Odham Plans New City Development

A new Odham and Tudor development, containing 126 homes, is planned within the city limits. The homes would range in price from $13-16,000. Due to the undesirable condition of the land involved, the firm asked the city to share in the cost of utility installations. Art Corra representing the firm, was given a pledge that the city would furnish the labor if Odham and Tudor would pay for the materials. The announcement was made at a special meeting of City Commissioners Friday afternoon. Location of the development has not been disclosed.

County To Receive Data On Buildings

James Gamble Rogers, Winter Park engineer, will present charts of public buildings to County Commissioners this week. Rogers' firm has been authorized to make a survey of county buildings. Work will begin within a few days. "We chose an out-of-county firm to be assured of an impartial view on the public buildings," Chairman John Krider said. "For some time we have been disturbed about conditions at the county home, jail, courthouse and health unit. Of course, the health unit is now in progress but we need a long term capital improvement plan to replace the other buildings." The survey will include recommendations for repairs, additions or abandonment of the buildings. Property values also will be considered.

Wait Fruitless; New Car Towed In

A fruitless wait was staged last night by Sheriff's Deputies who found a spanking new car parked in the woods near the Wekiva River. The car was covered with moss in an apparent attempt to hide it. Longwood Is Too In This County!

Longwood is in Seminole County, and that's a fact. Yes, sir, the man who drew the map goofed that's all. This, said R. E. Ashton Jr., manager of Sanford's Food Fair, is why Longwood wasn't included on a map of Seminole County, used by the food chain. And Longwood doesn't like the omission. The community has filed an official protest, made by Mayor Allen Lorman. Ashton already knew Longwood is in the county. He went to school in Sanford. Today, he apologized to Longwood. Now, he plans to acquaint the map-maker with the facts of life.

Mayor Al Wilson, John Krider and Joel Field

In greeting the crowd, Levy said, "Sanford is a small city with a warm heart and a big spirit of friendliness. We are proud to be members of such a fine community."

Levy said that relocation of the company from Illinois was largely influenced by the efforts of Krider and the Chamber of Commerce. He credited rapid growth to the support of the City of Sanford and Seminole County. The building is now under construction by Carroll-Daniel Construction Company, and should be ready for occupancy in May.

Sea Outranks Space In U.S. Defense

By FRANK ELEAZER
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Any year now we are more likely the Russians will be shooting a space man 22,000 miles up to the moon. Yet we haven't gotten around to digging a hole in the ocean. And we don't seem in any hurry to do it.

Man has been sailing since Noah. Yet here were some of our top sailors admitting to a House Merchant Marine subcommittee they know "very little" about the seas that cover two-thirds of our earth.

Subcommittee members were shocked at the news, and not too hopeful on what they could do about it.

"You can get billions of dollars to explore outer space," moaned Chairman George P. Miller (D-Calif.). "But we'll have a hard time getting millions to explore our own oceans."

What prompted Miller's peering into the depths was a recent warning from the National Academy of Sciences.

The scientists said with missile subs at 4 ft. "the seas now are a real, than space in regarding our country. National survival may hinge on what we know about our oceans, they said.

Though we can direct satellites into orbit around the sun, we still can't navigate submarines under water with certain knowledge just where they are. Nor can we count on spotting an enemy's subs.

Vice Adm. A. C. Richmond, commandant of the Coast Guard, and C. R. Denison, research chief for the Maritime Administration, confirmed the worst of what the scientists said.

"We know very little about the sea," Richmond told the subcommittee. "What we do know is most superficial."

"We must depend for basic research on other agencies," said Denison. "And when we go to them for information, often it isn't there."

Miller hinted darkly that the Russians may also be pulling ahead under the "a. He produced, from the Library of Congress, six volumes on ocean research published in Russia in the past half dozen years.

All were in Russian. He didn't know what they said.

Ratliff Retiring; Celery City Sold

After 30 years, Zeb Ratliff is writing "thirty" to his career as a printer.

To those associated with the printing profession, "thirty" signifies the end. After a half-century in printer's ink, Zeb Ratliff plans to do a "lot of rocking." He has sold the Celery City Printing Co. to a younger man "who will carry on the tradition."

Purchasers of the firm at 115 South Park Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stewart, Monroe, Mich. This is Stewart's first venture into the printing business. However, he is not unfamiliar with printer's ink. For 10 years he was managing editor of the Monroe (Mich.) Evening News.

In the printing business in some capacity since he was 17, Ratliff said he "plans to play, and catch up on my rocking; I've got a rocking chair well-oiled and ready to go."

Ratliff, born in Jasper, Fla., in '29, came to Sanford in '52 and to work for The Sanford Herald. He stayed with The Herald until '56, when he and W. M. Haynes opened Celery City Printing. Haynes sold out his interest to Lee Leisher and Leisher sold out to Ratliff in 1954.

As Ratliff put it, "In 1914 I went under the gun." For the past 15 years, Ratliff had operated the business alone. Celery City Printing is one of the oldest businesses in Sanford.

As to his successor, Ratliff recommends him highly. He would not sell to anyone unless he had confidence that the buyer would continue to operate the firm as a good, successful business, Ratliff said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff plan to continue to live in Sanford. "Just couldn't find a better place," Ratliff said in surprise when asked if he planned to stay here.

And that's about the way Stewart felt about Sanford. He and his wife have bought a home in Ravenna Park. They are members of the Episcopal Church.

For many years, Stewart's parents lived in Daytona Beach. He said he had been attempting to get located in business here for quite some time. Now, he's happy. "Tell them Mr. Stewart will do a good job," Ratliff said as he departed. "I'm out of it now. Soon, I'll be forgotten." That is unlikely.

Hope Slows Down, Eye Feels Better

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Bob Hope, recovering slowly from effects of a blood clot in his left eye, was back on the golf course today — but only to play nine holes.

"My eye is about the same as it was a month ago," the comedian said, "but I'm feeling a lot better. I've slowed down my entire place of living, and that's something I never thought I could do."

"Those dizzy spells have almost disappeared, and I can play nine holes without getting tired. The other day I shot a 34. How about that?"

"I may keep taking these pills for the rest of my life if I can't shoot that kind of golf consistently."

Florida Throws Smog At Californians

MIAMI (UPI)—Florida tourist officials threw statistics and smog today in the face of Californians who claim large numbers of Floridians are moving west.

The Long Beach Press-Telegram reported recently, "word has leaked out from the insect curtain: The natives are restless in Florida and want out."

William C. Boyd, public relations manager for the Chamber of Commerce, told the newspaper a deluge of Florida mail had arrived. "A whole batch of D.F.'s displaced Floridians hopes to relocate in Long Beach," the newspaper reported.

The smog actually is on the other foot, retorted the Florida Development Commission. California, the commission said, ranks sixth in the nation in sending visitors to Florida. And while the Sunshine State's population increased 60.3 per cent in 1958, California's went up 35.4 per cent.

"It is significant to me that during the month of February, 1959, some tropical coconuts weigh 40 pounds apiece."

MIAMI (UPI)—Commission Director H. R. Fuller Jr., "more than 600 Californians drove their cars to Florida, changed their state of residence and bought Florida license tags."

"This means that at least 1,500 people moved their residence from California to Florida in this one month," he added. "No doubt, hundreds of other Californians without cars also migrated to Florida."

Miami Mayor Robert King High thought maybe the California tourist officials are sick.

"Those people out in Long Beach obviously need help," High said. "I'm going to suggest to my colleague that we lend them the publicity department to advise them in dreaming up some more believable fibs."

"With all that smog out there, I imagine," said High, "California qualifies as a disaster area and we could handle the whole thing through the Red Cross."

Vet Of Gray Loses Last Fight Today

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (UPI)—"General" John Salling, 112, one of the last two surviving veterans of the Civil War, died today.

The old rebel, who would have been 113 on May 15, succumbed to pneumonia and old age at the Mutual clinic here, not far from the Slant, Va., home where he spent almost all his life.

Salling's daughter, Mrs. Hugh McCamy, and his grandson, H. E. Hawkins, both of Slant, were with the old soldier when he died.

Salling's death leaves Walter W. Williams, 114, as the only surviving veteran of the War Between the States. Williams, bedridden and totally blind, lives in Houston, Tex., with a daughter, Albert Woolson, who died in 1934 at the age of 106 in Duluth, Minn., was the last of the Union veterans.

Salling until his death had a full head of black hair, sharp brown eyes and some of his own teeth. He stood alert, walked briskly and worked on his farm until he broke his hip at the age of 107.

A boy of 13 when southern guns fired on Ft. Sumter, Salling served three years as a private in Co. D, 25th Virginia Regiment but he spent his full service in his native Scott County, Va. His war effort was the unromantic task of finding and scraping out saltpeter from the mountain caves and cliffs for the manufacture of gun powder.

Jaycees Are Seeking U. S. Tax Overhaul

The U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce is seeking a complete overhaul of federal taxes.

In an effort to gain support for the projects, petitions are being circulated throughout the U. S. by Jaycees. In Sanford, Carroll Hurke is chairman; Art Harris of Sanford is chairman of the State of Florida. Both are requesting that petitions be distributed, signed and returned to the Junior Chamber prior to March 23, the date they are to be collected for a trip to Congress.

More than two million signatures have been obtained in 44 states. All of the petitions will be taken to the U. S. House of Representatives, along with the request for tax reform.

Why the tax reform request? It is an accepted fact that tax laws are not consistent with the free enterprise system. The basic fault with tax laws as they exist is that they tend to throttle the very thing which made America great—the "rags to riches" success story in business.

This is true particularly with the federal income tax. The income tax penalizes initiative, ambitions, energy and enthusiasm. The tax is so constructed that, after a certain point is reached, there is little reason to attempt to go further. That "little something extra" would mean a higher, and more confiscatory, tax bracket. This prevents the average American from putting his "all" into many endeavors.

There are few who argue that America could get along without an income tax. We know that taxes are mandatory to support our government. However, the U. S. Junior Chamber believes that tax rate reductions can be made.

Jaycees believe these reductions can be made without loss of needed revenue. Government has grown so big and complicated that Congress is unable to evaluate all of the needs and requirements of the various agencies, departments and bureaus. For this reason, as the Hoover Reports have pointed out, there have been vast wastes of money in supplying these needs.

As the Jaycees point out, it is not enough for citizens to attempt to place blame for the situation on others. The people must be willing to accept the blame for the situation. As a democracy, government depends upon the people for guidance.

Tax reform is a task of the people. Their wants and desires must be transmitted to government. The people should join in calling for a careful review, aimed at relieving the burden without undermining the financing of government.

Growth Testimonial

A strong testimonial to the rapid growth of South Seminole was the announcement by the County School Board that a new school will be built this year to serve that area.

The school will serve Casselberry, Fern Park, Tanglewood and Goldenrod. Plans call for 18 classrooms, a cafeteria, library, rest rooms, an administrative suite and heating facilities.

Oviedo High School also will be expanded to take care of the big enrollment increase. Seven new classrooms, a cafeteria, storage rooms and administrative offices will be erected.

These are only two of the many improvements scheduled in county schools. One of the major projects will be a completely new plant for Seminole High. Details of many other projects will be announced within a few days.

THE 59ERS!

Assignment Washington

By Ed Kotelba

WASHINGTON — The way farmer Stanley Yankus put it to the Congressmen, he was right and the country was wrong.

The way things have been going between him and Uncle Sam it may develop into a case of "Yankus, leave home." His home is a 350,000, 100-acre farm near Dowagiac, Mich.

The strong-fisted, 60-year-old fellow, with red roosters painted on his blue tie and sporting a homemade haircut, was telling the House Agriculture Committee that he may give up his country, pack up his family, and leave for Australia.

His is a sad tale, and at first I was sympathetic. Since 1934, Stanley has been growing all the wheat he wanted to on his farm. This he fed to his chickens or ground up into flour for his own use.

But the bureaucrats came along and said he could grow just so much, even though he was growing that wheat on his own farm and using it all himself. They said this was breaking the surplus wheat law and fined him $4,362, plus interest, for the years 1934 through 1938.

Stanley refused to pay, so they've tied up his bank account.

The Congressmen, most of them agreed the surplus laws were stupid. But as Rep. Charles H. Hoeven (R., Iowa) put it: "You are an aggrieved citizen of the United States rebelling against the laws of the United States."

And he added: "The law is on the statute books. This is still the finest country in the world." Mr. Yankus said he felt he wasn't violating the law, according to the Constitution. He mused, "I could shoot it out with a couple of marshals, but that wouldn't solve anything."

There's one thing troubling me—something Stanley neglected to tell the Congressmen. He admitted it to me over a hot lunch in the House of Representatives restaurant later on.

And that is, this young man who's been denouncing the American way passed by a chance to fight for his country. That was back in 1941, when the draft was going full swing.

Stanley said that he was an auditor for a mail-order house in Chicago then. He switched jobs, moved to a farm in Michigan and had his classification changed. On the grounds that he was a farmer he won a deferment throughout the war.

So, now, here was Stanley, expressing himself in full blown free speech saying he had no freedom in this country, that he would have to move to Australia.

Mr. Yankus, a raw-boned, weather-faced fellow, is a forceful, blunt talker, and I'd say he came here with a chip on his shoulder. "My rights," he shouted, "do not extend much beyond the right to pay taxes. This is tyranny."

Mr. Yankus told me later he grossed $25,000 on his farm last year. Of that, $3,500 was net.

There are a lot of folks sympathetic with this energetic crusader. They're for him, in principle. But, then again, when you look back on it, Stanley did choose the farm in 1941.

Burger King Plans Reopening Friday

The former owner of a coal, feed and fertilizer firm has turned to selling hamburgers as a way of life.

Donald D. Royer, 200 Bamboo Drive, Sunland Estates, has purchased the Burger King on Highway 17-92 in Sanford. He plans to reopen the quick-service chain restaurant, on Friday.

Royer came to Sanford from Waynesboro, Va., where he operated a coal, feed and fertilizer business for nine years. He is 33 years old.

The new owner and manager spent three years in the Naval Reserve. He is a member of the Loyal Order of the Moose and the Presbyterian Church, and has been a Jaycee for seven years.

Royer and his wife, Gertrude, have two children, Connie, 10 and Colleen, 5.

The real estate transaction was handled by Everett Harper of Stempier Real Estate Agency.

Dr. John Thurmond Named To Group

Dr. John H. Thurmond, director of the County Health Unit, has been appointed to the Seminole County Children's Committee.

The County Children's Committee is a local, volunteer unit of the Florida Children's Commission, a state agency which makes surveys and studies of services to children, coordinates those services and makes legislative recommendations to the governor and the Legislature concerning services to children.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, Sanford Herald:

The members of this squadron wish to extend to Mr. Bralley Odham their appreciation for his thoughtfulness and generosity with regards to the recent Florida Symphony Orchestra concert.

We're referring to his guaranteeing the admission fee for the children in elementary and grammar school. Even though most parents would have been more than willing to purchase tickets for their children, Mr. Odham's action made certain all children had an opportunity to enjoy the fine music of the Florida Symphony Orchestra. The thought put forth by Mr. Odham was a very fine, civic-minded gesture.

The Officers and Men of PAFRON-51, NAS, Sanford, Florida

Editor, Sanford Herald:

After reading your articles in the February 26-27 issues about the deplorable conditions at the Seminole County Home on Highway 17-92, I visited the place. Everything you wrote is so true and no one who checks as I did, could read in peace until something is done to arouse taxpayers to righteous indignation and demand improvements.

We think we elect proper officials to run our county, but do we? The Home as it stands now is a monument to those elected officials who have had no business ability or sense of decency. You can count on my aid and all those whom I shall contact.

Very sincerely yours,
 (Signed) Mrs. Clement Haller
 Fern Park, Fla.

Editor, Sanford Herald:

I would suggest we move toward easing cold-war tensions by asking Khrushchev when he intends to release the millions of slaves in Siberia, permit East Germany to unite with West Germany, withdraw his troops from Romania, Albania, Hungary, Poland, and the Baltic States, and grant civil liberties and a free press to his own people.

Sincerely,

A Wonderful Story... Told in Silence!

There are many ways, certainly, to describe the quality of the great Cadillac car.

But we think no one tells the story quite as well—or quite as convincingly—as the car itself.

And how does a Cadillac put it? Well, the next time you are in the "car of cars"—just listen!

Listen to its absolute freedom from vibration. Here, it says, is the kind of craftsmanship that can only come from years of devotion to the very highest quality ideals.

Then listen to its extraordinary freedom from wind noise. Here, it says, is true perfection in styling—as scientifically sound as it is majestically beautiful.

Or listen to the incredible quiet of that great engine. Here, it says, is truly masterful engineering—with every phase of the car's performance working in perfect harmony.

And listen to the marvelous manner in which it closes out the sound of a city's traffic. Here, it says, you will find perfect serenity and security throughout even the longest of journeys—a wonderful sanctuary in a busy world.

Yes, just listen—and we think you'll agree that the Cadillac story is never more eloquent than when told by the "voice" of its own silence.

In fact, we earnestly suggest that you visit your authorized Cadillac dealer very soon—and spend an hour or so in the driver's seat.

You will find that your dealer is long practiced in the art of satisfying a motorist's personal needs and requirements—and he will make you his welcome guest at any time.

People In Our Town

Music Is Her Forte

By JEANNE WARNE

If one should visit the music department of Pinecrest or Grammar School they might see an attractive woman with raven black hair and brown eyes doing the "Hokey Pokey" or the "Bunny Hop" with the children.

Pina Harrison, public school music director, has been dividing her time between the two schools for the past year teaching pupils rhythm, dancing and her specialty, singing. Previous to Sanford she taught in schools throughout Seminole County.

This energetic young woman grew up in Rome, Italy, and left there in 1946 to come to America. She was the youngest in a family of four children. They, and her mother, still live in Rome.

Here in the States, Pina attended a Lutheran College, Lenoir Rhyne, in Hickory, N. C., and it was there that she decided on a public school music career. Now she says, "I wouldn't want anything else."

Music comes naturally to Pina. As a youngster she can remember being propped up on a table to perform, singing in her lovely soprano voice when she was too tiny to see over the top. And she has memories of her mother singing in the kitchen—not "pop" tunes such as most of us would sing in the kitchen, but opera—which of course, is of primary interest in Italy. "Opera there is like the folk song here," she said.

And speaking of opera, Pina added that Miss Lucille Campbell sixth graders at Pinecrest are learning the opera, "Aida" in connection with their studies of Italy. It is of a more serious nature than the usually undertaken with children of that age but it is something they requested. And all of her work ties in with school studies—social studies, and even arithmetic and fractions. You might hear one class chanting, "How many green bottles on the wall?"

How many green bottles on the wall? How many bottles if tarenty and five should fall?

Now how many green bottles on the wall?

The answer is given and someone takes up the song with another question. It is a way to learn addition and subtraction with music and the children are responsive to this method.

Although she has taught both high school and elementary students, Pina prefers to be in the elementary schools. At that age they are "so receptive" says this director, "like little eggs you can see them hatch!"

Although other teachers fondly tease Pina about the pupils singing with an Italian accent she has only a trace of it as she has little opportunity to speak her native language in Florida.

A public school music teacher helps the teacher help herself explains Pina. Her job is to suggest special activities such as programs and in the classroom she demonstrates methods that the teacher can follow up with lessons.

Mrs. Harrison has little time for outside interests but when time allows she likes to sew and at one time made all her clothes. And her husband, Lt. Cmdr. James F. Harrison, officer in charge of Ground Control Approach Unit at the Naval Air Station, joined the conversation in time to say that she is "the best cook in the world". He remarked that she has a special way with vegetables, something he didn't particularly care about until he married Pina.

And she has definite ideas about cooking. She doesn't refer to a cook book. Her theory is that it is a lot more fun in the relaxed way—just adding a bit here and there—although she admitted, "I often don't know what to expect the second time."

Being Italian she is well versed on the making of a good, rich spaghetti sauce and regrets that it isn't one of her husband's favorite dishes. And as for her vegetables she doesn't know why they taste any different only that she does believe in seasoning. Her eyes twinkled when she said, "I'm a good friend of garlic."

One of her favorite dishes, to serve as a vegetable or salad is one that she remembers watching her mother prepare. It has no name—nor has it been written down. And it sounds simple enough to hear Pina tell it. One just places green peppers under the broiler until the skin is burned—puffs and peels off (just keep turning). Then she slices them and puts them in a dish with garlic salt (naturally) pepper and pours olive oil over them. That it is a tasty surprise.

When Pina Harrison returns home from school she is greeted by Jeffrey and Elaine Harrison, second and third graders at Pinecrest School—a big collie named "Bimbo" which is Italian for "child" (it was just a pup when we got him) and two Siamese kittens to complete the family group.

Cincinnati Remains 'Cousin' For Braves

United Press International
It's a new season but the same old Cincinnati Reds as far as the Milwaukee Braves are concerned. In 1937, the Braves smoothed their path to the National League pennant by defeating the Reds in 19 of their 22 meetings. Last spring the Reds vowed it wouldn't happen again but Milwaukee won 17 of 22 en route to another pennant. The two clubs clashed Sunday for the first time this year. It was the same old story as the Braves won, 11-5. Of course, it was only an exhibition, but it bore the unmistakable stamp of Milwaukee's strange mastery over Cincinnati. The St. Louis Cardinals treated Don Larsen like a batting practice pitcher while crushing the New York Yankees, 10-3. The Cardinals got in Larsen in the third for six runs on three hits, two errors and a walk. Four of the runs being earned. Ryne Duren,

New York's fireballing relief pitcher, held St. Louis to one run in three innings. Moose Skowron of the Yankees again brought a grin to Manager Casey Stengel's face by getting a double, two singles and a walk. He has a .556 average. The Los Angeles Dodgers, setting a hot exhibition pace, climbed to the top of the Florida Grapefruit League standings by edging Washington, 2-1, in a game halted by rain after seven innings. Gus Zernial, who shares the major league record of nine pinch-hit homers with Cy Williams and Hobby Hoffman, blasted a pinch-hit homer over the left field fence with one on and two out in the ninth to give the Detroit Tigers a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Rawls Bridesmaid At Augusta Again

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Louise Suggs and Betsy Rawls agreed on one thing today—neither had ever shot a better round of golf. For Miss Suggs, a veteran of the golf wars, a final round 71 was what she needed Sunday to win the 20th annual women's Titleholders champion. Her 72-hole total was 297.

For Miss Rawls, her round of 70—two strokes under men's figures on the Augusta County Club course and only one stroke off the women's course record—it was another bridesmaid finish. She wound up second with 298. Miss Rawls, the Spartanburg, S. C. battler who has won virtually every other event in women's golf, has finished second three times here, but never first.

"This was a great round as I've ever shot when the pressure was on," Miss Suggs said. "I knew that Betsy was breathing down my neck all the way." Miss Rawls, who was in third place going into the final round had predicted a 72 on Sunday would win it. "So what do I do," she asked, "but shoot the most satisfying round of my life and end up second?"

Local Kennel Club Defeats Sarasota; Tracks Vie Again

Sanford's greyhound racing fans throughout the season have maintained the local kennel club's honors as the finest in the South. The first inter-city match race at Sarasota Friday night indicated the fans' pride is justified. All three top places were nabbed by Sanford-Orlando entrants, Happy Joe Lucky, Kiego and Cri Tears. Tomorrow night the fans will see a rematch of the same star-studded sextet, featuring three of the local best against Sarasota's trio of hustlers. The inter-city feature will highlight a 10-event slate beginning at 8:10. Greyhounds will cover the exciting three-eighths-mile distance in the special event.

In the Sarasota competition, Happy Joe Lucky swept across the fast track in 38.45 seconds, to beat Kiego by one and one-half lengths. Tampa's Derby winner, Norman Star, ran fourth behind the SOKC trio. Tonight's 10-event card starting at 8:10 launches the club's drive into the home stretch. Racing will close for the season March 30 with a special feature, followed in the evening by an all-star 11-race schedule to round out the 92-day meet, certain to be the kennel club's best season in its history.

Attendance and total betting handle records will fall by the wayside, in addition to a new record pay-off of $2,563. Fans are still talking wistfully about that tremendous daily double paid Friday afternoon for a single $2 ticket. At 2 p. m. Sunday, fans will have a chance to see the fastest of non-greyhound dog snot after Swiftie, the mechanical rabbit. Ten exciting, and humorous, heats are slated and prizes will be given all entrants, as well as special awards for winners. Thursday, the club has scheduled another Ladies Night, and next Monday derby eliminations will highlight a 19-race slate. The Central Florida Derby is set for Friday, March 27. Sanford-Orlando's fastest octet will fly over the marathon distance in the long-awaited contest of champions.

Rugby Team Ready For Home Contest
The Navy Sandflies will meet their rugged Canadian opponents next Saturday on the Rugby field on Celery Ave. When the whistle blows at 2 p. m., the overzealous football will disappear in a pile of sturdy limbs, and muscular physiques. The Royal Canadians will be flown to Sanford from Pensacola for the match. The team will remain overnight at the Sanford Naval Air Station, where they will be properly feted in the "good old American way." Still nursing bruises and chagrin from last week's defeat at the hands of the Canadians, the local Rugby team has been practicing after work every day to gain the polish needed to secure victory. A vital morale factor was added Friday when approval was granted for the Sandflies' trip to Bermuda, March 28-April 5. During Rugby Week in the British island, the Navy men will play teams from the British Army, Bermuda and Ivy League colleges of the U. S. Team Captain Tom Hamilton is confident that Saturday the Sandflies will defeat the Canadians. Sanford residents are urged to attend the match. Rugby is not tiddly-winks, and thrills are always in the offing.

Bob Pettit Picked As Most Valuable
BOSTON (UPI)—Bob Pettit, who paced the St. Louis Hawks to the Western Division championship with his record-breaking marksmanship, today was overwhelmingly named the National Basketball Association's most valuable player of 1958-59. The 6-foot, 9-inch former All-American from Louisiana State polled 273 points in the first voting ever done on a national scale by sports writers, capturing 21 of the 24 possible first-place votes. Rookie Elgin Baylor of the Minneapolis Lakers finished second with 142 points and two first-place votes. Third place went to Bob Cousy of the Boston Celtics. Cousy had 121 votes and the one first-place vote.

Art Wall In Front
DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI)—In statistics which do not include the week-end Pensacola Open, Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa., remained far in front in professional golf's 1958 money-winning race with $11,630. The U. S. private and commuter, and a half million vehicles. Piled bumper to bumper, they would circle the earth.

Rain Keeps Two Clubs Inside

Heavy rains and wet grounds teamed up to keep Phoenix and Corpus Christi baseball teams inside yesterday and this morning, but the two key farm clubs of the Giants hoped to get rolling this afternoon. Phoenix arrived in Sanford yesterday and attempted to work out. A heavy afternoon downpour forced the defending Pacific Coast League champs to abandon the first scheduled practice session. Corpus Christi, here since last Tuesday, was attempting to get in another warm-up session prior to opening its exhibition schedule here tomorrow against the Mobile Bears of the Southern Association. Carl Hubbell, minor league director for the Giants, said this morning that wet grounds forced postponement of an early workout today. If the weatherman cooperates, the teams were scheduled to get down to business this afternoon. As Phoenix checked in, coaches and scouts for the Giants got ready to look the players over carefully. On the roster are several players with Major League experience who could make the "big time" again this year. Among those arriving yesterday were two Army returnees, taking part in their first spring training drills with the Giants in three years. Following its opener here against Mobile tomorrow, Corpus Christi moves to City Island Park, Daytona Beach, Wednesday, for a game with the Tulsa Oilers, a league rival. On Friday, the Texans are in Daytona again for a battle with Houston, another Texas League team. Phoenix opens its spring schedule here Friday against Rochester. The only other game on tap for the Giants' Class AAA squad is slated Saturday in DeLand, against Minneapolis. Phoenix returns to Sanford Sunday to host the Millers.

On the Phoenix roster are: Charles Earl Antoni, Hayden, Ariz.; Milton Joseph Bolling, Mobile, Ala.; former infielder with the Boston Red Sox and a brother of Detroit's Frank Bolling; Thomas Earl Bowers, Irving, Tex.; James E. (Jim) Bridgewater, former infielder with several Major League teams, including the Yankees. Robin Coffman, Ripley, Tenn.; Daight R. Cook, Salina, Wash.; just discharged from the Army, trained here in 1955; Charles Victor Davis, Blandensboro, N. C.; Eddie G. Fisher, Corpus Christi, Tex.; Marion Fricano, North Collins, N. Y., former Major League hurler, most prominent with Kansas City Athletics.

Seminoles To Host Longwood Tonight

By Jerry Covington
The Sanford Seminoles will open the 1959 baseball season here tonight as they host the Lyman Greyhounds of Longwood. It will be the first game for both county schools. Game time is 8:15 at Memorial Stadium. Coaches Dave Laude and Jim McCoy have given the nod to right-hander Richard Barnes to go to the mound against the also green Greyhounds. Barnes had a 31 record last season and was very impressive with his good control. He lacked speed, but in pre-season drills the youngster has found the zip. He has fine form and could work into the Seminoles' outstanding twirler, Henry Shoemaker and lefty Bob Day will be available should Barnes tire.

Although the Seminoles have not shown many sluggers in pre-season drills, several have shown potential. First baseman James Markham, last year's batting champ with a hefty .435 average, goes into the opener as the cleanup hitter. The big sophomore came from the bench early last season. His field play has improved greatly. If he can master the mitt, he should be a top performer all the way. Centerfielder Alex McKibbin and shortstop Cecil Dandridge are the names remaining dangerous hitters. McKibbin will start his first season as a regular. He has shown power to all fields. Dandridge, an All-OCB selection last season, is a smooth fielder, has hit well in the past two seasons. He is a fine utility man, can cover several positions on the diamond. One of the biggest surprises has been the showing of second baseman George Perides. The little sophomore is a good player and, although not a big man, can punch the ball to all fields. He could make or break the infield this season. Frivolities will begin tonight at 7:45 with the SHS pen band and cheerleaders getting things off to a roaring start. The Boosters Club is sponsoring the ball game. They urge all members of the club to give baseball full support.

Low Scores Rolled In Sandspur Loop

Last week saw some mighty low scores rolled in the Sandspur Bowling League, as everyone bemoaned the fact that they couldn't hit the side of a barn. 137 was the highest game rolled and 427 the highest series. Both these scores were rolled by Wilson-Maier players, but it just wasn't enough to help them in their try for first place. They lost two games to ABC Garbage Service and it was a see-saw battle all the way. ABC took the first game by a wide margin, then Wilson-Maier came back and won the second game with pins to spare. The third game stayed even to the end, with ABC winning by just three pins, one of these was the lone pin that Wilson-Maier spotted ABC in handi-cap. The furniture team had a 640 scratch game to ABC's 642. The week saw little change in league standings as ABC remained in first place with 18-11, followed by Roumillat & Anderson Drugs with 17-12, Wilson-Maier Furniture Co. 12-15, Perfection Dairies 14-16, Robison Sporting Goods 12-17, and Wade's Market with 10-20. Roumillat & Anderson took over the number two spot by winning all three games from Perfection. The drugstore team had the highest series, 184-222. Alberta Shaw, captain of this team, had the lone split pickup with her 5-7 space. Other action in the league saw Robison Sporting Goods take two games from Wade's Market. Neither of these teams has reached .500 form this half, but are still in the running, with 15 more games to be played this year. Tomorrow night's action will find Perfection and ABC on lanes 1 and 2, Roumillat's and Wade's on 3 and 4, and Robison's and Wilson-Maier's on lanes 5 and 6. In 1965, only 2,000 persons lived in Belfast, which is now the capital of Ulster, or Northern Ireland, and has a population of 450,000.

Jay Hebert Takes 2nd At Pensacola

Sanford's Jay Hebert today was $1,500 richer, thanks to a steady game which brought him second place in the $15,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament yesterday. He had a 72-hole total of 272, three strokes higher than Paul Hanney of Worcester, Mass. For his winning 289, Hanney collected $2,000. Hanney entered the final 36 holes with a five-stroke lead. He fired a seven under par 65 in the morning round and a 70 in the final yesterday afternoon. Despite his two great rounds, Hanney lost two strokes to Hebert over the last 36 holes. Hanney's score was a new record for the Pensacola Open, now in its fourth year. Bob Hosburg, Palo Alto, Calif., who went into the final round in second place, was tied at 276 by Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va. Hosburg fired a record-breaking 62 in the third round, but carded a 72 in the last. Ken Venturi, Palo Alto, and Freddie Haas, New Orleans, tied at 277. Next came Art Wall Jr. and Arnold Palmer, each with 278.

Defense Squabble: If Guess Wrong?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Have pity for the earnest citizen who seeks the facts in the blaring defense-budget controversy between President Eisenhower and the Democratic Congress.

There are too many experts; too many speeches; too many words. The controversy is the hottest of our times. It is the most important. If U. S. defense policy is mistaken now and if the mistake is large enough, Red bombs may wither the flowers of spring in this country, to say nothing of

'Spies' Numerous On Berlin Border

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — The writer of spy thrillers could have a field day here.

Coded names, telephone calls from untraceable public booths, forged documents—they're almost a part of daily life here on the fringe of the Iron Curtain where the Communists pay for information about Western defenses.

Some of these cases, when the spies are caught, find their way to court records.

Ed Heller in the United Press International editor in Frankfurt. As with any newsman here, part of his job is to run these stories down and to report them when they can be told without involving Western security.

He was remembering a few the other night.

Since last October, German counter-intelligence has arrested dozens of persons on charges of "reasonable ties to a foreign power."

Most of them involve northern defenses along the strategic Baltic Sea, where Russian submarines abound and in an area especially sensitive to the Russians because of their work on rocketry.

Last October, intelligence picked up a pilot in the German

McKee Motor Co. Will Open Tuesday

The modern tropical showroom of McKee Motor Co. has attracted much attention from the passing public.

Situated at 800 French Ave., the open display area is typical of Florida, but usually further south.

The McKee Motor Co. is the result of a childhood ambition Robert E. (Bob) McKee, always wanted to own an automobile agency. Now the 24-year-old Sanford man has authorized sales and service for Renault and Peugeot cars.

The new shop is fully-equipped and staffed with factory-trained mechanics. Howard Butcher is in charge of the service department. Dick Geiger heads the staff of salesmen.

There are more than 600 franchised Renault and Peugeot dealers in the U. S. According to McKee, the Renault ranks first in imported sales in Florida. The cars are priced low, yet give excellent roadability and gas mileage, he said.

Nine Dead; Midwest Staggers Under Storm Assault

United Press International

The snow-weary Midwest staggered today in the wake of a near blizzard which stalled trains, marooned thousands of persons and cut communications.

The week-end storm, powered by 50 to 60 m.p.h. winds, piled up paralyzing snows from Nebraska through Michigan.

It roared into eastern Canada during the night, but strong winds continued to batter the lower Great Lakes region and eastern Upper Michigan, where snow depths averaged 40 to 50 inches.

The storm, tornadoes and Texas prairie fires were blamed for at least nine deaths. Three persons were killed in Arkansas tornadoes at Opel, Moke and Owensville. A fire fighter died of burns in Texas. Exertion or exposure claimed two lives in Iowa and one each in Illinois and Michigan. And an Ohio man was killed when blown from a second floor porch by 80-mile-an-hour winds.

Highlights of the weather situation included:

- Four of the Chicago and North Western Railway's crack streamliners carrying about 300 passengers in Wisconsin were stalled by 10-to-15 foot drifts most of Sunday. Plows freed three of them. A bus with 23 persons aboard was stuck four hours in drifts and most bus operations in the state were cancelled.
- Snow emergencies were declared in Milwaukee, Sheboygan, Appleton and Green Bay, Wis., and in 12 Wisconsin counties. Sheboygan County was isolated. Authorities were unable to keep up with road conditions.
- Basketball fans, about 6,000 strong, also were stranded Saturday night by the storm at Lincoln, Neb., after attending the state's high school tourney.
- Thousands of skiers were trapped by snow in hotels, tourist homes and motels in northern Michigan. Winds in the state reached 74 m.p.h., whipping up 25-foot drifts. Thousands of cars were abandoned in central and northern Michigan. At least 60 persons were injured in traffic accidents in western Michigan alone, with many of the accidents involving 10 or more vehicles.
- Telephone service was knocked out to thousands of rural homes in northwestern Illinois and about 1,500 residents north of Freeport, Ill., have been without power since Saturday night due to downed utility lines.

County Commissioners Request 11-Point Legislative Program

The Seminole County Commission today revealed an 11-point program, designed to give the county more home rule, which will be sought in the Legislature this year.

Heading the list is a request to give the Commission authority to give assessments for building of streets outside of municipal areas within the county.

The program, for the most part, is the same as that discussed during a recent meeting between Commissioners and members of the local legislative delegation.

One new item which appears on the list is a request for authority to own and operate an airport. This developed within the past few weeks after Commission Chairman John Krider revealed that Ocala Airport, at Lake Harney might become available to the county for $1, provided legislation is passed to allow the county to own and operate an airport.

Other proposals on the list are:

- Authority to award contracts to private construction companies; authority to install street lights located outside corporate municipalities in the county; authority to accept materials or financial contributions in the construction of streets and roads outside of municipalities, where condition of streets or roads is critical and the county is unable to repair or reconstruct them due to other commitments of county equipment.
- Amendment to the Seminole County plat law so as to require examinations of plats and certification of ownership, boundaries, description, lines and taxes; permissive authority for the board to hire a county manager; give further authority to the board in order that monies can be appropriated to be disbursed to the Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce to carry out Seminole's overall publicity, advertising and promotional work.
- Authorize the board to make purchases up to $1,000 without the necessity of having bids; amend the zoning law requiring bonds for construction of streets and roads in subdivisions; permissive legislation to require contractors' bonds and registration in Seminole, and providing for fee and authorization for examinations and certification of contractors and journeymen doing work in Seminole County, and providing for fees.

This program, along these general lines, is expected to win approval of local legislators. Commissioners and legislators have agreed that such a program would give the Commission more freedom in running the county government.

Khrushchev Halts Nasser Support

CAIRO (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's support of the Iraqi Communist against President Gamal Abdel Nasser today ended the long Soviet-U.S. honeymoon.

Khrushchev accused Nasser Monday of wanting to annex Iraq to the U.S. Within a few hours Nasser snapped back and accused Khrushchev of "totally unacceptable" interference in the U.A.R.'s internal affairs.

Khrushchev's Moscow statement put the Soviet Union on the side of Iraq in the bitter quarrel with Nasser over the Communist penetration of Iraq Premier Abdel Karim Kasim's government.

Nasser's reaction was as quick and as sharp as his replies to alleged Western interference in Arab affairs.

Both leaders said they wanted to keep good relations, but their public exchange made it clear they were on opposite sides. Nasser referred sharply to "new forms of imperialism."

Diplomats here speculated whether the split will cut Russia's huge aid program to Egypt which began when the Communist bloc said Nasser arms in 1955.

Since then Russia has promised Nasser $275 million in aid.

A third Middle East country now involved in a war of words with Russia is Iran, the pro-Western nation which borders both Iraq and Russia. Iran charged Monday that Soviet planes made 21 flights over its territory in the past three months; the charges followed a Soviet propaganda barrage at Iran's new pact links with the West.

Residents Protest Location Of Dairy

County Commissioners are largely to blame for the location of a dairy on Summerlin Ave. today.

Sealing was started as a large delegation appeared to object to the present operation of Hardin's Dairy on Summerlin Ave.

Mrs. Eugene Gilmer presented a petition signed by 135 residents adjacent to the plant. "The objections are very bad, and children can get stuck in the muck in the ditch," she said.

John Krider, chairman of the board added, "I have lived there for nearly 10 years, and the place is filthy. The water just stands in the ditch, and Hardee apparently does nothing about it."

Krider said the city and county both had offered to clear the ditch, which is on private property.

The county sanitarian told the board that he would like to see the dairy improve its conditions and eventually move its operations. "It is a health hazard in the area," Val Robbins said. "Granted the dairy was there first, but it was to be only temporary."

Commissioners adopted a resolution asking correction of the situation.

Irish Celebrate, Mostly In U. S.

DUBLIN (UPI)—They played "God Save the Queen" in Dublin today.

It was enough—in the old days anyway—to send a hot-blooded Irishman on the warpath. But today, on St. Patrick's Day of all days, the 40,000 persons listening to the rendering of the British national anthem didn't turn a hair.

The slow, almost pompous strains of the anthem were heard at Dismount Park stadium where English and Irish soccer eleven met in battle.

It seemed as though all of Dublin was in the arena. Elsewhere, nearly deserted streets confirmed what the Irish have known for a long time. It's the duller place in the world to celebrate St. Pat's Day—unless you happen to be in the "know."

Red Secret Agent Gives U. S. Info On Soviet Leaders

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities says a top Soviet secret service agent who defected five years ago gave the West an intimate view of Kremlin leaders and their private lives.

The defector was identified as Peter Sergeyevich Derabin, one-time No. 3 man in the "Otkhrana," the ultra hush-hush secret police responsible for guarding Soviet leaders.

Derabin is reported living somewhere in the U. S. But the committee won't say where because of the danger of possible retaliation by Soviet agents.

The committee also wouldn't divulge when Derabin testified. Committee Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said only he and staff director Richard Arens were present during the testimony, made public Monday night.

Walter described Derabin as the highest-ranking Soviet official ever to defect to the West. He said Derabin has been "assisting certain agencies of the government of the United States."

State Department sources said the defector asked for and was granted political asylum in the United States after crossing the Iron Curtain into Australia in February, 1934. He now is working toward U. S. citizenship.

Derabin testified that the late Josef Stalin and current Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev as well as other top Soviet leaders lived better than American millionaires.

Of Stalin son, Vasili, the former Soviet agent said: "He was actually an alcoholic and a thoroughly-corrupted individual" who threw loud parties with prostitutes.

Russians Expected To Welcome Talks

MOSCOW (UPI)—Diplomatic observers predicted today the Soviet government would welcome President Eisenhower's conditional willingness to attend a summit conference.

Up to mid-afternoon, Moscow had not reacted to the President's speech. His statements doubtless were being studied carefully.

The Western consensus was that what Eisenhower said would be welcomed as a "less negative" approach than before to the question of summit talks—a forum which the Russians consider vital to the solution of major international problems.

It was generally believed among Western diplomats that British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan had been partly instrumental in Eisenhower's acceptance of the idea of a summit conference.

Commission Aids Negro Aged Home

The Good Samaritan Home will celebrate its 11th anniversary with help from Seminole County. Commissioners granted $155 this morning to Mrs. Montes Harris to procure a lifter for patients who cannot get out of bed alone.

The Negro home for the aged is now incorporated, Mrs. Harris said. "We have never denied anyone the right to come there, and even take in needy children. The home is one of the best in the whole state of Florida."

The 11th anniversary of the home will be celebrated Sunday.

Texan Last Symbol Of Bloody Strife

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Walter Washington Williams, 114, is the last living symbol of some four million men who fought the bloody Civil War that split the nation nearly a century ago.

He gained that distinction when John Balling, 118, died in a Kingsport, Tenn., clinic Monday.

Williams predicted six years ago he would be the last living survivor. He particularly wanted to outlive the last Union veteran and realized that ambition two years ago when Albert Woolson of Duluth, Minn., joined his comrades in death.

Ummie Wall, a Texan respectfully ruler to him, plans to send his condolences to Balling's family. He said he "would like to be over in Tennessee with him, if I was able."

Blind and bedridden for several years, he's still perky. Dr. R. L. Wolfe examined him Sunday and said he is still in good health, considering his age, and has a strong pulse and blood pressure.

Williams was a lad of 19 when the first shots were fired on Ft. Sumter in 1861, touching off the four years of strife that pitted brother against brother, and father against son.

He joined Gen. John B. Hood's 5th Cavalry at Corinth, Miss., three years later as a "forage-master." He's foreman of today's quartermaster.

"We didn't get beat, we were starved out. Got down to nothing but parched acorns to eat. I've got many a parched acorn," he recalls.

Real Estate Deal Dampened; Zoning Question Debated

A $700,000 real estate deal in Seminole County was dampened this morning at the County Commission meeting.

G. Andrew Speer, representing the trustee of the purchaser, told the board that on the very day Robert Black purchased Gardens Farms acreage, a legal had run requesting the area to be zoned industrial.

L. D. Plant, owner of a rendering plant in the area, asked the zoning board to protect his business and that of a neighboring slaughterhouse.

Director Bob Brown said the zoning board had approved the zoning, and felt that a buffer zone was needed, since residential areas would be affected by odors and flies from the two farms.

"While Mr. Plant has kept his business as clean as possible, it would still constitute a health and nuisance hazard if residential areas should spring up around it," he said.

Brown said that Plant had planned no industrial expansion at this time.

Speer asked for a delay in action on the zoning until his clients can be notified. Also present was a representative of the North Orlando Company, A. Lippincott.

Lippincott told Commissioners, "We anticipate that in the next few years we will have seven or eight thousand homes out there. We feel this zoning is a little premature. We may be joined soon with Gardens Farms, and already have a very valuable investment in South Seminole County."

The decision was put off until the next meeting April 7. If studies are still required, the hearing will be continued.

President Pledges Efforts For Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower is willing to meet Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev at a summit meeting to reduce the threat of war over Berlin.

This is not the annual pooled interview meeting, officials emphasized. The meeting assigning work commitments will be held at the usual time in April.

Europe Welcomes Stand On Berlin; Talk Unites Group

LONDON (UPI)—America's European allies today welcomed with relief President Eisenhower's Berlin declaration and predicted it would lead to a "just and honorable cold war settlement."

The first Communist reaction came from East Germany where Eisenhower was accused of saber rattling. The Communist news service said Eisenhower let it be understood the U. S. will not be deterred from unless a new war.

The presidential policy statement was held by the West to have cleared the way for a fresh approach during the forthcoming dealings with the Soviet Union.

A first diplomatic appraisal termed the President's conditions for East-West negotiations a "realistic combination of firmness and flexibility."

Diplomats said the sincerity and earnestness of Eisenhower's statement could not fail to impress world opinion and leave its mark even on the hardened rulers in the Kremlin.

Eisenhower's declaration was under close study today in the chancelleries of the Western capitals and formal official comment was reserved until later. Initial press reaction was favorable.

Diplomatic quarters let it be known at once the President had stuck at the heart of the problem and made genuine negotiations possible with the Russians—if they want them.

Two Men Charged In 3 Burglaries

Through the cooperation of Police Chief Claude Layo of Longwood, two men were apprehended by Sheriff's Deputy Vern Brewster the same day they had broken into three establishments on Highway 17-92.

Robert W. Heiser and Leonard Messer were picked up for questioning after the manager of the Longwood Hotel reported them as "suspicious" to Layo. The men were attempting to check into the hotel without baggage, Brewster said.

Fingerprints and positive identification led to full confessions and the recovery of nearly all the money and items stolen from the Beck Bar, Cassberry Sinclair Station and the Glass Fountain, the deputy added.

Heiser is an ex-convict, who has served ten years for burglary in New York, and is now on five years probation from that state. Messer is a resident of Orlando. He has no record.

Dulles Will Decide Future On April 6

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, scheduled to leave the hospital within a week, is expected to decide by April 6 whether he will remain in President Eisenhower's cabinet.

Massive radiation treatments of his abdominal cancer will end in a few days, but State Department sources said Dulles probably would stay at Walter Reed Army Hospital through the week end.

These sources said he probably would go to some "warm, sunny place" for two additional weeks of rest before making a decision.

Indications were that Dulles' physicians would wait until then to give a diagnosis of whether his month of treatment had arrested the cancer.

Woman Has Baby In Living Room; Liked TV Show

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A 38-year-old woman says she gave birth to her fifth child on a couch in her living room because she was watching a movie on television and didn't want to miss the end.

Mrs. Virginia Smith, wife of a carpenter, said: "It was a good movie and I didn't want to turn it off."

"I feel fine now, although I had a few uneasy moments. I'll have all my children that way."

Mrs. Smith explained that she hadn't called a doctor when she felt the beginning of labor pains. "They gave me too much anesthesia in the hospital for one of my deliveries, so I decided to have the baby at home," she said.

The movie was "Lucky Nick Cain," starring George Raft.

3 Persons Injured In Traffic Mishaps

Two Sanford women and a North Carolina truck driver were injured yesterday when three cars piled up at Benson Junction and a tractor-trailer jack-knifed while trying to avoid the wreckage.

In "fairly good" condition at Seminole Memorial Hospital is Mrs. Margarette Cornell, 66, who suffered head and shoulder injuries. Hail Walcher Kiser, 29, truck driver, is in "good condition" with back injuries.

Mrs. Abranice Merwin, 75, suffered abrasions and shock. Mrs. Merwin, a passenger in the Cornell car, was treated and released from the local hospital.

The accident occurred at the intersection of the Enterprise Road and Highway 17-92.

Officers said John Lloyd Diehl, 61, of DeLand, was heading south. Diehl slowed his car to make a turn while waiting for northbound traffic to clear. Mrs. Cornell, headed in the same direction, applied her brakes. The back end of her car spun around into the northbound lane on the rain-swept pavement.

A northbound car driven by George Griffith McGuire, 47, Fern Park, collided with the Cornell automobile officers said.

Kiser's semi jack-knifed to the right as he tried to avoid the cars. The tractor-trailer went into the ditch, adding to the traffic melée. Kiser is from Charlotte, N. C.

Investigating was Highway Patrolman John P. Worden, who said the highway was open only to one-way traffic for an hour. Damages were estimated at $4,100.
