Three Seminole County Boys At 4-H Short Course

Three boys from Seminole County will participate in the 41st Annual Boys' 4-H Club Short Course at the University of Florida this week.

Cecil A. Tucker II, county agricultural agent, said the Seminole County delegation includes Jerry Arndt, Oviedo; Owen Cammack, Geneva and John Jakubcin, Slavia.

The delegation will be accompanied by Ernest C. Lundberg, Seminole County assistant agricultural agent.

About 400 boys from throughout the state are registered for the annual event, according to W. W. Brown, state boys' 4-H Club agent. Brown said delegates to the Short Course will enjoy a week of instruction, entertainment, recreation and contests.

Classes in agriculture will be conducted each morning by Extension Service specialists. First year boys will receive instruction in two different subjects each day, while senior boys will choose one of eight courses.

Daily assemblies will be devoted to talks by leaders in agriculture and education, including President J. Wayne Reitz of the University of Florida.

Part of each day will be set aside for swimming and other recreational activities. Competitive events including football, softball, and volleyball will be under the direction of Ray Graves, university athletic director and head football coach.

Short Course contests will include the state dairy judging runoff, tractor operator competition, public speaking and lamp making. In addition to these contests, competitive examinations will be held for several available scholarships.

Mr. Billopp

A foreign language is one spoken by people of another country. Other persons' ability to speak it is acquired only after long years of effort and study.

There are two ways to pronounce the words of a foreign language; one is the right way, the other is the wrong way. Even persons who have not devoted long hours of effort and study to the language can pronounce it the wrong way.

In the average crowd those who pronounce a foreign language the wrong way outnumber those who pronounce it the right way. In fact a person who pronounces a foreign language the right way often will be the only person in a crowd who does.

Should he persist in pronouncing the foreign language the right way in defiance of all the others who pronounce it the wrong way?

not knowing they are pronouncing it the wrong way because that is the way everybody is pronouncing it with one lone except, they will assume that the person pronouncing it the right way does not know better.

Or, even if they suspect that he is pronouncing it the right way, they will charge him with putting on airs. The right way will seem to them silly and affected. It will strike them as being un-American. If he pronounces the foreign language the right way they will feel no confidence in him. They will scorn what he has to say. Certainly they will not give him any office involving trust.

Under these circumstances the person who pronounces the foreign language the right way will hesitate to do so. He would prefer to be popular and to enjoy the confidence of his fellows. So he will listen carefully and do his best to pronounce the words as they do even though he knows they are wrong.

Only a person with rare courage will be so bold as to say to those present: "I have spent years of labor and devoted large sums of money to learning the language. Therefore whatever you may think of me I am going to pronounce it the right way."

WAVING HUGE college flags and holding long sticks, students storm into Diet (Parliament) grounds, which was picketed by police in armored trucks. One Killed As Storms Hit Plains States

By United Press International

At least one person was killed and several injured Wednesday night when thunderstorms, hail and 80-mile-an-hour winds battered the plains states.

A brief but furious 30-minute storm made a shambles of Hastings, Neb. Mild panic broke out as residents piled into cars and tried to leave the storm-lashed city.

Hastings Airport Manager Bill Latta measured the wind at more than 80-miles-an-hour just before the storm struck. He said the wind could easily have reached more than 90 after he took refuge in a storm cellar.

Latta said the storm, which dumped 1.66 inches of rain on the town in 15 minutes, wrecked five planes. Four railroad cars and three mobile homes were blown over. Luckily, no one was in the cars.

A migrant Mexican farm worker, Cecilio Ruiz Santiesteban, 36, was killed when a grain bin overturned and crushed him near Funk, Neb. Hail and wind gusts of 71 miles hit Omaha.

Kennecott, Iowa, reported 3.50 inches of rain in 1 1/2 hours. Wind gusts hit 55 miles in Des Moines and 48 at St. Joseph, Mo.

A severe windstorm swept through an area around Jackson, Mich., damaging 20 buildings. There were no reported injuries.

Fast Action Seen On Japan Treaty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson announced today that the Senate will act on the U. S. - Japanese security treaty "at an early date" despite rioting in Tokyo which caused cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit.

Johnson made the statement after conferring with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He said it was the "best guess" of the committee that the treaty should be acted upon.

The Democratic leader said he had also conferred with the State Department before deciding to go ahead with the ratification procedure as planned.

Asked when the treaty will reach the floor, Johnson replied that the bill, which appropriates $1.5 billion for the defense appropriations bill, the federal employees pay increase bill and a motion to approve House action on suffrage in the District of Columbia are tentatively scheduled for action Friday.

"My best judgment is that we will proceed at an early date," Johnson said. His tentative schedule suggested that ratification of the treaty, while it could conceivably be completed by Friday or Saturday.

Ike's Tokyo Visit Out

TOKYO (UPI) — Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's pro-Western government bowed to Communist violence today and cancelled President Eisenhower's trip to Japan because it could not guarantee his safety.

The President accepted the decision with regret in Manila, where he wound up a three-day visit to the Philippines and sailed for Formosa on the next leg of his Far East journey.

In Seoul, the South Korean government announced that the date of Eisenhower's visit there has been advanced from June 22 to June 19 in view of the Japanese cancellation. The 18-Sunday-19 date Eisenhower was to have arrived in Tokyo.

Kishi announced his decision personally following an emergency meeting of his Cabinet, while an estimated 25,000 left-wingers milled outside and screamed for his resignation.

The cancellation was hailed as a great victory by international communists. Kishi's political opposition, and by leftist student and union groups here which had staged a month of violent demonstrations against the visit.

Europe viewed the decision as a major setback for the West in Asia and a propaganda victory for the Kremlin.

Japanese newspapers expressed shock, shame and regret over the move, although most conceded it could not have been avoided.

There was almost universal distrust in Japan at the violence which culminated early this morning when leftist mobs stormed the Parliament area and battled police furiously.

Kishi was crushed. It probably meant his ultimate resignation. Eisenhower, receiving word of the postponement, requested in Manila, was deeply disappointed.

The grim-faced Kishi announced the news to reporters himself at his official residence. He blamed the necessity for the decision on a Communist-inspired effort to destroy democracy in Japan. He made it clear he was acting because he feared for Eisenhower's safety.

The announcement set off a tremendous cheer and wild rejoicing in a throng of 25,000 student and union demonstrators who had been milling outside Kishi's windows screaming for his resignation.

"We've won, we've won," they cried hysterically. They did snake dances, hugged each other and jumped about joyously for hours afterward. Only moments before they had been threatening a new riot.

Kishi said he himself would not resign until the U. S.-Japan treaty is ratified. It is due for ratification Sunday.

Kishi's brother, Finance Minister Eisaku Sato, said the postponement means Eisenhower probably would not come to Japan before his term is up in January.

"The desire of the majority today must be denied in order to avoid any unfortunate incident on the president," Kishi said.

Outside his residence 25,000 leftist demonstrators cheered wildly and claimed a victory for their cause.

"If democracy is to bow to minority violence, it is a grave matter," the prime minister said. "The task remaining now is to strengthen security."

"It is unbearably regretful that the president's visit must now be postponed."

J. DAN WRIGHT Wright Named Citrus Board Head At Meet

Bulletin

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Road Board today adopted a record-shattering $399,000 work schedule for the coming fiscal year.

The board said funds are in sight to finance only about 214 million dollars of the jobs, but it always adopts a budget higher than anticipated funds to allow leeway in selection of projects.

The fiscal budget is approximately 44 million dollars above the tentative work schedule on which public hearings were held last week.

Machinists Strike At Cape Settled

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — Union machinists ended a 10-day strike today against Convair Astronautics and returned to work on America's priority missile program, including the intercontinental Atlas.

The Cape Canaveral local of the International Association of Machinists voted about 4-1 to accept a new supplemental contract offered by Convair for off-site bases such as the one here. The exact vote was not disclosed.

The union still must vote next week on a master contract being worked out for Convair workers. Negotiations also are in progress here between the IAM and Lockheed and Douglas, both of which also are handling key missile and space assignments.

The Lockheed strike of Lockheed workers has not spread to this base as yet, according to a separate union agreement in force here with the firm. An old contract has expired but has not been terminated.

Lockheed makes the Navy's Polaris submarine missile and also has space assignments with the Discoverer, Midas and Samos satellite systems.

The union accepted a Convair offer of a 38-cent per hour across-the-board increase for technical employees and four cents an hour for all others.

W. J. Uery, international representative of the IAM, said the new contract covers about 60 per cent of the Convair workers here and about half the 70 job classifications.

The governor said his talks with Cabinet officials indicate that some of them feel free to turn down any specific part of the project.

Collins said he is opposed to the leasing by the state of a private building and remodeling of it at state expense. If the House insists on renting the private building and fixing it up, he said, he will insist that it take full responsibility for the arrangement and that the Cabinet have no part in it.

J. Dan Wright, Jr. of Sanford, prominent 44-year-old citrus grower and businessman, was elected 17th chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission at the State agency's annual organization meeting in Lakeland Wednesday.

Wright succeeds J. R. (Nip) Graves of Vero Beach who stepped down after serving two years as Commission head. All 12 members of the Commission are appointed by the Governor and serve without pay.

"This is one of the greatest honors of my life," Wright said after taking over the Chairman's gavel today. "I will do everything in my power to handle this high position with decorum and honor while seeing that all segments of the industry receive fair and courteous treatment."

The youthful Commission chairman is a native of Nashville, Tenn., and moved with his family to Jacksonville when he was nine years of age. He attended Jacksonville schools and the University of Florida Law School.

Wright was first appointed to the commission in 1933 by Governor LeRoy Collins to finish out the unexpired term of another commissioner. He was reappointed as commissioner at large by Collins in 1937 and again in 1950. In 1958 he was named chairman of that important Committee and re-elected again in 1959. In 1958 he also served as a member of the Container and Concentrate Committees, while in 1959 he was a member of the Administrative, Fresh Fruit and Processing Committees.

2 Die In Brevard Plane Crash

TITUSVILLE (UPI) — John Walter Null, a Tampa golf professional and golf course designer, was killed Wednesday in the crash of a single-engine plane which also took the life of Dwight Alfred Norman, a professional pilot of St. Petersburg.

An official at the Tampa Golf and Country Club, where Null had been professional since 1957, said Null had flown here to close a deal on construction of a golf course.

The official said Null was also interested in buying the plane, an old Navy F-4 warplane, and had presumably taken Norman along to check it out. The plane was registered to Houston Sinclair Jr. of St. Petersburg. It crashed three miles southwest of here just off State Road 405.

SRD Suspends Highway Engineer

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Road Board today suspended resident engineer Roversi Dolphi of Orlando without pay, pending a final decision on whether his house-buying activities were improper.

Dolphi has been the subject of two recent investigations—one by the Road Department, the other by the Legislature's Interim Committee on Roads.

Highway Chairman William B. Killian wrote Dolphi today that his ability to discharge his duties has been "substantially and seriously impaired" as a result of certain financial interests and practices.

Dolphi allegedly purchased last summer a house on an interstate right-of-way while Dolphi was in charge of a two million dollar paving job under contract to the firm from which the house was bought.

Special Board Meet May Be Held

The City Commission may meet in special session Monday to study five engineering proposals requested by City Mr. W. E. Knowles to solve the city's water supply problem.

Knowles said today that he informed the engineering firms to turn in their proposals Friday.

The city manager added that if the proposals come in on time, he would call a special board meeting to discuss them.

City Commissioners met informally with engineers during the past two weeks and explained to the firms what they wanted. The study would include a review of the present supply and storage system in comparison with the present city needs.

Knowles had been authorized by the board last month to contact engineers after he told commissioners that the natural growth of the city is straining the capacity of its water system.

Governor Raps Remodeling Job

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins said today he wants no part of any Capitol remodeling job that calls for the rental of a private building across the street with a connecting bridge to provide larger quarters for the House of Representatives.

The proposal for the remodeling job, which will cost between $300,000 and $500,000, came from the House caucus which met at Pensacola recently.

Speaker-designate William C. Cline of Ocala got Cabinet approval a week ago for an advance of the necessary money so the job can be completed in time for the April, 1961, session.

The approval was obtained while Collins was out of the state, although he had asked that it be held up for his return.

However, the Cabinet on a 11-7 agreed to advance money for general remodeling of House quarters and did not obligate itself to any specific part of the job.

The governor said his talks with Cabinet officials indicate that some of them feel free to turn down any specific part of the project.

Collins said he is opposed to the leasing by the state of a private building and remodeling of it at state expense. If the House insists on renting the private building and fixing it up, he said, he will insist that it take full responsibility for the arrangement and that the Cabinet have no part in it.

House Group OK's Compromise Wage Hike Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Labor Committee approved a compromise bill today to boost the $1-an-hour federal minimum wage gradually to $1.25 and bring 3,900,000 more workers under the wage-hour law.

The bill would give pay raises to an estimated 3,300,000 workers. It was approved by a 18 to 9 vote, generally following party lines. One Democrat, Rep. Phil M. Landrum (Ga.) and eight Republicans opposed it.

The measure is a compromise between a broader Democratic-sponsored bill and the administration's proposal to raise the wage floor to only $1.10 or $1.15 and extend coverage to about three million workers.

Construction Gains

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Road Chairman William Killian reported today more than $11 million dollars worth of road and bridge projects were under way in Florida last month. Killian said he was the greatest amount of construction work during a single month in the history of the Road Department.

National Pilots Threaten Strike

By United Press International

Another strike warning added today to the woes of the airline industry already beset by wildcat strikes and four other threatened walkouts.

The Air Line Pilots Assn. ALPA said 300 National Airlines pilots voted to strike unless National gave them satisfactory wages and working conditions. No strike date was set.

Eastern Airlines spokesmen said only "five or six per cent" of its nationwide flights were in the air. The others were grounded by the refusal of 80 pilots to accept federal inspectors in the third pilot's seat. The Eastern wildcat strike defied a federal court injunction.

ALPA pilots stuck to their promise to strike Northwest Airlines at a minute before midnight Friday and refused to comment on a national mediation board offer of mediation.

Pilots of Trans-World, American and Pan-American Airlines honored injunction against a planned boycott of jets carrying Federal Aeronautics Agency FFA inspectors in the third pilot seat.

Israel Seeks Backing On Case

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Israeli diplomats today sought world support for Israel's stand on the Adolf Eichmann case but hoped the issue could be settled out of the United Nations.

The U. N. Security Council meets next Wednesday to take up an Argentine complaint that Israel violated Argentine sovereignty when it seized the former Nazi colonel in Buenos Aires last month and brought him to Israel to face trial.

Unpopular Teacher

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (UPI) — Miss Emeline Stearns, a veteran of 10 years teaching, was without a job today because she assigned her students too much homework. Miss Stearns said she was notified Wednesday that the Fredericksburg School Board has upheld its earlier decision not to renew her contract.

Liability Hikes In State Asked

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Insurance rating agencies today asked the state insurance department for increases in liability premiums but filed for decreases in physical damage coverage.

The proposed rates were taken under advisement.

Physical damage rates, which include comprehensive, fire, theft, and the like, have gone down consistently in past years but liability rates have gone up.

Krider Answers Alignment Protest

County Commission Chairman John Krider Wednesday wrote a letter to Altamonte Springs Mayor Wilbur Hawkins answering a protest on the board's decision to go along with the State Road Department on the Maitland Ave. alignment.

Hawkins sent a telegram to the Commission Tuesday saying that the town council was protesting the alignment.

Hawkins stated that the commission did not consult with the Altamonte Council on the alignment.

In his letter to Hawkins, Krider said, "two years ago the entire program was approved and preliminary surveys were made by the SRD on Maitland Ave. to determine the most feasible alignment taking into consideration the cost of the right-of-way and engineering problems. After all details were studied, the present alignment was recommended for this project. The recommendation by the SRD was accepted by the commission."

"Recently, after several complaints from property owners of the west side of the project, the commission requested the SRD to state out an alignment taking

Anyone See Abby? Lake Monroe Boy Wins FFA Contest

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — Navy hurricane hunter planes resumed their search for "Abby" today, hoping they won't find her.

Abby is the name announced by the Weather Bureau for the first hurricane of 1960. The hurricane season officially opened Wednesday and will continue through Nov. 15.

Last year's first tropical storm, Arlene, showed up on May 29, more than two weeks early. But the Weather Bureau reports there is so far no sign of any birth of Abby.

The Navy Super-Constellations, specially equipped with radar for the search, are an integral part of Florida's hurricane warning system. There are six of them based here and in Puerto Rico.

Law Burk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burk of Lake Monroe, won top honors at the recent convention of the Future Farmers of America in Daytona Beach.

The award was presented by the Florida Ford Tractor Company in Jacksonville for the state champion tractor driver. The Sanford Chapter of which Burk is a member received a banner and Burk received a watch.

The honor was won through top competition of the 8,000 members in Florida FFA program.

British Walkers Nearing Record

LEBANON, N. J. (UPI) — Two British paratroopers set out from this Hunterdon County community today on the last stretch of their cross-country hike.

Sgt. Mervyn Evans, 35, and Sgt. Patrick Maloney, 34, plan to walk across New Jersey and arrive in New York, 24 miles away, by Friday afternoon. They will be permitted to cross the Hudson River through the Lincoln Tunnel.

Feeling Better

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy hospital spokesman said today with a case of bends himself today after staying more than 30 hours in a decompression chamber to help an Oklahoma skin diver who was fighting off paralysis from the ailment. The skin diver, Floyd S. Goines, 35, of Newsmo, Okla., walked from the decompression tank early today and said he was in "excellent condition."

Cancelled Visit Damaging To U. S., Democrats Say

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate Democratic leaders said today the forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's Tokyo visit resulted from administration ineptitude and has seriously damaged American prestige.

But the Senate was geared to vote swift ratification of the U.S. Japanese security treaty which touched off anti-American riots in Japan that caused the Japanese government to ask Eisenhower to postpone his trip.

Nevertheless, Democratic and Republican senators as well as State Department officials said they were relieved that Eisenhower would be spared danger from fanatical leftist-led Japanese mobs.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson declared, "This is a matter of grave embarrassment to be deeply regretted."

"The conduct of our foreign policy is a matter for the President but as all are aware, many serious reservations have been expressed about this trip from the beginning," Johnson said.

Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said "coming on top of the embarrassment of the summit conference failure, this damages the prestige and dignity of the United States in the eyes of the world."

"The United States position suffers very badly everywhere, because this is further evidence of the lack of foresight and ineptitude in planning which characterized the whole chain of events from May 1 to May 17," Fulbright said. He referred to the downing of a spy plane over Russia and the blow-up of the summit conference.

Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee, one of those who had urged the President not to visit Tokyo, said he was delighted to hear that Eisenhower would not go.

Now is the time to prune out the dead wood from your dooryard citrus trees. Also, remove sprouts from the tree trunk. Most citrus trees at times produce long, vigorous sprouts called suckers. If these suckers or water sprouts are not pruned out they will fill the inside of the tree making an area that is susceptible to insects and diseases.

All cuts should be smooth because stubs or ragged edges cause easier disease access. Be sure to cut into live, healthy wood so that the area will heal over readily. Pruning paint should be applied to cuts over 1/4 inch in diameter. Ordinary house paints should not be used, since they may contain mineral spirits or other substances that will cause injury to the tree.

A summer scalecide oil spray may be safely applied July 15 provided the fruit is at least 1 1/2 inches in diameter and the soil moisture is adequate. If oil spray is applied to a tree in wilting or near wilting condition, defoliation may occur. Spray the tree thoroughly, soaking the underside of the leaves as well as the top, with a spray containing oil emulsion and zinc. This will control scale, rust mite and various other harmful mites. Whitefly will be controlled and it will help remove sooty mold.

Roaring Fire Threatens Campus

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI)—A roaring fire that set off a series of violent explosions at a small chemical plant threatened a wide area near the campus of Texas A&M College early today.

Police said residents who lived within a mile of the plant were warned to be ready to leave, and many of them were already evacuated. Literally thousands of persons were awakened choking and fighting for breath from the thick smoke and acrid fumes.

Police dispatcher Marvin Petty at Bryan, about five miles away, said people there who were sleeping with their windows open called complaining the "air was so poisonous" they couldn't sleep.

The fire erupted about midnight at the Pel-Far Corp., a company that manufactures and processes agricultural insecticides. Fred Medina, plant manager, said the $500,000 plant was a total loss.

Board Asks Stay On Mixing Suit

DELAND (UPI)—Attorneys for the Volusia County School Board Wednesday asked federal court to stay an integration suit until the board's own suit is settled in state.

The request by board attorneys John Godbee and Warren Hall was directed against a suit filed July 3 by 30 children and their parents. The plaintiffs admitted they had not exhausted the remedies prescribed in the state Pupil Assignment Law.

Godbee and Hall asked that action on the suit be delayed until a board suit filed earlier is settled.

The board, petitioned by a group of Daytona Beach Negroes in April to integrate county schools, answered the petition by filing suit in Circuit Court for a declaration that the petitioners were without legal grounds.

A hearing on the board suit is set for Tuesday.

Reds Predict Demos Could Win

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet government organ Izvestia says the Democrats could win the U. S. election in November by nominating Adlai Stevenson for president with Sen. John Kennedy as his running mate.

"This combination could beat any Republican tandem, in the opinion of most observers," Izvestia said.

The article also said it still is uncertain whom the Republicans will nominate. It said it is the belief of "many" that Vice President Richard M. Nixon has "compromised himself and will not be able to win in November."

Clothes To Aid Chile Relief Leave DeBary

More than 1,200 pounds of clothing collected by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the DeBary Methodist Church, for the Chile Relief drive left for Maryland today.

Through the efforts of the Rev. Perry B. James, pastor of the Community Methodist Church, the clothing will be shipped to the Church World Service, New Windsor, Md.

The hauling of the 23 cartons of clothing to Maryland will be handled, free of charge, by the Carolina Trucking Co.

Heading the drive was Mrs. Sue Gilbert who said the "response was terrific." Mrs. Gilbert was assisted by members of the Women's Society and the entire church congregation.

Lake Mary Ends Bulb Sale Drive

The Lake Mary bulb sale drive, spearheaded by the local Chamber ended Tuesday.

Of the 3,200 bulb sale goal set by the chamber, a little more than 1,800 bulbs were sold at a cost of 25 cents each, Earl Toney, member of the bulb committee, said.

Crack Navy Pilot Shows Off Ability Of New A3J 'Vigilante'

Lcdr Ed Dekker, crack U. S. Navy test pilot, manned the controls of the A3J 'Vigilante' in its debut at the Sanford Naval Air Station Monday.

The veteran naval aviator, currently assigned duty at the Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Md., has flown the 'Vigilante' throughout its testing and speaks highly of the sleek, "supersonic bird." The A3J proved its extreme maneuverability to a large thrung at the SNAS, by performing, with ease, the spectacular "loft maneuver" in its first appearance on the local scene.

Striking a mere few feet above the runway at 450 knots, Dekker literally "stood the needle-thin bomber on its tail," reaching 18,500 feet in less than it takes to say, North American Aviation, manufacturers of the Navy's newest attack aircraft. Prior to his departure Tuesday morning, Lcdr. Dekker made a hit with the large crowd of spectators, as he repeatedly interrupted his pre-flight inspection of the A3J, to answer countless questions and pose for photos by the press and "camera bugs." Displaying keen interest in the "Vigilante", Rear Admiral Kenneth Craig, Commander Naval Base Six Naval District and Captain Robert W. Slaye, Commanding Officer of SNAS, discussed the aircraft at length with Dekker, realizing that as the "Home of Heavy Attack Wing One", the Sanford Naval Air Station assumes an even greater role in the defense of our country and faces the monumental task of providing maintenance support and the innumerable facilities vital to the operation of the A3J.

Missouri has led all other states in the production of lead since 1908.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Twenty years ago in Philadelphia the Republicans held their national convention with all of Europe overthrown by Hitler's armies and England on the verge of destruction. The past was erased and the future blank promising only more horror.

The familiar trappings of the tribal ritual of a national convention were strangely unreal. In the end the delegates put aside the political figures who had been as the favorites and Wendell Willkie, who had never before run for public office, was nominated.

In the aftermath of the U-2 and the explosion at the summit something like this atmosphere prevails today. It is as though a familiar and comforting political backdrop had been abruptly demolished. And in the new situation that has been created Governor Nelson Rockefeller has come forward somewhat as Willkie did two decades ago. A recognition of this is in Rockefeller's statement.

"This is not," he said, "just another election year. The stakes are historically high. The occasional, or frequent, trappings of a political campaign cannot suffice to either persuade the surrounding multitudes, the hollow clichés, the eloquent evasion, the slick slogans. The time—I do repeat—calls for plain talk."

Rockefeller's motives are being variously interpreted. In the eyes of old-time Republicans he is merely a brazen interloper desperately bent on seizing power. These are the same men, or their spiritual heirs, who regarded Willkie with scorn and contempt as an upstart.

In the same way they consider Rockefeller as no true defender of the Republican flag. He is suspected as having strong New Dealish leanings. On many points of his statement of faith they dread him as a "spender," ready to risk the "fiscal integrity" of the Eisenhower administration on which they put so high a value.

Even moderate Eisenhower Republicans have been shaken by the Rockefeller declaration. While in many instances they may agree with what he said they fear it will rock the boat. They have been carefully trained to launch the Nixon ship and any obstacle is passionately resented. What is he trying to do, many Republicans grumble, elect a Democrat?

There are at least two important differences between '48 and '60. In '48 the Republicans, out of power for eight years, were confused and divided, with no focus on a single candidate who opened two months before the convention the inevitable choice. That was not the case in the Willis bits could work.

Another important difference is that then the Democrats were in power with a president in the White House who was a master of politics and enormously popular in the country. For this reason the Republican nomination had nothing like the attraction it has today. Franklin Roosevelt could defy tradition and go on to win a third term in November.

This year in the pre-convention phase it is the Democrats who seem to be divided and confused as they try to agree on issues and candidates. The Republicans have held the presidency for eight years and the plan has been for Vice President Nixon, as the heir apparent to President Eisenhower, to slip into the vacant seat as a matter of right and logic with as little fuss as possible.

Rockefeller's demand for a debate on the issues, with Nixon candidly stating his views prior to the convention, cuts across that plan. In effect, he has asked Nixon to stake out new ground which Rockefeller believes to be essential if the Republican candidate is to win. But, as a member of the Eisenhower team, this for Nixon is almost an impossibility. All he can do, as he has already done, is to promise to build on the Eisenhower record after the convention.

To put Rockefeller's declaration down to ambition and expediency is, in the view of this observer,

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Patty's parents have "set" her fear of the dark by giving it to her. It requires common sense and tact to be a good parent, but occasionally you must also be intelligently hardhearted when the tears begin to roll.

CASE X-68: Patty M., aged nine, is an only child.

"Dr. Crane, we need your advice," her daddy began.

"For we have a serious problem with Patty. She is terrified at the very thought of sleeping in her own bedroom."

"She says she is scared of the dark. So we'd like to know how we can cure her fear of her unlighted bedroom."

"She has always slept in our bedroom since babyhood, because she cried and grew hysterical if she tried to sleep alone."

Dr. John B. Watson's extensive research with newborn babies showed only two natural causes for fear, namely, loud noises and falling.

All other fears that we possess, therefore, must be learned. We acquire our fear of the dark because of stories about ghosts or robbers or the suggestion that somebody will jump out and yell "boo."

"We feel shut off from our loved ones and very much alone. For darkness produces a feeling of abandonment. Extroverts are especially hostile to darkness."

So are people with guilty consciences, for when they cannot keep their attention on outside visual objects, they begin to think of their own sins and then worry.

Because we may bump into objects in the dark and hurt ourselves, there is a certain amount of caution that ultimately develops with reference to darkness, even if we do not fear ghosts or robbers.

Not a child can be "conditioned" favorably to the dark by various methods. To start the error. He reached his decision out of an intensely earnest conviction that this is perhaps the gravest time in which mankind has lived; a time in which freedom, the role of the individual, the very survival of civilization, is in the balance. And it is only with the courage to recognize these terrible realities that a candidate has a right to seek the presidency.

Having gone against most of the powers in his party, Rockefeller cannot be denied that courage. He may have earned nothing more than contempt from his fellow Republicans. But he gives every sign of being ready and willing to accept the consequences.

POSTCARDS by Stan Delaplane

The major problem with summer is that we must readjust the allowance. I really don't know if I can face it again.

Fixing a budget for a teenage girl is like fixing a leaky faucet. You know, you get one of these simple, guaranteed-to-work washers. You unscrew the faucet. You put in the washer, screw everything down again.

Whoosh! The water sprays out all around the edges. And the plumber makes all kinds of knowledge remarks when you get him up.

Most of our allowance repairs are emergency.

"Can I borrow 50 cents? I'll pay it back out of next week's allowance."

Any father who would bring up the borrowed 50 cents again is considered a skinflint.

We went to work on the allowance about three months ago. The process, tell him that rabbits and other small animals do their romping and eating at night; for the hawks can't see them.

Darkness is thus God's protection for the little furry creatures. It gives them their chance to live and work in reasonable safety, just as our war bifocals used to protect the lives of people from hostile bombings.

You can also play games with your child at night, such as hide-and-seek. At first, let him hide in his bedroom closet with all lights on and the doors open.

Next, let him do so with doors shut but lights on. Finally, do so with lights out and doors closed.

His delight in fooling you, as you affect perplexity in trying to find him, will soon attach to the darkened room, and make him feel more pleased in the unlighted bedroom thereafter.

But children also like to have companions with them in bed, even of the toy variety. So let them have a doll or woolly lamb or cloth monkey to sleep beside them. Or even a real dog.

They can then talk to these toy companions and thus feel less shut off from human contacts. All five of our children have had such bedfellows.

It is also wise to have several children so two of them can share a room.

If an older child like Patty tries to bring her parents into keeping her in her bedroom by means of her tantrums, gently reason with her. Use the methods above mentioned.

Tell her she must act like a big girl. Gradually recondition her to bring the story into keeping her in her own room. Be firm in your handling of her.

idea was that I was to clear all outstanding debts—like the books we forgot to take back to the library until there was a $3 fine on them.

I was to clear up all debts. We would start fresh.

We sharpened a lot of pencils. We told the small boy to go outside and shoot Indians with his cap pistol. I mean we approached the problem in excessive fashion.

"Now we start with 25 cents for school lunch, right?"

"Yes, Daddy."

"Then we add 50 cents for entertainment."

"Yes, Father." (They are very polite when you are picking up their debts.)

"That includes shoes."

"Shows? I couldn't do it for that. The shoes cost 65 cents."

"Okay," I said (the last of the Big-time spenders). "Make it 65."

I tell you, I worked up that budget in a way to make a CPA weep with envy.

I figured in tax rebates and fast write-offs. Patty cash and major disbursements and accounts receivable.

It came to $3.25 a week.

"And that is absolutely all. Okay?"

It was okay. She thanked me for my executive help. (She also borrowed 75 cents for hair spray. But she explained it was an emergency.)

We all settled down, assured that the budget would run smoothly.

Well, it seems we forgot to figure in the ice cream cones after school. "Because everybody goes down to the store and gets a cone or a coke after school."

It is pointed out to me that Mary's father gives her money for this calorific producing purpose. And practically every father does.

It is not that she has to have a cone or a coke. But she does not want me to look like a Scrooge.

The budget also forgot to include lost pens—we have lost 13.

Mrs. Roosevelt Changes Mind About Demo Convention Ticket

BY LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FDR used to tilt that long egyptian holder chair, the airy smile his charm smile and remark:

"When I make a mistake, I make a lulu."

There were those who would agree with that. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt equally might say that when she changes her mind, she goes all the way, a 180-degree swing.

Mrs. R. said last week: "I am about to exercise the prerogatives of a woman and change my mind."

With that introduction, she proposed that the Democratic national convention nominate a Stevenson-Kennedy presidential ticket.

Mrs. Roosevelt said she long had been insisting that she would not endorse anyone for the presidential ticket until the convention met July 11 in Los Angeles.

There was considerably more change in Mrs. Roosevelt's new position, however, than merely a matter of timing. In December 1958, Mrs. Roosevelt suggested on College Press Conference that Adlai E. Stevenson was the best qualified Democrat for the presidential nomination but that he must be eliminated as a two-time loser.

She told another press conference here on March 10, 1959, that Stevenson would make a good secretary of state but should not again seek the presidency, explaining:

"There's a feeling in this country against any candidate who has been twice defeated."

At that time, Mrs. Roosevelt said she was not for any particufontain pens this year. It is a continuing emergency. We must make provisions for it.

There were a few other things—I think the school-supply 50 cents got spent on a pool to get a Johnny Mathis record. Anyway, it was absolutely necessary. So we had to borrow a little for that.

Naturally, I figured when school was over we should knock out a few budget items. Things like school supplies and lunches.

It seems it does not work like that at all!

"But you promised me $3.25 a week!"

There is absolutely no use arguing. I have pointed out the fallacy of such reasoning. How these items no longer exist. But no. The original amount is looked on as a legacy. Not only that, there are a lot of new things to be added.

You need twice as much hair spray during summer on account of swimming. Did you know that? Well, you do.

Three Minutes A Day

By JAMES KELLER

A dying miner, trapped in a West Virginia coal mine, scribbled these final words to his wife:

"I love you more than you will ever know. Take care of the kids and raise them to serve the Lord."

When rescue workers finally reached the dead victim, eight days after the cave-in, they found the note attached to his safety lamp.

The last desperate hours of this father of four must have been buoyed up by his extraordinary ability to think beyond self-survival.

The brief messages, written in a dark, dank underground death chamber is a tremendous tribute to his character. No one could express such loving devotion to his family and his God, under such harrowing circumstances unless his heart and soul had long been trained in a divinely rooted love.

Whether your life is long or short, make sure to learn the only lesson that counts for eternity—to love God above all things and your neighbor as yourself.

"For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

In life and in death may I be an instrument of Your love, O Lord.

No Tipping Please

FORT WORTH, TEX. (UPI) — Bad check artist Scott Evans was a reputation as a big tipper among bellboys at the motel where he paid a $200 bill with a rubber check.

Criminal Judge Dave McGee sentenced him to two years and said, "At the state prison you will get free room and board, and incidentally, there is no tipping rule."

Tower Theft

LENOX, IOWA (UPI) — Workers have taken the tilt out of the leaning tower of Lenox so parishioners can get back into the United Presbyterian Church. The workers removed a 70-year-old bell which had put such a tilt on the church tower the church doors couldn't be opened.

WASHINGTON—What happens when a newspaperman, in one big stroke, hits the biggest literary prize in America?

The answer isn't what you'd expect it to be. Allen Drury, who struck it rich with his first novel, "Advise and Consent," remains the same pleasant, retiring "old shoe" kind of fellow he was before the butt end of the rainbow whopped him on the head.

Not only that, but this ruddy-faced, tall gentleman of 41 years is back where he started in the long process of book writing. He is at the beginning. This time it is a sequel to "Advise and Consent." Not one, actually, but three of them.

Mr. Billogg

Inactive members of a society pay their dues but show no interest in its activities. They do not attend its meetings, take part in its dinners, smokers and outings, or make use of its facilities.

While inactive members do not participate they show no inclination to resign. If the society is limited in membership the inactive members may exclude new members who would be active.

Inactive members give active members concern. By showing no interest they indicate that the society is dying on its feet. They serve as a warning that something should be done to stimulate the interest of the inactive members.

So the best minds of the society are set to work planning attractive programs. Committees are formed to find speakers who will not speak too long, and are well informed and have loud voices to be heard.

Other committees are named to have supervision over the food served at dinners and smokers and improve its quality. Still other committees are appointed to renovate the quarters of the society, getting the walls papered and the woodwork painted, new rugs for the floors and more comfortable chairs.

By these heroic measures on the part of active members the inactive members at last are made to take an interest and become active and attend all the functions of the society.

When it is too late, the discovery may be made that each active member costs the society more than his dues, since the society has been making ends meet with the dues of inactive members. The only thing to do is to raise the dues.

Then the active members are sorry they stirred the inactive members into activity and wish there were some tactical way in which they could get them to be inactive again.

Synagogue Bombed In Uruguay City

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (UPI) — A synagogue here was bombed Monday night and unexploded bombs were found in two other Jewish establishments in the first outbreak of anti-Semitism reported here for several months.

The bomb that exploded started a fire in the synagogue and caused some damage to adjacent buildings, but no one was hurt.

At about the same time, one person was killed and two were injured by an explosion in a garage which apparently was being used as a bomb factory. It was not immediately certain whether the garage blast was linked with the anti-Semitic bombing.

Railroad Struggle Is Shaping Up

NEW YORK (UPI) — A colossal power struggle between the Pennsylvania and the New York Central railroads began shaping up today in the wake of a merger agreement between the Norfolk and Western Railway and the Nickel Plate.

The proposed consolidation, which still must be approved by stockholders and the Interstate Commerce Commission, touched off speculation it may be a forerunner to a three-way merger with the Pennsylvania, the nation's largest road.

Circle five of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. S. Thornton for the June business and program meeting.

Miss Aline Chapman, co-chairman, presided at the business session and Mrs. Ross Adams conducted the devotion. Her theme was "Trying to do our best."

Names of officers and chairman for the coming year were announced and pledge cards given to the members.

Mrs. Nell Sloan of Glendale, Calif., was welcomed as a visitor. Mrs. W. P. Chapman, study chairman, presented the study for the day on "Spiritual Advance" by Frank Laubach. The program was concluded with an impressive pledge service.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the 11 members and one visitor present.

Japanese Designer Visits New York

BY GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—The Western influence on Japanese styles is so strong that the traditional sandal, called the zori, now comes with pointed toes.

This fact I gathered from Mrs. Sueko Otsuka, Japan's leading fashion designer, who is getting her first look at the United States.

The zori, heel-less like a Western-style bedroom sluff, is held to the foot by a strap between the large and second toes. Mrs. Otsuka took hers off to show how the once rounded front now is tapered, although not to the extreme of the needle toes on American-made footwear.

"The world gets smaller and smaller," said the tiny Japanese woman, a widow in her 60's. "A fashion soon becomes universal."

She believes in this cultural exchange—that West has much to offer East in functional fashions, and that in turn, East has much to offer West in styling and beauty of fabrics.

But she also wants her country to maintain some of its traditions. That is why she steadily campaigns to preserve the kimono, which has been a part of Asian dress for more than 15 centuries.

"It is such a beautiful garment," she said, "perfect for the dainty figure... perfect with our complexions."

Mrs. Otsuka's desire to preserve the kimono has led her to write three books about it and to establish in 1954 a kimono school where today 30 teachers train some 1,000 students in sewing, pattern-making, cutting, weaving, dyeing, sketching and designing.

The hostess group included Brenda Brown, Michele Jones and Judy Lavender assisted by Vicki Boyd, Norma Whitner, Janet Johnson, Peggy Miller, Mona Rowland, Janie White, Susan Brown.

Miss Raynor Weds Thomas M. Munday

Simple beauty and dignity marked the ceremony which united in marriage, Miss Ellen Raynor and Thomas Munday. The wedding took place at 3 p. m. June 11, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Raynor, Silver Lake, Sanford.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Clarence Munday of Benton, Ill.

The vows were spoken on the spacious lawn, under an improvised arch, entwined with asparagus fern and hibiscus and flanked with tall baskets of gladioli. The Rev. Thomas O'Steen officiated at the ceremony in the presence of many friends and relatives.

Prior to the entrance of the bridal party a program of tape recorded nuptial music was presented with Mrs. Helen Remusat as organist and Mrs. Herbert Aseel as soloist. Mrs. Aseel sang "I Love You Truly."

At the first strains of the traditional wedding march the bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. Her waltz length gown of chantilly lace featured a scalloped neckline and tiny cap sleeves. The fitted bodice topped a full bell skirt with scalloped edge, accented by a bow in front.

Her lace wedding veil was a family heirloom and estimated to be 150 years old. It was made from the fiber of the century plant and was hand woven under water, taking three generations of people to complete it. Her great, great grandfather, an ambassador to Spain, brought the veil from the Azore Islands. She also carried a spray of long stem cream roses.

Miss Mary Alice Dolson, of Miami, served as maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue chiffon. Kenneth Munday served his brother as best man. Ushers were Tom and Bob Raynor, brothers of the bride and Carl Remusat.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds. The mother of the groom chose a pink lace dress and a corsage of pink and white rose buds.

A reception was held in the home, immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a punch bowl, surrounded with fern and gladioli. The three tiered wedding cake, made by the groom's mother, was topped with a miniature bride and groom, encircled by a ring trimmed with white bells and flowers.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Henry Harris of Orlando and Mrs. A. C. McReynolds. The cake was served by Mrs. Sam Mansfield of DeLand. Mrs. Edward Simpson registered the guests in the bride's book and wedding gifts were displayed in the dining room and attended by Mrs. Helen Remusat.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to the Florida Keys and upon their return will reside in Sanford. Mrs. Munday chose for traveling, a light blue dress with a white rose bud corsage.

Among out of town guests were the groom's parents, and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Munday and Kenneth, of Benton, Ill.; the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Hudson, of Rehoboth Beach, Del.; the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Liedke, of Bradenton; Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. McLain, of Sarasota; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mansfield, of Chip and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, of Johny and Pamela, all of DeLand; Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln E. T. Loober, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, Mrs. Eileen Johnson and Miss Carlean Johnson, of Orlando; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee, of New Smyrna Beach; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bag and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McLain, of Geneva.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Will you please settle a dispute of long standing? Every time my husband and I drive through Cairo, Illinois, we see a statue standing in the park just off the main highway.

DEAR KATHLEEN: Your husband is right. The statue is a very famous one, called THE HEWER, and it is indeed a monument to a man cutting wood.

DEAR ABBY: Had to giggle at the old gal who was so hurt because she was referred to as an "old maid."

DEAR ABBY: I am 48 and have been married and divorced and have two children to support. Four years ago I met a married man (he is now 46) who told me his wife didn't understand him, but he'd never divorce her because of their three minor children.

I thought if he wasn't happy with her I might as well have him, so for two years I heckled his wife with mysterious phone calls and letters telling her her husband didn't love her and was stepping out. She finally divorced him last December.

DEAR WANTS: If you want to know your legal rights—see a lawyer. On second thought, why don't you just head for the rocks and join the rest of the snakes?

CONFIDENTIAL TO MR. AND MRS. "CHILDLESS": Deal only with a legitimate adoption agency. A shady transaction such as the one you are considering is illegal and could net you one big headache.

Dear Edyth: "I have such dry hair I do not like to go anywhere because it is such an ugly mess. My skin is also dry. Can you help me?"

You should massage your scalp daily with cosmetic oil. Massage it on the scalp, not on the hair. This is the same reaction you will get from applying cosmetic oil on your dry skin.

My figure is very good but I cannot seem to get proper clothes. I am tall, lean and fifty years old. Can I wear bright colors? I love plaid, bright blues and any shade of yellow. My hair is gray, I have brown eyes and fair skin, am not pretty but not too wrinkled.—Katherine H.

I do not believe that such bright colors are practical for building a good wardrobe. And yellow is not a color for a mature woman. Yellow does not "do" anything for the mature complexion and is bed with gray hair.

Flowers, a plant or champagne are charming "impersonal" gifts. If you are often a guest, I see no reason why you should take one unless, of course, you are very fond of your host and hostess

First Indian Art Festival Slated

LA GRANDE, Ore. (UPI) — "Not only for art, but for the heart."

With this slogan, some concerned people in this northeastern Oregon college community are promoting an Indian Festival of Arts this month.

Indians of all tribes in the United States and Canada have been invited to display the ancient and contemporary art of their cultures in many media.

The festival is non-profit. Any revenue above expenses, plus donations and gifts, will go into a fund for scholarships and awards at the second festival next year.

The author of the booklet is Gladys Bibe Price, a writer and artist who is secretary of the festival and one of its moving forces.

She said the festival is designed to give the Indian a chance to prove that "talent, intelligence and integrity are not measured by the pigment of the skin."

The repeat on "The Untouchables" on ABC is "The Dutch Schultz Story."

It's Hard To Believe Modern Cinderella Story Is The Truth

By FRED DANXG NEW YORK (UPI) — Naturally, I don't believe a word of the special story I saw on NBC-TV Tuesday night.

The 30-minute film, "How Tall Is A Giant?" would have me believe that 14 pint-size, hungry, patchy-pants, shaggy-haired boys from Monterey, Mexico, could be organized into a Little League baseball team.

And, to top it off, the Monterey kids won as their star pitcher, a lad who could throw with either hand, tossed a perfect game. Nary a player from the La Mesa, Calif. team reached first base safely against little Angel Ruiz.

What's that you say? I can look it up in the papers if I don't believe it? We-ell...all right. I'll take your word for it.

It's just that I figured it was another attempt by grownups to fabricate a modern-day Cinderella story that would help today's youngster keep his sights aimed high and his ideals higher.

So that motion picture told a true story, eh? Those kids in Monterey really did work hard to learn the fundamentals of baseball? They listened to their coach, Cesar Fax, and their manager, Harold "Lucky" Haskins?

der Horse." Falling to start a stamper, Frankie recorded the title song for TV's "Rawhide." Figuring someone would connect him with the visual part of the show too.

If Laine lays an egg as a cowboy, he can continue to roll up a fortune with his voice. His record albums sell at an astonishing rate, and he opens at Las Vegas' Dunes Hotel Aug. 4.

One has the feeling, however, he would chuck it all for the lead role in a Western series on television.

Location For Film Spreads All Over

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Producer-director George Sidney extended the location filming schedule on "Pepe," to include Taxco, Mexico, the romantic silver town known to tourists throughout the world.

Taxco will be the photographic site of a new singing number by Cantinflas and Shirley Jones, who are co-starring with Dan Dailly, Michael Callen and other guest celebrities in the color film.

Shirley Explains What It's Like To Touch Soviet Premier's Tummy

By DICK WEST WASHINGTON (UPI)—One of the things I never expected to hear was Shirley Temple telling Richard Nixon what it's like to feel Nikita Khrushchev's stomach.

As Shirley recounted the episode later, it happened at a Hollywood reception during his U.S. visit last year when Khrushchev learned she was his guest and grabbed her hands and clasped Shirley to his mid-section.

The significance of the gesture was not clear but she presumed it meant he used to be a Shirley Temple fan. At any rate, she became convinced that Khrushchev cannot be regarded as the soft underbelly of Communism.

"I was shocked because it was so firm," she said.

For all I know, this may be a status symbol in Russia.

Nevertheless, to me it was a bit unsettling to hear the spacious boy of Mr. K discussed by a movie star in the office of the U.S. vice president.

I was glad that Shirley took the time later to explain the incident to some of us reporters. Otherwise, I might have wrongly accused my own ears of hearing false witness.

I went around to Nixon's Senate mansion to watch the original videotape recording of his famous "kitchen debate" with Khrushchev which was being presented to the Library of Congress.

I had in mind writing a "think" piece on the impact that Khrushchev might have on the U.S. presidential campaign. Then I was distracted by an overlapping ceremony.

The videotape people were still hanging around rehabbing old times in Moscow with Nixon when Shirley arrived on a mission for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

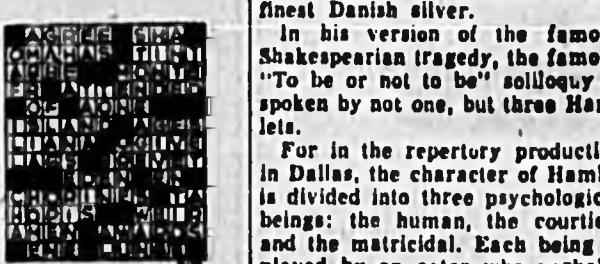

She and Nixon were scheduled to award some fellowships for multiple sclerosis research. Without hesitation, I changed my mind and decided to do a "think" piece on the impact of child movie stars who grew up to look like adult movie stars.

I mean there is no gaining that Shirley grew up in just the right way.

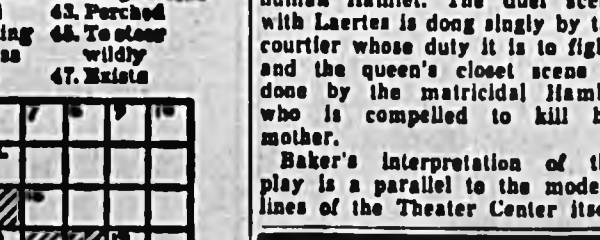

After doing their bit for the multiple sclerosis fund campaign,

The Herald today starts a weekly house plan feature by architect Jan Reiner, practicing in New Port Richey, Florida.

Large and small houses will be shown in Reiner's series for the Sanford Herald's Home Building Page with all designs prepared for Florida living.

Reiner, a practicing architect since 1930 (starting in Czechoslovakia); was with Le Corbusier, Paris, in residential city planning from 1932-35; general practice, 1935-37, with Ove Bang, Oslo, Norway; with Holabird & Root, Chicago, 1938-49; with W. W. Wurster, San Francisco, 1940-42; Richmond Shippers, naval architecture, 1942-43; Clark & Lloyd, San Francisco, public housing, 1943-45. He has had his own offices in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Boston, the latter from 1951 to 1958.

He has taught at New Bauhaus, Chicago; Schaeffer Art School, San Francisco; Mills College, Oakland; University of Southern California, Boston Architectural Center, Cambridge Center For Adult Education, Massachusetts Department of Education and in the Pinellas County Vocational school system.

Reiner has lectured extensively throughout the country and is author of several works on houses and house plans. In 1937 he won the International Fellowship, Harvard University, and in 1947 the Edward Langley Fellowship, A. I. A. He is the author of FLORIDA HOMES magazine.

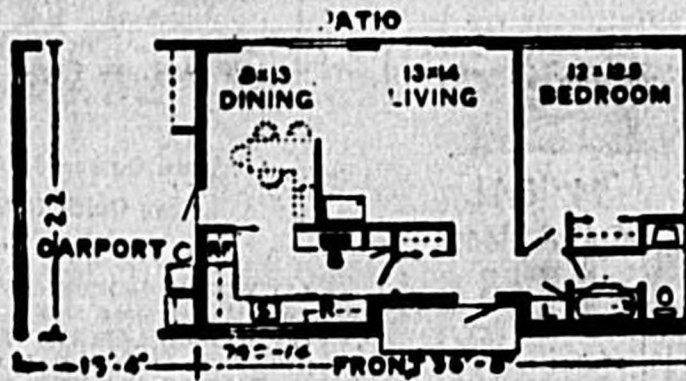

By JAN REINER

This one-bedroom home which contains only 790 square feet, boasts deluxe features customarily expected in high-priced residences.

For instance, there is the decorative corner fireplace anchored in the midst of the 21-foot long living-dining area; there is the masonry barbecue pit centered in the 7 by 14 foot kitchen; there are the two sets of sliding glass doors which connect the living area with the terrace and the garden (see picture above); and there is the well-lit entrance foyer (with a coat closet) from which all rooms are accessible without crossing the living room.

Another "Plus" of this 22 by 36 1/2-foot retirement home is its shed roof. This is the cheapest roof one can build today, and yet it offers a unique design bonus—a 9-foot high ceiling for the spacious living-dining area, and an 8-foot ceiling for the smaller kitchen and bathroom (making them look more "in scale").

Optically, the brick barbecue is "connected" with the built-in dining table by a storage cabinet mounted on the brick wall (shown dotted on the floor plan) but, from the practical point of view, a folding door (see arrow on floor plan) can separate the kitchen from the dining area. Incidentally, the refrigerator is just half way between the kitchen sink and the dining table a welcome item in a small family.

Plans for home No. 790-14 are available from Jan Reiner, Box 96, New Port Richey, Fla. Each set of plans consists of 1/4-inch-scale floor plan, four exterior elevations, large-scale cross-section, kitchen and bathroom interiors and structural and framing details; basic specifications (exceeding FHA) are written right on the plans. The first set costs $20, each additional set $5. FLORIDA HOMES magazine by Reiner is available on newsstands or by mailing 50 cents to same address.

The 13 by 22 foot carport is handy to the kitchen and is large enough to accommodate a six-foot wide closet for garden tools (at rear) and laundry appliance corner (at the front); laundry equipment, hot water heater, and the kitchen sink are installed on one pipe in order to save on installation cost.

The construction of this $8,000 (plus land) house is eight-inch-thick concrete blocks for all exterior walls, regular stud frame partitions for all interiors, and the floor is terrazzo poured over a four-inch-thick slab. The exterior is finished with 1/2-inch-thick stucco, and all interiors are plastered. Insulation bats are stapled between rafters and glued to the room side of exterior walls, guaranteeing small heating and cooling bills for the home owner. The house has ample cross-ventilation which eliminates the need for costly and noisy air conditioning.

Greyhounds Slam Leesburg

Take 4th In Row

BY JERRY COVINGTON

The booming bat of first baseman Ken Harrelson and great clutch pitching by Ron Banovic gave the Sanford Greyhounds their fourth victory in a row as they defeated Leesburg, 7-2 Wednesday night.

Banovic went all the way for the Greyhounds and neatly scattered 13 Leesburg hits. Although the Orioles hit safely in every inning he was never in serious trouble. In the seventh inning he gave up one of his two walks and then two consecutive singles to load the bases with nobody out. However, he came through as he has done all season getting two batters to pop out and striking out the third to end the inning. It was Banovic's seventh victory against four defeats. He also helped his cause by starting two double plays on balls hit back to the mound.

It was the big bat of Harrelson who put the Greyhounds out front to stay in the third inning. Harrelson, who leads the league with home runs, hit his sixth of the season over the left field fence with no teammates aboard and in the third, hit his seventh with two aboard. Both were line shots that were never in doubt. His first blow cleared the football scoreboard and his second went out over the 385 sign in centerfield.

In the big third inning several other Greyhounds got into the hitting act. Banovic led off being safe on an error by the pitcher. Pat Sisk sacrificed him to count two. The third baseman County Dukes hit a line shot triple down the right field line sending Banovic home. Mike Maloney then singled sharply to left sending Dukes across. Bullivar Hinojosa was walked to set the scene for Harrelson. The big first baseman hit a letter high fast ball over the center field wall to drive across three more runs.

In other FSI action, Gerald Ross singled Arlo Engel home from second in the 10th inning to give Triunfo a 5 to 4 win over first-place Lakeland.

Don Ellis buoyed the Dodgers earlier with a three-run pinch homer in the seventh.

John Hegali hit a two-run, inside the park homer in the sixth to carry St. Petersburg past Tampa 5-1.

Palatka banged out 20 hits in a 12 to 0 whitewash of Daytona Beach. Mickey Matlack turned in his third shutout of the year, a six-hitter. His two earlier shutouts were both no-hitters. He struck out 11.

Dave Bristol had four hits for Palatka and Bill Reeves a homer for the winners.

Tonight Lakeland plays at Daytona, St. Pete at Orlando, Sanford at Palatka, and Leesburg at Tampa.

Rain Haunts NCAA Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI)—Rain returned to haunt the NCAA College World Series Wednesday night and predicted showers posed a threat to today's program which was scheduled to include a game washed out.

San Jose State and Southern California, which managed to play part of the first inning of the finale of Wednesday's four-game schedule, were to start over again today.

The loser was to take on Oklahoma State and the winner Minnesota in the nightcap of tonight's third round (two bill).

The opener of the evening double header sends St. John's of New York against Arizona.

A full day of baseball was high lighted by Jim Wilson's no-hit, no-run pitching in a defending champion Oklahoma State.

Wilson eliminated North Carolina 7-0, and St. John's struggled 13 innings with Colorado State before outting the Bears, 3-2. Minnesota's pre-tourney favorites battled in a give and take scrap with Arizona in which the lead changed hands four times before prevailing, 8-5. It was Arizona's first loss.

Toes and feet are injured more often than any other part of the body.

Yanks, Indians Tied For 1st In AL

United Press International That treadmill American League race reached the "Can you top this?" point today when the New York Yankees advanced into a first-place deadlock on the strength of a tie.

It was a long, hard road for the Yankees, who hadn't owned a share of the AL lead since the early days of the 1959 season and it ended on a slightly ridiculous note when the umpires finally threw up their hands at 2:32 a. m. Thursday morning and declared a 7-7 tie between New York and the Kansas City Athletics.

Palmer Favored As Open Begins

DENVER (UPI)—They tee off in the "big one" today and the betting was that when the firing ends around sundown on Saturday the new 1960 U. S. Open golf champion will be brawny Arnold Palmer.

The Yankees had twice let the Athletics stage three-run rallies to tie, once in the ninth and once in the 12th, and then in 13th the rain came in sharp, slanting pellets. The ump's looked at the weary athletes and managers in both dugouts and mercifully said, "Let's all go home."

He's the 4 to 1 betting choice in the field of 150 golfers who are trying for the biggest title in their business. That betting favoritism is about as close as you can come to being an odd-on choice in a field of stars.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the Washington Senators, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox pulled out a 10-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the other AL games.

Rated next to the Masters champion in the betting odds were former PGA king Dow Finsterwald, Gene Littler, who has been the hottest player on the tour for the past six weeks, and Ken Venturi. All were quoted at 6 to 1.

The Chicago White Sox whipped the Washington Senators, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox pulled out a 10-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the other AL games.

Sweeney's Holds Bowlerette Lead

Sweeney's hold a slim lead for top spot in the Let Bowlerette League with Mary Esther's one-half game behind.

The Pittsburgh Pirates increased their National League lead to three games with a 14-6 win over the San Francisco Giants; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Cincinnati Reds, 6-0; the Los Angeles Dodgers routed the Philadelphia Phillies, 14-2, and the Chicago Cubs won, 8-5, after losing to the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in a two-night doubleheader.

Yowell's and Ro-Jay's are tied for second with 27 wins, and House of Rahija Portraits hold third with 20½.

As the committee recessed further hearings until August, Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) asserted that "a hard sock in the jaw" at the boxing profession is needed.

Another tie follows for fourth between the Shoe Store and Trim-ette Figure Salon with 16.

Wiley, who as a member of a Senate subcommittee that heard former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta admit throwing a fight to get a crack at the title in the late 1940s, told United Press International he would introduce crack-down federal legislation next week. It would be aimed at managers, promoters and matchmakers allied with rackets figures.

Neil's Hair Salon, Howe's Fashions and the Duke & Duchess teams fill in the last spots.

House of Rahija Portraits moved up as they took three points from the first place team. Lucy Meyer was the spark for the Portrait Studio with the highest series on these two alleys.

Ro-Jay's was the top team on alleys one and two as they took three from Neil's Hair Salon with Doris Cook leading the dress shop and Marjorie Lyon's 497 high for the beauty shop. Yowell's scratched up the same count of three to one against Ivey's Shoe Store with Joan Peterson's 818 tops for Yowell's and Reida Cornell's 498 high for the shoe store.

Ortiz actively a bobbing defense of the Italian Lol, holder of the European welterweight title, in his first journey past the 10-round distance.

Duke & Duchess just couldn't get off the floor as the Howe's Fashions team took all four points.

"My trainer told me at the end of the 10th I would have to go all out to win," the 23-year-old champion said.

Mary Esther's gave the Trim-ette team a hard time as they took three, losing only the first game.

"When you look too good, they won't give you a shot," Ortiz said after the fight.

Peewee Champ Unconscious

ORLANDO (UPI)—Roberta Albert of Tampa and Charles MacDowall of Virginia Beach, Va., won their respective divisions Wednesday in the National Pee Wee golf tournament.

MacDowall fired a two-under men's par 76 to take the 12-15 boys division.

Spars Five Rounds

WEST JORDAN, Utah (UPI)—NBA midweight champion Gene Fullmer sparred five rounds Wednesday in preparation for his June 20 title defense against Carmen Basille.

A hospital spokesman said Tubbs' temperature was up and his blood pressure down and he seemed to be failing.

Back Signs

MONTREAL (UPI)—Halfback Dick Cobe, who scored 18 touchdowns for Reedley College, Calif., last season, has signed a contract to play pro football with the Montreal Alouettes next season.

Tubbs, 20, a Negro welterweight from Houston, Tex., suffered a brain hemorrhage in a bout here May 30. He was knocked out in the eighth round and hit his head on the ring apron.

Gets Bonus

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles have signed outfielder Bill Walker, co-captain of the Wesleyan University team, to a contract at an "adequate bonus." Walker was assigned to the Orioles' Bluefield, W. Va., farm team.

Boxing Needs Sock In Jaw, Prober Says

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An outraged member of a Senate subcommittee investigating boxing said today Congress should land a kyo punch on underworld elements by passing tough new laws to get rid of hoodlums who have infested the fight game.

As the committee recessed further hearings until August, Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) asserted that "a hard sock in the jaw" at the boxing profession is needed.

Wiley, who as a member of a Senate subcommittee that heard former middleweight champion Jake LaMotta admit throwing a fight to get a crack at the title in the late 1940s, told United Press International he would introduce crack-down federal legislation next week. It would be aimed at managers, promoters and matchmakers allied with rackets figures.

Ortiz Defends Junior Title

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Carlos Ortiz, who successfully defended his world junior welterweight championship Wednesday night, hopes challenger Dulle Lol did him a favor by making him look bad in taking a 15-round decision.

"Lol made me look bad. So maybe Joe Brown, the lightweight champion, will fight me now," Ortiz said after the fight.

"When you look too good, they won't give you a shot," Ortiz said after the fight.

Boxer Still Unconscious

PENSACOLA (UPI)—Injured boxer Ernie Tubbs, still unconscious and in critical condition after more than two weeks in Baptist Hospital, took another turn for the worse Wednesday night.

A hospital spokesman said Tubbs' temperature was up and his blood pressure down and he seemed to be failing.

Gets Bonus

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles have signed outfielder Bill Walker, co-captain of the Wesleyan University team, to a contract at an "adequate bonus." Walker was assigned to the Orioles' Bluefield, W. Va., farm team.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One word — "unsolved" — has ended five years of anguish for the ailing widow of a dead airplane pilot and her 10-year-old son.

Zoners OK Church Request

Despite a strong objection by City Manager W. E. Knowles, the City Planning and Zoning Board Thursday approved a recommendation to add to the city zoning ordinance a conditional use request allowing churches in single family residential areas.

The action was taken following a request by George Simons, city planning consultant, who told Board members a request for a church in a residential area must be accompanied by a complete set of construction plans.

Simons said the trend today is leaning towards the construction of a church in a community neighborhood.

Churches are permitted already in multiple residential areas but not in those of single family dwellings.

Knowles strongly protested against any request for a church to be constructed in single family residential areas.

"Churches are businesses today with events being held nightly. They are now meeting places for all types of civic organizations," he said.

The city manager added that the "heavy neon lights now used plus lighted signs used for directions to the church will hurt, not help, the land value of a nice residential area."

In other action, the zoning board bowed to the will of a group of residents who loudly protested against the request by Howard McNulty for a zoning change of lots in the Dreamwood section near French Ave., from residential to commercial.

Reds Say U. S. Blocking Arms Negotiations

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union accused the United States today of deliberately blocking disarmament negotiations. It said it is now entirely up to Washington whether the East-West arms cut talks here can continue.

Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin made the bitter attack in a speech on United States policy at the 10-nation disarmament talks. Zorin's aides distributed a text of his remarks during today's 41st session of the conference. The text obviously had been prepared before Zorin made his announcement.

Zorin described Eaton's statements to the conference as "completely groundless," "distorted," as "unfit" for conducting negotiations, "in contradiction with common sense," and "absurd in their substance."

Six To Attend Boys State

Six Seminole High School students will go to Boys State in Tallahassee Sunday.

The boys will practice active state and local government procedure.

Jaycee Children's Dog Show Slated Saturday

The Jaycees and Quaker Oats Company are sponsoring a children's dog show at Memorial Stadium Saturday morning.

Time of the show is set for 9:30 a. m. Paul Lewis, Jaycee program chairman said today.

Lewis pointed out that only household dogs are eligible to compete in the show and no pedigreed dogs can be entered.

Judges for the show will be Willie New Hood, Wayne Ross, Ronald Perry, Jim Pigott and Mrs. Edna

New Tokyo Riots Feared

TOKYO, Saturday (UPI)—Anti-government mob leaders, infuriated by the stabbing of a Socialist Party leader, vowed to mobilize 300,000 demonstrators today for what could be the climactic showdown over the U. S.—Japan security treaty.

The pact automatically becomes law at 12:16 a. m. Sunday—midday in the United States. Now, and possibly bloodier, clashes were feared as the crucial moment neared.

A fanatic rightist youth who said he was "ashamed" the Japanese government was forced to cancel President Eisenhower's visit plunged into the "Friday" into the shoulder of Jotaro Kawakami, former secretary-general of the oppo-

School Roundup Shows Increase

The Sanford first grade roll, held recently, showed an expected school registration of 271 for the next school term in the fall.

Pinecrest Elementary had 140 future students present at its registration. There will be six teachers for the first grade there, next school year.

The Southside Elementary School had 96 children present, an increase over last year's pre-school round up. Mrs. Velma Mitchell, school principal, said. There will be five teachers for the first grade.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sharon, principal at Westside Elementary will have two teachers for the first grade at her school. Present at the round-up were 35 students.

School principals expect many more first graders to be registered at the final registration at the end of the summer.

Negro Faces Traffic Charge

A Midway Negro was charged Tuesday with leaving the scene of an accident and failure to yield the right-of-way after a hit-and-run mishap at the intersection of Milledge and Celery Avenues.

Eloy Edwards was driving south on Milledge when he ran the red light at Celery Avenue and rammed into the right front door of a car driven by Rosanne Jorris of Winter Park, Police said.

Edwards left the scene and was chased to his home by Philip Daley, according to police.

Parked Auto Theft Reported

A 1954 green Plymouth, owned by Sanford Herald advertising salesman Lew Luster, was reported stolen Thursday, the Sanford police department said.

Luster told police the car was parked in front of the Herald office, with the keys left in the car.

Florida Highway Patrol units in DeLand have been alerted, police said. Police were given a description of the person who took the car. He had been described by a co-worker of Luster.

Red Guns Greet Ike Off Formosa

ABOARD USS YORKTOWN (UPI)—Communist Chinese shore batteries raked the Nationalist-held offshore islands with "thousands of guns" tonight in an angry demonstration against President Eisenhower's visit to Formosa Saturday.

The President was sailing through the South China Sea aboard the cruiser USS St. Paul when the Communist New China News Agency and the Peiping radio broadcast their blistering announcements.

The powerful, atomic-capable U. S. 7th Fleet formed a vast air and sea shield around the President's vessel to guard against any possible attack by Red submarines or planes. His course was to take him to within 150 miles of the Communist-held mainland.

An NCNA broadcast said batteries on the Fukien coast began shelling the Quemoy, Tatan and Erhlan islands at 8 p. m. as a "show of strength" against the President's visit.

"Thousands of guns roared the instant the order was issued and innumerable flashes cut through the dark sky over the Taiwan (Formosa) Straits," the broadcast said, and a "torrential rain of shells poured down on the Quemoy islands."

These are the cluster of Nationalist defense bastions which lie about four miles off the Red-ruled port of Amoy. The Tatan and Erhlan isles are nearby.

The Nationalist Chinese said the Communist barrage lasted for an hour and fifty minutes. A spokesman said the Nationalist did not return the fire.

The Communist announcements also contained a lengthy denunciation of the United States and its free world allies.

President Eisenhower, they said "surely has had intentions" on the Far Eastern trip. They attacked him as the "god of plague," and said he had been declared unwelcome in Japan, a reference to the cancellation of his planned visit there Sunday.

The Red broadcasts said the soldiers who manned the guns shouted anti-Eisenhower epithets as they pulled the lanyards, including such things as "Eisenhower go back," "U. S. aggressors get out of Japan," and "Get out of Asia."

It was learned that the President believes that the Communists made his Japanese trip impossible in the same way the Kremlin wrecked the Paris summit conference, with most of the direction coming from Peking.

Eisenhower was reported not overly discouraged about the circumstances which forced cancellation of his visit to Tokyo. But he feels the Reds used his trip to make propaganda hay because they were unhappy about the warm reception he has received in other Asian and Middle East countries.

The Red broadcasts said their bombardment of the Quemoy and the adjacent islands would constitute "our welcome and see-off for Eisenhower."
