Dope Defendant Arrested Again

Zane Edward Clark, 30-year-old South Seminole resident who was found innocent of a charge of sale of narcotics Wednesday by a Seminole County jury, was arrested again last night on traffic charges.

Clark, who still has to face trial on a second charge of sale of a narcotic drug and conspiracy, had four pills at the time of his arrest, Deputy Sheriff Jay Leman said.

Chief Deputy Duane Harrell said the contents of the pills are still to be determined and one has been sent to the State Crime Laboratory at Tallahassee for testing.

Clark was charged with no driver's license and no inspection sticker last night but has since been released on bond.

Cassberry attorney Gene Stephenson represented Clark in the Wednesday acquittal and is expected to defend him again in the second trial.

Another complaint to Seminole authorities about Clark was filed by a man who said Clark threatened him at a Cassberry bar. The sheriff's office investigated the complaint filed last night and reported Clark said the man was just drunk. No charges were made against Clark as a result of the bar incident.

Sanford police reported an incident of a man trying to entice young children into his car in the Lake Gem area.

City detectives were assigned to investigate the report.

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

About that dope arrest yesterday down in Cassberry... that's like a huge ball of twine... and all that's happened so far is that the end has been exposed.

Look for more and more and more arrests to take place which'll be reaching into many parts of this county.

It's a big MESS... and will require the attention and support of all of us.

Who knows... maybe they're reading us in Washington. A couple of columns ago we were hoping to hear that "voices" speak out about those "blackings" and yesterday, President Nixon started to let the rest of the world know that we do care about our people and property. Still not strong enough...

Only hope that somehow our thoughts on the Cambodian situation will fall on receptive ears, too... and then maybe we won't have to worry about rescuing 5,000 of those fearless fighters over there.

There'll be an announcement this weekend of a Sanford resident being appointed to a high office in Tallahassee... a non-political one we might add.

One-Way Thoroughfares Broached City Street Pattern Study Slated

City of Sanford will undertake a study of city street patterns with an eye toward closing certain streets, not needed, and making one-way thoroughfares.

This was decided at last night's zoning and planning meeting after a report from Martin Gainer, of Gerald Dake Associates, city planner, disclosed that city's system of street plating had excessive in small blocks and excessive land utilization.

Robert Karnes, planning member, said one-way streets should not be discounted in favor of widening streets, after Edward L. Blackbear, planning board member, asked about the possible widening of 22nd Street.

Gainer stated the board needed to look at the overall major street system to keep and then look at the minor streets which would not be adversely affected by closing.

The city planner said, "we will have to be careful not to close any streets that would result in downgrading the adjacent property values."

This could result in the city running into legal problems, such as have occurred in the Georgetown area where property owners opposed to paving have gone into federal court to enjoin the city from proceeding with an assessment program to pay for the costs.

Board will discuss the street projects at next Oct. 1 meeting and at that time will designate a probable area within the city for a concentrated effort to close unneeded streets and advocate one-way accesses.

A request by Garfield Walker to rezone from R-2 (multiple family) to C-1 (neighborhood commercial) by holding a public hearing was denied on a motion by James Dycus, zoning member.

Gainer stated he could find no reasons to support rezoning the property located at 10 West 22nd Street, but could find many reasons not to rezone the section.

PROUD TO PAY for the precious privilege of freedom and citizenship, patriot extraordinaire Sam Danbrofski of Five Points, now 85 years old, still flies the flag of his adopted country every day, voluntarily paying five cents a day, rain or shine, to the U.S. Government. Sam holds in his hand a letter personally written and signed by President Richard Nixon, the latest in his collection of grateful letters from numerous presidents and top government officials. Born in Italy in 1888, he came to the United States in 1905 becoming a citizen in 1914. At the rate of $18.25 a year over the past 30 years Sam has donated $547.50 and has lost track of the number of flags he has worn out. Schilke Resigns SIC Unit

By BILL SCOTT

Sanford City Commission will be looking for a candidate to replace Carl Schilke on the Sanford Industrial Commission (SIC).

Schilke, a long time member of the city's industrial branch, in a letter to A. K. Shoemaker Jr., SIC chairman, announced his resignation to devote more time to his position as president of Harcar Aluminum Products, which has been in an expansion program.

City Commission will be expected to name Schilke's replacement after a recommendation from the SIC.

Thomas McDonald, SIC member, as well as a city commissioner, said he felt the new member should be an industrial person, seeing that Schilke represented industry. Scott Burns, SIC member suggested names be brought up at the next SIC meeting.

David Kelley, SIC director, reporting on the status of Executive Airlines locating a passenger service at the Sanford Airport, said he had talked with Frank Wilkinson, Executive official, and that firm expected a final decision determining whether the airline would remain at McCoy Airport in Orlando would be known some time next week. "Thus," said Kelley, "the project is still alive."

In another action, the SIC approved a recommendation from Kelley that Hall-McKensie Advertising firm at Orlando be named the SIC's advertising agency to prepare and place the industrial board's media advertising in various trade periodicals.

Kelley said the SIC would not have to pay the firm for placing the ads, since a 15 per cent commission is deducted by the agency when placing the account. McDonald moved to approve the firm with the provision to cancel at anytime.

Urban Renewal Request For Funds Is Approved

Sanford has approved urban renewal application to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) asking for a planning and survey grant for funding a detailed study of a 35-acre section of Goldsboro. The City Commission approved the application and final studies are being added by W. C. Hutchison, city attorney, before the request for $72,453 is forwarded to HUD's Washington office by Gerald Dake Associates, city planners.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said he expected the application to take from six to eight months before approval for the site study. The survey grant does not have to be repaid to the government, in the event a de-

Street Light District Before Oakland Voters

By MARION BETHA

Qualified electors in Oakland Hills and Oakland Hills addition will have a referendum placed on the Nov. 3 election ballot to vote on a special improvement district for street lighting.

County Commissioners have approved placing the item on the ballot, with the notation by Commissioner Greg Drummond that the district will afford a bargain to this area in security and a community improvement item.

The special services which will be included in this district will include 28 street lights at a cost of $77,25 light poles at a cost of $12.50, and three existing poles free. Total cost will be $89.50, and with the 10 per cent utility tax added will be $98.45. Cost to the homeowner will be 54 cents per month.

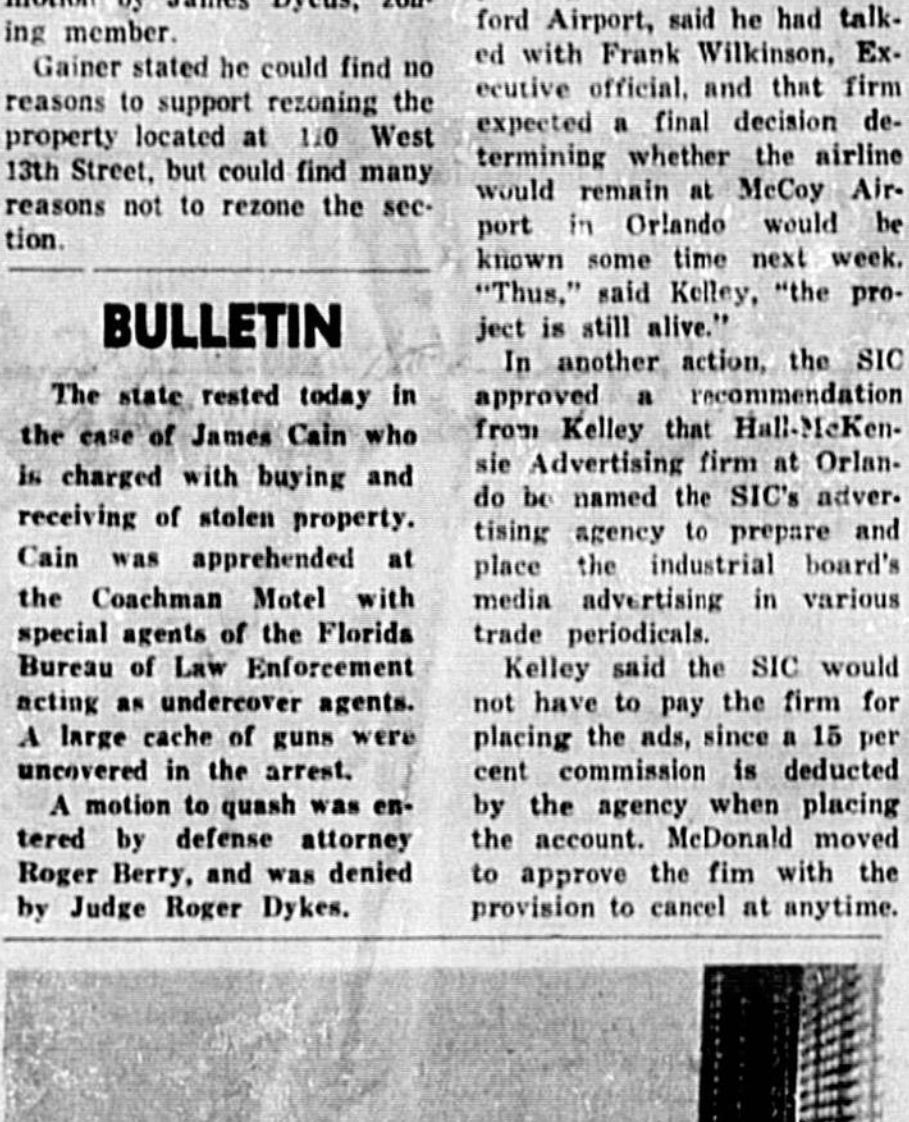

The supervisor of elections certified that of the 10 persons signing the petition for the district, 84 are qualified electors. Lighting will be provided by a contractual arrangement with Florida Power Corporation.

During the public hearing on the matter, one resident of the area questioned a statement by Commissioner Greg Drummond, John Alexander that no homestead exemption would be allowed on the cost assessed to the property owners. Alexander explained that this was a special assessment and exemption was only allowed upon a property assessment.

A new fire district also has been created in the county when freetholders in Precinct 6, which is located in the Geneva area, voted 175 to 41 in the first primary election to establish this district.

Sanford can, if referendum is approved, proceed to apply for actual funds, to begin the demolition of blight and the purchase of the land to be renewed.

When this information is completed, city residents will be asked to approve city participation at one fourth the total cost.

The Human, The Divine

By LOTS CASSELLS
UPI Religion Writer
Since the time of St. Thomas Aquinas, vast energies have been expended in efforts to construct, on the basis of philosophical speculation, a picture of what God "must" be like. These efforts to delineate the necessary attributes of deity have never been entirely convincing, because they leave so much unexplained. For example, if God is both all-powerful and all-merciful, as speculative theology has traditionally insisted, why does he permit evil and will to exist in the world?

Vast Energies Are Extended

These efforts to delineate the necessary attributes of deity have never been entirely convincing, because they leave so much unexplained. For example, if God is both all-powerful and all-merciful, as speculative theology has traditionally insisted, why does he permit evil and will to exist in the world?

Since God is spirit, man is the link between the spiritual and the material. He was made to have dominion over the earth. The created order of things was placed in subjection under man to be used for man's benefit and God's glory.

But isn't it a thrilling thing that we can impart even to the material things around us a spiritual significance. We can become stewards of them. The jobs we hold, the possessions in our hands, all these take on a new and wonderful significance to the Christian because he sees them as not just "things," but as opportunities for stewardship and service to God.

CAYA (Come-As-You-Are) is a group of women sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service at First United Methodist Church of Sanford. Has The Integration Of Schools Been A Success?

By MARION BETHA
(Dress In A School) Integration... Is It Success?
Speaking from my own experience as a substitute teacher in an integrated class, and from personal observation it is not precisely successful.

THE LUNCH PROGRAM
Here is the greatest failure perpetrated on the public. Lunch prices have escalated, but quality has deteriorated. During my school days, I can remember the lunchroom manager purchasing farm fresh vegetables because she wanted the best for her "younguns."

WASTE IS FLIGHT
However, worse than the waste is the plight of the underprivileged child. In my day, children got "seconds" if they desired. I saw one little boy, obviously & awfully hungry, practically devour his lunch and ask for something else to eat.

THE HEALTH PROGRAM
Here again is a distinct divergence with what was... three and what it is. During my school days, a public health nurse visited the school periodically to weigh, measure, and check for physical defects.

Let 'End-The-War' Foes Think On This!

Don't try to tell us today that "end-the-war" sentiment is diminishing. Not for us. Not this week!

President Nixon's single-headed extension of the Vietnam war into an Indo-China conflict is at the bar of public opinion every time the KIA (killed in action) message goes to an American family.

Newspaper Week

Vary shortly — October 4 to 10 — the U.S. will observe National Newspaper Week.

During the year, editors daily take notice of many worthy and memorable observations.

The fact that after 200 years personal liberty under representative government still prevails is due, in no small part, to the "editorial vigilance" of a free press.

Every nation has its national observances. In most instances, there is no occasion to celebrate a National Newspaper Week.

Refugee Aid "Lost" In Shuffle

By RAY CROMLEY, NEA Washington Correspondent. WASHINGTON (NEA) — What happened to the now-forfeited Truman and Eisenhower-backed concepts for Middle East development that might have absorbed the Palestinian refugees and lessened the level of Israeli-Arab tension to manageable levels is an interesting study in international politics.

This reporter has checked through voluminous files of the 1950s and early 1960s and has recently talked again to some of the men involved in Middle East problems in those days.

By part, it seems the plans were simply watered down to the relief, public works and spot development programs they became. There were men in the U.S. government who added to relief and work programs that an economic development program they devised.

It was not until the men at the working level continually reported there was more need for relief than could be achieved with the funds available. Money designed to help set up Arab refugees in business or agricultural areas was diverted to food.

Her name was presented by the members to the Altamonte Community Chapel, ICCC, in Altamonte Springs. She will now be in competition for the State's Outstanding Young Women of the Year. Each year 50 young women are selected, one from each state, as their state's Outstanding Young Women of the Year. Over 6,000 young women are nominated each year as Outstanding Young Women of America by leading women's organizations, church and church organizations, and church organizations. Sarah is very active in the Altamonte Chapel, where she has served as Church School Superintendent, Youth Director, a member of the choir, a member of the building committee, a member of the Christian Education Committee, as well as a Sunday school teacher. She is a past president of the South Seminole League of Women Voters, has served as second vice president of the group and a director on the board. She originally came from

MICKEY ADAMS
 Mrs. William (Mickey) Adams of Altamonte Springs, has been chosen as one of the Outstanding Young Women of America for 1970 and will appear in the annual pictorial compilation. Now in his sixth year, the program is designed to recognize the abilities of women between the ages of 21 and 35 and was conceived by the leaders of the nation's major women organizations. Guidelines for selection as an "Outstanding Young Women" include: unselfish service to others; charitable activities; community and civic and professional recognition. A few of Mickey's activities include being a member of the Orlando-Winter Park Area 12th Association of University Women, member of the board of directors of the South Seminole

The first meeting of the season of the Sanford B.W. Club was held recently. A delicious buffet dinner was enjoyed followed by a very interesting information program conducted by Val Colbert, the officer of the club. The program was held in the club meeting room, which is a beautiful room with a large fireplace and a view of the lake. The club is a very active organization and is open to all women. The next meeting will be held on October 15th at 7:30 p.m. at the club. The club is a very active organization and is open to all women. ROSS THE DON by L.M. Boyd

Now the science boys have come up with a drug to show sheep. That's what it's called. Shortly after they administer said medication, the wool can be rolled off a sheep just like a sweater. . . AN OLD SAILOR writes, "The captain who steers with his sinking ship is playing it smart. Most ships don't go the way down. It's safer to stay aboard than to fight the open sea."

LANGUAGE MAN—It was back in the days when the printer set each letter of type by hand. Lot of work, that. Some phrases cropped up often, however. So to save time, he assembled each into a bar of type in advance. Phrases like "it seems to me" and "more or less" and "now and then" and "and being a high-minded and scholarly fellow with hardly any advertising experience, he failed to call such a bar of type simply a "pre-set" or a "ready-made," but named it with a fancy French word, "chibbe."

LOVE AND WAR—Young man and a wife I know kept a three-minute car timer on the livingroom mantle. "Whenever we get to arguing," says he, "one of the other of us gets up and turns it over. Sure is neither of us is supposed to say another word until the sand runs through. Works pretty good."

CUSTOMER SERVICE—"A new machine decides she has been given somebody else's baby at the hospital, is there any way she can make sure?" A. If she knows who the somebody else might be, and all four parents are at hand, she gets each one out of ten through blood tests to find out which baby is which.

HISTORY—Name of the old boy eludes me at the moment, but he played for the St. Louis National Baseball Club in 1876, and no player since has quite so thoroughly got himself up for a game. What he wanted to do more than anything else was hit a home run. He repeatedly failed, though, and each game exasperated him the more. Finally, he made it. On his last play of the season. Actually, it was only a two-base hit. But about two fan-favorites, this making it to home plate. Exhilarated somewhat, he was roared the umpire.

AT LEAST ONE WOMAN in four hereabouts has gone to jail, pollsters say. . . DID I MENTION it's still illegal to speak English in the state of Illinois? . . . THAT TWICE as many men as women marry at the age of 20 is also a fact. . . THE CHINESE WORDS for "slot machine" translate out as "hungry tiger." . . NOW JUST ABOUT HALF the women over the age of 16 work for paychecks.

In Nations Waterways

Mercury Poisoning Has Been Largely Reduced

By IEE BYRD
 Associated Press Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP)—The government says mercury pollution of the nation's waterways has been largely reduced. It said more work is needed in particular on temperature increases caused by water vapor and exhaust from the 1,800 mile-an-hour aircraft. The department also conceded noise from the SST would be higher and occupants would receive radiation doses greater than persons flying in more conventional jets. But it said "exposure of SST passengers and crews to high altitude radiation should not be a problem since the higher gamma radiation dose rates are more than compensated for by the shorter transit time due to the higher speed." That the SST might decrease the amount of ozone in the upper atmosphere and increase the ultraviolet radiation reaching the earth's surface, was not mentioned in the report. However, the regulations depend heavily on voluntary cooperation of farmers and feed millers. Dr. William B. Huck, on Iowa State University professor who raises cattle himself, has said the withdrawal periods are often ignored by cattlemen who make on-the-spot decisions based on price—as to when their cattle go to market. In other developments, California officials told the nation's gasoline, the aromatic substitutes used to maintain octane quality would undergo photochemical reactions. To paraphrase this, he told the House Ways and Means Committee, "the type of emission, is that which causes the Los Angeles-type, eye-irritating smog." The Year Without A Summer - 1816

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In the annals of weather it is known as "the year without a summer." In 1816, the volcanic eruptions in Japan and Iceland were followed by a "famous cold year" in 1816, and Franklin thought there must be a connection.
What happened to make A.D. 1816 "the year without a summer?"
In 1800, the magazine of the Environmental Science Service Administration, Patrick Hughes of the Environmental Detection Service, harks back to that strange year and discusses a possible explanation for its miserable weather.
In the Northwest United States heavy snow fell in June. There was frost in July and August. From June 6 to 10 severe frost occurred as far south as Virginia. Ice was seen near Philadelphia. Crops were killed.
It was not just a regional disaster. England was cold too. In that summer of no summer, and 1816 was famine year there and in France and Germany.
Actually, 1816 was "just one of a famous series of cold years," Hughes said. From 1812 to 1817, "it was cold over the whole world."
Come down to 1813 and to William Humphreys, a U.S. Weather Bureau scientist. He suggested that the cold years were caused largely by volcanic dust in the earth's atmosphere.
Sun dust partly shields the earth from the sun's radiations that permits heat to escape, thus lowering the planet's temperature. There were three major volcanic eruptions between 1812 and 1817.
The worst was Tambora in Indonesia. For five days in April, 1815, it belched fumes and ashes and fiery stones. It was estimated that Tambora's eruption hurled up to 100 cubic miles of dust, ash, and cinders into the atmosphere, "preventing a globe-wide springing well of volcanic dust years earlier," he said.
Franklin had suspected that volcanic dust might affect weather. Gigantic eruptions in Japan and Iceland were followed by a "famous cold year" in 1783, and Franklin thought there must be a connection.

Letters To The Editor

Sanford Police Doing Outstanding Job

Editor, Herald:
Dear Sir,
I would like to take a few minutes of your time and record to you an incident that occurred to us over this past weekend.
Early Saturday morning our son awoke and had difficulty breathing. After notifying the Sanford Police Department of the trouble we were taking to the hospital, we started to drive there. Less than three minutes after calling we arrived at French Ave. and 25th Street and found a patrol car blocking the intersection for us. As we went down 25th Street, cars were stationed at Park and Sanford Avenues, with another patrol car waiting at Millerville to escort us. Driving down Millerville there was also a patrol car blocking traffic on Cleary Ave. which allowed us to get right through. Upon reaching the hospital, the doctors and nurses were extremely overwhelmed. They were more than Police Officers doing a job, they were men who showed understanding and compassion.
Due to the efficient action of the Sanford Police Dept., a 15 minute drive to the hospital was reduced to about six minutes. Fortunately in our case these did not turn out to be life or death minutes, but they were well earned.

Our son has recovered, but it will be some time before we forget this experience. As officer parade can understand, we cannot find words to adequately express our gratitude to these fine Police Officers, so we'll just say thank you for being there when you were needed.
The people of Sanford should be proud of these highly motivated professionals and offer them every support in the performance of their duty.
Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Quigley

Urges End Of Mid-East Peace Talks Boycott

Nixon Willing To Extend More Aid To Israel

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon reportedly was prepared today to promise Israeli Premier Golda Meir extensive new economic aid and continuing military assistance, while urging her to end promptly her boycott of Middle East peace talks.
The plain-spoken 72-year-old

Israeli leader went into today's round of talks with Nixon and other high U.S. officials expected to emphasize her government's dissatisfaction over American failure to demand that Egypt roll back missile bases deployed near the Suez Canal in alleged violation of the military standstill agreement sponsored by the United States.
Against the background of fresh assurance of support would be sufficient to offset Mrs. Meir's concern that Israel had been placed at a severe military disadvantage on the Suez front since the cease-fire went into effect Aug. 8. She has refused to let her representatives engage in preliminary peace exchanges with Arab envoys at the United Nations because of the missile issue.

Warplanes Pounding Red foe

By JOHN T. WHEELER

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Fierce fighting of warplanes today pounded the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops who have blocked the government's first offensive of the war some 50 miles north of Phnom Penh.
North Vietnamese troops attacked the Cambodian force along Highway 6 Thursday and killed four government soldiers. Enemy soldiers were still operating to the rear of the government's forward line today.

Security Procedures Strengthened

By JOHN STOWELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—While security procedures attempt to weed out potential airplane hijackers before they get aboard, government and airlines officials are working on the tougher problem of forcing a hijacker and bringing him to trial.
Antihijacking legislation is piling up in Congress, and international extradition measures and airfield boycotts are being discussed at the United Nations and among intergovernmental organizations.
But one U.S. government official suggests the primary responsibility for solving the problem lies with the commercial airlines.
Secor D. Browne, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, told the International Aviation Club in Washington Thursday more is needed than armed guards aboard aircraft, and weapons-screening devices and hijacker-background profiles in terminals.
"Every effort should be made to control the hijack while it is in progress," he said. "This should be a plan of attack in addition to armed guards, and development of such a plan lies squarely in the hands of the individual managements of the carriers themselves."
He said airplane crews should be trained to cope with a hijacker and take advantage of his confusion in the jungle of a modern jet.
The international problem of bringing a hijacker home to trial was being discussed today at the International Civil Aviation Organization council meeting in Montreal.
President Nixon sent a team headed by Secretary of Transportation John Volpe to urge all countries to suspend airline services with nations which detain passengers, crews or aircraft, or fail to extradite or prosecute hijackers.
The U.N. General Assembly heard demands Thursday for international activity to stop acts of hijacking and kidnapping of diplomats.
In a related appeal, the president of the Air Line Pilots Association, Audrey E. Johnson, before the House Foreign Affairs Committee to urge stern measures including an air boycott of uncooperative nations to halt hijacking.
Charles Ruby, the pilots' spokesman, endorsed Nixon's decision to post armed guards on commercial flights, and advocated compulsory extradition of hijackers and even greater security measures than in war time.

A Chat With The Mayor

By CHARNER LEONE
"We still haven't been served with the federal court injunction to stop the paving of Georgetown," said Sanford's Mayor, Leo P. Moore. "We can't go ahead with the project until the suit is resolved," he added.
"We're just waiting."
So the Georgetown paving project is suspended somewhere in limbo, and the dirt streets become worse with each rainfall. Briefly, explained the Mayor, the injunction says that once paved, the streets must be paved with tax money. And now the black community has to pay for its paving.
"This just isn't fair," said Moore, emphatically.
He explained, "Most Sanford streets have been paved by special assessment. The exception is that in the late 20s some of the streets in some of the subdivisions may have been laid through a bond issue. But we're not sure of this; it will take research to determine if it really happened."
"All of the main streets, we know, were paved by assessment."
Money has been allocated in the 1971 budget to start the paving, noted Moore.

The Sanford Recreation Department will conduct the competition for Ford's 10th Annual "Punt, Pass, and Kick" contest. The contest is open to boys right to 18 years of age. Registration forms are available at all the city schools, Jack Prosser Ford, and the Sanford Recreation Office in the Civic Center. Registration closes September 25, 1970. Preliminary competition this year will be held by zones, instead of at the schools due to extensive school closing. Boys will compete in the zone they are living in on dates and times listed:
ZONE 1 — North of 25th St., East of Hwy. 17-92 — Fort Mellon Park, Sept. 26, 12 Noon.
ZONE 2 — South of 25th St., East of Hwy. 17-92 — Pinecrest School, Sept. 26, 2 p.m.
ZONE 3 — West of Hwy. 17-92 — Pinehurst Field, Sept. 26, 4 p.m.
The first two places in the zones in each age group will get in competition for the City Championship on Thursday, October 1, 1970, at 6:30 p.m. on the Ft. Mellon Softball Field. Eighteen handsome trophies will be awarded to the local winners. First Place winners in the local competition will go on to further competition in Zone Contests.
The Punt, Pass, and Kick Competition is sponsored nationally by Ford Dealers and the National Football League. Co-sponsors in Sanford are Jack Prosser Ford Co. and the Sanford Recreation Department.

DEFENSE
LINE — This is where Packer can be hurt. Just can't lose guys like Willie Wood, Henry Gordon centrally. Going with enough experience on outside in both Brown, Lionel Aldridge. But changing it with kids in middle, Rich Moore and Mike McCoy. They're huge and Mike, a rookie, is real stud. But Moore was lethargic in debut. Possible solution might be to move Brown inside, put linebacker Fred Carr on terminal. Rating — B-minus
LINEBACKING — Usual bravos. Where do you find better ones than they? Nitschke in middle. Dave Robinson on strong side? And could afford to peddle LeVey Caffey because spot had to be made for Carr. Now there's also Jim Flanagan knocking for opportunity. They're all not only big and strong, but quick and agile. Rating — A
SECONDARY — Unless Herb Addierie changes mind about retiring, because of money, there's trouble here, too. Raw rookie Al Matthews would have to get the spot. Best of unit is some. Willie Wood at safety. Bob Jeter on right corner seems to go on forever. Doug Hart's almost in their age group, too. All or 20; so's Addierie. But they're needed. Rating — B-minus
KICKING — Nagging problem. Booth Lusting, Mike Mercer, pickup Joe Hunt are field goal candidates, and all are castoffs, with erratic histories. Donnie Anderson remains punter — get 'em high, but not far. Rating — C

SJC Sets Battles With Brevard

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor
The battle many people have been waiting for is coming to Sanford. It will be a preseason battle and all proceeds go to the Seminole Junior College Athletic Scholarship Fund.
Two of the most feared junior college basketball powers in the nation, the Seminole Junior College Raiders and the Brevard Junior College Titans will square off in a pair of preseason tilts.
Many people have hoped to see these two teams meet during the regular season but this has not come about yet. Coach Joe Sterling and his Raiders have traveled to Brevard for post season games, and he feels Brevard owes Seminole vice.
The Titans, coached by Jim Olier, will be in Sanford October 24 for the first of the two games. The entire admission charge will go to the scholarship fund. Then the Raiders will travel to the "Land of the Titans" on October 31.
The year 1968 was a State Championship year for SJC basketball and no one can forget the pair matches between the two teams. The Raiders took the state championship when they made a come-from-behind surge to tie the game and send it into overtime. No one can forget how little Dave Wynn stood at the foul line, with no time showing on the clock, and missed a pair of charity tosses. But the Raiders took the state championship in overtime. But through the Raiders defeated the Titans this time, they couldn't do it twice and lost out in the Regionals.
This season will likely see the Raiders pick up their 10th win. They posted a 25-2 record last year and their four-year record stands at 63-17.
This year the Raiders will have matches with the Brevard Indians River, Lake City, Brunswick, Ga., Florida State University freshmen, Stetson JV, Jacksonville University JV and the Florida Southern freshmen.
The Raiders open their season at home November 14 against North Florida. They will play in a Christmas tournament in Miami and will host Isothermal Junior College of Spindler, North Carolina, which posted a 21-5 record last season and hit the same team back.
Sterling has five returnees as the squad practices at the Seminole High gym. They are: Ken Bryant, 6-foot-4, forward from Greerboro, Fla.; James Gilchrist, 6-foot-4, forward from Arcadia, Fla.; Harry Lee, 6-foot-4 center-forward from Brevard; Greg Robinson, 6-foot guard from Sanford; Odoms; and Larry Ward, 6-foot-5 guard from Glasgow, Ky.
The new recruits are: Tim Beaker, 6-foot-2 forward from Terra Haute, Ind.; Bill Corso, 6-foot-3 forward from Sanford; Charles Harris, 5-foot-11 guard from Sanford; Greg Hunter, 5-foot-10 guard from Maitland; Larry Keare, 6-foot-6 center from Sanford; Bob Krohman, 6-foot-2 forward from Covington, Ky.; and... 5-foot-11 guard from Ashville, Ohio; Don Nicholson, 6-foot-7 center from West Palm Beach; Jim Volenick, 6-foot-11, guard from Daytona Beach; and Jim Volenick, 5-foot-11 guard from Daytona Beach.
According to Sterling, the team has been working on getting in shape and is just now starting to come around. Nicholson is starting to come around after laying off basketball for a year. Two of the recruits that are looking good are Lambert and Keare.

Reds Clinch NL West Title Race

By HAROLD HARRISON
CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, who clinched the West Division championship of the National League Thursday, have been out of first place only one day since the season started April 8.
That one day was on April 11 when the San Francisco Giants beat the Reds and took over the first spot. The next day, the Reds won a doubleheader from the Giants and moved back in front to stay.
The Reds will set a major league record of being in first place for 176 playing days. That will break the old mark of 174 set by the New York Yankees in 1927. The records were set, of course, in the days of a 154-game schedule while the teams now play 162.

Orioles Celebrate Title With A 'Bubbly Bash'

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, a highly skilled bunch of party-givers, tossed a dilly Thursday night.
Far from becoming blasé about celebrating after reaching an important milestone, the Orioles seem to be improving with experience.
The latest party marked Baltimore's second consecutive championship in the American League's Eastern Division — a feat achieved despite a 2-0 loss to the Washington Senators.
An afternoon loss by the runner-up New York Yankees officially ended the runaway race, and while that may have taken the edge off the Baltimore-Washington contest it didn't affect the celebration.
The traditional champagne flowed. Manager Earl Weaver and various club officials, players and members of the press were either dragged into the showers or tossed into a cooler of ice water.
The ice water bath left the victims gasping for breath. Only five players were needed to cart big Boog Powell to his apartment late — because he submitted willingly. Powell's main concern was that he not spill his cup of champagne. But he did.
One broadcaster showed class by wearing his hat on his trip to the shower, fully clothed. One reporter came prepared, stripping down to bathing trunks and a shirt jettered in ink: "Lil' Guard."
The Orioles staged a whopper of a party in 1966, when they won their first American League pennant prior to the inauguration of divisional play, and another after winning the World Series.
Last year, they celebrated after winning the division and again after beating Minnesota for the American League pennant. The New York Mets, however, staged the Series bash after beating the Orioles.
Outfielder Frank Robinson, Baltimore's 35-year-old super star, forsook more parties in the coming years.
"This has to be a fine organization to keep producing good players the way it does," he said. "After all, it's harder to stay on top now than it used to be — because of the free agent draft and the first-year draft."

Two Lake Mary Girls Reported Molested

By BILL SCOTT
An investigation into a reported child molestation at Lake Mary is underway, according to records at the sheriff's office.
Sgt. George Abney is probing an incident involving two girls, ages eight and 14, who were reportedly fondled by a man driving a light blue 1965 Ford. According to the report, the incident occurred in the vicinity of Grand Blvd. and Second Street.
In a second county report, five guns were taken from the Clifford Chadron home on Gabriella Lane near Goldenrod, according to a report filed by Deputy W. S. Vinton.
In a second break-in, approximately 4475 in tape recorders, radios and other equipment was removed from the Forest City home of E. C. Mauldin, according to a complaint from the man.
Sanford police have arrested a Nashville (Tenn.) man wanted on a fraudulent breach of trust charge.
John Dave Keller, 34, was charged at Holiday Inn, just after checking into the motel, by police acting on a call from Joe Roll, manager of a car wash, who phoned local police to report Keller had left Tennessee with over $1,000 in cash and receipts from the car wash.

Hearing Set For Teacher

School Board will hear neglect of duty charges brought against a Matland school teacher by School Supt. John Angel at Tuesday's 7 p.m. board meeting.
Katherine B. Pipkins, a former Lyman High English teacher who went to U.S. District Court to fight transfer to Crooms High School, is expected to be represented at the public hearing by her husband, Roger Pipkins, an Orlando attorney.
The teacher is being an estimated $33 a day for each day she fails to report for her new assignment. Angel suspended the woman after she failed to report to the desegregated all-ninth grade facility.
U.S. District Court Judge George C. Young ruled in a Sept. 10 decision that the teacher must accept the reassignment, even if it is against her desire.
Judge Young said in his decision, the School Board had not violated Mrs. Pipkins' civil rights in attempting to force her to accept the transfer to a school 29 miles farther than her former Lyman position.
The teacher sought the court's help in preventing her employment termination, transfer to Crooms and loss of property. Judge Young dismissed the woman's court injunction without hearing the School Board's case, which would have been presented by Douglas Stinson, board attorney.
The result of Tuesday's hearing could decide when or if Mrs. Pipkins will be allowed to teach in Seminole County schools.

Ohioan Treks To Capital In Campaign For Jesus

By GARY TAYLOR
It is the time of the year when many are out campaigning for the candidate of their choice. A campaigner is now making his way through north Florida and toward Washington, D.C. He is the one who has been called "Jesus."
The young man's 63 cents was soon just pennies. He stopped to witness at a restaurant, and bought a hamburger for himself and a Coca-Cola for a young friend he had met outside. He forgot and left the change on the counter as he tried to witness to other young people sitting in the restaurant.
In Sanford, Painter walked the streets, meeting young people and talking to them about drugs. Painter, who hopes to be officially ordained as a minister when he returns to his hometown in Ohio, wears his hair longer than usual with slight sideburns, so as to be able to talk with the teenagers casually. He wears a cross around his neck.
Friday night, Painter attended a high school football game in Sanford, where he continued to witness to thousands of young people, taking their minds away from the games.

Even though there wasn't a flag flying at the Oviedo-Seminole High football game last Friday night at the Sanford Municipal Stadium... thanks to Joel Field and the American Legion... there were flag details posted onto the sides of the helmets of the Fighting Seminoles.
Genial Joel even promised to copy and install the ballard to raise the flag at next Friday's game. And that's the reason why a flag wasn't flown... some 'book' stole the rope which is used to raise the colors to the top of the flag pole.
And finally... one of the largest crowds to witness a football game at the stadium would appreciate the public address system functioning... makes it so much more enjoyable, especially for those who aren't too familiar with the rules, etc.

As you know, gubernatorial Candidate Earl Faircloth visited Sanford early today... which prompts this request from the Civic Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday when "The Sparrows" will be presented by the Seminole Junior College Student Government under the auspices of the Seminole Mutual Concert Association.
"The Sparrows" is the first of six attractions booked by the concert group for their current series, utilize stereo sound, staging and costume effects and a massive five-screen, multi-media backdrop.
Appearing on the Bob Hope Show, the 15 member musical group has been exposed to over a million people in addition to audiences in the over 300 live concerts performed. (See Photo Page 1B)
The opening night reception will be hosted by the college Civitanes under the chairmanship of Misses Emily Dougherty and Karen Stovell, leaders for the evening performance series may be obtained Tuesday evening at the door or by calling Mrs. Gus Holt, 322-1724 or Mrs. Donald Spotts, 325-7410. Tickets to individual concerts will not be sold.

United Fund Drive Begins Tuesday
By CHARNEE LEONE
Tuesday will mark the official start of this year's Seminole County United Fund Campaign. Again your neighbors will be asking you to fork over some money — or better yet, to pledge to give a certain amount a regular intervals during the year.
The standard of giving is one hour's pay per month. And to make this giving easier for you, you will most likely be approached at your place of employment.
The goal is $60,000, mostly small for the amount of good that money is expected to do. But where does the money you give go? And how much overall will they get? Incidentally, it is possible to earmark your donation to a specific agency, if you desire.
Here are the organizations, their goals, and the amount they receive at the completion of a successful drive:
— Boy Scouts of America: $8,500, to train boys in citizenship and their families' development and physical fitness.
— Central Florida Sheltered Workshop: $1,000, to serve men-

'Today's Sound' Slated

Today's sound — rock, ballads, soul, pop, inspirational, blues and message — will be brought to the stage of the Civic Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday when "The Sparrows" will be presented by the Seminole Junior College Student Government under the auspices of the Seminole Mutual Concert Association.
