

'Dead Ringer' Doesn't Remember

John (Fritz) Johnson

Mrs. Nancy Johnson

Lawrence Joseph Bader

Mrs. Mary Lou Bader

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — A medical report on "dead ringer" John (Fritz) Johnson said today there is no indication that "he has any recollection" of his life as an Ohio salesman who disappeared almost eight years ago.

The doctors said they were also unable to find a medical or psychiatric reason for Johnson's loss of memory.

Johnson's family doctor revealed the results of exhaustive mental and physical tests conducted on the flamboyant Omaha television personality.

Johnson's fingerprints have identified him as Lawrence J. Bader, an Akron (Ohio) kitchen appliance salesman who disappeared during a fishing trip on Lake Erie in May, 1957. Johnson, now 38, turned up in Omaha three days later and became one of the city's best known figures before a friend of Bader's recognized him in Chicago early this month.

Johnson's doctor indicated it would be months—if ever—before the mystery of why Bader disappeared and why Johnson cannot remember him is solved.

Bader's wife, Mary Lou, and six children still live in Akron.

Johnson and his wife, Nancy, have two children in Omaha.

The report said that after eight days of intensive neurological, psychiatric, and physical tests, no neurotic or psychotic tendencies could be found to explain his inability to recall any former life as Bader.

Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua, Johnson's personal physician for the past three years, issued the medical report in a brief news conference in the office of Johnson's attorney, Harry Farnham.

Johnson did not attend.

Farnham and Bevilacqua indicated that further long and intensive medical studies will be needed to fully explain Bader's memory loss.

Bevilacqua said it was obvious that Johnson's memory loss, involving such a long and "vital" period of his life, "represents a deep-seated psychiatric problem."

"Fritz is very desirous of commencing psychotherapy and both psychiatrists advise me it would take an indefinite period of such treatment to ascertain the exact nature of such a problem," the doctor said.

Expanded Program Planned

TALLAHASSEE (Sp1) — Broward Williams Florida's new treasurer and insurance commissioner has announced a new program to bring more insurance company conventions and conferences, as well as more regional home offices to Florida.

These duties will be coordinated by an administrative assistant, E. A. Faircloth, who has been with the treasurer and insurance commissioner's office for 21 years.

In making the announcement, Williams said that Faircloth's vast experience with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and with officials of insurance companies and trade organizations throughout the country will qualify him to head this program.

Williams said that a concentrated effort will be made to bring more regional home office operations to Florida. Under Florida law, companies are allowed 50 per cent of the two per cent premium tax on the company's Florida premiums, plus an amount equal to the full amount of all ad valorem taxes paid by such insurers provided that such credits and deductions shall not reduce the amount of tax payable to less than 20 per cent of the premium tax normally payable by the company.

Presently there are 17 regional home offices in Florida, through which 23 companies operate.

Williams further stated that much interest has already been evidenced in this far-reaching two pronged program.

AROUND THE CLOCK

Preliminary house-to-house canvass in the Lake Mary house numbering survey began today with members of Girl Scout Troop 557 making the calls. Residents are urged to cooperate in providing requested information for the project which is being sponsored by the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce. The girls, assisted by boys from Troop 242, will continue their work through the weekend.

A reminder: Property owners have little more than a month—until April 1—to file for homestead exemption, personal property tax. A visit to the tax assessor's office will suffice. To get homestead exemption, you must have resided in the home as of Jan. 1. You also can claim $1,000 deduction in personal property tax if you are a legal resident of this state. Almost all valuables you own, from household and kitchen furniture, to art, books, gold and silverware, are among items in this category. If in doubt, visit the courthouse.

Someone left the door open tip North and the cold wind and weather came on Central Florida Thursday and this morning. Oh well, it won't last.

From the report made to Sanford Seminoles by Wayne Albert, those district causes must be fair. The local contingent to the county Sunday at Marietta was the largest of all and a trophy was given our young men.

Received several comments of varying nature after Thursday's Herald article mentioning of "male" and "female" cabbage plants. The truth, though in John Doherty of the Experiment Station, says:

One of the worst winter storms in years swept across New England today with a white storm of snow, sleet, rain and gale force winds.

Waterfront flooding was reported along the coast and many families were rescued from their homes by boat.

The storm caused death toll across the nation rose to at least 64. Illinois, still buried under deep snow drifts, reported 14 deaths.

Both telephone companies in Seminole County—Winter Park Telephone Co. and Southern Bell—stand ready to make further investments in the future of this area by providing toll-free service if phone subscribers affected want it. This is the word from Bob Shelton, manager of the local phone office. He adds that both companies are in "full agreement" with aims of the Metropolitan Telephone System Committee of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce and have offered their cooperation in achieving these aims.

The publicity gained in the North Carolina community is priceless, according to John Krider, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce executive manager. The newspaper there carried a front page story, reproduction of Mayor Jimmy Crapps' letter of greeting, a map pointing to all 15 Sanfords in the United States and then did a smashing, full page spread on another page, complete with many pictures of Sanford, Florida, scenes.

Moose Home Dedication Slated

An event-filled weekend is on tap for Sanford Lodge 1851, Loyal Order of Moose, and Sanford Chapter 1404, Women of the Moose, in celebration of formal dedication of their new Moose Home at 2660 South Palmetto Avenue.

Open House for the public will be held from 2 until 4 p.m. Saturday with chapter co-workers serving as hostesses and presiding at refreshment tables.

From 4 until 7 p.m. a tour will be conducted for district lodge members and at 8 p.m. there will be a general membership dance and party with the three-piece combo, "The Smoothies," returning by popular request.

Sunday's activities will open with an 11 a.m. breakfast for members. Inspection by state officers is slated for 1 p.m. and will be followed by a dedication enrollment for some 30 candidates at 1:30 p.m.

Dedication, to be conducted by the highest degree in the order, The Pilgrims, will take place at 2:30 p.m. and will be open to the public. In charge of ceremonies will be Pilgrim Walter Dorris of Orlando and Pilgrim Herb Romines of Ocala. Flag-raising will be conducted by the Marine Color Guard of Sanford Naval Air Station.

In conclusion, an elaborate buffet, planned and prepared under supervision of the local co-workers, will be served beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Dickinson Heads College Fund

State Senator Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson Jr., former Florida Council of 100 chairman has been named general chairman of the $1.5 million fund-raising campaign for the new Baptist sponsored Christian College to be built in Palm Beach County.

The college, which will serve students of all faiths, is to be located on a 200-acre site adjacent to the new Palm Beach Gardens interchange on the Sunshine State Parkway.

PHILIP GOSS

Moose Prexy Will Attend Dedication

Among distinguished dignitaries of Loyal Order of Moose, to be in Sanford this weekend for formal dedication of the new Moose Home, 2660 South Palmetto Avenue, will be Philip E. Goss, of St. Petersburg, president of the Florida State Moose Association.

A member of the St. Petersburg lodge since 1956, he became a member of the second degree of the Order in 1957 and was elevated to third degree in 1963. He has served as lodge governor, as district president and state vice president.

He was elected North Moose of Orange Blossom Legion and served the State of Florida district Deputy Grand North Moose. He also has signed approximately 50 new members into Loyal Order of Moose.

Two events of the weekend dedication schedule will be open to the public, an open house on Saturday from 2 until 4 p.m. and the dedication ceremonies on Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Fellowship Supper

The monthly fellowship supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in Weaver Hall of Casselberry Community Methodist Church. Members of the Esther Circle will serve as hostesses. Those planning to attend are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

WALTER DORRIS

Pilgrim Dorris Will Conduct Ceremonies

Ceremonies conducted by The Pilgrims, highest degree in Loyal Order of Moose, will distinguish Sunday's dedication of the new Sanford Moose Home, 2660 South Palmetto Avenue.

The ritual, to be led by Pilgrim Walter Dorris of Orlando, is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. and will include dedication of the building and the flagpole and flag-raising ceremonies.

Sunday Deadline For Cinderella

Sunday is the deadline for entries in the "Cinderella" contest being conducted at Melodee Skating Rink on Onora Road for the benefit of the Seminole-DeBary Heart Fund rink manager S. J. Best announced.

Skaters between the ages of 12 and 17 are eligible to enter and compete to be crowned "Cinderella" at the Heart Fund skate show scheduled for March 21. The show will be woven around a Cinderella theme presentation with many prizes to be awarded to the girl who is named "Cinderella," as well as to other contestants. Rehearsals for the annual Heart Fund skate show have been underway for nearly two months, with special choreography and music designed especially for this event by Mrs. Allen Albers and Chuck Best, skate professionals.

Television Is Dead?

SANFORD, N. C. (UPI) — A Sanford lay preacher says he had a vision last August, telling him of the evil effects of television and directing him to bury his set.

So, says Christopher McMillan, he did just as he was told and dug a six-foot grave for the television set in his front yard and placed a tombstone above it.

He had the marker inscribed to read: "August 29, 1964. Then God spoke and said time will permit man to make right his wrongs. Put your house in order. Reporting time is near. TV is the devil's greatest source of evil. God wants His children saved."

McMillan said radio is okay.

Senator Wins $35,000 Job

NEW YORK (UPI) — State Sen. Constance Baker Motley was sworn in today as Manhattan Borough president, attaining the highest and best paid job ever held by a Negro woman in the United States. The $35,000-a-year position is another "first" for Mrs. Motley who entered politics 13 months ago. A year ago she became the first Negro woman state senator.

Promotion Ideas Sought By State

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Development Commission said local officials and travel groups will be able to take an early look at Florida's spring and summer tourist promotion campaigns starting March 1. During past years the commission has spent a week each year touring its promotional program around Florida, seeking comments and suggestions from communities and interested organizations.

Dates and locations for this year's meetings include: March 1, Ocala; March 2, Jacksonville and Daytona Beach; March 3, St. Petersburg; March 4, Miami and Fort Lauderdale; March 5, West Palm Beach, and March 8, Pensacola and Panama City.

Frank J. Miller Wins Master's In Russian

Indiana University has awarded Frank J. Miller his master's degree in Russian. Frank is the oldest son of Mrs. Jeannette Chastain, of Sanford, and is expected in Sanford to be with his family during Easter vacation in April.

Frank is a graduate of Marion County schools and Florida State University. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and has received numerous awards and scholarships, most outstanding of which was the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship to enable him to continue his study of European languages.

This past summer, Frank toured Russia and Europe under a government-sponsored arrangement for the nation's outstanding Russian students. The State University at Iowa called Frank this week to teach Russian at the university but Frank declined in order to continue his studies at Indiana U. for his hoped-for doctor's degree.

State's Education Needs Cited

By Dottie Austin
Top Florida educators and businessmen trained their biggest guns on Central Florida Thursday to urge legislators to back a $118 million program for higher education and encourage voters to give their senators and representatives wholehearted backing.

"It is heartening to see the interest of the people of our county and the Central Florida area who were in attendance. They unquestionably feel that we must provide adequate higher education facilities. Florida cannot afford to fail to do so," Davis added.

"The approach of these educators, businessmen and citizens is making the people aware of our needs. We in Florida are confronted with a population explosion, a technological revolution and a multi-based economic boom that is without precedent in the history of the state. Education is the key to meeting these challenges and I feel sure that Florida legislators will rise to meet the need," Cleveland declared.

Hounds, Kowboys Meet Tonight

By Jim Bacchus
Herald Sports Writer

The Lyman Greyhounds will be out for a victory tonight in Longwood when they take on the Kissimmee Kowboys in the first round of the group 7 district tournament.

Coach Dick Copeland plans to emphasize teamwork and a balanced offense against a very much improved Kissimmee team. The Kowboys in recent games beat Lakeview and lost to DeLand by only three points.

High scorer for the visitors is Alan Starling, who is rated by Coach Copeland as one of the finest players in the conference. He is averaging around 15 points per game and has tallied numerous assists and rebounds in the year's efforts.

The other major scoring threat for Kissimmee is Guard Mike Whitworth, who is a tremendous outside shot and a fine defensive player.

Lyman's offense revolves around the shooting of Joe Asher and Mike Starling and the rebounding of Dave Mattis, Gene Winkelman and Eddie Long.

Thus far Asher and Long have been high scorers for the 'Hounds.

The Lyman-Kissimmee game will take place at 8:30 in the Lyman gym following the first round game between Bishop Moore and Cocoa Beach.

Bradley Coach Gets Promotion

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) — Chuck Orsbom will retire as Bradley's basketball coach on Aug. 31 and become athletic director.

University President Talman W. Van Arsdale Jr., who announced the change, said John I. (Dutch) Melner will retire from his present post of athletic director, creating the vacancy for Orsbom's appointment.

Orsbom, whose teams compiled a 192-55 win-loss record since he became head coach in 1955, will be succeeded by Joseph Stowell, currently coaching the freshmen team.

Orsbom's Braves won the National Invitational Tournament crown last season.

This season they have a 16-8 record, but for the first time are out of the running for the Missouri Valley Conference championship.

Horse Player Banks Record Of $108,000

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Arnold Levy, 60, a retired antique dealer whose hobby is the horses, banked a record twin double payoff of $108,242.40 today and headed for the track again, claiming with a smile, "That about puts me even."

It was the second record payoff for track regular Levy, who cashed a $2 twin double ticket at Tropical Park in January of 1964 for $75,000 which at the time was a record.

To boot, Levy says he's hit the jackpot a number of other times—14 times in all last season, 1 think, and a few times so far this season.

He recalls payoffs of $17,000, $10,000, "and three-hundred and something dollars, the kind that cost me money."

That was the only clue Levy gave to the system he used for his handicapping.

At Hialeah, his winners were Countess Jan, a 12-1 choice in the fourth race, Nettie Charlie at 7-1 in the fifth, Hi Hiccutt at 18-1 in the sixth, and the 28-1 shot Moral Suasion in the seventh.

Levy held the only winning ticket, but declined to say how many he had to buy. A partner shared last year's big Tropical Park payoff.

Golfing Greats Tee Off Today

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Weather permitting, golf greats like Sam Snead, Gene Sarazen, Jimmy Demaret and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison were to tee off today in the opening round of the $40,000 PGA Teacher Trophy tourney for senior pros.

An early morning squall washed out plans to kick off the 72-hole tournament Thursday at Fort Lauderdale Country Club.

Snead, the defending champion, is figured as the man to beat. He goes into the opener with a six-under par 68 practice round behind him.

One change in plans resulted from Thursday's postponement.

If there are any ties for first place after Monday's finale, the winner will be decided in a sudden death playoff instead of a full 18-hole round.

First prize money is $3,500.

Harness Tracks Slate 20 Races

NEW YORK (UPI) — The $50,000 final for trotters at Liberty Bell Park, Philadelphia, and the $50,000 final for pacers at Roosevelt Raceway, New York, will cap a program of 20 races at 17 member tracks to determine the Harness Tracks of America (HTA) traveling champions for 1964.

The trot final, scheduled for July 23, will be staged for the first time at a track outside greater New York and at an oval larger than one-half mile.

The Sept. 23 pacing final will mark the ninth HTA championship held at Roosevelt, which last year hosted the trotting finale.

Ocala Boots Sanford Out Of Tournament

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer

After traveling to Daytona last night the Seminole High cagers returned home with a 47 to 64 loss to Ocala in the first game of the tournament.

The Seminole boys were at a definite height disadvantage with the Ocala first five all taller than Sanford's tallest player.

Even though the Tribe lost they put up a good fight that kept the score running nearly even in the first half.

The two standouts for Ocala were Jeff Churchin with 29 points, 26 of which were made in the second half, and Tom Purvis with 19 points.

To boot, Levy says he's hit the jackpot a number of other times—14 times in all last season, 1 think, and a few times so far this season.

He recalls payoffs of $17,000, $10,000, "and three-hundred and something dollars, the kind that cost me money."

Ken Harrelson Leads Baseball Golf Tourney

MIAMI (UPI) — Kansas City Athletics first baseman Ken Harrelson, who hopes to turn pro golfer next year, held a six-stroke lead today going into the second round of the national baseball players golf championship.

The 23-year-old Harrelson, a native of Savannah, Ga., said he "putted like a demon" Thursday when he fired a two-over par 73 on the Miami Springs Country Club course.

Chicago Cubs manager Alvin Dark moved into a slim perch at second place. He said his first round should have been much better. "But I couldn't make my putts."

In the first quarter Ron Hinson was high man for Sanford with four points and Don Nicholas, Steve Groover and Frank Murray made two each. The score at the end of the first quarter was Ocala 14 and Sanford 10.

Groover led the way for the Seminole in the second frame with four points and Hinson made three. Murray and Jeff Williams made two points each and Buddy Stumpf added one. At the half the Seminole were only one point behind with the score 24 to 23.

Murray paced the Tribe with five points in the third stanza and Groover made three. Hinson and Stumpf added two each, but Ocala went into a higher lead with the score 43 to 35 at the end of the third quarter.

In the final period Hinson led again for Sanford with six points and Mike Gray made four. Nicholas added two points, but Ocala went on to win 64 to 47.

Losing their first round put the Seminole out of the tournament, but the Tribe will have better chances next year with a number of returning lettermen to boost the team.

The Iron Curtain is a tough barrier. It's not easily crossed. It runs for thousands of miles across the center of a whole continent.

On the Communist side there is little freedom.

There is less truth.

The Communist leaders in Eastern Europe don't always talk straight to the people about what's going on in the world—or even about what's happening at home. When they do talk, the talk doesn't always ring true.

And yet the truth does get through, every day. How?

The Iron Curtain isn't soundproof.

And so the truth is broadcast, through the air where it can't be stopped by walls and guards, up to 18 hours every day to millions of captive people in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary.

The truth is broadcast by Radio Free Europe.

The Communist rulers have set up a monopoly on news and information in Eastern Europe; Radio Free Europe has been set up to break this monopoly. It analyzes all information, true and false, sifts out the false, then broadcasts the news, without bias or distortion. Talking to people in their own languages, Radio Free Europe tells them what's really going on at home, behind the Iron Curtain and world-wide.

Radio Free Europe is a bridge of truth between two blocks: the captive and the free.

Most important: Radio Free Europe—because it exists and continues to exist—helps these millions hold onto the will for freedom and the drive for freedom.

Will you help get the truth through? Radio Free Europe is a private American enterprise; it depends on voluntary subscriptions.

Whatever you can contribute will mean a great deal to a good many people behind the Iron Curtain.

The Iron Curtain Isn't soundproof.

Indians Host Trackers

By David Higginbotham
Herald Sports Writer

Track season was to get underway officially at Seminole High School this afternoon at 4 p.m. when the Seminole host the Lyman and Edge-water track teams at the Buddy Lawson Memorial track.

The Seminole have a good team this year and one of the best since they have been in the Metro Conference.

According to Coach Dick Williams the team is in real good shape.

Williams said, "We have a number of boys that are now

In as good shape as they were at the end of the last season, so we'll be expecting a lot out of them. We have a number of new boys out this year for the first time, including Danny Leeds who is a senior runner the mile and Jim Wilkerson also a senior runner in the mile. Tom Forman has come to us from Washington and will be an added asset to the squad."

David Noell, George Markoe, Eddie Griffith, Sterl Weber, Rick Walstrom, Denver Vodopich and Jeff Whiting are all returning lettermen who will help the team out this year. A number of them will be doubling up on some of the events.

This is the Seminole's best chance to enter a mark for themselves for the coming season in which they hope to come out first in the Metro.

Spaniard, Italian Meet At Tennis

TAMPA (UPI) — Top-seeded Spaniard Manuel Santana, who came from behind to triumph in his second round clash, takes on Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli today in the third round of the Dixie International tennis tourney.

Santana was pressed into a corner early in his match with Billy Higgins, but came back strong to whip the Lawton (Okla.) native 3-6, 6-2, 6-2.

In women's matches, three hard-driving Dutch players moved into the third round, rallying behind Ely Kroche, who upset France's top-seeded Monique Saloff, 1-6, 6-6, 6-4.

National indoor champion Jan Erik Lundqvist of Sweden meets Spain's Jose Arilla in another men's match today.

And Californian Dennis Ralston takes on Brazilian Thomas Koch, while Ronald Barnes of Brazil plays England's Keith Woolridge.

Miss Kroche goes in against Sweden's Eva Lundquist and Hollander's Trudy Groeman and Betty Steve meet Faren Footman of San Francisco and Alvarez Campbell of Tampa, respectively.

Better Golf - Through Exercise

By Gary Player
Writer for NEA

9-Flying Motion

This exercise develops muscles of the upper back which help create a smoother, more powerfully co-ordinated swing.

1. Begin the exercise with knees bent into a half sitting position. Assume position A.

2. Raise the arms upward and outward to position B. Beginners should repeat this exercise eight to 10 times during a session.

As you advance and can do it without undue strain, increase the number of repetitions to 12 to 15.

As with all these exercises, breathing should be co-ordinated with the movements. Inhale as the weights rise and exhale as they descend back into position A.

While this exercise is far removed from any actual golf swing, I have found it most beneficial in giving me greater control throughout the swing, as well as producing greater, smoother and more powerful co-ordination.

Oviedo, Fr. Lopez Open Tourney Tonight

By Marshall Lingo
Herald Sports Writer

The Oviedo Lions face Father Lopez of Daytona Beach in the first tilt of the class B, group 8 basketball tournament tonight at Oviedo.

The tournament will continue through Saturday at which time the victor of the Father Lopez - Oviedo game faces Bunnell.

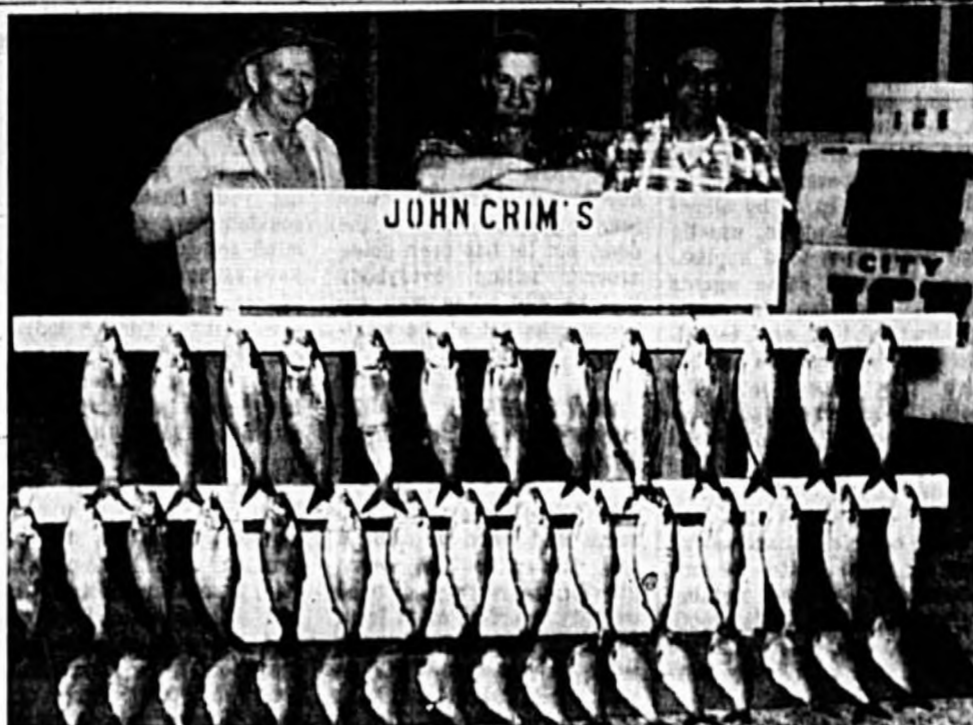

Oviedo, with a season record of 14-7 will be up against a 16-3 record chalked up by the Father Lopez five. The three losses recorded by Father Lopez came from New Smyrna Beach, who took a pair of wins from the Daytona five, and Bunnell. But Father Lopez came back to take a later decision from Bunnell.

Bunnell also has an excellent season record and judging from the record you might say that Bunnell and Father Lopez are a fairly even match. But where does Oviedo come in?

Oviedo's record is not quite as good as either of the other contenders but Oviedo's schedule was a lot tougher than that of either Bunnell or Father Lopez. Oviedo has been up against a lot of A and AA schools this year and the Lions have done quite well. Oviedo's pair of wins over Eau Gallie, and wins over Satellite Beach and Cocoa Beach are enough to prove the Lions have what it takes.

Cocoa Paul Mikler of the Lions will start Rex Brooks, Jimmy Courser, Billy Mikler, and Ted Beiborn will rotate in the fifth position.

Starting for Father Lopez will be Goldiss and Allgood at forward, Lacour at center, and Baylor and Conley will fill in the guard spots. Game time is 8 p.m. tonight and Saturday night at the Oviedo High School gymnasium.

Winning Golf Touch

When you go to sleep with a five-stroke lead like I did the night before the final round of the Tucson Open, you can think of a lot of things happening to make you lose a lead.

I'm just glad nothing happened to me. I lost only one stroke and beat Al Geiberger by four (17 under par 211).

If I had to single out a hole that I considered to be the key, it would have to be the eighth in the final round.

It is a par three, 185-yarder and I used a six-iron off the tee. I hit a bad shot that caught the trap on the left front edge guarding the green.

I was about 75 yards from the hole at that point, but luckily the ball was sitting up very well. I decided to use my putter because at this stage I was playing very conservatively. I could have left the shot too short or maybe even gone over the green.

It was a sloping trap and I had to putt up and out. Once the ball was out of the trap, the ground sloped downhill again. I didn't get off a par.

particularly good putt. It stopped about 18 feet short of the hole and I had been hoping for something better.

The putt I had to make was a left to right shot, breaking about four or five inches.

At that point, I was only three strokes ahead and in the back of my mind I was beginning to worry. Al (Geiberger) had bogeyed the hole, though, and I knew if I could make the shot, I'd pick up an important stroke.

So with that setting, I took my time and did make it.

That putt on eight gave me a cushion and I played it very conservatively from then on, just trying to make my par.

Ringo Bonavena 13-10 Favorite

NEW YORK (UPI)—The old ring axiom says: "Never bet on a fighter who'll have to score a knock out to win."

Nevertheless, unbeaten young Oscar (Ringo) Bonavena of Buena Vista is favored at 13-10 to score his ninth straight professional victory tonight at Madison Square Garden in a fight with Zora Folley of Arizona, the world's fourth-ranking heavy-weight contender.

Ringo, 22, of Argentina is not ranked among the top 10. He is an all-out slugger but not a smart boxer.

Folley, 32, is a slick boxer-puncher in his 13th year as a professional and is moreover a notorious "applier."

He is unbeaten in his latest six bouts although held to a draw last April 17 by European champion Earl Mildenberger at Frankfurt, Germany.

The Doctor Says:

Shock When Tooth Reacts

By William Lawrence, D.D.S. A pundit was overheard remarking, "Why take life seriously? You'll never come out of it alive." This philosophy is perfectly acceptable while you're in good health, or, until something comes along that takes YOU seriously, like a toothache.

One of the milder but most irritating pains is tooth sensitivity to heat and cold. This by itself embraces a large category of causes, but probably the most common cause is exposed dentine. While not downright devastating, this kind of pain can be a constant nuisance, especially if you get your pleasure from the simpler things in life, i.e., ice cream, Martinis-on-the-rocks, ice cold apples, and hot tea or coffee.

But if you are an ice cold Martinis man, don't despair; these areas can be desensitized. Desensitizing medicine, applied to exposed dentine by rubbing them in or by allowing them to soak in, usually give relief in 2 to 6 applications. Most of these agents contain fluorides in some combination but one technique involves the use of hot olive oil rubbed into the tooth. There are also specially prepared toothpastes that make brushing less painful.

Record Shop 'Every Good Boy Does Fine'

By Joan Crosby NEW YORK (NEA) — In the rapidly dimming past, children under orders from parents would learn that the letters of the word "face" were also the musical notes represented by spaces on a treble clef.

teach her own children, to turn the chore into a game. The result is known as the Carabo-Cone teaching method, which is taught from Israel to Harvard. Basically, children are given a note as their very own. On the floor, an enlarged music staff is drawn, and the youngsters are taught to find their place on the staff. Then they find their note on a piano. From there, it is an easy task to "arrange" themselves into an original composition, learning friends' "notes" and how to find them, and, eventually, reading music like a miniature Leonard Bernstein.

"We're building cultural centers all across the country," she said, "but we have to start building up cultural centers in the minds of our children, particularly among the underprivileged. "As children get older, they can identify with rock 'n' roll music, but with the greatest of the musical world. That's why I believe every child should learn to read music. If you are a Sunday painter, you begin to go to art galleries and drool over the great masters. If you study music, you will begin to attend concerts. And a child who has learned music by my method, will even recognize his note in a score and be able to say "That's me up there."

Let's see what Ira thought about during the trance. He reconstructed the exact distribution first and saw that a trump lead would allow South to make his contract even if he did not hold either the jack of diamonds or queen of clubs. Then he saw that he could beat the contract if he could find his partner with one of those two key cards and finally decided from the bidding that South would surely have the queen of clubs. He might also hold the jack of diamonds but in that case there was going to be no way to beat the hand.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. When a husband and wife find their life becoming dull, they often make the mistake of believing they're bored with each other, instead of with the sameness of their daily routine. And that's when the husband begins to put in longer hours at the office, gets involved in organizations and meetings, goes in for hobbies he can pursue alone, starts stopping off at a tavern when his day's work is done or goes off on hunting and fishing trips with men friends.

together, it is up to the wife to initiate it. She is the one who has to upset the family routine, to get some variety into their daily lives. There are many things a wife can do to break up the couple's monotonous life together. She can make new and more interesting friends and so add some interest to their social life. She can pull all sorts of tricks to change dinner from being the same drab event, night after night. Just perking up the menu with new dishes, or having guests on the spur of the moment, or trying out a new eating place now and then will add variety. A wife can look for new interests and hobbies that she and her husband can share. She can draw her husband's interest to their home by enthusiastically going ahead with plans for fixing it up. She can get him interested in HER life by making her own days as varied as possible. At the first sign of boredom, a wise wife will set the wheels in motion to add new interests to their pattern of living.

Where Music Is, He Is Polly's Pointers

DEAR POLLY—I removed the screw on the handle to my child's musical push toy so as to detach the chime part. I then tied the chime to his tricycle. Now the music tells me where he is at any time. It can be fastened back to the toy handle and serve its original purpose. When my little son recently had a cold I covered a sachet square with some of the medicated salve that helped his breathing. I stitched a piece of old nylon stocking over the sachet square and sewed it onto his Teddy bear. This is always with him. This way even when he was sleeping he was breathing easily.—PATTI

DEAR POLLY—My teenage son likes to wear either black cotton pants or blue jeans to school. They pick up cut from the hem under the hole. A larger piece of iron-on tape was then applied back of the wool and pressed on for a good-looking mend.—POLLY DEAR POLLY—When mothers take little ones shopping and ride around in the grocery carts, I suggest they tie the children's shoestrings together to make it impossible for them to stand and fall out.—MRS. T. J. D. "Child Chatter," "Painting Patter" and "Thrifty Hints" are three of the Pointer-packed chapters in Polly Cramer's 32-page booklet. Do It Yourself: Floors Needn't Sag

A sagging floor may not be readily discernible but its symptoms generally are. Unless the slope is steep you may not notice it, but you will notice that plaster cracks repeatedly, particularly around doors and windows and stairs; that windows aren't enough to make them work easily; that doors slam shut (or conversely, swing open when you want them shut); that doors stick and planing them enough to unstick them will leave them out of square.

As a house ages wooden posts may begin to rot, or simply warp or shrink. Re-modeling may have shifted weight distribution through the house so that older supports no longer do the job. New and heavy appliances may be the cause of the trouble. Sometimes faulty construction is the trouble. If the house is new this should be strongly suspected. Underneath materials, poor fastening, will begin to show when under stress. A combination jack and steel post—called a jack post—is the tool that will solve most sagging problems. A jack post is inexpensive and easy to use.

ed in your local schools may be the answer. Before you move again, make sure you have a record of work covered by each child, and books and methods used, to give the next teacher. Such information is a helpful supplement to less detailed official records. If financially possible, you might give some thought to sending your children to a boarding school during their high school years. This would provide desirable continuity in their education regardless of the moves you make. And take heart! What your youngsters lose in academic progress, they may gain in learning to adjust to new situations and challenges. This, too, is education.

Moving Brings Problems School and You

By Susan Light DEAR MRS. LIGHT: Because of the nature of his position, my husband is transferred frequently. We have two children in school and a pre-schooler. Our first grader, who was still in reading readiness when we moved, has now found himself with children who were finishing their third pre-primer. Even with the teacher's and my help, he has never entirely caught up and may not be promoted.

of uniformity in school systems across the country. The resulting chaos may not be eliminated until the states get together and create a nationwide educational policy. In concluding his latest book, "Shaping Educational Policy" (McGraw-Hill, $1.95 in paperback), Dr. James B. Conant, former president of Harvard, urges "all citizens concerned with education to make their voices heard at the state capitals." "To the end that more order be introduced into the present national picture," he appeals "to members of state legislatures and of the Congress to examine the need for some sort of interstate cooperation."

Please send your school problems to Susan Light in care of The Sanford Herald. While she cannot each letter personally, letters of general interest will be answered in this column.

Males Spank Sloppy Teens

But don't bring this fact out so vividly right in front of us."

3 Teams Look To Tourney Bid

By Fred McName UPI Sports Writer It's never too late to make a favorable impression—at least that's what three tournament hopeful college basketball teams believe. The teams are LaSalle, New York University and Duquesne and all three are seeking berths in the upcoming National Invitational Tournament in New York. The tournament selection committee began its work Wednesday of choosing representatives from different sections of the country.

Entertainment for Everyone in the Sanford Area

'Tom Jones' At Drive-In

The Academy Award winner, "Tom Jones," rated as the best picture, having the best director, best screenplay and best music score, will open at the Movieland Drive-In Theater for a three-night run starting Sunday.

The adult entertainment will feature Albert Finney in the starring role. Critics have claimed the film "brilliant entertainment" and one which leaves an audience "stunned with joy."

Featured with the Academy Award movie will be "Happy Anniversary" with David Niven in the leading role.

Wednesday will find a double feature on the program at the Drive-In "The Devil at 4 O'clock" is in color and stars Frank Sinatra and Spencer Tracy. Robert Wagner is featured in "Sail a Crooked Ship" which is also in color.

The world's top teenage recording favorites will be seen in part of a triple feature slated for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"The T.A.M.I. Show" has 12 such teenage artists. The initials stand for Teenage Awards Musical International.

Also sharing the screen will be a color film, "The Time Travelers" starring Preston Foster and "I'd Rather Be Rich." This film has Sandra Dee, Robert Goulet and Andy Williams sharing the spotlight as stars.

SUSANNAH YORK brings comfort to Albert Finney, after he, as "Tom Jones," gets into one of his many scrapes. Scene is from the United Artists-Lopert release. Filmed in Eastmancolor, the picture will open Sunday at the Movieland Drive-In Theatre.

"OPERATOR, OPERATOR. I've been disconnected!" Jerry Lewis plays an orderly who manages to get into some of the funniest situations imaginable in "The Disorderly Orderly," his new Technicolor comedy for Paramount which opens Sunday at the Ritz Theatre.

Weekend Time To Wine And Dine

By Dottie Austin
THERE'S CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION at the Capri Restaurant and Cocktail Lounge this weekend, after winning their fight to remain open until 2 a.m.

Joy reigns and Dom goes around smiling. To make the customers smile, too, he has booked in for this weekend one of the cutest little songstresses you every saw — Miss Lois Morris.

This enchanting chick is a treat for the ears as well as the eyes and you must not miss hearing her Friday and Saturday. Also, in the bar is a new treat "Burt at the Piano" — tinkling tuneful melodies. Remember the happy hour from 4:30 to 7 p.m. at the Capri.

PINECREST INN believes in never letting a customer go away hungry and in addition to their generous all-you-can-eat fish fry on Friday night is now offering the same thing with a chicken dinner.

On Monday nights, it will be all-you-can-eat of fried chicken, done to a crisp, crunchy turn as only they can fix it, along with hot biscuits and honey and all the trimmings. Try it and you'll be back for more. Remember the PINECREST INN is open all night every night except Sunday.

HUNGRY FOR SOME real old-fashioned pit barbecue? Then listen to this and we'll tell you where to find it. Go out Seminole Boulevard, along the shoreline of Lake Monroe and watch for the sign, "LAKE MONROE INN." Turn in and there you are. Another of the specialties of the house is their delicious sirloin for two... one big mouth-watering sirloin steak, served on a sizzling platter for you and your best girl. Hanging to the music of Jack Rossman's KINGSMEN live but never any cover or minimum.

weekend for the finest in seafood, steak and many other culinary delights. To add to your dining pleasure there are tuneful melodies on the piano nightly in the Lamplighter Lounge, where you will also find your favorite beverages.

JERRY LEWIS in "THE DISORDERLY ORDERLY"
NOTE: THIS PICTURE HAS MADE HISTORY BY BEING THE CO-OPERATION OF THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION!

Ritz Hit
Jerry Lewis has come up with another top comedy film following his recent box office success, "The Patsy." Jerry's newest wild and whacky fun-film "The Disorderly Orderly" which opens Sunday at the Ritz Theater.
This latest Lewis film, his thirty first, is anticipated to continue the unbroken chain of comedy hits which have made him the king of screen comedians. Jerry's every screen appearance (not to mention his many personal appearances) is greeted by devout film followers throughout the world. As usual, the idol of cinematic buffoonery is surrounded with a stellar cast of performers which include Susan Oliver, Glenda Farrell, Everett Sloane, Karen Sharpe plus important cameo roles by Jack P. Leonard and Barbara Nichols.
"The Disorderly Orderly," with its hospital background, affords Lewis the opportunity to run riot through its corridors, upsetting decorum and routine, climaxing with a wild ambulance chase, and the havoc wrought when an elaborate market display crashes down.

Stars United In Cinema Hit
Two of Hollywood's finest stars have been reunited in film roles for the first time in 20 years.
They are Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck and the re-teaming is in "The Night Walker," now showing at the Cinema Theater at Seminole Plaza.

French Cider
LONDON (UPI) — A factory in Somerset, the heart of England's cider apple country, has ordered 160,000 gallons of cider from France to help meet local demands.

Highlights

TV Time Previews

8-9 p.m. ABC "Inger Stevens In Sweden" Don't expect to see much of Sweden, though you will get the feeling of the country through talks with its people.

9:30-10 p.m. ABC FDR "The Stricken Land" This episode delves into the critical problems facing the American farmer during the early days of Roosevelt's administration.

10-11 p.m. CBS Slattery's People "Question: Is Democracy Too Expensive?" Meet an unusual man with an amazing gift for exciting crowds.

7:30-8:30 p.m. CBS Rawhide "Incident At Dragoon Crossing" (rerun) This episode is distinguished by the presence of Dan O'Herilly who plays a trail boss suspected of being a member of a gang of outlaws.

7:30-8:30 p.m. NBC Bell System Science Series Special "The Restless Sea" (Rerun) This show offers a cursory but fascinating introduction to the complicated science of oceanography.

8:30-9:30 p.m. CBS On Broadway Tonight The gleam and the fumble are considerably aided by the guest appearance of one-time boy-next-door Van Johnson who hosts-off part of the night-club act which has won him loads of approval away from films and TV.

9:30-10 p.m. NBC Jack Benny Program "A Tasty Day In Palm Springs" Jack's mugging and reactions carry the show which is more plotted situation comedy than usual.

Christian Dior Designer Spotlights Spring Capes

PARIS (UPI) — Yves St. Laurent, erstwhile boy wonder designer at the Christian Dior fashion house, spotlighted capes of all lengths, for day and evening wear, and straight skirts reaching to the middle of the knee in his collection for this year revealed to the press today.

St. Laurent, Hubert Givenchy and Christian Balenciaga were the only top Paris fashion designers who barred journalists when they unveiled their 1965 spring fashions to buyers here three weeks ago.

Givenchy was scheduled to let the press see his creations Thursday afternoon. Balenciaga was showing to the press on Friday.

They were worn over simple dresses or ensembles consisting of trim silk blouses and straight skirts. A few of the skirts were pleated.

The hit of today's showings was a three quarters length cape in beige, orange and green tweed which terminated in a fringe.

St. Laurent's coats gave their wearers a 20th century slimness, tightly buttoned to the neck with low martingale or a thin belt at the hip — all making for a trim silhouette without overly hugging the body.

St. Laurent let his sense of the exotic carry him away in creating his cocktail and evening dresses, with heavily embroidered sheaths topped by turbans and tunics with a touch of Dali.

St. Laurent chose primarily hard textured materials and severe colors, with heavy emphasis on black and white or other flat colors with white.

Ixora Gardeners Workshop Led By Mrs. Frank Donahoe

The February meeting of the Ixora Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. C. Hutchison Jr. with Mrs. Robert T. Bessinger assisting the hostess.

The Horticulture Report was given by Mrs. Fred Ganas who discussed the importance of proper cutting back of freeze damage. Mrs. Ganas also talked about the routine garden chores of February.

Mrs. Charles Persons gave the Junior Gardening Report and described the Ugly Wuggles which the school children have been making from pine cones and other natural materials.

Mrs. John F. Bolt reported on the plans for Civic Beautification and it was announced that a Certificate of Federation for Ixora had been received from the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs.

The club approved a contribution to District Seven which will be used to honor a prominent District and State member of the Federation.

Members were pleased to have Mrs. Frank Donahoe as a guest. She demonstrated vertical and triangle line arrangements and the mechanics used in their creation and construction. Stressing the importance of keeping the material inside the outer edge of the container Mrs. Donahoe made a lovely vertical arrangement using snapdragons and carnations in varying shades of pink. Symmetrical and asymmetrical triangle arrangements were also demonstrated using a wide variety of material including succulents.

A workshop followed the demonstration and Mrs. Donahoe assisted the members with their own creations. It was a stimulating and exciting experience for the members who went home with a very real sense of accomplishment.

MOTHERS MILK NEW YORK (UPI) — Mother's milk as a food for newborn infants may have immunological properties heretofore unproven, suggests Dr. Clement A. Smith, of Harvard Medical School.

In recent years, antibodies from the mother were thought to be transmitted to the infant only through the placenta. Therefore, mother's milk was held to have no over-riding advantage in this regard.

New research, however, has proved the existence of polio antibodies in human milk, said Smith.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. L. Beck and Mrs. Person Little, assisted by Mrs. Harry F. Brown, Mrs. James Duffy.

Greeters were Mrs. C. Durysa and Mrs. W. A. Blackwood.

Sorority To Serve Concert Patrons

Glamour will be another extra added bonus next Tuesday evening at the Civic Center in conjunction with the Florida Symphony Orchestra under the capable direction of Henry Maser.

The Board members of Gamma Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha will serve refreshments, according to president Kathy Tooke. The group recently called a special meeting at Kathy's lovely Satsuma Drive home to "dream up" ideas for something really elaborate to complement the elegance the concert promises. The Epsilon Sigma Alpha Chapter is renowned for higher type promotions on a large scale, so an event of this nature is synonymous with the culture and ideals this group represents. Mutual Concert Association members will definitely go metropolitan Tuesday night with the combination glamorous gals serving refreshments, colorful art exhibits by talented concert series members and the predominant potpourri of lyrics and music from smashing Broadway shows featured at the "pops concert," "Curtain Going Up." Sorority board members making appointments with their hairdressers and debating on just the "right" dress to wear as they serve the concert patrons are Kathy Tooke, Shirley Higgins, Kathy Bukur, June Brodie, Claire Fith, Hope Schirard and Ginger Moran.

Rose Circle Hosts Judges Brunch

One of the more exciting aspects of a flower show, such as the forthcoming "Tribute to the Twenties," to be presented by the Garden Club of Sanford on March 5 and 6, is the placing of awards following the judging of all exhibits.

MRS. G. RUSSELL PEARSON, left, chairman of the judges for the annual Spring Flower Show, and Mrs. Frank L. Woodruff III, are finalizing plans for the Flower Show judges brunch, which will be held at the Pearson Mayfair home with the members of the Rose Circle serving as hostesses.

When judging begins, the building is cleared of all exhibitors with no one remaining except officials, judges and clerks, so the actual procedure of determining award-winning designs and plants is unknown to many. It is the responsibility of a group of nationally accredited amateur judges to consider each exhibit individually, comparing it to a known standard of perfection in order to arrive at a judgment of its worth. This value is recognized by a standard system of awarding ribbons: blue, first place; red, second; yellow, third; white, honorable mention.

Frequently this consideration is complicated by the seemingly equal worth of entries within one artistic design class or in a sub-class of horticulture. The panel of judges, usually a group of three, then resorts to a scale of points covering a number of aspects with point values totaling 100. Each entry in the class is then scored item by item with deductions where necessary for faults, oversights or specific marks. In this way, a decision can be reached with ribbons being awarded according to the number of points scored.

It is not unheard of for all entries in one class to be of blue ribbon caliber, that is, scoring a total of 90 points or more. However, under the standard system of awards as adopted by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, only one first, second and third award can be given in each class and it can happen, if four designs or plants score 96, 95, 93 and 90 respectively, that the one with 90 points will receive honorable mention.

The use of this system also explains why there are occasions when no blue ribbon is awarded in the class—none of the entries was worthy enough to score the needed 90 points. If the score is 85 to 90, a red ribbon is given. Yellow ribbons indicate a point score of from 75 to 85. Judging of "Tribute to the Twenties" will be done by amateur judges invited to Sanford from throughout the state. Divided into groups of three, each panel will be accompanied by assistants (clerks) from the local club who carry ribbons, keep records and act as messengers. From two to three hours will be required by the judges for their full consideration of a show. Judges never accept remuneration for their work. The custom of the Garden Club of Sanford is to entertain the judges at a brunch served before judging commences. Last year Camella Circle was hostess for the brunch at the home of Mrs. W. C. Hutchison Jr., while this year, Rose Circle will entertain at the home of Mrs. G. Russell Pearson who is chairman of judges.

A final responsibility of the judges is the determination by ballot of the top awards made to blue ribbon winning artistic designs and horticultural specimens which have attained a score of 95 points or more. Criteria for these awards are detailed and for simplification it may be said that, in Artistic Design, one Tricolor may be given to the best design of all or predominantly all fresh materials and one Award of Distinction to the best design of materials primarily other than fresh. The comparable award in horticulture is an Award of Merit to the highest scoring plant or specimen in each or any of the sections. The judges may also make a Junior Achievement Award to the outstanding artistic or education at exhibiting in the Junior Gardening Division, if it is merited. Any or all of these awards may be withheld by the judges.

The ribbons which the public and exhibitors will see when the show opens at 3 p.m. March 5, will not have just happened. Their placement will have been the result of long and frequently difficult deliberation by eminently unqualified people concerned with upholding standards of excellence in growing and arranging.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of Robbinsdale, Minn. were week-end guests of the Robert E. Haney family on Hartley Avenue. Mr. Stan Fisher, who is Mr. Haney's cousin, will retire from the Clover Leaf Creamery of Minnesota in July. We won't be a bit surprised to see the Fishers back in Deltona to enjoy that retirement with us.

MISS INEZ WHEELER WESTGATE

Miss Westgate Betrothed To Lt. Henry P. Rogerson

Dr. and Mrs. Philip J. Westgate, of Sanford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Inez Wheeler, to Lt. (j.g.) Henry Porter Rogerson, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rogerson, of Milton, Mass.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Edgewater High School in Orlando and of Radcliffe College in Cambridge, Mass. She received a graduate degree from the University of Illinois and is presently a mathematics consultant with the Philadelphia Quaker schools. Lt. Rogerson is a graduate of Milton Academy and of Harvard college in 1961. He is presently stationed at New London, Conn.

Miss Westgate is the maternal granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tuman of Chicago, Ill., and her fiance is the maternal grandson of Mrs. Charles H. Porter, Tamworth, N. H.

A summer wedding is planned with complete details announced at a later date.

IVY CIRCLE

Mrs. James L. Temple was hostess to the regular meeting of the Ivy Circle of the Sanford Garden Club with Mrs. Patrick Donahoe serving as co-hostess.

New officers installed at the meeting were Mrs. Robert L. Johnson, president; Mrs. Bobby Conroy, vice president; Mrs. Donna Parker, secretary.

Fashionettes

Numerous are the textured materials used in the spring shoe fashions. They include lacquered patent, surface-decorated calf, lizard, snake and deeply grained alligator. Reptile, real or fake, is a favorite for the new sandals, reports the National Shoe Institute.

Stoles steal back onto the scene for spring. Designers show them in a variety of shapes, rectangular, square, triangular—sometimes of the same fabric as dress or suit, sometimes contrasting. They're an exciting wear favorite to cover up otherwise bare shoulders.

The WASPS Enjoy Gardens Luncheon Meet

The WASPS (Wives of Aircraft Support Personnel of Sanford) met on February 25 for their regular monthly meeting at Creighton's Garden Restaurant in Winter Park. The setting provided a perfect atmosphere for the luncheon which was hosted by Mrs. Kathy Mantel and Mrs. Isabel Goshorn.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Hughes, vice president of the wives club, presided over the business meeting which was held immediately following the luncheon. Lucky winner of the door prize was Mrs. Lou Gellner, who was presented with a silver serving dish in a graceful shell design.

In addition to hosting the group, Mrs. Kathy Mantel had as her special guest, Mrs. Livia Sherman, who was introduced to the wives by Mrs. Hughes. WASPS attending the luncheon were Mrs. Judy Davins, Mrs. Dorothy Wade, Mrs. Donna Wells, Mrs. Molly Mahlman, Mrs. Pat Scott, Mrs. Pam Grant, Mrs. Lou Gellner, Mrs. Louise Padden, Mrs. Rita Murphy, Mrs. Margaret Harden, Mrs. Audrey Holloman, Mrs. Carolyn Conroy, Mrs. Lenore Thiel, Mrs. Mantel, Mrs. Goshorn and Mrs. Hughes.

Funds Withheld From FICUS Pending Probe

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Institute for Continuing University Studies is going to have to do without state funds until completion of an investigation which apparently is showing the agency's operations aren't what the Legislature ordered.

Gov. Haydon Burns told a news conference some of the things turned up so far by the investigators.

He said funds were being withheld from FICUS, with headquarters in St. Petersburg, pending outcome of the investigation.

FICUS director Myron Ble, who was one of the hosts today for the Florida visit of Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, was not immediately available to comment on the investigation.

Burns said that although the 1963 Legislature set a maximum of 75 employees for the agency, which was created to co-ordinate off-campus college-level studies, "there are over 200 jobs involved in the investigation."

He did not say whether these were administrative jobs.

He said the agency apparently had used funds appropriated for paying professors to teach off-campus classes instead to hire switchboard operators, statisticians and clerks.

At the same time, the governor said, salary funds for administrative personnel apparently have been used to pay professors.

Burns accused the agency of having "complete disregard" for administrative personnel maximums set by the Legislature.

Local Church Has Soloist

Guest soloist at First Southern Methodist Church of Sanford for evening services the past two weeks has been Richard Holtzclaw. His selection last week was "God Bless America" which was chosen to emphasize the sermon theme, "Our Basic Freedoms," presented by Rev. Durward H. Knight.

The Board of Stewards held its regular monthly meeting Sunday evening with J. L. Sauls, chairman, presiding.

Electronics School Here, Foy Relates

A shortage of electronics workers is being felt in this area and local educators and employment officials are doing something about it.

Joseph M. Foy, manager of the Florida State Employment Service, told Sanford-Seminole Jaycees Thursday noon an electronics assemblers school is in operation in the city and has 16 students.

The school started last Monday and will continue indefinitely, Foy said at the Civic Center.

He also told of activities at the auto mechanics school which is training men who have no specialized field of work.

Each school is aimed at bringing the quality of available help in the area to a higher level.

Foy also noted that there is a surplus of unskilled workers and retired persons in the district he serves.

Unemployment during the past month has declined to 400 persons, he said, while the previous low was 500, a figure which had held steady for some time.

The speaker told of the employment scene change in recent years. Previously, citrus and agriculture had dominated the picture but now industry is leading the field. Foy reviewed the task he and his staff of six sides perform for the jobless in an area that covers all of Seminole and Volusia Counties and a portion of Orange County in the Zell wood area.

Threatened Loss Of Citrus Workers Protested

The threatened loss of 1,500 off-shore workers from Florida's citrus industry on March 1 was strongly protested today by John W. Evans, Oviedo, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, which supplies this labor to the various segments of the agricultural industry.

FFVA has told the Florida Industrial Commission that any reduction in the citrus labor supply is "utterly unthinkable" in view of the fact that the orange crop remaining to be harvested is a third larger than a year ago and more than 50 per cent grapefruit remain on the trees than at this time last season. "We have not received any reply from our appeal," he said, "and under the circumstances we cannot plan to take any action until we hear from the responsible authorities."

"Our organization is responsible for recruiting and assigning these off-shore workers in the citrus and vegetable industries and in part of the sugar cane industry. We have an obligation to see that our members' interests are not jeopardized by any arbitrary or unrealistic action by the Department of Labor."

"We have tried to do this through constructive negotiations with the responsible authorities."

Legion Meetings Are Postponed

By Jane Casselberry

The program will be in celebration of the birthday of American Legion. Winners of the Americanism Essay Contest, sponsored by the Auxiliary Unit at South Seminole Junior High School, will be present to read their essays.

This meeting will be open to the public.

vised him of severe economic losses. I do not see how he can evaluate our situation objectively unless he is willing to look the facts right in the face, however embarrassing that might now be to him personally.

"His lack of real interest in our situation seems indicated by the fact that he came to Florida to meet with union people at Miami Beach but apparently did not bother to personally visit the areas where he could see our problem for himself."

"Mr. Wirtz continues to try to meet our labor demands through interstate recruitment, and we are thankful for all the help we can get. However, we are forced to judge

Early and mid-season control with Phosdrin hits insects hard, cleans them up fast.

Close-to-harvest insect control with Phosdrin gives you an unbeatable way to insure crop quality.

Now, Phosdrin is an all-season insecticide —vegetable growers are using its hard-hitting control and fast disappearance in every spray.

The special effectiveness that has always made Phosdrin[®] Insecticide profitable for late-season use is now protecting vegetables throughout their growth. Here's why:

The 5- to 7-day spray schedules authorities now recommend have changed the role of Phosdrin. With its rapid speed of kill and near-perfect insect control, Phosdrin is extremely effective in the new short-interval spray schedules.

Also important in the new programs: Phosdrin is competitive on a cost per acre basis and its fast disappearance eliminates problems.

Insects and residues both vanish

A Phosdrin spray cleans up a broad spectrum of insects in a matter of minutes—aphids, mites, loopers, worms, almost all destructive pests attacking vegetables. Because control is so thorough, insects can't build to damaging levels between sprays. And, of course, accidental drift to a nearby field also disappears rapidly.

Phosdrin makes it easy to avoid problems—all season and close to harvest. It's gone from the field a few hours after application.

Complete control is economical

Phosdrin alone, protects lettuce, tomatoes, beans, peppers, celery, watermelons, eggplant and many other vegetables. There's no need to add another insecticide and raise costs... even if resistant insects are present. Phosdrin stops them too. And it offers a wide margin of safety to leaves and fruit of insecticide-sensitive crops like cucumbers and lettuce.

A little Phosdrin goes a long way. As little as 1/4 pound per acre is all it takes to end the damage of most vegetable insects. Dosage rates seldom exceed 1/2 pound per acre. Check into costs and consider the overall protection Phosdrin gives you and your crop, and you'll see why it pays to use Phosdrin all season.

Phosdrin is available from your local insecticide dealer under many well-known brand names, or as a product of Shell. In liquid or dust.

New United State Bank Opens Saturday

Personal Service Is Motto

"Personal service to each customer" is the motto of the United State Bank of Seminole, opening Saturday in the Sanford Plaza shopping center on South Hwy. 17-92.

An experienced staff stands ready to serve every banking need of their customers with the utmost in "personal service" to make financial business as convenient and efficient as possible.

From the office of the chairman of the board, T. E. Tucker, to the drive-in teller, the staff of the bank is ready to extend courteous and individualized service.

"This new bank will continue the progressive banking policies which have become the trade mark of the McNulty Group of Banks throughout Central Florida," said Tucker, who is chairman of the executive committee of the 10-member bank.

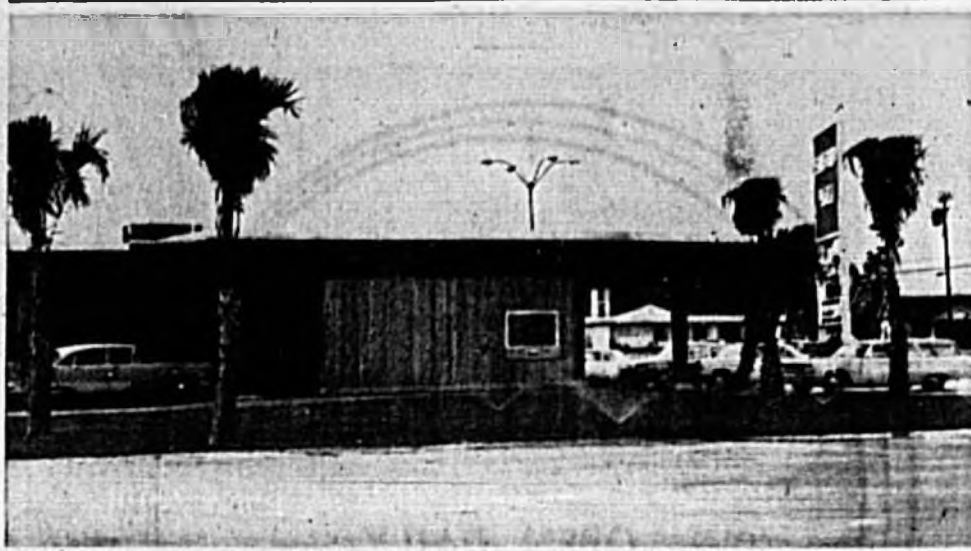

President of the United State Bank of Seminole, Loring Burgess, said that "a bank exists to serve its customers and personal service is our motto."

Executive vice president John Mercer declared, "This bank is dedicated to the proposition that the bank exists for the good of the community and will strive to prove the old adage, 'the customer is always right!'"

"We have a friendly bank and want to prove to everyone in South Sanford and Seminole County that we want their business."

"In addition, we are dedicated further to principles of Christian business practices," Mercer concluded.

Other members of the staff who echoed the sentiments of the officers included Mrs. Mary Douglas, assistant vice president and cashier; Mrs. Dorothy Raines, loan teller; Mrs. Joan Ludwig, secretary; Mrs. Colleen Sandlin, bookkeeper; Mrs. Carolyn Lane, lobby teller, and Mrs. Vivian Coleman, drive-in teller.

MRS. MARY Douglas, assistant vice president and cashier of the United State Bank of Seminole, started with the Florida State Bank in 1942.

MRS. CAROLYN Lane, who will be lobby teller in the United State Bank of Seminole was graduated from Seminole High School and joined the staff of the Florida State Bank in 1958.

MRS. JOAN LUDWIG, secretary at the United State Bank of Seminole is a Sanford native who has nearly 10 years experience in banking.

MRS. COLLEEN Sandlin was formerly employed with the Bank of Wilmington, N. C., as a bookkeeper and a teller. She will head the bookkeeping department of the new United State Bank of Seminole.

MRS. DOROTHY Raines was employed at the Florida State Bank for 14 years in the commercial loan department. She is a Sanford native and will serve as loan teller at the new United State Bank of Seminole.

MRS. VIVIAN Coleman, wife of a retired Navy man has lived in Lake Mary since 1956. She worked for the McNulty Banks as a customer relations clerk and will be the drive-in teller at the new United State Bank of Seminole.

Full Services In Banking Are Available

Full banking services will be available at Seminole County's newest financial institution, the United State Bank of Seminole which officially opens Saturday at 10 a. m.

In addition to all regular lobby services, which are open daily from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. the bank features two drive-in tellers, also open all day for fast, never-leave-your-car service.

There are 120 new safe deposit boxes in the vault and regular night depository facilities.

Heading the loan department will be executive vice president John Mercer, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Raines as loan teller.

Checking accounts, savings accounts and budget check plan services are all a part of the bank's services for customers.

Motto of the new bank, which sums up the message of its officers in a few brief words, is—"If you have money, we want it. If you need money—we have it."

All banking service is geared around this slogan, "US Bank—Bank with US."

All deposits are insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. It is also a member of the American Bankers Association and the Florida Bankers Association.

Watchman Kills Young Burglar

JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—A night watchman shot and killed one man, wounded another and captured a third during an attempted burglary of a trucking firm here Wednesday night.

Killed was Winston Blake, 19, of Jacksonville. Police said he was shot in the head as he and two companions broke into a truck at the Jacksonville terminal of the Tamiami Truck Lines.

Blake was apparently hit by the bullet when he stopped to help a second man, Elmore Johnson, 17, who had been shot in the chest by watchman E. R. Dayo.

Johnson was being held in a hospital, police said and a third man, identified as Truella Yace Hilton, 20, was in custody.

John Mercer Began Bank Career In '62

John Y. Mercer, executive vice president of the United State Bank of Seminole, began his present career when he was employed by the First State Bank of Fort Meade as personal loan officer in July, 1962.

Prior to that time he was an educator, teaching science and math and then moving on to the job of principal at Bartow Junior High School and later at Bartow Elementary School. Following a seven-year stint there he was moved up to supervising principal of Fort Meade High School.

Mercer is a graduate of Centre College in Danville, Ky., was a GE Science Fellow at the Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, Ohio, and gained his MA degree from Western Kentucky State College in 1949. He served with the U. S. Army during World War II, including 18 months with the 104th Infantry Division and the Ninth Air Corps in Europe.

In 1963 he became assistant vice president of the State Bank of Haines City, in charge of personnel, business development and public relations.

In September, 1964, Mercer was named vice president of the new United State Bank of Seminole and moved to Seminole County.

Active and interested in civic affairs, Mercer has held the leadership of several Rotary Clubs, is past president of several organizations, including Bartow and Ft. Meade Rotary Clubs, Polk County Education Association, Fort Meade Quarterback Club, Fort Meade Chamber of Commerce, and has served on the board of directors of several organizations, including Bartow Memorial Hospital.

Among other honors, Mercer was named an honorary member of the Bartow and Fort Meade Future Farmers of America and also given an honorary State Farm degree for Florida in 1960.

He is a member of the Baptist Church, a former Sunday School teacher and superintendent.

Mercer is married to the former Juanita Church, of Bowling Green, Ky., and they have three children. His hobbies include golf, bridge-playing and woodworking.

Guests At Bank To Receive Gifts

A color television set will be given away to some lucky person at the opening of the new United State Bank of Seminole Saturday.

In addition, many persons will receive free safe deposit boxes as gifts of the bank, to commemorate its opening.

All guests who call at the new financial institution Saturday will receive a living potted plant and children will be delighted with gifts of colored pencils, tops and little American flags—all gifts decorated in the bank's Americana color scheme of red, white and blue. It is not necessary for the holder of the lucky tickets to be present to win any of the exciting prizes being given away—there is nothing to buy and plenty of free parking for guests.

Modern Alarm Installed At Bank

Prospective burglars who might be eyeing the new United State Bank of Seminole may as well move on to greener pastures.

The new bank is fully protected, 24 hours a day by an electronic burglar alarm which is connected directly to the Sanford police station.

"The system is arranged to give instantaneous warning should any attempt be made to rob the bank day or night," John Mercer, executive vice president, pointed out.

Despite the wide-open, friendly, welcoming look of the new bank, it's delicately arranged, trigger-fast, warning system will brook no trespassing.

Real and prospective customers and visitors are cordially invited however, to make use of its spanking new facilities and a warm welcome will be waiting for them.

Unwanted visitors will find a "warm" welcome, too—one that is "too hot to handle."

Cardinal College At All-Time High

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—In a ceremony that swept aside some of the ancient tradition of the Roman Catholic Church, Pope Paul VI today conferred red hats on 26 new cardinals in the magnificence of St. Peter's Basilica.

The pontiff broke centuries of precedent by celebrating Mass with the new cardinals at the flower-bedecked altar, a rite in which he referred to the princeps of the church as "brothers."

The Pope's statement referred to the increased importance he has attached to the College of Cardinals, now the largest in church history with 103 members from 41 nations.

A total of 27 prelates was elevated to the college, including Archbishop Lawrence J. Shehan, of Baltimore, Md., but Archbishop Angelo Herrera y Oria did not come to the Vatican. The Spanish prelate received his red hat in Madrid.

Bank's Decor Is 'Americana'

Interior of the new United State Bank of Seminole is in keeping with the bank's patriotic name and features a smart red, white and blue color scheme with a background of Knotty Western red cedar paneling to give the building added beauty and warmth.

Draperies in red, white and blue print at the floor to ceiling windows depict the signing of the Declaration of Independence and picture John Hancock and other Revolutionary figures in the design.

Brass eagles trim the red upholstered cornice boards and the captain's chairs are upholstered in Flag Red leather.

Off-white coverings are featured on the officer's swivel chairs and red doors throughout the building adding their bright note to the scheme.

The entire interior floor is covered with a Federal blue carpet covering the lobby and office floors from wall to wall and even the innermost recesses of the vault.

Old, New Features In Bank Building

John Burton IV Architect For United State

The new United State Bank was designed by John A. Burton IV, local architect, to combine all the best of the old and the new—ultra modern styling contrasted, but complemented, by early American decor.

Translating these architectural designs into wood and concrete was the building firm of Howard and Spencer, Inc.

The structure of the new bank combines an air of spaciousness, light, and openness, with a feeling of warmth and graciousness. It is large enough to be efficient and roomy, but small enough to be homey and friendly.

The roof of the building is supported by six pre-fabricated laminated beams with roof and decking of a rich Western red cedar—live tongue groove thickness. On top, it is insulated and built up with gravel topping, ever-so-lightly arched for good drainage.

Both interior and exterior walls are of the red cedar, carefully designed so that the current floor space of 2,200 square feet can be nearly doubled by moving the walls out to the edge of the 13 foot roof extension line, when expansion is indicated.

Floor to ceiling windows, made of tinted solar glass give a spacious, grandiose feeling and the Carrier air-conditioner on the roof provides all-weather comfort.

Besides the spacious main lobby, the building contains a small lounge for cozy coffee breaks, a tiny, but efficient kitchenette and dining table.

The bookkeeping department contains all the latest and most modern IBM equipment and banking machinery, check photographing machines and other necessary banking equipment.

Soft and pleasurable melodies by "Musak" lull the hurried, busy customer and provide pleasant working conditions for the staff.

Robert M. Howard, president, Owen H. Howard, vice president, and John Spencer, secretary-treasurer, of the Howard and Spencer building firm combine 40 years of experience in the construction business all over Central Florida.

Much of their experience has been in institutional construction and in the local area, they built the additions to the Lake Mary School, Croona Academy and Oviedo school.

"I found this firm excellent to deal with, and unusually fine—it was a pleasure to work with them," said John Mercer, executive vice president of the new bank.

Other firms which had a hand in bringing Burton's architectural plans into reality include Randall Electric, who did the wiring and air-conditioning; Campbell Cabins; Wilkins Paving Company; Russ Daniels crane service; E. C. Goldman, Inc., who did the roofing and sheet metal work.

Painting was done by Harry Beckham; landscaping by Mrs. "Boo" Ganas; lumber and doors came from Fuller Lumber Company; fill and top soil was supplied by DeWitt Hunter and hardware by Dunn Brothers.

Flambeau Interiors did the inside decorating work.

Jack Ruby Wins New Hearing

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Jack Ruby appeared today to be headed for another round of courtroom drama — this time to determine whether he has become insane since he fired the fatal shot into Lee Harvey Oswald's abdomen 15 months ago.

The probability of Ruby appearing once again before Dist. Judge Joe E. Brown popped up when the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals decided not to review Ruby's conviction until the condemned killer's current sanity is judged.

T. E. TUCKER, chairman of the executive committee of the McNulty Group of Banks will be chairman of the board of the new United State Bank of Seminole.

Impressive List On Board Of Directors

An impressive list of Sanford's most prominent citizens make up the board of directors of the new United State Bank of Seminole.

Chairman of the board is T. E. Tucker, with Loring Burgess as president and John Y. Mercer as vice president. Assistant vice president is Mrs. Mary Douglas, who will also serve as cashier.

The board of directors includes J. D. Wright Jr., chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, an official of the Patrick Fruit Company and prominent grower.

Mack N. Cleveland Jr., local attorney and state senator also is a member of the board as is Harold H. Kastner, president of H. H. Kastner Company, fruit and vegetable broker.

Rear Adm. Robert W. Jackson (USN retired) is a director of the new bank, along with Thomas S. McDonald, vice president and manager of the Abstract Corporation, and Charles Robinson, manager of the J. C. Penney Company.

"The new bank is a member of the McNulty Group of Banks of Florida, but is not an affiliate of the Florida State Bank," Mercer explained.

"In fact, we are in direct and open competition with the other banks," he noted.

Landscaping Completes Bank Theme

"An oasis in an asphalt desert" might well describe the landscaping that surrounds the new United State Bank of Seminole in the Sanford Plaza, which opens Saturday at 10 a.m.

Designed and planted by Mrs. Dorothy Ganas, the exterior decorations carry out the bank's patriotic theme of red, white and blue, with the most modern styling of living plants, shrubs and trees.

Geometrical designs, in keeping with the ultra-modernist exterior of the building, feature decorative rock and gravel, interspersed with a luxurious ground cover of low-growing plants.

Accent plants—colorful red holly and bottle brush—were carefully chosen to accent the over-all theme.

Tropical palms, leaning on carefully planned angles, lush juniper bushes and other hardy, cold-resistant shrubs complete the oasis picture.

Re-election Seen For Steel Union

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — A new election under federal government control to decide the contest for the presidency of United Steelworkers' union was rated a strong possibility today by informed labor sources.

Extension of the present May 1 strike deadline — as recommended by AFL-CIO President George Meany — was considered in union circles to be a logical step if steel companies agreed to make any new agreement retroactive.

VAULT DOOR at the new United State Bank of Seminole has an interesting history. The door came from the former Bartow Bank building, which now serves as an office building for the Polk County Board of County Commissioners. When the bank moved to a new location and commissioners moved in, the vault doors were removed and this one now takes its place in the local bank. (Herald Photo)

'Open House' All Day

The United State Bank of Seminole will be the first bank in the county to keep "open house" all day—from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday.

KKK Wizard Admits Goo!

ATLANTA (UPI) — A Negro in the Ku Klux Klan? James R. Venable, veteran klanman and Imperial wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, admitted he mailed a membership card to an Idaho Negro, appointed him a "great titan" and authorized him to organize and establish a klavern in his state.

"His membership is hereby revoked," snapped Venable when informed that Paul L. Helleson, 35, of Nampa, Idaho, is a Negro.

"When you live at a distance, you have to take people's word. He (Helleson) has perpetrated a fraud through the mail by sending out his oath," Venable said.

Copper Resents Pinch On Nose

TAUNTON, England (UPI) — Eighteen-year-old David Richards was ordered locked up for three months for pinching a policeman on the nose and telling him "you are the handsomest man in the force today."

Police constable Tom Clarke said he brought charges against Richards because he felt "this physical insult was really beneath his dignity to suffer in silence."

Ed Lang X 2

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI) — Mayor Judson Williams will face two opponents March 27 in his bid for re-election. One of them is named Ed Lang and is an insurance man. The other is named Ed Lang and is an insurance man.

Drive-in teller service will be available all day, too, but the lobby will not close during banking hours.

"We feel our customers will appreciate this service and are happy to offer this added convenience," said John Mercer, executive vice president of the new bank.

On Friday nights, the bank will close at 4 p. m. and re-open from 5:30 to 8 p. m.

"If you don't want to leave your car to make a deposit or cash a check, you can handle your business at our drive-through outdoor teller windows," Mercer explained.

"However, our lobby will be open all day for added customer services and there is plenty of parking space available," he pointed out.

There is also a night depositary service conveniently located for fast drive up accommodations.

Wise Judge 'Bows Out'

EUREKA, Calif. (UPI) — Municipal Court Judge Robert Conners was all set to try Delton Pardue on charges of assault and disturbing the peace filed by his wife.

Pardue cried foul. "You married me," he told the judge. "You got me into this, and I want somebody else to get me out."

The judge withdrew from the case.

Smart Theme Of Bank Shows Woman's Touch

Flambeau Touch Seen In Interior

The smart, theme co-ordinated interior of the new United State Bank of Seminole, decorated by Flambeau Interiors, bears unmistakably, a woman's touch.

This may well be interpreted as another proof that "three smart girls" can do most anything.

Heading the corporation is Dorothy Flambeau, an active member of the American Institute of Decorators, well known for her unusual and creative approach to making homes, buildings and offices the most pleasant, yet functional spots to live or work.

The director is assisted in the commercial field by Gerri Stallings, an office designer who has spent many years creating the ultimate in office comfort for the busy executive and staff.

Third member of the triumvirate is Martha Bolleau Smith, who specializes in residential and model home designing.

A recent addition to the staff is Ned F. Darr, a Ringling Art School graduate and the staff feel they can offer Floridians a wealth of experience and skill, backed by a studio that features the best lines in residential and contract furnishings.

Flambeau Interiors maintains their own workrooms so that unusual designs of cornices, valances and other furnishings can be made under their supervision and installed by their own staff.

Pseudo-Colonel Jailed On Say Of Ky. Colonel

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Harry Martin Bertine Jr., 34, of Ocala, Fla., a pseudo-Kentucky colonel accused of interstate car theft, pleaded guilty to transporting a stolen car here from Stamford, Conn., in December 1963, and was sentenced to 18 months in prison.

Local police arrested Bertine last April 24 for using a bogus check to buy a new car. He used another car stolen in New Jersey as a trade-in.

Federal Judge Bailey Brown made the sentence concurrent with a three-year term Bertine receive June 18 on the bad check charge.

A white-haired Kentucky colonel, well-known for his fried chicken business, Col. Harland Saunders, told Brown that Bertine arrived about 1960 or 1961 offering to buy the fried chicken enterprise for $1,250,000 obtained from New York banking interests.

Sanders, whose white suit matched his white hair, said his lawyers checked Bertine's background and found he really was representing New York financial interests, including a Rockefeller.

Bertine put up a $15,000 check as earnest money for buying the chicken business for $1.5 million but Sanders said he turned the offer down because the New York people wanted to curtail his employees' pension and other benefits.

Sanders said he later sold the business for $2 million. Sanders also testified he later sent Bertine to Europe on business. Bertine was armed with a letter or credit from a New York bank.

A reporter from the London Daily Sketch said last Dec. 15, Bertine and Howard W. Pierce, of Long Beach, Calif., chartered a British yacht in France and ordered the captain to take them to the island of Sardinia.

The session was one of several conducted in centrally located cities from coast to coast, to accommodate 1,000 franchised Mary Carter retail dealers now located in 43 states.

I. G. Davis Jr., Mary Carter president, and other top officials from the firm's Tampa headquarters, conducted various phases of the meeting.

Haydon Invites Foundation Gifts

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Haydon Burns said Wednesday that a new college scholarship fund, started with $150,000 in receipts from his inaugural balls, is open to donations.

The governor said the "Haydon Burns Scholarship Foundation" has been declared eligible to receive contributions on a tax-deductible basis by the Internal Revenue Service.

Trustees of the foundation, most of them prominent Jacksonville businessmen, met here to discuss administration of the scholarship fund—open for needy students, bound for both state and private colleges and universities in Florida.

The "no strings attached" scholarships which will not have to be paid back by the recipients, may be as high as $1,000 a year per student. And the student does not have to be in the top of his high school class.

Horoscope Forecast

SATURDAY, FEB. 27, 1965
GENERAL TRENDCIES: You can have a big surprise very swiftly from one who is important in your life if you stick to your present desire to be quite scrappy and make a mountain out of a molehill. Use this Saturday to work on things instead of irritating people and you get your affairs on a more secure foundation now.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) —Any civic or business affairs should be handled quietly without a big fuss. Impress others with your wisdom. Then get off to some full plans and get rid of all that excess energy.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) —If you show appreciation for the interest and acquaintance show in you today, you find this blossoms into a fine friendship. Retain orthodox methods in your business. Be a little more modern, however.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) —Be very conscientious in all that you do both in work away from the home and in dealings with others. Be sure to improve relationships. Take time out to dinner in p. m. for a chance.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) —Avoiding arguments is wise and being kind and gently prodding. Any form of coercion only reacts in the opposite fashion. Be smart.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) —Take care that you don't have a foolish moment and spend a great deal of money you can't really afford to. Be more conscious of supply and demand. Strive for accuracy.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) —Getting others to go along with your ideas is best if you are kindly and gently prodding. Any form of coercion only reacts in the opposite fashion. Be smart.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) —You need the backing of big fish to get on your feet as an independent. Be honest and come through with flying colors. Listen carefully for advice given you.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) —Keeping occupied at duties at hand is best when a fixed, kind and gentle attitude on your part despite an insistent urge to break up existing conditions, can pay off in rewards. Others then realize you are an individual who has it in him or her to rise above surroundings, tensions and gain upliftment.
PLEIADAE (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) —Pleasing pals who are having rough sledding is a kind thing to do today, but be sure you are in the right place. Handle personal affairs by yourself. Heed it in all that you do.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) —It is better than you suppose that the love pleases others with others to kin so that they know real reason why you spend a much time away from home. Be kind with pals later. Be of service.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) —With the love pleases others and also running through your consciousness. Be on the right on the right one. Be reflective. Sit down and correspond with out-of-town-ers to get the word.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) —You can make a better impression upon others by living a more efficient life than has been your habit of late. Be more generous with loved ones, too. You can be as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar.
LIBRA (Sep. 22 to Oct. 23) —Be very willing to do some work that is a more efficient today and live in more accord in the future. Help to relieve others' tensions. This authoritative attitude helps you to let off steam, too.
LIRIA (Sep. 22 to Oct. 23) —Stamp you as a serious person instead of merely a ha-packer and get the attention of some important people and be yourself. Don't be simply a person in the other.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) —That problem at home seems difficult to solve, an amble incidentally and in passing for the time being. Buy a little thoughtful gift. Dine out in the city.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) —By putting some of those practical ideas to work now, they have every possibility of success. Expand your activities. Find more data in the paper, etc.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)—You are not willing to give up your right ideas if you go to them with your problems. Set up a more sensible budget. Find out where you need to economize more.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)—You want to sever connections with others today, but it is much wiser to cooperate more to a real success in joint projects. Find a trustworthy associate. Be calm, poised.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)—Outside obligations seem difficult and you can't comprehend why. But this makes a higher-up is testing you. Be patient. Carry through with promises made regardless.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be one of those individuals who will be able to understand what has to do with New Age methods, materials and ideas. The greatest success can come along such lines, toward which you should slant the education. Teach to be more set in his or her ways however, so that others know better what to expect. Give benefit of sports.

MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1965
GENERAL TRENDS: Unsettling you are all too apt to find that most everyone has poor judgment and is confused just how to go about gaining the objectives that are important. Later, conditions lift and the evening can be a pleasant time for those affairs that are interesting and that bring success from anxieties.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19)—Have a little talk with your pale and know what is expected, also conveying the idea that friendship is more valuable than gold. Concentrate on new ideas. Don't be concerned with the material.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20)—While you are desirous of going out for a good time, it behooves you to attend to important duties at hand. Be self-engrossed. Then you get ahead faster in your particular line.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)—Do only what is absolutely necessary so that you can step out into the teaching world of activity and find new and more lucrative outlet. Plan your time carefully. Don't get mixed up.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)—Conferring with experts will prove more lucrative and less trouble than depending upon mere pale who mean well. Follow hunches where your mate is concerned. You find they work.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21)—Associate with people with wonderful suggestions. Do not permit others to get on the wrong track. Concentrate on co-operation. Try to mix business with pleasure will get you nowhere.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)—Also carrying on in the same old foggy manner, but be more streamlined and you get ahead much faster. Try to get credit for good help. Loyalty. You can work less and be better remunerated.

LINEN (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)—Once you have finished duties at hand, you can find the most fascinating hours to drive into. Set up your dates for the night far in advance. Don't take chances with tickets, etc.

Citrus Workers Reprieve Seen To Shore Up Prices

Evans Predicts Job Shortages In Ag Industry

Announcement that the U. S. Department of Labor will allow the present 3,500 off-shore workers in the citrus industry to remain — rather than be reduced by 1,500 as of today, as previously scheduled—was hailed today as an important step toward avoiding further citrus losses.

John W. Evans, of Oviedo, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, said that the continued availability of these supplemental fruit pickers also will shore up fruit prices which had weakened recently when fruit buyers slackened off bidding for the Valencia crop out of fear that labor would not be available to harvest it.

"Citrus growers and all those who earn their livelihood through the citrus industry are indebted to those who are responsible for this change in the outlook," Evans said.

"Of course, as far as we know now there is still a question as to whether we will be able to retain these workers beyond April 15," he pointed out.

"However, I noted that the Secretary of Labor admitted at Miami Beach that the withdrawal of these workers on April 15 would leave us with a very critical problem. I hope that this means he will act to avoid another crisis at that time."

The critical shortage of agricultural labor and research on mechanical harvesting machines were topics discussed at a meeting of commodity directors of the association in Orlando.

Gen. J. C. Hutchison, Sanford, director for celery, and Harold H. Kastner, Sanford, director for leaf and radish, attended the meeting, representing the respective committees of which they are chairmen.

A reduction in jobs available for other workers in the agricultural industry resulting from the shortage of field workers was predicted, according to Evans.

"The Secretary of Labor's crash recruitment of domestic labor for our citrus, vegetable and sugar cane harvest has been a failure," Evans said.

END OF THE LINE for Everett-Thomas Rennick was reached shortly before midnight Sunday when this stolen car crashed into a tree off Highway 46 west of Seminole County. Rennick was shot in the head by a Florida Highway Patrol trooper soon after the crash.

Terrorist Slain West Of Here

Kidnaper Everett Thomas Rennick came to the end of a week-long spree as terrorist, bully and thief on Highway 46 six miles west of here late Sunday night, a highway patrolman's bullet in his head.

The 44-year-old man, who had eluded a heavy police dragnet over North and Central Florida for six days, dived from a wrecked stolen car with its tire blasted out and was shot to death in someone's else ill-fitting clothes.

"He was as cool and as calm as could be," said Trooper Ken Harsey, of Leesburg, "but when he reached for the gun, I shot him."

During his spree, Rennick, of Cocoa, kidnaped at least six people and held several others—including two lone women—hostage while hiding from hundreds of state, county and local policemen.

The search started last Monday when Rennick and a companion, Robert F. Quinn, 20, also of Cocoa, took a highway trooper's car at gunpoint near Ocala. Quinn was captured the same day.

After that, Rennick — a pistol stuffed in his belt — was "trapped" several times in wooded areas near Ocala and Orlando but managed to escape bloodhounds.

Sunday night, he tied up a couple in a trailer in Sandalwood Springs. He made his big mistake there.

"I'm the man they're looking for," Rennick told Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stone before he took their 1959 station wagon.

"I've killed two men (the apparently was lying). You want to be the next?"

Rennick took Stone's wallet, money and a suitcase full of clothes and drove into Lake County where he was spotted by Harsey and auxiliary patrolman W. F. Cater. They had been alerted after Stone called police.

"We pulled him over on State Road 46 about six miles west of Sanford and told him to get out," said Harsey. "He looked like he might at first, but he apparently changed his mind and gunned off."

"Cater and I just walked out in the middle of the road and started shooting at the back of the car. That riot gun (Cater's) blew out the left rear tire. . . ."

"I told him to come out with his hands up but he dove out the passenger side of the front seat—the driver's door was smashed in—reached in his pocket, and grabbed a gun.

"So I shot him."

Why is it: Motorists will hit the brakes, slow way down, when they spot a sign warning "Bad Hump Ahead." Yet, the same motorists will zip along at interstate cruising speed when they see a sign, "Children Playing Ahead."

Drivers will cruise around the block several times, waiting to find a parking slot near their destination, burning up gas and tempers. Yet, they could park in a free parking lot, walk to their destination and be there sooner and calmer.

Motorists will step on the gas when the light turns from green to amber so they won't have to wait a few seconds. Yet, park their car a short distance away and at their favorite emporium.

Drivers will look at the gas gauge with the needle on the "E" peg. Yet, "guess" they can make it to the next station only to run out of the fuel.

Motorists will go from one market to another, picking up the "specials," burning up gallons of gas. Yet, when they get home they find they've "saved" scant pennies on the grocery bill.

Drivers will wait till the last day to get their driving license or car tag. Yet, they've known for months the day would come, and still they stand in line.

The Sanford Scene: A car had stopped for a red light. But it blocked the crosswalk. A young man opened a rear door of the car, climbed through the back end, opened the other door and got out leaving both doors open. The driver had to get out, shut the door and then move away when the light turned green.

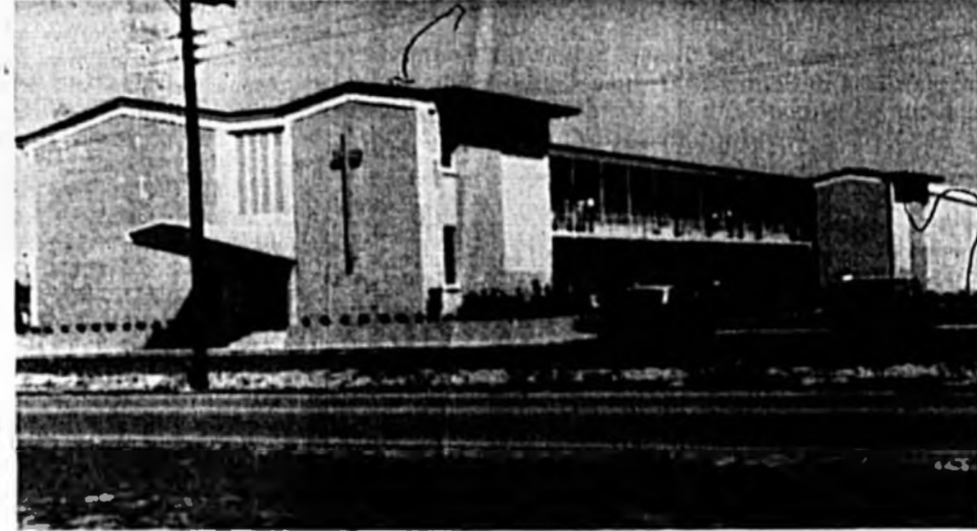

Things we wouldn't know if we didn't open the mail: You can kill the following unprotected animals and birds at any time in Florida—if you want to: Nutria, skunk, flying squirrel, English sparrow, crow, armadillo, rats, mice, bats, moles, shrews and buzzards. So says the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. They tell it in a release reminding that the hunting season for all game birds and animals except rabbit, raccoon, fox, opossum and bob cat, closed a half hour after sunset Sunday.

Demos Back 'White Paper' On Red War

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Democratic congressmen, armed with a State Department "white paper" documenting the Communist war against South Viet Nam, gave strong backing today to President Johnson's Viet Nam policy.

Sen. William E. Proxmire (D-Wis.) said that Johnson's Viet Nam policies offer "the best chance for us to achieve an enduring peace in this enormously complex situation."

OPEN HOUSE was held Sunday afternoon for the new St. Mary-Magdalen School in Altamonte Springs. The $163,000 building of masonry construction will house nine classrooms, an administrative office, infirmary, teachers lounge and the latest educational facilities. Sisters of Notre Dame will staff the school in the fall.

Major Win For LBJ Pictured

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A major legislative victory — his first in the new session — appeared in the offing for President Johnson this week with expected House approval of his $1.1 billion Appalachian aid program.

Debate began on the Senate-passed measure today with voting scheduled to start Tuesday. Final approval is anticipated either late Tuesday or some time Wednesday.

The measure is one of the principal building blocks of Johnson's "Great Society" program. It would set up a five-year program to help needy sections of the 11-state Appalachian Region, which stretches from northern Pennsylvania to northern Alabama.

The House version of the bill may differ somewhat from that passed by the Senate, necessitating a Senate-House conference.

But House passage will not mean approval of the program which was devised entirely by Johnson after he became president.

Major emphasis of the program is an $840 million authorization for a six-year highway construction project through the mountainous Appalachian region.

Other funds would be provided for soil conservation, timber development, vocational education and health centers.

In proposing this program last year, Johnson said a special effort was needed to solve the area's problems of hard-core unemployment, worn-out land and economic isolation.

Republicans, who charge the measure discriminates against other equally impoverished areas, have offered a substitute which would apply the program's benefits to all of the nation's low-income regions.

'Great Society' Plan Assailed By Top GOP

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A top House Republican today assailed President Johnson's "Great Society" plan as a blueprint for an all-powerful, one-party government.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird (R-Wis.), chairman of the House Republican conference and principal author of the 1964 GOP national platform, also assailed Johnson's conduct of foreign affairs.

He predicted that the administration would seek a negotiated end to the war in Viet Nam and that this would lead to a Communist takeover.

Laird said the "painfully small Republican minority in Congress (140 Republicans to 295 Democrats) would continue to speak its piece, and with the voice of "a moral majority."

"Though we do not win roll-call votes, we can win for America the all-important second-look that may save us from blindly accepting a Great Society that might be just another great mistake, just another great scheme, just another great debt, accepted without due consideration," he said.

"It is up to Republicans and to those members of the other party who share our views to speak of what other roads are available to the American people if they turn an articulate minority into an effective majority in the 90th Congress."

Laird's major address was seen by Republicans as a sort of minority "State-of-the-Union" message as well as a call to arms to the Republican ranks depleted by last November's election.

Tourists Happy As Lyndon Walks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson enjoyed Washington's first springlike weather by walking his dog around the White House grounds to the delight of groups of tourists.

Hatless and without an overcoat, Johnson attended 11 a.m. Sunday services at the National City Christian Church and heard a sermon on George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

After the services, Johnson walked from the church slowly with Pastor George R. Davis and greeted bystanders with smiles and handshakes.

Americans Bid 'Join Red Cross'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson has proclaimed March as "Red Cross Month" and urged all Americans to "join up, to join in, in the support that your Red Cross needs."

In remarks recorded for radio and television, the President said the "tasks which fall to the Red Cross are numerous and many . . . our strength and support assures its strength and success."

Proverbial March Lion Chews North

United Press International March roared in like the proverbial lion over the Great Plains today with high winds, rain and snow.

Tornadoes and violent windstorms chewed through parts of Oklahoma Sunday night. Two inches of snow stacked up in Denver during the night and one inch was reported at Rapid City, S. D., and north-eastern Wyoming.

The snow extended southward to Dalhart, Tex., where strong winds whipped up giant clouds of sand.

Heavy snow warnings were posted for part of Minnesota and warnings of heavy snow and blizzard conditions were hoisted for northwestern and extreme western Iowa.

Severe thunderstorms and high winds swept a wide portion of the southern plains Sunday night.

A tornado destroyed a trailer truck and pulled down power lines 10 miles west of McAlester, Okla., and another twister touched down near Stigler, Okla.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour whistled through Homestead, La. Nearby Lake Charles, La., was hit with a cloudburst that dumped 12 inches of rain and Beaumont, Tex., was swamped with 3.59 inches of rain.

The Weather Bureau said rainstorms and melting snow created local flooding conditions in parts of Iowa and Kansas.

Wamego, Kan., received 1.62 inches of rain and reported U. S. 24 blocked by high water.

Most of the remainder of the nation welcomed the new month with fair skies or showers.

Metro 'Phone Topic At Meet

By Margaret Conroy Several resolutions are on agenda for approval of North Orlando Village Council at today's 7:30 p.m. meeting in the village office.

Included are the charter amendment resolution to be presented for legislative approval and one of endorsement supporting the proposed county-wide Metro Telephone System.

Tonight's meeting will be the last for the present council as four seats of the five-member board are up for election March 16. It is expected that most of the candidates will be present at this session.

Orlando Held Here In Slaying

An Orlando man is being held in the Seminole County Jail on a charge of murder following the beating of James Franklin Sullivan, 31, in the Goldenrod area Sunday night.

Deputies Roy Rice and Gayle Howe said Sullivan was found at the home of George Raymond Sloniger after the beating which they say was administered by Karl Richard Wolff 21, of rural Orlando.

Sullivan died shortly after the beating at Winter Park Memorial Hospital. He suffered head injuries, right ear cuts, cuts over his left eye and forehead.

Deputies said Sullivan was beaten in a fight which started on Red Bug Road and ended at the Sloniger home. They added that Wolff admitted the beating.

Concert Tuesday At Civic Center

Members of Seminole County Musical Concert series who are planning to attend the Pops Concert of the Florida Symphony Orchestra at 8 p.m. Tuesday are reminded that the presentation is being staged at the Civic Center and not at Seminole High School where the concert series programs usually are held.

A capacity crowd is expected to fill the Civic Center auditorium and all are invited to attend the reception for the members of the symphony orchestra sponsored by Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority following the concert.

A special feature of the program will be the display of paintings done by members of the Concert Association.

Waterways Meet

Members of the waterways committee of Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will meet at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Chamber's conference rooms. A discussion of the "St. Johns River Cruise" will be held, according to Sam Levy, committee chairman.

Contract Group Will Meet Here

Capt. James O. Mayo, commander of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, will describe the Navy's RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance - attack program to an expected 60-70 members of the Mid-Florida chapter, National Association of Professional Contract Administrators, Wednesday night at the Mayfair Inn.

Captain Mayo, who commands seven squadrons based at Sanford, will use color slides in discussing the importance of the global air operation.
