Each of us will have to draw our own conclusions, but I can't help but believe that violence as demonstrated on TV and in the movies contributes to the motivating emotions of those involved in similar offenses. Like this morning's N.Y.C. shootings into a car carrying Anthony and Joseph Colombo, sons of the reputed Mafia boss. According to the police, no one was injured and the gunman escaped.

On second thought, nah! It couldn't be the fault of the movies... cause they only make the flickers based on actual experiences of the underworld.

Talking as we are of law enforcement agencies, perhaps it's taken for granted... but, I can't help but offer a public salute to two of the finest. Sanford Police Chief Ben Butler and Seminole Sheriff John Polk. First-hand observations of their proficiency while accompanying them on the drug-raid this past weekend has once again confirmed my admiration of their professional ability... and of their men. Photos and story of this arrest are featured on page 2.

See where Frank Sinatra's come "out of retirement"... again, this time for the Select Committee on Crime in Washington, D. C. this Thursday. These Congressmen are investigating organized crime infiltration into the sports world. (Why I'll just "betcha" they don't find a thing... gambling in sports? Unheard of!)

Thank you, neighbors. In response to our plea in Friday's column, re-area special children going to Tampa to compete in the Special Olympics. They need some additional capital, and you all came through. And so did the kids. According to Christine Jones, we came in with one first place and two second place finishes. Now we just might have one of them going to the "nationals" in Los Angeles in August. More on that later. And thanks again, folks.

Kirk Hired Gurney's Firm

Charged four times the hourly rate suggested by Florida Bar

MIAMI (AP) — Sen. Edward Gurney's law firm has collected $207,000 in legal fees from the state Department of Transportation in the five years since Gurney's firm was hired to handle DOT legal matters by his friend, former Gov. Claude Kirk, the Miami Herald says in today's edition.

The newspaper said the biggest fee paid by the DOT to the Florida Republican's firm, $94,000 — was paid for handling the 1967 case which allowed tandem-trailer trucks to operate on the Florida Turnpike.

The $93,000 fee was paid, the Herald said.

Shortly after the payment was approved by DOT general counsel Howard Hadley, who five months later quit the DOT and went to work for Gurney's firm.

— A month after Kirk received a $1,000 contribution to his unsuccessful re-election campaign from Russell Troutman, the attorney named by Gurney's firm to handle the tandem-trailer job.

— Five months after the DOT signed a new contract with Gurney's firm which set $40 per hour as the maximum legal fee for all work except condemnation proceedings, the new contract did not cover work begun under the old agreement.

In a story by Bruce Giles, the Herald said the $98,000 fee paid Gurney's firm worked out to nearly $200 per hour, or about four times the hourly rate suggested for attorneys by the Florida Bar Association.

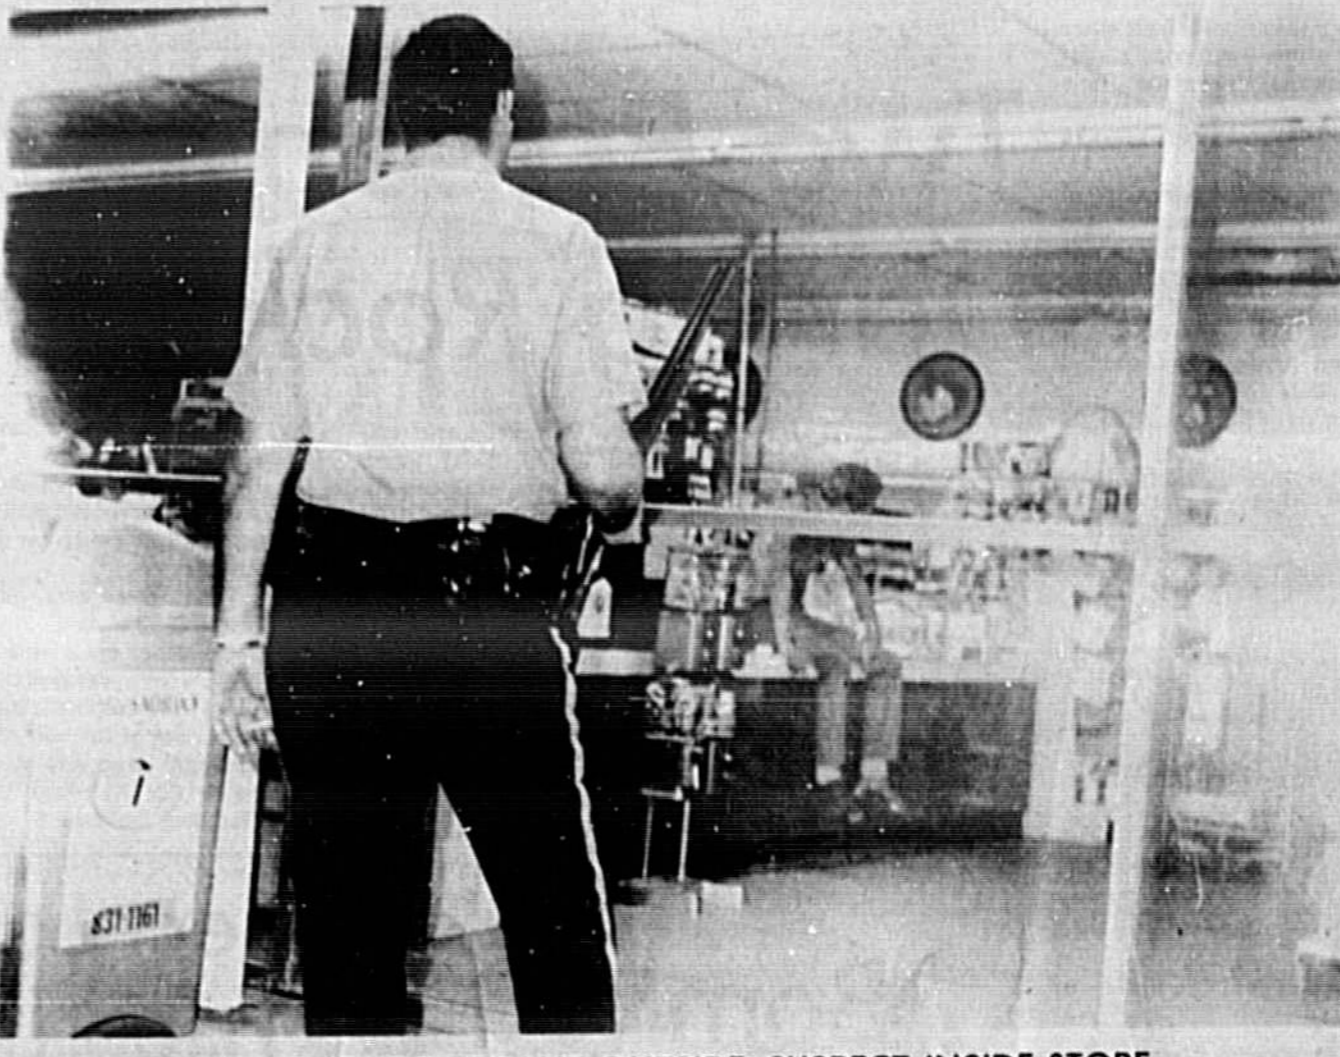

The newspaper said Gurney's firm was hired to represent the old Florida Turnpike Authority about a month after Kirk took office. The Turnpike Authority later was merged with the DOT.

Gurney's firm was hired, the Herald said, on the same day the firm wrote an opinion for the Turnpike Authority, that said the authority had the legal right to hire private counsel. Three years ago, the newspaper said, the DOT got rid of all its private lawyers except those in Gurney's law firm. The newspaper said Gurney said he saw no conflict of interest in his firm's work for the state.

"If the governor is a Republican, he favors Republican firms. And if he is a Democrat, he favors Democratic firms," the newspaper quoted Gurney as saying.

Last September, the state ordered Gurney's law firm not to begin any new work, the Herald said, but pending cases could keep fees rolling in to the senator's legal firm for years.

Area Man Jailed For Beating-Death

By BILL SCOTT

First degree murder charges have been filed against a Longwood man by Seminole County authorities in the apparent beating-death of his common-law wife.

Det. Lt. L. J. Kriz stated Jack Eugene Spry, 36, Route 2, Box 862, was officially charged with murder Saturday after Victoria Marie Wesolowski, 36, with whom Spry had been living, died at Florida Hospital where she was removed by ambulance after she sustained a beating alleged to have been administered by Spry.

Spry had been arrested Friday by Detective William Hogan after Miss Wesolowski was discovered by ambulance attendants battered and bleeding on the floor of the couple's apartment.

Lt. Kriz said an autopsy was performed on the body and he attributed her death to a blood clot caused by brain damage. "When I informed Spry the woman had died, he went to pieces," the detective said.

He said Spry maintained the woman tried to cut him with a razor blade as the reason for the beating.

Spry was originally jailed on assault with intent to commit murder charged with a $15,000 bond.

With the filing of murder charges, there is no bond, Lt. Kriz added.

Deputy Apprehends Burglar 'In-The-Act'

By GARY TAYLOR

The alertness of a Seminole County deputy sheriff on routine patrol shortly after 4 a.m. Saturday morning resulted in stopping a breaking-and-entering which was in progress and the subsequent arrest of a West Virginia man, caught inside the Lil' Champ Food Store in Longwood.

Keith Everett Davis, 25, who gave authorities a Charleston West Virginia address, was charged with breaking and entering with intent to commit grand larceny. He is being held without bond in the county jail.

Davis told local authorities that he is an escapee from the Moundsville, West Virginia Prison where he was supposedly serving a 30 year term for armed robbery.

Deputy Scott Grant was headed north on SR 427 and stopped for the traffic light at SR 424 when he thought he noticed a movement inside the store.

Grant switched off the lights on his patrol car after making a left turn at the intersection. He pulled into a nearby service station and drove around the corner of the building. He walked in front of the building and seeing no one inside, started around the side as though he were going to the back. But then Grant suddenly cut back around to the front and found Davis trying to get out, through a hole in the roof. Grant tapped on the window and the burglar found himself looking into the barrel of a shotgun.

Grant called for help over the radio and Lt. Bill Robbins, Sgt. Romeo Miller and deputy Steve Willis, all at a traffic accident about two miles away, responded to the call. Two Longwood policemen, Bob Paddock and Cpl. Mike Fisher were in the Police station only two blocks away and also rushed to the scene. Paddock, armed with a shotgun, helped Grant guard the suspect while they waited for someone to open the door. Longwood Police Chief Eddie Sweat was also on the scene within a few minutes.

Detective Sgt. George Abby was called to the scene to handle the investigation. A store official could not be contacted immediately and the officers broke the padlock on the door.

Investigations showed that the suspect had apparently entered through the roof of the building. He had prised loose a section of a fan in the back of the building and was throwing articles through a hole landing onto the ground behind the store.

Cigars, cigarettes, sun glasses and several food items were found on the ground outside the store.

Additional items were found on the floor inside the store beneath the spot where they were being pushed through the hole. Several cartons of cigarettes had been taken from their storage place and were found in the middle of the floor in broken cardboard boxes.

David Kelly Fails In Bid For Raise

By BILL SCOTT

Seminole County Industrial Development Authority (SCIDA) director David Kelly failed to receive a raise in his salary at a Friday afternoon budget session which almost $12,000 from a $73,724 1972-73 budget submitted by SCIDA director David Kelly, but estimated $12,000 to fund tax assessor and tax collector charges to the industrial board.

SCIDA member James Ryan reminded the budget group it would have to include the assessor and collector fees.

"It's taxation without representation, a penalty for receiving tax money," Ryan explained.

SCIDA member John Y. Mercer moved to adopt the estimated $73,000 budget after efforts by Kelly to include a $8,500 salary increase failed.

Kelly had proposed boosting his SCIDA director's pay from $12,000 a year to $18,500. However, Mercer advised the National Pay Board had recommended holding salary raises to 5 per cent in an effort to stop inflationary spiral.

Mercer said increase would amount to about $600 a year, Kelly advised the board he took a $3,000 pay cut when he took the SCIDA job some eight months ago, after serving as Sanford Industrial Commission director for a year at $15,000.

Mercer replied "We must be able to justify such an increase, I, as a taxpayer, would feel it would be wrong if I said anything else."

Ralph Kennedy, new SCIDA member, asked Kelly if he had been promised anything and the director replied, "I was told I would have to start small, but would be given an increase when justified."

Ryan advised that most county salaries are figured on $14,500, the county engineer's salary.

He further explained this was set by a survey made by Cody Associates, but might be upgraded.

Ryan, who is also a county employee as Seminole County Port Authority (SCOPA) administrator, commented "since this is the first SCIDA budget we have submitted, it will be considered scrupulously scrutinized; therefore, nobody's got a snowball's chance in hell of receiving an excessive amount."

Huge Crowd Sees Show

Dancing Is Here To Stay

It finally happened! Can't believe I saw the whole thing! At the School of Dance Arts "A Night of Dance" over the weekend, throngs of patrons were turned away from Seminole High School auditorium.

It was "standing room only" approximately 45 minutes before each show with many disappointed persons missing the sensational shows Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Several counties were and the appreciative audience went wild with applause... in the heat of the auditorium... while wiping beads of perspiration from their brows.

Choreographers and directors, Miriam Hye and Valerie Hye Weld can take a bow for their dedication and untiring efforts in not only creating dancers, but also for enhancing many a child's development and contributing a new cultural concept to the community.

In lavish settings, wearing dazzling costumes, the dancers all performed to par excellence, including the pre-schoolers who were the last word in song and dance.

The first half of the show was a salute to composers, both classical and contemporary, and was confined to ballet.

The second half (tap and jazz) was focused on "Way Back When" as songs and dances from yesteryear were spotlighted.

Out of this world! One of the highlights of the jazz segment was a take-off of "Good News." Dancers were proudly as newsways and costumed displayed The Sanford Herald in the highly entertaining number.

Backstage after the show, the instructors commented that they were overwhelmed with the large turnout and the vast response.

Seminole-Orange Hits Result In 14 Arrests

By BILL SCOTT

Fourteen persons were arrested early Saturday, including four at one Sanford house, in narcotic forays by Seminole County sheriff's agents, Sanford and Orlando police in inter-connected Seminole-Orange raids.

Included among confiscations by agents making the raids were: supplies of marijuana, LSD tablets, various types of smoking pipes and other assorted drugs, plus five guns.

The combined task force of Sanford police, county deputies and state attorney's investigators arrested four persons, including two females, at a Magnolia Avenue house in Sanford.

Charged with possession of marijuana, hallucinogenic and barbiturate drugs was Joanne Tucker, 21, of Orlando; Darlene Grace Sirtoli, 18, of Orlando; Douglas Daniel Pfiel, 27, of Sanford and Harry Emmet Pfiel, 23 of Orlando.

Douglas Pfiel was charged with selling a pound of marijuana to Clifford Leroy

Brown, 19, of Sanford, who was also arrested by authorities on two counts of marijuana possession, when a plastic bag containing the weed was found in Brown's car.

Miss Sirtoli was also charged with carrying a concealed weapon after a .38 Derringer was found in her purse by police.

An interesting sidelight, was the arrest of Miss Sirtoli a second time the same day, after agents allegedly followed her to Orlando after her earlier arrest in Sanford.

She was charged with frequenting a disorderly house after agents striking at a 1111 Andrews Street house at approximately 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

Also arrested in the Orlando raid was Rebecca Hopple, 20, of 2309 Forrest Road, Keller King, 27, of Maitland Avenue, Altamonte Springs and Robert Moore, 23, of Orlando.

Charged with possession of marijuana, LSD and drug paraphernalia at the Orlando address.

Other weekend drug arrests included: a 15-year-old Lyman hashish and a shot gun were seized by agents striking at a 1111 Andrews Street house at approximately 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

Charged with frequenting a disorderly house were Gary Sims, 24, of Orlando; Rebecca Hopple, 20, of 2309 Forrest Road, Keller King, 27, of Maitland Avenue, Altamonte Springs and Robert Moore, 23, of Orlando.

Charged with possession of hashish was Hershel Dutton, 24, apartment occupant.

Other weekend drug arrests included: a 15-year-old Lyman

High School student charged with possession of marijuana and possession of LSD, after his arrest by Sgt. Ray Parker. A plastic box containing 500 cigarettes and six LSD tablets were confiscated from the juvenile.

According to authorities, the youth admitted selling the tablets at Lyman High School for $2 a tablet.

Aubur Charles Smith, 17, Baywood Drive, Sanford, was also arrested for possession of marijuana by Sgt. Ralph Russell, Sanford police.

Two Persons Killed In Daring Rocket Attack

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — A rocket scored a direct hit on the Cambodian Defense Ministry today, killing two persons and wounding at least two others, while two other rockets straddled the villa of President Lon Nol.

The rockets landed on the Cambodian capital in more than two years of war.

One rocket landed in front of the president's villa on the southwestern edge of the city, while another hit behind it. Sources said they did some damage to buildings close to the villa.

Two other rockets, landing so close together that the explosions sounded like a single blast, were fired at the long Defense Ministry building close to the center of the city. One scored a direct hit on the third floor, while the other exploded in a tree on the far side of an iron fence in front of the ministry.

Terrified workers, many of them women siders, fled from the building.

The attack came as ballots were being counted from Cambodia's first presidential election. Incomplete unofficial returns from the voting Sunday gave Marshal Lon Nol a smaller portion of the vote than had been predicted and a surprisingly large vote was going to a dark horse who campaigned for the return of the former chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk.

Bridges Bombed

SAIGON (AP) — Eight U.S. Air Force jets streaked to within 50 miles of the Chinese border Sunday and demolished two bridges on both the north and northeast rail lines linking to China that have not been hit and they would be attacked in the future, Hanoi's northwest.

Both bridges hit were about 85 miles northwest of Hanoi.

Meanwhile, a seventh aircraft carrier, the Thiconderoga, joined the 7th Fleet and will arrive off the coast of Vietnam within a week, U.S. military sources said.

The sources said the mission of the newest naval recruit for the Vietnam War is "to hunt and kill submarines."

Sec. Laird Makes Trip To The 'Hill'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird goes to Capitol Hill today in a prepared senate speech today.

Laird scheduled appearances before the Senate Appropriations subcommittee on foreign aid and the House defense appropriations subcommittee.

The Senate subcommittee is headed by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who asserted in advance that the Pentagon is using the summit-meeting accords signed in Moscow May 26 as an excuse to press new and expensive submarine and aircraft-weapons system.

"If the movers and shakers of the military-industrial complex have their way, the military aid and the House defense arms-limitation agreement (SALT) will be as fleeting as the peace dividend," Proxmire said in a prepared senate speech today.

Time To Discard Old Antipathies

Sometimes it is a chance remark that sheds light on a situation which has many ramifications and has been a drawback to the proper growth of an area, a profession or a political organization.

Unification of purpose within the county of Seminole is a matter which has been subject to the greatest amount of oratory, debate, controversy and study by both those who believe such an achievement is essential and those who have the gravest doubts.

Outside experts from the professional planners to those who study this county for the purpose of locating industries usually are amazed at the possibilities which exist.

Later they are dumfounded that the ones whose future is indeed at stake allow their personal ambitions, inherited convictions and local loyalties blur their vision and hamper their actions, when the goal is so clear.

Seminole county with its mushrooming population does, to be sure, have some peculiar problems. But none that are unique. Other counties in Florida and elsewhere have found that the encroachment of metropolitan interests has distorted the picture.

In our county this has been taken place with the city of Orlando and Orange county playing the big brother — and like most big brothers is glad to help the younger so long as it helps him.

Its own planning messed up to the point that Orlando's traffic and housing facilities can no longer handle the demand which it must be remembered, Orlando nurtured and fostered, the surge was north into the southern part of Seminole.

Over the most recent years, as improved state roads waded the magic wand over Casselberry, Altamonte Springs and Fern Park, that south section has been forced to do some hasty modernization.

Thus there has developed a division between the north of the county where Sanford sits as county seat and the southern section which has pains peculiar to itself. Leaders in both parts have been aware of this. Definable steps have been taken to bring these new and old interests together.

That they have not been entirely successful is a matter which is obvious but also presents some signs of being on the move.

The chance remark, which we are sure it must have been, was made by Gregg Drummond, chairman of the county commissioners, during a discussion of the problem of finding proper quarters for the enlarged court facilities needed to conform with the new Article V of the state constitution.

The beautiful new county courthouse in Sanford is now stumbling along to a belated completion. The commissioners are, quite properly concerned. Thus when the question of new quarters for court business came up it was in a very delicate atmosphere.

The whole matter of the legalizing of Sanford as the county seat, brought up and pushed by those of some living south of Lake Monroe, had cost millions of dollars in construction costs as

Business Office For Relaxation

By HAI, BOVIE. NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. business office used to be a place of work only. Today it has become pretty much the social center of American life.

As many a boss is aware, getting a job done is only a dim problem in the back of many a worker's head when he gets up in the morning and comes to his home away from home — the office.

In some ways he finds his office more relaxing than his home, because he has fewer responsibilities there and isn't annoyed by such intruding incoherence as a rowdy wife and noisy dillard children.

Millions of American working husbands and wives symbolically run away from home every day now. They go to the office.

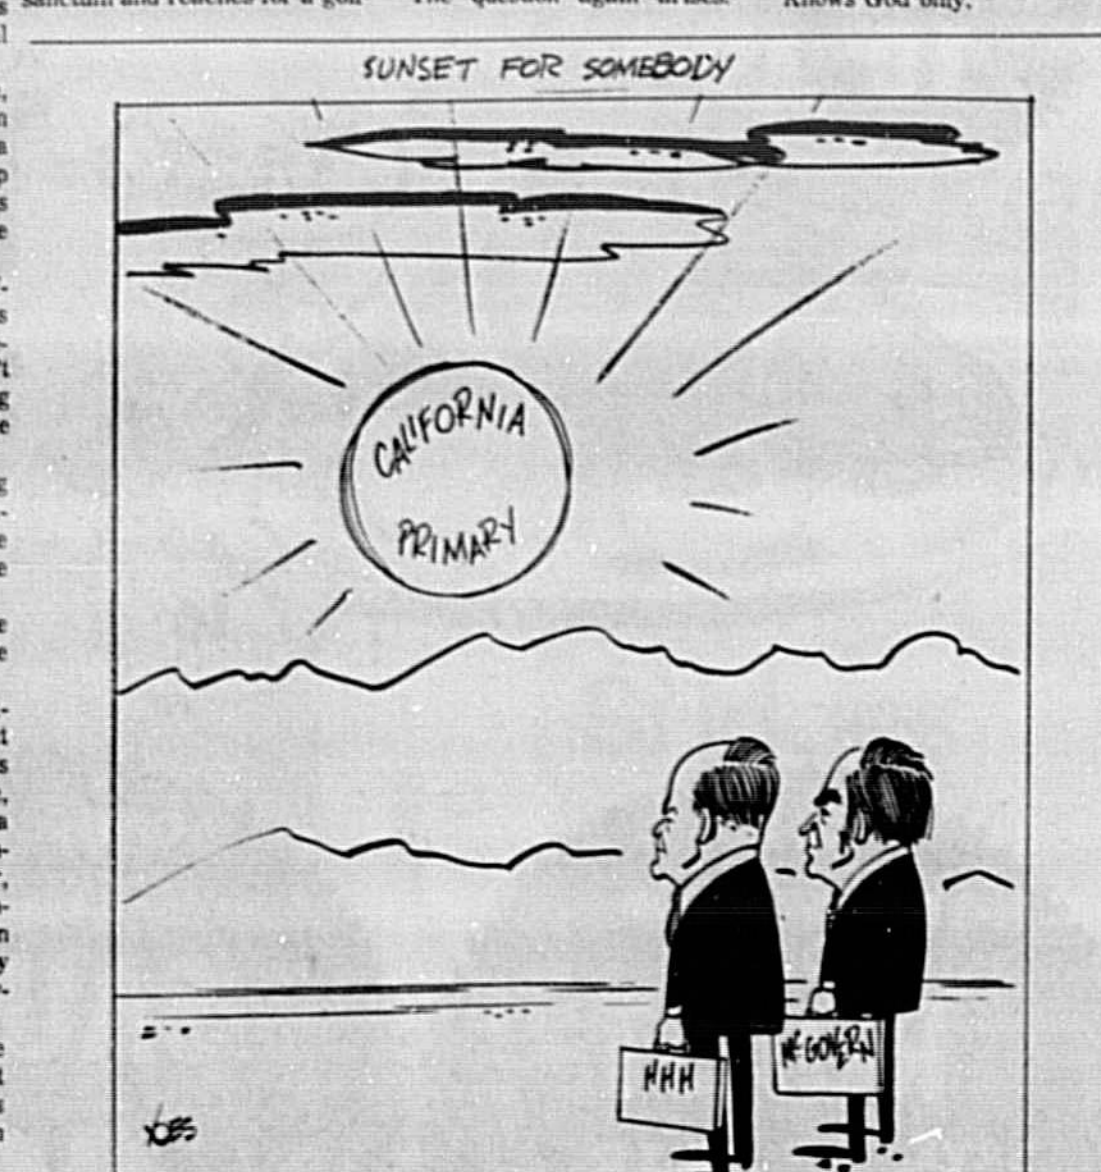

Why? Because that's where the real fun is. That's where life can be lived to the hilt.

A business office is still reckoned as a market place. But that is only one of the functions it served. It is also a rest home, a restaurant, a hospital, a recreation area, an entertainment complex, a beauty parlor, a barbershop, a church, a gymnasium, a forum, and a passion pit where there is more hanky panky going on than at the average drive-in theater.

And what is going on in the stockroom? Here modesty must draw a curtain where there is none. An orgy is an orgy.

"Doesn't anybody ever do anything around here?" groans the boss, after an inspection tour. He retreats to his own sanctum and reaches for a golf club. Where else can he get in the practice to keep his putting game in shape? The question again arises. Knows God only.

Economic Changes In Soviet Picture

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Nixon's visit could force important domestic changes in Russia.

The shifts may not come quickly, but to a degree they seem inevitable.

The Kremlin may find it necessary to divert more of its production into meat, better clothes, more housing and household appliances, automobiles.

And perhaps allow a bit more personal freedom — not much, but some.

That's the considered opinion of some knowledgeable men in the administration.

These Kremlin watchers are conjecturing of course. Their thinking is based on pressures already building up within Brezhnev's technical bureaucracy, and the expected weakening of the Soviet government's strongest argument for austerity and stringent security — the American "threat."

The pressures for a better deal for the consumer and more freedom have been growing steadily among the upper strata in Russia — the engineers, scientists, technicians, administrators and party functionaries whom Brezhnev depends for survival and for the success of his programs.

But the Soviet leaders have been able to scrimp on the consumer, emphasize military and basic industrial production and bear down with a heavy hand on dissent because they have been able to picture Russia as ringed with enemies, threatened on all sides — especially by the United States with its Minuteman missiles, Polaris submarines, long-range bombers and formidable aircraft carriers.

The Nixon visit won't make "the United States is threatening us" stance impossible but it certainly will be less creditable. And with the recent West German rally of the new detente with Russia the "threat" of Western Europe cannot be painted in the dark colors usual in Kremlin propaganda.

China remains. But is China as convincing a threat as the Western capitalist countries?

One may think credibility does not matter in a police state. It probably doesn't when speaking of the average Russian. But serious does matter when Brezhnev deals with that 3 to 4 percent — the experts, the technicians, the administrators — who run the machine. They could drive him out as Khrushchev was driven out. Analysts now believe economic failures were a major cause of Khrushchev's forced retirement.

The Soviet leaders will have other problems in keeping the lid down on the upper strata of Russian citizenry wants. If commerce between Russia and the United States is to be increased, if Americans are going to give Russians help in developing their industry, if there is to be a greater exchange of scientists, there will be more contacts with Americans and their free-wheeling ways.

Already, the meetings between Russian, American and other Western scientists seem to have had some slightly unsettling results within the upper levels of Soviet technical society. Not serious as yet, but bothersome to the Kremlin all the same.

What effect the Nixon visit will have on Soviet foreign policy is far less clear. Direct and indirect U.S. financial aid and trade could provide Moscow with a greater ability to supply Cuba, Egypt, North Vietnam and other client states. And with the United States limited, by agreement, the production of nuclear weapons, perhaps they will have more freedom to stir troubled waters, operating as usual through small ambitious nations.

These operations could perhaps be held in check if the United States decided to limit U.S.-Soviet cooperation to military restraint.

Education's Good Side: an Exposure

By DON OAKLEY

Hardly a month passes without the appearance of another book by another expert telling Americans what's wrong with their schools. Voter rejections of bond issues, student discontent and busting controversies are topics of the day.

For some people, most of whom have never taught a class, hard-mouthing schools has become a pastime. Isn't there anything good that can be said about America's system of education?

The National Education Association, which has more than a little stake in — and perhaps more than a little responsibility for — declining public confidence, thinks there is, and has issued a counterblast to the critics. Here are a few things it finds very right with our schools.

The sheer size alone of the nation's commitment to education is staggering. Nearly one-third of all Americans are engaged in education full-time as students, teachers or in some other capacity.

Instead of the development of an educational elite, this country has quite successfully championed the idea of education for all. Illiteracy declined from 11.3 per cent in 1900 to 1 per cent in 1969. In 1940, the level of formal education completed by persons 25 years old and over was 8.4 years. In 1970 it had risen to 12.2 years.

In 1920, the nation put only 3.1 per cent of its Gross National Product into education. It now expends 7.6 per cent of a vastly increased GNP.

Although the goal of equal educational opportunity for all is still far from realization, progress has been made in providing academic opportunities for minorities. Total black enrollment in higher education, for example, more than doubled in the 1960s. In 1970, a larger percentage of blacks was enrolled in higher education in America than were all races enrolled in higher education in Europe.

Well, now we have our lineup on the Democratic side of aspirants to the office of school superintendent. With former Middle School, Dan Pelham announcing, the total is currently three. Pelham joins Lyman principal, Carlton Henley, and Teege principal, William (Bud) Layer, in the three-way contest.

Then for school board, the first lady of Altamonte Springs, Missouri Belle Swafford, as we predicted in this column six months ago, has announced for the school board seat presently held by controversial Pat Bule.

Donna's Deliberations

By DONNA ESTES

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Blaming black militants, Communists and political foes for their current troubles, Lake County Sheriff Willis McCall said Sunday that he "popped" a black prisoner "on the head a couple of times," or he denied striking a fatal blow.

State Atty. Robert Eagan said McCall's televised comments amounted to an unethical attempt to stir public opinion while a grand jury probe was in progress.

McCall said Circuit Judge Troy W. Hall, who earlier this month ordered the investigation shifted here to Orange County, was trying to become the "political boss" of Lake County by "outing" McCall so someone else could become sheriff.

Judge Hall, acting under direction of Gov. Reubin Askew, signed an order May 19 releasing the inquiry concerning the death of a Miami man, Tommy J. Vickers, Jr., who had been jailed on a minor traffic charge. Vickers died Apr. 23 after being transferred from the Lake County Jail to a hospital. A coroner's inquest said Vickers died as the result of a blow to the stomach.

McCall, appearing as the guest on a weekly interview show on WDBO-TV, asserted that he did not know who might have struck the blow that killed the Miami man. "I popped him a couple of times on the back of the head. If I had meant to hurt him, I would have done more than that," the 62-year-old white sheriff said.

Besides Judge Hall, the sheriff said he thought the current grand jury probe on the Vickers matter was prompted by "militants of the NAACP" and "Communists."

McCall did not name anyone associated with either the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People or the Communist party.

He also said later that he did not mean to suggest that Judge Hall was a Communist. Askew decided to move the grand jury probe to Orange County because the investigation was becoming "impractical" to carry on in Lake County.

Seminole's 1972 Grid Team Unveiled

By GARY TAYLOR Herald Sports Editor

Fighting Seminoles was unveiled for a sneak preview Friday night at the annual Orange and Black Spring

Football game. The Black Team, going in as a slight underdog, pulled off an upset as they posted a 15-0 win.

For new head coach Jim Rogers, there were some pleasant surprises and some glaring weaknesses. One of the surprises came at the quarterback position.

Another time on a third and eight yards to go situation, Brown handed off to Mike Roeters who went around the end five yards for the touchdown.

With 53 seconds left to be played in the third period, Brown fired a pass to Anthony Bryant, covering about 44 yards for the touchdown.

Tommy Thompson of the Black team led all rushers with 68 yards. Roeters had 24 yards out but one big run called back on a penalty.

David Smith led the Orange team with 62 yards. Billy Jimenez had 28 yards, Carl 19 and Turner David 15.

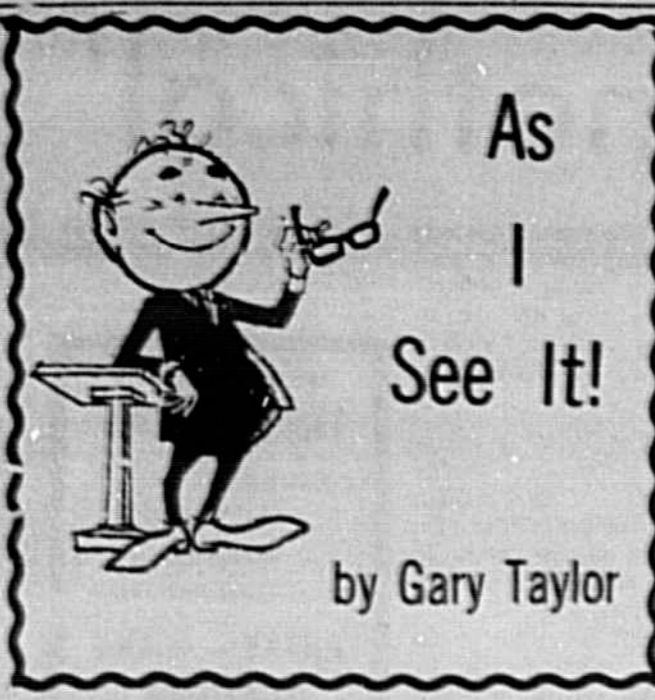

The Orange team was penalized 130 yards with one or two major penalties declined by the Black team.

Jimenez handled the punting for both teams. He punned seven times for an average of 34.5 yards per punt.

Marcus Daniels was named the "most outstanding lineman" of the game and Roeters was named the "most outstanding back."

There's going to be a new scoreboard at the Sanford Municipal Stadium. Hard to believe as it is, it's really true.

Remember the big hassle when WTRH wanted to broadcast the SHS football games last year and were turned down by Perring.

Rogers is going to try to promote the interest of the boosters club next season. He wants to set up meetings on the Tuesday night following each game and play back game films for boosters club members.

Alford Cleveland A Fellow To Watch Lyman's Blue Team Dominates Spring Tilt, 18-6

Lyman's first team offense (Blue team) showed about 1,000 fans why it is first unit as it scored twice in a 18-6 victory over the Golds in the Greyhound Spring grid battle which wound up spring drills.

The Blue team spotted the Golds a 6-0 lead early in the second period, but then dominated the action the rest of the evening.

At Sports Luncheon FTU's Dr. Rohter Steals Show

By HERKY CUSH Herald Sports Writer

It may not have been planned as such but Dr. Frank Rohter, Director of Athletics at Florida Technological University stole the show Friday at the University's second annual Interscholastic Sports Luncheon.

Dr. Rohter "saved the best for last" when just prior to the luncheon's end he announced FTU can now make formal application to become a member of the NCAA since it was adding a fourth major intercollegiate sport.

NCAA by-laws requires its members to have at least four intercollegiate sports and with Tech adding baseball next season the school will have four.

The other three sports, basketball, tennis and wrestling along with the basketball cheerleaders and Wrestlerettes were cited Friday for their contributions during the past year.

And while it was a happy occasion for the school there were at least two sad notes to the event. These were the announcements that assistant basketball coach Russ Salerno was leaving to enter business and assistant wrestling coach John Ellis was leaving to accept a high school wrestling position.

Receiving watches for their play on the basketball court this past season were Eddie Fluit, Zettie McCrimmon and Pete Haas.

Senior cager Mathis presented departing coach Salerno with a desk set. Mathis, who was a charter member of the FTU cage team, was described by his coach as "representing the image of basketball at FTU."

118,679 m.p.h., Unser's 109.139 m.p.h. 1971 Formula champion Joe Leonard fifth.

In other weekend auto races, Emerson Filippaldi of Brazil drove a Lotus to victory in the Belgium Grand Prix and took a solid grip on the 1972 world driving title.

MIl Minter led from start to finish to give Pontiac's Firebird a 1-2 victory in the Sports Car Club of America's TransAm series for sports sedans at the Mid-Ohio course near Lexington.

George Follmer, who had won the two previous Trans-Am events, was second in a Jaguar. Third place went to Warren Averil in a Camaro.

Pete Gregg drove a Datsun to victory in a race for 2.5-liter cars that preceded the Trans-Am.

David Hoops of England wheeled a Lotus to victory in both 2.5-mile heats of a race for SCCA Formula 5,000 machines at Edmonton, Alberta.

Allison, surely one of the best race drivers in America, started his Chevrolet on second place at Dover and during the grueling 500 laps exchanged the lead with chief rival Petty 11 times.

Near the end, however, the transmission started failing in Petty's Plymouth and Allison was able to put a full lap of the one-mile oval between himself and stock car racing's only $1 million winner.

Third place went to LeeFoy Yarborough in a Ford, fourth to Hurlisher Jackie Oliver in a Mercury and fifth to John Sears in a Plymouth.

The latter three were at least 13 miles behind the two leaders.

Allison drove a Chevrolet to victory by more than a mile over superstar Richard Petty in the Mason-Dixon 500-mile stock car race at Dover, Del. It was Allison's 37th start in a race car this season and his 11th triumph, four of them major ones.

User, who like Allison is 37 years old, best Indianapolis champion Mark Donohue captured the finish line by four seconds to capture the Rex Mays 150 for United States Auto Club championship cars at Milwaukee.

Allison's average speed was 118,679 m.p.h., Unser's 109.139 m.p.h. 1971 Formula champion Joe Leonard fifth.

Good Times, Bad Times For Chicago's Hundley

By BRUCE LOWITT Associated Press Sports Writer

It was the best of times for Chicago's Handy Hundley, and the worst of times, too. He broke San Diego's back—and one of his outs. And he broke the back of a Cubs rally—and had a bat of his own broken in a return.

The Chicago catcher, struggling to get his batting average back up to respectability and give second-string backstop Ken Hubert a permanent seat on the bench, swatted his first home run in nearly a year and a half Sunday.

It couldn't have come at a better time because it broke a tie and sent the Cubs on the way to a 3-1 victory over the Padres.

Then, in the ninth inning, he slammed a hot grounder at shortstop Rafael Robles. And it couldn't have come at a worse time because Robles converted it into a triple play.

In other National League games, Pittsburgh swept a pair from San Francisco, 4-3 and 9-1. Atlanta dumped the New York Mets 9-3. St. Louis defeated Los Angeles 4-0. Cincinnati stopped Philadelphia 2-0 and Houston whipped Montreal 5-0.

"I was just trying to hit the ball," Hundley said of the Bill Grett pitch that wound up in the left field stands.

Hundley, all out sidelined by knee problems, is batting .100 meager .198 with just 11 runs batted in.

"To show you how things are going for me," he said of the triple play, "the third baseman is charging in, expecting a punt, and the shortstop is supposed to break to cover third. But he didn't move and I hit the ball right at him." Robles snared it, tagged Carmen Franzone as he ran or, then threw loose-ender a force on Jose Cardenal and Derrel Thomas wheeled and fired to first to retire Hundley.

Early in the game, Thomas hit a Ferguson Jenkins pitch, then let go of his bat, which struck Hundley in the knee. "I took his bat and hit the ground with it and it broke. I didn't mean to do it."

Later, Hundley zanted and was tossed out by Fred Kendall. Then the San Diego catcher, on instructions from Manager Don Zimmer, broke Hundley's bat.

The Pirates, winning their sixth game in the last eight, slashed the Mets' East Division lead to 3½ games. The Cubs, who have won seven of nine, are six games off the pace.

O's Get Nothing But O's In Losing Twice To A's

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

They don't call the Baltimore Orioles the O's for nothing; they got 18 of them Sunday.

You know—zeroes, goose eggs, O's. The Orioles got nine of them—000 000 000—in the first game of Sunday's doubleheader against Oakland and nine more—000 000 000—in the nightcap.

The A's got 18 O's themselves and had the presence of mind to score twice in the first inning of each game en route to a 2-0, 2-0 sweep of the beleaguered Orioles. The double defeat dropped Baltimore's three-inning American League champs into third place in the East Division, three games behind Detroit and one percentage point in back of Cleveland.

Elsewhere, the Tigers blanked Minnesota 3-0, the Indians turned back California 6-1, the Chicago White Sox took a pair from the New York Yankees 6-1 and 5-4, Boston defeated Kansas City 4-0 after dropping the opener 7-5 and Texas ousted Milwaukee 10-0.

Baltimore has played 41 games and has managed to win only 21. One of the reasons is such feeble batting averages as Elie Hendricks' .114, Boog Powell's .106, Mark Belanger's .109, Andy Etcheberry's .108, Don Buford's .203, Brooks Robinson's .236, Paul Blair's .246 and Dave Johnson's .248.

Calif. Hunter squelched the Orioles on two hits in the opener while rookie Dave Hamilton, Rollie Fingers and Darold Knowles combined for the shutout in the nightcap. Sal Bando's two-run homer off Mike Cuellar decided the first game and the A's touched Doyle Alexander in the first inning of the nightcap on a walk, singles by Joe Rudi and Reggie Jackson and Bando's double play grounder.

Detroit's Tom Timmerman blanked the Twins on four hits and Mickey Stanley broke up a scoreless duel with two-run homer in the seventh off Bert Blyleven, only the second hit off dropping the opener 7-5 and Texas ousted Milwaukee 10-0. The Indians piled up a sixrun lead against the Angels with Alex Johnson homering and pitcher Mill Wilcox socking a two-run double, but had to hold on to win. Leroy Stanton homered for the Red Sox.

Texas kayped Milwaukee's Skip Lockwood, who pitched a one-hitter his last time out, with six runs in the first inning and Rich Hand, Mike Paul and Heracio Pina tamed the Brewers on six hits.

John Curtis pitched the Red Sox to victory in their second game with a seven-inning shutout. Paul Schaal's grand slam home run capped a five-run rally that enabled the Royals to win the opener. Tommy Harper homered for the Red Sox.

Dick Allen smashed a dramatic three-run pinch homer off Sparky Lyle, the Yankees' ace reliever, in the ninth inning to lift the White Sox to their sweep before a crowd of 51,904.

Mike Andrews and Carlos Marz delivered two-run singles off Mel Stottlemyre in the opener and Bill Melton homered. Ron Blumberg connected for the Yanks.

John Curtis pitched the Red Sox to victory in their second game with a seven-inning shutout. Paul Schaal's grand slam home run capped a five-run rally that enabled the Royals to win the opener. Tommy Harper homered for the Red Sox.

By HERKY CUSH
Herald Sports Writer

Bruce Rose grabbed the top award at the Lyman High School Athletic Awards Night Saturday evening and the decision met with a roar of approval from his classmates, teammates and faculty who gave the senior football and basketball a standing ovation.

The presentation to Rose climaxed a tremendous evening of awards given to Lyman's top athletes in tennis, swimming, cross country, track, wrestling, baseball, basketball, golf, football as well as the cheerleaders.

Football coach Dick Copeland made the announcement and presentation to Rose and nothing could have been more appropriate. Rose played the quarterback position for Copeland three years running.

Prior to making the presentation Copeland told a story concerning Rose's first game in a Lyman uniform. It came in the Tangerine Bowl against a Meigs Conference foe. Rose, a somewhat jittery sophomore, asked for assistance in play calling. This brought a track from one of his teammates to the effect that "just what we need is a quarterback who doesn't know the plays."

That may have been his start but it certainly wasn't the finish as Rose was a standout performer for three straight years and was certainly deserving of the praise and the honor presented him Saturday night.

Clay Cook was named the first place finisher in the voting for the Lyman Athletic Booster Scholastic Award. Terry Travis was second and Craig Deas was third. In order to be considered for this award an athlete had to take part in two or more sports.

Steve Wade, defensive halfback with the Alabama Crimson Tide this past season was the guest speaker. Wade brought films of the highlights of the 1971 Alabama football season.

Among those receiving award Saturday night were:

Bucky Copeland was named most valuable boy tennis player by his coach, David Haines.

Adrian S. Williams, Toni Swartout presented Kathy Stroup with the same award for the girls team.

In swimming Chuck Howarth was named most valuable diver. Lee Ringling was the most improved tapper, Karlens Crowell was most valuable girl and Rich Hartman was most valuable boy. In addition coach Skip Foster presented an award to this year's boys team captain, Gary Boynton. Trophies

Sanders Alive And Proves It

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — There was just a trace of a smile around the lips as Doug Sanders announced in obvious but restrained delight: "I've proved I can still play. And I've proved I can still win. You can't imagine what a wonderful feeling it is."

The dapper guy had just scored a dramatic, one-stroke victory over Lee Trevino with a long putt on the final hole of the $175,000 Kemper Open Sunday, confounding the critics who had written his golfing outbursts scores of times.

He'd been derided for his admitted playoff attitude toward late hours and liquor. Purists said his unorthodox, outswing would fall him with his advancing years. He lost his exempt status when he failed to play well enough to make the top 60 money winners last season. He hadn't won in two years.

His 19th career victory, worth $35,000 and a congratulatory telephone call from sometimes playing partner Vice President Spiro Agnew, solved it all.

"When that putt dropped, it was like a blessing, sort of," said Sanders. "I don't know how long it was. Some people say 40 feet. Some say 20, but I think it broke that much."

His winning birdie on the 72nd hole, before a huge gallery of some 23,000 banking in the bright, warm sunshine and sweating out one of the most exciting finishes of the year on the pro tour, gave the 38-year-old

Jury Frees Angela Davis

By EDITH LEDERER
Associated Press Writer

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — The jurors who acquitted Angela Davis on murder-charge Sunday afternoon after a week of deliberations, the forewoman said.

Mary Timothy revealed the lack of discord while attending a festive party celebrating Sunday's verdict. A Mexican-American on the jury said he related to defense arguments about the persecution of blacks.

Another source said the all-white jury voted at least three times before handing in its verdict. On the first ballot, taken Friday afternoon shortly after they began deliberating, the jurors voted nine for acquittal and three undecided. There were no votes for conviction during the balloting, the source said.

Hysterical sobs of joy intermingled with shrieks of happiness in the courtroom when the verdict was returned.

Miss Davis wept quietly, tears streaming down her cheeks.

She was found innocent of engineering the bloody Aug. 7, 1970, Marin County courthouse escape attempt in which a judge, two convicts and their accomplices were slain. She had spent 16 months in jail before she was freed on $102,500 bail five days before the trial began Feb. 28.

The tall, black Communist bugged and kissed members of the seven-woman, five-man jury when they met for the first time at a news conference shortly after the verdict was announced.

"This is the happiest day of my life," she told a crowd of 300 supporters outside the courthouse who had been chanting: "The power of the people-it set Angela free."

The jubilant Miss Davis declared the acquittal "a people's victory"—not a triumph for American justice.

At a private post-verdict party, the lone Mexican-American on the jury, Louis Franco, told attorneys he was moved by the defense's final arguments.

Humphrey, McGovern Disagree

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern disagree on the best way to get U.S. prisoners released by North Vietnam. Humphrey wants President Nixon to send a special emissary to Hanoi, while McGovern says only a total U.S. withdrawal could get them out.

The POW issue, and Humphrey's contention—quickly denied—that McGovern's proposal for sharp defense spending cuts could leave Israel defenseless, were the chief points of disagreement Sunday as the two top presidential contenders met for their third televised confrontation.

As a result of a weekend court order, they were joined on the hour-long ABC program "Issues and Answers" by Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty, New York Rep. Shirley Chisholm and Maj. Gen. Taylor Hardin, representing Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace.

That prompted Humphrey, trailing in several polls in Tuesday's California primary showdown, to suggest that he and McGovern lay time Monday night for a fourth meeting that would be a true debate between them, rather than a question-and-answer session with newsmen.

McGovern said he was willing to do it if his schedule permitted, then issued a Monday schedule that includes a visit to New Mexico, where a primary is also being held Tuesday, and calls for a late-night return to Los Angeles.

He also suggested the debate could be held before the June 20 New York primary.

In suggesting that a special emissary to Hanoi might settle the POW question, Humphrey said that President Nixon could send John B. Connally, the Texas Democrat who resigned as Nixon's secretary of the Treasury. McGovern said he doubted if "John Connally, who's been one of the foremost supporters of our involvement, is the right man to get us out."

Meanwhile, Humphrey's campaign chairman, Jack Chestnut, charged that McGovern has exceeded the $400,333 radio-television spending ceiling for the California primary and has spent $507,391.76. McGovern said the listing had mistakes in it, and that his total is $456,000.

The 21 California delegates that will go to the winner of Tuesday's primary are the day's big prize.

Must Leave ABA

NEW YORK (AP) — In an attempt to solidify its league, the American Basketball Association is seeking new sites for its financially troubled Pittsburgh and Miami franchises.

New York Nets President Roy Boe announced Sunday.

Boe said the ABA is considering Chicago, St. Louis, Anaheim, Connecticut and Upper New York State as possible new locations for the two teams.

Boe and Ted Munchak, owner of the Carolina Cougars, have formed a two-man committee to screen and interview applicants to replace ABA Commissioner Jack Dolph, who announced his resignation last week.

Boe said they will present their choices at the ABA Board of Trustees meeting here June 10.

Lack of funeral is no cause to mourn

By Abigail Van Buren
75 W. 11th Street, New York, N.Y. 10036

DEAR ABBY: Recently a dear friend passed away, having requested no funeral services whatsoever. She did this in order to spare the family and friends the stress of a funeral. To me that was the height of unselfishness, and an expression of real love.

Funeral services may be a comfort to some, but the full treatment usually makes the final farewells far more painful than comforting. Any method of reducing such pain is a gift of love to those left behind, and the one who plans ahead in this way is to be commended. NO MORE FUNERALS.

DEAR NO: I have been privileged to know only one such unselfish person. She was a beautiful newspaper woman, and her name was Maggie Savvy.

DEAR ABBY: I agree wholeheartedly with the person who wants no funeral. I have arranged for a private church service before the notice is sent to the paper. Life has been good to me, and my wonderful friends need not take time out to attend my funeral. I would rather have them go about their business and think kindly of me.

I never sent flowers to a funeral. I donate a book to the library instead. But let me think I am depriving the florists of business, be assured that I am a steady customer because I believe in giving flowers to the living.

J. N. N.: OKLAHOMA CITY

DEAR ABBY: This is for M. M. B. of Greenwood, S. C., who says that she is not going to attend her own funeral.

Well, I am sorry to inform you, but this is impossible. If there is one thing in life we cannot get out of, it's attending our own funeral. Even if the body could be taken out to the city dump and burned, it is still a funeral.

I agree, grief is no fun, and no one goes looking for it, but death is a fact of life, and it is to be met under the rug if decidedly unhealthily.

To deny our loved ones the opportunity to pay their last respects at our funeral shows a lack of consideration for them.

When someone you loves leave town, do you go to the airport to bid him a fond farewell? Or do you call on the telephone and leave a message?

THE REV. J. P. G. IN CLEVELAND

DEAR ABBY: Mrs. M. M. B. of Greenwood, S. C., indicated that she would like to hear from others relative to her ideas on her funeral. I wonder if she has ever thought of the gift of sight to two blind persons by her donating her eyes. The gift of health and even life to two persons who need a kidney each; the gift of normal growth to doomed children who are in need of serum from the pituitary glands of donors.

It is possible for anyone to perform such miracles after death by getting in touch with the local eye bank or Lion's Club, the National Kidney Foundation, 116 E. 27th St., New York, N. Y. 10016, the Human Growth Foundation, 307 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y. 10017.

ICARROLL RIGHTER'S HOROSCOPE
from the Carroll Righter Institute
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Whatever long-range plans you have in mind can now be tackled successfully by a fresh new approach. Do not take unnecessary risks and chances. Show those of experience that you are willing to go along with their viewpoints and sidestep any arguments.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you talk over with others what you most desire, you get very fine advice and suggestions. You can make that appointment now that has been impossible to do before. Keep busy and keep happy.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) If you give that financial matter your full attention, you find you can be very successful with it. You have some new ideas that require time before trying to put it across. Study thoroughly first.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Projects of future importance should be studied well. Try to get the assistance of a good pal so they mature faster. Making new contacts is easy if you please old friends now, also. Do this.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you follow through with what happens expect, you get along well. Do not take that big risk as an associate partner of you. Handle any credit matter satisfactorily. Show your conscientiousness.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can easily gain the goodwill of one who has the information that is vital to your welfare, so get busy early on this. If you are forgetful with co-workers, you find you can get into trouble. Avoid this.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have obligations to fulfill and should do so with the help of experts who give you good advice and help. Don't go along with one who is frivolous and could get you into a peck of trouble. Show you have willpower.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A good friend from afar has a fine project for you to work on wisely, but if you attempt to go along with someone else, which is not good. Get busy and make plans for expansion. Take it easy tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Plan how to meet responsibilities better in the future and clear the slate for bigger things. A good day to think over that situation with an attachment. Do whatever you believe is best.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You want to go out for pleasure but be sure to include an associate for best results. Not a good day to dwell on the monetary side of your life. Await a better day for such and then you will have good results.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Get on the good side of a clever person within your family circle and don't force your own views on anyone. Keep them to yourself. Buy the rights articles for your home that improve it considerably.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Instead of fretting about what you cannot help, get out to activities which produce tremendous energy which is to be controlled. The spiritual studies are most important early, too.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel" What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

POLLY'S POINTERS

When Fancy Ties Go Some Footwear Useless

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—My Pet Peeve is with shoe manufacturers who make shoes with fancy ties, often odd lengths, but do not provide the stores with extra ties. These shoes are usually so vital to the good looks of the shoe that when they lack the shoes have lost their style—NANCY.

DEAR POLLY—I want to thank you for the many helpful hints I have found in the column and then used to make my life easier.

I want to tell Irene who complained about changing typewriter ribbons that I use a pair of disposable rubber surgical gloves when changing my ribbon and then wash the gloves in my hands with full strength dish detergent.

ALMA

DEAR POLLY—As I do secretarial work Irene's complaint about changing typewriter ribbons being such a messy job caught my eye. Irene must be using an obsolete typewriter because I change my ribbon quite frequently and do not mind a bit. Mine has the ribbon in a cartridge so all to be done is to turn the knob and slip the new one on and with no mess and it is done in a couple of minutes. Irene, the inventors really have been at work—CAROL.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—I have a new sweater made of 100 per cent virgin acrylic fibers (Japan) that has a strong odor, remembering that of a wet dog that has just had a bath. I have washed it in that well-known cold water solution for wool and the odor was very strong while the sweater was wet and remained after it was dry.

My suggestions will be gratefully received—NADINE

DEAR POLLY—My husband is in the construction business and has to meet the public daily so he does not like to wear patched jeans. When his pants show the first sign of wear I cut a patch from the back part of the leg of a wornout pair and sew it inside the front leg. When the patched pair wears out I feel I have really gotten my husband's worth. A dollar saved is like four or five bucks earned—MRS. R. K.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "Some apparently simple hands offer a choice of plays right at the start. Sometimes all will work one time and all will fail. When only one will work, it is important to choose it."

Jim: "Here is a case in point. West makes his normal lead of the jack of spades. The four-spot is played from dummy and East drops the deuce. South makes a decision."

Oswald: "If spades are 6-1 he is not likely to make the hand so the first thing South does is to ignore that possibility. This leaves him two lines of play. The first is to go right after 17-10-4. If East holds the ace of clubs nothing is going to hurt South. If West holds the ace

Ideal Woman? Well, Try This
 By BETTY CANARY

While talking with a psychologist I learned that the ideal woman is one who has developed her own potential without losing that elusive quality called femininity.

This is the way I interpret it, the same description of an ideal woman in my grandmother's era.

Today's woman, Tim told, realizes she has wide horizons after the children go off to school.

Today's woman "uses all the modern conveniences at her disposal in order to prepare delectable, nutritious meals for her family in less time, putting the finishing touches to a gourmet dinner while already attired in a party gown." (She's still cooking only now she's not supposed to look or smell like it.)

She is as "intellectually alive as her husband but wants to complement him, not compete with him" (If she's smart, she acts as if she has just enough brains to understand what he's saying.)

The "fulfilled woman" is adept at "holding an outside job in order to supplement her husband's income and provide a better life style for the family" (I see! Now she's holding down two jobs while he's home.)

She is "no longer glibly enough to believe that looking like a movie star is a prime requisite of a happy life" (Terrific! Now, if only her husband will stop telling her to fix her hair like Angel Dickinson's.)

Actually, it's difficult remembering the whole list of attributes of an ideal 1970s woman. Just remember what your mother gushes you. Say "Yes" to "love" and "no" to everything else.

She is as "intellectually alive as her husband but wants to complement him, not compete with him" (If she's smart, she acts as if she has just enough brains to understand what he's saying.)

Highlights TV Time Previews

8-8 CBS, Gunsmoke (Huron) "The Witness." A vicious young gangster terrorizes Dodge City residents. Two of the local citizens are too frightened to testify after seeing the young rough guy commit a crime, and tell Dillon that they aren't sure of what they saw.

8-9 NBC, Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In (Huron) Sandy Duncan guest stars tonight, spoofing the bank commercial which first brought her to mass-audience attention. Cameo guests include county singer Johnny Cash, Paul Lynde and Terry-Thomas. Sandy, who returns to a CBS series next season, sings and dances tonight.

8-9 ABC, The Monty Hall Show (Huron) "Fire Brigade." Among the little concessions from ABC to keep him going on his "Let's Make a Deal" grind, Monty Hall gets to star in a number of network specials. In this first one, in which Monty makes his TV singing debut, he tours California to visit places of special, and heretofore confined, interest. Along with Cass Elliot, the Mike Curk Congregation, Solomon Burke and chorus (who do the singing and dancing) Monty visits a Japanese village, block party in Westlake, a rodeo in Turlock, a beach party (Annette Funicello and Patino make cameo appearances) and a Mexican fiesta. It's light and gay.

8-9-30 CBS, Here's Lucy (Huron) Charlie Chan's favorite No. 1 son, Key Luke, becomes Lucy's No. 1 son by ancient custom. Chinese tradition says, "If save one's life, become responsible for person rest of life." Lucy saves the life of her laundryman (Key Luke) and he insists she become his foster parent, or incur the wrath of 4,000 ancestors.

9-11 NBC, World Premier (Huron) "Desperate Mission" a film dealing with California's legendary Robin Hood-type outlaw Joaquin Murietta. Ricardo Montalban plays Murietta, who runs into trouble while shifting ally around California. He's duped into thing he's been hired legitimately to escort the wife (Balin) of a wealthy rancher to San Francisco, then finds himself involved instead.

10-11 CBS, The Sonny & Cher Show (Huron) Arl Carney guests as most of the show is devoted to a spoof of contemporary politics. Among other things, Carney plays the president, and he also is featured in a satire on the changing Army from World War I to today. In their big bit, Sonny and Cher play a down-on-their-luck couple trying to decide whether it's the right time to raise a family.

9-30 CBS, The Doris Day Show (Huron) Doris gets the assignment of a lifetime. An imprisoned mob boss agrees to an interview, and magazine editor Cy Bennett gets jittery, suspecting he has a leak in his organization that would ruin Doris's exclusive killing all about the syndicate. While he's fuming, Doris and the mob boss are in the cell discussing beagle hounds.

About the Angela Davis trial... I can't help but believe that were I in her shoes, after hearing the acquittal verdict, I would have been most appreciative of all Americans who helped foot the bill for that trial, and thanked them from the bottom of my heart.

For the record... with what little facts each and everyone of us has had presented to us concerning the 48-13 year-round school plan, I am of the opinion that it would be good for us.

Either the folks out on the West Coast are awfully dumb in economics, or else we're that smart... OR ELSE, it's not as much a tax-saver as we had been led to believe. Somebody's goofed.

Nothing in life is to be feared. It is only to be understood.—Marie Curie

Casselberry Irons Out 'Bugs' In Condemnation Ordinance

By DONNA ESTES
CASSELBERRY — The "bugs" in a proposed condemnation ordinance were ironed out by the City Council last night during work session with official action to follow next week.

Expected to be a routine matter, the proposed law took on the color of creating an invasion of privacy in violation of the Constitution as two members of the board, Councilman Harry Samurok and John Zacco fought successfully to have the ordinance section changed.

Zacco and Samurok both took exception to the section which would have permitted the city fire chief or building inspector, in their words, to inspect for safety or sanitary hazards any home anytime, day or night, they wished.

The changed ordinance to be authorized and prepared at next week's meeting require that prostrate cause be present in single-family, duplex or apartment dwellings before an inspection can be called. At the same time, all other buildings in the city can be inspected periodically without prostrate cause.

City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh said in 999 cases out of 1,000 homeowners would be willing to allow inspections, not both members of the board objected. "The ordinance would give the fire chief the right to go in any house anytime he pleases... and I'm against that," Samurok said. Zacco said, "I do not particularly want a city inspector or fire chief to come into my house as anyone and I do not think the people of Casselberry would either."

In other work session discussion, Councilman was notified by City Engineer B. C. Conklin that specifications and cost estimates for paving Melody Lane and work on Ivy Lane will be available at the next Council meeting.

Instructed McIntosh to appear before the County Commission to ask that the proposed purchase of the Indian Hills Utility Company by the City of Maitland be denied in order that Casselberry might negotiate for the purchase.

Agreed to amend the city's utility tax ordinance to tax fuel oil as a competitive industry and to consider raising cost of building permit fees in line with proposed hikes contemplated by the county.

Impending Suit Is Noted Docks Issue 'Sunk' Again

By BILL SCOTT
Restoration of Sanford's sunken lakefront docks may be delayed indefinitely until legal problems involving the acquisition of new concrete units are resolved. This was divulged by Sanford city manager W. E. Knowles at a Monday afternoon commission work session.

The docks, which are city-owned, are, under lease to a private operator, who, according to the city manager, is indicating a suit may be brought against Coia, former marina operator, to identify them since the units are not installed.

In a court decision early this year involving City of Sanford and Monroe Harours Inc., former docks operator owned by Coia, Judge Dominick Saffi ruled that city must oust a creek-water in the western dock area where the units sank 18 months ago and Coia was to replace the docks.

City has outl the creekwater as ordered, out the docks are not yet in place.

Richard W. Blount, contractor for the dock restoration, in a June 3 letter to the city manager stated his equipment was idle pending a decision from the owner (city) regarding who is responsible for payment of the so-called out-let assemblies.

Blount reported he is expected $600 per day lay time effective June 5 until this situation is resolved.

Knowles in a reply to Blount stated "If you are not a work on project for the contract price, the bonding company will be notified to complete the project." Knowles told the city commission new docks are not being manufactured by the Jacksonville supplier "therefore they want us to use some of their stock units."

Multi-Million $$ Motel Is Coming

A $4.5 million Quality Courts Motel complex with an adjacent national chain restaurant to be located on French Avenue and Seminole Boulevard along the Sanford lakefront was revealed Monday afternoon by a Sanford real estate broker reporting on plans by his group to develop a 14-acre former zoo site adjacent to The Sanford Herald into a joint motel-garden apartments venture.

Ernest Southward, appeared with William Kirk, two of four Sanford men involved in the development of the property, which was purchased from the City of Sanford for $125,000.

Southward further disclosed the motel would consist of five-stories, with 150 rooms, a rooftop lounge, covered swimming pool and an independently operated restaurant, seating minimum 250 persons. The broker stated the motel would be a "joint venture" with the motel people.

"All of this is in phase-one of our plan and will utilize the north eastern five acres on the curve of French Avenue where it joins 17-92" Southward said.

He disclosed construction would probably begin by Jan. 1 with completion sometime in the Summer of 1973.

A preliminary plan of the motel was shown to city commissioners, which outlined the artist concept making it identical to a motel Southward said was now being built at Fort Meyers.

Parking Law Loop-Holes Are Closed

By DONNA ESTES
CASSELBERRY — A loop-hole in the city's laws concerning improper parking is to be closed by the City Council in a series of steps to begin at next week's official Council meeting, according to unanimous decision of the board last night.

On recommendation of Mayor Curtis Blow, the board in work session, agreed to place the matter on the agenda next Monday night with ultimate action to be adoption of an ordinance permitting vehicles parked in violation of the law to be cited. Currently the law requires that drivers of the offending cars be ticketed rather than the vehicles themselves.

Specific problem area noted is in the Seminole Plaza fire lanes. The mayor said the amendment would take care of the entire city. He pointed to the problem now where driver can leave an illegally parked car and cannot be cited until he returns to the vehicle.

Blow also made it clear that the responsibility for stripping and marking the fire lanes belongs to the owners of the plaza and that present signs are not doing the job.

Fire Chief Roger Rasooli said the city had a problem getting the plaza to log the signs they did and there was a "lot of foot-dragging" before it was accomplished. He added, however, the problem with illegal parking in fire lanes in the plaza is not solely the fault of the signs. "In some instances the citizens are choosing to ignore them," he said.

In other business at the regular meeting, Councilman T. Taol awarded a bid for the new maintenance building and modification of the existing building at the Secret Lake park into a recreation facility pending check to determine that the bids comply with specifications. Apparent low bidder was American Steel Buildings of Sanford at $18,300.

Accepted the bid of $35 from O. R. Anderson on a surplus city lawn mower.

Adopted on second reading on a three-to-two vote, with Councilman John Zacco and John Lightly voting nay, an ordinance annexing 2.2 acres south of Seminole Boulevard with the designation of apartment zoning. This tract combined with an adjacent 3 acres to be used for construction of an apartment complex of the May Company, owners of Foxcroft.

Accepted the resignation with regret of Robert E. Lowe from the zoning board.

Accepted the aid of Ronald W. Novy of Altamonte Springs in the amount of $25 for a 1971 police car, which is considered city surplus.
