

New York Giants Are Still Leading National League Teams To Upset Early Dope

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.

John McGraw and his New York Giants, once morose and quieting out to upset the baseball dope. The Giants suffered severely from bad spring training weather and seemed destined for a 4-14 early listing. Whereupon they stepped to the front by winning seven consecutive games and now are the only undefeated team in either major league.

The Giants have shown every thing a club needs to win a pennant. The first three games were close, but effective pitching and fine fielding gave them the edge. Then they started hitting and still retained the other points of advantage. Four Giant pitchers have gone the full distance in the seven games, while the other three could easily have lasted.

The Brooklyn Robins became the seventh victim of the giants yesterday as the New Yorkers hauled in the deliveries of Bill Clark on Johnny Morrison's two hits, added two which produced a 10-to-1 score. Andy Roselli added to the touch to the triumph by hitting a home run with the bases full in the ninth inning. Fred Fitzsimmons was effective except when Wrigley and Herman got to him for home runs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, who threatened to Giant supremacy in the National League, continued their brilliant progress by defeating the champion Chicago Cubs, 6-2, for their seventh victory. Pittsburgh, so far, has lost but one of nine. The Peashooters, Bush and his four successors yesterday, try 17 hits that also kept up bases while French and Swartout kept a dozen Cub bats effectively scattered.

The Boston Braves, likewise, threat to Giant supremacy in the National League, continued their brilliant progress by defeating the champion Chicago Cubs, 6-2, for their seventh victory. Pittsburgh, so far, has lost but one of nine. The Peashooters, Bush and his four successors yesterday, try 17 hits that also kept up bases while French and Swartout kept a dozen Cub bats effectively scattered.

The St. Louis Cardinals, now their best effort, overcame them with seven walks to beat Cincinnati, 10-to-5. W. K. Whisenant, managing Secretary, continued to strengthen their hold on the top of the American League ladder by defeating the world champion Philadelphia Athletics for the third time in succession, 11-to-6. The champions were beaten in the running after the first winning as the visitors drove Washington from the board and carried hitting against Phoenix.

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns followed suit and won when the Cards fought back the two-and-a-half games, 8-to-5, 10-to-8. A victory which had stood for the last was not being seriously threatened in this game by Clancy. With two outs.

The Detroit Tigers broke their streak of seven games' victory by hampering W. E. Keeler of Cleveland for five innings, the first, in one and taking the last game of the series from the Indians, 7-to-1. Nineteen-year-old Boston Red Sox played well in the first, although the game was won at the last minute in the ninth inning, and the Sox went to Florida over the New York Yankees.

Local Stamp Club To Display Exhibit In Window Of Store

Members of the local club will display exhibits drawn from their collections in the windows of the department store occupied by the McKinnon-McClelland Company, First Street, Wednesday and Thursday, 8: Major anniversary today. The purpose of this exhibit, Mr. Mason pointed out, is to introduce people to the hobby of philately and give the club members' taste experience in the arrangement and display of postage stamps.

The East Stamp Company, which has headquarters in the First National Bank building, has also agreed to assist in making the exhibit a success by offering a special display of first day flight covers, according to Mr. Mason, who said that the exhibit may be composed of three types: first day covers, United States foreign stamps on covers or United States or foreign stamps off covers.

Members of the Stamp Club may make from one to ten entries in the exhibit covering one of the foregoing subjects. The sponsor received but one may be taken to the office of Mr. Mason on West First Street no later than Wednesday morning. Both covers and stamp-off cover must be mounted on standard size sheet of paper, 8 x 11, may be mounted on picture frames if desired. He may be shown to the judges for ratification.

CUBS SHOW NEED FOR HORNSBY TO HIT OLD STRIDE

League Champs Handicapped By Numerous Injuries This Season

By Paul Mirkland

CHICAGO, April 28.—(AP)—The first two weeks hardly can be taken seriously in a major league baseball campaign, but this year they have definitely established the fact that Jim McGraw's cubs will have to recover quickly and do some great hustling if they are to repeat their amazing in-game championships.

Injuries have joined the team from the start and the end is still far from sight. Rogers Hornsby is still lame from the sprained ankle in his right foot and his batting punch may be missing from the team for a month and possibly the rest of the season despite the cheerful reports of examining physicians.

Lester Bell, a big righthanded pitcher in the attempt to plug up the weak third best position, is suffering from a lame arm and, too, may not get in any more games than the "Rags." Added to that, the pitching staff is far from ready and the big block of promising rookies, unchanged in numbers, bolstered the pitching staff is not so promising now.

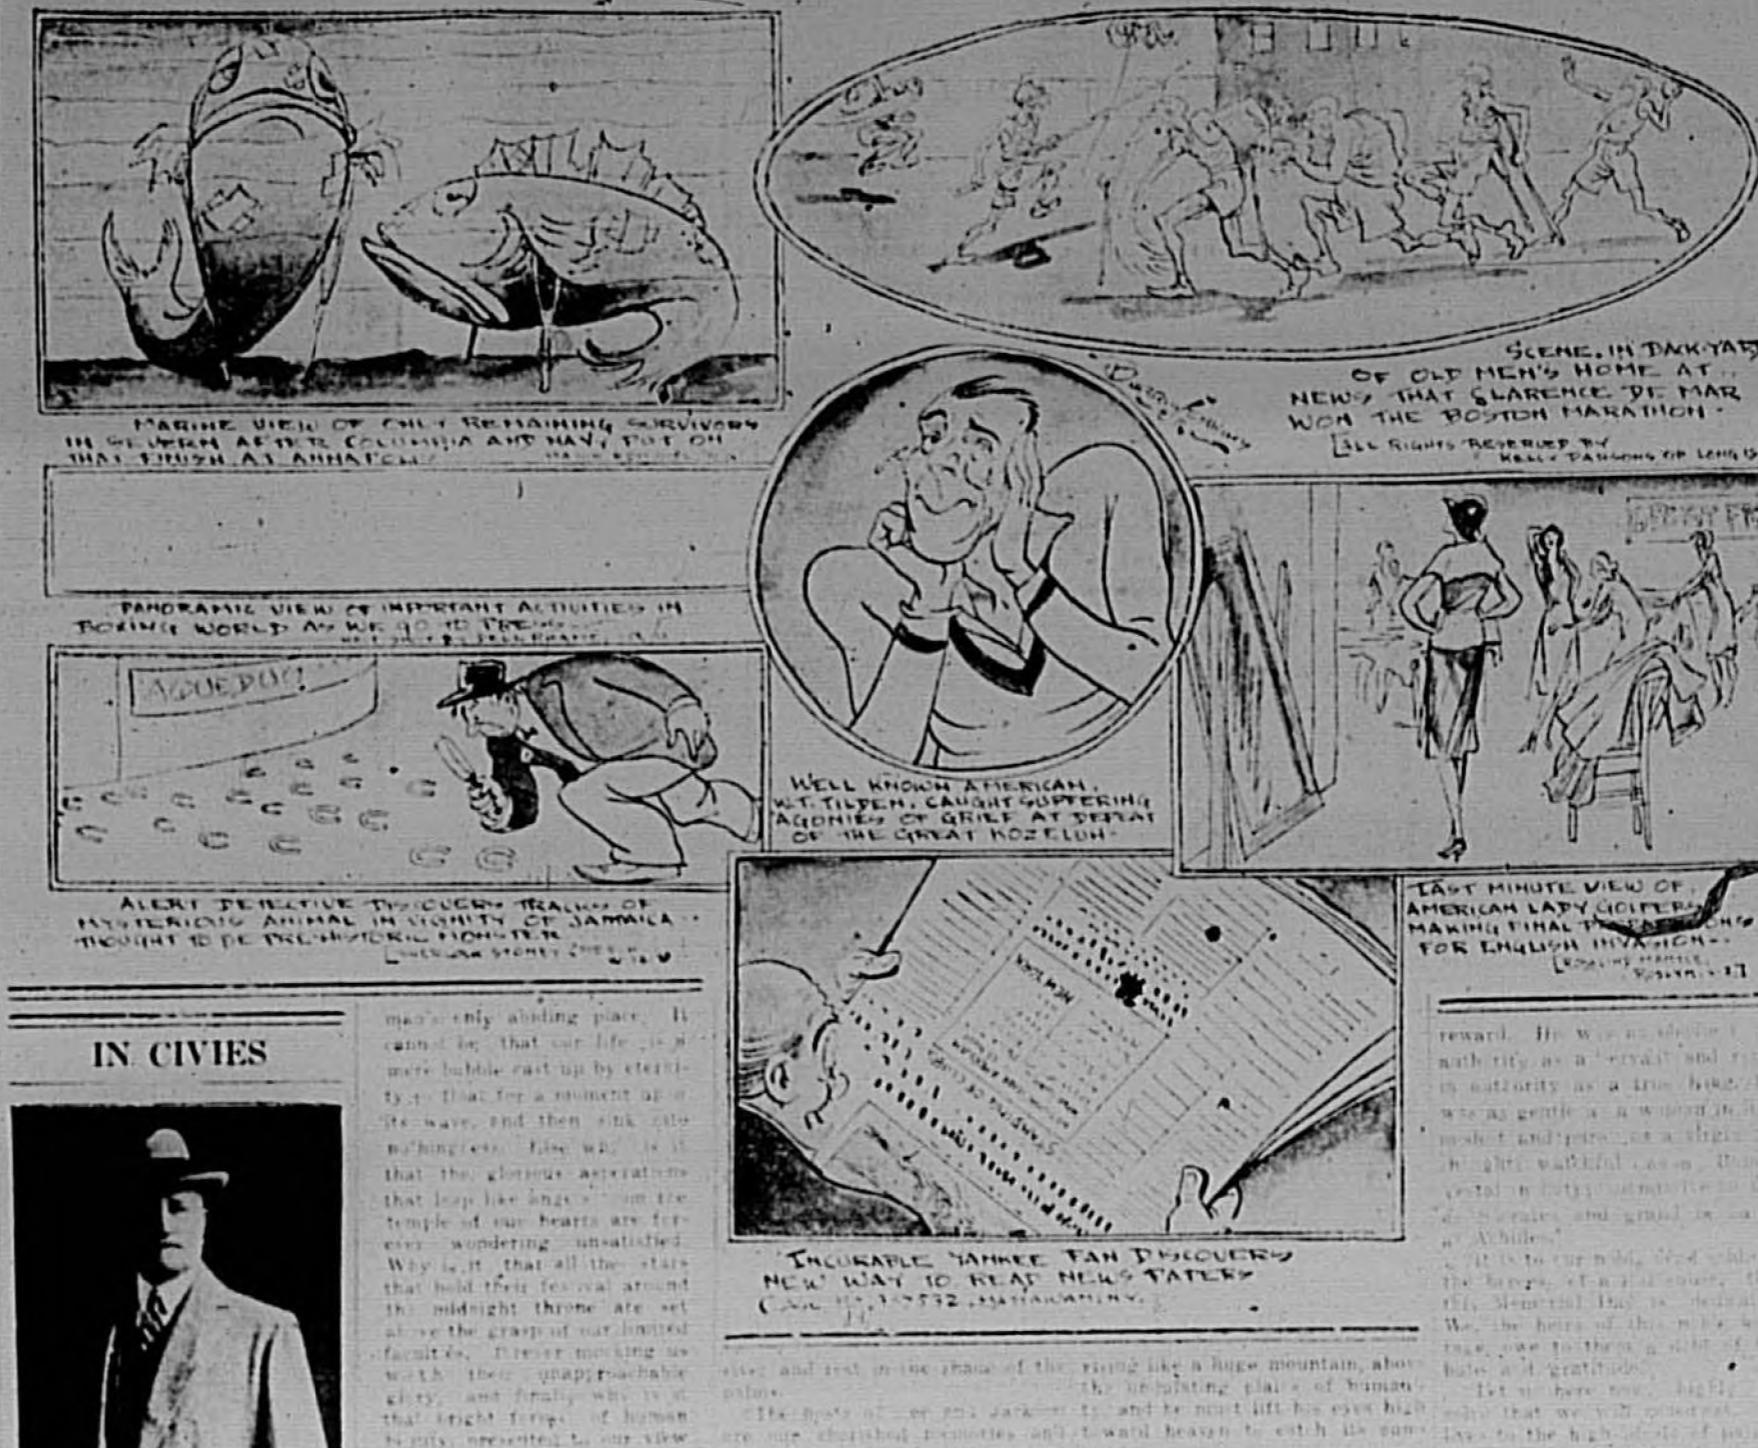

Added to all these "inefficiencies" has been the break of the weather. Of all the teams in the National League, the Cubs have stalled the most. Yet they are the only ones in the circuit to be denied it. They have played every day since the season began and today, rain in the red sox despite the cheerful reports of examining physicians.
