

Sixth Smallpox Victim Dies

LONDON (UPI) — The death of a sixth suspected smallpox victim sent frightened Britons to vaccination centers today under the urgent prodding of health authorities. The scare was centered chiefly in Yorkshire, where a middle-aged man died Sunday in Otley Hospital.

If doctors confirm that a smallpox took his life, the man will become the sixth confirmed or suspected victim of the disfiguring disease since Jan. 7.

Right now, authorities think the smallpox was brought to Britain from Pakistan last month. Four deaths in Britain have been established as due to smallpox.

Authorities stepped up precautionary measures Sunday. Forty-eight passengers were detained more than an hour at London Airport when eight Pakistanis aboard one flight complained of feeling ill. But doctors diagnosed their trouble as travel sickness.

More than 25,000 persons were given shots in Bradford and Yorkshire through Sunday. All of the deaths so far have occurred within a 200 mile radius of Bradford.

The fight against the disease was being waged in Pakistan also. Health officials in Karachi received 1.6 million units of smallpox vaccine Sunday.

However, they reported nine more deaths, bringing to 258 the number of victims claimed by smallpox since last November.

Greyhound B Squad Wins

The Lyman Greyhound "B" Squad edged out a tough Citrus High School JV team Friday night in the Lyman gym by the score of 34-31 in a close game that was undecided until the final gun. The victory gave the Greyhound JV's a (4-3) season record.

The Greyhounds held a small but commanding lead until the fourth period when the Hurricanes began to close in. The first period saw the Greyhounds in front 10-5, and at the end of the half, they were still out front 16-11.

At the end of the third period, the scoreboard saw the Greyhounds ahead by one thin point at 24-23. The fourth period saw a very close ball game with the Baby Greyhounds managing to pull it out of the bag in the closing seconds. The game ended with the Greyhounds in front 34-31.

Winkleman led the Greyhound scoring with 16 points while Fitzpatrick and King each added 10 tallies for the Hurricanes.

Face Charges In Shooting

YREKA, Calif. (UPI) — A Seattle hitchhiker and the wife of a Florida bus driver were to be arraigned on assault and robbery charges here today in the shooting of the bus driver near Yreka last Thursday.

Matthew P. Zaleck, 37, is accused of shooting Virgil L. Johnson, 33, formerly of St. Augustine, and then driving off in Johnson's car with his wife, Mary Ellen Johnson, 39. Johnson was taken off the critical list Monday.

Suspends Jockey

ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI) — The Santa Anita board of stewards Tuesday suspended jockey Manuel Yeza for five days for an infraction detected during Saturday's second race. Yeza, who was grounded for 78 days last year because of various penalties, begins his suspension Thursday.

Air Show At NAS Set For Saturday

Cdr. Louis B. Hoop, commanding officer of the new A3J Vigilante Squadron, VAH-7 which has just completed its first training class, today announced an All Hands Inspection, Open House and Air Show scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Naval Air Station.

"We're going to give Col. Glenn some competition," said Cdr. Hoop, jokingly, "and our show will go on, whether he gets off the ground or not."

"Our A3J's can fly higher, faster and farther than any attack bomber in the world. We are proud of this plane, and extremely proud of our outstanding people in our squadron."

"Our enlisted personnel are the finest, both in the Navy and in the community and we have an outstanding group of officers, many of whom hold records," he continued.

"Now we want to show the wives and children of these men just what their Daddies do out there, so we're going to open the doors and put on a show."

The announcement was made by Cdr. Hoop at the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Club meeting today.

Merger Threat
NEW YORK (UPI)—Threats of a strike and a congressional investigation today clouded the merger picture for American and Eastern airlines.

Merger Upheld
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U. S. Court of Appeals today upheld the merger of United Air Lines and Capital Airlines, previously approved by the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB).

Sapp Bid Low
FORT MYERS (UPI)—J. Hiltz Sapp Inc. of Orlando submitted the low bid of $1,308,900 for a 200-family Negro housing project here to be financed primarily with federal funds.

Caracas Calmer
CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—Gunfire and bomb blasts ebbed through the streets here Wednesday night, but troops and police appeared to have halted the worst of a week's wave of Communist fostered terrorism.

Free Polio Shots
JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Only Hillsborough County citizens will receive free polio oral vaccine during the State Fair in Tampa Feb. 6-17 under a ruling from acting state health officer Dr. Albert V. Hardy.

Phone Strike?
NEW YORK (UPI)—A strike threatening telephone service in 43 states loomed today because of stalled negotiations between Western Electric Co. and the Communications Workers of America.

Censorship Probe Shifts To State Dept.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The focus of the Senate inquiry into censorship of anti-Communist speeches by U. S. officials was shifting today to include the State Department as well as the Pentagon.

Members of the Senate subcommittee expressed lively interest in the blue-pencil role of the State Department as they called two retired military men — Adm. Arleigh Burke, former chief of naval operations, and Gen. Thomas D. White, former Air Force chief of staff.

Burke testified that his speeches frequently were censored while he was chief of naval operations to eliminate warnings he intended to make against the dangers of communism.

The officer refused to blame the Kennedy administration for the censorship. He said lower-echelon officials charged with reviewing military speeches were responsible.

President Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday that the administration would continue to provide "guidance" for military officers and other high officials when they deliver speeches on foreign policy and other sensitive subjects.

Kennedy, who said he submitted his own speeches for review, indicated he differed with former President Eisenhower. In a statement Tuesday to the Senate group, Eisenhower said military officers should be allowed to speak out on the Communist threat.

Saud Awaiting Kennedy Visit

PALM BEACH (UPI)—King Saud of Saudi Arabia settled his royal household into an oceanic mansion today to enjoy the Florida sunshine and await a visit from President Kennedy.

Shorter Skirts, Lower Waistlines

House Of Dior Bucks Fashion Trend

PARIS (UPI)—The House of Dior unveiled its 1962 fashion line today with skirts just covering the knees.

Dior's designer, Marc Bohan, thus took up his position in the "battle of the knees" that started with the beginning of the spring showings here Monday.

For 1962 Dior wants women to show their legs as well as drop their waistlines. His collection decreed that women should look like little boys during the day but turn into coquettish and frilly little girls by night.

Under the motto of "lightness, suppleness and femininity," the new Dior line featured a straight silhouette with square shoulders, tops bloused into belts sitting on the hips and straight short skirts with hemlines usually just covering the knees.

For daytime wear many of the tailored suits had skirts revealing part of the kneecap.

With this new look Bohan is sticking his neck out by running against the current fashion trend, which is to pinch the waist and lengthen the skirt.

The newest style feature of the Dior line is a straight square "box" skirt with its

Zone Board Chief Blasts City For 'Poor Planning'

City Zoning Board Chairman Clifford McKibbin charged the city Commission with "poor planning" in its decision to rezone W. First St. from Holly Ave. to the city limits as M-1 light industry.

McKibbin in a statement today said that if the city's action is final, "no dwelling can be built, added to or altered from Holly Ave."

McKibbin emphasized that the future of the city rests on zoning and called the city's decision "poor planning."

McKibbin said that the zoning board spent about two years delving into all phases of planning for Sanford and the zoning regulations that make planning work.

"Since city employees must enforce regulations and the public must live up to them it is obvious that the ordinance should have a minimum number of districts; the old ordinance had 14, the new one has 11," he said.

McKibbin said that this means that a greater number of land uses must be permitted in each district, adding that the commercial district might have anything from churches to cocktail lounges and the industrial district will have anything from gas stations to ready mix plants.

At the present time there are 23 homes in the area zoned M-1, McKibbin said.

Kennedy Asks Completely New Trade Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today asked Congress for authority to carry out an unprecedented tariff-cutting program to strengthen the Western alliance and outpost "for all time" the Communist economic challenge.

In a special 3,000-word message the President declared that "sweeping economic developments" have rendered traditional American trade policy "obsolete." He outlined a five-year program which would give him:

—General authority to reduce existing tariffs by 50 percent in reciprocal negotiations.

Special authority in dealing with the European Common Market, to reduce or eliminate all tariffs on products in which the United States and Common Market countries account for 40 percent or more of the world trade.

Kennedy asked prompt congressional approval of what he called the "far-reaching and unique" new approach. He said it was necessary to enable the United States to compete with the powerful Common Market and retain leadership of the non-Communist world.

"We cannot ourselves stand still," he declared. "If we are to lead, we must act. We must adapt our economy to the imperatives of a changing world, and once more assert our leadership."

Road Program Ills Corrected, Bryant Assures

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Florida was accused by a congressional subcommittee Wednesday of "mismanagement and waste" in its interstate highway program, but Gov. Farris Bryant said the evils have been corrected.

The blistering report from the House Highways Investigating subcommittee covering 1957 to 1960, was based on two weeks of hearings last year on disposal of rights of way in the interstate highway program.

The state, the subcommittee charged in its second report on Florida's highway program "exhibited a sustained disregard for the public interest and eschewed the adoption of measures necessary for the proper protection and conservation of public funds."

AL EDMUNDS, Director of Educational Television for Central Florida will speak at the Seminole High School auditorium at 8 p. m. today. Everyone interested in ETV for the nine Central Florida counties is invited to the meeting. A question and answer period will follow. The program is sponsored by the Jaycee Wives Club.

Rusk Asks OAS Members To Oust Castro

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk asked the foreign ministers' conference today to oust Fidel Castro's Cuba from the inter-American system. But he left it up to the Organization of American States council to decide how and when to do it.

Rusk's proposal was a backdown from the original U. S. plan to urge the other American nations to break diplomatic relations with Cuba immediately and to propose economic and political sanctions.

Opposition from such nations as Mexico, Brazil, Argentina and Chile forced the United States to modify its stand. Leaving it up to the OAS council to decide how to implement any policy decision made here means a delay of at least 30 days.

Volusia Petition Recheck Set

DELAND (UPI)—Circuit Judge P. B. Revels indicated Wednesday he will order the Volusia County commissioners to recheck a petition to move the county seat to Daytona Beach.

He indicated he would continue a temporary injunction restraining the county commission from building a new county jail for another 90 days.

Thaw, Freeze — North Again In The Squeeze

By United Press International
A long-awaited January thaw appeared under way in most of the nation today but snow and a new cold wave pushed toward New England from North Dakota.

Remnants of the recent great cold wave caused sleet and snow in parts of New York and Pennsylvania Wednesday night. Light rain was the rule over much of the southern half of the nation, from California to the Carolinas.

Mountain areas of Arizona had an inch of snow in six hours. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., had four inches of snow in six hours.

Idaho and Utah were the main iceboxes. Cedar City, Utah, reported 2 degrees below zero early today. It was 6 above at Salt Lake City.

The mercury edged above the freezing mark for the first time in 10 days at Chicago Wednesday. It was the first time in 10 days the temperature failed to drop below zero at some point in Wisconsin.

Temperatures climbed and clear skies were snowless in the wake of a snow and rain storm which helped break southern California's drought.

Rivermen said a 25-mile ice jam which has halted barge traffic on the Mississippi River for 13 days should begin softening this weekend. The jam has kept 273 barges with $6 million worth of grain, coal, chemicals, limestone and petroleum tied up at Cairo, Ill.

2 Bound Over In Theft Case

Two 16-year-old Altamonte Springs Negroes were bound over to Circuit Court by Judge Vernon Mize Wednesday on charges of grand larceny and breaking and entering.

Judge Mize said it was the first time he had ever bound any youngster over to the higher court. Mize said he felt he had no other recourse because of their prior records and that one of the boys had previously been sentenced to industrial school.

The boys were charged with breaking into a clothing store in south Seminole as well as a hardware store in Orlando.

They were apprehended with possession of some 25 guns and a large assortment of clothing.

Train Hits Truck At Longwood

A Longwood man escaped serious injury early Wednesday when his truck was hit by an Atlantic Coast Line train in Longwood, Highway Patrol Trooper Bill Stringfield reported.

The man was identified as Truman Tavor who was treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital for cuts and bruises and released shortly after the mishap.

Stringfield said that the truck had crossed the ACL spur, parallel to the main line, and the driver apparently didn't see the approaching train.

Dying Doctor Bids Farewell In Print

HIGHLAND, Ill. (UPI)—A dying doctor's front page farewell to his patients shocked and saddened this southern Illinois community of 6,000 today.

Turkish-born Dr. S. A. Kayar, in a letter to the weekly Highland News-Leader, revealed he was dying of cancer and that "my services to you as your doctor must end."

4-Year-Old Shoots Woman With 'Toy' Gun

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—There was mutual admiration between Mrs. Ruth Wicker and four-year-old Bobby Prouser.

She thought he was cute dressed up in his cowboy garb. He thought her store had the best bubble gum in town.

Mrs. Wicker always gave Bobby gum when he came into the store. She even let him go behind the counter and get it himself.

Bobby, in a cowboy hat, boots and blue jeans, skipped in at his mother's side Wednesday, Mrs. Wicker, as usual, gave him permission to get a piece of gum while his mother shopped. Bobby dashed behind the counter but stopped short.

Something caught his eye he had not seen before. It was an old revolver on a shelf.

Bobby likes toy pistols. He has a box full of them at home. The pistol on the shelf did not look any different.

He picked it up, pointed it and pulled the trigger. The pistol fired. The bullet hit Mrs. Wicker in the stomach.

"He shot me! Call an ambulance," she cried.

But she was dead on arrival at a hospital 20 minutes later.

Bobby's mother, Mrs. R. W. Prouser, said he had never seen a real gun in his life.

Bobby could not understand what happened. He just buried his head in his mother's lap while she talked to police.

Students Take Advantage Of TV

Students of Miss Lucille Campbell's fourth grade at Pinecrest School can speak and understand elementary Spanish quite well, as they have been studying it since the beginning of the school year.

Now, however, they have an added medium of study, thanks to the kindness of a Navy father, M. C. Prevo, who donated the use of a TV set, so that the fourth graders may take advantage of the new educational TV program inaugurated over Channel Nine the first of the year.

An advantage of the TV teacher is that she is able to use objects to illustrate her words, and the projected image can be brought up much closer for better understanding of the enunciation.

Von Herbulis Rites Friday

C., and Mrs. Katie Hill of Orlando; five brothers, Malcolm McDonald of Mascotte, Donald McDonald of Sorrento, Joe McDonald of Milton, Cooper McDonald of Lake City and Frank Brown of Youngstown, Ohio and 22 grandchildren.

Science Club Asks Donations Of Wild Game

The Science Club of Seminole High School has made tentative plans to hold a Wild Game Banquet in April, if sufficient donations of game can be obtained.

In order to carry out this idea, the club is asking for donations of wild game from local sportsmen, such as ducks, deer, alligator, armadillo, opossum, turkey, turtle, gopher, frogs, fish and other edible game.

Persons having cleaned and packaged game that they do not want or would like to donate are asked to contact Science Teacher Don Reynolds or Science Club President Mike Carlo at Seminole High School.

Band Boosters Plan Supper At Lyman High

Lyman Band Boosters will offer "all the fried chickens you can eat" at their supper in the school cafeteria Saturday from 5 p. m. until 7 p. m. Proceeds from the event will be used to pay for new uniforms and to buy new instruments.

The Lyman Greyhound Band will provide music during the evening hours with special selections planned by several members.

Attractive offers being made in order that even the largest family can attend the supper include giving all pre-school children a free meal when accompanied by their parents. Families who have more than two children in elementary school will get a free supper for every third child.

Advance ticket deliveries may be arranged by calling H. H. Haney of Longwood. Prices have been set at $1.50 for adults and $1 for students.

Watt Speaks On Communism In Casselberry

An audience of at least 50 persons heard Webb Watt speak on the subject of "Communism In Your Country" at the Jan. 17 meeting of the Casselberry Women's Club which was open to the public.

Watt, an Azalea Park druggist, is well known in the area for his anti-Communist lectures and programs and in addition to speaking for the Casselberry group he answered many questions which were presented during the discussion period.

It was announced that the much discussed film, "Operation Abolition," will be shown at the Club's Feb. 7 business meeting at 8 p. m. Hostesses in charge of refreshments at last week's program meeting were Mrs. Tom Hueston, Mrs. Bryan Foster, and Mrs. Fred Mayhew.

Bear Lake Club Approves New Meeting Date

By Shirley Wentworth The Bear Lake Community Club met in regular session at the Florida Power Employees Club on Bear Lake last Thursday at 8 p. m.

The motion to change the regular monthly meeting dates from the first Monday to the third Thursday met with unanimous approval from the membership and the club's by-laws were changed accordingly.

New membership cards will be distributed in February and it is hoped that each present member will bring an interested person with them to the meeting in order that the club may become a larger and more representative voice of the community and area.

Following the business session refreshments of coffee, doughnuts and cookies were served during the social hour.

Hostesses for the Feb. 15 meeting will be Mrs. G. C. A. M. Rich and Mrs. J. W. Neal. All interested persons and prospective members from Precinct 16 are invited to attend the meeting.

$50,000 'Lucky' Golf Play Starts

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The stars of the pro golfing firmament tee off today in the $50,000 Lucky International tournament with most of them quaking in their water-logged boots over the condition of the Harding Park greens.

It's the first round of the tournament that last year served as a springboard to fame and fortune for young Gary Player of South Africa.

But this time the snows and rains have made a shambles out of the greens.

"I can't complain about that, however," said Player after turning in a fine three-under-par 68 in the pro-am event Wednesday, for which he picked up $375, on a tie for second place. "I knocked in a half-dozen good ones."

But most of the others had complaints.

"The greens are just terrible," said Billy Casper, the former National Open king, who generally is considered the peer of the current putters. He carded 71 while missing a half-dozen putts or less than five feet in the pre-amateur.

"Just don't quote anything I have to say about the greens," said Doug Sanders, one of the top three money winners of 1951. He carded a 75.

The snow and cold sent frost into the greens and they haven't had a chance to dry out. Officials rolled them Wednesday night to try and squeeze out some of the water.

"But it's too late now," said Bobby Bonburg, who had a 72. Far on this municipal course, which is open 365 days a year, is 26-25-71. It is 6,672 yards long. There is very little roll on the fairways.

Cinci Gets Big Chance

By United Press International Cincinnati's second-ranked Bearcats have the perfect opportunity to tighten up tonight while most other college basketball teams in the nation are boning up for the final phase of their mid-year exams.

The Bearcats, currently in third place in the Missouri Valley Conference with a 3-3 record, take on the league doormat in North Texas State, which is 0-2 in conference competition and 2-10 in overall play.

Cincinnati has won the conference crown the last four years in a row but now trails both Bradley and Wichita, each of which holds a victory over the Bearcats, who have won all 18 of their other games. Bradley leads the conference with a 4-1 mark and Wichita is second with 3-2.

The Club also plans to ask the Commissioners for consideration on paving of the access roads to Seminole High School.

Anchor Club Aims For Civic Projects

A recent project of the Anchor Club of SHS is a road safety project.

The girls have been observing blind spots, bad roads, and places where vision is poor or completely obstructed.

A collection of these reports will soon be turned in to the city commission in the hope that steps may be taken toward eliminating these danger spots.

Only about one-fifth of the world is covered by any regular observational or weather-reporting system.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The stars of the pro golfing firmament tee off today in the $50,000 Lucky International tournament with most of them quaking in their water-logged boots over the condition of the Harding Park greens.

It's the first round of the tournament that last year served as a springboard to fame and fortune for young Gary Player of South Africa.

But this time the snows and rains have made a shambles out of the greens.

"I can't complain about that, however," said Player after turning in a fine three-under-par 68 in the pro-am event Wednesday, for which he picked up $375, on a tie for second place. "I knocked in a half-dozen good ones."

But most of the others had complaints.

"The greens are just terrible," said Billy Casper, the former National Open king, who generally is considered the peer of the current putters. He carded 71 while missing a half-dozen putts or less than five feet in the pre-amateur.

"Just don't quote anything I have to say about the greens," said Doug Sanders, one of the top three money winners of 1951. He carded a 75.

The snow and cold sent frost into the greens and they haven't had a chance to dry out. Officials rolled them Wednesday night to try and squeeze out some of the water.

"But it's too late now," said Bobby Bonburg, who had a 72. Far on this municipal course, which is open 365 days a year, is 26-25-71. It is 6,672 yards long. There is very little roll on the fairways.

Idzik Named Head Grid Coach At Detroit School

DETROIT (UPI)—The University of Detroit named John Idzik head football coach Wednesday but indicated the sport may be on the way out at the university unless the Titans get better support at the box office.

Idzik, 33, a University of Maryland graduate, was named to succeed Jim Miller, who resigned earlier this week to accept the head football post at Boston College.

In moving up from the backfield coach to the head coaching job, Idzik was authorized to name one full-time and two part-time coaches to his staff.

Two other assistants, Robert Hicks and Joseph Clark, were handed new contracts.

The warning that Detroit's football program is not on solid ground came from Fr. Laurence Britt, university president.

He said "every effort will be made to establish football on a permanent basis" but pointed out that community support of the Titans in recent years had not been sufficient to insure continuation of football indefinitely.

Wright, Smith Pocket Loot

NAPLES, Fla. (UPI)—Lady pros Mickey Wright and Marilyn Smith pocketed up prize money but male amateur Dorsay Neversall stole the golfing show Wednesday in the windup of the annual Naples Invitational tournament.

Miss Wright and Miss Smith had 36-hole totals of 145 over the Naples Beach Club course and split $1,225 first-place money. Both faltered from their par-busting in the opening round.

Patty Berg of Fort Myers, Fla., was third with a 146 total and took home $450. Three golfers were tied at 149—Mary Lena Faulk of Ben Leland, Ga., Betay Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C., and Kathy Whitworth of J. C. N. M. Each won $325.

Each of the 35 women pros, plus amateur Ben Morley of Fort Lauderdale, played with three men amateurs for a pro-am team championship, and it was Miss Morley's team that won.

Team members were C. J. Farley and Ted Olsee, both of Grand Rapids, Mich., and star Florida amateur Neversall. Neversall wound up with a 141 total that outshone all the pros. He had steady rounds of 70 and 71.

THE NEW CITY HALL SWITCHBOARD is now in operation following this official approval. From left, standing, are Bob Kendrick, Southern Bell engineer, who designed the circuits for this switchboard and did the planning. Standing by him is Robert Shelden, manager of the Sanford Southern Bell offices. The operator, Mrs. Norma Ferrell, is seated at the switchboard and behind her from Orlando District Office is Mrs. Sue Wise, who is instructing in the handling of the new board, which has six trunk lines. Maris Says No To '62 Pact

United Press International

Strangers get Roger Maris' autograph for nothing but the New York Yankees can't get it even for $60,000.

They tried Wednesday and got nowhere when baseball's new home run king paid an unexpected visit to their office, stayed only 10 minutes and then departed without signing after asking for $70,000.

"We were friends when I came in and were still friends when I came out," said Maris about his brief conference with general manager Roy Hames.

"I'm not going to discuss my salary publicly," he said. "Whatever comes out will have to come from the Yankees."

Maris received $42,000 from the Yankees last year and has been offered an $18,000 raise. Hames, a good businessman and an eminently fair one, undoubtedly is trying to get the fact across that the Yankees are perfectly willing to reward their players, but prefer to do so over a period of years.

He can cite the case of Mickey Mantle and explain to Maris how it took Mickey 10 years with the club to earn the $82,000 he will draw for the coming season.

Maris, no slouch in the business league himself, has a formidable argument in rebuttal.

He is in a position to say, "I've been with this club two seasons and I've won the most valuable player award both years, so why is it necessary for me to wait so many years for my money?"

A handful of players on other major league clubs did agree to terms Wednesday.

One of them was Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who slipped to a 6-12 record in the bullpen last season after an extraordinary 18-1 mark the year before.

Face, tagged for 12 home runs last season, said he was through "taking his licks" from rival hitters, but he did have to take a slight cut on his 1962 contract.

Outfielder Gus Bell, pitcher Craig Anderson and catcher Clarence Coleman returned their signed contracts to the New York Mets, who now have satisfied 14 of their players for the coming season, while the Cleveland Indians announced that outfielder Tito Francona was their 15th consignee.

The Chicago Cubs, first major league club to sign all their players the past two years, look as if they'll make it three in a row with 31 men under contract already.

Rookie pitchers George Gerberman and Wayne Carlander were the latest to agree to terms. Only six Cubs remain unsigned.

The San Francisco Giants corralled three rookie pitchers—right-handers Ray Feldman, Paul Colacacci and Matt Gayeski.

The action came after officials of the South Atlantic League rejected a proposal to merge the two circuits.

The Sally League, however, accepted applications for membership from two Southern Association clubs—Nashville and Chattanooga.

Hal Totten, president of Southern, opposed the idea of the merger that would have made the Sally League a 12-club loop with east and west divisions of six teams.

He suggested instead that two of the Sally franchises be transferred to his loop and that each league operate with six clubs.

'Hurry Now' Takes Spotlight In Featured SOKC Tonight

C. H. Lovely's Hurry Now, the pup who won his maiden race in the fastest time of the season, tries for his second feature victory in tonight's ninth race. Saturday night he ran in "the big race of the week" but was outstrided and trailed the pack.

Carl Tracy's Wayne Roberts and M. and N. Kennel's Easter Token may give Hurry Now the toughest competition. Easter Token won the Derby last March. Wayne Roberts has just posted one first in four starts this season but he rates as a formidable opponent for he holds the track record for the 3/16ths-mile distance at both Mulinoam and Cloverleaf. Should Easter Token win tonight it will be her third in a row.

Rounding out the field for the main event will be Sabana, Bronica, Sad Day, Modern Texan and Catsup Red.

Fans are showing a great deal of interest in Saturday's "All Star Night." At that time 24 ace greyhounds will run in three events and a special cash bonus will be paid the owner of the greyhound winning in the fastest time.

Moore Expected To Give Board Splitting Headache

NEW YORK (UPI)—During the next week Archie Moore doubtlessly will give the New York State Athletic Commission a "splitting" headache it never felt while unifying the bantamweight title nor planning a cement job on the middleweight crown.

The commission was pleasantly relieved on Jan. 18 when little Eder Jofre of Brazil won sole possession of the bantamweight (118-pound) title by knocking out Johnny Caldwell of Ireland, the rival claimant.

And Wednesday, commission chairman Melvin L. Krulwich glowingly announced that Gene Fullmer, Terry Downes and Paul Pender had agreed to settle the middleweight (160-pound) title split.

But near the close of his news conference Krulwich mentioned thoughtfully that 47-year-old Moore of San Diego, Calif., had only until "Feb. 1 or Feb. 2" to sign for a defense of his portion of the light heavyweight (175-pound) championship — or risk revocation.

Krulwich mentioned also that the only two contenders who have filed official challenges and posted $2,500 forfeit checks were Harold Johnson and Jones — or against any contender, for that matter, while ancient Archie is practically slated for a non-title bout with slugger Lavorante, who might inflict a defense-delaying injury?

Debatable Debate

President Kennedy appears to be throwing increased White House weight behind the idea of extending formal political debates from the presidential down to the mayoral level in future U. S. election campaigns.

Twice in recent weeks this notion has been encouraged, and evidently the President intends to push it hard. One of his top political advisers has said that Kennedy's 1961 dip into the New Jersey governorship campaign was effective mainly because he fingered the Republican nominee's refusal to debate his winning Democratic opponent.

However that may be, it seems plain that hand-to-hand debates will loom larger in political combat from now on.

The President long ago signified his willingness to debate his 1964 Republican opponent. If such a confrontation comes about, the precedent for continuing the practice will be strong.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said in a recent speech that major candidates for office at all levels owe it to the voters to submit their views to the debating test.

Some observers raise the question, however, whether a widened emphasis on debate may not give voters a distorted, or at least incomplete view of many candidates.

The Salinger reply is that a candidate has to be "much more than a good debater" to impress the public in such encounters, especially if they occur under the gaze of television cameras.

This may be true enough. But it may also be true that a man who comes off as a very poor debater may have a difficult if not impossible time getting across any compensating characteristics of importance in the office he seeks.

There is another matter. Politicians being of all types and temperaments, they will not easily submit, in many cases, to the formal rules which debate demands.

Some past efforts were debates in name only, slipping quickly into old-fashioned political harangues. In other cases, though the rules were followed, the net result was empty, wooden and dull.

Furthermore, even at their best, political debates leave the listening voters with one almost insurmountable handicap: they have no fool-proof way of determining the truth, if any in the rapid crossfire of claim and counterclaim which marks such combat.

So, valuable as the debate can be in helping measure candidates, it is far from being the perfect answer to the voter's dream.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE L-422: Donnie D., aged 1 year, is a robust little boy. "But, Dr. Crane," his mother protested, "Donnie sucks his thumb!"

"As soon as he goes to bed, he pulls a wooly blanket against his cheek and then sticks his right thumb in his mouth. "And when he is excited, even during the day, he may also put his thumb in his mouth. How can we break him of this babyish habit?"

Thumb Sucking
Thumb sucking generally starts during infancy. It is usually an evidence that the child is irritated or frustrated by lack of adequate food or sometimes a peptic ulcer, for babies do have the latter!

So he throws his arms around and by accident, he finally gets his thumb (sometimes his fingers) into his mouth.

This starts up the usual nursing routine. And the saliva that is generated helps neutralize the acid in his stomach.

Besides, the muscular action of nursing will also drain off a little of the youngster's frustrated energy.

Letters

To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The Central Baptist Church of Sanford, by a unanimous vote at the monthly conference, Jan. 17, asked the Sanford Herald to print the resolutions attached to this letter.

The church wishes not to make derogatory remarks against any person or business establishment in this city, but the resolutions are the convictions of the members of the said church.

The church would appreciate very much the printing of these resolutions in one of the daily editions of the paper the week of the 21st.

Sincerely,
Gail Smith, pastor.

RESOLUTIONS FOR THE CONSIDERATION by Central Baptist Church

Whereas God the Creator of the Universe, the One who gives and sustains life and whose Word, the Bible, teaches that life is sacred, denounces the use of any alcoholic beverages as a destroyer of nations, lives, and souls. Experience and observation teach us that God's Word is true.

Whereas the unhampered sale and use of alcoholic beverages is taking an increasing toll in human life and resources and downgrading our nation, our state and our greatest resources—our people.

Whereas we recognize our responsibility as Christian citizens with concern for the strengthening of our nation and the great State of Florida. Therefore be it resolved:

1. That we strive loyally in our homes to educate our young people regarding the destruction and misery that always follows in the wake of alcoholic beverages.

2. That we set the right example by refraining from the sale of and/or use of any alcoholic beverages.

3. That we earnestly and respectfully request that our State Legislature consider seriously the matter of a referendum on the alcoholic question which would give our people the right of democracy. By this we mean to express ourselves on the alcoholic question.

4. That we send copies of these resolutions to our legislators, the local newspapers, the Moderator of the Seminole County Association, the Baptist Witness, the Governor of our State, the President of the Florida State Baptist Convention and the United Christian Action Council.

Survival of the Fittest

Dick West Says:

Morse Covered Debt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you think you've got troubles, consider the plight of Rep. Durward G. Hall, a careworn Republican whose home district embraces a section of the Missouri Ozarks.

Hall's constituents seem to have a penchant for unusual problems of the type that might tempt a lesser congressman to give up lawmaking and take up something more real, like moonshining.

Recently, for instance, one group solicited his aid toward obtaining a Pony Express franchise as a means of getting mail delivered to their side of the mountain.

It'll wager that Hall is the only member of Congress to receive a request like that since Wells teamed up with Fargo.

Revising the Pony Express would be a simple task, however, compared to the problem that arose this week when a school building burned down in Stella, Mo. As Hall said when he heard the news, "Here we go again!" To refresh your memory a bit, Stella is the school that became innocently involved in the 1960 civil rights debate in the Senate, also as the result of a fire.

Being temporarily without a schoolhouse, Stella's students attended classes in some vacant Army barracks at Ft. Crowder. Thereupon, the Army billed the school district for $6,200 in rent.

Stella residents complained that the amount was excessive, and a bill was introduced in Congress to forgive them their debt. But when it reached the Senate floor, the measure was stalled as a parliamentary vehicle for civil rights legislation.

Poor Stella was left in limbo until the senators had finished their long debate on the civil rights amendment. Then, when it finally appeared the relief would be granted, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., interposed an objection.

Morse insisted that Stella should pay 60 per cent of the "fair rental value" of the Army property. There was some question as to what constituted fair rent for vacant barracks, but Stella finally forked over $1,500.

Last year, Hall introduced a bill to return the payment, but it was again snagged in the Senate, Morse having renewed his objections.

After all of these complications and frustrations, you can understand why the congressman was consternated by the latest fire at Stella.

Once again, school authorities have applied for use of the vacant barracks. Only this time the situation is further complicated by the fact that the Army post is in the process of being transferred to another government agency.

As he set about trying to unsnarl the problem, Hall described himself as "battled-worn, but still undaunted by the ravages of circumstance." I got the impression that if arson weren't against the law, he might set fire to Senator Morse.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Is Nenni A Trojan Horse?

(UPI) — A meeting of more than passing interest to other Western powers in general and to Italy specifically opens this weekend in Naples.

Out of it may come a formula for an "opening to the left" in the Italian government, carrying with it the possibility of eventual Communist participation in the affairs of a nation now allied with the West through NATO and the European Common Market and as a U.S. rocket base.

The meeting is the congress of the Italian Christian Democratic party.

Under the leadership of the late Alcide de Gasperi, the Christian Democrats ruled Italy from 1947 until mid-1953 and led it firmly into alliance with the West.

While it remains Italy's largest political party the Communists are the second largest, its fortunes have declined since 1953 and the result has been a succession of government crises in a saw-tooth battle between the political right and left.

Now a compromise with the left seems in the making. The anticipation is that the party will agree to a government coalition of Christian Democrats, Social Democrats and Republicans without a majority of its own in parliament and depending on outside support of the left-wing Socialists led by Pietro Nenni.

While all three of the government parties would be strongly aligned with the West, the fact that they would have to rely upon the left-wing Nenni for support naturally would arouse uneasiness in Washington and other NATO capitals.

Nenni's group came from a split in the Socialist party which occurred in 1947. In that year, the party's right wing led by Giuseppe Saragat split with the Nenni wing over the issue of collaboration with the Communists.

Saragat's wing would participate in the new government now contemplated.

Nenni broke his "unity of action" pact with the Communists after the Hungarian revolt but continues to collaborate with them in labor unions, cooperatives and many municipal administrations and often votes with them in parliament.

In foreign affairs, Nenni has swung from opposition to membership in NATO to grudging acceptance. But opponents fear that he will blackmail the government into a more and more neutralistic line and act as a Communist Trojan horse.

Tax Provision Brings Squabble

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republicans and Democrats disagreed today over a tax formula allowing businessmen to deduct only half their entertainment expenses.

The new plan for curbing expense account abuses won tentative approval Tuesday from the House Ways and Means Committee.

It would bar individual business men or business firms from deducting from their taxable income more than half the cost of business entertainment.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON —(NEA) — Political analysts are taking some close looks at what effect the upsurge of right-wing conservatism may have on the 1962 elections. Some of their conclusions are just the opposite of generally accepted views.

One of the most comprehensive surveys of conservative movement has been made by Ralph E. Ellsworth of University of Colorado. He finds that "there are approximately 1,000 voluntary organizations in the United States which may be called rightist and which regularly publish or distribute great quantities of right-wing literature."

Some, like the John Birch Society, are national. Most are local.

Their greatest weakness is that they have not so far been pulled together behind one leader for concerted political action.

But even local organizations have a potential for considerable influence in individual Congressional district races. The question is, which side will be helped or hurt the most by well organized pressure?

The general impression has been that the extreme right-wingers will help the Republicans, hurt the Democrats. But Civic Affairs Associates, a conservative research organization with headquarters in Washington, has rounded up in its most recent newsletter a report on some of the damage which extremists may be doing to the GOP.

Money which might ordinarily go to the Republican party has been siphoned off for support of right wing causes.

By encouraging ultraconservative candidates to run for Congress in coming primaries, the Republican party is likely to be split.

Factions may unite behind the winner after the primary and support him in the November election. But the risk seen here is that nominations of candidates with no broad appeal will work to the advantage of the Democrats.

It will give the Democrats the opportunity to pin the label of "extremist" or "eccentric" on such candidates and identify them with Republicans. President Kennedy himself hasn't hesitated to do this.

In a few cases extremist groups have moved in and taken over regular Republican organizations. California offers the most striking example of this. A John Birch-oriented faction has taken over control of the Los Angeles Young Republicans and will attempt to take over the state federation at its February convention.

All these developments are said to put Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona in a peculiar position. He is the favorite of most of the right-wing groups, but he operates as a regular Republican. He is again chairman of Senate Republican Campaign Committee. His job is to recoup Republican losses. And yet, as National Committee for an Effective Congress shows in an analysis, it is the more conservative Republicans who have been responsible for the greatest losses to the GOP in recent years.

In the 83rd Congress, Republicans controlled the Senate 49 to 47. They lost control in 1954 elections. They have been slipping back ever since, to the point that they are now outnumbered 61 to 36. Nineteen Republican seats have shifted to Democrats and six Democratic seats have been lost by conservatives and only two of the Democratic seats have been won by conservative Republicans.

The conclusion made by this analysis is that this trend will have to be reversed if the Republicans are to make substantial gains in the 1962 elections.

Developer Buys DeLand Acreage

MIAMI (UPI) — First Development Corp. announced Wednesday it has purchased 8,600 acres in Volusia County for improvement and sale as homesites and acreage lots.

The company's general counsel, former Gov. Fuller Warren, said the purchase price was more than $15 million.

The land is four miles from DeLand and 15 from Daytona Beach. It is bounded by State Highways 92 and 44 and Interstate Highway 4, when completed, will run through it. Firstamerica, a Hollywood, Fla., concern of which Frank S. Cannova is president, also developed New Smyrna Acres, Orange County Acres, West Daytona Acres, and Cannova Park near Cape Canaveral.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson ill there! Well its already Thursday again. I wish someone would tell me where the time is going. Especially so fast. And this beautiful weather the past few days has been simply wonderful hasn't it? Ah! If it could only stay. According to a Missouri visitor it is certainly cold up there. I told him he better leave it up there too. Our son-in-law's father is here for a few days. We are trying to convert him and his family into Florida crackers and you know I think it is going to work. * * * Our sympathy goes out to the family of Mr. Corrie Dekle, who passed away last week. * * * A former Monroe girl has joined the engaged group. The granddaughter of the J. Calvin Howe, Sheila Howe is engaged to Joe Welsh. I was talking to Mrs. Howe a day or two ago and she said that Joe's mother gave her a surprise birthday party here last week. Joe is trying for West Point and if he makes it they will have to wait until he finishes. Anyway congratulations, Sheila and Joe. * * * The talk on Social Security by Mr. James Bozeman last week at the Home Demonstration Center was certainly most interesting. * * * Theresa Warren, young daughter of the Buddy Warrens is in Seminole Memorial Hospital doing nicely from an appendectomy. Hurry and get well Theresa as your school mates miss you. * * * Happy Birthday to both Claude and Rena Hawkins who have birthdays this week. Also Happy Birthday Jane Mero and so glad you are over your illness and back in school. Now brother Johnny is ill. * * * Twenty-nine attended the Red Cross First Aid class last Tuesday at the Lake Monroe school. * * * Heard that Naomi Sapp went to Plant City last week to see her parents. I know that she had a good time. * * * Thanks to Mrs. Bea Monroe for her nice compliment. * * * The American Legion Fair will be here on February 12 through 17th. Sure hope a whole lot of you will enter some in it and come away with blue ribbons. So be sure and keep those dates in mind. * * * Mr. Nesco Burned is on the sick list. I think that old flu bug got him too. * * * Mrs. Lenora Johnson and sons Jim and Luther were here last weekend visiting son Charles and family also Opal Dorn and us. Opal is also on the hurry and get well list. * * * Got to talk to Gus Schmah the other day. And he confessed that he didn't get that there B'ar. Said he had to settle for venison. * * * All you ladies and gents don't forget tonight at the Home Demonstration Center the Monroe Club is having a fashion show on the latest in Bates Disciplined Prints. I hope you ladies have got the spring sewing fever because this will be right down your alley (as the saying goes) to come see and hear about these new prints. Elmer Wonteney of Yowells will be there to tell all about them and the ladies will bring model dresses made from these materials. And to top that off there will be some of the members of the High School Glee Club to entertain the guests. So I know that you would have a very enjoyable evening. So come on. * * * Sorry to hear that Herbert and Grace Thurston and son Brian are leaving us this weekend. They are moving to Tampa to reside. Sure will miss them. Maybe by chance they will get Monroe homesick and come back. * * * I can see Herbert in his role as Mobile in the Minstrel Show. He sure was funny. Ah! those good ole days. * * * For our thought for this week you will have to read it over several times to get the meaning of it. When it was given to me I had to do it. Here it is: He is a fool who cannot be angry. But he is a wise man who will not. * * * This quote is by Lippincott. * * * Bye for this week.

DeBary GOP Installs Officers

The DeBary Republican Club installed new officers at last Thursday's program meeting of the group in the Community Center. Installed by George M. Percy, executive committee member of Daytona Beach, were Ralph Withersell, president; Horace Damerest, first vice president; Beatrice E. Muller, second vice president; Mrs. Pearson Little, third vice president; Thornton Smith, secretary; Marie Accardi, financial secretary and Rudolph Ackerman, treasurer.

Withersell announced that reservations must be in by Feb. 8 for the annual Lincoln Day Dinner to be held on Feb. 12 at 6:30 p. m. at the Union Building. Tickets may be purchased from any club member. A program of music arranged by Mrs. Adam Muller, entertainment chairman, featured Florence St. Amand and Ivan Walker accompanied by Miss Adelaide Conte at the piano. The invocation given in song was by Pearl Burnett, soprano and Mrs. Muller, contralto, accompanied by Mrs. Everett Swift at the piano. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess committee composed of Mrs. B. Hayes, chairman and Arthur Power, Edna Reilly, Mrs. J. Strohmer, Mrs. Al Williams, and Mrs. Ralph Leonard. No business meeting of the club will be conducted in February.

Business Briefs

The South's largest detergent plant, with a capacity of 3,500,000 pounds of powder and liquid detergent a month has been placed in operation at Jacksonville, Fla., by Blue Arrow, Inc. The new facility, covering 40,000 square feet, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc., which operates 545 supermarkets in the local area and throughout the Southeast. "This new operation illustrates the swift business and industrial upswing that is taking place throughout the South to supply the needs of its own growing population," said A. D. Davis, president of Winn-Dixie. "Approximately one-half of the raw material ingredients which the plant will utilize will be produced or purchased in the South, and the same holds true for the cartons and containers in which the detergent will be marketed." The plant, which is the first major detergent manufacturing operation in the Southeast, is located on a 40-acre site where the Winn-Dixie general headquarters is also situated. Its blue powder and white powder production capacity will be approximately 2,500,000 pounds a month and its liquid capacity will be 1,000,000 pounds a month, according to J. V. Wilkerson, plant superintendent.

E. E. (Andy) Anderson, manager of Mother's of Sanford, left Monday for Delta Jet for Atlanta, Ga., where he will attend the week-long annual Spring Furniture Market, along with Mother store managers throughout Florida. Trends and styles in new furniture will be shown at the Market, and many of the new styles will soon be seen in Mother's stores here. Paul Altman, in the real estate business in Casselberry and Fern Park since 1953, has closed his office in the Murasko Building at Fern Park and is now associated with H. S. "Lew" Arnold, Longwood realtor.

THE IRRESISTIBLE LURE of far-away places is again sounding its siren call to Henry and Ruth Simpson of Geneva and next Sunday they are off again.

This year their wanderings will take them down into the South Sea Islands, on a route they have never before traveled.

Embarking on the "world renowned" Caronia, luxury liner of the Cunard Line, they will again have their same cabin and even the same cabin boy. The Simpsons will board the ship at Ft. Lauderdale, Sunday.

Seeing them off on their cruise are their children and grandchildren Jim and Cathy Stowell, Karen and Jaycee of Geneva and Mrs. Jean Dykema and sons, Jimmy and Johnny of Sanford, who all plan to drive down to Ft. Lauderdale with them.

Leaving Ft. Everglades at Lauderdale, the Simpsons and other spring travelers aboard the "Green Goddess" (as the ship is nicknamed) will sail down through the Panama Canal, then on around the Pacific side to pick up more passengers at San Francisco, then out to Honolulu.

Leaving the Hawaiian Islands the Simpsons will then enter as yet "unexplored territory" for them.

Their first stop will be in Pago Pago, the romantic Samoan island made famous in tales of the South Seas. They will also stop at Vavau in the Tonga Islands.

Then into a more modern world in Auckland and Wellington, two cities in New Zealand, and a cruise through Milford Sound, described in the travel folders as "breath-taking."

A little touch of Australia, that fast growing country, which some travelers compare with the early days of the United States, in its rough and tumble, pioneer stage development. The port of call, Sydney, is as modern as any port in the world, though.

The beginnings of the Orient at Pt. Moresby in the West Indies, then to the "fairly-tale land" of Bali, with its extravagant beauty seen everywhere, in temples, trees, flowers and people.

Singapore will be the next stop, and from there on up through Bangkok, Hong Kong and Yokohama, until they begin the homeward journey, the Simpsons will be traveling through familiar territory once more, as they have visited that part of the Orient before.

But it won't be wasted on this pair for they are interested in everything and never have time to see all that they would like to see, so another visit (and many more) would not be out of order, as far as these delighted travelers are concerned.

Don Voyage, Ruth and Henry ... we will look forward to your letters and cards, and a recount of your adventures when you return the last of April.

THREE CHEERS for the cheerleaders at the inter-faculty basketball game Saturday night.

Weren't they cute? There's a lot to be said for those good-natured SHS teachers who were dressed so attractively in white pleated skirts, black sweaters with S's on them, and the real attractiveness came through when they took off the masks during the halftime.

And those Junior High teachers who led the cheers on their side—what energy, what activity!

There were only about 30 or 40 junior high kids in the cheering section, but they cheered like 300 or 400, they sounded so vociferously for their coaches and teachers! And they won, too!

Everyone connected with the game, which was put on to help raise funds for the New March of Dimes (which has turned its major attention now to curing arthritis and crippling birth defects) is to be commended for the hours they put in working toward this game.

Especially the men coaches and teachers, who had obviously gotten out on their home courts and done some practicing to get in shape—and some of them were in pretty good shape for the shape they're in!

QUESTION: How does Jim Pigott manage to stay so tan all winter long? Do you take sun-baths, Jim? Or do you just happen to be one of the lucky ones who fade so slowly it's spring again before it wears off?

Us office-bound drones, growing paler and paler, could use some of that warm sunshine that has beamed down on Sanford this week.

AND THE MAJORETTES ... didn't they look outstanding in their pretty new red, white and blue uniforms at the half-time show?

The backs are blue and the fronts are white, and a wide red sash goes over the shoulder and hangs low on the side in a very striking ensemble that catches every eye.

It was unfortunate that the record player could not have been amplified a little more, it was hard to hear the music. Both groups of majorettes combined to give a real fine performance of some new steps and some very intricate maneuvering to entertain the audience between halves.

BY THE WAY ... that lovely piano music that accompanied the showing of the spring styles at the Pink Ladies luncheon Saturday was played by Katherine (Mrs. Howard) Welch. She is a first-rate pianist.

DAINTILY DOES IT If hands are small, rings in small, feminine design are best. Leave the big rings for the girls with big hands.

Mrs. Vernon Fedderson Installed As President Of Ladies Aid Society

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer met in the educational building of the church. The meeting was opened by Mrs. George Daniels, retiring president and installation of 1962 officers was conducted by Pastor Herbert Goerss.

Those installed were Mrs. Vernon Fedderson, president; Mrs. James L. Shipman, vice president; Mrs. James Ekern, secretary, and Mrs. H. Stanley Ale, treasurer.

Committee reports were given and Mrs. Alfred Kirshstein presented a proposed 1962 fellowship and fund raising program, which was accepted by the group.

Mrs. John Senkarik led a discussion of the altar cloths used in the church and explained the five different colors and at which church season they are used.

It was decided the group would join the Concordia book of the month club to help build up the Ladies Aid Library.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer. During the fellowship hour that followed refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Charles Tallman and Mrs. Forest Engbrechtson.

NEW OFFICERS of the Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer get together prior to the installation ceremony. From left standing, are Mrs. James L. Shipman, vice president, Mrs. Vernon C. Fedderson, new president and Mrs. George Daniels, retiring president. Seated are Mrs. H. Stanley Ale, treasurer and Mrs. James Ekern, secretary. FRA Auxiliary Celebrates With Dinner

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association celebrated the fifth year of operations with a dinner in the rustic setting of the MQ Ranch in Osteen.

A Western atmosphere and Western cooking provided a most enjoyable evening. The owners, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Morris, made the guests feel that they were "deep in the heart of the old West."

The Boston and Busalady, as they are affectionately referred to by their friends, showed the group their collections of various items and escorted them to the cook house and other interesting parts of the ranch grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. White were hosts for the branch and auxiliary. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Holland De Jong, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burns and Mrs. Mary Jonghner.

Among the members attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert French, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sundvall, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fedderson, Mrs. W. O. Chesser and Mrs. Sally Perallo.

Van Liere-Deane Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Liere of Jamestown, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Lucille, of Charlotte, N. C., to Tenney Ingalls Deane Jr., also of Charlotte. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Tenney Ingalls Deane of Safety Harbor, Fla., the grandson of Mrs. W. T. Deane and nephew of Robert W. Deane, life-long residents of Sanford.

The wedding is planned for March 10 at the First Presbyterian Church of High Point, N. C. The Rev. Tenney I. Deane will perform the ceremony.

Miss Van Liere is a 1959 graduate of Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C., where she majored in economics. She was a member of the Order of Sorority, leadership honorary, and was elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She was also editor of the college annual.

After a year in New York City, where she worked for Kelly Publishing Company, Miss Van Liere joined the staff of WBTV in Charlotte, where she is presently employed in the programming department. Mr. Deane graduated in

Auditions Planned Saturday

The Auxiliary to the DeBary Volunteer Fire Department will hold auditions this Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the DeBary Fire House for entertainers for the annual Spring Show.

Please bring your material. The pianist will be Viola Lambertson.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Sette from Minnesota are visiting their son, Cdr. L. H. Sette, and his family at their home in DeBary. The visitors plan to spend about a month in DeBary then leave for an extensive tour of Southern Florida.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Morris at their ranch in Osteen were Mrs. Jane Date and children, Mike, Sue, Patricia, Alex and Elise, of Cocoa Beach.

When a house guest, keep your bedroom in order and leave the bathroom looking tidy.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: How can you get a 220-pound, 28-year-old man out of bed in the morning? He is harder to get up than the children. By the time he is ready for breakfast it is cold, and everyone else has eaten and gone. He has to punch a time clock so it is important that he get to work promptly. This is upsetting me, and I would appreciate some tips from you or your readers who have had the same problem. Thank you. ADELE

DEAR ADELE: Do you yell, "HEY—GET UP!"? Or do you gently brush his bewhiskered cheek with an affectionate kiss? Try waking him with a little tenderness. Bring a steaming cup of coffee to his bedside. If this doesn't work, let the big lug get to work late a time or two. Some people have to learn everything the hard way.

DEAR ABBY: Why should the bride's family pay for everything? I think it is time for a new book on the subject. My daughter is getting married and it is going to cost me a fortune. Our family is small, and we don't have many friends. The boy's family is large and they are including every shirttail relative they ever heard of, and neighbors and friends enough to fill the downtown auditorium, and we are getting stuck for everything. I would like to hear what your readers have to say about this. FATHER OF THE BRIDE

DEAR FATHER: Traditionally,

it is the bride's family who puts on the wedding. If your finances are limited, restrict the number of guests the groom's family invite.

DEAR ABBY: I am a senior in high school. We recently moved to a city many miles from my home town. Every afternoon after school I take my 10-month-old baby sister for a walk. Some of the kids at school have told me that there is a rumor going around school that my little sister is really MY child. They said they heard I got in trouble and my parents were raising the child as their own. I have cried myself to sleep every night since I heard this terrible lie. How can I let people know the truth? LIED ABOUT

DEAR LIED ABOUT: Don't waste your time and energy fighting groundless rumors. Ignore the lies and the liars.

DEAR ABBY: That was some answer you gave "LIKES 'EM FAT." I used to "like 'em fat," too, until I found out that my wife's insurance is costing me a lot more because she is 50 pounds overweight. LIKES 'EM AVERAGE

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Somebody is sure to say— When you get yourself a nice, roomy, comfortable American car, "I hate to be buying the gasoline for that buggy. Now take my little foreign car. Know how many miles it gets to the gallon?"

When your children are young and lots of trouble, "Just wait until they get to be teenagers and then you'll know what trouble is."

When you are elected president of an organization and are feeling right proud of yourself, "How did you ever let them push that job off on you?"

When you have a birthday, "Well, so you're a year older, eh?"

When you become a grandparent for the first time, "How does it feel to be a grandma, Grandma?"

When you brag that you've learned to do the twist, "You'd better watch it, or you may end up in the hospital. That's a dance for kids."

When you recommend a book you have read, "Oh, did you like it? I was really quite disappointed in it."

When you finally build your dream house, "I don't envy you having to put in a new yard. You couldn't pay me to fix up a house and yard again."

When you are talking about plans for retirement, "You just don't seem like the kind of person who can be happy doing nothing."

There's always someone ready with a wet blanket.

Teenagers are people, too. Read Ruth Millet's booklet, "Tips on Teenagers." Mail 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader

In the Blackwood convention the accepted practice is to double an overall of a Blackwood four no-trump for business, to pass without an ace, or with an ace or two if the overall has crowded you past your five level stopping place and you don't expect to make the slam.

Thus West's five spade bid gave North a tough problem. His partner had jumped to four no-trump after a single raise. Did his partner need one ace or two? North finally decided that his trumps were good and his queen of clubs important so North bid five no-trump to show his one ace.

South had no choice, but to bid six diamonds and West passed contentedly. He had

But spots a pair of swindlers in Stillwater and plans to take over the underhanded operation, with the further intention of dragging his deputy-son in as an accomplice. Bruce Yarnell stars as Chalk with Don Collier, Slim Pickens and Judy Lewis.

7:30-8:30 p.m. CBS. Frontier Circus. "Mr. Grady Regrets." There's double jeopardy here for a released convict (Charlie Ruggles), who is newly accused of murdering the woman who had him jailed for bigamy and is also endangered by a group of villains who believe he has a fortune stashed in a secret hiding place. More action than reaction is the plot, but Ruggles manages to make his role arresting and appealing. Cute as the ex-con's daughter is Anne Helm and befriending him are Circus partners Chilly Wills, John Derek and Richard Jaeckel.

8-8:30 p.m. ABC. The Donna Reed Show. "Aloha, Kimo." Watch this one with doubled interest as it's not generally known that this episode also serves as a series pilot for Miyoshi Umeki, who won an Oscar for her role in "Sayonara." The Stone youngsters (Shelley Fabares and Paul Peterson) figure hardly at all in this plot as Donna (Donna Reed) joins Dr. Stone (Carl Betz) on a Honolulu trip which is interrupted by a puzzling medical case. Miss Umeki plays a nurse who offers the key to his patient's problem. Quite good, but not much more than Miss Umeki's radiant personality gives evidence of this becoming a strong series.

8:30-9:30 p.m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "Oh, My Daughter." Dina Merrill and Victor Jory are guest stars in this episode which could very well be the best telecast in what has been a better-than-average series. Miss Merrill plays a highly dramatic role as the daughter of Dr. Gillespie and the wife of a French Diplomat. When she flies to Blair Hospital for a needed checkup, she reveals a personality fraught with fears, well hidden beneath a stately and sophisticated exterior. The checkup also reveals that she is expecting a baby. This so panics her that she makes a strenuous attempt at taking her life. Richard Chamberlain and Raymond Massey star as Drs. Kildare and Gillespie.

8:30-10 p.m. NBC. Hazel. "Hazel's Tough Customer." Hazel out-charms even herself when she tries to break the shell of a lonely bachelor and make him more socially acceptable. She succeeds in making him interested in someone, although that someone turns out to be herself. Shirley Booth stars, with Howard Smith as Mr. Griffin, the bachelor.

Hank's Son Takes Test

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Peter Fonda, 22-year-old son of actor Henry Fonda, took a screen test Wednesday for the role of John F. Kennedy in a new movie depicting the President's World War II battle heroics.

The young Fonda is regarded the best bet to win the part.

After Fonda had worked in several scenes from the film, "PT 109" producer Bryan Foy said: "I think he's perfect for the part. He certainly looks like the President did at that age, and he's a real professional at acting."

Heart disease disabilities among Americans costs industry at least $33,000 million annually.

Reds Promoting Tourism But There Are Catches

LONDON (UPI) — Know what Russia is? Russia is a paradise for tourists. Tired? Listless? Need a change of scene? Go to glorious Russia and relax.

Don't ask why, but the Iron Curtain was lifted today and tourists were invited, nay urged, to visit the Communist nations. Two full pages of the Communist London Daily Worker were devoted to featured stories and advertisements aimed at the tourist.

They gave it the works with pictures of Commie bathing beauties, sunny beaches, historic monuments, hymns to Russian food and beverages served by police, smiling waiters. You are urged to go by rail, plane or automobile—and bring your camera. It all sounds easy and wonderful until you start reading the fine print. Suppose you are going by automobile. You are warned that:

—You have to get special vouchers for gasoline and you must realize that filling stations are not too plentiful on the steppes. Best idea, says this article, is to carry extra gas in the car trunk.

—Same thing with spare parts. You are urged to buy something called a "continental kit" which makes it possible to rebuild your car entirely in case you break down 2,000 miles from the nearest garage.

—The author notes that if you do come across a garage or filling station, there may be some complications about language. Seems Russians speak Russian, not English, and you must devise some way to get across the message, "fill her up and check the oil and water." Then he drops the subject, leaving you on your own.

At first glance the article on Iron Curtain food makes Russia sound like a gourmet's heaven, but the fine print discloses that you will never get any cream in your tea or coffee unless you demand it. Oranges are scarce and expensive. Advice: Eat peaches.

Breakfast is served early in Russia and you had better eat it because lunch is a sometime thing. The author recommends this two-course breakfast:

"First course—smoke fish, roes, caviar, cold meats, tomato salad and cucumbers. Second course—meat and potatoes, a hot dessert plus ghourt or buttermilk or fruit juice, and tea or coffee."

North Orlando Gets New Scout Leader

By Mona Grinstead
Mrs. Walter Pike of 91 N. Cortez Ave. was appointed Girl Scout leader in North Orlando this month by Mrs. Nancy Russell, neighborhood chairman.

Meeting with the 12 members of the troop since Jan. 2 at her home, Mrs. Pike is assisted by Mrs. Robert Davis as co-leader.

Although names have not been chosen as yet, two patrols have been formed by this group of girls which became a troop in October and has been given 854 as its number. An oak crest consisting of two leaves and two acorns has been chosen by the girls who meet each week on Tuesday at their leader's home from 3:30 until 5 p. m.

According to Mrs. Pike, who has completed the leaders training course, adult help is needed and she plans to contact each mother of troop members individually to ask her assistance.

Mrs. Davis plans to take leaders training at the next opportunity but there are numerous occasions when additional adult help is needed, the troop leader pointed out.

Retired Folks Elect Officers

By Carol Jenson
The annual dinner and election meeting of the Chuluota Retired Folks Club was held last Thursday evening at the Lake Catherine Inn.

A banquet-style steak dinner was served to the 37 members present. Also attending the meeting as guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peasley of Cuba and New York who are enjoying an extended visit in Chuluota with the Leon Gagnon's of Fifth St.

Officers elected during the business meeting were Edward Richardson, president; Loula Ratliff, vice president; Mrs. Herbert Boswell, secretary; Edward Kuhlman, treasurer; and Roscoe Morrison, information secretary. Named to the auditing committee were Verne Black and Edgar Welch.

Members of the club voted to sponsor a Red Cross First Aid Course which will be held in the community in the near future. The course, to be announced, will be open to all Chuluota residents with the only charge being the 60 cent cost of the textbook.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Way To Win

Residents of Fern Park are to be heartily commended for their evident interest in civic matters concerning their area and the future of the county as a whole.

For and against, they packed the American Legion Home on Prairie Lake Monday night to discuss incorporating Fern Park at a public meeting . . . the age old Democratic Way.

Also deserving a large bouquet are members of the eight-man committee who donated their specialized talents and labors to compile a fact sheet on the pros and cons of incorporation in preparation for Monday night's discussion.

These citizens, and others like them throughout Seminole County, leave little doubt in anyone's mind that we will successfully meet and conquer the predicted Nova impact challenge.

C Of C Supper Set Next Week In Lake Mary

By Frances Wester

A covered dish supper will be held at the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce next Thursday, starting at 6 p. m. for members, friends and prospective members of the organization.

An important business meeting will follow at which time the new officers for the coming year will be nominated and elected. Otis Sjoblom is chairman of the nominating committee.

President Al Case, is in charge of arrangements for the supper and plans to have music and entertainment. Hot coffee, rolls and butter will be provided by the Chamber and a warm building is promised if the night is cold. All property owners in Lake Mary and the surrounding area are urged to join the local organization at this time and all residents are invited to attend the supper.

Chuluota Club Elects Chairmen

By Carol Jenson

Mrs. Roscoe Morrison was elected chairman and Mrs. Herbert Boswell vice chairman of the Chuluota III and Her Garden Club at the January meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison.

Members, who all came to the community from northern states, told of experiences of gardening in Florida and discussed the effects of last summer's drought and of the recent period of cold and frost.

Individual plans for 1962 were told and benefits gained from meetings and field trips of the club were discussed.

Mrs. Boswell won the door prize while prizes for the "question and answer" period were won by the group consisting of Boswell, Mr. Hammond, Mrs. McCune and Morrison.

Following adjournment of the meeting a social hour and refreshments served by the hostess were enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held at 8 p. m. on Feb. 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boswell on Sixth St.

State Director To Visit Sanford Moose

James F. McKeene, state director of the Loyal Order of Moose, will be in Seminole County Monday where he will be guest of honor at a special 8 p. m. meeting of Sanford Lodge 1861.

Armao Installed As President Of Chamber Of Commerce

By Mrs. Adam Muller

New officers were installed by the DeBary Chamber of Commerce at the annual dinner meeting on Jan. 17 at the Station Union Building in DeLand.

Taking over were Thomas Armao, president; James S. Sims, vice president; Samuel Grierson, recording secretary; Glenn G. Smith, executive secretary and Rudy Tiedermann, treasurer. Directors will be Phillip Lounsbury, Ed Davis and John L. Forbes.

Armao, the first DeBary businessman to be elected to the C of C presidency, is co-owner of the DeBary and Orange City Pharmacy. He states that he would like the Chamber to work towards attracting light industry to locate on the outskirts of the community.

Sid Porter, chairman of the St. Johns River Valley Advisory Committee, was guest speaker at the installation dinner. He traced the early and colorful history of the river and pointed out the committee's work in trying to locate additional recreational facilities and parks along its banks. He also told of plans to enlarge fishing resources in the local area which will be of great benefit to the many ardent fishermen in DeBary.

New members of the group introduced included Rev. Damon Scott, George Ryan, Dr. J. W. Wells, Clarence R. Andrews and Wesley McKethan.

Lyman Classes Make Field Trip

By Jane Casselberry

A field trip to the Central Florida Museum and Planetarium in Orlando was made by 135 members of the Lyman School Missile Club and of the seventh and eighth grade science classes on the afternoon of Jan. 16. The youngsters were accompanied by their teacher and sponsor, Mrs. Catherine Martin, and by a number of parents who provided transportation.

The group thoroughly examined the Snark and Matador missiles which are on permanent display in front of the museum. The Snark was built by Northrup and is a veteran of two firings. The Matador, formerly used at the Orlando Air Force Base for schooling purposes, was retired to the museum where it perhaps has been put to its most severe tests by visiting youngsters.

In the planetarium the students saw a program on early astronomy dramatizing the comparison of ancient and modern concepts in the field. They also were shown an interesting movie sequence on the moon which was filmed as

Lyman Parents Go To School At P-TA Meet

By Bettie Smith

Lyman moms and dads went back to school for five and 10 minute class periods last Thursday night as they followed their children's daily schedules as part of the Parent-Teacher meeting and program.

The classroom visits were made after the meeting was opened by Rev. Oscar C. Poole of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church who gave the invocation. Principal Ralph Diggs explained the procedures for parents to follow and announced that parents of the 11th and 12 grades would serve refreshments during the social period.

B. H. Ferrell, president of the group, announced that the P-TA will sponsor an "Old Fashioned Square Dance" in the school cafeteria on Feb. 9. Admission has been set at 50 cents per person.

He also reminded members of the Hand Hoosters fried chicken dinner which will be served from 5 p. m. until 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the school cafeteria. Prices for this event were set at $1.50 for adults, $1 for students. All pre-school youngsters may eat free of charge.

The group was urged to attend today's 8 p. m. meeting on Educational Television at Seminole High School and was asked to donate books to the library a suitable for high school use.

Mrs. Dorothea Benson, head of the Lyman Glee Club department, announced that the Choralists will present the musical comedy, "Mr. Crane of Sleepy Hollow," on Feb. 17.

Another parents visitation day at the school will be held on Feb. 2 according to Principal Diggs.

part of the preparation for the forthcoming moon probe.

Other exhibits on display included "Impressions of Haiti," an exhibition of paintings by Miss Eleanor Mathews, staff artist who also painted the unusual fluorescent paintings in the museum's "Hall of Stars." Students also enjoyed a display depicting the history of the Florida State Museum in Florida which is on loan from Galveston and an exhibit of fossil bones of prehistoric mammals which were recovered from Florida springs.

According to Museum Director Frederick Sleight the planetarium plays host to an average of 3,000 students monthly who are admitted free with school groups. Last year the overall attendance was 60,000 visitors, he said, adding that he would like to remind Seminole County residents that the museum is open to the public, free of charge, from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. Tuesday through Friday each week. Hours are from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. on Saturdays and Sundays. There is a small charge for the star programs which are presented in the planetarium at 2:30 p. m. and 3:30 p. m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Like 'Old Times', A Dollar Buys A Lot At Cowan's Tonight

Do you remember away back when a dollar in your pocket felt like (and really was) a lot of money? Stores carried a long list of choice merchandise, that a person could buy for a dollar, may be even have some change left? Those were the nostalgic "good old days."

This week, for three and a half hours, Friday night, Cowan's in Downtown Sanford are bringing those good old days to life again. They have marked down over a thousand pieces of merchandise that can be bought for one single dollar. Some articles are actually listed at two or three for a dollar. Sounds unbelievable, but it's true. There is a big variety of odds and ends—socks may be a little shop worn, but all of it is quality brand-name merchandise that Cowan's regularly carry on their shelves at the much higher present day prices.

Here are a few in the various departments: Ladies—skirts, blouses, pants, dresses, bags, P-J's, blouses, undershirts, undershorts, handkerchiefs, ties, shirts. Childrens—gowns, P-J's, shirts, sweaters, dungarees, overalls, and there is more.
