Sanford To Seek Funds For Seniors Center

Sanford wants to build a senior citizens center.

Anticipating the need for increased services for seniors as the northern end of Seminole County grows, the Sanford City Commission intends to request funds from the federal government to build a senior citizens center.

The commission agreed this week to file a letter requesting the money after hearing about the need for a center from three representatives of senior citizens groups.

Polly Stevens, of the state Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services' Area Agency on Aging, said senior citizens facilities in the southern end of the county are being strained because they also provide services for seniors in the north end.

'You can die of loneliness as fast as you can from starvation.'

There are about 35,000 people over age 60 in Seminole County, according to Sally Dykes, of the Federation of Senior Citizens Clubs of Seminole County. She said seniors in the northern end of the county receive 50 percent of the county's services to the elderly. That should warrant the area having its own building, she said.

In addition to being a base of operations for services, the center would also provide a place for seniors to congregate and socialize.

She said presently her group provides food for north area seniors through its Meals on Wheels and congregate meal programs. Meals are distributed at St. Paul's Church, 813 Pine St. and the Knights of Columbus building at 2504 S. Oak Ave., Sanford. She said the center could centralize the meals programs.

Valerie Barber, director of the Casselberry Senior Center, said a center in Sanford would mean seniors would no longer have to find transportation to the

Star Of Sanford To Move

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Plagued with lawsuits seeking a court-ordered eviction by Monroe Harbour Inc. and efforts by the city of Sanford to stop its operations there, the Star of Sanford cruise ship got permission Wednesday to move to the Port of Sanford on May 1.

Meanwhile, the ship is still operating from Monroe Harbour.

The Seminole County Port Authority board of directors voted Wednesday to grant 90-days temporary docking privileges to the Star of Sanford, contingent upon Star Lines Corp. posting a $250,000 bond or insurance policy guaranteeing payment if facilities at the port are damaged. The temporary docking privileges are also contingent upon port attorney William Hutchison's approval.

Only director David Lanier, a certified public accountant, voted against the proposal, saying he has confidential information on the fight between Monroe Harbour and Star Lines Corp. that he could not reveal.

In the meantime, Sanford filed suit in court Friday seeking a preliminary injunction against Star Lines to halt the cruise ship's operations, alleging the ship has damaged the dock at Monroe Harbour and may have damaged the bulkhead.

Circuit Judge Robert McGregor denied the temporary injunction. City Attorney Bill Colbert said. He said another suit will be filed at a later date seeking a permanent injunction.

The city is involved because it leases the city-owned harbor to Charles Volk of Monroe Harbour Inc. which in turn sub-leases facilities to Star Line Inc., Colbert said.

Acting City Manager Jim Jernigan said the city filed suit after the ship apparently undercut the public ramps at the harbor by the propulsion of its motors.

And Don Howard, an operator of the harbor, said although the harbor was dredged 18 months ago, the force of the ship's engines has created holes five to 10 feet deep, making it dangerous for the public ramps to be used. They have been closed down until they can be repaired, he said. The ship's engines have also damaged the sea wall, Howard said.

Volk is at a marina conference in the Tampa area and could not be reached for comment today.

A legal feud has been going on between Volk and Star Lines Corp. since January with a suit and counter-suit filed in the court over Monroe Harbour's attempt to evict the ship.

Howard said Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. has been assigned to hear the suits.

According to court records, Monroe Harbour is suing Star

Lines Corp. for eviction, saying the cruise lines' lease expired on Dec. 31, 1984. Star Lines has been paying a lease fee of $1,000 and Monroe Harbour is now asking for double rent.

Star Lines has counter-sued saying the firm believed from conversations with Volk and others that its lease agreement extended through 1985.

Star Lines says in the suit it has spent advertising money and improved the property. The counter-suit also accuses Monroe Harbour Inc. of conspiring with American River Cruises Inc. to take over the cruise operations when the Star of Sanford is evicted.

Monroe Harbour Inc. denies all the accusations and says no conspiracy exists.

Star Lines Inc. is also being sued by Potomkin Chevrolet of Philadelphia, demanding payment of $230,000, alleging an

GNP Reveals Sharp Economic Slowdown

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In an abrupt slowdown for the economy, the nation's gross national product grew just 1.3 percent in the January-March quarter, the slowest advance since the end of the 1982 recession, the government said Thursday.

Higher trade deficits and a massive Internal Revenue Service delay in returning income tax refunds were the major factors cutting economic expansion from its 4.3 percent rate in the fourth quarter of last year.

Sustained growth of about 4 percent is considered necessary to keep unemployment from getting worse.

The Commerce Department report also showed inflation, as measured by the "implicit price deflator," jumped to a 5.3 percent rate compared to 2.8 percent at the end of last year.

The low GNP reading, coming at the start of the year, makes it virtually impossible for succeeding quarters to make up the difference enough to reach the White House forecast for 1985 of 3.9 percent economic progress.

The weakness was far more pronounced than any leading forecaster expected, even after most had resigned themselves to accepting the accuracy of a preliminary "flash" estimate of a 2.1 percent GNP increase at an annual rate, adjusted for inflation.

The report arrives at a crucial time of uncertainty about the future of the American economy that extends far beyond Wall Street to foreign exchange traders world wide.

The actual amount by which delays reduced refunds was about $6.8 billion, the department's Bureau of Economic Analysis said.

But the report did not — and department analysts said could not — answer the new question how much of the slowdown was due to fundamental problems like trade deficits and weaker demand and how much to the temporary dislocation of spendable income

Gorbachev Makes Western-Style TV Appearance

MOSCOW (UPI) — To the surprise of many Russians, Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev was featured on national television visiting a worker's home, school, hospital and factory in a display of Western-style showmanship.

The television shots Wednesday showed Gorbachev in animated and informal discussions with young and old during his visits Tuesday and Wednesday.

He appeared more like a Western politician visiting his electoral district than a traditional Soviet leader who is usually shown only in formal official settings.

It was the first time in the memory of several Soviets questioned about the television shots that a leader had been shown visiting an ordinary home and neighborhood and discussing everyday problems with people.

Gorbachev told workers at a Zil car factory that he was following the approach of the founder of the Soviet state, Vladimir Lenin, who said a leader should "constantly take counsel with the workers."

Turner Files Documents In CBS Takeover Try

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cable television entrepreneur Ted Turner today made a bid to take over the CBS television network by filing papers to buy 67 percent of CBS stock for $2.9 billion in a complicated exchange offer.

Papers filed with the four government agencies in Washington said Turner would provide the public with "more high quality, innovative programming than CBS currently provides through its broadcast outlets."

The Turner Broadcasting System wants to acquire 21 million shares of CBS common stock at a price of what analysts said amounted to about $150 per share.

CBS has vowed to fight the takeover and today released a statement saying, "The unusual number and complexity of Turner's proposed securities make it difficult for CBS to comment at this time. Once we have evaluated the materials, CBS will inform its shareholders of the merits of Turner's proposal."

CBS stock opened today on the New York Stock Exchange at $118 a share, up 8 1/2%.

Documents filed with the FCC said the TBS intends to buy the CBS stock through an exchange of debt securities and stocks for a 67 percent stake in CBS. The maximum offering price was listed at $2,980,369,046.

John S. Reidy, analyst at Drexel, Burnham and Lambert in New York, said, "We haven't finished evaluating the Turner offer but it looks like it is worth more than $150 per share."

Reidy said, however, he does not expect Turner to succeed in his bid for CBS because the broadcasting giant will seek out a "more favorable deal" such as a friendly merger with another company.

Legal Wrangling Persists In Kelly Abscam Case

By Donna Estes
Herald Staff Writer

Federal Prosecutor Roger Adelman says he will file responses in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia this week to former Congressman Richard Kelly's demand that charges against him be dismissed or a new trial held.

It's little more than five years ago that Kelly was the only Republican among seven members of the House of Representatives and one member of the U.S. Senate caught up in the FBI Abscam sting operation. The operation involved FBI undercover agents, disguised as representatives of wealthy Arabs willing to buy influence, offering bribes to public officials.

Videotapes of Kelly stuffing into his pockets $25,000 in cash given him by the disguised FBI men were shown nationally on television and in federal court as evidence against him. The $25,000 was supposed to be the down payment on a $125,000 fee to introduce legislation granting an Arab immigrant status.

Kelly called the charge "ridiculous," and said he would have and had introduced similar legislation for his constituents at no fee. Kelly, more than five years since the alleged bribery, is one of the few if any remaining defendants in the Abscam affair who have not served time in jail.

Kelly in early February 1980 said that he took the money as part of his own investigation of "shady characters."

He turned the exact bills he had received from the undercover agents into the FBI. Some $174 was missing, Kelly said then he had spent part of the money because he felt he might have been watched by the characters who gave it to him

Although he is seeking a new trial he has been through two trials already. In the first trial the federal Judge, William B. Bryant, threw the case out of court, blasting the FBI for conducting an "unwholesome spectacle of manufactured crime and virtue-testing."

The dismissal, however, was overturned by an appeals court.

After a second trial Bryant found Kelly guilty and sentenced him on Jan. 12, 1984 to "not less than six months nor more than 18 months" in prison and three years

Four Men Charged In Drug Deal Outside Of Sanford Bar

Four men face possession of cocaine charges after police nabbed them at a Sanford bar on Wednesday. Three who were caught together in a car outside the bar have been released on $8,000 bond each and the fourth arrested inside the bar was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

Sanford police reported watching at about 3:20 p.m. as an informant reportedly bought cocaine from one of the suspects, who then joined two passengers in his car parked at the Silver Tip Tavern, 1509 W. 13th St. Police approached the car and the driver reportedly threw an envelope containing cocaine, 15 foil-wrapped packets, out a window of the car.

The three were arrested and police reported finding one $20 bill on each of the passengers, which police said the informant had used to pay for cocaine. Nine more foil packets of cocaine were also found in the pocket of a pair of jeans on the backseat of the car, a police report said.

The driver, Richard Edward Jones, 24, of 80 Seminole Gardens, Sanford, was arrested along with Ernest Anderson, 33, of Osteen, and Donald Ray Hooks, 25, of 1003 W. Ninth St., Sanford.

Following those arrests police entered the bar and arrested the fourth suspect after they reportedly found a stash of cocaine in a restroom in an area where police had seen the suspect standing, the report said. Virgel D. Braxton, 32, of 146 Bethune Circle, Sanford, was arrested at 4:25 p.m. Wednesday. He remained in jail today.

TRASHER NABBED
One of two men who reportedly ran when a Sanford policeman spotted them dumping trash on Yale Drive in Sanford was nabbed near the scene and charged with littering and resisting arrest without violence.

Police said the officer was responding to a complaint call about illegal dumpers when he saw the two men who ran. Chased and captured around noon Tuesday was Frank Lee Wheeler, 35, of 1811 W. 15th St., Sanford. He was later freed on $500 bond.

GIRL ASSAULTED
A 28-year-old Oviedo woman reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies that her 11-year-old daughter has been fondled on several occasions by a 41-year-old Oviedo man. The latest assault occurred on Sunday and the girl reported it and the other assaults to her mother. A sheriff's report said the molestations occurred at the girl's home. Lawmen are investigating the allegations. An arrest has not been made in the case.

CHURCH SLEEPER
A man who had reportedly been hanging around a Fern Park church for a few days and sleeping there has been charged with burglary. The man, who has no listed address, was being held in the Seminole County jail today in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Sheriff's deputies were called to the Salem Baptist Church on U.S. Highway 17-92 to look for the man on Tuesday. A suspect was located near the church and deputies told him to leave the area, a sheriff's report said.

After the man left, deputies questioned the church's pastor and another churchman who said the suspect had been hanging around the church and apparently sleeping there. A window of the church had been forced open and a chair damaged that the suspect had apparently stepped on while climbing in the window, the report said.

A member of the church had reportedly found the man inside the church at about 9 a.m. Sunday and ran him off, the report said.

A bulletin was issued for the man deputies had shooed away from the church and Gregory

Joseph Brown, 22, was arrested in the woods behind Lake Seminole Circle, Altamonte Springs, about 1:30 p.m.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS
A thief took three stereo speakers with a combined value of $600 from a shed behind the home of Charles Bagley, 30, of 2400 Randall St., Sanford, the shed was burglarized on Feb. 1 or 2 and a report was not filed with deputies until Tuesday.

Three $100 bills were stolen Monday from Hubert Tilson's home at 1006 E. 20th St., Sanford, a police report said. The thief entered the home through the front door and took one of the bills from 14-year-old Henry Tilson's bedroom. The person then stole two other $100 bills from Hubert's bedroom, the report said.

A typewriter, stereo and two men's suits valued together at about $1,325 were stolen from a doctor's office at 330 N. Mangoussine Ave., Sanford, a police report said.

Dr. Kenneth Wing, the owner of the building, reported to Sanford police someone broke a window on the south side of the building between Friday and Monday and stole the items.

Mary C. Daley, 65, of 383 Hacienda Village, Winter Springs, reported to deputies that three golf clubs with a combined value of $180 were stolen from her car Tuesday while it was parked at either the

Students Get Some Extra Help In Finding Jobs

Going out into the marketplace and finding a job is a natural part of growing up for most students. But for those who have handicaps or are academically or financially disadvantaged, the task can be a frustrating one.

A new joint program by the Seminole County school district and the Private Industry Council aims to change that by teaching students the skills necessary to land a job and keep it.

The Seminole County Job Training Placement Project is just a few weeks old, but already it has achieved success by helping students gain jobs they might not have gotten otherwise, according to program coordinator Willie King.

Eddie Tossie, Director of Vocational Education for Seminole schools, said the idea for the project was formulated with the Private Industry Council, which is a joint partner in the endeavor.

Each high school in the county is targeting students for the program who are economically disadvantaged, are potential dropouts, or who may be losing interest in school.

King, who is a member of the Private Industry Council, said the program will help students get jobs that will provide them training, money and hopefully a reason to remain in school and resist the urge to drop out.

The project helps evaluate students and direct them towards careers for which they could be qualified. As an example, a student who might want to be a basketball player could find out that he has a greater aptitude for the communications field.

After identifying the field students want to enter, they are given job skills training which can be applied to any job situation and includes tips on how to get a job. King said students go through mock job interviews where firm handshakes and eye contact are emphasized to prepare them for actual interviews.

The next phase of the program is finding a part-time job for the students after school. As an incentive, at the end of 135 hours (the minimum employment period to which the employer must agree) employers are reimbursed $225 by the School Board, which is 50 percent of salary paid the students. The funds for reimbursing the employers comes from a federal Job Partnership Training Assistance Act grant.

In the final part of the program, follow-up visits are made by cooperative education teachers from the students' schools whenever possible. In addition to making sure the students get class credits for their on-the-job training, the teachers will provide additional guidance and supervision to help the students keep their jobs.

"The program is a real asset to the vocational education department of Seminole County," Tossie said.

One of the students who would probably agree is Shirley Crowley. The Lake Mary High School student is a member of the job placement program and was hired by the Sanford branch of the Seminole-Brevard Public Defender's office recently. As part of her duties she helps gather information for the various criminal cases handled by office attorneys.

"I think (the program) is going to work out well in the office," said Public Defender J.R. Russo. He said part of the reason Shirley was hired was "I noticed she wanted to be an executive secretary and you need to start somewhere."

Russo said students in the job placement program are ideal for some jobs his office has which offer only a few hours of employment a week.

Although it was not much of a factor in his decision to hire Shirley, Russo said he thought the financial compensation of employers would be a benefit for students seeking employment through the program.

Russo added that the program was important for students because it gives them "actual confidence. Once you've done what you have only read about in class, you gain confidence."

King said that once students who have worked in the program graduate high school, it is hoped that they will be able to move on to bigger and better things and use the skills they have learned.

For more information on how to hire a student in the job placement program, contact King at 322-3388.

leader in the discus (156-0). Seminole's Anthony Hall (50-7 1/2) is the only other shot putter over 50 while the closest to Sylvester in the disc is the Tribe's Chuck Thomas (136-4).

Parks had an impressive day at the Volusia County meet as he won five events including the 100 and 220 dashes, high jump, triple jump, long jump. Parks is the leader in the high jump as he cleared 6-8 earlier in the year. Lyman's Ralph Philpott is second at 6-4 followed by Brantley's Rich Gehr, Lake Mary's Chris Jackson and Apopka's Keith Hardwick at 6-2.

Seminole junior Leo Peterson leads in both the triple jump and long jump with teammate Alvin Jones second in both.

Coach Ken Brauman's Seminoles also lead in all three relays with nobody close in the mile relay or mile medley. Apopka is close in the 440 relay at 42.9 compared to the Tribe's 42.0.

Louis Brown's return should help us in the mile relay," said Brauman. "Ken Temple will remain in it because of Campbell's injury. Ken has done a real good job of filling in."

Except for a few top-notch individuals, it isn't a strong year for Volusia County in girls track. Seabreeze's Kim Burton, a transfer from Daytona Beach Father Lopez High, is the top individual out of Volusia. Burton is the state's and nation's leader in the 330 low hurdles (44.7) and the conference leader in the long jump (17-11). She is also second in the 110 high hurdles at 15.1.

The battle in the hurdles between Burton and Lake Howell's Rochelle Spearman should be one of the highlights of the meet. Spearman leads in the 110 highs at 14.7 and is second in the 330 lows at 45.7.

Lake Mary's Fran Gordon and Seminole's Katrina Walker, both seniors, should battle it out again in the 220 and 440 dashes. Gordon won the 440 in the county meet while Walker took the 220. Gordon is also among the leaders in the 100 along with Seminole's Sheila Crawford and Apopka's Valerie Cockfield.

Lake Howell is the strongest in the distance events as sophomore Lisa Samocki leads the way in both the mile and two mile. Samocki set a school record last Friday with a career best 5:10.8 in the mile. Following Samocki in the mile are Seminole's Shownda Martin (5:13.7) and Lake Howell's Amy Ertel (5:21.1).

In the two mile, Samocki comes in with a top time of 11:29 followed by Ertel (11:45). Lyman's Tracy Fisher (11:52.1) and Lake Mary's Jill Buddenhagen (11:52.9).

Seminole's Martin has been untouchable in the 880 run the past few weeks. Her top time of 2:13.5 is the best in the conference and ranks fifth in the nation. Martin also has the top time in the 440 at 57.5 but the freshman flash didn't run in that event at county.

In the relays, Seminole leads in both the 440 (50.8) and mile relay (3:50) while Lake Howell leads in the mile medley (4:22.8). The Lady Hawks are also close in the 440 relay (50.9) as Lake Mary (51.3), Seminole (4:23) and Lake Mary (4:25.9) rank behind Lake Howell in the mile medley. Seminole is practically unbeatable in the mile relay.

Lake Brantley's leading performers are in the field events. Debbie Lovelace leads in the discus (119-10) and Taleena Smith leads in the high jump (5-9). Smith, after missing several meets, returned for the county meet but no height.

Lake Howell has two of the most consistent high jumpers around in Kim Hammontrout and Cheryl Brinkley. Both have cleared 5.2 this season and are always around or over the 5-0 mark. Seminole's Catherine "Kitty" Anderson has also gone over at 5-0 while the Tribe's Glenda Bass and Lyman's Kim Forsyth have cleared 4-10.

Behind Lovelace in the discus is Lake Mary's Annette Whack, who won the county meet. Deland's Brenda Kauffman and Lake Howell's Mary Kay Scott. Kauffman leads in the shot put followed by Seminole's Adrian Smith.

Rich Brail in a three-set battle. Brail upset the top seed Tuesday but Jones's clay court type consistency put back many of Brail's apparent winners which made the difference.

Peter Palus of Brantley and Jason Marshall of Lyman were the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds as in the conference tournament where Palus destroyed the No. 3 player to take the title. Again they battled, and again Palus came through the victor.

The last Patriot in the finals, was the No. 4 Craig Bourne who had a quick match against Deland's Mike Cohen. The win kept Bourne's undefeated year intact. Bill Kercher of Lyman knocked off David Unser of Boone to match his conference results taking the title.

In the No. 1 doubles, Lake Howell's Kevin Chase and John Nelson, who upset top-seeded Mance and Brail in a three set semifinal Tuesday, couldn't do the same Wednesday against Jason Marshall of Lyman and Dan Baird. The Bucs' duo walked over the Chase-Nelson team in an easy 6-2, 6-2 step and a trip to the state tournament.

In the No. 2 doubles, Whigham and Renaud outbattled Winter Park's Carpenter and Calhoun in a long 6-3, 6-4 match for the championship.

The team winners (Lake Brantley and Lake Howell) will go to Gainesville to join seven other schools in the High School State Tennis Tournament next Monday through Wednesday. Along with the teams, the individual No. 1 singles and doubles players also go.

Coach and Barts are unsure of what they will find but both are still hoping for good showings. "This is the first time they've played at this level [except for Mance]," said Coach.

Catherine Enriquez summed up the team's feelings. "We're looking forward to it," she said. "I don't know how everybody else. They won their district to get there so it should be tough."

Andrews mottored all the way to third. Overstreet came back to struck out Cecil "Bubba" Millikan for the first out. After Brian King fouled off an attempted squeeze bunt, Overstreet uncorked a wild pitch to score Andrews for a 3-0 lead.

Lyman pushed across a run against starter Keith Usrey in the fourth and pulled even with two more in the fifth against Usrey who was pitching with a broken jaw.

After Usrey threw one pitch to Mike Henley, Apopka coach Sonny Wise brought in Oxley, a right-hander, to face the right-handed Henley. Henley proceeded to walk on a 3-2 pitch and Wise went back to Usrey to face lefties Livernols and Alegre.

Livernols followed with a soft roller down the first baseline. As Oxley was approaching the ball, it hit first base and skipped into right field for a single to score Brubaker. Henley went to third, Usrey, though, handed Alegre on a pop up to third for the third out.

Baseball

Tim Smith drove in two runs and hurled a four-hitter as the Lake Brantley Patriots subdued Bishop Moore, 5-1, in nonconference prep baseball Wednesday night at Lake Brantley High School.

Lake Brantley, 16-13, concludes its regular season Friday night at home against Trinity Prep. The Patriots play Apopka in the first round of the district tournament Tuesday at DeLand.

Smith, a junior left-hander, allowed just four hits, struck out four and walked five. Smith improved to 3-4 for the season. The Patriots took a 1-0 lead against Mike Pistalla in the second inning when Kevin Bass drilled a single up the middle and stole second. Brad Dunn walked and Smith drew another free pass to lead

Mom Feels Grandparents Have Failed In Their Duty

DEAR ABBY: My problem? I feel slighted because neither of my parents nor my husband's have ever offered to watch our children so we could get away for an evening or a weekend. In the four years that "Gary" and I have been parents, my folks have taken our kids for a grand total of two hours! And Gary's parents have had them overnight five times.

Dear Abby

grown children with the same dilemma. What's the answer?

DAUGHTER WITH A DILEMMA

Both sets of parents live an hour away, and all four grandparents are healthy, able to drive, semiretired and fairly well-to-do.

I realize our parents don't owe us anything, but when our friends tell us how often their parents ask to keep their grandkids (sometimes four and five days at a time), I resent the fact that Gary and I get help from our parents once in a blue moon — and then only when we ask for it.

NONAMES, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAMES: You're right, your parents owe you nothing. But since they respond when asked for their help, count your blessings, and don't push the issue.

DEAR ABBY: My parents will be married 40 years next month. It has been a rough marriage for our mother because all through their marriage, Dad was a tyrant who ruled with an iron fist. The only reason Mom stayed with him was because of us kids. The last five years Dad's health has been failing, and Mom has practically been his nurse.

Now comes their anniversary, and we kids want to give them a party, but Mom says, "What's to celebrate? It would be hypocritical at best, and a farce at best."

Even an anniversary card that says "Many more happy years" would be a mockery when there have been very few happy moments in their marriage, let alone years.

I suppose there are other time and thought my life was over. Suicide even crossed my mind, but I couldn't do that to my children.

You advised me to get into therapy, even though I said I couldn't afford counseling. You said, "You can't afford not to have it, call your local mental health facility — you'll be charged only what you can afford to pay."

Well, I went for counseling, and it really turned my life around. Now I realize that my husband did me a big favor when he left me because I met and married a loving, caring man whom my "ex" couldn't compare to.

Sometimes when it seems like the end of the world, it's really only the beginning.

BEEN THERE

DEAR BEEN THERE: Thanks. I needed that I recommend "counseling" so frequently, many readers think it's a cop-out on my part. It's not. Sometimes it's a lifesaver.

At 12, Skinny Gymnast May Be Normal For Age

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — Help! I am extremely thin. All my friends tell me I look like a skeleton. I am 12 years old, am 4 feet 11 and weigh 80 pounds. I exercise and practice gymnastics daily. I constantly eat but don't gain a pound! How could I gain some weight?

DEAR READER: You are probably burning up more calories than you are taking in. You might gain weight if you supplemented your regular three meals with a protein drink like Carnation Instant Breakfast. I doubt that you have reached your full growth potential, so you'll undoubtedly fill out more in the years to come.

However, I think you ought to check with your physician so that he or she can make sure you don't have a deficiency or a metabolic disorder. For example, an overactive thyroid gland frequently causes weight loss, even in the face of increased appetite.

Weight control in pre-adolescents is sometimes frustrating because young people are physically active at the same time that calories are being used for growth, muscle and bone development. Conversely, some pre-teens tend to be chubby; their hormones have not yet instructed their bodies to grow taller and gain muscle bulk.

Much 12-year-old thinness will take care of itself. Your doctor can best advise you whether to follow a weight-gain diet — or be patient.

DEAR DR. GOTT — What can a wife do to save a marriage, help her husband, and save her own sanity during her husband's mid-life crisis? Our family doctor said he needs help. My husband is a few weeks away from being 50. Each year since 1981 he has been getting worse. He's had a total personality change, argues over anything, is sarcastic and selfish. None of these qualities were present before. He was soft-spoken, considerate and sweet. Perfect man! I want to help him get through this. How can I help?

DEAR READER: The causes of the so-called mid-life crisis are varied and complicated. I'm not sure you are going to provide much help for your husband without the intervention of a professional counselor, psychologist or psychiatrist. In essence, he is not going to change until he recognizes that he is "out of synch" with himself — and takes action. I wonder if your vision of him as a "perfect man" may be placing intolerable burdens on him. He may need your "permission" to be human — that is, flawed and imperfect. I believe that you could help him most by helping yourself. Interpersonal problems are rarely one-sided. If you independently seek counseling to take care of yourself, you may discover useful ways to manage the difficult home situation. Send your questions to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, Ohio 44101.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Laurie Hyder of Colorado Springs is a fine bridge player. She is also an expert player, as demonstrated by today's deal. In the modern style, North's two-club cue-bid showed both majors, but not necessarily a powerful hand. When Laurie came in with three spades over three clubs, North was happy to carry on to four.

There is a large element of risk in the play at four spades. Because communication problems abound, declarer cannot really afford three rounds of trumps, the only way to get to her hand to take a heart finesse. Laurie solved the problem. Assuming that West held both the heart king and the spade queen for the opening bid, Laurie simply discarded a low diamond from dummy on the opening lead of the ace of clubs. There was now no way to prevent Laurie from making an overtrick.

Had Laurie carelessly ruffed the club ace at trick one, she still might have made her contract by playing the ace and queen of hearts immediately. But playing the ace and king of spades and then coming to the jack to take a heart finesse would have led to disaster.

By the time the hearts had become good, there would have been no way for her to get to dummy to use them.
