Immense Crowd Thrilled Sunday By 'Hell Drivers'

Attendance Records At Driving Park Reported Broken

Death-defying stunts by "Lucky" Teter and his "hell drivers" thrilled a tremendous crowd at the Seminoles Driving Park Sunday afternoon. According to announcements made at the park, all attendance records there were shattered by the immense throng said to have been the largest ever seen in Seminoles County.

The grandstand was not half large enough to hold the crowd which overflowed on and along the track for a considerable distance each way from the place designated for the thrilling events. The narrow road leading from the highway to the track was jammed with hundreds of cars which drove bumper to bumper over the four miles. However, no accidents were reported.

Prince Serge's death followed that of his brother, Alexis, by only a few months. Alexis was killed in a motor accident in Spain shortly after the former Barbara Hutton obtained a divorce from him at Rome and quickly married Count Hans von Hohenhausen.

High praise was given Miss Josephine Boydston, county home demonstration agent, and her co-workers by the civic committee for the wonderful job they did, and special appreciation was also expressed to the Sanford Garden Club for the beautiful flower display arranged by that group which was awarded second place.

AAA Reorganized And Five Regions Are Established

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace today announced reorganization of the AAA and establishment of five regions for administration of the new soil conservation farm program. Salvo Of 47 Guns Is Fired By Candidates As Campaign Is Opened At Mass Meeting

The proverbial "opening gun" of a political campaign was multiplied 47 times at the mass meeting in Lake Mary last night for 47 candidates fired a veritable broadside.

The meeting was held in the Community House in Lake Mary, and the room was crowded with persons seeking office and with their friends. Some of the candidates were not there, but the absentees were few. Each was given an opportunity to speak not more than five minutes, but only two went over the allotted time. Most of them confined their speeches to pronouncement of their names, the offices they seek to fill, their pleasure in being at the meeting, and their hope the Lake Mary folks will vote for them.

Frank Evans was master of ceremonies and kept the program moving swiftly and smoothly, with verbal bandiads now and then with a candidate that kept the crowd in no humor. R. J. Lehman, who also addressed the assemblage, was the first speaker as the announced candidate from Group 2. In Group 1 the announced candidate is H. J. Lehman who also addressed the assemblage. The general invitation brought out two other candidates, E. E. Brady in Group 1 and Harry Wing in Group 2. The Brady candidacy had been announced, though not in the ballot, but the Wing candidacy from Holly, Fred A. Wilson and Lee

Sanford May Lead Legion Parade At State Convention

Local Post In Front In State-Wide Membership Contest

Campbell-Losing Post of the American Legion in Sanford is out in front in the state-wide membership contest, and if it can hold its present lead for two more weeks Sanford will lead the parade at the state convention of the Legion in Sarasota next month.

Three more veterans joined the Legion at last night's meeting, bringing the total membership to 180 and the Post's standing in the membership gain contest to 408 percent. That percentage gain is greater than that of any other Post in the state—and the Post that makes the greatest gain during the preceding year leads the convention parade. Its delegates will also have the front seats in the convention hall.

The convention is to be on Apr. 15, 16, 17 and 18, but the contest closes on Mar. 31.

Much of the time of the Post meeting last evening was taken up in discussing the organization in Sanford of a squadron of the Sons of the Legion, and every veteran present who is the father of a boy wanted to enroll him then and there. A committee composed of Perry Mero, Bob Cobb and Guy Stafford was appointed by Commander L. F. Boyle to further arrange for a father's and son's banquet at an early date when steps will be taken to form the squadron.

Any boy whose father is a member of the Legion or whose father was a member though now dead is eligible to join the Sons of the Legion, Commander Boyle said. There is no age limit.

Commander Boyle exhibited two checks, one for $25 from the Rita theater as the proceeds of last Saturday's motion picture show given as a benefit for the Legion's hospital in St. Petersburg for crippled children, and the other for $25 as the local Post's share of the proceeds of the "Jare devil" show at the Driving Park last Sunday.

Big Payroll Robbery Suspects Are Taken

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—(AP)—Detectives today questioned seven men and three women in efforts to connect them with the $47,000 payroll robbery of an insurance co. in Brooklyn two years ago.

The suspects were captured in a drive raid on a rooming house in the upper west side, which turned out to be a hideout for the payroll robbery. The men were taken to a police station and the women to a hospital. The men were identified as William J. O'Brien, James J. O'Brien, and James J. O'Brien.

4 More Troops Of Boy Scouts May Be Formed

Groups Are Ready To Start When Scout Executive Returns From Camp Trip

Formation in Sanford of four more troops of Boy Scouts of America is in prospect upon the return within the next few weeks of Scout Executive Henry Brown, who is now attending a training camp in Tennessee. The four new troops will be sponsored by local churches, several of which were represented by committees at a session of the Court of Honor in the Junior High Sch. of last evening.

The Rev. Martin Bram, rector of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, presided over the court in his official capacity as district commissioner, and it was reported that the Episcopal, Congregational and Christian Churches would jointly sponsor one troop.

The other troops would be sponsored by the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Churches. Paul Johnson, E. C. Smith and H. R. McCall, Jr., attended the court as committeemen from the Methodist Church; J. W. Tenhet and the Rev. E. D. Brownlee were there from the Presbyterian Church, and W. F. Kador attended the meeting as chairman of the Baptist Church committee.

Merit badges were awarded by the Court of Honor to three Scouts, and one Scout was advanced to second class. The merit badges were won by Dick Mason and LeRoy Cooper for public health, and by Byrl Higgs for farm home planning. Kent Ross, Jr., was promoted to second class. All are members of Troop 5, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Another troop is sponsored by the Catholic Church.

Forty-two Scouts were present with five other members of the Court of Honor—Arthur Branan, S. E. Andrews, S. D. Hightman, H. E. Morris and W. B. Zachry. Mr. Kador, who is at present assisting with Troop 5 and was formerly scoutmaster at Fort Pierce, delivered an interesting address before the boys.

Revenue stamps affixed to a warranty deed filed for record today shows $3,100 to be the price paid for farm land in the Black Hammock section near Oviedo. The transfer was made by Paul L. Mulrhead to Ronald W. Mulrhead.

The City Commission functioned as a tax adjustment board for three and one-half hours last night, and adjourned until 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening to continue the study of applications. Action has not been taken as yet on any application.

More cases of "screw worm" were reported in the state last week than at any time since the inspection work was undertaken, Supervisor J. A. Jones, of Orlando stated today. Mr. R. M. Cleveland, inspector for this district, reported that no new cases were discovered in Seminole County last week.

Chairman H. M. Fagworth of the advisory committee of the State Market informed the commission last evening that it was the last time he would preside over that body as he intends to resign on Mar. 24 as president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Fagworth is the trade body's representative on the advisory committee.

The weather: Fair and colder tonight scattered frosts in the interior of the north portion if the wind subsides; Wednesday, fair, rising temperature in afternoon in north portion. Extreme northwest Florida: Fair, slightly colder, probably frost tonight; Wednesday, fair, slowly rising temperature in west portion.

The general public is invited to see, without charge, a motion picture to be shown under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club in the Rita theater tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. The picture will show the marketing of Florida citrus fruits. Kiwanians will go to the theater in a body from the Mayfair Hotel where they will lunch at noon.

Chairman E. H. Coleman of the special committee on reorganization of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce said today that his report is not complete, but his committee will have some kind of a report to be made at the special session of the trade body this evening. The Chamber of Commerce room was visited at the meeting a week ago and another report was made to the committee.

Rioting Resumed In Spain, 6 More Persons Killed

Three Facists Are Lynched By Mob, Another Is Shot

MADRID, Mar. 17.—Three Facists were lynched, a Republican was shot and killed and three others were wounded gravely at Jumilla, Murcia Province, last night in bloody political riots.

Two others were killed, and three wounded earlier yesterday in Valencia Province, bringing total casualties to six killed and at least six wounded.

Rioting broke out at Jumilla when five Facists, just released from jail, killed one Republican and wounded another.

Police re-arrested the Facists, but angry mobs overwhelmed them and took two of them prisoner, Antonio Martinez and Pedro Cuellar, dragged them to the center of the city and lynched them.

Martinez' head was cut off, impaled on a stick and carried triumphantly through the streets while demonstrators threw rocks at it.

Center-Line Marking Prevents Accidents

TALLAHASSEE, Mar. 17.—Center-line marking of hard-surfaced state highways, started by the Road Department in 1934, has been the means of preventing hundreds of accidents and at the same time has been beneficial to the motoring public. Chairman G. B. Treadway of the department said today.

"Since the work began," he stated, "2,318 miles of road has been marked, with the continuous center line painted for a distance of 1,046 miles and the dot and dash line applied to 1,272 miles."

Treadway said that the first year, only curves were marked. It was then that 4,000 miles of traveled highway was marked for benefit of the motoring public.

Hitler Ready To Discuss His Acts At London Confab

Accepts Invitation To Conference To Be Held Thursday

By The Associated Press Adolf Hitler, dictator of Nazi Germany, advised the League of Nations council at London today he is ready to discuss at the conference table what France regards as his sudden violation of two treaties which threw Europe into turmoil. Formerly, he accepted the Council's invitation to sit down and ponder the international crisis precipitated when he denounced the Locarno pact, and for the second time within a year flew in the face of the Versailles treaty by sending troops into the demilitarized Rhineland. The initial parley will be held Thursday.

Hurla New Defiance FRANKFURT - ON - MAIN, Mar. 17.—Chancellor Adolf Hitler shouted new defiance at his foes last night in a fiery speech to thousands of followers celebrating Germany's day of armed forces.

Cheered frantically as a liberator, Dr. Fuehrer, faced with drastic action against the Reich by the League of Nations council in London, stood firm on his refusal to back down from re-occupation of the Rhineland.

"The world must know that there are not two or three opinions in Germany but only one opinion and one will," Hitler cried in an election campaign speech which observed also the first anniversary of restoration of compulsory military service in the Reich.

"Only a man supported by the entire nation could have solved the enormous problems facing him in January, 1933. Some people say that criticism is necessary. However, unity is necessary. By abolishing trade unions, employers' organizations and other bodies I have already had—unity."

"We shall never recede from our demand for equal rights. We seek reconciliation. My aim is not to rule over Germany—I seek vindication by the people. The people must be won for this great, new doctrine of unity."

"On one hand we have the letter of a treaty and on the other hand eternal moral rights. Foreign statesmen have studied history sufficiently to know that no treaty based on discrimination can last forever. If there are people who love peace they are the German nation."

"Our only aim is to express our abilities in peaceful work. We cannot tolerate it if foreigners meddle in our internal affairs. Freedom and rights are natural to every man. They stand above the paragraphs of treaties."

Only 465 Voters In Entire County Have Paid 1936 Poll Tax

MIAMI, Mar. 17.—(AP)—Combining all municipalities of the Greater Miami area for the first time, the just-released 1936 directory lists 106,312 names as against 97,016 in 1935.

There may be only one moon over Miami but there are 10 in study of the new city directory today revealed. Only one sun shines in the Miami sky and only one Sun lives on terra firma below, but the book, thicker this year than ever before, lists two Sunlighters, six Shines, seven Beams and enough Rays to tan many winter visitors.

Despite the city's much-publicized real estate activity, there are only 13 Houses, no Rooms and no Flats.

One lone grnt'man named Thrity had Beer, Wine, Coffee, Water, Drinks and Licker to satisfy him.

Fletcher Loses His Fight By Poll Of 39 To 34 As Party Lines Are Broken

Twelve Million Sought For Ditch

Vandenberg Appealed To By Chamber Of Commerce For Aid

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—(AP)—The Senate last today rejected an amendment to the Army supply bill which would have provided $20,000,000 for continuing work on the Florida Ship Canal and three other projects started with WPA funds. The Canal amendment, proposed by Senator Fletcher of Florida, was lost by a vote of 39 to 34 with party lines split. The amendment would have provided $12,000,000 for the canal, $3,500,000 for the Conchos Dam in New Mexico, $2,000,000 for the Sardes reservoir in Mississippi, and $2,000,000 for the Bluestone reservoir in West Virginia.

Fighting for appropriations to continue the 200-mile Florida Ship Canal, Senator Fletcher contended in the Senate today that the project was authorized in the work relief act. He denied assertions by Senator Vandenberg, Michigan, that the project, started with WPA funds, had not been authorized and was economically unsound.

Canal proponents, led by Senator Fletcher won an initial victory late yesterday when a point of order against the $20,000,000 amendment, raised by Senator Vandenberg, was rejected.

Building Service Strike In Gotham Not Yet Settled NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—(AP)—With settlement of the building service strike balked by what union employes called a partial lockout, labor leaders moved today for a "general stoppage of all organized labor in the city."

"This is no longer a building service strike," said the local president of a service union, speaking to 35 labor leaders representing 300,000 workers. Garment, food and butcher unions were among those represented at the meeting.

Jafie's Willing To Discuss Hauptmann Case With Hoffman

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—(AP)—John F. Condon, returning to New York from Panama, yesterday was quoted by Inez Passenich on the liner Santa Inez today as being "very" willing to discuss the Lindbergh case with Governor Harold G. Hoffman of New Jersey, in Dr. Condon's own home. "Jafie" himself declined to make any comment whatever on last minute efforts of Hauptmann to escape execution for the kidnap-murder of the Lindbergh baby.

The Rev. Henry Betts, director of Presbyterian missions in South America, quoted Condon as saying he would be glad to see the good reason at his home, but saw no reason why he should go to New Jersey.

Stay Through June

When the month of March is torn off the calendar and April makes its bow, Florida's winter visitors begin thinking of returning home, the Savannah Herald remarks. Many actually depart and miss a profusion of attractions that this state offers in spring and early summer. Flowers bloom in abundance, fishing is excellent, the sun beams in all its glory, and the beaches prove to be real attractions as the visitors turn their attention homeward. Writing of Florida's early summer, that is through the month of June, the New York Herald-Tribune says:

"Those who know their fishing and swimming and sunning are very well aware that these can be enjoyed more and more happily as spring advances. The weather makes its way up from the Caribbean. The temperature is just too warm an adjective for the time of year in Florida when the south wind brings the breezes into land and blows the salt into the fish's mouth, especially the kingfish. If there may have been a mild decline in bathing in Florida surf in the mid-winter, March makes it all new indulgence in that one of the water sports there is not the slightest danger that the bather will be bear-caught as natives call an overcoasting of sun."

"For those who have an eye for color, furthermore, there is an eye of it as the sky and water take on, if possible, a deeper blue, and Florida's romantic category of oleander, fire-vine, hibiscus, bougainvillea comes to bloom. . . . But well mixed with the south wind that is working all these wonders, it can be like the found congruous with the mood of extreme self-indulgence that Florida spring makes entirely forgettable, being in a long way off yet in New York and New England."

This is a gentle hint to Florida's visitors to be hesitant about returning home early, that is before spring appears back home. After several months in Florida the rigors of winter are unbearable and against the health of the Florida visitor. Florida's early summer through June is spring-like weather when all nature bursts forth into a riot of color and when life in Florida is at its best.

Lynching Records

Forty-one percent of the eighty-four persons lynched in the last five years were either unaccused of crime or else were charged only with minor offenses, according to a report made public by the Commission on Interracial Co-operation, summarizing the results of a careful study of all the lynchings of that period.

Appearing as a twenty-four page pamphlet, entitled "The Mob Still Rides," and citing numerous illustrative cases, the report states further that of the other fifty-nine percent of mob victims many were innocent of the crimes with which they were charged.

Only one-fourth of the victims were accused of actual or attempted assaults upon women, commonly thought of as the chief cause of lynchings, and in a number of these cases the Commission's investigators could find no convincing evidence of guilt.

Officers sometimes connive at lynchings or even participate in them, courts rarely indict lynchers and more rarely convict, and mobs sometimes so dominate the courts as to bring about "legal lynchings," according to the report. On the other hand, a number of cases are cited in which officers successfully resisted or outwitted mobs.

Though the number of lynchings has declined from a yearly average of 124 thirty-five years ago to an average of seventeen for the last ten years, the study reveals that the lynching habit takes more slowly from the South than from other sections of the country and becomes increasingly a racial phenomenon.

Among the remedies suggested by the report are more adequate police service, stronger jails, change of venue in the trial of lynchers and of persons threatened by mob violence, the lifting of community levels in lynching areas, and the building of a better public opinion.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hixson expect to move into I. D. Hart's new cottage on Geneva Avenue.

Supt. D. L. Thrusler paid an official call to the Oriskany public school last Friday. In an address to the High School students, Supt. Thrusler heartily approved the plan to make the school a Junior High school next year.

What promised to be a tame campaign for the position of alderman of Sanford saw an end to a lively campaign. A. D. Parikh had so many than about his hat that he was in Tuesday's paper than G. E. Herndon decided that it looked good to him and he succeeded in today's issue. Mr. Parikh is chief of police for the A. C. I. and has been known in the city. Mr. Herndon needs no introduction to the public, having been raised here and it was prophetic of the fact that he was one of the city's best men.

energetic and that they will go some is conceded by all.

Mrs. George Davis Hart entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Norman DeForest and Miss Emma Iryin at her pretty home on Sanford Heights. Enjoying the genial hospitality of Mrs. Hart in addition to the homelike were Mrs. Henry DeForest, Mrs. Faymalt, Mrs. Cecil Gabbett, Mrs. George H. Fernald, Mrs. S. B. Barrett, Mrs. W. J. Talpan, Mrs. G. I. Loucks, Mrs. Charles Tyler, Mrs. J. E. E. Stricker, Mrs. W. M. Haynes, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. Oscar Cook, Mrs. Miss Greta Schuler, and Mrs. McConaha.

Mrs. Henry Wright went by to Jacksonville on Wednesday for a few days' visit.

Judge and Mrs. Smith of Ocala, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. E. Ray, left for home at Sunday.

University of Georgia students have been busy while eating lunch.

Cecilian Music Club Gives Regular Recital

An interesting talk on her many years' experience with public school music in the sixth and seventh grades at Carbondale, Pa., was given by Mrs. Amelia B. Noble at the regular recital presented by the Cecilian Music Club Saturday afternoon at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson. A capacity audience was in attendance.

Mrs. Noble said most of her pupils were Italians and seemed to have a natural love and appreciation of music for they entered into the music lesson periods with great interest. She described special music programs given at Christmas and Easter when the pupils sang the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah with the assistance of outside help in bass and tenor.

Mrs. Murray Nance of Tampa, a former active member of the Cecilian Club, played "Parade" by J. S. Bach and Mrs. J. L. Ingley rendered a soprano solo, "Do You Know My Garden" by Hayden Wood. Mrs. Ingley was accompanied by Miss Mary Nell Smith.

The music numbers rendered were as follows:
Hungarian Dance, Kleinmichel—Marjorie June Burdick.
By The Frog Pool, Bassett—Herbert Moreland.

"Fang And Claw" Is Frank Buck's Latest

Frank (Bring 'Em Back Alive) Buck, sans make-up and without benefit of Hollywood's props and lighting systems, gives a big show in nature's jungle settings in his third successive movie, "Fang and Claw," which opens today at the Ritz Theater.
Before your very eyes, as it were, the bare-handed Buck, and half-clothed natives whose skin a tiger would so dearly love to touch, search the immensity of the jungle for their zoo and circus fodder, then man their traps, snares and pitfalls and sit back and wait for something to happen and it's usually the unexpected that does happen.

Don'ts For Flower Shows

The following article taken from a recent issue of the Cocoa Tribune will be of interest to persons entering the Sixth Annual Flowers Show of the Garden Club of Sanford Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Mayfair Hotel:

"Why judges award the ribbons at the flower show is by no means a matter of chance but the logical outgrowth of experience, study, knowledge, and good taste. The following is a list of 'Don'ts' gathered from such authorities as Professor E. A. White, Mrs. Walter Hine and Louise Meisler:

Don'ts
"In making an arrangement, don't overcrowd, practice restraint. 'Don't use equal numbers of flowers or branches.
'Don't use equal proportions of colors.
'Don't put the dark tones above the lighter tones.
'Don't use flowers all of uniform size or place flowers of uniform size one above the other.
'Don't have all flowers the same height.
'Don't use flowers or leaves that are apt to wilt.
'Don't cross cut or intersect the principal stems in composition.
'Don't show the entire rim of the vase or bowl.
'Don't place a flower of one color between two of another color.
'Don't cut down full-stemmed flowers such as gladioli, delphiniums, etc.
'Don't use asparagus fern, smilax, pussy-willow, or ribbon bows.
'Don't combine flowers that are inharmonious as to season, texture and color.
'Don't use the same thing that has been done the year before.
'Don't work on your arrangement when you are tired or nervous.
'Don't be sensitive to criticism.
Remember
That strong lines at the base of a composition aid in its stability and balance;
That no flowers should be exactly on a level or be directly one above another.
Remember to avoid weak lines and curves and never place a spray of weak growth between two strong growth, or vice versa.
Remember that perfect balance in a line arrangement may be obtained by keeping the tip of the highest spray directly over its base."

Concerning Containers

These notes are taken from Mrs. Walter B. Hine's lecture given at the annual course for flower show judges and exhibitors in New York City and published in "Horticulture":
'Don't use copper, brass or pottery for delicate flowers such as roses, sweet peas, etc.
'Don't let the flower-holders be too much in evidence.
'Don't overwhelm an arrangement of simple flowers with a

with his willingness to mix it bare-handed with dangerous foes keep the element of suspense and surprise foremost in the pictorial story of the long trek through dense growths of tropical vegetation and giant trees that half-or-fangs and claws.
A native treed by a tiger is rescued by the resourceful Buck. Another tiger on the warpath attacks a baby rhinoceros and makes a flying tackle as the camera grinds. Buck rescues the rhino and it is one of the live trophies he has brought back with him.
The audience sees just how Buck and the wily natives put their snares and traps together and go about packing a ferocious tiger after a capture. Crating a 20-foot crocodile or a 25-foot python are added chores after the day's working of taking 'em alive.
There is fast action when Buck's party rounds up and cages half a dozen rare antelope. An amazing sequence is when with one full swoop enough monkeys are taken to keep the peanut tasters busy for many a day. A super-thrill is the capture and lowering over a great bluff of a tiger leashed to the sides of a cage.
'Fang and Claw,' produced by the Van Beuren Corporation, is indeed another treat for the Frank Buck fans and it will no doubt increase the interest in this type of photoplay because all its thrills are new and legitimate.

Senior Class Will Give Play Tomorrow

If you were a judge of the Superior Court and had found two of your house servants plotting with two outsiders to stage a robbery in your home, would you turn them all over to the authorities or give them another chance?
This situation will be worked out to the best advantage for all parties concerned in the annual Senior Class play, "The King Rides By," which will be pre-brilliant container.

'Pottery is especially good for shrubs. Pewter for a hot flowers.
'Never arrange flowers in a silver loving-cup if you want a blue ribbon.
'Most baskets are impossible, they should be used only for wild flowers.
'If the container is transparent glass, be careful of the arrangement of stems. Square battery jars of glass are good containers.
'In arranging flowers in a tall opaque vase, first stuff it with evergreen clippings. They are helpful in utilizing short-stemmed flowers.
'If a decorated vase is used harmonize flowers and decorations.
'Alabaster vases are always good."

Traffic Deaths Blamed On Stock Roaming Roads

Hays Advocates Law To Keep Cattle Off Florida Highways

TAMPA, Mar. 17.—Roaming livestock on Florida highways was responsible to a large extent for the 52 highway traffic deaths in the state in 1935, "because we failed to become modern and pass a law keeping the herds of livestock off our highways," said Walter L. Hays, of Orlando, told the State Beautification Conference of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce here yesterday.

Hays, long an advocate of elimination of traffic hazards in Florida, addressed the conference as chairman and representative of the state chamber's safety committee. He also is chairman of the Florida state junior chamber of commerce safety committee and a member of the Governor's 1936 Committee on Safety.

The speaker appealed to his audience to work for livestock fencing laws in the state as a means of reducing traffic accidents and deaths, primarily, but also as a necessity before Florida highways can be changed from their present generally unsightly condition to one of greater beauty.

"Passing a livestock fencing law would be far reaching in its good effects," Hays declared. "Most important of all is the safety feature."

"If we continue as we are now we will soon not be a tropical state. Increasing cold weather is caused by decreasing forests; decreasing forests are caused by fires; the fires are built by small stock owners who burn off timber and grazing lands each year for roving cattle and other livestock.

"Until we fence the livestock, we can't expect to have a livestock industry of any consequence. Until we fence the livestock you can't expect to beautify the highways with any success."

Hays pointed out that it is discouraging to set out palms, flowers, and other plants "and have the cows tramp them down and eat them up, or have the hogs root them up."

"I have visited many places where organizations have attempted to beautify highways and have had this very thing happen to their work," he declared.

He stated that politicians—not the average business man or farmer, nor the livestock raiser—comprise the class that is preventing passage of a livestock fencing law in the state.

"With the help of everyone to show our legislators that the majority want this state to become modern and with the help of all of you people, we can really show our legislators that we mean business," he said.

"Let our legislators know that if we have to go to a referendum vote it will go in favor of fencing a thousand to one," he urged.

"Let's let these legislators know that if they are going to be in open range they are liable to lose their support."

"Let's do something—something that other states have done years ago."

"Let's compel the owners of livestock to care for their property and free highways of malarious hazards."

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Three candidates for constable from the Fourth district were next introduced—W. A. McMullin, Jack Flynn and Charles Marshall. W. J. Thigpen, who said he would seek re-election to the office of supervisor of registration was the last candidate introduced. The last speaker, however, was Fred R. Wilson, who spoke in behalf of Cary D. Landis, candidate for attorney general.

In accordance to forecast, a "dark horse candidate" was introduced, after all others had spoken. He was "dark" all right, thanks to a generous application of turned cork, but the candidate stated he had not made up his mind which office he would seek. When his disguise was removed to "dark horse" proved to be John Evans.

Before the politicians sounded off, Mr. Ransbottom, as auctioneer, sold a number of luncheon baskets to the politicians for $35.50 and later passed the hat and collected $20.20, the money to be used in sending a Lake Mary woman back to her mother's home in Omaha, Neb.

Salvo Of 47 Guns Fired At Opening Of The Campaign

Three candidates for County Judge were the next speakers—S. J. Nix, G. W. Spencer and R. W. Ware. They were followed by the three announced candidates for prosecuting attorney—John G. Leonard, W. Herbert Messer and Samuel A. B. Wilkinson. There were no additional candidates for either office.

Then came the sheriffs' list of them, in alphabetical order. Those who addressed the meeting were Paul G. Biggers, C. M. Hand, J. F. McClelland, Ed Meisch, R. J. Overstreet and Lewis A. Tate. O. P. Herndon, Clerk of Court, was introduced, but his opponent was not present. Jno. D. Jenkins and W. E. Watson, candidates for tax collector, were the next speakers, followed by the four candidates for tax assessor: G. L. Bridge, Sanford F. Doudney, B. E. Squires and J. H. Truelock. T. W. Lawton, unopposed for the office of superintendent of schools, was the next speaker.

Sixteen candidates for the board of County commissioners took up most of the time, not only because there are so many of them but because two could not confine their remarks to the five-minute limit despite warnings of the triumvirate on the platform.

Boston Steele was introduced as a candidate in the First district. Then came candidates from the Second district—J. J. Cates, Victor Cheek, J. D. Davidson, Fred A. Dyson, Rex Packard, Otto Schmehl and Peter Thurston, whose names are on The Herald ballot, and John R. Lyles who is also a candidate from the district. Ross L. Humphrey and C. R. Searcy spoke as the commission candidates in the Third district. There were no candidates from the Fourth district. In the Fifth district there are five—W. G. Kil-

Ever had a case of JUMPY EYES?

One of the causes of jumpy eyes is the eye-tiring contrast between light and dark in your home.

The next time you read under a bright light when the rest of the room is almost dark, ask someone to notice the pupils in your eyes. Every time you look up from your reading your pupils will become noticeably larger as they attempt to adjust themselves to the quick change. This repeated adjusting strains your eyes.

When reading, some of the light should be used to light up the general surroundings. Have your home lighting tested and be sure of light for safe seeing and beauty. Call our nearest office for this free service.

NUMBER 123

New President Of Trade Body To Be Elected

Special Meeting Of Chamber Of Commerce Called For Tuesday, March 24

Papworth Plans To Resign Then Committee Suggests Simpson As Proper Man For Position

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will meet in special session next Tuesday evening, Mar. 24, for the purpose of accepting the resignation of H. M. Papworth as president of the body and to elect his successor. It is also expected to make plans for a membership campaign.

Call for the special meeting was issued last night after a prolonged discussion by directors and members attending an adjourned meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at which was read a report of a special committee appointed for the purpose of making recommendations as to reorganizing the body.

The committee's report was finally accepted after a lot of talk and the introduction and withdrawal of several motions, the making of other motions, the acceptance of substitute motions, and the final decision to leave determination of the matter to the board of directors next week.

The committee recommended resignation of the Chamber of Commerce, but suggested H. M. Simpson for election to the presidency to fill the vacancy which will be caused when Mr. Papworth resigns.

Mr. Papworth repeated his determination to resign as president of the Chamber of Commerce, declaring that he believes he is entitled to a rest after many years of public service, but he will not officially tender his resignation until after the meeting in Orlando next Monday of the State Road Department. He wants to make one more fight, as president of the organization, for State Road No. 44 that meeting.

After the committee's report recommending the election of Mr. Simpson was made and while the directors and members were discussing whether a new president could be elected before the next regular board meeting on Apr. 14, Martin Stako of Slavia was to remark that the organization "has a perfectly competent president in Mr. Haines" and he wanted to know why Mr. Haines (Benj. F. Haines of Altamonte Springs) should not succeed to the presidency until the end of the present fiscal year next September.

Dunn And Thrasher At Lake Mary Meet

The names of Charles Dunn and J. B. Thrasher, candidates for County Commissioner from the First District, were inadvertently omitted from the list of candidates to address the mass meeting at Lake Mary on Monday night. The names of both appear daily on the editorial pages published in The Herald and both were present at the political gathering delivering their talks.

W. B. Williams To Announce In First District

W. B. Williams, County Commissioner from the First District comprising Ovid, Slavia and Goldrod, today announced as a candidate for re-election to the board, the first to announce from that district. In asking for another term on the Commission he states that he favors lowering taxes wherever possible and that he will look after the interests of the entire county to the best of his ability.

Mr. Williams was appointed a County Commissioner in January of two years ago to fill the unexpired term of the late L. F. Mills, and in June following was elected to a full term. He was the Sanford city manager for five years, and was mayor for two years of Ovid. His home is in a colony of homes on the 17th St. in Sanford. He has been in Seminole County for the last 25 years and belongs to the Methodist Church and the Women's Club. He was born in Mt. Vernon, Ill.

Enters Politics

Lewis A. Tate, six-b man to enter the race for sheriff of Seminole County in this year's campaign, was second high man in the 1932 election when he was a candidate for the same office. Mr. Tate was born in Osteen in 1899.

Papworth Urged To Retain Place On Market Board

Is Given Credit For Keeping It Out Of "Interests" Hands

Given the credit for keeping the Sanford State Farmers Wholesale Market out of the hands of the "interests," H. M. Papworth was last night urged by other members of the supervisory committee of the market to retain his place on that board and to continue to act as its chairman.

Mr. Papworth told the committee at its regular monthly meeting last Monday night that he was resigning the presidency of the Chamber of Commerce and that therefore he was attending his last meeting as the trade body's member of the committee, and repeated that assertion at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night. He declared that it is his determination to resign from all public offices, and "will even turn the ball park back to the City Commission."

James Wilson of Chuluota, George Balmes and F. F. Dornier were the market supervisory committee members attending the Chamber of Commerce meeting who vigorously opposed Mr. Papworth's announced intention of resigning from the committee. All of them told of the hard work he had put in for the market.

Mr. Dornier declared that if Mr. Papworth resigned there was danger of the market getting into the hands of "interests," and if that happened, he said, he would just as soon see a match set to the market. Mr. Dornier is president of the Seminole County Agricultural Association and stated that Mr. Papworth had consistently battled for the farmers on the market.

Thief Uses Phone To Clear Way For Sanford Robbery

Makes $20 Haul But Fails On Second Attempt To Steal

Using the telephone to clear his way, a bold robber yesterday walked off with a purse containing $20, but failed on his second attempt. A description of the man was furnished the police, but it is believed that he left town immediately following his failure to pull off a second robbery, as the description fitted that of a man who earlier in the day robbed an office in Orlando by the same methods, according to information supplied by the Orlando police. Chief Williams of the Sanford force broadcast the description of the man.

The description was furnished by Mrs. J. O. Laney who heard the man telephoning from the Laney drug store to Mrs. R. J. Holly, Jr., in the office of Dr. B. D. Caswell on the second floor of the Meich building and ask her to call Miss Clara Rankin from her desk in the Standard Growers office on the same floor to Dr. Caswell's phone. Miss Rankin heeded the summons, leaving her office unoccupied for a few minutes. The few minutes were long enough, however, for the man to enter the Standard Growers office, snatch up Miss Rankin's purse which contained $20 in currency, and disappear.

He then telephoned three times to D. K. McNab of the Seminole County Credit Association and insisted that he call Mrs. Fred Ball from her desk in the gas company's office to the McNab phone, but Mrs. Ball refused the summons.

Venezelos, Called 'Man Of Destiny' In Greece, Dies

Lived As Exile After King Returned To Restored Monarchy

PARIS, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Eleutherios Venezelos, 72, former premier of Greece, died today self-imposed exile, after a short illness. His wife and two sons were at his bedside. The statesman came to Paris a year ago after failure of a revolution resulted in restoration of the monarchy and wrecked republican hopes. Venezelos was sentenced to death but escaped and was pardoned later by King George when George was recalled to the throne, but he refused to return to Greece.

Venezelos was called Greece's "man of destiny" and the history of present day Greece is written largely around his stormy career. Seven times premier, he was a power both in and out of office and the force of his leadership touched on some phase from the Paris peace conference, characterized him as one of the greatest statesmen in Europe; in fact, Venezelos was the only one there to get all that he asked.

Yet in this hour of triumph he was beset by would-be assassins, repudiated at the Greek polls and driven into voluntary exile. In response to an overwhelming (Continued On Page 21)

Greatest Flood Of Century Menacing City Of Pittsburgh

Billion And Half For Relief Asked By The President

Gross Relief Outlay For Year Will Be $3,100,000,000

WASHINGTON, Mar. 18.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today asked Congress to appropriate $1,500,000,000 for work relief during the next government year beginning July 1.

In a special message to Congress, the Chief Executive reviewed the unemployment problem, proposed that new funds go entirely to the Works Progress Administration and added: "The trend of re-employment is upward, but this trend, at its present rate of progress, is inadequate. I propose, therefore, that we ask private business to extend its operation so as to absorb an increasing number of the unemployed. If the employment gains are substantial enough, no appropriation by the next Congress for the fiscal year of 1937 will be necessary. The ultimate cost of the federal works program will thus be determined by private enterprises."

In making his request for a billion and a half, the President noted that more than one billion dollars would be spent out of the treasury during the next fiscal year from prior appropriations, while the budget contained $600,000,000 for various public works and the Civilian Conservation Corps. Therefore, the gross projected relief outlay approximated $3,100,000,000.

Italy Refuses To Join In Sanctions Against Germany

LONDON, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Italy announced officially today she would not join in sanctions against Germany based on Adolf Hitler's denunciation of the Locarno treaty. This announcement was conveyed to a public session of the League of Nations by Dino Grandi, Rome ambassador to London.

Grandi said Italy fully realizes Germany committed a treaty violation, "but you cannot expect my country, after what happened at Geneva, to take any measures which are incompatible with or in contradiction to our ideas." He was referring specifically to League sanctions against Italy for her war with Ethiopia.

The Locarno signatories remained deadlocked in their attempt to untangle the European crisis.

Fruit Marketing Is Portrayed On Screen For Local Kiwanians

Kiwanians hurried through their luncheon session in the Mayfair Hotel today noon so they would not be late at the Ritz Theater where a motion picture depicting scenes on eastern fruit markets was shown. The picture showed inspection, sale and distribution of Florida citrus fruits and was interesting to Kiwanians and others who attended the free showing.

Among the visiting Kiwanians at the luncheon meeting was Howard Hulick, former member of the local Club but now president of the Kiwanis Club in Asbury Park, N. J. While a resident of Sanford several years ago Mr. Hulick and his brother conducted the Mayfair Hotel. Other visiting Kiwanians were Adolph Meisch of Saranac, N. J. and Karl Shannon of Winter Park.

Dr. Scott reported that the Dumas Memorial Room which the Kiwanis Club is equipping in the Fernhill-Lightfoot Memorial Hospital will soon be ready for use.

Heavy Loss In Life, Property

Rescue Work By U. S. Agencies Ordered By The President

By The Associated Press
The most wide-spread floods in years swept through Pennsylvania and other northeastern states today, isolating many cities and causing heavy loss of life.

President Roosevelt ordered federal agencies to mobilize quickly for rescue work.

At least 17 persons lost their lives in Pennsylvania. Floodwaters receded at Johnstown, scene of the famous flood of 1889, but the greatest flood of the century menaced Pittsburgh and hundreds of neighboring communities. Damage ran into the millions.

At Wheeling, W. Va., rivermen said 30,000 would be homeless tomorrow. Uncounted thousands already were marooned in western Pennsylvania. Three thousand families left their homes in Williamsport, Pa., Buffalo, N. Y., was digging out of snowdrifts.

One youth was drowned and thousands of residents fled for their lives to high ground last night when Johnstown, Pa., where 2,300 lost their lives in 1889, was flooded by more than eight feet of water and torrential rains thrust fresh terrors upon portions of several northeastern states.

In Cumberland, Md., National Guardsmen were ordered out to all hundreds to flee through flooded streets from their water-filled homes.

OCALA, Mar. 18.—(AP)—George J. Timmerman, 30, unemployed bricklayer, was found crucified in a grove within the city limits today. His lips were sewed shut, and a hunting coat was over his head to muffle his groans. James White, an acquaintance, found him and called police.

Timmerman formerly worked on the canal project and had been an outspoken critic of the national government. He now has a suit pending against a construction company on the canal project for a claim under provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Timmerman said he did not know his assailants.
