House Kills Bill To Ban Closed Shop

Measure Would Have Prevented Denial
Of Jobs Because Of Union Status

*Use Of Coercion To Be Prevented

Compromise To Protect Both Labor, Industry Adopted

TALLAHASSEE, May 31
(AP)—A proposal to amend the State Constitution so as to outlaw labor's closed shop in Florida was killed by the House today.

Sponsors of the amendment mustered a majority of 48 to 29 in favor of its submission to Florida's voters, but they needed three-fifths of all the membership, or 67 affirmative votes, to adopt it.

The amendment would have written into the Constitution a provision that the right of any person to work should not be denied or abridged because of non-membership in a labor union.

Its defeat apparently ended for the session a series of attempts to restrict labor's right to a closed shop. The House labor committee had defeated a bill to outlaw a closed shop on defense projects or on any job.

However, the House approved a compromise protecting both labor and industry from coercion. The amendment was defeated, the House voted overwhelmingly to prohibit the use of force, violence, coercion—or intimidation by labor or industry.

Governor Holland's first veto of the 1941 legislature was overthrown by the House Friday, 45 to 10.

The House action passed, and went to the Senate, where the Governor's veto, a bill authorizing issuance of $250,000 in bonds to finance a new school building on property owned by the Cuban government.

The streamlined revision of Florida statutes was adopted and enacted into law by the Legislature yesterday.

The compact five-pound volume omitting repealed and wholly changed laws of prior years, was prepared under supervision of the attorney general.

Now, all the laws in effect in Florida are included in one volume replacing 11 previously issued.

Although unsuccessful in attempting to kill it, tightly organized North Florida members prevented House passage yesterday of a proposed reapportionment of the State Senate to increase South Florida's representation.

They tried to week the bill by striking out the one-senator clause, but they lost, 42 to 41, and their last, 45 to 44, attempt to kill it by introducing post-presentation. The House has 95 members.

Salary increases from $8,000 to $72,000 annually for the six State cabinet officers were approved by the House yesterday, 62 to 17, but Governor Holland's veto was left at $8,000 at his own request.

Governor Holland's recommendation for a State tax commission during the next two years was abandoned yesterday in favor of bills to broaden the employer's tax assessment authority.

The new bills struck vigorous restrictions in the state firemen's and taxation committee.

Reviewing bills changing laws on real and personal property assessment were laid before the committee by Lamar Barron, representative of the citizen's tax inquiry council which worked with Governor Holland in preparing tax revision proposals.

Class Day Exercises Held At High School As Final Program In Chapel

While the orchestra play "Aida March" by G. Verdi, the senior class of 1940 marched slowly in and took their seats for their annual chapel program before they graduate. The Class Day exercises at Seminole High School were held on Thursday, May 29.

Following the singing of the school song by the student body, John Fennell, class chaplain, gave the devotional. Next the students gave the pledges to the flag, which was followed by the singing of "God Bless America".

At this point in the program, Glenn E. McKey presented a set of books, "Stoddard's Essays" to the school in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Herndon. Mr. and Mrs. Herndon presented the books to a memorial in their son, Claude, who died in 1920.

Coach McLeans announced the names of the girls who would receive letters for their activity in sports during the past year.

Miss Chapman welcomed the student body and other guests to the program. Mary Lodge, then read the class will, Frederick Lyon, the president of the senior class, presented the senior award to the juniors. It was accepted by Edward Marshall, president of the junior class.

Mrs. Frances Michie, a member of the class of 1915, had many interesting facts about the class in which she was a member. She stated that at that time Mrs. A. G. Roosevelt and Mr. E. B. Roosevelt were teachers.

The educators of this community are among those who use material in current magazines as an aid to modern classroom work. Through their cooperation, the students in Oviedo High School have been enabled to compete for the Reader's Digest Annual Award.

Kommersial School

The end is in sight, we either swim or swim. The days are getting longer and time is getting shorter—so what—that's in reference those fortunates in S. H. S., but Vocational School happily bounces on its way for another four weeks. Just think—when everybody else is at the beach here we are still married to a typewriter. But every dog has his day and "We dogs are waltz."

William Hedges, our much discussed protege, was sent out by Mrs. Marshall and the others meeting to see if he couldn't make up a few books that should have been returned. No, he didn't do it out of the goodness of his heart. Mrs. Marshall promised him a nickel for each one he brought back. Well, he brought back five, which netted him two nickels. This isn't our opinion; this is William's. He's decided that dating calls—he's going to be a bill collector.

We have one new pupil, Inez Williams. She enrolled for a short course in typing. In fact it's so short as to be almost non-existent.

Mrs. Wainwright, who has been serving dinner for a civil service examination is getting plenty of experience doing some reworking for Mrs. Frances McHughell.

She is also taking care of an entire set of our cassette recorders.

Mrs. Wainwright is working in the Red Cross sewing room during the day.

Miss Ruth and John Dunn are at any social function you can name. It must be love.

Orlando Nationals Defeat Seminoles 10-7 In Tilt Here

McRaney Is Big Gun
For Sanford Team;
Gets Double, Triple

The Orlando Nats laced the Sanford Seminoles 10 to 7 in comedy of errors here last night with Freddy Swindell lasting for the victory.

There were 10 miscues chalked up during the contest with each club being charged with five. On a basis of earned runs the Nats could have triumphed by a count of only 5 to 4.

McRaney was the big gun for the Nats with a double and triple, both with a double and single, that drove in five runs. Eddie Butka scored the 12th hit. Nat attack with four safeties out of five tries. Clyde Jones started for the locals but was relieved during a Nat plunge in the fifth. Goos, Kettles and Manager Charlie Girk took turns on the mound but neither proved effective.

The Orlando victory gave the Nats a clean sweep of the two-game series and moved them one game behind the third-place Daytona Beach Islanders who lost to DeLand.

The State League circuit will be dark tonight with all clubs enjoying an open date. The Nats play the DeLand Red Hats a double header at Tinker Field Sunday afternoon.

Sanford Theater News for the Coming Week

RADIO'S FOREMOST funsters and swing sisters in the persons of Abbott and Costello and the Andrews Sisters will have audiences at the Ritz Theater next Wednesday and Thursday in convulsions of laughter and tapping their toes at the tuneful tunes featuring the first army camp comedy.

"THE PEOPLE VS. DR. KILDARE" is the intriguing title of the picture scheduled for showing next Tuesday at the Ritz Theater. Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore and Lorraine Day head a capable cast in the latest of the popular "Dr. Kildare" series.

CHESTER MORRIS and Rochelle Hudson are co-starring in "Meet Boston Blackie" at the Ritz Theater, next Friday and Saturday. The picture is a stirring story of the smashing of a vicious spy ring, and should prove intensely interesting at this time, Manager Charlie Morrison said.

Last Survivors Of 'Crete Escape Under Hail Of Nazi Bombs

15,000 Men Are Re-
moved From Island,
British Announce;
Iraq Signs Peace

Manchester Gets Heavy Air Raid

Fire Bombs And High
Explosives Poured
Upon English City

Germany's Luftwaffe, knockout victor in the 12-day battle of Crete, turned its fury today on the last British and Greek survivors attempting to escape in fishing boats to North Africa; while on the western front other Nazi warplanes violently assaulted the big English city of Manchester.

London asserted 16,000 troops had been removed from Crete and had arrived in Egypt, ready for action in developing battle for the Suez Canal. About an equal number of Allied troops were killed, wounded, or taken prisoner.

In the attack on Manchester, Nazi raiders poured thousands of fire bombs and high-explosives in their worst assault there in months.

Meanwhile, the British found some comfort in victory in the month-old hostilities with Iraq's regime of Rashid Ali al Gallani, whose flight from the rich "Garden of Eden" oil kingdom brought a new sense of security.

Thousands of British and Imperial soldiers and their Greek allies, worn by the strain of 13 days of flight, but unwilling to fight to hold Crete against the most furious attack yet launched by the Nazi air might, were in Egypt last night.

Crete is lost, but the British, in spite of a specific campaign by the Germans to prevent deportation, got away from the beleaguered island in large numbers.

By Saturday night, 10,000 troops, mostly British, Australian and New Zealanders, had reached Egypt safely, bringing with them a number of Greeks and Cretans, including some women who preferred the perils of escape to living in a Nazi-occupied country.

Others, bombed through their entire trip from Crete to Africa, have arrived since then.

The decision to abandon the fight for the island while the British had felt confident of holding was made last Thursday afternoon as it became apparent that the German air force, though there were no more than 10,000 troops as they desired at the same time, had the British from landing needed reinforcements.

Some of the English forces, worn by endless hours under fire, were disappointed over the lack of British air strength, but the military morale, generally, remained high.

All agreed that it was bombs and machine-gun fire by planes that passed over them almost continuously that spelled defeat for the British and victory for the forces of Hitler.

Laurence Pearson Presented Award

Laurence Pearson was the Charles Palmer Davis medal for excellence in current events at the previous exercises at the Wilson School in Paula last Thursday. His name was omitted in the article last week on the awards. The medal which young Pearson won is presented by the American Education Press, publishers of Current Events.

Hoyt Galloway and Carter Hagan won attendance awards for being neither late nor absent for one year.

Six Calls Answered By Fire Department

Six fire calls were made by the Sanford Fire Department over the weekend but only one involved more than slight damage to buildings or property. Fire Chief Mack Cleveland said this morning.

The home of Manuel Jacobson at 1810 Sanford Avenue was damaged in a fire about 10 minutes after 10 o'clock yesterday morning when a number of men of the fire department and a number of citizens gathered around the house.

The house, which was owned by Jacobson, was damaged in a

Hitler, Duce Discuss U. S. Role In War

Axis Chieftains Hold Unexpected Meet- ing To Exchange Views On Conflict

ROME, June 2.—(AP)—Informed Fascists said today that plans for meeting any move by the United States, probably formed at least part of the conversation between Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini at Brenner Pass today.

Observers said the Axis leaders probably were concerned with the prospect for further action by the United States in line with President Roosevelt's program to defend the Western Hemisphere, the Navy, involving French West Africa, the Azores and other Atlantic islands.

In Berlin the unheralded meeting between Hitler and Mussolini at Brenner Pass was disclosed and it was officially announced that the Axis leaders parted in perfect accord on the political situation.

The first guess of most observers was that Hitler and Mussolini exchanged views on the next steps in the Mediterranean region following the successful conclusion of the Balkan, Greek and Cretan campaigns.

(Experience has shown that these periodic meetings between Hitler and Mussolini invariably are portentous, but only subsequent developments divulge what manner may have brought them together.) Their meeting today was their sixth in 21 months. The war pact has signaled the beginning or the end of a major phase of the conflict.)

55,000 Men Prepare For Army Maneuvers At Rotary Lunch

Observers For Enemy Aircraft Will Be Posted In County

Three men who are helping Seminole County organize its share in civilian defense, G. W. Johnson, Jr., E. J. Nairn, Jr., and G. C. Harper, appeared at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club at the Valdes Hotel today to describe their work.

Mr. Harper, who is captain of the Seminole County Defense Force, said he hoped to have enough men present tonight at the meeting to complete the organization of the unit. Physical examinations will be made tonight of all men who have not yet had them and Mr. Harper said if the minimum number of 50 is secured he will inform Adjutant General Vivian Collins.

Saying he hoped to have the defense force inactivated in next Monday or Tuesday night, Mr. Harper invited all the members of the club to attend.

Other members of the home defense unit, the captain pointed out, except when they are called to active duty, then pay is according to rank. Men from 18 to 65 are eligible for enrollment, and the period of service is for three years.

When the unit is mustered in, rifles, uniforms and other equipment is issued. An instructor is expected to be furnished to cover various phases of training. Mr. Harper said.

Officers of the Defense Force in addition to Mr. Harper are W. D. Hoffman, first lieutenant, and John L. Galloway, second lieutenant.

The force will be subject to call anywhere in Florida. Mr. Harper continues on page two.

Two Sanford girls, Camilla Deas and Lenabelle Hagan, who hold government jobs in Washington, D. C., are pictured in an article in the current issue of Look magazine which describes the lives of the multitude of women clerks in the nation's capital.

Miss Deas is the daughter of Mrs. R. R. Deas and the late Mr. Deas, and is the sister of Richard Deas. A graduate of Seminole High School, she works in her office for the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

The two Sanford girls are pictured with two other government workers lounging on the beds in their room in the old French Embassy. Look says:

"These four girls share a room in the old French Embassy, shop together, play together. The jobs that most of these girls hold pay from $1,400 to $1,600 a year—about the same as the girls in Look magazine. They could make more in San Fran, but they don't want to leave. As a result the girls dress better, need a little money home and also begin to earn."

Miss Hagan works in the general accountant's office, while Miss Deas is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The pictures in Look magazine are titled "Washington Girl Problem" and points out in a subhead, "We know lots about 2,000 women a
