Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Jack and Jill Denny of Akron, Ohio, are among several nice young couples among our best bridge players. Jack's name has appeared in this column several times, but this story is about Jill, who played with Jim Cauley of Pittsburgh in the regional tournament at Akron. Jill's one spade opening and three hearts rebid were more or less automatic, but when Jim invited a slam with his four club bid, Jill had a FASHION SHOW VIEW-ERS certainly had an overwhelming serving of dazzling beauty at the Capri show last Thursday night.

The gorgeous holiday clothes from Janet Bonder's Playgirl Fashions in Winter Park were breathtaking by themselves, but when worn by five beauty queens of the Central Florida area, the combined display had spectators' mouths hanging open.

Wowing the customers in the glamorous fashions were Miss Paula Hicks (Miss Cover Girl), Miss Sudye Kowalski (Miss Mid-Florida, Miss Northgate, Miss Boat Show Queen and Miss VIP), Miss Linda Bridgers (Miss Rollins College and Miss Winter Park), Mrs. Norma Randall (Mrs. South Carolina of 1962) and Miss Dawn Barnes (Altamonte Springs).

Jeanne Warnke, fashion coordinator, style setter and galabout-town, served as the commentator and model, too, in a startling Platinum wig hat, sleek Lady Manhattan lounging ensemble of white cik pants and brilliant blue print blouse. In the accompanying photographs, Miss Linda Bridgers wears a shimmering gold sequined outfit, somewhat resembling a mermaid. And she is one, since she teaches swimming at her Atlantis Aquatic Academy in Altamonte Springs.

Sudye is daring and darling in Cleo's Playsuit, made in the shape of a sack with a naughty inscription printed on

Norma Randall wears a chie gold brocade suit - just the thing for the first Entertainment Association presenta-"Three In Concert," Thursday at 8 p.m. at the

SPUNKY NEW WAGONS THAT LEAD LONGER, HAPPIER LIVES

What a new kick you'll get out of going places in this one! And what a solvent feeling you'll get as the savings on upkeep mount! There's a full line of models, including three wagons. Basically, we've kept Chevy II's liveliness and roominess and easy loading ways. Kept its crisp looks, too (with a bit of freshening here and there). The changes we've made weren't for change's sake, you see—but for yours. Just for a sample: the brakes are self-adjusting. The new Delcotron generator gives you more electrical reserve power and helps your battery reach a vigorous old age. The Body by Fisher beauty lasts longer, too; air pushes rain and wash water down through the rocker panels (where most rust begins!) in a clever new flush-and-dry system. The ride is smoother and quieter because of a large number of small improvements we've made. And things are a lot plushier inside. Now you've read this far, haven't you? Isn't that good evidence that Chevy II is made for you? The clincher will come when you take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Ragans Came, Stayed And

... Conquered

Three years ago Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ragan decided to come to Florida from Greenville, South Carolina. They were heading to the Gulf Coast.

On their way they stopped at Sanford. They have still not been to the Coast.

The Ragans stayed in Sanford and started in business with the Kwite White Laundry, located at French Ave and 25th Street.

The Kwite White Laundry is the only one in town where customers have almost complete control over the wash. They can run as much water as needed and use as much soap as desired.

The washers are agitator type open washers with a 12 pound capacity. The wash takes ten minutes, after which the clothes are transferred to an extractor-rinse.

While the extractor rotates at a high speed, two streams of fresh water are sprayed on the clothes. The extractor then spin dries the clothes and they are ready for the dryer.

Because there is no v for the rinse water to fill and drain, the entire cycle takes about half the time normally used by fully automatic wash-

Before coming to Sanford the Ragans lived in Greenville where Ragan worked selling textile and mill equipment. He has been in the textile business many years since studying textiles at North Carolina State, where he attended col-

Vote Of Confidence

Since everybody seems to need a bel these days, we'd classify Sydierlong as a responsible conservative. His voting record and his public pronouncements show that he m't a New Frontiersman. But either is he a member of the externe and radical right-wing that

It is quite true that this writer has not always agreed with Syd Herlong's politics. (When we agree with any legislator one hundred per cent, the milienium will have arrived). We do feel quite sincerely that Mr. Herlong has watched over the interests of his district, and of the nation as a whole, with diligence and to the very best of his ability. And his ability is considerable.

Many of Syd Herlong's friends ability is considerable.

Many of Syd Herlong's friends and political supporters remember with a little shudder of horror one evening in November just six years ago. At that time Mr. Herlong came uncomfortably close to defeat—and only because his friends were complacent and thought the election "in the bag," Off-year elections can be tricky, especially when there is complacency. Even though we feel that placency. Even though we feel that Syd Heriong will go back to Wash-ington with a comfortable margin, let's talk, work, and vote as insur-ance against any possible slip-up.

Public Works

Among the most urgent presentday problems are those which concorn urban areas-increasing traffic congestion, housing and facilities for pidly expanding urban popula-spread of blighted areas, safe sanitary means of refuse collec-and disposal — to mention a

This week has been set aside as as National Public Works Week. It has been designated as a time to honor and give due recognition to the men in public works who, through balanced, comprehensive and coordinated planning, are facing and overcoming many of these problems to make our communities better and safer places in which to live.

Public works activities are those involving the construction and maintenance of streets and highways, water supply, refuse collec-tion and disposal, street lighting, sewer systems and the like. It has been estimated that over 90 per cent of the population growth of the past five years has occurred in metropolitan areas, thus, the greatest needs for public facilities have risen there. This means the public works official is faced with the complex and difficult task of keeping pace with the rapidly expanding communities of today as well as meeting the replacement demand for facili-ties which are wearing out or which need to be modernized.

The demands are great. His re-sources are limited. He must care-fully utilize the limited money, manpower, and materials that are made available for the services to be pro-vided. It isn't an easy or enviable job when you realize that every move he makes is subject to review and criticism by every citizen whether he is a voter or non-voter or whether he is informed or not.

We have become so accustomed to the conveniences and services made possible through public works that we rarely give it thought. Consequently, we are very happy to learn that a week has been designated as National Public Works Week in recognition of the administrators and engineers who are doing a tre-mendous job in providing the vital facilities which are indespensable to urban life. We hope that during this week you will take it upon yourselves as citizens of this community to learn more about public works projects in Sanford and the men who are responsible for carrying out these programs.

when you choose stocks and bonds

Maybe you're considering whether or not investing in se-curities would fit your situation. You might have in mind perhaps to give your capital a chance to grow as the years go by. Or you might be thinking of the greater stability of bonds.

Now for the big question: how to go about it?

Wrong: Jump in when the first hot tip comes along.

Right: What's the hurry? Buy securities the way you'd buy anything important - with care. When a company interests you, get all the facts you can-growth pattern, profit record, factors that might affect its future. Most of America's best known companies are among the 1,200 listed on the New York Stock Exchange. This group earns more than 60% of the net profits reported by U. S. corporations. They pay stockholders about 60% of all dividends. Roughly 90% of them have paid cash dividends in the last 12 months.

Wrong: Don't worry about risks. You're bound to win. Right: There's no such thing as investment without risk. Many things cause stock prices to go up-and down. What's more, a company may not continue to pay dividends on stock or interest on bonds. It's just common sense to keep the risks in mind. But if your company prospers, you may too.

Wrong: Invest every cent you can lay your hands on. Right: Provide for living expenses and those inevitable emergencies first. Then decide what might be invested. Start in a small way, if you like. One convenient system is the Monthly Investment Plan which requires as little as $40 every three months.

Wrong: Try for a quick killing.

Right: The stock market is no place for get-rich-quick schemes. Set your goals and make them practical.

Wrong: Any broker will do. Right: Choose your broker with care. They're not all alike, Registered Representatives in Member Firms of the New York Stock Exchange have satisfied Exchange requirements for knowledge of investing. EDITORIAL COMMENT

How tearfully tragic, indeed, is the snuffing out of a life so dedicated to this country! Tragic, you may be sure, to Sue and Judith, his wife and daughter, as well as to his folks, and overwhelming to his friends who know his all-out devotion to American principles.

It no doubt was his attitude toward his "work" that brought about his death. Turry, despite his youth and rank in the military hierarchy of authority, had command responsibilities. That is the essence of the assignment given him. He probably could have detailed to one of his "team" the job he was doing when he was shot down in Viet Nam. That has never been Terry's way of do-ing things. He has always wanted to give his best

At The Citadel he was not content to "gold brick," but extend-ed his ability to be THE leading cadet at the time he was graduated. And so it went throughout his all too short career. Superior officers were quick to recognize his seal. A paratrooper because this field broadened the ways in which he could serve and because in it was the challenge to reach toward physical perfection and mental agility. A Ranger because again the training made him extend himself and added to his capabilities of better service. In Germany as a platoon leader along the East German frontier during a peak period of tension when Russian snipers were picking off our men, when cool heads and unstinted devotion to duty were required, Special Forces with its almost "humanly impossible" demands in training and duty, surely not a job for any but the best—and one that might have been avoided. But not by Captain Cordell. Here again was one of the new, exacting, challenging duties in a fresh concept of service to country. Here was the task Terry would

It was not a coincidence that a recent picture in TIME relative to our Viet Nam operations showed the son of Sanford "filling in" and guiding generals responsible for the operation. It was because the dedicacation of this young officer and his equally dedicated "team-mates" was bringing about a relatively high degree of success. A goodly measure of that success is attributed to the unswerving loyalty and willingness to serve, to do his best, that brought about his untimely death. It was about this "success story" that the "big brass" wanted to know-and they were at a source of accurate information. Others will do it more effectively, no doubt—none more sincerely— but we want to add our "well done" to the praise and plaudits of all those who love America and the REAL principles that have made it a great country and who appreciate the sac-rifices Terry Cordell and his buddles make. We, too, want to raise a heart-felt prayer of thanksgiving for the devotion, even unto death, of Captain Terry Cordell, neighbor, friend -PATRIOT.
