Needs For Mental Health Are Said Acute In State

Strolling In Sanford

The Seminole County Vocational School was honored this week by a visit from Miss Lucille Tietel, coordinator of the vocational business education department of the State Department of Education. Miss Tietel spent two days with the vocational school observing both day and evening classes. She also looked over the equipment and the books used in the school. Her comment was that the Seminole County Vocational School is doing an excellent job in providing commercial training for the people in Seminole County. The business course is offered both day and evening. Registration is always open.

WINTER PARK (Special)—Country drivers apparently are more dangerous than their city cousins, according to the Florida Farm Bureau in a recent check of the causes of accidents. The organization's research department learned that over twice as many traffic deaths occur on rural highways than on city streets. The department's search for facts also found that more Americans have been killed in traffic accidents since 1900 than in all U. S. wars combined since 1775, and that one out of every two children born this year will be injured or in an automobile sometime in his life.

Another of the highly successful "shrimpers" who are given by the civilian fire fighting crew of the Navy Auxiliary Air Station will be held tomorrow night at the Chief Petty Officers' Club. Both civilian and military personnel and townspeople are cordially invited to attend the festivities that will get under way at 7:30 p. m. Tickets will be on sale at the club and for a buck from any civilian fire fighter or chief petty officer, or at the NAAS main gate. A full dinner will be served and the shrimper he or she can eat and the trimmings. Money raised from the sale of tickets will go to benefit the underprivileged children at Christmas.

The wheels of progress ground a brilliant ball yesterday afternoon for the first game of the world's series. Most of the local merchants left off the pursuit of a buck and stayed aloof in their shops and TV sets. The police department spotted a TV set on a call and were respectfully received.

Today marked the last day for renewing driver's licenses for $1. A penalty of $1 goes into effect tomorrow.

A sizeable crowd attended family night last evening at the First Methodist Church, a feature of which was the showing of a film dealing with family worship.

The new sewer charge will go into effect tomorrow. First billing will be Oct. 1.

Starting tomorrow, there will be no charge for special pickups of garbage. Garbage must be piled right behind the front property line if there is no alley available or on the property line of an alley if one is present.

Judge Criticizes System Of Finance For Enforcing Law

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—A federal judge today criticized the state system of paying fees to law enforcement officers and the methods of handling certain moonshine liquor cases in state courts.

U. S. District Judge Duane Devane of Tallahassee said federal courts are getting "too many of those cases where the defendant is unable to pay a fine" in state court.

He made the remarks from the bench after refusing to impose a mandatory federal prison sentence on Joe Jack Tony, 23, of Glen St. Mary, who had been convicted by a federal court jury on a moonshine charge. He placed Tony on five years probation.

Tony originally was charged in Leon County Circuit Court following his arrest in July, 1953. The state case was dropped and subsequently federal liquor charges were brought against him last February.

Judge Devane later explained to reporters off the bench that he was not complaining about state officers turning over a liquor law offender to federal authorities immediately after arrest.

He said he opposed the state preferring charges first, then dropping the case and turning it over to federal courts.

Report Made By Committee On Conditions

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The governor's committee on mental health today reported Florida's needs in the field are "more acute than had been generally realized."

Acting Gov. John promptily commissioned the committee to draw up proposals for improving Florida's mental health situation and an estimate of costs for presentation to the 1955 Legislature.

The committee, organized in January, said its survey had shown a shortage of professional personnel in Florida to meet mental health needs but that the state has a great interest in the problem.

The state has untapped resources which could be used to improve the level of mental health, the committee said.

John concurred in the group's recommendations that a training and research council financed by state funds be set up to "encourage and coordinate research" and that studies "include all aspects of a mental health program—care of patients, treatment, prevention education, legal and administrative."

The group also urged that Florida join other Southern states in establishing a regional mental health training and research council to be supported by contributions from each of the participating states.

An annual mental health conference for Florida was recommended. The first of these already has been held.

Florida's mental health report along with those of 15 other Southern states will be presented to the Southern Governors' Conference to be held Nov. 11-13 at Boca Raton.

British Navy Rescues Boy Having Polio

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—Britain's Royal Navy rescued a helpless boy and a dog through the stormy Atlantic today and plucked a 4-year-old American boy stricken with polio from a U. S. troop transport bound for Germany.

The helicopter delivered an iron lung, needed urgently for little David Lee Oliver of Springfield, Ill., but had been blown away by the storm. The Atlantic winds made it impossible to hoist the boy by air from the ship, the 9,000-ton Gen. Maurice Rose.

Then the tug was ordered into action. It took the boy on a stretcher in a delicate transfer operation which required keeping the iron lung connected to an electricity supply without interruption.

The tug hurried through 60 miles of choppy seas to Southampton to deliver the boy, his 13-year-old sister Caroline Jean and their mother, Mrs. Dorothy Jean Oliver, 34, to a U. S. military ambulance. He was taken then to the Southampton General Hospital here in this port.

"I guess David is pretty good now," Mrs. Oliver said.

YKK Official Pledges Action For Segregation

WILLOWOOD (AP)—A Klan official said here his organization "is going to do its part to bring about segregation in our public schools."

William H. Druffel, YKK official, said he was going to use all honorable means at our command to bring about segregation in our public schools.

"Violence and cross burning are definitely out as far as the YKK is concerned," said W. H. Druffel, a Klan official.

He said that in addition to the Klan, he would like to see a group of Knights of the K. P. A Klan of Florida. He said the group has 100 members and is in Dallas in Florida.

Druffel said he has not received a letter demanding continued segregation which a Klan leader in Tampa said has drawn at least 100 signatures in Florida.

The Tampa Klansman is W. J. Griffin, who identified himself as grand dragon of the Assn. of the Florida Ku Klux Klan.

Druffel said he is a member of the YKK and that his petition "are all right issues, but they have continued segregation in our public schools."

at U. S. Judge John H. Druffel's refusal to act now on a request to enforce "segregation" in Hillsboro school.

In turning down a plea for an injunction, the judge said that any decision given at this time might be contrary to the pattern of integration to be decided on by the Supreme Court.

A reworking of residential lines in Hillsboro would only if Negro students to attend previously all-white schools brought about the NAACP drive.

In Delaware, Gov. J. Caleb Bangs sought ways to bring peace to troubled areas in the southern part of that state. Schools are being boycotted at Milford and nearby communities by white families who object to the integration of Negro students at the elementary school where 1,562 students attend classes.

Only 537 white students in a registration of 2,914 reported yesterday for classes here and in four surrounding communities.

Bangs today asked recommendations from his attorney general, state education officials and "many others" on what steps to take to reach a workable solution.

A leader in the fight against integration in Delaware is Bryan Smith of Arlington, Va., head of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People.

The dispute over segregation began in Delaware almost two weeks ago, and Bangs has taken an active part in it for the past week. He plans a meeting at which a call will be made to oust School Trustee H. C. Cobbs at Milford.

A. Duda Relected To Farmers' Post

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—President Andrew Duda Jr. of Oviedo and other officers of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Assn. were reelected at the annual convention here yesterday.

Other officers are Dixon Pearce, Miami, president, and J. C. David of Orlando, secretary.

Members of the executive committee include Rudolph Matton of Ft. Pierce.

PALMETTO (AP)—Funeral services will be held at Bradenton tomorrow for State Rep. Ben Fucus who died in a hospital yesterday.

Electronic Diagnostic Device Supplements X-Ray, Fluoroscope

A new ultrasonic photographing device, announced by the Veterans Administration today, may eventually complement X-ray and fluoroscope cannot do—that is, produce well defined pictures of cancer and other diseases of the body's internal soft organs and tissues. The VA said if the machine achieves this objective medical science will have taken another long step forward in the more accurate diagnosis of these diseases.

The sensitive machine was invented by Dr. Douglas H. Howry, former VA resident in radiology and now an instructor in radiology at the University of Colorado Medical School. He has christened the device the "Somascope."

Dr. Howry said the Somascope, in its present stage of development, can detect masses such as tumors, cysts and tumors in the body's internal organs which here before could not be visualized by X-ray and fluoroscope. In some cases Dr. Howry said, the Somascope helps distinguish between tumors which are dangerous or of no consequence to the patient's health.

While he expressed the hope that the Somascope ultimately may be used more extensively in the detection of early cancer, Dr. Howry cautioned that this accomplishment either may be achieved in the distant future or never. The Somascope combines the principles of sonar, radar and television.

Aspirants Address Jaycees

Today members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce heard speeches from the three candidates for the office of County Judge in the Oct. 5 primary.

The first to speak, Justice of the Peace W. Hugh Duncanson, told the Jaycees and the radio audience he was grateful for the vote he received as a candidate for the office of justice of the peace and asked to be raised one notch higher to the post of County Judge so he could better serve the people of the county and carry on the activities he said he had started as JP.

He said he was deeply mindful of the responsibility of the office, and if elected, would keep himself available at all times to better serve the citizens.

He promised he would keep the judge's office open during the noon hour, thereby making it more accessible to residents of the city and county. He stated he would locate his office and other business at convenient places easily available to residents. He would be ready at all times to better serve the citizens of the county.

The second speaker, Atty. Gen. Frederick Tietel, told the Jaycees he was proud to be a member of the Junior Chamber and challenged his opponents. He said he was born, raised and lived in Seminole County, and since 1951 has operated a law office in Sanford.

Among the qualifications, Frederick thought a judge should have a law degree and a track record of practice. Duncanson is the only candidate without such a degree. "When you are sick you call a doctor, or when you are disabled you call a mechanic," he said, stressing the need of a qualified attorney in the position.

Frederick has practiced in both Florida Supreme Court and the Federal District Court.

Directing his fire on his other opponent, Judge Ernest Houssholder, Frederick said Seminole County is in the embarrassing position of having a County Judge the father of the prosecuting attorney. He emphasized that he was in no way reflecting on the honesty and integrity of Judge Houssholder, but he was just pointing out the fact that he was in no way reflecting on the honesty and integrity of Judge Houssholder.

The third and final speaker, Justice of the Peace W. Hugh Duncanson, said he would give the audience a word about the duties of the post so they could better understand their own duties on the candidates.

He said that in addition to the duties of a judge, he would like to see a group of Knights of the K. P. A Klan of Florida. He said the group has 100 members and is in Dallas in Florida.

Druffel said he has not received a letter demanding continued segregation which a Klan leader in Tampa said has drawn at least 100 signatures in Florida.

The Tampa Klansman is W. J. Griffin, who identified himself as grand dragon of the Assn. of the Florida Ku Klux Klan.

Druffel said he is a member of the YKK and that his petition "are all right issues, but they have continued segregation in our public schools."

at U. S. Judge John H. Druffel's refusal to act now on a request to enforce "segregation" in Hillsboro school.

In turning down a plea for an injunction, the judge said that any decision given at this time might be contrary to the pattern of integration to be decided on by the Supreme Court.

A reworking of residential lines in Hillsboro would only if Negro students to attend previously all-white schools brought about the NAACP drive.

In Delaware, Gov. J. Caleb Bangs sought ways to bring peace to troubled areas in the southern part of that state. Schools are being boycotted at Milford and nearby communities by white families who object to the integration of Negro students at the elementary school where 1,562 students attend classes.

Only 537 white students in a registration of 2,914 reported yesterday for classes here and in four surrounding communities.

Bangs today asked recommendations from his attorney general, state education officials and "many others" on what steps to take to reach a workable solution.

A leader in the fight against integration in Delaware is Bryan Smith of Arlington, Va., head of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People.

The dispute over segregation began in Delaware almost two weeks ago, and Bangs has taken an active part in it for the past week. He plans a meeting at which a call will be made to oust School Trustee H. C. Cobbs at Milford.

Governor-Nominee Says No Mixing In Georgia Schools

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A move by a group of some Negroes to bring about an immediate end to public school segregation has been blocked by the ruling of a federal judge, while the governor of Delaware pushed ways to ease integration problems in that border state between the North and South.

In Georgia, Lt. Gov. Marvin Griffin accepted the formal Democratic nomination as governor with a renewal of his pledge that "during the time I am governor there will be no mixed schools of color."

Democratic nomination is the same as election in Georgia.

Griffin, speaking at Marion as called by the Supreme Court for the school segregation case, said he would not support a so-called "private" school system which grants of state funds to individuals in order to operate all state education.

Negro leaders said at Columbia today they planned to carry their fight to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary. The immediate situation in Ohio centers at Hillsboro to the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People is spearheading the fight.

John E. Francis, president of the Ohio conference of the NAACP branches, said he was "shocked."

Public Can Air Its 'Beefs' At State Safety Conference

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public have no better time place once a year to stand off on what they think is wrong with traffic enforcement in general or the way that traffic is required to operate in general on Florida highways than during the annual Florida Highway Safety Conference.

The group's sixth annual meeting will be held in St. Petersburg tomorrow and Saturday, and the public is not only invited but urged to attend the session and express its opinion while listening to the opinion of others, including experts on the matter.

Col. H. N. Kirkman, of the Department of Public Safety, today said that a blanket invitation is extended to all of Florida's citizens who have any suggestions on traffic law enforcement or other things they think will make our highways safer.

Many letters of suggestions such as some listed here, come to the department every day. The conference is a great opportunity for those who have suggestions to say their piece.

The annual meeting of Florida Highway Safety Conference and traffic groups, a group of all ages the opportunity to stand off about what they think is wrong with traffic safety," declared Col. Kirkman, who also commands the State Highway Dept.

"It doesn't matter whether they will be held on the highways, more traffic lights, more traffic workers, more maintenance, more enforcement, more education in all schools, or what not, they will have the opportunity to be heard and to have their own suggestions and suggestions of other people who make a study of such problems."

The conference is open to all and it will be in the town of St. Petersburg, Fla. It starts tomorrow morning and ends about noon on Saturday.

"You're invited," said Kirkman, "plan to attend!"

Bell-Union Talks In 4-Day Break

ATLANTA (AP)—Negotiations for a new contract covering 40,000 Southern Bell Telephone workers for Southern Bell Telephone Co. have been recessed until Monday.

Company officials and union spokesmen gave no reason for the four-day break. Negotiations were held yesterday afternoon.

Frank M. Malone, Southern Bell vice president, said the UO Communications Workers of America refused to accept the terms of a new contract. The only issue holding up a new contract is the one that expired at midnight Monday. He said that the union refused to accept a wage proposal of 10 to 12 percent increase over $2 a week.

Union officials withheld comment on the wage proposal. Donald B. Bond, chairman of the union's bargaining committee, said other issues besides the wage clause remained to be settled.

St. Johns Shipyard Sold For $352,000

FAIRFAXVILLE (AP)—Part of the old St. Johns Shipyard property here has been sold by a Wolcott family firm to E. J. St. John. It was reported here yesterday.

George H. Hodges, president of Bond Engineering and Contracting Co., said he and his wife and Alexander Bond also officers of the firm, bought the property to increase their riverfront holdings. There are no plans to develop it, he said.

The price was reported about $352,000.

Federal Aid Is Given Project On Overseas Citrus Shipping

LAKELAND (AP)—Uncle Sam wants to find out the best way to package and ship fresh oranges and grapefruit to Europe so they will arrive in good eating condition, and federal money is being made available for the necessary investigation.

Robert W. Rutledge, general manager of Florida Citrus Mutual, announced today he had been informed that a request by Mutual for a federal project along this line had been approved and trial shipments would start shortly.

Rutledge said he had been informed of the allocation of a substantial amount to this work by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The information came from J. R. Winston, Orlando, senior horticulturist of the quality maintenance and improvement section, agricultural marketing service, USDA, who said there also is a good possibility an even larger amount will be made available for continuing these studies during the 1955-56 season.

Trial shipments will start around Nov. 15 and will be made every two weeks as opportunities present themselves. Tests will cover

Plans Received For Enclosing City Storm Drain

CITY Manager Warren E. Knudsen today announced plans to enclose the storm drain on Third St. between Main and Duval Sts. from which it will drain into Lake Marion. At the Third St. end, the pipe will measure 36 inches.

This will get rid of one of the most unsightly conditions in the city," Knudsen said. The pipe will roughly follow the flow line of the stream, but be located underground, he added.

CHAPTER TWO
GRODNIK pulled his big feet...
"I should think you would..."
"I'm surprised, boy..."

"Can you come to a part of reception tonight, Carney?" Maxwell asked hesitantly. "Celebration. And you, too, captain..."
"I got into the act before Grodnik could answer. The old man said I had been friends for a long time before I'd ever met his daughter. I didn't give him a chance to say anything."

"We'll be there, boy," I said quickly. "Wouldn't it be a bit young to have you as time to find a present for the bride? What are you throwing the bouquet?"
"At the Bellevue, Carney," he said. "Private room, Room 2008."

"I read it all carefully, knowing Grodnik thought it was important. I could see no indication of date, nor of the passenger's name."
"You check on it?" I asked.
"It was sent last November by mail to a man named Holloway at the address where we found the Grodnik said. There hasn't been anyone living in that house since last summer, but it belonged to Stewart. He pointed at the strip of paper. "This Delta Line outfit is a freight company. They own one passenger boat. It's kept pretty busy in the summer, but the big profit comes when the boat makes a winter cruise from Cincinnati, Ohio, to New Orleans, getting down there in time for Mardi Gras. This strip of paper is a piece of the envelope used to send a ticket to a man named Holloway. He reserved a double stateroom for one passenger. But the people, a de luxe holiday crowd..."

1500 each. For one it's $700. This boat has just 10 de luxe berths. Mr. Holloway reserved number 8."

"Two hundred-dollar deposit sent by postal money order, bought by a man who said his name was Holloway, same address."
"Why aren't you chasing Holloway?"
"Police departments don't send men on vacation trips. Not when we can just as easily fly a man to Cincinnati and check the passenger before the boat leaves."

"But if he gets on at a later stop?"
"We'll probably send a man to New Orleans, too," Grodnik said.
"He could still get off earlier, couldn't he?"
Grodnik nodded. "That's what I told the boss. He read me a geography lesson. He could be right."
"What reason?"
"New Orleans," Grodnik said. "From there you can get any place. Mexico, South America, East Coast, Europe. It's a big seaport. And it's one of the ports that dope is smuggled through. That means a mob is operating there."

"You can't guess what he knows. This riverboat reservation was made three months or more ago. It's Stewart's name. I'm willing to bet he did, then he planned to snatch the dough and get clean away."
"But how do you know Stewart was at the door?"
"I sat rapped at my door, then the knob turned. Grodnik troveed significantly at the phlofin holder in my hand. I just had time to slip it into my shirt pocket when the door was opened and Penn Maxwell poked his sandy head around the edge."

"Meet the missus," Maxwell said with a proud bow, sweeping his arm widely toward the open door. The long, lovely, blonde girl moved eagerly forward, her expression vibrant with happiness. Something soft and furry and still smelling of the cold winter air touched lightly at my hand as she swept toward me with an excited clatter of heels, her arms spread.
"Oh, Carney!" she cried. "I wanted to tell you first of all—The words broke off in embarrassed silence when she saw Grodnik. "But I didn't know you—"
"I guess you didn't," Grodnik growled. "I just guess you didn't." Mrs. Tina Maxwell, formerly Jane Grodnik, snatched the old man's complaints with a quick, gay kiss.
"Now, don't scold. We were coming to tell you right after we saw Carney. But first we wanted—"

Judge Criticizes

In discussing his remarks with newsmen, the veteran jurist declared he had heard of state authorities threatening liquor case defendants with prosecution in federal court and possible federal prison terms if the defendants didn't go to trial in state court and pay a fine.
"Unfortunately, I think the Legislature of Florida has made it obligatory upon state officials to secure part of their necessary operating expenses through the fine and forfeiture fund and this makes it obligatory upon the law enforcement officers to bring into court criminal cases where fines may be imposed for that fund."

School Milk Prices Will Be Lowered

BALTIMORE (AP)—Parents picked an elementary school in south-east Baltimore today protesting the attendance of 12 Negro children in the kindergarten class.
By noon only 128 about 24 per cent of the youngsters enrolled at school No. 34 were in their classes.
Among them were four of the seven Negroes assigned to the morning kindergarten session.
There were 164 pupils on hand at No. 34 noon after classes started for the day but some parents went to the school during the morning and took their children home.
Some of the women picked told youngsters, "Don't go to school. There's no school today."
Women carried home-made signs reading:
"We want equal—but segregated schools."
Other signs read: "We want our rights! We voted for the school board—why this?"
It was the first such disturbance in Baltimore. Schools opened this fall on an integrated basis in accordance with a ruling by the city solicitor's office.

Hotel License Is Suspended By Commission

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—The state Hotel and Restaurant Commission has suspended the license of the 200-room Fleetwood Hotel, once a big-name showplace in this resort city.
Harold Kawan, southeastern supervisor for the hotel commission, said yesterday the suspension means the hotel must vacate its guests "as soon as possible."
Paul Gioia, the license holder, said he leased the Fleetwood last September from Harry and Manny Katz of Atlantic City, N. J., for $28,000 a year. He said the rent is paid through Dec. 1.

JOHN REQUESTS COURSE ATTENDANCE

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—Attorney Gen. John L. West asked Florida's 67 counties to send a representative each to a five-day civil defense training course to start at Miami May 15.
In letters to county commission chairmen, John requested the staff and equipment of the Federal Civilian Defense Staff College at Miami be brought to the course.

while facing an uphill battle to retain control of the House.
Nixon told newsmen at Albany, N.Y., yesterday he thinks GOP candidates are in the lead in contests for Senate seats in Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Massachusetts, Kansas, Nebraska and New Hampshire. Two seats are up in each of the latter two states. Nixon was not optimistic about Minnesota.

And his appraisal did not include Kentucky, generally regarded as one of the key states in the battle for Senate control. Former Vice President Alben W. Barkley spent there tonight his formal campaign to try to unseat GOP Sen. John Sherman Cooper.

Gov. Lawrence Wetherby and four former governors arranged to be on hand to plug for Barkley at a big party rally in Shelbyville, Ky., when he is expected to campaign calling for two or more speeches a day.

Most of the campaign oratory from national figures yesterday came from Republicans, with Nixon in Massachusetts and New York. GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall in Iowa and Sen. Everett Dirksen in Illinois in Massachusetts.

Nixon came in for renewed criticism from Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell of the Democratic National Committee, who accused him of playing a "dishonest game of politics to give a false impression."

A spokesman said Mitchell was standing behind his statement although it was disclosed that the Associated Press had misquoted Nixon in reporting the speech, which touched off this particular exchange with Mitchell.

The AP had quoted Nixon as saying in a Sept. 18 speech at Hunon, S. D., that the Eisenhower administration has "kicked the Communist out of government and put the Democrats, but by the thousands."

A playback yesterday of a recording of the speech made by a Huron radio station showed that Nixon had said: "We're kicking the Communist out of government and security risks out of the government, not by the hundreds but by the thousands."
It was on the basis of the AP account that Mitchell on Sunday accused Nixon of "an outright fabrication." Nixon said later Mitchell was "stealing from the lip before he wrote the story."
Mitchell's reply yesterday: "When Mr. Nixon congratulated Communist fellow travelers and security risks in one group, he is playing a full-on game of words. It is a false impression. It is as though a police chief boasted about capturing thousands of murderers, kidnapers and parking violators when his record shows one captured murderer, one captured kidnaper and 2,000 parking violators."
Nixon introduced at Albany by Murray Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, and that of the opposition wing counts 14 victories. Now, if the speech will be called by "left wing element" who publicly ran the Chicago convention and from whose ranks on the convention floor the Democrats make all necessary come."
Asked to name Democratic Senate candidates he would term "left wing," Nixon listed Richard L. Neuberger in Oregon and John Carroll in Colorado.

More Doctors For America

Critics of the medical profession who have been widely claiming an alleged shortage of doctors and a scarcity of teaching facilities will find no comfort in the latest annual report on medical education in the United States.

That report, by the American Medical Association, tells a heartening story of continued progress and expansion to produce an ever-increasing supply of well-trained physicians dedicated to the welfare of their patients. Among the highlights:

- (1) The number of doctors is at a record low ratio of one for every 730 persons, a proportion exceeded only by Israel, which has an abnormal number of refugee physicians.
- (2) The nation's medical schools have record total enrollments and graduating classes and the largest freshman class.
- (3) Ten new four-year medical schools are scheduled to begin operation within the next five to six years, and three more are under consideration.

The expansion bears out the opinion of many medical education experts that the big problem in the near future may be a shortage of teaching facilities.

Young people will be interested that only 21 per cent of the freshmen entering medical school last fall had "A" averages in their pre-medical studies, 69 per cent had "B" average and 10 per cent had "C" averages.

In other words, they don't have to be TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

JAMES MARLOW

Sorry, It's World Series Time

By ED CREAGH
(For James Marlow)
WASHINGTON (AP)—Memo to a man from Mars: Sorry we missed seeing you yesterday. Normally we'd have heard you tapping on the office door, even though your tentacles don't make as much noise as human knuckles. But the television set was going full blast, you see. None of us wanted to miss the World Series opener.

The World Series—maybe we'd better tell you about that, since you're down here studying human behavior. The World Series is well, call it a sort of nervous breakdown that we have at this time of year.

It's a serious ailment. It just about brings the United States to a standstill. People forget about politics, about world affairs. Nobody argues about Joe McCarthy. Joe McCarthy, we ought to explain, used to manage the New York Yankees. They took part in the World Series, too, in happier days. Fortunately, perhaps, this temporary insanity of ours doesn't last long. It usually runs its course in a week or less. Then everybody goes back to work, except sometimes the manager of the losing team.

The World Series is a contest, or series of contests, between two baseball teams. Baseball is a children's game played with a ball, a bat and a set of bases. The rules say there must be four bases although some teams, such as Pittsburgh, seldom need more than one or two.

This year the contest is between the New York Giants of the National League and the Cleveland Indians of the American League. The Giants are not especially big men and the Indians are not really Indians. For that matter the Polo Grounds, where the series opened, is not noted for Polo.

The Giants are managed by Leo Durocher, Laraine Day, Tallulah Bankhead and a New York restaurant keeper named Toots Shor. The Indians are managed by Al Lopez and about half the population of Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

Now the basis of baseball—and remember, there are four bases—is a contest between the pitcher, who throws the ball, and the batter, who try to hit it.

If the batter does hit the ball, he runs around the bases. Unless, that is, he is saving his strength for a television commercial after the game, in which case another player runs for him. The other player is known as a pinch-runner. We never have been able to figure out why.

If the batter does not hit the ball, he throws down his bat and glares at the umpire. Umpires are mostly old ball players with failing eyesight. Old umpires never die. They just lose their seeing eye dogs.

Ball players play ball because they love the sport, though sometimes for the sake of their families they accept token salaries. Some of these token salaries rank right along with the take home pay of the president of the United States. This is only fair. We haven't had a president since Theodore Roosevelt who could hit a ball out of the infield.

Besides riches, ball players aspire to two things: getting elected to the baseball hall of fame, and marrying Marilyn Monroe.

Baseball is the great American game, but during the season millions of Americans can take it or leave it alone. Come series time, though, everybody's a fan—and an expert. People who normally would as soon kiss their mother-in-law as shell out $2 for a ticket are packed right in there around the TV screen screaming.

Why? You tell us, man from Mars. We're a warm-hearted, clever, childlike people. But we never claimed that we made sense.

Way Down South In Sanford, Florida

By C. R. Dawson, BSA, MSA.
CATTLE — Citrus molasses and urea for cattle feed is proving successful but is still so new that most cattlemen know little or nothing about it, and research men are not ready to recommend it for all cattlemen. Much more experimentation must be done before cattlemen can be told just how to use it, and how to minimize the risk of improper feeding of urea. One operator in South Central Florida reports average gains of two and one half pounds per day for his feeder cattle of a feed cost of only 17 cents a pound.

By starting with blocky type feeder animals of at least commercial grade his average selling grade is high—good with quite a few choice animals. He sells on a dressed-grade basis to a Florida packer who does the hauling and is glad to pay him Chicago prices at the ranch. This nets him the equivalent of three to four cents more per pound for this high grade animal than he could get on the average at even the largest volume Florida auction markets.

TIMBER — Some tree crops are harvested about every 100 years.

GLORIOSA or climbing lily is one of our most popular and beautiful garden plants and is also one of the most poisonous plants grown in Florida.

A piece of the tuber of this lily only an inch long can kill an adult. The leaves and flowers are less toxic, but they still contain enough poison to make them dangerous.

IT ISN'T equality, equality with the right folks, that some persons prefer.

CUBA — This is no small island as we are accustomed to think. Base one tip of Cuba on Miami and swing it around a bit. The other tip will be way up in North Carolina some where, or if you point it north west—it will be in Tennessee. From tip to tip, Cuba is over 700 miles.

It's Up To You

By Howard E. K'ahner, L.H.H.
Yugoslavia has been under the domination of Communism for nine years. During this period the communist dictators have denounced God as a subversive power, and as a dangerous enemy to the state. Religion has been ridiculed and opposed and has existed under state pressure and severe restrictions. Children have been taught to believe only in the power of the state and that God was merely a myth in which ignorant old people had faith. Although the older people might quietly worship God it was supposed that the new generation would be devoid of religious tendencies. No communist state will tolerate any influence which might weaken its human substitutes for God.

It came as a great shock to the Soviet leaders to discover that in 1954 a census of Yugoslav people shows 84% believing in God. That percentage is probably as great as it was before communism began to denounce religion. It is probably as great as it is in many so-called Christian nations.

The Communist press blames the labor unions and the youth organizations for not doing a better job of eradicating religion from the minds of children and young people. These writers point out that youth is very susceptible to the subversive influence of religion, but they do not attempt to give any reason for this spiritual tendency.

In the face of this continuing, if not growing, faith in God, it is not surprising to find increased pressure against religious leaders and religious movements behind the iron curtain. Churchmen who have previously pledged allegiance to the communist plan have been found guilty of subversive activities and have been eliminated by death or imprisonment.

Nor is it strange that the scrap heaps of metal behind the iron curtain contain a large number of broken church bells. The rural elements of these suppressed nations have been so fearless as to celebrute a number of religious festivals, deserting the fields for the worship of God.

Pravda calls for a virile program to destroy this spiritual power which is threatening communist's political system with disrespect and loss of prestige.

Too many Americans take God for granted and worship when and as they see fit. We are far too casual and ungrateful for our privileges. It behooves us all to show a greater appreciation for our religious freedom lest the anti-religious forces attempt to belittle and undermine our worship and our loyalty to God.

Money Record Expected At Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The World Series starting today is expected to set money records.

If the tussle between the New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians goes to six or seven games, more dollars are expected to change hands than in any previous series.

The ball clubs and players won't be the only ones in on the bonanza. Because of midwest baseball fever, and because this year the contest isn't just a subway series confined to New York City, some businessmen are looking for a gold-ea harvest.

Even on the eve of the series, are retail store owners and stock brokers. Customers stay out of the stores during game hours and either visit the ball parks or take in the game on radio or television.

Trading on the stock exchange traditionally falls off to a trickle during the game period.

Railroads and airlines serving the two cities report reservations scarce. The New York Central is putting on extra cars to bring Ohio folk to Gotham.

Bars, restaurants, night clubs, beverage makers and hot dog vendors are looking for their biggest series. Pennants, caps and other souvenirs are likely to sell in usual quantities, because Midwest pride is expected to more than fill the vacuum when the Dodger fan-baseball's traditionally most exuberant group were pushed out of the series.

Two sets of businessmen who aren't likely to prosper. However, are retail store owners and stock brokers. Customers stay out of the stores during game hours and either visit the ball parks or take in the game on radio or television.

Trading on the stock exchange traditionally falls off to a trickle during the game period.

But others are expecting a gold-flow.

For one thing, more cash customers can crowd into the ball parks for this series than for any previous one. That means more visitors in New York and Cleveland spending their money for lodging, food, drink, and entertainment after game hours.

The Polo Grounds here is the largest park in the National League holding around 55,000. The Municipal Stadium in Cleveland is the largest ball park in the world, and can crowd 86,000 in to watch the Indians.

Cleveland thinks perhaps 40,000 from out of town will jam into the city for the series excitement and maybe leave a million dollars behind, beside what they spend for tickets. Cleveland itself will get a neat little sum in taxes on the tickets.

Gulfstream Gossip

GULFSTREAM PARK—Stabling applications for the Gulfstream Park winter meeting will not be accepted after Oct. 1, according to Racing Secretary Horace Wade. More than 3,000 horses already are seeking stalls at the seaside oval, and approved stables will be notified shortly after the turn of the month.

California three-year-olds, intrigued by Correlation's victory in last season's $100,000 Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park, will again try to win the 1955 renewal of the rich sophomore classic. One of the first West Coast stables to evidence interest is the Holiday Farm of Jack Malone which is shipping Fair Holiday for the race. The young son of Fair Trickle recently "broke his maiden" in a highly regarded prospect.

Mr. Good, from the extensive Martin McKinney stable, is coming back to the races, according to trainer A. W. Russell. The stakes-winning four-year-old, one of the best juveniles of his season, was sidelined with a bad leg while training for the 1954 Florida Derby, and has been resting ever since. Galloping soundly since Mr. Good is showing some of his old-time zip and promises to be an important addition to Gulfstream Park's thoroughbred colony. Trainer Russell will point him for the $50,000 Gulfstream Park Handicap as his main winter objective.

Gov. Browning, also of stakes calibre, is another good one in the making of 1955. He is expected to transfer to Florida following the close of the Kentucky meetings.

Mrs. E. Muckler's Heutel will head a string of eight hard-hitting thoroughbreds to be campaigned at Gulfstream Park during the 1954-55 winter racing season. It marks the first appearance of the Muckler stables at the seaside oval, where Heutel is expected to be a formidable factor in the division of all stakes monies. He is a four-time winner this year against some of the best route runners in the Midwest.

Grocers Buy Block Of Reserved Seats For FSU Tilt Oct. 9

TALLAHASSEE—The largest single-block ticket promotion in Florida State University's young football background will be in effect for the Seminoles' Oct. 9 home game with Villanova University.

Edith Gibson, athletic business manager, has announced that the Independent Grocers' Association of the Tallahassee area has purchased a block of 250 Villanova contest tickets for the FSU-Villanova contest.

Customers of five Tallahassee food markets which are IGA members will have an opportunity to buy one reserved seat (price $5) at half price for each purchase of $5 or more. A $10 order would entitle the shopper to two tickets at half price.

It's the first football ticket promotion of its kind in Tallahassee. Similar plans are being followed in Philadelphia, where chain stores have snapped up 170,000 tickets for Villanova's two home games in 100,000-seat Franklin Field.

Villanova meets Mississippi and Houston in its only home games this season.

The purchase of the 2,500 tickets by the independent grocers almost assures FSU of having its second largest turnout ever for the Villanova game. A Campbell Stadium record was set two weeks ago when 19,401 fans packed it for the Georgia-FSU opener.

In two games so far, FSU has drawn more than half of last year's record attendance of 52,813 for six home attractions.

Tallahassee grocers handling the FSU-Villanova tickets in the plan are: Willis Grocery No. 1, Hall's Market, Grow's Grocery, Willis Grocery No. 2, and Barineau's Super Market.

Indications are that the independent grocers may purchase other Florida State home games.

They are Dr. Howard Danford, director of athletics and physical education; Dr. William Tall, director of recreation curriculum, and Jack Harkin, associate professor of physical education.

Tall Quarterback Of Bears Bugaboo To Miami Mentor

Coach Andy Gustafson of the University of Miami often dreams of a six foot, three-inch quarterback who could throw forward pass like Arnold Tucker, and run like Tom Davis, but he has been coming up with quarterbacks with his own team who are at least a foot shorter.

This week, though, there is a six foot, three-inch quarterback in Andy's dreams, only the dreamer are more in the nature of nightmares, for the quarterback is one Bobby Jones, who is making the Baylor Bears click.

Bobby is a sophomore who is playing such brilliant football, he has pushed two senior quarterbacks into the background. Jones is six foot, three inches, weighing 190 pounds and in two games to date has thrown three touchdown passes and scored a couple on his own.

In his first game against Houston, Bobby was inserted when the issue was in doubt and promptly threw his first forward pass to gain 52 yards. On his first running play he scored a touchdown. On his second and third passing attempt, he scored touchdowns. He quartered his team to seven of his nine touchdowns.

Last week, with things going badly against Vanderbilt, fire ball Jones was called on—and three 66 yard TD passes which eventually proved to be the victory margin. He also handled the reins on another TD drive, which he scored personally.

Coach Gustafson is now prepping the Hurricanes for this Jones guy from Baylor hoping that they will be able to stop him Friday night in the Orange Bowl.

The Hurricanes also have worked hard this week on their own passing game because they know it will take more than a running attack to gain on the unbeaten bears.

The game Friday night has all the earmarks of developing into one of the wildest scoring games of the year.

Both Miami and Baylor are offensive minded. The bears, the ball game have racked up 28 points, which Miami, in its only clash to date and with the third and fourth teams playing most of the time, has scored 61 points.

Gustafson plans no lineup changes this week. He said today that Mario Bonfigli would start the game at quarterback if the Hurricanes go on the offensive at the start. Gordon Malloy and Ed Oliver will open at halfback, and big and powerful Don Hosteler at fullback.

The Miami line will have all-American candidate Frank McDonald and Tom Pepain at end. Allen Rodgers and Charles Hutchings at tackle, John Krotzer and Joe Knub at guard and Ernest Tobey at center.

The game Friday is expected to attract somewhere between 45 and 50,000 fans. Interest in the game has been running high all week with a leak advance sale.

Tampa 11 Leaves For Tilt Tomorrow

TAMPA—The University of Tampa football team left today for its game tomorrow night with the University of Chattanooga. Traveling by plane, the Tampanians a light workout in Chattanooga this afternoon.

Coach Marcelino Mesta is now in optimistic about Tampa's chances against the veteran Chattanooga regulars, and Pete Melech and halfback Fred Chicago, probably will see little action because of injuries.

Al Andrews Flattens Favorite, Upsets Plans Of Boxing Group

CHICAGO—Only minutes after young Al Andrews flattened Gil Turner, a 3-1 favorite, last night, telephones rangled in the Chicago Stadium office of the International Boxing Club.

Officials of the far-flung IBC were trying to get the monkey wrench out of their matchmaking machinery. They found themselves unable to speak with Andrews on their hands instead of Turner. Before the 23-year-old Superior, Wis., battler dispatched Turner with a steaming right to the chin 12 seconds after the bell of the third round, the IBC had Gil Turner scheduled at Syracuse Oct. 15. No tangle with the No. 1 welterweight contender, Ezzard Charles.

Gators Popular After Upset Win

GAINESVILLE—Just how popular Florida's Gators are this week after their tremendous upset win over Georgia Tech game in light in the University's football ticket office.

Not only are fans lining up by the hundreds at the ticket windows to purchase their way into the game, but also a number of tickets to remaining games are listed as stolen.

It's tough luck for the student elite, however. Athletic Business Manager Perry Board has issued duplicate tickets to the rightful owner, and only the duplicate will be honored at the game. Stolen from one fan at his home are the following numbered tickets.

Section B, row 17, seats 19, 20, 21 and 22; section 10 row 20, seats 1, 2, 3, and 4.
Section B—Jacksonville tickets: Aisle 5, row 34, seats 12, 13, 14 and 15.
Aisle 5, row 24, seats 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Another fan had stolen his four tickets to the Miami game. These were Section 4, row 1, seats 20, 21, 22 and 23.

Another failed to receive his through the mail. They are for all Gainesville games, section 9, row 61, seats 21, 22.

70,000 Expected At Western Tilt

LOS ANGELES—Maryland's feared football team arrives on the scene Thursday for its intersection at game with UCLA Friday night, and most of the coast conference observers look for a close contest—and a Maryland victory.

Seventy thousand or so fans are expected to witness this initial game between Maryland, the top-ranked team in the nation last year, and the local, defending champions of the coast conference.

The Trops were due in before dawn, with a workout scheduled later in the day in Memorial Coliseum.

Maryland was rated sixth in the Associated Press national poll this week, most likely because Coach Jim Tatum's team has played but one game, a 20-0 victory over Kentucky.

UCLA was tabbed in the fourth spot. Coach Red Sanders has seen the Bruins run over a weak San Diego Naval Training Center outfit and defeat Kansas, 32-7, last week.

Medalist, Champ Meet In Feature Of Golf Tourney

THOMASVILLE, Ga.—Medalist Tommie Coby and defending champion Edson Anderson III, field met today in the feature match of the second round of the women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Miss Coby of Hollywood, Fla., ousted Mrs. Harlan Riede, former Texas champion, in the first round yesterday 7 and 6. Mrs. Riede eliminated Mrs. Babs Thompson of Valdosta, Ga. 5 and 4.

Co-favorites Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville and Polly Riley of Fort Worth also scored non-adjacent successes in the opening round. Miss Faulk, who gets a worthy second-round foe in Mrs. Grace DeMoss Smith of Coral Gables, Fla., defeated Georgia State champion Frances Hiett of Birmingh, 7 and 5. Mrs. Smith had no trouble beating Mrs. H. W. Thornburg of Wyoming, 6 and 7.

Miss Riley, trying for her third Trans-Mississippi, downed Mrs. George Noble of Washington, D.C., 7 and 6. She was paired against Mrs. George Wilcox of Miami in the second round. Mrs. Wilcox eliminated Ruth Teak of Quincy, Ill., 5 and 4.

Other second-round matches pit Norma Shock of Morganston, N.C., against Greta Leone of Chicago; Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., against Mrs. Marjorie Lind Jay McMillen of Decatur, Ill.; Joyce Zwick of Waterford, Wis., against Mrs. Betty M. Ballmore, Mary Ann Villages, New York; and Joann Prentice, Birmingham, against Mary Crawford, Atlanta, Ga.

Other first-round results included: Shock beat Minnie Lee Ashley, Gardena, Ala. 5 and 3. Leone beat Mrs. Louise Maxwell of Chicago, 6 and 5. Burns beat Mrs. McCutcheon, Jasper, Ala. 4 and 3. McMillen beat Mrs. Pearson Mather, Southern Pines, N.C., 3 and 2 and the victory went to Mrs. Oliver, Valdosta, Ga., 7 and 6.

Decision Today On Detroit Chief

DETROIT—The Detroit chief's decision on Manager Fred Hutchinson comes up today at a meeting of the club's board of directors.

All advance signs indicated that it wasn't going to be easy to get, and that could mean that Hutchinson won't be around next season.

He has already let it be understood that unless he gets two years he might take either an offer from the Baltimore Orioles as a coach or a proposition from Seattle of the coast league as manager.

Walter O. Briggs Jr., president of the Tigers, said recently he was opposed to a 2-year contract for Hutchinson but that he would recommend a 1-year pact.

Woodruff Continues To Fret Over Limping Uoff Starters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain, a stranger to most of the South, curtailed Louisiana State football drills yesterday and chased Vanderbilt indoors.

Before the downpour LSU worked for an hour on pass offense and defense. Vanderbilt ran through dummy drills on offense, and Coach Art Guese said the rain didn't hurt the Commodores too much. He planned to polish his offense and defense today for the team's Southeastern Conference opener at Mobile Saturday night against Alabama.

At Mississippi Coach John Vaughn ruled out contact work as the Rebels tuned up for Villanova. The squad is in good condition, Vaughn said, and he wants to keep it that way.

Harold Easterswood, called by Mississippi State Coach Darrell Royal the "best center in college football," will not start against Arkansas State. Easterswood, who injured his leg last week in the Transverse game, will be replaced in the starting Mason line by Speights Duncan, a 178-pound junior.

The Tulane varsity, facing a tough scrap Saturday with North Carolina, scrimmaged until after dark. Tommy Warner, letterman, participated in his first football game, but was held out by a leg injury nearly a month ago.

Crooms Loses Opener, 6-0, To Melbourne

Crooms Academy last night dropped the first game of its football season to Melbourne, 6-0.

According to Crooms Coach Lewis A. Jones, the local team played within the 20 yard line of the Melbourne Vocational High School team most of the game, and were within the opponents' 10-yard stripe when the contest ended. The locals kept the ball about two-thirds of the time, he said.

Melbourne took advantage of a break in the game, Jones related, when a Crooms kicker flubbed on a punt, putting the ball down in Crooms territory. The opposing team scored on a run of about 40 yards, around the Crooms' left end.

The Crooms team played both a ground and aerial game, according to Jones, while the Melbourne eleven stuck to ground work mostly. Crooms was outwighed an average of 10 pounds to the man in the line, Jones said.

Crooms made 10 first downs while Melbourne made about five, he said. The local coaches were very much pleased with the game, Jones said, but there is "still a lot of polishing up to do" before the Haines City game here Oct. 8.

Last year, the Panthers beat Haines City about 34-0, Jones said, but the visitors are expected to be strong this year.

Melbourne lost only one game in the last two seasons, according to Jones. Crooms did not play the team last year.
