WORLD IN BRIEF

Italy Debates 'Gesture' For Moro's Freedom

ROME (UPI) — Government and political leaders today debated a secret Socialist Party proposal for a "humanitarian gesture" that might induce the Red Brigades terrorists to release kidnapped former Premier Aldo Moro.

A Red Brigades' lawyer said the gang's demand that 13 of their jailed comrades be released in exchange for Moro's life was "open to negotiation," but he was vague about what type of compromise would be accepted.

Korean Pilots Back Home

SEOUL, South Korea (UPI) — The captain and co-pilot of a Korean Air Lines plane forced down in the Soviet Union two weeks ago returned to Seoul today to a tearful airport reunion with their families but no hints on why the aircraft strayed far off course.

Capt. Kim Chang-kyu refused to answer detailed questions on how the jetliner strayed off course and into Soviet airspace on a polar flight from Paris to Anchorage, but said plane's black box flight recorder could explain the incident. The recorder is still in Russia, along with the aircraft.

3 U.N. Soldiers Killed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Palestinian guerrillas ambushed U.N. soldiers, killing three of the peace-keepers and wounding the French commander in the port of Tyre in the west clash since U.N. forces entered southern Lebanon, a U.N. spokesman said today.

Observers said the guerrillas involved appeared to be mostly from the radical Palestinian "rejection front" that opposes any negotiated settlement with Israel, not from the mainstream Fatah group of Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasser Arafat.

Mandate, Marcos Sign Pact

MANILA, Philippines (UPI) — Vice President Walter Mondale and President Ferdinand Marcos today signed an $18.7 million aid package and held three hours of talks on the future of U.S. bases in the Philippines, trade and human rights.

Sadat Aims To Heal Rift

CAIRO, Egypt (UPI) — Sudanese President Jaafar Numeiry arrived today for talks with President Anwar Sadat aimed at healing Egypt's rift with Arab opponents of its Middle East peace moves.

Numeiry's difficult task was made somewhat easier by Sadat's declarations Tuesday that he was prepared to restore severed relations with the Arab "rejection states" and participate in a proposed Arab summit conference.

Accused Nazi Fights Ouster

WATERBURY, Conn. (UPI) — When Federico Fabrencia came to the United States in 1949, he told immigration authorities he spent most of World War II in a German prison camp. But the federal government claims Fabrencia, a native of Russia, actually spent the war working as a Nazi collaborator helping to kill Jews at the Treblinka death camp in Poland.

Fabrencia, now 70 and a retired factory worker, denies the allegations and is fighting attempts by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service to deport him to West Germany where he could face trial as a war criminal.

Two days of hearings on the charge opened today before a special federal court master in Waterbury where Fabrencia now lives.

Fabrencia has been charged with lying to immigration authorities when he came to the United States in 1949 and also in 1960 when he received naturalization papers.

The government contends Fabrencia, a Ukrainian national, told federal investigators officials of the time of his entry into the United States that he worked as a laborer in the Russian Army and that he was captured by the Germans in 1945.

The government, however, denies Fabrencia's version and alleges he "participated in or committed crimes of atrocious nature against civilians" from 1942 to 1943 at Treblinka.

Carrier Won't Kill Plans To Sell Jets

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter has rejected Congress' request that he temporarily withdraw his proposals to sell jets to Israel, Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee said it needed more time to study the plan, but the White House said Tuesday withdrawal "would call into question the seriousness of our commitments."

By law, Congress has only 30 days from last Friday, when Carter formally notified it of the projected three-way sale, to disapprove any part of the proposal by majority vote of both houses.

The White House said Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher met with Foreign Relations Committee Chairman John Sparkman and told him "the administration does not believe it is feasible to postpone its proposed arms sales to Israel."

The debate progresses as Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin's tour of the United States, spending the day in Chicago where he will address Jewish organization leaders.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Investors who lost their fortunes through land swindles will be able to recover up to $10,000 in compensation, according to a bill unanimously approved by the House Commerce Committee.

The legislation, passed 9-0, is one of two bills passed in committee Tuesday that seek to reduce land fraud schemes which have plagued Floridians in recent years.

The second bill (HB 1199), passed 9-5, makes corporations publicly disclose the names of shareholders owning 10 percent or more of foreign corporations.

Abortion Bottleneck

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A resolution seeking a constitutional convention to outlaw abortions has been bottled up in a Senate committee by Sen. Jack Gordon, who believes it would destroy the privacy of marriage.

Murderer-Rapist Gets Chair

BARTOW (UPI) — A 20-year-old man already sentenced to life in prison for rape has been sentenced to death in the electric chair for the rape and murder of a second woman.

Anthony Ray Peek showed no emotion Tuesday as he was sentenced to death for the May 22, 1977, strangulation of Erna L. Carlson, a 65-year-old Winter Haven nurse.

As Peek stood chewing on a toothpick and surrounded by four bailiffs, acting Circuit Judge Gordon MacCalla rejected a defense plea for mercy.

The Disintegrating $10s

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Picketing, police say paid a $150 restaurant tab with bills that dissolved in "water" was "released" on a $5,000 signature bond Tuesday pending a hearing on charges of passing counterfeit money.

At a preliminary hearing May 8 it will be decided whether there is sufficient evidence to hold Joseph Martin Liuzzi.

The U.S. Secret Service charged Liuzzi exchanged counterfeit $10 bills for genuine $20s at a Jacksonville Beach restaurant Saturday. When a suspicious waiter dunked the bills in water they disintegrated, the complaint said.

Construction Sites Picketed

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — A man who which began at three Jacksonville construction sites Tuesday, may spread to 10 more today and could affect construction projects in 22 north Florida counties.

Clay Mort, executive director of the Northeast Florida Chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America, said Tuesday no talks or meetings were scheduled between the contractors and the striking laborers.

Pickets from Laborers Local 301 went up at the sites of the regional state office building, the new Juvenile Center and a nursing building at Florida Junior College's North Campus. At issue are wages and hiring non-union workers.

Tornado Touches Down

WEST PALM BEACH (UPI) — A tornado swooped across a sugar cane field Tuesday night in the midst of a severe lightning storm that drenched most of the east coast of Florida from Daytona Beach to Miami.

Former gambling kingpin Harlan Blackburn was called before before the jury, but refused to talk despite a grant of immunity.

According to records, William H. Reinold, 63, of 2013 E. Hampton Circle, saw the youths brushing in through the kitchen area of a home at 2813 Nottingham Road and called the Seminole County Sheriff's Department.

Affirmed A Derby Favorite

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — A photographer was hanging around barn 41 at Churchill Downs late Tuesday morning, waiting for Kentucky Derby contender Affirmed to finish cooling out so he could get a picture of the chestnut colt with owner Mrs. Lou Wolfson.

"No, yes," commanded trainer Las Barrera when Mrs. Wolfson asked if the colt was ready. "I'm the captain, and what I say goes."

Barrera was been tough with his colt. Affirmed, who was the 8-year-old champion last year, said he is one of the favorites to take Saturday's 106th running of the spring classic. Affirmed has won more money — $908,137 — coming into the Triple Crown races than any other 5-year-old in history.

Alder is expected to be the slight favorite in the 1 1/4 mile Derby, which probably will have 10 starters, including the undefeated Sensitive Prince and Wood Memorial winner Rebel Re, as well as Began Follies, Derby Crown Road, Dr. Valor, Chief of Distinction, Host the Silver and Raymond Earl.

Cooks Of The Week

Their Fare Captures Ribbons At Fair

The family team cooks as good as it looks.

It all started with Dorothy Hansen of Winter Park, encouraging her own children to cook, and then, in turn, getting her two granddaughters interested in cooking.

As a result, Dana Jansoni, 16, and her sister, Nannette, 14, of Altamonte Springs, both have won many Blue Ribbons at the Central Florida Fair. Nannette won the Ribbon for having the most Blue Ribbons at this year's Fair. The first year that both girls were entered, they tied for the Ribbon, as each had won four Blue Ribbons.

She Jansoni, Dorothy's daughter and the mother of Dana and Nannette, is no slouch herself when it comes to cooking, having won several Blue Ribbons. She also won for a dress she made.

"Before I started working full time, I always entered the competitions, but just haven't had the time lately," she said. "But my Mom! She's the inspiration for the entire family. Her pumpkin pie is our traditional pie for Thanksgiving. Her recipe won a Blue Ribbon for Nannette in the Fair."

According to her, Dana's specialties are biscuits and peanut butter candy. "She's really very thorough with her cooking. She loves making good homemade bread."

Nannette's peanut butter cookies really made a hit with the judges. "They are so simple to make," she said.

Dorothy recalled the first time Nannette entered the Fair competition. "She was only about six years old, and made some health candy from a very easy recipe. I thought it would be good experience for her. She did the entire recipe by herself, and then we took her down and she entered the candy. After the judging, we went back and were just astounded to see she had won a Blue Ribbon!"

Nannette, who's a student at Lake Brantley High School, won a Blue Ribbon on a pound cake she entered this year.

"I have taken some cake decorating classes, and Nannette baked all the cakes for me. She is very interested in cake decorating," she said.

She loves to cook. "As long as I've got somebody to eat it," she laughed.

Dorothy emphasizes the importance of family in her cooking. "All of my cooking is from scratch. I am so pleased that my granddaughters enjoy cooking."

Nannette is the nutrition chairman of the Winter Park Home Demonstration Club, and past president. She is a retired legal secretary.

She said, "I guess my Mother has really inspired all of us to do our best in everything. She encourages the girls to do things for themselves and has the patience of Job when they mess them up."

Dorothy sympathizes with mothers who give her the idea to make fat cakes. She cut them in triangles first, and used candy corn for eyes and nose, shredded coconut for whiskers. "This is a double recipe, cause they are so good!" she said.

'Fifth' Brings Happiness

DEAR ABBY: Recently I attended a 30-year reunion of my high school graduation class in a small town in California. My husband came along and I introduced him as "No. 5." My former classmates treated me as though I had leprosy.

Abby, not everybody marries their high school sweetheart, and many of us have not remained in a small town. My marriage just to save face. I grew up in an era when it was taboo to live with someone before marriage, and a sin to try someone out in bed. So consequently I made four mistakes in a row. Luckily I kept looking, and I found my present husband to whom I have been married for 16 years. I've never been happier.

DEAR JUST: I'd rather get another boyfriend, or I'd try to improve my bling.

DEAR ABBY: I have a boyfriend and we were living right in the middle of it he said, "Boy, you sure do kiss good, but not as good as Carol or Cindy." What would you do if your boyfriend compared you with other girls?

DEAR FIFTH: I see your point, but when you introduced your husband you said "No. 5," you

Low Back Pain Not Just For Elderly

DEAR DR. LAMB - Recently I developed low back pain, involving spasms of the large supportive muscles along the spine and coming out of bed one morning. The first two days I could hardly move about because of the pain and spasms. I believe it was caused by too much forward bending from the waist during the preceding few days. Can you recommend an exercise program that will help prevent recurrence of the pain? I am 70 years old. I've found out that many of my friends are also bothered by low back pain.

DEAR READER - You are right, low back pain is a common problem and you don't have to be 70 to get it either. Anyone who has such an attack should be examined by a physician. There are many causes for low back pain. You could have a ruptured disc between two vertebrae; the material inside of the disc is very irritating. The irritation sets up spasms causing the low back pain. Pain can even be a sign of a lower cancer. That is why a person can't fool around with such problems on a do-it-yourself basis. It is important to know first what you are treating.

If the back pain is a complication of weak muscles then you can use exercises to help. Also a good exercise program for everyone helps to prevent such frequent problems. What kind of exercise do you need to do? The most important ones are to strengthen your abdominal muscles. When we sit at the abdominal muscles are slack - particularly if you are leaning over a desk typing or an doing now. Office workers commonly develop weak abdominal muscles which has something to do with the tendency to develop a large abdomen.

WIN AT BRIDGE

flurry of bidding and afraid to make an attacking lead (although an attacking lead would be a shame). Accidental though it was, it gave the defense a chance. If declarer finishes with dummy's jack at trick one, the queen from East's hand will force the ace. And later, when declarer ruffs his two club losers in dummy, the defense will have protected an extra trump trick, setting the contract.

If declarer can force this, and he should, he wins the first trick with the king in dummy. This simple play assures the contract if trumps break normally, and the chances are almost 60 percent they will break 3-2. Declarer must win the first trick with the king to preserve dummy's jack-six of hearts to be used later for ruffing the club losers. Declarer's spade loser (six) will be discarded on one of dummy's diamond honors.

White Sauce, Beaten Eggs And You're In Business

Who's Afraid Of A Fluffy Souffle?

Does the mere thought of making a souffle, golden soufflé, intimidate you? It needn't. Using familiar ingredients and techniques and combining them with a little care, you, too, can turn out a light, airy masterpiece for brunch, luncheon or dinner - even on your first try.

Just analyze the components: a white sauce base to start, a variety of ingredients you can add for flavor, and stiffly beaten egg whites. The air bubbles beaten into the whites expand as the souffle bakes, creating the characteristic pulled effect.

removed from the oven, cheese should already be melted as the table is applied. Its magnificent attraction.

Try Cheese 'N' Pepper Soufflé for your debut. All it takes is White Sauce Base, salty Tabasco red pepper sauce, Cheddar cheese, egg yolks, dry mustard and colorful bits of red and green pepper. Add the flavorful mixture into the egg whites, beat until they stand in stiff peaks. The result is a tasty, impressive souffle.

Prepare a 1 1/2-quart straight-sided souffle dish with a collar. To do this, fold a 20-inch sheet of waxed paper or aluminum foil in half lengthwise; wrap it around the souffle dish with a 2-inch rim extending above top edge.

Wipe SAUCE BASE: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium size green pepper, seeded and diced, 1 medium size red pepper, seeded and diced, 1 recipe White Sauce Base, 1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 4 egg yolks, lightly beaten, 4 egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Melt butter in soupçon over low heat. Blend in flour, salt and Tabasco. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens and comes to a boil. Remove to a saucepan, continuing to stir.

YIELD: 4 servings. WHITE SAUCE BASE: 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce, 1 cup milk.

Cheese 'N' Pepper Soufflé is a glorious gourmet dish that's a lot easier to make than it looks.

4th Man Sought In Pfeil Murder; More Data Issued

By DENNIS FEOLA
 Herald Staff Writer

New light has been shed on the murder case in which a reserve Seminole County deputy was shot and killed during an armed robbery of a Longwood pharmacy last December.

Information was released today by the county sheriff's office divulging a number of heretofore unknown facts in the murder of reserve deputy George Pfeil, killed in a robbery at the Longwood Village Pharmacy Dec. 29, 1977.

The new facts:
 —A fourth man is being sought in the robbery.
 —There was more than one getaway car used in the robbery-murder.
 —The fourth suspect in the case is believed to be the man who planned the robbery.
 —Two men already are in custody in the case, the two others being sought may soon be placed on the FBI's most-wanted list.
 —The fourth man now being sought is Clarence Eugene Robinson, 34, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is alleged to have planned the robbery, is believed to be with Terry Michael Sims, 33, the other man who is sought by police. Sims is thought by deputies to have fired the shot which killed the 39-year-old Pfeil.
 —Capt. L.H. Rice of the sheriff's department said he expects the two men to be placed on the FBI's most wanted list "anytime now" and he said they may be together somewhere on the east coast of Florida.

He also said Robinson was in the area of the robbery when it occurred and drove "one of the getaway cars."

The two men already in custody have pleaded guilty to lesser crimes in exchange for giving testimony in the case.

They are: Curtis Thomas Haldre, 61, who was in back of the Longwood Pharmacy filling a prescription with drugs when Sims, at the front of the store, allegedly shot Pfeil; James Annon Haldre, 33, who drove a getaway car used after the robbery.

Haldre pleaded guilty April 16 to robbery charges and sentencing was deferred while he remains in the custody of the sheriff's department at the jail.

Pfeil, a retired 32-year veteran of the New York Police Department, had gone to the Longwood pharmacy for his wife, unaware the robbery was in progress and 11 persons were being held by the two armed men.

Headlocks were established and remained in effect throughout the following morning.

Pfeil, a native of Brooklyn, had to keep begging him to reimburse any support of his child.

'I am trying to repay for what others did for me as a migrant boy growing up in Sanford'

It was a dramatic moment as a surprised Rufus Brooks heard his name called at the Youth Programs Inc. annual banquet. He came forward amid applause to accept an award as Youth Programs Inc. "Volunteer of the Year" for an eight-county area.

Brooks grasped the microphone and said, "I am trying to repay for what others did for me as a migrant boy growing up in Sanford."

Brooks, principal of Apopka Elementary school, received the top honor for working with youths in the south Orlando area.

Brooks also helps youths to grow vegetables for their families and learn to care for farm animals on his Sanford farm.

The police combed northwestern Seminole County the night of the murder, using bloodhounds, helicopters and riders on horseback.

Headlocks were established and remained in effect throughout the following morning.

Pfeil, a native of Brooklyn, had to keep begging him to reimburse any support of his child.

Mike and Ann Cordeiro won the "Extra Mile" award from Youth Programs Inc.—but son, Michael, apparently couldn't go that distance during ceremony.

Official Accused Of Spending State $

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Joseph K. Honesty, the number two man in the State Department of Commerce, was accused today of spending on personal debts thousands of dollars in cash advances for expenses of Gov. Robin Askew's industry-hunting trip to Europe in 1977.

He also was charged with altering expense accounts to the tune of $2,300.13 and putting it in his own pocket.

The allegations say he received a $14,500 cash advance for the trip, used some of it to pay off a loan and his federal income tax and did not reimburse the state for more than three months. The $2,300 has never been repaid.

Comptroller Gerald Lewis, whose accounting division discovered the alleged discrepancies, said he has asked Honesty for reimbursement and turned over his findings to State Attorney Harry Herron to determine if there are grounds for a criminal prosecution.

Commerce Secretary Phil Ashler, who made Honesty his chief assistant in January, ordered him to take a leave of absence without pay until the matter is closed.

"The allegations are sufficiently serious to warrant my action," Ashler said. He said he told Honesty to make no statement to him but "get yourself a lawyer."

Honesty was Director of the Division of Economic Development in the Commerce Department prior to becoming assistant secretary.

Merrison said he has the matter under investigation.

"It's in the evidence-gathering stage," Merrison said.

Askew's Press Secretary Paul Schmitt said none of the money was for the governor's personal expenses during the March 4-19, 1977 Europe, trip.

He said Honesty, who was hired when Ed Trombetta was commerce secretary, was in charge of paying for large dinners and receptions given by the Florida group for big bankers and other business interests.

Lewis said the $14,500 cash advance, the largest his staff could remember any state official ever drawing, concerned Randy Miller, his accounting director, and he withheld it until the day of the trip.

Lewis said when Honesty returned from the trip, Miller had to keep begging him to reimburse any support of the money but it took him 180 days to pay it back.

A tip from a confidential informant, Lewis said, led to the discovery that Honesty had been using part of the money to pay his own obligations which, he said, "is improper."

Lewis's painstaking investigation led to discovery, he said, that Honesty had raised the amount of the receipts turned in for some functions in various European cities. He said one had been changed to reflect a different purchase.

"The allegations are sufficiently serious to warrant action" he said.

chase than actually was made.

The receipts were in foreign languages, making it more difficult, he said. For instance, the receipts in Stockholm were in Krona.

Lewis showed reporters affidavits from various persons reflecting that bills paid by Honesty were less than the amount he claimed from the state.

Lewis said his audit showed that Honesty bought traveler's checks with the $14,500 cash advance and 10 days after the trip ended, deposited $10,500 in traveler's checks funds in his personal checking account.

Jax Takes On The Big Apple
 JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—The Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce has sent a letter to the Wall Street Journal complaining about the decision not to run an advertising campaign to lure New York City for Jacksonville.

The ad, which was prepared by Jacksonville-based Williams Cook Advertising, depicts the Statue of Liberty, perched on an arm, hitchhiking a ride south and is headlined "Everyone's leaving New York for the big city."

He said the ad notes that Jacksonville is land area in bigger than New York and Los Angeles combined.

"We anticipated the ad's campaign would get adverse reaction from New Yorkers who are defensive about being down," said Cook spokesman Joe Dickerson. "But it never occurred to us that New Yorkers would be reviewing the ad."

The ad was one of three submitted to appear twice in the Journal at a cost exceeding $94,000 as part of a campaign to bring new jobs to Jacksonville. The other ads were accepted by the paper.

Lewis said the ad's campaign would get adverse reaction from New Yorkers who are defensive about being down," said Cook spokesman Joe Dickerson. "But it never occurred to us that New Yorkers would be reviewing the ad."

Lawman's Slaying Suspect Found Dead In Tampa Jail

TAMPA (UPI)—Victor Arca, a Tampa bar owner indicted Wednesday by the statewide grand jury as having conspired in the slaying of former Vice Detective Richard Clout, was found dead in his Hillsborough County Jail cell early today.

The cause of death was not immediately determined.

Mr. Walker Heinrich of the sheriff's police said the body had been turned over to the Hillsborough County medical examiner for autopsy and pathological examination. He gave no other details.

"An investigation is being conducted into the death," said Heinrich. "The appropriate agencies of concern are being notified. The body has been turned over to the medical examiner's office for pathological examination."

The body was found about 3:30 a.m., Heinrich said.

Arca was arrested in two indictments returned Wednesday by Florida's third statewide grand jury, expanded this time to investigate organized crime in the state.

He was charged with conspiring with a private investigator, Gene Andrews—former chief of the Florida Beverage Division—to sell the late Deputy U.S. Marshal Jack Phillips in Orlando, and with having a part in the plot which resulted in the gangland-style assassination of Clout.

Hillsborough County Sheriff Malcolm Beard said marks on the body could have been inflicted when Arca fell from the bunk, which is 1 1/2 feet off the floor.

The sheriff said the one-man cell was checked every half hour.

Arca, 51, had been in the county jail since February when he was returned from New York after being apprehended on a federal fugitive warrant.

He had been sought for almost two years after he failed to appear in Miami for sentencing on narcotics charges and after he was indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy in a contract murder ring that included the assassination of Clout.

The federal indictment accused Arca of financing the Clout murder.

Three men were indicted in 1976 by a state grand jury in Tampa for the Clout murder but Arca was not named at that time.

Benjamin Gifford pleaded guilty to shooting Clout and committed suicide in the Orange County Jail while awaiting sentencing.

Andrews, who was arrested in a plea bargain agreement in which he testified on the murder and Gifford and Ellis Marlow Meadows and is on death row.

Haldre, who admitted driving the getaway car, negotiated a plea bargain agreement in which he testified on a state witness in return for a life sentence.

Clout was gunned down Oct. 25, 1976, by shots fired through a screen door of his home as he went to answer the doorbell.
