Explorer Satellite Launching Tonight

Friday, September 22, 1972—Sanford, Florida 32771

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A three-stage Delta rocket is poised for an attempt tonight to hurl Explorer 47, a flying physics laboratory, toward an orbit extending more than halfway to the moon. From its lofty outpost, the 860-pound to a maximum of 80 per cent to satellite-heaviest in the Explorer series — is to study solar and galactic cosmic users. A major goal is to probe the mysterious magnetosphere, a teardrop-shaped envelop which surrounds the earth, extending out millions of miles. It is formed by the solar wind, a fastmoving stream of radiation particles which strike earth's magnetic field. Unable to penetrate the atmosphere, the stream flows around the earth. The Delta is scheduled to be launched from Cape

By REV. FRED L. NEAL ongregational Christian Church

Christianity is intensely practical. It gives strength for today as well as hope for tomorrow. It offers far more than just "pie in the sky" when you die. Jesus came that we might have life and that mare abundantly. Therefore I am convinced that generally speaking God desires that his children be spiritually, mentally and physically strong. With this in mind I want to share something practical with you today, by giving you four simple rules to follow if you become mentally

1. Live on good terms with your conscience. This can best be done by confessing and forsaking all known sin in your life. Then as you by faith receive God's forgiveness forgive others and forgive yourself. By harboring hatred, grudges and illwill within your heart one can lose years from why; would be a norman lifespan. These things can cause high blood pressure, ulcers and various other diseases that will send you to an early grave.

2. Go to a doctor. Then by having gone to the doctor follow his advice. He knows more about your condition than you do and it does not make a great deal of sense to go to a doctor and then not follow his advice or fail to follow and take the medicine he prescribes for you. Doctors, hospitals and advances in medicine are gifts of God and God expects us to use them to care for this body he has given you. To refuse medical aid when you are ill and it is available is nonsense. Many people who have been wise enough to go to the doctor for an annual physical are alive today because diseases such as cancer were caught in their early stages and were able to

3. Obey God's word. In James we read these words "Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he hath committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. By believing and putting these words into practice thousands of God's children have been able to testify of bodily healing. Just believe and obey God's word and God may favor and honor your faith by

4. Submit yourself to the wisdom and will of God. God never makes a mistake and He always does the right thing at the right time. If you follow these four simple rules and God heals you then make sure that you give God glory and share your experiences with others. Then there may be times when it is not God's will to heal you. It could be that God can and will use your suffering to his honor and glory. But rest assured of this fact that God is going to do what is best for you at just

It would be only too easy to let the flood of new and exhilarating events which are almost daily marking the forward surge of Seminole County in the areas of commerce, construction and governmental challenges take over.

But such lopsided development would not only be unwide and self-defeating but it would put a false-face on the image of the residents who have given this county and enviable reputation as being a place where "homes" are easily established and maintained.

That is why the annual announcement from. the Seminole County Mutual Concert Association is greeted with such enthusiastic support from every part of the county. Indeed, just across Lake Monroe and into DeBary and Deltona, this is a star event.

Congratulations are very much in order for the excellence and variety which the three musical milestones for the '72-'73 season provide.

It would be, indeed, gilding the lily to attempt any embellishment of the high order which its first concert on Nov. 14th promises. For that is the evening when the association members are to spend "one enchanted evening with H-I-L-D-E-G-A-R-D-E." Here is a girl from Milwaukee who is a celebrated international chanteuse, and whose solo performances have evoked such rave notices as this from the Boston Record:

"Her concerts are a proven success, Hildegarde, always the incomparable, worked the magic of a superb performance."

The opening event for the 1973 program will be by Fred Waring and his celebrated orchestra and singers on Feb. 8th. This securing of a Waring appearance for the concert program is indicative of the care with which the entire cultural presentation has been prepared.

What happier way for the newcomer to this delightful county to recall the happy musical memories which are aroused when "Hildegarde" is mentioned or when the evenings when Fred Waring and his distinctive orchestra and even more characteristic choral effects are

Space agency officials always have recognized the danger of space flight since they began sending astronauts aloft May 5, 1961, when Alan Shepard became the first American to fly in space. Buoyed by good crowds, Sen. George McGovern on the road is cheerfully saying he's "turned the cerner" in his battle for the presidency. But a check of about a third of the states produces absolutely dismal reports on his

Some Democrats who have seen a flock of private polls covering many individual states say they are devastating for McGovern-worse in some cases than the 34-point spread shown in the public Gallup and Harris polls.
An influential Republican with access to similar private GOP polls reports the same thing. The margins for President Nixon over McGovern are so crushing that party leaders find it hard to believe them.

As an example, though the McGovern forces think they have a pretty good shot at Iowa, a responsible private poll there shows Mr. Nixon leading the Democratic nominee by a margin of 56 to 22. Nobody expects McGovern to take Oklahoma, which has been going Republican consistently in recent presiiential elections. Yet a poll spread of 60 to 15 in favor of Mr. Nixon has to be put down as staggering. When you run the U.S. map in a telephone survey as I have just done, you encounter comment just as astonishing as the poll figures.

Said an Iowa politician: "This state should be declared a disaster area by Mc-A Maryland Democrat thus describes the senator's

"It's the damnedest mess I've ever seen. There are defections all over the place. McGovern's cry of 'Come nome, America' isn't a theme or a slogan, it's a lament."

This from a veteran observer in Georgia: "McGovern says Georgia is one of his battleground states in the South. If it is, he's in terrible shape. His campaign here is the worst thing I've ever run into. Georgia is at least 2 to 1 Nixon.'

Texas is one of the big states the McGovern people consistently argue can be theirs. They count hopefully on a blend of support from blacks, Chicanos, urban liberals, union men spurred by vigorous labor organizations, populist-minded folk in East Texas and elsewhere. A fresh check there, however, does not produce support for this hope. Mr. Nixon is considered to be strongly in the lead. The East Texans, who provided Gov. George Wallace with much of his third-party support in 1968, actually seem to be leaning Mr. Nixon's way. In that area, the city of Beaumont favors the President and likes

Vice President Agnew even better. Among the northern big states, only California at the moment appears to offer McGovern much promise. By poll indication and other observation, Mr. Nixon is ahead in the state today. But California is notoriously volatile. Mr. Nixon's support is thought to be especially soft, and one practiced observer said, "I can see how he could lose

Young Terrorists Taught, Not Born

The three surviving Olympic games terrorists in German police custody are aged 20, 21 and 22. As far as is known, the five dead Arabs were in the same age range. Thus none of them was even alive at the time of the partitioning of Palestine and the creation of the state of Israel in 1948. None of them had any personal memories of the mass exodus of Palestinian Arabs into refugee camps which, a quarter of a century later, still contain upwards of a million people.

The Munich terrorists were made, not born. Carefully nursed on hatred for all of their young lives, they and their fellows in the various groups and factions making up the Palestinian guerrilla movement are the end roducts of 24 years of refusal by Arab governments in he Middle East to accept the reality of Israel.

There is no excuse for the existence of refugee camps after this long a time, some of which have taken on the aspects of permanent cities. The refugees, the bulk of whose support has been and continues to be paid by the United States through the agency of the United Nations, could have been resettled in the first generation, given a modicum of good will on the part of the Arab governments, chiefly Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Jordan. The problem need not have arisen in the first place had not these governments, for their own political purposes, encouraged the flight of the refugees and fostered the cult-the deadly myth-of revanchism. Now, having reared a generation of terrorists who

Deliberations

By DONNA ESTES

Attended the Casselberry City Council meeting this week and as we transplanted northerners say, "It was really a doozy marooney." While the session was not unusually exciting, its length was something else again.

At 11:17 p.m. Mayor Curtis Blow packed up his brief case, closed same and walked out. And the meeting which began at 7 p.m. finally adjourned at 12:05:10 a.m. Tuesday with half the workshop agenda not acted upon. To stay at meetings like that, the City Council (not to mention the press) must have dedication above and beyond the you know what. Of course, Council Chairman Edith Duerr gets the criticism for the length of meetings, but if there is that much business which must be taken care of, what is she supposed to do? City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh suggested perhaps the board should meet five nights weekly. When asked if he would be available five nights each week, he answered fir-

Then, too, the Council already had scheduled work sessions on its budget for Wednesday and Thursday evening

After sitting in the same spot for more than five hours straight, various councilmen's tempers were a little frayed and remarks became a little sarcastic and snippy. Incidentally, the item which took a large part of the meeting was the reading of the 30-page plus bond ordinance for acquisition of the water and sewer system and certainly, after years of negotiations, that could not wait any longer.

Councilman John Zacco made sure that the ordinance will permit the city to give a rate-break to social security recipients in the community. McIntosh assured this can be

Flight To Pa.

By the way, Boss, I found out last weekend while in Pennsylvania that the part of the proceeds from the state lottery there is used to refund the ad valorem taxes paid by social security recipients.

The lottery is certainly popular in Pennsylvania and my Uncle Elmer and Aunt Mary Arnold gifted the Estes family with four of the prized tickets. Remember he won $1,000 earlier this year. I flew back "home" via Herndon Ambulance "lifesaver" plane to take my father there. He has been extremely ill and was hospitalized at Orange Memorial Hospital for five weeks before he decided he would rather be in McKeesport. Pilot Art Bell smoothly flew us via a Cessna Twin Engine from Herndon Airport, leaving at about 1:20 p.m. Saturday, to Allegheny County Airport where we arrived at 5:40 p.m. The view from the plane flying between 8,500 to 9,600 feet altitude was beautiful and Mr. Bell is an exceedingly good pilot in addition to being informative. Would you believe I flew in the co-pilot's seat. Bob Beemis, of Herndon who attended my Dad throughout the flight, was kind and most conscientious. In the Carolinas, the ground looked like a crossword puzzle with odd-shaped pieces and the land in Tennessee was in shades of green. The mountains appeared to have been scooped up mounds of earth and greenery, patted with an invisible hand to make sharp tops. The vegetation topped hills resembled green velvet.

The Blue Ridge Mountains looked like lumpy green whipped cream with big clumps of hills one right on top the

I must admit the takeoff from Herndon was much more pleasant than the landing at Allegheny. From high up, that airport looked like a postage stamp and I knew the airplane was bigger than that. Rather than flying back on the Cessna, I returned to sunny Central Florida by commercial airline at 6:30 p.m. Monday, just in time to get to the Casselberry

Pigs Feet Favored

By the way, boss, my Aunt Mary, a subscriber of The Herald, will never forgive me if I don't tell you about the marvelous lunch she served prior to accompanying me to the Greater Pittsburgh airport Monday afternoon. In addition, to hard salami sandwiches with leaf lettuce and yellow tomatoes, she had delicious Pennsylvania buttermilk and succulent pigs' feet, all favorites of mine. Aren't you jealous? By the way two of my four lottery tickets were purchased at the super market and the other two from a beer distributor. They are redeemable at any state liquor store. So, I may just be going back to Pennsylvania to collect my $50,000 or better yet $1 million within the next few weeks.

Pay Hike Explained

By the way, for the information of all those persons inquiring about the large salary increases tentatively approved by the Longwood city council for its department heads in the new fiscal year - City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. reported to the Council several months ago that Longwood does not come within the purview of the federal wage freeze since it has less than 60 employes.

And for the most part the department heads in Longwood for many years were grossly underpaid. A chart prepared by Councilman Dick Crenshaw of comparable salaries paid in other cities of like size in the area showed that pay adjustments were necessary in order to keep experienced

However, it should also be pointed out that when good salaries are allocated for positions, replacements can be easily found. And no one is indispensible,

The political pots in the cities of Seminole should start to boil momentarily with qualifying time for candidates - the first and middle of October - fast approaching. Thomas E. Embree has announced for a City Council spot in Casselberry to become the second announced candidate for public office there. Thomas Napier, presently a councilman, previously announced he will seek the one-year split term as mayor to complete the term of Mayor Curtis Blow, who recently announced his retirement. The word around Casselberry is that Richard Wirz will make another try for the post of mayor and that some are trying to interest Councilmen John Leighty and Harry Sambrook to run as well. Terms of the two latter men are up

In Altamonte Springs, it is said that Tom Radloff, who resigned his City Council post to run unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination for a County Commission seat, is considering throwing his hat in the ring to return to the Council. Since his resignation from the City Council, Donald Meyers was appointed to that spot. No one is talking yet in Longwood about who candidates

Speaking of law enforcement units - Aitamonte Springs budget for the 1972-73 year included an allocation of $154,632 for the city's police department headed by Chief Justus East. With the city estimated to have a population of 11,000 up from the 4,200 in the 1970 census, the per capita cost of law enforcement there under the new budget is $14. The budget includes 17 full time patrolmen.

New Red Targets

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) - U.S. Air Force jets ranged between Hanoi and the Chinese border to attack four new targets, the 7th Air Force announced today. It was the first time since full-scale bambing resumed over North Vietnam that new targets had been hit.

Communist-led forces attacked seven government positions as fighting spread closer to the capital of Quang Ngai province. Three of the targets for the first time in North Vietnam were military and storage areas north and northwest of

The two crewmen parachuted into the Tonkin Gulf and were picked up by a rescue helicopter 45 minutes later. The fighting in Quang Ngai province marked the end of the first week of a North Vietnamese and Viet Cong offensive in the northern coastal province which is considered of little strategic value except for a stretch of Highway 1 running through it.

An eight-mile stretch of Highway 1 was reported cut from Quang Ngai City, the province capital, southward to Fire Base Snoopy, an old American outpost. The city is 75 miles south

ends with delivery

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Someone wrote to you saying "Our boss opens all the mail that comes addressed to the office," and you replied, "Surely you are aware [as your boss must be] that opening mail addressed to another is a federal

Well. Abby, that's what I thought-until I found out

The responsibility of the Post Office Department is to deliver mail to the address given. Interference with delivery, while en route or still in the recipients' mailboxes is a federal offense but once delivered, the responsibility of the Post Office Department ceases.

Some places of business make it a policy to open all mail delivered to their address, regardless of to whom it is addressed. This discourages employes from using company time to read their personal mail, and no doubt answer it during office hours. Also, employes who are carrying on a little hanky panky and do not want certain letters addressed to their homes, use their office addresses. So, please tell your readers if they want their personal mail to remain personal, to get a post office box.

DEAR HAVE: Thank you for a most informative letter

I learned something today. And I'll wager several million other people did, too. DEAR ABBY: Three cheers for the boss who opens all the mail that comes to his place of business, regardless of who it's for! Where do employes get off having their personal correspondence sent to their offices anyway? Don't these people have homes.

You can bet your bottom buck that mail addressed to one's place of business is read on company time, and answered on company time with the company's stationery, typewriter and stamps, too.

This is stealing, far as I'm concerned.

DEAR ABBY: This is for people who are afraid to leave a tip on the table for fear a busboy or another waitress might steal it: There is an unwritten law among waitresses and busboys. They do not take each other's tips! They are loyal to each other, and I can vouch for them because I was a waitress for many years.

If you see a waitress or busboy pick up a tip, it is only to prevent a customer or a child from picking it up. [Believ me, this happens more often than you think.] Customers should NOT try to hand the waitress the ti personally. I've had my arms loaded with a tray of hot food, and customers have come up to me and tried to put the tip in the pocket [always the wrong pocket!], or worse yet HAND it to me when I don't have a free hand. Please, folks, just leave the waitress' tip on the table. MARGIE, THE EX-WAITRESS

DEAR MARGIE: Thanks for the tip.

DEAR ABBY: Re "Thank you" notes from newlyweds, here's one for you: in response to a gift check we gave a young couple for their wedding gift, they wrote, "Thank you for the donation which will be used toward the purchase of a second-hand desk."

How about that? No names please. DEAR PUZZLED: Well, at least they were bonest

DEAR ABBY: I couldn't afford to go to college, so I applied for a selling job with a large company I had always

The personnel manager said, "Sorry, we're hiring only men who have had some sales experience." I looked him straight in the eye and replied, "How can you expect a man [I was all of 16] to have experience if no one will hire him?"

The manager said, "You're right. I'll give you a chance, but you have to start at the bottom as a trainee." I

That was 16 years ago and I'm still with the company. Last year they had a sales contest and first prize was a trip to Hawaii for the winner and his wife. Guess who won! Yours truly.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Acetone Will Dissolve

Airplane Glue Globs By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY-Mrs. W. K. wanted to remove airplane glue from a wool blouse and, as I have done various types of cleaning, except for clothes, do believe that a "thin-ner" would dissolve the glue and not harm the wool. I have used it to "cut" many things and have never had it damage cloth. I would advise her to try the thinner on wool before she proceeds to use it on her blouse. Airplane glue dries so hard that it will require more than a drop of anything and a lot of patience. If the thinner is used, remove it just as soon as the glue is dissolved. If water will not harm the fabric it is good for such removal. I do hope this helps.-BILL

DEAR MRS. W. K. and other readers-The Consumer Service of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture recommends acetone for the removal of airplane glue. Do remember it is FLAMMABLE and POISON. Any such strong solvent must be first tried on similar material or a spot on the garment that does not show. Mrs. W. K. said her blouse was wool but there are many synthetic fabrics that acetone must never be used on. If the fabric is friendly to it, sponge spot with the acetone, let it dissolve the glue and, if the material will wash, wash in warm suds and rinse. ALWAYS test first.-POLLY

Polly's Problem namenassanting DEAR POLLY-I have a new knit acetate dress that acquired a very peculiar odor after I wore it only a couple of times. I washed the dress with a cold water soap and hung it outside to dry all day but still the odor remains. In fact, it is stronger than before and the dress cannot be worn again unless some reader can help with a suggestion as to how I might remove the odor.—SHARON

DEAR POLLY-My Pet Peeve concerns the dressing rooms in stores. We go in to try on a dress and there is not even a hanger to hang your own dress and bag while you are trying on their dresses. I have resorted to cramming my own dress on the usual corner shelf, putting my bag on the floor and trying to keep my eyes on it while getting a new dress over my head.-MRS. A. C.

Mayfair

Next Wednesday, September 27, the Mayfair Women's Golf Association kicks off its new season with a 9 a. m. shotgun start kickers tournament. With a large increase in membership, the ladies association now has over 90 members. This should make for some great tournaments, with a much larger field of players out every Wednesday.

The new officers of the mayfair Men's Golf Association. along with a few of the board members, met this past Tuesday evening and laid some plans for what should be a fantastic golfing season. Along with the regular monthly tournaments, usually held over the first weekend of the month, plans were made for some additional tournaments such as a member-guest event, which hopefully will turn out to be an annual tournament. The two partner, best ball event, which was held just two weeks ago, was such a tremendous success that we plan to make it a 36 hole tournament next year. I say "we" only because I was drafted into the job of tournament director for the new year.

The dates of October 28-29 have been confirmed for the Fifth Annual Hugh Whelchel Memorial Tournament. The field will be limited to the first 100 entries. Entry blanks can be obtained at the pro shop. Entry forms will also be sent to other courses in Central Florida, so, I wouldn't hesitate too long in signing up.

The MMGA will sponsor an individual points tourney for the members over the weekend of October 7-8. Last Sunday, Ralph Simas, sometimes known affectionately as "the dirty ole man," and always known as a dangerous opponent, eagled the 14th hole when he holed out a 100-yard wedge shot from the rough. One of the nicest things about it was that Ralph was my partner.

Rolling Hills

As usual, the Rolling Hills Golf and Country Club was a very busy place last weekend. Saturday saw a four partner, best ball tournament played. Four teenagers teamed up against the older generation, and between Roy Gilbreath, Bob Stockman, Tony Harvey and Chip Harkins, they ripped

The low net award went to the foursome of Charlie Evens, Dean Grove, Bill Bowers and Virgil Johnson, who recorded an adjusted score of 55.

Three teams had to settle for a share of second low net. Finished at 58 were the teams of Fred Harvey, Sam West, Dick Barbier and Chuck Bradley; Fletcher Boles, Dan Aran, Paul Klaus and Vern Den; Chester Brown, Tom Roberts, Lyle Nelson and Bill Richards.

On Sunday, the husbands and wives got together and competed in a mixed four partner, best ball tourney. Seventy-one was the best scratch score turned in, and it was recorded by Virgil and Peg Johnson, Bill and Cathy

Low net honors went to George and Phyllis Cardascia, Warren and Kathy Marshall. Their adjusted score was 57. Second low net, with a 58, went to Glen and Louise Williamson, John and Mary Nicholson. There was a tie for third spot at 59 between Vern and Mary Hendershot, George and Fritz Cook; and Fred and Doris Harvey, Chuck and Marilyn Bradley.

The ladies at Rolling Hills are getting back into the swing of things according to Marilyn Bradley, publicity chairman. Yesterday's playday was low gross and low net within flights. In championship flight, June Dressel turned in a very fine 81 to capture the low gross award. Two shots off the pace and taking second low gross, was Mary Herdershot with an 83, while Virginia Stockman won third spot with an 84. These particular names will be showing up very often this year, as they have in the past.

The low net award was claimed by Barbara Privee, who recorded an adjusted 70. Second low net went to Sue Hughes with a 72, while the third place award went to Freddie Taylor

In "A" flight, Mary Lou Linton had the nest scratch round of 95, winning for herself the first low gross prize. Rose Hornzie took second place with a 97. With a 101., Fran Lee captured third. In the low net category, Lou Scott won the top prize with a 79. In a match of cards, Edna Gusland took second place over Susie Dickey; both finished with 80.

In "B" Flight Peg Gordon fired a 102, winning first place by two shots over second place finisher Gail Williamson, who recorded a 104. In at 107 and third spot was Liz McManus. There was a tie for first low net between Esther Mullinax and Flonnye Lunn, with Mrs. Lunn coming out on top in a match of cards. Both ladies ended play with 78. Third place money was taken by Margaret Partlow, who finished a 80.

There were two more matches of cards within "C" flight. Finishing alone in first place in the gross division was Shirley Elsey, with a 108. In a match of cards for second and third place, it was Charlotte Cressman over Bernice Morris. Low net also ended in a deadlock at 86 between Mary Groce and Phyllis Cardascia, with Mary taking it on the card. Dottie Norman won third place with an 88.

POWs Caught In Politics

Associated Press Writer

Three American prisoners of war in Hanoi suddenly have become an issue in the political campaign, amid accusations and counter-accusations by Sen. George McGovern and Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Sen. McGovern said Sunday the Nixon administration was "playing politics" with the three prisoners who apparently have been released by North Vietnam to an anti-war group in

"So I call on Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird and I call on the President of the United States to let these three men come home just as quickly as possible," the Democratic presidential nominee said in New

Laird earlier had charged that the North Vietnamese were using the families of the prisoners-families of two of the prisoners went to Hanoi with the anti-war group—as "propaganda

the administration. Laird issued a new statement, saying: "It is a despicable act of a presidential candidate to make himself a spokesman for the enemy. He added that McGovern "knows very well just who it is who has delayed the return of the three American officers

The three Americans are Maj. Edward Elias of the Air Force, Lt. Mark L. Gartley of the Navy and Lt. Norris Charles of the Navy. Relatives of both Charles and Gartley are in North Vietnam.

Tell me it "ain't" so, neighbors. . .that politicians (acually the one's who put us into the 'Nam mess) are also now playing the politics on the release of some of our POWs. But of course, I've been "hinting" that this has been nothing more than a "chess game" for some people. . .for some time now, haven't I?

Received a note through the mail, along with a clipping from the Miami Herald. . . "How about this? Do you see a similarity between Dade and Seminole?"

The editorial covered the elections generally, and specifically, the school board: "The issue is whether the schools of Dade County, the nation's sixth largest system, are to be dominated by a militant, self-serving teacher union which pulled an illegal strike against the public interest, or by independent, dedicated citizens backed by parents-taxpayers who want the most for the education buck The Classroom Teachers Association is pushing a slate of candidates with vehemence and vengeance."

ARRIVE ALIVE - YOU HAVE A CHOICE

David Joe Tanner, 22, of Leesburg was killed in a single car accident on a dirt road in Lake County early Saturday morning. A passing motorist spotted the wreckage about 6 a.m. on District Road D1-5702. Troopers Joe Guthrie and R. O. Harvey reported the car, a 1962 Chevrolet, left the roadway at a high rate of speed and hit a tree. The car ripped in half on impact. The front half is shown above. The accident pushed the Lake County fatality count to 37 for the year.
