Babes, Bribes At Conclave Not Tax Deductible

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Any money spent for "babes and bribes" at that fancy dice jobbers' conclave in Miami last year won't be tax deductible, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) officials said today.

The expenditures for the "boozers" part of the entertainment could qualify as a legitimate business expense, they added.

The revenue service does not permit deductions for anything which violates federal, state or local law or public policy. This would cover all dice and horses, both legal everywhere in this country.

The "babes, bribes and booze" description of the Miami conclave was given by a House investigator who heard of the affair during the current payoff hearings.

Testimony before the Legislative Oversight subcommittee has brought out that record manufacturers spent more than $100,000 on the conclave, attended by disc jockeys from throughout the country.

Investigators were reported to be digging into rumors that girls were flown to the conclave from New York and Chicago.

IRS officials said any deductions claimed for expenses found to involve illegal activities would be disallowed without hesitation.

Oviedo P-TO Has 180 Members

The Oviedo P-T-O now has 180 members.

The count from membership chairman Mrs. Robert Lee was received at a recent meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. Rex Clonts and Mrs. William B. West were named as the nominating committee to get new officers for the coming year.

At the 8 p. m. meeting held in Oviedo's City Hall the members voted to buy a new hot plate for the concession plate in the Oviedo High gym.

Mrs. Lawrence Wood and Mrs. Henry Wolcott were named to investigate changing the meeting date from the second Tuesday to the fourth Thursday in the meeting month.

This would eliminate time conflicts for some teachers who attend meetings at night.

John Milum's 8th and 6th grade classes won the room count for the third time in a row. Paul Mikler asked members to turn out in support of the basketball team for the remaining home games.

Rev. George H. Gattien gave the invocation and later showed a film taken at the scene of last year's school fire, in Chicago.

Apple Becomes Silent Witness In Murder Trial

BOSTON (UPI)—An apple became an important item today in the first degree murder trial of a dapper radio operator accused of slaying his pretty shipboard girl friend.

The question in the minds of the 12-man jury was a vital one: Was the apple, Willem Van Rie nonchalantly picked up in the dining saloon the night of the murder the same one that police found in the cabin of petite Lynn Kauffman?

Van Rie, handsome 31-year-old Dutchman, is accused of beating the pretty Chicago divorcee and throwing her into Boston Harbor the night of Sept. 18 after what the state called a "torrid" romance. Her half-naked body was found the next day washed up on Spectacle Island.

Monday's closing witness in the fourth day of the trial before Superior Judge Frank J. Murray was Stephanie Spector of St. Louis, 12-year-old daughter of the dead girl's employer.

She said Van Rie picked up the apple as he left the dining saloon of the Dutch passenger-carrying freighter Utrecht and "tossed it in the air a couple of times" as he left the room.

An apple turned up on a shelf beneath an open porthole in the Kauffman cabin Sept. 19, the day the ship docked in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Utrecht purser, Andreas Van Oosten, testified earlier that Van Rie questioned him closely about the difference between murder and manslaughter and the penalties that apply.

"If you do something to somebody and it turns out to be fatal, is that murder?" Van Oosten quoted the defendant.

The purser, who grew impatient at times with the stalling course of the questioning by Assistant Dist. Atty. John J. McAuliffe, said the conversation took place some time after Van Rie was questioned four hours by New York police Sept. 22.

Integrationists Plan N. C. Rally

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI)—Leaders of a Negro protest against segregated lunch counters in North Carolina plan a mass rally in Durham tonight to bolster enthusiasm for the demonstrations that show signs of waning across the state.

Gordon Carey, a representative of the Congress of Racial Equality who came to North Carolina to direct the demonstrations, announced plans for the rally Monday night after Negroes failed to show up at lunch counters on streets along Raleigh's main street.

A demonstration in High Point was halted Monday after a fight broke out between two Negroes and a white youth. It was believed to be the first violence connected with the protest that has spread to nine North Carolina cities and some in South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and Florida.

$95,910 Health Center Bid Awarded

Work on the new Seminole County Health Center will begin in three weeks, Architect John Burton reported this morning after the County Commission met in special session and awarded the project contract to Shoemaker Construction Co. of Sanford on a bid of $95,910. The bid is subject to approval by the Florida Development and Public Health Commissions.

The center is expected to be completed six months after construction starts. The County Commission met Tuesday night to open bids on the center and at the time an apparent low base bid of $114,321 was made by Hicks and Vogel Construction Co. of Jacksonville. However, the board had several alternate bids to consider before awarding the contract, and the Commissioners wanted a contract that would not exceed $100,000. An alternate bid submitted by the Shoemaker Company, whose base bid was $121,290, was elimination of a barrel type roof, substituting a more conventional type, and elimination of an auditorium in the rear of the building.

For the same alternate plan, the Jacksonville firm said it would deduct $8,800. After going over the bids with Florida Development Commission officials and Dr. Clyde L. Brothers, new county health director, the board agreed to award the bid to Shoemaker. Other base bids were: Carroll Daniel Construction Co. of Sanford, $119,820; John W. Hock of Titusville, $148,700; Richard Builders of Winter Park, $180,130 and Vogt Construction Co. of Chuluota $123,000. The new center will be located between Eighth and Ninth Sts. off Hwy. 17-92. Cost of the building had been estimated at $100,000 with $45,000 of the funds to come from a Hill-Burton Hospital-aid grant.

Churches, Reds Linked

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sweeping Pentagon and congressional investigations were ordered Wednesday into an Air Force Reserve training manual which linked churches with communism and termed "foolish" demands that the American people know what is going on. Air Force Secretary Dudley C. Sharp announced the manual had been withdrawn from use Feb. 11, but said a full inquiry will be made to find out who was responsible for the publication. In Congress, Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.), chairman of the House freedom of information subcommittee, ordered his investigators to "gather every fact." He termed the manual "an outrageous display of arrogance." Sharp "categorically repudiated" the viewpoint of the manual which had brought a vehement protest from the National Council of Churches. Moss said his group may hold hearings on the situation. "We want to know who approved it and we want to know its distribution," he said. Defense Secretary Thomas G. Gates Jr. was reported "startled and stunned" at the contents of the manual. Sharp said he acted immediately on learning of the existence of the manual Tuesday. He found that Air Force headquarters had directed withdrawal of the document last Thursday, the day the church council sent a letter of protest to Gates.

Realistic Estimate Of Jail Cost Asked

The County Commission Tuesday authorized Architect James Gamble Rogers to present a "realistic" cost estimate for the new county jail and remodeling of present courthouse facilities at its meeting next Tuesday. Board members looked over preliminary plans for the new jail and courthouse remodeling job.

The new jail will be constructed adjacent to the courthouse on property now partly utilized for parking.

Sketches for the new jail reveal that the two-story structure will have facilities for 110 prisoners, an elevator and cells for mentally ill and juveniles.

Preliminary plans for remodeling of the courthouse show County Commission chambers, relocated on the ground floor of the building, with a seating capacity of 25.

An elevator also will be installed on the ground floor; the most expensive item in the remodeling project, according to Rogers.

Additions on the second floor will include additional space for the tax assessors and county judge and more counter space for the tax collector.

Additions on the third floor will include a law library, which will occupy the present County Commission chambers, a court reporter's room and additional space for a judge's chamber.

Mysterious Sub Believed Struck

PHIERTO MADRYN, Argentina (UPI)—The Argentine frigate Maturata attacked and perhaps damaged the mysterious submarine of the Nuevo Gulf Tuesday night, apparently with depth charges from the United States.

The boat, undetected for more than 20 hours, was picked up on sonar Tuesday night by the Argentine frigate King. The Maturata, following word from the King, closed in and also detected it.

The Argentine vessels promptly attacked the mysterious submarine and reports circulating here today said the Maturata may have hit it.

The report suggested the Maturata may have been using the late-model depth charges brought from the United States. Argentina's own charges had proved ineffective because they could not be detonated deep enough to be a serious threat in the 500-foot waters of the gulf.

Naval circles were optimistic about the possible effect of the attack.

Unofficial reports said the submarine was operating at about 10 knots—approximately half its estimated 20 or 30 m. underwater speed. It was said, however, that it was maneuvering more freely than the last time it was detected.

The submarine had been reported damaged by naval gunfire in a surface attack shortly after it was first detected by the King 19 days ago.

Unconfirmed reports said the U-boat was believed to be one of a type developed by the Germans during World War II and now used by Russia, Red China and other Communist countries.

Band Association Barbecue Saturday

County Health Director Sets 'Best Unit' Goal

"I hope to make Seminole County's health unit the best in the state."

With these words Dr. Clyde L. Brothers took over the office of county health director Tuesday.

Brothers comes to Seminole County with a wide experience, including the post of chief of staff at Alcatraz Prison in the early 1930's, and health director in Madison and Taylor counties.

Brothers a retired brigadier general, served in commands spanning the Far East theater of operations during the Korean War, Hawaii and in Washington.

He is a native of Richmond, Va., and has one son, who is a jet pilot stationed at Williams AFB, Ariz.

The 37-year-old medical officer said he plans to meet county Sanitarian Val Robbins to familiarize himself with county health policies until the new Health Center is built.

Although he said it was too early to discuss plans for the health unit, Brothers did say he hopes to enlarge the present medical staff to meet the needs of the county's growth.

"There is a great deal that has to be done," he said, "but it takes time and money."

"I'll have to cut the melon to the size of the budget now."

Hamby took his jug full of drinking water up and packed it with snow from the recent storm there for the return drive. He reported that icy roads caused his car to slide into a trench at one place near Nashville and made him enjoy Sanford's recent 45 degree temperature very much. Mrs. Ellen Tyre inspected the snow, quickly made a miniature snow map. (Herald Photo)

Nike-Cajun Rocket Falls Apart At 10,000 Feet

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE (UPI)—A Nike-Cajun rocket aimed down the Gulf Test Range fell apart at 10,000 feet Tuesday, ending for two months a try at measuring micro-meteorite activity 100 miles up.

Gulf Breezes Warm Southland

By United Press International
A broad cold air front dropped temperatures today across the Midwest and Plains states, but a stream of warm Gulf air brought rising readings to the South and Central Atlantic area.

The mercury fell to five degrees above zero in the Northern Plains, a drop of some 30 degrees in 24 hours. The weather bureau said the cold snap would extend as far south as Missouri and the Texas Panhandle today.

Temperatures along the Gulf rose five to 20 degrees and the warm breezes were expected to move into Maryland and Southern Pennsylvania.

Up to an inch of snow fell Tuesday night from the upper Mississippi Valley into the lower Great Lakes and Pennsylvania, and more snow was predicted for that area and western New England.

Grelle Won't Run

NEW YORK (UPI)—The withdrawal of University of Oregon star Jim Grelle from Saturday's National AAU indoor track championships leaves Phil Coleman of Chicago and Ed Moran of the New York A. C. as the favorites.

The 30-pound nose cone of the 24-foot rocket was aimed in an arc to reach 100 miles above the Gulf of Mexico, the Air Force said.

The rocket was to have telemetered data back to the Air Force Cambridge Research Center at Bedford, Mass., on micro-meteorite activity in areas where information on satellites is scarce or non-existent.

The rocket left the pad perfectly but the nose section "just seemed to disintegrate" at about 10,000 feet.

The Air Force said no effort would be made to recover the rocket and that another try will be made in two or three months.

Orlando Woman, Son Face Charges Of Stealing Truckload Of Loot

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI)—Police today cited the driver of a truckload of loot, including furs, jewelry and a pink wall telephone, allegedly stolen by a mother-and-son burglary team.

Mrs. Mary Years Manake, 46, and her son, David Carl Wuber, were held on a single count of burglary.

"That will hold them until we can find out where the rest of the stuff was stolen," said Lt. Sam Bush of the sheriff's department.

Mrs. Manake also has two daughters, aged 11 and 13. Among the items recovered from Mrs. Manake's six-room, rented house were 18 coats, jewelry, pistols, shotgun, a television set, and a pink telephone "apparently stolen off someone's wall," Sheriff Dave Starr said.

Starr said Mrs. Manake and David apparently would cruise through a residential area in her yellow Cadillac until they spotted a deserted house. Then David would break in.

They apparently burglarized at least 20 homes in this area, Starr said.

Among the items recovered from Mrs. Manake's six-room, rented house were 18 coats, jewelry, pistols, shotgun, a television set, and a pink telephone "apparently stolen off someone's wall," Sheriff Dave Starr said.

Seminole-DeBary Heart Council Buying Hospital Vital Equipment

The Seminole-DeBary Heart Council's gift to Seminole Memorial Hospital will bring improvements in heart operations at the hospital.

The council's fund-raising campaign has been so successful the Florida Heart Ass'n. has returned $1,400 to the local organization. The council is using the money to buy an oscilloscope and pacemaker for the hospital.

The equipment can stimulate the heart to keep it functioning adequately during an operation and can keep the heart beating in an even rhythm. Seminole Memorial Hospital has not had one of the machines and it is an order now.

The Seminole-DeBary Heart Council's fund drive will reach its climax "Friday" Feb. 20 when four-to-five fund-raising parties will be held throughout the county.

Union Leaders Report Of Output

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—The AFL-CIO executive council Tuesday demanded Congress compel employers to file data with the Labor Department to insure impartiality in labor output analysis.

New employers give data to the Bureau of Labor Statistics on a voluntary basis.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, accused the BLS of yielding to pressure from business firms and "evading its responsibilities" to the public by omitting analysis of long-term trends in output per man-hour.

You Can't Fight Flu In Public

The acting county health director, Dr. Robert Smith, said this week that Asian flu has become widespread in Sanford and other sections of the county and he recommended that people who have had colds or other flu symptoms remain at home to prevent spreading the germs.

Schools and governmental officials and businessmen have reported large numbers of absences due to illness during the past week of changeable weather. The flu has been around all over the place by those hardy souls who persist, no matter how ill, in going to work or joining crowds in public places.

When the health officer reports that about 10 per cent of our population has the flu and that the disease is at the epidemic stage, then it's time to give up completely and follow his advice about avoiding crowds.

The doctor prescribed staying at home, taking aspirin or other remedies and drinking lots of fruit juice—and, above all, staying at home—when obvious flu symptoms are recognized. This may take only one day or two, where "walking it off" may take a lot longer while "giving it to somebody else."

Do as the doctor says—it's a free prescription, but one of the best.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Milton's tall tales are not uncommon among young children. He occasionally catches students who try to gain social status by such lies. We print Robinson's tall tales only when they are of the nature of the following. In other cases, we suggest the analysis below.

CASE D — 491 Milton E. aged 10, presents a rather common problem.

"Dr. Crane," his worried mother begs, "Milton tells fibs. For one example, he recently informed me that he has a cousin who is in the movie star."

"And he also got them all excited about a Bay Beach trip he said he made into the wilds of Canada."

"Yet he has never been out of our home state, let alone Alaska. How did he do that?"

"We are new in this neighborhood and he has an older brother who makes better school marks than Milton, so could that have any bearing on the case?"

"Everyday he comes at lunch with this marvelous news."

"I want to find out!"

"Milton's tall tales apparently make him feel more important or more self-respecting in them."

"And the very fact that he reports such news about his cousin gives him a thrill among his peers, but I don't see how he has no other means of getting their attention."

"Many a child also becomes a 'movie star' at school by telling such tall tales and thus gains some social status among his classmates."

"A lot of juvenile delinquents rob and steal for the very same reason. Milton's mother has listed two dozen examples of his tall tales to tell me. He is a stranger in a new neighborhood and wants to get up to speed."

"And his older brother with the better school marks has showed him into an inferior status."

1 SHOT AN ARROW INTO THE AIR...

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON—Gen. Thomas S. Power released his tensions between sessions of his "life-and-death" testimony before the Senate Preparedness Committee in an unusual manner.

The four-star chief of the Strategic Air Command whined away the time by pulling off a lulu of a brain-teaser on an unwitting victim—Edwin Weid, counsel for the committee and one of the nation's shrewdest lawyers.

The brain-teaser contained four problems. Weid scored zero.

"When I heard Weid's stellar performance, I suggested to the general he ought to try the lesson on somebody stupid. He tried it out on me. Result: zero. This is how General Power, president of the committee, proceeded to his fourth problem:

First, on a blank sheet of paper he intersected two lines, drawing a big, wide "X."

"Now, listen carefully," he said. "First I will give you the hint to each problem and then we'll come back to the question."

In the next space, for problem 2, he set down a column of three numbers — 10, 4, and 11 — as he called out the story: "You're a bus driver with 35 passengers. At the first stop the bus discharges four passengers and at the next stop picks up 12."

At the bottom of the big X, the general drew a straight horizontal line. "This," he said, "is the boundary line between the United States and Canada. A plane flying directly over the border crashes with 30 survivors."

"For his fourth problem, in the space to the left of the X, Gen. Power wrote three sets of initials: "BB, PB, and MB."

The first problem, the correct way to write "a small 'f' with a dot above" the airplane did above the other, for the small "f" already contained the dot.

Glancing at my answer to problem 2, the general retorted: "I said specifically YOU were the bus driver."

My answer to problem 3 had the general shaking his head in mock disgust. He said: "One does not bury survivors."

For answer No. 4, the general's face fell into folded pity and he checked: "Now, you know there is no such thing as a mammoth bull."

Incidentally, what was your score?

Quotable Quotes

By United Press International
HOLLYWOOD—Negro singer Lena Horne, asserting, she has no intention of apologizing for throwing ash trays, glasses and a lamp at a man she claims made insulting remarks about her race:

"My anger is directed at something that was wrong, not at anything I have to apologize for."

NORTH MIAMI, Fla.—Former President Truman, issuing a prediction about this year's presidential election:

"Anyone who believes Democrats nominate will beat hell out of Dick Nixon."

LONDON—An American Embassy spokesman, stating that a huge, gold-tinted eagle will be mounted atop the new embassy building despite many British objections:

"This matter has been directed from Washington as part of the word wide embassy building program. Our feelings have nothing to do with it."

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Mrs. Arthur B. Sweeney, of Blackstone, Mass., whose three daughters were born Feb. 17, 1927, Feb. 17, 1930, and Feb. 17, 1933, announcing a hospital and expecting to give birth to her fourth child today:

"They just seem to always arrive on Feb. 17."

New York City's first streetcars—horse-drawn, of course—appeared in 1832. They ran on granite-supported rails laid along Fourth Avenue between Prince and 14th Streets.

Anti-Polio Tonic Tried In Dade In Mass Program

MIAMI (UPI)—Miami and Dade County are trying to knock out polio by feeding everyone under 40 a drinkable pink vaccine.

The campaign began Monday.

More than 7,000 children and adults gulped the vaccine, and by May 15 authorities hope to have all under 40, including newborn infants, take the one-ounce dose.

That will mean 330,000 drinks, a tall order.

But county officials figure that since the process is painless—any time—they will have even greater success than they did in getting people to take the needle full of talk vaccine when it came out.

The school children—five to 13 years old—have fun out of the program.

County health nurses pour the cherry-colored liquid, diluted with distilled water, into paper cups and tell the children to "drink it all—down the hatch."

Teachers take their medicine too, as an example to the children.

Happiness Through Health (By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

The Basis

Chiropractic is based upon the assumption that all diseases have their cause in subluxation—that is, spinal displacements, which exercise undue pressure on the spinal nerves. This impairment, or pinch, restricts the flow of mental impulses at some point in their passage through the nerves, from their origin in the brain to the tissues which they supply with mental energy.

Our source of food supply is cut off, and they give notice in their own way by abnormal expression — by giving us pain. For pain is the cry of an injured nerve.

The logical way to health is to remove the cause of the disease.

The Chiropractor is the expert engineer whose practiced eye and skillful hands adjusts the broken-down human machine, restoring it to robust health.

One of a series of articles published by the public interest in chiropractic and illustrates the practice of chiropractic Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin, is published in the issue of February 17, 1949, and is available in paperback for $1.50.

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — The critical test of Sen. Lyndon Johnson's capacity for leadership now takes the center ring. A high wire balancing act, death-defying, impossible by any rational calculation, it has to come off if the senator is to further his ambition to be president of the United States.

The Senate must pass a civil rights bill that has the Johnson stamp of approval if it does not actually carry the LBJ brand. And this must be brought about without offending the Deep South, which is the base of Johnson's delegate strength.

The reasons this must happen are fairly evident. They are grounded in the report of the Civil Rights Commission created by Congress and named by President Eisenhower. On the commission were three southerners—two from the South and one from the North who is in for profound changes.

When the oratory of the bloody shirt has subsided, the test will come. The shrewd Johnson strategy at that point will be to let the western senators take the lead. They can be relatively detached as between the southern and the northerners from the big cities. And, what is more important, many of the westerners are already on Johnson's side. They represent the kind of backing essential to him if he is to have chance for the presidential nomination.

But still the going will be rough. Minority Leader Everett Dirksen has put in a civil rights bill embodying the proposal for referees within the judicial framework as against the Civil Rights Commission's proposal for referees to be presidentially appointed. Nixon and the Republicans know they must nail this one down so they can make a realistic appeal to Negro voters in states where those votes are decisive.

Fortunately for Johnson, he has in the chairman of the Rules Committee, Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr., not only the ablest authority in the Senate on the Constitution but a determined advocate of civil rights. And, fortunately for those who believe that the guarantees of the Constitution must be lived up to the good of Johnson's ambition is a powerful motivating force.

Women on the Go

BY JEANNE WANKE

ELIZABETH AND FRANK MEANE had a scintillating evening last Friday as they attended the Junior League's third annual Opera Gala at the Orlando Municipal Auditorium—and afterwards the champagne breakfast at the Charles O. Andrews estate. At the post-concert affair they had the pleasure of chatting with Gov. and Mrs. LeRoy Collins and meeting the Metropolitan Opera stars, Dorothy Kirsten, Cesare Valletti and Theodor Uppman.

THE ELK'S CLUB was gaily decorated Saturday night for the Valentine Dance sponsored by the Anna Miller Circle. Mary (Mrs. Buford) Brown and her committee had spent some time decorating with red and white crepe paper streamers, hearts and cupid—and the center of attraction was a large red, heart fashioned of organdy and net that formed a background for the orchestra.

Thelma (Mrs. Wade) Snyder was in charge of the ten-act floor show that proved to be so entertaining that a second performance was given Sunday night for winter guests at the Mayfair Inn.

Of course, the highlight of Saturday evening came when Mrs. Betty Cox, in a red velvet dress, was crowned Valentine Queen, and presented with an arm bouquet of red roses.

Before the dance Mr. and Mrs. Wade Snyder entertained with a party at their home—dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Stowell of Geneva and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dyer with more friends coming in later.

DR. AND MRS. ROBERT J. SMITH saw so much snow and cold last week that they were happy to get back to Florida. They returned home by plane Saturday night from Memphis where he attended a reunion of his medical class of the University of Tennessee and also a convention of the Mid-South Medical Assn.

MISSED THE PARTY at the Mayfair Inn Saturday for Ann (Mrs. R. A.) Meral but heard that everyone had a pleasant time. It was a no-hostess gathering with Ann's friends treating her to lunch and showering her with farewell gifts—she also was presented with a nosegay of white carnations and red roses. Ann, with her two youngsters, Deborah, and Rick, will leave next Tuesday to make their home in Annapolis, Md.

ALSO PREPARING TO LEAVE Sanford is Neva (Mrs. R. M.) Donaldson whose husband has been attached to VAH-7 for the past two years and is being transferred to Jacksonville.

MRS. DONALDSON

Neva, mother of two teen age daughters, Kay and Jean, is a charter member of the Starlight Promenaders, of which her husband is a board member. At a recent luncheon of squadron wives, she was given a silver tray as a farewell remembrance—and Friday night the Donaldsons will share honors with Cdr. and Mrs. Byron Butts (he is retiring from service) at a party at the home of Cdr. and Mrs. Tom Ownby.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF VAH-7 Jiriene (Mrs. W. A.) Eiling will entertain with a morning coffee and bridge tomorrow at her home on Willow Ave.

Auxiliary Starts Membership Drive

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the First Reserve Assn., Unit 147 has started a membership drive. It will continue until May 31. The person getting the largest number of new members will receive a year's membership free. At the meeting of the group this week a request was made for donations for the Cerebral Palsy drive, March 4 and 5. A donation was given to the fund for the tomb of the unknown soldier. The group plans to set up a concession stand at the Sanford Armory, March 18. Proceeds will be added to the treasury.

A group of the auxiliary members gave a Valentine party for the patients at the County Home. They took candy, valentines, and an assortment of cookies and cakes. Records were played and singing was enjoyed by all.

Some 4,400,000 babies are expected to be born in the U.S. this year.

Most Fascinating Character In Trial Is Finch's Lawyer

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The most fascinating character in the spectacular trial is the Finch-tragedy lawyer, Dr. R. Bernard Finch—Grant Cooper.

Cooper appears to have won the jury completely. Not perhaps to the extent they will acquit the purpose. But they will think a long time about handing a sentence to a likable, affable, gentlemanly Grant Cooper.

Tuesday at the trial he was trying to establish the date of a boating trip. The witness said it was Father's Day. Cooper appealed to the courtroom as target: "Does anyone know when Father's Day is?" And two of the jurors quickly replied it was June 21.

Holden has a defendant gone into a trial with the odds so stacked against him as did Finch. He had cheated on his wife. She was threatening to take much of his money. He went to her home with Carol Triggoff. They waited in the dark for Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch. Finch held the gun that killed his wife. There are all facts admitted by Finch. But Cooper has fitted them into a pattern that portrays the surgeon as an absolutely innocent man so far as murder is concerned. And observers at the courtroom trial believe he has partly persuaded at least a few of the jurors that the story is true.

The trial was in recess today until Thursday. Attorneys conferred with the judge on his instructions to the jury. The fireworks really are over now except for the closing arguments and what a day that will be for Grant Cooper.

He must be cast from the same mold as a Clarence Darrow, Attorney in the underdog successor to ailing and aging Jerry Gleaser as the lawyer to the Hollywood stars.

Three of Gleaser's associates represent Miss Triggoff. But they are so overwhelmed by Cooper that the prosecution has complained that Cooper is defending Carol more than her own attorneys.

His only match in the trial is co-prosecutor Clifford Crail. Cooper, who in the district attorney's office for years himself and the men are old friends — outside court. At the trial, Crail has been infuriated at Cooper's success in presenting a reasonable story.

Van Rie Slated To Defend Self

BOSTON (UPI) — Debonair ship's radio officer William Van Rie will testify in his own defense at the first degree murder trial in the death of a young Chicago divorcee, his shipboard sweetheart.

The announcement by defense lawyer W. Langdon Powers followed five hours of emotion-packed testimony in the fifth day of the trial Tuesday.

Three witnesses testified Van Rie, 31, of Rotterdam, called pretty Lyn Kaufman for wearing a tight-fitting all-silk Chinese dress which "gives me naughty ideas."

One of these witnesses was Mrs. Juanita Spector, 48, of Clayton, Mo. who also testified that she had "differences of opinion" with the 25-year-old divorcee who had worked for her husband three years as a research assistant.

Capt. Albert J. De Bruyn, skipper of Van Rie's ship the Thruout, testified for the prosecution that Van Rie failed in his duty to obtain a weather report the night the Dutch passenger-carrying freighter left Boston Sept. 15.

'Holdup Proof' Foils Bandits

BESSEMER, Pa. (UPI) — The three masked gunmen entered the bank and announced "this is a stickup."
The tellers looked at the guns and grinned.
The bandits went about their business anyhow — unaware they were trying to rob a "holdup proof" bank.
It all happened Tuesday afternoon at the People's Bank of Lawrence County in this peaceful Western Pennsylvania town not far from the Ohio state line.
Under normal circumstances, being confronted with a shotgun and a couple of revolvers in the hands of would-be stickup men probably would have resulted in some trace of fear among bank employees.
But not on this occasion. The tellers, clerks and officials had a complete feeling of safe-being.
The gunmen didn't know at first, but their intended victims were protected by a five-inch thick shield of bulletproof glass.
A customer, noticing the bandits' intentions, calmly advised:
"This bank is holdup proof. That's bulletproof glass and you can't get inside the teller's cage."
While the bandits stood dumbfounded, one of the bank employees leisurely picked up a telephone and called police.
The gunmen looked at each other, shrugged and decided they had better leave. They did—empty handed.
Bank officials said the bulletproof glass had been installed about 10 years ago and Tuesday was the first time anyone attempted to rob the bank since that time.
In typical bankers' fashion, the officials expressed belief that the heavy glass had been a sound investment.

Paar Answers

'Big' Questions

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — (UPI) — Jack Paar said Tuesday night he decided to go back on his television show for three reasons:
—His wife urged him to.
—NBC brass promised no repetition of censorship of the show.
—A sense of responsibility for at least 100 persons connected with the show.
"I wrestled with this thing over and over," Paar said. "I honestly didn't want to go back to the show."
Paar said his wife, Miriam "arranged the meeting with Bob Kliner and Bob Saroff," president and board chairman respectively of NBC.
"After all, I'm responsible for the welfare of at least a hundred people connected with my show. I felt if I didn't go back, I'd have a lot to answer for," Paar said.
Paar said the NBC executives brought with them apologies for the snipping of a joke from his show, an action that caused him to quit. He said he also had learned who had done the cutting.
"I can't recall his name, but it was some guy—an ex-FBI man—who works in NBC's Department of Standards and Practices. The cutting was never authorized by anyone higher up," Paar said.
Paar walked out on the show last Thursday night. He will return March 7 after he and his wife take a long trip, including stops at Hawaii and Japan.

Nuclear Power Plant Operating By '68 Forecast

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Atomic Energy Commission said today there is "a relatively high probability" a certain type of nuclear power plant will be able to compete by 1967-68 with conventional plants in U. S. areas where fuel costs are high.
It made this prediction in a report to the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee on its 10-year program for development of nuclear power. It estimated cost of the effort to achieve economic power at $10 million to $200 million a year, with the bulk of the bill being paid by the government.
The commission said several kinds of atomic power reactors are promising. But the one most likely to succeed first, it said, is the "light water cooled" reactor with which the AEC has had the most experience.
Although the commission said large water cooled power plants might be competitive in some areas of the country by 1967-68, it added that some private industrial firms are even more optimistic.

Confusion Reigns On Eve Of Olympics

READY FOR BEST . . . By Alan Mauer

SQUAW VALLEY, CALIFORNIA, WHICH WILL BE THE SITE OF THE WINTER OLYMPIC GAMES—FEB. 18 TO 28, IS THE FIRST TIME A COMPARATIVELY UNKNOWN SPORTS AREA HAS SELECTED FOR THE GAMES.

FENNY FITOU OF THE U.S. SQUAD IS RATED ONE OF THE BEST AMERICAN SKIERS FOR GAMES. HE IS BEAUTY, TOO, IF THAT WERE A CONTEST.

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI)—The most monumental foul-up in Olympic history today shattered the peace and serenity of scenic Squaw Valley, site of the 1960 Winter Games opening Thursday.

If there was anything right, it was being kept secret and criticism was being leaped on the U. S. organizers of the games in an increasing flow of complaints. Nothing was being done about any of them either, was a further complaint.

It wasn't so serious that the actual games were in jeopardy, but it had reached the stage where most everyone was unhappy about one thing or another.

"There's no excusing the poor conditions here," said a high member of the U. S. Olympic Committee, who asked that his name not be used. "We figured the organizing committee would do a good job for they had the North American Skiing championships here a year ago and we all figured that would prove a good trial run. And give them plenty of time to correct mistakes and set everything right."

"But apparently they learned nothing. Things have gotten worse instead of better."

Here were some of the chief complaints few newspapers would have enough space to list them all:

—That the three ice rinks were being badly handled with the result that speed skaters, figure skaters and the hockey teams did not have ample workout time or conditions. Each group claimed that the other was favored.

—The parking situation within reasonable walking distance of the Olympic sites had gotten to the stage that not even top officials were allowed in almost empty parking lots in the immediate area.

—Nothing has been done to keep half of the ice from the main arena from melting under the winter sun, preventing athletes from using half of the arena from about 11 a. m. each day.

—Eating facilities were taxed beyond capacity. The dining rooms for Olympic athletes and officials are so jammed that persons with proper admission credentials are turned away during meal hours.

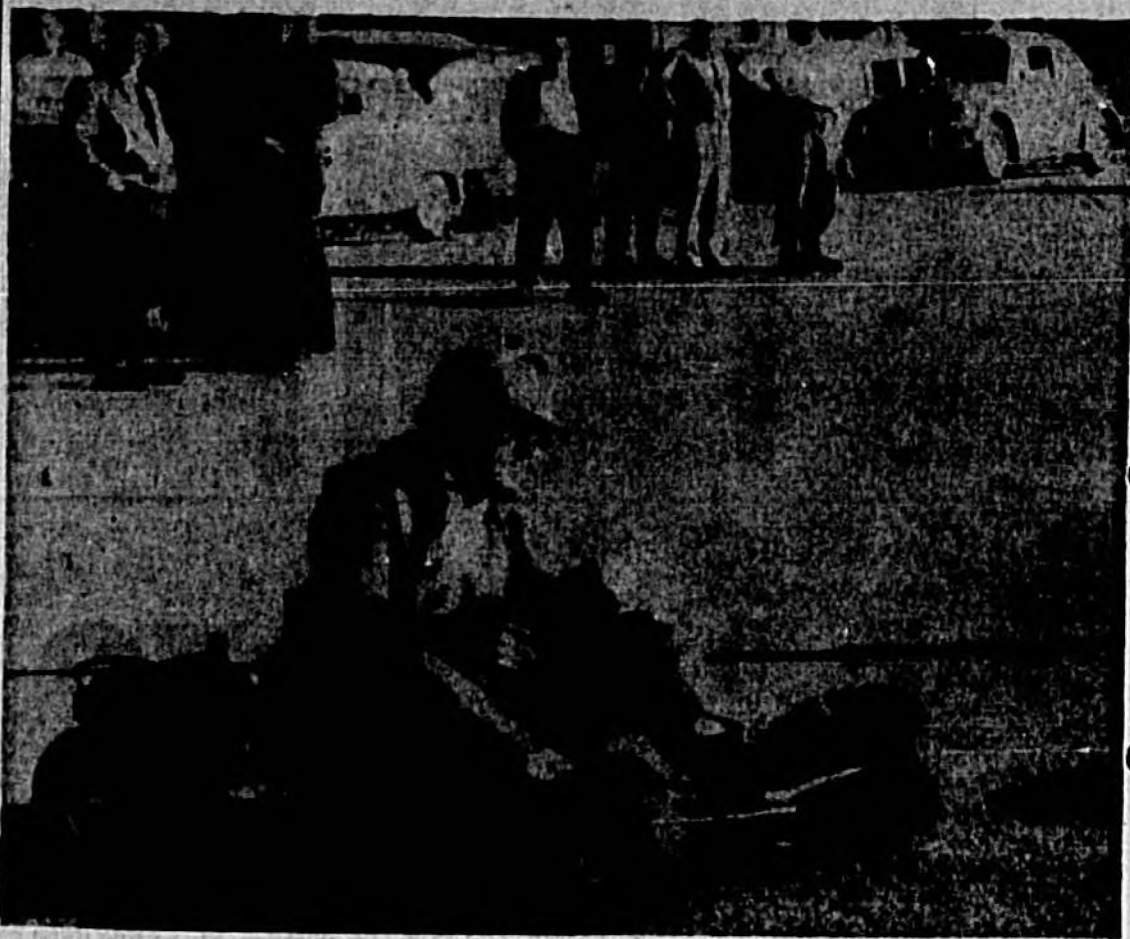

—Plans and regulations change so rapidly new ones are in effect before anyone can learn what the old ones were.

At first all of the complaints were brushed off as one of those things that usually occur in big international sports events. The early complaints of the foreign officials and athletes were discounted on the grounds that they would complain no matter what the conditions.

But when U. S. athletes and officials joined the parade some figured that maybe changes would be made for Uncle Sam was talking now. But that didn't help either.

So with the opening of the games only 24 hours away, the only sure bet seemed to be that all the confusion surrounding the games would increase rather than diminish.

Through it all the 700 athletes from 30 nations continued to workout. There was a world and an Olympic record broken in speed skating Tuesday, but neither will count because it was not actual competition.

BUD MOUGHTON takes a turn in a "Kart."

'Karts' Taking Over As New Fad In Sanford

The last few Sunday afternoons the usually quiet parking lot of the Winn-Dixie store on French Ave. has become alive with new fangled little cars that aren't carrying home many groceries. As seen from the picture above they consist mainly of 4 wheels, an engine and driver, but don't let it fool you. The little cars known as "Karts" can obtain unbelievable speeds of 25 miles per hour and up because of their low center of gravity can turn corners at a very fast clip. The nearness of the driver to the pavement gives an even faster sensation of speed.

Safety is stressed and you will find kids, parents and even grandmothers driving them.

All sizes and shapes can be had by the "Karts" but the newly formed "Go Kart Club Of America" has divided them into three classes according to power and equipment. The one shown above is a class 'B' with a 5.0 H. P. engine and can do up to 50 miles an hour on the straight away.

Karts are now being raced on special tracks built for them and in Orlando a "Kart Club" has been

Leading Bowler To Put On Exhibit At Jet Lanes

One of bowling's all-time greats, Lee Jougard, will be at the Jet Lanes Bowling Lanes Feb. 28 when the bowling alley celebrates its open house.

Jougard will put on a bowling exhibition and will bowl a series of three games with one of the local karters. An elimination tournament is now underway to determine who the bowler will be. Another highlight of the afternoon will be "free" bowling from the hours of 1 to 4:30 p. m.

Former Philadelphia Athletic Star 'Stuffy' McInnis Dies

IPSWICH, Mass. (UPI)—"Stuffy" McInnis, the stylish, little target of Connie Mack's $100,000 infield on the Philadelphia Athletics half a century ago, died Tuesday at the age of 69.

Stuffy, whose real name was John P. McInnis, stood only 5 feet 8 inches, but overcame his height handicap to become one of the slickest fielding first basemen that baseball has ever known.

McInnis once went through an entire season in 1921 for the Boston Red Sox and made only one error. Another time he went 162 games and handled 1,625 chances without an error. Both records still stand.

"I got tired of watching those six-foot first basemen fail to make the catch," he once reminisced. "So I decided to become a first baseman myself."

Louis Gets Break From Tax People

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Who says the Internal Revenue Service doesn't have a heart?

The service had admitted closing the books on its long drive to collect back income taxes from former heavyweight champion Joe Louis because "his earnings days are over."

"We have gotten all we could possibly get from Mr. Louis, leaving him with some hope that he can live," said Internal Revenue Commissioner Dana Latham.

Tech, Auburn, Kentucky In Three Way Tie For First Place In SEC

United Press International They're starting the basketball season all over again in the Southeastern and Southwest conferences.

Georgia Tech, Auburn and Kentucky wound up in a three-way tie for first place in the SEC with 9-2 records when Tennessee upset Tech, 97-95, and Kentucky's Comeback Kids tied back Vanderbilt, 66-60, Tuesday night.

A similar three-way tie for the Southwest Conference lead was produced when Texas shocked Texas A&M, 79-62, and Southern Methodist upended Rice, 75-52. That left Texas sharing first place with the Aggies and SMU, each boasting 7-3 league marks.

Glenn Campbell and Dalen Showalter teamed up to team Tennessee its surprise victory over Georgia Tech at Knoxville. The eighth-ranked Engineers were leading 36-32 in the closing minutes when Showalter broke through for a free throw and a basket to reduce the Vols deficit to one point.

Seconds later, a Tech player accidentally kicked the ball out of bounds. The Vols relayed the ball to Campbell, who barreled down the middle of the court and tossed in the winning basket on a twisting layup at the final buzzer. Showalter wound up with 19 points and 12 rebounds for Tennessee while jump-shooting Roger Kaiser had 28 points for the disappointed Engineers.

Holy Cross, named along with St. John's to the field for the National Invitation Tournament earlier in the day, celebrated with an 83-76 triumph over Boston University. It was the 11th straight victory for the Crusaders, who were led by soph Jackie Foley's 28 points.

Three other NIT nominees also soared to impressive victories. Providence whipped Rhode Island, 72-60; Detroit trampled Baldwin-Wallace, 94-81, and Memphis State outclassed Loyola of the South, 84-58.

Eastern Kentucky forfeited a key Ohio Valley Conference game to Western Kentucky when Coach Paul McBrayer pulled his team off the floor following a brief player scuffle late in the first half.

Jordan Awaits Checkup Results

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Well-known champion Don Jordan today awaited the results of a physical examination that could end his suspension by the California Athletic Commission and allow him to defend his title before the NBA takes it away from him.

Jordan, who is in a peck of trouble for various and sundry precedences, underwent the examination Tuesday. But Dr. Abraham Waxman, who performed the tests on the 25-year-old champion, said the results wouldn't be available until laboratory tests are finished.

The sick punching welterweight was ordered by the National Boxing Assn. to furnish official proof of his physical fitness by Friday or forfeit the title he won in 1958 from St. Louis' Virgil Atkins.

Mather Keglers Pull Way Ahead In City League

Mather of Sanford practically clinched the title of the Sanford City League last Wednesday by taking two games, while both Harry's Liquors and Burnett Painters managed to lose all three games to their opponents.

This left the Furniture team six games in front with six weeks to roll.

Big John Uhr led the Mather team in their victory over New York Life Insurance with a 203-867, while Jim Maloney helped the Insurers to their one victory with a 200-830 total. In other league action, Hal Gilstrap had a 531 series to help the Celery City Printing Company five to their sweep over Harry's Liquors, in spite of the 234-581 evening enjoyed by Carl Von Herbeulis of the Liquor team.

Carl's 324 is a new league high for the season. Claude Foster rolled a 518 in a losing cause for Burnett Painters because Buck Ferguson had a good night with a 202-558 for the team representing Gene's Seminoles Cleaners and Laundry.

LeBaron Announces He'll Quit Football

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Washington Redskins scanned rival National Football League rosters today in hopes of filling the gaping hole left by the retirement of the league's smallest player.

Coach Mike Nixon said he would go with Ralph Guglielmi next season after 165-pound quarterback Eddie LeBaron announced he is quitting pro football to begin a law career in Texas, but informed NFL sources said the Redskins undoubtedly will try to swing a deal for another quarterback.

Among those the Redskins can be expected to try for are Don Heinrich and Lee Grossecup of the New York Giants, Rudy Bucher of the Chicago Bears, and Earl Starr and Lamar Melian of the Green Bay Packers. The Redskins may "sweeten" the package they offer with one of their hard-running backs — Jim Podoley, Don Bosseler or Eddie Sutton.

Boston Patriots

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Patriots will be the name of this city's American Football League entry, it was announced Tuesday.

A poll of New England sports writers selected the nick name "Patriots" over such suggested names as "Bulls," "Pilgrims," "Beavers," "Terriers," and "Braves."

DAR Tour Recalls History

The gentle, gray-haired lady stood across from Seminole Memorial Hospital and told the story of how 400 Seminole Indians fought U. S. soldiers there 117 years ago this month.

She was Mrs. J. B. Ray of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and her intent listeners were DAR members and Seminole High School students. Surrounded by peaceful homes and green lawns, Mrs. Ray showed the group where howling braves led by King Philip and Coconochee killed Capt. Andrew Mellon and many of his bluecoats.

Mrs. Ray's recital was the climax of a DAR tour of eight Sanford historical sites. Members of the Sanford's Sallie Harrison DAR chapter visited the historical monuments they helped erect around town. The Seminole High students were busy with their notebooks jotting down the local history. It was news to many of them.

The first stop was the General Sanford Memorial Library which the Sanford DAR chapter was instrumental in building. Next came a tree planted nearby in honor of Mrs. H. J. Lehman, ex-regent of the Sanford chapter and first chairman of Sanford Founders' Day.

The DAR members walked to a marker just west of the library, commemorating the first settlement in 1843 on the shores of Lake Monroe in Ft. Mellon Park. A cannon which blew up when fired in celebration of the founding of Seminole County was the next stop. The cannon's mouth holds the flag pole in front of the Chamber of Commerce Bldg. and is the only part of the gun left. The rest blew up in 1913 when rambunctious county citizens overcharged it while marking Seminole's separation from Orange County. DAR member Mrs. W. H. Harry gave the cannon mouth to support the flag pole.

The site of Sanford's claim on Rollins College was the next stop. A plaque on Park Ave. near city hall tells how the college was organized in the Lyman Bank Bldg. here in 1883. The Florida State Bank now stands on the site.

Students and DAR members then rode to Spear Grove Park. Dr. Algeron Speer, ancestor of a long line of Sanford Speers, planted orange trees in the park in 1843. Mrs. Ivie Rucker told how the city of Sanford, the Sallie Harrison chapter and Sidney O. Chase later erected a marker in the park at 20th St. and Mellonville Ave.

The Old Ft. Reade site on Mellonville was the next stop. Only a stone marker remains where troops once manned this link in the Florida fort chain. The fort was built in 1834 to hold back the fierce Seminoles.

The site of Capt. Mellon's death and the big Indian battle ended the DAR tour which had started with a luncheon for state DAR regent, Mrs. Jackson Stewart, at the Mayfair Inn.

Speakers at the historical sites were Mrs. Lawrence Tinsley, Mrs. Robert A. Lyman, Mrs. Lena Bell Jennings, Mrs. Ivie Rucker, Mrs. C. R. Dawson, and Mrs. Ray.

Taste Buds Tingle When Senator Swaps Gavel For Ladle And Apron

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nothing can make my taste buds tingle like the sight of Sen. Allen J. Ellender presiding over a gumbo pot.

The Louisiana Democrat and gastronomic is probably the only Senate committee chairman who is as much at home with a ladle as a gavel.

If senators still wore togas, I imagine Ellender would use his for an apron.

I stopped by to see the Senator's most famous chef in his private Capital office where he was preparing to entertain 15 female newspaper correspondents at lunch.

This was one of a series of about 10 meals that Ellender whips up during each congressional session for various press, legislative and governmental groups.

He was greeted at the door by the enticing fumes of Louisiana crab meat fraternizing in a Creole sauce with a judicious selection of shrimp tails. A long table was spread across the room in front of the Senator's desk.

Making for the lavatory, which Ellender has converted into a kitchenette, I found the cook standing over an electric hot plate, affectionately stirring a gumbo.

"This is a meal in itself," he said, and proceeded to identify the ingredients. Besides the shrimp and crab, the pot contained bacon, ham, flour, onions, peppers, lemon, garlic, tabasco, thyme, bay leaves, salt,okra and parsley.

It sounded to me like enough for two meals.

As a native of Terrebonne Parish, Ellender naturally leans toward Creole dishes — French cuisine with a southern accent. In addition to gumbo, he specializes in jambalaya, chicken sauce piquante, shrimp Creole, court-bouillon and Creole pralines.

Short, stocky and suntanned, the veteran chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee made a picture of domesticity in tweed vest and rolled up shirt-sleeves as he practiced his culinary art.

"I was up until midnight last night making pralines for dessert," he said.

Some of the lady journalists who attended the lunch told me that when they departed they were more concerned about hip lines than deadlines.

Fourth Baby Expected Today

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI) — On Feb. 17, 1967 Mrs. Arthur E. Sweeney of Blackstone, Mass., gave birth to a daughter whom she named Doris.

On Feb. 17, 1958, Mrs. Sweeney had another daughter and named her Lenore. And last year, on Feb. 17, Mrs. Sweeney had Leticia.

But mother won't be home to help celebrate the three birthdays. She is at Providence Lying-In Hospital where doctors said she was expected to have a baby—sometime today.

Mrs. Sweeney, wife of a factory worker, contends the date has "no special significance."

"They just seem to always arrive on Feb. 17," she said.

The electric utility industry, both U. S. government-owned and private utilities, generated a record 707,000,000 kilowatt hours in 1959, an increase of 9.4 per cent over 1958.

Chessman Making Final Efforts To Beat Execution

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Convict-author Caryl Chessman played a longshot today by staking his life on the "couscience" of the few officials with the legal power to prevent his execution in just two days.

These same officials have indicated many times in the past 11½ years that death is a just penalty under the law for the crimes of the 38-year-old robber-rapist.

But longshots have paid off for Chessman since he was convicted in Los Angeles in 1948. He has alighted seven previous dates with the gas chamber — and four of those occasions came within two days of the execution date.

Chessman's present hopes lie with Justice Felix Frankfurter of the U. S. Supreme Court, the California Supreme Court and Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Attorney Rosale Asher made the 15th and "last chance" appeal to the Supreme Court in Washington Tuesday. The 56-page plea and 15 pounds of supporting evidence were presented to Frankfurter as "the senior justice available." There was no immediate action on the plea.

Attorney George T. Davis announced here Chessman requested that no more legal moves be made until a ruling was handed down by Frankfurter.

Robert Fulton built a submarine which he called the Nautilus.

MRS. FILBERT MADE A BETTER ONE

(and the world liked it!)

1. In Martha Filbert's day, the margarines that people bought to save money were less than delicious.

2. So she blended the highest quality ingredients... and made a margarine...

3. That was delicious. She called it, oddly enough, "Mrs. Filbert's Margarine."

4. Today the others taste pretty good — but nowhere as good as Mrs. Filbert's.

5. When you buy and try Mrs. Filbert's, chances are high that you'll be delighted.

6. But maybe not, because there's nothing everybody likes. Then send us the coupon.

7. We'll send you double your money back — that's the Filbert guarantee.

Sinatra, Who Owes Great Debt To Ladies, Repays Them On TV

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Frank Sinatra, who owes a great debt to the ladies of the land, delivered a small "thank you" Monday night.

In a startling break from his usual hip, finger-snapping, spry wrist style, Frank surrounded himself with ladies, lace and love songs for his ABC-TV special. Instead of the usual Sinatra acolytes — Dean Martin and Peter Lawford — Sinatra was host to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Lena Horne, opera singer Mary Costa, dancer Juliet Prowse (he answered to Brigitte Bardot), and comedienne Barbara Heller. The theme, "Here's to the Ladies," was elegantly sustained by the fast-paced songs, excellently arranged by Nelson Riddle, cleanly mounted by art director Jim Trittico and sparingly, imaginatively directed by Richard Dunlap.

One sequence by Sinatra and Miss Horne came up as blurred-edge portraits that fit the mood of the songs they sang: "Lonely Town" and "But Beautiful."

A minimum of up-tempo tunes were heard. The swingin' tunes of a flashy cha-cha number by Miss Prowse. The show's only lapses came at that point, when Miss Prowse's dance was abruptly cut in favor of a taped commercial.

Mrs. Roosevelt and Sinatra participated in a stilted exchange of compliments and then Mrs. R — who never looked lovelier — recited some special words to the song, "High Hopes." The song, written by Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen, executive producers of the show, is the Sinatra number with which all concerned have high hopes of winning an Academy Award this year. Mrs. Roosevelt helped launch their campaign.

Sinatra was in his usual vocal form — good, that is — although he seemed worried and detached during some of the dialogues. I couldn't help thinking that perhaps he was wondering about how the Las Vegas crowd would react to his artistic, distinctive and attractive production.

The sixth hour in the CBS Reports series, "The Freedom Explosion," Monday night presented an engrossing closeup of the recently concluded election campaign in Nigeria. Narrator Eric Sevareid tied many of the scenes and speeches to early and current campaigns in America. We've been getting a fine look at African nationalism through such specials on each of the networks and if this goes on, perhaps we'll be as conversant with Africa's problems as we are, say, with Jack Paar's problems.

The Channel Swim: After five seasons with CBS-TV, the Alfred Hitchcock suspense series moves to NBC-TV starting next fall... CBS-TV's fall plans indicate the Robert Young series, Father Knows Best, is going out of production... And ABC-TV's 1960-61 schedule would replace the Charley Weaver show with Leave It To Beaver.

Jack Benny's displeasure with CBS-TV's "canned laughter canter" has abated. He now reports that his negotiations with ABC-TV are off and he expects to remain on CBS-TV. Meanwhile, NBC-TV's Bob Hope, whose 10-year contract expires in June, is sounding out the rival networks for contract offers... The Feb. 4 "actual" on CBS-TV's Armstrong Circle Theater dealt with the "ghost bomber" discovered in the Libyan desert. Wednesday, the show will add a brief follow-up report on that story... Comedian John Wayne of the Wayne and Shuster team suffered a slight injury to his cheek Monday when a prop TV camera exploded during a sketch rehearsal for a summer-time Ed Sullivan show.

Pinecrest PTA To Model Paris Fashions At Fun Festival

Pinecrest PTA fathers will model the latest Parisian fashions at the PTA Fun Festival, March 4. A bubblegum blowing contest for the youngsters will also be featured at the 5:30-8:30 p. m. festival.

Elimination contests to get the best gum blowers will be held in each school room prior to the contest. The finalists will "pop" into action on the school stage at 8 p. m. The Fun Festival replaces the regular February meeting of the Pinecrest PTA. At an executive board meeting last week, health chairman Mrs. Charles Lewis reported that a used clothes closet is being maintained to provide clothes for children who become sick or have accidents at school. Clothes from the closet recently helped children of two families whose homes were burned. Donations are asked for the clothes closet. Pinecrest Beautification Chairman Mrs. Fred Ganas said that the necessary background plants have been put around the school grounds. A student group planted nine fruit trees donated to the school.

Curbing To Start On Sanford Ave.

Sanford Public Works Director Syd Richard hopes to have Sanford Ave. widened from 19th to 26th St. by April. City workmen are clearing right-of-way and utility lines now. They will start putting in curbs for the eight-foot widening this week, Richard said.

The April finishing date depends on whether the workmen can stay on the widening job. Emergencies like heavy rains may take men from Sanford Ave. to do maintenance work, Richard said. The broadening will make Sanford Ave. 32 feet wide between 19th and 26th Sts.

Grass Fires Put Out

Sanford firemen fought a grass fire at 926 W. 11th St. Monday. Sunday they answered calls for a flooded heater at Hugh Wynn's 638 E. Second St. home and for a grass fire at 2530 Park Dr.

Sixth grade youngsters will learn how to handle and care for tools in the "home repairs" class started by teacher Freeman Baggett. The class starting this week will also emphasize simple repairs and do-it-yourself projects. The PTA is financing the class.

LUCILLE CAMPBELL is one of Pinecrest Elementary's most widely educated teachers. The sixth grade teacher attended Maryville and George Peabody Colleges, both in Tennessee, Stetson and Miami Universities, Peoples College in Finland, and Elsinore in Denmark. She also hopes to travel in Mexico and to write plays for children. A native of Alabama, Miss Campbell lives with her mother at 804 Escombia Dr.

MRS. ANN REYNOLDS, Pinecrest Elementary School sixth grade teacher includes dancing in her accomplishments. Mrs. Reynolds has taught physical education and modern dance and spent several summers studying dancing in New York City. Educated at Stetson University, Mrs. Reynolds has traveled in the eastern United States. She has one daughter, Vickie, 13 months-old and lives with her husband, Don at 112 Tangerine Dr., Ravenna Park. Mrs. Reynolds is a native of Sanford.
