

HIGINBOTHAM TRIAL ON HOLDS CENTER OF STAGE INTEREST OF STATE AT LARGE

INFLUENTIAL CITIZENS SUPPORT DR. JONES, THE CAMP PHYSICIAN

JONES' VERACITY and Truth and Character Were on Trial in Rebuttal to State Evidence

(By The Associated Press)
LAKE CITY, July 6.—Forty-seven influential citizens of Perry and Taylor counties came to support Dr. T. J. Jones, camp physician for the Putnam Lumber Company in the trial of Thomas Higginbotham, former convict whipping boss charged with the murder of Martin Tabert, Jones' nephew and veracity upheld as being correct by witnesses who testified they had been associated with him fifteen years. Witnesses were last of up by defense in rebuttal, the sale having closed its case shortly after court convened early today. Jones attended Tabert, who the state says was whipped to death in the convict camp of the Putnam Lumber Company. He testified that Tabert died of pneumonia. Judge McMillon expected to charge jury this afternoon and arguments will follow immediately. Indications are the case will go to the jury Monday.

LAKE CITY, July 6.—A sick juror used the trial of Thomas Walter Higginbotham for the alleged murder of Martin Tabert, of North Dakota, to lag here yesterday. During a short session held the defense stated its case, and the state began to introduce rebuttal testimony, which it is expected will be concluded early today.

L. M. Chambers, a member of the jury, is threatened with appendicitis, doctors say. He was able to enter a box for a short while during the morning session. Because of his illness, the afternoon session was two days late in getting under way.

Adjournment was taken at 4:30 clock, at the request of the juror's physician.

Impassioned testimony by the state started the short session.

Mr. J. Johnson, at one time the commissary keeper for the lumber company, testified that he was told by Dr. T. Jones, the lumber camp physician that "Higginbotham said Tabert to death." The indictment against Higginbotham charged that he whipped Tabert so severely the latter was carrying a prison sentence at the lumber camp that both resulted.

Mr. Johnson is Dr. Jones' brother-in-law, and it was brought out on his examination that he was discharged by the lumber company because, the witness said, of a financial understanding.

Karl Callahan told defense counsel a cross examination that he had left the lumber company on his own accord. Bryant corroborated Callahan's testimony, and added that he, too, had left the company on his own accord.

Wiley Wynn testified that J. T. Hillis, a convict guard who had charge of Tabert at the time of his whipping told him on a train while they were returning from Lake City to their homes on June 5, that Higginbotham whipped Tabert terribly. He said Hillis told him of the whipping in answer to a question as to whether or not Tabert had been whipped. Hillis testified for the defense that he witnessed the whipping of Tabert only eight or ten days before the trial. He also related why it was necessary, he said, to report the doctor, because he was "always talking, walking around and wasting time."

J. W. Jackson, a former convict, testified he witnessed Tabert being whipped and was present when Dr. Jones examined him. Jackson said he saw evidence of lacerations on Tabert's body and the physician was examining them.

Dr. Jones had testified he examined Tabert in the presence of the jury, and that he was not present when the state introduced its evidence.

POSSIBILITY THAT OTHER POWERS THAN GREAT BRITAIN FAVORED SECRETARY HUGHES NEW PLAN

For Treaty Covering Ship Liquor Stores and Rum Smuggling

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—There is a possibility that powers other than Great Britain might look favorably on Secretary of State Hughes plan for a treaty covering ship liquor stores and rum smuggling suggested itself today when it became known that there had been informal conferences with representatives of at least one of the other powers which received the state department's proposal. Inquiry at the state department brought no information on point nor was there anything indicated what nation had intimated favorable attitude toward Hughes' plan. It appeared certain, however, there had been at least an indefinite suggestion that the plan might be found acceptable by powers concerned.

EUROPE AS BADLY SUNDERED TODAY AS BEFORE WORLD WAR SAYS SENATOR OSCAR UNDERWOOD

United States Cannot Escape Her European Obligations

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—More causes for war exist in Europe today than in January, 1914, Senator Underwood, of Alabama, former democratic floor leader in the Senate, declared yesterday in a statement reviewing conditions as he found them during a trip abroad. While he contended the United States must adjust its affairs, he asserted nothing in that direction could be accomplished by joining an International Court of Justice. No reference was made in the statement to domestic politics, notwithstanding the announcement before his departure for Europe that he would discuss the possibility of becoming a presidential candidate as urged by his friends, on his return.

Declaring that nothing had been done by the United States to assist in the solution of European problems, Senator Underwood said that this country could not escape its obligations. If there is no war, he asserted, "it would be solely because Europe is financially and economically exhausted."

"We are not a party," he continued, "to the causes of the strife which exist today in Europe, and theoretically it certainly is not necessary for our country to become involved. We must remember that in 1914 when war broke out in Europe we stood for peace. In 1917 we were in the war and the sons of America were dying on the battlefield of Europe. I can not believe that the people of America have forgotten their pledge to aid in securing the peace of the world, that they have forgotten that our men and women said we were fighting that we might make the world a better place in which to live."

36 States Now Have Tax on Gasoline

Seventeen States Passed Tax Law This Year

WASHINGTON, July 6.—In connection with efforts which some of the state legislatures will soon make to put into effect a gasoline tax in order that more revenue may be raised, interest attaches to a report on the gasoline tax situation just made public showing that 36 states now exact such tax—an increase of 17 so far this year. Speaking statistically 75 per cent of the states now collect a tax on gasoline.

The 17 states which passed gasoline tax laws this year are as follows: Alabama, 2 cents; California, 2 cents; Delaware 1 cent; after December 31 two cents; Idaho 2 cents; Indiana 2 cents; Maine 1 cent; Nevada 2 cents; New Hampshire 1 cent and 2 cents after Jan. 1; Oklahoma 1 cent; Tennessee 2 cents; Texas 1 cent; Utah two and one half cents; Vermont 1 cent; Virginia 3 cents; Wisconsin 2 cents; West Virginia 2 cents; Wyoming 1 cent.

The ten states to increase the tax this year are as follows: Arkansas from 1 to 3 cents; Colorado from 1 to 2 cents; Florida from 1 to 3 cents; Maryland from 1 to 2 cents after Jan. 1, 1934; Montana from 1 to 2 cents; North Carolina from 1 to 2 cents; South Carolina from 2 to 3 cents; Washington from 1 to 2 cents, after Jan. 1, 1934.

It is said that a large share of the gasoline tax will be used by the various states for the purpose of building and maintaining highways primarily for the use and benefit of those persons owning and operating motor driven vehicles and in each state the tax is in addition to the license or registration fee exacted under the law.

The information now available indicates very little or no opposition to the imposition of the tax on the part of automobile owners for they benefit more by good highways than do the large number of taxpayers who are not fortunate enough to possess a "filiver." The constitutionality of the act providing for the tax has been tested in a number of states but invariably held. "Will a 'joy riding' hereafter in many states will cost more money, it is worth the price."

Federated Farmer-Labor Party Born in Chicago Yesterday

Farmer-Labor Party Refused to Participate in Proceedings

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 6.—The Federated Farmer-Labor party with a platform under the leadership of the work party of America was born here last night, but in which the farmer-labor party refused to participate. A substitute to the organization's complete platform was submitted by the caucus of the farmer-labor delegates but was tabled by thunderous votes.

One of the substitute sections provided that no organization affiliated with the Third Internationale at Moscow, could be a group to the party.

The platform of the proposed Federated Farmer-Labor party, declared as "Red, Communist and Bolsheviki," and "too radical for even the radical state of Wisconsin" to accept, split the conference yesterday, and recessed for a night session in order to stave off a threatened bolt of some of the farmer-labor delegates, ostensibly in their own convention.

The recess was taken to permit upon their further action. At that time a farmer-labor caucus to decide time the Workers Party of America, which C. E. Ruthenberg, one of its group leaders, said, was a branch of the Communist party, was in control, Jay G. Brown, National Secretary of the Farmer-Labor party, refused the platform for his organization.

The platform which has ten planks, is as follows:

Nationalization of all public utilities.

Operation of industries on a basis of workers and farmers increasing control of management and operation through their own economic organizations.

Maximum security against destitution, unemployment, sickness and high prices.

Governmental enactment of a maximum eight hour work day in industry, making violation a criminal offense.

Governmental enactment of a law making the federal reserves board serve the farmers, and workers.

Child labor laws, limiting employment to children over 18 years of age.

A soldier bonus to be raised thru the levying of inheritance taxes, excess profits, surtaxes on unearned incomes.

Enactment of a social insurance law funds for which to be raised thru taxation similar to that of the Soldier bonus.

Enactment of a maternity insurance law, which would provide full trade union wage compensation to all prospective mothers one month before and after birth of the child.

Establishment of a minimum living wage, for all workers.

TO SETTLE QUESTION OF NEW CONTRACT BETWEEN UNIONS AND COMPANIES

CONTRACT EXPIRES

August First Carrying the Old Wage Scale and Lewis Asking For Better Wages

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTIC CITY, July 6.—Negotiations that probably will take the better part of the next two months began here today between anthracite operators and miners to work out a new contract if possible to replace wage agreement which expires August 31. More than one hundred men representing either miners or coal companies and affecting one hundred and fifty-five thousand workers in anthracite fields of Pennsylvania have gathered for joint conference. At today's meeting it was planned for the miners to present informally demands adopted at Scranton convention last week. John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, who has been here several days, will present the demands in an address in which he will go generally into reasons for asking increase in wages.

All Predictions Are For Dry Fall By Those Who Know

Weather Prophets Say That Just So Much Moisture Falls During Year

The local weather sharks are predicting a dry fall—dry as far as rainfall this means—and that we can look for dry weather from September on. Just how much they know about the weather remains to be seen but they back up their statement with the fact that just so much moisture falls during the year and it is either watered over a certain period of time or it falls during certain months all at one time as we seem to be getting it now. This sounds reasonable enough since a glance at the rainfall figures would indicate and the "oldest inhabitant" comes forward with the statement that such a wet spring and early summer has not been known in Florida in many, many years. The farmers who watch the weather closely say that a certain amount of rainfall comes every year or if a limited amount falls this year more rain will fall next year and so on to the end of the chapter. If this is the case we have been shy on water up to this year and now we are getting it all in one big flood and after the flood will come the drought. One thing is certain, however, the flowing well area of Seminole county should not worry for water is what we have plenty of in this part of the state or wherever flowing wells can be found and unless there is a tremendous drought during planting time the crops here will not be affected much by a dry season. Another thing in favor of our farmers is that along about September the big storms play havoc with us in seed bed time, the floods leaving up the newly planted lettuce and the seed beds of all kinds. If there is to be a flood it can come better now than any other time and the good folks here are content to leave the weather to a higher power and trust to Providence for the growing crops.

A. C. L. SHOPMEN'S ASSOCIATION PICNIC

The Atlantic Coast Line shop employees held their first annual picnic at Palm Springs on July 4th.

A large crowd was present and spent a perfect day under the big trees. Free fried fish and lemonade was served abundantly to all comers, members or visitors, supplemented by all kinds of good things brought out by the good ladies in baskets.

The Hon. Forrest Lake, mayor of Sanford, made an inspiring address on patriotism and good citizenship and welcomed the new shopmen to Sanford and Seminole county, where they have already proved their value as citizens by most of them establishing permanent home here.

The weather was great and the crowd thoroughly enjoyed the eating, swimming, dancing and games and voted unanimously to have the shopmen's picnic made a regular annual institution.

Special thanks are due the efficient committee Messrs. Wilson, Weeks and Hinchliff, under whose able direction everything went off like clockwork and under whose direction old Hambo fried fish better than ever, as was proved by their rapid consumption.

Many of the crowd left in afternoon to witness the ball game between the Sanford and Lakeland shop baseball teams, pulled off in Sanford. —ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Daily Fashion Hint

To be made quickly and modestly is the motive of the little frock pictured to the left, and one could mention off-hand seven materials in which it would look stylish. Its simple design offers broad opportunity for the introduction of embroidery or any other decoration that would make it more elaborate. It is equally appropriate for general or sports wear. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

The second dress sets out to prove that a design may be simple and yet emphasize the features that well-dressed women like most—the cascade drapery, flowing sleeves, V-shaped neck, etc. The materials suitable for its development cover the approved list of silks, satins and cottons, with the twills added for good measure. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

First Model: Pictorial Review Dress No. 1416. Sizes, 34 to 50 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

Second Model: Dress No. 1408. Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

Elmer Tyner left for Gray, Ga., last Sunday to visit with relatives and friends for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Fry and Mrs. Bengston were here Sunday from Windermere and spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Tyner and Mrs. Bengston was here again on the Fourth.

Mrs. Alma Neese was much pleased by the coming of her husband's mother on a surprise visit from her home at Pinta Gorda last Friday.

Miss Carrie Cramer spent a few days with her brother's family and attended the Children's Day exercises.

Mrs. W. C. Meador was quite ill for a few days, Dr. Denton was called out and Mrs. Nora Swanson helped care for her.

Sorry to learn that Mrs. DeForest has been confined to her home for a couple of weeks. Dr. Tolar has been attending her. We hear she was made ill by the bite of a yellow fly on her ear.

Rev. Clark and wife called on the sick, Abbie Sjoblom and Engineer Brady in Lake Mary besides helping us with our practice Friday.

Alfred Ericson unfortunately broke his arm in two places, we hear, last Friday noon but Dr. Marshall set the bones and he is doing as well as can be expected. His daughter, Miss Margaret, took him home.

Rev. G. F. Wahlberg will be here for preaching next Sunday at the Lutheran church both morning and evening. He was a guest last time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stedt.

Rev. O. O. Eckard was here on Thursday and again on Sunday evening. We did not hear of it in time to announce it. He was a guest as usual at the home of Mrs. Lundquist.

We notice that little Oleda Cruse, who fell and broke her arm at the elbow in a very bad shape, is now able to be out again.

Glad to see our old fish-man out again with his wares Thursday.

Mrs. Volie Williams and children (the latter having the whooping cough) and Miss Florence Tyner came home from the beach Saturday and spent the afternoon in Orlando. Mrs. Williams and children went back over with Volie late Sunday.

The church was well filled on Sunday for the Children's Day and we think every one was pleased with the exercises.

The Children's Day acoustic was especially liked—first the flags (the church and the United States) carried by Margaret Herschi and Leonard West, then the flower children: Elizabeth Herschi, Robert Henderson, Audrey May Neese, Dorothy Swanson, W. C. Meador, Jr., and Clair Hirtleson followed by the twelve children with their pretty red caps: Pearl Tyner, Raymond Lundquist, Esther Ericson, Lucy May, Lloyd and Archie Henderson, Myrtle Meador, Ellen and Melva Lundquist, Ruth Ericson, Ellnor Tyner and Glen Cramer.

Two of the little ones were out of it with the whooping cough and one was asleep.

In spite of his broken arm, Mr. Ericson and wife sang a duet very nicely.

Mrs. Clark accompanied also for her daughter, Mrs. Podmore, who sang so sweetly, "He Once Was a Child."

Leonard West played for the song "Buttercups and Daisies," last year's favorite which was so liked it was called for again.

In the last piece "Ring True," Leonard also played on the clarinet with Mrs. Clark on the piano. The little tots gave our minister's wife a flower shower to show how they love her.

The big folks were not it that day.

We think all enjoyed the play "How the Sunday School Came to Lone Creek" or "America for Christ."

The collection was over $9.00.

Besides the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and two little daughters, of Lake Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garrison of the West End and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Prevatt of Kissimmee were present.

STUDEBAKER

The Studebaker Light-Six

was designed by Studebaker engineers and is manufactured complete in the NEW STUDEBAKER PLANTS AT SOUTH BEND, IND., which are notable in design, size and equipment for efficient and economical manufacture.

The South Bend Plants contain 4,875,000 square feet of floor space.

They employ 12,000 persons.

They cost $33,250,000.

The South Bend Forge Plant cost $4,000,000, which alone is more than the total assets of many automobile companies.

And then there are:
 The machine shops which cost $7,000,000.
 The stamping plant which cost $4,000,000.
 The new foundries which will cost over $2,000,000.
 The power plants which cost $2,500,000.
 The assembly and stock plants which cost $5,000,000, as well as closed and open-body plants, spring shops, etc.

Studebaker plants, in cost and size, are the second largest of the world's automobile plants.

Studebaker is the second strongest financially of the automobile manufacturers of the world.

These facts show why it is possible for Studebaker to produce the Light-Six—a truly remarkable car—and sell it for less than a thousand dollars.

In actual car value per dollar of price the Light-Six is in a class by itself. No prospective buyer who is not a motorist should decide anything until he has seen and driven this car.

It is backed by a corporation with $75,000,000 of assets. It has a 71-year reputation for finest product and fine quality.

Vast Resources Make Possible High Value at Low Price in Studebaker Light-Six

Studebaker's vast resources are utilized to manufacture (not assemble) the Light-Six complete in the newest and most modern large automobile plants in the world.

The Corporation's resources, consisting of $85,000,000 of actual net assets, including $45,000,000 of plants, make it possible for Studebaker to offer a six-cylinder car, at less than $1,000, that is emphatically superior in design, construction, performance, comfort and dependability, to any car within hundreds of dollars of its price.

By complete manufacture, Studebaker not only guards the quality of each part, but saves the middlemen's profits, with the result that no other make of car ever built, by anyone, at any price, represents so great a dollar-for-dollar value as the Light-Six.

Evidence of its mechanical superiority is found in its practical freedom from vibration. This is accomplished by the perfect balance of the motor. Perfect balance is obtained largely through the complete machining of all surfaces of the crankshaft and connecting rods. This requires 61 precision operations.

This method is followed exclusively by Studebaker on cars at this price. In fact, very few other cars have this feature, and their prices are from three to ten times as great as that of the Light-Six.

It is significant, therefore, that the sale of more than 80,000 Studebaker cars during the first six months of this year broke all records.

Buyers are justified in expecting more for their money in a Studebaker than in any other car.

deed that his soul does transmigrate of the years, the hours, or the minutes and in another shape and time he returns to earth.

We experience youth but once, the rounded experience of manhood but once, the twilight hours of decadence but once, life and death but once.

If this were not true, then it would be possible for man to realize physical immortality; and we know that is impossible.

There can be no turning backward

Spanish War Vets Celebrated the 4th in Good Old Way

Picnic and General Good Time at Ballard Home at Altamonte.

Pleasant event of Independence was the picnic given by Col. J. B. Ballard and his wife at the local camp of United Spanish Veterans at the beautiful home of Mrs. W. B. Ballard at Altamonte.

Foremost among these are self-confidence, enthusiasm, vigor in thought and action, and, in especial, human sympathy.

"It is also through habitually thinking vigorously, courageously, cheerfully; through habitually maintaining a manfully erect posture; at once expressive of vigor and creative of it.

"Sympathy is of paramount importance in the developing of personal magnetism.

Throughout the day delicious refreshment was served by pretty girls and attractive young matrons.

Chaplain Sharon invoked the divine blessing and everyone "fell to" that wonderful lunch.

A unanimous motion to "picnic" at the Ballards' annually on the fourth, was carried enthusiastically.

NOT A GIFT OF THE GODS Personal Magnetism Something That Can Be Cultivated Through Proper Course of Thinking.

"The belief that personal magnetism is a gift of the gods and that no man may come by it unless he is born with it, is erroneous," says Addington Bruce in Forbes Magazine.

Foremost among these are self-confidence, enthusiasm, vigor in thought and action, and, in especial, human sympathy.

"It is also through habitually thinking vigorously, courageously, cheerfully; through habitually maintaining a manfully erect posture; at once expressive of vigor and creative of it.

"Sympathy is of paramount importance in the developing of personal magnetism. The most confident, enthusiastic and vigorous of men will find his influence over others diminished in proportion as he is deficient in human sympathy.

Early Prejudices Against Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate Were Not Easy to Overcome.

In 1670 a Dutch writer said that tea was ridiculed in Holland under the name of hay-water, and another ingenious writer said: "The progress of this famous plant has been something like the progress of truth—suspected at first, but very palatable to those who have courage to taste it."

For about 20 years after the introduction of coffee in Great Britain, there was a continued series of invectives against its adoption both for medicinal and domestic purposes. In "The Women's Petition Against Coffee," 1674, they complained that "it made men as unfruitful as the deserts whence that unhappy berry is said to be brought!" that the "offspring of their mighty ancestors would dwindle into a succession of apes and pigmies"; and that on a domestic message a husband would "stop by the way to drink a couple of cups of coffee."

The immediate use of chocolate in the Seventeenth century was considered so violent an inflamer of the passions that Joan Fran. Rauch enforced the necessity of forbidding the monks to drink it.

A PROLIFIC WRITER

Arnold Bennett's astonishing literary industry—equaling the industry of Anthony Trollope—is reflected in an entry in his diary.

"This year I have written 335,340 words, grand total. Two hundred and twenty-four articles and stories and four installments of a serial called 'The Gates of Wrath' have actually been published and also my book of plays, 'Polite Faree.' My work included six or eight short stories not yet published, also the greater part of a 55,000-word serial, 'Love and Life,' for Tillotson's, and the whole draft, 80,000 words, of my Staffordshire novel, 'Anna Tellwright.'—From the Writer's Magazine.

Jack is Now on Earned Vacation

GREAT FALLS, Mont., July 6.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, last night started out on a few days' vacation after his confining nine weeks' training grind for his battle with Tommy Gibbons at Shelby Wednesday. The title holder, accompanied by his father, Jerry Lavatius, his faithful little trainer, Lloyd Stansard, a nephew, and Mike Trant, a Chicago detective, left for Salt Lake City to visit with his mother before proceeding to Los Angeles.

The champion expects to be in New York by August 1, ready to resume training for a title match with either Harry Wills, the negro heavyweight, or the winner of the Luis Firpo-Jess Willard fight. Dempsey understands that Kearns, his manager, already has opened negotiations for these bouts. Dempsey was in high spirits, joking with the big crowd that came down to the station to see him off. His right eye was only slightly discolored and the cut over his left eye was starting to heal nicely. The champion bore no other marks as a result of his fifteen round battle.

Sentinel Has One Bad Frame, Losing To Oviedo, 4 to 3

Oviedo fans of the Pepper League witnessed a nifty balloon ascension yesterday when the jaunty wearers of the Morning Sentinel uniforms blew up, literally "busted," in the second frame of the seven inning game between Oviedo and the Early Risers. Five errors in that terrible inning, combined with a base on balls, was all the Oviedo ball players needed to cinch the contest with four well earned runs. The final score was 4 to 3, the locals' fifth inning rally falling one short of doing the tying act. Except for the second, it was a good game, oth twirlers giving up but six hits apiece during the afternoon's fray.

Though losing yesterday's game, the Early Risers still are the leaders in the Pepper League with an average of .800. Oviedo is second with an average of .600, with Big Berens, of Sanford, third with .429 and the other Sanford team of the circuit, tallenders with .143. The score:

Brooklyn Loses When Henry Cuts Loose Wild One

BROOKLYN, July 6.—Jess Barnes held the Dodgers to four scattered hits yesterday, and Boston shut out Brooklyn, 3 to 0. The Braves knocked Cadore out in the second. "Dutch" Henry allowed only four hits during the remainder of the game, but let in the third run in the ninth, when he made a wild throw to first. The score:

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—St. Louis stoned off in this city for a single game with Philadelphia yesterday and won a poorly played contest 16 to 12. Hornsby had two home runs and a single in four trips to the plate, and then retired from the game. Score: St. Louis 212 231 011—16 19 1

MORSE'S COUNSEL FILES ACQUITTAL MOTION IN COURT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 6.—Counsel for Charles W. Morse, his three sons and four others on trial on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government on war time shipping contracts, filed motions yesterday to dismiss the indictments and to direct acquittal of the accused. Justice Stafford took the motions, made after the government had announced it had rested its case, under advisement.

The defense enumerated 33 reasons why the indictment should be dismissed and 14 reasons why the court should instruct the jury to acquit the defendants. None of the arguments on the motions was before the jury. The trial has been in progress for eleven weeks.

The defense contended the government had failed to establish beyond reasonable doubt that there was a combination in restraint on the part of the accused to accomplish a criminal act. It also was asserted the prosecution had developed only that a series of controversies existed between the Morse corporations and the emergency fleet corporation, such controversies having been civil and not criminal in nature.

VETERANS BUREAU HEAD AT WORK ON TUSKEGEE MATTER

TUSKEGEE, Ala., July 6.—There is no contract binding the government to place a white personnel at the veterans' hospital here, but there "appears a moral obligation," Director Hines, of the Veterans' Bureau, told a citizens committee in conference here late yesterday. The committee represented citizens who protested at a negro personnel. Mr. Hines said at the opening of the conference, "This matter must be settled today."

State Senator R. H. Powell, speaking for the citizens, said that Tuskegee had the promise of a representative of the Treasury Department that the hospital would be in charge of white officers and doctors and that the people considered this a binding obligation. He said that "the people would have it no other way."

TUSKEGEE, Ala., July 6.—Declaring that he would not be a party to bring disorder to the Tuskegee community, Director Frank E. Hines, of the War Vets Bureau, yesterday asked an assembly of Tuskegee citizens to appoint a committee of three to meet with him to help solve the problem relative to the control of the hospital for disabled negroes here.

"With a committee of three trusted Tuskegee citizens, I am sure we can work out this problem of controlling the hospital by either white officials or negroes in such a manner that all citizens here will be satisfied," Director Hines said. "I will not be a party to anything that will bring about friction between the races."

The committee to confer with Director Hines on the question is composed of Dr. D. W. Johnson, L. W. Campbell and State Senator R. H. Powell, all of Tuskegee. No date for the first meeting has been set, Chairman Johnson said.

In a statement to the press Mr. Hines said while an efficient negro personnel could be secured which would be representative of all sections of the country, no appointments had been made and none will be made until the committee has taken some action.

WOMAN MAKES NEW ALTITUDE RECORD

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 6.—Mrs. Bertha Horehen, professional aviatrix of Ransome, Kan., established a new altitude record for women by ascending 10,200 feet at St. Louis Aviation Field yesterday. The previous record was 15,700 feet and it was made by Andrea Peyre, Frenchwoman, in California last May.

Would Reorganize Society Into Three Legally Established Classes

By PROF. WILLIAM McDUGALL, Harvard University.

I WOULD fundamentally reorganize society into three legally established classes. I would place the reins of government and national control in the hands of a ruling class to be known as A, composed of citizens of greatest worth, and their power would be all-embracing and complete. I would deny the vote to the millions of illiterates, mentally deficient, and convicts, and designate them as Class C citizens. I would restrict the number of offspring in this class by a deliberate social control dictated by principles of national ethics.

Between the upper and lower classes would be an intermediary, Class B. Members of this class would be compelled to serve a probationary period of from twenty to twenty-five years before being permitted to join the ruling class. In Class B would be placed all the offspring of Class A parents, with the opportunity to prove whether they were fit to go up or down. I would prohibit marriage between the upper and lower classes.

The result of such a system would be to place the political power in each nation in the hands of a reasonably select body of men and women. Each nation would thus be fortified against the tendency to die away at the top.

The A class of full citizens would be protected against the lowering of its quality through the intermixture of inferior blood.

Under the influence of an ethics in which the national principle was fully recognized the function of parenthood would be restored to the position of honor and importance it has enjoyed in every healthy and stable society.

We might hope to see the family re-established as the foundation of the state, the true social unit, and the nursery of those national traditions which alone raise us above the level of savage life. By its development alone mankind may hope to rise to higher and higher levels of happiness and culture.

SCHOOL IN AN OIL FIELD

A school town will be built in the open country eight miles west of Madison, in the center of the Greenwood county oil district. "The project is an attempt to solve the oil field educational problem," said W. L. Smith, director of school consolidation, at the Kansas State Teachers' college at Emporia. "The increment derived from the taxes on the oil production will be used in constructing the plant. Should the supply of oil be exhausted in time then a moderate tax on the land values will be sufficient for the upkeep of the schools." The consolidated district will cover an area of ten square miles. The school plant will include a grade school, a high school and a home for the teachers. The buildings will accommodate at least 300 students, including children and high school students.—Madison News, in Topeka Capital.

MODERN SLAVERY

Human slaves are sold on the block in Abyssinia, according to information reaching the League of Nations. Humans are caught in the open, chained, grouped and sold into slavery for rich slave holders living in the interior of Asia Minor. The latest 1923 quotations are as follows: Able-bodied male slaves, $6 to $34, according to age, strength and productive ability. Female slaves, demand slight, $8 down. Child slaves, absolute drug on the market.

THE HOTTEST PLACE

Ten years of record obtained at the United States weather bureau's sub-station at Greenland ranch, in Death valley, Cal., indicate that this is the hottest region in the United States, and so far as extreme maximum temperature are concerned, the hottest region on earth. The temperature of 134 degrees F., recorded July 10, 1913, is believed by meteorologists to be the highest natural air temperature ever recorded with a tested standard thermometer.

AT HOME IN THE SADDLE

It has been said of many people who live much in the saddle that they are "centaurs." The Mongol of today has a better claim to the title than most of his competitors. The typical Mongol horseman will ride fifteen hours without a murmur, but bitterly resents having to walk a hundred yards. So unused is he to walking that he has a rolling gait like that of the saltiest "seadog." He turns to his horse in many emergencies. If a saddle strap breaks the Mongol rider pulls a few hairs from his pony's tail, braids them and uses the resulting strong cord to make his equipment as good as new. Mongolian horse races are grueling, straightaway endurance contests. Some of the wiry ponies entered in these contests have been known to gallop twenty miles without a halt.—National Geographic Society Bulletin.

Georgia Officials Like Good Cars, Go After Them

Legislature Says There Are After Cars and Not The Booze Runners.

(By The Associated Press) ATLANTA, Ga., July 6.—Prohibition in Georgia has not been a failure and we desire to continue in co-operation with county officials," Fred A. Dismukes, state federal prohibition director, declared last night in reply to a statement of Representative Crai Arnold, Lumpkin county, author of the bill now before the general assembly designed to place enforcement of the Volstead act in this state entirely upon the government.

The legislator whose measure would repeal Georgia's prohibition law, states enforcement of the dry act in the estate has been unsuccessful, adding that in his opinion federal and county officials were not working together.

"A majority of county officials are working with us," said Mr. Dismukes. "In some wet counties we are not receiving the county officials' co-operation. Enforcement of the law has shown a decided improvement during the past several years." Dawson and other counties in that immediate territory also were specified with Lumpkin as being lacking in co-operation.

Representative Arnold declared in his assertions that "prohibition in this state is a farce and everybody knows it."

A bill to repeal the Georgia prohibition law, which would leave the full responsibility for the enforcement of the Volstead act in this state up to the federal government, was introduced into the house of representatives by Craig Arnold.

"Prohibition has been a total failure in Georgia," the representative declared in discussing the measure, adding that he believed the presence of a federal law and state act has caused a "conflict in enforcement," and that the repeal of the Georgia statute would result in stronger enforcement here on the part of the government.

Charging that there now exists "a great deal of rivalry between federal and county officers in the drive for whiskey running automobiles," Dr. Arnold said there was more interest on the part of county sheriffs and deputies in capturing the cars which are confiscated under the Georgia law, than in the apprehension of the alleged criminal.

NO NEED FOR WASTED WORDS

Friends Understood Each Other Without the Formality of Any Stilted Conversation.

Charles K. Kettering, the automobile engineer of Dayton, is famous among his friends for saying what he has to say without waste of words. Not long ago a group of Ket's friends was discussing that phase of his nature and one of them told this story:

"I shall never forget Ket's conversation with a friend at one of the speedway races. They had not seen each other for months, although intimate friends. Both were of the type that says what's to be said without throwing away any loose language."

The speaker then went on to give the conversation between Mr. Kettering and his friend when they met at the Indianapolis motor speedway.

"Hello, Ket."
"Hello, John."
"Well?"
"Yes. You?"
"Yes. Drive?"
"No. Flew."

All of which, interpreted, disclosed the fact that both were well and that Mr. Kettering had come to the race in an airplane instead of an automobile.—Indianapolis News.

Robs Calomel of Nausea and Danger

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed—Perfecting Tablet Called "Calotab"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotab." The most generally useful of all medicines thus came upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy—but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—has it all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.) 6-29-24-6-11-13-15-20-25-27-31-32

PRISON PLACE OF EVIL ONE
Indian Tradition Accounting for Natural Wonder in the Mountains of Southern California.

Hidden away among the mountains of southern California is a strange and practically unknown natural wonder—a great mass of basalt rock shaped into extraordinary formations which are proving a puzzle to scientists. The Devil's Post Pile, as this curious phenomenon is called, has been set apart as a national monument.

Italian tradition deals with the Devil's Post Pile. It says that long, long ago, when everything was young, there came among the Pinites a very wicked spirit who professed to be far wiser and better than they, and sought to lead them into new ways of thinking and living, to gratify his own evil ends. In this upstart, a coyote in lamb's fleece, the "hep big boss devil" saw a treacherous and formidable rival, so he thrust him into a cavern and drove the posts in behind him to make certain he'd stay. He's still wriggling and sputtering down there, and his mad struggles keep the waters up sizzling and steaming.

"PLAY SPIRIT" IN BUSINESS
Secret of Success, According to Man Who Has Reached Top of Commercial Ladder.

The best work is done in the spirit of play. Any man who goes to business with but one thought, asking grimly how much he is going to get out of it in dollars and cents, will probably get actually less dollars and little if any of the joy of the man who approaches business from quite a different angle—from the angle of doing something worth while, building, creating, serving.

If a man likes adventure, he ought to find adventure in his business. It is there. All he needs is the wish and determination to discover it. If he likes sport or romance or the stimulus of economic achievement or contact with able and alert minds or the training of young men—he can find these, too. The profit has to come, of course. That is proof of clever playing. But the game itself, the sport and zest of playing it, ought to be a big part of the reward even if there were nothing else. If that is absent, the money part of the reward is too small, no matter if it is millions.—James Simpson, President Marshall Field & Company, in Forbes Magazine.

STYLES IN POCKET FLASKS
Early in the Nineteenth century fancy pocket flasks became popular in this country. Some bore the American eagle; some were ornamented with the head of Washington and some with the head of Taylor. In 1840 log cabin designs in dark brown and green glass came into use. These were at the height of popularity during the "hard cider" campaign of 1840 and were made for a Philadelphia distiller named E. C. Booz. They became known as "booz" bottles and the word was in common usage until July, 1918, nearly 80 years, when it was supplanted by "hooch" and "white mule."

JUDGING BY APPEARANCES
William Jones, returning to Hanover for his junior year at college, critically observed his fellow passenger. When the opportunity arose he asked him where he was bound.

"To Hanover," replied the man. Jones thought rapidly. Surely the man was too old to be a freshman. But his clothes were too outlandish and snobby for an undergraduate.

Finally Jones smiled. "What are you?" he asked, "a traveling salesman?"

"Why, no," replied the other. "I am the new English professor."—From Judge.

HOME WITHOUT MORTGAGE

"Buy a house without a mortgage for fifteen cents," cried a street hawk who stood near the terminal where all were making their way to the suburban trains.

"Buy a house for the children, the house without a mortgage." And so pleasing to the ears of those who were having their own troubles with this own-your-own-home problem that every commuter bought an absurd little cardboard toy house.—New York Herald

BUTTONS DISPLACE LEVERS

An American aviation expert who witnessed the so-called wirelessly-conducted airplane flight at the Villeneuve aerodrome, says:

"The only development is that push buttons were used instead of the levers and joy stick formerly employed. There is the same simplification as between operating an electric automobile with a single controller and a high powered automobile with gear changes, clutch, gas and spark."

College Ought to Give Woman the Habit of Doing Well Whatever She Does

By ADA LOUISE COMSTOCK, in New York Times.

When all is said and done, what is the main thing that college has to give a girl—is it an accumulation of facts or an attitude of mind?

Now, I don't believe in belittling the importance of facts. Ignorance about some things is not worthy of an educated person.

But no accumulation of facts, however extensive, constitutes an education. What college ought to give, first of all, is something very different from a mass of knowledge and something more vital than an attitude of mind.

It should give her a certain degree of intellectual curiosity, a certain amount of actual information, a keener ability to appreciate the things of the mind and all sorts of artistic endeavor. But, after all, its greatest gift is one that should be translatable into action—the habit of doing thoroughly, intelligently and skillfully whatever there is to be done.

Things We Have Always Known

The recent business condition has brought to the forefront of thought many fundamental considerations that have always been known but have been damned with faint praise.

Human nature in the mass is very much like human nature in the individual. One of its dominant characteristics has been summed up in the observation, "You never miss the water till the well runs dry." We never appreciate fundamental things until we have occasion to do without them.

This observation has a special application to the demand of the public for the products of industry. While the demand was at high tide and everybody was busy trying to supply that demand at a profit no one, seemingly, gave a thought to where the demand came from, how long it might last, or what would happen if it should fall. We merely assumed the permanent existence of the demand, just as we assume the presence of water, air and fire.

But a day came when demand began to subside, and in many industries it came almost to a full stop. And then we missed it, and realized, as never before, what an important thing it was. And we began to inquire where it came from in the first place, and how it might be restored.

We always knew—everybody knew—that desire for things made a demand for them in the market. That people desired things we accepted as an elemental fact. But when we discovered that desire fluctuated we began to appreciate that desire, as we know it, is a thing created by the art of man. It is a highly specialized form of an elemental need—just as a Louis XVI chair is made out of a tree.

This discovery led to another equally important discovery that the means of refining and specializing that desire was advertising. The gigantic work that has been accomplished by modern advertising now stands out in bold relief. It has been the means by which the refinements of civilization have been made known and made desirable, and this desire has been made into demand. It is a simple fact that a million profitable forms of industrial activity owe their very existence to the fact that Advertising upheld the standards of living which in turn provided the demand for their products.
