

Coach Trying To Perfect Team's Passing Attack

Colbert, Purdon And Waits Are End Men On Sanford Squad

By HENRY BLAUGHTER

Coach McLucas has been trying to get his pass attack started for several weeks, but this can be done only if he can develop his ends. The first part of the season Coach McLucas concentrated upon teaching his inexperienced ends to block and get under punts. Now that they have mastered that he is putting them through long pass drills. The coach sees that his only hope of even a fair season is to win the remainder of his games on passes.

The first string ends for Seminole High are Billy Colbert, 150 pound junior; Jack Purdon, 150 pound junior and Sam Waits, 160 pound freshman.

Billy Colbert came out for football for the first time this season and soon showed that he was a promising player. Coach McLucas has done well with Billy and has been repaid for his pains in the past few games when Colbert would break away the entire interference of the opposing team so one of his team mates could bring down the ball carrier for no gain, or on several occasions for a loss. Colbert is a good end and will show up better in the remaining games this season. He will be out again next year with a season of experience behind him, and it would not be much of a surprise if he is chosen as an All-conference player in his senior year.

Jack Purdon, a long 6-footer, will be with Colbert when the Seminole backs start pulling those long and short passes in the rest of the games. Purdon was used as a regular. He is a good defensive end, and there are not many ends in the conference who play as good a game on the offense. Jack is always used to run interference when the play comes his way, and it is seldom that he does not have the way cleared. Jack's height will be to his advantage when it is necessary for him to take a high pass over the head of some Orlando or Landon back.

Sam Waits has not seen as much service as the other ends, but those times he has been in the game he has shown that he is making a bid for a regular position even though he is only a freshman. Sam has the height and weight that will be required to take Orlando into camp when the Celery Feds meet them in Orlando on Armistice Day.

Angus Harriett a 145 pound junior, is used as a reserve end and has been in a few games. Angus seems to lack that pep that he should have, but he is fast and a good blocker. His weight is not much of a handicap, but it has kept him from making much of a showing this season. Angus was used as an utility player last season and it was thought that he would make a good player this season. He has another season to prove his worth, and it is hoped that he will show much improvement.

Stetson Eleven Is Looked After By 'Mom' Leary

DELAND, Nov. 5.—Mrs. Mary Leary, prominent DeLand club woman, is being hailed as beloved "mom" of the Stetson University football team.

A writer in The Stetson Reporter, university weekly newspaper, recalls that "Mom," as Mrs. Leary is known to her boys, has been looking after the physical needs of the university's outstanding athletes for ten years. As proprietor of a dining hall, she provides food for the half-backs and linemen — but this is not all. Whether it be a dose of castor oil or a button to be sewed on an old shirt, "Mom" Leary is always at the service of her boys and has won their undying love and gratitude.

For many years Mrs. Leary has been prominent in Parent-Teachers Association work of which she was state president in 1925. She is active in every good work in the Stetson-DeLand community. Her connection with educational institutions is hereditary since her ancestors include the founders of Dartmouth College and Yale University.

New Street Labels Figured On Being Help To Strangers

Names of streets and avenues are to be painted on the curbs at every intersection in the City of Sanford where there is a curb, Street Superintendent James Moughton announced today. Many complaints have been received from strangers in the City who were unable to find their way about, and it is hoped the new signs will be an aid to these newcomers to Sanford.

Four men are working on the street sign painting job and have completed the lettering on Sanford and French Avenues between First and Thirteenth Streets. The lettering will next be done on the other north-and-south avenues, and then on the east-and-west streets, Mr. Moughton said.

Eight Dead In Storm's Wake; Five In Miami

Hurricane Is Moving Out Through Gulf Of Mexico, Though Danger Is Not Past

Miami Sends Out Plea For Funds

Resort City Will Be Ready For Tourists Middle Of Month

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 6. (AP)—Leaving eight dead in its wake, the past season hurricane moved ominously through the Gulf of Mexico today, apparently in a broad recurve. Disturbed by the leisurely pace of the disturbance, Weather Bureau observers hung storm warnings along Florida's gulf coast from Cedar Key to Carrabelle.

At 9:30 A. M. the New Orleans Weather Bureau located the center of the dangerous winds about 275 miles southeast of Port Eads, Louisiana. Gordon E. Dunn, meteorologist at the Weather Bureau here, said the position was about 300 miles west northwest of Key West and 280 miles southwest of Tampa.

The retarded movement, Dunn said, might be indicative of a sharper curve that would endanger the western part of Florida. He said storm warnings were displayed principally as a caution to small fishing boats.

HURRICANE WRECKS MIAMI CITY YACHT BASIN

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 6.—A destructive, freakish, out-of-season hurricane, sweeping in on Miami from the northeast, did property damage set as high as $1,000,000 in Dade (Miami) county and directly or indirectly caused four deaths. Here is what the storm left of the Miami city yacht basin, headquarters for "the world's largest fishing fleet." (Associated Press Photo)

Sanford and Seminole County will be given further wide publicity through the facilities of the Seaboard Air Line Railway which has requested of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce any literature and pictures that would be of interest to organized parties on tours and would comply with requests from University libraries.

The request came from Paul J. Byrne, advertising agent of the Seaboard with headquarters in Norfolk, Va., and as much of the desired material the railroad wants that Acting Secretary Bagwell of the Chamber of Commerce was able to assemble, was mailed to him today in his letter to the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Byrne stated:

"We are almost continuously receiving requests for attractive photographs of your city and section, which are of far reaching interest."

Celery Prorate Is Voted In California

J. B. Cozburn, of the Standard Growers, has received a California newspaper in which it is reported that the Sacramento-San Joaquin celery growers, meeting in Stockton, Cal., on Oct. 23 voted in favor of the celery prorate. It was reported growers controlling 90 percent of the acreage in the district were in favor of the prorate set up last year under the California Prorate Act.

Last year celery shipments were prorated during part of the season and it was said prorate would be put into effect this year, when and if necessary. The celery shipping season in the Sacramento-San Joaquin delta district is just getting started and prospects are for a satisfactory season.

Vote Of Thanks To Senators On Canal Withheld

County Board Files Proposal It Praise Fletcher, Trammell

Seminole County Commissioners were not in a thankful mood yesterday afternoon when a letter from the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners was read, suggesting that the local body pass resolutions of thanks to U. S. Senators Duncan U. Fletcher and Park Trammell for their work in behalf of a long set of resolutions commending the senators in the Seminole County Commission, and the local board ordered both the letter and resolutions filed.

Another letter from another Board of County Commissioners was read, and also filed. It was from the Highland County Board asking this county to join in defraying the cost of hiring attorneys to defend the several counties in the railroad assessment protest.

Among other communications read at the afternoon session of the Board was one from Peter Schaal asking the Commission to endorse him for the position of secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, to succeed Karl Lehmann, resigned. The County Board took the action requested by Mr. Schaal.

Jacksonville Votes Bonds For Bridge

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 6.—If the financial arrangement can be worked out between Duval county, the State Road Department and a federal lending agency, a highway bridge will soon span the St. Johns River from the foot of Main Street to Gibson Street, on the Southside.

Duval county's voters went to their 51 election precinct polling places yesterday and by an overwhelming majority of almost six to one approved the bridge plan.

Talmadge Will Enter In Pennsy Primary

Busy Year Is Programmed By Young Farmers

Higher Marks Is Aim Of Local Chapter, Fathers Attending Banquet Are Told

Outlining a program of varied activity, climaxed by a proposed trip to the Yellowstone National Park, President Clifford Gustafson of Seminole Chapter of the Future Farmers of America told at last night's Fathers' and Sons' banquet of the organization and aims which the local chapter hopes to attain this school year.

It was the seventh annual banquet of the chapter, to which mothers as well as fathers were invited this time, and was attended by nearly every member of the chapter and by at least one of the parents of nearly every boy. The boys bought the articles of food served and the meal was prepared in the kitchen of the High School cafeteria where the dinner was served.

Seminole Chapter has eight main aims this year, Young Gustafson told the assembly. These aims are listed as follows: (1) Supervised practice program; (2) Co-operative activities including co-operative buying, butchering, curing and marketing of meat; (3) Community service, including soil testing for the farmers, home beautification and preparation of meat exhibits for the Orlando and Tampa fairs; (4) Leadership activities, including participation in school, district and state contests and the putting on of a George Washington program in the High School; (5) Earnings and savings, with an increase of 25 percent in the chapter's investment in farming and the establishment, by every member of a savings account; (6) Meetings every second week with an attendance of not less than 90 percent of the members; (7) A list of 5 percent in all school subjects by every member; (8) Recreation, including a fathers' and mothers' banquet, two parties, chapter fishing and camping trips, trips to the Tampa fair and the state convention of the F. F. A. boxing, basketball, swimming, half project tours, chapter play, half band and finally a trip by the chapter to the Yellowstone National Park.

Jerry Neibark, told of leadership activities achieved during 1934-35. John Jones recited some of the highlights of the year, and H. Thurston reported on the vacation, trip members of the chapter took to Washington, D. C., last summer.

The main speaker of the evening was O. P. Herndon, county clerk, who told the Future Farmers that "with the excellent instruction you are receiving and

District Judges Can Not Prohibit Papers From Reporting Case

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 6.—(AP)—The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals today ruled district judges do not have the authority to forbid publication by newspapers on testimony taken at a public criminal trial, and ordered six Houston newspapermen released from contempt charges.

The newspapermen were held in contempt by Judge W. S. Munson at Angleton after they refused to obey an order prohibiting publication of testimony in the trial of Clyde Thompson, life term, being tried for the murder of a fellow convict.

Seminole County Will Have An Exhibit At Central Florida Fair In Orlando

Seminole County will again exhibit at the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando, Feb. 18-23, and as in previous years will occupy the stage of the municipal auditorium, the outstanding display space at that great fair, it was decided at a meeting of the exhibit committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon over which Chairman A. G. Wagner of Chulueta presided.

County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Josephine Boydston, County Agent C. B. Dawson, and Chairman Wagner of the committee will be in direct charge of assembling and displaying the exhibit, which, according to all indications, will surpass any this county has ever made.

The Seminole Chapter Future Farmers of America under the direction of Alex R. Johnson will as usual furnish the meat display. This feature of the exhibit has always been a major attraction.

Substantial progress is being made in lining up materials, and the trade body's committee reports enthusiastic response from all sides.

Those attending the meeting yesterday afternoon included: J. A. Logan, Geneva; C. Hallett, Fern Park; A. G. Wagner, Chulueta; and H. M. Papworth, S. D. Highwayman and C. R. Dawson of Sanford.

Perry N. Whitehurst and W. R. Dupree were nominated in Tuesday's primary for the Sanford City Commission, to succeed H. J. Lehman and Vivian A. Speer, respectively. Mr. Whitehurst received a majority of 35 votes, and Mr. Dupree a majority of 46 votes.

As officially canvassed by the City Commission in special session today noon the vote was as follows:

One ballot was cast for Charles Steenwerth, the name being written on the ballot, and eight ballots were spoiled. A total vote of 607 was polled, Commissioner Speer, defeated in the primary, made the motion to approve the tally as recorded by officials of the primary.

The City election will be held on Dec. 3, and the men chosen then will serve terms of three years each.

Commissioner Speer and Commissioners Lehman have held their offices for seven years each, the latter declining to be a candidate for another term.

In a pre-election statement Mr. Whitehurst said he would devote his "very best judgment toward reaching a fair and honest adjustment" of the bonded indebtedness and declared for a "sane, efficient, economical" government of the City.

"This City has a number of difficult problems to solve," Mr. Whitehurst said in that statement, "which include our bonded indebtedness. Each will need most careful study and analysis, together with wholehearted co-operative effort on the part of the City Commissioners and taxpayers. In all of these matters I will devote my very best efforts." (Continued on Page Three)

Lady Alice, dressed in a pearl-shouldered satin, and the 35-year-old Duke was resplendent in the gold-embroidered blue tunic, scarlet breeches and black topped boots of the Tenth Hussars, were pronounced man and wife by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

With the plighting of this troth the Prince of Wales became the British royal family's only bachelor.

A Florida alumnus, Frank O. Spain accuses Dr. Tigert of being "un diplomatic." He isn't supposed to be a diplomat.

We suppose it will be safe to say that prosperity has returned when a man who borrows a 'pan-cake' from you actually returns it.

As the old copy books used to say, "The finest fish in the lake was generally caught in the deepest water."

Oh, well, these gangsters probably figure they'd rather be killed that way than be run over by an automobile.

Now if Gov. Sholtz would call out the National Guard to keep these freak Yankee hurricanes out of Florida, that would be a big help to the state.

Contact with experienced Great Britain may be of benefit in showing Italy how the problems of colonization should be approached.—Washington Evening Star.

The tax millage in Melbourne for the coming year has been set at 15-0.5 mills for debt service and 2.5 for operating expenses. Fortunately, Melbourne does not have the huge debt burden which Sanford has.

It may be of interest to Jim Out to know that our editorial with regard to him and Aretodous Floridamus of the Pleistocene period, was reprinted in the Palm Beach Post where they seem to appreciate the importance of titanic forces roaming this country 45 million years ago.

Gov. Sholtz says he is going to keep the jobless workers out of Florida, even if he has to use troops. And we always thought of Florida as a place where one could lie on his back and look up at the sky with never a thought of work.—Birmingham Age Herald. Too many people have thought of it that way. That's what's the trouble.

Election Results

Yesterday's election should be convincing proof to any fair-minded person that the majority of the people of Sanford are opposed to any arbitrary settlement of Sanford's indebtedness and would rather see the City's debt policy continue as it is than to attempt to force an immediate settlement by methods which might result in higher taxation and more difficult problems for the future.

The victory of Perry Whitehurst over Frank Miller seems to us conclusive proof that a program of "fighting the bondholders" is not relished by most taxpayers at this time. Mr. Whitehurst announced that he believes in a "sane, efficient, and economical" government, and approached the bond problem with a great deal of caution. On this subject he made no promises which he might find after investigation impossible to carry out.

The success of W. R. Dupree at the polls, it seems to us, was due more to his espousal of the Townsend pension plan than to his advocacy of strenuous measures against the bondholders. At least, he had the almost undivided support of the Townsend Club which plainly is becoming a powerful factor in both national and local politics. His promise to reduce the light rates, and to give home owners the full benefit of tax exemption must have produced a strong appeal to these groups.

At the same time the heavy vote polled by Mr. Miller, though it was not enough to carry him into office, indicates beyond all question of doubt a growing restlessness among a rather large group under present day conditions and an increasing dissatisfaction with the failure thus far to complete a satisfactory settlement of the City's bond problem. This attitude on the part of so many of our people cannot well be ignored and we hope to see the Bondholders' Protective Committee taking such cognizance of it as may result very shortly in a more satisfactory arrangement.

In the defeat of Vivian Speer the City loses the services of one of its most valuable officials. We believe it can reasonably be said that no one was more conversant with the facts and figures pertaining to Sanford's indebtedness and its fiscal affairs, or had a more thorough grasp of the City's bond problems. He has been a good citizen, and like a good citizen has made his contribution to the handling of City affairs. The burden is not a pleasant one, but it constitutes a duty which the right sort of person will not shirk.

Now that his time is up, we salute him; and to him, as well as the other defeated candidates, we suggest that it is really they who have won.

The Will Rogers Memorial

In other columns of today's Herald is to be found a coupon in which local citizens are requested to register their contributions to the Will Rogers Memorial Fund and send them to the Sanford Atlantic National Bank which will forward them to national headquarters. All over the United States special requests are being made this week that the public give some thought to this movement for the establishment of a truly fitting memorial to the memory of the great humorist.

"While there is no greater memorial than a people's love and admiration such as Will Rogers had," says the Birmingham Age Herald, "it is altogether fitting that a memorial to him should take tangible shape. It is not sufficient that the kindly wisdom of Will Rogers remain in the memory of those now living. That wisdom, that essential common sense, that gentle wit which so characterize, we hope, the American people must find perpetuation in an enduring memorial.

"That memorial must come from all people. Will Rogers would have it so. For he loved all people. He was of the people. He said things that the people felt but had not been able to say. There was no class for Will Rogers, no divisions of society. Beneath starched shirts and overalls he found a common heart. And it is from this common heart that the national memorial should come.

"What nature that memorial will take, the nation does not yet know. It depends in part upon the size of the response. But we have the word of Vice President Garner, national chairman of the Will Rogers Memorial Commission, that the memorial will not be a monument of cold stone but will be something in keeping with the character and life of the actor-humorist. Maybe it will be a college, maybe a series of scholarships, maybe peace awards, maybe recognition of some sort for vital contributions to American progress. We can trust John Garner, however, to see that the memorial is appropriate."

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

A delightfully informal affair for the week was the "hobo party" sponsored by Mrs. E. E. Hester on Monday night at the home of Mrs. Evans at Lake Mary. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Frank Evans of Chelsea, Mass. Among the pleasures enjoyed was a marshmallow roast. The jolly crowd reports a gay time. The party included Mrs. Hester, Miss Clara Phillips, Miss Combs, Miss Hunt, and Messrs. Kenneth Murrell, Harry Phillips and Mr. Hutson.

For Miss Gwendolyn Le Massena, who has been the recipient of many charming social attentions during her visit to Mrs. R. D. Doss, Miss Laura Fish entertained with an evening party last Friday that was one of the most enjoyable of the season's small affairs. Enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Fish were: Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Doss, Miss Le Massena, Sadie Williams, Florence Frank, Charlotte Lloyd, and E. M. Galloway, R. M. Lloyd, and A. E. Yovell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Garrison and four children are the guests of Mrs. Ed. Biggers. The two families will make Sanford their future home, having bought the Wythe place at Fort Reed.

A small but very jolly crowd of young people enjoyed a Halloween dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Pearson in Paola last Saturday night. Dancing was the feature of the evening and as the weather was cool, the floor good, and the Victrola in an amiable mood, was much enjoyed.

G. W. Hardman has purchased the Roberts meat market and will move the same to the Co-operative Store on Park Avenue where he will operate a first class meat market.

Wallace Defends Control Program In Radio Address

Food Price Rise Not Entirely Due To It Secretary Declares

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace last night pleaded with consumers and farmers not to blame all high food prices on the crop control program.

Discussing "processing taxes—real and imaginary" over the National Broadcasting System, he sharply criticized what he described as current misstatements concerning food prices.

"One of the most amazing things about the public attitude toward the farm program in general and the processing taxes in particular, Wallace said, "is the extent to which that attitude is not based on facts. I mean simple facts, not complex ones; facts which must be admitted, whether you favor, oppose, or are indifferent to the program."

Wallace said complaints came from city residents against the processing tax on beef but he pointed out that there has never been a processing tax on beef. Other complaints, he said, have been that AAA caused high prices for potatoes, veal, lamb and chicken. He pointed out that there had never been a control program for any of these foods and that the new potato program was not yet in effect.

"The complaint about the price of potatoes is difficult to understand," Wallace said. "With potato growers getting around 60 cents a bushel as they have for two years now, the price to the farmer is the lowest in many years. Compare it, for instance, with $1.31 a bushel in 1929 or $1.60 in 1925."

Wallace said farmers now are doing their best to increase the hog supply and the effect will be felt during the next year or two.

But to prevent "undue harm" to hog farmers and consumers

Monthly Reports Of Officials Are Filed

Monthly reports of various County officials were read at yesterday's meeting of the Board of County Commissioners and ordered filed.

County Tax Collector Jno. D. Jenkins reported the county received a dividend of $230.19 from the liquidator of the Seminole County Bank on funds the County had on deposit in that institution at the time it failed several years ago.

County Superintendent of Schools T. W. Lawton reported that during the month of October the schools received $9,542.99 and expended $25,533.33. Because there was a balance in the school treasury at the beginning of the month the schools on Oct. 31 had a balance of $70,655.03.

Dr. S. Pustean, county physician, and Dr. W. T. Langley, assistant county physician, reported that during the month they performed 20 major operations and six minor operations, gave 89 office treatments and made over 100 calls to patients in the jail, hospital and county home.

Mrs. Esther Ridge, executive secretary of the Seminole County Welfare Board, reported receipts from City and County of $275 and expenditures of $246.12.

Report of the Seminole County Home shows there were 26 white and 21 colored inmates there last month. The cost to the County was $451.97, but the farm offset this some by producing 310 gallons of milk, 93 pounds of butter and 26 dozen eggs.

'Sky's The Limit' At One Exclusive School For Girls

PAINESVILLE, O., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Add flying to the curriculum of a girls' college and you have the latest thrill in the education of Miss 1935.

It's the newest course at Lake Erie college here and already has attracted more than 30 students and several members of the faculty.

Whether Lake Erie is the first woman's college to offer such a course is not known, but it is a fact that none is more popular.

Before beginning the course every student is required to present written permission from her parents. After that "the sky is the limit."

First on the program is a thorough study of ground-work—fundamentals of flying and instruction on weather conditions. This is followed by lectures by pilots and demonstrations of parachute jumping.

The actual flying is the climax. Every student has two hours in the air sharing the controls with the instructor, Philip A. Meinks, operator of a flying service in nearby Willoughby.

At present, Miss Suzanne Grubb of Columbus, O., now ready for her third hour in the air, is one of the advanced students. From the faculty are Miss Rheta B. Edmundson of Newport, R. I., and Miss Dorothy R. Corcoran of Painesville.

The pretty coed flyers hail from all sections of the country with the city of Cleveland leading with nine enrolled in the classes.

Mild and yet they Satisfy
 —how do you do that?

Well, to start with, we take tobacco from our own Southland—mild ripe tobacco with lots of natural flavor but no harshness or bitterness.

THEN AS A SECOND STEP—
 We blend this home-grown tobacco with spicy, aromatic Turkish tobaccos from across the seas. These Turkish tobaccos, you may know, have a flavor and fragrance entirely different from our own.

AS A THIRD STEP—
 These tobaccos are cross-blended—welded together—the best way we've found to get a more pleasing flavor and a better taste in a cigarette.

THAT'S WHY CHESTERFIELDS ARE MILD AND YET THEY SATISFY

In a single day people from ten different states visited our Chesterfield factory. 8,200 visited during the past year and Chesterfields made.

"The farmer may feel a little depressed now, but we all know that the future of the nation depends on the farmer," he declared. "Unfortunately we have been living in a period of expansion and the result has been that many farms have been abandoned, and that is responsible for our being in this fix now. But rest assured you are participating in the most noble of professions, that you represent the finest sort of vocation."
J. F. Bazeman, manager of the Callean Nitrate of Soda educational bureau in Orlando, presented President Gustavson with a check for $25 because the chapter won the first prize in the state, and complimented the group on the progress being made and on being "so exceedingly fortunate in having as instructor a man like Alex Johnson."

Mr. Dupree, the other successful nominee, in a statement issued before the primary came out for some readjustment of the bond situation, and suggested holding some old "town meetings" for a discussion between the commissioners and the public of what had best be done. It is believed, however, that Mr. Dupree's advocacy of the Townsend pension plan was a potent factor in his receiving a majority of the votes. He is a member of the Townsend Club and members of that organization campaigned for him.
Mr. Dupree also declared for strict adherence to the letter of the Homestead Exemption Act and decided proposals to extract from owners of homesteads taxes for the support of the municipal government.

for assistance. The mayor said he did not know where the city, its budget already sadly unbalanced, would get $150,000 he estimated was needed to finance emergency repairs on broken water mains, destroyed docks, damaged streets and the like.
City officials conferred during the day with J. P. Newell, secretary to Gov. Dave Sholtz; Adj. Gen. Vivian Collins, State Health Officer Henry Hansen; FERA Administrator Conrad Van Hyning, and Congressman Mark Wilcox.
B. R. Kessler, executive secretary of the chamber of commerce, said "the city will be ready for the opening of the season Nov. 15." There was no expression of fear the hurricane would keep winter visitors away.
Utility service was largely restored, although some telephone exchanges continued isolated and long distance service to the north was impossible.
The Florida Light and Power Company promised restoration of feeder lines to all sections of the city late in the afternoon, with resumption of street car service scheduled before night-fall. Bus schedules were returning to normal and railroad and air lines were on regular operation. Food supplies are plentiful and water service has been restored throughout the city.

Both Parties Take Comfort In Elections

G. O. P. Victories In New York And New Jersey; Democrats Win In Kentucky

No Comment Is Made By F. D. R.

President Gratified Over Vote Given Social Security

Republican and Democratic party leaders continued today to place emphasis on interpretations on Tuesday's off-year election.

Republicans, contending results were a "rebuff" to the New Deal, stressed victories in the New York and New Jersey Assembly elections and in the Philadelphia mayoralty contest. Hoping these claims, Democrats pointed in turn to Kentucky where A. B. Chandler, Democratic candidate for governor, was elected in almost a landslide.

James A. Farley, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, predicted President Roosevelt would carry Kentucky next year by a vote of 100,000. He said thousands of votes of Democratic gains in Philadelphia are representative of the state-wide picture, Chairman Henry F. Fischer, of the Republican National Committee, said the "hoop doggers" are on their way out.

President Has No Comment HYDE PARK, Nov. 7. (AP)—

Retracted by a week's stay at home, President Roosevelt turned back to the White House today with an expression over the large vote in Kentucky for the State Building Act for the new Federal Social Security program about to go into operation.

The Kentucky Democrats' victory brought the same news from Mr. Roosevelt that was his quiet observation of the state and national elections this week. He has kept this rule for years.

Need Of Sanatorium Found By Committee Of Commercial Body

The committee's report being based on a compilation of these suggestions.

The special committee is composed of H. B. Rose of Sanford, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Conroy of Oviedo, and H. F. Barnes of Altamonte Springs. These three spent several hours in the Chamber of Commerce building Thursday morning over the various suggestions from the membership.

Loan Will Be Made To Keep Schools Open

Board Is To Borrow $30,000 At Bank; May Shorten Term By Month Or Two

Sufficient funds are on hand to operate the public schools of the county through the month of November, but it will be necessary to borrow money for the schools next month, members of the County School Board concluded at yesterday's meeting. Arrangements will be made to borrow needed funds at the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, Superintendent T. W. Lawton reported.

Mr. Lawton said that it may be necessary to borrow as much as $30,000 for the school in December, but the board will borrow only $15,000 until it is determined the amount necessary to carry through to the Christmas holidays. There will be two pay days in December, as usual, and none in January. When February rolls around the automobile license tax money will be coming in and it is therefore figured there should be sufficient funds for the school this month.

The board concluded it would have to make a loan when all voted yesterday of the unexpected low allocation of state funds—$61, as reported in yesterday's Herald, instead of the hoped for $18,000.

Both County Superintendent of Schools Lawton and Chairman Fred T. Williams of the County School Board expressed the fear that it may be necessary to shorten the contemplated nine-month school term by a month or two, but they also voiced the hope that both the high school and the elementary schools throughout the county can be kept open the entire nine months.

The school term in both high and elementary grades is to be the same length this year.

Business Will Halt Here On Armistice Day

Mercantile, Other Establishments And Public Offices To Close For Holiday

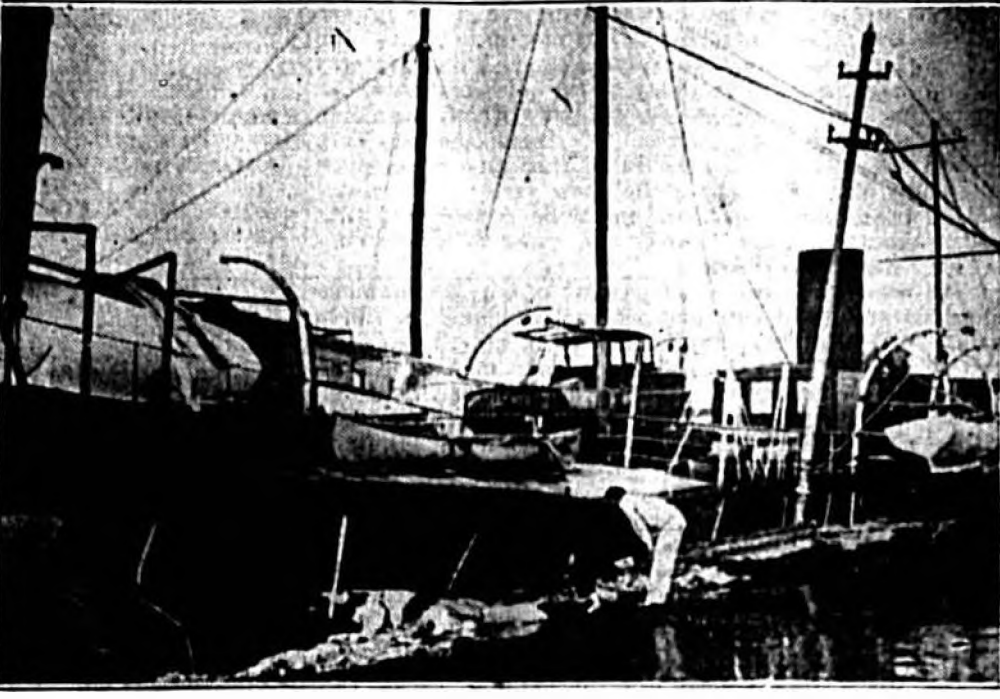

Armistice Day next Monday is to be a holiday in Sanford, even though there will be no celebration in this City, as the schools, County and City officers and nearly all business establishments will be closed for the entire day. While celebrations have been planned in a number of nearby towns, it is expected that most of the Seminole County celebrators will go to Orlando as General Hugh Johnson, former NRA administrator, is to speak there.

Johnson's address is scheduled for 11:30 A. M., following a parade at 10 A. M. in which the ancient locomotive of the Sanford Post of the American Legion will be entered. There is to be a football game between Rollins College and the Alabama Teachers College at 2:30 P. M., a drum corps competing in Exposition Park at 7 P. M., a dance in the evening, and other events on the holiday.

According to L. F. Boyle, commander of the local Post of the American Legion, all mercantile establishments in Sanford will close all day on Armistice Day with the exception of the drug stores. Six of the seven drug stores signed to close, but as the seventh declined to suspend business for the day, Mr. Boyle said he would not ask the other six to close.

An American Legion committee, composed of L. F. Boyle, George Weinstock, Frank G. Gattbell and H. H. Pope circulated a petition among business men of the City and obtained signatures of 12 proprietors or managers of 12 establishments to close all day on Armistice Day.

H. M. Papworth Tells Why Seminole County Didn't Send Delegate To Canal Meeting

Listening To Ocala Lawyers Talk Would Have Been "Waste Of Time," Declares President Of Chamber Of Commerce

No delegate was sent from Seminole County to the canal meeting in Orlando for the reason that the Chamber of Commerce in Orlando informed the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce that lawyers from Ocala, and not engineers on the canal project, would be the speakers. President H. M. Papworth of the local commercial organization explained today. He said that, on the presumption that the lawyers would have no technical knowledge and therefore would not be able to answer questions, he did not consider it necessary to waste our members' time on a trip to Orlando.

Sholtz Will Talk To Collins About Patrol On Border

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 7. (AP)—Gov. Ives Sholtz plans to confer with Attorney General Vivian B. Collins on Wednesday, Saturday, about establishing a supplementary National coast patrol along the Florida border, to keep out jobless transients, it was stated today.

The patrol, if established, will work with the traffic division of the State Road Department, which already has jurisdiction on the principal highways, leading into the state.

Governor Sholtz said every effort would be made to keep jobless transients out of the state.

The federal government has announced its present transient program will be ended on Dec. 1, but by that time federal officials have said they expected the WPA program and other employment projects to take up the slack.

Governor Sholtz recently was quoted as saying that 1,000 persons now in federal transient camps might have to be taken to the state line and turned loose if the federal government did not provide means to care for them. Later, he said he was confident the federal government would provide some means to care for these, and that therefore they would not be transported to some other state in wholesale numbers.

Utilities Damage Estimated $1,000,000. MAMI, Nov. 7.—(AP)—George C. Estill, president of the Florida Power and Light Company, said the minimum estimate of damage to the company's property by the hurricane of Monday is $750,000, and probably will exceed $1,000,000.

A. H. Doody, district manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, said more than 11,000 phones were affected by the storm and damage would likely reach $150,000.

The repair costs to the municipal system, the commission informed the Miami City Commission by resolution, would be "prohibitive."

Fund To Pay For Transporting Cannon Being Raised By Popular Subscription

Expressing the belief that for their own memorial and for the service men should not pay for their own memorial, a fund for the transportation of a cannon from Aberdeen, Md., to Sanford, Md., has been started today by the mayor of Longwood, assisted by the solicitation of funds to pay the expense of transporting a piece of heavy artillery from Aberdeen, Md., to Sanford, Md.
