$235,000 BOND ISSUE SELLS AT PREMIUM OF OVER $5,000

Again Sanford municipal bonds brought above par when at special meeting of the City commission this afternoon bonds for the extension of the sewerage system and the erection of a municipal hall aggregating $235,000, were sold at a premium of $5,381.50. Twelve bids for the bonds were received by the Commissioners, the highest being that of the Atlantic National Bank of Jacksonville for $240,281.50. A representative of the bank was present at the meeting and concluded the sale with the commission. Members of the Commission and several prominent business

BITHLO

The Commercial Center of "Eastern Orange," the largest half of Orange County. Bithlo is the only Town Development in the fast growing "East Orange."

Bithlo is on the Florida East Coast Railroad, where the Orlando-East Coast Boulevard intersects it. This branch railroad extends from New Symna to Okcechobee City, a distance of about 150 miles. The road is being extended from Okeechobee to Miami at a cost of millions of dollars and upon completion Bithlo will have a main line railroad.

A 16 foot brick road has just been completed from Bithlo north to the county line, connecting up with a hard-surfaced road into Sanford.

The Orlando-East Coast Boulevard connecting Orlando with Cocoa Beach and Titusville Beach by Bithlo is to be completed about November.

The Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co have just constructed a telephone line from Orlando to the East Coast through Bithlo.

Bithlo is about 9 miles from the St. Johns River, 2 miles from Lake Pickett, affording splendid fishing, and is 18 miles from the East Coast.

Nature provides a natural drainage system for Bithlo in the form of branches and creeks that take all surplus water off as rapidly as it is drained from any Florida city.

Bithlo is surrounded by thousands of acres of as rich trucking and general farming land as can be found in Orange County, Many farmers are now preparing land for cul-Approximately 5,000 lots have been sold in Bithlo to approximately three thousand individuals from all parts of America. A percentage of the property owners will surely develop their property.

There are thousands of acres of virgin timbered lands surrounding Bithlo that will be turpentined and say milled.

Bithlo is suburban to no other city and is so situated as to best serve Eastern Orange County, being 18 miles East of Orange, 21 miles west of Titusville. To miles south of New Smyrna, 100 miles north of Okeechobee.

Bithlo is an incorporated municipality, having two miles of paved streets. The town has voted a Bond issue for paving 41, miles of additional paved streets this summer.

Improvements mean that real estate will advance, hence profits to the investors.

Allow us to show Bithlo to you without expense or obligation. Then you are in position to judge of our investment opportunities.
