Bay's New Commission- ers Were Drafted By Him, That None Asked Appointment

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Governor Sholtz today announced the acceptance of legislated resignations of five highway commissioners and the appointment of four of five members of the new board.

H. C. Treadway, Tavares real estate, insurance, and citrus man was named from the state at large; Roy Ott, Ocala automobile dealer, from the Second Congressional District, after he resigned as member of the forestry board; J. A. Asbell, Ocala City contractor, from the Third Congressional District and W. P. Mooty, Miami commercial banker, from the Fourth District. Sholtz said he would urge the members from the First District later. He added that his new commissioners were drafted by him and none sought his appointment. They planned to hold an organizational meeting immediately to elect a chairman.

Treadway was named chairman of the new highway commission.

Youthful Escaped Convict Arrested For Street Brawl

William Williams, alias "Bud" Williams of Alachua county, who escaped from Raiford penitentiary several months ago after having served three years of a 25-year sentence, was arrested yesterday on First Street shortly after noon by Deputy Sheriff D. C. Broadway who had answered a call that a group of boys was fighting.

Williams' arrest was made only after he had made two attempts to escape from Mr. Broadway's grip. The youth had to be threatened before he would submit to arrest along with T. J. Terry, Mace Terry, and Son Terry, who with Williams, are reported to have been engaged in a fight with Tom Scott, local white boy.

Freight Rates Are Ordered Reduced On Strawberries

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Reduced freight and express rates on fresh strawberries from Florida to northern markets were ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission in deciding the complaint brought by Florida growers against the Railway Express Agency and railroad serving the state.

The Commission found express rates unreasonable and directed the new rate amounting to 120 percent of the first class freight rate to be put into effect. Freight charges on strawberries shipped by ordinary freight were ordered reduced at the first class rate applicable.

REPEAL BILL IS GIVEN OKEY BY SENATE GROUP

Judiciary Committee Sends Resolution To Senate Bearing Favorable Report

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Acting with unexpected speed, the Senate Judiciary committee today sent the prohibition repeal resolution to the Senate with a favorable report.

Limiting the ratification period to seven years the resolution proposes to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment, protect states from shipments of liquor and permit Congress to legislate against the return of the saloon. The vote, 10 to four, marked the first time a standing congressional committee has approved a measure to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment since it became effective 13 years ago.

A plan to make industry begin functioning on a normal basis immediately with government the agreeing to reimburse it for any losses incurred, was advanced before the Senate committee by C. A. Miller, president of the Reconstruction Corporation.

The House rules committee voted to give a privileged status to legislation making available $100,000,000 for crop production loans this year.

Asserting he did not believe that either the proposed raise in income taxes or sales levy could be enacted this session, Representative Ransy, Illinois Democratic floor leader, advocated strenuous efforts to balance the budget through economies.

The House met and adjourned immediately out of respect to the deaths of Representative Kendall, Pennsylvania, and Robert Butler, Oregon.

Demands from governors that Congress authorize $100,000,000 to be expended for federal aid to highway construction are worrying the leaders.

Speaker Garner said this would necessitate additional taxes, which undoubtedly would meet with the same storm of disapproval that greeted the proposed boost in income tax rates.

Only $25,000,000 has been provided for highway aid in the next fiscal year compared with the usual $125,000,000.

With the $25,000,000 in revenues expected from the Senate Economy Committee proposals, Chairman Byrnes of the House Appropriations Committee said that the goal of $100,000,000 in cuts of government costs should be made.

This, along with $12,000,000 from re-employment of the one cent a gallon gasoline tax, and the $125,000,000 revenue from beer, Byrnes said, would leave but $139,000,000 to be raised in addition.

Harrison pointed out that the proposed boost in income rates would not be as high if the remainder of the program is enacted.

The Mississippi deficit, however, that if the budget balancing program fails, undoubtedly there would be an early extra session in view of the Democrats' determination to make revenues meet expenditures.

While the program is to be whittled into shape by party leaders, some of whom are opposed to the income tax proposals, legislative action is to be delayed until the best bill is laid on the White House doorstep.

Chairman Culler said the Ways and Means Committee would not consider the tax proposal until then.

Republican sponsors of the sales tax are reneuing their drive for that levy as a means of balancing the budget. However, Representative Rainey, of Illinois, Democratic floor leader, who led the unsuccessful fight for it at the last session, said, "I don't believe it has any chance of passage at this or the next session."

Rainey said that 180 Republicans and Democrats who voted against the sales tax were re-elected to the new Congress, and that many of the members-elect ran on a platform opposed to it.

WALTER JENNINGS DIEN

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Walter Jennings, 74, president of the millionaire Jekyll Island Club died today. He was a director of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey for 30 years.

Legislatures Of South Stirred To Drastic Action In Cutting State Budgets

ATLANTA, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The South, with Virginia showing the way, is accused of drastic action to balance its state budgets, plug leaks in the financial structures and bring relief from taxation. Legislatures of North Carolina and Tennessee are in session and economy measures, including one to slash salaries of assemblymen 20 percent during the term, have already been passed into the law in the Old North state.

Next week the assemblies of Georgia, Arkansas and South Carolina swing into the business of cutting down the spending of the taxpayers' dollars to meet deficiencies in revenues which has struck heavily into government operations throughout Dixie.

Virginia closed 1932 with a clean slate and money in the bank. A unique clause in the appropriations bill gave the governor the authority to reduce expenditures if and when a decrease in revenue makes it necessary to keep the budget balanced.

Conditions made it necessary for Governor Pollard to exercise his power under that clause at the beginning of the fiscal year last July to save $1,500,000 to Dec. 31 and on the first of the year again saving $1,500,000 during the year.

G. O. P. SOLON OF PENNSYLVANIA IS SUICIDE VICTIM

Writes Note In House Office Saying Grief Was Cause Of Deed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Representative Samuel Austin Kendall, 53, Republican from the twenty-fourth Pennsylvania district, yesterday took his own life in his room at the House office building after writing a note saying grief over the loss of his wife was the cause.

A verdict of suicide was issued. The note was addressed to his children telling them the sudden death of Mrs. Kendall last Aug. 23 "was the most severe shock of my whole life and I have been unable to throw off my grief."

The body of the veteran legislator was found sitting in a chair by the office windows, a bullet lodged through his head and a pistol clasp in his right hand lying in his lap. William Whelan, House mail carrier, who had been befriended by the Representative, found him about 11 A. M.

Kendall left the home of his daughter, Mrs. Grace Marcona Angus, at 9:30 A. M. after having breakfasted with her and his children.

Kenneth Romney, sergeant-at-arms of the House, notified a son, Samuel A. Kendall, Jr., who lives in the city.

Sponsors Of Farm Show Are Pleased With Its Success

Highly pleased with the warm reception which attended their efforts in staging the fourth annual Seminole County Better Farms Show which concluded a four-day run at the City Hall last night, sponsors of the show today began laying plans for a bigger and better show for 1934.

Alex R. Johnson, general superintendent of the show, today said that "in every way that I know of this show has been a genuine success. We had an attendance that averaged the 8900 mark. Our exhibits were well presented and seemed to please every visitor. The products displayed, while not numerous, were none-the-less representative of what might be done in the county, and on behalf of the entire county I express thanks and appreciation to all those who contributed in making the show a success."

Mr. Johnson, who particularly pleased over comments made by W. W. Henly, of Gainesville, judge of the show display, who said that the quality of the livestock was here equal to any he had seen displayed in all Florida during the entire year.

Decision to extend the show through today came when so many persons expressed interest in the exhibit and suggested that it be open so that out-of-town residents and particularly winter visitors who crowd the nearby Municipal Zoo in great numbers on Sunday, might have a chance to see the agricultural development and progress of the county.

It is estimated that fully 2000 persons visited the City Hall yesterday, being the entire attendance in four days to nearly 6000. Prizes were awarded in poultry, egg, hog, preserved foods, and wood meat displays, and the judges are preliminarily identified with the industry they judged.

WIGGIN CALLS 1932 SLUMP'S TURNING POINT

Financier Sees World War Debts As Big- gest Barrier Facing Business Recovery

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—While asserting that prices would be higher had the inter-war debt problem been faced earlier, Albert H. Wiggin described 1932 as the turning point in the depression.

His annual report yesterday to stockholders of the Chase National Bank.

His statement on debt, made in his report of 1931, which gave the picture of the inter-war debt problem, explaining that it had frequently been misnamed. "I then said that I was firmly convinced that it could be paid by means for our government to initiate a re-organization in these debts at this time," he stated.

"I do not see this question at that time, we should not have the present prices of shipping, raw materials and farm products, but lost at the bank."

Discussing the current situation, in a chapter of his report which he entitled "1932, the turning point," Wiggin said:

"The point of the turning point and early summer of 1932 is over; financial confidence is greatly improved. For the first time in three years we had, in the autumn of 1932, a better than seasonal improvement in business. Although conditions remain very depressed, and political difficulties, national and international, are numerous, there is a new hope in the world."

"We are passing from the period of emergency credit devices—Reconstruction Finance Corporation, moratoria, standstills, and the like, into a period where the backbone of business, starting the movement of goods, balancing accounts and giving the farmers and prices by restoring their export market."

Sensation Promised In Compsn Robbery

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A sensational turn in the the investigation of $37,000 Betty Compsn jewelry robbery was forecast today by authorities who said a Hollywood "man about town" is under surveillance for the crime as well as for other recent film colony robberies. They said the man served as intermediary for victims and robbers in the past, and his arrest would astound the film colony. The actress continued her efforts to have police stop the investigation claiming she was threatened with death if she assisted the police.

SENATOR SMOOT JOINS RANKS OF INFLATION MOVE

Sees Remonetization Of Silver As Means Of Checking Slump

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The move for inflation as a stimulant for economic conditions has drawn into its ranks Chairman Smoot of the Senate Finance committee, who believes remonetization of silver at a specified price would turn the trick.

The veteran Utah Republican expressed the opinion yesterday that "there has got to be some form of inflation very soon if we are to improve conditions," and he said he was preparing legislation looking to aiding the silver industry.

Many bills dealing with the silver and currency question are on the Senate calendar or in the course of preparation. Smoot's present plan is to offer his proposal as an amendment to the Pittman bill which provides for the purchase of silver and the issuance of silver certificates.

Dissatisfied with the bill because it fails to specify a price, Smoot said his amendment would take care of that, but he has not yet determined upon a figure.

"We have got to have some inflation, but not over inflation," he asserted. "If we increase the price of silver and strengthen the money situation in that way by bringing in the metal an active value here, it will employ tens of thousands of people and help the general situation tremendously."

Chairman Melch announced that "Mr. Williamson had been removed from his post because a majority of the Commissioners thought that we'd get a better man. Whether we made a good man or not I don't know. We know that Mr. Williamson saved money for the county and a majority think that maybe Mr. Dann will do the same."

County Is Returned Collateral Bonds

With the payment of $20,573 to the Atlantic National Bank of Jacksonville, the Board of County Commissioners last week secured possession of $60,000 worth of county road bonds maturing between the years 1935 and 1938 that they had deposited as collateral for a loan from the Jacksonville bank in 1929, shortly after the closing of the First National Bank.

The loan was made for the purpose of meeting interest charges that were coming due late in 1929, and the funds are now back in the Sinking Fund account of the county.

Re-Opening Date Of Factory Is Postponed

Kerny, manager of the Eckerson Fruit Canneries, Inc. plant on Thirteenth Street, who Saturday afternoon announced to the employees that the plant would not be re-opened until tomorrow morning, today stated that it has been necessary to extend the hour for re-opening until Wednesday morning. Persons employed are asked to spread this information among other workers so that all will be spared a fruitless trip to the plant tomorrow morning, he said.

PROTEST MADE AS TO HEAD OF COUNTY HOME

Taxpayer Group Inter- cedes In Behalf Of Williamson, Recently Relieved Of Job

Appearing in protest before the County Commissioners in special session at the Court House this morning a group of Seminole County taxpayers headed by D. L. Thrasher, E. H. Kilbee, and Frank Evans lost their fight to retain W. C. Williamson, veteran local peace officer, as superintendent of the County Home when Commissioners S. F. Long, L. P. Mills and Boston Steele stood by their vote of last week when Mr. Williamson's release was voted over the protest of Commissioners John Meich and C. B. Searry.

Following the debate on the Williamson matter, a debate that was filled with personalities engaged in by Mr. Kilbee and Commissioner Long, the Commissioners rescinded their action in employing Dr. E. A. Carter, of Longwood, to succeed Dr. S. Pleston as county physician, and re-appointed Dr. Puleston for another year. Dr. Carter announced by letter that he respectfully declined the appointment.

Mr. Thrasher, who said that he was one of the taxpayers who "pay the salaries of all county employees, opened the Williamson discussion by asking whether it was good policy to release a "Man who has saved the county $100 in one year in the operation of the Home". He said that "Fair wages and friendship should be fostered; that the case had resolved itself into a matter of experiment or economy" so far as he was concerned, and that "Without casting reflection in any direction, I see no reason why a change should be made."

Chairman Melch announced that "Mr. Williamson had been removed from his post because a majority of the Commissioners thought that we'd get a better man. Whether we made a good man or not I don't know. We know that Mr. Williamson saved money for the county and a majority think that maybe Mr. Dann will do the same."

Mr. Kilbee arose to announce support of Mr. Williamson by declaring that "A grand jury of 18 men has approved Mr. Williamson's work on several occasions, and if they don't represent some authority in the matter then I won't have anything else to say."

Woman Shoots And Kills Husband For Unfaithful Action

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Mrs. May Crews, 35, shot and killed her husband, W. A. Crews, 39, in front of their home here Saturday night. She said afterward he was forcing his attentions on Mrs. J. L. Croft, a friend who resided with them.

Mrs. Crews was placed in the Alachua county jail by Sheriff J. P. Ramsey pending the action of the grand jury which convenes today.

Officers found Crews' body in front of the house where he had been shot. Mrs. Crews was at a neighbor's house across the road. Witnesses said Crews had been under the influence of liquor early in the evening and had forced Mrs. Crews, her small son, and Mrs. Croft to leave home. They hid in the bushes nearby, Officer said, and waited for Crews to become quiet. Mrs. Croft went into the house and Mrs. Crews followed a short time later.

Mrs. Crews said she saw Crews forcing his attentions on Mrs. Croft and shot him after an argument that followed.

If E. Crews, Lakeland, a brother of the dead man, arrived Sunday and said he would take the body to Lakeland for burial Tuesday morning.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

GOD KNOWS ALL.—O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. Psalm 69:5.

IN A LIBRARY

Sometimes when I have read a world tale... Of our own times; some story writ to show... How vile is humankind, how lecherous, low...

By James Norman Hall.

Free wheeling is all right, but what this country needs is a few more self-starters.

If all the rest of the world could pay its debts to the United States, this country would receive six billion dollars more than its entire federal debt.

Judging from the last report of Ernest Amos on state finances, it strikes us Gov. Sholtz is going to have a bigger job than even the most pessimistic anticipated.

Among prominent visitors to Florida is Harry F. Byrd, former governor of Virginia, and frequently mentioned as a cabinet possibility in the Roosevelt administration.

Day racing in Hillsborough is not going so good apparently. The Tribune reports that some of the racers are almost in danger of starving to death.

According to the newspaper publisher, Postmaster General Brown had to have a special line of business that he could get in the evening without removing his silk topper.

Attention of even higher income taxers than will have to be paid this year is not welcome to those who have to pay them.

The number of unemployed stood in November at 11,900,000, and it is said that the December total was even higher.

The Better Farming Show

The Fourth Annual Seminole County Better Farming Show has been brought to a close and the many hundreds of persons who visited the exhibits are almost unanimous that this year's show was the most successful both in the extent and quality of the entries and the arrangement and attractiveness of the many booths.

In singling out any specific exhibits for praise there is always the danger of slighting certain ones, but since all of them were meritorious there is no reflection if mention is made of some of the larger and outstanding features.

Among these were the special exhibits of the Century of Progress Commission, consisting of four dioramas depicting Florida scenes. One of these dioramas will be displayed in the Florida section of the Century of Progress Exposition to be held in Chicago and was of particular interest as a consequence of this fact.

The Florida Forest Service offering drew much attention and elicited considerable comment on the exhibit which supplied a scene-in-action portraying a forest fire, suppression tools, a moving picture projector and several reels. Speaking of this display, District Forester C. H. Schaeffer said: "Mr. Johnson and the Future Farmers took the material furnished by the Service and built around it an exhibit which very forcibly brings out the farmer's forestry program and the intimate relationship between forestry and farming in Seminole County."

The educational exhibits showing poultry, eggs, hogs, corn, home preserving, and meat curing were all of a high order, and revealed much careful preparation and planning, and tied with the educational display, showing the agricultural development and program of Seminole County, for popular appeal.

With each successive Better Farming Show disclosing a constant advancement, the time may not be far off before this yearly event will become the great annual fair of Central Florida.

The State Budget

That Florida State finances might be in even worse condition than many had anticipated was indicated in the inaugural address of Gov. Sholtz last week. That they actually are was definitely established on Saturday when the final report of Ernest Amos, retiring comptroller, was released for publication. In this the astonishing statement is made that not since 1927 has the state budget been balanced.

This statement is somewhat qualified by the explanation that "normal receipts for general revenue, the fund from which ordinary expenses of the State are paid, have not been sufficient to meet expenditures to be made by legislative appropriations, the difference being made up annually by transfer of money from other funds under special statutory authority".

The report is not clear as to just which funds have been borrowed from in the attempt to maintain the regular expenses of operating the State government. There are the sacred school funds, the rather large highway funds, and a number of other funds from which the transfers could have been made.

It is presumed that deficits caused in one fund by borrowing from it to make up for a deficit in another fund will eventually have to be provided for. This provision can only be made through the levy of additional taxes.

Ultimately the situation will have to be squarely faced and sufficient taxes levied, or sufficient economies effected, to operate on a pay as you go basis. The longer the problem is postponed the more innumerable it becomes.

What this state needs now is a budget which is balanced in fact as well as in theory.

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

The Misses Madge and Veda Ward-entertained the members of last season's Dinner Club at a delightful luncheon on Friday. The members of the club who were present were: Mrs. J. B. Latham, and the Misses Annie Lee Caldwell, Lillian Gibson, Mabel Head, and Madge and Veda Ward.

Mr. N. E. Reynolds and daughter Della and Bernice, left Friday for Fernandina after spending the holidays with Mrs. Reynolds' mother, N. J. Sternstrom.

Reports today indicate that California has suffered one of the most disastrous frozings in the history of that state. The trees are said to be frozen down and all the fruit is ruined.

Next Wednesday Yowell's big winter sale will take place and it is expected that it will be well attended. The ladies of this section have come to look upon Yowell's Winter Sale as a social event.

PROTEST MADE AS TO HEAD OF COUNTY HOME

That "if it was up to me we wouldn't make a change," Frank Evans, of Lake Mary, stated "I talked with five men living at the Home and they all said that conditions there are fine and that they are being treated better than ever before."

Commissioner Steele interrupted to say that "I acted in what I think are the best interests of the county," while Mr. Long, who first proposed Mr. Dann for the office, said "I've also acted in the best interests of the county. There is no personal feeling in this matter at all."

The discussion took a new direction when W. A. Tillis arose to say that "I understand that Mr. Dann draws a salary from the school board as a bus driver, and what I want to know is whether you're going to have a man working for you who draws money from two county sources?"

Commissioner Long said "Well, I know that Mr. Williamson got money from two county sources at one time," to have Mr. Williamson jump to his feet with "I want to say something right there. I did work for the county as a deputy tax collector for Mr. Jenkins and I collected more than $3000, using my own car and being paid only $45. I feel that I therefore helped the county in another way although I was at the Home at the same time."

Mr. Thrasher interposed with "Gentlemen, there's another evidence of his helping the taxpayers of this county."

Mr. Meisch asked for all those who favored Mr. Williamson's retention to arise, all but two of the being, healing the sick and casting out error. Their Master had explained it all before, and now this bread was feeding and sustaining them" (p. 23).

nearly 20 men in the room standing up while Commissioner Long said "I don't think it's fair, because those opposed to this matter ought to be here and show their disapproval too."

A. D. Smith, who appeared but did not speak in favor of Mr. Williamson said, "Well, the other side should be here now."

R. A. Newman, also favoring Mr. Williamson, suggested that the Commissioners call a mass meeting for a certain date so that both sides could be represented, and while the Commissioners looked at one another, J. Hilton Brown, of Chulohota, arose to protest against calling a meeting.

B. J. Overstreet, of Longwood, arose to say that "I think it is unfair to this Board for us to come here and ask the members to choose their opinions. We elected them to serve us and I'm sure that they've given the matter thought or they wouldn't have acted as they did."

Commissioner Steele interrupted his talk to say that "I'm sure that the members of this Board have guts enough to make a change at once anytime they see that they've made a mistake and I can say that I'll do it at any time."

J. A. Shepherd, pioneer local resident, said that "Since the story of this matter was printed in the paper I haven't heard a single person favor Mr. Dann's employment. I think it's wrong to let a man go whose been serving you well."

Mr. Kilbe renewed the matter of a man being employed in two county jobs at one time by charging that "Mr. Dann wouldn't be driving the school bus now for $100 a month where it cost $333 last year if the job hadn't been given him after an undercover meeting. I tried to get the job for an unemployed man out our way who has five children and it's a known fact that Mr. Dann got it after some undercover work." Commissioner Long answered Mr. Kilbe with "Well, Mr. Kilbe, since you want to make a personal item of this discussion, I'll tell you why you tried to get that job for the man you speak of. You promised him you would if he would vote for you," to which Kilbe answered "At least I didn't buy any votes like you did."

Mr. Evans arose to take issue with Mr. Overstreet's opinion that a citizen is out of place in appearing before the Board. He said that "It most certainly is the mark of a good citizen that he appear before this Board to protest or approve any matter which he has knowledge of or is interested in for the public good. Any man who doesn't express himself publicly before the Board but rather comments or criticizes in street corners is not a good citizen."

After Mr. Tillis' question "What are the charges against Mr. Williamson," had gone unanswered, Chairman Meisch called for a vote on the matter.

Commissioner Long said "My vote stands." Commissioner Mills said "We've considered Mr. Dann's application before this Board and we know why Mr. Williamson was given the job, since I voted for Mr. Dann last week I don't feel like changing my vote this week, so it stands as it was."

Commissioner Searcy moved that we rescind our action of last week and re-appoint Mr. Williamson," but the motion died for want of a second.

The meeting was adjourned shortly after Commissioner Steele said "My vote stands."

Mr. Williamson thanked the Board for its co-operation during the past year and said that he would have the Home ready for Mr. Dann's occupancy next Monday morning.

here. Young Kendall boarded a tunk where his father kept his personal effects at Mrs. Angus' home, and found an undated note which read: "Dear children: My work on earth is completed. The sudden death of your dear mother was the most severe shock of my whole life and I have been unable to throw off my grief."

"Every day has added to my sorrow and I can no longer bear my suffering which I have kept from you. Mother has been calling me to join her and little Van in heaven and I can no longer resist the call and am going to join them. Goodbye, Father."

The reference to "little Van" was the 3-year-old son who died in 1913. Kendall, Jr., said his father and mother, formerly Miss Minnie Edith Wiley of Liscomb, Iowa, had been "happy" until the early part of the time of her death and that his father had felt her loss keenly. She died of a heart attack.

Kendall was born on a farm in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, Nov. 1, 1859, the son of John C. and Elizabeth Kendall. He served 14 years in the House, entering first in the sixty-sixth Congress. He was defeated for re-election in November. The Pennsylvanian was a popular member among the postal employees throughout the country. He was instrumental in getting through Congress, as a high ranking member of the postoffice committee, legislation benefiting postal workers.

Chesterfields taste Better

WE HAVE been telling the public for a good many years that Chesterfields taste better. They satisfy!

That wouldn't mean a thing if smokers found out that it wasn't so. Nobody can fool the people very long.

But a great many smokers have smoked Chesterfields for a long time, and they know that they taste right. And so they say to their friends, "If you want a cigarette that really tastes better, try Chesterfields!"

Chesterfields taste better because they are made of mild tobaccos that have been aged for two years. And there is just enough Turkish in them... but not too much.

We are sure that you, too, will enjoy their Mildness and Better Taste.

Campaign Begun In Orlando For Cutting Tag Fee

We, as citizens of Florida, appreciate fully that you, as our Governor, are confronted with economic problems at this time and appreciating to the fullest your expressed desire to alleviate in every way possible the burden of taxation upon all citizens of Florida, and do herewith respectfully petition you as follows:

That you defer the payment of the 1933 tax imposed upon automobiles, until such time as may be required for our state legislature to meet and enact such a law as will provide for a minimum tax of five dollars ($5) and a maximum tax of ten dollars ($10) per annum on automobiles, privately owned and operated.

We impress the fact that it will be impossible for the major portion of the automobile owners to pay the present high tax as now imposed; that the greater portion of the automobiles now owned by our citizens are used almost exclusively in the pursuit of business; that the enforcement of a law which would deprive us and others from a means so vital to our livelihood is both impractical and unjust; that the emergency is so great and that the inability to pay so evident, that you are warranted in granting this request; and further:

That unless relief from automobile tax is obtained during the first half of the year, great hardship will follow also will very materially reduce the sale of gasoline and we believe that collections from excessive automobile tax will be offset in diminished consumption of gasoline.

We therefore earnestly petition you to provide means whereby automobiles may be legally operated until legislative relief is obtained.

Members answered the roll call by telling of mistakes they had made in gardening recently. Mrs. J. H. Colclough then read a paper on identification of trees in Central Florida, prepared by Mrs. E. B. Stowe and accompanied by labeled specimens of plants mentioned.

Mrs. A. C. Fort gave a talk on the subject, "Southland's Gifts to the Garden," in which she urged the more general use of lovely native flowers, shrubs, and trees in place of exotic plants, which must be nursed and cooled.

A ceremony for the five circle babies was conducted by Mrs. Walter S. Coleman who read the poem, "Roses," by Edgar A. Guest. The names of the circle babies and the date of their birth are: Elizabeth Allen, July 24, 1929; John Owen Leonardy, Dec. 24, 1930; Robert Eugene Park, Oct. 13, 1931; Theodore C. Pope, Jr., Oct. 28, 1932; and Mary Martha Meich, Feb. 21, 1932.

Present at the meeting were: Mrs. J. H. Colclough, Mrs. J. C. Hills, Mrs. Walter S. Coleman, Mrs. Enloe Curlett, Mrs. Augusta Covington, Mrs. V. E. Douglas, Mrs. J. C. Ellsworth, Mrs. A. C. "I'm glad we Looked at All Three!"

A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH EDWARD TRUMBULL (ARTIST), 166 EAST 38th STREET, NEW YORK CITY

"Look at All Three" was a sporting proposition. So we looked at the other two low-priced cars.

"Then we saw the new Plymouth. The first thing I noticed, naturally, was the beautiful body."

"My wife just couldn't stay out of the car. We both agreed that Floating Power sure is smooth!"

"We like it better and better all the time. It's a good-looking car. And it uses hardly any gas at all."

"If you ask me, Plymouth is America's next Number One Car"

TALK to any Plymouth owner! Ask him how he likes his car! You'll find the same enthusiasm everywhere you go.

Edward Trumbull's case is typical of thousands. Like the rest of us, he wanted to be sure of getting his money's worth.

That's why "Look at All Three" appealed to him. It sounded fair. So he looked, studied, compared... then bought a Plymouth.

Word-of-mouth is the strongest kind of advertising. Happy owners are a car's best salesmen. And Plymouth owners are happy! Talk to Plymouth owners about Floating Power engine mountings! Ask them about Hydraulic Brakes... a safety-steel body! And then ask a dealer for a Floating Power ride! You won't be pressed to buy!
