

Christmas Parade

Christmas parade... Little Miss Muffet will ride right behind the huge spider that sat down "beside". Other kiddies will ride in yellow petal covered airplanes, in silver and white sail boats, blue and white motor boats, and some will appear in chariots drawn by white horses, by eagles and unicorns.

Bo-Peep and her sheep, Peter Rabbit, and Little Boy Blue will be right in the procession, and for the first time this year kiddies riding in floats will be eligible to receive prizes of $20, $10 and $5. Other prizes will be presented at the Tourist Center for the best trimmed bicycles and scooters.

Last winter there were two bands in the parade, but this year there will be four including the green clad Stetson University Band, the Winter Park High School Band, the Seminole High School Band and the Orlando High School Band which will be near Santa Claus. He will serenade him with Christmas hymns.

Climaxing the parade will be the big reception to be held by Santa Claus afterward in Fort Mellon Park. He will be at the Tourist Center. There he will distribute 3,000 bags of candy as gifts to the children, and to prevent confusion the candy will be distributed from five tables, everyone taking place in one of five or more lines.

Much fun in the parade will be provided by a real merry-go-round and a ferris wheel in which kiddies will be riding. After the parade the merry-go-round rides in front of Yowell's.

Volusia county is entering the fun, and floats from Plantation Estates and Miller Acres will be entered in the parade, and many kiddies are due to be here from Enterprise, Osteen and Deltona. Schools in Sanford will close at 1:30 P. M., and in outlying communities even earlier in order that pupils may see the parade.

House committee... think the American people hold the answer," he said, adding it will depend pretty much on the self-discipline exercised by industry, labor and agriculture.

Di Salle, who plans to resign as mayor of Sanford, said he had not yet had time to familiarize himself with the price situation.

Asked by newsmen whether he intended to move slowly in reaching decisions about price control, Di Salle said that on the contrary "I am going to have to move swiftly."

Senator Long (D-La.) commented at the hearing that the time to do something about rising prices would seem to be right now, rather than "waiting until the house is on fire."

Di Salle, who plans to resign challenge of the situation." He said he wanted to assure the committee "we'll do everything possible to get the program moving as quickly as possible."

Di Salle added that in his opinion people generally are expecting some sort of controls, "but like on taxes, they want them on somebody else."

Missouri Man Advises Folks Who Feel Bad... Carl Schaffrin, 217 Perry St., St. Charles, Mo., says there are some folks in this old world who feel good and other folks who feel bad. The folks who feel good he wants to congratulate, but for the folks who feel bad he wants them to read what he has to say and then take a word of advice—take HADACOL if one suffers from a deficiency of Vitamin B12, Nicotin and Iron.

Here is what Mr. Schaffrin has to say about HADACOL since it overcame the effects of such deficiencies in his system: "I have been a shoe cutter for over 32 years—I now work for the Boyd Welsh Shoe Co. in St. Louis. For quite some time now I haven't had any appetite at all—seemed like I didn't have enough energy to do my work. I was tired all the time—and really didn't enjoy doing anything. It affected my work too. Then I heard my other folks who took HADACOL had increased their appetite and seemed to have a limitless amount of energy. I tried HADACOL and it is amazing what a change it has made. Now I feel like eating everything on the table, my disposition is 100% better and my work—in fact, everything I do I now enjoy. For an entirely new outlook on life I recommend HADACOL."

Try HADACOL today. Trial size bottle costs only $1.25. Large bottle $3.50. Buy 12 for $35.00. HADACOL is available at all drug stores. Write to HADACOL, P.O. Box 100, St. Louis, Mo. 63101. HADACOL is a registered trademark of the Lelliane Corporation, Inc.

The Advertising Committee of the Chamber of Commerce makes arrangements for the visit here of 30 New York writers and photographers. Studying the program of activities are, seated around the table, Holland Dean, chairman; Frank Shames, President of Florida Fashion; Max Vogel, of the New York advertising agency Charles Martin; Mayfair manager; and H. James East, president of the Chamber of Commerce; standing, Ed Whitney, George Touhy, Clifford McKibbin, and Frank Melane.

County Home

County Home... Board, thanked Dr. Brooks and the committee for their work, and asked them to serve in the interests of the County Home for a year. The members agreed, including Mrs. R. S. Bradford, Altamonte Springs; Mrs. B. B. Crumley and Ben Jones, Oviedo; Dr. Frank Gullman, another member was absent.

In a statement pending the final vote, Mr. Pope declared, "I do not feel that the Grand Jury or State Attorney would be able to develop any more information than that already developed by the Board or Advisory Committee."

"I do not feel that the case against Mr. and Mrs. Ballew has been proven," he added. However, I do not feel that it is to the best interest of the County to continue them as superintendent and manager of the County Home. I recommend that their recognition be requested as of Dec. 31."

The report of the committee revealed that members found the home in good condition, the building and rooms clean and fairly comfortable, and no complaints regarding their physical condition. Food at a noon-time meal was found good and plentiful.

Pointing out that no one has a right to impose his or her religious ideas on any inmates, it was recommended that religious life of the inmates be provided for, however, and be placed under direction of three pastors of three different denominations with appointment annually.

L. F. Boyle, attorney for the Board, pointed out that matters resulting from Grand Jury action are of a criminal nature, or if they think the County Commission is guilty of malfeasance, there is no use of a Grand Jury investigation, he added.

Mrs. Eleanor Ravenel, who had originally introduced charges against the Ballews in the case of a resident of the home, Mrs. J. D. Larson, said that she had been advised by attorneys that there was a basis for prosecution in the case, which was dropped however, for lack of funds to carry on.

The report of the citizens' committee in full was as follows: "To the Board of County Commissioners, Seminole County, Fla. Gentlemen: We, the committee appointed to study the conditions at the County Home, herewith submit our report."

"We have made a first hand study of the conditions at the home in as thorough a manner possible to this committee. And we have followed only facts—rather than rumor or hearsay."

"We found the physical property of the home in good condition. The building and rooms were clean at the time and fairly comfortable. We questioned the inmates and no one made any complaints whatsoever as to their physical comfort."

"We checked the food at the noon-day meal—at that time we found the food good and plentiful. The country has been cleaned off and we trust will be kept in a good condition."

"The home is not a religious institution—but a county institution. No one has any right whatsoever to try to impose his or her religious ideas upon any of the inmates. However, the religious life and activities of the inmates should be provided for—to that end we recommend that this phase of the life of the home be placed under the direction of a committee of three pastors of the County, pastors of different denominations, selected on a county-wide basis and appointed annually. That these pastors seek the cooperation of any and all the various churches of the County."

"As to the face-slapping incident and other alleged mistreatment—we investigated from two sources: first—inside the home and second—outside the home. Inside the home we investigated there from three sources: (a) We questioned Mr. and Mrs. Ballew, the manager and his wife, who emphatically denied all of the charges made against them. (b) We questioned privately the inmates of the home and no one of them saw any such incident—according to their testimony. (c) We questioned Mrs. Joe Larsen, the one who brought the accusation of mistreatment. She was in her room in bed. The committee went to her room, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ballew. The chairman of the committee asked the question, 'Mrs. Larsen are you the one who has some trouble here in the home, I believe.' Mrs. Larsen covered her face and refused to answer. A little later the two ladies of the committee—Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Crumley, returned to Mrs. Larsen's room and had a brief visit with her—she was still being present. In reply to a direct question from these ladies, 'Did Mrs. Ballew slap you?' Mrs. Larsen replied, 'I do not want to talk about it' and 'I can't remember.' The above represent the facts in the investigation at the home."

"We investigated the alleged mistreatment from sources outside the home. Here we ran into rumor and counter-rumor, accusation and counter-accusation. The people of the County however are very much concerned about the whole matter. Now—our comments: (1) That the Board of County Commissioners ask the State's Attorney to make a full and thorough investigation of the home; that he subpoena witnesses and take sworn testimony not only from those in the home but also from any and all others outside of the home who appear to know anything that would contribute to the solution of this affair."

Israel's Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett said today he had only a brief conversation with Wu and considered the meeting "only a clearing of the way in the situation. It did not result itself in going one step farther toward a solution," he said.

Israel does not have diplomatic representatives in Peking despite representation of the Peiping regime and there is no chance for the Israeli to conduct negotiations directly for peace with the Chinese, as the Indian minister has been doing, that there is no plan now to ask for a diplomatic exchange. "That depends on whether there will be peace," he said. He made little of the role that Israel could play now for peace in the Far East.

ferent parts of the County; that at least two of these be ladies and that this Advisory Board be composed of new people each year. This Advisory Board is to make visits to the home from time to time and report back to the Board of County Commissioners.

"We realize that although the Commissioners designate one of their number to look after the operation of the home, yet it would have a very good reaction on the home if the entire group of Commissioners will visit the home from time to time."

"We further recommend that a study be made of the methods, plans, procedure, finances, etc. of the other counties of the State and also of other states in their care of the needy, old, and helpless. To see if the efficiency of this home here can be increased and the good it does enlarged. In other words to see if we are getting our money's worth."

"We further recommend a few incidents: 'More furniture for the living room. 'Some shelves for books and magazines to be placed in the living room. That a deep freeze outfit be provided for the home to help give a more varied diet and for economy in handling food."

Respectfully submitted, W. P. Brooks, Jr., Chairman. Dec. 4, 1950

Korean War

Korean War... (Continued from Page One) yang, overwhelmed Allied troop columns beat a war-weary retreat toward the South Korean capital, Seoul. Would they stand and defend against onrushing Chinese masses? Where? AP correspondent O. H. P. King reported from Seoul that a stand might be made thereabouts. He quoted a veteran military observer: "Even in the face of a million Chinese Communists the Seoul-Inchon area can be held. Such heavy losses could be inflicted on the enemy by artillery and air that his hopes of sweeping the peninsula would be completely smashed."

But correspondent King also quoted a contrary opinion that said: "Let's face it. Someone outside Korea must come to our rescue if we are to stay."

The Chinese Reds swept across Pyongyang airfield before entering the city. Only 13 days ago the Allied Eighth Army now in flight was driving northward within 50 miles of the Manchurian border.

In the northeast, Marines and doughboys fought to break out of a deep Red Chinese trap south of Changjin Reservoir. Chinese masses mounted twin drives to cut off the entire 10th Corps of three American and two South Korean divisions.

The most threatening of these was aimed at Hamhung. Chinese struck at highfall Tuesday against U. S. Third Division troops near Sinpung, 15 air miles west of the big industrial city. Thousands of Korean civilians were streaming south from the area north of Hamhung.

On the northwest front, there was no major contact reported with the Chinese. The Eighth Army's retreat on wheels was too fast for the foot-slogging Chinese.

One small engagement was reported on the Eighth Army's left flank, south of Pyongyang. There was no indication as to where or when the Eighth Army would make a stand. AP Correspondent Lief Erickson, at Eighth Army Headquarters, suggested it might go all the way to the Seoul-Inchon area in South Korea, 165 road miles south of Pyongyang.

The Eighth Army faced the mounting threat of a flanking move by Chinese swarming down the rugged and lightly defended

Eighth Army Digs In North Of Seoul; Losses Are Heavy

Marines Fight Toward Port City As Reds Attempt To Close Last Escape Route

TOKYO, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Allied Eighth Army forces halted their mass retreat south from Pyongyang today and dug in for a new western Korean stand against the onrushing armies of Red China.

General MacArthur's headquarters kept secret the locations of the new line. The Americans, South Koreans, British and Turks of the Eighth Army with their better transport had outlived the Chinese and every hour was vital in bulwarking their new positions.

A spokesman said only that the line ran from a point south of Pyongyang in positions south and east.

There were indications the new line might be somewhere near Parallel 38, the old border between Red North and Republican South Korea. South Korean forces swept into hill country to clean out guerrillas near Silyon, a hamlet 70 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

General J. Lawton Collins, U.S. Army chief of staff on a flying visit in Korea for close range study of the military situation, said: "I think the Eighth Army is capable of taking care of itself."

At a news conference in Seoul, he told war correspondents morale was high among troops he had seen. He flew to the area just south of Pyongyang.

The Chief of Staff said he could see no worthwhile tactical use for the atom bomb in Korea. Collins planned a flight Wednesday to the northeast front, where 100,000 Chinese were making a vast enveloping move around five scattered Allied divisions of the U.S. 10th Corps.

One Chinese spearhead already had cut the main highway to Seoul.

Many business firms and individuals are donating merchandise and food products for the auction and the list is growing rapidly, said Mr. Sharrock.

Among those making donations are Florida Parsons with dresses, the San Juan Hotel, Orlando, with furniture, Barney Beck is presenting a dressed hog, citrus fruits and vegetables are being given by Sanford Fruit Co., Kistner and Roberts, Southward Fruit Co., Chase and Co., and W. A. Patrick.

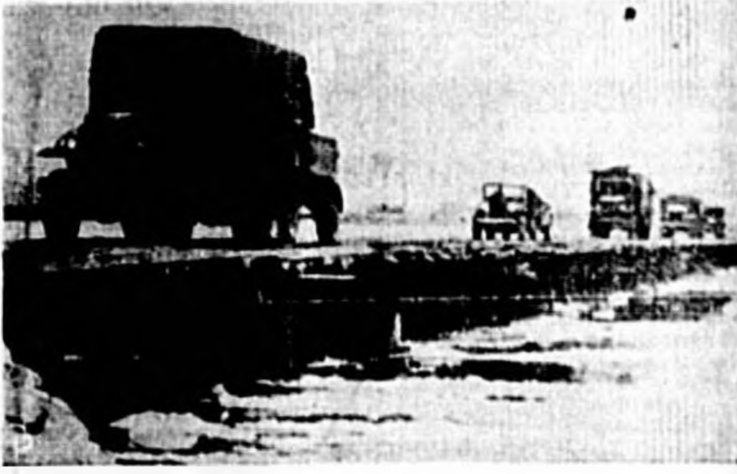

Small craft warnings were issued around the Florida peninsula and northward to Wilmington, N. C., at 9:30 A.M. today for winds up to 35 miles per hour.

The Weather Bureau issued three small craft warnings for the coastal areas.

Temperature Hits Seasonal Low In Midwestern Area

Twenty Below Zero Readings Recorded In Dakota Region

LAKELAND, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Freezing temperatures in north and central peninsular Florida by Friday morning were forecast today by the Federal State Front Warning Service.

The forecast: Tonight and Thursday morning: cloudy and showers turning colder in northern districts; partly cloudy and warm south and central districts with showers spreading into central districts by morning, followed by colder, Thursday; showers and much colder in northern districts; showers and colder in central and cooler southern districts. Outlook: colder Thursday night with freezing temperatures in north and central districts by Friday morning. Cold Friday night.

Winter season's two-punch of snow and cold landed sweeping blows across the nation's mid-section today. Some of the southern and eastern states were in the path of the wintry blasts.

The cold air pushed temperatures to new seasonal lows in parts of the north central region. It swept over the midwest's prairie lands and across the Mississippi River, sending temperatures to sub-zero levels. It moderated as it fanned into eastern and southern areas.

The cold belt extended from North Dakota to the Texas Gulf (Continued on Page 8)

Former Sanford Man To Head Field Office

Charles Muirhead, a former Sanford man, has been appointed manager of the newly-established Department of Commerce field office in Tampa. Mr. Muirhead, whose wife is a native of Sanford, will maintain a weekend residence here.

Mr. Muirhead goes to Tampa from Jacksonville, where he was employed in the department field office. He is a veteran businessman, having served as representative for a large heating equipment manufacturer for 19 years.

Between 1942 and 1945 he was with the War Production Board, and until 1947 served with the Department of Commerce in Washington.

His appointment was announced by Carlton Hayward, director of field services, in Washington. Mr. Muirhead said his office here plans to issue a daily bulletin setting forth opportunities in defense work. He said close liaison will be maintained between the Tampa office and the National Production Authority in Washington.

Truman And Attlee Agree On Big Increase In Production; Vishinsky Raps Peace Appeal

Russian Says China Wants Peace But UN Forces Must Get Out Of Korea

LAKE SUCCESS, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Vishinsky today denied a direct appeal by U. S. and Middle East countries to Peking to halt its forces at the 38th Parallel in Korea.

He spoke before the UN Assembly, which soon afterward voted 31 to 5 (Soviet bloc) to place on its emergency program a resolution designed to halt Communist Chinese intervention.

Vishinsky said Red China and its people want peace, but that it must come after the withdrawal of UN forces from Korea.

The six-power resolution, very much the same as the one voted by the Security Council last Thursday, calls for withdrawal of Chinese Communist troops from Korea. It was circulated to UN members shortly after the emergency assembly session.

The resolution reaffirms that UN forces will not remain in Korea any longer than to set it up as a unified independent nation.

It calls on all states to refrain from assisting North Korean forces. It promises to keep the Korean-Chinese border inviolate.

Continued intervention of Chinese forces in Korea, the resolution states, endangers legitimate Chinese and Korean interests in the frontier zone as well as international peace and security.

As the resolution was made public, Abdel Rahman Azam Daba, secretary-general of the Arab League, said he had asked Secretary General Trygve Lie to call for a 30-day truce in Korea as a step to peace.

The six-power resolution, one U. S. source said, proves the ability of the Big Five to work together in the situation. They are holding together, he said, at a time when President Truman and Britain's Prime Minister Attlee are reaching agreement in Washington.

25 Virginia Travel Men Visit Sanford

A group of 25 members of the Virginia Travel Council arrived early yesterday afternoon in a special bus from the Richmond Bus Station where they were welcomed by Mayor Andrew Carr, city manager Clifford McKelvin and Chamber of Commerce Manager Ed Whitney, and were taken on a short tour of the city, including a trip to the Sanford State Farmers Market.

The visitors were presented with oranges and strung a nice surprise by handing out Virginia apples. At the State Market they got an earful of protest against the Virginia highway department's $10,000 pound ceiling on produce trucks which has allegedly put a crimp in truck produce shipments from Florida to northern markets, said Mr. Whitney.

JIM CROW HEARING
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today called a public hearing in New York City Jan. 21 on racial segregation on interstate railroad passenger trains.

The hearing involves a complaint by Lillie Belle Perez of New York, that she and other Negroes were discriminated against and inconvenienced on a trip aboard the Silver Meteor, a de luxe train operated between New York and Florida, in April, 1948.

Americans Refuse To Surrender Though Outnumbered By Chinese

By TOM STONE
NORTHEAST FRONT, Korea, Dec. 6.—(AP)—A square-jawed Marine military policeman held the lens board of a press camera in the palm of his hand.

"This is Frank Noel," he said. "Hold on to it for him."

The Marine, Pfc. William F. Spain, 22, of Georgetown, Tex., was with Associated Press photo-grapher Noel when they were captured Nov. 30 by the Chinese Reds who ambushed an American convoy moving north between Kotsa and Hagaru.

"He was in a jeep with me and two other MPs," Spain said. "We were about in the middle of the column. When the Chinese attacked, we pulled off the road. Those in front of the column got on through. Those behind us broke and ran. They got back okay. But we were caught. Just as we wheeled one jeep

Pope Appeals To God For Peace In Holy Year Prayer

By JAMES M. LONG
VATICAN CITY, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII called upon the world's Roman Catholic millions today to join in pre-Christmas prayers for "a just and sure peace."

The Pontiff, declared in a Holy Year encyclical to Catholic bishops that use of mankind's newly discovered weapons of war would bring ruin.

He appealed for "public prayers to obtain from God the peace and concord of peoples, so that under the auspices of religion a sacred crusade be promoted to oppose the unrelenting struggle from which come so many calamities to mankind."

The Pope urged that the prayers for peace be made during the Novena the church's customary nine prayer days before Christmas. The Pontiff, himself, will lead the appeal for divine intercession in a radio broadcast at midnight tomorrow night, celebrating the Eucharistic sacrifice preceding the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

He referred to the latter struggle even now underway in Korea—and to the greater ruin which a wider spread war would bring. "We see with trembling souls the peoples troubled under fearful threats of conflicts, and already flourishing living lives mowed by the fury of hostile massacres in some regions," he said.

STIMULATING PACES
NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The National Association of Women Artists today announced its selection of the "ten most stimulating faces in America" with a reminder that beauty had little to do with the matter.

The Association listed these people: George Marshall, Ava Gardner, Alben Barkley, Arturo Toscanini, Romany Gromey, Yogi Berra, Peter Mexia, Ernest Hemingway, Dan Seymour, and Lauren Bacall.

CALDWELL SWORN
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Former Governor Millard F. Caldwell, of Florida today was sworn in as federal Civil Defense Administrator.

The oath was given by federal district Judge James W. Morris, a long time friend.

The five-minute ceremony was held in Caldwell's office. Several senators and congressmen were on hand including Senator-elect Brumback (D-Fla.) and Rep. Rivers (D-Sc.).

Attlee Pledges No Appeasement In Korean War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee of Britain declared today there will be "no appeasement" of Communist China in an effort to halt the Korean fighting.

"We all know from our own bitter experience that appeasement does not pay," he told a National Press Club luncheon.

Attlee departed from a prepared text to make this statement and to deny flatly reports that his government intends to "appease" the Chinese Communists.

"I have been told there are some people that believe that is what I came here for. That is not true."

Speaking slowly to a building room only audience, Attlee told off in a big burst of applause when he said Britain intends to stand by the United States in Korea.

He pledged that so long as "the Stars and Stripes fly in Korea the British flag will fly beside them."

As to his talks here with President Truman, Attlee said they are bringing a greater understanding of the different approaches which the two governments take to their common problems.

He also defended Britain's recognition of Communist China as a simple matter of fact, and said that the United States should do the same.

Directors of the Seminole County Farm Bureau met tonight in a special session to organize a farm-to-market road from Oviedo to Sanford over South Florida Avenue, including a canal over the old Johnson canal.

Secretary Homer L. Carter was instructed to write a letter to the Seminole County Commission requesting a resolution to create the possibility of securing a road which would greatly shorten the motoring distance between Sanford and Oviedo.

The highway project was strongly urged by Oviedo growers and citizens of Oviedo last year, and Representative M. B. Smith recently declared that it is strongly in favor of furthering such a highway in the interests of this section.

The Oviedo District, and John Pearson, president of the Farm Bureau, will be requested to select and help elect a member to the Board of Directors to represent their district in the program.

Plans were made for a special Christmas Day program for the Farm Bureau. The program will be held at the Future Farmer Building at 5:30 P.M. on Christmas. Mrs. Henry Thurston, Mrs. Victor Greene and Mrs. Orie Mathews will assist Dr. A. M. Wilburn in planning the program. Mrs. M. D. Gatebel will serve the turkey supper.

Dr. R. W. Rupprecht will be guest speaker and the Future Farmer Chapter will be presented an American flag.

Moore Is Elected Master Of Masons

H. C. Moore was elected worshipful master last night of the Blue Lodge, F. and M. at the Masonic Hall.

Other officers elected were J. V. Jones, senior warden; C. J. Wilkinson, junior warden; J. E. Sheppard, treasurer; Roy Wright, Jr., secretary.

Roy H. Wright, Jr., was elected eminent commander of Taylor Commandery Friday night; J. S. Tills, generalissimo; H. M. Pearce, captain general; C. J. Wilkinson, senior warden; A. J. Ramsey, junior warden; L. B. Steele, treasurer, and Frank Miller, reporter.

The election of officers of Monroe Chapter, No. 15 R.A.M., will take place Tuesday night. The names of appointive officers and times of installation in the lodges will be announced later, said Mr. Miller.

Agreement Is Also Reached On Europe As Prime Center Of Fight Against Reds

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee today agreed a significant effort must be made to increase production and assure most effective use of scarce raw materials available to the United States and Britain.

After a morning meeting of the two government heads, the White House issued this statement.

"The situation centered on the economic problems facing the United States and Britain with particular reference to raw material requirements."

"It was agreed that the problem of raw materials shortages was a common one and that significant effort should be made to increase production and to secure the most effective use of the limited supplies available."

"A wide area of agreement was reached, and a working party was established to explore the matter further."

The Sanford Herald

Established in 1888
Published daily except Saturdays and Sundays at Sanford, Florida
Entered as second class matter October 27, 1918, at the Post Office at Sanford, Florida, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6, 1950

Sanford residents, whose memories go back to the dark days when the Mayfair Inn stood dark and cold chambers the hopes and aspirations of the more enterprising members of our community lay buried, rejoice in the brilliance of its formal opening Saturday night.

Liquidation of the Fish estate has progressed to the point where prospects for the construction of a modern up to date hospital now seem brighter than they have for many years. If a suitable site can be found, construction may begin at the time the Deland hospital is built and to save costs on materials.

Prompt action was taken by the County Commission in dealing with the problem of the County Home following the report of the Citizens Committee headed by Dr. Brooks. The superintendent and his wife have been asked to resign. A corollary to his decision obviously is that a new superintendent will have to be employed.

Whether or not Florida Fashions and the city of Sanford will get a million dollars worth of free publicity out of the recent visit here of New York publicity men will depend in large measure upon the course of events during the next few weeks and the choice which a distracted editor has to make among the millions of stories which are presented to him for publication.

As this is written, some 24 hours before you read it, the conviction seems to be growing in Washington that it is better to live to fight another day, than to remain in Korea and be destroyed.

Our Chinese Friends

There are obvious possibilities of a full-fledged war with China. It is now just half a century since American troops last fought the Chinese. China was then under the rule of the ignorant and reactionary Dowager Empress, Tzu Hsi.

The Empress then ordered the foreign legations in Peking to leave within twenty-four hours. On their refusal they were besieged for eight weeks, until an Allied army rescued them.

To repay the destruction of their property and the lives of their subjects the Allies demanded an indemnity of $325,000,000. In 1907 the United States voluntarily remitted part of our share, and in gratitude the Chinese government sent the sum on scholarships for Chinese to attend American universities.

Ever since then the Chinese have felt kindly to Americans as the one nationality which they could believe did not have designs on their country.

State Of The Nation

"Third Ward boys blown up to look like statesmen" is the description former Governor Charles Edison of New Jersey, son of the great inventor, applied to some of our national figures in his address as president of the National Municipal League.

The tie-up between politics, which should be concerned with the whole nation and the whole world, and local political machines that are primarily concerned with patronage, is one of the most dangerous weaknesses in our government.

These penetrating observations by Edison suggest a serious defect in our governmental system, which, as he says, makes it highly unbecoming for us to lecture other nations because their governments are not perfect.

However, over the years our political standards arising. At the beginning of the century New York and Pennsylvania were ruled by two cynical bosses, both senators, Thomas C. Platt and Matthew S. Quay.

Rain Making

New York City may have started something when it began an official project to induce rain to relieve its water shortage. The effects of seeding the clouds now appear not to have been limited to the city's reservoirs.

The inference from this is that no one community can be allowed to change the weather of the nation to suit its own special needs. It looks like a new job for Uncle Sam, and one that will bring denunciations down upon his venerable head.

It would relieve the alarm of politicians if the adage could be conceded: "Kind of weather what yo' has, is what yo'us gwine to git."

One Million Should Be Raised For Polio Drive, Miller Says

One million dollars to combat Polio is the goal that has been suggested for Florida for the 1951 March of Dimes campaign. Dr. J. Hillis Miller, state March of Dimes president, thinks Florida should raise the million dollars during the 1951 campaign.

The University of Florida President, who is serving his second term as State March of Dimes Chairman, said Florida is obligated to meet the million dollar goal.

he told a state meeting in Jacksonville recently. He added that the state raised only 482,752 dollars during the 1950 campaign, and should be prepared this year to double that amount.

Here in Seminole County Chairman Alvin Odham pointed to the $3,432 raised during the 1950 campaign and expressed the belief that the goal could be "upped" for the 1951 campaign. The per capita donations in the county were 15 cents indicating the average citizen has a keen interest in the campaign.

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Big emphasis now is on civilian defense against atomic attack in American cities. This is the result of the crisis with China and the possibility of World War III around the corner.

This country's plans for civilian defense are far from complete. It has been dawdling along, apparently hoping war wouldn't come. Here is a step by step outline of the history of the problem.

Six months before Pearl Harbor President Roosevelt created the OCM—Office of Civilian Defense. You may remember it air raid wardens on every block in the big eastern cities, and so on.

Nothing much done. Nothing much seems necessary in those first few years after World War II. But on March 3, 1949 President Truman turned the civilian defense job over to the NSRB—National Security Resources Board.

NSRB is the top government agency for planning what this free world should do in time of war or great emergency. Then NSRB set up within itself a new peacetime civilian defense agency: OCM—Office of Civilian Mobilization.

OCM's job was to help states and cities plan what they'd do in case of atomic attack. For example, the tasks for police and firemen; removing and caring for the injured; disposing of the dead; clearing wreckage; restoring lights; supplying food and water; providing medical attention.

NEW YORK TIMES—"It would be a dark day for mankind if the free world should be forced to stand by its clear commitments on this issue, fail to identify and denounce the clear fact of Chinese Communist aggression, and effect any settlement which would reward that aggression. Fortunately, there is no reason to believe that these things will happen."

NEW YORK TRIBUNE—"If China's course is condoned, then the most outright examples of aggression in modern history can claim a precedent of acquiescence and immunity. For the U.N. to be silent on the question of China's aggression would in fact be nothing less than to condone it, and in claim a precedent for the rest of the world to follow."

MIAMI (Fla.) HERALD—"While the United Nations front in Korea—mostly United States troops—has been falling apart, the American people may well wonder whether the overall purpose of U.N. has not gone to pieces correspondingly. We should leave the Red Chinese border were identifiable. Price and wage controls should have been immediately imposed. Every Reserve and National Guard unit should have been ordered federalized and put under canvas, if necessary. By that we mean in tents, if other facilities are not available. Full training of Japanese divisions ought to be underway. Never has the nation been in greater need for courageous inspired leadership."

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL—"Total mobilization should have been ordered the moment the Red Chinese border were identifiable. Price and wage controls should have been immediately imposed. Sanford Forum

Sanford, Fla. Dec. 4, 1950

Editor, Sanford Herald: After the terrible reverses in North Korea, one can readily see that even the best military strategy makes mistakes. We believe that those in the know, if it could be done over, would have hesitated going north of the 38th Parallel, for after all, if the United States endeavors to compete with Communism, after giving it the go-ahead signal at so many places, and it will be remembered that our president sent congratulations to Stalin on an anniversary since he became president. We watched only, as Communism overtook China, and other Nations of importance. Now as Stalin hopes, America is being misled white of finance, manpower, and is about to emerge into a totalitarian nation, as absolute as was Italy in the Hitler's day.

Through the manipulation of union leaders and a power hungry government, Americans are told how many hours they may work, how much money they may keep, store-keepers have never, even in war time, had so many headaches as now taxes similar to those imposed in England in the days of American early history, money squandered in such large amounts that the taxpayer who cannot think in such figures, take it as a matter of fact. Few even believe that our money can stem Communism, which is the truth, unless we as a Nation, will humble ourselves, and confess our shortcomings to Almighty God, and give ourselves to a moral and spiritual living. Many thousands more men will have perished, and billions of hard earned dollars spent, and Communism will prevail, and except we here at home begin to look on that most dangerous of all political enterprises as a red herring, it will swiftly envelope this country like it has done in a large portion of the world.

This is a call to the Church-going public to forsake the theaters, football games, the racetracks, and other amusement places, and humble themselves before the Throne of God, begging for His mercy, never was the world in greater peril, never was the world less sincere toward God. We are like children, we want to eat our candy and keep it too. We want God to smile down on us, but we also want to play with the devil.

Another hour a day of prayer for a new advent of peace will seem but a very short time spent. Once we are in Communist control, and don't say it can't happen here, and when it does happen, churches will be used for warehouses etc. We are prone to trust in arms and planes, but only that power that is stronger than hydrogen bombs, will save us. Eddie Rickenbacker, the millionaire, used that power when a drift on the sea, and it worked. It is that mysterious power that can be used by all ages of the poorest to the wealthiest, and will give results when all hopes fail. Let me beg both saint and sinner to seek peace thru Him who never fails. Sincerely yours in Christ's service.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE—"Congress should turn to MacArthur for advice (on Korea). He is the one man in whose opinion on military affairs the country has confidence. It is absurd to think that we can be more effective militarily in Europe than we have been in Korea. Therefore, instead of spending ourselves into Communism we should pull in our expenditures, call out the National Guard to hold northern Canada and leave the treacherous so-called Allies in Europe to their own protection."

BOSTON RECORD—"We should get our troops out of Korea as quickly as possible. We should get out of the United Nations. We should end our uncommitted efforts to support and supply an ingrate Europe."

HOUSTON TRAVELER—"It may be that we shall be able without further large scale commitments to hold some defense line in Korea. If, however, that proves impossible, let us evacuate our troops, as Britain evacuated hers at Dunkirk that was a proud retreat. No man was so tired that he could not hold his spirit aloft in the knowledge that his country had made no surrender."

Handel's "Messiah" will be presented Friday evening at 8:00 and Sunday at 2:00 by the Glee Club and Orchestra of Stetson University in Elizabeth Hall in DeLand.
 We attended this great event last year and were more than pleased in the way this work was executed. Stetson has a group of fine singers. We were particularly impressed with Bill Jones, Lassard and John Everett, tenor. However, every voice sounds well trained and the amateurish quality, sometimes conspicuous in college glee clubs, is almost entirely lacking. We are not alone in praising the Stetson U. Glee Club, for laudatory comments have followed wherever it has performed.
 After hearing them sing the "Messiah", one leaves the auditorium with something new and refreshing. Handel's melodies are so appealing and easy on the ear that unfortunately not so on the singers.
 It might be a good thing for those who are participating in the Sanford Choral Society's Easter production, "The Messiah", to go to DeLand on Friday or Sunday and listen to this talented group.
 Central Florida Symphony
 Subscription tickets for six concerts of the Central Florida Symphony Orchestra sell for $12.50 or $9.00 each and are now on sale. Some fine works are scheduled and among the major composers who will be performed are: Richard Strauss, Maurice Ravel, Mozart, and Cesar Franck. Several eminent soloists will appear from time to time.
 The first concert is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 5, at 8:00 P.M. in the Winter Park High School auditorium.
 "People Named Smith"
 If Allen Smith, the successful "Howell", to quote comedian Fred Allen, has done it again. He has come out with another hilarious book, called, "People Named Smith". This book is written for people who have a bit of screwball in their make-up. If you liked "Life in a Putty Knife Factory" and "Low Man On A Totem Pole", this book will send you to new heights of hilarity from which you may not completely recover. It's pure fun throughout, an excellent "escape" if nothing else.

Annual Party Held By Philathea Class

The Philathea Class of the First Presbyterian Church held its annual Christmas party and covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. Victor Greene, Monday night with Mrs. R. A. King and Mrs. R. E. Herndon co-hostesses.
 Unusual and beautiful decorations of Brazilian peppers, small Christmas trees and figurines representing Christmas were used throughout the house. The table from which supper was served was covered with a poinsettia cloth with a center arrangement of white candles and miniature Christmas trees.
 After supper Mrs. P. T. Doty conducted a short business meeting. Mrs. Greene presented the devotional using a Christmas scripture. The group sang carols appropriate for each picture.
 Those enjoying the party were Mrs. A. G. Melvin, Mrs. Gabe Mitchell, Mrs. Al Hunt, Mrs. W. M. Jennings, Mrs. J. N. Gillon, Mrs. H. C. Hetzel, Mrs. C. J. Snidow, Mrs. W. M. ### AP All-America Team Includes Offensive And Defensive Stars

By TED SMITH
Associated Press General Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The Associated Press All-America football team for 1950, for the first time, is divided into offensive and defensive squads in key with the modern style of play. Oklahoma, Army and Texas each placed two men on the first team.

Probably as a direct result of the spread of the two platoon system, football offense reached a new peak in 1950. A survey of the teams in The AP's top ten rankings showed that 16 years ago the nation's leaders averaged 17 points per game. This year, with a shifting variety of plays sustained by fresh waves of players, the average exceeds 30. A new high mark in offensive fury in a game between major schools was reached when Ohio State beat Iowa 63-21.

The offensive backs who stood out in this orgy of round ganging were Don Heinrich, Washington's tricky passer; Washington's general; Bobby Reynolds, sensational Nebraska sophomore who led the nation's major schools in scoring with 167 points; Everett Girmelius, big Michigan State back who gained 1,033 yards against tough opposition; and Dick Kazmaier, mauling of Princeton's undefeated team.

They had only the slightest margin, however, over the second team offensive backfield of Babe Parilli of Kentucky; Eddie Talboom of Wyoming; John Wright of Drake; and Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist.

Rounding out the first offensive team were Dan Foldsberg of Army and Don Stoner of Northwestern at ends; Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma and Bob Cain of Kentucky at tackles; Bud McFadin of Texas and Bob Ward of Maryland at guards; and Bill Vohaska of Illinois at center.

The All-America defensive squad that could contain the foe and pave the way for the formidable offensive array is composed of Frank Anderson of Oklahoma and Don Menasco of Texas at ends; Al Carapella of Miami and Al Wahl of Michigan at tackles; Les Richter of California and Ted Blicher of Tennessee at guards, with two linebackers to make up the second line of defense—Elmer Stout of Army and Irvin Holdash of North Carolina.

Two-Three Backs

For the three defensive backfield positions on the first team, men were selected best known for offensive prowess but who nevertheless were pillars of strength on defense: Vic Janoway of Ohio State, 60-minute player around whom his team's defense was built; Eddie Salem of Alabama, an skilled at stopping an opponent as in directing his team's attack; and Bob Williams of Notre Dame, a master quarterback always capable of taking the field to stem an attack.

The same situation prevails for the defensive backs of the second team—Wilfred (Whizzer) White of Arizona State College, Leon Heath of Oklahoma and John Dettley of Mississippi.

But no possible rearrangement of All-America backfields can provide room for the best of brilliant ball carriers who starred in high scoring games. Chief among these are Parilli and Rote, Parilli, a mauler with the ball and a superb field general, led Kentucky to a victory one season marred only by the final defeat by Tennessee. Unfortunately Kentucky's schedule did not test the team's strength fully. Rote was outstanding as runner, blocker and pass receiver on an up-and-down Southern Methodist team.

With so much emphasis on offense, it was only natural that All-America nominations should flood in for such men as Francis

Straight from the Horse's Mouth

By ED HARPER

Sanford's shuffleboard season is about to get under way with home and home tournaments scheduled with Leeburg, Kustis, Kissimmee, DeLand, Orlando and other surrounding towns.

C. Hughes, president of Sanford's Shuffle Club, when interviewed yesterday said the courts are in excellent shape for the first time in several years. Hughes, who is a top flight shuffleboard player himself, says interest in shuffleboard has been less intense in Sanford than in neighboring towns because of the lack of well kept courts. He expects a large increase in the number of participants this year, especially among the winter visitors, since two new courts are being added.

Located just off Seminole Boulevard in the Fort Mellon Park, facing Lake Monroe, the courts have recently been resurfaced and the equipment overhauled.

Shuffleboard is a game of science and luck—a combination of billiards and bowling. Mr. Hughes explained. The object of the game is to obtain a score of 75 by sliding a round flat platter from one end of a 60 foot court to one of the squares in a triangle at the other end. The squares are numbered from one to ten in addition to which there is a square which counts ten off if your platter lands in it.

The game is usually played by four people, two at each end of the court, who play partners.

Contrary to popular belief, shuffleboard isn't played by simply pushing platters onto a square and having an opponent knock them off. Good play as well invariably use a block, which is a first shot so placed as to protect a later shot, if they shoot first. Since each player has four shots the man shooting last has an obvious advantage in as much as he may take cover behind his opponents block and also have last shot at the field.

An ability to play three combinations—hit one platter with the initial shot in order knock off a third—is one of the greatest refinements in shuffleboard comparable to the three cushion billiard shot.

Top flight players often attempt to trick opponents into making shots which will, with a three combination, pile up points—but the players who can plan and make this shot consistently are rarities.

In tournaments with nearby cities of equal size Sanford is often at a disadvantage since, with only ten courts, it cannot develop comparable teams. Mr. Hughes emphasized. He pointed out that Leeburg and DeLand both are considerably better equipped for shuffleboard than Sanford, each having more and better courts.

In spite of this handicap Sanford will play a full schedule of matches during the winter months, Mr. Hughes said.

Shuffleboard is a game open to just about everyone. The exercise is gentle—but it is also a good workout. Skill, rather than power, is at a premium in the game, and a careful strategist will invariably win over a good shot who has no knowledge of the fundamental tactics of shuffleboard.

Gator Basketball Team Opens With Florida Southern

9 Lettermen Return To Give 1950 Squad Experienced Core

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 6.—(Special)—Basketball stepped to the edge of the stage at the University of Florida this week and will move out of dress rehearsals into the first showing of the year when Florida Southern comes here this evening.

Coach Sam McAllister, starting his tenth season as Gator cage mentor, is building on a foundation of nine lettermen and ten sophomores.

"We're pretty thin in experience and height," McAllister said, "but might be a little stronger in reserve strength than a year ago. In general, we aren't strong enough for the schedule ahead of us."

Florida will play a 22-game schedule that includes 14 Southeastern Conference games. The Gators meet the three pre-season leaders of the loop: Kentucky, Tulane and Tennessee.

Only a third of the lettermen could be termed experienced ball players. Captain Ted Jaycox, guard from Ocala, won major honors in 1949 and 1950; center Harry Hamilton won his spurs in 1947-48-49 and has returned to the squad this year after missing the 1950 season; and forward Harry Haskins won letter in 1948-49. Hamilton is from Gainesville and Haskins from Key West.

The other six lettermen saw limited service last year only as reserves. They are: forwards Harold Schulman and Pete Peterson, of Miami; Harold Bert, Maner; center Edgar Johnson, Pensacola; and guards Dick Weller, Miami; and Choney Meyers, Ft. Lauderdale.

Speedy little Dick Weller, who captured the fancy of the fans last winter with an exceptionally scrappy brand of play, saw considerably more service than the other one-year lettermen.

The actual key to Florida's hardwood possibilities is in the hands of half a dozen sophomore hopefuls who seem to be very likely prospects this early in the year. The list is topped by forwards Red Wetherington and Curtis Condie of Miami and Atlanta; center Bill Leach of Stuart; and guards Elam Stokes, Monticello, Kentucky; Nelson Vinal, Jacksonville; and George Hitchins, St. Petersburg.

The other squadmen are forwards Roy Roberts, Tampa; Harry Maner, Plant City and Russell Briggs, Plesson; centers Les Johnson, Miami and Frank Dryden, Keyston; Helghes; and guards Jerry Billings, Miami, and Bill Talbot, Delray Beach.

Baseball Magnates Hagggle Over Threats Of Radio And Television

By JOE REICHLER

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 6.—(AP)—The radio-television threat is in sharp focus as the minors began their "Fight for Survival." President George Trautman, in his annual report to his National Association of Minor Leagues, warned today that "both the major and the minors are at the crossroads."

"Unrestrained broadcast and telecast of major league games from stations located in minor league territory has contributed much more to the decline of attendance than all other factors combined," Trautman said. "More than 2,000 stations located from coast to coast engaged in 1950 broadcasting major league games."

Trautman cited other factors that contributed to the 10 per cent attendance drop in his speech to the delegates from 57 leagues at the opening business session of the convention.

He acknowledged that some decrease in the turnstile count could be blamed on poor weather conditions, fewer recreational dollars and the unsettled international condition.

"The question is simply this," Trautman said. "Can minor league baseball survive in daily competition with the top performers of the profession? The answer, in my opinion, is 'No.'"

"I feel there must be some modification of the present radio and television regulations if minor league baseball is to live. The big brother must realize he has a superior appeal which can ruin the little fellow. We must take every step open to us toward a solution of the vexing problem."

"In a larger sense, it is not minor league baseball alone which stands to fall. But, because of the dependence of the majors upon the minors for the development of players, both the majors and the minors are at the crossroads."

Cocle Lavagetto, who ruined Floyd Bevens' dream of a world series no-hitter, was named Brooklyn coach.

Country Club Holds Dogfight Sunday

Fifty members of the Seminole County Golf Club will square off in a dog-fight Sunday beginning at 1:00 P. M. with the losing team buying the winners a barbecue dinner. Two evenly matched groups of 25 members each have been formed to tackle the 18 hole course. The tournament will be played by pairs on a match-play basis.

Cotton Bowl Head Claims Tennessee-Texas Tilt Is Tops

DALLAS, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Joe C. Thompson, Jr., who modestly tells everyone within hearing distance that all the bowls are secondary to the Cotton Bowl, thinks the Texas-Tennessee clash here Jan. 1 will be quite a football show.

"We have the No. 1 bowl game," said the president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association today as he announced completed plans for the New Year's day classic in Dallas.

He has returned from a jaunt to Tennessee where he saw all the athletic officials of the school, conferred with the governor of Tennessee, and all in all whipped up a tremendous interest for the Cotton Bowl in the southland.

"Why do I say we have the No. 1 bowl?" he asked, then answered quickly: "Well, we have the only bowl with two of the country's top four teams playing in it. We really ought to have one undefeated team—Texas. A bad passback from center was the only thing that kept Texas from beating Oklahoma, you know."

Charles Defeats Barone By 11th Round Knockout

Battered Ex-Marine Downed By Right; Charles Unmarked

CINCINNATI, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Erzard Charles, the heavyweight fistie crown fitted more firmly on his head after last night's 11th round knockout over Nick Barone, looked around today for new foes to fight.

The champ admitted he needed more work, despite a better-than-fair punching job on the stocky Syracuse ex-Marine who forced the fighting from the opening gong until a ringing right blasted him in 2:06 of the 11th session.

Tom Tannas, co-manager of the Cincinnati Negro, had a confab on tap today with Al Weil of New York, matchmaker for the International Boxing Club—and there was a chance a new title scrap was in the making. Tannas and Weil said last night there was nothing definite on the next bout for Charles but that it might be held in Detroit against an opponent still to be selected.

A gross gate of $63,314.50 was paid by 10,986 home town fans to see Charles in his first appearance here as champion. The crowd almost tore down the Cincinnati Garden arena, the king of the heavier handed Barone's first knockout and knockout in 61 fights.

Miami Meets 1st Single Wing Team In Orange Bowl

'Hatchet' Hackett And Frank Smith Are To Play In Bowl Game

MIAMI, Dec. 6.—(Special)—Not only will University of Miami's football team be facing a single wing formation team for the first time this season when the Hurricanes meet Clemson Jan. 1, 1951, in the Orange Bowl game, but it will be the first time the majority of the Hurricanes have ever met that formation in their college careers.

Last time Miami faced the single wing was in the closing game of the 1948 season when Vanderbilt's single wing swept over Andy Gustafson's first Miami team, 33 to 6. The sophomores and juniors, who predominate on Miami's undefeated Hurricanes, have never run up against a single wing foe in college play.

However, the manner in which the Hurricanes put together a defense to stop the University of Missouri split T indicates that the Hurricane coaches will be able to muster a sturdy band of defenders for this one.

Coach Gustafson may make some changes in his defensive alignments for this game to get some bullier men in the forward wall but on the whole, such stalwarts as Al Carapella, Sam David, Leo Martin and the rest, plus Wilfred Stok and Co-captain Pete Mastellone as tacklers up, should be able to handle themselves even in the fast Clinton company.

The Hurricane coach will also come up with some backfield changes since Quarterback Jack Hackett is due to return to action in this tilt. It seems probable that Bob Schumacher will alternate at quarterback with Hackett and at fullback with Harry Mallou. Frank Smith has regained his early season health and is back at left halfback but Jim Dooley, the right halfback, can also play there, giving the Hurricanes a lot of depth in class with a minimum number of men.

Seven Million Vets Have Received Aid Through G. I. Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—About 7,758,000 veterans, one-half of all World War II ex-servicemen, have received educational or job aid from the government, the Veterans Administration said today. It placed the cost at about $12,000,000,000. That averages out to $1,500 of aid for each veteran who has taken advantage of the GI bill or the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. The latter, passed in 1943, is a program reserved for disabled veterans needing aid to overcome their handicaps. Full enrollments in schools and colleges under both laws, VA said, are down 20 per cent from last year. Total enrollment in all types of schools, from grade through postgraduate schools, was 1,203,500 on Nov. 1. A year ago it was 1,528,700. College-level training has dropped most sharply, from a peak of 1,245,300 in the fall of 1947 to about 550,000 today. Only 188,200 veterans are taking on-the-job training now, the VA said. The peak in that part of the program, often called "earn while you learn," was 720,500 in early 1947. The first big overhaul job done on the GI bill was aimed at on-the-job training after it was found that some high-paid executives were receiving a government allowance while training for a still high position. Congress put a ceiling on earnings. On-the-job training, with 337,600 veterans now participating, stayed near its peak period of June, 1950, when 362,000 veterans were enrolled. By far the larger part of the total cost of the two programs has stemmed from the GI bill. And, in turn, the great part of that cost is traceable to veterans who entered schools and colleges. In most cases, the VA pays all tuition costs, all books and fees and a monthly subsistence allowance. Four years is the maximum training period. For most veterans, the cut-off date for entering any kind of training is July 25, 1951 and the cut-off date for finishing up, in most cases, is July 25, 1956. Eligibility does not extend to veterans who did not serve in World War II but Congress now has several bills to give Korean War veterans benefits of the two laws.

3rd World War Can Start Over Korea, Vishinsky States

Soviet Delegate Tries To Delay Debate On Motion For Withdrawal Of Chinese

LAKE SUCCESS, Dec. 7—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky told the United Nations today "The American intervention in Korea is the crux of the third World War and it is halted to avert it."

The Soviet Foreign Minister spoke before the General Assembly's 60-nation political committee in a vigorous attempt to delay debate on a six-power demand for the withdrawal of Chinese Communist troops from Korea.

A few minutes before he spoke, another Communist delegate, Vavro Hajdu of Czechoslovakia, said any demand for the Chinese would have only "placating value" within a few days because of the rapid retreat of the U. N. forces.

French delegate Jean Chauvet touched off the bitter procedural clash by demanding top priority for the six-power proposal for withdrawal of the Chinese. Vishinsky said his demand was "most unprecedented."

He argued that the committee must continue with debate on Russia's charges of American aggression against Formosa.

No decision had been taken when the committee recessed for lunch. While the procedural wrangling continued, U. N. diplomats anxiously awaited word from Peking whether the Chinese would accept the demand.

Conviction Of Hiss Is Upheld By U.S. Court

Former State Department Official Is Under Sentence For Lying In Spy Trial

NEW YORK, Dec. 7—(AP)—Conviction of Alger Hiss, former high State Department official, on a charge of perjury was unanimously upheld today by the U. S. circuit court of appeals.

The lanky, 46-year-old Hiss was convicted last January of lying when he denied dipping government secrets to Whittaker Chambers, counsel for a pro-war Soviet spy ring.

He was sentenced to five years in prison, but has been free in $10,000 bail pending appeal.

The court of appeals opinion, written by Judge Hattie B. Clark and concurred in by Judges Augustus Hand and Thomas B. Swan.

Referring to the testimony of Chambers, the government's principal witness, the court said: "Indeed, it is perfectly plain that his testimony, believed as it evidently was by the jury, is of such breadth and scope that, if it was adequately substantiated by other evidence, as the law required, there was enough to support the verdict."

Chambers, an avowed Soviet spy courier, was the chief accusing witness during both trials. The first ended in a jury deadlock. The main documentary evidence against Hiss was a batch of papers Chambers kept hidden in a hollowed out pumpkin on his Maryland farm.

During argument of the appeal, Hiss' attorneys hammered at the checked last life of Chambers. They compared it, unfavorably, with Hiss' brilliant career both as a lawyer and a diplomat, and said his conviction was based on a "figment of the psychopathic imagination" of Chambers.

Defense Attorney Robert M. Benjamin charged that the government was "persecuting" Hiss.

Truman And Attlee Study Proposal For Blockade Of Chinese Mainland; Allied Troops Form Defense Line

Vanguard Of Million Man Chinese Force Surges Southward; Marines Encircled

TOKYO, Dec. 7—(AP)—Allied troops braced on a new half-defense line 25 miles south of Hailan P'yong-yang today for a stand against steadily advancing vanguards of a million-man Chinese Red expeditionary force.

The line stretched inland 70 miles in Northwest Korea from the Yellow Sea. It was a defense in depth on commanding heights and not a solid line.

The U. S. Eighth Army, with its long and bitter retreat at a halt, was greatly outnumbered and hard hit but still was a united fighting force.

The Chinese armies in front of it were estimated at 100,000 men with up to 80,000 combat reserves behind those Reds and hundreds of thousands more in Korea or moving up from Manchuria.

The Eighth Army force on the defense line is something less than the 110,000 men Lt. General Walton H. Walker had when he was forced to retreat late in November.

Northwest of the new line, U. S. Marines and doughboys battled in a blizzard in a dogged effort to break out of Red traps south of the Changjin Reservoir. They broke out of one and have to fight through another.

Underlining the critical situation of the United Nations forces near the reservoir and elsewhere on the northeast coast was the withdrawal of the American garrison from the east coast port of Wonsan.

A bombardment by three U. S. destroyers and shore fire by South Korean Marines covered the pull-out of Wonsan. Presumably the American garrison at Wonsan was relatively small. It was not identified.

Truman-Attlee Talks Shift To Presidential Yacht

SECRET SERVICE PROTECTION BRISTLES around President Truman (facing camera) in Washington, before he boarded the yacht, Intrepid, for further talks with British Prime Minister Clement Attlee. While the Chief Executive is said to stand on the principle that the U. S. is fighting aggression in Korea and will continue to do so despite Red China's intervention, Attlee reportedly favors negotiation. (International Soundphoto)

Thousands Of Children Welcome Santa Claus At Christmas Parade

Santa Claus was welcomed by thousands of delighted children and a crowd estimated at more than 12,000 who thronged the downtown section of the Intrepid, held in his honor, Dec. 7.

Stuffed Mermaids, a group of children, were the first to greet Santa Claus on the Intrepid. They were followed by a group of children from the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and a group of children from the St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Reuther Declares Meat-Axe Methods Used In Inflation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—(AP)—Labor leader Walter Reuther today accused the government of bungling conversion to defense production and of trying futilely to control "unway inflation" through a "meat axe approach."

Reuther, president of the CIO United Automobile Workers, called for all-out home front mobilization immediately, including provision for "genuine" price control.

He said the present price curb law—not yet invoked—allows "not for stabilization on price but for chronic, continuing inflation."

In a statement prepared for a Senate House committee the young union chief said nothing about wage controls, which the law says must be imposed simultaneously with any price restrictions.

Body Of Blonde Is Found In Danish Diplomat's Flat

CHICAGO, Dec. 7—(AP)—The body of an attractive 27-year-old strawberry blonde was found early today in the swank apartment of Tom Alder, 42 Bond street, second floor in Chicago.

Police Lt. John E. Decker said he believes the woman, Mrs. Marion Helen, had 17 foreign travel stamps on her passport.

Decker and Mr. Herben left a two-page note in which she was identified as Mrs. Marion Helen.

Bitter, Bearded Marines Battle Desperately To Cut Through Trap

EDITH'S NOTE—Associated Press war correspondent Jack MacBeth flew into Koto aboard an evacuation plane to report the action of American troops trapped there by encircling Red Chinese forces. Evacuation plans leaving Koto, tiny air-strip carry out only the wounded, but for the moment is an island of relative safety for U. S. Marines and 24 Division Troops who have fought their way through Chinese forces down from Changjin Reservoir to Koto, a distance of 22 miles.

At Hagaru they linked up with other Marine elements as well as some soldiers from the U. S. Seventh Division who were hard hit on the other side of the lake.

At daybreak Wednesday the forces began to assume battle formation and shortly afterwards started to file out of the lake.

Two-Page Note Gives Jealousy As Cause Of Suicide Death

CHICAGO, Dec. 7—(AP)—The body of an attractive 27-year-old strawberry blonde was found early today in the swank apartment of Tom Alder, 42 Bond street, second floor in Chicago.

Police Lt. John E. Decker said he believes the woman, Mrs. Marion Helen, had 17 foreign travel stamps on her passport.

Decker and Mr. Herben left a two-page note in which she was identified as Mrs. Marion Helen.

Someone poked his head into the tent from the icy darkness and announced "They're coming in."

Those inside the tent who were awake mused the others. Down the road a piece voices and the noise of vehicles moving in out of the darkness made it plain that the first elements of the Marine column had arrived.

Col. Homer L. Litzenberg of Washington, D. C., commanding officer of the Seventh Regiment of the First Marine Division, said: "We had a rough night of it, I can tell you that."

Allied Naval Forces May Be Used To Hit Reds If UN Troops Are Beaten On Land

Donald K. Carroll, Department commander in Florida of the American Legion, will preside at the mid-winter conference, Saturday and Sunday at the Mayfair Inn and the Armory. The date for the conference was put ahead a month by Mr. Carroll in order that it could be held in time to secure hotel reservations.

600 Members Of American Legion To Attend Meeting At Mayfair Inn

Nearly 600 members and delegates of the Department of Florida of the American Legion and Auxiliary are expected to attend the Florida mid-winter conference Saturday and Sunday, with headquarters at the Mayfair Inn and meetings at the Armory, Joel Field, chairman of arrangements for the Sanford Post No. 53, announced today.

The program will include business sessions, committee meetings, social activities and religious services.

The principal speakers at the conference at which Commander Donald K. Carroll will preside, will be Carl Harslag, National Americanism Committee member from Washington, D. C., and Joe H. Adams newly elected national vice-commander.

Department Commander Carroll has set as the theme of the conference, said Mr. Field, "The role of the American Legion in the fight against Communism."

Mrs. S. E. Barlow Is Injured In Accident

Mrs. Sherwood E. Barlow, 2206 Park Avenue, was injured shortly after 8:30 o'clock this morning in an automobile accident at Oak Avenue and West Eighteenth Street, and was removed from her overturned 1949 Plymouth Sedan by police and taken in a Hrisson Ambulance to Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital.

Her condition at the hospital was reported to be good. She was, however, suffering from shock and bruises. Her automobile was described by police as a total loss.

Mrs. Barlow was driving south on Oak Avenue and her Plymouth collided with a 1948 Chevrolet panel pickup truck driven by Hobbes Franklin, 16, of 211 Chapman Street, who was driving east on Eighteenth Street. Damage to the truck was estimated at $350.
