

Lake Mary C Of C Elects Directors

Election of a capable and progressive Board of Directors by the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night has "cleared the decks" for action to put the organization on a good, sound footing. C of C President Cliff Nelson said today.

New directors elected by ballot vote at Tuesday's meeting are James P. Avery Jr., Ralph Abell, Raymond Ball, Mrs. Frank Evans, Fr. William J. Trainor and Otis Sjoblom. Nelson will complete the seven member board to meet for its first business session tonight.

Mrs. Lou Nogueira was elected secretary and W. C. Hopkins and Fred Wells to the nominating committee. Completing this committee will be a board appointee named at the directors' first meeting.

Following the elections, Nelson pointed out that the greatest need Lake Mary has is the need for "unified action," not sporadic action by various other organizations now functioning in the area.

Stressing the need for unified action now more than ever in the past, he also urged that a ways and means committee be appointed by the next meeting to help the chamber establish a working capital.

Other committees needed, he pointed out, are membership, hospitality, entertainment, safety, roads and beautification.

Speaking briefly on each, he advised that although he expected present membership to double within the next two months, a committee is needed to actively seek new memberships while the hospitality group should be organized to welcome each and every new resident moving into the area. He pointed out that some form of entertainment definitely is needed at each meeting and that a committee also could plan additional social functions sponsored by the chamber.

Congested business area intersections and the school zone were cited as needs for establishing a safety committee and Nelson said "anyone who lives on an unpaved street will readily see why a roads committee is needed."

He pointed to the number of public parks in Lake Mary as the reason for forming a beautification committee and advised that the community should be working on a regular basis "if we are to keep these parks."

Quoting from the by-laws, he summarized, "The purpose of the Chamber is to promote the general welfare

Reorganized Village Council Handles First Full Agenda

By Ginny Skalak

The newly reorganized North Orlando Village Council met for the regular monthly business session Tuesday night and pitched right in on an unusually heavy agenda.

Recommended appointments by Mayor Frank Fasula of Jack Sutton as police chief and Dave Tilson as assistant were unanimously approved and councilman W. W. Anderson was appointed by the mayor to find ways and means of supporting a permanent police force in the village. Sutton and Tilson operate on a temporary basis.

The mayor explained that the two policemen, under the present system of operation, can take a bond but can make no fines.

In following discussion of the traffic problems, Anderson suggested that streets running north and south be made thoroughfares and stop streets be made of those running east-west. In result, Anderson advised that he will contact a state agency with experience in traffic control for recommendations on the problem and that the council could expect a resolution on the subject at next month's meeting.

Fasula reported that "children at play" signs have been ordered for Third Street, location of the recreation area, and recommended that additional signs be ordered for N. Devon Ave. and N. Fairfax Ave. to help slow traffic through the village.

Gen. Williams of Ft. Lauderdale will remain temporarily as village engineer and Anderson will serve as tax assessor, tax collector and treasurer.

Fasula's recommendation that Bill Deutch, developer of Horizon Homes, continue as zoning board chairman was defeated by a 3-2 vote in favor of F. Stewart Helmly, Sanford realtor and village resident who was nominated for the job by Anderson. Voting with Anderson were Robert E. Stephenson and Clarence Memory. Ruel Stripling voted with the mayor for Deutch.

The office of village attorney, vacated by George A. Speer Jr., was filled by the appointment of Sanford attorney Ambrose Olliff, who also serves as the village judge.

Mary and the area surrounding it and to advance and improve the residential, commercial, civic and social interests of the persons residing therein.

"You have taken a major step forward towards accomplishing this goal in your choice of directors and committees here tonight," he concluded.

Mrs. Harry Sandusky and Mrs. Chris Garner were appointed to serve as a temporary hospitality committee until the next meeting.

Firemen Give Second Program At Lyman

By Jane Casselberry

Casselberry Volunteer Fire Chief Paul Bates presented another program on fire prevention and artificial respiration to six classes at Lyman School Tuesday.

Members of the department assisting with the program included Tom Herald, Bob McGill, Leonard Casselberry, Don Ranier and Owen Anstey.

Use of the department's resuscitator was demonstrated in conjunction with the lecture and the animated colored cartoon, "I'm No Fool with Fire," was shown. This film was secured from the Florida State Fire College in Ocala and the Seminole Chapter of the American Red Cross furnished the color film, "That They May Live," which graphically illustrates how mouth-to-mouth resuscitation may be applied to save lives in many emergencies.

Bates and other members of the department will visit Longwood Elementary School next Thursday where they will lecture on fire prevention to all six grades and the rescue breathing to grades four, five and six.

Elementary CT-P Officers Elected

By Jane Casselberry

The Council of Teachers and Parents of South Seminole Elementary School in Casselberry met Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

Officers were elected for the 1962-1963 school year and as there were no nominations from the floor, the slate proposed by the nominating committee was unanimously accepted.

Mrs. Joseph I. Laird of Casselberry was elected president. Other officers are Mrs. Allen Ostrow, first vice president; Mrs. Willy Monchiel, second vice president; Mrs. John McManus, treasurer; Mrs. Herschel Sterling, recording secretary, and Mrs. Chester Miller, corresponding secretary.

Due to the illness of president, Mrs. Vernon Catron, vice president Bob Means presided at the meeting. Mrs. Josephine Bradley, sixth grade teacher, was in charge of devotions.

Mrs. William Dunn reported that 1500 books have been donated for the school library but that many more still are needed to meet accreditation requirements.

Principal Herold Heckenbach introduced Christy Harp who will replace him as principal of South Seminole Elementary School next fall and John Angel, who will be principal of the new South Seminole Junior High School. Both men spoke briefly regarding their new assignments. Mrs. Harp also was introduced.

Angel pointed out that the Junior High will open without a cafeteria or auditorium and that the students will have to bring their own lunches.

Heckenbach advised that there are so many prospective first graders for next year that pre-school registration will be conducted by sections according to areas in which the children live. He also said that the school board has set a maximum of 632 pupils for the elementary school which now has more than 700 enrolled with a projected increase of 10 per cent. Some of the pupils now attending the school will be reassigned to other schools for next term, he said.

Following adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the fifth grade room mothers.

Nomination by Memory of Stripling for the job as building inspector was unanimously approved.

In other business before the council, Fasula advised that the North Orlando Co. will add restroom facilities to the Recreation Building and will add a dance pavilion in the near future. He also advised that the lake in the area would be cleaned and that the state will stock it with fish.

He reported that the paving of N. Edgemoon Ave. to SR 419 will be the next section under construction but said that no specific date has been set for beginning on the project.

The village agreed to supply the North Orlando Baptist Chapel with fill dirt in compliance with a request presented by Anderson who said that the chapel plans to fertilize and seed the lawn around the home where it presently is conducting services.

Stephenson, newly appointed village mayor who advised that the volunteer Fire Dept. reported that the fire truck has been repaired and that Bill Skalak had donated the use of a battery charger to the department.

Further items of business were continued until the next meeting.

EDITORIAL COMMENT Our Responsibility

Last Friday night's political rally for the North Orlando-Oviedo areas drew little response from the two communities.

In fact, had it not been for residents of other areas the candidates would have been addressing a sum total of 11 people and a group of reporters.

Platforms and decisions of these men, whose aim it is to serve Seminole County people, stand to affect, directly or indirectly, each and every resident.

We, as individual voters, are responsible for recognizing the county's needs and acquainting ourselves with plans of each man to meet the problems. Eleven people from an estimated three or four thousand, forms a poor educational committee.

Knowledge now may save many a dollar and blunder in the future . . . attend the rallies and if you can't question a candidate while he is on the platform, corner him later and get your answers.

North Orlando Building New Pony League Ball Diamond

By Ginny Skalak

Construction has begun on a new ball diamond in the North Orlando Recreation area which will have a field range of 180 feet from home base to the outfield, required dimensions for Pony League play.

The new diamond is being constructed just north of the Village Recreation Building and will have sodded infield and outfield with bases of clay.

According to Jack Button, who is working on the project, the North Orlando Co. hopes to have the new field ready for play when the season opens.

The community is not entered in Little League this season but is much interested in the sport and ball games are extremely popular within the village.

Other building underway in the area includes construction of new residences in the Horizon Homes section. Work on the first, to be built on Lombardy Rd., began last week. According to Bill Deutch, developer, eight of the new Horizon Homes already have been sold and are awaiting construction.

Bulletin

JAKARTA (UPI) — Indonesian guerrilla forces consisting of Papuan natives are besieging Sorong on the northwest coast. Dutch-held New Guinea has been practically encircled the town, the government news agency Antara reported today.

Cuba Reports Seizure Of 7 U. S. 'Frogmen'

POMPAÑO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — A semi-official broadcast from Cuba early today reported the arrest of seven Americans "appearing to be frogmen" on the north coast of Oriente Province in eastern Cuba.

There was speculation that the seven might be seven men missing on a treasure-hunting expedition in the Caribbean. The brief broadcast from Radio Rebel gave virtually no details. It did not list the names of the prisoners, nor tell how they were arrested.

Seven men were on the converted shrimp boat Pisces, which left Fort Lauderdale, Saturday and was due in Kingston, Jamaica, three days later.

The owner and captain of the boat was Gordon S. Patton of Pompano Beach and Ocean City, Md. Patton's wife Ellen said in Pompano Beach today that her husband had set a course calculated to take the Pisces within 75 miles of the eastern tip of Cuba, a course which he described as a "calculated risk."

Her husband had run into "difficulties" with Cuban officials before, Mrs. Patton said. Last year, a gunboat came out to meet a ship of his near the Cuban coast, but waved it on after seeing that it was flying the British flag.

Mrs. Patton said the party was on a "treasure-hunting" expedition and had planned to be gone about a month.

"He was not satisfied with a treasure-hunting trip he made last year," she said, "and was returning for a second look."

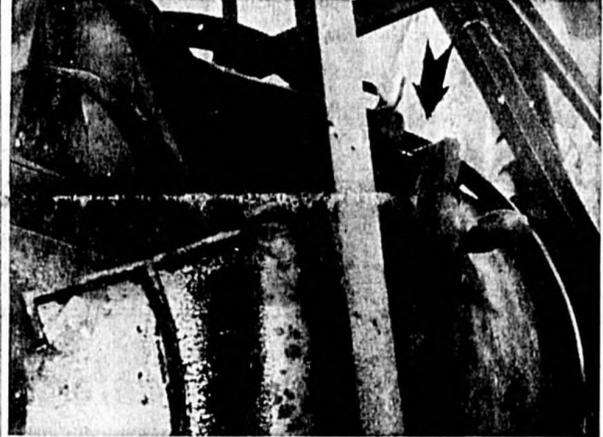

She said other crewmen were Fred Dickson Jr., about 30, of Ocean City, N. J., and Pompano Beach; John Sterry, about 28, of Brewster, N. J.; Mike Freeman, an underwater photographer and owner of a skin diving equipment store in Washington; Johnny Johnson, about 24, Washington, and two other men from Washington she knew only as Bernie and Joe.

Clerk of the local court, Alfred W. Kirschstein, cited the provisions of the Universal Military Training and Service Act which requires the registration of all male persons born after Aug. 30, 1922.

He said that some 18-year-olds are coming in a month late and that these persons face the possibility of being penalized under the law. He urges all 18-year-olds to come in within the five days specified under the act to avoid possible penalties.

Altamonte Concern Makes New Device

One of the newest manufacturing plants in Seminole County is the American Door and Machine Co., located at Altamonte Springs. Owner and operator of the concern is Paul Hickman, who is assisted by his son, Robert.

Hickman designs and produces "quick release pins," which are used in weapons systems. It is just what its name implies, Hickman explained. One of its uses is for fastening missile containers. When missiles are slated for future use they must be protected with some kind of covering. Hickman said that when missiles are needed they are needed in a hurry and have to be taken out of their containers as quickly as possible.

The quick release pin plays an important role here. One push on a button and it comes loose. It's not like having to unscrew a nut which is time consuming. With these new devices a cover can be removed in the time it takes to tell about it, he said.

These pins can replace the old fashioned bolt and nut fasteners and have many uses, commercial as well as military, he said.

Hickman has just designed a new type of pressure pin which employs a cam to lock it tight after it is put in place. He explained that this is like tightening a nut down on a bolt. The difference is that it can be released in an instant by releasing the cam.

Frederick was listed in "fair" condition at the hospital today.

Early Start On Upper Basin Control Dam Urged

WEST PALM BEACH (UPI) — Representatives of Brevard and Indian River counties pressed the Central and South Florida Flood Control District (FCDD) Board today for a quick start on planned projects at the southern end of the St. John's River valley.

Florida May Get More Road Money

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida may have more money to spend on its roads under a new U. S. Bureau of Roads policy.

Road Board Chairman John Phillips said Thursday the bureau has set up an accounting process under which it will refund money sooner to approved states for what they spend on federal projects, including Interstate highways.

First the Road Department's accounting procedure will have to meet U. S. approval. A Bureau of Roads representative will be here April 19 to discuss the new system with state personnel.

Once the state accounting system meets federal approval, the federal government will make reimbursements on the state's voucher instead of going through an audit of each project, something that can take as long as a year.

The Road Department's financial procedures were the subject of a year-long study by the Miami accounting firm of Morgan, Altman and Barr.

Recommendations following the study were due for consideration at the Road Board's meeting next Thursday.

The study resulted from criticisms of outdated and haphazard financial techniques in the Road Board. The board itself ordered the study a year ago.

Gov. Farris Bryant's office said Thursday the report was being reviewed by State Auditor Brian Willis before going to the Road Board.

The governor read the report and asked for some more specific recommendations.

3 Ordinances Discussed At Longwood
LONGWOOD'S City Council, meeting in regular April session Thursday night, discussed Mayor A. R. Lormann's suggested need for a fire ordinance and the city's proposed new water and dog ordinances.

The fire ordinance, which would prohibit the burning of trash and lots within the city limits unless properly supervised, was referred to At-Large Councilman James Hines for composition.

The water and dog ordinances, read by Chairman R. C. Carlson, were continued for further study and again will be under discussion at next week's meeting.

In other business, the council transferred funds from the cemetery account to the general fund in order to pay for the newly erected fence around the cemetery and donated $50 to the Longwood Little League which meets Sunland Saturday afternoon in its first game of the season.

Gov. Farris Bryant's office said Thursday the report was being reviewed by State Auditor Brian Willis before going to the Road Board.

along with a list of priorities for the $46.8 million St. Johns River program which were drawn up at a Melbourne meeting March 21. The first project would be a dam in the vicinity of Lake Pointsett, west of Cocoa.

But board members said it was necessary first for the FCD to iron out the technicalities of the whole project.

Board Chairman Riley Miles pointed out that the building of even a temporary dam at the southern end of the St. Johns would affect the whole river valley. A Lake Pointsett dam, he said, would cause the flood plain to split the big holdings of the Mormon Desert (arms lying in Osceola, Brevard and Orange counties).

Earlier, the finance department of the FCD presented a tentative 1962-63 budget of $9,318,000 to the board.

The budget for the 18-county district is $308,000 less than for the current fiscal year. Final adoption is scheduled for the FCD's June meeting, when the tax rate will also be set.

The FCD levied nine-tenths of one mill this year, but the rate is expected to jump to the legal limit of one mill during 1962-63.

The finance department said $3,273,000 of the new budget money will have to come from taxes, with $2,836,000 from the state's general revenue fund.

Weather Delays Newest Missile
CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Foul weather forced postponement of a planned U. S. attempt today to fire a powerful new space rocket on its maiden flight.

The 107-foot Atlas-Centaur, first of a revolutionary new breed of rockets using liquid hydrogen as a fuel, remained locked in a huge service gantry.

There was no official word immediately about a new date, but there were indications the federal space agency would attempt to send the rocket off into the sky Saturday.

But there was little hope expressed in forecasts today that the weather pattern which brought heavy clouds and high winds and scattered rains to the Cape Canaveral area today would break up before late Saturday.

The shot was "scrubbed" today even before scientists could hold a mid-morning weather briefing that had been planned.

Film To Be Shown
An education film on cancer will be shown in connection with the safety program at the Florida Power Corporation Plant in Enterprise Monday at 2:30 p.m. The program is for men only but all men of the community are invited to join the men of the plant.

Gene Meadors, president of the marathon association, also announced two added inducements for entrants in this year's race. Free gasoline will be given each driver for the initial fuel load through cooperation of Mac's Oil Co., Sanford Phillips 66 dealer, and San Alee Harbor, Shell Harbor marina at Welaka will sell gas at cost to drivers refueling there.

The other new feature will be a free banquet for drivers and their pit crews after the race in the Sanford Shrine Club.

Meadors said that his early contacts with drivers around the state indicate that a much larger field than last year's 49 entries will compete this time.

George Thompson, Sarasota, 1961 winner, Paul Sanborn, Orlando, 1960, and Bob Terry of Jacksonville, 1958 victor, are expected to race again also.

Information about the race may be obtained from D. H. MacGillis, Box 955, Sanford.

Top Drivers Signing Up For Outboard Race

The St. Johns River Marathon Assn. has begun forming a field of outstanding outboard drivers for the fourth annual race May 6 from Sanford to Jacksonville and return.

Florida's best outboard throttle jockeys, including the three former winners of the top marathon class, and some out of state champions have been invited to compete in six classes of entries.

There will be classes for single or twin engines up to 40 h.p.; single or twins up to 60 h.p.; single or twins up to 75 h.p.; single or twins up to 100 h.p., and unlimited single and unlimited twin engines.

Prayer Dangerous?

There is a story about a man named Henry who prayed often, long, and loudly. Certainly he was to be commended for praying often and having prayers long enough to be inclusive, and in his case he lived alone, so if he wanted to pray loudly it was his business. He traditionally ended his evening prayer by asking the Lord to send a golden chariot to take him home. From time to time some of his friends had heard him close his prayers this way so they decided that they would see how sincere he was. One night when the time had arrived for this bedtime prayer the friends were hidden quietly just outside the door. They heard the final petition for the golden chariot and immediately one of the friends knocked on the door. "Who is there?" asked Henry. The reply was, "This is the angel Gabriel who has come with the golden chariot to take Henry home." There was a long silence and then a quivering voice said, "I'm mighty sorry, but Henry went out for the evening and won't be back for six months."

COME SEE and HEAR THE MOST UNUSUAL INSTRUMENTAL SACRED CONCERT IN AMERICA Sunday, April 8th, 3 p. m. Their instruments of music range all the way from an organ and a vibraphone down to an innertube and a wash tub. In between these two extremes there are such things as the autoharp, guitar, ukulele, dulcimer, maracaphone, liscatone, and the Hawaiian guitar. They play music from sleigh bells, cow bells, Swiss bells, school bells, Chinese bells, sheep bells, turkey bells and dinner bells. All these not to mention bottles, handaxes, pitchforks, and drinking glasses — about everything except the kitchen sink, and no doubt that Fred Taylor touches turns to music. And that actually doesn't say it all, for he has one instrument—the Thermin—which he plays without touching—no keys, strings or pipes. appearing at the DOWNTOWN MISSION of the PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH 317 S. ## Remember, All We Have Belongs To God

(This is another in a series of articles by laymen on "What My Religion Means To Me.")

By Richard Ntes

Religion has a very important place in my life. In any Christian's life, this should be true. Some do not realize and accept it as readily as others.

God is a great God. But I am not great. God created heaven and earth, and man. This creation includes every human being that has ever existed. Yes, you and I are included. All of this has great meaning for me, for without God, "I am Nothing."

Another thing we are reluctant to admit, is that everything we have belongs to God. Not only our earthly possessions, but our body and soul. This amazes most of us, because we like to spare something for just ourselves . . . a little corner where not even God can come . . . but we aren't given that kind of privacy, because God is always present.

And that Presence of God in my life is a great comfort. He is also around when I want Him and need Him most. I know I don't have to face the great problems of my life alone. I have a father, nearby, in heaven, to whom I can turn in time of distress, and He will hear me, and help me overcome these obstacles in the pathway of life.

God has promised the forgiveness of our sins, and everlasting Life. Through the sufferings and death of our Savior, Jesus Christ He has made this possible for all Christians. This was a great sacrifice of immeasurable love for us, and I feel that everything I can do in return for this great love for me and all mankind falls far short of its worth.

Religion is personal. Everyone must show his or her own personal love and faith by doing the many things we are called to do by God and to them. It is true that we can be greatly influenced by other people, by their acts, be they Christian, or un-Christian. I pray that if I have any influence, it will be Christian.

Having been a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, since it was organized a few years ago, I have witnessed in others, and myself, great spiritual growth. And being a part of that growth helped me to see that I could help others come closer to God. Christianity actually works!

I agree completely with a fellow layman who said, Religion must come first. I go a step further and say that Christ must come first. He must be our only religion. We are only a few steps away from God . . . and about the same distance away from the devil . . . If Christ is not our leader, then we will be lost completely to a world, whose religion is sin, lust and crime. The other way is not only the best way, it is the only way. Everything worthwhile comes through complete devotion to God and to our fellow man.

Recorded in the 11th chapter of St. John the 6th verse are these words, "Jesus said to him (Thomas), 'I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh to the Father except by me.' This sums it up. We don't get to the Father by counting up our good deeds, by calling on others to intercede for us, by pretending religion, and living in sin, or by making our job, or our pleasure our religion . . . the only way is through Jesus Christ, the Son of God. He is the only way into everlasting life with my Father who is in Heaven.

Library Week

With National Library Week coming up next week what do we have to celebrate?

The library specialists say some few things, such as the extension of library service to some rural areas not heretofore covered. But fundamentally, they say, the nation suffers a tremendous "book gap."

Nobody needs to be reminded of the connection between the reading of good books and the necessary informing of a people in a democracy. Yet despite the recent rural gains, it is estimated nearly 25 million Americans in rural zones have no library services at all.

Two-thirds of all the nation's elementary schools have no central library facilities, which means 10 million children are deprived of this vital mental nourishment in formative years.

Most high schools are a good deal better off, but even a percent of these have no central library. And half the four-year colleges don't have the 50,000 volumes considered minimum.

Even the 400 public libraries serving 50,000 or more people are not uniformly adequate. Library authorities say it would take another $100 million a year to bring them up to standard.

Having books on the shelves isn't the whole story, either. Trained librarians are required. Still, of some 82,000 schools studied in a survey, only 42 percent had such personnel.

Just to take up the slack in the public library field and to extend service to uncovered rural and urban areas (31 million urban dwellers get inadequate service), an outlay of $500 million to $750 million would be required. The bigger annual expenditures would be in addition.

All those needs have piled up at a time when the prospect for higher and higher book costs, heavier usage with faster wearing out of books, bigger demand for scientific and technical works.

As the nation's population mounts and interest in books more than keeps pace, government at all levels clearly must attend to need for buildings, personnel and reading materials.

Who dares to say we cannot afford those things needed to fuel the minds of free citizens?

In a southern town only recently blessed with library services, an elderly man tried to tell a library teacher what it meant. He gaped for the right words. As he talked, street lights came on. He looked up, and then:

"That's hot. It's books. That's how bright it is now?" That's how it should be, for all Americans everywhere.

Worry Clinic

A Greek riddle asked: "What is it that walks on 4 legs in the morning and 3 legs at noon, but uses 2 legs at night?" Read Martha's case and you'll find the answer. And if you are past 40, by all means prevent yourself against your own senility. For all of us grow oldish in old age.

CASE 1-531: Martha K., aged 70, is a feeble grandmother.

Her spinster daughter Joana has cared for her almost exclusively for the past 20 years.

In fact, Joana turned down two proposals of marriage because she was the sole caretaker of Martha.

For Martha's other daughter named Eve, had married young and left.

Martha had some property and everybody expected her to leave most of it to faithful Joana. In fact, she had bequeathed two-thirds of it to Joana in her will some 20 years ago.

But Eve was suave and during the last couple of years, she came back to see her mother occasionally. Eve "honeyed up" to the old lady and brought her a big bouquet of flowers, plus a fancy new hat.

Joana, who was stuck with the hard work of caring for her bed-fast mother, often made Martha angry, for the old lady was now childish and resented the bossy behavior of Joana.

Yet without Joana's bossiness, Martha would have been forced into a Nursing Home, among strangers.

After six months of doft persuasion by foxy Eve, the old lady decided that it was Eve who really loved her, so Martha called a lawyer and reversed her will.

When she died, neighbors were shocked. For the Prodigal Daughter Eve, who had hardly lifted her hand to bear the heavy burdens of Martha's last 25 years of constant care and nursing, got the bulk of her estate.

And this unfairness occurs constantly, because old folks grow childish and thus can be wheeled into favoring the son or daughter who is least deserving.

The faithful workhorse, who may have had to decline marriage to look after the ailing old folks, thus gets rebuffed and cheated.

All of us at 50 or 60 may be very alert and fair-minded. But we should realize as we pass 70 to 80, that we tend to grow more childish.

So we ought to arrange our property so that our later whims or senile favoritism, will not produce the injustice that Martha showed.

Make gifts to your child while you are alert. Don't give away all your property, thereby rendering yourself a pauper, but take advantage of the $30,000 exemption to each of your children.

And set up trusts which are irrevocable, so you may obtain the income during your lifetime, but at your death, it will then go to the children and grandchildren who should have it.

President Kennedy's father has wisely set up such trusts for all his children, but so can you parents with more modest wealth.

It is smart for us to arrange our money so that we can't even get hold of the bulk of it in our old age, for senility makes us easy dupes.

For example, an 80-year-old man recently met a designing widow in Florida. Against the advice of his clergyman, he proposed to her.

He was a wealthy man, so she demanded that he first buy a new house for her, to which he agreed. She picked it out, it was greatly overpriced, but he bought it to please her.

Before the wedding, she ran away. And he then found out he had bought her own house, at twice its proper price, which she had been trying to sell via a real estate firm.

At the age of 50, he probably would not have been this gullible, so all middle-aged folks should protect themselves against their own senility.

Very well, LIMP-GUTTY, BUT WHY? I STRIKE GOLD!

LIMP-KAFF!

WHAT WERE YOU GOING TO SAY, MAJOR?

MISS ALGERIA OF 1962

Phil Newsom Says . . .

De Gaulle Has Plan

(UPI) — Apparently confident that his Algeria problems were well on the way to solution, French President Charles De Gaulle this week turned to other things.

Among them was a trip to Turin, Italy, for a one-day meeting with Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani.

High on the agenda was De Gaulle's conception of the "Europe des patries" Europe of fatherlands by which the six West European nations now bound together in a common market also are gradually to achieve political unity.

So far, agreement among the six on the extent to which political unity shall be carried has been considerably less than that already achieved in the economic field.

At the core of the difficulty lies De Gaulle's own conception of what exactly he means by a Europe of fatherlands.

France's partners in the six, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Italy, openly have suspected that while De Gaulle speaks of unity he actually means to weaken the structure that was supposed to result in a United States of Europe.

Foreign ministers of the six will meet in Paris April 17. De Gaulle's trip to Turin, therefore, was an attempt to sell Italy on his ideas in advance.

One source of suspicion is De Gaulle's announced reluctance to surrender any degree of French sovereignty.

Another is a fear that De Gaulle is moving to weaken the already established authority by which the common market, the coal and steel and the Euratom communities are administered.

A community court of justice has the authority to enforce its rulings against member governments as well as individuals and private enterprises. These rulings usually deal with competitive injustices between one country or another.

There have been suggestions that De Gaulle believes a greater voice should be restored to the individual governments.

Among the six there also is a fear that De Gaulle's reluctance to meet his NATO commitments and his insistence upon developing his own nuclear striking force eventually will mean a weakening of NATO with a consequent reduction of U. S. participation in European defense.

What De Gaulle apparently believes is that as economic unity becomes a reality among independent nations, a common policy on foreign affairs will develop as a natural part of evolution. Therefore surrender of sovereignty becomes unnecessary.

Flying speed of falcons in striking at their prey is estimated at more than 150 mph, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Fifty right-wing organizations maintain their national headquarters or active lobbying and public relations offices in Washington, according to listings in "The First National Directory of 'Rightist' Groups, Publications and Some Individuals in the U.S." The list was compiled by Alert Americans Assn., P. O. Box 1222, Los Angeles, Calif.

Ten Washington writers and retired military men are listed as conservative thought leaders. Also listed are 163 representatives or about 37 per cent of the House and 23 senators, 25 per cent of the Senate.

This is a minimum congressional listing as the usual count expected on a major vote in the House is 169 Republicans and 71 Democrats—a majority of 98 out of 437 members voting in the conservative coalition.

All this adds up to a coalition, in spite of the fact that Washington is New Frontier headquarters for carving a liberal welfare state out of the wilderness.

This concentration of conservatism also belies the prevalent notion that Washington doesn't know what goes on in the rest of the country, where right-wing movements are supposed to have most of their members and greatest strength.

H. H. Mencken was alive and kicking, he would probably be heaping scorn on today's right-wing movements.

Forty years ago and more he was at peak form in lambasting the "fundamentalist hoobs of the Bible belt" and chastising "100 percent American superpatriots."

Rightist glory in this latter designation today and there is considerable religious fervor about some of their causes. Four listed in the Washington area are The Christianfront, Christianity Today, Foundation for Religious Action in the Social and Civic Order and International Christian Leadership.

Two of the biggest right-wing movements in the country are Christian Crusade, founded and headed by the Rev. Dr. Billy James Hargis and the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade run by Dr. Frederick Schwartz, an Australian who came to the U. S. in 1953 as if to balance off Australian immigrant Harry Bridges.

Both these organizations are reported to have gross income of over a million dollars a year, but they operate as nonprofit organizations to get income tax law exemptions.

"Take away my income tax exemption and I'll go into politics," Hargis declared during his recent Washington visit to form an alliance of right-wing leaders. It was the Communist "Worker" which suggested that this exemption be lifted and said Hargis was running a commercial enterprise.

Some of the other organizations like "Human Events" in Washington have a service to sell in their newsletters and other publications. The John Birch Society and others have magazines which go along with membership. Still others buy time for local and national broadcasts, mostly radio.

One significant aspect of this is that while some rightist organizations are well-heeled and have memberships in the hundreds of thousands, liberal magazines like "The Nation" and "New Republic" have small circulation and are always broke.

Not even Americans for Democratic Action can be called affluent. Communist party membership is at its lowest ebb in decades and it can no longer support a daily newspaper.

Anti-Communism is, nevertheless, principal stock in trade of the rightist organizations. They lobby and engage in political activity, whether they advertise it or not.

"Anti-Communist Liaison — The Committee of Correspondence, 1776-1962," new name for the Committee for the Coordination of Conservative Effort being organized here under the direction of Edward Hunter, a veteran Communist fighter, has a four-point political program as spelled out by Dr. Hargis, its founder. The goals are:

Encourage the teaching of Constitutional government and courses on Communism as a totalitarian conspiracy.

Support conservatives running on either ticket, with work from precinct levels up.

Support the bill introduced by Rep. James Utt, R-Calif., "to get the U. S. out of the UN and get the UN out of the U. S."

Inspire a letter and telegram campaign to demand that Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy force the Communist Party, its officers and members, to register as representatives of a foreign government, in compliance with the law of the land.

Test Warning Given To Ships LONDON (UPI)—The British Ministry of Defense Wednesday night issued a precautionary warning to all ships and aircraft to steer clear of a 600-by-800-mile area around Christmas Island in the Pacific after April 15.

The United States has said it would resume nuclear atmospheric testing at Christmas Island in late April unless some agreement on a ban was reached with the Russians before then.

On an average, there are about 314,000 tobacco seeds in an ounce; one tablespoonful being enough to plant 3 or 4 acres of land.

Weber Paces First Round Play In Spencer Tournney

By Jack Trim
Well—the winner of the Fishing Liars Contest is Phil Stallings, who retired from the fish camp business, but not from lying.

Phil's story about a dozen unusual shiners, one in particular, was about as good as you'll hear. He sent in early in the contest and here it is again:

"I caught several times with no results. I had tried every plug I knew of, so one morning I decided to take along some shiners.

"I caught me a dozen shiners and started for my favorite fishing hole. I also had a jar of 'shine whiskey' with me and one way I started to take a drink. I was a bit nervous and in the process I spilled about half of the 'shine in the bait bucket.

"I thought sure I had ruined my shiners, but went ahead to my favorite spot, put out my anchor and dumped my shiners overboard.

"Believe it or not, in less than 15 minutes each one came back with a bass by the throat. All I had to do was dip them up with my net and the smallest bass weighed four and a half pounds.

"I kept this up with these same minnows for a couple of weeks.

"But one morning one of the dangliest noise up in the grass.

"I looked over and here came the punished shiner dragging a 12 foot bull alligator.

"I guess he just wanted to show off and redeem himself.

"All my shiners are gone now though—they all finally died with the D.T.s."

Stallings will be presented with the Bull Throwing trophy given by Robson's Sporting Goods. Second prize, a spinning outfit donated by The Herald will be awarded to Nick McFaulst for his experience with a Yankee, a sailfish and a shark.

The prizes will be awarded as soon as I get round to it.

The liars contest proved to be pretty good fun, even though a lot of well known prevaricators failed to show.

We'll give them a chance next year when the contest is run again.

Lary, Koufax Loom As Top Pitchers This Year

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Lary, who won 23 games last season, was picked as a likely 20-game winner again by 15 of the 21 experts, while Koufax, who struck out an all-time single-season high of 266 batters in the NL last season enroute to an 18-victory campaign, was selected by eight experts.

Ford, who had a 23-4 record and was the major league's pitcher of the year in 1961, was the choice of 12 experts while Yankee teammate Bill Stafford was named by seven.

Stafford, an efficient, hard-throwing right-hander some times compared to former Yankee ace Alie Reynolds, had a 14-8 mark last season despite a slow start.

Other AL pitchers who received strong support as potential 20-game winners were Jim Humming of the Tigers, Camilla Puseval of the Twins and Juan Pizarro of the White Sox. Scattered support went to Milt Pappas and Chuck Estrada of the Orioles, Ralph Terry of the Yankees, Don Schwall of the Red Sox and Jim Coates of the Yankees.

OBC Conference At Stake In SHS Tilt Today

By Ronnie Broadway Herald Sports Editor
The Orange Belt Conference title is at stake this afternoon in the Sanford Kenntoles travel to Apopka where they will meet the Blue Darters.

Game time is set for 4 p.m. in the Darter stadium.

Sanford is currently in first place in the OBC standings with a 3-0 conference record. They are 24 for the season. Apopka has lost only one game, that being to Winter Park. If the Kenntoles come out on top today, they will be the undisputed leaders in the conference. If not, they will be in a three way tie for first.

Tosone "Arno" Bowen will lead things off for the Kenntoles. He will be in right field, followed by Chuck Ogden at second base, Mike Caolo in left field, Steve Barnes at shortstop, Jack Calo behind the plate, Gary Davidson at first, Butch River in center, Tim Barrowman at third and Bob Johnson on the mound.

Dan Goolsby will probably be the starting pitcher for Apopka. Sanford Coach Jim McCoy has high hopes of knocking off the Darters and if they keep up their usual play, they should be able to do so.

The human heart is always in motion, never resting in the generally accepted sense of the term.

Golf Tournney Set Saturday

DeLand Country Club will be the site of this year's OBC Golf Tournament, which will get under way at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Seminole Coach Fred Ganas will send four men into action. Russ Peterson will lead the way, followed by Ed Hamilton, Ray Bradford and Jeff Williams.

The tournament will be scored as strictly medal play and winners will be determined by total team score. Ganas feels that his boys have a very good chance of winning the tournament if they are up to par.

Colts Sport Strong Spring Record

United Press International
Don't knock these baseball exhibition games, at least not down Texas way.

Houston fans are aware that the pre-season lineup count far outweighs the firing starts in earnest. But they're not ready to forget the fine spring showing of their Colts.

Displaying plenty of bounce the Colts pulled out a ninth inning decision over the Los Angeles Angels, 3-2, Thursday to boost their spring record to 10-6, third best among the 20 major league teams.

Singles by Hal Smith and Pidge Browne and a double by Jim Penitellon in the final

Player Paces Masters Play; Palmer Running Poor Third

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Little Gary Player, the defending champion, finally got his putts to drop so he went into the second round well over the field.

Given little consideration in the pre-tournament speculation, Player insisted all along that he'd be all right "if those putts start going in."

They did Thursday and he shot a five under par 67 which under the adverse condition will rank as one of the great-out rounds in Masters history. Playing in a cold rain, with darkness creeping up on him, the 25-year-old South African, attempting to become the first golfer ever to win two Masters titles in a row, came on with a rush to overtake the 42-year-old Julius Horst.

Horst's three under par 69 gave him second place, but even his brilliant round was overshadowed by Player's supple effort.

"I never agreed with those who have been saying I have not been playing well," said Player. "I've been hitting the ball as good as ever, but those putts just wouldn't drop. I know that once they started going in I'd be all right. I guess I proved it yesterday."

It started raining on a cloudy, chilly day just as Player finished the front nine with a two under par 34. But the bone-chilling dampness didn't bother him and he shot the tough back nine of the 6,000-yard par 36-36-72 Masters course in 53. He had six birdies against a single bogey.

Player was three strokes in front of favorite Arnold Palmer, Mike Souchak, Dave Ragan and Gardner Dickinson, all of whom carded two under par 70's.

The San Francisco Giants blasted the Milwaukee Braves, 8-2, as rookie Gaylord Perry pitched eight scoreless innings and Willie McCovey homered.

Pedro Ramos, making his debut for the Cleveland Indians, gave up four hits and three runs as Cleveland dropped a 4-3 decision to the Los Angeles Dodgers. Stan Williams was the starting and winning pitcher for Los Angeles.

Fernie Allen, Zoilo Versalles and Rich Rollins each touched Chuck Estrada for homers to pace the Minnesota Twins to a 6-3 victory over Baltimore. Don Lee went all the way for the Twins, yielding eight hits.

A grand-slam homer by Al Smith and a solo blast by Charley Smith were more than enough support for Juan Pizarro as the Chicago White Sox blanked the Cincinnati Reds, 5-0. Pizarro held the Reds to five hits in seven innings and Herb Score preserved the shutout in the final two innings.

Art Dittmar hurled seven scoreless innings as the Kansas City Athletics edged the New York Mets, 6-5. Reliever Bob Grim was searched for four runs by the Mets in the ninth innings before Danny Oatski came in to get the final out.

With the start of the regular campaign just days away, the major league teams are busily paring their rosters to the legal limit of 28. Latest to be released were Clarence Coleman by the Mets; Larry Foss and Cal Neeman by the Pirates; Purn Goldy, Don Wert, Bill Freshan, Bob Dugal and Joe Grzeszka by the Tigers; and Gary Blaylock, Frank Carpin, Wilmer Shantz and Don Lock by the Yankees.

The Baltimore Orioles got down to the limit today by announcing that pitcher Jack Pflieger will be placed on the disabled list, shortstop Ron Hansen will be left on the national defense Army list, and pitcher Joe Nuxhall is free to deal for himself.

Body Of Paret In Final View

MIAMI (UPI)—The body of Cuban fighter Benny (Kid) Paret went on view a final time today.

Paret's body was brought here Thursday evening from New York, where the 25-year-old former welterweight champion died in a hospital Tuesday without regaining consciousness from the beating he took March 24 in losing his title to Emilio Griffith.

Mrs. Lucy Paret, 21, arrived a few hours before with the fighters' mother, Mrs. Maxima Crespo of Santa Clara, Cuba; his brother, Antonio, 27, and Mrs. Lettie Paret, godmother of the boxer's 2-year-old son, Benny Jr.

"I don't feel anything anymore. I don't feel bitter toward anybody," said the sorrowing Mrs. Paret, who is expecting another child in August.

The boxer's mother stood silently alone while newsmen talked with Mrs. Paret. Mrs. Crespo had wanted Paret buried in his native Cuba.

Swimmers Aim For No. 3

Swimming coach John Culbert sends his boy swimmers out after their third win in a row today when they journey to Winter Garden to meet the Lakeview swimmers. The meet gets underway at 4 p.m. Lakeview has a real tough team but Culbert is pretty confident of his boys and has hopes for a win today. The boys have a respectable 2-0 record this season and will try to uphold their perfect record.

Bond Hurt

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—Outfielder Walter Bond will be lost to the Cleveland Indians for several weeks after suffering a shoulder injury Tuesday while making a spectacular catch of a fly ball. Playing his first game since being released from the Army, Bond fell on his shoulder and suffered an injured collarbone.

DOC AND VELMA MITCHELL and their daughter Topsy Mitchell Kirkland are three of the busiest people you'll meet these days, as they are all engaged in the same project, but in three different directions.

All three are chairmen of their respective class reunions and all three are busy writing letters, making phone calls and arranging for places and times, eats, drinks and entertainment for the big get-togethers that they are planning for their groups.

Topsy is spearheading the 25th Year Reunion of the Class of 1937 at Seminole High School. This is to be held on June 7 and Topsy and some of the other members of the class are planning to sail for St. Petersburg and Tampa to meet their classmates, who are now scattered to the four winds.

Mrs. Velma Mitchell, Southside principal, is meeting on April 28 with the other members of her class at Georgia Normal and Industrial College, which is now called Women's College of Georgia, located at Milledgeville. She started working on her project about Dec. 15 and has written about 152 letters to her classmates and has heard from most of them. This will be the 45th year for her class and several other classes from the years of 1915-1917 and 18 are also meeting at this time.

Doc, who is bookkeeper at the Southward Fruit Co., says that all 11 members of his high school class will be present at this 50th anniversary meeting in Yaloville, Ga. They have planned their reunion for May 8.

You'll be hearing more about the meeting of the SHS Class of 1912 a little later, when Mrs. Kirkland announces the final plans.

RAYMOND M. BALL JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ball of Lake Mary, has been named vice-president in charge of engineering for Tele-Projects Corporation in New York, they tell us.

He also served as communications adviser to the Department of Civil Aviation for the government of Iran and for one of the major airlines in Iran. Ball, his wife and two sons live in Foxwood, N. J.

THE ONE-WOMAN ART SHOW now at Senkirk's Paint and Glass Store on Magnolia is that of Mrs. Mildred Babcock, who is coordinator of art for the Seminole County Schools, and director of the big annual elementary school art show, which is coming up next week.

Mrs. Babcock is an accomplished portrait painter and her sad, lonely clown is contrasted sharply with the happy, laughing singer in the painting which hangs next to it in the display.

Also shown, as samples of her versatility are two beautiful flower still-life pictures, one of a bouquet of irises and one of a bouquet of tulips. There are three different scenes, one depicting a cabin in the swamp at night, a residential scene with a narrow flagstone street running between old houses, (it looks like New Orleans) and another beautiful swamp scene.

The modernistic picture of a stylized owl, highlights another picture with big eyes and crests and suggestions of about nine other owls in the background.

My attention was called to this one repeatedly by a charming little tow-headed gentleman, about two years old, who told me, "See Mr. Owl? That's Mr. Owl! See Mr. Owl!" Evidently he liked the sound of the words as much as he did the picture, because he repeated them over and over, like a little song.

I came in on the chorus with "Yes, I see!" "That's him alright!" "I see him!" and "M-m-m-h-m-m."

Mrs. Babcock, you have an admirer. This last sure likes your owl (I'm an admirer, too, as everyone else is sure to be, when they drop by and see your art display.)

IT'S BEEN FUN to hear the reactions to the story about the man wearing the orchid—mainly because there are several well-known men named Bob in this town, and since I would not reveal his identity, it has become a guessing game.

Especially do the guessers try to fit various "Bob's" into the description of "debonair" and "cavalier" (Ah, Yes).

Well, there's hospital administrator Bob Hesserer, insurance man Bob Crumley, telephone man Bob Sheddin, zoning man Bob Brown, Demo exec man Bob Hillblinder, Dr. Bob Smith, Admiral Bob Jackson and lots of others.

Who do you think?

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been living with this fellow since 1946. Everyone thinks we are married, but we are not. We have a nice home and are respected in the community and I want to keep it that way. We would like to get married quietly now, but don't know how to do it without publicity (license in the paper, blood tests and so forth). I would appreciate any help you can give me. I can't sign my name, so please put this in the paper and I'll watch for it.

DEAR NO CHOPIN: You don't have to be a Chopin to enjoy music. Almost everyone who grooved off when he had the chance to learn music has regretted it. I can't say much for the "deal" your mother made, but make the best of it or all that money for music lessons will go up in smoke.

DEAR WANTS: Every state has its own laws with regard to marriage. In California you may go to a clergyman of your choice and be married quietly. The "records" will be filed away in the church and no publicity will follow. And you will be just as married as any two people can be.

DEAR ABBY: My heart goes out to the daughter-in-law who signed herself "IGNORED." I know how she feels because I am "ignored," also. Only I am a mother-in-law. My only child was married 15 years ago. They live only 22 miles from me, but I have grandchildren I have never seen. I don't weep and moan and feel sorry for myself. I take my troubles to the Lord. He keeps me strong and of good cheer.

DEAR JUST: I think that person is showing HIS ignorance. It is infinitely more important to be KIND than correct.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old boy with a very active social life and a better than average school record. As far back as I can remember my mother has wanted me to take piano lessons. Until recently I have refused. Finally, we made a deal. If I took North's hand was almost worth a jump to three spades — almost, but not quite — therefore he contented himself with a mere raise to two. Then after South made his short suit game try of three clubs, North wanted to show this maximum holding. How was he going to do this?

The method used was a raise to four clubs. This was not a serious effort to show a club suit. Who wants to play clubs after spades have been bid and raised? Instead, it showed a maximum single raise that had been improved by knowledge that South's shortest suit was clubs, and that raise included the club ace.

South's four diamond rebid showed that ace, and North

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

One of the loudest complaints of the American housewife is that she is bored. When her children are young she claims she is bored because she is tied down to routine and doesn't have a chance to use her brains or talents. But often the more leisure she acquires as the children grow older, the more bored she becomes.

You read a lot about this chronic boredom of the housewife but never any reason for it that seems to make sense.

Maybe the real reason is so simple that it has been overlooked. Could it be that the housewife is bored because with the free time she has she tries to please someone else, rather than herself, and tends to be a joiner, rather than a doer?

Let's look at a bored housewife who is convinced she doesn't have any time to use her brains and talents. That she is growing duller year by year.

She has time to chauffeur her children anywhere they want to go—important or not or within walking distance or not.

She has time to bake a cake for every bake sale — instead of saying "Tell me how much you plan to sell the cake for and I'll give you the money instead of the cake." She has time to watch every Little League game Junior plays (as though he couldn't have fun playing on a ball team if Mama wasn't in the stands cheering him on). She has time for any kind of busy work she is asked to do—even when she knows she is wasting time.

And she always finds time for meetings — meetings to TALK about the things she is interested in, but never time to DO. Instead of reading books she belongs to a book review club. Instead of studying up on a discussion group, she belongs to a writers' club.

She spends her time and energy in well-organized sitting sessions instead of getting busy and doing something creative on her own. No wonder she is bored.

It's a safe bet she wouldn't be if she stopped being a joiner and a do-gooder and set out on the fascinating business of doing as she pleases with her leisure time instead of squandering it doing what she thinks is expected of her.

Idea galore: Ruth Millet's booklet, "Happier Wives (Hints for husbands)." Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Seven Women Join Blood Donors

Seven Sanford women were accepted as donors to the Seminole County Blood Bank during the month of March, it was announced today by Mrs. James Doucette, R. N., supervisor.

"This unusually large number of women donors has been very heartening," Mrs. Doucette said. She urged that more women acquire the habit of donating blood.

"If the reserve of blood can be built up there will be less danger of the bank being empty when it is needed, as donations seldom equal the necessary transfusions," she added.

The seven women who contributed included Mrs. Ophelia Bennett, who gave her sixth pint; Miss Judy Ascensio, her second; Evelyn Proctor, two pints and Pauline Brown, Blanch Coleman, Rena Farmer, Mary Doris Laub and Paty Wilson, who each gave their first pint.

Bill Glenn gave his 18th pint during March and Claude S. Hawkins got his two gallon certificate for his 16th donation.

Howard E. Bass, Walter Cook and Clifford Proctor Jr. gave their 15th pint, Robert Glenn, his 14th, Earl S. Handley, 12th; Charles Gracy and H. H. Fortner, 10th and it was the ninth time for LeRoy Groover, Henry Slicer Jr., James Doucette, Willie Anderson, Howard Lee, Floyd Hearn and Charles Lueth.

Gallon Clubber with his eighth pint and it was seven down and one to go for Melton Yelvington, Charles Rogers, James Killen, Raymond Hall and Robert Bennett.

Jesse Crews, Weldell Drummond, Britt Yates and Harold Herbst made their sixth donation and it was the fifth for Martin Blair, LeRoy Napper and Joe Harley.

Four pints made it a half-gallon apiece for Andrew Ellis, Phillip Bolger Jr., Francis Kelly, Terrace Sasser, Loren Jones, John Buhl, Barney Miller, Charles Baker and Herbert Banta.

Three time donors include Charles Petherbridge, William Tanner, Jimmy Hendon, Thomas Wilson Jr., Duncan McCoy, Wolfred Smorowski, Gerard Neyer, James Giles, Roland Sides, Harley Wilhelm, Homer Sutton and Buddy Vaughn.

Second timers are Lonnie Martin, Dan Tepper, Richard Silvers, Robert Inns, Ronald Gettly, Charles Simmons, Kenneth Shaw, Nathan Sellers, John Sparta, Bulby D. Price, William Chambers, Henry Dilts, and Arthur Decker, Jr.

It was the first donation for Fred James, James Smith, Harshel Harris, N. L. Cotton, Carl Cunningham, Elva Pearson, Charles Harrison, Richard Jones, Edward Converse, Cecil Edwards, Wayne Miller, Dale Owens, John Brown, Melvin Arnold, George Bromberger, Leonard Beckstrom and Jerry Luak.

The two essays will be entered in the District Civitan Essay Contest and results will be announced on May 1st. Winners of District will go to the State contest and State winners to the National, with scholarships and other prizes as the rewards.

Are we letting it fade away?

Today, we are free to travel anywhere in America—crossing state borders at will, without special permits, visas, or red tape. Yet, in many countries of the world, such freedom of travel is forbidden. Unless we keep America powerful enough to resist the enemies of freedom, the rights we so often take for granted could fade away!

Keeping America powerful involves much more than military preparedness. It involves determination to preserve freedom of the individual and of enterprise—the forces through which America has become the most prosperous and progressive nation on earth.

Free enterprise has made America the world's most powerful electric nation. Investor-owned, tax-paying power companies have made her so and will keep her so. As a part of that team, and together with other Florida power companies, we are working toward an improved, expanded, and strengthened interconnecting network of transmission lines here in Florida to pace the power needs of the state's challenging population and industrial growth.

Florida Power & Light Company projects now under construction will, by 1966, nearly double present system capability—adding 1,875,000 kilowatts in a continuing power program designed to help make Florida... and America... more powerful!

We queried City Manager Loomis... possibility of the city taking over the concession at the zoo.

Knowles told us that the city leases the concession out for $50 per month and that if the city failed to renew the lease in 1964 it would in the long run cost more money.

"At least we are assured $600 profit a year now," said Mr. Knowles.

Sewerage Bills Up .76c?

Cost Of New City Plant Spelled Out

City Fiscal Agent Loomis Leedy this afternoon presented a revised debt service schedule for the City of Sanford to help pay for a sewerage treatment plant by 1977 and to pay off old series B bonds.

The series B bonds would be retired on a schedule so they will not have to be refinanced.

City Manager W.S. Knowles at a March 13 city commission meeting, when Leedy was authorized to come up with a revised schedule, stated that if this program was not put into effect, thousands of dollars would have to be refinanced in 1977 at an interest rate three times "what we are now paying."

The series B bonds were floated in 1924 to purchase the water system.

At the present time, the city budgets $6,260 for principal and $10,423 for interest for these bonds for a total of $16,683.

According to Knowles, Sanford must be prepared to pay an additional $10,000 per year on principal under the proposed $200,000 bond issue for a sewerage treatment plant.

At the present time there are some 3,500 sewer connections in the city.

Work is being done on the rock garden out at 23th St. and Park Ave.

New Satellite The 'Sky Spy?'

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif. (UPI)—The Air Force today successfully launched a top-secret satellite, believed to be a Midas or Samos "sky spy."

The satellite was boosted into orbit by a powerful Atlas-Agena-B booster combination.

As has been the procedure on previous similar shots, the Air Force would neither confirm nor deny that the satellite was a "sky spy."

A spokesman said the Department of Defense had imposed a policy of no longer using popular names on missile projects.

However, in its terse announcement on the hush-hush firing the Air Force said the satellite was carrying a number of test components, some of which were classified.

It would not indicate orbital path of the satellite, which could provide a clue on whether it was the Midas or Samos.

The Samos carries extremely sensitive photographic equipment which could detect military installations anywhere on the earth.

The Midas is designed to detect enemy missile firings to give the United States additional warning time in the event of an impending missile attack.

The first secret launch of this sort took place last November, the secrecy surrounding the firings could indicate that "sky spy" satellites have gone over Russia in polar orbits.

Morehead City, N. C. (UPI)—More than 10,000 battle-equipped Marines went aboard transporta today to begin the biggest Navy-Marine training exercises ever staged in the Atlantic-Caribbean area.

President Kennedy will watch the massed battle armada stage amphibious landings Saturday. He will observe from aboard the nuclear-powered carrier USS Enterprise and his guest will be the visiting shah of Iran.

The President and the shah are to watch realistic amphibious landings at Onslow Beach, N. C.

Embarkation of 10,000 to 20,000 Leathernecks from the 2nd Marine Division at Camp Lejeune, N. C., began shortly after daybreak at Morehead City and at Sunny Point terminal at Southport, N. C.

A fleet of 83 naval vessels was to be assembled for the exercise. Navy and Marine air support, both land and carrier-based, will be provided for the assault to be staged Saturday. A total of 40,000 Marine and naval personnel is participating.

During the exercises, to be culminated with a full-scale amphibious assault on Vieques Island off Puerto Rico, the Navy will test its newest supersonic aircraft, anti-submarine techniques and other combat weapons and systems.

Hunt Escapes JESSUP, Ga. (UPI)—A 100-man posse using bloodhounds poked cautiously through thick underbrush in a South Georgia woods today, hunting heavily armed convicts who escaped a state prison camp Saturday night.

Boxer Suspect HASTINGS-ON-HUDSON, N. Y. (UPI)—Authorities investigating the murder of a millionaire financier called on former middle-weight boxing champion Jake LaMotta to "voluntarily" submit to questioning.

Plant Blows Up PONT SAINT ESPRIT, France (UPI)—A gunpowder factory blew up in nearby Saint Just D'Ardeche today, causing heavy casualties and damage and forcing the 300 villagers to flee for their lives. Police said they believed at least 20 persons had been killed.

ASTROANTS LOUIE AND JOHN made history for the Lyman Missile Club Friday when they successfully made three "bugged" capsule flights aboard the LMC 6, one of several missiles fired by chapters of the club during the day. Success of their recovery was credited to intensive pre-flight training, using an automatic washing machine and a bicycle wheel as ant centrifuges. The Skyflit 6, shown being prepared for launching by Frank Moore and Suzanne Atkins, seemed doomed, however, as it met with only partial success in all three firing attempts. (Herald Photo)

Oviedo Council Meets Tonight

The Oviedo Town Council will meet tonight at the Town Hall in a called session to discuss with the Florida Power Corp. a proposal to install new street lights in the town.

The lighting project was discussed at the monthly meeting last Monday night but action was postponed until the Council could meet with a representative of the power company and discuss the type best suited to Oviedo's needs.

The Council, at the suggestion of Mayor Lee Gary, last Monday voted to advertise for bids for the painting of the Town Hall at the same time as the new fire house is painted in order that the two buildings, of similar architecture, would present a uniform appearance.

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Mayor Victor H. Schiro expects to map plans with state legislators today to fight a federal court order for complete racial integration this fall of all New Orleans elementary schools.

Schiro called a meeting to counter an integration speed-up order by U. S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright "because I see no need for this unnecessary demonstration of authority."

The Orleans Parish School Board, to which the order was directed last week, also was scheduled to meet tonight.

"I am asking that our New Orleans legislators study this matter carefully," Schiro said, "and to make necessary recommendations and/or introduce legislation for the purpose of sparing this community any undue and unnecessary conflict among the races."

Wright's speedup order followed a decree from Archbishop Joseph Francis Hummel for even broader desegregation of Roman Catholic schools in a 10-parish area of southeast Louisiana.

Whoops, My Dear NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The only mated pair of rare whooping cranes in captivity today expected another visit from the stork and you would think Audubon Park Zoo Director George Douglas was the expectant father.

Not In Jail Claude Hawkins of Lake Monroe was not jailed after a fight with another man last Wednesday night. Hawkins posted bond after the fray. The Herald is sorry for the misleading headline.

County May Drop Out Of District

State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. today warned Central and South Florida Flood control district officials that unless some assurances are given the Legislature to eliminate Seminole County from the district in the Upper St. Johns River, he would start taking the "necessary steps to eliminate this county from the district."

It would take an act of the Legislature to eliminate Seminole County from the district.

"If we don't get any satisfaction from the district, we will have no other recourse but to take care of our flooding and water control problems by another method," Cleveland said.

Friday the FCD presented a tentative 1962-63 budget of $9,218,000 to the board.

Most of the work apparently part of the district.

Cleveland emphasized that "we were given assurances in 1959 and 1961 that some work would commence to alleviate flooding in the Upper St. Johns."

"To this day nothing has been accomplished," Cleveland added.

Entire costs of the Upper St. Johns project range from $18 to $40 million including the construction of dams and reservoirs.

The budget for the 18-county district is $308,000 less than for the current year. Final adoption is scheduled for the FCD's June meeting, when the tax rate also will be set.

Seminole's share in the budget is $8,000 annually.

Red Guerrillas Kill 2 GIs In South Viet Nam

SIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—A hand of Communist Viet Cong guerrillas killed two American soldiers and apparently captured two others in a surprise raid on a village in the north of South Viet Nam Sunday, U. S. officials reported today.

The officials said they could not definitely confirm that the two Americans were captured, and therefore officially listed them as missing.

But there were reports that South Vietnamese forces in the area, about 500 miles north of here, had been dispatched to hunt down the rebels and rescue the Americans. Observers said their chances were slight.

The deaths raised to 17 the number of Americans who have died in South Viet Nam as a result of the Communist campaign to overthrow the U. S.-backed government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—Two U. S. military advisers in Laos were killed Friday when a chartered Air America transport plane crashed about 65 miles northwest of Vientiane, the airlines disclosed Sunday.

The airlines said the pilot and co-pilot of the Beaver-type transport plane also died in the crash. But it did not give their names or nationalities.

The Americans were identified as members of the U. S. military advisory group here. Their names were withheld until the families were notified.

Later this week, probably Wednesday or Thursday, U. S. scientists will make another attempt to fire America's new high-energy space rocket, the giant Atlas-Centaur, on its maiden flight across the Atlantic. The shot was postponed twice last week because of bad weather.

Florida is normally "off limits" for Russians, but Soviet and other Communist bloc diplomats have received special permission to see the shot Tuesday, if it goes on schedule.

Russians May See Cape Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—America will shoot this week for a space age double-header and Russian diplomats may be in the official gallery for the first time ever.

Members of the UN's committee on the peaceful use of outer space are expected here Tuesday for the planned launching of the world's first international satellite—the British-built "UKLITE" to be launched by an American Thor-Delta rocket.
