Former County Commissioner Lawrence Swofford said today he is considering running for Mayor of Altamonte Springs in the fall election.

'Just Waved Scarf' — That Did It

MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—Barbel Brandmeier, 20 said today she just waved her scarf and 2,000 persons rioted.

Badly Injured Pilot Saved From Peak

United Press International PROVO, Utah (UPI)—A courageous pilot who had nothing but snow-halls to eat as he lay injured in a wrecked plane for four days was rescued today from the 8,200-foot level of a towering mountain near here.

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI)—Teamster Union President James R. Hoffa and an associate may be arraigned here next week on charges of using the mails illegally to promote a fraudulent housing development financed with union funds.

A temporary arraignment date of Oct. 20 was set by the U. S. district court Wednesday following return of a second grand jury indictment against Hoffa and Detroit banker Robert E. McCarthy Jr.

NEW YORK (UPI) — AFL-CIO President George Meany today characterized as "the funniest thing I've heard in a long time" the threat of Teamster President James R. Hoffa to sue Meany for defamation of character.

Hoffa's attorneys may seek at the arraignment or before to determine whether the Justice Department presented the grand jury with wire tap evidence they contend is "hearsay" and therefore not admissible.

The attorneys filed a motion Sept. 29 asking Federal Judge Joseph P. Lieb to suppress the evidence. The indictment was handed down before the judge ruled, however, and it was not known if the jury ever heard the evidence.

The 16-count indictment embodies the same offenses charged against Hoffa. McCarthy and Hoffa aide Henry Lower of Detroit last Dec. 7. The charges were thrown out in July on ground the grand jury had been picked in violation of federal regulations. Lower since has died of cancer.

United Press International helped ground crews find him with the same light. In seeming good spirits, he gave instructions to rescuers who carried him ten miles by stretcher to an ambulance. Honey, a fireman on the Santa Fe Railway, crashed Saturday afternoon during a snow storm while flying to visit his son, Bruce, 27, a senior at Brigham Young University. Bruce was in the first party to reach the plane. The father and son were reunited joyfully, but four days later than intended.

'Can't Accept Any Peaceful Coexistence'

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—The United States will never accept peaceful coexistence with Fidel Castro's Cuban government, Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Wednesday.

"There is no prospect of that. No prospect whatever," Rusk said before he addressed the national assembly of the United Church Women Wednesday night.

The secretary of state was scheduled to return to Washington this morning. He visited briefly while here with his brother, Miami Beach newspaper executive Parks Rusk.

The secretary said U. S. officials are in "close consultation" with Latin American nations of the Organization of American States, and hope for concerted action against Castro by the OAS.

Rusk would not say what this country would do if the OAS fails to act. But he said President Kennedy's statement that the United States would act alone against Cuba "if necessary" still stands.

"Cuba has made its commitment to forces outside this hemisphere and, as President Kennedy has indicated, this is not negotiable," Rusk said.

He denied recent charges by Castro that the United States is planning an invasion of Cuba.

In his talk before the church women, Rusk called for a more flexible and less restrictive U. S. international trade policy. He said this was needed to successfully negotiate with the European common market.

He said the nation should seek ways to underwrite losses suffered by U. S. producers as a result of foreign sales in this country.

Moon(shine) Project

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—State Beverage Director Thomas E. Lee said Wednesday he hopes his office would destroy 725 moonshine still operations by the end of the year.

He said state and federal agents smashed 64 illegal distilleries during September and seized 1,700 gallons of moonshine liquor along with 28,000 gallons of mash.

Bryant Bids For Europe's Visitors

CANNES, France (UPI)—Two U. S. governors from opposite corners of the country urged Europeans today to visit their "summer and winter" playgrounds.

Governors Farris Bryant of Florida and Albert Rosellini of Washington addressed the American Society of Travel Agents, meeting here in the fourth day of a conference.

Bryant told the delegates Florida has "excellent weather—and it is good all year around."

Bryant and Rosellini's pleas were in line with President Kennedy's new drive to get more Europeans to visit the United States.

Schools May Buy Warning Radios

The County School Board today agreed to consider purchase of 22 Comrad radios for each school as a protection in case of nuclear disaster.

C. D. Director A. B. Peterson Sr. told board members this morning that civil defense will help defray part of the cost of the radios.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee recommended consideration of purchase of the radios "because it looks like no other warning system is available."

"We are obligated to protect these children," Milwee stressed. Cost of the radios are expected to be approximately $50 each but Peterson said he would have more information on the cost at the board's next meeting.

The radios, used by individual schools, would be activated for an alert by local radio station and was called by Peterson "the most dependable and economical means at this time."

Peterson's report also ruled out public shelters being constructed on school grounds because of the "lack of adequate facilities to house children at the schools."

The report emphasized the need of a mass exodus of youngsters from the schools to their homes.

Director of Vocational Education E. S. Douglass told the Seminole County School Board this afternoon that funds to carry on personal survival courses under Civil Defense will be exhausted by Jan. 1. The Board decided that after this date all courses would be on a fee basis. At present there are some 500 persons taking the course at various Seminole County schools.

Athletic Purchase Snarl Ironed Out

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee today told the County School Board that the state has criticized the county school audit regarding athletic purchases but "everything is straightened out now."

Milwee explained that from now on all athletic purchases must come from the school board. He pointed out that in the past the athletic office took care of all purchases under $300.

"From now on all purchases will come out this office, the superintendent said. "Everything else in the audit was satisfactory," he added.

Southeast Asian Red Buildup Seen

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—Western military sources said today the Communists may try to rekindle the flames of battle on two Southeast Asian fronts with the approaching end of the monsoon season.

In Laos, the Communist-led Pathet Lao rebels are reported stockpiling arms and food in their northern "capital" at Xiang Khoung.

There are further reports, not officially confirmed, that the Communist Chinese are building up their ground and air power in provinces just to the north.

In South Viet Nam, guerrillas have maintained harassing attacks against the forces of President Ngo Dinh Diem despite several major victories by the government forces in recent months.

Diem has warned his people that if the Communist onslaught keeps on his country will face a full-scale war in the not too distant future.

Nobody asked me, but isn't it an unhealthy situation when a candidate is unopposed in an election?

With the County Commission talking about all the new duties they want to hang on the new county attorney I wonder if he will be responsible for making sure all the lights are off in the courthouse at night, or making sure the flag flies on all holidays.

Nobody asked me, but why does there have to be so much sectionalism in Seminole County? Why is there a South Seminole Democratic Women's Club and why all this talk about a proposed South Seminole Chamber of Commerce?

The Jaycees will sponsor Radio Day Oct. 28. First clue to the mystery celebrity... Never saw him without a suit. There'll be clues every day in this column. If you know who it is, send entries to Paul Lewis at the Jaycee Building.

Don't be surprised if civil defense is the hottest political issue during the next county commission election.

AFTERTHOUGHT: That is if we are all around!

The County Commission had better think twice before they decide to get rid of the county zoning board attorney and let the county attorney handle his job... wouldn't be surprised if instead of one lawyer withdrawing his name there'll be three others.

Juvenile Counselor C. E. McCord suffered a heart attack a few days ago and is reported resting comfortably in Orlando Air Force Base Hospital. No visitors allowed.

Rayburn Improves; Shakes Off Coma

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, dying of cancer, was making a "miraculous" recovery, today from pneumonia which put him in a coma only 24 hours before.

John Holton, Rayburn's administration assistant, jubilantly described Rayburn's improvement as miraculous. A bulletin issued by Rayburn's doctors at 10 a. m. EST, said:

"Mr. Rayburn is out of coma. He is definitely improved and the major change occurred this morning. He looks and appears younger this morning and recognizes his family and associates. His temperature is normal. His pulse, blood pressure and respiration have remained unchanged since the change for the better." Rayburn's basic ailment—the cancer which has spread through at least half his body—remains the same. There is no hope.

Times Dangerous, Kennedy Warns

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has no "immediate hope" of settling the Berlin crisis. He has warned that this is "the most dangerous time in the history of the human race."

Kennedy said Wednesday he hoped there would not be war, but that it would take skill, nerve and sacrifice to move through "a period of maximum hazard."

District Official Visits VFW Women

By JANE CASSELLBERRY

Mrs. Nina Benson of Daytona Beach, president of District 8, made her official visit to the VFW Auxiliary of Post 2397 at the Sept. 28 meeting held in the Casselberry Women's Club.

Mrs. Benson, while speaking on several subjects, stressed the importance of having 100 per cent membership by Dec. 31 and of working with the Post in every way.

Mrs. Irene March, local auxiliary president, presented Mrs. Benson with a small gift as a memento of her visit here.

Members also heard Commander Art Bloch in a brief opening address, and, during the business meeting, elected Mrs. Eva Moore as guard with Mrs. Louise Stewart, past district president, giving her the obligation.

The auxiliary is planning to help the Post with the carnival and parade to be held in Casselberry on Nov. 11 and all members are urged to attend the Bowling Meet scheduled at Medallion Lanes for 4 p. m. Sunday when the local men will bowl from wheel chairs against the Disabled American Veterans of Daytona Beach.

On Oct. 1, the Auxiliary joined the District 8 caravan to visit the Lake City Veteran's Hospital and on Oct. 29 they will visit veterans at Bay Pines in Pass-A-Grille.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Ruth Hopkins, Mrs. Mildred Johnson and Mrs. March served a refreshment course.

The next meeting of the group is scheduled at 8 p. m. today in the Casselberry Women's Club on Overbrook Dr.

Art Assn. Shows Mathieux Work

The Sanford Art Association is presenting its second one man show with a series of "Modern Art" pictures by Joseph E. Mathieux at Senkarik Paint and Glass Company.

Mathieux painted these pictures this summer while attending the University of Florida. The showing includes one cubistic type painting, four abstract surrealist paintings and one non-objective painting.

"I hope that the public will view them with an open mind, as they are not the type of pictures generally seen locally. The viewer should read his own interpretation into the paintings," said Mathieux.

The show will remain until October 27 and will be followed by the work of Gretchen Crowell.

Such was the President's slow, thoughtful and grave evaluation of East-West tension reflected in Berlin and Southeast Asia as he discussed world affairs at his news conference.

Close to 400 reporters crowded the State Department Auditorium for the Chief Executive's first question-and-answer session in six weeks. The conference was carried "live" to the nation by all major radio and television networks.

By subject, the President made these points:

Berlin: No solution is yet in sight. His talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko "did not give us immediate hope" that differences with Russia over Berlin would be easily settled.

Southeast Asia: Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, his special military adviser, leaves Sunday for South Viet Nam to study how the United States can better assist the Vietnamese government in resisting Communist threats.

Fallout Shelters: By mid-November, the government will be ready with plans whereby every homeowner can give his family minimal protection against radioactive fallout in event of enemy attack. Kennedy said such protection was necessary because "we are going to live through a long period of constant tension with these dangerous (thermonuclear) weapons which will be proliferated."

Taxes: Because of heavy military expenditures, prospects of a tax cut next year have vanished. Kennedy said he still wanted a balanced budget next year but did not promise one. As for possibly higher taxes, this will depend on how "excessive and substantial" military costs become.

Nuclear Tests: The Russians have fired "more than 20" atmospheric explosions in their current test series. Until the President spoke, this government had announced the detection of only 19 Soviet tests. The White House said later it was true that the government had not announced all of the Russian tests it had detected. This was done to protect the security of the U. S. detection system.

Oviedo P-TO Meets Today

The Oviedo P-T-O will meet at 8 p. m. today for the first business session of the school term after which parents may visit individual classrooms for a half-hour period for a brief summary report of material to be covered during the year.

This period, however, will not be used for individual consultations with the teachers who announce that they are making arrangements to set aside Oct. 20 as a conference day.

Groundbreaking Ceremonies Held At Grace Methodist

Ground was broken for the Grace Methodist Church Children's classroom building last Sunday. This school building is the first of three similar structures planned for the church by Architect F. Wade Tye.

A sanctuary is also contemplated in the near future. Burt Revels Inc. is the general contractor for the project.

The building committee, headed by Chairman Wayne Thompson, with the assistance of Tom Parsons, pastor, encouraged a contemporary architectural solution for the new building complex.

The school building is constructed of standard materials. Masonry bearing walls radiate from the center courtyard to the building exterior. Nine classrooms and three covered entrances focus on the courtyard area. Interior overhangs double as covered walks facing the courtyard. Solar glass is used in exterior classroom windows where they are exposed to direct solar radiation. When weather conditions permit, each classroom is cross-ventilated without the use of mechanical equipment. During inclement weather, each classroom has individually controlled air-conditioning and heating. Each classroom is equipped with toilet and lavatory facilities, built-in teacher's storage, chalkboards, tackboards and movable storage cabinets. Geometrically efficient, the round building provides a maximum of space with minimum exterior wall and overhang area.

When calculated in accord with current school criteria, the cost of construction is approximately $6.04 per square foot fully equipped.

Another phase of club work was shown by Mrs. Joe Wright who modeled a pair of discarded shoes brought back to use in the wardrobe by covering with material to match the dress she also had made at home.

Exchange Student Sizes Up Berlin Situation

Miss Dorie Demtroeder, Kiwanis Exchange student from Germany was the special guest of the Kiwanis Club at their luncheon meeting at the Civic Center, Wednesday.

In answer to the question, "What do you think about the Berlin situation?" Miss Demtroeder had this to say.

"The Berlin situation is very bad for Germany, but much worse for the United States and for Russia."

"Now we will see which can survive."

Miss Demtroeder first addressed the club in German and then translated her remarks into English. After the brief opening remarks Miss Demtroeder answered written questions from the audience.

She said that she became interested in becoming an Exchange student when her teacher told them about the opportunity that was made possible by the Kiwanis International organization and she immediately filled out the application and sent it in. There were many others who applied and the first time she was not accepted. Then she tried a second time and this time was chosen from a group of 64 other students, all of whom "wanted very much to come to America."

"After I heard that I was coming, I could hardly eat or sleep and we just talked about it all the time," said Dorie.

Students in Germany begin their school day at 8 p. m., she said, and also go to school on Saturday. They have almost no elective subjects and take as many as 14 different subjects at once, including French, English and Latin, which are all required from the 8th grade up.

Only very very small schools in Germany are co-educational, and from the beginning to the end of their school days, boys and girls attend separate schools.

"But I like this way you have here much better!" said Dorie. Classes are a little more informal here, and there are many more social activities. German schools have very few clubs and extra curricular functions. There is no vocational training in the academic schools. Vocational subjects are taught in special schools and students are only required to attend until they are 14, if they do not wish to go on to the universities.

Asked what is the hardest thing about her visit here, Miss Demtroeder mentioned the heat in Florida. She said the temperature seldom got over 80 in Germany and such high temperatures as are experienced here have never been known to her.

Students begin studying English when they are 13 years old and Miss Demtroeder said that American Exchange students coming to the European countries have the most difficulty with the language.

"But we would be very, very glad to have an American Exchange student in Germany to visit with us," she said.

Miss Demtroeder thanked the Kiwanis Club, in German, for the opportunity to come to America and said that it would always be her most cherished memory.

Former Resident Dies In Lakeland

Funeral services for Mrs. W.P. Buhrman were held at 10 a. m. today in the College Heights Methodist Church in Lakeland.

Mrs. Buhrman, who died Tuesday at her home, 954 Callahan Ct. Lakeland and her husband, Rev. W. P. Buhrman who was pastor of the Sanford First Methodist Church for 12 years, had many friends here.

Survivors, other than her husband, are a son, Edward in Tallahassee; two daughters, Mrs. Wurt Hines, Starkeville, Miss., and Mrs. Spence McClary, Cutler Ridge and several grandchildren.

Burial will be in Virginia, former home of the deceased.

Red Cross Endorses United Fund Drive

"We wholeheartedly endorse and are happy to join the other participants in the United Fund Drive which will be launched on October 31," John F. McClosky, chairman of the Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross said today.

In September, 1960, Hurricane Donna hit Seminole County with its attendant disaster and hardships. More than $13,000 was expended in aiding victims of the storm. Shelters were maintained for the homeless, financial aid was given where assistance was needed and more than 200 emergency requests for information from people around the world concerning relatives in the area were answered, McClosky stated.

He cited the continuing Red Cross program in Seminole County, consisting of the service to Armed Forces personnel at the Naval Air Station, civilian training to meet disasters and emergencies, first aid instruction, home nursing, relief to the needy and an extensive water safety program.

"The Red Cross merits the support of every citizen of Seminole County. Its share of the goal is $6,500," said McClosky.

Lake Mary HD Club Instructed In Four Phases Of Homemaking

Eighteen members and two guests attending the meeting of the Lake Mary Home Demonstration Club Tuesday received instructions and samples of delicious tuna roll, pies and cinnamon rolls prepared by Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Olan Boutwell from recipes received through the State Extension Service. Pastry for all three items was made by the new "hot water whip" method.

Another interesting demonstration for today's homemakers who entertain formally and informally at coffees and teas was presented by Mrs. Martin who emphasized the fact of properly placing chairs at the table.

"Guests never should have to move a chair from the table upon sitting or rising," she pointed out, showing that by using the measurement of one-hand length from the table to position the chairs, one may be seated or leave with ease.

Another phase of club work was shown by Mrs. Joe Wright who modeled a pair of discarded shoes brought back to use in the wardrobe by covering with material to match the dress she also had made at home.

The Christmas Angel, candle holder and Christmas Advent wreath, articles shown by Mrs. Mabel Brown and made from instruction received at a recent workshop on inexpensive holiday decorations to be made at home, were received with such enthusiasm that the Lake Mary Club voted to sponsor an all-day workshop on Nov. 3 at the Fire Hall to share the instruction with all homemakers of the area. Mrs. M. J. Soroway will be present for the work session scheduled to open at 9:30 a.m. and will help those attending to make Christmas wreaths from a coat hanger and two yards of net at a total cost of 78 cents.

Mrs. Leonard Dunn, publicity chairman of the club who asked new members and guests for opinion of the home demonstration program, reported that all questioned agreed that they were "delighted with the free help and knowledge offered the homemaker through the clubs."

The monthly meeting was adjourned with prayer led by Mrs. Brown after which Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Boutwell, hostesses for the day, served the delightful luncheon they had prepared for the occasion.

Change In Date Officials of the Enterprise Blood Bank have announced that residents may donate blood at the Orange City Library Hall between the hours of 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. on Oct. 20 instead of on Oct. 23 as originally announced.

Casselberry Boys Spend Weekend On Hiking Trip

Scouts of Casselberry Troop 341 demonstrated many skills while passing badge requirements on cooking, setting up camp, compass reading and sending Morse code last weekend on a cross country hike to Lake Jessup. Accompanying the boys on the hike, made via Oviedo, were W. T. Daniel Jr., scoutmaster, and Leonard Casselberry, troop committee chairman. Rev. Darwin Shea conducted a Sunday morning worship service for the Troop.

Chuluota Club Changes Date Of Annual Meeting

The annual membership meeting of the Greater Chuluota Community Club, originally scheduled for Oct. 31, has been advanced to Oct. 24 due to the Halloween holiday. Main item on the agenda for the business meeting, which will begin promptly at 7 p.m., will be the election of five members to the Board of Directors. It has been requested that all proposed changes to existing by-laws be submitted by next Tuesday in order that the secretary can prepare and mail verbatim copies to all members.

Altamonte School Needs Clinic Help

More mothers are needed at the Altamonte Springs Elementary School for clinic work, Mrs. Laura Buell, chairman, has announced. There are 26 mothers working at the present time on regular schedules, Mrs. Buell said, with 10 substitutes. At least 10 additional regular workers are needed for both the morning and afternoon sessions, she said, asking that those interested in assisting with the service either contact her or make arrangements at the school.

Legion To Sponsor Weekly Dances

Residents of Seminole County who enjoy the recreational activity of dancing in a lively but orderly atmosphere may join in the weekly dances being sponsored by Old Glory American Legion Post 183 each Thursday night according to Post officials. Square and round dancing to the music of Bruce Eller and the Country Gentlemen will take place each week beginning tonight at the Legion Hall on Prairie Lake between the hours of 8 p. m. and midnight.

Lormann To Speak

Longwood residents are reminded to join members of the Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce for the 8 p. m. meeting today in the Civic League Building. A. R. Lormann, mayor of the city, will be the program's principal speaker.

Common Sense

This week has been set aside as Fire Prevention Week and once again citizens are being called upon to use a little common sense to prevent fires.

This city has been fortunate during the past year in regard to costly fires. Sanford is fortunate in having a fine fire department and citizens as a whole seem conscious of the need for fire prevention.

Fire prevention, or safety, is mostly a matter for individuals to examine their premises with an eye to hazards. This week is a good time to do a thorough cleaning job on your home.

The insurance underwriters spend thousands of dollars having pamphlets printed and distributed, outlining precautions that can and should be taken.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to pick up a copy at the fire station and devote a few minutes time to study them.

No Front Row Seat For Private Enterprise On The New Frontier

By HOLMES ALEXANDER

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Capitalism is crying for more worlds to conquer. Secretary Douglas Dillon (R., Treasury) comes from a capitalist family and party — he understands this crying need. "I certainly do," he answered me at a recent press conference when asked if the Alliance for Progress really offered U. S. industrialists the old-fashioned profit motive for investing in Latin America. He went on to read what the ministers at Punta del Este had to say about "private enterprise."

He told how the Latin American ministers had rejected the Cuban-Communist proposal to use some other phrase like "economy." He expected U. S. private investment to rise to something like $300 million a year. He expected substantial investment from West Europe.

We all ought to hope that Dillon's optimism is justified. But he is a Republican in a Democratic Cabinet, a free enterpriser among New Frontiersmen and a lamb smiling trustfully into the bared teeth of a lamb-eating pack.

After leaving the press conference, I got a copy of the Punta del Este report, entitled a la Madison Avenue, "Declaration to the Peoples of the Americas." Well sure enough, there was an exhortation "to stimulate private enterprise in order to encourage the development of Latin American countries . . . to provide jobs . . . to eliminate unemployment . . . to take their place among the modern industrialized nations of the world."

Yes, but this passage appears near the bottom of page 3 of a 5-page statement. Private enterprise stands fourth on a list of 12 "goals" which were proclaimed.

Ahead of private enterprise are these "goals": self-determination by the people, economic and social development, urban and rural housing programs, agrarian reform, "to wipe out illiteracy," health and sanitation, fair wages and satisfactory working conditions, tax reform and redistribution of income, price stability. Behind private enterprise come these "goals": a quick and lasting stabilization of Latin American (coffee) exports, and the economic integration of the Continent. After reading this Punta del Este Declaration, I dug up the Aug. 17 issue of the Wall Street Journal where John A. Grimes, under the title of "Anti-Business Aura," had summarized the Kennedy Administration's seven months' relationship with private enterprise at home.

Despite declaring last winter that Government and business were "necessary allies" rather than "natural enemies," the President, by the end of the summer had completed this record:

Bawled out, through his FCC Chairman, the radio-television community; panicked the private power companies by trying to add a Government-owned nuclear generating plant at Hanford, Washington; broadly hinted, through his CAB chairman, of Government-sponsored airlines mergers; made a threatening gesture, through his Attorney General, at General Motors, General Electric, American Tel. and Tel.; begun, through his Secretary of Commerce, to hand down a "code of ethics" for business; planted a public power man as Chairman of FPC; attempted to go into competition with business, which already has a sizable investment, in the desalinization of sea and swamp waters.

As a Republican, Mr. Dillon belongs to the party which argues on Capitol Hill that our problems are those which have grown out of the marvelous success story of capitalism. The solution is the expansion, not the destruction, of the system.

One problem surely is that the USA has reached a lofty plateau in consumer production, creature comforts, wages, hours and working conditions. The logical and progressive solution is that we try to extend our success into other parts of the Hemisphere.

But if we judge the Kennedy Administration on its deeds, not its words, it is a bust-business organization at home, and a pusher of "planned economy" abroad.

If Mr. Dillon can promote private enterprise in such an environment, he's a real superman.

The first railroad west of the Alleghenies was built in 1832.

GREAT WALL OF RED CHINA

From Rome

Henry McLemore

I once had a battle of patience with Job, and was well ahead and about to be carried off the field by my admirers, when I lost by a sudden knockout.

One second I was well ahead, and the next Job had retained his title as the most patient man in the world.

The cause of my defeat was the publication, in some magazine or another, of the one type of article that drives my patience to the brink — and then shoves it off.

The article (the umpteenth one in my lifetime) was the signed story of an amateur athlete in which he told what a sham and a fraud amateur athletic officials were, of how he had been paid cash for performances ever since he started out, of how sickening the whole set-up was, and of how the world and athletics were going to the Bad Place if something were not done about the situation.

These stories have been done by tennis players, footballers, basketballers, and every other branch of the limelight and charity-horse group.

In the very best of the purple phrasing which their ghost writers can pound out, the turnout amateurs bemoan their fate. They paint themselves as innocent babes, taken in by sharp, ruthless, crafty coaches, officials and promoters. They're the saints and all others the sinners.

The latest such article comes from the gutted legs — I mean pen — of Gordon Pirie, the former British Olympic star and holder of the world mark for 3,000 meters.

Gordon, in his soul-and-wallet baring story, admits to having received $2,800 this year while running in the Lily white Jersey and pants of the amateur.

Since Gordon is on the decline, it is safe to assume that in his better years he did even better financially.

Like all amateurs who have seen the light, Pirie neglects to give himself a downgrading. He forgets, entirely, that when he took money as an amateur he was just as big a fraud, just as elegant a sham, just as deceitful a fellow as those who slipped him appearance money under the table, or in the guise of top-heavy expense accounts.

He fails to mention that he took the cups, the medals, the laurel wreaths, the watches, and all the other loot that a winning amateur receives. It is not in the record book that, when standing on the pedestal reserved for winners, he ever held up his hand for silence and told the admiring crowd that he was far from snow white, and just about as much of an amateur as Polly Adler.

Nor has he suggested that he turn back the trophies which he won as a "shamateur." And don't let any of us think about hanging by our eyelashes until he does.

Such articles not only wear out my patience — they make me sick. And if there is one thing I do not like, it is to be made ill by a two-toned, double-dyed hypocrite.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE K-422: Mable L., aged 27, is the wife whom I described yesterday as having suffered a nervous breakdown.

Perhaps you will recall that she spent some time in a sanitarium where she received shock therapy without any appreciable benefit.

Because she seemed so weak and ill, she was advised to sleep a great deal. If she showed any slight nervousness, her dutiful husband urged her to go to bed and get some more rest.

But rest wasn't really what she needed. Her trouble was an un-solved emotional conflict.

Sleep and good food cannot solve emotional conflicts, though they may be desirable in building up physical strength.

Suppose your automobile motor isn't firing properly because of incorrect timing. For example, suppose the wires to a couple of your sparkplugs have accidentally been interchanged.

The motor will be weak and backfire. The efficiency of the car will be greatly reduced. It will be slowed down. In short, the automobile will be "sick."

But you cannot make it get well by pouring a better grade of gasoline into the tank. Changing oil will also not correct this trouble.

Nor will it recover by letting it "rest" in the garage for a fortnight. The only sensible therapy for your auto will be the straightening out of the wires that have been crossed.

By the same token, you folks with emotional conflicts and you who are suffering nervous breakdowns, will not be cured by rest or medicine, diet or change of climate.

The latter may help in a general way to divert your attention from your problems and build up your physical body.

"I feel like a new person already," Mable telephoned me the day following her visit to Chicago.

"My husband remarked this morning that I was looking so rested and refreshed, that he couldn't believe I was the same person."

"I smiled to myself, for I knew it was simply the result of having got straightened out in my thinking."

"So I told him about my visit with you, and that you had showed me a conflict that had caused all my trouble."

"Moreover, I explained that you said I would never get well by staying in bed, for my trouble was not the sort that sleep would cure."

"I know I am well already, for subconsciously I think I realized all along what was wrong with me."

"But I wouldn't admit it consciously, and nobody else ever put his finger on the problem, so I just dragged along, never getting any better because I was never being treated for my basic difficulty."

Mable's case is a good example of the need for more psychology in medicine.

Don't jump to the conclusion that I believe all ailments are mental, for I am a modern trained physician and surgeon, as well as a psychologist.

There are countless times when straight medicine is the best treatment. If you have acute appendicitis, it is well to be operated on as soon as possible.

And the best preventive of smallpox or diphtheria is not psychology, but vaccination or inoculation.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The next few weeks should see President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress with Latin America begin to take more definite form.

It is still a pretty fuzzy thing. It has been lost sight of in the excitement over Berlin, Laos and the United Nations crises. But the alliance is an important thing in Western Hemisphere affairs, and it deserves full attention.

President Felipe Herrera of Inter-American Bank, Secretary-General Jose A. Mora of Organization of American States, and Executive Secretary Paul Prebitch of the UN Economic Commission for Latin America are scheduled to meet early in November.

They'll name the nine-man panel of experts which will review and approve all alliance development plans.

There will be a Latin-American tax reform conference opening in Buenos Aires Oct. 11.

Fowler Hamilton has just been sworn in as head of the U. S. foreign aid program which is being reorganized and rechristened Agency for International Development—AID. How much of the Alliance is to be his responsibility has not been determined.

After six months of Kennedy administration fumbling in filling the job Robert F. Woodward has taken over as assistant secretary of state for Latin-American affairs. He has been keeping his neck in and his mouth shut till he gets his bearings.

This month he is attending meetings of U. S. ambassadors to Latin America in Lima, Peru, and San Jose, Costa Rica. At these sessions some of the policies and procedures for the conduct of alliance business will be worked out.

There is still a lot of cleanup work to do.

Rep. Porter Hardy Jr. (D-Va.), chairman of a House subcommittee on government operations, has issued a scathing report of waste and inefficiency in a $13 million aid program for Peru. He claims nobody in high office is trying to straighten out the mess.

If the ambassadors meeting in Lima want a demonstration of how not to conduct foreign aid programs they might be taken on a demonstration tour. For if the Alliance for Progress is to be a success there will have to be good U. S. administration.

Alliance critics and skeptics point out that administration of its programs is now scattered all over Washington.

State Department, Treasury, Agency for International Development, Export-Import Bank, World Bank and its subsidiaries, Inter-American Bank, Organization for American States, its economic and social council and maybe a few others lost sight of—all have a piece of alliance business. As an entity, it is as headless as the UN without Dag Hammarskjöld.

There is a top United States government policy committee on the alliance in State Department, headed by Under Secretary for Economic Affairs George W. Ball. There is a working level operations committee under William V. Turnage, State's economic officer for Latin America.

But there is as yet no clearing house for information on which progress the alliance is making, if any. Reports have to be run down in every agency that has a thumb in the gravy boat.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon has been the principal negotiator, spokesman and salesman for the alliance thus far. His claim is that the alliance was born running.

By this he means that over a billion dollars have already been poured into the Latin Americas since Kennedy first announced the plan for the alliance last March.

This has consisted of about 100 loans and grants made by existing agencies under old programs. The largest was a $500 million credit to Brazil, of which $100 million has been drawn to refinance purchases made in the United States.

Q—Just what does a person do to make a will? Does he put it in his handwriting or just sign a written statement?—B.R.

A—Dear B. R.: The first thing to do in making a will is to total up all your assets—money in the bank, insurance, U. S. Savings Bonds, stocks and real estate. Next, find out what you might receive from a pension plan. Decide to whom you wish to leave your worldly goods and formulate a plan. Then you are ready to see a lawyer.

The cost for this legal service is nominal and could pay for itself many times over in savings on taxes and court fees. Your lawyer will then draw the will, which usually must be witnessed by two persons when you sign. (Check your state laws.) Wills made without legal advice have been recognized when properly witnessed, but we don't advocate will-making as a do-it-yourself job.

Q—If I'm drafted what are my job rights?—R. S.

A—Dear R.S.: You are entitled to re-employment with the same seniority, status, pay and vacation rights that you would have received if you had continued on the job during the time spent on military duty.

You are entitled to any promotions due to seniority, any pay increases and benefits, such as life and health insurance. Once back on the job you are protected against being discharged without good cause for at least a year.

Q—What is the difference between a cashier's check and a teller's check?—A. S.

A—Dear A.S.: There is no difference. This type of check can also be called a bank check and simply means that the bank has set aside the funds to back the check.

Q—Is it true that I can exchange shares of stock on which I have a substantial profit for

Marsha Hendry Honored With Surprise Shower

Miss Marsha Hendry, bride-elect, was honored with a surprise buffet dinner and miscellaneous shower recently by Miss La Rue Jones and Miss Carol Ann Carroll at the Jones home, 1715 West Second St.

The honoree arrived at the home of La Rue, thinking they were going to church, and found the guests all waiting. Virginia Purley presented her a white corn pie corsage.

The buffet table was centered with a large cake, decorated in lavender and white with "Congratulations Marsha" across the top. Sandy Wright served the punch.

Following the supper, games were enjoyed by the group. Others attending were Jean Henson, Carole Cleveland, Cheryl Chandler, Lorraine Jeffords, Vicki Anloine, Mrs. R. E. Jones and Mrs. Harold Clark.

DAV Auxiliary Welcomes Guests From Orlando Unit At Meeting

The Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary Unit 30 held the October meeting Tuesday evening at the Chapter Home on Orlando Drive. Plans were completed for a rummage sale to be held in the Benton Bldg., 412 Sanford Ave., Oct. 28.

Margaret Scott, chairman of the sale, suggested anyone having any rummage contact Mrs. G. A. Muffley or the unit commander, Mrs. Valon Williams, and the articles will be picked up.

Distinguished guests invited to the meeting were Mrs. Irene Barnes, past state commander and present adjutant-treasurer of the Orlando Unit 16; Mrs. Delphia Rowe, past district commander and state executive committee-woman, and Mrs. Mammie Williams, senior vice commander of Unit 16.

Commander Louis Rotundo and Adj. G. A. Muffley of Chapter 30 were also invited guests. A social hour followed the routine business meeting.

Ten New Families Welcomed To Sanford Area

Most of the families welcomed to the Sanford area by Welcome Wagon hostesses the past week were transferred here by the Navy. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kratoch, a retired couple from Puerto Rico, were the only civilian couple in the group. All others were Navy personnel.

They include Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Koch and children, Eddie and Lisa, from Unionville, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Houton and daughter, Cassandra, from Adell, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mathews and children, Buddy, Amarae and Anthony Sue; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bower and Mark and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wisch, Miss Larry and Carol, all from Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Lorbeer, John and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dillow, Frank, Michael, Bruce, Juanita and Linda; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Eechey, George and Johnny and Mrs. H. T. Mehan, Patrick, Michael and Dennis, all from Jacksonville.

Mrs. George Hostess To Meeting Of Osteen Home Club

The Osteen Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank George Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John Bradin, president, presided. A letter was read from Mr. Harold Eby, county agent, concerning a civil defense and first aid program which should be brought before all clubs.

Mrs. James Wallin gave the program on "House Cleaning Made Easy." She also told of making planters and decorating glassware and bottles. A work meeting is to be conducted in the near future.

The hostess served apple pie and coffee to Mrs. James Wallin, Mrs. John Bradin, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Harry Osteen, Mrs. Joe Masters, Mrs. Guy Beall and Mrs. Clarence Snyder.

Enlisted Wives Plan Meeting

The Enlisted Wives Club of VAF-11 will meet Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Lake Golden for the regular monthly business session.

Refreshments will be served and all VAF-11 wives are invited to attend. Those in need of transportation may call Mrs. James McNulty or Mrs. Frank Dillahunty.

Smith - Grow Wedding Announced

Mrs. Agnes Cross Smith of Oakland, Fla., and Emery Earl Grow, of Miami and formerly of Sanford, were united in marriage, Oct. 6 at Folkston, Ga.

The groom was a resident of Sanford for many years while he was employed by the Coast Line Railroad. He is a brother of Mrs. Philip J. Allen, 111 Holly Ave. The couple will make their home in Oakland.

Officers Wives Hold Tea At Slye Home

Mrs. June Slye and Beverly Walker were co-hostesses for the Naval Air Station Officers Wives' Tea, at the Slye home recently.

The refreshment table was decorated with floral arrangements of white mums, tinted orange, in keeping with the Halloween theme. Candles on either side of the arrangements were black and Halloween cut-out symbols were placed around the edges of the table cover.

Finger sandwiches, sweets, stuffed dates, nuts, coffee and tea were served by the hostesses, assisted by Barbara Gustavson. The door prize, a charm bracelet, was won by Mary Marts. New members attending included, Gloria Stannil, Mary Marts and Alice Haupt and special guests were Evelyn Bails, Sally Julian, Ann Tammy and Luella Mitchell.

About 25 other members of the Wives Club attended the tea and a short business meeting, held by the president, Virginia Patterson.

DeBary Garden Club Plans Flower Show

The DeBary Garden Club held the opening meeting of the fall season at the Community Center. Mrs. H. P. Newton welcomed members and guests and presided during the business session.

Mrs. George Nicely introduced Mrs. Vernon L. Connor of Mt. Dora, guest speaker, whose theme was, "Beautifully for Better Living." Mrs. Connor is one of the officers at headquarters in Winter Park, of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs, and invited the members to visit the Winter Park office which is a memorial to good gardening. During the business session it was voted to hold a flower show in March at the Center, and Mrs. Chambers asked for volunteers. A clinic and horticultural school will be conducted jointly with the Orange City Club, at the Dickenson Memorial Library, Orange City, on Nov. 14.

Seven new members joined and were welcomed into the club: Mrs. Earl Merrill, Mrs. Gerald Drach, Mrs. Damon Scott, Mrs. Edwin R. Maize, Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. John Padgett.

The buffet table was overlaid with a white cloth, centered with a crystal centerpiece of white mums, white grapes and yellow roses in three tiers. It was flanked with low crystal holders and tall yellow tapers, and two large crystal punch bowls. A large yellow arrangement of mums adorned the speaker's table.

Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. A. Neal and Mrs. M. Van Brackle. Others assisting were Mrs. Minnie Morrison, Mrs. Alta Clark, Laura Arrington, Mrs. William Clark and Mrs. J. Duffy.

Sixth Birthday Celebrated With Party

Ralph (Butch) Locke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Locke, of Longwood, celebrated his sixth birthday with a party at their home.

A group of his friends and playmates were invited for an afternoon of entertainment. They were given hats, horns and favors and enjoyed playing games.

Cake, ice cream, candy, mints and fruit punch were served by the hostess. The birthday cake was fashioned like a clown and gaily decorated in a circus motif.

Guests invited to share the celebration with Butch were Beverly Wagner, Pamela Jicks, Barbara Lommier, Wanda Driskill, Vicky Smith, Valorie Scott, Ricky Lawrence, Roger Frasier, John Bistline, Randy O'Barr, Jimmy Philpitt and Kirk Driskill.

CONVENTIONS ARE FUN — informative, educational, exciting and their program chairmen can cram more activities into three days than a person would ordinarily accomplish in a month!

MRS. REYNOLDS

The Democratic Women's State Convention which your correspondent attended in Clearwater last week was no exception to the rule.

The hours that were not taken up with meetings to take care of the business before the state organization were filled with luncheon breakfasts, dinners, banquet, a fashion show, a water ballet show, speakers, songs and singing, eating, drinking, talking and the traditional political caucuses, in the traditional smoke-filled rooms.

The only thing they forgot to include was sleeping... the hotel room was rented only to change clothes in... A couple of amusing side-lights that you might enjoy hearing about... During some group singing, while the audience was singing "When I grow too old to dream, I'll have you to remember..." one elderly lady stood up and waving her arms in time to the music, threw kisses to the statue of President Kennedy.

Another lady had told me previously when I sat with her at dinner that she was from New York, but didn't want anyone to know it (with that accent?) because she was a confirmed southerner now. During the group singing she kept standing up and shouting, "Let's sing Dixie!" and when they finally did sing Dixie, she sang louder than anyone, and at the end led a great big Rebel yell!

Both ladies were cute as could be... There weren't very many men there, but I talked to all that were available... and it was a pretty good representation... U. S. Senator George Smathers, of course, charming gentleman... Secretary of State Tom Adams, dark and handsome, (he will be in Sanford for the C. of C. dinner next week, incidentally) genial Ed Larson, state treasurer and Mrs. Larson, and the state Democratic Executive head Jimmy Milligan, of Orlando, who has been in the middle of a furor of controversy recently. Also met the mayor and the sheriff of Clearwater and two of the judges, and several photographer for the Clearwater Sun (he gave me a lot of background information on the local dignitaries.)

All in all, a well-planned and well-run convention, due to the talents of pretty Mrs. Annette Baker, wife of City Judge Robert Warren Baker, and the Judge served admirably as emcee of the banquet in honor of Smathers.

This reporter had the good fortune to travel down and back with the president of the Democratic Women's Club of Seminole County, Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds, and the club's secretary, Mrs. Peggy

Friendship League Entertains Ethel Root Circle

The Friendship League of the Congregational Christian Church entertained members of the Ethel Root Circle at their regular bi-monthly meeting, in Fellowship Hall, this week.

Plans were made for a plastic party on Oct. 20, at 1:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. The date for the annual bazaar and supper has been set for Dec. 2. The Ethel Root Circle will have charge of the supper and the Friendship League is busy making articles for the bazaar.

There will also be tables of potted plants, floral arrangements, homemade candy, cakes, preserves and cookies. In the clothing line will be a variety of aprons, crocheted articles and a fish pond.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. William Lins, Mrs. Walter Koehler and Mrs. Sarah Weyers.

Others present included Rev. Joseph Meek, the church pastor, Mrs. Clifford Watson of Longwood, who was welcomed as a new member to the group. Also Mrs. Howard Rollas, Mrs. Ralph Loring, Mrs. Helen Remusat and Mrs. Beatrice Alford, of the Ethel Root Circle and 14 members of the Friendship League.

Jaycee Wives Officers Attend Morning Coffee

Bluing is a "cosmetic" which makes yellowed fabrics look white. It does not clean the clothes. This can be done only with plenty of soap or detergent suds.

Sorority Honors Rushees With Party

The newly formed Theta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is celebrating its fall rush season.

Rushees and members enjoyed an evening at the Fleet Reserve Home on the Lake Front when everyone attended a costume party, "I Dreamed I Was..."

There were many varied costumes, some came as beatniks, little boy and little girl, Hawaiian girls in their colorful mau mau and less.

One very colorful costume was that of Mrs. Tom Largent dressed as a hula dancer with her grass skirt and midriff top in very striking colors. One of the beatnik's husband grew his own beard which was very authentic.

Prizes were awarded for the best costumes which went to Mrs. Paul Lewis, as a beatnik, in the ladies division and Art Lee, as a Greek God in the men's division. Snacks and drinks were enjoyed throughout the evening, along with dancing to records.

Theta Epsilon is looking forward to their new year as a new chapter. Projects include working with the Little Red School House for retarded children and the Cancer Crusade.

Among other activities held recently was a buffet dinner and splash party for the fall rushees at the home of Mrs. Tom Largent. Those attending were: Mrs. Dick Houghton, Mrs. Tom Askew, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Randy Reynolds, Mrs. Charles Tetenbaum, Mrs. Art Lee, Mrs. Walter Bohannon and chapter members.

Couples attending the costume party were Mr. and Mrs. Art Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tetenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Iversen, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Largent, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Revels, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rivero, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Garnett White.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When the newspaper comes, my mother gets it first and cuts out all the pictures she thinks my 14-year-old brother shouldn't see. This includes pictures of girls in bathing suits, and low necklines and so forth. When my father sees the paper all cut up he blows his stack.

I am a girl, 16, and have tried my best to explain to my mother that she is making a big mistake trying to hide these things from my brother. He knows more than I do, and I don't think I'm stupid. Will you please put something in your column to convince my mother that she should leave the newspaper alone? SIS

DEAR SIS: If your father "blows his stack," and you have tried to appeal to your mother's reason, and she still "censors" the newspaper, how do you keep your 14-year-old brother, wide-eyed and innocent, I fear my efforts will be futile. But I'll try: Dear Mom: A 14-year-old boy today is sharper than your scissors.

DEAR ABBY: My father and I were having an argument, and I thought you might be able to solve our problem. If teenage children drive the family car, does insurance go up? TEEN-AGE GIRL

DEAR GIRL: And how!

DEAR ABBY: I am 19 and he is 25 and I am very much in love with him. We went together almost a whole year, and we spoke of being married in two or three years. It has been a month since I last heard from him, and he lives right in this town.

A mutual friend told me he went back to his old girl friend. I can't understand it. We didn't have a fight or anything. He just said goodnight after a date and I never heard from him again. I hate to crawl to him, but I know if I saw him again we could straighten everything out. My friends say to forget him, but it's not that easy. I love him. Please tell me if I should call him up. I can't eat or sleep. JILTED

DEAR JILTED: Your friends gave you good advice. Talk it!

CONFIDENTIAL TO WILLIE: Don't marry a drinking man. If he won't stay sober for his sweetheart, he won't stay sober for his wife.

We The Women:

By Ruth Miller

"Character is the Key to a Home" said the headline over a homemaker's article.

"Well put and very true," I thought, as I started to read the story.

But do you know HOW this article suggested that you bring character into your home?

Through the individuality of its furnishings. Honest.

This flippant use of the substantial word "character" was quite a shock, until I suddenly realized that we don't often hear "character" used in its good, old-fashioned sense any more.

We used to talk of a person of "good character," and it summed up a great deal, bringing to mind such traits as honesty, integrity, dependability, and industriousness.

But now the word is used loosely to describe all kinds of things that have nothing to do with the basic qualities of human beings.

The saleswoman tells you a dress is chic because it has "character."

A modern painting that can't be described because nobody knows what the artist had in mind can be summed up as having "character."

Furniture now has "character," and so do fabrics and even dishes.

ing that when we talk of the "character" of a home. It isn't the character of the parents and the children we are referring to—but the character of the furnishings.

Like so many once good, substantial, meaningful words, this one has gone astray. And it's a pity. For character was once a word that wasn't used lightly.

Men: Some suggestions with real character to them: "Happier Wives (hints for husbands)." Just send 5 cents to Ruth Miller Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Take a good look at the bidding of today's hand. What do you think of North's three-spade bid?

The particular North player who made it thought it was just the normal bid that any good player would make. He could not very well make hearts with a singleton, and a four-diamond bid would take the hand past the three-no-trump level.

As for a three-no-trump bid, North was just a trifle afraid of the club suit.

After North's three-spade bid South went on to four hearts. He was more than a trifle afraid of the club suit. West opened the five of clubs. East cashed two high clubs and shifted to a spade to hold declarer to 10 tricks.

At the other table North was not up to that three-spade bid. He simply bid three-no-trump.

South looked at his solid heart suit and decided to trust North for stoppers in both black suits.

The trust was misplaced. East opened the six of clubs. After running off five club tricks, East shifted to a spade to set the hand two tricks.

Unusual Film Ritz Bound Oct. 22

One of the most unusual of all adventure films "The Devil at Four O'Clock" has been pre-released by Columbia Pictures for showing in 27 Florida cities. Frank Sinatra and Spencer Tracy star in this Mervyn LeRoy production. Kerwin Mathews and Jean-Pierre Aumont head the huge supporting cast. A lovely newcomer, Barbara Luna, is introduced in a starring role opposite Sinatra.

Bill Lovelace, manager of the Ritz Theatre returned today from a regional meeting in Orlando where advertising and promotional plans for "The Devil at Four O'Clock" were set up by Florida State Theatres' managers. The group devoted the entire day to every aspect of the campaign as well as the usual presentation of the film.

"The Devil at Four O'Clock" has to do with a dormant volcano that suddenly comes alive and jeopardizes an entire community on a South Pacific island. Due to the unusual degree of excitement generated in the last 16½ minutes, Lovelace said Director Mervyn LeRoy has asked that an "audience freeze" be established at every performance so patrons will get the fullest impact of the thrilling climax.

A seal will be placed on the entrance doors 16½ minutes before the end of the picture and is not to be broken until the feature is over. Lovelace pointed out this is the first time an "audience freeze" has ever been established for a major dramatic adventure film. "The Devil at Four O'Clock" will begin its run in Sanford on Oct. 22, 1961.

U. S., British Plan New Round Of Talks With Reds

LONDON (UPI)—The United States and Britain will begin a new round of talks with Russia late this month on possible negotiations for a Berlin settlement, diplomatic sources said today.

The consultations will be conducted by the Western envoys in Moscow immediately after the Communist party congress which opens Oct. 17. The congress is expected to last about 10 days.

They will be a continuation of the exploratory talks of President Kennedy and Premier Minister Harold Macmillan with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Washington and London the past week.

Gromyko, who talked with Macmillan for nearly three hours Tuesday, arranged to fly back to Moscow today to report to Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Official British sources said that the Macmillan-Gromyko conference—like the earlier Gromyko-Kennedy talk—had failed to provide a basis for East-West negotiations on the Berlin conflict.

Chico Marx Dead At 70

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI)—The Marx brothers, who gave so much laughter to the world, went today over the death of brother Chico, a heart-attack victim Wednesday at the age of 70.

Chico, the wild piano-playing Italian-dialect member of the zany act, died in his Beverly Hills home with a nurse and his wife, Mary, at his side.

He had been ill since last May, suffering a heart condition which grew considerably more serious in the past four weeks.

As funeral arrangements were being made at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in nearby Glendale, the usually glib, sarcastic Groucho was able only to say, "Please I can't talk about it now."

Gators Prep For 'Toughest' Foe

GAINESVILLE—Unbeaten Florida's toughest foe yet Saturday, meeting the Rice Owls in a night game in Houston, Tex. "This is a very tough team," Head Coach Ray Graves said Monday. "They have two good quarterbacks in Randall Harlow and Billy Cox, plus an excellent line."

As for the Gators, fullback Don Goodman, senior from Miami, may miss the Rice game with a slightly fractured jaw bone suffered in last Friday night's 14-3 victory over Tulane.

Goodman is Florida's third leading rusher with 100 yards and a 3.3 average. Sophomore Jim O'Donnell of Clearwater will step up to No. one offensive fullback position in place of Goodman, and Paul Vargach will be a No. one linebacker. (Eggsman isn't the only

Gator who's hurting. The injuries read as follows: Larry Travis (virus), Jerome Jones (broken leg), Paul Vargach (sprained ankle), Larry Libertero (sprained hand), Dick Jones (shoulder injury), Hagood Clarke (knee injury), Cecil Ewell (knee injury) and Floyd Dean (knee injury). Jerome Jones is out for the season, while Clarke, Ewell and Dean will miss Saturday night's game. The rest of the injured Gators have a chance to play.

However Graves saw some light in the football picture as sophomore guard Jack Thompson of Savannah, Ga., played very well in his first varsity game.

The 185-pounder was injured the first week of fall practice and had to sit out the first two games of the season. But he looked outstanding against the Green Wave last week making five tackles, and playing 40 minutes, equal to the time played by fullback Lindy Infante, and more than all others on the team.

Graves also had praise for halfback "Honey" B. Westland, Bob Hoover of Jacksonville and Infante of Miami, saying they all did well in the last game.

The Gators' end play against Tulane showed the most improvement of any position on the team, and sophomores Russ Brown of Miami was one of the game's brightest stars. He was on the receiving end of the key play in the game

Dodger Brass Give Walt Alston Another Chance

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers today gave Walt Alston another chance to win a National League pennant as a legion of second guessers thought he should have won in 1961.

And no sooner had E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, Dodger general manager, announced Alston signing for 1962 than the taciturn Los Angeles field chief began worrying about building for the season to come in Chavez Ravine.

"We have to find some replacement," said Alston from his Darrow, Ohio, home. "They drafted some pretty good pitchers from us," he said, referring to the Houston-New York draft that cost the Dodgers six players.

As for signing a new contract, Alston said "there's only one way to feel about it—good."

Bavasi said he decided to announce Alston would manage the club for the ninth season "because of several ill-advised stories on the subject." There had been considerable speculation Alston would be fired or kicked upstairs in the face of strong criticism of the Dodger failure to win the pennant this year, Los Angeles was second, four games behind Cincinnati's pennant winners.

Hutchinson Named Top NL Manager

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fred Hutchinson, who led the Cincinnati Reds to their first pennant since 1950, was named the National League's Manager of the Year today by the United Press International's board of baseball experts.

Hutchinson, who took a team that had finished sixth in 1960 to an amazing triumph before losing in five games to the New York Yankees in the World Series, was the choice of all 36 experts. He succeeded Danny Murtaugh of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who won the honor in 1960.

Called the "big bear" because of the way he paces the dugout during a game, the 42-year-old Hutchinson replaced Mayo Smith as manager, with the Reds in seventh place, July 9, 1960. After the Reds' sixth-place finish in 1960 they were given no chance to win the pennant in '61.

The team responded, however, to Hutchinson's style. Although he has been known to hurl various objects in the clubhouse in anger after games, he is essentially the "father type" manager. His technique is to win the confidence of his players by standing by them —rather than to manipulate players in platoon-systems.

"He made me feel like a man and not a statistic," is the tribute paid him by Joey Jay, a pitcher the Reds acquired from the Braves and who developed under Hutchinson into a 22-game winner.

The rest of the National League refused to take the Reds' threat seriously and confidently predicted that they would collapse. But the Reds rode out batting slumps, pitching slumps and fielding slumps to bring a pennant to Cincinnati for the first time since 1940.

Tall Scores Rolled In Loop

Some mighty tall scores were rolled in the Thursday Night Mixed League, this past week with John Ogden bringing through a 277 game and a 184 scratch series to top them all.

Bob Hobbs proved he is truly a sub at heart as he reared up a 231 scratch game and Ray DeYarmin had a 223 to take third on the 300 game list.

Fryer's State Farm Ins., shy of the night's big scores still holds the top spot followed by Appleby's Restaurant, Team Seven, Stone's Allstate Ins., Powell's Office Supply, Wilson-Maier Furn. Store's Machine Shop, Team Two, Pierre Mfg. and Steinmeyer Roofing.

Kerna Anderson and Sue Jackson tied in picking up the 3-10 split twice, Claudette Behrens and Jan Blackwelder made it also. Albert Warner and Danny Cardon went there one better with their pick-ups of the 3-7. Carl Van Herbulie got the 3-10, Gary Fields made the 4-3 and Dot Powell was tops making the 3-7.

Seminole Center Jim Williams Injures Arm

By PETE LEVEQUE
Herald Sports Editor

The Seminole High School Seminoles' reserve center, husky Jimmy Williams, a 125 lb. senior, re-injured his arm injury in Tuesday afternoon's Seminoles practice session which deadened a nerve in Williams' right arm, paralyzing two fingers and parts of his right hand.

Dr. John Morgan examined Williams' arm Wednesday afternoon and said that the injury was not immediately serious. He said the arm should return to normal in a short time. It was not known Wednesday, however, whether Williams will be able to play for the Seminoles against Seabreeze on Friday night.

On the dusty practice fields of Seminole High on Tuesday Head Varsity Coach Jim Pigott's "bone-crushing" Seminoles rallied to outplay, outrun, and outblock Coach Stump's Seminoles High "B" Squad in their first real practice scrimmage of the week together.

It might have proved embarrassing for the varsity Seminoles had the Junior Varsity been able to do more than come close to outmaneuvering and outperforming the "A" team. Nevertheless, the junior varsity, while composed of younger, lighter-in-weight, and comparatively inexperienced players, presented good practice for the tough, bone-crushing Seminoles.

In briefing the Seminole players on the capabilities of the tough offensive-minded Sandcrabs of Seabreeze, Offensive Head Coach Jim Pigott said this: "Seabreeze has a good front running ball club and they are really gunning for us. We can't win on our past performances. We have got to be ready for Friday night."

Constant practice, repeated drill, and individual initiative have been the hallmark of the Seminole ball club. Some surprises are in store for the spastic Seabreeze Sandcrabs as Coach Pigott and offensive line coach Jim McCoy have some special packages to let the Sandcrabs claw on in the gridiron contest Friday night.

In reserve offense are two important backfield units — Quarterback Tommy Hinson, a 145 lb. junior and fullback Gary Davidson, a 172 lb. senior. Davidson is a good all-around gridiron player and is important in substitution. Hinson has showed up well in practice sessions and has good promising capabilities on the Seminoles' backfield.

Offensive-defensive line coach Jim McCoy said Wednesday that "Seabreeze is one of the toughest teams for our defense as the Sandcrabs are one of the best all-around offensive teams in the area. Our bone-crushing Seminoles are sound physically and eager to take that test."

An outstanding Seminole who is capable of playing two positions is a 160 lb. senior, End Ray Middleton. Middleton played tackle last year for the Seminoles and is equally capable of holding each position in action-packed gridiron play.

A good player on defense is 154 lb. guard, Mike Caolo, a Seminole High School junior. Caolo showed up quite well in the practice sessions and could show us some surprises in actual ball-game competition.

Junior Varsity Hosts DHS Eleven

By PETE LEVEQUE
Herald Sports Editor

A fairly good sized crowd of football enthusiasts is expected tonight as the yet undefeated all-city Seminoles Indian boys of Seminole High School's Junior Varsity "B" Squad entertain the bothersome, belligerent Bulldogs of DeLand in the Seminole Junior Varsity's fourth game of the season.

In the backfield in starting offensive left halfback position is 150 lb. Jim Westland. Westland saw a lot of action in the Seminole Junior Varsity Indians' smashing 27-6 victory over the Seabreeze Junior Varsity Sandcrabs in the Seminole Indians' opener of the season.

In starting right halfback position will be 150 lb. Lloyd Freeman. Freeman saw plenty of ball motion in the Seminole Indians' 19-13 edge over Leesburg in the Junior Varsity game that saw the first points scored against the Seminoles' "B" team in two years.

Starting at fullback will be 153 lb. Jack Caolo. Fullback Caolo was responsible for three of the Seminole Indian boys' touchdowns in last week's 26-0 Seminole Indian crush of the Titusville Terrers in Titusville.

The starting lineup is as follows: At right end, 150 lb. Dave McGillis; at left end, 145 lb. Frank Noell; at right tackle, 193 lb. Wayne Epps; at left tackle, 183 lb. Dave Noell; at right guard, 183 lb. Dale Alexander; at left guard, 163 lb. Alex Carman; at center, 150 lb. Dan McCall; and at quarterback, 130 lb. Billy Lovelace.

Offensive-defensive line coach Bud Lyster had the following comments to make on the Junior Varsity "B" team for tonight's exciting clash with the Bulldogs: "David and Frank Noell, as well as Dave McGillis and Jim Westland showed up good in the weekly scrimmage with Coach Pigott's Varsity "A" Squad. Buddy Burton is out of action with a knee injury and Dale Alexander, after being out and missing the Titusville game because of a hand injury, will be back in tonight's starting lineup."

Southerners Pace Small Colleges

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mississippi Southern, seeking to repeat the small college football championship it won in 1958, led the United Press International ratings today for the second week in a row and Northern Michigan vaulted into the No. 2 spot.

The Southerners received nine first place votes from 35 coaches representing seven geographic sections of the country. With the strong support of second, third and fourth place votes, Mississippi Southern had a total of 182 points, an increase of 38 over last week.

Northern Michigan, with four first-place votes and 131 points, jumped all the way from sixth to second place, and Louisiana Tech was only two points behind in third place.

Ranking fourth with 126 points was Texas A & I followed by Delaware with 123 points, including seven first-place votes.

Humboldt (Calif.) State was fifth with 119. Fresno State got 63 points for seventh position, Pittsburg (Kan.) had 53 points for eighth. Southeastern Louisiana ranked ninth with 51 and Kent State 10th with 47.

Paret Gives Up Defense Plans

NEW YORK (UPI)—Benny (Kid) Paret has given up plans for a European defense of his welterweight crown and, instead, is dickering for a shot at Gene Fullmer's half of the middleweight title at Las Vegas, Nev., Dec. 9, Benny's manager disclosed today.

"If we can come to terms for the Fullmer fight," manager Manuel Alfaro said, "we'll take it. As a middleweight champion, Benny wouldn't have to worry about his weight any more."

Signs Pact

TORONTO (UPI)—Defense-man Allan Stanley of the Toronto Maple Leafs signed his contract for the 1961-62 season today, leaving the Leafs with two holdouts in Bob Pulford and Billy Harris.

Blackford Hopes To Haunt FMS Team

By PETE LEVEQUE
Herald Sports Editor

Lyman High's 5'10" starting star defensive left halfback Paul Blackford, a husky 150 lb. senior, will lead the Greyhounds Friday night against a team that just two years ago stomped the Greyhounds 14-6—with Lyman star Blackford's assistance.

Lyman's Paul Blackford two years ago attended Florida Military Academy on U.S. gridiron and played varsity football for the Cadets. Since then, Blackford, who lives in Altamonte Springs, started school at Lyman and this season has been one of the fighting Greyhounds' leading point scorers at the gridiron backfield.

Tuesday's Booster Club film showing of Lyman's 21-3 spectacular defeat of Admiral Farragut Academy last Friday night revealed certain offensive blocking mistakes which Lyman Offensive Head Coach Bill Proctor is trying to correct in his starting squad. "Our line is still making mistakes. We've been working on it but we are still going to have trouble," commented the Head Coach.

The offensive tactical planning of Coach Proctor's fighting Greyhounds is based on four top offen-

Lyman Juniors Hit St. Cloud

With a breathtaking gridiron pace, Lyman Junior High's undefeated fighting eleven moved to edge St. Cloud Junior High 7-6 Tuesday night in a football clash that marked Lyman's 2nd Junior High win of the season.

Lyman Junior High starting fullback, 150 lb. 8th grader Les Lyles smashed downfield in a surprise-taking 33 yard run to be downed on the 6 yard line. On the next play fullback Lyles made a successful 6 yard plunge for the touchdown.

U. S. Enjoys Final Workout

LYTHAM-ST. ANNES, England (UPI)—The United States Ryder Cup team enjoyed its last workout over the Royal Lytham and St. Annes golf course today before squaring off against the British team early Friday morning.

Still the chief source of concern for the Yanks were the difficult bunkers well-placed over the 4,365-yard, par-71 course. One official jokingly welcomed the Americans here Tuesday with the statement that there were 253 traps on the course, and thus far it has proved to be anything but a joke.

On Active List
CHICAGO (UPI)—Defensive back Bobby Jackson, acquired on waivers from Philadelphia several weeks ago, has been placed on the active list of the Chicago Bears, replacing the injured Pete Manning.

Sportsman's Group Sets Monday Meet

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—Center Murray Hall and right winger Chien Maki have been sent to the Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League by Chicago to help the Bisons strengthen their offensive game.

Turley Operation Called Success

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pitcher Bob Turley's elbow operation was pronounced a success today and the New York Yankees hope he can regain some of the form which made him a 21-game winner and World Series hero in 1958.

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, club physician, performed the surgery on Wednesday, removing several bonechips from Turley's right elbow.

"With normal healing, he should be able to pitch next season," said Dr. Gaynor.

Houk To Sign Two Year Pact

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ralph Houk, whose stabilizing managerial influence was a major factor in New York Yankees' march to the world championship this year, will sign a two-year contract today estimated to call for an annual salary between $45,000 and $50,000.

Co-owner Dan Topping and General Manager Roy Firemyre are expected to make the formal announcement of the new pact at a press conference this afternoon.

Houk is believed to have received about $35,000 for managing the Yankees in his first season. He asked specifically for a one-year pact when the Yankees picked him to succeed Casey Stengel because he said he did not want the club "to be stuck with me if they don't like my work."

After observing Houk in action for one year, however, the Yankees are convinced they made the right choice and that they have in the 42-year-old World War II hero an outstanding field manager for many years to come.

Secretary Guy Bishop said that needs for public boat ramps will be discussed at the meeting and also objectives and functions of the St. Johns River Valley Advisory Committee.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

This Is Interest?

All recent news reports from the Village of North Orlando have clearly indicated that residents there are interested in their community and are willing to wage strong battles and even approve taxation for some of the desired improvements and services.

Reports show, too, that the North Orlando Co., developer of the Village, has one of the best interests of the area at heart and plans many services and recreational facilities there in the future.

However, another item in last week's news would lead readers to wonder just how interested anybody really is in North Orlando. The item . . . ?

We have in mind the brief and sad two-paragraph report stating that only three board members and seven residents, including two reporters, showed up for the monthly council meeting.

How interested can you get . . . ?

Woman's Manner Shocks South Seminole CT-P

Those attending the Oct. 3 meeting of the South Seminole Elementary Council of Teachers and Parents were greatly shocked and embarrassed when a gaudily dressed and garrulous woman repeatedly interrupted Principal Herold Heckenbach as he tried to give a detailed explanation of the grading system used on primary and intermediate report cards.

Their stunned silence, however, soon turned into lively interest and laughter as they realized that she and Heckenbach were working together to present the information in a "not soon to be forgotten" manner. And, so complete was her disguise as a parent, which fortunately is not typical of CT-P members, that the entire audience was surprised when, upon unmasking, she proved to be Mrs. Lynn Sberlock, South Seminole teacher.

Prior to the meeting, teachers were available for individual consultation in each classroom for a 30-minute period.

Following the opening routine reports, Mrs. Vernon Catron, president, advised of new appointments which included Mrs. Agnes Sheppard, meeting notification and newsletter; Mrs. Anita McGinnis, publicity and Mrs. Leonard Caselberry, historian.

Mrs. Robert Moore, membership chairman, reported that 310 parents joined the organization at the first two meetings.

Reporting on fund-raising suggestions, Mrs. Wanda Stiggins of the ways and means committee, advised that the group has voted to hold a fashion show featuring both adult and children's wear in the auditorium at a date to be announced. Chairman of this committee, Mrs. O. J. Baggett, is a professional fashion coordinator and will direct the show.

Mrs. Charles Lockyer, treasurer, presented the proposed budget for discussion during which the membership voted to eliminate the expense allowed for mailing notices to parents. Items included on the approved and adopted budget were library supplies, $50; lawn sprinkling system, $200; refreshments for May Day Play Day, $100 and school piano fund $300.

The group voted to allow a committee of teachers to decide where best to spend the $303.08 remaining from last year's money to match the National Defense Act Fund in order to purchase educational equipment to benefit the majority of students.

Mrs. Lockyer also announced a meeting of the County Council of Schools to be held at 9:30 a. m. Thursday in the Seminole High Auditorium.

Heckenbach announced the appointment of Jim Clark, Miss Helen McMullen, Mrs. Annell, Bannan and Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn to the committee of teachers who will seek new ways of providing better education for all children in the face of increased enrollment. He invited interested parents of students in grades three, four and five in particular, but not excluding other grades, to work with this committee.

Announcement was made that students will have a holiday Oct. 20 due to the scheduled Teacher's Workday.

Kenneth McIntosh, president of the Seminole County Juvenile Council, will be guest speaker at the November meeting.

Unit To Visit South Seminole Blood Bank

The mobile unit will be at the American Legion Hall on Prairie Lake in Altamonte Springs next Thursday from 4:30 p. m. until 6:30 p. m. to collect blood for the South Seminole Blood Bank, according to Mrs. D. B. McIntosh, president of the Altamonte Springs Legion Auxiliary.

The annual event is sponsored by Old Glory Legion Post 183 and its Auxiliary. Donations will be received from all areas in south Seminole County. Mrs. McIntosh said, including Altamonte Springs, Fern Park, Longwood, Forest City, Bear Lake and other towns.

Elected chairman of the Blood Bank last week was Mrs. George Otto, Sr. of Longwood. She succeeded Mrs. Frank Russell, outgoing chairman.

BILL DEUSCH, architectural engineer and vice president of Landmark, Inc., developers of Horizon Homes in North Orlando, is shown filling the first folder on construction plans for 100 new homes scheduled to be completed within 12 months. Robert E. Taft Jr., son of the late senator, is secretary of Landmark, and superintendent of the North Orlando division will be John Bowen. The offices, presently located in temporary quarters, soon will be moved into Horizon Homes headquarters. (Herald Photo)

'Standing Room Only' Reported At First Altamonte P-TA Meeting

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
More than 300 parents packed the auditorium and cafeteria leaving standing room only at the Altamonte Elementary Parent-Teacher Association meeting last week.

Those attending became acquainted over coffee and doughnuts served during the half-hour period preceding the 8 p. m. business meeting.

Rev. Richard Brown of the Forest City Baptist Church led the opening devotions. Principal George Dabbs, after introducing the faculty, explained how a student's progress in all subjects compares with his ability in various reading levels. The explanation was presented in sketch form through the use of charts shown on the video-visual machine, a major piece of equipment used in the new block teaching methods employed this year for the fifth and sixth grades.

Mrs. Trene King and Don Hasley, block teachers, and Mrs. Roberta Richards, physical education instructor, spoke briefly giving their opinions of the new teaching method and explained how library work is closely related to the program.

Dabbs advised that arrangements have been made for teachers to meet for individual conferences with parents on Oct. 20. Time schedules for each grade will be sent home by the students, he said.

Mrs. Kay Dunn, P-TA president, introduced members of the executive board and announced that the next meeting of the association will be held on Dec. 12.

Announcement also was made that students are selling tee shirts and sweat shirts imprinted with the school name as a project to help buy supplies.

Altamonte Springs Considers Survey

A proposal by Dr. Paul Douglass of Rollins College in Winter Park to make a survey of Altamonte Springs was brought up before the monthly meeting of the Town Council Monday night by Dr. Gertrude Forman.

Councilman G. V. Gray agreed that this figure was about right. Mayor Wilbur Hawkins discussed the city's share with Gray and it was agreed that the Council would find the money for the survey. Gray and club members will get together to work out the details for purchase and installation, it was agreed.

She said that it had been reported to her that the Council had turned down the offer. Mayor Wilbur Hawkins said that it had not been turned down but that he did not have sufficient information about the survey to make a decision one way or the other.

Dr. Forman explained that the plan was for a field study by Rollins students covering such areas as the history of the town, boundaries, growth, etc. and that Dr. Douglass' group didn't need any help from the city, only its cooperation.

Mayor Hawkins indicated that such a study would be agreeable to him and that he would get in touch with Dr. Douglass for more information on it.

Mikler, Mrs. F. W. McCall Sr., Mrs. Thomas Moon, Mrs. John Jakubcin, Mrs. Robert Haynes and Mrs. J. Magin.

Trustees Okay New Chapel Porch

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
Trustees of the Altamonte Springs Community Chapel, meeting last Friday, summarized the treasurer's budget report for the 1961 term which is soon to close.

In other business, A. G. Burroughs, chairman, reported on estimated costs of rebuilding the front porch of the Chapel Building including construction of concrete flooring. Clifford Sands and Milton Timley were authorized to meet with the contractor to make arrangements for proceeding with the work and to have the grounds cleared of dead trees located in back of the Educational Building.

The next meeting of the Chapel Trustees will be held at 7:30 p. m. on Nov. 2.

Sure, It's A St. Patrick Altamonte Needs Now

By REUBEN KILLERREW
Altamonte Springs has some snakes—in the grass and in the bushes—real snakes that bite, not the plastic kind that bite once in the back.

These are real and among the most poisonous species known to Florida.

Monday night a headmaster of an area in the northern section of the town which adjoins Baywood Ave. brought in a coral snake his wife had killed on their premises.

Robert Babbitt came before the Town Council and requested that an area which is grown over

Altamonte Gels Garden Club Offer

A representative of the Altamonte Springs Garden Club, A. S. Merrill, appeared before the monthly meeting of the Town Council with an offer from the club to give financial help to the city for needed repairs to the Community Club building.

Merrill proposed that the windows in the building be replaced with awning type metal windows and said that the club was in a position to donate up to $50 for this purpose if the city would raise the remainder. He estimated that the windows would cost $130.

Councilman G. V. Gray agreed that this figure was about right. Mayor Wilbur Hawkins discussed the city's share with Gray and it was agreed that the Council would find the money for the windows. Gray and club members will get together to work out the details for purchase and installation, it was agreed.

Altamonte Club Plans Annual Tea For Newcomers

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
The Altamonte Springs Civic Club will entertain at its Annual Fall Tea to welcome all newcomers of the area between the hours of 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. next Wednesday at the Community House on Maitland Ave.

Mrs. A. M. Birks, vice president of the club, is chairman of the social entertainment. Working with her are Dr. Gertrude Forman, Mrs. M. L. Timley, Mrs. Glenn Humes, Mrs. M. G. Fite, Mrs. William Merrill and Mrs. Allan Forward.

Regular meetings of the group, held on the first Wednesday of each month at 2 p. m., will resume in November.

Oviedo P-TO Sets Carnival Date

The annual Halloween Carnival sponsored by the Oviedo Parent-Teacher Organization has been scheduled this year for Oct. 27 according to an announcement from Mrs. Jack Bratton, P-TO finance chairman.

The carnival will begin at 6 p. m. with a costume parade in the auditorium. Doors to the Gym will not open until after the costumes are judged, Mrs. Bratton said.

Leaders Bring Latest Home Aids To Longwood HD Club Members

By BETTIE SMITH
Leaders of various phases of Home Demonstration Club work brought latest information on a number of topics to 41 ladies, including five new members, of the Longwood Home Demonstration Club at their opening meeting of the season in the Civic League Building last Thursday.

Miss Myrtle Wilson, county agent, showed a film on new and quicker pastry-making methods while Mrs. W. J. Hartley served as commentator. Miss Wilson also instructed and demonstrated the proper table-settings appropriate to modern living.

Mrs. R. R. Gray, foods leader, displayed dishes prepared from recipes distributed at a County Council School on Fish and Seafood Cookery held Sept. 13 in Sanford.

Members who attended a Christmas Decoration Workshop displayed articles made at the earlier meeting including a door spray, sunburst, wreaths, candle holders, ornamental angels and a pine cone tree. Later a workshop for members of the Longwood Club will be held for those who are interested in learning to make the decorations.

New leaders elected during the business meeting include Mrs. Arnett Byers and Mrs. Marion Lewis, clothing; Mrs. Charita Pierce and Mrs. Arthur Putman, home management; Mrs. Fred Heuberger, health and safety; Mrs. Felix Siege and Mrs. Ralph Newcomer, civil defense, and Mrs. Thomas Gullickson, Mrs. Harry McPeck and Mrs. C. L. Leggett, county fair.

Mrs. E. M. Stout, newly elected club president, completes the roster of Longwood HD leaders. Hostesses for the covered dish

ARCH HOSICK

Business Courses Offered In Oviedo

Classes in bookkeeping and typing will be organized at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the Oviedo School for all adults in the area interested in business education training.

Arch Hosick of the Oviedo High faculty will teach the courses with three hour classes scheduled for two nights each week. The only charges will be the registration fee of $2 and the cost of textbooks.

E. S. Douglass, director of vocational and adult education in Seminole County, advised that additional business education courses will be organized if there is sufficient demand. Additional information is available by phoning FA 2-4183, Douglass said.

Farm Bureau Sets Meeting In Longwood

This month's meeting of the Seminole County Farm Bureau will be held in the Longwood Civic League Building next Wednesday.

Following a covered dish supper, scheduled to begin at 8 p. m., Dr. P. J. Westgate from the Central Florida Experiment Station will present an address, using as his topic, "What's New In Agriculture."

All persons interested in the program subject are invited to join Farm Bureau members for this meeting.

Firemen Offer Special CD Classes In Lake Mary

The Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Dept. will conduct the opening class for instructing residents on the correct methods of using and reading radiological monitoring instruments next Tuesday.

The class will meet at 8 p. m. in the Fire Hall each Tuesday until the course is completed. Chief Ralph Abell said today. He urged that representatives from all parts of the community attend the course in order that residents in each area may be better protected in the event of emergencies arising from nuclear attack or fallout alert.

DWC To Meet

All women interested in working with the newly organized South Seminole Democratic Women's Club have been invited to meet with members of the group at 7:30 p. m. today in the Club Room of the King and Prince Restaurant at Seminole Raceway in Casselberry.

Aldermen Move For Collection Of Utility Tax

Casselberry Aldermen, freed again with lack of a map being prepared by Max Coberly, county cartographer, to define the town limits. Monday night decided to go ahead with another means of collecting utilities tax from more than 150 residents.

The board instructed Mrs. Lillian Beisel, clerk, to check the voter registration books for city elections against the utilities tax list as one means of determining who should be paying the tax.

Another means, suggested by Alderman Paul Bates, will be a comparison of the tax list against the areas definitely known to be in the town limits through annexation ordinances.

Utility companies serving Casselberry will be notified to begin the tax collections when the list is compiled and approved, however, the board advised that the action cannot be retroactive at this time.

Kenneth McIntosh, legal representative for the town, advised that when the map is received and approved, the matter of back taxes may be considered.

Special Meeting Set Friday For Water Rate Study

The Casselberry Board of Aldermen and Mayor Joseph I. Leibel will meet in committee with representatives of the Casselberry Utilities Co. Friday night to study problems of the company leading to a request last month for an increase in water rates.

The meeting was arranged after the company presented a written statement to the board at its meeting Monday night saying that "since the majority of board members have expressed opposition to our proposed rate increase, we ask that a committee be appointed to meet with us to study the problem and help us come up with a solution."

Alderman Ben Evans immediately suggested that all members of the board and the mayor serve on the committee and the meeting was set for 7:30 p. m. in the Town Hall.

Altamonte Carnival Plans Announced

By ATLANTA MCGINNIS
Preliminary plans for the Halloween Carnival at the Altamonte Springs Elementary School have been announced by Mrs. Lawrence Swofford, ways and means chairman of the event.

A Grand March will open the carnival at 3 p. m. on Oct. 28 with the judging of costumes scheduled at 4 p. m. A spaghetti dinner will be served from the cafeteria beginning at 5 p. m.

The Country Store and various game and refreshment booths will be open throughout the afternoon, Mrs. Swofford said.

Test Winner

Thomas Foresio, Lyman High senior, has been named among the 1961-1962 semi-finalists in the merit scholarship program as a result of his performance in National Merit Awards tests.

THESE BUSY BEES, North Orlando's Girl Scout Patrol of sixth graders, in November will become an official Troop. Meetings of the group are conducted at 4 p. m. each Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Sherman Huffman, patrol leader, 110 N. Cortez Ave. (Herald Photo)

MRS. E. L. JOHNSON
SUN. • BRRH hello to you. A sweater is sure feeling good and warm of a morning isn't it? • • • So sorry to hear that Mrs. W. E. Almond is ill. She has been confined to her home and if I know her, she will hurry and get well because she loves to sew and can be seen at her sewing machine any time of the day. She is certainly a wonderful seamstress. • • • Mrs. Lester Kelley has also been ill but according to son, David, she is improving rapidly. You just can't keep a good woman down. So a speedy recovery to both of you. • • • Mrs. Eddie Grew of Mark's Road didn't have for a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. C. R. Giles and other relatives. Eddie will try and join her later if possible. Hope he can. Would like to see him. • • • Happy Birthday Jimmie Carroll and Carol Hobby. • • • The Home Demonstration Club had a very wonderful meeting Thursday evening at the home of Daisy Dowell. We were taught how to make a table look nice with the correct cloth and place setting. Also how to make and prepare pie crusts and attractive ways to use leftover dough. It is absolutely wonderful what you can learn by being in Home Demonstration work. We have a wonderful person to join us and know she will make a good worker. She is Mrs. Marion Lee. We also had as guests Mrs. Ned Julia and Daisy's mother, Mrs. Kern, who is visiting her from K. C. Lucille Fitzgerald and I attended a workshop Tuesday at the center. Our specialist was Miss Catherine Knarr. The program was on Home Management and Family Economics. • • • Did you see Phil Boyd on Television yesterday on the program "Fun"? Won't it be nice to have a celebrity from our home town? • • • Rena Hawkins and I rode over to DeBary Saturday evening to see Christine Gibbons who is still not able to be up out of bed yet. She has been confined to Seminole Memorial Hospital where she underwent surgery on her left leg. She is a former Monroe resident. • • • Mack and Glenna Hudson of Fredericktown, Mo. and the parents of our son-in-law, Don, along with Don, daughter Shirley, the two apples of my eye, Clady and Carol, and Mary Lou Halpin, a cousin of Don's, were our guests Sunday. We had an outdoor dinner. My better half caught a big Spanish Mackerel at Ft. Pierce the day before so we let him have the honor of smoking it. Mack had the bad misfortune of having his left hand seriously injured and is unable to work. In fact when they return to Missouri he will have to take treatments every day for some time. I sure enjoyed having them very much. I forgot to mention son Stanley was with them also. • • • Tomorrow night Grace Edwards and I take the High School Band to Daytona when our boys will play Seabreeze. • • • Jane Fletcher, who has charge of the Girl Scout Troop that meets at the Upsala Presbyterian Church, called me the other day. She says she has over 30 girls in her troop. I think that is wonderful. • • • Sure enjoyed that little bit of rain Tuesday. Just wasn't enough of it though. • • • The new highway is progressing more every day. The road is being built up with sand. It is making it harder to cross it to get into our yard. Several cars have gotten stuck. • • • I see that the gladioli fields are being cut already. It seems like only yesterday that they were planted. And several farmers are already picking squash. • • • Thanks, everyone, who has called me or talked to me personally about the "Thoughts for the Day." Remember to send your favorite to me in care of County Editor, Judy Wells at the Sanford Herald and we will share it with others. • • • Naomi Sepp has been feeling "under the weather" this past week. But you can't keep a good person down. She is one of those nervous energy ones that has to be doing something all the time. • • • Here is the thought for this week. THE ONES WHO ARE LIFTING THE WORLD UPWARD AND ONWARD ARE THOSE WHO ENCOURAGE MORE THAN CRITICIZE.

RHO Chapter Has Anniversary Celebration
 "Helping People Live With People" was the theme of the October luncheon of the RHO Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held at the Women's Club in New Smyrna Beach. The chapter celebrated its birthday at the luncheon and the outstanding feature of the program was a book review by Mrs. Lillian Trawick of Daytona Beach on "The Ugly American." This was followed by the poem, "A House By the Side of the Road" by Mrs. Alice Davis of New Smyrna. Local teachers who attended the luncheon were Mrs. Kent Bateman, Mrs. Edison Golt, Mrs. Cecil Carlton, Mrs. Walter Morgan, Mrs. L. L. Rowland and Mrs. Boyd Coleman.

Methodist Church Holds Conference
 By JANE CASELBERRY
 Dr. Bruce Gannaway, district superintendent, conducted a Quarterly Conference at the Casselberry Community Methodist Church on Oct. 3 with the meeting beginning at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Oscar C. Poole, pastor of the church, reported that 78 new members have been received into the church since June 1 and also that since that time an air conditioning unit was fully paid for and installed in the sanctuary. He reported, too, on progress of construction of the new two-story educational building. Reports from the heads of all departments and progress in each during the past four months were reviewed at this time. Blynn H. Reiker of 148 Northmoor Rd., Casselberry, was elected to the office of church treasurer.

Oviedo P-TO Sends Report To Parents
 By MARIAN R. JONES
 The first copy of the Oviedo P-TO Observer, monthly news bulletin, was distributed Wednesday to the youngest child in each family represented on the student roll at the Oviedo School. The news report is prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Wright, P-TO secretary, with the assistance of Mrs. Thurman Coberly and Mrs. Thomas Moon. They urge parents to ask the children for the bulletin, should the youngsters forget to deliver it, since it contains information on the P-TO and about general school activities.

Choristers Rehearse
 The first rehearsal of the DeBary Choristers for the fall season was held at 9:30 a. m. Monday at the DeBary Community Methodist Church with Laura Platt Brown directing and Theresa Kucpec as pianist. New music, voted upon by the Choristers, has been ordered by Mrs. Brown.

AUCTION ITEMS, pictured above, are tagged by men of the Grace Methodist Church in preparation for the sale Saturday night, which is being sponsored to aid the fund for construction of a Youth Building. Preceding the auction to take place on the church grounds, food booths and a pony ride for children will open at 5 p. m.

Russia Hangs The Indian Sign

By RICHARD STARNES
 The collapse of the United Nations, as nearly as historians can date such matters, began in the early fall of 1964. The fatal mistake was due to a congenial defect, of course, but few would admit this until the acute stages of the illness had been reached. By that time there was not much to be done except to notify the next of kin and take bids on the buildings, desks, unused red tape, etc. (The General Assembly building became a bowling alley, and does well to this very day.)

What really killed the U.N. will be the subject of endless debate, much like the case of the construction worker who was hit on the fat part of his head with a hod full of bricks and died of a cardiac accident immediately afterward. Did a bum ticker take him off, or was his untimely demise due to being clobbered by a hod of bricks? Such arguments are futile. The instant cause of death of the U.N. was the case of the Ostensible Indians.

The Ostensible Indians were the scurvy remnants of a warlike tribe that had once been the terror of the Northwest Territories, a part of Canada. The Ostensibles or what was left of them, settled on the shores of Lac a'Rose, in the MacKenzie District (Northwest Territories). They never made peace with the Great White Father in Ottawa and, indeed, maintained they were an independent nation. The Ostensibles coined their own wampum, and they made war (against the Putative Indians, an even sorer lot), and they contended that they thus fulfilled all the requirements for civilized statehood.

When the elders of the tribe discovered that it was possible to enlist the aid of the U.N. against their ancient foes, the Putatives, the Ostensible Indians immediately clamored for admission to the world organization. There was no denying them. Indeed, there was no evidence that the swollen, right-thinking bureaucracy of the U.N. wanted to deny them. By that time there were 198 members of the General Assembly, including many which had no more legitimate claim to being nations than the Ostensible Indians had. Every comic-opera way station in Europe had long since been admitted to membership.

New Members Join Casselberry Lions

By JANE CASELBERRY
 Milton Rutherford, state secretary of the Lion's Club, officiated at induction ceremonies for new members of the Casselberry Lion's Club at a meeting of the group last Thursday. Joining were Curtis F. Blow, Rev. Oscar C. Poole, Walter E. Driggers and Donald Greene. Rev. Darwin Shea was reinstated and Frank Radamacher was accepted as a transferee from the College Park Club. Vice President Joseph Murasko presided in the absence due to illness of President Milton Freeman at the 6:30 p. m. meeting held in Bill's Diner on Hwy. 17-92.

Truman Gets OK; If He Minds Manners

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—Abner McCall, the new head of Baylor University, said former President Truman would be welcome at ceremonies Saturday as long as he minds his manners.

Geneva Citizens Plan Barbecue

The Citizens Committee of Geneva will sponsor a chicken barbecue Saturday at the Community Hall with serving to begin at 5:30 p. m. Chairman W. E. Dibble, in announcing the group's first event after the summer vacation, said that proceeds from the supper will go towards paying for the new floor installed in the Hall last winter. Dibble invited those planning to attend the supper to come earlier in the afternoon or plan to stay on in the evening to make use of our shuffleboard courts. The courts, another project of the group, were built early last spring.

The ceremonies will formally inaugurate McCall as the 11th president of the 118-year-old school. Truman, who holds an honorary doctor's degree from Baylor, had been invited but declined because of a previous engagement. "Congratulations to the new president," Truman wrote. "Tell him any time he wants real trouble stirred up to send for a Baptist to do it and one who likes to do it." Truman, who is a Baptist, drew the wrath of a group of Baptist preachers in Texas while campaigning in the state for President Kennedy. He criticized the preachers for opposing Kennedy's election because he is a Roman Catholic. In reply to Truman's letter, McCall said:

"There are many kinds of Baptists with many different ideas and dispositions. Mr. Truman is a Baptist and apparently knows one type of Baptist well. "Truman would be welcome at Baylor for these inaugural ceremonies, but we would not need his trouble-making talents as we already have a surplus of such Baptists in Texas."

Grand Jury Cites County Leaders For CD Neglect

Requests Immediate Review

The Seminole County Grand Jury charged late Thursday that the County Commission was "woefully negligent" in assigning adequate means to assist in providing a warning system for the county.

The 18-member jury, which reconvened for a two-hour session, requested that the commission

County Commissioner James P. Avefy was the first witness to appear at the grand jury. Another witness was M. G. Hodges of Paola. Both witnesses are sworn to secrecy and what was discussed could not be made public. The grand jury will reconvene at 9 a. m. Oct. 25.

"Immediately review their position of responsibility for the welfare and security of the people of the county and take whatever steps necessary to provide and maintain an approved warning system that will quickly advise all persons within the county of an impending enemy attack."

Curiosity seekers jammed the roads by the plane crash and made it practically impossible for ambulances and fire trucks to get through.

Since the County Commission ignored orders from the President and Governor . . . I wonder how they will react to the Grand Jury recommendations on Civil Defense?

The Sanford Lions Club will hold its annual light bulb sale from Oct. 17 to 31 to raise money for their fund to aid the blind.

Second clue in the Jaycee sponsored Radio Day . . . His golf game is lousy. All entries must be sent to Paul Lewis in care of the Jaycees.

The Grand Jury almost didn't have a place to meet Thursday. County Court was on . . . Circuit Court hearing conducted in the County Commission chambers.

Doesn't it seem odd that the county spends a fortune to insure its employees against accidents but not a dime to insure against a nuclear war?

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist police fired hundreds of shots into the American sector of West Berlin today in two fusillades, narrowly missing five U. S. military policemen.

The shooting was the biggest outburst of gunfire since the Communists sealed the Berlin border on Aug. 13.

The Communist people's police first sprayed the U. S. sector with 250 to 300 shots from rifles and sub-machine guns in a dawn attempt to stop nine East German refugees who crashed a truck into the Reds' barbed wire border barrier. The refugees managed to escape.

As soon as this shooting stopped, the American military police and a detachment of West Berlin police appeared at the border and the Communists fired again, police said.

Plane Wing Leaning Against Uprooted Tree

Fire Crew Dousing Foam On Flames Of Wreckage

Longwood Progress Is Told

A start on a new City Hall, a new fire truck and annexation of the Hwy. 17-92 area were steps outlined for Longwood's immediate future by Mayor A. R. Lormann to members of the Area Chamber of Commerce Thursday.

Sparking on the importance of closer relationship between the chamber and the city, Lormann called on members of the organization for support in the city's program, "not in financing but in backing to help put these projects across," he said.

"Although we have a council of progressive and cooperative, individual thinkers, it still is a cautious council. It may take a little longer to make decisions but each step taken will be one in the right direction.

"On the city hall, for example. We first considered building just a fire-resistant room to store city records. We think, now, that we have the ways and means, without adding taxation, to go ahead with a basic structure on a new hall but we will need the backing of the people.

"The fire truck, with the help of the volunteer department, also can be realized without being a burden to the city," he said. Lormann pointed out that the greatest support is going to be needed on the annexation. He explained that the council favors the move, not because it would give the city added taxpayers, but because it would give added income through returns from the County road and bridge fund and from the cigarette tax. "It also would give us identification along the major highway," he said, "and we feel the benefits would more than offset the costs for taking care of the increased areas.

"Residents would benefit from lower insurance rates, in some instances by a 50 per cent reduction in annual premiums, through coverage from the fire department, which is taking care of the area now only through the goodness of the firemen."

The mayor also said that before his term expires, he is going to push for revision of the charter. "Many items in the present charter are obsolete and impossible to work with and are holding us back. One, in particular, is that under our present laws, we cannot effectively enforce collection of back

Salvage Due To Begin After Investigation

A Navy board begins an on-the-spot investigation today of an air collision that sent two jet bombers crashing in flames, killing all six crewmen and narrowly missing a house and a school.

The Navy identified the victims as Cdr. Malcomb A. Lea, 38, pilot of the jet; Lt. Adrian D. Spees, 29; pilot of the other plane; Lt. Bruce H. Graham, 31; Lt. Donald J. Brough, 36; bombardier-navigator; Harold R. Kelsey, 35, aviation ordinance man, and Robert M. Weaver, 25, aviation mechanic.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milner announced this morning that the school board will meet with NAS officials and members of the Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to clarify "flight patterns over Seminole High School."

Salvage operations were to start after the investigating board finished its inspection of the charred crash scene on the shore of Lake Jennie about two miles from the Sanford Naval Air Station. The planes collided in the air and plunged to earth Thursday afternoon.

One of the multi-jet A3D Skywarrior attack bombers landed in a back yard, flattening a shed and setting fire to the back of a house. The site was about 300 yards from Seminole High School, whose pupils had left only 35 minutes before the crash.

The second plane fell nearby in a patch of pine woods. The Navy said the planes collided at about 1,000 feet. One plane was on ground-controlled approach and the other was practicing field mirror landings.

The crash scene was sparsely dotted with homes. Burning debris from the plane and mutilated bodies were flung over a wide area. The main wreckage of the two jets dug deep holes in the ground.

One of the planes crashed into the back yard of Mrs. Stanley Oglesby's home. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Strawder, have been staying there, but said nobody was home at the time of the crash.

A landing gear from the jet bounced against the side of the house and another piece of wreckage smashed a back-yard shed. Flames at the rear of the house were quickly extinguished by firemen.

One witness said the planes appeared to brush wings before they exploded. Another said one plane seemed to settle atop the other. "It was the most awful thing I ever saw," a woman said.

One of the planes was from Heavy Attack Squadron 3, stationed at Sanford and the other from Squadron 11—the same one which lost another Skywarrior and its three man crew in Lake George last Friday.

The crash just before the heavy late afternoon traffic began streaming along French Ave. to the outlying areas attracted hundreds of automobiles full of people to the scene.

Curious crowds pushed in close to the wreckage in spite of repeated warnings by police, highway patrolmen, deputies and Navy men that an explosion might occur.

The last fire trucks to reach the scene were slowed by the parked cars and pedestrians. A huge column of smoke went up from the burning aircraft, parts of which were scattered for a quarter of a mile in the lightly wooded area.

One woman said she saw the two planes close together as she drove along Grapeville Ave. "I just knew they were going to hit while I watched," she said. "They seemed to come together all of a sudden and I had a feeling something was wrong with one of them."

Firm To Begin Next Week On Land Options

A nationally known company will begin taking options next week on land in Seminole and Volusia counties for the construction of a solid fuels plant, John Krider, manager of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, told the Civitan Club Thursday night.

"The initial option will be for 50,000 to 55,000 acres of land in east Seminole and southeast Volusia, and the prime requisite is water transportation," Krider explained.

"It looks now as if the canal will have to come into the Indian River south of Titusville. It formerly was scheduled to come in on the north side, but they have now developed a well field there, which will make it necessary to approach from a different direction," Krider said.

"We have already secured commitments from property owners to give their property for the canal and for the first time in history we have the whole-hearted support of the Governor of Florida," Krider added.

The canal can now be built on the state level, from Sanford to Titusville, and the necessary $11 million will be forthcoming from a source which I cannot reveal at this time," Krider said, in answer to a question.

Krider praised Secretary of State Tom Adams for the great job he has done in promoting the waterways development program which has given the slot in the arm needed for the acceptance of the canal on the state level. He predicted that Adams, who will be in Sanford next week as guest of the Chamber at a dinner, "will be the governor of the state one of these days."

Krider also pointed out that the tremendous economic boost of the canal to Sanford would offset the eventual phasing out of the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Castro Reported Faking Invasion

United Press International Premier Fidel Castro may be plotting a false invasion of Cuba as an excuse to "liquidate" the imprisoned leaders of the unsuccessful April 17 Bay of Pigs attack, exile leaders said today.

They said they were warned of the possibility of such an intrigue by friendly Latin American diplomats in secret dispatches from Havana.

Cuban Revolutionary Council President Jose Miró Cardona said one such source quoted Castro personally as saying there would be an "invasion" of Cuba "within 10 days from three places."

Miró said it was well known that exiles were not presently in a position for an "immediate" attack on Castro. He pointed out that six governments accused this week by Castro of training invasion troops had denied the allegations.

"It would be like Castro to take an invasion to enable him to fix a pretext to liquidate the men who led the April 17 attack whose lives he is now obliged to respect under international law relating to prisoners of war," Miró said.
