'I Never Expected To Come Back'

Sanford Men Recall The Battle Of Okinawa

By Rick Brunson
Herald Staff Writer

Forty years ago today — April 1, 1945 — bullets and bombs whistled all around young John Sauls — and nobody was fooling.

Sauls, now a 64-year-old Sanford real estate broker, was a 24-year-old naval aerial gunner and airplane maintenance man during what historians say was one of the largest, fiercest, most costly battles of World War II — the battle of Okinawa.

Forty years ago today more than 120,000 U.S. troops splashed upon Red Beach on the island 300 miles south of Japan amid thick enemy mortar and machine gun fire. Their job was to rout 110,000 Japanese soldiers occupying the 50-mile long strip of red mud, coral and jungle that was Okinawa.

The island was to serve as a springboard for "Operation Olympic," a massive assault on Japan planned for the following November. But instead of losing a predicted 1 million men in that attack, Allied commanders decided to drop atomic bombs on two Japanese cities — Nagasaki and Hiroshima — hoping the blows would bring Japan's Imperial government to its knees. The obliteration was too much and hope for victory went down in the "land of the rising sun." The war came to a close in September.

But the bodies were still racked up at Okinawa. Sauls recalls that about 102,000 Japanese were killed, compared with about

UCF Drops Admission Standards

By Roger Simmons
Herald Staff Writer

The University of Central Florida will lower its admissions standards for the summer and extend enrollment deadlines hoping to raise student population enough to avoid having to return funds to the state for the third time in three years.

Dr. John Bush, UCF admissions director, said, for first-time students enrolling in the summer, UCF will accept a minimum combined score of 840 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test or 17 on the American College Test and a minimum 2.0 grade point average. Regular admission requirements, which will go back into effect in the fall, are a minimum combined score of 900 on the SAT, 21 on the ACT and a 2.6 grade point average.

Bush said it is hoped that more students will enroll at UCF under the new summer standards and help raise the university's state funding.

"The state pays us by the number of people we have," Bush said.

Dr. Dan Coleman, director of institutional research at UCF, said the university's failure to meet state full-time enrollment projections have forced the school to return money for the last two years.

Students are designated as full time by the state when they take 15 or more class hours each semester. Coleman said the current number of UCF students classified as full time is 9,203 while the total enrollment at the university is about 15,800. He said the state projected the school would have 9,930 full-time students this year and provided funding based on that estimate. Coleman said whenever the actual enrollment is less than 5 percent of the estimate the school must return money.

Coleman cited low enrollment at the university's Brevard County campus as reason for falling below full-time student projections the past two years, but added UCF is below state predictions in the number of upper, lower and graduate students.

Shot Fired In Anger Hits Sleeping Boy

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A 5-year-old Fern Park boy slightly wounded in the shoulder and chin by a bullet fired during an argument between his mother and a man living with them has been treated at Florida Hospital-Altamonte Springs and released. The man who reportedly shot Gerald William Mosley was jailed shortly after taking the boy to the hospital.

Alvin Lee Ferguson, 26, of 174 Hamlin Drive, Fern Park, who reportedly fired the shot while the boy's mother, Brenda Louise Mosley, 25, struggled with him, has been released from the Seminole County jail on $8,000 bond. He was charged with aggravated assault, aggravated battery and use of a firearm during the commission of a felony.

The boy was shot at about 2 a.m. Sunday while sleeping in a room adjacent to the bedroom where his mother and Ferguson were fighting, a Seminole County sheriff's report said.

Sheriff's deputy Dan Prast, who responded to a disturbance call at the home, reported that Ms. Mosley said Ferguson attacked her, took a .38-caliber revolver from under a bed, held it to her head and said he was going to kill her. The incident occurred when Ms. Mosley arrived home.

The pair struggled and as Ms. Mosley grabbed Ferguson's arm the gun fired, Prast reported.

The sound of the shot woke babysitter Tammy Thompson, 18, who had been asleep in the livingroom. She went to the bedroom where Gerald Mosley and his 4-year-old sister were sleeping and discovered that the boy had been grazed on the upper arm, shoulder and under the chin by the bullet that had apparently passed through an interior wall of the home. The girl was not injured, the report said.

Ms. Mosley told deputies that after the gun went off, Ferguson ran around the home in a "crazy" fashion, saying "I'm going to take care of you." He threw the gun in to a bedroom closet before taking the boy to the hospital, the report said.

According to the report, Ms. Thompson said Ferguson was "strung out on cocaine" when the incident occurred.

Ferguson is scheduled to appear in court April 15.

Tuskawilla-Red Bug Area

Homeowners To Fight Another Development

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Homeowners from the Tuskawilla-Red Bug Lake roads area, still elated from their victory last week when county commissioners rejected plans for an apartment complex, a professional office and a shopping center in their neighborhood, will be back before the commission again at a 7 p.m. hearing Tuesday to protest another proposal.

This time they will oppose the rezoning of a 5.4 acre tract to permit construction of a commercial center. Two weeks ago the residents told the county's planning and zoning commission additional development on either road would further complicate traffic problems in their area and they insisted no more commercially-zoned property is needed at this time.

They will point out that both roads and especially their intersection are carrying more traffic than they were designed for. They will also mention the proposed development's proximity to an eagle's nest — an endangered species.

The tract is on the east side of Tuskawilla Road, one-half mile north of Red Bug Lake Road.

Multi Services of Orlando is asking for a change of zoning on the parcel from single family dwelling district to retail commercial and a change in the comprehensive plan from low density residential to commercial.

County staff have recommended both be denied. The county's planning and zoning commission also recommended denial in both instances.

At last week's hearing, Deputy County Administrator for Development Woody Price said the county's comprehensive land use plan envisioned commercial development of 25 to 30 acres in the Tuskawilla-Red Bug area and actually "well in excess of 100 acres" have been rezoned for that type development along the two roads. Public Works Director Larry Sellers indicated Red Bug Lake Road was denied.

FP&L Mum As Electrocutions Blamed On Faulty Clamp

WEST JUPITER, (UPI) — Florida Power and Light Co. officials will not comment on an expert's finding that a faulty clamp led to the falling of a power line that electrocuted seven people.

Roger Messenger, an electrical engineering professor at Florida Atlantic University, said Saturday a loose clamp caused sparks that burned and weakened the wire. He blamed the accident on the utility company's faulty connection.

Seven members of Troy Fulks' family, ranging in age from 7 months to 44 years, were electrocuted March 23 when the 7,620-volt power line fell near their mobile home.

At the request of Palm Beach County officials, Messenger examined the damaged wire and clamp with seven other investigators.

The metal clamp, attached to a seven-strand power line, apparently was loose, Messenger said.

Car Smashes Into Pole; 1 Killed

A Longwood man was killed and his companion asleep in the car was injured when the 1972 Buick convertible they were in failed to negotiate a curve and smashed into a concrete telephone pole on state Road 434 near Lake Brantley in Altamonte Springs.

The pair apparently had been to a party and were heading home prior to the 5:33 a.m. accident Saturday, according to the injured youth's mother.

Dead is Bruce Myton, 18, of 300 Wickham Court, Longwood.

He died Saturday during emergency surgery at Orlando Regional Medical Center, according to a hospital spokesman.

Injured was Mark Beaudoin, 19, of 220 Banbury Court, Longwood. He was admitted to South Seminole Community Hospital, Longwood, following the accident and was released Sunday morning, according to a spokesman.

Beaudoin fell asleep in the back seat of the car about an hour before the accident and woke up in the hospital with no knowledge of the accident, his mother said. He is expected to recover fully but still is a bit dazed by the incident, she said.

According to a preliminary police report, Myton's eastbound car was traveling at least 45 mph, failed to make a curve on SR 434 near Meredith Manor Boulevard and drove straight into the pole, knocking it down and dragging it 44 feet.

The report said alcohol was "most definitely" involved in the accident.

Myton was a student at Lake Brantley High School.

Duarte Victory Forecast

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (UPI) — Early projections today on the result of El Salvador's legislative elections showed a "spectacular victory" for President Jose Napoleon Duarte's moderate party that should boost his U.S.-backed reform program.

One civilian died Sunday on the calmest voting day since 1982, but there were several clashes between soldiers and rebels, and no voting took place in 25 towns under rebel control.

The elections, the fourth in El Salvador since 1982, were held to choose 262 mayors and town councils and a new 60-seat legislative assembly.

A Spanish International Network exit poll of 11,735 voters in all 14 provinces showed Duarte's Christian Democratic Party (PDC) won at least 32 seats in the assembly against no more than 22 seats for a rightist coalition.

Official results would not be available until later in the week, election authorities said.

Meanwhile some Salvadorans expressed the fear the elections will do almost nothing to resolve the 5-year-old civil war between

Noah May Have Been First April Fool

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — April Fool's jokes may have begun with Noah, a University of Wisconsin professor says.

Harold Scheub, an expert in folklore, says one theory has Noah sending a dove from the ark before it had stopped raining. When the dove returned, exhausted from its futile search for land, Noah realized his foolishness.

While the origins of April Fool's Day are "very ancient and very obscure," Scheub said, they probably spring from the folk festivals celebrated by early agriculture societies.

The festivals were celebrated to promote fertility and ensure a good harvest.

In Scotland, he said, the day is associated with the cuckoo bird. In France, early spring is linked to the return of the mackerel in rivers and streams. The fish are easily caught and people who fall prey to April Fool's jokes are called "fish of April," Scheub said.

"In England, people say 'you silly mackerel,' and here we say 'sucker.'"

IN BRIEF

Hoffa Reportedly Ground Up And Dumped In The Everglades

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — A former mob hit man and bodyguard to Jimmy Hoffa says the onetime Teamsters boss who disappeared in 1975 was killed, ground up, sealed in a steel drum and dumped in the Florida Everglades.

In a copyrighted interview published Sunday in the Richmond Times-Dispatch, Charles Allen said Hoffa was hit with an electric stun gun and murdered after he vanished from a Detroit parking lot 10 years ago.

The newspaper quoted Allen as saying Hoffa's death was ordered by a crime boss whom Hoffa had ordered killed, "but things got messed up, and he got to Jimmy first."

Allen claims Hoffa's death was arranged by Tony Provenzano, a former top official of the Teamsters who was identified before Congress as a member of the Genovese Mafia family.

Provenzano, known as "Tony Pro," began serving a life sentence three years after Hoffa's disappearance for ordering the death of a Teamsters union rival in the early 1960s.

N.Y. Transit Strike Averted

NEW YORK (UPI) — A strike threatening the nation's largest transit system was called off, keeping buses and subway trains rolling on schedule today, and riders on four private bus lines in Queens also were given a temporary reprieve from a walkout.

Union officials extended contract negotiations with the city Sunday after Gov. Mario Cuomo signed a bill into law that allows transit negotiators to seek binding arbitration should all else fail.

The city's 34,400 bus and subway workers had threatened to strike at 12:01 a.m. today, an action that would have stranded 5 million riders.

The MTA has offered raises of 2 percent in each year of a three-year pact. The union is seeking 20 percent in increases over 20 months.

Current base rate annual salaries range from $26,658 for train operators to $21,224 for car cleaners.

Neo-Nazi Documents Found

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UPI) — An "extremely valuable" cache of documents about right-wing groups was uncovered by government agents in the arrest of a neo-Nazi suspected in the slaying of a Jewish radio talk show host, the FBI said.

David Lane, 46, wanted for questioning in the slaying of Alan Berg in Denver last June, was arrested without resistance Sunday in a grocery store parking lot.

Lane was held without bond in the Forsyth County jail on a charge of counterfeiting $10 bills in Philadelphia and was to appear before a federal magistrate today for a preliminary hearing.

FBI agent Robert Pence said agents seized papers, documents, writings and other printed material following Lane's arrest.

"We're not sure what they all are," he said, but added that the documents are important to federal agents in their gathering of intelligence information on right-wing groups.

Miami Gang Shoots Up Reggae Dance; DJ Killed

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Police believe a Miami-based gang trying to move in on area drug traffic showered a reggae dance with gunfire that killed a disc jockey and seriously injured three other people.

Between 50 and 60 shots were fired from machine guns and other automatic weapons early Saturday, sending the dancers diving for cover at the Fort Lauderdale Fire Department's Benevolent Association hall.

Police spokesman Ott Cefkin said an undetermined number of gunmen, thought to be members of a Jamaican gang called the "Shower Posse," entered the hall around 3:30 a.m. and opened fire.

At least one person inside the hall returned fire with a machine gun, shooting over the heads of the predominantly Jamaican crowd, police said.

Police are unsure whether the victims were targets of the gunfire or they simply got caught in crossfire. They have made no arrests nor established a motive. No drugs were found on the scene.

Nazi Death Squad Leader Sought

MIAMI (UPI) — A St. Petersburg man alleged to have led an execution squad that helped kill thousands of Latvian Jews for the Nazi SS during World War II is wanted by federal authorities.

An arrest warrant for retiree Konrad Kalejs was issued through Miami immigration officials when he did not appear at a deportation hearing, part of a legal process that could result in his expulsion from the United States. Michael Wolf, deputy director of the U.S. Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations, said.

Kalejs is alleged to have risen to the rank of commander in the Arias Commando, a volunteer unit of Latvian auxiliary policemen that acted as a mobile execution squad for the fascists.

Under present U.S. immigration laws, people who assisted in the persecution of Jews during Adolf Hitler's Third Reich are considered undesirable. The Justice Department wanted to deport Kalejs, who has been missing at least since the arrest warrant was issued Friday.

Warning:

U.S. May Respond With Force If Hostages Harmed

LONDON (UPI) — The United States is prepared to respond with military force against Iran if any Americans held hostage by pro-Iranian factions in Lebanon are executed or put on trial, the Sunday Times newspaper said.

The newspaper quoted Western intelligence sources as saying the Iranian government of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini was warned of the possible action in a message sent via the Swiss diplomatic mission in Tehran early last month.

The newspaper said the type of retaliation was not specified, but the sources said the USS Texas, a guided missile cruiser operating in the Persian Gulf, was the most likely platform for a missile attack.

Iran's giant Kharg Island oil terminal and its commercial ports of Bushehr and Bandar Khomeini were named as likely targets.

Five U.S. citizens are still missing after being kidnapped in Beirut. All of the abductions have been claimed by Islamic Jihad, or Holy War, which is believed to be an extremist Shiite Moslem organization with ties to Iran.

In Washington, the State Department neither confirmed nor denied that an American warning was passed on to Iran by Swiss diplomats, but national security adviser Robert MacFarlane publicly advocated military action against Iran at a recent defense forum in the U.S. capital.

The United States has enough evidence "to hold Iran responsible for some attacks on American citizens, property and interests", MacFarlane said, adding that Washington "should be prepared to direct an appropriate military response."

British officials were not told of the warning and probably would oppose any such action, the Sunday Times said. Two Britons kidnapped in Beirut last month were released last week, one Wednesday and one Saturday.

Callers claiming to represent Islamic Jihad have taken responsibility for several terrorist acts in Lebanon, including the truck bombings of U.S. Embassy buildings in Beirut and the U.S. Marine barracks at Beirut International Airport. More than 300 people died in the attacks.

The only known demand of the kidnapers is the release of 18 Moslem extremists who are serving prison terms or awaiting execution in Kuwait. They were convicted last year of staging a series of bomb attacks, including one on the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait on Dec. 12, 1983.

Ten Westerners are known to be missing in Lebanon — the five Americans, three Frenchmen, a Briton, and a Dutch priest.

County Must Put Denial In Writing

A Longwood couple has won an appeal overturning a court order denying them an opportunity to object to a zoning variance denial made by the Seminole County Commission.

The couple want to run a mini-nursing home for four patients in their home.

Seminole Circuit Judge Robert B. McGregor originally ordered that Gene and Dorothy Kowch, of 655 Markham Woods Road, could not file a response to a zoning variance denial because the couple submitted their objection one day after a 30-day deadline for such action.

The county maintained, and McGregor concurred, that the 30-day period started when the commission verbally turned down the couple's request.

The couple, however, said they were not notified officially in writing of the denial and appealed McGregor's order. The 5th District Court of Appeal, however, said the couple was notified by letter of the commission's decision but added that the 30-day cutoff period does not start until the written decision is filed with the court clerk, which it was not, according to the appeal papers.

The couple petitioned the high court for the common law right to have the commission's decision given to them in writing thus clearing the way for them to appeal the denial.

The disagreement began shortly after Nov. 28, 1983 when the commission agreed to the Kowch's request for the nursing home providing there were no external changes to their home. After receiving complaints from the Kowch's neighbors, however, the commission denied the variance on April 10, 1984.

A month later, the Kowchs asked that the denial be reviewed in court. The commission, however, said the review was submitted one day beyond the 30-day period and asked the request for the formal order be quashed.

On Sept. 17, McGregor agreed with the county and denied the Kowch's request.

The Kowchs petitioned the high court for a ruling.

Man Loses Dad's Receipts To Armed Bandits

A Forest City man was robbed at gunpoint while taking money from his father's store to the bank.

Carlos Morales, 21, of 402 Lakeview Drive, told deputies he was westbound on state Road 436 when he stopped at Bear Lake Road for a red light about 4:15 p.m. Friday. Two men approached the car, one with a knife and one with a gun. The man with the knife pulled Morales towards the driver's door and held a knife in a threatening manner while the second man reached into the vehicle from the other side taking a small paper bag containing $217.55 in cash, $136 in food stamps, and $255 in checks. The contents was the day's receipts from La Placita, 1105 W. state Road 436, a business owned by Roberto Morales, the victim's father.

The pair had been seen earlier near the Morales business.

HATS OFF, GENTLEMEN
Two men in separate incidents were charged with drug-related crimes after the illegal substances were found in their hats.

In the first arrest, an Altamonte Springs man was taken into custody for trespassing after receiving a warning. The arrest occurred at 9:56 p.m. Friday at the Lilly Pad, a business at Lake Howell Road and state Road 436.

While the man was being booked, a deputy checked the man's hat and found a small packet of cocaine.

Being held in lieu of $8,000 bond on charges of trespass and possession of cocaine was Robert Eugene Wiggins, 26, of 402 Magnolia.

In the second arrest, a man arrested by Sanford police had a small vial of cocaine in his cap.

According to a Sanford police report, an officer stopped a man's car at 13th Street and Laurel Avenue at 10:56 a.m. Friday. The driver was arrested on charges of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance with intent to sell or distribute.

While being booked at the Sanford Police Department, officers reported finding a vial of cocaine in the man's cap.

Being held in lieu of $8,000 bond was Homer Benjamin Comer, 48, of 1809 W. 18th St., Sanford.

ASQUAD OF TIRE SLASHERS
Four Altamonte Springs men have been released from the Seminole County jail following their arrest on charges of criminal mischief for slashing several tires on cars parked at the Interstate Mall, Altamonte Springs.

According to a police report, an off-duty police officer in uniform was guarding the mall when he saw a car with four men cruise through the parking lot about 10:40 p.m. Thursday.

He said he watched two men carrying clubs get of the car and weave through the lot slashing tires. He reported one of the men urinated on a car. About $2,200 worth of tires were destroyed.

The men got back in their vehicle and left the mall westbound on state Road 436. The officer followed and they spotted him, beginning a chase that ended in the Altamonte Mall parking lot.

The vehicle stopped only after being cornered by several police cars, a police report said.

Released on bond were: Bernard Pew, 20, of 114 Plymouth Avenue, charged with criminal mischief; Joseph Pew, of the same address, 18, charged with criminal mischief with damage over $1,000; Roger Eugene Gadson, 18, of 406 Basewood Drive, charged with criminal mischief over $1,000; and James Charles Smith, 18, of 303 Magnolia St., charged with criminal mischief over $1,000.

LOW LIGHTS
A Longwood man who was stopped by police because the headlights of his car were aimed directly at the ground has been charged with possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Police said after the man's car was stopped because of the traffic offense, they spotted a pipe believed to be used for smoking pot in the car. The car was searched and two additional smoking devices were found along with a bag of marijuana, a police report said.

Edward Fredrick White Jr., 18, of 339 Beach Ave., was arrested on county Road 427, Longwood, early Thursday. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

ARMED CANDY THIEF
A man who was nabbed by a Sears security guard after the man allegedly snatched four chocolate bars has been charged with carrying a concealed gun and knife.

Altamonte Springs police were called to Sears, Altamonte Mall, Altamonte Springs, after the guard nabbed the man and found the weapons in addition to items apparently stolen from various mall shops in his possession, a police report said.

A .22-caliber pistol and box of ammunition were reportedly in the man's knapsack and a knife with a three-inch blade was found in his belt beneath his jacket, the report said.

Kevin Joseph Sullivan, 22, no address given, was arrested at 3:39 p.m. Wednesday. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

TAKE AND WEAR
A Sanford man was released on $100 bond Saturday following his arrest on a charge of retail theft.

According to a Sanford police report, a man took a multi-colored sweater valued at $12.99 from a rack in front of Zayre's department store in the Zayre's Plaza, Sanford, at 5:15 a.m.

The man was stopped across the street in the parking lot of another shopping center.

Charged was James Alan Todd, 22, of 330 Old Monroe Road.

BURGLARIES AND THEFTS
Donald Rutledge, 52, of 108 Birch St., Altamonte Springs, told a sheriff's deputy that someone took more than $8,000 worth of money and jewelry from his home. The incident occurred between noon and 3 p.m. Thursday, according to a sheriff's report.

Missing are 100 silver coins valued at $6,000, a ladies Bulova watch worth $1,800, three mens diamond rings, a pair of gold cuff links, and four sterling silver pocket watches.

A Hertz rental car was apparently taken from Quality Inn, state Road 434 and Interstate 4, Longwood, according to a deputy's report. F.J. Devine, 49, of Schaumburg, Ill., said he was staying at the motel and had rented a 1984 Renault Alliance worth $9,550. Sometime between March 24 and Thursday, the car was taken along with $550 worth of golf clubs in the vehicle.

Goetz Would Probably Die In Jail: Lawyer

NEW YORK (UPI) — A jail term for "subway vigilante" Bernhard Goetz for shooting four teenagers he claims were going to mug him in December would be his death sentence, the gunman's lawyer said.

Attorney Barry Slotnick said his client was threatened by prisoners when he was booked on four counts of murder last Thursday.

The prisoners warned the 37-year-old electrical engineer, "You can't shoot one of our brothers and get away with it," Slotnick said.

"They told him 'you don't look so tough, wait 'til you get in here, we'll teach you a lesson.' What chance would he have in jail?"

When Goetz was first arraigned in the shooting he was segregated from the general prison population in an isolated 13-cell section at Rikers Island.

Slotnick said he did not know whether his slight, bespectacled client would get similar protection if he is sent to jail as the result of the most recent charges.

Poll: Death Penalty Supporters Favor Goetz

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Philadelphia residents who are for the death penalty are more likely than opponents to support Bernhard Goetz, who was indicted on four counts of attempted murder for shooting four teenagers in a New York subway, a poll indicates.

The poll by Temple University professor Michael Hooper shows people who believe in the death penalty for anyone convicted of a murder in the commission of a robbery or other felony approve of Goetz's actions more than those who oppose the death penalty in such cases.

Goetz, who is white, has said he shot the black teenagers after they demanded money from him.

"I really think the principle thing at work (in the finding) is a fear of crime and a get-tough attitude," Hooper said.

Of the 702 Philadelphia residents interviewed, Hooper said 49.2 percent approved of Goetz's actions, while 37.5 percent disapproved. The survey had an error rate of about 3 percent, he said.

Among whites, 54 approved and 33 percent did not, while only 37 percent of the blacks surveyed were in favor of Goetz and 52 percent were opposed, Hooper said.

When the same respondents were asked if they support a mandatory death sentence for anyone who kills in the commission of a felony, 61 percent of the whites and 48 percent of the blacks answered positively.

Of those, 65 percent of the whites and 48 percent of the blacks support Goetz, he said.

Hooper said 31 percent of the whites and 42 percent of the blacks surveyed did not support the death penalty and only 33 percent of the whites and 27 percent of the blacks approved of Goetz's behavior.

"You have this fairly substantial difference of 32 percentage points (among whites) in approval of Goetz," Hooper said.

Greek Election Close; Swearing In Boycotted

ATHENS, Greece (UPI) — Christos Sartzetakis, who won election by a single controversial vote, was sworn in as president Saturday in a ceremony boycotted by conservative opposition leaders who refuse to recognize him.

With his right hand on a Bible and his left hand raised, the 56-year-old former Supreme Court justice took his oath of office as Greece's president despite a continuing controversy over his election.

The 112 seats of the conservative opposition New Democracy Party and two independent deputies in the 300-member parliament were conspicuously empty during the ceremony.

State-run television avoided showing their empty seats in a live broadcast of the ceremony.

New Democracy leaders said the party refuses to recognize Sartzetakis as president, charging that the election procedure was unconstitutional.

See Editorial, page 4A

Parliament gave Prime Minister Andreas Papandreu's candidate the minimum 180 votes he needed to win on a last-chance ballot.

The decisive vote was cast by Acting President Yiannis Alevras, who opponents charged later was constitutionally ineligible to cast a ballot.

Had Sartzetakis — the only candidate in the presidential balloting — failed to win a three-fifths majority, Papandreu would have been required to dissolve the 300-member Parliament and call general elections.

"This is a great day for democracy," said Akis Tsahazopoulos, aide to the prime minister.

"There is no problem," he said.

Tsahazopoulos said Parliament would begin debating today proposals put forward by Papandreu's ruling Pan-Hellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK).

PASOK's proposals call for the curbing of the president's constitutional right to veto legislation, call a referendum, dissolve parliament and declare war.

The minister indicated that the government would consider the possibility of moving forward general elections scheduled for October only once Parliament has completed the procedure for revision of the constitution in early May.

New Democracy has called for immediate elections in an effort to dispute the constitutionality of Sartzetakis' election.

New Democracy has scheduled for Friday a mass rally in Constitution Square opposite Parliament to support its demand for immediate elections.
