

'Image Engineers' Now At Longwood

By ED NICHOLSON
 LONGWOOD—A bit of luck struck this city when Fabricon, Inc., decided to locate at 6700 Lake Street. The firm was originally installed in Fern Park. Due to increased business it was forced to abandon its 5,000 square-foot plant on Lake Street. The move cost the company more than $10,000.

One of its prized accomplishments is the designing of a European style beauty salon for the Temple Bay Hotel at Walt Disney World. When finished, it will be a three-level unit designed in elegance, comfort and pleasure for its patrons. It has produced many products for Walt Disney World, as well as for a number of Florida's retail merchants.

When completely installed here the firm is expected to become a reasonable sized enterprise. At present there are 27 employees. By October the payroll will list 45.

They are seeking talented and skilled labor. The firm has raised no barriers such as age, color or creed. They are looking for skilled carpenters and people experienced in working with metal and plastic.

The president of the corporation is John A. Zwicky, of Millwaukee.

S. M. Borstein is director of sales. Borstein, a resident of Casselberry, holds a master's degree in merchandising from Long Island University's C. W. Post College. A World War II veteran, he saw combat duty with a military police unit assigned to the Army Air Corps. He attends the Unitarian Church of Orlando and is a member of the National Sales Management Association.

Plant manager and design and prototype consultant is Leslie L. Lancaster, of Casselberry. Born in Washington, D. C., Lancaster has spent most of his life as a resident of Florida. A graduate of DeLand High, he served four years in the Air Force.

In the category of diorama, display and exhibits, he has worked with and for the following:

The company's artist is Julie Ann Vantaggi, a resident of Winter Park and graduate of Ringling School of Art. She holds a fellowship at Tollins College.

Members of Fabricon, Inc., foresee a great future and business growth within the City of Longwood in the next five years.

Glades Park Facing Vital Water Loss

NAPLES, Fla. (AP) — Everglades National Park is in danger of having its vital water supply drained away by the hands of South Florida's growing population, a National Park Service water specialist said Monday.

Miami Morris, chief of the division of water resources for the park service, said the "part that has tremendous resiliency or it wouldn't have survived this long."

But he warned a Joint Legislative Committee on South Florida Area Regional Organization that "it's at the bottom of the pipeline that supplies South Florida, and we face a critical problem because of the area's burgeoning population."

The committee is holding a series of two-day hearings on problems which extend beyond political boundaries. The committee members, however, are not politicians.

"Although the park water supply is dependent on what everybody else leaves behind, the safety of ecumenism between federal and state governments in the past two or three years has helped to provide the necessary water," Morris said.

He said the water now flows into the park from the Kissimmee Valley via Lake Okechobee and the Biscayne Aquifer is still within its historical range of high quality, although it has deteriorated somewhat because of pesticides, other chemicals and minor salt water intrusion.

Jack Malo, assistant executive director of the Central and Southern Flood Control District, said the committee that the Legislature should either establish a new agency or give overseeing powers to an existing one so that regulation of the entire South Florida water supply could be handled by one state government department.

He recommended the powers be granted to the FCD because it is already in existence and familiar with most of the water problems. Malo said the FCD now has power to regulate only the surface water in South Florida and cannot control the use and misuse of the underground aquifer.

"The water supply in South Florida is not a bottomless pit," Malo said. "The U.S. Corps of Engineers has already warned that by 1976 South Florida's water demands will exceed its water supply."

The four committee members present for the hearing were the two co-chairmen, Sen. Robert Graham, D-Miami, and Rep. James Lawrence Walker, D-Naples, and Sen. Phillip Lewis, D-Hiwassee Beach, and Rep. William Zink, Sr., D-Hollywood.

Further committee meetings will be held in Dade and Broward counties later this month.

2nd Radio Station Planned For City

By GARY TAYLOR
 SENECA, S.C. — "I've spent a lot of money, I hope I get it," were the comments of J. A. Gallimore, president of the Blue Ridge Broadcasting Company, Inc., in referring to a construction permit request to construct a radio station in Sanford. The Blue Ridge Broadcasting Company is a family corporation owned by Gallimore and his wife, Virginia, based in this northwestern South Carolina town.

The Blue Ridge Broadcasting Company owns two stations in Seneca, an AM and an FM station. The station proposed for Sanford will be an AM station broadcasting between 6 a.m. and sunset. The station will operate on 250 watts of radiating power.

Gallimore applied for his construction permit two years ago but the grant has been delayed due to (Continued on Page 3A, Col. 3)

 To the Seminole County Commission and the Seminole County School Board . . . just wonder, mind you (like all of the other taxpayers, I suppose) . . . but, now that the assessments have been substantially raised, when are we going to hear the good news of a reduction in the millage?

If the City of Sanford can do it . . . need more be said? And please, don't try to convince us of the "trouble" it would cause to re-work another budget based on these newly-found dollars, via the assessment route.

In case you haven't heard, "We little guys still believe in miracles, and that there just might be one . . . one of these days, even if it's only in the form of a tax reduction!"

Salvation Army is reading a campaign to raise $150,000 for a new Citadel in Sanford to replace the present 43-year-old facility on East Second Street. Newly-arrived Capt. Billy Lyons said a South Sanford site has been tentatively selected.

All of us are guilty of having memories, you know. Right now, I'll betcha that many could give the month of the year — much less the date, on which President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

It was November 22, 1963 . . . seems like a long time ago to some, and yet there are others who can tell you exactly where they were and what they were doing when told of the tragedy.

But, test your memory a little further . . . wasn't there a policeman also killed in that same city on that same date? His name was Officer J. O. Tippit, who left a wife and three children.

So many times you hear of the bad things about this country (when actually we mean those in government, don't we?), and yet on that day America didn't forget.

Contributions started pouring in for the family and by December 26th of that year more than $500,000 had been sent to the widow; and when the final amount was tallied it was over $600,000.

Certainly not enough for what they lost personally . . . Isn't it nice to be able to look back and come away with a feeling that there are some mighty fine people in this even finer country of ours . . . America! The Beautiful!

A flash-back of history . . .

The only fellow who never steps on anybody's toes is standing still.

Thomas G. Freeman Honored By National Awards Book

Thomas G. Freeman, of Casselberry, municipal judge of North Orlando, has been chosen for inclusion in the 1971 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America," according to the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Florida Jaycee's "Outstanding Young Man of 1971," Freeman is active in civic affairs, is a deacon of First Presbyterian Church and a member of the Sanford law firm of Stoneman, Davis and McIntosh.

Nominated by the Chamber of Commerce earlier this year, he was chosen for the annual awards volume in recognition of his professional and community leadership, a spokesman said today.

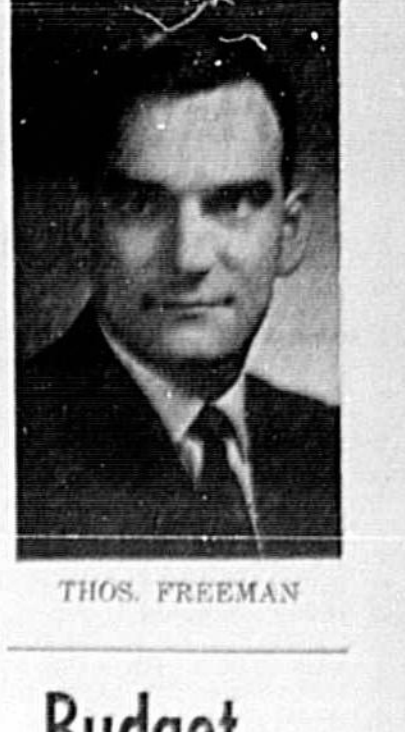

Sponsored by leading men's civic and service organizations, Outstanding Young Men of America honors men between the ages of 21 and 35 whose demonstrated excellence has marked them for future leadership in the nation.

"These young men," according to Doug Blankenship, chairman of the board of advisory editors, "are truly outstanding because they have distinguished themselves in one or more aspects of community and professional life."

Blankenship was U.S. Jaycee president in 1962-63. Nominating for the awards volume are submitted each year by civic organizations, Jaycee chapters, college alumni associations, and military commands.

President Nixon, complimenting the awards volume, has said, "Outstanding Young Men of America presents a most fitting testimonial, not only to the success of many of our young people, but also to their awareness of the debt which they owe our free society."

Publication date for the 1971 edition is November.

Budget Hearings Slated

By DONNA ESTES
 LONGWOOD—Special committee of the City Council will hold a series of meetings beginning at 2 p. m. Tuesday to prepare the budget for the 1972 fiscal year. And Councilman Sandra Thompson, Eugene Jacques and Agnes Weber are the three-member committee, indicated Thursday night. It will make every effort to retain the ad valorem tax rate of 1.97 mills.

"For the first time around we will try the same millage," Councilman Thompson said. Council Chairman E. E. Williamson interjected, "We had better leave the millage where it is." Councilman Jacques added, "I'm not for raising taxes. I want to win friends and influence people."

It is expected budget requests will be at an all-time high. None of the figures have been read as yet.

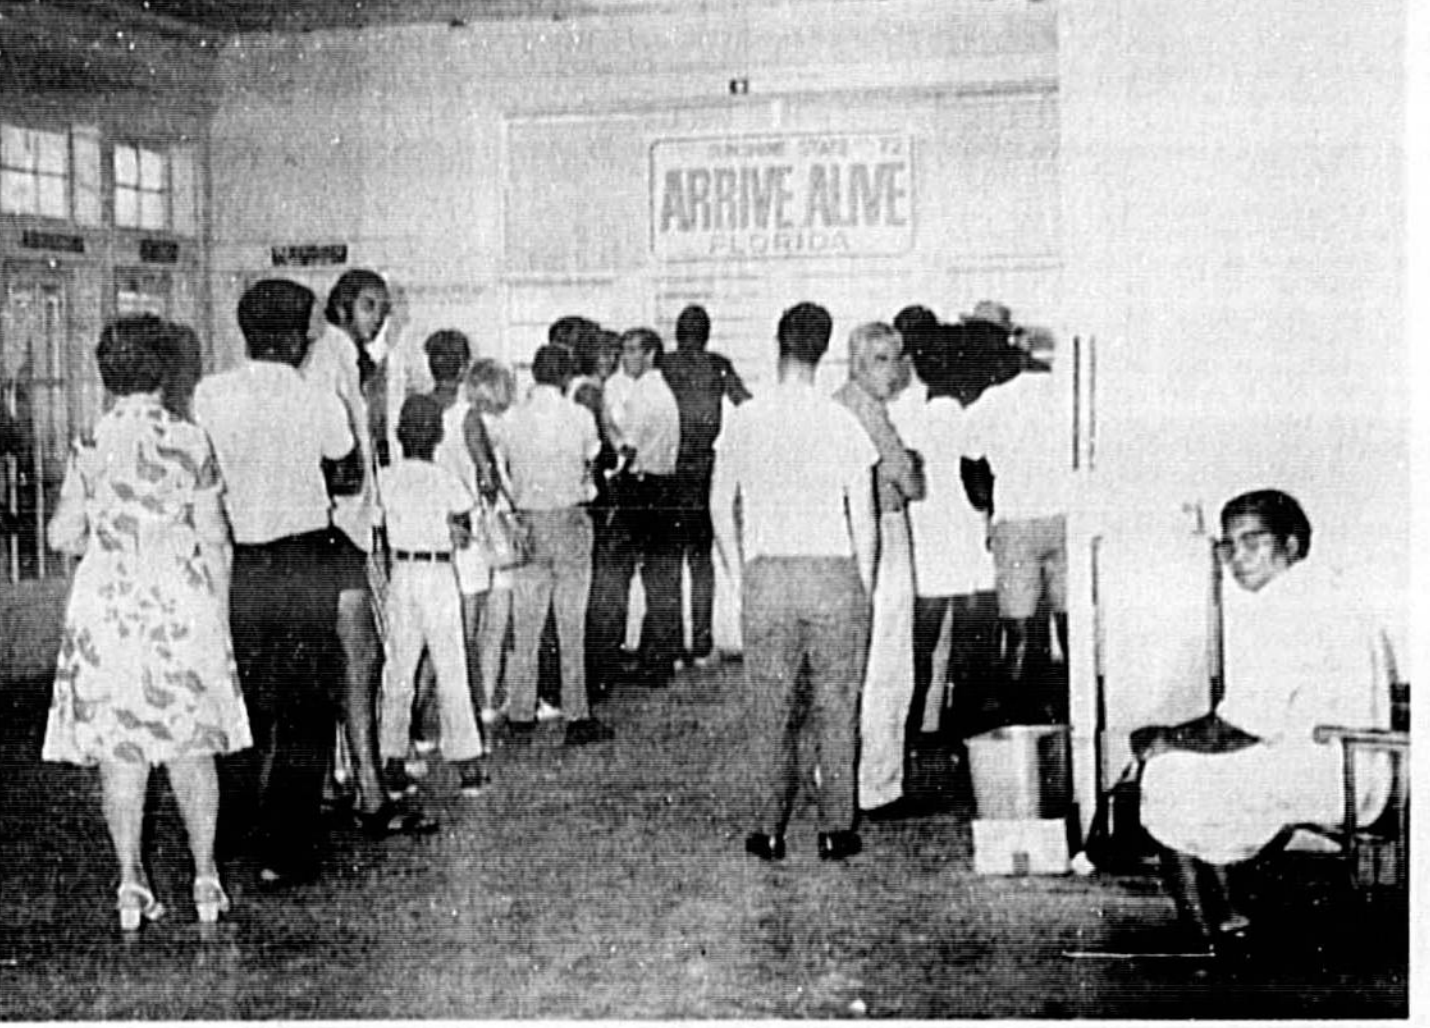

In other business at Thursday night's meeting, Mayor Robert Kallinoski reported to the board that cost of placing all city employees under the state retirement plan would be approximately $5,000 in 1972. If modest pay increases requested by the various department heads were approved, the figures did not include the members of the Council or the mayor. But when the plan is approved, and indication was it will be approved, it is expected the elected officials will be included.

Under state retirement Kallinoski explained regular employees would contribute 4 per cent of wages while members of the police and fire department would contribute 8 per cent and the city would match the funds.

Another option available is that employees can make their inclusion in the state plan retroactive as many years as they wish to pay the entire eight or 12 per cent for previous years' service with the city.

No one appeared at the publishing ordinance amendment hearing prior to the work shop meeting concerning the creating an historic preservation designation.

City Attorney S. Joseph Davis was instructed to draft the ordinance for adoption at next week's meeting.

Building Project Outlined

By BILL SCOTT
 Orlando home builder Bradley Odham disclosed at a Thursday night meeting of the Sanford Zoning and Planning Board his plans to purchase 50 acres of H. L. Hunt property at Onora Road and Sanford Avenue for housing and commercial development.

Odham, appearing before the zoning board with Harlan Haney, planner, asked the city for an indication of what type zoning this property would require for bringing into the city limits later.

He said the indication is needed before he proceeds with a land survey and engineering at the property. "I hope to come back to the city by Oct. 15 and would like to start actual construction in November," Odham said.

Lynn Risher, city building official, indicated this type construction might be handled under the city's planned unit development (PUD) regulation.

The zoning board postponed taking action on a request from Philip Zeuli and L. Sullivan, Sanford and Orlando build-

Three men have been arrested by county authorities on drug charges in the past 24 hours.

Ronald Byrnes, 20, Eatonville, was listed on possession of marijuana charges and his bond placed at $500, according to jail files.

Robert Cecil Ayers, 18, Fern Park Apartments, was charged by investigator Daniel Lane with possession and sale of marijuana. His bond was listed at $5,000.

Richard Patrick Cusick, 18, of 301 Oak Lane, Altamonte Springs, is being held in lieu of $15,000 bond on sale and possession of hallucinogenic drugs charges.

A second Eatonville man was arrested by county authorities on an attempted armed robbery charge in connection with the robbery attempt made on Richard M. Bagley, Seminole vice station employee.

According to Det. Sgt. Tony Calogello, Arceel Richardson, 24, was charged with being the driver of a car in which two other men drove to the station at the intersection of SR 48 and 14 and, pointing a gun at Bagley, demanded money.

The robbery attempt was foiled when deputy Constable David Reinmehausel came by the station, frightening the trio away. Richardson was arrested later after the service station attendant identified a photo.

In other action, Sanford Det. Sgt. William Lykens revealed this morning that a mother and her two sons, age 13 and 15, have been arrested on breaking and entering, entering without breaking charges, and accessory to breaking and entering charges after the home of an elderly woman, now in a nursing home, was burglarized.

Lykens, who declined to reveal the mother's name, because this would disclose the names of her juvenile sons, said the youths were arrested after he stalked out the old Simons home at 301 West Eighth Street.

The two boys had visited the house previously, Lykens said, and had planned to steal later. When they entered the house, Lykens arrested them and then went outside and arrested the mother, who was "keeping the room running."

All were placed in the city jail awaiting action from juvenile authorities.

Tenants Will Present Complaints To City

Rutha Higgins, Sanford Tenants Council, said she expects to receive a call today from U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) relative to recommendations it will make in attempting to resolve some of the complaints made against the Sanford Housing Authority.

The tenants are expected to approach the Sanford City Commission at Monday night's meeting and request among other things, the inclusion of blacks on the public housing board.

HUD representatives David Sager and Ralph Chewing were meeting this morning at an undisclosed location with Gordon Bralley, Housing Authority director, reportedly going over the recommendations.

Tenants are complaining about dilapidated stoves and refrigerators in the city's four projects and practices such as "anticipating" income used as a criteria for charging rents.

Bold Action Due From Traveling White House

President Nixon's bold leadership along the economic front, so evident in his TV announcement of his former "game plan" on August 15th, is now under fire.

a remarkable illustration of what the Nixon Traveling White House can do in times of crisis, as this period certainly must be rated.

This should not be. Nor is the domestic or foreign climate being calmed by the Nixon talks and remarks which he has made and will make during the cross-country peripatetic of the Traveling White House.

Oldster 'Family' Wins Fight With City Hall

WINTER PARK, Fla. (AP) — Twelve active oldsters who formed a commune in a 27-room mansion to save money, love each other as a "family" and help to care for the aged, have won a fight with the city to keep their home.

After a 40-minute visit with the elderly occupants and the 10-member family which keeps the home in working order, Judge Edwards said, "I have found these people are not in violation of the zoning ordinance."

"The whole atmosphere is very homelike and warm, everyone seems to genuinely care about each other, it is personal, free and spotlessly clean and really a delightful place where everyone seems to be extremely happy," he said.

"I think it's a great idea and it may be the front runner of things to come, I hope so."

County zoning officials had filed suit against the elderly people, aged 61 to 94, contending they were running a board and care home in a single-family residential area.

Share-A-Home began in the fall of 1969 when Jim Gillies, then a food consultant for nursing homes decided that retired people were confined to retirement homes simply because they had no place else to go. A devoted Luther, he said he decided it was time to help his fellow man so he contracted for the old mansion and its three acres of lakefront land. He also applied for a zoning exemption. When he was turned down, Gillies said he was struck by a passage in the Book of Acts which tells of the early Christians "living as one body in Christ."

"Every old person is searching for a place like this. I had institutions and I'd ever go back to a retirement home. "I've been in one. It was big and beautiful, but it had no love, no freedom. If I'd had to leave here, I would have gone to a park bench first."

The couple exchanged vows before the altar which was magnificently accented with a profusion of potted palms, standing urns and baskets of huge white mums, gladioli, carnations, gladioli and gladioli. A pyramid candelabra flanked either side of the altar. The family pews were identified with white satin bows.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a beige dress with a V-neckline, with complementary accessories. She wore a lavender orchid corsage and a silver place setting.

The groom's mother was attended in an exquisite mint green dress with a high collar and a high ruffled bodice was emphasized with Venetian lace over satin. The neck featured a high stand-

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I recently turned 18, so last night when I was out with my boy friend and another couple, I mentioned that I was going to register so I could vote. The other couple (both of them old enough to vote) said they had no intention of registering because politics are so rotten these days there is no point in voting. And my boy friend agreed with them!

I just bit my tongue and said nothing because I was outnumbered. I read your column every day, Abby, and I've never run into a problem like this.

Maybe if you say something it will change the minds of people like my friends!

CONCERNED AT 18

DEAR CONCERNED: No one said it was brilliant that Edmund Burke: "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing."

In a democracy, the place to improve the quality of leadership is in the voting booth. You should have spoken up.

What could East hold in his hand? Probably the ace and nothing else in the trick taking line. Now West saw a sure fire ace if East did hold that heart ace.

West continued diamond. South ruffed, entered dummy with a club, led a spade and finessed the Jack.

West took his king and carefully led his highest heart, the nine. East won with the ace, thought ashle and finally led a diamond. Now West was sure East held at least five hearts and with 11 red cards East was the sort to fly the flag to the five level.

Worry Clinic

By Dr. Crane

For what other system remotely compares with ours?

Does British Socialism furnish the "Santa Claus" formula to support the small, impoverished nations?

Are churches flourishing in Communist Russia and Red China?

Remember, our free grammar and high schools, plus the plush colleges, universities, and academies are the "fringe benefits" of our American economic system.

For they derive their support from the generous contributions of business, industry and the taxes of our "free enterprise" employees.

Since college professors all have a high IQ, but many of them are so illogical as to stimulate the masses with their theories that they are the "fringe benefits" of our American economic system.

That may seem explain why some silly seminars now attack our "free enterprise" system, though they are thus hitting the generous hands that feed them!

Housing Projects Rent Strike Seen

By BILL SCOTT
A rent strike against the Sanford Housing Authority by tenants may be in the offing unless efforts to resolve complaints are at least partially successful. This was divulged to The Herald by two members of the tenant council, who have met with Gordon Bradley, Sanford Housing Authority director, and members of a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) team investigating the operation of the city's federally-funded housing projects.

If a rent strike is launched against the housing authority all monies that now go for paying rent would be placed in escrow accounts to be held until the complaints are resolved, it was said. Tenants have been meeting to formulate a policy that would bring some changes to certain housing project regulations, which require tenants to be charged rentals based on anticipated income of families as opposed to actual income. Other complaints evolve around the requirements that force entire families to vacate apartments when an unmarried member becomes pregnant.

Many of the four Sanford projects have ranges that allegedly shock apartment dwellers and there are refrigerators that do not function properly. The tenants are expected to bring their complaints to the City Commission tonight when Rev. Joseph Smith, tenant council member, will ask for inclusion of black persons on the authority board, which is now composed of five white men, in spite of the more than 80 per cent black occupancy of the housing units. Other items to be brought before the City Commission tonight by Rev. Smith include proposals for improving the city's Goldsboro area, a predominantly black section.

The City Commission also will continue discussion of seeking a suitable site upon which to construct a security-police complex. Architects are expected to have information relative to probes of the soil at Marshall Avenue and 25th Street, one of the suggested sites for the police building. The Commission has scheduled also consideration of the Airport Authority Act implementation and each of the five commissioners is expected to bring seven names to submit in "secrecy" from which seven persons with the highest number of votes will be selected.

In Friday's column, we openly challenged both the Seminole County Commission and the County School Board to offer an explanation on when, if ever, we taxpayers could expect a rollback of the millage as a result of the huge increase in county tax assessments. We've been obliged by Commission Chairman Greg Drummond with a couple of important reasons, and will offer these to you today; but again, we issue an invitation to the School Board to also respond.

Essentially, there are millage items that are either new or stand out when viewing the county budget. As an example, it was the mandate of the voters (Nov. '70) for Parks, Mental Health and a Juvenile Detention Center. By pulling the lever—it carried a $284,000 price tag. (Remember, that's just for the acquisition of the land(s) and building, and still leaves the problem of financing for the administration of these three items.)

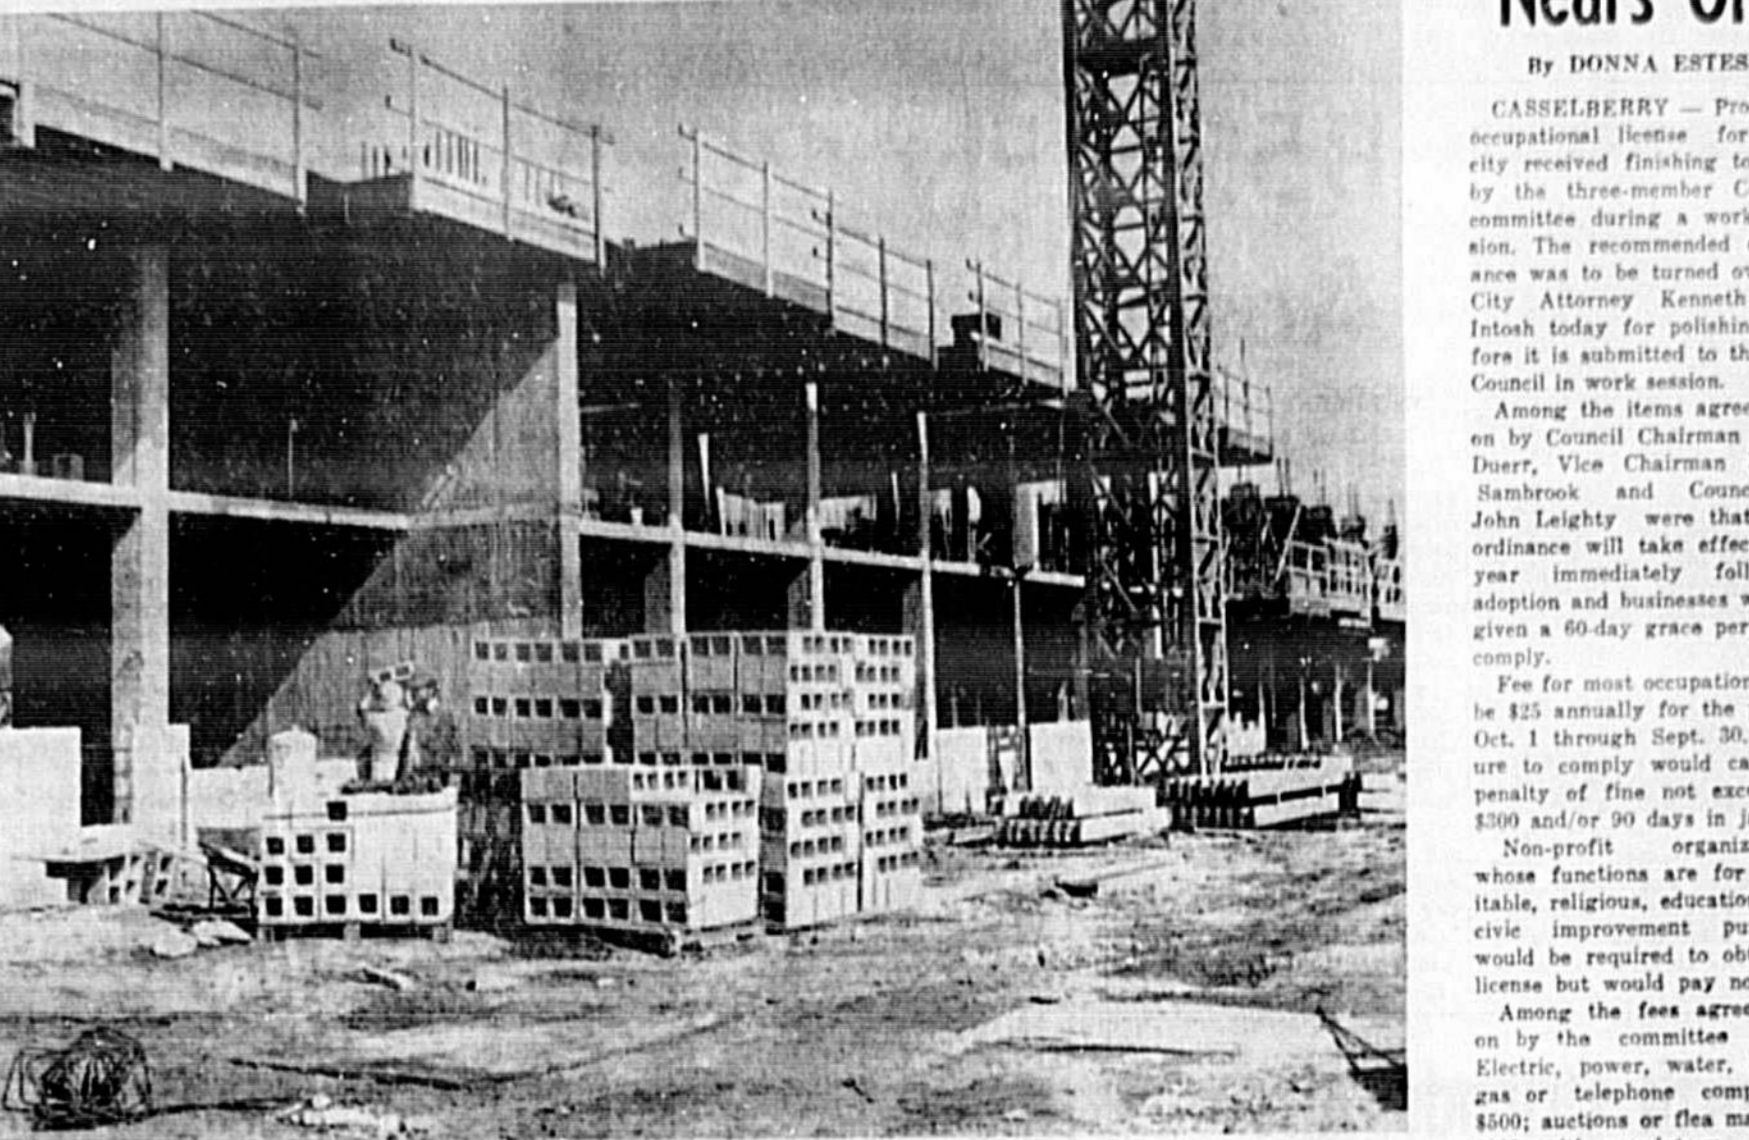

Sheriff's Budget . . . this has been increased 19% from the budget when Sheriff Polk took office. Employee's Salaries . . . by raising same, it still puts 'em 10% below the local market. (An asterisk reminds any of us to cite an instance of an "over-salaried" job.) State Rights-of-Way . . . this for the acquisition of necessary rights-of-way TODAY, at TODAY'S COSTS for future construction. Studies . . . required by Federal Government to keep Sanford and other municipalities eligible for federal sewage grants—$25,000. Studies . . . to provide solution to availability of potable water, this decade—not 10 years too late—$21,000. Voter Registration Office . . . this includes the cost for 1171 Corporate Tax Refundation. (Now is this being handled at the same time as the national primary? 3/72, it would amount to a huge savings.) We're talking about $38,000.

Six Killed In Prison Break Try

Young Attorney Is Sought For Questioning In Probe

By JEANNINE YEOMANS
Associated Press Writer
SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — The San Francisco Chronicle reported today that an Oakland attorney is being sought for questioning in the investigation into Saturday's bloody breakout try at San Quentin Prison in which Soledad Brother George Jackson and five others died. The paper said prison authorities identified him as Stephen Mitchell Bingham, 23, and said he was the lawyer who visited Jackson Saturday afternoon. The Chronicle said prison authorities reported that Jackson, minutes after leaving Bingham in the visiting room, produced a .38-cal. pistol and launched his abortive escape attempt. Bruce Bates, Marin County district attorney, confirmed that Bingham was being sought, the Chronicle said. Bates would not say precisely why. The Chronicle said Bingham is a grandson of the late Hiram Bingham who served as Con-

Piloians Reject Park Plan

By HERRY CUSH
Only three parcels of land are needed to enlarge Big Tree park, it was announced this morning at a County parks acquisition committee meeting. The three parcels of land total about 105 acres and negotiations are underway to add those to the entire park. Robert Overstreet is the owner of some 60 acres of the outstanding property being sought for the Big Tree site. Appraised at $1,200 per acre, Overstreet is said to be asking about $1,500 per acre. Second largest landowner of the three is the Piloian family, which says its 40 acres, appraised at $5,000, is not for sale at any price. The Piloians have asked that they not be "bothered" by the county and that the county seek land elsewhere upon which to build its park. George Shantz is the owner of five acres, for which he is seeking $15,000 for the parcel. Also brought up in this morning's meeting was the question of whether it is ethical for the county to use the same realty companies, Anderson Realty and St. Johns Realty, for both the appraising and negotiating of land. Robert Anderson, of Anderson Realty, stated it is not unethical and by doing so the county will save not just hundreds but thousands of dollars by using the same agents for both appraising and negotiating. It was pointed out by Commissioner Sid Vihlen that the county did advertise for appraisers and took bids for same. It was Vihlen who brought to the meeting word that certain realty companies in the county are upset over the fact the same realty agents are used for the appraising and land negotiations. The committee expressed the hope to have the ordinance posted and ready for first reading in September and second reading in October.

Annexation Bids Will Be Pondered

By MARION ETHEA
ALTIMONTE SPRINGS—This burgeoning municipality will see more growth with the second reading at a meeting of City Council tomorrow at 4:30 p.m. of three petitions for annexation and another request for annexation. Council undoubtedly will approve the annexation of the Valley Forge Country Club property which the developer plans to utilize for an office park on one side and a motel upon the other. The motel will adjoin Village Green Apartments. The area is being zoned R-3 multiple family dwelling district. A portion of the property which is owned by the Altamonte Land, Hotel, and Navigation Company on SR 436 is being deleted from the annexation. Also to be annexed is the Musgrove property which is in the Palm Springs section of Sanlando. This property is adjacent to Crane's Root and east of I-4, adjacent to city property. The R-3 zoning on the property encompasses eight lots, which are presently zoned A-1. Another tract to be annexed is San Sebastian, north of SR 236 and south of SR 134. One portion of the land is being zoned C-2, another R-1AA. This property had been delayed in annexation because of the fact that a legal description of a small portion had inadvertently been overlooked. A petition will be presented to Council for annexation of several lots located off Pecan Avenue. There will be a public hearing on vacating of certain streets on a dedicated right-of-way in the Sanlando tract. According to City Clerk Mrs. Jane Richards, a massive development is being initiated in this area and the streets are not needed as they were originally planned. This property lies in the Crane's Root area, in which a shopping mall is being planned, among other developments,

Second Suspect Held In Beating Of Man

By BILL SCOTT
Arrest of a second suspect in the Aug. 16 beating of a 70-year-old man who caught three men burglarizing a Geneva home was reported today by the sheriff's department. Charlie Chukes, 25, Orlando laborer, was arrested by Det. Fred Respass on eluding police officer charges and was served with a warrant from Constable Chester Boyd for breaking and entering in the burglary of property owned by James Mayfield Chukes, with a total $2,500 bond on the two charges, joins Eddie James Hill, 25, also of Orlando, who was arrested by Respass after the lawman stopped a car containing three men. One was Hill but the other two escaped a police dragnet that cordoned off the area between Cameron and Beardsall Avenues adjacent to SR 46 east. Hill was booked for assault with intent to commit murder, robbery and attempting to elude police by Respass after John M. Hughey, father of Deputy Sheriff Roy Hughey, was beaten about the head with a brick by one of the trio he encountered trying to burglarize the Scott Road home. Left in a battered condition, Hughey managed to alert a neighbor who called sheriff's officers with the tag number of the car, which Respass met and stopped. The detective said today Chukes was related to the breaking and entering charge when a hoist taken from the Mayfield property was found in the trunk of the car believed used in the escape of the trio after being spotted by Hughey. An additional charge of breaking and entering was lodged against Hill after a warrant from Justice of the Peace John Mehaffey was served on the man while incarcerated in the county jail. This brings the number of charges against Hill to four with a combined bond of $10,000.
