NIGHT RIDERS RAISE CAIN IN MANY STATES ALABAMA GINS CLOSING

Protective Measures Do Not Protect Gin Houses OFFER BIG REWARD

BUT ELUSIVE RIDERS OF THE NIGHT PLY THEIR TORCH RIGHT ON.

ATLANTA, Oct. 12.—Gins in Douglas and surrounding counties are being posted with warnings to close on account of the price of cotton. Sheriff A. S. Baggett of Douglas county reported to Governor Dorsey today, and added that he had offered a reward of $300 for arrest of the guilty persons.

The sheriff wrote that a "lawless crowd" is trying to get control of the situation, and suggested that an offer of a reward by the governor would have a beneficial effect. Governor Dorsey replied that threats against property for which the governor is not authorized to offer a reward, but that in case of destruction of any property, which is a felony, he would "be glad to offer the highest reward possible under the law."

Owners of threatened gins are guarding them at a cost of $10 to $15 a day the sheriff added.

No gins have yet been reported burned or otherwise damaged in Georgia, but many have been posted with threats of damage unless they cease operation.

First bloodshed in connection with widespread efforts of night riders to keep cotton off the market until the staple is bringing forty cents a pound was reported yesterday from England, Arkansas. Nora Canada, a negro guard employed at the gin of Thos. W. Steele, who had received a warning to discontinue operations, was found shot to death.

The heaviest loss sustained since the night riders' campaign began, is reported from Cameron, Texas, where the compress and warehouses of the Cameron Compress Company and 7,000 bales of cotton were burned Sunday morning. The flames destroyed property valued at $1,000,000. Some officials believe the fire was of incendiary origin and the authorities are investigating a report that an automobile driven at high speed was seen to leave the vicinity just before the flames were discovered.

Two additional cotton fires were reported in Texas Monday. The platform of the Farmers' Union warehouse at Rockdale was discovered in flames but the fire was extinguished. Several bales of cotton were reported destroyed in a fire at Thordale.

State Fire Marshal Williams, who has been investigating fires in the northern part of Alabama, reported to Governor Kilby that the fire which destroyed a store at Hanceville last week was of incendiary origin but that the destruction of a gin in Morgan county and another in Cullman county was accidental.

Gins in Moulton, Ala., were idle yesterday after the operators had discovered warnings posted on them some time Sunday night ordering them to close until cotton brought 40 cents a pound and cotton seed $40 a ton.

ALL OF A SUDDEN PEGGY

A delightful little screen comedy called "All of a Sudden Peggy" at the Star Theatre Tuesday. The star is Marguerite Clark and her chief characteristic is described in the title of the picture.

Miss Clark has the role of an Irish girl, Peggy O'Hara, who with her mother, a widow, is staying at the manor of Lord Anthony Craken-thorpe, an English nobleman engrossed in the study of bugs. Mrs. O'Hara is a noted scientist and is helping Lord Anthony write a book on spiders. The sister of the peer sends for her son, Jimmy, because she thinks Peggy has designs on Anthony. In reality the girl sees that her mother and the nobleman are in love and wants to promote the match. Jimmy, of course, falls in love with Peggy, there is a laughable mixup when Peggy makes a premature announcement of their marriage in order to render her mother free to wed Anthony, but it is all cleared up satisfactorily in the end.

The part suits pretty Miss Clark like a glove and gives her a chance to offer one of her best and most vivacious characterizations. Jack Mulhall is agreeable as Jimmy, and Lillian Leighton, Oral Humphrey, and Eddie Sutherland furnish good character bits. The picture, which was adapted from the stage play by Ernest Denny, was directed by Walter Edwards. It is a Paramount Art-craft.

FARMERS TO MEET HERE TONIGHT

IN THE COURT HOUSE TO TALK
MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE

The farmers of the Sanford section will hold another meeting in the court house tonight at eight o'clock and all of the growers of this section should be there. Not only the growers but the buyers and shippers as well, for there are questions that affect everyone engaged in the growing and shipping of fruits and vegetables from Florida to be discussed. The wage scale will be the principal topic and it is one that looms large on the horizon of the growers and of every business that is subsidiary to the growing business.

WESLEY GATHERING AT GAINESVILLE

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 12.—Perhaps the most notable gathering of Christian workers held in Gainesville this year will be the sixth annual session of the Florida Federation of Wesley Bible Classes convening in First Methodist church Tuesday night.

Tampa entertained this meeting of Wesleyans a year ago, when there were between 300 and 400 delegates in attendance, according to the registration records, but it is stated that a large number was present that did not register.

T. F. Alexander, of Tampa, president of the Federation, who is also president of the Tampa Rotary Club, is at present enjoying his honeymoon on the east coast, but is scheduled to be in attendance to preside throughout the meeting.

Following a plan carried out in the federation sessions a year ago in Tampa and which since that time have been used in every Wesley Federation throughout southern Methodism, the departmental work stands out as one of the most attractive features. Specialists from the Sunday school headquarters will be present to conduct institutes on the work of almost every department of the Sunday school.

Among the Sunday School leaders who are of the program which will cover the time from Tuesday night to Thursday noon, are Dr. F. N. Parker, Miss Lola Lawler, Miss Lilly Farnsworth, Rev. W. W. Carroll, Rev. W. C. Owen, Dr. H. N. Snyder, Miss Lois Rogers, Miss Jessie W. Nance and Mr. M. W. Brabham. These are some of the stronger men and women in Sunday school work in Southern Methodism.

Approximately three-fourths of all the government's receipts come from income and profit taxes. Nearly every source of revenue showed an increase over the original estimates. The increased use of cigars and cigarettes brought in large revenues.

CHAIRMAN OF ROAD DEPT. IS RETIRING

WOULD ACCEPT IT ON THE PAR- TIAL PAYMENT PLAN.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The railroads of the country appealed today to President Wilson against the ruling of the comptroller of the treasury that the treasury department might withhold from the roads all further payments due them under the guarantee provisions of the transportation act until final accounting had been completed by the carriers. Comptroller Warwick ruled that claims of railroads for income deficits during the period between March 1 and Sept. 30, certified for payment by the Interstate Commerce Commission for less than the total deficit for the entire period could not be made under the terms of the law. The comptroller took the position that the income guarantees to the roads must be paid in full and not by piecemeal.

Alfred P. Thom, general counsel of the Association of Railway Executives, explained today that the roads had appealed to the president, because they believed the comptroller's ruling was an erroneous construction of the law which, he said, clearly intended that partial payments should be made when the various amounts had been determined. The comptroller's decision, he added, would work an undue hardship on the railroads by postponing the guaranty payments to them until the final returns for each of the six months had been calculated.

Dance at the Valdez Hotel next Friday night. Boshnell's famous orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody welcome.

The "13" Club will give a dance at the Valdez Hotel next Friday night and the members are now on the street selling the tickets for the same. The DeLand Orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion and delicious punch will be furnished to the dancers all through the evening, the punch being under the supervision of that veteran master of all such delicacies, Hon. Eugene Roumillat. The floor is good and the weather is cool and there will be waltzes and one-steps for the older ones and the fast fox-trots for the younger ones and there will also be plenty of intermission where the people can get together and talk and otherwise enjoy a pleasant evening.

The dance is given to raise money for the new club house of the Rod and Gun Club recently organized here for the benefit of the local hunters and fishermen and fishermen and also for the visiting tourists who will find at the headquarters of the Rod and Gun Club all that they can wish in the way of amusements during the winter days and evenings. The Rod and Gun Club will also have a fine dancing floor where the younger set can dance at any time and this building will fill a long felt want in Sanford and the idea should receive the support of all the people. Instead of making a campaign and shaking down the long suffering public for money the club will put on a series of entertainments giving the people a run for the money.

NEWSPAPER MEN GET A PENSION

The measure would authorize an appropriation of 500,000 pesos to start the fund which would be increased by contributions of five per cent monthly from the salaries of the beneficiaries, contributions by their employers of an amount equivalent to one per cent of their monthly salaries, and by donations, legacies and the proceeds of theatrical and other benefits. The fund would be supervised by the press club of Buenos Aires.

Persons who have been employed in journalism for 25 years and are at least 45 years of age would receive from the fund 3 per cent of their ordinary salaries multiplied by the number of years they have served.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Miss Elizabeth M. Mussen and Miss Minnie Allen gave a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Mussen, in honor of Miss Evelyn Berner.

The house was very attractive, beautifully decorated with cut flowers and pot-plants, both in the library and parlor. In the dining room placed in the center of the table, was a large box with windows and doors, made to represent the First National Bank and standing on the steps was a miniature bride. The gifts were placed in this bank check. "With love and best wishes," signed, Her Friends.

Then she was asked to remove the many beautiful gifts from the bank. A novel feature of the evening was a mock trial, which caused much merriment. Soon after Miss Berner's arrival she was arrested by the sheriff (Miss Katherine Aycock) who wore a badge and carried a club. The prisoner was tried for desertion, having deserted her post of duty at the First National Bank where she has been employed for some time.

The attorney for the defendant (Mrs. John G. Leonard) and attorney for the plaintiff (Miss E. M. Carroll) examined the witnesses. A verdict of guilty was rendered and sentence pronounced by the judge, (Mrs. W. P. Fields) which was life imprisonment with her accomplice in the prison of matrimony. Delightful refreshments were served consisting of fruit salad, sandwiches, and tea. After wishing Miss Berner a long and happy life, the guests departed feeling that they had spent a very pleasant evening.

TOO MANY HOOKS FOR FLORIDA FISH

The Belleview Rod and Gun Club, near Ocala, has adopted the following resolution, which may be of interest to the members of the Sanford Rod and Gun Club:

"Resolved, That the Belleview Rod and Gun Club views as unsportsmanlike, and therefore, with disfavor, the use of baits holding more than one treble hook, and in particular, unreservedly condemns those brutal and brutalizing baits carrying five or such hooks.

"Resolved Further, That other organizations of sportsmen be urged to discontinue their use and manufacturers be urged to discontinue their production and to substitute more humane single and double hooks, failing which this club suggests to the state legislature the advisability of enacting a law prohibiting their use in the waters of Florida.

"It is unthinkable that the men of the South who use rod and reel are less sportsmanlike than those of other parts of the country, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that treble hooks baits are in almost general use, an almost unholty proportion of them having five of the brutal hooks, which means no less than 15 bars on which one game fish is invited to impale itself," said R. G. Betts, the official of the Belleview Club who sponsored the resolution. "It is the equivalent of hunting quail with a machine gun and makes the despised fish trap appear merciful by comparison.

"I think the situation is due to the fact that the fish laws of the South being so liberal and the fishing season so long, a lot of us never stop to think that a fishing fish deserves a fighting chance. The theory 'the more hooks, the more fish' seems to have obtained and in consequence the tackle manufacturers apparently use their five treble hook wood minnows as actual practice, it is probably that 'the more hooks the more weeds,' also more snagging and more profanity, is more generally the case and it therefore should not be very difficult to arouse sentiment in favor of more humane and less cussable baits; we hope so, at any rate.

"All, or practically all of the treble hooks in use are imported and if an appeal to the sportsmanlike instincts of American manufacturers is not sufficient, the mere elimination of from two to four of the hooks ought to so reduce their production costs that it should appeal to their pocket books, even if they do not care to shave the savings with the men who purchase and use their baits."

YIELD OF CORN GREATEST IN HISTORY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. — The 1920 corn crop promises to be the largest in the history of the country by more than ninety million bushels.

A yield of 3,216,192,000 bushels, compared with the previous record production of 3,124,746,000 bushels in 1912, was forecast today by the department of agriculture from a condition report on Oct. 1. The yield would exceed that of last year by practically 100,000,000 bushels. Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri will contribute practically all the increase.

In all the dry weather, free from widespread killing frosts, added the maturing of the late crop and during the month the prospects for this year were increased by 55,000,000 bushels. Frosts near the end of the month did little damage and the great bulk of the crop is now safe on that score, government experts said.

Spring wheat is threshing out poorer than had been forecast because damage, principally from rust, had proved greater than anticipated. The yield was estimated today at 19,000,000 bushels less than was forecast a month ago, this loss reducing the combined winter and spring wheat yield to 750,648,000 bushels, about 180,000,000 bushels below the big crop of last year.

Snake Charmer's Tale.

Ignorant people in India, are easily duped by the tricks of snake charmers, says the Detroit News. One of the fakes practiced is the putting of a harmless snake in a stupefied condition in a house. The people in the house are told of the presence of a snake by the snake charmer's companion, thus causing alarm. The charmer, who asks money to remove the reptile, begins to play on his bagpipe, whereupon the snake begins to crawl into the middle of the room, and the charmer catches it. In catching the reptile the charmer says he was bitten and falls senseless. His companion comes forward and puts a snake stone on an incision previously made for the purpose on the man's finger. The snake charmer recovers, gets up to the astonishment of his audience and receives a big present, finally departing with the snake and the profit he has made.

CHARTER NEEDS CHANGING

The charter of Sanford needs several changes to make it what it should be—the people's charter. For instance when a candidate wishes to make the race for City Commissioners he must have his friends get up a petition that should contain 25 per cent of the registered voter's names. And when you sign one of the petitions it binds you to vote for that candidate no matter how many of your friends might come out later. But here in the rub. Few people care to take petitions around and few people care to sign them when they are carried around and eighty per cent of the people who sign petitions never read them and hardly know what they are signing. Suppose the man who carries around a petition and gets five hundred names on it for City Commissioner.

This would be a majority and no other candidate could even get enough names to put him on the ticket. It is all wrong and should be changed to allow as many men to run for the position of City Commissioner as wish to run. This is a change for all race and the office belongs to no man or set of men and the editor of the Herald who is a staunch commission government man does not see wherein this part of the charter gives us what we want in the way of a free and untrammelled Democratic government. In fact we never intend to sign any more petitions for any candidate for the city commission. We will reserve our opinion and vote hereafter until election day and vote as we please for the city commissioners and we opine that many more will do the same thing.

PAPER SHORTAGE AFFECTS SCHOOLS.

A condition in the Philadelphia public schools foreshadows what the shortage of print paper means and what, if it continues, will be the result. declares the Fourth Estate, a newspaper trade publication. The shortage of paper in one of that city's high schools is so acute that pupils are forced to study from notes.

In many of the elementary grades school books are so old that they are unsanitary.

Although the board of education has made appropriations, the scarcity of books, caused by paper shortage and increased prices, has forced the board to transfer funds from other branches in order to help and this has not yet been sufficient.

This paper shortage clogs the wheels of education.

The effect on newspapers was felt some time ago.

Where it will lead to, if it continues, is a puzzle to the best equipped optimist.—Tampa Tribune.

SUGAR SHORTAGE THING OF PAST IN THIS COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The trials and tribulations of sugar consumers, brought on by the war, and added to by profiteers and speculators, are ended forever.

In other words, sugar prices will not go up again this year or next year. There is plenty of sweetening sugar around and the United States will have more sugar next year than the people can use. In fact, the whole world will have an abundant supply.

Profiteers, speculators and hoarders are doing the worrying. They still have much of the sugar and are going to sell it for less than they paid. Of course, millions have been made in sugar, but now those same fellows are going to drop some of their ill-gotten coin. The wholesale price has dropped from 26 1/2 to 14 1/2 cents the last few weeks, and it is sure to stay down and even go lower.

Statistics of production and supplies give good indication of what may be expected in the way of prices for the remainder of this year and for next year. The 1919 Cuban crop just closing is estimated at 3,750,000 tons, with 520,000 tons yet to be shipped. Last year's production was estimated at 3,972,000 tons. The total world's production of cane sugar available during the calendar year for 1920 is estimated to be 11,895,000 tons, as compared with 11,385,000 tons the year before, and beet sugar 3,346,000 tons as compared with 4,403,000 last year.

The world's production for this year is thus only about one and one-quarter million tons less than last year. But the United States has received more than her share of the crop, as is shown by total receipts to September 16 at all ports of 3,587,801 tons as compared to 3,239,859 tons last year, and exports since January 1 have been about the same as last year. And it is stated that the European deliveries are already made, so that the United States has the 520,000 tons yet unshipped in Cuba to draw upon. Altogether, somewhat more than 4,000,000 tons have been received or are available for consumption in America this year. The country's total consumption in 1919 was about 4,068,000 tons and in 1918, 3,496,000. The year's supply for the United States is thus approximately equal to last year's.

CHINESE KILL RUSS

Captives Are Shot to Death With Revolvers.

First Make Victims Dig Graves, Then Execute Them for the Bolsheviki.

Amsterdam.—The correspondent of the Handelsblad, who recently returned from a trip in soviet Russia, gives the following account of his investigations of the activities of the Chinese employed there by the bolsheviki as executioners.

"Such horrible stories were being told in Europe about these Chinese that I thought it worth my while to learn more about them. As a joke, I asked everyone who asked my opinion of the bolsheviki to show me some 'real man-killing Chinese,' but I always was told they couldn't produce any just now because they had all gone to the Denikine front.

"I was told the Chinese, if commanded by their own officers were excellent soldiers, but they ran like hares if their officers were killed. Executions are now very rare in Moscow, but, in August, when thousands of counter-revolutionaries were slaughtered, it was carried out by the Chinese because the authorities feared the Russian soldiers would refuse to do the work.

"The Chinese do this work indifferently—like they do all other work they are ordered to perform. They are blind, conscienceless tools in the hands of the men who feed them and pay them and who raised them from the position of coolies in which they came to Russia to the rank of soldier, of the guards.

"If the 'boltsjak' (his name for bolshevik) orders something, the Chinese does it, and he does it in his typically practical way. He first makes the victim dig his own grave and then shoots him with his revolver. He is not cruel about it, just practical.

"When boltsjak says kill, then he kills with an unperturbed face. And when boltsjak says, 'You may stop now,' with the same cool face he lets his victim go."

The correspondent after some weeks in Russia left when he was refused permission to make investigations freely as he pleased.

Assert Ancient Tribes Did Much Irrigating

Albuquerque, N. M.—That prehistoric peoples of New Mexico did a good deal of irrigating is indicated by the remains of canals and ditches found in the state, as well as in other parts of the Southwest, according to H. F. Robinson, head of the Indian Irrigation Bureau here.

The remains of 217 miles of ditches built by the Pueblo Indians alone are to be found, and there are evidences of elaborate water systems at the Salt River valley in Arizona.

These ditches were all dug by hand, according to Mr. Robinson, and clay banks and beds were constructed where the way lay over a sandy plain, while the method of blasting through rocks was to heat the rocks, crack them with large stones and remove them from the way.

COMMUNITIES SHOULD BUILD SWEET POTATO HOUSES

The sweet potato acreage in the state this year is much larger than usual, and if the yield is normal it will be unwise to try to market all of the crop at harvesting time. The best way to keep potatoes through the season, especially where they are to be kept in quantities, is by means of the sweet potato storage house. Since lumber is expensive it will be possibly more economical for a number of farmers in a community to join together and build a house which will take care of the potatoes for the entire community.

Everybody is interested in a scandal, of course, so there was plenty doing after the press-agent advertised her "Floral Kisses" and she gave up her stage job to take on as co-respondent.

The time for gathering and storing sweet potatoes will soon be at hand. It is a well known fact that throughout the state, as well as other sections of the sweet potato growing area, a large percentage of the crop is lost each year through careless handling and improper methods of storing.

Farmers should be sure to gather their sweet potatoes before the frost has killed the vines, as this injures the potato and makes them more subject to rot.

The digging and handling should be done very carefully; instead of being handled as stove wood it would be better to handle them as eggs, in order not to bruise and skin them.

Plans for the construction of the sweet potato storage house may be had by writing the Experiment Station, or from Farmers' Bulletins 970 and 847, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Brownlee and Mrs. Henry McLaughlin motored over to DeLand this morning.

Mrs. Samuel Puleston entertained Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 at her home on Magnolia avenue. Her Circle of the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary were her guests.

Mrs. F. L. Miller entertained at her home on Magnolia avenue Monday afternoon from 4 to 6. Her Circle of the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary were her guests.

Mrs. J. E. Pace met her Circle of the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary in the Church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time plans were made for much activity this winter.

John Cook, of the Cook Auto Co., of Orlando, was in the city yesterday inspecting his new building that is being erected on the Wilson lot on Park avenue just south of the Southern Utilities Co. office.

Mrs. T. M. Puleston entertained the members of the Gleaners class of the Presbyterian Sunday School Monday night from 8 to 10. A large group of ladies were in attendance. A pleasant evening was spent, and plans made for the further development of this large class were made.

Mr. Jack Sterett, of New Orleans, who is the guest of Mr. George C. Keller, at Orlando, caught a blind mullet while fishing from the bridge at the ferry yesterday morning. The fish is said by experts to weigh more in point of length than any fish caught in the St. Johns for a long time.

Braxton Baggett, of the B. & O. Garage has gone to his old home in North Carolina for a two weeks vacation. He and Perry Jernigan were arrested for running over the fire hose and Braxton pulled for home. Perry says it was the first time in his life that he ever faced a judge and he hopes it will be the last. Said it would not have been so bad had Braxton been with him.

Miss Lettie Caldwell entertained last evening. Those present were: Misses Mae Holly, Sara Warren Estery, Zeta Davison, Florence Henry, Ade Runge and Anna DuBoise, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and Mrs. Robert Hines, Messrs. Robert Green, Donald Whitcomb, Glenn Whitcomb, Theodore Runge, Robert Hines and E. D. Brownlee. These are members of the Executive Committee of the Senior Presbyterian Christian Endeavor. A unique program was arranged for next Sunday night, and plans were made for the coming of Mr. William Evans, of Chattanooga, Southern Secretary of C. E., who will hold an Institute in Sanford, Oct. 20.

PRICE SLASHING HITS SANFORD

Merchants about this country of ours have been anticipating lower prices and in order to make room for the merchandise at a lower price they have been cutting and slashing their prices, in many cases below cost.

The announcement by Perkins & Britt that appears elsewhere in this issue shows that they are the first to bring this price slashing to Sanford. We mean by this that they are the first to bring to Sanford the price reduction on every article in their store, a reduction big enough to mean much to the Sanford people.

Of all the very many unusual bargains that they are now offering, the clothing prices lead them all. We understand that all their suits, that ranged in prices from fifty to eighty dollars have been reduced to from twenty-two dollars to fifty-seven dollars.

The most of us have been waiting a long time for just such an opportunity as this and now that Perkins & Britt have done their share toward reducing the high cost of clothing for the Sanford people it is now up to us to grasp this opportunity while it is here.

Perkins & Britt are two of Sanford's merchants that have always been great believers in advertising and they have recognized the Sanford Herald as one of the best mediums. They have used it consistently and they attribute much of their success to their newspaper advertising.

Read what they have to say elsewhere in this issue and be amongst the first to visit the large stock that they have marked down to within reach of your pocket-book.

METHODIST NEWS NOTES

Mrs. S. W. Walker returned Friday from a short visit in Orlando.

Don't forget the regular weekly prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:30.

Look for the Methodist notes in the Tuesday's and Friday's paper for the present.

Shade Walker is home for a few days from Sutherland where he is a student in Southern College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Christy left Saturday for Jacksonville to visit Mrs. Christy's parents for several days.

L. P. Hagan returned Friday night from Avon Park where he was called on account of the illness and death of his uncle.

Miss Ruth Hand went to Jacksonville last Friday to consult a specialist and have her eyes fitted to glasses. She expects to return Tuesday.

Miss Fletcher of Sanford Heights had the misfortune of breaking her arm last week when one of the steps in her home gave way beneath her and she fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walcott have taken house keeping apartments with Mrs. J. D. Roberts, on Laurel avenue. Mrs. Walcott is a pleasing addition to the choir.

Junior League Friday afternoon at 3 p. m., after which Dr. Walker wants to meet all the young people and children under 16, to organize a Junior congregation.

Rummage sale. Mrs. Cowan will conduct a rummage sale Saturday and asks for the co-operation of the ladies. Those having rummage will kindly phone her before Friday and she will be glad to call for it.

Chicken supper. The Methodist ladies will serve one of those famous chicken suppers next Saturday night. Baked chicken, cranberry sauce, salad, dressing, potatoes and dessert will be the conspicuous numbers on the menu. Don't forget the date, Saturday night, Oct. 16th. Look for another announcement.

Mrs. E. T. Roe, of Plant City is getting up a Christmas box to send to our Florida conference missionary in Korea, Miss Lillian Nichols, and asks the help of all the Methodists. The members of Sanford wish to have their names in the good work and ask that every child bring something that a child likes, to the Junior League Friday afternoon. The box must go by October 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Mettlinger are welcome visitors in the city this week. Sunday Mrs. Mettlinger favored us with special solos and occupied her former place in the choir. Mr. Mettlinger was for 30 years the Sunday school superintendent here and feels a vital interest in its work and the people. We are glad to give both of
