedo Nine

Oviedo's Little League nine, champions of their section this season, defeated the league's all stars in a contest played Thursday afternoon. The score was 10 to 1.

The all stars were composed of members of the Slavia, Chulutoa and Goldenrod nines.

Mike Hobbs was on the hill for Oviedo while Terry Greene hurled for the all stars. Charlie Mikler managed the Oviedo Little League club.

Meet Features Dual Relay

The Eustis Relay Swim Meet was held Saturday with 15 teams participating. An unusual feature of this meet was the dual relay, a team consisting of two members, one swimming the butterfly and backstroke and the other the breaststroke and freestyle.

Sanford's 8 and under boys entered an "A" and a "B" team which placed first and second respectively.

Walt Morgan teamed up with Tommy Hunter and speedy Michael Smith swam with Dennis Epps who, incidentally, fractured both of his wrists earlier this summer.

Dennis and Michael's father, Sanford's 8 and under boys along with Jack Bolt, Bob Besserer, Howard Harrison, Van Parker, Milt Parsons and Paul Polgar. The "A" team took an easy first.

Seminole's team of mothers oiled out a first over Daytona and Eustis. Betty Heagan, Ann Tammy, Ruth Polgar and Ida B. Wilson made up this relay team.

The SSA relay team members who participated in the Relay Meet were:

Girls, 8 and under, Colleen Harrison, Debbie Mize, Kathy Brown, Cherie Rosemond.

Boys, 8 and under, Walt Morgan, Tommy Hunter, Michael Smith, Dennis Epps.

Girls, 10 and under, Mollie Bush, Judy Bales, Beverly May, Martha Parker.

Boys, 10 and under, Mark Stenstrom, Dickie Deas, Garland Harden, Shanda Wallace.

Girls, 11-12, Elizabeth Smith, Rita Simas, Susan Brown, Lokey Tammy.

Boys, 11-12, Wade Singletary, Danny Heagan, Francis Smith, Pat O'Connor.

Girls, 13-14, Nancy May, Jane Polgar, Cindy Wilson, Rita Simas.

Boys, 13-14, Ro Besserer, Randy Bowling, Bill Bracken, Freddie Ganas, John Wight, Chris Wilson.

Girls, 15-17, Barbara Bolt, Sandy Richards, Linda May, Rosemary Wallon, Delaine Johnson.

Boys, 15-17, Skip Parsons, Greg Ganas, Paul Polgar, Buster Bruce, Con Wilson.

In the finals, Seminole topped three first places, six seconds, three thirds, three fourths, four fifths and four sixths. The first three places were awarded medals, and the fourth, fifth and sixth places, ribbons.

Grid Players Facing Axe At Training Site

United Press International

This is the time of year throughout National Football League training camps when the axemen come out as the 14 teams undergo a crash program of trimming their squads before the exhibition games begin this weekend.

Some players can breathe easier once the axemen pass them by and gives them another chance to prove that they are of major league caliber. Such a player is Gary Wood the New York Giants' eighth draft choice.

Wood, the all-time Ivy League total offense leader from Cornell, has brazenly ignored the presence of veteran quarterback Y.A. Tittle, Glenn Griffing, Tittle's understudy last season, and rookie signal caller Henry Schlehle, as he impressed head Coach Alie Sherman in early training camp drills.

End Buddy Dial of the Dallas Cowboys successfully underwent surgery to repair a muscle tear in his right thigh, but will miss the entire exhibition schedule.

The return of fullback Prentice Gault has the St. Louis Cardinals crowing Gault was injured in the first game last year.

The Chicago Bears, put quarterback Dave Mathison and defensive back Jim Tillis on waivers. The Green Bay Packers placed rookies Ron Housack, Merv Holland, Jack Peterson and Jack Mauro on waivers.

The Detroit Lions dropped Doug Deike and Currie Hall. The Los Angeles Rams released Bob Hulla, Bob Cuhls and Ernie Wade, who all played semi-pro ball in the United Football League last year.

The San Francisco Forty Niners lopped off Ollis Ross, Ollie Cromwell, and Harold Chambers. Tom Hall and Bruce Zellmer recently acquired from Detroit, reported to the Minnesota Vikings' camp and defensive end Jim Marshall, injured on the first day of training, returned to work.

Vikings Coach Norm Van Brocklin cut Bob Deegan, Bill Sparks, Dennis Stuewe, Wes McMillan, Eugene Chiles, H. O. Estes, Clyde Williams, and Bob Bagley. The Washington Redskins placed rookies Ken Himes and Overton Williams on waivers.

Pittsburgh Steelers Coach Buddy Parker will conduct workouts on a beach in Rhode Island on Thursday. Parker dropped five players, leaving his squad at 18 over the 40-man maximum.

St. Pete Pulls Near Tampa In Florida State

By United Press International

St. Petersburg pulled to within two games of Florida State League leader Tampa last night with a 15-inning squeaker over Fort Lauderdale, 4-3.

Tampa took a 9-2 drubbing from Orlando with Don Beck's bases-loaded triple in the third inning giving the winners all they needed.

In other action, Daytona Beach clubbed Lakeland 18-4 and moved up one rung from the bottom of the league standings. Miami beat Sarasota 8-2 and dropped the losers into the FSL cellar.

Tonight, Lakeland is at Orlando, Tampa travels to Daytona Beach, Fort Lauderdale at St. Petersburg and Miami at Sarasota.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Spolaki

Right up to the last night of bowling in the Navy Intramural League there was only one game separating first and second place between the New Breed and VAW-3 and NAMTG "A".

The Navy League concluded its season last week and now it's official that there's a new champ in the form of the New Breed. Congratulations to Stanger, McClure, Brandon, Hastings and Hollen — the New Breed.

Hastings was top man for his five-somes with a 223/631 series.

By the way, for the next two Tuesday's the Navy League will not be bowling, as there'll be 20 lanes available for open bowling.

Talking as we are about this, the biggest league in all of Central Florida, here are their plans for the coming Fall season.

The Navy Intramural Bowling League will bowl on two nights, Monday and Tuesday at 6:15 p. m. There'll be 16 teams competing on each night.

On Monday's they'll be known as the American League and the National's will meet Tuesday evenings. League officers for both groups are:

Willie (Fire Cracker) Maglio (president of the Monday American's) and Fred Hollen in their "vesp." George King will be the secretary-treasurer.

Leading the league for the Tuesday National's will be president Bob Combs, vice president H. Botta and Jerry Kanter will be the secretary-treasurer.

The league will get underway officially August 17th and 18th.

In a little over two weeks all of the Fall leagues will hold their familiarization days, during which time the newcomers to the various leagues will have the opportunity of meeting former league members. If you haven't signed yet for a league, we'd strongly recommend that you do so now so that you're not omitted from being assigned to a team. Or better yet, organize your own team and enter it into any of the following leagues scheduled for the Fall season.

Monday
6:15 p. m.—Navy Intramural League (16 teams); 8:45 p. m.—Women's Scratch (125 average and up (8 teams); 9:00 p. m.—Singles Classic Men, Peterson Points System (30 members).

Tuesday
6:15 p. m.—Stuckey's Mr. and Mrs. League (28 couples).

Wednesday
9:30 a. m.—Bill Hemphill Motorettes, ladies handicapped (16 teams); 1:00 p. m.—Wilson-Maier Women's Scratch League, 120 average and up (8 to 10 teams); 6:45 p. m.—Navy Intramural League (16 teams); 9:00 p. m.—Businessmen's Handicapped League (12 to 14 teams).

Thursday
9:30 a. m.—Pincrest Inn League, women's handicapped (10 teams); 6:45 p. m.—Seminole Memorial Hospital League (8 teams); 6:45 p. m.—Jet Lanes Keglers League, men's handicapped (8 teams); Mixed League (4 teams).

Friday
9:30 a. m.—McRoberts Tire Navy Wives League (20 teams); 6:45 p. m.—Sand Spurs, women's handicapped (12 teams); 6:45 p. m.—Mr. and Mrs. League, married couples as teams in competition with other couples; 6:45 p. m.—Friday Nite Scratch, 3 to a team with 600 maximum combined averages; 9:00 p. m.—Peterson Doubles, 2 to a team, combined average not to exceed 350 (10 teams).

Saturday
Junior Bowling League, boys and girls between age 7 through 17—9:30 a. m. (20 teams).

Sunday
6:30 p. m.—Stuckey's Mr. and Mrs. League (28 couples).

Our congratulations to the Sanford Women's Bowling Association for the success of their Installation Banquet at which time Eleanor Anderson was put into the office of president, Sue Jackson—1st vice president; Fran Morton—secretary-treasurer and Marion Farrella—sergeant-at-arms.

Betty Johnston did a marvelous job of presiding at the meeting and installing these officers, with Carolyn Pizarro serving as escort.

There will be a board meeting Aug. 25 at Jet Lanes during which time all association and league officers are requested to attend.

On Aug. 27 again at the Lanes, 7:30 p. m., there'll be a workshop for all women league secretaries at which time league supplies will be distributed.

Boy, 17, Dies During Tryout In Record Heat

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — (UPI) — A 17-year-old high school football player collapsed during a practice session Monday and died on the way to a hospital. Three other players were hospitalized with "heat exhaustion."

An official at Memorial Hospital said no cause of death was listed for William Warren Jr., a dentist, and that only an autopsy would disclose the exact cause.

Warren, a student at Notre Dame High School, complained of illness during an afternoon practice session at Camp Columbus, a recreation camp about 20 miles from here. Weather bureau officials said the temperature reached 96 degrees during the day.

Assistant football Coach Bill Lewis treated the 195-pound tackle-candidate with wet towels. Lewis said Warren soon became unconscious.

The Rev. James J. Driscoll, school principal, and Lewis placed the youth in the priest's car and raced for Livernort Medical Center, a clinic near the camp.

Lewis said the youth stopped breathing en route to the clinic and he administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to the boy and Warren started breathing again.

Heat stimulants and heart massage was administered to the athlete upon arrival at the clinic, and an oxygen equipped ambulance was called.

Warren was placed in the ambulance and rushed to the hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Others stricken were identified as William Powell, 16, Andy Nolan, 17, and Chris Von Weersowetz, 17, all reported in "fair condition" early today. A hospital official said the boys were suffering from "heat exhaustion."

Party Planned By Members Of Kingswood Nine

Members of the Kingswood Builders entry in the City Recreation Department's Men's Six-Pitch Softball League will be entertained at a hamburger party tonight at the home of Mrs. H. L. Johnson in West Sanford.

The Builders won both the first half and second half titles during the recent season and also captured the loop's playoff tournament.

Mrs. Johnson authors the Homemakers' Corner, a feature which appears regularly in The Sanford Herald.

13-Trailer Traffic

By Bill McCormick

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A trailer is a most useful and horizon-widening adjunct to the small boat. It not only permits the skipper to park his boat in his own back yard or garage, it enables him to sail waters as far away as his automobile will carry him.

There are several things to remember in driving a car with a boat trailer. It takes a greater distance to stop so you must be ready to brake earlier than you would with an unburdened car. If the entire tow weight (boat and trailer) is more than 1,500 pounds, it is best to have separate brakes on the trailer. In some states this is required by law.

In passing other vehicles never forget that you have less acceleration and a longer load than with the unencumbered car and must have more room in the opposite lane before trying to get around another car. A good idea is to have directional lights on your trailer, which may block out the lights on your car to following vehicles.

Car manufacturers recommend that trailering cars descend long, steep grades in second gear to take some of the load off the brakes.

Maneuvering a trailer requires practice. You must swing wider rounding corners to keep from putting the trailer over a curb or in somebody's front yard.

Sooner or later you will have to back your trailer into a tight spot. It is well to find a vacant lot and set up an obstacle course with boxes or barrels to practice this maneuver.

Miss Niki Ashby Feted With Bridal Luncheon At OAFB Officers' Club

Mrs. Dale Scott and Mrs. Braxton Perkins Jr. were co-hostesses to a lovely bridal luncheon at the Officer's Club of Orlando Air Force Base, complimenting Miss Niki Ashby, bride-elect of Alex McKibbin.

The luncheon was held in the exquisite Jade Room of the Club with pink and white used in the decor to create a striking color balance. Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Perkins both received the guests in pastel pink attire, with tastefully arranged pink roses and carnations used throughout the spacious dining room.

The T-shaped table arrangement, covered in pink linen, was centered with four branch silver candelabra containing tall white tapers. An archway was arranged between the tapers of nosegays of lilies of the valley, baby breath and delicate sweetheart roses under which a miniature bride and groom stood. Narrow white satin streamers gracefully cascaded to the table corners.

Centering the elongated table was a basket of tropical foliage and pink hibiscus with the arrangement covering the entire length of the table. Wedding bell place cards marked the guests' places.

The punch table was overlaid in pink linen with sparkling pink fruit punch offered from a silver bowl. An arrangement of white roses centered this table, with Miss Linda Perkins presiding over the punch bowl. An arrangement of pink roses centered the buffet table, also covered in pink, accented by silver candelabra with white tapers.

Three Easy Ways For The Removal Of Tomato Peel

Know how to peel tomatoes quickly and easily? Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration agent, suggests you try one of these three methods. They make the job easy. Stroke the skin with the dull edge of a knife blade until the skin is loosened, or Dip the tomato in boiling water for one minute, then cool at once in cold water, or Run fork into tomato and rotate it over heat of cooking until the skin is tight and shiny. Cool at once in cold water.

The peel will come off easily after any one of these treatments.

One building at the World's Fair will be "for women only," and it isn't a ladies lounge.

In its pavilion, a personal hair coloring analysis for women will be offered, done two ways. In one, a woman will insert her head into a hole in one wall of a color tube, similar to a snapshot board. On the reverse side are simulated wigs in various colors, and opposite is a mirror. A gal can see her reflection as a blonde, brunette or redhead.

In addition she can fill in a card about her present hair color and texture and indicate what new color she desires. She gets her answer via computer.

A lip gloss which gives highlights to lips when applied over lipstick now comes in a "lipstick-like" form. The transparent lip gloss is medicated to protect lips against drying and chapping.

Our hair needs special care to keep it from getting dry and brittle. A creamy lotion applied after shampooing helps restore gloss and body to the hair.

The newest flutter in the false eye lash field comes from a London manufacturer's new design. The maker has introduced ready-trimmed, pre-shaped lashes tailored for right and left eyes.

The self-adhesive lashes, says the manufacturer, can be worn from three to five times before the adhesive needs re-newing.

A gift of her chosen silver and a lovely white carnation corsage was presented to Miss Ashby by the hostesses. Mrs. Martha Bishop Ashby, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Clifford McKibbin Jr. received ed carnation corsages from the hostesses. Other guests enjoying the tempting and attractive buffet luncheon were the Mmes. Robin Brown, Gertrude Dingfelder, Robert Brown, W. A.

Leffler Sr., Hawkins Connely and Belle Jennings. Also the Mmes. R. A. Newman Jr., P. F. Donahoe, Bill Hutchison, G. D. Bishop Jr., William Bush and Miss Donna Ashby.

MRS. OSCAR CRAIGHTON of Hartley Circle, serves Mrs. Frank Vernon, who recently moved here from London, England. Mrs. Vernon, the newest member of the Deltona Welcome Wagon Club, is now living on Lake Lapunocin in Deltona. Mrs. Robert Haney looks on as the symbolic cake, beautifully made by Mrs. Henry Aldrich of Normandy Boulevard, is cut. The cake depicts a Welcome Wagon of the pioneer days which met the weary Westward bound travelers, bringing them food, medicine and good cheer from the neighboring settlement. Standing beside the wagon on the cake, is a miniature Welcome Wagon Hostess with a basket on her arm. The Welcome Wagon Club members of DeLand were guests at a carry-in luncheon at the Deltona Community Center. Seventy-five ladies enjoyed the lively meeting and the opportunity to get acquainted with others.

MR. AND MRS. FRED KROKER, and son, Kim, of Seminole Drive in Bear Lake have recently returned from a six week visit via jet to Germany, where they visited relatives and friends. This was Mrs. Kroker's first trip abroad, and being a native Floridian enjoyed the snow and German cuisine. The Krokers motored to Austria and Sweden, and toured all of Germany. Mr. Kroker came to this country 12 years ago from East Germany, and his parents now reside in Forest City. Mrs. Kroker's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stewart of Bear Lake.

The W. Hausers Return Following Lengthy Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hauser of Dol Ray Manor have returned from a most interesting six weeks vacation.

They attended the 50th Fraternal Banquet Alumni Reunion at Galludet College and National Association of Deaf in Washington, D. C., and were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Eldridge in Crownsville, Md.

Later they motored to North Wilkboro, N. C., to visit Mr. Hauser's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Waugh. In Raleigh, N. C., they visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lewis and children, Walter, Michael and Susan Diane.

Before returning home, they attended the North Carolina Association of the Deaf in Charlotte, N. C., and reunited with many friends and relatives.

DeBary BP Club Will Meet With Supper Tonight

The DeBary Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a combined business meeting and covered dish supper on Tuesday, August 4, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. T. Williams on Park Lane. Members are asked to bring their own table service.

DeBary Personals

By Mrs. Frank White
Mr. and Mrs. William Vos of Pittsburgh, Pa., were the guests of Mr. Vos's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vos of Aster Drive. Their son, William, is an engineer on the U.S.M.S. Comet.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Williams of Park Lane returned to DeBary after spending several weeks in North Carolina, taking side trips to places of interest.

Dr. George Frison Sr. of Park Lane, DeBary, rode as far as Chicago, with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seger. Dr. Frison attended a Medical Conference in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. James Askew of Azalea Drive entertained Mrs. Bulah Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Myers of Gainesville. Dr. Myers is with the Department of Education at the University of Florida.

Oviedo Personals

By Evelyn Lundy
Carol Hessler and Diane Gaydick, both members of last year's graduating class from Oviedo High School have returned home after spending two weeks sight seeing and visiting the World's Fair. They traveled there and back on the train; and described the fair as simply spectacular.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul O. Schallert of Hermita Trail returned after spending a month with their son, Paul O. Schallert Jr., in Atlanta, Ga.

The Don Noel family of Dol Ray Manor and children, Donna, Carolyn, Mark and Michael, have moved to Jacksonville Beach. They will be missed by their many friends.

Mrs. David E. Thrasher Hostess To Bridal Party Honoring Miss Johnson

The lovely David Thrasher home on Lake Ravenna was the site recently of a pre-nuptial party given Miss Janet Johnson, bride-elect of Michael Korgan. Mrs. Thrasher, who received in a stunning aqua sheath, and her daughter, Miss Sherry Thrasher were the co-hostesses. Sherry received in a chic backless A-line princess frock. Colorful floral arrangements adorned the party area with the guests participating in party games and contests. The table, overlaid in an elegant heirloom hand embroidered cloth, was centered with a white porcelain centerpiece containing a picturesque arrangement of yellow and white mums, accented by glowing white tapers. A wedding band ice mold floated in the refreshing bridal punch, served from a crystal bowl. The fluffy white cake was decorated with ornate wedding bells. Silver and crystal compotes and trays offered an attractive assortment of toasted nuts, dainty tea sandwiches and petits fours.

The hostesses presented the bride-elect with a lovely white carnation corsage and her mother, Mrs. Clifford Korgan, mother of her fiancé, received pink carnation corsages. Mrs. W. L. Hires, Janet's grandmother, was presented a gold carnation corsage.

Janet was attired in a stunning orchid sheath, with her mother wearing pink lace and Mrs. Korgan received in a pink striped frock.

Others attending the festive pre-nuptial party were the Misses Brenda Brown, Candi Condon, Joy Dugger, Marilyn Hunt, Ann Mahan, Judy Lavender, Sandy Slayton, Diana Clause, Sharon Williams, Donna Peters and Julie Silsby.

Also the Misses Gail Coleman, Pat Chapman, Michele Jones, Myra Meeks, Mary Scott, Jill West, Janie White, Angela Hurt, Linda Green, Kathy Trout, Vicki Boyd, Donna Collins, Melanie Williams, Sharon Stannell and Elaine Echols.

Also the Misses Linda Kriz, Loraine St. Clair, Carole Thomas, Shirley Steed, Cheryl and Suzanne Thrasher and Mrs. St. Clair White.

Casselberry Personals

By Jane Casselberry
Mr. and Mrs. Casey Evans, their son, David, and niece, Barbara Carol, of Spartanburg, S. C., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Messick of Hibiscus Road. The Messicks with their two daughters, Marilyn and Patricia, took their visitors on a three-day tour of the state driving down the west coast, crossing over to Miami and back up the east coast.

Mrs. Walter Miller of Lake Drive and children, Steve, Vicky and Cindy, have returned from visiting relatives in Peoria, Ill. Mrs. George Miller of L and M Lane, who went north with her daughter-in-law, was unable to return at the time as she was hospitalized with a broken elbow suffered in a fall.

Mikel Drueding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Drueding of 220 Lake Triplet Drive, celebrated his 112th birthday Wednesday with a weiner roast at the Lakemont Recreation in Winter Park.

Guests included Doug Kauble, Jeff and Greg Howe, Jeff Lego, Ricky Jackson, Steven Perrault and Skipper Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Shea of N. Triplet Drive, Casselberry, and sons, Darwin, Danny and Roger, enjoyed a weekend camping trip at Manatee Springs State Park.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with an arghmother who believes that the people on television can see and hear her? We have tried to explain to her that they can't—that it's only a talking picture, but it doesn't do any good. She gets all dolled up to watch television every day because she says she would hate to have Art Linkletter see her looking a fright. How can we convince her her she's wrong?

SUE AND CINDY
DEAR GIRLS: Why try? Besides, ask Art Linkletter. I'll bet he thinks she looks real nice!

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my husband and my best friend came to me and confessed that they had an affair, but it was all over. They said they told me in order to cleanse their consciences. The woman is also married and the four of us have been friendly for years. As I look back I now realize that she cultivated my friendship so she could get next to my husband. She even used the children. I told my husband that I would forgive him, and I have really tried, Abby, but the hurt is so deep I don't think I'll ever get over it. It now refuses to be in this woman's company, but my husband says there is no reason why we can't all be friends. I get sick when I see her car on the street? Was I wrong to end our friendship or not?

WRONGED
DEAR WRONGED: You were right to end the friendship, and your husband is lucky you didn't choose to end the marriage as well. Stick to your guns!

DEAR ABBY: My bridge club (two tables) met at my house last week. One of the members brought along an out-of-town guest who was visiting her. This guest presented me with a one-pound box of candy. I thanked her for it, and then I set it on the piano. I intentionally did not open the box because the candy would have been eaten up in no time by the other women. The next day one of the women called me up and told me that several of the members had severely criticized me for not opening the candy, and offering it to the ladies. Did I commit a social error, or not?

NOT SURE
DEAR NOT SURE: Unless the woman who brought the candy indicated that it was for the "club," you had a right to assume it was for you alone. You committed no social error by not opening the candy, but since you did not intend to serve it, you'd have been wise to put it out of sight.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "THE WOMAN WHO WROTE A VOLUME": Of course I've heard only YOUR side of it, but if only half of what you wrote is true, you are married to the most selfish, egotistical hypocrite who ever drew a breath. I rarely say a case is hopeless, but it would take a miracle to straighten him out.

Troubled? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Experts are much luckier than average players. If you don't think so, look how unlucky South was.

He ruffed the opening club. One trump lead picked up both adverse trumps and South led the ten of diamonds.

The finesse lost to East's king and back came the jack of hearts. South had to lose three heart tricks and his contract.

A really expert South would not have run into all that bad luck. He could have done nothing against a diamond opening, but West had made a normal king of clubs lead. This gave South a chance to insure his

Then, after trumps were drawn, South could play ace and queen of diamonds from dummy. East would cover with the king, whereupon South would ruff and enter dummy with a trump in order to get rid of one losing heart. He would lose two hearts later on, but two hearts and one other trick aren't enough to set a four spade contract.

In case West held the diamond king, expert South would still make the hand. He would discard one heart on the diamond queen. West would take the diamond king and one more trick for the same total of three.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

The job of housewife isn't the snap a lot of men profess to think it is—but it does have a good many fringe benefits.

The full-time housewife, unlike most women who work outside the home, can pretty well set her own working hours, taking as many coffee breaks during the day as she likes.

The homemaker is her own boss. In those rare cases where the husband rules the roost, the wife can at least talk back to the boss, if she feels like it.

The housewife doesn't get a definite salary, but she has something better—a share of the "profits."

Whereas it is up to the wage earner to please the boss, the housewife is a full partner who expects to be pleased as well as to please.

The housewife, if she puts her mind to it, can continually improve her working conditions and lighten her work load.

The housewife can make day-to-day decisions without consulting anybody.

The housewife can move about freely, instead of being stuck at a desk, behind a counter, or at a machine, the way so many women are confined to a small area.

The housewife has endless opportunities to exercise her creative talents and managerial abilities.

The housewife usually gets far more appreciation for her efforts than women who spend their lives in any other kind of job.

These are all benefits that those who pity the suburban housewife in her split-level "prison" seem to overlook.

Fortunately a lot of happy housewives are well aware of them, and wouldn't trade the job of full-time homemaker for any job in the world.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

7:30-8:30 p. m. NBC Mr. Novak "Hello, Miss Pilpup!" (rerun) An interesting though not always successful drama clock full of synthetic heart as Lillian Gish plays a controversial teacher who numbers as education among her subjects. Abounding in earnestness, the script fails to imitate dramatically despite its incursions into such worthy areas as sex and academic freedom. There's a lot of Dean Jagger in this one and that's a big help.

7:30-8:30 p. m. ABC Combat "Command" (rerun) A rather familiar theme for war stories, the responsibilities of command. Joseph Campanella guests as a replacement lieutenant, a professional soldier concerned with getting the job done right and devil take his personal popularity. Also, he's got problems. Campanella handles the role nicely.

8:30-9 p. m. ABC McHale's Navy "The Great Impersonation" (rerun) If it weren't for the fact that this is funny and entertaining, it might well have served as a plot for "Espionage—or did it? It's Captain Binghamton (Joe Flynn) vs. Ensign Parker (Tim Conway), but for a change Parker is being victimized for performing a heroic service. He pretends to be a general while the real officer is winning the war with a sneak invasion. Conway gets a chance to fulfill every actor's apparently fulfillable dream—he plays a dual role.

9:30-10 p. m. CBS Petticoat Junction (rerun) Not many laughs here. Uncle Joe (Edgar Buchanan) finally hits on a scheme that has possibilities. He gets an appointment as justice he marries will use the hotel for their honeymoon. But there's trouble after his first marriage when it's learned his appointment hasn't yet been legally recorded. The distressed young newsweds are Judee Morton and Jonathan Demme.

9:10 p. m. ABC Greatest Show on Earth "Of Blood, Sawdust and a Bucket of Tears" (rerun) Arthur O'Connell, who in real life looks like the son of almost every character he plays on TV, does his usual fine job in his role of an old man on the verge of being overwhelmed by life.

Horoscope Forecast

Wednesday August 4, 1964
GENERAL TENDENCIES:

This is a day which is replete with all kinds of opportunities for you, but it is essential that you get out of that comfortable chair and do something about them or you wind up having achieved just nothing! The right approach now is first to listen to your hunches and then follow them with alacrity.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Every opportunity is open to you to get the cooperation of kin in any out-lets you may have in mind today. Explain your plans clearly, cleverly. Much support is yours.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Talks, meetings, sales all fine today and you meet with big success. Plan early, then off to keep a perfect schedule. Allow time between calls, a leisurely luncheon.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) An ideal day to prove your ability as a fine sales person. Make the right contacts that bring immediate results. Later, get property improved by getting good repair men, give personal supervision.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Personal aims can be reached now if you dress in good taste and use the positive approach with others. Strive for that easy, sure manner. This impresses others most.

LEO (July 22 to August 21) You can get all the backing you want now, provided you are not so independent, and honestly ask for it. You are very charming and magnetic. Make the most of these qualities.

VIRGO (August 22 to September 22) Kin and good friends are willing to carry through with your ideas now and much progress possible. Achieve personal aims first. Then carry on with business matters.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Getting talents before the right influential persons makes it possible for you to get ahead fast now. Just express yourself. Forget about being self-conscious.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) By getting into new ventures you find that many marvelous things can be accomplished in the future. If you are broadminded, much profit can be yours. Change your attitude.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Anything you do to understand those you admire is wise today. Be very affectionate. Improve relationships and you increase success.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) Join with loyal friends so that you establish a most charming relationship, can work together harmoniously. Much success possible. Meet on common ground.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) You know now what must be done and how to achieve the most efficient performance. Make fellow workers happy. Take treatments that increase your vitality, buoyancy.

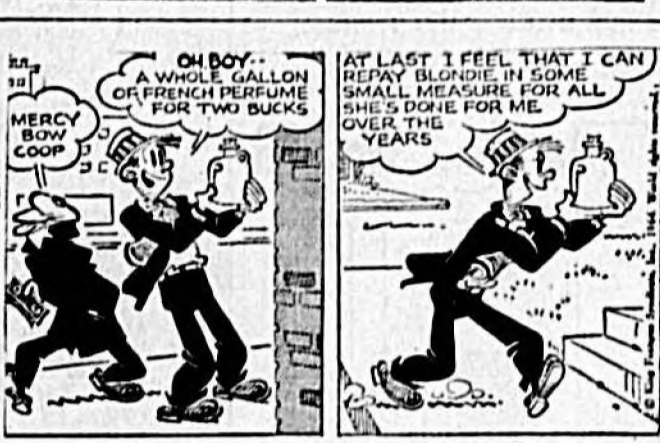

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) Seek entertainment now since you have been working too hard and need recreation badly. Be happy with good friends. Plan early for best results, least expense.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will make big headway in life because this chart is replete with many talents, not the least of which is to sell ideas and wares to the public in general and leave them happy in doing so. Career should start early in youthful enthusiasm so that a correct understanding and appraisal of others is reached. A person here that everybody likes.

"The Stars Impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Veteran Court Referee Named

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—The Southeastern Conference today announced hiring of basketball Referee Claude Tanksley, Nashville, Tenn., as supervisor of SEC basketball officials.
Tanksley, a referee since 1938, succeeds Roy Mundorff whose resignation Moore accepted Monday "with regret."
Tanksley's new job calls on him to interpret rules for officials and coaches, coordinate officials, and scout and train young officials.
Tanksley serves as athletic director for the Nashville Baptist Churches Association program which has 2,000 youths participating in baseball and basketball annually.
The new SEC official played football, basketball and baseball for Nashville Linton High School from which he graduated in 1934.
SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore said in a statement: "I am appointing one of the outstanding basketball officials in America, Claude Tanksley, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Roy Mundorff, supervisor of the Southeastern Conference. Claude has worked SEC games for 15 years, and has proved himself one of the best in any area of the United States. I am sure he will do an excellent job in coordinating and training officials."
Tanksley, in accepting the post said, "I am tickled to death with this opportunity. My chief aims will be to standardize officiating procedures and to encourage young officials to work hard to achieve the college level. We have several outstanding SEC officials in basketball, but we need more."

Thelma Unger Leads League

In the Friday a.m. McRobert's Times Navy Wives League, Thelma Unger led the ladies with an even 500 series. She missed the magic triple game by one pin: 167-166-167-500.
Pat Sipley followed with a high game of 180/472 series, Verna Bolton 181/490, Sully Reno 174/485 series, Rose Patrick 164/483.
Other high games were rolled by Joan Adams 171, Doris Lasher 172, Jennie Runnels 171, Ellen Brady 168, Jeanne Wolfe 162, Charlotte Bassett 178, Barbara Rohrer 160, Margaret Bots 163 and Colleen Sandlin 161.
Turkeys were rolled by Sully Reno (twice), Pat Sipley, Verna Bolton and Doris Lasher. Thelma Unger converted the very difficult 6-7-10, the 5-7 fell for Vickie McGough, Jean Brewer and Barbara Rohrer.
Another difficult split was made by Rose Patrick, the 4-10, and she also converted the not so easy 5-10. Pat Willis knocked down the 5-6-10 and 4-5-7. Jane Jahn spared the magic 3-5-10. The baby split 3-10 fell for Ellen Brady, Doris Lasher and Sully Reno.

FARMS TO TRY

CHICAGO (UPI)—Bill Parula, U. S. bronze medalist in the 1950 Olympics, will be among the yachtsmen seeking to qualify, Aug. 3-7, in star boats for the 1964 Olympic games.

BABE'S BELT

CHICAGO (NEA)—The first All-Star game was played at Comiskey Park, July 6, 1933, with the American League winning 4-2 on Babe Ruth's two-run homer in the third inning.

Doctor-Owned Pharmacies Under Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said today that a growing number of doctors now own pharmacies or drug companies, and may turn their patients into "captive consumers."

Hart, chairman of the Senate anti-trust and monopoly sub-committee, opened hearings on doctor-owned pharmacies and doctor-owned drug repackaging and redistributing companies.

In his statement prepared for the session, Hart said, "certainly when a patient goes to his doctor and is given a prescription for a drug in which the doctor has no choice but to purchase that trade name drug."

"Also, when a doctor suggests using his pharmacy downstairs — or calls a prescription in to a pharmacy — it is likely that the patient seldom protests," he said. Hart said the subcommittee was concerned about the independent druggist who finds his usual prescription business cut off, and the drug companies whose drugs are no longer prescribed because of the physician's financial interest in another company.

Hart said to date the subcommittee has identified about 100-doctor owned drug companies involving possibly 5,000 doctors.

Business Briefs

W. E. Sumner, of Strickland-Morrison, Inc., has been certified as a graduate of the business management course for office managers at Ford Motor Company's Atlanta Marketing Institute.

The course is one of several available at the Institute for dealers, their personnel and Ford Motor Company employees. Classes are conducted by a staff professional, full-time instructors.

Subjects range from management and merchandising courses for dealers and their department managers to salesmanship and specialized workshops for staff members. In addition, the school of automotive business administration conducts training programs for selected Ford Motor Company personnel.

Classes utilize the most effective management methods currently being used by outstanding automobile dealerships, Mr. Brock said. Group participation in simulated selling or management situations is a primary part of each course.

The Atlanta Marketing Institute annually enrolls more than 2,500 sales specialists of Ford Motor Company products from a ten-state area.

EDWIN CROMARTIE of Casselberry, left, was named chairman of the South Seminole "Goldwater for President" committee at an organizational meeting held last Thursday. Goldwater Could Win Florida, Lubell Poll Shows

NEW YORK (UPI)—A survey of five key southern states indicates Sen. Barry Goldwater could sweep much of the South in the November presidential election, pollster Samuel Lubell said today.

Lubell, as reported in the New York World-Telegram and the Sun, said his interviews with voters revealed that more than a quarter of those who supported John F. Kennedy in 1960 "now talk of casting their ballots for Goldwater" rather than President Johnson.

Lubell said that his poll indicated these heavy losses "are being offset somewhat by the return to the Democratic party of one-time Democrats who went for Richard Nixon."

He said, however, "when all the voter-shifting is balanced out, my interviews show that as of today Goldwater would carry Florida and Virginia, probably South Carolina and perhaps even North Carolina."

He said only in Texas, of the five states in which he conducted interviews, is Johnson running ahead of Kennedy's showing four years ago.

Lubell said that even Texas showed signs of weakening.

"On every street sampled in Texas towns, the Johnson supporters were on the defensive before irate neighbors who protested: 'That civil rights law takes away the white man's rights.'"

He said his survey indicated a "new mood of militant political revolt is surging through the South."

Navy Planes Hit Four Red Bases; Get 25 Boats

Oil Depot In Flames

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Striking back on President Johnson's orders, U. S. Navy planes today bombed four bases in North Viet Nam, destroying or damaging about 25 Communist patrol boats and sending an oil depot up in flames.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — The United States rushed six — and probably more — Delta Dagger F102 supersonic jet planes into South Viet Nam today to bolster air defenses in the growing war crisis with Communist North Viet Nam.

They landed at nearby Tan Son Nhut Airport at noon and promptly were placed on a "five minute alert" to go into action if needed.

Two American planes were shot down by anti-aircraft fire from Red ground batteries and their pilots were presumed lost.

The five-hour raid was carried out by planes from the carriers Ticonderoga and Constellation in retaliation for two attacks by North Vietnamese patrol boats on U. S. destroyers patrolling international waters.

President Johnson in a speech at Syracuse, N. Y., this morning said he ordered the air strike to show the Communists that "deliberate, willful and systematic aggression" will not go unchallenged.

Preparing for any eventuality, the Defense Department dispatched powerful U. S. air and naval reinforcements to the western Pacific, and alerted Army and Marine forces for possible movement on short notice. In New York, the United Nations Security Council was called into emergency session at 3 p.m. EDT to consider U. S. charges of aggression against North Viet Nam.

There was no immediate response from Communist China, which adjoins North Viet Nam and which forced the United States into a long and bloody struggle in Korea more than a decade ago. China has a powerful if not dominant voice in North Vietnamese affairs.

Radio Moscow broadcast a dispatch datelined Hanoi, capital of North Viet Nam, saying that U. S. planes had carried out a "piratical" raid but were driven off.

In his Syracuse speech, the President emphasized that the United States still seeks peace in Southeast Asia and has no desire to widen the war in Viet Nam. But he said the time had come to make clear that "there can be no peace by aggression, and no immunity from reply."

Johnson said the United States is ready and eager for the United Nations to examine this nation's course of action in the Vietnamese crisis.

"We welcome — and we invite — the scrutiny of all men who seek peace, for peace is the only purpose of the course we pursue," he declared. "The world must never forget that aggression unchallenged is aggression unleashed."

The air strike against North Viet Nam was endorsed by leaders of both parties in congress and by Republican presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater, whom Johnson notified in advance.

Senate Democratic and Republican leaders agreed to an emergency resolution, requested by the President, voicing U. S. determination to take all necessary steps to stabilize the situation in Southeast Asia. Swift and overwhelming approval was expected.

Great Britain threw its support behind the United States. Government sources in London said the United States had simply exercised its "legitimate right of self-defense."

Results of the air action were announced at 9 a.m. EDT by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, who had spent the night at the Pentagon keeping a close personal watch on the tense situation.

Pending intelligence analysis of 64 air sorties by U. S. pilots, the defense secretary declined to estimate the extent of the damage inflicted on the North Vietnamese shore bases. But he said that the oil depot, representing 10 per cent of North Viet Nam's petroleum storage capacity, was 90 per cent destroyed. Smoke from the burning oil tanks rose to 14,000 feet.

Waterfront Project Gets Solid Support Of Sanford Merchants

By Henry I. Johnson, Managing Editor

The snowballing lakefront marina project received a whopping boost Tuesday afternoon when the Sanford Merchants Association gave its solid support to the proposal.

Comments ranged from "the only thing wrong with this (project) is that it's 50 years too late" to "we can't start small; we must have the whole of the first phase in the project," and "think of it; people can leave Chicago in their yachts and tie up in Sanford."

Association members, meeting in the Seminole Chamber of Commerce conference room, listened to briefings from the prime movers of the marina, asked several questions and then in less than an hour voted unanimously to give it full support.

The motion asked that the City Commission continue its study of the feasibility and endorse "the basic idea of developing the lakefront."

B. L. Perkins, association president, introduced George

Touhy of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association who sketched the start of the "idea" early this year, how the three local financial institutions merged efforts to "do something" with the natural asset of the community.

"The financial institutions," Touhy said, "sought to present a positive program, one that is practical and would lead to development of the downtown district.

"Engineers studied it and came up with this half-million dollar deal. We tried to get something different from any other community. The lakefront is something only we have. It's a God-given asset and we should take advantage of it.

"The lakefront is city-owned; there are no title problems, no untold amount to be developed to take advantage of the trend to recreation. Working hours are only about two-thirds of other generations and the workers are getting more income thus allowing them to take up boating."

He noted many persons are living on their yachts and they contribute in many ways to the economic life of a community.

Touhy said the city is now engaged in steps toward a feasibility study and "if you (merchants) go along they will do it. I hope you will."

John Krider, executive director of the Seminole Chamber, said the proponents of the marina pondered what they could do to "re-create confidence in our community. This is what engineers came up with."

Howard Hodges, president of Sanford Atlantic National Bank, reviewed the utility franchise tax terms and noted the money is earmarked solely for capital improvements and thus is "a natural" for the project.

The bonds, he said, would be "perfectly desirable" and local banks would be willing to purchase them.

John Burton IV, local architect, displayed a color drawing of the proposed marina, one which he said is "just an idea" from which engineers can deviate to best suit the needs of the project.

Francis Roumillat, chairman of the Sanford Port Authority Committee of the Chamber, also urged total backing of the proposal and pointed to the "natural corollary" with the port.

M. L. (Sonny) Raborn Jr., city commissioner and member of the association, said he feels that "all commissioners are in favor of it. The general feeling of the public that we are against it is not true."

He added the Commission is "charged with spending this money and we must look at it from all angles." Raborn added that prospective engineers have been interviewed and this phase of the project should be completed soon.

Senate Speeds Action On Resolution

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic and Republican leaders agreed today to give immediate consideration to President Johnson's emergency resolution voicing U. S. determination to keep peace in Southeast Asia by any means necessary.

As the informal agreement was reached, Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen suggested to Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield that committee consideration be by-passed in the interests of speedy action.

First statements of key lawmakers indicated prompt bipartisan backing for the President's resolution to back up Tuesday night's counter-attack against North Vietnamese torpedo boat installations.

Mansfield indicated to newsmen that a resolution would be brought up on the floor "later this afternoon." It had not been received from the White House when the Senate met at 10 a. m. EDT.

Dirksen told Mansfield he felt the resolution was so important that it should have immediate consideration rather than being referred to the foreign relations and armed services committees.

Ranking members of both groups were briefed at the White House Tuesday night before the President's announcement of the counter-attack and his resolution proposal.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said that in view of the President's action "whatever doubts one may have held as to U. S. policy concerning Viet Nam is now water over the dam."

Desegregation Of 17 Businesses Ordered

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — U. S. District Judge Bryan Simpson ordered today 17 St. Augustine restaurants and motels to desegregate by Saturday and enjoined a group of segregationists from interfering with them.

Simpson specified Halstead Richard (Hoss) Manley and the Ancient City Hunting Club which he heads, in his order against molesting, threatening, intimidating or coercing the Negroes or the owners of the establishments.

The order said an attorney for some of the segregationists against whom the injunction was sought had agreed to issuance of the injunction.

The Ku Klux Klan and Atlanta attorney J. B. Stoner, who were among those against whom the injunction was sought, were not specified in the order.

The order enjoined any persons not named, however, who might have knowledge of the order.

Simpson directed Manley to tell the members of the Ancient City Hunting Club about the existence of the order and to file a written report with the judge indicating this had been done.

Noting that Manley claimed a club membership of 1,476 in a newspaper (Miami Herald) interview, Simpson said: "This may be an inflated claim. Nevertheless recent events in St. Augustine indicate that the membership is of considerable size."

Florida Guard To Hit Highways

TAMPA (UPI) — Florida highways will be clogged with military convoys during two weekends this month, the Peninsula Motor Club warned Tuesday.

The club said that during Aug. 7-9 and Aug. 21-23 more than 1,000 military vehicles of the Florida National Guard would be traveling the state's roads. The trucks will transport more than 7,000 guardsmen and equipment to annual maneuvers.

Bodies Of 3 Rights Workers Identified

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Three badly decomposed bodies found in shallow graves at a farm pond site near Philadelphia, Miss., were identified today as those of three civil rights workers who disappeared 44 days ago.

A terse FBI announcement, read here and in Washington, made no mention of the cause of death or whether arrests in the case were imminent.

Positive identifications from fingerprints and dental records were made of two of the workers—Andrew Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both white and from New York.

A tentative identification was made of the third worker, Negro James Chaney, 21, of Meridian, Miss.

They vanished the night of June 21 near Philadelphia following their arrest on a speeding charge while participating in a summer campaign by college students to register Negro voters in Mississippi.

The bodies were found late Tuesday, six weeks and two days after Philadelphia authorities said they were released from jail, by FBI agents digging around a newly-constructed farm pond dam in dense pine thickets and underbrush five miles southwest of the small east Mississippi city.

The graves were a stone's throw from state highway 21, the same on which the burned out station wagon used by the workers was found 13 miles northeast of Philadelphia the day after they disappeared.

Polio Fight JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The State Health Board has urged a stepped-up polio immunization program, following a survey of 16-month old children in the state that showed 11 per cent of the whites and 31 per cent of the non-whites had not taken polio vaccine.

Jaycees Urge Public To Attend Forum

By Dottie Austin (City Editor)

Reservations for luncheon with the Jaycees Thursday at the waterfront panel-forum program closed at noon today, but the public is still invited to attend the program session, at the Civic Center, Jaycee President Clyde Long said today.

The live broadcast of the program by Radio Station WTRR will begin at 12:32 p.m. so we urge those who are not having lunch with us to be seated by 12:20 p.m. so that we can be ready to begin the broadcast," Long emphasized.

Lunch will be served promptly at 12 noon, and all luncheon guests are urged to be on time.

At press time today, 50 reservations had been made with the Jaycees information office secretary, Mrs. Phyllis Chapman.

Goldwater Cuts Short Vacation; Flies To Capital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater, with an expression of strong support for President Johnson's decision to attack North Vietnamese gunboat bases, flew back to Washington today, cutting his California vacation by one day because of the Southeast Asia situation.

On arrival here aboard a chartered twin-engine plane after a 9 1/2 hour flight from California, Goldwater refused to elaborate on his earlier statement of support for Johnson's action.

Before leaving California, Goldwater assured Johnson of support for his decision to attack the bases of Communist boats that have attacked U. S. warships.

Ethel, Ernest Call It Quits

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — Actor Ernest Borgnine and Broadway musical star Ethel Merman were living apart today, their marriage in trouble.

Miss Merman, 35, left the couple's home Monday night and took up residence in a hotel, friends reported.

5 Engineering Firms To List Qualifications

Representatives of five marine engineering companies have been selected by City Manager W. E. Knowles to draw up perspectives for presentation to the City Commission on their company's qualifications and their approaches to the waterfront development plan.

Knowles said today that the five firms were selected on the basis of their qualifications in marine engineering, land use experience, architectural qualifications and sanitary engineering qualifications.

All five will be provided with modified general outlines for their perspectives and given 15 days to prepare them for presentation to the City Commission, Knowles added.

Each firm then will be interviewed by the commission, which will select the firm best qualified to undertake the preliminary engineering study of the waterfront development plans, Knowles said.

The firms will be asked to come up with a cost estimate for preparation of their report and asked to explain in detail what will be included in their reports, and the approximate time necessary to prepare it.

One of the primary questions which City Commissioners are awaiting from the preliminary studies and estimates of the five firms will be an actual cost estimate of the overall development plan.

Firms which will be interviewed by commissioners in about 15 days include J. E. Greiner and Company of Tampa; Lockwood-Green Engineers from Spartanburg, S. C.; David Volkert and Associates, Miami; Howard, Needles, Tammen and Bergendoff, of Orlando and Tampa Bay Engineering Company out of St. Petersburg.

Around The Clock

A South Carolina visitor to Sanford, Elaine Byrd, chides local residents for their forgetfulness on proper handling of the American flag. She called the other day to report the flag had been left flying overnight at at least two local locations. The flag is raised at sunrise; lowered at sunset—taken down during inclement weather, she reminds.

Members of the Ginderville Fire Department have been invited to be guests of Sanford Fire Chief Mack N. Cleveland Sr. at Station One Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Chief Cleveland will lecture on ventilation and a film will be shown on the Chicago Fire School activities.

New students in the Sanford area and who plan to attend the 10th, 11th or 12th grades at Seminole High School are reminded to report to the school auditorium at 8:30 a.m. Thursday. Placement tests will be given and students counseled in choosing courses for the coming school year. Students should plan to remain at the school until noon.

Despite the widespread publicity on the need for polio vaccine, a survey of Florida's child immunization program, started earlier this year by the State Board of Health, shows that among the 15-month-old children 11 per cent of the white and 31 per cent of the non-white have not taken the vaccine. "This could be dangerous situation," Dr. Wilson T. Sowder, state health officer, reports, "because the pre-school child is at the greatest risk and yet is the poorest immunized against polio."

Wonder what happened to the celebrated stoolie Joe Valachi?

Kudos to the Sanford Garden Club for its energetic plans for a new Garden Center.

Have you noticed the cleaning job being given the side of a downtown street? The sandblasting makes it appear so much cleaner, looks like it's been painted. Another step in the beautification of local establishments.

Can't help but note the "tone" of the fiscal budget proposed for the city by the city manager's office. Seems the lakefront marina project has evoked a feeling of optimism even when it comes to cold, stark figures. It's a hold-the-line budget yet offers a number of new projects for the coming fiscal year.

A local slo-pitch team sponsored by Kingswood Builders and winners of 27 of 28 games played here travels to Eau Gallie today for the state tournament. The Kingswood entry plays the second game, starting at 9:30, and a host of followers are expected to drive to the Brevard community to watch them.

Tourist Sessions

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Development Commission said today it would hold a series of meetings in 10 cities next week to preview the state's fall and winter tourist advertising campaign.
