Bloomington, Indiana Called Television City

NEW YORK (AP)—For some time now, the ABC network, an estimated audience of three million. If any single person is responsible for this state of affairs it is Sarks Tarzan, a manufacturer of TV equipment and the owner and operator of station WTTV. When he came to New York the other day he proved to be a pleasant, modest gentleman who almost reluctantly told his saga of success.

A native of Kharput in Turkish Armenia, Tarzan migrated to Philadelphia at an early age, earned a Phi Beta Kappa key at the University of Pennsylvania and became a radio manufacturing engineer. His innovations included the first all-metal radio cabinet and a single-dial radio tuner.

While working for various companies, Tarzan always had a hankering to be his own boss. In Bloomington in 1944, where he was then employed, his wife persuaded him to invest their $40,000 savings in their own future. After taking a hard look at the primitive TV sets, he saw that nobody was specializing in staking tuning devices. So he set up shop in an old bookbindery, devised a tuner, and began turning them out. It was the beginning of another of those familiar American success stories.

But manufacturing couldn't satisfy Tarzan completely. He started a TV station in 1949 — when there were only 200 sets in Bloomington. Utter folly, many people said.

"But I didn't agree," says Tarzan. "I bought dozens of sets and put them in local markets, banks, restaurants—anywhere a sizable audience could be found. I made a point of giving the town a stake in the station. Every local event of any significance, every charity and cause was provided with air time. Local drama and art groups were brought before the cameras. The activities of the high school and university were taken in."

From an initial two hours of programming daily, WTTV has expanded to dawn to midnight programming, still bringing viewers a variety of local programs as well as the big network offerings.

Today Tarzan's asserted enterprises gross an astonishing 30 million dollars a year. But he does not emphasize commercial success. He emphasizes this philosophy of running his TV station:

"But I didn't agree," says Tarzan. "I bought dozens of sets and put them in local markets, banks, restaurants—anywhere a sizable audience could be found. I made a point of giving the town a stake in the station. Every local event of any significance, every charity and cause was provided with air time. Local drama and art groups were brought before the cameras. The activities of the high school and university were taken in."

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A PRO WRESTLER with an enormous appetite ordered a steak at a side-street chow joint. The counterman brought him the usual scanty portion. The husky grappler picked up the paper-thin steak, examined it briefly, and said, "Yeah, that's the kind I want. Now bring me some!"

Sir Thomas Beecham was rehearsing a new violin concerto with his London orchestra. The first run-through was extremely ragged, and when the second also reflected delectable timing, Sir Thomas suggested to the soloist in a very loud stage whisper, "Don't look now, Jascha, but I could swear we're being followed!"

The judge fastened a beady eye on the defendant and thundered, "Well, why did you take the $100,000?" "Your Honor," whined the culprit, "I was hungry."

Martin, Lewis Ride In As 'Pardners' At Ritz Sunday

Beginning Sunday, audiences at the Ritz Theatre will be treated to the daffiest of Westerns when Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis ride in as "Pardners." The lavish Technicolor production, Dean and Jerry's first foray into the woolly West stacks up as the wildest sagebrush saga ever put on film and a merry song-and-dance filled package of all-around entertainment.

Filed in Vista Vision against the breathtaking background of Arizona's Superstition Mountain, the Paramount picture's cast includes a talented group of veterans and new faces. Co-starring are lovely Lori Nelson, Jeff Morrow and recent Miss USA title holder Jackie Loughery. John Baragrey, Agnes Moorehead and Lon Chaney head the large supporting cast.

"Pardners" takes place around the turn of the century, with Dean and Jerry each playing dual roles. They are seen first as rugged cattlemen who meet a glorious end fighting off raiders. Their wives rescue their infant sons and bring them up separately, Dean Jr., on the ranch and Jerry Jr. on Park Avenue. Dean grows up a stalwart cowpoke and Jerry a socialite who yearns to be the man his father was.

There's music by the wagonful in "Pardners." Sammy Cahn and James Van Heusen, composers of "Love and Marriage," have penned a ballad and a rondo song for Dean, a lively novelty song for the team, and a catchy square dance tune, choreographed by Nick Castle.

Merchants Should Promote Program To Increase Trade In Sanford Stores

Probably the most talked about subject between merchants and businessmen of Sanford is the latest release published by the Southeastern Research Corporation "Southeastern Reports".

Most businessmen have had an opportunity to read and digest the report on retail trade in Florida cities and the shift that has taken place during the years 1948-1954.

Noticeable was the location of Sanford in the Region IV report on retail trade increases during the reported period.

Based on the United States Census of Business the City of Sanford with its 231 stores in 1954 was at the bottom of the graph of 16 cities with only an 18.5 per cent increase in retail sales.

According to the report, total sales in Sanford came to $18,693,000 with a sales per store average of only $80,922, a mere 15 per cent increase for the period.

Appalling, according to many remarks, was the slow progress in advancing sales.

Why? What caused the barometer of business here to be so low? Where have we failed? What can we do about it? When must it be done? Who is responsible? These are just a few of the questions that are being asked in the haste to determine what should be done—and when.

We are, in no way, criticizing anyone for what they have done or not done—for their efforts or lack of efforts. What we pass along to you in this column comes from pure fact.

Sanford has, for a long time, lacked the concerted effort of its merchants as an organized group to promote Sanford, shopping in Sanford, and promoting its own facilities for purchasing.

Well do we know that Sanford merchants have on their shelves many items that are collecting dust because their neighbors do not know they are there at prices comparable with stores of any city in Florida.

Again we know that the merchants of neighboring cities are advertising "open on Wednesday afternoon for your shopping convenience" and promoting their city every day of the week as a center in which shopping MUST BE DONE. In addition, neighboring merchants are shouting the convenience of "open Monday evening" for your shopping. Free parking space available—is being shouted innumerable times over and over—and Sanford has FREE parking space as near or even nearer its stores.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Behold the Lord thy God has set the land before thee; go up and possess it.—Deut. 1:2

Very few of us realize the full exploitation of our possibilities. God has had to use many humble men because gifted men did not use their gifts.

Compare the advertising of any city whose retail increases topped that of Sanford and you will find another answer to the situation. There is no getting around it—merchants who are increasing their retail trade are the merchants who are promoting their businesses day after day—and they will tell you that "a dollar invested is a dollar made."

Let's look at the nearby city of Winter Park. There are 178 stores in Winter Park, 53 less than Sanford. Yet their sales in 1954 came to the whopping total of $17,528,000 or a sales per store average of $98,472—$17,550 more per store in the same year. Yet the retail trade increase there came to 160 per cent—while Sanford's retail trade increase was only 18.5 per cent.

It is time that the Sanford merchants get their act together, with stronger cooperation and begin a promotion program second to none in Florida.

What will be the advantage? Just glance back at the story told in the figures presented in the Southeastern Reports on Winter Park—or any one of the other cities in the Region IV group.

It can be done in Sanford just as it has been done in other cities of comparable size.

Every merchant in Sanford should be affiliated with the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce—they should also be an active member in the Sanford Merchants Association. And mind you, we said an ACTIVE member. That includes insurance agents, retail stores of every kind, every outlet that has SOMETHING TO SELL!

Two or three, even a half dozen or dozen merchants cannot carry the burden of promoting their city among the citizens in the community who do the shopping. It isn't fair to let one or two carry the big load and then turn around and complain that "business is bad."

Business isn't bad—it's better than it ever has been. Bank balances are higher—in 1948 there was $9,511,173.88 on deposit in Sanford Banks and Savings Institutions. As of June 30th, there was $23,894,230.25. This is over 150% increase. Money is available—people are working. Never before has Sanford felt such a tremendous influx in employment. WHERE IS THE MONEY GOING?

Neighbors are actually forsaking one another and trading with strangers because there has not been a stimulus of "trade amongst ourselves" created.

For example—a Sanford merchant was talking to a merchant in a neighboring community—they both sold the same item, a nationally advertised one. The merchant in the neighboring community had sold 92 of these items to Sanford people—yet the Sanford merchants price was FOUR DOLLARS LOWER and he had sold only 19 of them to Sanford people.

There's the trouble! Neighbors did not know that the Sanford merchants sold them!

Another incident: a Sanford housewife, talking to neighbors, found that the two ladies were going to another town to buy furniture. Only through the efforts of the lady who trades "only at home" did they look at merchandise shown in the hometown stores—and buy!

When should we start? RIGHT NOW—Tomorrow the balance of the customers may be gone!

Let's get together—work together—promote together to increase the trade in Sanford stores NOW!

AN EDITORIAL

Good Sales Force Attracts Industry

Everybody wants industry. Almost every hamlet, town, and city is currently competing with every other community in the United States for the comparatively few choice prospects that are quietly looking around for what they think is the best location for their new manufacturing or processing plant. Because of this newly awakened desire for industrial development, it has become the most highly competitive field in the country.

It is no longer possible for a community to just decide it wants industry and then select a few suitable mediums to advertise the fact. Larger companies have developed their own specialized site location divisions, or employ one of the companies who specialize in locating sites for industries. They use highly scientific formulas for selecting a certain section of the country and then quietly investigating the most promising localities to determine the final site. They no longer contact the Chamber of Commerce or other local industrial promotion organizations to assist them in determining whether or not a certain community is suitable as a site for their plant. In most instances, if the location experts even suspect that anyone locally knew of their interest in the particular community, they would immediately cross it off their list. This is a fact well known to many industrial committees, who have experienced the disappointment of having the prospective "locator" quietly move out of town after they had contacted him and offered to assist him with his survey of the community.

After the exact location has been determined, only then does the prospective manufacturer ask the assistance of the local group in setting the stage for becoming established in the community. The local Chamber has attempted to bring the Sanford area to the attention of the larger location service.

By furnishing them with copies of an industrial prospectus designed to acquaint them with the facts concerning the area. It is known that in the past several months a number of desirable prospects have been investigating this and surrounding areas. One recently moved on further South when a neighboring group became overly inquisitive concerning their investigations and property values increased as a result of the developing local interest.

The smaller industries that are somewhat more approachable than their big brothers, are easier to make contact with. However, because of this fact they are showered with attractive offers from industrial development groups from all over the country and especially the Southeast. Approximately 1,200 of these development groups have now established Development Corporations that obtain sites and assist with the financing problems that most medium size companies face in trying to expand and at the same time maintain a good credit standing and sufficient capital to support the planned increase in their operation.

Because of the competition for these industries inducements of various kinds are offered by nearly all of these Development Corporations. Leonard Vaseen, the "Dean of the Industrial Location experts," describes this type of community industrial merchandising as follows: in his "Plant Location Manual" . . . "The most common 'bait' is some kind of financial inducement. This takes several forms, among which the following are most prevalent: (1) The provision of suitable sites at low cost or no cost at all. (2) Provision of utility extensions and access roads and rail sidings to a selected site at no cost to the industry. (3) Provision of a building at low rental, with or without option to purchase. (4) Provision of a manufacturer's needed equipment on a rental basis.

Singer Dreams In Technicolor

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Jaye P. Morgan, who looks like a vanilla ice cream cone with green eyes, has an odd habit. She often dreams in Technicolor.

"I dream all night long," said Miss Morgan, who in little more than a year has bounced to a top spot among the nation's lady song belters.

"About 20 per cent of my dreams—I call them my $5 specials—are in Technicolor. Those in black and white are just marked down 99-cent dreams."

Jaye, one of seven children of a vaudeville performer, was born in a log cabin in Colorado to which her parents had been temporarily forced to retire during the last depression.

She was named Mary, picked up the nickname—"Jaye P."—after she was elected class treasurer in high school.

Jaye started her stage career at 3, singing, "When They Cut the Old Pine Tree Down," and left its echoes in practically every small vaudeville theater west of Chicago.

Last year she sold two million records, earned some $250,000. This summer she filled in Eddie Fisher's NBC network spot in an act with four of her brothers—Charles, Bob, Duke and Dick.

Jaye has done so well that the network is reported trying to find a permanent spot for her this fall. She hopes so. After two decades of itinerant show world life, she'd like a permanent place to hang her nylons.

"My husband and I just finished decorating an apartment," she said. "It's the first real home we've had, one with our own furniture. It's a wonderful feeling to look around an apartment and know everything in it is something you picked out yourself and belongs to you."

But about those dreams. "I don't like to be alone at night," said Jaye. "When I'm alone I sleep with a light on. I'm terrified of the dark, when I'm by myself."

"I sleep nine hours or more at a time, and I dream all the time. I don't know why I sometimes dream in Technicolor. The only other person I know of who does is Lena Horne.

"When my dreams are in color, they are usually vivid reds, blues and purples.

"It's a funny thing about my dreams. I usually can control the dream. If I wake up from a bad dream, I can go back to sleep and change the dream to a happy ending."

"My dreams are pretty active. Sometimes I wake up worn out from them."

"You'd think a girl in her income bracket would dream mostly of the tax collector, but he only haunts Jaye when she's awake.

"I often dream of speeding downhill in a car with no brakes," she said. "I can even feel the wind whistling past."

"Often I also dream of jumping into soapy water. The water is always soapy. Don't ask me why."

"I can only play chords on the piano, but sometimes I dream I am playing the piano beautifully."

"Sometimes I have science fiction dreams of the Martians invading the earth, and in one of my favorite Technicolor dreams I walk up a long marble staircase into a lovely bedroom with ceilings a mile high. Maybe that's because I've had to sleep in so many small hotel rooms on tour."

In another of her recurrent dreams—this one is more of a nightmare—Jaye is singing in an old-fashioned costume. Then suddenly the fastener in her lacy-trimmed bloomers breaks and—Jaye wakes up suddenly.

"I've always wanted to know what my dreams meant, but I'm afraid to go to a psychiatrist for fear I'd find out too much about myself," said Jaye, smiling.

"I feel normal, and I want to stay that way."

Another Convair 440 Executive Flight In Service

Another Convair 440 Executive flight, the second to be scheduled by National Airlines between Miami and Havana, is now in service according to Charles F. Sharp, Assistant Vice President—Southern Region. The flight leaves Miami at 10:30 a.m. daily.

Equipped with airborne radar, the Executive makes smooth short flights possible, as well as offering the convenience of flying in one of the quietest of all aircraft cabins, Sharp said.

The addition of this flight will offer local travelers a choice of five National flights to Havana and will round out NAL's departure times by offering two early morning flights, a mid-morning trip, and afternoon and evening flights, Sharp pointed out.

An all new air conditioning system which operates on the ground as well as in the air also makes it possible for passengers to enjoy cigar and pipe smoking enroute.

Is Hen-Pecked Husband Leaving Marital Scene Or Is He Hiding?

Is the hen-pecked husband disappearing from the marital scene? Or has the concept of marriage as a "partnership deal" outmoded the stereotyped married husband? The following story by Wayne Cranford, which first appeared in the Little Rock, Ark., Democrat, discusses the new theory of marriage with companionship as the cornerstone.

By WAYNE CRANFORD
What's happening to the old American institution of being hen-pecked?

According to a Little Rock, Ark., marriage counselor, it's definitely on its way out.

And as to the question of who wears the pants in the homes of most young couples today—the husband or the wife—the answer's easy. They both wear them.

In fact, the entire basic concept of marriage is changing, says Dr. Iva C. Gardner, well-known in Arkansas as one of those persons who can and will tell you what's wrong with your marriage.

The new idea is companionship as a basis for the merger. In other words, a man no longer has to get married in order to have someone to sew on buttons and darn his socks. Any laundry will do that for him.

And neither does the modern young woman feel compelled to catch a man so she won't starve to death. If all she wants is a decent living, chances are she can provide it for herself, whereas a decade ago she was hampered by the taboos of the social and business worlds that kept women from having careers of their own.

Since the unmarried woman can make her own living now, and her male counterpart can get his socks darned without benefit of a marriage license, we've reached the state of affairs, where neither sex has to depend on the other.

Dr. Gardner gives credit for the new era in marital relations to the fact that the roles of male and female are not so clearly defined today as they were formerly. For example, drive down the street in any town; chances are, you'll see a woman mowing the lawn. How many women did you see cutting grass at the turn of the century?

Accustomed to E. F. Remember when a man wouldn't think of helping out in the kitchen? Plenty of modern young husbands think nothing of doing the dishes, whipping up a special dish in the kitchen, or even changing the baby's diaper.

They're not ashamed of what they do to help out in the home, either. Dr. Gardner contends that as recently as 15 years ago, one of her male students would have blushed just at the mention of diapering the baby. Now she says, a young father wouldn't hesitate a minute to tell you about it.

Freshmen Exams Will Be Held Wednesday, Sept. 5

Entrance examination for Freshmen will be held Wednesday, Sept. 5, 1956, at Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College, St. Augustine, according to an announcement made from the office of president R. W. Puryear.

Dr. Puryear reports that present application requests far exceed a record registration at the college.

Beulah Burn comes to the southern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Ryan and Miss Helen Snodgrass are spending several days at New Smyrna Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tyler and daughter Linda are spending several days at St. Augustine Beach this week.

Unique Experience Awaits Amateur Musicians At Meet

BENNINGTON, Vt.—A unique experience awaits amateur musicians who attend the annual session of the Chamber Music Center which will be held in connection with the Bennington Composers' Conference.

Both sessions open here Aug. 12, and run through Aug. 26. The eleventh annual session of the combined Composers' Conference and Chamber Music Center will again be under the direction of Dr. Alan Carter.

The Chamber Music Center offers the amateur musician an informal two weeks vacation of music-making in Vermont. There will be amateurs in all stages of ability and all will have the benefit of guidance by experts in the chamber music field.

Mornings are spent in sessions for string quartets, piano quartets, trios and the like. The forenoon is spent in playing in the Center Chamber Orchestra in which the amateurs are joined by professional staff members.

Here the amateur has a chance to perform familiar as well as unusual works, many of the numbers composed by individuals attending the companion Composers' Conference. After lunch, more time is allotted for chamber playing giving the musician a chance for further work on material performed in the morning session.

A recreation period in the late afternoon allows a chance for swimming, boating, tennis, walking, or just plain relaxing before dinner. Evenings are given over to concerts, informal music-making and discussion periods with other amateurs, staff members or with some of the resident composers.

Members attending the Chamber Music Center for amateurs and those at the Composers' Conference live in the same beautiful buildings on the campus of Bennington College. Both groups use the same dining facilities thus allowing the amateur musicians plenty of time for informal chats with some of the composers.

Staff members available to assist the attending amateur musicians include Robert Bloom, oboist; Max Pollock, violinist; George Grossman, viola, and Carl Stern, cellist. In addition, some of the composers from the companion Composers' Conference drop in for informal discussion periods.

Good gift for traveler: a rust-resistant knife, fork, teaspoon and tablespoon all tucked into a neat case.

Methodist Church, Orlando, Is Scene For Wedding Of Couple

BY MRS. RUTH LAYO LONGWOOD—In a lovely ceremony at the Concord Park Methodist Church, Orlando, last Saturday afternoon Dolores Mae Bennett became the bride of Robert Edward French.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bennett, Orlando, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest French, Longwood.

The Rev. Frank Robinson Jr. officiated at the four p. m. ceremony.

The bride was dressed in silk organdy and lace in white, made in princess style and ballerina length. The bodice was made with square neckline and short sleeves. Her coronet was of seed pearls and sequins, with a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Thomas French was matron of honor and Louise Bennett and Susan French were junior bridesmaids. They wore dresses similar to the brides.

Thomas French was best man for his brother and Charles Shaw and Billy Joe Young served as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. French will be at home in Miami after Aug. 26.

All-Star Football Game Is Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—The College All-Stars, cautious and wary, and Cleveland's revenge-minded Browns clash tonight in the 23rd annual All-Star football classic at Soldier Field.

The National Football League champions have been quoted up to 12-point favorites.

The All-Stars turned back the Browns 26-17 last year. For this reason, the Browns figure to be tougher than usual. Coach Paul Brown reportedly has his team in midseason form so that he can avert the humiliation of a second straight loss.

While the Cleveland camp makes no bones about being ready, such is not the case with the All-Stars.

Coach Curly Lambeau and his staff have been evasive about their chances, claiming they need more time, more practice and a "lot of luck."

Lambeau could be playing possum. He made similar remarks before last year's upset.

One thing is in favor of the All-Stars and that's the fact that quarterback Otto Graham will not be playing. Graham "retired" before last year's classic and after losing to the Stars and going through a mediocre exhibition season, Brown lured Graham out of retirement.

Otto plucked the Browns to the title and if Cleveland must have Graham to field a champion, the All-Stars have a chance of pulling an upset.

Graham's chores will be handled by George Ratterman, no world beater last year, and Vic Parrilli.

The All-Star starting backfield will have All America Earl Morrall of Michigan State at quarterback, All America Howard Casady of Ohio State at left half, Southern Methodist's Don McHenry at the other half and Don Schaefer of Notre Dame at full.

ENGINEERS TO SURVEY AREA TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Engineers of the Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Engine Co. have been given permission to make test borings and surveys on a Palm Beach County site made available by the Legislature for a proposed 40 million dollar jet engine plant.

The plant will be built on a former game management area near West Palm Beach if studies show the site to be satisfactory.

The company will pay an annual $10,000 rental for the site if it decides to build there.

TAMPA SEEKING NEW FAIRGROUND

TAMPA (AP)—The 1957 Legislature will be asked to appropriate at least two million dollars to help build a new fairground here for the Florida State Fair Assn.

The association president, Carl Brorein Sr., made the statement yesterday after the University of Tampa disclosed its long range plans included use of part of the present adjacent fairgrounds site.

Brorein said the fair association plans to move to a more outlying section.

Cadillac

Feels Even Better than He Looks!

Ever notice how a man looks when he takes the wheel of his new Cadillac and heads for his favorite highway?

Take a good look the next time you have a chance—and we think you'll see a happy man!

There's just no mistaking the pride and satisfaction that show in his face... or the happiness and contentment that reside in his heart.

And, as any experienced Cadillac owner can testify, he feels every bit as wonderful as he looks! For a journey in the "car of cars" is both a marvelous tonic for the spirit... and a wonderful opportunity for physical rest and relaxation.

It starts the instant he slips into the driver's seat and rests his hands on the wheel. Those deep, soft cushions hold him in perfect comfort... and he is surrounded by beauty and luxury.

Even before he sets the car in motion, some of his care and worry seem to go out of his day.

And then comes the miracle of Cadillac performance. It's an inspiration just to sit at the wheel... to look out over that graceful hood... and to watch the miles flow gracefully by.

And how easy it all is. Just a gesture of his hand on the steering wheel and the car follows effortlessly and obediently. Just a touch of his toe to the accelerator and the car answers instantly to the command. Just a nudge of his foot on the braking pedal and the car comes to a smooth, safe, silent stop.

Sound wonderful? Well, we sincerely urge you to come in at your first convenience—spend an hour at the wheel—and see for yourself.

We'll be happy to give you the keys... and the car... and some wonderful news about the cost and delivery advantages that you will enjoy if you make your decision for Cadillac today.

Why not stop in and see us soon!

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERT
A CONNECTICUT REPORTER, a bit too whimsical to be believed without question, reports that a wealthy squire of Litchfield abandoned his Cadillac in favor of a little German job. The reason: he dearly loves a cup of hot tea every now and so often. He's discovered that the tiny Teuton car carries a 3-quart aluminum tank which you attach to the exhaust fan, fill with water and heat to a boil. Add a tea bag in a cup, and presto! you're ready for refreshment in a jiffy anywhere along the road.

A fly, developed in the ointment—or tea, however. A cop watched with unforgotten horror while the motorist drew off a pan of hot water one day, and concluded he was drinking a gasoline! "One of those foreign nuts," decided the cop, and hauled the poor tea-drinker off to face a judge.

Britain Goes Ahead With Canal Conference Plans Minus Egypt

LONDON (U. P.)—Britain today went ahead with plans for a Suez Canal conference without Egypt and admitted more troops to the Mediterranean.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser yesterday rejected the British invitation to the meeting opening here Thursday and proposed instead a broader parity of 45 maritime powers using the Suez to reaffirm freedom of shipping through the canal.

Western diplomats acknowledged the Egyptian strongman's bid would complicate the deliberations of the 22 nations scheduled to meet in London. They said it might force the Western big three to modify their demands for international management of the canal.

These sources thought Nasser's proposal—seemingly to concede the need for an international guarantee that the canal would remain open—appeared to reduce the possibility of Western military action to settle the crisis created by Egypt's nationalization of the waterway.

Prime Minister Eden and his closest aides studied the Egyptian counterplan closely. The first official reaction was that the London conference will be held as planned without Egypt and Greece, the only two countries of the 24 invited to decline to attend.

In Paris, the French Foreign Ministry also made it plain that plans were going ahead for Thursday's conference.

A giant British airlift of troops—put off twice last week—began carrying troops to the Middle East from the south of England. It is believed most were bound for Malta and Cyprus.

Four big troopships, packed with guns, tanks and men, already were en route to the troubled area.

Nasser announced Egypt's rejection of the London invitation in a page statement read from the speaker's rostrum in the Egyptian Parliament to 300 newsmen from all over the world.

He denied that Egypt's seizure of the Suez canal, operators of the canal for nearly a century impeded free navigation through the waterway.

"Egypt always has owned the canal," he said. "It is part of our territory. We nationalized the canal company which is an Egyptian company under Egyptian law."

Asked whether he would agree to a United Nations guarantee of freedom of navigation of the canal, he said: "The most effective and important guarantee is that given by the government and the Egyptian people."

Climber Threatens To Jump From 200 Foot Radio Tower

KEY WEST (U. P.)—A man climbed 200 feet up a Key West Naval Station radio tower yesterday and threatened to jump but was talked down by loudspeaker and telephone six hours later.

The climber identified himself as Armando Pulido. No charges were placed pending examination.

14. Cmdr. Phillip C. Du Bois, of the deck, started up the 200-foot tower after spying the man perched on a catwalk at the 200-foot level. Du Bois said the tower climber threatened to jump so the officer descended and sought help in persuading him to come down.

Water Supply Given Boost With Newly Equipped Well

CASSELLBERRY—Water supply in the Seminole Park Raceway area has been given a boost, both in volume and pressure, according to superintendent Paul Bates, in commenting on the newly equipped well placed in operation this week.

Bates said the well had been held for emergency use, but increased demand for water made it necessary to cut the well complete with storage tank and chlorinator, into the system.

The town recently took over the Casseberrys Utilities Company by a transaction which involved no cost or financial obligation to the citizens. Hibbard Casseberry, president of the company, made the offer and financial arrangements involving revenue certificates and bond validation, were handled by Leedy, Wheeler and Alteman of Orlando. It is expected that all arrangements will be complete within the next 60 days.

3 Autos Involved In Wreck

Sunday at 12:18 p. m. three automobiles were involved in a wreck on S. Sanford Ave on the corner by the stoplight.

Involved was a 1935 Chevrolet driven by Constance D. Young, 23, of 204 Laurel Ave., a 1934 Ford sedan driven by Albert Thomas Baker age 18, from VAH's NAS; and a 1933 Ford Sunliner convertible driven by Calvin David Carter, 37, of 300 Edinburgh Ave., Winter Park.

It was reported that all of the vehicles were going north on S. Sanford Ave., with the Chevrolet in front of the Ford sedan and the Ford convertible following. The Chevrolet stopped with the proper signal in order to make a right turn and the Ford sedan did not see the signal until too late. It stopped suddenly and the Ford convertible, which was following too closely hit the sedan. The sedan was knocked forward and ran into the Chevrolet.

Injured was Calvin D. Carter Jr., age five, with abrasions inside the mouth.

Albert Baker was charged with failure to keep proper lookout and Calvin Carter was charged with following too closely. Patrolman E. E. Rock was investigating officers from the Sanford Police Department.

Educational Aids For Sightless Told By Lions Speaker

CASSELLBERRY—William A. Letson, 20-year-old resident and almost totally blind since birth, gave a talk Thursday night before the Lions Club on the educational advantages provided for the sightless.

Letson, a graduate of the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind at St. Augustine, expects to enter Florida State University this fall where he will become a physical education major. His ambition is to obtain a Ph.D. degree in that field.

As a token of appreciation for the assistance given blind persons by Lions Clubs, Letson presented a Braille copy of the July issue of Readers Digest to the club, first issue of a year's subscription he received. Subsequent copies will also be presented to the club, which he hopes can be passed on to some other sightless person.

Carl H. Seelye, formerly of Indianapolis, became a Cub Lion, and D. C. Broad of Sebring, was a guest of President Paul McClure.

BOMB EXPLOSION SEMINOLE YACHT

KYRENIA, Cyprus (U. P.)—A bomb explosion today sank a luxury yacht owned by Capt. Charles Worthington, wealthy chief of the British security detail assigned to protect Gov. Sir John Harding. Officials said there were no casualties.

The yacht, Field Fare, was moored at a jetty only a few yards from the Kyrenia Customs House, which was bombed last week by militant advocates of union of this British colony with Greece.

Woman Held At Jail For Fatal Stabbing

A 38-year-old Negro woman is being held in the Seminole County jail after stabbing to death Eddie Lee Worthington, a Negro man, it was reported.

Ide Mae Brown whose address was given as S. W. Road, 15th St., fatally stabbed Worthington in Willis Bailey's Beer Garden 10:35 Saturday night. The woman is reported to be blind. She was arrested by Deputy Sheriff W. L. Long and taken into custody.

Worthington was rushed to The Seminole Memorial Hospital but died early Sunday morning. The weapon used was a pocket knife. Saturday afternoon Deputy J. M. McClelland, Chief Deputy, Jimmy Singletary and Deputy Jack (Andy) Evans, armed with a search warrant, entered the home of Norman Jones, age 49 whose address is reported to be 1508 W. 15th Place.

The men found in Jones' possession cuba books, tickets and money bags containing $110.47. He was arrested and released on a cash bond of $300.

Also over the weekend the sheriff's office located Erie Poff who was said to have "jumped bond" in Johnson City, Tenn.

Poff was taken into custody July 2, and released later on a $5,000 bond. He was charged with "molesting a minor."

Rotary All-Stars Meet Princeton Twice Last Week

The Sanford Rotary "All-Stars" baseball team composed of 20 boys in the 13-15 age group took part last week in two ball games which they and their opponents, the Princeton Ball Club of Orlando, will long remember.

Last Tuesday afternoon on the grounds of the Princeton team, who, by the way, have suffered only three defeats in their last 14 games, the Sanford boys went down by a score of 5-0 when "Bute" Adams, outstanding Princeton pitcher hurled a one-hitter. Sanford pitcher, Ken McMurray, although charged with the loss, yielded only four hits.

In a return game played last Friday afternoon here, Sanford defeated the Princeton team, 2-0 with McMurray hurling a one hitter this time, and Adams giving up only two hits. Spectators are still talking about the key play of the game played here. In the top of the seventh inning, Sanford leading 2-0 and with two out, an error and base walks loaded the bases for Princeton. A heads-up play by catcher Doyle Corley who, seeing the runner on first taking a long lead, called for a pitch-out, threw to first with no play being made at that bag, resulting, however, in an easy out being completed on the runner on third, trying to score.

Ike Urges 'Hard, Devoted Work' From Republicans

SAN FRANCISCO (U. P.)—Republicans arriving early to prepare for their national convention were greeted by a call for "hard, devoted work" from President Eisenhower.

The President's message, contained in the 100-page convention program, declared the work was promised "to help make the bright promise of the party's future more than equal to the record of the past."

He added "I know our united efforts will be rewarded with success."

The convention opens next Monday.

Addressed to "Republicans everywhere" the message said they were embarking "on a new century of political action" and called for "complete dedication to our country and a determination that the Republican party will constantly grow, in effectiveness as a political instrument to serve the country."

Republicans are celebrating the 100th anniversary of the party's formation.

Methodists State Meetings Tonight

The commission on finance of the First Methodist Church will meet in McKinley Hall tonight at 7 o'clock.

Smathers Predicts Demo Victory

CHICAGO (U. P.)—Sen. George Smathers of Florida told the Democratic National Convention today that "we have some difficult fights ahead" in the nation to retain control of Congress.

Nonetheless, he predicted "a stunning Democratic victory in November from the presidency on down."

Smathers is chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee—the group that helps Democratic candidates for the Senate with money, strategy advice and the like.

In a speech prepared for the opening session of the convention, he said, "We cannot match the liberalized Social Security program. . . adding: "For working men and women, we increased the minimum wage. For the farmer, we forced through an improved parity and soil bank program. We adopted protective measures for the small business man. We recaptured the highway program of a Red Street, and made of it a beneficial program for all. "We also adopted sensible measures for improving housing, health, education and retirement programs for our people. We evidenced a genuine concern for a sound fiscal policy, but we have also shown that we do not put money ahead of human lives.

Adlai, Truman Meet

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (U. P.)—The Democratic swing into the formalities of opening their national convention today. A tory of "favorite sons" still held tight to the key votes ardently desired by Adlai Stevenson and Averell Harriman, Harriman, top bidder for the presidential nomination.

By all the signs, the favorite sons were of a mind to keep the conclave's big prize in doubt, if possible, right into Thursday's balloting.

As the opening day came, an Associated Press poll of delegates willing to state a public preference gave this picture:

Needed to nominate, 684's.

Stevenson, the 1952 nominee, well out in front with 538. His aides claimed he would have 600 to 630 on the first ballot.

Gov. Harriman of New York, 213. His camp claimed 400.

Scattered among favorite sons, 271's.

Still uncommitted, 243's.

The Democratic legions began whooping into this big amphitheater in the stockyards area long before the noon hour set for party Chairman Paul Butler to bang his gavel and declare the 22nd nominating meeting underway.

For many, it had been a wrangling, struggling weekend. The pulling and hauling was touched off by former President Harry S. Truman's plump for Harriman Saturday when Stevenson seemed to have the nomination within his grasp.

And there seemed to be a disposition among many of the delegates to seek to soothe ruffled tempers and remind one another that after all the real enemy was the Republicans.

There were optimistic predictions also that a fight over a civil rights plank in the platform will be avoided.

Mrs. Thelma P. Sharp of New Jersey, co-chairman of the platform committee, said a plank "acceptable to the South" has been prepared, and that a tentative draft of the full platform would be completed tomorrow.

She told a reporter "everyone on the subcommittee which drew the civil rights plank has been fair and open-minded and the plank will be acceptable to the South."

Mrs. Sharp gave no details. She said it is not likely that we will have a minority report or that the plank will cause a floor fight."

Convention action on the platform is tabbed for Wednesday night.

Truman and Stevenson met for the first time since the former president's pronouncement of his sentiments as to a nominee, and had only smiles and a brief greeting for each other. The meeting was at a breakfast given by Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

Special Masters Will Hear Suits From Ship Disaster

NEW CITY, N. Y. (U. P.)—Federal Judge Lawrence E. Walsh has selected four prominent lawyers to act as special masters in suits stemming from the Andrea Doria-Stockholm disaster.

The masters will have full power to hear pretrial testimony and pass on motions. They will not make judgments.

Walsh said the masters were picked to expedite proceedings. The move will also save court fees for the litigants because the masters have agreed to serve without pay.

Most of the suits have resulted from injuries and loss of life and cargo in the July 25 collision off Nantucket Island, Mass. The crash sent the Doria to the bottom and seriously damaged the Stockholm.

Weimers To Attend Precancel Stamp 3-Day Convention

CASSELLBERRY—Joseph H. Weimer, 230 Sunnytown Rd., and Mrs. Weimer will leave Saturday to attend the three-day national convention of the Precancel Stamp Association which opens Aug. 16, at Battle Creek, Mich.

Weimer, a nationally known precancel dealer, said that national president Harrington Adams of Winter Park, will attend and preside over the convention.

SMALL THIEF—BIG HAUL

DECATUR, Ill. (U. P.)—Circumstances show that the thief who burglarized the South Side tavern was small-sized.

The entry was gained through a rear window which measured 13 by 15 inches. Owner Harry Schneider reported $300 was taken.

TYLER TAKES OVER

TYLER, Tex. (U. P.)—Tyler has taken over all of Dixie. That's Dixie, Tex., school consolidation of that school district with Tyler's district was voted recently.
