scrappy little line-man. Mal will be playing against the Hurricanes for the third time in his career. He took part in the 7 to 0 victory over Miami in 1932 and in the 18 to 0 defeat by Miami last season. He is pretty anxious to wipe out the sting of last year's defeat. And Malone is a mighty leader for the opportunity to score revenge.

This is Mal's last year as a Tar grider and he is going to be missed plenty next year. Short of stature and undersized as a line-man, the fans are apt to lose track of this Florida boy in a game. But he is in there in every play as all of his opponents can attest.

Malone has been troubled by a lame shoulder all season. It nearly broke his heart that he wasn't allowed, under doctor's orders, to play against the Florida Gators. He has never missed a practice session in four years. He is the first on the field, the last to leave, and when he isn't assigned to scrimmage work he is usually seen frothing around the field to keep in condition. Despite his weak shoulder, he is undoubtedly the best-conditioned man on the squad. The Tarcs could use a lot of Malones every year.

An interesting side-light, reported today, identifies W. H. Schmidt, local restaurant operator, as somewhat of a prognosticator. On Oct. 29, a week before the election, he telegraphed officials interested in the passage of the Homestead Extension Amendment that in his opinion "around 2000 votes will be cast in this county on Nov. 6, of which 1800 will be for the amendment and 500 against, as indications show three to one in favor of the amendment." How close Mr. Schmidt came to this prediction is revealed in the following compilation: number of persons voting, 2030; number voting for the amendment, 1508; number voting against it, 308.

First meeting of the new Supervisory and Advisory Board which will handle the affairs of the new State Farmers' Wholesale Market is scheduled to be held at the Court House tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock, with Harry M. Members of the Sanford Junior Chamber of Commerce today were in receipt of postal cards bearing the following message: "Regular meeting Thursday night, Nov. 8, at Valdez Hotel at 8:00 o'clock. It is very important that

So that they might raise funds to pay the salary of their pastor, Rev. E. C. Cowan, members of the Monroe Baptist Church now are staging a campaign in which they seek the co-operation of their friends. The funds are being raised by the sale of stamps bearing the inscription "Go To Church." The suggestion is that these stamps be placed on the back of both business and social letters as a seal. Funds so raised will go toward Rev. Cowan's salary as well as for the purchase of food and clothing for the destitute friends and families of the church. George M. Wagner, Jr., is chairman of the stamp sales committee.

Andrew M. Carraway, Sanford Country Club manager, is expecting all golf fans in the city to visit the course Saturday afternoon to witness a four-round featured by the play of Jimmy Nichols, pro who claims the one-armed golf championship of the world. Nichols will be teamed with Carraway against G. W. Spencer and Ralph Stewart. Nichols also will give a demonstration of trick and fancy shots at the end of the match, scheduled to start at 1:30 o'clock.

Plans were completed late today for the "State Association" night program which is to be staged at the Elm Club tomorrow night by members of Sanford Lodge No. 1241. Honor guest is Captain Hale of New Smyrna, president of the State Elks Association. Plans include an interesting business and social meeting, with refreshments to be served at the conclusion of all business. Howard Overlin, club secretary, anticipates a large attendance of out-of-town as well as Sanford members.

Future Farmers of America discussed future plans when they met at the High School Tuesday night with Alex R. Johnson, their advisor, as principal speaker. The String Band furnished music at the end of the meeting which was attended by: Bonner Carter, Clifford Gustavson, David Earle, Jerry Benarik, Talmadge Metts, Edwin Humphrey, William Barnett, John R. The further advancement of public health in Seminole County is being sought by County Public Health Nurse Frances MacDougal who returned this week from two important meetings in South Florida. Last Friday and Saturday she attended the Red Cross Teachers' Home Hygiene Institute in Ft. Pierce. The meeting was featured by talks by Mrs. Charlotte M. Hellman of Washington, in the world to win the coveted Florence Nightingale medal. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Miss MacDougal attended the State Nurses' meeting at Fort Myers. Her plan now is to organize a strong local advisory committee to which all county health nurses could report each month in their plan to make the county more public-health minded. Window displays showing the progress and plan of public-health work are now being considered as a plan of action in her campaign.

ONE KILLED IN EXPLOSION ON TANKER AT SEA

12 Sailors In Serious Condition As Result Of Fire Occurring 17 Miles From Mobile

MOBILE, Nov. 9.—(A.P.)—The tanker Caliche, outward bound from Mobile with a cargo of gasoline and oil, exploded in Mobile Bay, 17 miles below here shortly before noon today.

One member of the crew was reported killed and 12 injured, most of whom, in a serious condition, were brought to hospitals in Mobile.

The tanker was proceeding down the bay when an explosion occurred amidships, and the cargo caught fire. Seamen were thrown into the water, their clothing in flames.

Fishing boats nearby went to the aid of the seamen, rescuing 12 brought here, including Captain Fitzgerald, master of the vessel who had compound fractures of both legs.

Fire swept the ship as the highly inflammable cargo was scattered about it, and an hour later she was blazing furiously off beach 28.

The vessel, of 4700 tons gross capacity, was owned by the Motor Ship Caliche Company of New York, and it had cleared for Texas City, Texas.

Borah Wants Probe Of Expenditure Of Money For Needy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(A.P.)—Senator Borah today demanded an investigation by President Roosevelt or Congress of the Administration of relief expenditures, asserting there was "shameless waste" in doling out funds.

The Idaho Republican independent did not say so specifically, but he inferred that relief money in many cases had gone for political purposes.

"There is one thing about this matter of expenditures for relief that must have attention either from Congress or the executive department. Everyone wants to see those who need it get relief but millions never reached those who need it. I have had brought to my attention instances in which cost or expense of administering fund was about half of fund to be administered," he said.

Packing House At Ocoee Burns Down

OCOEE, Nov. 9.—Fire early yesterday morning swept through the newly erected Orange County Fruit Company packing house here and left it a mass of steel girders and metal. The fire was discovered at 4:30 o'clock by a watchman and the local fire department was called but the flames had gained such headway that the fire fighters were helpless.

The fire is believed to have been started by an oil heater in one of the five coloring rooms.

RED CROSS KEEPS PROMISES MADE AT END OF WAR

Membership Dollars Go To Administer To Injured Buddies

"Red Cross membership dollars are still keeping the promises made to American men who went to war in 1917," says Mrs. A. W. Knox, chairman of Seminole Red Cross chapter.

"Those who pay their annual membership dues are still ministering to the wounds of those for whom the war has not yet ended," she said in a statement today made in connection with the campaign Seminole chapter will make this year to secure the allotted quota of 700 members.

"The Red Cross helps the veteran and his family solve their problems; the organization gives needed service to all those who still wear the uniform of the United States in the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps and the Coast Guard."

The home service of Red Cross war service has demanded greater attention in the year just closed, according to Chairman Knox.

"With the greatly increased number on public relief and the materially reduced incomes of many others who had employment all welfare agencies have had heavy demands on their resources. Among those in need there are of course many who are veterans of the World War or of the Spanish American War. These former

Cawthon Says County's School System To Receive At Least $70,000 This Year

Seminole County's Board of Public Instruction Wednesday was advised by State Superintendent of Public Instruction W. E. Cawthon at Tallahassee that present trends indicate that the Seminole County school system will receive at least $70,000 in allotments for the year ending June 30, 1935.

This is about equal to the amount received in allotments received for schools here last year, the Board recalled.

The Board's routine session included the signing of checks for teachers' and transporters' salaries for October, totaling $12,500.50 for the 141 white and colored teachers in the county.

It was reported that with these checks issued, the system's bank balance totaled $45,748.82.

It was indicated that there will not be enough funds in the treasury to take care of teachers' and transporters' salaries for November and December. The Board authorized Superintendent of Schools T. W. Lawton to arrange for the necessary loans at the Sanford-Atlantic National Bank, loans to be paid in the spring when allotments of state funds are greater than at present.

The Standard Oil Co. was considered as lowest and best bidder and was awarded the contract to furnish 6000 gallons of 22-36 gravity distilled fuel oil into Sanford school building tanks at a cost of 1-4 cents per gallon.

It was decided that Christmas school holidays should begin as of Friday afternoon Dec. 21, and to continue through Sunday night, Jan. 6, 1935, with schools to re-

RE-ELECTION OF ROOSEVELT IS PREDICTED

Farley Claims Sweep At Polls 2 Years From Now, Says GOP Positively Through

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(A.P.)—The Republican party's lowly estate became a battleground yesterday while James A. Farley claimed the 1936 presidential election for Roosevelt.

Senator Borah of Idaho said in Chicago the plight of the G. O. P. was one of getting liberal leadership or death.

In a press conference, Democratic Chairman Farley gleefully dismissed the opposition party as "positively through" already. Tuesday's sweep was read by him as meaning a "practically unanimous" victory two years from now.

Other leading Democrats were inclined to raise a warning hand, however. In danger of factional strife in such overwhelming congressional majorities was recognized. In a day or so, it was indicated, admissions for caution will be issued.

President Roosevelt still had nothing to say publicly about the election. His attitude was that the returns spoke for themselves. He had other business. Part of it today was consultation with Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin progressive who added his bit to the hubbub of political analysis with another prediction of national party realignments.

From New York came the first news in a long while about the American Liberty League. It has been obvious since its formation that this organization, supported by outstanding figures in both parties, may become a potent political factor. Now that the off-year election is over, it was made clear that the league soon will initiate its New Deal examination with a view to the next elections. It is expected to make for more disregard of old party lines than less, by the positions it will take before Congress this winter on economic and social legislation.

Asked whether he expected a new opposition party or party re-organization, he said: "I should like to see the Republican party reorganized," the Idaho veteran said in an interview, "and I believe it can be done and should be done and, further, that if it isn't done, the Republican party will die like the old whig party when it showed political cowardice."

He examined the wounds his party had suffered in Tuesday's election and observed: "It will have to be resuscitated. I don't think there is any room in this country for an old conservative party. If the Republican party is reorganized, it will take a more liberal course. If not, it won't."

"Under Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican party was the most liberal and there is plenty of opportunity for that kind now. It is the only kind of Republican party that can exist."

"There is no reason to give up the name, principles and teachings of the party. Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt were liberal leaders. It doesn't take very long to shake off what you call conservatism."

The senator indicated he did not believe the new and successful progressive party in Wisconsin (Continued from Page 7)

Certain Democrats north of the Mason and Dixon Line opened a determined drive to capture the speakership of the House for which the South also is contending.

Declaring that the South has been "in the saddle" in the House for four years because it held the majority leadership and the chairmanship of all major committees, these Democrats ask more power.

They emphasize that Northern Democrats now have more seats than the South.

Representative Martin Kennedy, Tammany Democrat who denounced the drive said he believed "New York is entitled to the speakership."

This development topped the list of others after Tuesday's smashing triumph for President Roosevelt's party. Among those from the South who have indicated a willingness to run for the speakership was Greene of Florida.

Rickenbacker, American flying ace in the World War, roared out of Burbank, Calif., early yesterday to break his own record of 13 hours two minutes for the distance of over 2600 miles. Five other persons accompanied him on the flight. The ship traveled at a height of 18,000 miles almost all the way, and a refueling stop was made at Kansas City in 12 minutes.

SHOLTZ ASKED TO GET RULING ON LIQUOR SALES

Applications For Licenses Pile Up At State Headquarters

In The Associated Press Governor Dave Sholtz was called upon yesterday to ask the Supreme Court for an opinion on the proper procedure of conforming with restrictions governing local option-liquor control in wet counties.

Mayor R. G. Blanc at St. Petersburg, telegraphed the Governor at Tallahassee, requesting him to seek an advisory opinion on the matter. The mayor sent the telegram after he was informed by the City Council conflicting opinions on the effect of repeal hampered preparation of local measures.

Prospective liquor dealers, meanwhile, continued to prepare for sale of legalized alcoholic wares as soon as a decision for licenses to operate package stores in wet counties continued to pile into the offices of authorities.

Status of liquor advertising became another paramount question. The annual convention of the Florida Associated Dealers, at Miami, planned to discuss the topic. Advertising matter appeared in several state newspapers yesterday.

As efforts to obtain a ruling on compliance with restrictions were made, tabulations from more than 1000 of the state's 1287 precincts brought the repeal vote over 80,000. Unofficial tabulations were halted until after the canvassing board officially reports on the election returns.

The count stood, with 1058 precincts reporting, at 80,927 for repeal and 33,800 against.

With 1200 precincts reporting, the balloting for the homestead tax exemption amendment rose near 100,000. The tabulation gave 99,758 for the amendment and 4,600 against.

As the unofficial tabulations were stopped, scattered late returns in the other amendments gave the following totals: Grand juries, 885 precincts, for 54,766; against 27,793. Judicial circuits, 885 precincts, for 74,300; against 21,976. City-county government uniformly, 885 precincts, for 55,300; against 21,950.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—(A.P.)—Ellen Wilson McAdoo, daughter of Senator McAdoo of California, is to marry Rafael Lopez de Onate, Manila-born film actor, next week.

The couple made the announcement yesterday as they prepared to go to the county clerk's office to take out the marriage license for which they applied nearly three weeks ago.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS

Local weather yesterday: High 83, low 52.

The City Briefer offers many happy returns to R. Z. Johnson, Jr., Jennie Fox, Mary Higgins, and others whose birthday anniversaries are to be celebrated tomorrow.

W. H. Schmidt, local restaurant operator, was called to Augusta, Ga., early this morning because of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Sadie Schmidt. As a result, his downtown restaurant will be closed for several days.

The City Hall, most of the offices of county officials in the Court House, and the Sanford-Atlantic National Bank will be among the public buildings closed all day Monday in observance of Armistice Day.

Because of Armistice Day, the regular Monday night meeting of the City Commission will not be held until Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Commissioners will gather for a few minutes, according to charter, and adjourn until Tuesday.

Administration of the Seminole County Welfare Board during October cost the county $177,177, it was indicated in the monthly report tendered the County Commissioners Wednesday. More than a dozen men and women were given financial relief of some form during the month, while medicine and other aid also was contributed.

CONSTRUCTION IN CITY SINCE JUNE EXCEEDS $210,000

Remarkable Record Of Building Is Best Since Days Of Boom

Sanford enters the fall and winter tourist season unusually "dressed up" and humming with activity as the result of a summer building construction and renovation record exceeding expenditures of over $210,000.

This was revealed in a survey made by The Herald today, covering the period June 1 to Nov. 1. The total may be held remarkable in that it has not been approached within $100,000 for a similar period since the boom. It includes residential as well as industrial improvements, approximately $50,000 expended by the FERA in repairs to city and county properties.

FERA repairs are classified as follows: Sewer reconstruction, $16,500; street paving, $20,000; Court House and other county property repairs, $7000; Airport, $2600; City Hall, $1123; tennis courts, $130.

The total does not include construction and renovation of city wash houses, homes, and other buildings just outside the city limits, nor does it include the $75,000 soon to be spent to complete the lakefront boulevard.

Topping the list is the $30,000 State Farmers' Wholesale Market now under construction at French Avenue and Thirteenth Street. Buildings now under way represent the first unit in what is scheduled to be a nearly $300,000 project, backed by the state.

The new Standard Oil Co. terminal, including tanks, warehouses, and dock on the lakefront near French Avenue, represents an outlay of about $30,000, and is the most costly of the several oil company terminals which have been in process of construction since June 1.

The Seaboard Oil Co. is now spending $15,000 in the construc-

Jaycees Endorse Legislation Aimed At Ridding State Highways Of Cattle

Sanford Jaycees will prepare a resolution this week calling upon representatives-elect E. E. Brady and O. P. Herndon to vote in favor of a bill, to be introduced at the next session of the legislature, aimed at ridding the state of one of its greatest traffic hazards—cattle running free on the highways.

The Jaycees voted unanimous endorsement of this resolution when, at their regular meeting at Valdes Hotel last night, they heard an address on this subject, delivered by Walter L. Hays of Orlando, head of an insurance firm.

Mr. Hays' talk dealt with the number of deaths recently reported as being attributed to the presence of cattle on roads throughout the state. He suggested that until this menace had been eliminated, Florida should not invite visitors from other sections, where cattle never appear on highways.

"Florida is one of the last states to become modernized in this respect," he stated, "when it should be the first. Let me urge you young men to get behind this movement, and let's put a bill through to save lives and modernize our state."

Plans were completed for a Jaycee stag party at the Sanford Country Club next Thursday night, and Clyde Ramsey, Volie Williams, and George Thurston were named as the committee in charge of details.

KIDNAPER'S LETTER IS UNDER PROBE

Young Robinson Said Author Of Missive Received By Father After His Release

NASHVILLE, Nov. 9.—(A.P.)—The Department of Justice, it has been authoritatively learned today, was investigating a note received by Thoms H. Robinson, Sr., on the theory that it might have been written by his fugitive son, the alleged kidnaper of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll.

The note was received by Robinson last week, and the Tennessee said it had been turned over by him to District Attorney General Carlson Loser who gave it to the Department of Justice.

The Tennessee quoted part of the note which was unsigned as saying "Congratulations. I have been traveling but am here now." The envelope was postmarked Chicago.

Senior Robinson received it within a few days after he had been dismissed from the custody of federal officers by a United States commissioner here who refused to hold Robinson for removal to Louisville to face charges in connection with the kidnapping.

Federal Judge Harry Anderson yesterday ordered Robinson held for removal but after an appeal to the United States circuit court at Cincinnati, and fixed bond, pending a decision on appeal at $25,000.

Seminole High 'To Enter Orlando Tilt Confident Of Win

Headed by Fullback George McClelland and Guard Ted "King Kong" Williams, a confident Seminole High School football team will head for Orlando late this afternoon where at 8:00 o'clock tonight it will meet the strong Orlando Tigers in the season's highlight game.

A week of workouts at Municipal Park has served to revive confidence among the players that they will take the measure of the Tigers tonight. Last year the teams fought to a scoreless tie at the local field.

Williams is expected to lead a compact and competent line into action from the word "go" tonight, while McClelland, who has established himself as a defensive player of great ability, is scheduled to be the bulwark of a backfield which will include such capable players as Jack Hughes, Oliver Miller, and Billy Brown, as the starters.

Orlando expects a two touch-down victory over Sanford. The Tigers are members of the Big Ten, and, despite a 38 to 0 shellacking handed them by Andrew Jackson last week, they hold victories over Kissimmee, Daytona, and Wildwood.

Fully 400 local fans will trek to Orlando tonight to join what is certain to be a crowd of around 2500 football enthusiasts. The kick-off comes at 8:00 o'clock on the beautiful sod of Tinker Field, west of the city.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

RICHES HAVE WINGS: Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom. For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away.—Proverbs 23:4, 5.

INCIDENT IN THE ZOO

The little Fennec foxes from the wild are shy.

And quiet and they keep the largest ears of anything so small.

Wide open in their sleep.

There in the corner of the slatted cage.

Stirring awake.

They shudder at the city's iron pulse.

You cannot make friends with them.

No one can make friends with them.

They are too shy.

From fear of the shaking ground, the thunder.

From track and sky.

They move in memory among mint leaves.

Their lives are bound.

To a lost land, all night their ears have captured.

No friendly sound.

Once only did I see their hearts uplifted.

Wild hearts as wrung!

It came as the lion howl—remote and dreadful.

Spoke, in its tongue.

—By Louise C. Masley.

See where the Rumanian government has bought $172,000 worth of American radios. They want to tune in and find out how President Roosevelt does it.

Not all businesses are making big profits. For the nine months' period ending Nov. 1, there were 10,450 business failures in the United States. But this figure, large as it is, is 42 percent less than for the same period last year.

Government expenditures in the United States during the year of 1934 will total about $17,000,000,000 or nearly half the total national income, according to J. W. Oliver, vice president of the American Management Association. Of this amount the federal government will spend $7,800,000,000, the states $2,000,000,000 and the various cities and counties $2,000,000,000.

The belief prevails that war may be averted because Europe is too poor to fight, but the Literary Digest is authority for the statement that the various leading countries of the world are now spending more than twice as much on armaments as they were in 1914.

Somebody has the list with 211 names of persons who died in 1934. It is the longest list since 1914. It is said that these statistics are furnished by the Bureau of Census.

Business Improves

Business as a whole in the United States has improved during the past year although probably not as much as most of us had hoped, and in many individual cases not at all. However the "Statistics of Income," compiled by the United States Department of Commerce, shows that net profits in the major industries of the country increased for the first nine months' period of this year from $188,096,000 to $320,635,000.

In the following list which includes 190 major corporations, classified into industrial groups, net profits are shown after depreciation, interest, taxes, and other charges, but before dividends, and expressed in thousands of dollars. The first column shows the number of corporations in the industry listed. The letter "D" indicates that the industry as a whole shows a deficit instead of a profit.

Table with columns: No., Industry, Net Profits (add 000) for 1933 and 1934, and Change. Includes industries like Autos-General Motors, Baking, Building Materials, etc.

As seen from these figures the losses of all automobile companies, excluding General Motors, increased over two million dollars, but at the same time the losses in eight major building material corporations were eliminated and profits made amounting to an improvement in their financial position of about six million dollars.

What Happened

Although the elections Tuesday throughout the nation developed no unexpected results, as the popularity of the New Deal was well conceded everywhere, there were nevertheless a number of peculiar coincidences which attached themselves to the results. As listed by the Tampa Tribune, in "Election Oddities," they are as follows: Governor Ritchie, Maryland, after four terms, defeated by the man he defeated in his first election.

Twenty-five of the 31 women who ran for Congress defeated. "Bridesmaid" Isabelle Greenway, Arizona, New Dealer into re-election. Ruah Holt, college prize orator, under Senatorial age, beats Veteran Republican Hatfield in West Virginia.

A delightfully informal affair that was greatly enjoyed by all present was the chafing dish supper Monday night at which Mrs. C. C. Paxton was the charming hostess.

Enjoying Mrs. Paxton's charming hospitality were: the Misses Dorothy Brock, Hazel Stevenson, Louisa Harris, Ruth Compton, Leola Orr, Edna Plant, Annie Lee Caldwell, Lottie Caldwell, May Doyle, Nan Paxton, and David Caldwell, Weidman Caldwell, Howard Swartz, Frank Christopher, J. E. A. Douglas, the genial clerk of circuit court, leaves here today for a 10 days' vacation which he will spend at the beach. The new Baptist organization that will be known as the Seminole Baptist Association in the new district will be organized here next Thursday, Nov. 12.

The honorable board of county commissioners in and for Seminole County met in regular session on Nov. 2. Those present were: Hon. F. L. Woodruff, chairman, L. P. Hagan, C. W. Entisfinger, J. A. Clark, and J. T. McLain.

Red Cross Keeps Promises Made At End Of War. (Continued From Page One) service men are the responsibility of the Red Cross, according to the provisions of the Congressional charter under which the organization was formed, and chapter workers everywhere have co-operated with local administrators of public welfare funds, to familiarize them with the part of the Red Cross in their relief.

Act of 1933 made it necessary to review practically every pension or compensation in the Veterans Administration. Later mandatory legislation, easing up on the stricter provisions of the Act, made it necessary to re-review these cases. These liberalized terms have somewhat relieved the situation with regard to the veteran, and the coming year should therefore see some lessening of relief work, permitting the chapter to continue the normal home service activities for veterans and their families.

"The Red Cross communication service for the men in uniform on land and sea and the liaison service for veterans is financed and directed by the national organization. The communication service is maintained in military camps and hospitals, to enable Red Cross chapters to serve the men and their families in an intelligent, constructive way, and the liaison service is maintained in Veterans Administration offices.

"To meet these obligations, which carry to their fulfillment the promises made in this and every other community when American men went to war in 1917, the Red Cross must have an adequate response to the annual roll call membership campaign, which opens on Armistice Day, Sunday, Nov. 11. I am confident that Sanford has not forgotten the debt we owe the men who went to war in our behalf."

"Never have government services administering veterans' benefits been under such overwhelming pressure as in the past year," she continued. "The Economy

GARDEN NOTES

By Mrs. W. D. GARDNER

Now that the soil is prepared, we turn our attention to the potting. We have a choice of pots from 2 1/2 to 8 inches in diameter. Instead of using 10-inch pots or larger 1/4 is usually better to have tubs, 16, 18, 20, or 18 inches in diameter. The first essential in potting is a clean pot. If the pot has been used before see that it is thoroughly scrubbed, inside and out.

The second essential is the proper setting of the plant. Small pots (2 1/2 inches), do not require drainage material in the bottom, but four inches and larger should have the hole in the bottom covered with a piece of broken pot or tile, then on top of this a half inch layer of gravel or cinders, next a layer of charcoal or spagnum moss, then a mixture of soil, not too tightly packed.

Place the plant in the middle of the pot and press the soil into place with the thumbs, leaving about an inch space at the top and having the roots well covered, but near the surface. After a plant has been in a pot for some time the roots completely fill it and the soil fertility becomes exhausted. The plant should then be repotted or shifted. Usually a shift to a pot an inch larger is advisable, but fast growing plants may be shifted to a pot two inches larger.

Some few slow growing plants need shifting only rarely and a few plants really like to be crowded and thrive on it. Members of the cactus family and palms, too, are healthier when grown in small containers, for instance, a three foot palm with five or six leaves requires only a six or seven inch pot. Then there is the pandanus, no matter what size the container is provided, it will push roots through the surface soil and go on growing comfortably in that position.

Some flowering plants, like the begonias will do their best in pots that really seem to cramp them. This little root crowding seems to increase their tendency to bloom. The plant may be safely loosened with its earth ball unbroken, if it is first well moistened then inverted, and its rim sharply rapped, on a bench. Support the plant stem and top soil with the hand to avoid crumbling the top soil. When the pot is lifted off, one of three conditions will be revealed: 1. There may be no roots visible at all, only a sticky mass of mud from which all arrangements for drainage have long since disappeared. In this case the soil should be removed until the root system is revealed. If this appears feeble and the soil mixture previously used is not good, it is wise to wash the roots before re-potting them in good clean soil. Usually such conditions indicate the need of a smaller pot.

2. There may be a mass of fine thread-like roots covering the outside of the earth ball. This plant is just ready for re-potting.

3. There may be tight coils of roots forcing their way into the drainage hole and completely stopping it up. A strong carving fork should be used to separate them and the very tough roots cut away with a sharp knife, and, of course, cut cleanly. Placed in a larger container these roots must be spread out through the soil so that they may absorb food to send up the foliage of the starving plant along with the sap. Of course the same directions for the preparation of the pots for the initial potting applies to the re-potting of all plants.

Kitchen-eering Becomes Joyous Art

POTATOES ARE ENJOYED BY ALL RANKS OF PEOPLE

Abundant Crops And Cookery Bring About Popularity

Vegetables, like people, can live down their early reputations. This is proved by no less an example than our commonplace but dependable aid to economy, the potato, the common "spud" of the Army kitchen, which appears on the American table more often than any other vegetable. Potatoes are enjoyed democratically by all ranks and levels. They are served in the most expensive hotels, the cheapest lunch rooms, the wealthiest and the poorest homes. About four bushels a year per person is said to be the quantity the average American eats.

Cultivation, skillful cookery, abundant potato crops and low prices have brought this staple commodity to its present popularity. And science backs up the popular taste, putting both white or "Irish" potatoes and sweet potatoes high in the list for nutritive value. Although it has a similar history and food value, the sweet potato has no botanical relationship to the Irish potato. It is native to tropical America, and is said to have been discovered by Columbus himself.

In food value the difference between the two kinds of potatoes is chiefly the much greater sugar content of the sweet potato, which contains also more starch. Each contains vitamins B and C, but the sweet potato has more than the Irish potato and is rich also in vitamin A. Both retain, when baked or boiled in their skins, more of their vitamin content than do most other vegetables, and both furnish some food iron and other minerals. So baking, boiling, or steaming are recommended as the best methods to retain the most food value.

When it comes to table use, the Irish potato and the sweet potato have a different range of possibilities. For Irish potatoes, the range covers soups, main vegetable dishes, and salads; sweet potatoes are usually considered suitable only for main vegetable dishes and desserts.

After baked, boiled, or steamed potatoes, the good cook thinks of mashed, fried, creamed or scalloped potatoes, potatoes au gratin, potatoes on the half shell, hashed brown, O'Brien, or Lyonnais potatoes. Fried potatoes, of course, may be the old-fashioned sliced raw potatoes fried in shallow fat, or they may be Saratoga chips, French fried potatoes in thick strips, in balls, curls, laced form, or shoe-string strips, according to the way they are cut. All these are fried in deep fat.

FOREIGNERS TRY TO HOLD SAAR IN MIDDLE OF ROAD

England And America Hold Key Positions As Election Nears

SAARBRUCKEN, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Englishmen, Americans, Finn and a Yugoslav are hanging onto the reins of authority here, struggling to drive the Saar Basin territory in a straight course toward the plebiscite of Jan. 13 while partisans of Germany, France and the League of Nations conduct an increasing tense campaign for votes.

In key posts are G. G. Knox and Capt. Arthur C. Hensley, two subjects of King George. Knox, a British diplomat, is president of the League's governing commission and minister to the interior. That latter post, puts him in control of the district's police and to the command of that body he recently summoned Hensley.

The latter, a giant 42-year-old Englishman, bears the title of inspector of police and gendarmerie. He has 1,400 men to help him perform his job of seeing that no faction in the hot campaign resorts to violence. Knox has argued that this force is not sufficient in the face of a rumored Nazi "putch." He is expected to renew his requests for reinforcements when the League of Nations council convenes in special session on Nov. 21 to discuss the whole situation, active parts in the preparations for the balloting.

Miss Sarah Wambaugh of Cincinnati was picked by the secretariat of the League of Nations as technical advisor to the plebiscite commission. She advised the Peruvian government during the 1926 Tacna-Arica referendum, and as a research fellow of Radcliffe College had made an intimate study of this district.

The League commission decided it needed more Americans to help administer the balloting and asked Miss Wambaugh to recruit them. She found John Hartigan of San Francisco, a former concert singer, banker, World War veteran and ex-member of the Hoover relief commission in Sumatra.

He was made district inspector in St. Ingbert and with two assistants guards electoral lists there and watches to see that no one lays a successful plan to stuff the ballot boxes.

On the five-man cabinet headed by Knox are Dr. V. Ehrenroth of Finland, minister of public works, and Dr. W. Zorlic of Yugoslavia, minister of justice and education. France has a member of the governing commission in M. J. Morize, minister of finance, trade and airways. He has held a post here since 1919. The fifth cabinet member is J. Kossman, a Saarite. He looks after public relief, forestry and agriculture.

In the World War after the first attack of the Germans, which caught the Allies wholly unprepared, the wind joined the Allied cause. It blew toward the German lines for months and gave the British time to make gas masks.

They Changed the Face of the Earth...

IN THE 1800's, about the time when the first rail airplanes appeared in the sky, America started building new and better roads. Good roads quickened the changes that railroads and automobiles set in motion. They connected farms, cities, towns and isolated regions with a network of city streets.

THE A-B-C's OF VITAMIN D

Scientific Tests Show Children's Need for Vitamin D

THESE three pictures show how one of the strangest tests employed by science is used to measure the amount of vitamin D in the foods we eat.

They represent the ends of the leg bones of three rats. As soon as they could eat solid food, all three rats were fed a diet containing no vitamin D.

Fig. 1 shows how the "time" is deposited in a thin line. Rat No. 1, also originally like Rat No. 2, was given plenty of vitamin D and a few weeks later, his bones became perfectly sound, as shown in the picture.

Thus science measures the amount of vitamin D in our foods. If there is enough in a given sample to form a thin line of bone, such as is shown by Fig. 1, the sample is said to contain one unit of vitamin D.

Unfortunately, most of our common foods contain no vitamin D whatever. Consequently a large number of children—more than half, in certain localities, health authorities estimate—suffer from poor bone development.

To remedy this situation, doctors prescribe the use of cod-liver oil daily, especially for very young children, because cod-liver oil is rich in vitamin D. Recently a process has been developed whereby vitamin D derived from cod-liver oil, and free from all fishy taste and odor, is added to milk and bread so that children will be supplied with vitamin D through the foods they eat. Thus they get the factor needed to build strong bones in a convenient and agreeable way.

Put slices from top about 1-2 inch thick, to make a cover. Scoop out crumbs from inside, leaving an edge 1-2 inch thick at sides and bottom. Cook onion in fat; add bread crumbs. Heat meat with gravy, tomatoes, and seasonings; add bread crumb mixture, parsley and raisins. Add 1 egg beaten slightly. Spread soft butter on outside of loaf; put in meat mixture. Beat the other egg with 1 tablespoon milk. Moisten top edge of loaf with this mixture; put top slice on as cover. Moisten the top with remaining egg and milk. Place on baking sheet; bake in moderate oven at 400 degrees F. until brown. Serve hot in slices.

MEAT LOAF
 1 1/2 lb. beef, ground
 1 1/2 lb. sausage meat
 1 1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
 1 1/2 cup milk
 1 egg
 1 teaspoon salt
 Few grains pepper

Mix all together. Shape into loaf, place in roasting pan and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for the first half hour, then reduce heat (375 degrees F.), pour a little hot water into bottom of pan and take one hour longer.

Jaycees End orse Legislation' Aimed At Cattle On Roads

(Continued From Page One) last night, were named as two of three directors who would represent the club at a district meeting in Jacksonville next Saturday and Sunday.

Reports also were made by Irvin Jackson on the street lighting project, and R. J. Holly, Jr., discussed plans now under way for a $125,000 city recreational and beautification project.

Mrs. George W. Knight was presented to the Club as a pianist who rendered several selections. Those attending included: Mr. Hays, Mr. Barnett, Mr. Fennell, Mr. Thurston, Mr. Jackson, Roy Mann, Mr. Ramsey, Mr. McCall, P. R. Bach, Andrew Carraway, Mr. Williams, Dwight Smith, Fred Stanley, S. O. School System To Receive At Least $70,000 This Year

(Continued From Page One) open on Monday morning, Jan. 7. The Board authorized the following payments to persons who living far from school bus routes, must bring their children to schools around the county: $4 per month to Preston Johnson who lives in the Paola section. $6 per month to H. W. Davis who lives in the Chulavita section. $7.50 per month to Shine Healy who lives in the Geneva district. The Board also increased the salary of C. A. Oldham, Geneva school principal, from $10 per month to $12 per month, not including his original contract. The Board also received the report of the County School Superintendent, J. L. Lamb, who reported that the meeting with E. J. ...

RE-ELECTION OF ROOSEVELT IS PREDICTED

(Continued from Page 1) alignment. Farley said: "We're satisfied with ours, we'll let the others decide that. The people are definitely through with the kind of leadership they have had from the Republican party, that's why it is through. There will be opposition to Roosevelt in 1936 but it won't amount to anything." The Republicans, in his view, will have a hard time finding a man to make the "sacrifice" in running against Roosevelt. He referred to Senator Vandenberg, Republican re-elected in Michigan as "too smart" to take the nomination.

"And he didn't do so good," the postmaster general elaborated. "His majority was cut from 600,000 to 75,000."

Some of the results Tuesday pleased the Democratic chairman, it was said, and others were disappointing; but by and large his expectations were fulfilled. He conceded that Republicans still held offices in some places, but insisted the New Deal was here "for a very long time." "Unless we make mistakes, it will be longer than that," was his parting shot.

Unbowed by the Democratic sweep in Idaho after his campaign there against NRA, AAA and other new dealings, Borah said he was coming back here to continue his opposition. He thought the progressive party made a nice start in Wisconsin, and opined that there is no room "for an old conservative party."

"Under Theodore Roosevelt the Republican party was the most liberal," he said. "There is plenty of opportunity for that kind now. It is the only kind of Republican party that can exist."

Wholesale Commodity Prices Show Decline

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(AP)—A slight decline in wholesale commodity prices for the week ended Nov. 3 was reported yesterday by the labor department. Prices that week were 76 percent of their 1926 average, compared with 76.2 the previous week and 70.9 percent the corresponding week last year.

Food prices remained unchanged at 75.4 percent of their 1926 average compared with 64.2 percent the corresponding week in 1933. Farm products dropped from 70.8 to 69.9.

The government is considering quarantine regulations to prevent spread of the Dutch elm disease from infested regions.

Chemicals that slowly give off sulphur dioxide are now used to prevent formation of mould in grapes in shipment or storage.

Our customers liked the idea of our giving away a free turkey so much that we decided to duplicate the offer—and this time we are going one better—for the turkey is about the biggest you have seen since last Christmas.

You may be lucky this week-end. So get your name in the box by simply writing it on your cash register receipt Friday or Saturday. Drop the receipt in the sealed container. The big event occurs off at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night. You do not have to be present—if you are the winner of the turkey, you will be notified at once so that you can prepare for a big feast Sunday.

PLAN SOMETHING PARTICULAR FOR WEEK-END GUEST

Baked Ham Slices And Other Suggestions Are Listed Here

If you are planning to have guests during the week-end you'll want to have some particularly delectable dishes lined up to serve them, either for dinner, for luncheon or evening gatherings. Something that's a bit out of the ordinary, something that will lend a "party" air to the occasion.

- BAKED HAM SLICES
 6 slices pineapple
 3 medium-size sweet potatoes
 2 apples, sliced
 2 slices raw ham
 1-2 cup pineapple juice
 Brown sugar
 2 tsp. butter

Place the slices of canned pineapple in a greased pudding dish. Cut the sweet potatoes lengthwise and cover the pineapple. Cover with the sliced apples and top with ham slices. Pour the pineapple juice over the top. Cook in a slow oven in a covered dish for 2 hours or until tender. Dredge the top with brown sugar, dot with bits of butter and return to hot oven or broiler for browning. Sprinkle with parsley before serving.

PINEAPPLE COLE SLAW
 To one cup finely shredded pineapple, 1 stalk celery cut very fine and 1-2 green pepper parboiled and cooled and shredded. The pineapple should be drained. Mix with a dressing of whipped cream, sweet or sour seasoned well with vinegar, salt and pepper. Or dress with a boiled dressing.

SPINACH SOUFFLE
 1 tsp. shortening
 1-2 cups chopped onions
 1-2 tsp. flour
 1 cup milk
 8 cups chopped cooked spinach
 1 cup chopped lettuce
 2-4 tsp. salt
 Pepper
 1 cup grated Italian cheese
 2 egg yolks, unbeaten
 4 egg whites

TALL, DARK AND HANDSOMES

Mae West, Paramount's curvaceous siren, romances with the handsome pugilist, as portrayed by Roger Pryor, in her new starring picture, "Belle of the Nineties," playing at the Milano Theater, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The artist has also sketched John Mack Brown, who plays the New Orleans cavalier, and Duke Ellington, whose incomparable rhythms help Miss West in her rendition of three songs.

Melt the shortening in a saucepan. Add the chopped onions. Brown lightly. Stir in the flour. Add the milk slowly. Add the lettuce and spinach, cheese and seasoning. Heat. Remove from the fire. Mix in the unbeaten yolks one at a time. Cool. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Pour into a greased baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven for 50 minutes.

CELERY WITH BRUSSELS SPROUTS

4 cups Brussels sprouts
 1-2 cups sliced celery
 3 tsp. butter
 3 tsp. flour
 1-2 cups scalded milk
 Salt and pepper
 Remove the wilted leaves from the sprouts and soak in cold salted water a few minutes. Drain and cook in rapidly boiling salted water until tender (about 20 minutes). Melt the butter, add the celery and cook slowly for 5 minutes. Add the flour and milk as in making white sauce. Bring to boiling point. Add the sprouts, season with salt and pepper, heat thoroughly and serve.

HUMMEL TORTE

1-2 cup butter
 1-3 cup powdered sugar
 2 egg yolks
 Grated rind of 1 lemon
 1-2 tsp. baking powder
 1 cup flour
 2 egg whites
 2 tbsp. powdered sugar
 1-4 cup nuts
 Cream butter and stir in sugar gradually, then the beaten egg yolks and grated lemon rind. Stir in flour which has been sifted with baking powder. Spread mixture over surface of two ungreased layer cake pans. Cover each layer with meringue made by beating egg whites until stiff and beating sugar in gradually. Sprinkle cinnamon, granulated sugar and chopped nuts over the top. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes. While torte is baking prepare filling.

FILLING
 1-2 cup sugar
 1 tsp. flour
 1-8 tsp. salt

Construction In City Since June Exceeds $210,000

 tion of a modern one-stop filling station at Commercial Street and Park Avenue.
 The Orange State Oil Co. terminal at Myrtle Avenue and the lakefront represents an investment and expenditure of at least $10,000.

The American Oil Co. terminal on the north end of the Orange State property is being built at a cost exceeding $7500, while its new service station at Commercial Street and Park Avenue represents an outlay of nearly that sum.

Contracts already have been let for $4000 worth of repairs to the Valdes Hotel, including the installation of a new heating system, while its owners, Wagner and McMullen, have indicated that just as soon as work on the highway gets under way they will contract for fully $1000 worth of exterior painting and a large neon light sign valued at about $425.

The Atlantic Coast Line railroad has spent nearly $10,000 since June 1 in repairs and renovations to its many properties within the city limits.

The Florida Power and Light Co. has spent over $2500 in the maintenance of its many properties in the city during the past six months.

The St. Johns River Line Co. now is building a $1500 addition.

1-4 cup nuts
 1-2 pkg. dates
 1 tsp. lemon juice
 Mix sugar, flour and salt in a small saucepan; stir in boiling water and dates. Continue stirring until mixture thickens. Remove from stove; add lemon juice and nuts. Cool. Shortly before serving spread filling between layers of cooled torte. Six servings.

to its lakefront warehouse, while only a few weeks ago it spent another $500 in reconstructing the interior of the building.
 The Heisch building was renovated and reconstructed recently at a cost of nearly $1600.

The congregation of the Church of God at Fifth Street and Holly Avenue spent over $1000 in erecting a new church house weeks ago.
 Chase and Co. has expended nearly $3500 in repairs to its packing plant and office on Second Street, and the repainting of its fertilizer factory on the West Side.

 And everywhere around the city are evidences of small paint and repair jobs whose cost totals in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Cook noodles in rapidly boiling water (salted) until tender. Drain well. Add the milk, salt, pepper and butter, then add the egg beaten until light. Place in a well buttered ring mold, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven, until firm but not brown, about 45 minutes. Turn out onto a hot platter. Fill the ring with creamed chicken or fish.

Borah found it "difficult" to say anything about what changes in leadership might come in the wake of the Democratic landslide, but it was suggested he might be a likely candidate.

"I am interested in the issues before the country," he explained.

"But I am not assuming to take the leadership, I haven't seen any demonstration along that line."

How about Senator McNary of Oregon and Senator Vandenberg, who successfully stood off the New Deal challenge in Michigan? he was asked.

"Vandenberg and McNary might well be considered," he said.

"The current leaders will have to be disposed of if the people want it. It all gets down to the people."

Borah read the election returns without surprise.

"There was a vast amount of reaction against the New Deal,"

he said, "but what were the people offered? We were in the midst of a program and the people were asked to stop the program without any substitute," but he pointed out:

"The people can't eat the constitution."

"I have no idea as to new legislation," he said.

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 9.—All eyes will be on the boys who lug the pigskin, and the smallest lads on the Florida football team may be just the ones to manufacture one or more touchdowns, something that the Gators have not been able to accumulate in the past two games.

comes here Saturday with a great reputation for defensive play, it is not at all improbable that Coach Dutch Stanley might start his "pony backfield," made up of Ken Eppert, quarter; Ernie Priest and Fred Chance, halves; and Walter Middlekauff, fullback. This combination weighs in at 168 pounds, and is much lighter than the 180-pound quartet of Wally Brown, quarter; Bill Chase and Jack Beckwith, halves, and Duke Warren, fullback.

And in addition to these eight backs there are five others, Charlie Stolz, Jesse Jones, Harold Rowe, Frank Hancock, and John McCarty. Stolz, senior fullback, and a good one, was hurt in the Maryland game, did not even don a uniform last Saturday, and may not be ready this week. The same for Sophomore Rowe, a promising halfback, who was injured in scrimmage just prior to the Georgia game. Jones sustained bruises in the Bulldog fray that may keep him on the sidelines and his condition will be in doubt for a few days yet. Hancock has been used only a little, while McCarty has not broken into varsity competition at all this fall, so it looks like, in the main, the two sets of backs—the 185-pound boys, and the 180-pound chaps, will be the important factors in a backfield way against Mississippi.

Carlos Bullock, quarterback, has abandoned the squad, and is not even continuing in the University this semester, so the Gators will not have his services any further this season. Bullock plans to come back for baseball next spring and the grid schedule of 1935.

Coach Dutch Stanley has been heartened by the improved play of his backs this week, and is looking for the ends to play superior ball as well against "Ole Miss." The wingmen have not been doing the best of blocking all season, but a different exhibition is anticipated against the Maroons for the Gator mentor, himself one of the greatest ends in Florida football history, has spent much time with the wingmen this week.

George Moye, the redoubtable right end, has looked better than any of the other guardians of the line terminals, although Captain Chuck Rogers seems to be out of a slight slump, and will be able to make Moye hustle for the honor of playing the best all-around game.

Robert Rickett continues to be used at either end, with Floyd Christian, Hubert (Corn) Schucht, Eddie Joe Long and Johnny Burroughs as principal contenders for either of the wing jobs.

The "Ole Miss"-Florida game has been creating increased interest with the passing of each day this week, and a larger gallery than was first predicted is probable. Clear and cool weather for Saturday, and a couple of teams whacking away with grim determination, offers an attrac-

Cost of operating the County Home for October amounted to $437.63, according to an announcement by Supt. E. L. Dunn. Thirty-five inmates were at the Home during the month. They were fed at a cost of 12 cents each day, and they were housed, fed and clothed at a cost of 43 cents per day.

County Motorcycle Officer E. T. Hamill rode 3219 miles during October in the interests of law and order, he indicated in his monthly report today. He handled 17 cases of alleged law violations, and warned 24 persons about faulty automobile lights, 15 about speeding, and seven about improper license used.

Arrangements will be made tonight also for the special Armistice Day class which will be initiated in Daytona Beach next Tuesday night. Sanford will be represented on the ritualistic team for this ceremony by George Thurston as esquire and F. C. MacMahon as reader. Tonight's meeting will bring together over 150 Elks, including officers of practically every Lodge in this section.

ROAD ASKED FOR COMPLETION OF BOULEVARD

Road Department To Spend $80,000 For Top Dressing Of 3 1/2 Miles Of Highway

The State Road Department at Tallahassee late yesterday asked for bids for the completion of the boulevard leading along the south shore of Lake Monroe westward from Sanford to Monroe Bridge.

Coming on the heels of yesterday's Herald news telling of the $210,000 construction program which has been under way here since June 1, the announcement from Tallahassee served to bring particular satisfaction to several local groups which have been working consistently for the completion of this road before the beginning of the new year.

The bid, returnable in Tallahassee on Nov. 22, calls for a lime rock, surface-treated paving over a distance of 3.49 miles. The cost is estimated at $80,000.

Early this afternoon County Engineer Tony Pitchford telegraphed to officials of the department to seek data upon which the bid is based, but he had not heard from his request as The Herald went to press.

Unofficially, the road will be from 22 to 30 feet wide, with a limestone base at least eight inches thick. It will be treated with slag and asphalt common to all state highways.

It was understood here last week that the task of completing the three and a half mile stretch of roadway might take ninety days, although possibility was expressed that it might be possible to induce the department to request of the contractor that he double his crew so that the road might be completed within six weeks.

Stocks Lifted To Highest Levels Since Mid-August

NEW YORK, Nov. 10. (AP)—A resumption of the post-election advance lifted stocks on the average yesterday to the highest levels since late August.

Swept upward by a heavy wave of buying in the last half hour of trading, many important stocks finished $1 to $2 a share higher.

Steel, motor, motor accessory, building issues were outstanding, on prospect of revival of construction activity and higher automobile output next year.

Volume on the Stock Exchange increased to 1,228,590 shares, the heaviest in about a month.

Some brokers viewed the upturn merely a renewal of a movement which began recently.

Inflationary sentiment revived in some quarters after the election but wheat and cotton made only small gains. U. S. government bonds were a trifle lower but most corporate bonds were steady to firm.

The quick formation of a new French cabinet relieved pressure on the franc.

Bulls noted further signs of a business upturn, including added gains in retail trade and a less-than-seasonal fall in railroad carloadings last week.

SIGN OF THE TIMES

Through yesterday, County Tax Collector Jas. D. Jenkins had issued 268 state and county receipts for 1934, totaling $11,432.25.

Last year, through the same period from Nov. 1, he had issued less than 100 receipts and had collected approximately $7600.

This represents a 54 percent increase over last year's collections. WERE MOVING FORWARD!

Huey Long Proposes 2-Year Moratorium On All Debts In State By Legislative Act

BATON ROUGE, Nov. 10. (AP)—Senator Huey P. Long today planned a two-year moratorium on "All debt in Louisiana by special legislative act."

The senator, at the governor's office today to draft bills for the special session which is expected to convene by Monday night, set at work enthusiastically on his debt moratorium idea.

"How would it be to have the Louisiana public service commission issue a debt reprieve," he asked, surrounded by the governor's secretarial staff and his personal attendants.

Someone asked whether the scope of debt fell within the scope of the public service commission constitutionally created to regulate the operation of public utilities.

"Oh, that's all right," he replied, "we'll either have them do it or we'll create a special board to do it."

Long said his plan was to grant a moratorium on "old debts," indicating he meant obligations of long standing that could not immediately be paid by and were burdens to the average man.

"I mean all debts," he answered emphatically. "We're taking care of vendors liens in an amendment we're going to pass to the 1934 home mortgage moratorium act. This will be something else."

NEAL LYNCHING FARLEY TOLD HELD AS DONE TO CUT DOWN BY 'UNKNOWN'S' HIS BOASTING

Jackson County Grand Jury Says It Finds Only Hearsay Information Of Case

MARIANNA, Nov. 10. (AP)—The Jackson county grand jury reported yesterday that Claude Neal, a negro, was lynched by "persons unknown to us."

Neal, charged with killing a white woman, was removed by a mob from the Brewton, Ala. jail on Oct. 19, and the next morning his body, mutilated with knives and pierced by bullets, was strung from a tree on the Jackson county courthouse square here.

Governor Dave Sholtz, declaring "we do not condone lynching in Florida," ordered an investigation by the grand jury, and said "Some of the ring leaders of the mob are supposed to be known." He did not announce the source of this information.

In its report yesterday to Circuit Judge Amos Lewis, the grand jury said in part:

"We are not able to get much direct or positive information with reference to this matter, (the lynching of Neal) practically all our evidence, and information being hearsay and rumors."

"However, we find that Miss Lola (unnamed) was brutally murdered by Claude Neal, and that Claude Neal came to his death in the county at the hands of a small group of persons unknown to us after being forcibly removed from the jail at Brewton, Ala. by persons unknown to us."

"We find that the sheriff of our county did everything within his power under the circumstances to protect the prisoner, and we commend him for his action in performing his duty."

The report, fixing the place of the lynching of Neal as "in this county," ended speculation over reports that Neal actually was lynched in Alabama, before the mob brought him across the state line.

The Escambia county, Alabama grand jury is to meet Monday at the direction of Governor H. M. Miller of that state to begin an investigation of the removal of Neal from the Brewton jail. The grand jury had been taken there for safety after his arrest was announced in the slaying of Miss Gandy.

ST. LOUIS—Hundreds of acres of vegetable crops are being plowed under by produce farmers near here, as they find their products more valuable as feed than for the market. The market has fallen on so low, County Farm Agent O. W. Steyer said, that he expects from 2,000 to 3,000 acres of produce to be plowed under.

Among the persons who applied for the position as market manager were J. G. Michael, W. H. Fawcett and Macintosh, T. K. (Continued On Page Four)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—The Farley request for the Republican Party impelled Senator Vandenberg, (R Mich.), to admonish him yesterday: "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

Senator Horah, (D Idaho), seconded his Michigan colleague in reminding the Democratic National chairman that the G. O. P. popular vote reached 12,000,000 Tuesday, despite the New Deal wave.

Also contributing to the post-election flurry of political diatribes, Raymond Moley—a presidential advisor wrote in "Today," "The Democrat who talks glibly of the end of the Republican Party is simply ignoring the facts."

His views, penned apparently before the election, discounted the likelihood of strong left or right parties rising in the country. The Democratic Party, as he analyzed it, will retain power for some time while the Republicans remain in formidable opposition.

An element of danger for the Democrats was seen by Senator Lewis of Illinois in the case of its minority in the New Congress. He cautioned care against blue cardists to "avoid the latter experience of post-administration."

His statement sounded likely some of those coming now from Republican floors, in that it demanded a G. O. P. reorganization "upon new principles, guided by the leaders."

Mr. Mohr, interviewed by reporters in his office, indicated a readiness to cooperate for Republican rebuilding along lines that would subordinate the "1934 Grand."

In his telegram to the Associated Press from Grand Rapids, Vandenberg called Farley's statement "Thursday night" "flat and fooling."

Jury Disregards Hint Of Bern's Murder

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10. (AP)—A juror's hint at the possibility of a verdict in the death of Paul Bern was ignored today by the Los Angeles grand jury, which today examined the case of the actor's death two years ago.

Funeral of the man whose death has created a sensation in south eastern Seminole County will be held at the Geneva Cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. Thompson, retired Baptist minister of Geneva, will officiate.

The widow will remain in the County Jail, Sheriff McCalland stated, until Tuesday morning when a hearing into the case is scheduled to be held. No inquest will be conducted, he added.

Marital difficulties have beset the Prevatts for some time, according to Sheriff McCalland. Both were married before, she to (Continued On Page 5)
