

Sanford's Siege Guns Subdue Azaleas 11 To 4

Joe Pinder Pitches 5-Hit Ball As His Contribution

Game, Delayed By Rain Furnishes Plenty Of Action During Barrage Of Hitting

Supporting the five-hit pitching of Joe Pinder, the Sanford Lookouts unleashed their big siege guns Monday night at the Municipal ball park with a barrage of 16 base hits that blasted the Palatka Azaleas into submission and gave the Lookouts an 11 to 4 victory.

The action began in the first inning with Palatka pushing across two runs on the strength of two hits. The Lookouts also began their attack, making a total of four runs in their half of the first. Moore, first man up, walked and went to second on Schmidt's single to left. Hits by Davis and Pitman sent a couple of runs across the plate tying the score. Allen struck out. Scoring the other markers were Pitman and Verner.

In the third and fifth innings Palatka added one count each time to knot the score at 4 to 4. In the same inning, Sanford again scored bringing in two runs to make a total of six.

The Lookouts increased their lead to 10 in the seventh when four more runs crossed the plate and in the eighth they added the last score of the game to bring their total for the night to 11 runs.

Four pitchers saw mound duty for the Azaleas. Slim Miller, who opened for the Azaleas, was followed by Maxwell and Maxwell

Lookouts Invade Camp Of Azaleas In Search Of Win

Palatka Club To Try To Stem Attack Of Sanford Siege Guns

Expressing the belief that they will bring back their agonizing night, the Sanford Lookouts will go to the Palatka city in an effort to prove their contention.

The Herb Thomas club, smothered under the severe drubbing administered last night by the local team has declared its intention of returning the defeat with interest.

However, members of the Sanford team pointed out that the pitching of the Lookouts has been vastly improved in the last two of three weeks and their batting leaves nothing to be desired. As proof they point not only to last night's fine exhibition but to the game with Daytona Beach last week in which they defeated the Islanders 21 to 2.

Starting batteries for the tilt tonight have not been announced but in all probability Allen will start behind the plate. Aitz, catcher, was hit on the head and was taken out of the game. It is not thought he is seriously hurt and he is expected to be able to get back into the game soon.

Baseball Team Is Formed To Play Orphanage Group

Floyd Palmer, Local Enthusiast, Gives Recreation To Boys

At the request of the superintendent of the Florida Methodist Orphanage in Benson Springs, Floyd Palmer, local baseball enthusiast, formed a baseball team composed of boys from 15 to 17 years of age to play the team of the orphanage.

The Sanford team won the first game from the orphanage by a score of 5 to 6 but lost the second by a 9 to 1 count.

A third and deciding game will be played the first Thursday after the National Guard returns home as several of the Sanford players had to go to camp.

Mr. Palmer said he was well pleased with the local club and declared that it provided the orphanage boys with some diversion that helped make the long summer months more agreeable.

Herbert Moses, pitcher for the Sanford team, aided the orphanage team against the Pierson All-Stars recently and struck out 12 of the first 16 batters to face him. The orphanage boys were one player shy at the time and requested the loan of the San-

O. J. Miller Is Found Dead On Oviedo Road

Dr. Miller, Retired Physician, Was Son Of T. J. Miller, Pioneer Resident

Owens Seminole Pharamical Co.

Justice Roberts Reports Death Due To Monoxide Poisoning

Dr. O. J. Miller of this city was found dead at 11:30 o'clock this morning in his car on the Oviedo road about one mile from the Orlando highway by Deputy Sheriff Jack Hickson, Sheriff C. M. Hand announced today.

Dr. Miller's body was lying on the seat of his car. A section of garden hose had been attached to the exhaust of the car and led into the interior.

Justice of the Peace J. A. Roberts said death was due to inhalation of carbon monoxide gas.

Sheriff Hand said the motor had been left on and had run down. He added that the parking lights were on, which indicated the car had been stopped there Tuesday night.

Dr. Miller, owner of the Seminole Pharamical Company, was a retired physician and surgeon. He had resided in Sanford many years, coming here when a young boy.

He was the son of the late T. J. Miller, long identified with the early development of Sanford and a well-known real estate investor.

Frank L. Miller, former city commissioner and present City Judge, and is also survived by his wife, Mrs. Miller, two daughters, Mrs. Harold Powers and Mrs. Sidney Vinten, both of Sanford, and a son, O. J. Miller, Jr. who is in the Navy.

The body was placed in the care of the Erickson funeral home. Services will be conducted tomorrow by Rev. J. B. Root, pastor of the Congregational Church, at the Erickson Funeral Home at 4:00 o'clock.

Mather Relates Experiences In His Air Travels

Colton Mather, in Sanford on a business mission, took time out long enough in the Herald Office Tuesday afternoon to recount an experience among the many he has had in his extensive air travels.

Mr. Mather, in speaking of the disaster which befell the Hawaii Clipper, said he flew from Alameda, California to Honolulu Jan. 7 on the China Clipper with K. W. Kennedy, traffic manager of the Pan American Airways, who was aboard the ill-fated Hawaii Clipper when that craft disappeared in the Pacific a few days ago.

On the January trip two other passengers included the President of the Lions Club and Mrs. Fred Noonan, whose husband, a member of the China Clipper crew, was lost when that airplane fell in the Pacific several months ago. Also aboard the China Clipper on its fateful last flight, was Captain Ed Musick, who Mr. Mather met in the Moore Hotel in Honolulu the night before the famous pilot took off on his final flight.

Mr. Mather said he didn't like to think of himself as a seaman, but concluded by stating that he was aboard the Hindenburg on her next to last flight from Germany.

Sewing Room Is Given $32,115 In Additional Funds

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 3.—(AP)—Administrator Robert J. Hill announced today the final approval of a WPA project calling for the employment of 89 persons in the Sanford sewing room.

Continuing Employment Is Provided For 89 Individuals

The continuing projects placed in operation again were listed as: Sanford, sewing room employing 89 persons; Federal funds $32,115, sponsors $8,109.

Orlando, mattress factory supplying jobs to 172 persons; Federal funds $74,866, sponsors $11,490.

Tampa, sewing room giving work to 108 persons; Federal funds $312,558, sponsors $71,490.

Key West, sewing room employing 114 persons; Federal funds $61,826, sponsors $14,663.

Fort Taylor (Key West) road improvements, 107 workers, Federal funds $6,535.

The new projects given final approval yesterday, included one for study of recreational areas and facilities in Florida. Twenty workers will be employed on the survey costing $19,572 with the WPA contributing $15,216.

Toledo Newspaper Is Wrecked By Slump

TOLEDO, Ohio, Aug. 3.—(AP)—The Toledo News Bee, a Scripps-Howard newspaper, announced yesterday with its final edition that it was suspending publication. The announcement said:

"The News Bee for several years has been published at a loss. So long as it appeared there was a place in the Toledo field for the News Bee, its owners have been willing to sustain these losses and make further investments on the chance the News Bee would in time become a reasonably profitable institution. This was done in the face of greatly increased production costs, due to mounting labor costs and rising newspaper prices.

The decision to retire from the field was based on the conviction finally that two afternoon papers cannot be published with fair profit for both in Toledo."

Honors Split In Balloting Over Country

Anti-Roosevelt And New Deal Backers Both Get Victories In Primary Voting

Roosevelt backers and anti-administration candidates divided Democratic honors in four primary elections yesterday.

In Missouri Senator Bennett Clark, frequent Roosevelt critic, won the Democratic nomination by a landslide. Former Governor Henry S. Gaultfield was chosen the Republican nominee.

In Kansas Senator George McGee, a Roosevelt follower, easily won the Democratic renomination. Former Governor Clyde M. Red captured the Republican nomination. Rev. Gerald Winrod, called a pro-Nazi by his opponents, ran third.

Governor Huxman, Democrat, was renominated and will be opposed by state Senator Payne Ratner, Republican.

In Virginia two Roosevelt supporters lost House races. Representative Howard Smith defeated William E. Dodd, Jr., three to one.

Former representative Charles Darden unseated Representative Norman Hamilton.

In West Virginia Representatives Ramsey, Edmonson and Johnson, all Roosevelt backers, won Democratic renomination.

Tactics used in the hot Kentucky primary struggle between Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley and Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler were denounced by the Senate Campaign Investigating Committee as "deplorable" and as a threat to the "free and impartial ballot."

The committee did not mention either Barkley or Chandler by name but condemned by name the tactics used by each to control the electorate.

Evidence gathered by H. Ralph Burton, a committee agent, and two or three assistants, disclosed widespread attempts to control the vote of relief workers, heavy contributions from Federal employers and a generally bad situation.

Chairman Morris D. Shepherd (D Texas), said National Guard troops which had been expected to march into Memphis for Election Day "on trained last night for South Mississippi to engage in war games maneuvers."

Simultaneously, John R. Neal, one of the candidates for the Democratic senatorial nomination, charged that Federal Judge John D. Martin exhibited "bias and prejudice" in issuing an injunction to prevent use of the troops here and suggested impeachment proceedings against the judge.

Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis (D Ill.), dapper, bewhiskered Senate whip, announced his plans to resign from the Upper House next year.

Lewis, whose term expires in 1943, said that by retiring in 1939 his successor could be chosen in the 1940 election and that the State would be saved the cost of a special election.

He said he would have resigned this year but for the fact that he felt he should "continue my support of President Roosevelt in his great work."

Baby Skunks Given Zoo By W. A. Adams

Four baby skunks, that released an aroma which could be detected for blocks around, were presented to the Sanford Zoo Tuesday by W. A. Adams, local farmer, who found the "kitties" with their mother on a highway outside of Sanford.

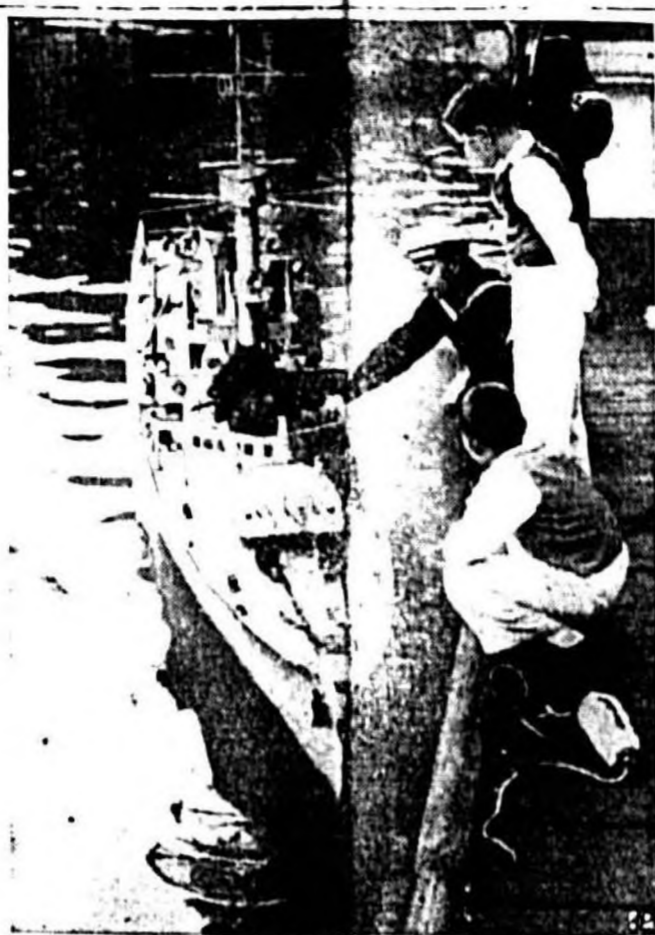

Mr. Adams drove the mother away and gathered up her offspring and came to town. It was only after his arrival within the city limits that one of the "children" became aroused and assumed an unattractive attitude resulting in a hurried call to the fumigating department.

The baby skunks will be on display at the local zoo after they have been trained in better manners, a process which is not difficult to perform, attendants at the zoo declared.

Sharon Calls For Trailer Camp In Talk To Jaycees

Points Out Sanford's Need For Facilities To Handle Tourists

Sharon spoke to the Sanford Jaycees in a talk at the University of Florida, Daytona Beach, Fla.

Sharon pointed out the need for a trailer camp in Sanford to handle the increasing number of tourists.

She said that the current facilities were inadequate for the growing number of tourists who visit Sanford.

Sharon called for the construction of a modern trailer camp with all the necessary facilities.

She said that such a camp would not only benefit the tourists but also the local economy.

Sharon urged the Jaycees to support her proposal and to work with the local authorities to bring it about.

She said that she was confident that the Jaycees would be successful in their efforts to build a new trailer camp.

17-Year Old Russian Leaders Girl Imitates Scout Predictions Of Major Conflict

Welfare Home Inmate Is Rescued As She Threatens Jump To Death From Ledge

LONDON, Aug. 3.—(AP)—A 17-year-old girl imitated Scout predictions of a major conflict between Russia and the West.

The girl, named Elna Wards, told the New York Herald Tribune that she had written a letter to the Soviet government predicting a major conflict between the two nations.

Wards said she was inspired by the Scout's predictions and had written the letter as a result of her reading.

She said she was sure that a major conflict would break out between Russia and the West in the near future.

Wards said she was now in a welfare home and was being cared for by the Soviet government.

She said she was very disappointed that her predictions had not yet come true.

Wards said she was now planning to return to her native land and to continue her studies.

She said she was sure that her predictions would eventually come true.

Dwyer Says Deputy Killed Dr. Littlefield

SOUTH PARIS, Aug. 3.—(AP)—Dr. Littlefield, 45-year-old convicted lover of a famous doctor, today named Captain Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll as the man who committed the murder for which Dwyer may be serving a life term.

Dwyer told the jury in court here that Carroll killed the elderly physician, Dr. James A. Littlefield, in a bathroom of the Dwyer house after the doctor had informed Carroll he knew "all about you and Barbara."

Dwyer previously refused to answer questions when he was arrested on charges of the murder.

The youth told the jury Carroll had accused him of the killing.

Barbara had called the doctor to the house to examine Barbara and to talk to Dwyer.

The youth said Carroll threatened to kill him if he told the truth.

11 Blind Persons In Seminole Get Aid During Year

Approval for aid to 11 cases of blind persons in Seminole County was granted by the State Welfare Board during the fiscal year ending June 30, according to a report received by the Herald.

Seventeen hundred and twenty-three persons were approved for aid throughout the State. The aid to the blind was approved by the State Welfare Board in December, 1937, and initial checks were mailed out in January of this year.

The annual report revealed that of these approved 881 were male and 942 female, that 181 lived alone, 198 with spouse, 355 with parents and other, 61 with other relatives, and 17 in institutions of various kinds.

The number listed as having no other source of income was 1,307, while only 96 had any gainful employment. Six were attending school for the blind, 7 were attending other schools, 39 were receiving education at home, 1,414 were not receiving instruction while the educational status of 200 was undetermined.

Seventy other types of public or private assistance were being received in the households of 1,153 of those approved. While recipients numbered 887 and colored recipients 625, 338 had no other source of income, 426 widowed, 51 divorced, 170 separated, 569 married, Native born numbered 1,424 and foreign born 69. Of the latter, 23 were born in Europe, 36 in North America, Seven hundred and fifty-four were born in urban territory and 769 in rural territory, almost an equal division. Only 276 were living in incorporated cities of 100,000 or more, and of these 112 were living in Jacksonville, 81 in Tampa and 14 in Miami. Sixteen cases were closed, 13 by death, with 6 never having received payment.

Pioneer Thrillers

The news from Paris that Pearl White has been gravely ill brings vivid memories to the minds of all of us whose recollections of the movies go somewhat beyond the days of Shirley Temple and Charlie McCarthy...

As we have seen Miss White on more than one occasion lifted from the railroad tracks in the very nick of time as the Twentieth Century Limited roared around the bend...

Recalling "The Perils of Pauline" and other thrillers in which Miss White starred in the pioneer days of the movies, the New York Times manages to reminisce a bit on these thrillers which held audiences of another generation spell bound...

There was never any one so put upon as poor Pauline. She was bound. She was gagged. She was hurled over cliffs. She was lashed to railroad tracks by villains at the darkest dye while railroad trains roared down upon her...

Those were the days of real movies. There may have been a bit of flicker, and you usually came out with a headache and of course it was long before sound, or color, had been considered...

Preparing For Hurricanes

As this is the season of the year in which hurricanes, if they come at all, put in their appearance, the American Red Cross, while always hoping for the best, prepares for the worst...

Upon the approach of a hurricane, it is recommended that:

- 1. Occupants of buildings on low ground near water fronts, which might be inundated or carried away by high water caused by the hurricane, should retire to safe buildings or higher ground.
2. Loose material and movable objects such as boards, garbage cans, porch furniture and the like should be placed where there is no danger of their being lifted and blown against a building or through a window.
3. Movable awnings should be raised and securely tied back or removed entirely.
4. Shutters should be firmly and securely attached.
5. Temporary lighting methods, preferably electric flashlights, should be arranged for use in case the electric current is cut off.
6. Large doors such as garage doors should be securely braced against movement either in or out.
7. It is a good plan to fill the bath tub with fresh water for use in case the water supply is put out of commission.
8. Occupants should preferably stay in rooms on the leeward side of the building, that is, on the side opposite to that against which the wind is blowing.
9. In buildings generally, it is recommended that one or more doors or windows be kept open on the leeward side of the building.
10. Persons are cautioned against assuming that the hurricane is over when the center of the storm, which is always relatively calm, is reached. The blows certain to be resumed in 15 or 20 minutes.

State's Dairymen To Study Problems In Five-Day Course

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 3.—Florida dairy producers and producer-distributors will have an opportunity to study and discuss many important phases of their industry when the University of Florida College of Agriculture holds its first five-day school for them from Aug. 8 through Aug. 12.

In announcing the school, Dean Wilmon Newell extended an invitation to producers in every section of the state to attend. "The purpose of the school," Dr. Newell said, "is to give the producers scientific information that will enable them to increase the efficiency of their industry."

A regular daily schedule of classes and demonstrations at the college dairy plant and dairy products laboratory has been arranged for the five-day period. Subjects and demonstrations to be studied and presented include bacteria and their effect on milk, clean milk, making bacterial counts, sterilization of dairy equipment, control of milk flavors, buttermilk cultures, manufacturing buttermilk and other dairy products, pasteurization, cooling, bottling, and Babcock tests.

The faculty will include Dr. L. M. Thurston, Dix Arnold, and Hamilton L. Brown, Dr. A. L. Shealy, and Dr. M. W. Emmet, all of whom are dairy or animal husbandry workers in the college. Others scheduled to speak during the school are Dr. H. Harold Hume, Harold Mowry, and A. P. Spencer, of the college staff; Dr. John J. Tigert, president of the University, and John M. Scott, state milk inspector. Dean Newell will welcome the visiting dairy producers at 7 o'clock Monday evening, August 8.

The school will be the first of its kind ever held in Florida and it will afford producers an opportunity to obtain detailed scientific information on dairy production not available to them prior to the establishment of the dairy products laboratory and the installation of courses in dairy manufacturing in the college.

New Stars Featured In Riotous Comedy

The warm response with which the movie-going public welcomed Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane as a new screen romantic team, has resulted in another co-starring picture for the two charming youngsters—"Men Are Such Fools," which plays Thursday and Friday at the Ritz Theatre.

Like "Love, Honor and Be True" in which Wayne and Priscilla made their debut as a romantic team, "Men Are Such Fools" is also a tale of young love, its heartaches and misunderstandings and its glorious reconciliations.

It is often amusing, sometimes exciting and sometimes thrilling, but basically it is an engrossing exposition of one of the uppermost problems of this modern age.

For the ordinary people of the world, this problem is: Should a wife continue to work at an outside job after marriage? For the intellectuals, it is stated as: Should a wife sacrifice her marriage to her ambitions for a "big"?

"Men Are Such Fools," adapted from a Faith Baldwin novel, never makes its points by merely letting the characters talk about them. It is a fast-paced succession of amusing, exciting and sometimes moving incidents, and for this the director, Busby Berkeley, must be given a large part of the credit.

Russian Leaders Scout Predictions Of Major Conflict

150 miles south of the great fortified Russian port of Vladivostok, where the leaders of Japan's Korean and Manchurian protectorates adjourn the Soviet Union's Pacific Division.

Authentic dispatches reaching Tokyo shortly after midnight from Japanese Army headquarters in Yanki, Korea, near the scene of the fighting, said Russian forces were continuing attack on Chungkinging hill which was seized by Japanese forces during the week-end after Russian forces earlier had taken it.

The hill is an exposed but strategic area where Japan and Russia have been quarreling intermittently ever since the Japanese created Manchukuo after expelling the Chinese from its riches seven years ago.

Russia's Red Army and frontier garrisons reported to the victor Josef V. Stalin that they were fully mobilized and ready for his orders to "destroy" the Japanese enemy along the disputed Siberian frontier.

Warlike warnings, packed with danger of an explosion involving two of the world's greatest armies as a general war, poured into Moscow from all parts of the Soviet Union.

Stalin conferred with his defense leaders within the pine stone walls of the Kremlin, in an atmosphere of reserve and watchfulness such as comes at times of crisis when governments fear that they may be called upon.

Rebecca Stevens Praises Florida School Sessions

Hudson Gives 4 Hits As Azaleas Win By 2 To 0

Miller Limits Sanford To Three Scratch Hits

Palatka Bunches Hits To Produce Runs; Verner, Stith, and deRamus Get Bingles For Lookouts

In a pitchers' duel that saw Gibbs Miller of Palatka limit the Sanford Lookouts to three scattered hits, the Azaleas eked out a 2 to 0 victory over the Sanford club Tuesday night in Palatka.

Sid Hudson, Lookout hurler, permitted only four blows but Maehloff and Miller secured hits when they were necessary to produce the winning tallies.

Fanning five Hudson issued three passes while Miller struck out four but issued only one base on balls.

In the third inning, Trammell singled and came in on Maehloff's double to left center to give the Azaleas their first score of the game.

The last Azalea marker came in the seventh when a walk, fielder's choice, infield out and a single by Miller sent the second run across the plate.

Sanford had five men left on base while Palatka had six.

Collecting hits for the Lookouts were Verner, Stith and deRamus.

Ada caught for Sanford. He was removed from the game with Gainesville Sunday when he was hit on the head by a sharply thrown curve.

The game was very short, lasting only one hour and 28 minutes.

Double Headers Scheduled This Month In League

Four Of Eleven Twin Bills Slated For Program This Week

ORLANDO, Aug. 3.—Eleven double-headers, each of vital importance in deciding fourth place in Florida State League play, are slated for presentation within the month, according to official schedule alterations released here today by League Secretary Peter Schaaf.

Four of the eleven will be played this week, on tonight at St. Augustine and on Orlando in the opening tilt of a series that will go a long way in determining the ultimate fourth place occupant who gets a shot at the league leader as the Shaughnessy play-offs open Sunday, Sept. 4.

Three double-headers are set for tomorrow, Thursday, in afternoon and night games. Palatka is at Daytona, Deland at Gainesville and Sanford at Leesburg.

Leesburg plays at Palatka in a double-bill Aug. 8, Daytona plays at Leesburg Aug. 12, with Leesburg going to Deland the next night for a double-bill.

Gainesville must play off a rained-out game of late July at Palatka on Aug. 21, while Deland owes Leesburg a game that is scheduled for Aug. 23.

Complete, the 11 twin-tilts, Daytona is slated for a double-showing at Palatka Aug. 28.

League directors meeting at Deland Saturday in a policy-making session, were invited also to attend the official presentation and unveiling of the 1937 pennant to the Gainesville G-Men in that city Friday night.

The ceremony is planned at 8:00 o'clock as part of a gala program preceding the Daytona-Gainesville game.

Directors voted to start the Shaughnessy play-off series Sunday afternoon, Sept. 4, the day after the league's regular scheduled.

Lookouts To Meet Gondoliers Here At Municipal Park

Sanford To Try For Second Win Of Current Week's Play

So far this week the Sanford Lookouts have won one game and lost two, having dropped decisions to the Gainesville G-Men Sunday afternoon at the Municipal ball park here and last night to the Palatka Azaleas. Monday night they had a field day at the expense of the Azalea city team, garnering 16 hits and winning 11 to 4.

Tonight will see Manager Bill (Rawneet) Rodgers' men attempting to even the score in games for the week, as they meet the Leesburg Gondoliers here at the Municipal ball park.

Tomorrow night they journey to Leesburg for a return game with the Gens. Friday night they take on the Sanford in Orlando and Saturday night sees them opposing the same club here.

With the addition of a new pitcher, Hank Bazer of Chattanooga, to the hurling staff it is hoped that the Lookouts' already vastly improved flinging corps will be even stronger.

Starting pitcher for tonight's game has not been announced.

Tight Scores Are Feature Of Most Games In League

Leesburg Takes Daytona Beach Into Camp By 2-1 Mark

In State League frays Tuesday night St. Augustine defeated Deland by 4 to 3 Leesburg won over Daytona Beach 2 to 1, and Gainesville handed Orlando a 7 to 5 set-back.

The rains ended a five-game losing streak in their home-town as they came from behind in the sixth with a three-run rally to make it 4 to 2. Rufus Jackson, Deland catcher who was hit on the head by a pitched ball, was rushed to a local hospital. It was feared that he suffered a skull fracture but hospital attendants were unable to report the seriousness of his condition.

Joe Marina pitched the Leesburg Gondoliers to a 2 to 1 decision over the Daytona Beach Islanders in 12 innings at Leesburg, Onis singled by second in the last of the 12th with the score tied, and advanced on McGowan's fielder's choice and was out at third on Gobel's fielder's choice. McGowan came home from second with the winning run when Marina smashed a hard single over third base.

At the expense of the Orlando Senators, Ken Willis, Gainesville finger won his eighth victory as he gave up only six hits and kept them well scattered. The G-Men scored five runs in the first inning on four hits, two wild pitches, two errors, and three bases on balls, and in the third De-Vincenzi's double, a sacrifice, and a single by Willis accounted for another.

The last run scored by the G-Men came in the sixth as McMullen walked west to third on Gallagher's second hit, and scored on Livingston's fly to right.

Pearl White, Ex-Heroine Of Movies, Dies

Dare-Devil Of The Silent Screen Always Escaped Villain But Dies Of Sickness

Made A Fortune In Pioneer Films

Retired In 1920 And Spent Most Of Her Time Since In Paris

PARIS, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Pearl White, first heroine of the old American movie serial thrillers who always did her own daredevil stunts, died today after an illness of several weeks. She was 49 years old.

In the days when the motion picture business was young, movie audiences sat on the edge of their seats thrilling to "The Perils of Pauline" and other serials.

The beautiful blonde heroine always faced death in the last scenes of each chapter but the following week the hero would save her and the villain, usually played by Warner Oland, would attempt another scheme.

Pearl White was the screen's first daredevil and she always did her own stunts. She grew rich, but her health failed in the early 1920's and she came to Paris.

America saw little of her after that save for visits in 1927 and 1937. For a time after her arrival here she was in a gray haze of society but in recent years she lived more quietly. She made few movies here and few stage appearances. The last one was in London in 1937.

Pearl White was born in Greenwood, Mo. She made her stage debut as Little Eva in Uncle Tom's Cabin at the age of six. At 13 she was a bareback rider in a circus. She went into the movies in 1913.

Florida Develops As Leading Resort In Summer Months

DELAND, Aug. 3.—It long has been contended that Florida is destined to be almost as much a summer resort as it has been a resort for those seeking winter comfort. This has been one of the points made by the management of the several exhibits of Florida's resources and attractions made at various points throughout the country during the past five or six years.

Now comes the management of the Gandy bridge to show that surveys made during the past few weeks prove that more out of state cars have passed over that structure during July than passed over it last October, the opening month of the heaviest tourist season ever enjoyed by the state.

General Manager Brown of Florida National Exhibits, points out that the Gandy Bridge survey shows that during July, 29 states were represented and that of the northern states Pennsylvania led with Ohio, New York, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin following closely in the number of cars passing over the structure.

"It will be noted," said Mr. Brown, "that the states contiguous to Chicago, Cleveland and New York City, in which Florida made its outstanding exhibits during the past five years, figured largely in the parade of summer visitors reported by the Gandy Bridge management, proving our contention that the exhibits made by the state at a Century of Progress, the Great Lakes Exposition, Seaside-Orlando and at the big railway exhibition in New York and Philadelphia were influential in making the people of these regions Florida vacationists."

WILL HE WIN?

Senator George L. Berry of Tennessee is seeking re-election against four opponents in today's primary.

Although Senator Berry was once an ardent New Dealer, whose ardor is said to have cooled, no direct New Deal issues are involved in this race.

New York Girds Self To Welcome Douglas Corrigan

Record Reception Is Scheduled For Hero Of 'Wrong Way' Hop

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(AP)—The big town is ready to give Douglas Corrigan, a hero by virtue of the most colossal navigation mistake since Columbus sailed for India and discovered America, a reception calculated to top all noise and attendance records.

The California flier, who made a non-stop hop from the West coast to New York and then flew from New York to Ireland in an ex-captured plane without permission and without modern instruments, is due to arrive here late this afternoon on the liner Manhattan.

New York's ticker tape parade city hall reception and a luncheon is set for tomorrow. It will be followed by Brooklyn's welcome in the afternoon and a mass greeting of Irish organizations at night.

Florida Merchants To Get Statistics On Their Business

Dr. Alexander V. Dye, director of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, department of Commerce, has advised Senator Pepper of Florida, according to information received here Wednesday from the Senator.

The reports, it was announced, will be inaugurated in September and will serve as an index to Florida business in that it will reveal the level of current retail sales.

Dr. Dye's letter to Senator Pepper follows in part:
"In September this Bureau expects to issue the first reports showing the current movement in retail sales for the state of Florida. The current statistical service is designed to keep retailers informed of monthly changes in dollar sales for each of the more important kinds of business. The District Office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce located at Jacksonville, Florida, will participate in this program, and co-operation and assistance has been given by chambers of commerce and retail grade associations throughout the state, as they consider the information of great value."

"These figures will enable each retailer to compare his own sales with those of the average of other retailers in the state representing similar kinds of business. These reports will also disclose the monthly sales activity of the more important cities within the state. The data upon which these monthly reports are based is secured from a representative sample of independent retailers throughout the state who furnish confidential reports each month. Participation is entirely voluntary, and the inclusion of the reporting store, as well as all information contained on it, by Act of Congress, shall be deemed confidential."

Primary Vote In Tennessee Seen As Large

Final Returns From Recent Primaries Gives New Dealers Little Consolation

NASHVILLE, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Tennessee voters mark the day today for a United States senator, governor and public utilities commissioner in a Democratic primary devoid of outstanding political issues but important as a testing ground for two powerful factions.

Interest, aroused in the fight between National Democratic Committeeman E. H. Crump of Memphis and Governor Gordon Browning for supremacy within the state, caused observers to forecast a record vote of 400,000.

Final returns from Tuesday's primaries in Kansas, Missouri, Virginia and West Virginia disclose little cause for cheering by President Roosevelt's followers, despite some balancing factors.

There is enough anti-New Deal tinge in some of the returns to raise a reasonable doubt over the outcome of the crucial senatorial contest next Saturday in Kentucky, where Roosevelt has invited a straight-out test of his party leadership by personal intervention in the Barkley-Chandler primary race.

To politicians, the most important portent of the four-state voting is the emergency from the Missouri primaries of Senator Bennett Champ Clark as a probably formidable contender for presidential nomination in 1940. The fact that his renomination victory was expected, if not the tidal wave size of the vote for him, does not lessen its significance. Unless he is defeated for re-election, observers here expect Clark to be frequently mentioned as a logical rallying point for anti-Roosevelt sentiment in the 1940 Democratic convention.

The outcome of contested Democratic primaries for house nominations in Virginia adds its own weight to the balance. In both cases Virginia voters appear to have endorsed the many Roosevelt stand against many Roosevelt measures by the two Democratic senators from Virginia, Carter Glass and Harry F. Byrd.

They defeated for renomination one representative runner-up on a new deal loyalty record and rejected emphatically an effort in another case to oust a Democrat for anti-New Dealism.

The Virginia results are confused, however, by the fact that the state's seven other Democratic representatives, including important figures in the new deal leadership in the house, had no opposition for renomination. In West Virginia all representatives were renominated on new deal platforms. All contenders for contested seats there also ran as Roosevelt supporters. The President and his policies were not a party primary issue.

That leaves the primary voting in Kansas to be studied for its political trends; and again the outcome is not heartening on the face of the record, to either administration or Democratic party hopes for November. Republican voters in Kansas have apparently prepared the way for party harmony. They placed the Rev. Gerald Winrod, charged by party leaders with religious and racial intolerance, a poor third for a senatorial nomination.

Republican voters rolled up impressive totals in the primaries, far out-distancing the Democrats.

Antlers Plan For 'Sympathy Party'

At the regular meeting of the Antlers last night plans were made for a "Sympathy Party" to be given for Collis Godwin, who was married recently.

A short talk was given by a new member of the lodge, Junior Whitson and Father A. D. Peck also addressed the group briefly, speaking on the work accomplished by the Antlers.

No definite plans were made for the New Sumner Joint meeting to be held the last of August or first of September. The "Sympathy Party" will be held next week at the regular meeting. All members are urged to be present at 8:00 o'clock.

$263,059 Called National Guard For In Seminole School Estimate

Budget For 1938-39 Term Is Released By Education Group

Calling for a proposed expenditure of $263,059, the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction adopted the budget for the 1938-39 school term at the County Court House Wednesday.

Last year's budget provided for a total expenditure of $337,115, but only $302,676 was expended due to failure of tax receipts to cover the amount.

The largest item in the budget is $172,840 for salaries for teachers and principals. Last year the amount was $180,790. The next largest expenditure will be for transportation, $21,520. Transportation last year cost $20,059.

Stetson Student Writes Thesis For Master's Degree On General Sanford

"General Henry Shelton Sanford and His Influence on Florida" is the title of a thesis written by Dorothy Primrose McKel's of Orlando for an M. A. degree in history from Stetson University, according to word received here.

Nine Stetson University graduates will be conferred with Master of Arts degrees at the formal Commencement exercises in the University Auditorium Saturday, Aug. 6.

According to Dean Charles G. Smith, director of the summer session, this is the largest group of students to receive advanced degrees at any commencement in the history of the university.

The theses written by the M. A. degree candidates this year are of unusually high caliber, Dean Smith stated. Two of them have already been accepted by other institutions as the bases for dissertations for Ph.D. degrees, and one has been accepted for publication by a professional journal in this country.

Following are the candidates for M. A. degrees and the subjects of their theses:

Mary Burdette Davidson, Parkersburg, West Virginia, English, "Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases in Jonson's Plays;" Thomas N. Farabee, Orlando, education, "A Study of Retardation and Failure in the Rural Schools of Orange County;" Charles Dana Faulkner, Bartow, education, "The Organization of a Guidance Program with Special Reference to the Bartow Junior High School."

Yahan Krikof Magarian, Orlando, education, "A Case Study of Juvenile Delinquency;" Patricia Martin, Orlando, English, "Milton as a Humanist."

Physician Says Chief Need Now Is Keeping Executive Quiet

By Laws Okeyed At Oviedo Meet By Citrus Group

Third Meeting Slated For August 16; Everyone Invited

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Dr. Stanley Erwin said today that Gov. Cone has recovered so well from his ailment that physicians and nurses are having difficulty keeping him in bed at the hospital here.

"The Governor's condition should continue to improve," the doctor said, "but we are unable to keep him quiet and to keep visitors away."

In Tallahassee the tax and office announced the appointment of Herbert E. Wolfe, 38, Augustine, to serve the unexpired term of C. A. Britton, Pensacola, on the Florida Industrial Commission.

Britton was appointed July 1, 1937, to serve four years but resigned some months ago when the makeup of the commission was challenged because both he and chairman Wendell H. Heaton, Tallahassee, represented labor.

E. T. Lay, Jacksonville, represents employers on the board.

A letter from Frank Hawk, executive director of the Social Security Board at Washington reporting evidence that recent merit system examinations in Florida were known in advance as a result of a request made on the printer by an official of the Governor's office, was placed in the State Industrial Commission's records today.

W. Hyanch Cone, brother and executive secretary to the Governor, told reporters:

"We don't know what he is talking about. I am not interested in the examinations and didn't know half a dozen people taking them."

"I can speak for myself and the other secretaries in the office."

University Students Hail From 46 States

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 4.—University of Florida is not looking for students for it has more now than its facilities were intended, but if an enterprising dealer in the registrar's office had dared to hang out a "wanted sign, it probably would have read, "Wanted, student born in Wyoming and student born in Nevada."

Of the 3,718 students registered in the university's last regular session, Registrar Harley W. Chandler said today that 98 percent, almost to a man, had been Florida born, and that every state in the union except Wyoming and Nevada had contributed a native son to the Florida student body.

But the old home state was far in the lead with its 1,600 native sons of the 3278. Georgia born ran 273 and New York was second with 172. Alabama, Ohio and Illinois each had 102. Pennsylvania 90; Tennessee 65; South Carolina 52 and Virginia 38.

POLL TREK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Between 600 and 700 persons working in Washington will leave tonight for their homes in Kentucky to vote in Saturday's primary election, the Democratic absentee voters bureau said yesterday. The train will make stops at Ashland, Mayville, Covington, Lexington, Frankfort and Louisville.

Tokyo Wants Disputed Section Neutralized Pending Decision By Commission

Meanwhile Fight Continues Hot

Mexico Turns Down Hull Proposal To Arbitrate Seizure

Japan Asked Soviet Russia Today to Agree to Stop the Fighting on the Siberian-Manchoukoum border where forces of the two nations have been engaged in a bitter battle since Sunday.

Terms of the proposed agreement were not announced at Tokyo but were understood to include Japan's withdrawal from the area, Russia's promise to keep out and an agreement to recognize the territory as neutral ground pending the demarcation of the frontier by a commission.

Meanwhile both countries exchanged sharp protests and the fighting continued. A Japanese army announcement said the Russians sent four battalions against the Japanese but lost 200 men, 15 tanks and 25 cannon when the Japanese repelled them.

Spanish government forces, shifting from the still active Ebro River offensive, stabbed at insurgent mountain defenses west of Teruel. Both sides claimed victories.

In China Yangtze River floods threatened to block the Japanese advance upstream toward Hankow, the provincial capital.

Another British-Japanese issue brewed in Hankow where Japanese troops posted machine guns around a British-operated church missionary society hospital and removed 100 wounded Chinese soldiers.

The Mexican government refused a United States proposal to arbitrate the issue of indemnities for the seizure of American-owned farms in Mexico.

Soviet Russia was reported to have moved up reinforcements in the Manchoukoum border hostilities which, officials claimed, Japan did not want to develop into war.

A fog which slowed the fighting yesterday was said to have enabled the Soviet command to strengthen its forces in the disputed Changkufeng area at the junction of Korea, Siberia and Manchoukoum.

Official circles declared Japan "fully prepared if necessary" and repeated their stand that the course of the incident, most serious in a long series of border clashes, depended upon Russia. (Russia maintains she is defending her territory and has not crossed the border.)

With the Changkufeng area recaptured, authoritative sources said, Japan would not advance further. Russia has contended that the sector is Soviet territory while Japan insists it is a part of Manchoukoum.

Sanford Boy Enters Model Plane Contest

Billy Holley head of Sanford and Leslie Adams and Joe Barley of Orlando, are among those model plane fans from the central part of the state who entered the state-wide model airplane contest being held today at the Daytona Beach airport, according to reports received from there.

The event is sponsored by the city's Recreation Department and according to Charles I. Herring, city recreation director, many entries were received from all over the state. Winners will be announced later.
