WASHINGTON, Mar. 10—(INS)—All financial records of the Republican National Committee for campaigns up to 1923 were destroyed by the late Fred Upham, national treasurer, on the eve of the 1924 campaign. G. Hipsley, his secretary, testified today at the Senate inquiry into the Continental Trading Company's $3,000,000 liberty bond fund.

The records for 1923 and early 1924, Hipsley said, were destroyed May 1926, after Upham died. In re-election blocked efforts in the Senate Public Lands Committee to learn what became of a $3,000 Liberty Bond fund given him by Will H. Hays, who got bonds from Harry F. Sinclair, Hipsley said he had never heard of the bonds until he read recent newspaper stories.

"All our books for the campaign that closed in 1922 were destroyed in 1924," said Hipsley. "The convention was in June and the books were destroyed shortly thereafter."

The period referred to by Hipsley was one in which the Democrats were seeking to make the scandal a national issue. It followed the Senate revelations but Tenant Home.

The records for 1920, 1918 and 1916 were destroyed at the same time," said Hipsley. "When Upham decided he wasn't going to be Republican treasurer any more, he destroyed all his books. There is one exception—the card index system, he turned that over

Thousands of inquiries as to when checks will be mailed are pouring into the Treasury daily. A claim of under $100,000 will be paid in full as soon as checks can be prepared. Those for $100,000 and over will have $100,000 as the initial payment.

Dr. Richard Burton; Author-Lecturer, To Speak At Woman's Club March 14

By A. J. Hanna
Literary Florida this week welcomes Dr. Richard Burton as he arrives from Columbia University to join his author friends and hundreds of admirers who are looking forward with the keenest anticipation to a duplication of his lectures at Rollins College, in Sanford and in other parts of Florida, which he has brought about on his previous visits. He will lecture here at the Woman's Club on March 14.

One of the reasons for "Dicker" Burton's widespread popularity is the "elegant indecency" of current literature. He claims that the present trend of literature toward sex, vulgarity, gloom and despair is only temporary. His assertion

ARTS DISPLAY DEPICTS QUEER, DIZZY THEMES

Society Of Artists Protrays

"Everything" Goes At

Paintings Of Death Scenes At Famous Executions Among Those Attracting Interest

NEW YORK, Mar. 10.—Literary, women and death are favorite themes depicted in the 1,300 paintings hung on the walls of the Waldorf Roof at the seventh annual exhibition of the Society of Independent Artists, which was opened to the public today.

It is a dizzy, fantastic display, ranging from the sublime to the ridiculous. "Anything and everything goes." There is no critical jury to reject and select. Any artist who released six dollars may have two pictures shown, it is reminiscent of amateur night at a theater.

The eye is immediately arrested by a painting entitled "the grim kid." A pair of slender feminine legs are propped up on a table, upon which rests a large bottle labeled "gin" and an ash tray containing cigarette butts. A milky white hand holds a long-stemmed glass and a smoking cigarette. There is a suspicious-looking fluid in the glass. A $20 bill comes from the young woman's stocking.

"Death pictures" assail the eye on all sides. One archaic canvas portrays a dead man hanging from a lamp post. Another picture shows the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti. They are shown shuffling down a long, dark corridor with the figure of Christ hovering over them, a priest following, a prayer book in hand, and sisters kneeling in prayer in the foreground.

The electric chair makes an artistic debut in a portrait by James Montgomery Flagg entitled "Father forgive them." It depicts Christ entering in a flood of light as the strapped, masked figures stiffen in the chair. Warren, attendant priest and the witnesses step back in amazement. "Thou hilt not kill" is the title of a portion of the certificate of indebtedness held and void as collateral for loans made to the defunct Seminole County Bank.

FUNERAL RITES FOR J.D. HOOD ARE HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral rites for J. D. Hood, prominent Sanforian who died suddenly Tuesday night at the Orange-Genral Hospital in Orlando following an operation, were held Friday afternoon from the First Baptist Church. Interment followed at the Lake View Cemetery.

The services, brief and simple, were in charge of Dr. F. D. King, pastor, who was assisted by Dr. B. D. Gray and C. E. Carnes, officers of the Baptist Mission Board and close friends of the deceased.

Both Dr. Gray and Mr. Carnes expressed a personal appreciation of the work of Mr. Hood in behalf of the church, while Dr. King eulogized him in a touching tribute.

Members of the church choir under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Phillips sang two hymns at the conclusion of the services.

"Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Honorary pallbearers included C. D. Landis and Mr. Mickler of Deland, Harry N. Dickson of Orlando, and A. P. Connally and Alexander Vaughn of Sanford. Active pallbearers were: R. F. Cooper, Boston Steele, Judge J. G. Sharon, John D. Jenkins, Dr. J. T. Denton, R. H. Berg, W. C. DeCourcey and F. P. Jones.

The deceased is survived by his widow, three sisters, Mrs. Louis Fischer of West Point, Ga., and Mrs. Francis O'Connor and Miss Mamie Hood of Orlando; two brothers, M. H. and Gordon Hood of Macon, Ga., and Gardner Hood, and nephew, Claud Mershon.

POLICE SEEK NEGRO

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Mar. 10.—(INS)—Police throughout the South have been asked to look for a negro who late yesterday stole an automobile and $1,000 worth of clothing from William Butler, manager of a hotel at Jacksonville, Fla. Touring to his old home at Dyersburg, Tenn., Butler picked up a weary negro pedestrian, who stole his car and clothing when Butler stopped at Covington, Tenn., for a shave and bath.

"Why Al Smith Should Not Be Nominated" will be the subject of a short talk which Dr. F. D. King, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will make an appeal to his Sunday evening message, according to an announcement today.

Dr. King, who believes these influences render him unfit for the

Householder Not To Make Race For Re-election To The Florida Legislature

Setting at rest reports that he would be candidate for reelection to the state legislature, Mayor E. Housholder announced today that he positively would not make the race.

"I have been approached by a number of citizens within the past few weeks relative to my intentions, and I desire to state publicly that, while I deeply appreciate the interest of my friends and the support they have tendered in the past, I have definitely made up my mind not to be a candidate for reelection,"

Although his decision has just been made public, the Mayor said that his mind had been made up for some time, in fact since the legislature adjourned last June. In the closing days of the session on the occasion of the presentation of a silver service to the speaker of the house, Mayor Housholder said he made a short address in which he informed his colleagues that he would not seek for reelection.

The reason for his decision, the Mayor said, was prompted by a desire to give more time to personal affairs. Since his election as mayor he said he has found that his duties were so numerous and so heavy that he could not find time to serve in any other public capacity.

"When I made up my mind a year ago not to run again it was for the purpose of devoting most of my time to my law practice," the Mayor said, "but with my election as mayor I found that it entailed considerably more time and often than I realized, thus furnishing added reason for not assuming any other responsibility."

May 1, Housholder said that his first duty was to the city and that with this in mind he had devoted for the past several months two-thirds of his time to municipal work.

TWO BANKERS TO FACE TRIAL HERE SIGN WILL POINT MONDAY MORNING WAY TO SANFORD

Forrest Lake And A. R. Key
Charged With Embezzlement
And Abstraction Of Funds
Of Seminole County Bank

Forrest Lake and A. R. Key, bankers indicted in connection with the failure of the Seminole County Bank in August, 1927, will be placed on trial Monday morning in the circuit court for Seminole County. The two men face actual prosecution by county attorney and have secured more than $700 in contributions toward a fund of $1,000 with which to do their expenses.

Plans for the construction of a large electric sign at the west entrance of Sanford, advertising this city as the electric producing center, were announced today by L. J. Holt, who has obtained the approval and support of the Chamber of Commerce and has secured more than $700 in contributions toward a fund of $1,000 with which to do their expenses.

The sign will be all metal and be held in blinding colors. It will be 10 feet high and 40 feet long and will be placed on the northwest corner at the intersection of west First Street with the Belknap high way. Within the rectangular space will be an elliptical border of blue field, including the message which Sanford wishes to give to passing motorists.

"To the World's Greatest City Center" will be the last line of the sign. This phrase will be made of letters 12 inches in height and in the shade of green. Electric lights will be placed back of each letter. The word "Sanford" in white equal to letters 12 inches in height will be placed next and this will be followed by a line, "The City Substantial" in 10 inch letters of orange.

The trial will be presided over by Judge DeWitt T. Gray of Jacksonville, assigned here by Governor John W. Martin upon the disqualification of Judge Wallace W. Wright. The prosecution will be handled by State Attorney Millard W. Smith, assisted by L. G. Fabisinski of Pensacola and George L. Faris of Jacksonville, both regarded as among the most vigorous criminal prosecutors in the state. Heading the defense counsel will be Tom Palmer, prominent Tampa attorney, who will be assisted by several members of his firm including E. T. Shuler, Mr. Dickerson and Paul Lake, and H. S. White of Sanford and William Lake of West Palm Beach.

Court is scheduled to convene at 10 o'clock. The work of summoning a venire is expected to follow shortly thereafter. Selection of a jury is scheduled to take some time, while actual trial of the case is expected to require only a few days.

Because of the intense interest locally in the case, the trial is expected to attract a court room full of spectators. Developments in the grand jury investigation and subsequent indictment of Lake and Key have been followed by the general public with close attention.

Mr. Fabisinski was the first of the attorneys to arrive on the scene. Accompanied by Mrs. Fabisinski and daughter, he arrived here last night. Mr. Faris is expected this afternoon while defense lawyers are scheduled to put in their appearance tomorrow. Mr. Smith, who lives in Titusville, will probably not arrive until Monday morning.

Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY TO GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

A program of motion pictures and other entertainments will be given at the Lake Mary Community House next Monday night under the supervision of C. D. Wolfe, secretary of the Seminole County Y. M. C. A. No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to attend.

THIRTY PERISH

RIO DE JANEIRO, Mar. 10.—(INS)—Thirty persons were reported killed and at least 200 injured when a landslide from the peak of "Monte Serrat," a high mountain at Santos, demolished 60 buildings in that city. Santos is on the Atlantic Coast, 25 miles from São Paulo.

HOUSE STUDIES BILL TO ALTER RADIO SYSTEM

Legislative Body Takes Under Consideration Watson Bill That Will Direct Nation's Radio Broadcasting Method

PLAN TO ELIMINATE SCORES OF STATIONS

Commission Wants To Divide Nation Into Five Zones For Equal Broadcasting Chances

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10—(INS)

With the Norris-White proposed constitutional amendment to end "lame duck" sessions of Congress, the House assumed wider proportions through the Davis Amendment which directs a wholesale redistribution of broadcasting licenses.

Frankly aimed to eliminate scores of stations in New York, Chicago and other cities, proponents of the measure condemned what they declared was an overuse of radio programs.

Under the amendment of Rep.

Davis (D) of Tennessee, added to the bill by the House Merchant Marine Committee, the Radio Commission would be forced to divide broadcasting licenses, station power and wave lengths equally among five zones in which the country is divided. In addition, the commission would have to bring about an equal division in each zone.

"Investigation shows that more than 62 per cent of the stations' power is concentrated in two zones, including New York and Chicago," said Davis. "Every high-powered station is in the hands of the radio monopoly."

While a few congested centers have got more stations than can occupy the air, the South, west and New England are denied license.

We do not want to oblige the big stations" or do away with cheap broadcasting. But there are a lot of people in the country who want to hear their local weather report, local speeches and church music as well as the jazz bands in New York and Chicago."

Rep. Culler (D) of New York, an defender of the big stations, declared the farce in Iowa would be continued the following day.

CHURCH CENSUS TO BE CONDUCTED HERE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The annual church census, sponsored by the Sanford Ministerial Association, will be undertaken tomorrow afternoon between 1 and 3 o'clock, according to an announcement of the First Methodist Church. Work is expected to be started on early next week and the job is scheduled for completion within a month. Mr. Holt will be in charge of the work.

Below these three lines will be a lighted arrow 20 feet long and having 22 electric bulbs. The sign is declared to be the most attractive in the state and decidedly different from any other in this section of Florida. Work is expected to be started on early next week and the job is scheduled for completion within a month. Mr. Holt will be in charge of the work.

Many of the leading firms and business houses of the city have contributed to the signal fund. Among those who have donated money are: American Fruit Growers, Chase & Company, City of Sanford, Remillard & Anderson, Sanford Auto Company, Title Guaranty and Mortgage Company, First National Bank, Watson & Toomer, Yowell Company, Florida Vegetable Corporation, Sanford Drug Company, Crown Paper Company, C. E. Meyers for Seaboard Oil Company, G. A. Spur and Son, W. S. Leahy, Sam Junc Garage and The Sanford Herald.

The religious census, it is declared, also brings all the new residents into closer relationship with the religious and civic life of Sanford and makes the newcomers feel that they are not being neglected.

LEGION TO PAY TRIBUTE TO MURDERED TOMMY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Mar. 10.—(INS)—Taps will be sounded for William Patrick Alaghram Andrew, 42, British soldier, whose body was found beaten to death in a tenement cabin in Arkansas, and he will be laid to rest with full military honors here tomorrow.

A military funeral will be conducted by the American Legion at Memphis and Andrew will be buried in alien soil, far from his native England and the Western Front of France where he won many a fighting medal. Officers of two states are searching for relatives back in England have been futile.

Sister Protests Ad-

Team Obtained From N. Y. and Hornby Great Hustler

By David J. Walsh,

PALESTINE, Fla., Mar. 9.—(INS)—Billie time in the old meeting room and a goodly crowd in there, also a goodly aroma of tobacco smoke. No, no, Arbutus, you have the wrong dressing. One we want is permeated with a faint but intriguing scent of newly cut violets. Violets for Hornby, I think the saying is.

"I wish to announce on the best of authority that today the Boston Braves obtained, without Dan and Ruthine, The Braves' team, intended, intended to release them with a couple of new men. It is the same Rogers Hornby who struck up such intimate, congenial friendships with Branch Rickey and Sam Breadon in St. Louis and with Charley Dressen in New York. But that is something with which Jack Slattery, new Boston manager, concerns himself slightly. As far as he is concerned, Hornby is the greatest man he ever handled, estimable, amiable, a great hustler who inspires every one with his urge to win and altogether an admirable young man.

"I am willing to lay a bet that Hornby is hustling more than any other star in the game," Slattery said. "I couldn't ask for a better friend than I got when he was traded to the Braves. Why he hustles so much that the rest of us just can't help but follow him."

"I don't ask what happened in New York or St. Louis. In fact, I don't care. Hornby is the best man I ever handled. We like each other and will go the limit to help him. I wouldn't trade him back to the Giants nor half of McGehee's club."

It appears, the stormy petrel no longer is on the wing or maybe he was a little humming bird all the time and nobody found him until he met Jack Slattery. For the latter, I gained the impression that he will hum with you, contribute that way, or storm with you just as unconcernedly. He is all right in the eye, this boy, and I don't think he cares whether you like him or not. I seemed safer, so I decided to take him."

Of course, he thinks the Braves are a better bet for 1928, and he has two reasons for so feeling. The other one is that the left field fence at Boston will be 70 feet and the right field fence 30 feet nearer the plate this year. Maybe this sounds like a lot of herringbone to some or a limb but Slattery was playing the "straight man" when he said it. He figures that a club hitting hard in '27 games under those conditions can't help but hit better than it did.

"Opposing outfields used to lean again the fences at Braves Field and gather in the long ones," he declared. "These will be home runs now and the Braves will get more than their share of them. And with Hornby, we figure to have more punch anyhow."

"Another thing, wait until you see what he does with our infield defense. Theaveney had a great year playing beside Rogers and hasn't gone so well since he left. Eddie did the same last year. Now, I think it will be Eddie Farrel's turn."

The talk of Hornby's weakness of ball hits over his head, every ball has a weakness and it is more noticeable because he is a star. Besides that, a team always adapts itself to such a condition and plays its other men accordingly.

Frankly, the Braves would seem to be no worse than the best of the potential second division clubs and they have at least an outside chance of finishing fourth. Hornby has done that to them, or most of it, for the club has undergone few changes otherwise.

It will have the same man at first base, Dick Burris; the same shortstop, Farrell; the same third baseman, Andy High, and virtually the same pitchers. The outfields Eddie Brown, Lance Richebourg and Jack Smith, will be operating again, the only departure being expected in the case of Eddie Moore. An Atlanta citizen will be removed from the infield, altogether to share left field with Smith, provided he doesn't take the play away from the latter altogether, which he is likely to do.

Hornby had a bad year at first base in 1927 but Slattery thinks the young man wasn't sufficiently encouraged or something. Maybe they intend to have a cheer leader follow him around this time.

Zach Taylor has come back from the Giants to take command of the team but he may need help and may not get too much. The second catcher is Luke Urban, former Boston college athlete.

Booking will be a big number on the field with Johnny Cooney, Greenfield, Foster Woods,

Football Pays For Itself And Brings In Profits At Missouri

COLUMBIA, Mo., Mar. 9—(INS)—Football not only pays for itself, but for virtually every other sport indulged in by students of the University of Missouri, according to a financial report by the department of athletics.

Receipts from the game the past season here total $126,209.80, while all expenses for football were but $45,238. In 1926, football receipts were $120,636, with expenditures of $50,840.

On the other hand, practically all other sports showed a deficit. Basketball in 1927 for the first time made a profit of $900.

Losses during 1926 include: Banquet, $2,731; baseball, $2,452; track, $4,387; wrestling, $287 and minor sports $363. Computations for 1927 have not been completed, but are known to be quite similar.

The principal expenses of the various departments of sports are generalized, in that the bookkeeping department does not charge any specific sport with coaching or equipment cost.

In 1926, the athletic department's total receipts were $140,483.01, with expenditures of $74,660.01 against individual departments and general expenses of $30,256.28, bringing the total to $104,033.20; leaving a net profit of $35,860.54. Last year's net profits were $50,085.31.

In 1926, the university athletic department transferred $81,394.80 to the new Memorial stadium account. Last year, $45,482.54 was set aside for that purpose.

Schalk And Cissell
To Draw Attention Of Chicago Fandom

CHICAGO, Ill., Mar. 9—(INS)—When the Chicago White Sox take the field here April 11 against Cleveland in the opening game of the season Chicago fans will center their attention on two wearers of the white hose.

One will be the revamped manager, Ray Schalk and the other Chaimer W. Cissell, purchased from the Portland club of the Pacific coast league at a fancy figure. He is heralded as a sensational short-stop.

Schalk, after an unsatisfactory year as manager in 1927, is getting a final fling as director of the White Sox. Anxious to make good and criticized for his easy ways in the past, Schalk is said this season to be determined to take a Simon Legree role and strict discipline will mark his 1928 reign.

Full obedience to all rules will be demanded by Manager Schalk this season and he is reported to have warned some of the players they will be instantly dismissed for the slightest infraction of regulations.

Cissell, 24 years old and a resident of St. Louis, had a batting average of .323 and a fielding average of .924 last year with Portland. He is five feet nine inches in height and weighs 160 pounds.

The Sox will leave their training camp at Shreveport, La., on March 10. En route home the Six will play exhibition games in Fort Worth, Wichita Falls and Dallas, Texas, Memphis, Indianapolis and Springfield, Ill.

Distance Runners
Will Resume Race
Across Continent

MOJAVE WELLS, Calif., Mar. 9—(INS)—Runners in C. C. Ryde's Los Angeles-to-New York "Bun-Derby" were poised here today for a resumption of the exhausting grind. Today is their sixth day out and have covered scarcely more than 160 miles.

Arthur F. H. Newton of Rhodesia, Central Africa, led the pack into the little oasis last evening. Newton, 41 years old and the holder of amateur records from 29 to 100 miles, is proving the sensation of the most grueling footrace ever conceived by man.

Skimming across rocky desert road, over waterless wastes and among black lava beds, this great Rhodesian runner led his nearest competitor into Mojave Wells by 26 minutes and 50 seconds. This run gave Newton the clapped team lead over the Finnish runner, Olli Wanntimo, and definitely established him as the big favorite to win the 3400 mile jog to New York.

Of the 189 original starters, only 130 were still in the race this morning. Virtually all of the celebrities are still in the running.

PACIFIC GRIDIRON
COACHES MAKING
PLANS FOR 1928

Practically All Of Leading Mentors Will Return This Season Which Opens Sept. 29;
Inter-Sectional Tournaments Billed

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 9—(INS)—Pacific Coast college football mentors are already laying their plans for the forthcoming season, which gets underway on September 29.

The coaches of last year, as far as it is known now, will all be back on the job at their respective schools in 1928, although a sensitive ear can occasionally tune in on those rumblings of the disgruntled alumni which gave a coach a pain in the neck, and sometimes the opportunity of looking for a new job. However, at this time, the coaches along the Coast seem to have their situations well in hand and the "master minds" are getting away to a running start, which is probably more than some of their teams will do.

Open on September 29 California, which ended 1927 in the well advertised blaze of glory by trimming Pennsylvania by a decisive score, jumps into the fray on Sept. 29 against Santa Clara. A week later the Bears play St. Mary's. Both of these teams won from Stanford last year, so if these are "breathers" they are quite likely to be hard ones.

Stanford and Oregon clash on Oct. 6, which means the Cards are not saving all the tough ones for the tag end of the season. This also goes for Oregon State and Southern California, who play on the same date.

The following Saturday Washington State will play California at Berkeley. This game will be an innovation for the fans in these parts, as ordinarily these two teams do not meet.

One of the "naturals" will be played on Oct. 20, when the Trojans of Southern California journeys to Berkeley to play California. Inasmuch as the brilliant Drury will not be with Southern California next year, and with the Bears showing signs last year of developing into a first class aggregation, California boosters figure that the Sons of Troy are due to take one on the jib in this particular game.

While the lads from Southern California and Northern California are battling at Berkeley, Washington and Oregon will be settling scores at Portland.

Two weeks later Warner's Stanford team will meet Howard Jones' Trojans at Los Angeles. This probably will be one of the outstanding contests of the season on the Coast, as the two teams split honors in the Pacific Coast conference last year.

To Invade Northwest

California will invade the Northwest on Nov. 10, to play Bagshaw's Huskies. The following week the Huskies will come into California, to meet Stanford at Palo Alto.

A week later California and Stanford will settle their annual differences at Berkeley. John Public, as usual, will "see" this one via the radio, for this game is in the nature of a closed corporation.

Members of the student bodies and the alumni have first call on tickets for this game, which precludes the possibility of many outsiders hearing in.

The first inter-sectional game of the season will be played either at Corvallis or Portland, with New

Bantam Champ May Retire From Ring
After Seven Years

CHICAGO, Mar. 9—(INS)—This year may witness the retirement of Bud Taylor, recognized in a majority of these United States

York University and Oregon State as opponents. This game is scheduled for Nov. 29.

Knute Rockne's Notre Dame team will be seen in action against Southern California at Los Angeles on Dec. 6, at which time the second of the famous "Chicago contests" will probably be taken out of the mothballs for another airing. Notre Dame, as it is well known, now won Southern California at Chicago last year, and it is equally well known that the Californians hinted that they were the real reason for their defeat.

The critics have it that Taylor showed signs of going backward in his defeat at the hands of Canzoneri. Taylor has always said if he feels himself slipping he will retire and this summer or fall he may take the experts seriously and hang up the leather.

Taylor is unique in that he has defeated either before or after his downfall each of the men who won from him. He beat Villa and Martin twice and won once from Sanger and the New York Italian, Canzoneri.

The Indiana boxer is known as one of the most savvy of squared-circle stars. He has put away a vast proportion of his earnings and has extensive property holdings in Terre Haute. He can go back home and never work either in or out of the ring again, if he chooses.

DELANEY OFFERED BOUT

NEW YORK, Mar. 9—(INS)—

Jack Delaney has been offered an opportunity to regain his light heavyweight title and has taken the proposal under advisement. Matchmaker Jess McMahon is trying to promote a match between Dolaney, who retired undefeated, and Tommy Loughran, who is now champion. When Delaney held the title he would not give Loughran a shot at it but Tommy is willing to risk the crowd against Jack.

Delaney is known as

Producers Demand Actresses To Sign Contracts Which Ensure Role That Their Size Not Surpass Limits

LONDON, March 10—(INS)—The restricted weight limit so long familiar to Hollywood actresses has made its appearance in the British motion picture studios.

New contracts drawn up by one of the largest producing companies in England provided that the actress who signs a contract to the government must state that she may not permit her costume to exceed the limit imposed by her employer.

General Excellence

"We know we haven't a chance with America's great team," says the Herr Doktor. "So we have to make our English girls look like England and America and the rest of the world. You have to be good to get a good part."

"She shall at all times do all that is necessary for the preservation of her health and appearance and shall adopt any measures the company may direct in its opinion best in this way."

Krebs Weight Down

"She will be liable to dismissal if she allows her weight to exceed a prescribed number of pounds or if she becomes involved in any incident likely to injure her reputation as a screen actress."

Furthermore, the actress pledges herself to punctuality in all official engagements, and promises not to divulge any trade secrets or information regarding the business.

Publishing of the actress' contract here has attracted wide attention, for it is the first time that weight restrictions have ever been imposed in this country, despite the fact that such a condition is common in Hollywood.
