Trouble Brews In Appointment Of Roy A. Haynes

Friction Has Already Come
To Light In Department;
Haynes Is Acting Chief
But Mellon May Oust Him

WASHINGTON, Apr. 12.—(INS)—Another storm is gathering over the appointment of Roy A. Haynes, protégé of the Anti-Saloon League as permanent commissioner of prohibition.

When Secretary of the Treasury Mellon returns to his desk from a European trip probably Monday, he will be urged to drop Haynes from the prohibition service, or give him a subordinate position. It is before Mellon has appointed Haynes assistant prohibition commissioner with the title of acting chief. It was generally understood that Mellon opposed the appointment, but that pressure was so strong that he was forced to accept the advice of General L. C. Andrews, assistant secretary in charge of prohibition, and other officials of the department, who gave Haynes command of the dry machine.

With Haynes in temporary charge severe friction already has developed in the prohibition bureau. If Haynes is given the appointment it was said that an effort will be made to divert the real enforcement authority to a subordinate of Andrews' selection, although officials expressed doubt whether this can be accomplished. Andrews, it was learned, has not given up hope of obtaining the appointment of a man of his own selection as head of the dry bureau.

Intimations have been dropped that if Haynes is given the title of permanent prohibition commissioner, he will accept many of the suggestions of Andrews, established chief General Andrews became an instant enemy.

6 Mexican Soldiers Killed When Rebel Gang Attacks Train

MEXICO CITY, Apr. 12.—(INS)—Six federal soldiers were killed and three others wounded today following an attack upon a train bound for Laredo, Texas, near San Miguel de Allende, state of Guanajuato, in which six federal soldiers were killed and three other soldiers and three passengers were wounded.

The rebel band making the attack is believed to have been part of the force of Rodolfo Gallegos. The soldiers killed and wounded were part of the regular military escort. There were two American missionaries upon the train but they escaped unhurt.

Two days before the rebellion broke out and a pullman was destroyed and the rebels were torn up for a considerable distance, but attempts by the rebels to recapture the train were frustrated by the valiant defense of the federal guard.

ROBOKEN, N. J., Apr. 12.—(INS)—Two boat-loads of police tonight pitched a battle with rumrunners off Hoboken today and captured the freighter Fort Gaines with 4,000 cases of smuggled liquor aboard.

Four men were taken into custody after they had been chased along the Hoboken docks.

Twenty-two other men fled after they had shot a fusillade of shot into the police boats.

The capture was one of the most spectacular on New York Bay since the advent of prohibition.

FESS WILL NOT SERVE ON REED ELECTION BODY

Ohio Senator Turns Down
Dawes Appointment, Saying That He Is Out Of Sympathy With Committee

'Regulars' Pleased At Senator's Action

Ohioan Says Special Body
Should Not Have Power
That Has Been Delegated

WASHINGTON, Apr. 12.—(INS)—Senator Fess (R) of Ohio today declined to accept his appointment as a member of the Reed campaign fund committee.

In refusing the post, made by the resolution of Senator Taft (R) of West Virginia, Fess carried out the wishes of the regular Republicans of the Senate who have challenged the committee's authority to continue its campaign investigations during the recess.

Fess said he believed the inquiry should be made by a regular standing committee, rather than a special committee, and further declared he could not accept because the Reed committee's legitimacy has been challenged before the Senate.

In a long statement, Fess explained that he was out of sympathy with the present procedure of the committee, although he stated he would have voted for its continuance to clean up unfinished work had the senate not prevented such a vote.

"I do not like to have the committee remain at the beck and call of someone who may wish to make a charge, whether it be a responsible or irresponsible charge, set up, as it were, a grand jury, and make public information of every Tom Dick and Harry who may come in and state charges," said the Ohio senator.

Many house charges have been made before the Reed Committee, he set forth, and innocent men have had their names printed in large type for which there has been no justification "and which" in cases of that sort, Fess asserted, "is the truth never catches up with the falsehood."

Fess declared he further felt that a committee should be given the authority to investigate and travel around investigating on its own responsibility.

Rabbi Kaplan Will Speak At Opening Of Jewish Temple

Rabbi Kaplan, of Jacksonville, one of the most noted speakers in the country, has accepted an invitation to make the principal address at the dedication services of the new Beth Israel Temple Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

The Rabbi has spoken in Central Florida on several occasions and a large audience has heard him each time. His popularity as a speaker has extended over the entire south during the past few years and he has been in many of the programs given in some of the large universities and before various club and church organizations.

Arrangements for the dedication are almost complete and the full program will probably be announced in the next few days. The new temple is being dedicated for the occasion by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Beth Israel congregation.

Elaborate decorations are being assembled and ample seating facilities installed for the large crowd of Sanford citizens which is expected to attend.

Every minister in the city has been invited to have a place on the program and every denomination will be represented in the audience. People from all sections of central Florida are expected to attend.

Carroll Collapses While Enroute To Penitentiary And Is Taken To Hospital

GREENVILLE, S. C., April 12.—(INS)—Eckhardt by his long and unsuccessful fight to evade a term in Atlanta penitentiary for perjury, Earl Carroll, New York theatrical producer, was reported unconscious today, several hours after his removal from the train which was taking him to Atlanta.

Carroll collapsed just before the train reached Greenville.

The train was met at the station by an ambulance and Dr. O. Bates examined the producer and ordered him to the hospital. Dr. Bates denied reports that Carroll had taken poison, saying his condition was the result of worry and nervous exhaustion, brought on by his losing battle against an Atlanta penitentiary term.

Twenty-eight persons and two organizations signed the 1928 contract for the guarantee which will bring the Chautauqua back next year.

The Woman's Club, which sponsored and guaranteed the 1927 season, did not come forward this year with an offer to renew its pledge in behalf of the chautauqua, and it was learned that the club lost several hundred dollars through the lack of patronage.

Those who signed the 1928 contract were reported as follows: R. P. Cooper, M. H. Whitner, Mrs. James McArthur, Mrs. L. M. Hays, Mrs. Willie Williams, Mrs. U. P. Chapman, V. A. Segan, M. S. Nelson, C. E. Williams, Mrs. John W. Sneed, C. Welch, A. W. Smith, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, R. A. Williams, G. L. McKay, M. C. Haddock, D. K. McNab, Mrs. W. C. Wilmont, Mrs. S. M. Abernethy, R. C. Maxwell, Mrs. H. The Parent Teachers Association is also said to be on the contract as one of the groups of the Lake Mary School. Both the individuals and organizations have pledged themselves to sell the season tickets for 1928.

The week's stay of the Chautauqua ended last night with the presentation of the Blue Danube Singers with their production of the musical play "In Roman". The company declared it to have been one of the best heard here in recent years and was exceptionally popular with its audience.

Local Lodge Hears Praise From Head

Grand Exalted Ruler Charles H. Grakelov, of the Elks, has declared the Sanford Elks Lodge to be one of the best regulated and most progressive for its size to be found in the United States, according to a letter received by Exalted Ruler Deborah P. Herndon, of the local lodge, yesterday.

The many charitable acts the local organization has performed, activities as a whole and the high membership it has shown under the leadership of Mr. Herndon were highly complimented by the Grand Exalted Ruler. For its size the Sanford lodge is one of the best to be found, Mr. Grakelov stated in his letter, and the continuance of its present progressive policies will bring it national renown, he predicted.

Gibson Gives View Of U.S. On Disarmament

GENEVA, Apr. 12.—(INS)—The troublesome question of international control of disarmament came up again today before the disarmament conference, with the United States delegates announcing their opposition to such control.

"The United States is willing to cooperate in seeking a solution of this problem," said Hugh Gibson, American delegate, "but the United States does not believe that the United States can sign no convention which does not limit itself to pure and simple questions of disarmament, leaving the execution of the convention to the good will of the signers and their respect for treaties."

SHANGHAI, Apr. 12.—(INS)—Nationalist machine-gun sounds opened fire on a mob of 12,000 in the Commercial Press building compound this afternoon, and it was reported that 230 Chinese were killed and more than 400 wounded.

The affair, which is described here as "a massacre," followed a mass meeting in the Church district where agitators denounced the conservatives and incited the laborers and the labor pickets to storm the Commercial Press library compound and disperse the Nationalist soldiers.

SHANGHAI, Apr. 12.—(INS)—One hundred Chinese were killed in clashes between Nationalist soldiers and "guerillas" in the series of pitched battles that preceded the new general strike, according to information obtained by International News Service today from trustworthy sources.

Investigation revealed that 30 labor union offices in Chinese towns were raided by Nationalist troops. The casualties of the "guerillas," mainly armed laborers, were put at 50 killed and 150 wounded; Nationalist losses were estimated at 20 killed and 70 wounded, while 20 civilians were reported killed and 20 wounded.

Approximately 100,000 industrial workers were on strike, crippling cotton mills and affecting street car lines and shipping. The strike is spreading as a result of intimidation tactics by the leaders.

Fifty Chinese pickets attacked the Commercial Press compound in the morning and the car whirled away at an early hour.

A man began his preparations for the journey to Raiford this morning with the same outward calm that he has continually shown since his arrest and subsequent trial and sentence.

The negro personal effects were taken and the car whirled away at an early hour.

With only five days remaining before sentence is carried out, Pittman has not yet divulged to officials any plan he may have for getting himself from the electric chair.

Chinese began sniping Tuesday night against the Canton Foreign road barricades, which are under guard of British troops and Italian blue-jackets. The Italians returned the fire.

Gen. Chiang Kai Shek, commander of the eastern army of the Cantonese, who has gone to Nanking, today ordered a resumption of the fire.

Proposed Fish Act Will Be Discussed At Chamber Meet

The Friday program of the Chamber of Commerce is to include in addition to speeches by Herman Dann and Joe Jenkins a brief explanation of the "Fish Bill" which has recently aroused a great amount of comment in the city, according to E. J. Trotter, secretary of the Chamber.

Action either favorable or unfavorable toward the bill recently drawn and sent to Tallahassee by the Frank Walton League, is expected to be taken Friday. The merits of the bill will probably be explained by S. R. Dighton and Dr. Samuel Paleston, of the League, who have championed it since its adoption several weeks ago.

Mr. Dann and Mr. Jenkins, president and secretary, respectively, of the State Chamber of Commerce, will probably touch upon a number of state matters that are particularly close to Sanford business men. Both of them are said to be speakers of note and are in great demand throughout the state.

Texas Tornado Hit Little

Narrowly Escaped Death

ROCK SPRINGS, Texas, Apr. 12.—(INS)—The tornado that demolished Rock Springs last night struck without warning. It caught us unprepared. No one had a chance to seek shelter in the hurricane cellars.

The twister came from the northeast. A few minutes before it struck the village, I started to leave the house for the courthouse. I noticed the skies were overcast with black clouds but there was no wind. I thought it was just another storm. It was not.

A puff of wind and I saw a building at the end of Main Street lifted from its foundations and hurled across the street through a two-story brick school building before I could get my family to the safety cellar, my house collapsed.

Luckily I was able to extricate myself and members of my family who were only slightly injured.

I looked back into my house but a house was standing. Main Street, where a few moments before there were about 100 persons, was a mass of twisted girders and splintered beams.

The cries for help were pitiable. Hundreds were buried beneath the wreckage and there were only a handful of uninjured men to start the rescue work.

Luckily the theater was closed or else the death toll would have been much larger.

Using candles and oil kerosene to seek by the debris was attacked with axes, crowbars, anything we could get our hands on.

The first bodies recovered were those of a four and six year old girl, their arms around each other. Then the bodies of the mother and father were discovered.

The rescue work was slow as the debris was piled high and the tornado had cut a swath more than a mile wide. The death toll will exceed 100.

CHICAGO, Apr. 12.—(INS)—"Peaches" Browning today is a wage earner.

One thousand five hundred persons paid the extra charge per person to get a glimpse of the most talked of girl in America.

"Peaches" did a waltz, bowed and disappeared. Late she stepped a fox-trot, although she appeared nervous in this number.

Two Earth Tremors Shake Manila Today

MANILA, Apr. 12.—(INS)—Two earthquakes frightened residents of Manila tonight. Dishes crashed and clocks were stopped but no serious damage of any kind was reported in the vicinity of Manila.

The first quake was felt at 9:44 and the second at 10:33 P. M. The center appeared to be about 300 miles from Manila.

Reports stated that the tremors were strongly felt at Baguio, 200 miles north of here, the mountain capital at which Governor General Leonard Wood is now staying.

Twister Strikes With out Warning Giving People No Chance To Seek Storm Cellars

Rescue Work Goes
On Through Night

Only 3 Of 400 Buildings
Remain; Scores
Of Injured Reported

ROCK SPRINGS, Tex., Apr. 12.—(INS)—The number of dead left in the wake of the tornado that last night virtually wiped out this little town of 800 souls, was estimated roughly at 125 today. Few residents of the town escaped uninjured.

Rescue workers, who struggled valiantly through the night have recovered 61 bodies and administered first aid to more than 150 seriously injured who were dragged from the debris. Their only light was improvised flares made of oil-soaked rags.

With the coming of dawn rescue work was speeded up. The town is a mass of ruins. Of 400 buildings that were standing last night at 8 o'clock when the twister struck, all but three were razed. The storm struck without warning.

Relief parties from the little town of Hackberry and nearby places were the first to reach the destroyed village. They worked throughout the night, hampered by the darkness.

The injured were treated by surgeons from the U. S. veterans hospital at Kerrville who worked by the light of improvised torches.

The death-dealing twister swept in from the northeast. According to reports, it left a number of dead and heavy property damage at Del Rio south of here.

A mid the crashing and ripping of buildings as they fell before the twister, citizens darted for the storm cellars. Most of them lost their lives as about 20 bodies were found pinned beneath doorway timbers.

Only a few people were on Main Street when the tornado struck. They sought safety in store buildings and it is from these buildings that most of the bodies are being recovered.

Continuing down Main Street, the tornado played no favorites. Everything that protruded above the ground was a target for the funnel-shaped monster.

One house was torn from its foundation and hurled across the street through a two story brick school building.

A large cottonwood tree was uprooted and sent crashing through a small cottage. The huge battering ram went through three wooden houses before coming to rest in the wall of a brick building housing a couple.

THINGS THAT GIVE A NEWSPAPER PERSONALITY

NEWSPAPERS have personality---just as your friends have---elusive, intangible, it is true, yet a personality that is real and vital.

When you read a copy of The Sanford Herald you see in its printed pages a personality that is as definite, as individual, as truly its own as your personality is your own. The personality of The Sanford Herald is the vivid yet substantial personality of Central Florida, the district it so truly represents.

The Herald is a newspaper, first and always. It tells all the news tersely, directly, interestingly, without bias or concealment or exaggeration. It tells the news of Sanford and Florida, it tells the news of the nation and all the world

The Herald can never be provincial---the interests of the people it serves are too broad, the scope of its news-gathering services too widespread.

The Herald has opinions, too---honest, fearless opinions which are offered to its readers AS OPINIONS and no more. Editorially, The Herald has aimed throughout its twenty years as a newspaper to offer sane, constructive comment and advice on matters of public import. It is proud of the causes it has advocated.

This personality of The Herald is not a fickle, transient thing. It is deeply rooted in the years and in the lives of the men who have made it a great newspaper.

In a city and state of homes, The Herald is a home paper. It is an old and respected family friend. It mirrors the interest of the family in the things that are worth while, in the things that endure.

Just as the news columns review the current history of the world, just as the editorial columns express opinions of broad perspective, the advertising columns are the market place of the Solid Central Section of Florida. Column after column, the products of mind and hand passin review in honest display of their merits. The Herald permits no lowering in tone of these columns because they are frankly commercial, they hew to the same strict moral line as all the rest, for BUSINESS is honorable.

The same standards of ethics hold in the advertising columns as in the other departments. Every item in the Herald, whether it is news, editorial or advertising, bears the same strict scrutiny. Every item may rightly and properly be admitted to your family circle.

All of these things have given The Herald a personality that is its own.

It is a trusted family friend. Its pages are given the same credence as a friend's word of honor. It is these things that have made The Herald the greatest newspaper in its field, and one of the really highly respected newspapers of Florida.

They know the politicians would get most of their money, but they like it.

Must Change The Rules

While The Herald has been consistently opposed to the Democratic nomination of Al Smith for the presidency in 1928, it has never failed to admit the possibility of such an event. It is therefore more than pleased to see one of his home town newspapers, the New York Herald Tribune, announce that Governor Smith will be unable to secure the nomination unless the "Two-thirds Rule" is changed.

The New York newspaper is at the present time conducting a nation-wide survey through the medium of its resident correspondents to determine the status of Governor Smith's candidacy. So far thirty-six states have been heard from. Nine of them are recorded as being favorable to Smith's nomination; ten are opposed, and seventeen are admittedly doubtful.

From these figures it is difficult to ascertain anything at all as to Smith's chances, but the Herald Tribune goes further into an analysis of the political machinery which must be called upon to secure the nomination of the Tammany candidate. Under the present rules of the convention a candidate in 1928 must receive approximately 730 votes to secure the necessary two-thirds for nomination.

In 1924 the best Mr. McAdoo could do at a time when things seemed to be going his way was to accumulate about 530 votes. Mr. Smith at no time reached the four hundred mark. Indications now are that Mr. Smith's largest number of votes in the '28 convention will not exceed Mr. McAdoo's at Madison Square Garden. Regardless of the extent to which enthusiasm for Smith may rise in Massachusetts or New York, these states can only give him their thirty-six or ninety-six delegates and he had practically all of them in 1924.

So unless the traditional "Two-Thirds Rule" is abrogated—an eventuality which doesn't seem at all likely—Smith's chance for nomination is no better than McAdoo's four years ago and similarly the chance that the next convention will prove as great a fiasco as the last one, which entertained the country for some weeks, is pretty good.

The Democrats would do well to heed the advice of Pat Harrison and Will Rogers and get behind a man who can stand up.

Carroll Goes To Jail For Lying

All Earl Carroll had to say yesterday as he boarded the train for his vacation in Atlanta, was "I'm a good loser." The world admires a "good loser." Somehow if a man can take his losses with a smile, no matter how serious his deficiencies or offenses may have been, he rises in the normal human's estimation.

But we are not all sure that Carroll will prove himself to be a good loser. His actions thus far have provided no indication of that quality. When he got caught at his bathtub party, he might have escaped with very mild punishment, had he been a good loser. But he lied about it under oath. He committed a serious offense to cover a minor one.

There is something in this predicament, which the New York theatrical producer finds himself in, to give one food for thought. Was his party any worse than hundreds of other parties that have been given in New York City? Was it any worse than parties sometimes given in other cities, in Sanford, for instance?

Was his party any worse, private affair that it was, than hundreds of shows which have been opened to the public on Broadway? Was it any worse, affecting as it did but a handful of persons, than scores of magazines which depict such things and circulate among hundreds of thousands of children? Was it any worse, in its effect upon public morals, than the sights one sees at almost any night club?

Why was Carroll's bathtub party? It was the effect of the times. It was the result of a gradually increasing contempt for law and decency among those who want to have a good time, who shout for personal liberty, and who compose an unfortunately large proportion of the population.

Carroll wasn't sent to prison for giving a bathtub party; he was convicted for lying about it afterward, but it wouldn't hurt this country any if he, and others like him, could be punished for taking the law too lightly whether they lie about it or not.

BUSINESS MEN, who discovered that large profits feel very good, helped to kill Jesus. They were not bad men. They were simply running a profitable business in the temple courts according to the current rules of the game. But when Jesus cleaned the temple courts, overturned the tables of the money changers and with his whip of cords drove out the sheep, he touched Jerusalem in its most sensitive nerve.—Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

TAKE THE CRIMINAL who has descended from a respectable estate to that of convict. Had he consistently fortified himself with an uncompromising hatred of wrongdoing, the chances are that he never would have allowed the devil to put one over on him. Folks never get chummy with a rattle snake. They hate th, critters.—Exchange.

THE NATIONAL WEALTH of the United States amounted to $355,000,000,000 in 1925, it is announced by the National Industrial Conference Board. And it might be added that a recent checking up showed Florida to be out of debt with about $12,000,000 to the good.—Florida Times-Union.

DURING THE LAST 10 years many nations have learned that it is better to depend on reason than on force. Talking things out about a friendly table is more economical than fighting things out. War is terribly expensive, as the French figures indicate, and every patriotic man ought to insist that governments find some other way of settling their differences.—Miami News.

THE FARMERS' PLANTING INTENTION

Farmers intend to plant larger acreages of the leading grain this spring than a year ago, according to a survey based on reports of about 50,000 producers, as of March 1 to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the Department of Agriculture. According to this survey, increased areas will be planted to durum wheat, corn, oats, barley, hay, peanuts, potatoes and sweet potatoes, while planting of flaxseed, spring wheat other than durum, rice, sorghums and tobacco will be smaller than a year ago. It is pointed out that the survey is not a forecast of the acreages that will actually be planted, as the far-weather conditions, price changes, the labor supply, and the effort of the report itself upon the intention durum wheat, as other spring to plant cotton has been collected, wheat shows a decline, so that as this is specifically prohibited by gain for all spring wheat is rather act of Congress. As Brisbane Sees It

$13,721,400 Per Acre. Five Big, Vague Nations. A Clergyman for Vanzetti. A New Billion Industry. By ARTHUR BRISBANE Copyright 1927 by Star Co.

BLOOMINGDALE BROTHERS, long-established and energetic New York department store owners, broke all records for uptown New York real estate yesterday, paying $315 a square foot for land adjoining them at the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Lexington avenue.

That's at the rate of $13,721,400 per acre. You would have to raise many bushels of wheat to make farm land worth that.

THE PRICE NOW seems high; it will seem low in a few years. Nobody dreams of future real estate prices in the retail center of Manhattan, where the richest city in the world spends its money, while people from all over the United States, in thousands, spend the money of the United States all the time.

FIVE GREAT POWERS of the world, the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy, all send exactly the same note to China. It demands punishment for deaths inflicted, a written apology from the commander of the Cantonese revolutionary forces financial reparations, etc. It does not say exactly what the five big powers will do if China says, "We won't."

THE CHINESE, observing that one great power, Russia, missing, might ask, "Why don't you send an ultimatum to Russia? She has been sending agents here, stirring up our ignorant scores of millions to drive out Europeans and Japanese."

The five big nations say to China, "If you refuse our demands we shall take such steps as may seem necessary."

RATHER VAGUE, as it has to be, 400,000,000 Chinese are too many to coerce. You might kill 5,000,000 and the remaining 395,000,000 would hardly know it.

"IT WOULD BE BETTER for Massachusetts and the administration of justice generally, if a commission could be appointed to investigate the evidence on which Sacco and Vanzetti are condemned to die."

That is the opinion of the Rev. Roland D. Sawyer, Congregational clergyman and member of the Massachusetts legislature. The commission, for which he introduced a bill, would consist of the chief justice of the Massachusetts supreme court, and four others to be appointed by the governor. The commission would be authorized to recommend to the governor a new trial or such course as might seem necessary.

THE IMPRESSION that justice in the United States is in a hurry to execute anybody or determined to do so, should be carefully avoided. This is a case that has never been passed upon, as regards the evidence, by any but one judge, and a case in which after-the-war excitement played a considerable part.

CYRUS H. K. CURTIS'S MEN, hired to investigate bootlegging, say it is already a one billion dollar industry.

It took our steel business more than ten years to become a thousand million dollar business. Curiously enough bootlegging is booming, just as the steel business boomed because of protection. High tariff protected steel; prohibition protects bootleggers, giving them an exclusive market.

RECENTLY MR. GIFFORD, head of the telephone company, proved that "television," making it possible to see and hear individuals or crowds hundreds of miles away, is practical.

The question, "How can that be useful?" is answered in a way that in centuries to come it will shed light on our civilization. "There is no doubt about it," you are told, "the only way in which television can be made profitable is in connection with prize fights." People will pay well to see men fighting and to hear the yells of the mob gathered around the prize ring. Would television make money enabling distant crowds to see and hear great prize fights or college professors? It would not.

THE HAMBURG-AMERICAN liner New York, christened by Mrs. James J. Walker, wife of New York's mayor, arrived in port yesterday on her first trip. The first ship of the Hamburg-American line, the Deutschland, of 717 tons, came here in 1847. Now comes the Hamburg-American liner New York of 21,500 tons and a city in itself.

THIS GREAT SHIP is one proof of Germany's recovery. When the great war came she had 1,300,000 tons of shipping. All that was positively "taken" by the treaty of Versailles. Germany now has built her shipping up to 900,000 tons. Nothing succeeds like courage and determination.

A Bumper Crop

AN ATTACK ON FLORIDA'S CREDIT

Above all other considerations, Florida should avoid anything, in legislation or business policy that smacks of repudiation. Despite bank troubles, boom collapse and other misfortunes, Florida's credit has been well maintained throughout the country. This has been largely due to the fact that financial authorities everywhere are most favorably impressed with the state's excellent condition, as a state, as regards its conservative governmental operations, its freedom from unnecessary and oppressive taxation, the fact that it is building millions of dollars worth of good roads without a direct tax on property owners; and also to the fact that its people generally have shown a disposition to stand bravely and uncomplainingly whatever losses they may have suffered because of various setbacks, and to acknowledge and meet their obligations, although these may have been unwisely assumed in a period of crazy speculation, inflated values and unwarranted hopes.

These considerations influence the money powers of the country to a continued confidence in Florida, realizing that, with the state's established and irremovable assets of climate, location and productivity and with its people right-minded and honest in their private attitudes and transactions, Florida is still a "good bet," a desirable field for legitimate investment.

Florida cannot afford, by either intimidation or act, to disturb this excellent reputation, this gratifying and valuable state of mind. Florida must retain the CONFIDENCE of the nation.

Realizing the importance of these considerations, The Tribune is frankly astonished to see introduced in both houses of the Legislature a bill which in its very nature, spells REPUDIATION. We refer to the measure presented by two members from the East Coast providing that deficiency judgments in proceedings to foreclose mortgages can only be entered in the sound discretion of the court and then only for an amount equal to attorney's fees, costs and interest.

As a prominent Tampaan expressed it yesterday, this measure should be entitled, "An Act To Permit Dishonest Debtors to Repudiate Their Honest Obligations."

Aside from the fact that the measure is of doubtful constitutionality of law afflicting existing contracts, thereby failing of the evident purpose of its proponents, and the further fact that its only effect would be to force mortgages, instead of instituting suit for foreclosure, to sue in common law courts on notes, obtaining a general judgment against payors and endorsers, which judgment would be good for 20 years and enforceable against any property of the debtors, the enactment of this bill into law would seriously shake the confidence which the rest of the country now has in Florida and stamp this state, in financial and business circles everywhere, as legalizing the repudiation of debts, attacking the inviolability of contracts and nullifying the protection of property.

This would be a disastrous, if not a fatal step, for Florida to take at this time, when we are endeavoring, in every way possible, to reassure the outside world as to the basic stability of the state and the state's just claim to the continued credit and confidence of the other 47 states.

This measure should be promptly defeated by the Legislature. If, by some chance, it should be passed by both houses, it should be vetoed by the Governor.

MRS. ROBERT J. HOLLY ENTERTAINS THIS MORNING FOR MRS. ETLAR

A lovely social courtesy in which the cordial hospitality of the hostess was reflected in every detail was that of Wednesday morning when Mrs. Robert J. Holly entertained at bridge at her home on Park Avenue, honoring Mrs. Ruth Etlar of Philadelphia, Pa., who has been extensively entertained as the guest of Mrs. Charles Evans Henry.
The rooms where the card tables had been arranged for play were beautifully adorned with quantities of spring flowers, featuring the Easter colors.
Cunning fan-shaped tallies with appropriate verses were used for scores for the card game. When these were collected at the usual number of progressions, the holder of highest score was given an exquisite embroidered towel. For the holder of next highest score, there was a pretty bouidoir water set. The one failing to score honors and points was consoled with a lovely Easter basket filled with candy eggs. Mrs. Etlar was presented a framed Florida scene. After the card game the tables were laid with dainty covers and a delicious four-course luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Robert J. Holly Jr.

Cover were laid for Mrs. Ruth Etlar, Mrs. Charles Evans Henry, Mrs. Harry B. Lewis, Mrs. Donald P. Drummond, Mrs. W. Wallace Wright, Mrs. Walter S. Coleman, Mrs. W. J. Thigpen, Mrs. J. Preliminary preparations have already been made for the departure, it was learned by International News Service today from attaches of Rockefeller's staff.

Two or three train reservations have already been made for the aged oil king's long trip to New York but it has not been decided definitely which will be used. The dates of the reservations were not revealed it being a strict order of the Rockefeller house to withhold all such information, especially in regard to the public movement of Rockefeller.

CELERYMEN ARE TO PLAY Y. M. C. A. TEAM THURSDAY

Lee Crowe Will Take Team To Winter Park Saturday For Another Game In Preparation For Monday's Tilt

As an appetizer for their game on Monday with the University of Florida diamond campaigners, the Celery Feeds will play a practice affair tomorrow afternoon with Winter Park that will taper them off for their Sunday rest and leave them in fine fettle for Monday.

Practically every man on the squad is now able to use his knife and fork without getting a kick in the shoulder or arm, and the workout yesterday showed that the attention of a doctor will not be needed before the opening of the season.

All of the pitchers are working well and they will not develop any sore muscles until some opposition battery opens up against them with its heavy artillery. Then the squawks will begin.

Crowe may have to loan a pitcher or two in the Y. M. C. A. tilt. He would be glad to do just that in order to get the work out of them.

In last Saturday's conflict with Winter Park he turned over a pair of hurriers to his hosts and then was the game. Yesterday he shipped three of them and catcher Reese Allen down to the "City of Homes" to work against Orlando.

With opportunities of watching his mound staff in action several times this week, it is probable that the seven men composing that staff will each get in several innings of honest toil.

The entrance of Miami into the league is said to be causing a lot of discussion among the local officials, fans and players. The newcomer will be welcomed to the league for many reasons, chief among which is the extra games in the Magic City will draw. The biggest drawback is the long haul from the other cities.

President J. B. Asher is now negotiating with West Palm Beach and Fort Myers. He may have their names on the dotted lines this week, despite the fact that he is still wondering what they will use for money.

Farmer Joe Cooper Defeats Roy Potter In Jacksonville Bout

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 13.—(INS)—Farmer Joe Cooper, Illinois welterweight who has been fighting in Florida rings with considerable success, had another battle marked up in his win column today following his decisive victory over Roy Potter of Marietta, Ohio, in a slashing 10-round bout here last night.

Cooper was master of Potter throughout, cutting and chopping the Ohio mauler throughout with a machine-gun left that was in motion at all times and gave Potter no rest.

Joe Johnson, Tampa welterweight, knocked out Jack Hoyd in the second round of a scheduled eight-round semi-final.

The prison car will be switched to the prison yards, on the outskirts of the city, and the prisoners, including Carroll, will be marched inside, given new suits of denim, numbered and in a day or so will accustom themselves to their new tasks.

Just what Carroll's number will be has not yet been decided, but the last number given to a prisoner was 24,400 and it is expected Carroll's number will be somewhere near that figure.

Carroll is accompanied on the train to Atlanta by his wife and two brothers. It is understood Mrs. Carroll will make her home in Atlanta while her husband is serving his term.

Carroll's trip to the penitentiary came only after he exhausted every possible means to evade sentence. He appealed to the supreme court and also petitioned President Coolidge for clemency, but without result.

Most Of Baseball's Stars Fail To Shine In Opening Games Tuesday Afternoon

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor

New York, April 13.—It may be just as well that one day doesn't make a ball season quite as readily as one swallow makes a suicide. Otherwise, the New York Yankees today might be looking around for a right fielder with a little more punch than George H. Ruth, alias Herman. Also, it is possible that Ty Cobb would be regarded as a man who seemed to know what he was doing on the bases and wouldn't get there often. As for Eddie Collins, it would be presumed that the next 24 hours would see him hoping to rally gamely to a batting average of .056.

Continuing the analogy, the greatest young outfielders in baseball, incidentally, would be Earl Webb and Al Tyson, the Louisville pair, Earl having staked himself to two homers and Albert to five hits, including a triple and two doubles. Their brilliant start in the opening of the 1927 Major League season yesterday, coupled with the unseemly flop of Ruth, Cobb, Collins, Groves, Alexander and Carlson, merely emphasized the uncertainty of baseball, the thing that makes the game what it is.

At the same time, Rogers Hornsby and Tris Speaker, playing their first games with New York and Washington respectively, had what might be termed typical days. Hornsby got a homer and a double handed seven chances and scored four runs during the Giants 15 to 7 decision over the Phillies. Speaker got two hits, scored to run and had four putouts as the Senators were scoring over the Red Sox, 6 to 2.

Among other stars who got away running were George Uhle, the American League's champion pitcher in 1926, and Pete Donohue and Ray Kheer, leading right handers of the Reds and Pirates respectively. Kremer stopped the Reds with six hits as the Pirates won, 2 to 1. Uhle also confined the White Sox to six hits while the Indians were pulling out a 3 to 2 verdict.

However, notable failures of the day outnumbered notable successes and, of these, Ruth and the Athletics in general were more notorious than notable. The Athletics looked somewhat less the part of a championship club than the exhorters would like to have you believe, making five errors behind their $100,000 left hander, Bob Groves who was nipped for eight runs in two innings by the Yanks.

Still, Herman Ruth socked not, neither did he run. Twice the great man struck right out and once he popped weakly to the infield, leaving four runners awaiting developments. Then they removed Herman for a pinch hitter, who promptly singled home a runner the young fellow had overlooked.

Bob O'Farrell's maiden appearance as manager of the champion Cardinals was ruined by the Cuba's hitting and the performance of Alexander, who gracefully withdrew after his old club, Chicago, had scored six times in the first three innings. The effect, if any, of George Moriarty and Dan Howley on the fortunes of the Tigers and Browns respectively was denied expression by a St. Louis run but it was a bad day, on the whole, for managerial debutants. Bill Carrigan lost in Boston; so did Stuffy McInnes in Philadelphia, virtually without effort, the Giants continuing their hitting spree of recent weeks. Ray Schalk, of the White Sox, also dropped his first engagement.

Tagging All Bases

The world's champion St. Louis Cardinals got off on the wrong foot, losing to the Cubs, 16 to 1. Led by Earl Webb, rookie outfielder, who socked two homers, the Cubs nicked Alexander the Great for six runs in four innings.

The giant juggernaut crushed the Phillies 7 to 1. Tyson contributed five hits and Hornsby and Terry walloped homers, Terry's coming with the bases full.

When the twister had spent its fury, only three buildings were left standing and they were badly damaged.

The telephone building was demolished but the switchboard was left standing. Mrs. Lorie, the operator was seated at the switchboard when the storm broke. The building was plucked from its foundations and hurled several hundred feet. She was knocked from her chair but the small lights were still burning on the switchboard.

She called Kerrville about 30 miles distant and asked the U. S. veterans hospital to send aid. She also got a connection with the Southern Pacific dispatcher at San Antonio and asked him to rush doctors and nurses. Throughout the night she sat at her post, while the rescue work went on about her.

The first bodies taken from the ruins were those of a four and six year old girl, their arms clasped around each other. A few moments later the bodies of their father and mother were recovered. Several entire families were wiped out.

The known dead in the Rock Springs tornado disaster are: Robert Dollittle, editor of the Edwards County Leader, and four members of his family.

Mr. W. J. Adams, Mrs. — Pennington and two members of her family. Will Fells.

Rev. Spiers and one child. Two children of J. Billings. J. T. Cowden, his wife and two children.

Charles McCain. Charles Herrington. Charles Baker. Guy Henderson and three children.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Apr. 13.—(INS)—Additional relief trains were being made up here today to rush succor to the tornado-stricken village of Rock Springs, 150 miles southeast of here.

The first relief train, in charge of the Red Cross, left here last night shortly before midnight two hours after news of the disaster reached here. Surgeons, nurses, medical supplies, tents and food were aboard.

CAMP Wood, Tex., Apr. 13.—(INS)—Sixty two bodies have been recovered at Rock Springs. Little cattle and sheep community center, which was struck last by a disastrous tornado, reports here this afternoon stated.

A score or more of the more seriously injured were being cared for in improvised hospitals. It was feared many may die from their injuries.

Only 33 of the 62 bodies had been identified. Identification was made difficult because most of the bodies were badly mangled. At least ten bodies had been burned beyond recognition in a fire which broke out today and hampered relief work.

Volusia Slayer Is Sentenced To Hang In Deland April 18

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Apr. 13.—(INS)—Governor John W. Martin today signed a death warrant for the hanging of Charles Brown alias Powell, on Monday, April 18, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon within the walls of the county jail of Volusia county.

Brown was convicted on a charge of murdering Howard Usher, Daytona Beach taxicab driver, in the circuit court of Volusia county on Nov. 13, 1923.

Brown will be the last person in Florida to be executed by hanging. He was twice snatched from the electric chair on last minute stays of execution because of the court's error in sentencing him to be electrocuted instead of hanged.

The circuit court of Volusia county sentenced him to be electrocuted before the state election law into effect which resulted in a writ of error from the supreme court. The case has been before the Florida courts for the past four years.

Armour Grain Firm Barred From The Chicago Exchange

CHICAGO, Apr. 13.—(INS)—The Armour Grain Company was virtually non-existent following a ruling by the Chicago Board of Trade.

The drastic statement, signed by all members of the Board of Trade's directorate, bars the Armour Company from further trading privileges and gives the concern three days to withdraw its activities from the exchange.

It was further stated that officers of the accused grain company who are members of the board, will probably be brought to trial later and if found guilty of charges to be lodged against them, they may be expelled.

The Board of Trade decision created a sensation in the LaSalle street. It was hailed as the first move in a general house cleaning resulting from scandals growing out of the failure of the grain marketing corporation.
