FINE CARD TO WHIFFY COX

Brilliant 67
In Contrast To His Slightly Off Thursday

QUANA COUNTRY
JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 27—(AP)—Joe Turnesa, of Elmira, N. Y., turned magician here today to pull two sparkling rounds out of his bag for a tie Whiffy Cox, the Brooklyn shooter, for first place in the Florida open golf tournament.

Turnesa was a brilliant finish for the low score. Turnesa who shot in an 80 Wednesday to a 36-hole total of 184, burning the par 70 layout here on Wednesday with a 67 and a 17, while even figures in the 70s.

Who never before has won a tournament, Turnesa, winner of the 1928 U.S. Open, tied Cox, 67-77, yesterday. He led after the opening day with a 71 over par, but was par on the second day. Wednesday he dropped off to a 78 on the second round.

Epinaoa, Chicago veteran, and Gordon Smith, Craigston, N. Y., finished a stroke behind the winners with 222 each.

Grouped at 225 to divide fifth, sixth and seventh money were Charles Guest, Detroit, George Coak, Rochester, and Walter Kozak, Douglaston, N. Y.

John O'Connor, Lake George, N. Y., who led the van at the halfway mark, faltered badly yesterday as he posted a brace of 77s to add to his previous 36-hole score of 145.

Fernaty, Jacksonville youngster, who was shooting in his first money tournament, also was hampered by what is commonly known in the army as "bug" fever and dropped in an 80 and a 79 in his last two rounds to take him well down the list.

Jack Toomer, local amateur, captured honors among the Blimpies when he carded a total of 185 strokes ahead of his nearest competitor in that division.

Money table:

MACK RETURNS TO CAMP
FORT MYERS, Feb. 27—(AP)—Manager Connie Mack returned to the Philadelphia Athletics' training camp yesterday with a word of encouragement for his work. Mack had been in Philadelphia the last few days. He told the young players not to "become discouraged or nervous because you are training with a team that is the world champion. Show me your ability and I'll find room for you."

PHILLIES IN FIRST DRILL
WINTER HAVEN, Feb. 27—(AP)—The Phillies had their first workout of the training season Thursday. Twelve pitchers and three catchers jogged around the field, warmed up cautiously and then divided into bunting groups to work up a perspiration. There will be only one practice a day until the other players get here.

STEWART AT BROWN'S CAMP
WEST PALM BEACH, Feb. 27—(AP)—A jog was lifted from the shoulders of Manager Bill Killefer, of the Browns, yesterday by the arrival of Pitcher Walter Stewart, who failed to report on time. Stewart, who drove down from Tennessee, looked tanned and fit. His wife and little boy were with him.

GELBERT SHOWS FORM
BRADENTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—Charley Gelbert's tendency to put on weight suddenly, worried manager Gabby Strass, of the Cardinals, when his shortstop reported Monday morning, but after seeing Charley in action, he is no longer alarmed.

PIRATES TRY SPRINTING
PARO ROBLES, Calif., Feb. 27—(AP)—The spring training season at the Pittsburgh Pirate camp took on the appearance of a track meet yesterday. In addition to hitting practice, Manager Jowel Ems gave his men a chance to display their speed in a series of 50-yard dashes.

ROBINS RUN BASES
CLEARWATER, Feb. 27—(AP)—

Willbert Robinson gave his Brooklyn Robins a few elementary lessons in base running yesterday. The Robins, for several years, have had very peculiar ideas about running the bases. They'd pass one another with reckless abandon on the paths. None of them ran the wrong way but Robby evidently is afraid one of his boys will do even that some day unless a little serious instruction is afforded them.

MCKENNEE SATISFIED
ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27—(AP)—The usual warm-up drills for the pitchers occupied the New York Yankees yesterday but the presence of Bill McKennee, manager of the Boston Braves, gave them a little more importance than they otherwise might have possessed. After looking the Yankees over, Bill broke down and confessed he thought his own squad of ivory was at least as good as McKennee's leaguers.

HOYT WANTS TO BE WINNER
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Feb. 27—(AP)—White Hoyt, who came to the Detroit Tiger pitching staff from the Yankees last season, has set his heart on winning 30 games this year. After a bad 1933 season, Hoyt began conditioning in mid-winter and is now well ahead of most of his team mates in the spring.

O'FARRELL DISGUSTED
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 27—(AP)—Bob O'Farrell, catcher for the New York Giants, outmarred himself yesterday. Battling Bob thought he was beginning work three days late and discovered that he was four days early. Manager John McGraw said he hadn't expected Bob or any of the veterans until next Monday.

PIRATES TRY SPRINTING
PARO ROBLES, Calif., Feb. 27—(AP)—The spring training season at the Pittsburgh Pirate camp took on the appearance of a track meet yesterday. In addition to hitting practice, Manager Jowel Ems gave his men a chance to display their speed in a series of 50-yard dashes.

SULLIVAN MEDAL OF HONOR GIVEN TO BOBBY JONES

Award Is Made Today
For His Championship
Of Amateurism

CHICAGO, Feb. 27—(AP)—Bobby Jones added to his prominence in golf last night the gold medal of honor for championing amateurism.

The James E. Sullivan medal was formally pinned on the shoulders that bear the four great titles in golf. The honor came on the eve of his plunge into a moving picture venture that caused him to retire from golf competition, as he felt it would not be compatible with his almost pure status.

But the plaudits of admirers still dinned in his ears as 1800 persons saw Avery Brundage, of Chicago, president of the United States Amateur Athletic union, award the trophy to the "Miracle of Medinah" Athletic club. From the laudations of his amateurism and of his stupendous prowess on the links, the unimpaired Jones will plunge into a dervish of producing movies of how he won to the pinnacle of golfdom, writing articles for newspapers and broad-

For Contempt And

Three police officers stationed at the Hialeah race track near Miami had testified for the government Wednesday that they saw the gang chief at the track on those days. All four defense witnesses stated positively that he was in bed on those days and in no condition to walk, let alone go to a race track.

The principal defense witness was Dr. Kenneth Phillips of Miami who signed an affidavit in 1929 to the effect that Capone had been confined to his bed for six weeks and that a trip to Chicago might be dangerous.

Judge Wilkinson, after testimony had been completed, pointed out that the main difference was concerning the respondent's activities on Jan. 17, 18 and 19 and that in this connection it is obvious, somebody is lying.

Dr. Charles Sawyer, W. J. Vinton, head of the Medical College of the University of Illinois, testified as a rebuttal witness for the prosecution and said some of the things stated by Dr. Phillips.

Other amateur sports, paid tribute to Jones as his amateur championship golf career went west. The champion will leave for Hollywood today.

Who Drew That?

Somebody's scrawled a line up there just where we were going to write an ad about A.P.P. Come on now, who did it?

Oh... that's different. You say the line shows how fast the retail price of food has been going down? So it does. And it's taken quite a while, hasn't it? Down in about 15% lower than it was in September, 1929, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Better not cross it then; because a P. P. had more to do with the drawing of that line than anybody else in the United States. For, as producers and producers have reduced their prices, A. P. P. has reduced theirs.

Write just under the ad and send it to the publisher of this paper, A. P. P. Co., 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y. The name of the person who drew the line will be published in the next issue of the paper.

Strange Truth

Truth forms an important part in the lives of all of us. In childhood we are taught to tell the truth...

"Truth is just as valuable and just as essential today and yet it is stranger than fiction," says the Orlando Reporter Star...

"Among the purposeful people seeking to know truth are those who have an honest desire to know the true way of life...

"Even science has discovered that what seems to be truth today may prove not to be the truth tomorrow...

"Even the old and universally respected law of gravitation is undergoing a mental revision and scientists a generation hence may be able to assert with confidence that the so-called law of gravitation is unconstitutional...

"NOW We Are Three"

KATHERINE AND BILL—what fun it is to know them! They seem to get so much out of living. You met them just a little over a year ago—the week before they were married. Ten days later it gave you a pleasant glow of anticipation to receive the trim card telling you when they'd be "at home."

And today you got another card, headed "Now we are three!" Bill's signature comes first, then Katherine's, and then—the guided, snappy scrawl of the newcoomer, Jeremy.

You happen to know that although he is in line for an important promotion, Bill's present salary isn't large. Most other young couples would consider themselves "up against it" if they had to manage on so little. Yet Katherine and Bill maintain a standard of living that is the admiration of all their friends.

You know how they do it, for Katherine has told you. They budget all expenditures. And when they decide a purchase is to be made, whether it is a new shade for the reading lamp, or a suit for Bill, or a dress for Katherine, they study the advertisements until they find just what they want for the price they can pay. Careful budgeting and judiciously advertised merchandise enables them to get the most out of their money.

It's a wise baby that picks parents like these.

PRESIDENT

STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 23

As president of their sorority, the Sigma Kappa social group at the Florida State College for Women have chosen one of the most outstanding girls of the college campus, Elizabeth Daniel, of Pensacola, who this year is editor of the Flascticover, the college year book.

The Sigma Kappa sorority was founded at Colby College, Waterville, Maine, in 1874, and Omega chapter was installed at the Florida State College for Women in 1926, making the sorority the sixth social group on the college campus. The Sigma Kappa sorority consists of forty-one active chapters with a total membership of nearly 7,000. Omega chapter includes twenty active members and twenty-seven pledges.

The sorority maintains two social centers on the isolated islands and headlands of the Maine Coast. These women, in cooperation with the Maine Seacoast Missionary Society, bring opportunities for development along educational lines to sixty scattered communities. This educational work was formally adopted as a national philanthropy in 1918 in honor of the founder of the sorority who were all Maine women.

Omega chapter of Sigma Kappa was organized in 1926 at a house which was built in the summer of 1926 at a cost of approximately $30,000. The house is of the old English style of architecture, and is located one block from the college campus.

Officers of the sorority are: Elizabeth Daniel, Pensacola, president; Cordelia Clarkson, Pensacola, vice-president; Helen Caldwell, Bradenton, secretary; Mildred Hunt, Miami, treasurer.

Pledges to the sorority are: Alderman, Blanche Childers, Bradenton; Thelma Mae Benson, Gainesville; Dorothy Babington, Virginia Hart, Isabel Morrison, Violetta Morrison, Azahra Miller, Mary Adela Smith, Miami; Ruth Best, Coleen O'Brien, West Palm Beach; Juanita Carson, Annabelle, Ala.; Mattie Sue Collins, Mary Lou McLean, Tallahassee; Margaret Cook, Betty Ploger, Mildred Sawyer, Ida Speed, Apalachicola; Mary Lou Fox, St. Augustine; Louise Holton, Mobile, Ala.; Margaret McLoughlin, Tampa; Lillian Mays, Virginia Stanton, Frances Yelverton, Palatka; Blanche Morgan, Pensacola; Nina Peramoun, Maryalice Richardson, Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Scott, Miss Betty Moon, of Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bagg, of Pittsburg, Pa., have returned from Miami where they spent several days. Mr. and Mrs. Bagg have been in Orlando for the past month and were last seen teaching guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott yesterday. Mr. Bagg is general manager of the American Fruit Growers Association.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Long and children, and Mrs. Thompson, of the Oviedo Public School faculty and Mrs. Tom, both were in Deland Saturday attending the Tri-County Spelling Bee staged by the public schools of these counties. Miss Spence Lee Long was the representative of the Oviedo school. They returned Saturday night.

Of interest to the friends of Miss Helen Stothoff will be the fact that she is settling along nicely at the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital where she had her tonsils removed this morning.

OVIEDO NEWS

By Mrs. E. R. Wainright

Friends of T. I. Hawkins of Sanford, learned with great sorrow of his sudden death at his home in Sanford last Saturday night. The interment of the body took place at Commerce, Ga., Sunday.

P. E. Bond, of Mescalippi has been visiting with his family at their Oviedo residence for the past few days. He expects to return to his business in Mescalippi about the first of March.

The floral decorations at the Methodist church Sunday excited the admiration and appreciation of all lovers of flowers. The Oviديو florists, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lindhardt furnished the varied nucleus for the mass effects, and the sweet peas for borders, and all were enlivened about the American flag with its suggestion of the patriotic sentiment of the day. The thanks of the Sunday School were tendered to the flower benefactors.

The most beautiful sight in Oviedo in these spring days is the flower garden of Mr. and Mrs. Linehardt on the Sanford-Oviedo street. These gardens are attracting many visitors and all admire the beautiful display.

Mrs. W. B. Young and daughter, were called to Jacksonville on last Wednesday on account of the illness of a brother, Milton Jordan at his home in that city. They were joined on Friday by I. E. Jordan of Oviedo. They returned home Sunday night with the good report that the sick brother was doing better after a serious illness with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scofield, of Longwood, delighted the audience at the Baptist church Sunday night with several musical numbers rendered with their usual good effects. The Oviedo church baptistry was opened also for the baptism of a candidate from the Longwood church. Quite a number of the Longwood people came over for the occasion, to hear Dr. Dickers' sermon at the evening hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Roth of Lake Wales, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ober of Alliance, Ohio, were visiting the family of Mr. W. R. Young Sunday.

Mr. Wainright, of DeLand, was a visitor here Sunday, as the guest of the family of Mr. W. B. Young.

E. Q. Mills, and his wife, had for guests, Mrs. E. Hicks and Mrs. G. J. Lewis of Sanford, and Mrs. T. A. Jordan of Oviedo, on last Wednesday.

Madames Spencer, Proctor Give Party

Entertaining for a large number of their friends, Mrs. G. F. Proctor, Mrs. L. E. Spencer and Miss Betty Antosh were hostesses at a bridge party given Thursday afternoon at the Tri-County Club on the Orlando-Sanford highway. A color scheme of orange was accentuated by the quantity of calendulas which were arranged about the rooms where the guests were entertained. Further emphasizing the chosen color note were the tallies and other party appointments.

After several progressions of bridge, high score prize, a silver meat fork, went to Mrs. P. E. Pitts, while second high score prize, a novel, make-up box, was awarded to Mrs. Emil Amman. Mrs. L. H. Smith, who cut high, was the recipient of a framed allouette, while Mrs. Paul Shoemaker, who cut low, was given a similar allouette.

At the tea hour a salad and sweet course was served by the hostesses, assisted by the Misses Minnie Claude Sims, Ruth Wells and Katherine Bannon. Those present were: Mrs. William C. Erickson, Mrs. L. H. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Stevens, Mrs. Herman Middleton, Mrs. Georgia Hart, Mrs. I. E. Estridge, Mrs. Ross Adams, Mrs. V. E. Douglas, Mrs. Paul Shoemaker, Mrs. George McCall, Mrs. Paul Pesold, Mrs. A. C. McLendon, Mrs. T. E. Duke, Mrs. B. G. McShyne, Mrs. George Jehu, Mrs. A. J. Peterson, Mrs. Howard Walker, Mrs. P. E. Perkins, Mrs. E. A. Londenberg, Mrs. Don McDonald, Mrs. John Herbst, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. E. B. Stowe, Mrs. Jack Hickson, Mrs. C. W. Baker, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Henry Levy, of Geneva, Mrs. Clarence Barcliff, Mrs. E. C. Harper, Mrs. Emil Amman, Mrs. M. N. Cleveland, Mrs. P. E. Pitts, Mrs. Donald McDonald and Mrs. O. B. Peck of Bradenton, and the Misses Lucille Perran, Marnie Lee Minor, Katherine Bannon, Ruth Wells and Minnie Claude Sims.

Seven living models, Mrs. J. E. Ritchie, of Wauchula, formerly of this city, Mrs. Help Moyer, and the Misses Katherine Waters, Katherine Sykes, Mary Hunt, Mary Dighton, and Christine Stoudenmire, displayed to advantage, the newest in the spring mode for street, sport, afternoon, evening and negligee wear, with shoes by the Modern Shoe Store. Sport clothes featuring bright colors and short jackets were followed by filmy afternoon apparel with long flowing skirts made of chiffons, crepes and laces.

The extremely long evening gowns were made of prints and wool crepes and all were worn with long gloves, black accessories, including long black suede gloves, black shoes and parasol, predominated.

Toward the close of the program pajama ensembles, made of silk crepe in brilliant colors, with the popular trousers and short jackets were presented by all the models, who wore with them turban hats, beach hats and beach cloaks.

The specialty acts as presented are as follows: 1. "The Worrying Blues"—Jacque Astarello. 2. "Ocean Waves"—the Misses Dorothea Lawson, Margaret Murff, Mary Elizabeth Neely, Marilee Torrance and Neely Miller. 3. Song and Dance—George Anderson. 4. "Spinning the Top"—Miss Doris Jackson. 5. Song and Dance, "She's So Unusual"—Marilee Torrance and Mary Elizabeth Neely. Announcements by Dick Warren.

Miss Katherine Waters appeared wearing one of the smart and popular black cloth coats trimmed with a white ermine collar. The coat was fashioned along fitted lines and worn with a close fitting Agnes ribbon hat from which extended a short black veil.

Another costume presented by Miss Waters was a rose afternoon dress of dyed linen lace worn with a rough straw lavender picture hat and other lavender accessories. The gown was made with a wide circular skirt and a high waist line accentuated by a velvet bow.

A pinkie white crepe afternoon gown was one of the most attractive presented by Miss Mary Hunt. It was designed with a high waist line which was outlined with a belt of hand-made flowers of two shades of blue, while the bertha collar was trimmed with similar flowers. Completing the outfit were a large rough straw pink hat, gauntlet gloves and other pink accessories.

Of green and black plaid chiffon was another dress worn by Miss Hart with a large black hat, long black gloves and black shoes. Features of the gown were the black velvet sash at the waistline and the wide flaring sleeves.

Mrs. J. E. Ritchie appeared in a coral clad chiffon afternoon gown being a flounced skirt. At the neckline and on the sleeve applique, using also of chiffon, was used, while the waistline was outlined with a braided belt. A long black hair and hat were styled with dashing raspberry and blue bows, completing the costume. Coral tweed was the material used for the three piece sport suit worn by Miss Katherine Sykes. The new three-quarter length sleeves were outlined with blue fox fur, while the yellow crepe blouses was trimmed in brown, and other accessories were in beige and brown.

A sophisticated looking black lace dinner gown was also shown by Miss Sykes. The low décolletage of the gown was accentuated in the back with two short caplets, while the waistline was accented with a narrow belt having an onyx and rhinestone buckle. Long black suede gloves and pearl car bobs and other jewelry completed the outfit.

A white serge sport coat having a cape collar outlined with white fox fur, was worn with a black and white hat, black and white pouch bag and white gloves by Mrs. Helen Moyer. The coat was made along fitted lines with a narrow belt at the normal waistline.

A smartly tailored suit of black and white sharkskin with a short coat having a black and white braided leather belt, was worn by Miss Mary Dighton with a black and white ascot scarf and an "off-the-face" tweed hat. Miss Christine Stoudenmire wore a beige and orange sport suit the reversible jacket of which was stitched orange crepe lined with beige crepe. An outstanding feature of the dress were the orange ribbons placed between the beige pleats of the skirt.

NOVEL CONTEST IS STAGED AT PINEHURST

PINEHURST, N. C.—We've heard of all kinds of driving contests in the past, but this ladies pig-driving contest, held here recently, is the most unusual and comical of all. Here we find the ladies starting out of the barriers with their "chargers."

SADY'S ANNUAL SPRING FASHION REVUE IS STAGED AT MILANE

Attracting a large attendance, Sadye's annual spring fashion revue, sponsored by the Sanford Woman's Club, was presented last night at 8:10 o'clock at the Milane Theatre in conjunction with the usual Vitaphone production. Specially song and dance numbers were offered during the evening by the pupils of Betty Ball Brown's Dancing School while music was furnished by the Lake Mary dance orchestra.

Seven living models, Mrs. J. E.
