CITY CHIEFS TAKE ISSUE ON O. P. ECONOMY

This it was added $41,718,100 prohibition enforcement and $75,000 for highway construction in cooperation with states and forest reserve costs, which did not confront the government in 1925.

By subtracting this grand total of $75,000,000 from the 1927 appropriations figure, the committee estimated $1,588,882,465 as the amount available with the 1916 appropriations of $800,245,089 and found that appropriations greater than Coolidge than Wilson by $1,187,428.

With postal service counted in, the statement continued, "appropriations for the fiscal year 1927 are $4,409,377,454, or $470,886,881 greater than for 1916, and now the budget estimates for 1927 show $55,000,000 more than in 1927."

Chairman Madden, in predicting a heavy decrease in 1928 expenditures, attributed about $300,000,000 of this year's burden to the postal increase, soldier's bonus and other special items which either will be a smaller drain on the treasury next year or will be eliminated altogether. He indicated that he expected the maximum annual expenditure in the $185-$200,000 public building program to be limited to $25,000,000, although no provision for this undertaking has yet been included in budget figures.

DAY BY DAY IN FLORIDA

By The Associated Press
LAKELAND: The population of Lakeland has been placed at 24-000 by E. H. Naylor, local postmaster, who bases his estimate upon a compilation of figures as of July 31, 1926. This is the report that he will send to Washington.
The directory company canvassing the city this month estimates the population to be approximately 20,000. The state census of 1925 gave Lakeland a population of 17-000, which the postmaster accepts as fairly accurate. Mr. Naylor based his estimate on checking telephone subscribers, water meters and gas meters and comparing with former results.

LAKELAND: A thief has removed the two telephones with their boxes attached from the telephone pay station booths in the main office of the telephone company here. Both boxes contained combined amount of $5.70. The two boxes were found later by a man in a new building. The names had been battered badly in stealing them.

Princess Meets Sinclair Lewis

Princess Maria de Bourbon, a member of the Spanish royal house, who is visiting Mrs. B. G. Dahlberg at International Falls, Minn., met Sinclair Lewis, America's famous author amid most unroyal settings. This picture shows Mrs. Dahlberg on the left, Mr. Lewis in the center and the princess at the right.

LAKELAND: A cut in the tax rate of Polk county of four mills has been made by the county board of commissioners. The old rate was 48 mills while the new rate is 44 mills.

According to the estimate of the board, the general fund will total $170,125. Of this amount $151-025 will be raised from the 1926 tax roll and $7,000 from tax redemption and $14,000 occupational licences.

OKECHOBEE: A public hearing on the application of the city of Okechobee to the war department for permission to construct a bridge across Taylor's creek will be held in the local board of trade rooms on August 30 next. Colonel Mark Brooke, U. S. district engineer for Florida, will conduct the hearing.

SEBRING: Colonel Mark Brooke,
U. S. district engineer for Florida will conduct a hearing of the application of the Itokopog sub-drainage district to construct canals discharging into the Kissimmee River at points one and 20 miles below the mouth. The hearing will be held here on August 30.

Lieut. Cyrus K. Bellis, the army's flying ace, who was injured when his plane crashed in a Four mechanics from the air

C. & O. Stockholder Enters Objection To Proposed Line

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—(AP)— Objection to the proposal of the Nickel Plate railroad to construct a new line between Gregg and Valley Crossing, Ohio, was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today by Albert I. Stiles, a minority stockholder in the Chesapeake and Ohio railway.

Stiles said he had been advised of unjustifiable delay to the construction by the Chesapeake and Ohio, which was vitally in need of the connection, and attempted transfer of such construction to the Nickel Plate, had been "motivated solely by a desire on the part of the Van Sweringens (of the Nickel Plate) to obstruct the service of transportation on the lines of the Chesapeake and Hockink."

THE ROMANCE WITH DEATH

Filed by 1st Wife

MIAMI, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A romance which began in a Miami restaurant and ended in a Miami City Court suit filed by the first wife of a Miami retailer, Mrs. Howard, was the subject of a sensational trial today.

Mrs. Howard was the plaintiff in the suit, which was filed in Miami City Court by her attorney, J. M. ...

The trial was held in the presence of a large number of spectators. The case was heard by Judge ...

Mrs. Howard's attorney argued that her husband had been unfaithful to her and that she was entitled to a divorce. The husband's attorney argued that the marriage was still valid and that his wife was entitled to her share of the property.

The trial was expected to last several days. It was one of the most sensational cases in Miami in many years.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—(AP)—William E. Borah believes exactly like a man conducting a political campaign.

Borah didn't advance a copy of his bill. His office in Capitol Hill is busier, if anything, than ever. The senator isn't always in them, but his official secretary remains on the job. When Borah is away it's because he's making a speech somewhere.

If there isn't something going on in all these offices, Capitol Hill is a busy place. The political Washington is a hot place.

There are too many rumors to mention here. The fact is that the country is in a state of confusion. The public is confused. The government is confused. The future is uncertain.

A senator's job is to represent his constituents. He must be able to speak for them. He must be able to bring their concerns to the attention of the government.

It is the duty of a senator to be honest and to speak the truth. He must not be afraid to stand up for his principles. He must not be afraid to speak out against corruption.

The people have a right to know what their senators are doing. They have a right to know what their senators are saying. They have a right to know what their senators are thinking.

The government must be held accountable. It must be held responsible for its actions. It must be held responsible for its failures. It must be held responsible for its sins.

The people must have a say in the government. They must have a say in the way the country is run. They must have a say in the way the future is shaped.

The future is in our hands. It is up to us to make it a better one. It is up to us to make it a more just one. It is up to us to make it a more prosperous one.

Ten Survivors In 1st Round Of Tourney Are Women Under 23 Demand For Boost In Railroad Men's Pay Is To Be Arbitrated

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(AP)—If ever was "an old man's game," there is now at hand evidence to demonstrate that today it is a sport for young women.

Ten of the 16 first round survivors paired in the second round of the women's championship tournament to celebrate their twenty-third birthday.

Miss Naomi Hull, of Kendallville, Ind., who came to the fore as one of the principal contenders for the title by eliminating the qualifying medalist, Miss Lee Mida, of Chicago, in yesterday's play, is 18, and Miss Marion Turpie, of New Orleans, the Southern champion, matched with Mrs. Melvin Jones, of Olympia Fields, in the second, will not be 18 until December.

Several of the remaining first-round survivors are still their teens and several of them are playing in the tournament for the first time.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—An agreement to arbitrate the demand for increased pay for conductors, brakemen and switchmen on railroads east of Chicago and north of the Ohio river was signed today by representatives of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and of the railroads.

The demand is the first to go to arbitration under the provisions of the recently enacted Watson-Park-er bill, which provides for a board of mediation for the settlement of wage disputes between the railroads and the brotherhoods.

Youth, 19, Held For N. Y. Hammer Slaying

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Overpowered by what he told police was a desire to kill the man with whom he studied philosophy, Emanuel Silverstein, 19, entered a restaurant in Brooklyn Wednesday and struck Julius Carlisch, 63, on the head with a hammer, it is charged. Carlisch died while being taken to a hospital.

The boy said he had studied with Carlisch for the past two years. He was on the way to keep an appointment with him at the restaurant today, he said, when he stopped at a shoe-maker's shop and deposited fifty cents for the loan of a hammer.

Belgium Again Seeks League Membership

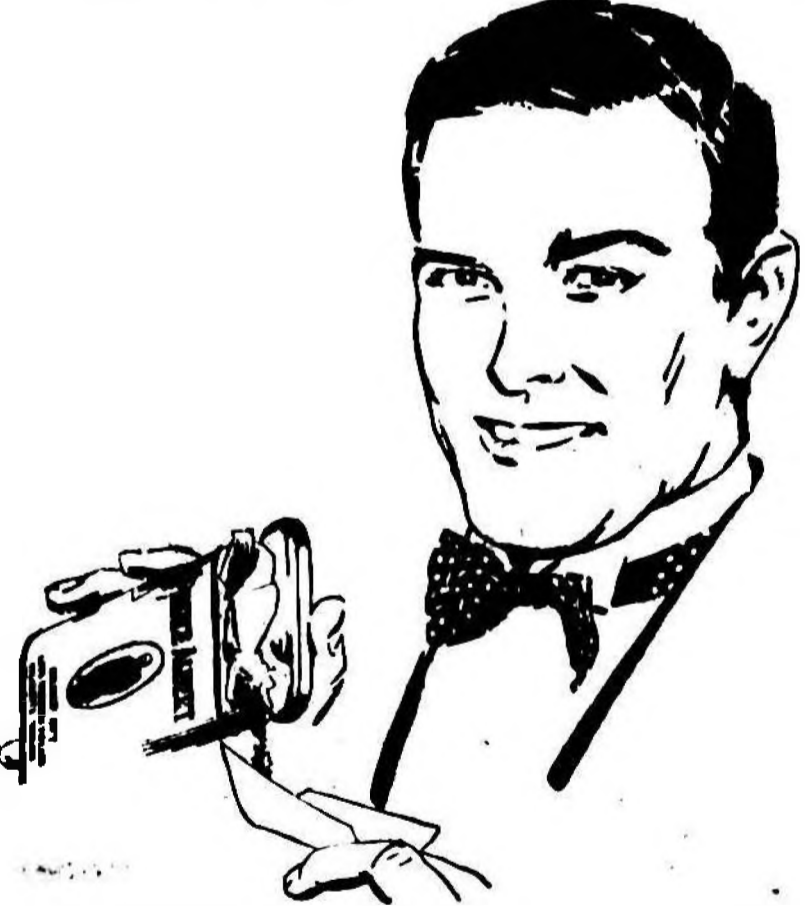

BRUSSELS, Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Belgian government, which last week announced its intention to apply for membership in the League of Nations, has today announced that it now proposes to submit a memorandum to the League Council on the subject of its application for membership.

Belgium will demand re-election as a permanent member under the new scheme worked out as a compromise by the commission appointed to study the council make-up.

Several of the different change-cases have been working on the council committee lately.

Paris, 25.—(AP)—The League of Nations Council has today received a memorandum from Belgium, proposing its application for membership in the League of Nations.

Just rolling along with PRINCE ALBERT

AND having a wonderful time! Yes, Sir, P. A. makes the finest cigarette that ever took form in your fingers. Easier to roll. This tobacco is crimp-cut, which means that you don't need a scoop or a broom to take up the spillage. P. A. stays put in the papers. This is just an item, of course. The taste's the thing.

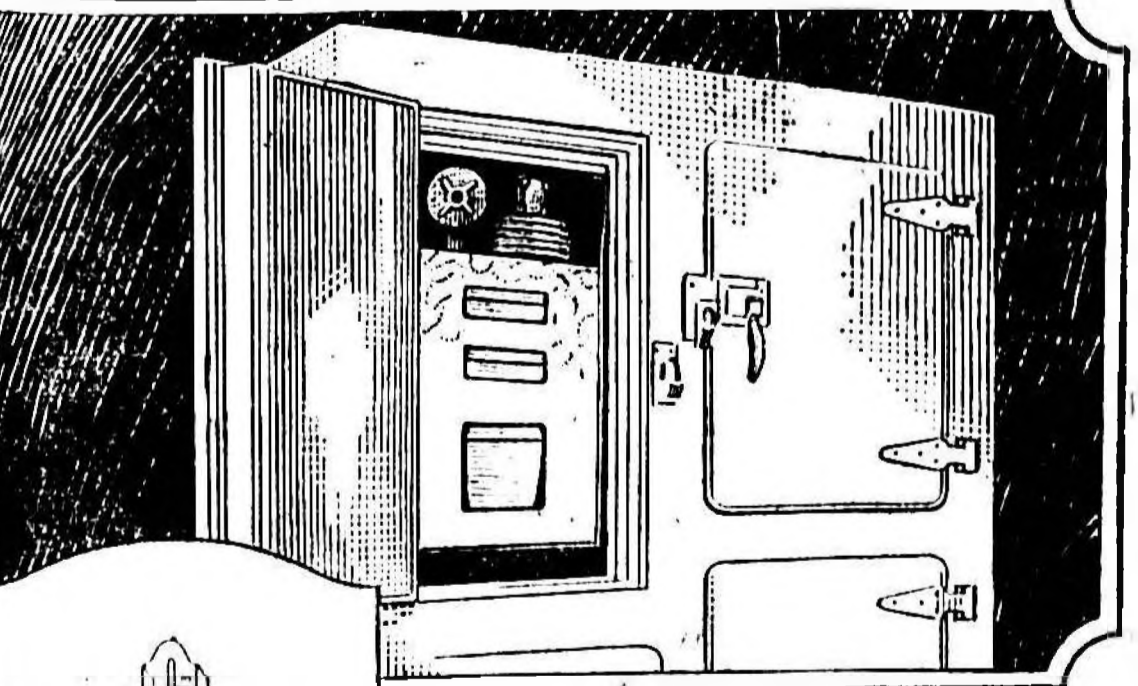

You never weary of rolling and smoking them. The reason for all of this is the wonderful quality of the tobacco. Prince Albert has no near-relatives. Not even a second-cousin. To get the most out of a home-rolled cigarette, you must get Prince Albert. That's a prescription—and a promise!

Just get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today and get going with some of these masterful cigarettes. You'll find them cool. You'll find them sweet. You'll find them fragrant, as you roll them, and as you smoke them. Delightfully fragrant.

Pipe-smokers, too, know the joys of a jimmy-pipe packed with P. A. They'll tell you that P. A. does things to a pipe—makes it perform in a way a good pipe should. No matter how settled you think you are, if you don't know Prince Albert, you don't know complete pipe-joy.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

Give Them Something To Do

It was only a little over a year ago that Sanford citizens put their shoulders to the wheel and secured a modern tourist hotel of which we are all very proud. The theory was advanced that because of Sanford's ideal climate and the excellent recreational facilities tourists would find here, the hotel would become a mecca for sport-loving northern vacationists.

Sanford has the ideal climate but the recreational facilities of which we bragged have somehow gone to pot. We did have a golf course, one which Hagen called the best in the state. We paid a lot of money for that golf course and we have paid a lot of money to have it kept up. And at the present time it is in a most deplorable condition. Home folks have almost abandoned golf, entirely because it is no fun to play on links so utterly run down. A golf loving tourist certainly would not consider establishing his headquarters in a place affording no better golf than Sanford does at the present time.

About the time the hotel was constructed the city promised to build a number of fine clay tennis courts in the park where Sanford's one lone concrete court is now. Advertisements attempting to popularize Sanford as a tourist resort and a sport center, mentioned those tennis courts and people coming here expected to find some place to play. Imagine their disappointment when they found but one concrete court and dozens waiting to play upon it.

It was said that the hotel was "situated on the banks of beautiful Lake Monroe." Swimming, boating and fishing might be indulged in were it not for several sewers emptying their filthy contents into the otherwise beautiful waters. Who would care to bathe or fish where such contamination is possible?

Sanford has two parks, one of them fairly well kept up and a pleasure to the eye of one seeking a restful spot in the afternoon or evening, but the most ideal location for a public park or playground where cool breezes from the lake would make playing or resting more enjoyable, the city has overlooked entirely. Although owning property on the lakefront the city has made no effort to beautify it or convert it into a public park.

These are merely a few of the things which Sanford must do before it can expect to make a popular appeal to tourists. There will be thousands of them coming to Florida this winter, but they will stop in places where the entertainments and facilities for play provided indicate that tourists are wanted. Sanford should wake up and get ready for winter business, the business of entertaining the tourist.

Warnings From The Purple Martins

The purple martins are telling the people of the North that they are to have a cold winter, one that is going to set in early and stay late.

The birds are congregating ready for their flight south, and during their conferences they talk about the poor humans that cannot take wing for the land of summer sunshine.

Ornithologists, it seems, can understand the language of the purple martins. At least they know their habits and can use their observations as the inspiration for some weather prediction that must strike cold and cheerless upon the hearts of unfortunate folks who have no chance of a trip to southern climes.

This warning of the early approach of cold weather is actually received with credence by people in northern states. Probably many families have hurried their orders for the winter coal supply and others have written for advice-by-return-mail as to the condition of the roads, and the best routes for travel to Florida.

And if that warning does have authority, Florida must do a little hustling in preparation for the reception and the care of the largest numbers of fall and winter visitors this state has ever entertained. All indications, warnings or not, point to the probability of enormous travel to Florida, and if the purple martins will hurry along and find themselves some pleasing quarters here they can hold some more conferences about lucky humans who also find a place to winter in the sunshine of June-like-days.

Another Sign Of The Times

Two boys, fourteen and sixteen years of age, took over thirty-six acres of their father's farm in Ohio, sowed wheat, took care of the land and crop according to scientific methods, and harvested one thousand, one hundred sixteen bushels of grain.

Doubtless the boys are exceptionally intelligent and industrious and their father's farm may be one of exceptional fertility, but regardless of such advantages, the youngsters have again demonstrated that scientific farming pays. Their work will be discussed by intelligent farmers throughout the wheat belt, and wherever such farmers are willing to learn from their children the newer methods will be adopted.

In schools where agriculture is taught right, boys and girls are learning ways to make farming a paying profession. They are learning how to handle the crop when it is harvested, how to take care of it, and how to market it.

And, unless the boys and girls learning these things have pig-headed elders who will not listen to their ideas, these youngsters from the schools can start right in to the revolutionizing of farm practices and produce miracles like those eleven hundred bushels of wheat from thirty-six acres of Ohio land.

Not so many years ago the scientific farmer had a lonely time of it. His neighbors considered him queer. His experiments frequently did not pan out. He had few books and few advisers to help him. But a few of his kind kept steadily at their great work. And today scientific farming is becoming the only kind of successful farming, and the educated will soon become the only kind of farmer who can compete for the big rewards that must come from land producing its maximum best.

Those Ohio lads can look forward to being men of affairs. Twenty years from now scientific farming is to provide some big jobs for men capable of managing big industries. Farmer-training should appeal very strongly to boys who have an extra quota of brains and a liking for the out-doors.

READ BEFORE YOU SIGN. A western professor passed an interesting looking paper about among his students, ostensibly asking for a holiday on a prominent American's birthday. Forty-five students readily signed the paper without giving it more than a passing glance. When the professor read the document to them they discovered that they also had signed a petition to have their right arms cut off at the elbows. It was a good test and one that the students will long remember. Too many sign on the dotted line without reading the text above carefully. Promissory notes and other catches may be hidden in the text of a document. Read before you sign.—Dearborn Independent.

As Brisbane Sees It

Have You Heard of Heincken?
Who's Next On Courts?
Ford, Hemp and Sloan.
Mourning For Valentino.
BY ARTHUR BRISBANE
 (Copyright 1926, by Star Co.)

YOUNG KRISHNAMURTI from India arrives today and comes to free us from our "materialism." He will be as welcome as Hercules in the Aegean stubbles.

THIS EARNEST sincere youth is among other things an excellent horseman, a good sportsman, and was an infant prodigy. He was carried each night to a tent in his sleep. As he dreamt, so his friends say, "the master" appeared and gave him instructions. At the age of twelve he wrote his book "At The Feet of The Master."

THAT DOES not necessarily mean divine inspiration. Consider little Christian Heinrich Heincken, who died in 1725, "before he was five years of age." He was able to converse plainly at ten months. When one year old knew by heart the most important parts of the Pentateuch. At two years of age he had mastered sacred history, at three he was thoroughly acquainted with history and geography, ancient and modern, French and Latin. He devoted himself to religious study in his fourth year, and to church history. And this is no "yearn" but historical facts. Crowds flocked to Lubek to see him, and a year before he died, he was taken to see the King of Denmark at Copenhagen.

His death, before the age of five, should warn parents not to drive talented children.

IT IS said that President Coolidge will not tolerate or accept Europe's suggestion that we should cut our tariffs to suit Europeans, as the price of our admission to the world court.

It would be a little too silly to allow Europe to make our laws. It is bad enough and stupid enough to suggest that the United States should go before a European so-called "world court" and abide by its decisions. Why not our own courts, and our own decisions.

HENRY FORD will plant 2,000 acres to hemp, believing that modern methods in growing and handling will make linen cheaper than cotton, in proportion to wear.

Hemp fields, however, will not keep Henry Ford from watching Mr. Sloan of the General Motors Company, who plans to put out one million copies of a cheap car in 1927. When you speak of "a million cheap cars" Ford forgets all about hemp and has reason to.

An income of a hundred millions a year "is not a thing to laugh to scorn."

THOUSANDS CROWDING yesterday to view the remains of Rudolph Valentino lying in state in the plate glass cases of the mausoleum at the city cemetery, nearly all women, were injured. No death since that of Lincoln has caused the public excitement produced by the death of this great film star.

WHEN HIS death was announced, women in tears crowded around new stands to buy the latest editions.

SOME PROFESS amusement at this interest, even Cyrus H. K. Curtis' own paper says that the interest in Valentino's death gives the observer an uneasy sense of unfamiliarity with American values.

MR. CURTIS should be the last one to say that. One of the greatest of American values is publicity. In this country one hundred and thirty millions every week pay for admissions to moving picture theaters, and tens of millions feel that in Valentino they have lost a friend.

TWO NEW ideas in prohibition enforcement, "shoot to kill" orders, are sent to prohibition officers, particularly to a squad of 40 customs men recently appointed for special bootleg work.

IF THE bootleggers run away they are to be shot—dead if possible.

ALSO THE government will invade the receipts from fines and fines on bootleggers. The informant will get one-quarter of what the government gets.

THIS SHOWS energy, but will it discourage men that can change one dollar's worth of corn into fifty dollars worth of bootleg whiskey?

NOTHING NEW from Mexico except that there is no agreement between the Catholic church and the Mexican government. The Vatican issues through the papal secretary of state and official statements, warning the public against inaccurate news concerning the Mexican controversy.

CROWDS VISITING the great cathedral from which priests are absent have seen what they call "the ghosts of bishops flitting about" and believe that they have returned to protect the church treasures. The police are investigating, fearing that thieves have assumed the role of pseudo-bishop.

GERMANY WANTED to buy from Belgium territory taken from Germany after the big war.

BUT FRANCE says no and means it. Belgium was willing to sell.

THE FRENCH say they have guaranteed Belgium's frontier and it must stay as it is. Belgium says she has a right to change it, but for the present, France is too strong.

MANY THINGS will happen when the next big European war breaks out. And there will be several revisions of agreements.

THE CRISIS IN PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS

THE WILD YOUNG PSYCHOLOGY
 NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

Now and then we wish that a law could be passed phasing all the scientists of the newer sciences upon desert islands, where they could investigate and combat unknown by the urge to apply their theories to immediate problems and be free from misinterpretation by overzealous misunderstanders writing for magazines. Such a period is now active through the impingement of behaviorism upon the sciences.
 This is the latest approach to the problems of the human mind. It has its weakness, as, for instance, an eagerness to tear down everything that earlier psychologists have reared; but that is a common trait of the late-hatched sciences, still lying in the eggshells of their important birth.
 Behaviorism does tackle important problems of human beings, and in a new and realistic way. It offers promise of modest but real progress in the most baffling of sciences.
 Unfortunately, it chooses to deal with matters of immediate interest to the social reformers of the hour. Its study of the sources of human instincts has led some of its eager devotees to belittle most of the simpler reactions by which humans have been in the habit of making their practical decisions in life. Why does A dislike foreigners? Because when a child there was a little immigrant in the next desk nibbling limburger cheese. Why has B a hatred of Mexicans? Because when a small boy his father was in Mexico City and his mother worried about him. These are examples of tests made in this city by "The Inquiry" and related by Mr. Robert L. Duffus in the current "Herald." How do the investigators know that there are the real sources of these instinctive dislikes? Because the persons questioned said so. "Some of their opinions were still sufficiently intact to be examined," says Mr. Duffus aptly. Another system of investigation is to give the victim a list of words—"Nordic," "Patriot," "radical," and so on, and make him cross out hurriedly every word that is annoying or distasteful. Thereby the expert thinks he learns something about the subject's "innocuousness."
 For the scientist slowly puzzling out his path such experiments have their obvious use. But when they are made the subject of a popular essay, calmly assuming that thereby it has been demonstrated that our instinctive reactions are silly prejudices, based on infantile accidents, there is a pathetic stupidity. The conclusion that our minds are such simple affairs, as to be analyzable at will and the source of a reaction pulled out of ancient memory, is scarcely novel. Our instincts may not be as sound and useful as they seem, but they surely cannot be overturned by any such half-baked science.
 Behaviorism is too promising a child to be spoiled by infatuated adults and under the theories to support and magazine articles to write.

GENTEEL AMERICANS
 MIAMI TRIBUNE

American women have been much pruned abroad. American men have been so much criticized as crude, dull and stodgy that it is a rare pleasure to quote an English woman novelist as to our masculine excellence in the finer amenities of life, particularly in gallantry to ladies. Speaking of the characteristic "American gentleman," Ethel Mannin writes in her latest novel:

"He returns you to your hotel after luncheon and in less than five minutes you have thanked him about a yard of ribbon to go with it."

"He returns you to your hotel after luncheon and in less than five minutes you have thanked him at the foot of the bed, the bell-

COB PIPES AND ZITHERS
 TAMPA TIMES

Washington, Mo., enjoys two distinctions. It has the oldest corn-cob pipe manufactory in the country and, also, the lone zither factory in the United States. Skillful workmen produce the instruments by hand and they are supplied to zither players all over the world.

At first glance this looks to be an incongruous combination of corn-cob pipes and zithers. Not so. It is a very natural one. There is nothing more calculated to put one into humor for thoroughly enjoying the haunting melody of the zither than is an intimate session with a good corn-cob pipe which has been filled with well-selected tobacco. Under such circumstances one might easily imagine that the strains of the zither were echoes from the choir invisible.

The sweet qualities of the zither have made it popular with music lovers all over the world. The late President Harding was fond of the zither. He enjoyed his pipe too, if we mistake not. His close personal friend, Admiral Hugh Rodman, often entertained him with the sweet tones of the instrument. Theodore Thomas always carried a zither with him on his concert tours. Personally, we like the zithers because it is the only one of the instruments out of which we have ever been able to remotely resemble a tune.

We are glad it's zithers they make at Washington, Mo., along with corn-cob pipes, instead of saxophones. One can enjoy a corn-cob pipe to the soundings of a saxophone almost as much as a motorist driving along nicely enough and in a hurry enjoys the clatter that tells him that a bear-phone reminds us of a Pittsburgh stogie.

Colts Again Defeat Sanford To Increase Hold On First Place

Tranchard Hurls Good Ball And Helps To Win His Own Game With Double In 2nd Celerymen Score Three In First
Withrow Takes Place Of Cantwell After 5 Runs Are Scored

ORLANDO, Aug. 26. (AP)—Orlando climbed another notch in the race for the second half hunting yesterday when the Colts defeated the Sanford Celery-Feds for the third time in as many days by the score of 7 to 4, making a clean sweep of the series, and establishing a lead of a game and a half over the Celery-Feds, while showing the former leaders into third place.

Tranchard was on the hill for the Celery-Feds, and besides pitching a steady game came through with a two-run walkup in the second inning that scored three runners and eventually won the ball game. His blow proved the downfall of Cantwell, who opened the game for Sanford, as he was derailed in favor of Withrow. The latter pitched creditable ball for the remainder of the game.

Cantwell does not seem to have recovered from his recent case of sprain, totally lacking the effectiveness that has made him a leading pitcher in the league all year. His three walks in the second and fifth all ended in scores and the Colt outemen garnered their hits off him at highly opportune moments.

The Celery-Feds opened the game by scoring three runs in the first. Beasley started the fireworks by shooting a placement to center, Frisbie and Dumas then swung for home, and the Celery-Feds scored Beasley and Frisbie a single to left. Dumas was out at third. Crowe stole second, and scored on Vinn's wild throw on Dumas's grounder.

Orlando took the lead in the second when Cantwell developed a break of wiliness, walking Pettie Wells, who were sacrificed a base by Abrams, and scored on Johnson's one-timer into center. Johnson was walked and Tranchard cleaned the bases with a double to left center. Withrow relieved Cantwell and Vinn scored Tranchard with a drive to center.

A hit batsman, a single and a walk by Beasley permitted Orlando to add a couple more in the sixth.

Three singled and a sacrifice gave Sanford its final tally of the game in the ninth.

Lacoste and Cochet Favorites To Beat Japanese Net Stars
NEW YORK, Aug. 26. (AP)—The news of the French tennis, René Lacoste and Henri Cochet, were prime favorites to overcome Japan in the opening of the inter-zone series of the Davis Cup matches at the West Side tennis club today.

The team victorious in the four singles and two doubles contests will face the American defenders of the historic trophy at Philadelphia, Sept. 3, 10 and 11.

Cochet was matched against Taming Tani for a first of the singles matches at 2:30 p. m., with Lacoste and Takekichi Harada following them on the courts.

The doubles teams, which meet Friday, have not yet been chosen. On Saturday the singles schedule of today is reversed.

Cardinals Again On Top In The National League; Carey Helps Defeat Bucs

(By Associated Press)
Today found the St. Louis Cardinals again heading the list by half-point over Pittsburgh in the National League. St. Louis beat the Braves, 4 to 3, yesterday in 11 innings.

Brooklyn smote Pittsburgh yesterday, 2 to 1, while the New York Giants defeated Cincinnati, 2 to 1.

If there is any in the National League, it can be laid mostly to the door of Max Carey, exiled captain of the Pirates, whose fleet legs brought victory to Brooklyn. He beat out an infield hit with the bases full that gave Brooklyn the deciding run.

All the Cincinnati Reds gained from the juggling act was united possession of third place. With Hugh McQuillan pitching temporarily, Carl Mays was forced to take his first defeat in his last 15 starts.

The Chicago Cubs took another notch at the Phillies, making their third straight conquest of the series. A brace of errors behind Carlson had much to do with the 3 to 2 Chicago victory.

Ron Sosonoff the American League, but not until George Ude of the Cleveland Indians had plastered the Yankees with a 6 to 0 out of whack game. The game marked Ude's 21st win of the season and his fifth in a row over the league leaders. The second game of a double-header was rained out.

The Detroit Tigers ran wild around Fenway Park as eight Boston pitchers proved all alike. The team took a double header, 11 to 1 and 7 to 6, and made 30 hits.
