Officials Red-Faced, Bottle Club Stays Longwood Didn't Look Before It Leaped

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer
LONGWOOD—It is almost a sure thing that city councilmen will ask City Clerk Onie Shomate for any information she has before they attempt to amend an ordinance.

Because they didn't ask the last time, and despite the best efforts of Councilman H. A. Schreiner, the council will not have a law on the books forbidding the sale of alcoholic beverages after midnight in Longwood. Although Councilman Don Schreiner elicited an opinion from City Clerk at the time that the city really had no ordinance either for or against the ordinance. It was read by a clerk from The Herald this morning, however, Schreiner asked why the old ordinance setting closing hours at midnight was amended, rather than the amended ordinance, adopted three years ago, advancing the closing time to 2 a.m.

Analysis

Indianapolis 500

Foyt, Bignotti Rivalry Culminates Today

Indy Lineup

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The winner of today's Indianapolis 500 may be whoever comes out on top in the fierce rivalry between A.J. Foyt and master mechanic George Bignotti, the two men who have been the most dominant forces in this classic event the past 15 years.

Bignotti, whose brilliant red Wilcats driven by 1973 winner Gordon Johncock and Wally Dallenbach are the swiftest of Foyt's rivals, has brought drivers to victory lane here six times, more than any other chief mechanic in the 58-year history of the race now worth more than $1 million in prizes.

Foyt, a three-time winner, started out with Bignotti and won with the former San Francisco Florist as chief mechanic in 1961 and 1964, but the two have since gone separate ways.

There are, of course, others with a chance for the $250,000 winner's prize, including former winners Al Unser and Bobby Unser, Mario Andretti and defending champion Johnny Rutherford.

Though the Indianapolis Motor Speedway stood relatively quiet Saturday, outside thousands massed for the 6 a.m. cannon blast today that will open the gates here. Speedway owner Tony Hulman will send chills down the spines of perhaps as many as 500,000 fans at the scheduled 11 a.m. start when he utters those famous words: "Gentlemen, start your engines!"

Foyt will be sitting in the cockpit for a record 10th time, with the advantage of his own bright orange Coyote being the proven fastest among the 33 starters.

Alongside him will be Johncock and Bobby Unser in the first of 11 three-abreast rows lined up for the most harrowing start to any sporting event.

Foyt was applauded last year for leading the field down the cramped main straightaway for one of the cleanest starts ever here.

Foyt won't say just how much satisfaction he would get from beating Bignotti to victory lane this year, but it is known that A.J. is steaming still about charges made last month by Bignotti, accusing Foyt of cheating in his March victory at the California 500. Bignotti said Foyt carried extra fuel in a trick line extinguisher.

Foyt angrily denied the charges, but a bitter controversy erupted and now A.J. is threatening to sue. U.S. Auto Club officials promise that the machines of the top three finishers will be completely torn down after the race to make sure everything was kosher.

There are four rookies in the field, although none are considered favorites to win under normal circumstances. The rookie with the best start appears to be the fastest qualifier of the four, Bill Putterbaugh. The others are Sheldon Kinser, Larry McCoy and Eldon Rasmussen.

The weather forecast was for one of the hottest race days ever—with temperatures in the air near 85 and probably over 130 degrees on the track surface. A slight chance of rain is also forecast.

Stanley Cup 2-2 Knot To Be Untied

It's first down, a week to go for high school spring football. Seminole County's six high schools, with the exception of Trinity Prep, which ended spring practice Friday, are colliding, sliding, bumping and sweating. Herald Sports Editor Tom Keyser begins Monday a look at the county's spring football progress and a look into the Fall.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Buffalo Sabres defenseman Jim Schoenfeld thinks the hockey season is too long. Teammate Don Luce agrees. So they'll be doing their best to make the season one game today when they face the Philadelphia Flyers in the fifth game of the National Hockey League's championship series.

"Playing hockey until the 29th of May is crazy," said Schoenfeld. "The toughest thing is the mental side; it's tough getting up for 80 games in the regular season and then the playoffs. The physical part comes with hard work, but the mental side comes with psychological conditioning."

"I'd like to see the season end on May 15th at the latest, but it'll probably get longer before it gets shorter," said Schoenfeld. "I think it would be better if the hockey playoffs ended right when the baseball season was beginning," offered Luce, who won the Masterton Trophy earlier in the week as the NHL player who best personified the qualities of dedication, perseverance and sportsmanship this season. "That way, we could get finished earlier in the summer and get more attention in the newspapers."

But this longest season in history can't end before Tuesday night—exactly eight weeks after the regular season ended. And when it finally ends, the league will have a champion that wasn't in the league 10 years ago. The defending champion Flyers joined the NHL in 1967, the Sabres entered in 1970.

Sabres right wing Rick Dudley thinks there might be a new titlist. "When you play for nine months or so, you don't want to throw it away for lack of effort," he said, recalling the fact that training camp for this season opened in early September and will open for next season in a little more than 100 days.

Marathon Swim Ends

MIAMI (AP) — After swimming what is estimated to be over 100 miles, distance swimmer Ben Huggard has abandoned his attempted 165 mile swim from the Florida Keys to Freeport, Bahamas.

The end came early Friday evening off Bimini after more than 28 hours. Leading to his downfall was a breakdown in his protective shark cage and stings from a Portuguese Man-of-War, a jellyfish.

A spokesman aboard a boat accompanying the Freeport, N.Y., policeman on the swim said Huggard left the water at 5:30 p.m. Friday off Bimini.

He began at 1:22 p.m. Thursday from a reef near the town of Marathon.

Huggard's goal was to break the 91-mile world record for a non-stop swim, set by Walter Pionisch in the Florida Straits in 1972, but the exact distance Huggard covered was not immediately determined.

Warriors Humble Bullets

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Golden State Warriors' newly won believers include the humbled Washington Bullets.

"They've been the better team these three games, I'm willing to say that," Bullets guard Kevin Porter conceded after a 109-101 defeat Friday night in San Francisco's Cow Palace.

Coach Al Attles' Warriors, decided underdogs heading into the National Basketball Association championship series, are ahead 3-0 and could end the best-of-seven series with a coup de grace, fourth victory Sunday on the Bullets' Landover, Md., home court.

"We've got quality in numbers," said Attles, who used all of his squad, from superstar Rick Barry to 12th man Steve Bracey, in the relatively easy third game victory.

Golden State was behind by 16 points before getting hot in game No. 1 at Landover, and they trailed by 13 at one point in the second game, which they won here 92-91 Tuesday night.

The Warriors built an eight-point lead Friday night in the opening quarter, in which Barry scored half his game-total 38 points, fell behind by two points twice midway in the game but were in command with a 12-point edge early in the fourth period.

"We made it tough for ourselves," said Barry. "We missed a lot of passes and shots in the first half. We could have been ahead by about 15 points. In the second half, we just made fewer mistakes."

Two second stringers—although that status is almost meaningless the way Attles uses his bench—gave Barry the biggest assists. Forward Derrick Dickey scored 14 points in 20 minutes and center George Johnson had 10 points and nine rebounds in 16 minutes.

Bullets Coach K.C. Jones said, "I'm not surprised by the Warriors. I saw what they did in their playoff against the Chicago Bulls."

But Washington beat the Warriors in three of four regular season meetings and advanced to the championship series by dumping defending NBA champion Boston in six games. Golden State was behind 3-2 against Chicago before winning the Western Conference title in a seven-game series, coming from far behind to win three times.

Twins Slate Camp

The second annual Minnesota prospects who are overlooked Twins Florida Try-out Camp in the major league draft.

The camp is open to all boys Orlando on Monday, June 9, who are eligible to be signed," according to Orlando Twins General Manager Bob Willis.

Willis stated, "This includes all young players who have been graduated from high school, are not drafted in the June 4-5 draft by some other major league club, do not come under the restrictions of baseball's major league observers. It also serves to uncover for the Twins yet reached their 23rd bir-deserving major league today."

But now, Browne's eyes are focused on his pro future. He is working out in Gainesville, where he and his wife live, for the late-June opening of the Express camp.

"I've been doing a lot of lifting (bench pressing 325 pounds) and a lot of running, up and down the stadium steps," he said. As for the future of the WFL and his place in it, he said, "It's going to go and I'm going to be a part of it."

Ricky Browne:

Former All-American at Lyman High School signs with the WFL Jacksonville Express

By JOHN WARMINGTON
Herald Correspondent

A former Lyman High School All-American has signed a contract to play for the Jacksonville Express (formerly the Sharks) of the World Football League.

Ricky Browne, a 1970 Lyman graduate, signed with Jacksonville as a weakside linebacker. He was a football standout in high school and at the University of Florida.

Browne had been drafted in the 12th round by the National Football League Houston Oilers.

After graduating in March from the College of Journalism and Communications at the University of Florida, he prepared to report to the Oilers' rookie camp.

Then he changed his mind.

"When the WFL announced its plans for this season," Browne said, "I decided to go along with them."

While skipping rope to help trim his 6-foot, 3-inch frame to a playing weight of 220 pounds, Browne explained his reasons for the change.

"Houston's awfully far away," he said. "I'd rather stay in Florida. Besides, I can get in on the ground floor of this thing (WFL)."

Browne, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Browne of Longwood, was a prep All-American fullback-linebacker at Lyman. He also lettered in basketball and track.

Browne signed a grant-in-aid with the University of Florida.

He chose Florida for a number of reasons.

"It had a strong football program and educational facilities," he said. "I liked the big campus atmosphere, too."

"I enjoyed college football, but was glad to finish," he said. "I'm happy to have the opportunity to go professional."

While playing for the Gators, he was voted second team all-SEC in 1972, missing the first team by one vote.

His quickness (4.3-4.0 yards) was instrumental in a starting Gator linebacker job in 1971. However, he subsequently started at defensive right end in 1972 and 1973.

John Pinney: He's So Wrong He's Right

The morning after John Pinney successfully defended his Southern Middleweight Championship in Tampa by scoring a split decision over Gene Wells, matchmaker Bruce Trampier received a phone call in his Orlando office.

Wells felt he won the fight as did most fans. But it was a close fight, and they were fighting in Pinney's hometown. The win by Pinney was the 30th. He only has been defeated once — in Madison Square Gardens. "The Jewish Bomber," Mike Rossman, turned the trick late last year when he stopped Pinney in the fifth round.

Mahaffey Gains Slim Memphis Lead

MEMPHIS (AP) — John Mahaffey studied the scoreboard, his baby face wrinkled into a frown. He looked at the list of the leaders: Gene Littler, Jack Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf. Also Gary Player and Lee Trevino, who were well within striking distance.

"With guys like that up there, I'd like to get a 14 or 15-shot lead," he said, a mischievous grin wiping away the frown. But he's happy, very happy indeed, with the two-stroke margin he established in Friday's second round of the $175,000 Donny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic.

Littler, winner of the Bing Crosby early this year, had a 68 and a 135 total. Nicklaus had to settle for a 70 and a tie with Weiskopf at 136. Evins, one of the game's longest hitters, shot a 71 and did not birdie a par-five hole, although he reached one in two.

Riordan: Gritty Bullet

By Ira Berkow NEA Sports Editor LANOVER, Md. — (NEA) — Forty-five minutes before the first game of the current National Basketball Association championship finals, Mike Riordan was on the court, shooting alone, as he had done so many times as a kid on the schoolyards in Queens.

Red Holzman in the last seconds of quarters to "give" a foul, a strategic move that saved more valuable players from committing a foul. The crowd laughed. The players joked. The coach asked one day, "Mike, do you feel I'm making an ass of you?"

"No," said Riordan, "it gives me experience." Soon, he was third guard, a tribute to his tenacity, since he lacked the speed, the leaping ability, the stamina sometimes, the shooting consistency of more gifted peers. He helped Riordan win the championship. Home-town boys makes great. And as suddenly, he was traded.

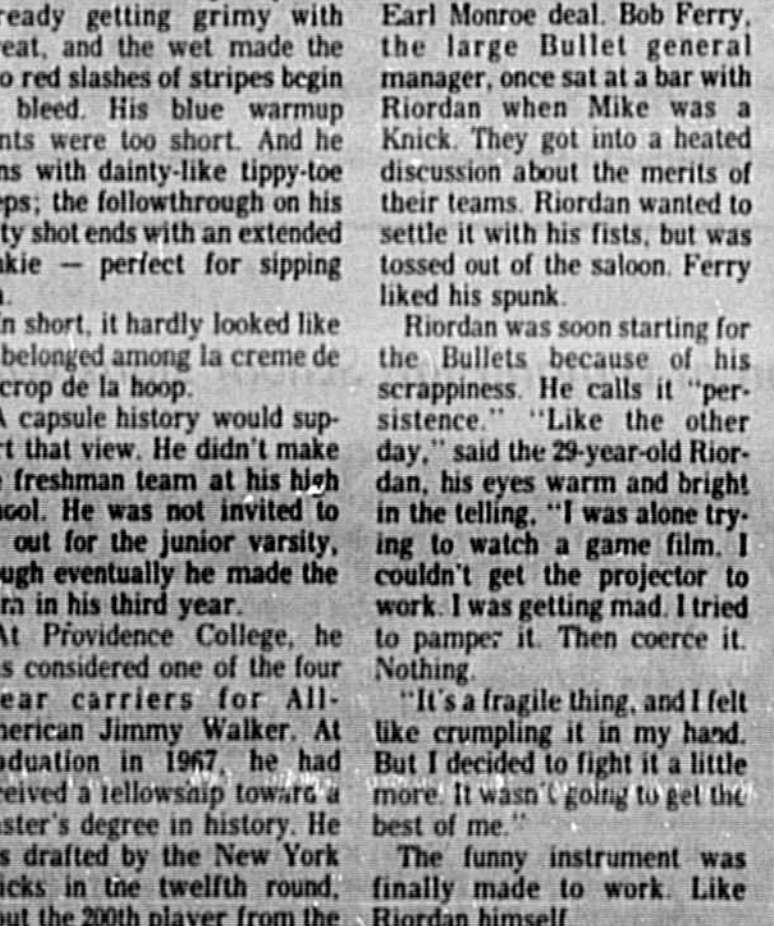

Area Bowling

By Ira Berkow NEA Sports Editor LANOVER, Md. — (NEA) — Forty-five minutes before the first game of the current National Basketball Association championship finals, Mike Riordan was on the court, shooting alone, as he had done so many times as a kid on the schoolyards in Queens.

Now a starting forward on the Washington Bullets, one of the title contenders, Riordan thumped the ball on this yok-bright wooden floor below the dark, deep and elegant stands of the new Capital Centre. But he still looked like a schoolyard stick.

can and long at 6-foot-4, 190 pounds, he hadn't shaved in three days and that gave him a particularly hungry look. His eyes were narrowed, his mouth puckered crookedly.

Not so much traded as thrown in to the Dave Stallworth-Earl Monroe deal. Bob Ferry, the large Bullet general manager, once sat at a bar with Riordan when Mike was a Knick. They got into a heated discussion about the merits of their teams. Riordan wanted to settle it with his fists, but was tossed out of the saloon. Ferry liked his spunk.

Fishermen's Chapter Slates Tuesday Meeting

Although this column is directed primarily to sports fishermen, the aims of commercial fishermen parallel those of the sportsman in many ways. The commercial men are concerned about the diversion of St. Johns River waters at the source. Their livelihood depends on the river — no water no catfish.

This group of area anglers hauled in 1,600 pounds of good catfish in two hours on a recent fishing trip.

She urges those who are now or have ever been engaged in commercial fishing to attend. The recent rains brought the water level up 10 inches in the St. Johns River, and the current finally started flowing the right way. Bait fish by the thousands are swarming downstream, and they are feeding.

Lots of catfish was the word from Camp Seminole on the Wekiva River. Most of them are in the one to two pound class, but a 10-pounder was in the string landed by anglers Helms and Cox. Wekiva Haven visitors are finding fishing fair with bream yards, and even carp.

Bosox Belt Angels; Hunter Stops Texas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS California's Nolan Ryan wasn't locating his pitching spots—the Boston Red Sox located the fence. Ryan, who had allowed just three home runs in his first nine starts as a host to 8-1 record, gave up homers to Bernie Carbo, Carl Yastrzemski and Dwight Evans in the six innings he worked Friday night and Boston won 6-1.

He's Driving Her Nuts

DEAR ABBY: I must have the most attentive husband in the world. He retired last year at 64, and has been with me seven days a week, 24 hours a day ever since. He drives me to the grocery store. He drives me to the beauty parlor—and waits to drive me home. Yes, I know how to drive, but his excuse is, "Something may happen to the car." He is driving me nuts. DRIVEN IN DAYTONA BEACH: My husband has been driving me nuts since he discovered I could make more money being a cocktail waitress. I had to give much thought to people's attitudes toward cocktail waitresses, but I soon discovered that most men seemed to assume that because I was a cocktail waitress, I was automatically on the make. My mother would like to think that my job is just temporary, something to tide me over until I find a nice "decent" job in an office. It's true that some cocktail waitresses aren't exactly the best moral fiber, but that can be the case in any occupation. I know quite a few cocktail waitresses, and I can tell you that most of them are decent working girls—some of whom have husbands and children—who are simply trying to make the best living they can. DEAR ABBY: I am married to a Mama's boy. My mama lives 1,500 miles away, but she writes to Sonny regularly three times a week. And Sonny calls her every Sunday. (He even asks her how he should vote.) He is 64 and Mama is 79. I know she can't last forever, but what happens to a Mama's boy when Mama is no longer around to tell him what to do? DEAR ABBY: I'm married to a Mama's boy. She is now attending the University of Florida, in the College of Architecture and will graduate in June. Her grandmother, Mrs. B. E. Rogero Sr. is a resident of Orlando. Real Estate Investments

BY LARRY SAXON

Dear Mr. Saxon, I'm sure you can see where it isn't a good idea to pay all cash L.S. Everyone has a "problem" when they wish to change positions in their real estate portfolios, regardless of whether the property is a home, land, residential units, commercial or industrial property, etc. But the "problem" is, very few know why they wish to change. Of course, they feel they know what they should do, and what they think they want to do seldom have any relation to each other. The "problem solver" counsels with the client instead of selling himself as the broker in the area who should handle the client's real estate transactions. In counseling the client, the "problem solver" discovers the real needs of the client, and designs a transaction to meet those objectives. Apparently, you wish to sell your property, whatever it is. Now, the question is, "Why?" and "What is your real need?" L.S.

House & Apartment Rent at $25 Monthly Annual Rent

Annual Expenses (taxes, maintenance, insurance, allowance for vacancies) $90 Net Income $200 Let's assume you buy the property for $16,500 with $4,000 down and the seller takes back a $12,500 mortgage at 8 1/2 percent for 20 years. If you were to pay all cash your yield would be $2,200 (12.2 percent) divided by $16,500 or .73 percent. By mortgaging you're paying $4,000 down with the balance paid off at the rate of $1250 annually. Deduct the $1250 annual payments from the $2,200 net income and it leaves $770 return on your $4,000 investment or a cash yield of 19.25 percent — and this doesn't include equity build up.

Travelers Can Avoid Thefts

BY LARRY SAXON

Dear Mr. Saxon, I've been told you are supposed to be a "problem solver" of real estate problems. I don't know exactly what that means, so I don't know whether I should get together with you about selling my property because I don't have a problem — I just want to sell. What does "problem solver" mean? G.S. A "problem solver" works from the "people" standpoint instead of placing the importance on the property. He searches for the real purpose in the client's desire to sell or exchange rather than merely listing a property for the market place. Everyone has a "problem" when they wish to change positions in their real estate portfolios, regardless of whether the property is a home, land, residential units, commercial or industrial property, etc. But the "problem" is, very few know why they wish to change. Here's Best Way To Repair Drive

Q: What is the best way to repair a cracked concrete driveway? One of the difficulties with some of the cracks have one side higher than the other. — John R. H. A. Sunken sections of the concrete can be raised with a lever. After raising, pack sand under the lever. Heavy slabs that cannot be raised should be broken up. Remove the larger pieces of rubble, then tamp the remainder to form a new base for new concrete. Your new concrete should be four to six inches thick and poured level with the existing slab. When repairing pot holes in concrete, chisel away the sides of the hole until they are perpendicular clear down to the gravel base. Use a cold chisel and heavy hammer. Wear heavy work gloves and goggles for protection. Brush away the rubble, then wet the hole. Pour new concrete while the hole is still damp, but be sure there is no standing water. Use a package mix and add only water, or start from scratch with one part cement to three parts of sand and fine gravel mix. If the cracks in your driveway are not sufficiently wide or deep to need major repair, you can use a concrete patching material and concrete glue with one part concrete glue to 60 pounds of patching material. Longwood Teacher Claims SEA 'Misrepresents' Facts

By ED PRICKETT
Herald Staff Writer

In a prepared handout, a Longwood elementary faculty representative who calls herself the "leader of a dissident teacher group" today called charges that Longwood teachers are interested in the American Federation of Teachers (AFT) a "deliberate misrepresentation."

"Gene Grooms knows full well that the position of our group is that we want no union representation at all. We've even been down to his office to tell him about it," Mrs. Constance Moore said.

Last week, the School Board's chief negotiator, Harry Pelley, advised the Longwood faction to hold meetings after school hours only. That advertisement came after Grooms, the executive director of the Seminole Education Association (SEA), threatened to file an unfair labor practice complaint with the Public Employees Relations Commission (PERC), the state agency that sets collective bargaining guidelines for the entire state.

What Grooms was protesting was the fact that a meeting in which an AFT representative spoke to Longwood teachers was held on campus and during school hours.

That meeting, according to Mrs. Moore, was okayed by Longwood principal Arletta Coberly for 3 p.m. School lets out at 3:45. However, Mrs. Moore contends Mrs. Coberly didn't know who the featured speaker was. The featured speaker turned out to be AFT's Bob Allan of the United Teachers of Orange. Grooms said that during-school-hours meeting was a violation of Florida's bargaining laws. He also said SEA is considering filing a protest to the Professional Practices Commission (PPC), a state agency with investigatory powers.

Asked about the AFT session which occurred last Wednesday, Mrs. Coberly replied, "You don't talk to me about that. That's out of my jurisdiction." But Mrs. Moore confirmed the meeting, and Pelley advised during-school-hours sessions cease.

Pelley also said the meeting was held on an early dismissal day, which is a day, according to Mrs. Coberly, when a teacher is allowed to go home early if that teacher has all of his or her work completed.

Longwood has been a beehive of activity, most of it in opposition to the SEA. However, a petition to the School Board requesting an investigation of SEA's validity was signed by only six teachers. Various meetings have been scheduled at the Longwood campus, and speakers have been invited from different organizations.

The AFT meeting, Mrs. Moore says, was the only session held prior to the time school lets out. Today at 4 p.m., a meeting is scheduled to organize an association to speak for professional educators in Seminole County.

A major complaint the Longwood faction has is collective bargaining and the proposed 75-page master contract presently being negotiated between SEA and the School Board.

Mrs. Moore claims "SEA is embarrassed by questions we are asking" about the contract proposal and as such are throwing up a "smokescreen" to confuse teachers.

SEA, on the other hand, says collective bargaining always has been the prime goal of any teacher organization. SEA officials also say teachers will have the final vote of ratification on any contract negotiated by the SEA team.

Mrs. Moore says SEA should have circulated copies of the contract proposal for all teachers to read for themselves.

Copies of the 75-page proposal, due to cost factors, were presented to Pelley's team members.

6-Year-Old's Death Is Probed By Police

By MICK LOCHRIDGE
Herald Staff Writer

Sanford Police are investigating the death yesterday of a six-year-old Sanford child, who died one day after his mother reportedly had given him "warm medicine" to cure diarrhea.

Police said the child, Lucious C. Inman, 1206 W. 4th St., was dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital at 10:30 a.m.

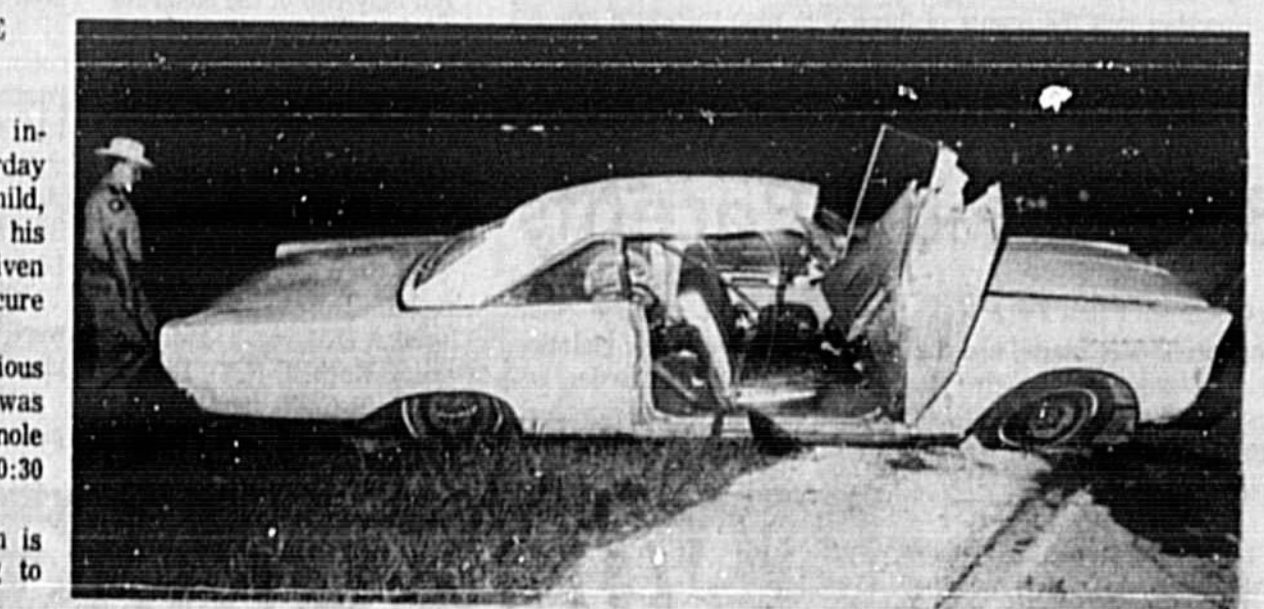

An autopsy on the death is expected today, according to police.

Police report the child had been sick for "some time" and appeared to have diarrhea on Saturday and Mrs. Inman was said to have administered the worm medicine.

Sanford Detective Lt. William Lykens said today no charges would be filed until an autopsy is completed.

Henry Elisha Jowers, 39, of Apopka, Route Two, became Seminole's first holiday weekend traffic fatality — and the year's sixth highway death — Saturday night when his auto veered from the northbound lane of I-4, just south of the Lake Mary Boulevard exit, and rolled through the median into the southbound lanes.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper J. A. Brown said Jowers was alone in the car and died at Florida Hospital North, Altamonte Springs, a short time after the accident.

Seminole County Sheriff's deputies today were investigating two burglaries of residences in the county in which a total of more than $9,000 worth of stereo equipment, cameras and other possessions were stolen.

George Orthos, 32, Apt. 256, Spanish Trace Apartments, in Altamonte Springs, reported his apartment was burglarized sometime during the weekend — Saturday night and an estimated $6,200 worth of possessions were taken.

breaking and entering with intent to commit a misdemeanor and booked at county jail in lieu of $500 bond.

A 27-year-old Sanford man, found early this morning wandering aimlessly on SR 46 east of the Geneva Bridge, told Sheriff's deputies he had been beat up and robbed of $70 by two men last night in Volusia County, near Deland. Mozell Curtis, 41½ Hickory Ave., was picked up on the highway by John Hines, 28, 282 E. Sandalwood Springs, who took Curtis to Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Curtis was treated for cuts and bruises.

Curtis told deputies he did not remember what time the incident took place. Volusia County authorities were notified of the incident.

Board To Hear Parents' Input

Today at 4 o'clock is "parent input" time concerning the controversial School Board decision to close Rosenwald Elementary.

Initially, Laver recommended that Rosenwald be converted, but asked that the board bus some 207 black students to Lake Orienta, a new school scheduled to open next year.

Laver's decision was overridden after presentation of the "Lake Orienta Plan," a plan proposed by parents in the Lake Orienta area. That plan bused blacks to Cassberry.

So, parents in the Rosenwald area protested by boycotting the school for three weeks. Also, Rosenwald parents requested an investigation by the U.S. Justice Department.

America's Holiday Is Mixed

By The Associated Press

Americans in all their variety of tastes and longings sought ease and release from daily tensions over the Memorial Day weekend, and at the same time remembered that the holiday was called to commemorate the country's war dead.

It was a holiday of triumph: Bobby Unser won the Indianapolis 500 for the second time and in Nashville, Tenn., Gary Chmley, a 22-year-old service station attendant, saved the life of a youth who had taken an overdose of a tranquilizer and tried to drown himself.

"As long as there are lawbreakers in the world, we must have the strength and resolve to stand up for what is right," President Ford said in Arlington, Va., at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

As the final hours of the Memorial Day weekend ticked away, traffic fatalities continued to mount, reaching 264 by morning.

Stormy weather across the Central Plains into the mid-Atlantic seaboard cut down on travel somewhat in those areas, but fair skies and hot temperatures in western and southern states and in New England virtually guaranteed that holiday goers would clog the highways seeking their first full taste of summer.
