A Doctor's Dream Comes True

By Mona Grinstead
The dream of a doctor who came to the United States in 1957 as a refugee from Germany is becoming more of a reality with each passing day.

Dr. Jakob Harich, his son-in-law, Edwin Swede and a friend, Ernie Longcore, all neighbors on S. Cortez Ave. in North Orlando, have joined forces and are hard at work producing chemical products relatively new to the industry because of their extreme low toxicity.

Now being manufactured and sold by Harich Chemical Co., Inc., are a mildew and mold cleaner, a roof coating compound and a pharmaceutical product. Although the work presently is being handled by the three stockholders, Harich, Swede and Longcore, Dr. Harich expects to employ from 10-15 skilled persons within the year.

Immediate expansion plans call for a new building on the present site south of Longwood on the Old Dixie Highway. The doctor does laboratory work here and also in the small laboratory at his home.

The plant and offices of the company are situated next to the ACL Railroad which will be a convenience for shipping at a later date. All products are sold through contract.

A point of extreme pride with Harich is the safety of his products which he says are three times less dangerous than a common and well-known headache remedy. Eight laboratories have tested the chemical and found this to be true, he says. Experiments are made on chickens and chicken eggs by injection.

The company, incorporated just last October, already is handling orders from all parts of the United States and from some parts of Europe.

Dr. Harich is a dedicated man who says he is striving to contribute to the world a new discovery in the interest of humanity. He was educated at a medical college at the University of Ljubljana in West Germany and attended two other universities where he majored in chemistry.

A modest man, Dr. Harich didn't stop with finding his closest business associates in his own community. His secretary and bookkeeper, Mrs. William Skisak, also is a resident of North Orlando.

Two Anniversaries Celebrated

Monday was a big day for the Cochran family in Lake Mary. It was the ninetieth birthday of J. D. Cochran, head of the family, better known to his friends as "Mister John." and it was also the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Cochran.

A day like that could not be allowed to pass unnoticed. Six friends spear-headed a celebration, which took the form of an "Open House" at the Horace Cochran home on Crystal Lake.

Some forty friends called between the hours of 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. to share birthday cake with the nonagenarian and congratulate the wedding pair of 35 years.

The hostesses were Mrs. Smathers, Mrs. Raymond M. Ball, Mrs. James M. Thompson, Mrs. R. E. True, Mrs. H. M. Gleason and Mrs. P. D. Anderson. Mrs. William Harmon, sister of Mrs. H. M. Cochran, kept the guest book.

The party rooms were gay and fragrant with flowers, the gifts of friends, as was the orchid corsage worn by Mrs. Cochran. The dining room table was overlaid with a white damask cloth, and a beautiful arrangement of white orchids was flanked by the crystal punch bowl at one end and the three layer birthday cake at the other.

A green and white theme had been carried out in all the decorations, in the punch, the petit fours, and the mints.

Mrs. True presided at the punch bowl which was the conversation piece with its floral ice circle.

During the evening, the hostesses presented Mr. and Mrs. Cochran with a silver tray as a memento of the occasion.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moon and sons, Tommy and Johnny of Oviedo. Mrs. Moon is the daughter of "Mister John" and the sister of Horace Cochran.

Some 250 cadets are scheduled to begin classes with the fall semester at Sanford Military Academy in September. In the first term of the new school, classes will be confined to the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

This was the consensus of principals today although final contracts have not been signed and, it was reported, a "few minor details must be ironed out."

City Commissioner J. A. Crapps, commenting on negotiations in New York City with MacFadden Foundation officials Wednesday evening and Thursday noon, said that "it was a good trip and successful, all wrapped up nice and clean."

He was referring to negotiations wherein the Foundation agreed to purchase from the City of Sanford 18-plus acres of the recreation area at Mellonville and Celery Avenues for $100,000, payable $28,500 down and the balance in deferred payments over a period of 10 years.

J. P. Wiegars, New York City, chairman of the Mac-

Fadden Foundation, sponsoring the new military school, told The Herald by telephone this morning "all parties are agreed in the transaction except a few minor details."

He said the Foundation and the San Francisco Giants are in agreement for the purchase of the Giants' dormitories at a cost of $275,000. He also said agreement was reached Thursday evening to purchase the city property for $100,000.

However, Wiegars added, "the attorneys must yet iron out details of the contracts and that will take more time than we desire." He said the Foundation would prefer to complete the transactions in two weeks whereas it now is expected the deal will not be consummated until the end of June.

There also is a matter of brokerage fees amounting to more than $13,000. The Bureau of Private Schools and Colleges, New York City, brought the principals together and their fee must be paid. But the principals are not in accord who shall pay, and thus another compromise must be reached.

Wiegars stated the Foundation is proceeding on the premise that the transaction will be finalized by interviewing prospective instructors, setting up a curriculum, completing building plans for renovating and remodeling the dormitories, etc.

Crapps said the city's receipts in the sale "will be ultimately plowed back into an enlarged recreation program." He added the Foundation has agreed to lease three ball diamonds at the Mellonville-Celery Ave. site to the city for a recreational area for two years at a rental of $1 annually.

Accompanying Crapps to New York was Mayor Tom McDonald.

The City Commission met in secret session this morning in the Abstract Co. office... Kneched on the door and asked Alty. Bill Hutchison, who, surprisingly was invited, "Can I come in?" "Not at this time," said Mr. Hutchison... "or something like that... Waited outside and talked to Jack Wilbur about fishing, etc., and Mayor Tom McDonald came out and said: "The office isn't sound-proof, would appreciate it if you left."

Request in pace; ora pro nobis.
So I'll be waiting out here in the torrid heat outside on Commercial, and if you pass please give this weary traveler a glass of cold water.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND ON COMMERCIAL.
10:30 a.m. Tom McDonald came out and gave me a nickel to put in the parking meter for one of the commissioner's vehicles.

10:22 a.m. - Lovely Peggy Jane Lundquist brought me out a glass of water (no ice).
11 a.m. Changing of the guard. Van Pelt takes over and Verzhel calls it quits.

11:15: Changing of the guard again Van Pelt goes for coffee.
11:30: Commission breaks up... Queried Tom McDonald on what the meeting was about. "It's about our trip to New York... briefing the rest of the commission."

"Anything about tape recording discussion at meet?" says L. "No comment," said Mr. McDonald.

City might be thinking of purchasing "recording" equipment to tape all commission meetings... Demonstration was held at City Hall yesterday afternoon... Equipment cost... $350... Asked City Manager W. E. Knowles about it today and Knowles said not only will commission meeting be recorded but the zoning board and, get this Mack, Civil Service board.

East end of Red Bug Road finally included in the county road department program for this year. Some two and one fourth miles will be paved.

No Water For Hot Bums

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Nothing to retain first place in the National League, the San Francisco Giants aim to cool off the red hot Los Angeles Dodgers this week but not with water.

Head groundskeeper Matt Schwab declared there will be no special field preparation at Candlestick Park when the Southern California rivals invade tonight.

Last year, arriving for a July series, the Dodgers found the base path well soaked with water between first and second with a coating of sand over the wet ground.

"Malibu Beach," they called that section of the infield and claimed the watering was to slow their speedy base runners. The Dodgers protested to National League President Warren Giles who suggested the Giants keep their infield the same for Los Angeles as for other teams.

Schwab said the infield will be hoed down as usual before the games but only so dust won't blow in the fans' faces.

The Giants and Dodgers finally ended their 1952 rivalry in Dodger Stadium when San Francisco scored four times in the ninth inning of the third and final playoff game to beat Los Angeles, 6-4, and win the National League pennant.

When they arrived at Dodger Stadium for the first series this season, they ran into the anticipated inopportune wet come. They lost three times and the second game saw Sandy Koufax stop them cold with a no-hitter.

Koufax drew the starting assignment tonight facing the same pitcher the Giants started against him in Los Angeles — righthander Juan Marchal.

The Dodgers come to San Francisco after completing the most successful home stand they've had since moving from Brooklyn in 1952. They won the three in a row from the Giants, dropped one to Philadelphia and then captured three straight.

So far at home, the Giants have kept first place with seven victories in nine starts this visit — five of the triumphs by one-run margins. They held first place by just one game over the crushing Dodgers.

After the Koufax-Marchal duel, the pitching alignment shows Billy O'Dell for the Giants vs. Johnny Podres on Saturday and righthander Jack Seaver and Don Drysdale meeting in Sunday's finale.

All three games are expected to sell out the 42,000 seats in Candlestick Park.

Roberts Hurts Orioles Into 1st Place Lead

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Robin Roberts pitched the Baltimore Orioles into the American League lead Thursday night as he stopped the Washington Senators, 6-0, on two hits and ruined the managerial debut of Gil Hodges.

The 26-year-old righthander hurled a brilliant game as he posted his third consecutive complete game victory after dropping his first four decisions.

Baltimore's ninth triumph in 10 games moved the Orioles one-half game ahead of the idle Chicago White Sox.

O'Toole Beats Lemaster In Pitcher's Duel

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole edged Milwaukee's Denny Lemaster in a brilliant southpaw pitching duel Thursday as the Reds defeated the Braves, 2-0.

O'Toole fired a three-hitter for his seventh victory against three defeats as the Reds boosted their winning streak to four games and moved into the first division.

Lemaster suffered a heart-breaking defeat, allowing only four hits and striking out eight. However, he was the victim of two unearned runs as his record was evened 2-2.

Darryl Spencer, the Los Angeles Dodger castoff signed as a free agent by Cincinnati last week, drove in the first run with a fluke double.

Rookie Pete Rose led off the fourth by reaching first on an error by Milwaukee shortstop Denny Menke. Rose remained stationed as Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson struck out, but scored when Spencer's soft pop to short right skipped past Hank Aaron for a double.

It's Official: Piersall Sent To NY Mets

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Jim Piersall, who gets into trouble about as easily as he snags fly balls, was sold to the New York Mets Thursday, apparently in exchange for release of Gil Hodges to become Washington manager.

The terse announcement of the deal, for an unannounced amount of cash and a player to be named later, didn't tie the two developments together but there were strong signs that they were connected.

Thus, a few hours before Hodges took charge of the last place Senators for the first time in a night game at Baltimore, the veteran slugger lost the services of a top outfielder.

General Manager George Selkirk called up outfielder Barry Shetron from Columbus of the International League to replace Piersall and signed pitcher Pete Burnside as a free agent. He also optioned pitcher Art Quirk to the Senators' York, Pa., farm team.

FOREVER BLOWING BUBBLES

RAY HERBERT OF THE CHICAGO WHITE SOX, WHO WAS BLOWING BUBBLES.

Bucks Trade Skinner To Reds For Lynch

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, sorely in need of a long ball hitter and bench strength, today traded veteran outfielder Bob Skinner to Cincinnati for Jerry Lynch — often referred to as the major leagues' most successful and highest paid pinchhitter.

A Pirate spokesman here said it was a straight player swap with no cash involved.

Both Skinner and Lynch began their big time careers with the Pirates as rookies in 1954. Skinner, a 31-year-old lanky leftfielder, remained with the Pittsburgh club since, but Lynch was traded to Cincinnati, where he built a reputation as one of the best pinchhitters in the game.

Lynch, 32, has a career total of 13 pinch-hit home runs, just one shy of the major league record of 14 held by big George Crowe who played for the old Boston Braves, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, and St. Louis in the National League.

This season with the Reds, Lynch appeared in 22 games, mostly in pinch-hitting roles. As a pinch-hitter he collected three hits in 13 at bats, including two homers and a double. His overall average in 32 plate appearances was .250.

Angels' Bosses Go In Huddle

LOS ANGELES — Highly disturbed over the worst road trip in the brief history of the club, officials of the Los Angeles Angels went into an executive huddle to seek ways to correct the situation.

Negotiations with other American League clubs, notably the Cleveland Indians, resulted in a net total of nothing.

One problem is what to do with or about Bo Belinsky, the Angels' playboy southpaw, who has a pitching record of one victory and seven defeats.

General Manager Fred Haney has repeatedly declared if Belinsky is to be traded, the Angels will insist on some one of value in return.

Yank Athletes Going Abroad

NEW YORK (UPI) — The United States is sending a record number of athletes abroad this year.

Estimates vary but it's probable the total will top 700—and for most of them it's a free ride. All but a few amateur golfers will be on the expense account.

So if foreign travel is your dream, the cheapest way to get there is to play your way in any of dozens of sports from boxing to yachting.

A new American record for '53 became a cinch when the U. S. Olympic Committee put together a team of 308-276 men and 30 gals—for the recent Pan-American Games at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

One U. S. basketball team still is in Rio De Janeiro competing in the world championships (without much success) and another is due to tour Central and South America in July conducting clinics and giving demonstrations at each stop.

This weekend, 10 top amateur golfers headed by U. S. champ Labron Harris and former champ Deane Beman compete in the Walker Cup matches against Britain at Turnberry, Scotland. Eight of those 10, still on an expense account, will complete in the British Amateur the following week and 33 other Yanks have entered on their own.

This is the year the U. S. track and field forces go to Moscow for a dual meet July 20-21. A total of 80 men and women will be on that team which also has engagements in West Germany and Great Britain before returning to the U. S.

A small track group will go to Russia in advance, other small groups will break off for a Scandinavian tour later.

Swimmers will be dropping out of the clouds over Japan and Europe during the summer. At least 30 guys and gals will swim in overseas meets as further preparations for next year's Olympics scheduled at Tokyo.

Wimbledon has drawn at least 34 Yank tennis players led by Chuck McKinley, Dennis Ralston, Frank Froehling, Darlene Hard, Billie Jean Moffitt and Carole Caldwell. Amateur wrestlers have a couple of junkies coming up.

Free style grapplers will compete in world championships at Sofia, Bulgaria, and Greco-Roman stylists head for Stockholm. There'll be 10 in each group.

Pension Boost Set By NFL

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The National Football League announced the Internal Revenue Service has approved a $450,000 benefit plan for the league that could bring 15-year men as much as $821 a month in pensions.

The starting date for player eligibility is 1959. Under the plan, five-year men will receive an estimated $437 a month in pensions after the age of 65, 10-year men $656 and 15-year men $821.

A player must accumulate at least five years active league service to be eligible for the plan and must take part in at least three games during each year.

Money for the plan will come from the broadcasting rights to the championship game each year and the second place playoff game.

Sues Magazine

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco Giants first baseman, sued Look Magazine Thursday for $1 million damages for an article which his complaint said exposed him to "contempt and ridicule" and injured his reputation as a baseball player.

Free style grapplers will compete in world championships at Sofia, Bulgaria, and Greco-Roman stylists head for Stockholm. There'll be 10 in each group.

Girls Auxiliaries Observe Anniversary

The Girls Auxiliaries of Central Baptist Church met at the Church for their May meeting. Following the roll call, which each Auxiliary had separately, the Intermediate and Junior Auxiliaries assembled for a combined program on the founding of Girls' Auxiliary.

The opening prayer was led by the WMS Prayer Chairman and included special petitions for those "Missionaries whose birthdays fall on May 14th. The Program entitled "Happy Birthday Girls Auxiliary," was presented by Miss Faye Hayes, the Intermediate Program Chairman.

The theme of the program told how GA's were organized in 1913, under the sponsorship of and as an auxiliary to the Women's Missionary Union, which is an auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention. The GA's is a missionary organization for girls between the ages of nine through 16 years. Its purpose is to lead girls to a fuller understanding of God's will for their own lives and the needs of today's world in the religious realm.

Troop 338 Girl Scouts Visit Home Of Founder

By Jane Casselberry

It was an excited group of Girl Scouts who eagerly climbed aboard a chartered bus last Friday afternoon for their long-awaited weekend in Savannah, Ga., to visit the birthplace of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of girl scouting.

Mrs. Frank Russell and Miss Joan Ostrow, leaders of Troop 338, accompanied 18 girls from the troop on the trip. Also going were members of Bear Lake Troop 497 with their leader, Mrs. John Hall.

The travelers stopped in a St. Augustine Park to enjoy a picnic lunch and arrived at their destination, the Savannah Manger Hotel, at 11:10 p. m.

They were up bright and early Saturday morning to explore the historic city where the Colony of Georgia was founded on Feb. 12, 1733, by Gen. James Oglethorpe.

The girls visited the old Colonial Cemetery which dates back to 1733 as well as the famous old Wright and Chippewa Squares with their monuments. They saw the independent Presbyterian Church which was organized in 1755 and where John Monro attended services.

The girls went to the lovely old Davenport House built in 1820 and restored by the Historic Savannah Foundation. They took time out for lunch at The Pink House before making their pilgrimage to Juliette Low's birthplace. She was born in 1800 and it was in Savannah in 1912 that she founded the girl scout movement with the help of Sir Robert Baden Powell, founder of boy scouting. Many mementoes of her life are found there as well as examples of her art work and sculpture.

The group enjoyed supper at the famous Pirate's House built in 1754 and reputed to have been the headquarters for a band of outquarter pirates. The timely lit cave dug beneath the house is appropriately decorated with skeletons and lifelike bodies.

Girls from Troop 338 who made the trip were Barbara Andrews, Cathy Carlisle, Leslie Komisar, Bonnie Simmons, Suzanne Miller, Susie Webber, Mary Jo Hubbert, Annette Hendler, Karen Cass, Doris Aiken, Joy Hornshuckle, Cathy Johnson, Cheryl Walters, Alice Dunnett, Susan Hunter, Karen Kriss, Becky Toffen and Melinda Casselberry.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held At Altamonte Church

By Louise Simunek

The First Baptist Church of Altamonte Springs held its annual Mother-Daughter Banquet as a part of Focus Week for the Girls Auxiliary last Friday evening at the church.

Some 25 members and guests were presented with the counselor, Mrs. Dan Cowart, and other church leaders, including the pastor, Rev. Lewis D. Haines.

Colors of the auxiliary, green, white, and gold, were carried out by Mrs. J. E. Hildebrand who was in charge of decorations for the social hall.

Lake Mary Auxiliary Celebrates Birthday

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department will celebrate its Fourth Birthday Anniversary this month.

The Auxiliary was organized to help the men of the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department raise money to build a fire house, maintain the building and equipment and help them in many other ways.

The Volunteer Fire Department was organized in March 1956 by a group of civic-minded residents of Lake Mary and adjoining areas, willing to devote their time, energy and money toward supporting a volunteer fire department.

They were advised not to "start out too big", but realizing that all fire departments must have equipment, the group went to work to obtain the needed equipment. By mid-summer there was a truck of sufficient size, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, also a high capacity pump financed by Harvey Pugh.

Pugh, the first fire chief and chief engineer, spent long hours assembling the truck with enough equipment to make it an effective weapon.

A fire house was needed to house the equipment and provide a meeting place. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kruger gave the land and in December 1958 a crash drive for funds to build a fire house was pushed ahead. Volunteers for the drive were numerous and the Lake Mary Boy Scout Troop joined the effort in full dress.

Generous citizens donated building materials as well as money and services and on April 30, 1959 the new fire house was dedicated with due ceremony and a dance with refreshments served from the kitchen, equipped by the Lake Mary Home Demonstration Club.

Today the fire house has been expanded to include a meeting room, fully equipped, outdoor barbecue pit for the Fire Department's famous chicken barbecues, three fire trucks, and up-to-date fire fighting equipment.

Barbecues, dances and parties are held to keep funds available for maintenance of buildings and equipment and many enjoyable hours are spent by the firemen and their families and friends at these affairs.

Burt Revels, the Building Supervisor for Florida Lake-Park Properties, Inc., states that this house building program will begin at six a. m. on Monday morning, May 27th on Lot 14, DeBary Avenue and Lake Shore Drive, just east of the intersection of Enterprise County Road and U. S. Highway No. 4.

Revels states that starting with a previously constructed foundation and a terrazzo slab at six a. m. all of the exterior walls, the roof trusses, roof sheathing, and tar paper base, will be completed within twelve hours. All windows and exterior doors will be in place and the house closed in by nightfall within the first day's operation. From dawn to dusk a space age home will have been built.

"This is not a prefab house," says Mr. Revels. "It is a house of modern component parts and even though the house will be closed in at the end of one day, additional time will be required for inside trim, finishing brick exterior and tiled roof. Nevertheless this will be a unique 'building operation.'" one to drop in Saturday from 7:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., register for the prizes drawing, pick up some free gifts and enjoy refreshments.

"We now have a full line of builders' hardware, electrical supplies and plumbing supplies," said Boyd Coleman.

"We have set aside one whole section of the store for our line of Glidden, Textillite and Duralite paints, and have plenty of catalogs for the selection of wallpaper. All the necessary painting supplies and accessories are available, of course.

"This new hardware store is a one-stop shopping center for the do-it-yourself home project builder, with all modern supplies and equipment available along with suggestion booklets and home decorating ideas," said West.

All day during the grand opening gifts and refreshments will be given away free, and visitors will register for free drawing for prizes.

First place give-away gift will be a $35 set of Corning Ware. Next will be a roll and reel sprinkler, which travels as it waters, winds up and shuts itself off.

Another free gift will be wall paneling, in any finish the winner desires, enough to

Garden Birthday Celebrated With Slumber And Beach Party

Members of the Palm Circle enjoyed a progressive luncheon and garden tour at the final meeting of the year. After assembling at the home of Mrs. Harry Oakes, a business session was conducted then the group toured Mrs. Oakes' spacious garden.

Mrs. S. C. Dickerson, sponsor for the circle when it was organized, acted as guide. She explained the various cold resistant plants and many others.

Mrs. Oakes served cranberry juice as the first course of the luncheon, then members traveled to the home of Mrs. Alton Parker, in Sunland Estates, noting on the way the new proposed site of the new Garden Center.

Mrs. Parker served an unusual main course from artistically appointed tables after which Mrs. Epps Sr. pointed out highlights of the Parker home. Organic gardening seems to be successful, judging by the luxurious appearance of their flower and vegetable gardens.

Father Angelo Libera officiated at the Nuptial Mass double ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with arrangements of white mums and lighted candles. The bride wore a street length dress of white lace with chiffon skirt, headpiece of flower-covered plibbox with shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Clifford Dulca, matron of honor, wore a pink embroidered linen sheath, pink pillbox hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Clifford Dulca was best man and John Cannavino, brother of the bride, and Tommy Fay were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a light blue dress with a matching carnation corsage and the groom's mother wore a pale gold dress with a green carnation corsage.

A buffet wedding luncheon was held at the bride's home for the bridal party, relatives and close friends followed by a reception in the afternoon. The refreshment table was overlaid with a lace cloth and held an arrangement of gardenias and greenery, flanked by lighted tapers. Wedding cake and punch were served to friends who called.

The couple left for a wedding trip and when they return they will reside at 2338 Riverside Ave., Jacksonville, where the groom is employed.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with a lovely, adorable girl who is 16 years younger than I am. (This could be the problem.) This charming lady says she loves me, but her mother would never approve of our marriage because of the age difference. She is devoted to her family and would never marry against their wishes. I waited ten years after my last marriage before considering marrying again, and believe I have found the girl. I am 38 and she is 22. I insist on an open courtship, but she refuses to be seen with me. Is age that important? Do you think she loves me, or is she just being kind to an "old man"? How can I win her?

STILL TRYING
DEAR STILL: You can't. And if you're wise, you'll quit trying.

DEAR ABBY: When people drop in unexpectedly late in the afternoon, are invited to stay for dinner but refuse (saying they have another appointment) and yet continue to visit well past dinner preparation time, is it possible to start preparing dinner? This has happened several times. Yesterday the company left two hours after our usual dinner time.

MISS KAREN McVAY

By Mona Grinstead
Miss Karen McVay was honored recently with a surprise bridal shower given by Mrs. Frank Wzolek at her home, 20 North Second St., in North Orlando.

Refreshments were served buffet style, from a table covered with a mint green cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl. A pink and white cake in the form of two hearts with an arrow through both bore the inscription Karen and Tom.

Crepe paper streamers billowed from the overhead light fixture to each corner of the table. Other refreshments were potato salad, ham salad, sandwiches, baked beans, nut bread, a variety of relishes, tea and punch.

Those helping to surprise the bride-elect were her grandmother, Mrs. George Sommer, her mother, Mrs. William McVay and friends, Mrs. Don Nall, Pat Del Villaggio, Bill Skisak, James Grinstead, Richard Stodden, Bob Dean, Edwin Gander, Miss Betty Johnson and an aunt, Mrs. Harold Sommer, of Winter Park.

DEAR MRS. C.: If you permit uninvited guests to delay your dinner two hours, you are asking for the inconvenience they have caused you. What's wrong with saying, "Excuse me — I have to prepare my dinner"?

DEAR ABBY: In the two years I have been a widow I have learned more than in all the years I was married. I never realized there were so many frightened, unsure married women around. If I need someone to help with the household chores or heavy work, I look in the classified ads. I'd rather pay $10 an hour than ask another woman's husband to do any favors.

SADDER BUT WISER
CONFIDENTIAL TO WILLING WIDOW: Make sure it's a gleam in his eye — not just the sun hitting his bifocals.

Get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to Abby and send a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

One of the first things a beginner is taught is that if he holds two five card suits he should bid the higher ranking first with the idea in mind to bid the other later. This rule should be followed irrespective of the strength of the two suits.

This is a mighty good principle, but like all other rules it has exceptions and today's South hand presents one.

If South were the opening bidder he should open one diamond. There is no question about that, but when the hand was played in a recent tournament every North player opened with one heart and it was up to South to respond. Most Souths responded two diamonds and from then on the bidding proceeded to game in hearts, clubs or no-trump. Five odd was made in hearts, four or five in no-trump and seven in clubs. Invariably there was discussion about how impossible it was to reach a slam with a diamond void opposite five to the jack and there was considerable surprise expressed when it was found that two pairs reached six clubs.

At both those tables South decided to bid two clubs. His idea was not to bother with the diamond suit unless his partner happened to bid it.

Needless to say once the club response was made there was no trouble getting to the slam—in fact I am a trifle surprised that someone didn't go all the way to seven.

Comedy Set For Drive-In On Sunday

"Two For The Seesaw," the heartwarming and hilarious story of a square from Nebraska and an off-beat doll from Greenwich Village, comes bubbling to the screen via a record run on the Broadway stage. Starring Robert Mitchum and Shirley MacLaine, the picture, filmed in Panavision, which Academy Award nominee Robert Wise directed, will open Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre, through United Artists release.

Looks like the rainy season finally made it... let's hope so, at least. After you have worked all day in the garden or lawn, it will really feel good getting cleaned up and relaxing at one of these places.

End of school is in sight (how many sighs of relief on that one?) and Shealy Best has come up with a great idea for an end of the year party. He's working with John Spolski of the Jet Lanes and planning a bowling-skating-dancing in one night type of thing which you should look into... lots of fun for that one last night when the whole class can be together. Just give him a ring and ask him about arrangements, he'll be glad to give you more information. The over 18 night went well and they'll be scheduling another one soon, so keep watch for notice of that.

Sanford's square dancers took over the Lake Monroe Inn last night for their anniversary party... the Starlight Promenaders had a real shining beginning with a steak dinner. They finished off the evening by clearing the dining room floor and dancing a few sets... regular caller Joe Curtis was there with his own music, and to put it in the overworked words of newspapermen, "A good time was had by all." The Inn is an ideal place for parties of this type, as the dining room is large enough for the dancing, and the lounge is adequate for the normal diners and drinkers.

"Hey, the draperies are up at Spencers" were the first words heard yesterday as she started to write this column. One of the most faithful patrons of said restaurant and lounge gave me this tidbit of information, so I'll pass it along. Those Danish lobster tails that are "sweet as a nut" really are; very delicately flavored and served with their choice of accompaniments. Try them without the butter, just for a change in taste.

The Velvetones are up on the stage at the piano bar at the Mar Lou now, and are providing music to dance by or listen to. Big Bill, who plays the bass and sings, is assisted by Mel Young on the drums and Bob Rambo on the piano. They're playing regularly now on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday nights, and drawing some good crowds, says Marcie Williams, the owner-manager.

It's going to be a regular Friday night thing at the Club Diamond... The fish fry, that is... where you can

Their adventures lead them to the Seattle Fair, where Mike finds himself involved in two "dates," the first with Sue-Lin (Miss Tia), little daughter of a Chinese farmer whom he takes on a tour of the fair; the second with Diane (Joan O'Brien), attractive nurse at the dispensary, whose ministrations he solicits after paying a youngster to kick him in the shins.

Migrant Tragedy

Among the 42 in the bus as it sank into the murky waters of the canal were a 65 year old man and a six year old child. Among the 27 who died were 12 children of varying ages.

The labor crew had been working in the fields at Belle Glade from shortly after dawn until almost sunset. Then they boarded the bus for the return trip to their "quarters" and the exhausted, hungry children were admonished to go to sleep during the ride. The children who survived — and they were few — found themselves to be orphaned or left with only one parent.

The 27 died in a school bus deemed no longer safe to transport children to school. So it had been sold to a man who makes 75 cents "a hand" at the job of supplying and transporting laborers from their dreary camp to the vegetable fields. To him, the 42 would have been worth $31.50, if all had worked.

Of course, all the children didn't work. Some of them played in the dusty edges of the field while waiting for their parents' long day to be over. But those of 10 or more worked. In this way the family of William Miller — father, mother and boy — were able to net $6 for their labor last Saturday. But they won't now. Miller could not claw his way out of the bus after he shoved his son through a window.

The tragedy of the migrants is not the only terrible accident that claimed 27 of them on the weekend. Such an accident, though apparently with little precedent in the nation in its swiftness and numbers, is not in itself so startling. What provides the blow to the public in reading about it is the end for the 27 wasn't much in contrast to what they were enduring.

The real tragedy of the migrants remains in their being so exploited, so unprotected.

There are no laws to guarantee them a minimum wage; to keep them from being hungry when work falls; to make sure their children get proper schooling.

They form a great army of American underprivileged because Congress, down through the years, has failed to pass the laws that would protect them.

The story of their bleak existence and their drowning should jolt the conscience of Congress. It should hasten the passage of measures to assure their protection as they are shuttled by buses from migrant camps to fields; from the South to the North as seasons change.

For one thing, there has been exploitation in their getting into the hands of unscrupulous foremen who extract money from them on varying claims of "fees," or for procuring whiskey for those seeking to drown life's dreariness. There have been abuses by unregistered labor recruiters who take advantage of their ignorance.

Because of their mobility, migrants are a national problem, and Florida, as witness last weekend's horror, is a big participant in the problem. Our congressional delegation should be in the forefront in seeking its solution.

To date, however, our delegation has lagged in the attempts to meet it. With one or two exceptions, our delegation has closed its eyes to the migrants' plight and contended only that growers and grove owners can't afford to pay decent wages and to provide protection against unscrupulous recruiters and unsafe transportation and bad housing.

Now, the nation turns its eyes on Florida and asks a big question about the original tragedy of the migrants — the conditions in which parents are forced to take their children into the fields because they had no place to leave them and because they were needed to help make existence wages.

How will our delegation in Congress answer the question as it is sure to be asked in a renewed pursuit of migrant protection laws in this session?

"Can You Spare a Minute, Mr. President?"

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Martin is the type of boss who becomes both successful as well as popular with his employees. For he is open-minded and looking for the proper pattern of behavior required of a splendid employer. Wives, send for that "Test for Employers and Employees" mentioned below and use it in your home, too.

CASE P-447: Martin G., aged 34, is the young executive who wanted to know how to become a successful boss.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "what do employees like in their boss?"

"Do you have any suggestions so that I could follow them?"

Yes, I made a survey of 1,318 various employees of different types of firms.

Since I interviewed them privately, they were free to offer their candid opinions, both as to the faults of their boss as well as his virtues.

Yesterday I listed some of their common gripes or criticisms, so today please notice their compliments, as follows:

A good boss doesn't reprimand an employee in public. He waits till they are alone.

That is just as valuable a rule for parents and teachers, too, as for employers in business.

He is pleasant and courteous. He greets his staff cheer-rily in the morning and bids them a cordial goodbye when they leave at night.

He will "go to bat" for his employees when they are unfairly criticized.

He is loyal both to the company and to his employees.

He knows his employees by name and even learns the members of their families so he can inquire about them.

Encourages his workers to improve themselves, as by night courses or special reading, etc.

In rush periods, he will work shoulder to shoulder with his employees.

Loyal and devoted to his wife and family, thereby setting a good example before his workers.

Tactful. Phrases his orders as suggestions instead of arbitrarily barking commands.

Considerate. Approves work during slack times so all can be employed.

Accommodating. Lets employees off early for special occasions.

Willing to admit when he is wrong and really welcomes new ideas.

Sees that workers always get their wages on time.

Employs the merit system for granting promotions and wage increases.

Has a good sense of humor and can take a joke on himself.

Frequently pays his employees sincere compliments on good work or their clothes, etc.

Considerate of new employees. Doesn't try to "ride" them or make their first days on the job miserable.

A cheery, dynamic type of personality who infuses his workers with his own confidence and enthusiasm.

Sets good example concerning attendance at church and other civic functions.

Has his employees working "with" him instead of "for" him.

Encourages employees to participate in company band, baseball games, etc.

Considerate when employees are sick. Sends flowers to hospital or calls on him in person.

For other valuable pointers, send for my "Tests for Employers and Employees" enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

You wives can use these as excellent Rating Scales for good husbands, too. And they also apply to your dealings with our laundress, cook, gardener or other household workers.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)— Announcement by the Republican Citizens Committee that it will hold a workshop in Hershey, Pa., June 13-14 probably will start another round of political speculation, most of which will be thumb-sucking baloney.

This organization was set up formally in Washington last December after a preliminary picnic meeting in a tent on Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Gettysburg farm in June.

It has been accused of a lot of party-splitting and presidential-candidate-making intentions and activities—all of which are denied.

The truth is that the Republican Citizens Committee still doesn't quite know where it's going, but it's trying to find out.

That's one purpose of the Hershey workshop. It will be an invitational affair for about 75 hand-picked participants. Keeping attendance small was intentional, because the Citizens Committee wanted leadership which could get a lot of work done at this first session. The drive for citizen members in large numbers will come later.

Eisenhower, as honorary RCC chairman, will be at Hershey and will preside at one off-the-record workshop session on critical problems facing America today.

A special feature of this session will be the unveiling of an RCC-financed Elmo Roper survey of voter concepts of what the Republican party stands for and how this differs from voter concepts of what the Democratic party stands for. Albert L. Cole of Reader's Digest will make this presentation.

Another workshop was to have been chaired by RCC Chairman George (Tim) Herrmann of Chicago, but his sudden resignation because of the press of private business and his wife's illness threw the organization into some confusion.

Donald C. Frey, executive secretary of RCC in Washington who also is in active charge of the Hershey meeting was for 10 years chairman of the Los Angeles County Republican Associates.

This organization set the pattern for similar organizations in San Diego, San Francisco and Sacramento. There also are successful GOP citizen action groups in Chicago and Cleveland.

Since the national RCC Citizens Committee have been financed by $1,000 contributions from 100 of its charter members. A budget for the 16 months before the 1964 election and a drive for smaller contributions from many more citizens will be made after program is developed at Hershey.

RCC Vice Chairman Peter M. Flanagan of New York will chair a workshop on how best to aid Republican candidates. C. Wrede Peteramey, president of Corinthian Broadcasting Co., New York, is workshop chairman in charge of the program. All sessions will be closed, but the press will be briefed later.

William E. Miller of New York, Republican National Committee Chairman, will speak at one session. This cuts both Congress and GOP headquarters into the act. This is considered important because the Citizens Committee has been accused or suspected of wanting to usurp some of the functions of the National Committee, take over the policy-making functions of congressional leaders, name national convention candidates.

The fact that Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania is the only GOP presidential possibility who has been invited to the Hershey workshop may start another round of rumors that the RCC is trying to put him over. But this is officially denied all around. Scranton was invited solely, it is maintained, because he is governor of the host state.

When the citizens committee plan first emerged early in the 1962 congressional campaign there were charges it was a New York plot to nominate Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in 1962. Lately, this has been changed to gossip of a conspiracy to put over Michigan Gov. George Romney. It then became a "stop Goldwater" drive. Actually, it is none of these things.

The Citizens Committee is merely trying to set up an organization to back whatever candidates the Republican national or state conventions and primaries nominate and get them elected. They're a bunch of influential but frustrated Republicans who would like to see the GOP win one for a change.

Phil Newsom Says

A Great Bear Hug

Nikita Khrushchev is a man who likes to demonstrate his affection with a great bear hug.

It was in this spirit that Khrushchev, the Russian bear, and Fidel Castro, the Cuban bear, had their first well-publicized meeting at the United Nations in 1960.

Later, Khrushchev was to distinguish himself by a shoe-banging episode in a session of the UN General Assembly which, itself, was distinguished by the greatest collection of rogues and rebels, patriots and pirates, allied and unaligned to be assembled under one roof.

Last December occurred another bear hug of note.

This was the meeting in Moscow of Khrushchev and President Tito of Yugoslavia who for various reasons then was being taken back into the Moscow fold.

Now for the past month or so there was repeated great show of affection as Khrushchev and his guest, Castro, toured the Russian boondocks proving to be one and all that they are as thick as two thieves, and who is this Chinese, Mao Tse-tung, anyway?

All this is a lead-up to noting that one of the great consistencies of world politics is its inconsistency.

There are inconsistencies in the Tito and Castro visits to Moscow. There is an inconsistency in the visit that Secretary of State Dean Rusk will make to Yugoslavia.

Since Josef Stalin first threw Tito out of the Kremlin family, Tito has been in and out again, and in again.

The last switch came after the full bloom of Khrushchev's quarrel with Red China over his policy of co-existence and his support for various systems of communism, including Yugoslavia's.

As for Castro, Khrushchev humiliated him last fall when, without consulting the Cuban leader, he ordered removal of Russia missiles from Cuba.

An interview in the Paris newspaper "Le Monde" quoted Castro as saying that if he had Khrushchev in Cuba, "I would have boxed his ears."

But time heals and an estimated $1 million a day in supplies and weapons from the Soviet Union has enabled Castro to swallow his anger.

Of such inconsistencies Khrushchev and Mao Tse-tung might even adjust their differences in one of the greatest inconsistencies of all.

SCHOOL HISTORY

Forest Lake Academy is a Seventh Day Adventist Institution, owned and operated by the Florida Conference of Seventh Day Adventists. The Academy is governed on the basis of Christian Principles. It was first organized in 1918, and established on the grounds of the Florida Sanitarium in Orlando. It was then known as Winyah Lake Academy.

In 1925 the school was moved to its present location near Forest City Junction. More land was available, greater freedom in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school, and the refreshing spirit of the country atmosphere proved a real advantage in the pursuit of Christian educational practices.

Forest Lake Academy has grown steadily. Buildings and industries have been added to accommodate the needs of the growing student body. Facilities include classrooms a adequately equipped and designed, dormitories for boys and girls, a large modern gymnasium-auditorium, and, just completed, a beautiful new cafeteria. The school is ever prepared to meet the educational needs of Seventh Day Adventist youth of secondary school age throughout Florida.

Pay Hike Now

Consideration of a salary increase for Seminole County Commissioners was to be requested of the county legislative delegation today by board members, it was decided at an informal session today.

John Fitzpatrick, who first broached the matter of a pay hike for Commissioners, brought up the subject again this morning. Commissioners receive $2,400 annually, with $1,200 for expenses. Fitzpatrick seeks an increase to $4,800 annually, including expenses.

Other Commissioners made no comment when Fitzpatrick first brought up the matter before the legislative delegation in public hearings several months ago.

But he gained two supporters this morning in Chairman J. C. Hut-

County OK's Water, Drain Legislation

Legislation establishing a county-wide drainage and water control program was approved today by the County Commission in informal session.

The board directed Chairman J. C. Hutchison to request of the county legislative delegation to introduce the measure and push for its passage during this final week of the Legislature.

County Attorney Harold Johnson, who drafted the 40-page proposal, explained to the Commissioners he "more or less followed the act for Orange County since a great deal of our water problems rise in Orange County."

Mr. Johnson said that the measure, if enacted into law, must be approved in a referendum by Seminole County voters.

Primary water projects would be financed with general obligation bonds, payable from a two-mill ad valorem tax over a period of 40 years. Secondary water projects would be financed from current tax receipts.

Another measure allowing the county to have an engineer's feasibility study for drainage and water control also is before the Legislature.

County Commissioners Tuesday will attend a session of the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council and will conduct their regular semi-monthly session Wednesday.

Desegregate Movies, RFK Tells Owners

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy appealed today to about 40 owners of theaters in the south to desegregate their movie houses.

John H. Stember, head of Theater Owners of America, said the president's brother invited a representative group from southern states to hear the department's views on racial restrictions.

Kennedy also was urged by James Meredith, first Negro to enroll in the University of Mississippi, to press for stronger civil rights legislation "with teeth in it."

Meredith discussed legislation to provide more opportunities and better protection for minority groups in a 10-minute talk with the attorney general just before Kennedy departed for the theater owners.

Meredith told newsmen afterwards that his situation at "Ole Miss" was "still bad" but that he and Kennedy concentrated their attention on civil rights legislation.

Meredith, who later flew back to Jackson, Miss., was invited to confer with the attorney general after his appearance on the "Meet the Press" show Sunday.

'Mix' Parks, Memphis Told

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court unanimously directed the city of Memphis today to "promptly" desegregate its parks, libraries and museums and served notice that Southern communities are moving too slowly toward integrating their schools.

Today's ruling rejected a plan by Memphis which would have gradually desegregated the parks and other facilities over a delayed period of time. The court held that the constitutional rights of Negroes were being violated by the delay.

City officials of Memphis had relied on the court's famed 1955 edict that Negroes should be integrated into the schools "with all deliberate speed." This has been taken to mean on a gradual basis.
